Fight Over Tax Breaks Out Again

Bitter Fight Looms In Final Week of Special Session

AUSTIN, Oct. 8. (AP)—The economy fight broke out anew in the house today as the legislature embarked on the final week of the special session.

Representative Walter Jones, Jourdanton, urged quick adoption of his resolution requesting Governor Allred to open the subject of slashing state expenditures.

The attorney general had expressed the opinion that unless the governor changed his special session call the house could not consider the departmental reduction bill passed by the senate. Speaker Robert Calvert said privately that his present intention was to hold that economy proposals were not within call.

Every Ounce of This Baby a Thoroughbred

Carrying out the "family tree" in a novel announcement, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Waddell mailed to friends here the news of the birth of a baby boy October 12. He was named William Franklin Waddell and weighed 8 pounds and 14 ounces. He was born at a Wichita Falls hospital.

Mrs. Waddell, whose initials "A. W." are appended to her book reviews in The Reporter-Telegram and other daily newspapers, made a pen and ink drawing of a horse, with a baby swinging from the saddle horn, taking the place of the conventional stork. Inside the folder was a diagram of four generations of the baby's family, giving name of father and mother of each member back to and including his eight great-grand-parents.

The family tree was drawn up in the same style used for pedigreed horses or cattle, of which Mr. Waddell is a prominent breeder.

Speculation Rife Over What Landon Will Speak About

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13 (AP)—Alf Landon's announcement of a radio speech tomorrow night at 8:30 aroused speculation today.

First—Will the republican leader comment directly on President Roosevelt's talk of last Tuesday outlining a special program for the special session of congress?

Second—Will he discuss republican preparations for the 1938 campaign?

Landon's announcement, brief and without explanatory comment, said: "As the republican standard bearer in the 1936 campaign, I desire to call a nation-wide mass meeting over the radio at 8:30 to 9 o'clock C. S. T. over the NBC blue network Tuesday, Oct. 19.

"I wish to discuss with you certain questions of the day."

Slayer of Couple Returned Home By Officers of Maine

SOUTH PARIS, Me., Oct. 13 (AP)—Back-tracking by air the gruesome trail police say he took with two death-silenced passengers, slim, 18-year-old Paul Dwyer returned Sunday to this little town to face charges of murdering his elderly benefactors, Dr. and Mrs. James G. Littlefield.

Red-eyed after a sleepless night and hours of questioning, the youth stumbled from a chartered plane which brought him to Portland from North Arlington, N. J., where police found him asleep at the wheel of an automobile in which the bodies of this town's physician and his wife were secreted.

He stood silent at the side of the plane as a crowd milled around the airport. His wrists were unmanacled, but he was closely guarded.

Police said they would ask him to re-enact the slaying.

Police Chief George Shippee said the youth sobbed out details of slaying Dr. Littlefield, 67, and his wife, Lydia, 65, and of stuffing their bodies into the physician's car and driving through New England and New York to New Jersey.

The confession ended, the police head said, with Dwyer blurring out: "I didn't mean to do it. I just lost my temper, then I got scared. I'm glad it's all over."

Opposition to Tax Plan Recorded by WTSTC Students

AMARILLO, Oct. 13 (AP)—More than 500 ex-students and friends of West Texas State College of Canyon Sunday voted unanimous opposition to the recent movement, sponsored in Austin by Senator Clint Small of Amarillo to cut the appropriations for the teachers colleges of Texas as set by the last regular session of the legislature.

R. A. Stuart, Fort Worth lawyer and chairman of the board of regents for the teachers' colleges of Texas, heartily endorsed the resolution, saying: "If the people of Texas allow this movement to be passed we will be saying that we do not believe in a college education or the sanctity of contracts."

Stuart called attention to Gov. Allred's San Antonio speech which emphasized the need of more money to aid the needy and destitute.

"It is important," Stuart said, "that Texas take care of her needy and destitute, but it is more necessary that they keep the educational institutions from becoming destitute."

The resolution called the movement "unwise, unjust, unnecessary and destructive."

Operators are preparing to re-treat today. Before acidizing, the well flowed 22 barrels per hour on a two-hour tubing test. The 2-inch tubing is set at 4,272, 17 feet off bottom. Forty gallons of jelly seal were pumped in through tubing before acid was run, to prevent acid from working through to the water horizon. The well had previously been shot with 180 quarts from 4-110 to 4,283. Location is 440 feet out of the northeast corner of section 1, block 45, township 1 south T. & P. survey.

Location of the test is 2,200 feet from the north and west lines of section 20, block 54, township 2, T. & P. survey.

It was announced here today that Richmond Drilling Company of Big Spring had been awarded contract to drill the Carpenter & Grierson No. 1 Mrs. Bennie Barnes, north-eastern Loving county Delaware test. Contract depth is 4,500 feet, production or water in the Delaware. The new wildcat has been staked 330 feet from the south and 2,310 feet from the west line of section 22, block C-25, public school land.

Magnolia No. 1-A McKee, northern Pecos Ordovician test, is drilling line at 3,975 feet, while Humble No. 1 Belding, Pecos wildcat west of Fort Stockton which encountered 91,000 barrels of sulphur water per day, is drilling at 1,675 feet in chalk.

A VOTE ON WAR

Reports from Washington say that a determined campaign for a constitutional amendment prohibiting a declaration of war without a nation-wide referendum will be made when Congress next convenes.

Here is a proposition that takes on especial importance because of the apparent reversal in our foreign policy implied by Mr. Roosevelt's Chicago speech.

The great objection to a co-operative foreign policy has been the fear that our government might get jockeyed into a position where it would feel obliged to declare war. A constitutional provision making a declaration of war dependent on a national referendum might meet that fear. The people might be willing to let the government play a more active part in foreign problems if they knew that no declaration of war could be made without their direct and specific approval.

A Three Days' Cough Is Your Danger Signal

Just a common cough, a chest cold, or a bronchial irritation of today may lead to serious trouble tomorrow. They may be relieved now with Creomulsion, an emulsified Creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medicinal combination designed to aid nature in soothing and healing infected mucous membranes by allaying irritation and inflammation and by aiding in loosening and expelling the germ-laden phlegm.

The Medical Profession has for many years recognized the beneficial effect of Beechwood Creosote in the treatment of coughs, chest colds, and bronchial irritations. A special process was worked out by a chemist, for blending Creosote with other ingredients and now in Creomulsion you get a real dose of genuine Beechwood Creosote which is palatable and can even be taken frequently and continuously by both adults and children.

Creomulsion is one preparation that goes to the very seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel the germ-laden phlegm. When coughs, chest colds and bronchial troubles—due to common colds—hang on, get a bottle of Creomulsion from your druggist, use it as directed and if you are not satisfied with the relief obtained, the druggist is authorized to refund every cent of your money. Creomulsion is one word—not two, and it has no hyphen in it. Ask for it plainly, see that the name on the bottle is Creomulsion, and you'll get the genuine product and the relief that you want. ## The Town Quack

The Monday morning question—what are we going to use for news? Jim Waddell's new baby—circus coming to town—rainy weather finally cleared up—civil cases coming up in court—more calves maybe to be delivered this week—Bulldogs going to Wink Friday night—chamber of commerce membership committee to pick up the stragglers! Well, after all, am I trying to publish a "this week in Midland"? Maybe I'll do well to try to help get the news in the paper after it is news and not when it's conjecture.

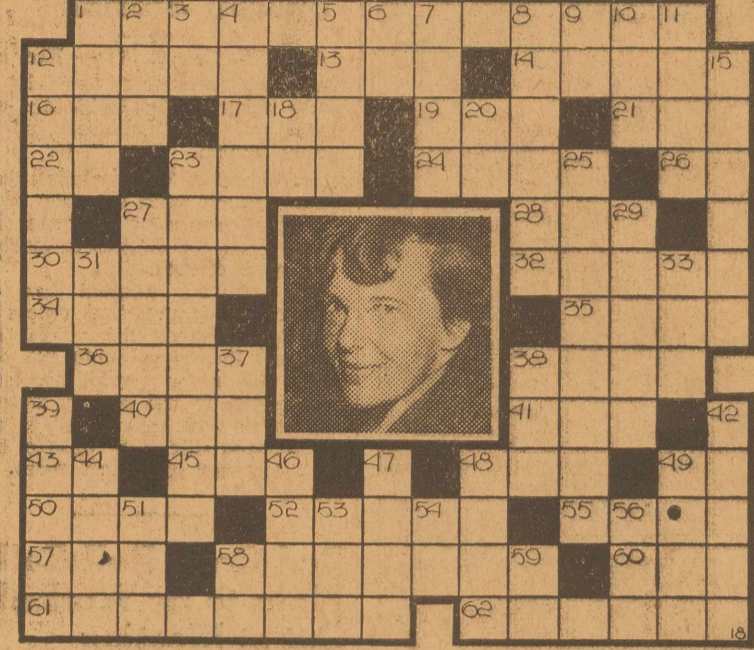

About the Bulldogs going to Wink. A lot of people think of that like the scripture about the lamb going to its slaughter. But I'm thinking the Bulldogs got their worst licking the other night when Crane poured it on for almost the first half of the game. If you will think back, the Bulldogs got the upper hand in the latter part of the first half. And then through the last half they fought hard enough to keep the score unchanged, even in the

Behind the Scenes in Washington

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18. — Secretary of State Cordell Hull was planting educational seeds and sending up trial balloons more than a fortnight before Roosevelt made his Chicago speech and this government formally declared Japan an aggressor nation.

It was all carefully planned. Hull made a New York speech Sept. 19 and speeches in Boston and New York on Sept. 20 in which he described the isolationist policy implicit in the neutrality act, and favored a policy of positive international cooperation. He said some of the things Roosevelt was to say later.

But the State Department, its ear close to the ground for signs of public reaction, found no one had paid any attention. Everyone muffed the real story, apparently assuming that Hull was only making some perfunctory speeches.

The nation, Hull said, must "give support for the existence of international order." If the rule of law gave way to "international anarchy," the security of this country would become seriously jeopardized, and if we didn't make contributions toward assuring peace we would eventually have to protect ourselves "amidst an outside world ridden by war and force."

When Roosevelt spoke even more forcefully, the country paid plenty of heed.

The fact is that Hull and Roosevelt had been working closely together on the "new foreign policy" for weeks.

No Official War.
ROOSEVELT still hasn't found officially that a "state of war" exists in China. To do so would require equal application of the neutrality act to China and Japan.

But on Armistice Day, 1935, referring to his application of the neutrality law to the Italo-Ethiopian conflict, the President said: "We are acting to simplify definitions and facts by calling war 'war' when armed invasion and a resulting killing of human beings takes place."

When the law embargoing arms to Spain is also considered, it now becomes obvious that this government has one foreign policy for Europe and another for the Far East. There's a third one for Latin America, incidentally.

Burt and Hollering.
WHEN the question of "quarantining" Japan in an economic sense comes up, we're talking about a total volume of trade which amounted to $376,000,000 last year and has been running at a far high-

Fur Crop Is Depleted On Kenai Peninsula

SEWARD, Alaska (U.P.)—The small "take" on fur on Kenai peninsula last winter was so evident that the trappers themselves have asked for an open season on two years at least.

Kenai natives this year are openly opposing that request by asking for an open season on beaver and muskrat.

This was the situation found by a Seward game warden who returned from a two weeks' trip from Seward to Kenai and Kaslof, via Tustumena and Skillak lakes.

He said that approximately 50 trappers brought in but 54 mink. Rabbits, he said, were scarce and that although not many coyotes were sighted, there were signs to indicate that the marauders were entirely too plentiful.

Putting "It" Over Takes Time

TAKE your time. That is the most important thing in gaining poise, as valuable a quality as a woman can have.

Jasper Deeter, director of the famous Hedgerow theatre, says that when a woman speaks before she has the complete attention of the person whom she addresses, she loses the effectiveness of whatever she may say.

Remember that pointer when you address a remark to a turned head or one hidden behind a newspaper. Get the head turned your way before you make your wise crack, sober observation, or earnest request. That done, speak slowly enough for your words to "sink in." Words that scurry along seem to have about as much purpose and direction as leaves driven by the wind.

The woman who hurries into a room seldom seems poised—and no wonder. Her feet may not stumble, but her mind is almost certain to once she finds herself suddenly in the center of a situation she knows nothing about.

The time to take stock of a situation is before you become a part of it. A momentary pause at the threshold of a room and glance around gives you a chance to see what people are there and what they are doing the way a motorist looks both ways before pulling into a stream of traffic. That one moment often accounts for the difference between the awkward, blundering woman, and the one who walks into a room apparently calm, collected, and very much at ease.

If you are going to take your time, you will have to allow for it beforehand. Otherwise, you will very likely be using minutes that belong to someone else; and while that may be all the same so far as your poise is concerned, it certainly won't put the other person in the frame of mind to appreciate it.

Always give yourself a few more minutes than you think you will need. They will take care of the unexpected—the telephone that has to be answered, the search for gloves you would have sworn were in the right hand drawer, the struggle with a slip that seems determined to show.

If you are going across town to keep an appointment, the extra minutes will take care of the traffic lights that always seem to be against you, the suddenly remembered errand, or the unexpected encounter with an old friend.

Those few minutes, always thoughtfully set aside for mishaps, will give you the freedom from hurry that is necessary to poise. They will account for your going about looking a lady of leisure, unhurried and self-assured, instead of the Miss Jitters who always feels she has been "thrown together," usually looks it and is about as poised as Humpty Dumpty before he took his great fall.

Guests assembled in the foyer of the Yucca theatre and then viewed the feature "Double Wedding."

Dahlias and roses were used in the living room.

Mrs. Proctor was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Mitchell, in entertaining.

After the service, a picture was made of the group and an informal social hour was held during which a sorority song was sung.

Present were: Mmes. Frances Stallworth, R. Steele Johnston, Tom Potter, Misses Marguerite Bivens, Ruth Pratt, Lucille McMullan, Mary V. Miller, Norene Kirby, the hostesses and Mrs. Mitchell.

Diphtheria Is Warned Against

AUSTIN, Texas.—State Health Officer Geo. W. Cox urges all parents of children between the ages of six months and ten years who have not been immunized against diphtheria, to take them to their family physician and have this done at once.

The first ten months of 1937 saw 1,635 cases of diphtheria reported to the Texas State Department of Health. This is an increase over 1936's figures, and shows the need of immunization of children in this age group.

It was not many years ago that parents dreaded diphtheria because of inability of the medical profession to either prevent or cure the disease. But today when we know both the cause and the cure there is no obstacle but negligence which will prevent the complete elimination of the disease in Texas.

Diphtheria is most dangerous to the very young children, and it is especially important that immunization against it be given early in a child's life. In young children there is practically no reaction to the injection. Immunization has been proven to give absolute protection.

"It is in the power of the parents of Texas, cooperating with their physician and the Health Department, to eliminate the disease," Dr. Cox stated. "In about six months after immunization the child should be given a Schick test to determine whether further treatment is necessary. Early immunization against diphtheria is a routine procedure with up-to-date physicians. Cooperate with your family physician and your community and make early immunization a regular practice in Texas."

New homes in Elmwood practically completed; plans for six more before Nov. 1st. Let's talk lots and homes. See Grafa over First Nat'l Bank. (Adv.)

Lilies That Are Easily Grown

Regal Lily. Fall is the most favorable time to plant hardy lily bulbs. Even in the coldest regions, the hazards of a winter outdoors are likely to be less than those which attach to spring planting.

The idea that lilies are difficult to grow is rapidly being dispelled by the success which thousands of amateurs are having all over the country. Most of the lilies are as hardy as oaks, and thrive with little attention, once their basic needs in the way of soil, drainage and depth of planting are provided.

Good drainage is vital. When the foliage of a lily plant turns yellow and the plant looks sick, the first cause to suspect is excessive moisture. Select a place where there is no question of good drainage, and remember that drainage is sometimes a matter of soil texture.

Deep planting is required by all lilies, which are "stem-rooters," that is, which make roots above the bulbs. A depth of eight to ten inches above the bulb is recommended. Lilies which make all their roots below the bulb, such as the Madonna, are planted from three to five inches deep.
