Ex-Premier MacDonald of England Dies Suddenly

Rose From Ranks To Become Head Of Government

LONDON, Nov. 10. (P.)—J. Ramsay MacDonald, who rose through labor's ranks from Scottish poverty to become thrice prime minister of Great Britain, died unexpectedly last night aboard a cruise ship bound for South America.

Dr. Alastair MacKinnon, MacDonald's son-in-law, received news by radio of the death of Britain's first labor prime minister.

The man who was born the son of a Scots farmer and spurred an earldom only this year died aboard the steamer Reina Del Pacifico at 8:45 p. m., apparently a heart attack.

Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain received news of his death shortly after addressing the lord mayor's banquet in the Guildhall, the occasion at which only a year ago MacDonald suffered a sudden collapse.

The body will be taken off the ship at Bermuda, where it is due Nov. 15, and returned to England.

The 71-year-old former prime minister with his daughter Sheila sailed last Thursday for South America in search of what he called "the most elusive of all forms of happiness—rest."

He had planned to visit Peru and Chile and "to return when I have had enough of it."

The day after he departed, his successor, Stanley Baldwin, now Earl Baldwin and also retired, paid tribute to MacDonald in a public address, saying "I never feel that Mr. MacDonald has had credit given him by the country due for services he rendered it in 1931 and in the years immediately preceding."

In 1931 MacDonald formed his third government, a coalition cabinet said then to have been necessitated by a national emergency. Many of MacDonald's lifetime associates in the labor movement and in his first two labor governments broke with him, and he became bitterly hated by the labor party.

MacDonald resigned and turned over the premiership to Baldwin in 1935 after a critical depression period had strained his health.

His daughter, Isabel, who accompanied her father to Washington in 1929 when he and President Hoover held their famous "log-sitting" conference at Rapidan, said no arrangements had been made yet for the funeral.

MacDonald's visit to Hoover paved the way for the London naval conference in 1930 which resulted in the London naval treaty. He received a warm reception everywhere he went in America.

One of MacDonald's last comments of a political character was the assertion he could not believe "his war talk," a statement that bore out his years of ardent pacifism.

Before sailing he said that he was feeling fairly fit but that his eyes troubled him.

"I don't see as well as I used to," he said, but added he intended to "think seriously" about writing an ambitious book on his turbulent political life.

Renunciation of Dictators Heard By Baptists Today

EL PASO, Nov. 10. (P.)—Texas Baptists renewed renunciation of dictators today, Dr. E. D. Head, Houston, in the annual convention sermon flaying "domination of the church" by totalitarian states.

Head's address came after President J. B. Tidwell's declaration last night that control of agriculture and industry in this country might be followed by state regulation of churches and schools.

Aged Rancher Slays Assailant After a Battle With Knives

SANTA ROSA, Calif., Nov. 10. (P.)—A 79-year-old rancher, Thomas Elliott, shot and killed a hooded marauder armed with a butcher knife last night after beating off his assailant with a sword and receiving critical injuries.

When Elliott, responding to a knock at his door, was confronted by a man demanding money he fled upstairs, grabbed an old sword.

In a duel that followed he cut off the intruder's hand but was overpowered. Then on the pretext of getting money, he got his gun instead and shot the robber.

Labor Secretary To Favor Changes In Wage-Hour Act

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10. (P.)—Labor Secretary Perkins said today after a White House conference that she would propose changes in the administration's wage and hour bill when congressional committees start new hearings on the subject.

She said she discussed the changes with President Roosevelt but that she preferred not to discuss the changes she had in mind.

Meanwhile, usually informed observers, regarding the president's reiteration of his intent to balance the budget, predicted suggestions to increase government spending would get nowhere.

The house agriculture committee considered suggestions for restoring processing taxes on cotton, wheat and corn to raise an estimated $200,000,000 to help finance a proposed ever-normal granary.

Coal Mine Blaze Rages Unchecked Beneath Scranton

SCRANTON, Pa., Nov. 10. (P.)—A coal mine fire swept unchecked today 250 feet beneath a section of the city where 10,000 people live.

Engineers lacked equipment necessary to approach the white-hot mass, fired by a broken trolley wire, in the Von Storch mine of the Penn Anthracite Collieries company. Inspectors said there was no danger yet for those above.

Powers Wait For A Reply From Japan

Meeting Delayed Until Saturday; Expect Answer

BRUSSELS, Nov. 10. (P.)—The Brussels peace conference today adjourned until Saturday after Belgian Foreign Minister Paul Spaak announced Japan's reply to the peace note sent them was expected then.

Meanwhile, two powers, England and Russia, sought to bring the United States closer to the complicated international situation.

British Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain, in a speech last night, called for fuller British-American collaboration.

The communist party organ, Pravda, asserting the real purpose of the Italian-German-Japanese agreement against communism was to obtain territory in a new world war, urged Britain, the United States and France to act concertedly against the three powers.

Chamberlain declared Britain desired to reach an agreement with Italy and Germany "on a basis of mutual friendship and understanding."

Washington, United States Senator George W. Norris of Nebraska urged that the Brussels meeting condemn Japan as an aggressor against China and propose a United States boycott of Japanese goods.

Armistice Program Features Luncheon; Attorney Is Speaker

Commemorating the observance of the signing of the Armistice 19 years ago tomorrow, a special Armistice Day program featured the regular weekly luncheon of the Midland Lions Club today noon, James H. Goodman, immediate past commander of the local Woods W. Lynch Post of the American Legion, being the principal speaker on the program, which was arranged by Lion Duke Kimbrough.

Basing his address on preparedness, Judge Goodman said that the United States went to war in 1917 to save the democracy of the world, but that the nation was not prepared for war and as a result thousands of men were lost because of lack of preparedness.

In citing the creed and principles of the American Legion, the speaker said that the legion is for peace, first, last and always, but that members of the legion also pledge themselves to be prepared for future wars.

Only through preparedness will we have peace, said Goodman. The speaker urged his listeners as citizens of the United States to see to it that Congress passes the Draft Act which will place all men under government supervision in time of war.

Stating that the United States has never been an aggressor nation, Goodman told briefly of the wars the nation has been forced into to defend itself, and urged preparedness in defending the shores of the United States. Communism is a problem which has to be contended with due to the Communistic principles being instilled in Mexico, and our nation should be prepared for a communistic invasion, he said.

An educated mind is the guiding genius of democracy, Goodman added, in closing.

Preceding Goodman's address, Lion Kimbrough spoke briefly on "What Our Government Means to Us," his brief talk being based on personal and national liberty. The Stars and Stripes protect the rights of American liberty, he said.

Urged to Join Red Cross.
Quoting convincing statistics in brief outlining the service, benefits, accomplishments and program of the American Red Cross, Miss Joyce Beauchamp, high school student, in a highly interesting and well delivered address, urged club members to join the Red Cross during the annual roll call here November 16 and 17.

A committee to work with a similar committee from the Rotary club is arranging for the joint Rotary-Lions Thanksgiving luncheon, an annual affair, was appointed by President Ed M. Whitaker, the committee being composed of Lions W. F. Rejl, Claude Crane and Bill Collins.

Today's luncheon was prepared and served by the ladies of the Methodist church.

Stores Foresee Rush Business

Midland residents today were notified that all stores here would be closed tomorrow—Armistice Day—and merchants urged citizens to complete their shopping early this afternoon in order to avoid a rush that is sure to develop before stores close.

For Her: The Electric Chair---

Mrs. Anna Marie Hahn apparently took stoically the verdict of the Cincinnati jury that doomed her to the electric chair for the poison murder of aged Jacob Wagner, one of several old men to whom she had played the role of ministering "angel." But her self-control was short-lived. As she left the courtroom, above, she urged her guard, "Hurry! Hurry! Get me out of here," and when she reached her cell, hysterically protested her innocence.

--- For Her: The Guillotine

The merciless tongue-lashing that the French public prosecutor administers in presentation of the case to the jury brings tears of anguish to the face of Mme. Rosalie-Josephine Mory, 50-year-old barber's wife, on trial for the murder of her daughter-in-law. The state claimed Mme. Mory killed Captain Louis Mory's bride because she hoped he would make a marriage more advantageous to an army officer. The jury sentenced her to be guillotined.

Postoffice Reports Increase in Sales

Business is on the up and up at the Midland post office, increased sales being reported each month.

Sales at the postoffice during the month of October totaled $6,426.74, and increase of $1,400.26 over the same month last year, figures released yesterday by Miss Elma F. Graves, assistant postmaster, disclosed. The October total surpassed September sales by $1,113.88.

Local postal authorities are expecting and are preparing for the largest Christmas business ever experienced by the Midland office.

Believes City Mail Delivery Available

Midland needs free city mail delivery and should not lose an opportunity to secure it, according to W. B. Luna, postmaster at Dallas, who was a business visitor here today. He was surprised at the volume of mail handled by the post-office force here and declared that free mail delivery in the city would greatly relieve the congested situation in the office.

Postmaster Luna, accompanied by Postmaster Nat. Shick of Big Spring and Jack Ester, circulation manager of the Dallas News, visited Postmaster Allen Tolbert and looked over the city while here.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Steele Johnson will leave Thursday morning for Oklahoma City for a short visit.

Bombs Drop Near French, U. S. Ships

Reinforcements Are Landed on Whangpoo Today

SHANGHAI, Nov. 10. (P.)—Japanese warplanes and artillery today bombarded Nantao, Chinese quarter adjacent to the French concession, bombs falling in the Whangpoo river a few hundred yards in front of American and French warships.

The bombardment was directed at remnants of the Chinese army, the majority of which retreated to defense lines further inland yesterday.

Japanese reinforcements were landed on the south and north shores of Hangchow bay for what the Chinese feared may be a major drive toward Nanking, Chinese capital. It was feared Japanese would attack Hangchow as the first step in the drive.

A prelude to the Japanese assault came earlier when two land mines exploded in the Nantao area and were followed by the noisy chatter of machine-guns and rifle. The thunderous explosion of the mines shook houses in the French concession over a wide area.

While the vanguard of Japanese troops moved into battle, Japanese warplanes roared overhead bombing clusters of stubborn Chinese defenders wherever they could be spotted.

The Japanese also reported capture of the important city of Sungkiang, 20 miles south of Shanghai on the Shanghai-Hangchow railroad, during the night.

It appeared certain they must be annihilated if they made a last stand. There was no avenue of escape except across the Whangpoo river or into the French area where they would be disarmed and interned.

The Chinese soldiers worked feverishly by lamplight digging trenches and raising sandbag barriers.

Pickering Retained On State Board of Christian Churches

The Rev. John E. Pickering, pastor of the First Christian church of Midland, was re-elected, for the second three year period, as a member of the state board of Christian churches at the district convention held yesterday at Big Spring.

All evangelistic activities of the Brotherhood in Texas, also educational endeavors, come under jurisdiction of the board. There are only seven members.

Judge James H. Goodman was elected president and district governor of the laymen's league of this district. This is an organization of the church promoting activities of men and their relations with the church, and to promote better fellowship among the laymen.

The Rev. Pickering was given full authority and was instructed to proceed with organization of a church at Goldsmith, new Ector county town. Funds for organization will be carried by the state office and by churches of the district.

Odessa will be the location of the 1938 district convention. The Rev. Tom Lenox, pastor of the First Christian church of Sweetwater, was elected president.

Laredo Boy Burned To Death as Home Destroyed By Fire

LAREDO, Nov. 10. (P.)—James Powell, 10, was burned to death today in a fire that destroyed the home of his father, Dr. W. R. Powell, with an estimated $30,000 loss.

Another son, Bill Powell, six, jumped 15 feet from a second story window but was unhurt. A nurse, Mrs. Alma Pelton, broke an ankle leaping from the burning building.

MECHANICAL MADNESS

The Illinois gentleman who got 22 wrong numbers in succession over a pay station phone, and finally vented his irritation by ripping the phone out of its booth and heaving it into the street, may have committed a deplorably illegal act—but he probably will excite the sympathy of all those people who occasionally get their toes caught in the age of machinery.

For when a piece of machinery goes haywire, it is infinitely more infuriating than any human agent could be. It has a sort of mocking immovability that raises a man's blood pressure as nothing else can. A slot machine that won't give, an auto engine that won't start, a subway turnstile that won't click—is there anything their equal for raising one's temper?

Our mechanical appliances make life smooth and easy; but when they do go wrong, they make us madder than any mere humans could.

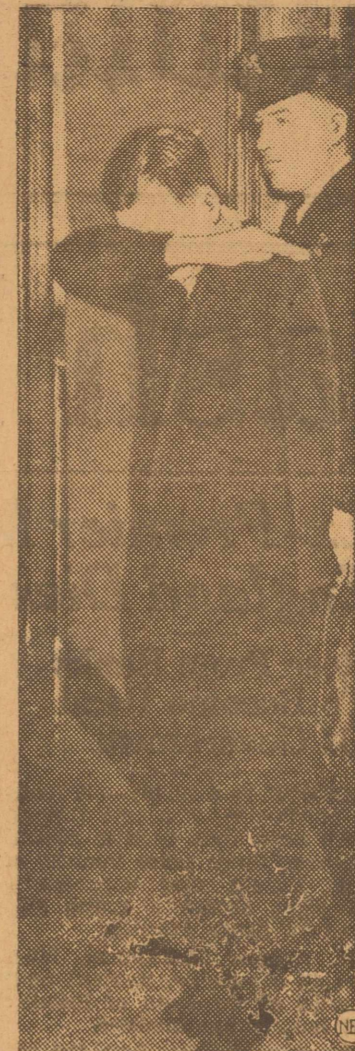

A Des Moines woman, picking November strawberries, started the pre-winter rash of garden variety stories a little later than usual.

The Badge of Leadership

May Die Under New U. S. Law

$2,000,000--Right on the Nose

Anybody who knows noses knows the identity of the two shown in this photo study. They are, so to speak, the two most notorious noses in Hollywood—John Barrymore's, right, and W. C. Fields', in case you didn't know. Taken in fun, this picture intrigued studio moguls, who decided to cast the two in a $2,000,000 film.

The Town Quack

An ancient Greek once proposed that any legislator who proposed a new law should be required to enter the legislative hall with a rope around his neck. If his law failed to pass, the penalty would be death by hanging. If Texas will institute a law like that, I'll vote for it even if we have to send Mike Costen to the legislature.

Some business men seek to get rid of nuisance salesmen by telling them, "I'll think it over," or "Come back a Tuesday," when by simply saying "No" they would be entirely rid of the visitors.

Which is worse, trying to entertain a person who says nothing or listening to a bore who does all the talking.

One philosopher advises us to look far into the future, mapping our work in such a way that we can't go wrong. Another advises us to take care of today and meet tomorrow when it comes. I would like to take their advice, but I am not through trying to catch up with yesterday yet.

Another philosopher says a man never learns the truth about himself until he gets married. No, according to the ads, your best friend won't tell you.

STORIES IN STAMPS

THOUGH his conquest of Peru was for the most part a ruthless, plundering affair, Francisco Pizarro left one noble monument to his name. That is the city of Lima, capital of this South American republic.

Pizarro founded Lima in 1535. He called it Ciudad de los Reyes (City of the Kings). Later it was named Lima, a corruption of Rimac, the name of the river on which it is situated seven miles from the Pacific.

Stately old city of broad promenades and myriad ancient squares, Lima boasts notable institutions. Foremost stands the cathedral, with its beautiful Moorish facade and two lofty towers. It was begun in 1535, destroyed by earthquake in 1746 and reconstructed in 1758.

But perhaps even more notable is the national University of San Marcos, the oldest in America. It was founded in 1551. Here theology, law, medicine, philosophy, letters, mathematics and the sciences are taught. There are also schools of engineering, agriculture, and navigation. The university is shown on a current Peruvian stamp.

Thanksgiving was held in 1493. At least that was what three students told Dr. M. E. Bonney, associate professor of education at the North Texas State Teachers College when he gave them an unexpected test recently to find how accurately students recall familiar dates.

Among other "boners" were these: four students said the Spanish American War was fought in 1812, one the French Revolution broke out in 1850, another that the first settlement in the United States was founded in 1776, another that America entered the World War in 1914, and still another that Washington was born in 1832.

Dates mentioned most frequently were: 1492, Columbus discovered America, 50 out of 51 students; 1918, Armistice signed, 42 out of 51; 1776 Declaration of Independence signed 41 out of 51, and 1836, Texas independence, 35 out of 51.

The 51 students participating mentioned 178 dates, 100 or 50 per cent of which were correct. The average number of correct dates per student was 7. Time allowed was 15 minutes. Time range permitted was anything prior to 1930.

Behind the Scenes in Washington

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10. — The C. I. O. says to the A. F. of L.: "Bare your head, and we will tap it with a sledge-hammer. You will then go down and out and stay out."

The A. F. of L. says to the C. I. O.: "Walk right back into our mousetrap and have a dose of our highly effective lethal gas."

Struggle For Power.

That's the effect of the proposals of the two labor groups and it explains why the unity negotiations are not getting anywhere. The proposal of C. I. O. that it return to the A. F. of L. as an autonomous department under its own name simply means, if its claims of a larger membership are true, that John L. Lewis and his colleagues would at once dominate the federation if its members were to be given proportionate voting strength at A. F. of L. conventions.

Each side attacks the other's membership figures. The A. F. of L. claims 3,250,000 workers and C. I. O. 3,830,000. It's impossible to find out the real strength behind these statistics.

Vote System at Stake.

THE proposal that disputes between rival affiliated unions be settled at the next federation convention called attention to the A. F. of L. voting system. One vote is allowed an international union for each thousand members whose per capita tax of 1 cent a month is paid to the federation. The carpenters' union had 3000 votes at the Denver convention, although C. I. O. peo-nation and that he will be elected. Farley hasn't said a word to anyone about it, apparently. But the assumption has been greatly strengthened by his decision to campaign for Jerry Mahoney in the New York mayoralty fight, but its real sentiment is believed to be more accurately represented by Secretary Ickes, who recently went to New York and gave Mayor F. H. LaGuardia a public pat on the back.

Any one who wants to run for governor of New York on the Democratic ticket is practically compelled to play ball with the New York Democratic machine politicians, all of whom have been behind Mahoney. In case Roosevelt was consulted at all and approved Farley's leap into the local battle, the President at least was aware that nothing could put Mahoney over.

AUSTIN, Texas. "With colder weather on its way to Texas it's time to think about home temperatures during the winter months," states Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

"There is evidence that thousands of homes are constantly over-heated during the winter. In fact, many families tolerate an indoor temperature during the colder months to which they would do strenuously object in the summer. Such persons are not only uneconomical with their fuel supply, but are endangering their health as well," Dr. Cox continued.

"People living in homes with over-heated temperatures become soft, the system is weakened and is at a decided disadvantage in defending itself against the sudden change from a too great intramural heat to the penetrating cold.

"Consequently colds, bronchial troubles and pneumonia, taking advantage of the situation, step in to do much unnecessary, and not infrequently, fatal damage. You will agree that this is entirely too high a price to pay for a few extra degrees of unneeded heat.

"We all know families who are starting on their annual scourge of colds and sore throats. But this does not alter their affinity for super-heat. They ignore the fact that 68 to 70 degrees is the best temperature. A thermometer kept within that range, plus proper humidity, is a definite safe-guard. We need that safe-guard. What does your thermometer read?"

Overheating in Homes Is Warned Against By Cox

ple declare its membership probably has dwindled toward 125,000. In former year John L. Lewis paid for a voting strength of 3000 when it was well known the membership of the United Mine Workers was far below 3,000,000.

There is nothing in the A. F. of L. proposals which would give more than 10 of the 32 C. I. O. unions representative voting strength at the next convention. C. I. O. insists that they all get it.

Farley Expected to Run

IT is now being taken for granted in Washington that Jim Farley will be a candidate for governor of New York in 1938. It is also generally believed that he can have the Democratic state convention's nomi-

Embryo Frank Bucks: Here's Big Chance

The T. J. Tidwell shows, exhibiting this week at the Pagoda swimming pool grounds,—to use that well known phrase—are going to "let the cat out of the bag," tonight.

It's all a part of the fun promised for tonight. A full grown trained house cat will be released on the midway and ten minutes will be allowed for its capture. To the person able to return the cat will be awarded a prize of $25.

Tomorrow night, a legal public "cellophane" wedding is to be held on the midway for the entertainment of the crowd, with the bride wearing the transparent material, the officials say. The names of the bride and groom are not to be announced, but the wedding ceremony will be held on the midway with the crowd as spectators.

Device Has Last Word In Fishing Arguments

SUPERIOR, Wis. (U.P.)—F. P. Riddell of Superior has applied for patent on an invention which, he says, "will settle all fishing arguments."

Built into the handle of a fishing rod Riddell has invented is a scale that will weigh up to 20 pounds. The cap over the scale provides a miniature drinking cup, and if the fisherman doesn't think he needs a scale to weigh the big ones, a flashlight will slip into the rod handle.

MIDLAND, STANTON MEET HERE TOMORROW AFTERNOON AT 3

BULLDOGS TO BE FAVORITES OVER INVADING TEAM

Midland football fans will get their first chance of the year to compare day and night football here this year when the Midland Bulldogs and Stanton Buffaloes tangle on Lackey field tomorrow afternoon in an Armistice Day battle.

The Bulldogs will undoubtedly enter the game as favorites but the Buffaloes are conceded the best chance to defeat Midland that it has had in almost a score of years. The last Stanton victory over Midland was registered in about 1928 and the Buffaloes are sure to be doing their best tomorrow to defeat what is probably the weakest Bulldog team in the past five or six years.

The Stanton club has had their offense practically wrecked through withdrawal from school of Quarterback Graham, their ace ground gainer. But they still boast of the best passer in the district in Edson. He is likely to prove a hand-off for the Bulldogs or any other club in the district if his mates only start holding on to bullet passes that he lays in their hands. Edson fires a straight pass at the belt buckles of his mates and should they become able to pull them in tomorrow, some grief is in store for the Bulldogs.

The Bulldogs escaped from the Kermit battle without any serious injuries last week, but a weak spot that has been predominant on the team all season was further weakened when Pace, best defensive end on the squad, was placed in a hospital and had his appendix removed.

The Stanton team uses end runs for a lot of their gains. Edson generally being the ball carrier. Whether or not Barnes, Van Dyke and Norman will be able to halt them remains to be seen.

The Bulldogs will carry a weight advantage of approximately 10 pounds per man but this is not likely to prove the handicap to Stanton that would be expected.

Against Crane last week the Stanton forward wall was like a stone wall once the Cranes got very deep in Buffalo territory and it is generally conceded that the Crane offensive is stronger than that boasted by the Bulldogs.

No Prophet---All Loss

Temporary Booth Of Red Cross Is Located Today

For the benefit of local citizens who will be out of the city during the annual Red Cross roll call here on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, a Red Cross membership booth was this afternoon opened in the chamber of commerce office in Hotel Scharbauer, Russell C. Conkling, Midland roll call chairman, announced this morning. Membership cards and buttons will be issued at the temporary booth, all citizens of Midland who will be out of town next week being urged to call by the chamber of commerce office and join the Red Cross before leaving town. Local Red Cross workers are hopeful of signing up every resident of Midland as a member in this worthy cause.

The Midland goal has been set at 900 memberships, but members of the roll call committee believe that as many as 1,500 memberships will be placed here. The memberships range from one dollar up, fifty cents of each donation going to national headquarters of the Red Cross with the remainder being kept by the Midland chapter for local use. The local Red Cross chapter is called upon almost daily by persons in dire need, help always being rendered to deserving persons. Mrs. J. A. Haley, chairman of the Midland chapter, said yesterday that the Midland Red Cross branch is one of the most active in the state and has for many years served a most useful purpose in Midland and vicinity. Funds used in carrying on local Red Cross work are derived only from the annual roll call drive, the scope of the movement locally being determined by the number of memberships secured during the annual roll call.

Chairman Conkling again yesterday called attention to the fact that no community chest drive will be staged here this year in urging local citizens to give generously to the Red Cross when called upon next week. It will be the only drive staged here this fall for charitable purposes and it is hoped that everyone will join the Red Cross, giving as liberally as possible.

Large Crowd Attends 'Open House' Party Given at North Ward

Parents, pupils, and interested friends composed the large crowd which attended the open house held by North Ward Parent-Teacher Association in the new North Ward building Tuesday evening.

Guests were greeted by Mrs. Alma Thomas, principal, and the executive committee of the PTA including: Mrs. H. B. Prickett, president, Mrs. D. C. Sivals, vice president, Mmes. H. C. Barnes, E. W. Anguish, John Casselman, R. C. Conkling, Geo. Glass, O. B. Holt, H. Rabun.

The period from 7:30 o'clock to 8:30 was devoted to a general get-together and inspection of the building, with the teacher and room mother forming a reception committee for each room where specimens of pupils' work were displayed.

During this hour, musical selections were presented by Mrs. Holt Jewell, Miss Jessie Scott Price, Wallace Wimberly, Billy Noble.

At 8:30 the evening's program was presented in the auditorium. The school's rhythm band opened the program, followed by a selection given by the High School girls' quartet, composed of Jessa Lynn Tuttle, Barbara Jean Harper, Jacqueline Crawley, Wanda Tieknor.

Mrs. Thomas welcomed the visitors.

A chorus number was presented by selected men's voices including: Joe Scymour, Chase Murph, Ed Watts, D. E. Shillet, De Lo Douglas, Yann Mitchell, R. V. Hyatt, M. A. Armstrong, R. L. Denham, W. W. Lackey.

Mrs. De Lo Douglas sang, accompanied by Mrs. Holt Jewell after which the High School boys' quartet composed of Fred Gordon Middleton, Marvin Park, R. O. Brooks, and Jack Walton, presented a selection.

Suppl. W. W. Lackey explained construction of the building and introduced Attorney Mark McGee of Fort Worth who addressed the

'West of Shanghai' At the Yucca Today

The exotic atmosphere of the interior of North China—rarely if ever before shown in a motion picture and particularly timely today with China in the headlines—comes to the screen in "West of Shanghai," a melodramatic thriller from Warner Bros. which had its first local showing this afternoon at the Yucca Theatre.

Boris Karloff, chiefly familiar to movie audiences from his playing of "horror" pictures, is a war lord. He is a Chinese bandit general, and, fortunately, isn't in the least horrible. He's genial and good-natured and—despite the fact that he does a little killing now and then—a

Various members of the school board were also called upon for brief talks.

Refreshments were served.

Mrs. R. C. Tucker was general chairman and in charge of flowers for the open house.

Mrs. E. W. Anguish was in charge of the program.

The refreshment committee was composed of Mrs. Russell C. Conkling, chairman, Mmes. M. H. Crawford, Guy Cowden, Harvey Hardison, Geo. Glass, L. L. Payne. Those who poured were: Mmes. O. B. Holt, Clyde Cowden, J. L. Greene, J. L. Armstrong.

Little Jay Francis, who had the kind of night against Kermit that backfield men dream about when he scored five touchdowns, is likely to find the going rougher in the game tomorrow as Coach Henderson of the Buffaloes was in the stand scouting the Kermit game and has been working his charges all week to stop the long dashes of the Bulldog speedster.

It can be accepted as a certainty that Edson will be kicking the ball out of bounds rather than to give Francis a chance to get loose on a punt run. However, in Parker, Stanton left end, Henderson has a man that can get down the field under punts just about as quick as any other flankman in the district. He was giving the Crane safety man a fit all day Saturday as he usually arrived only a split second behind the ball.

Coach Taylor has voiced a hope that while the Buffaloes are concentrating on stopping Francis that he can shake loose lightweight Dale Truelove, another speed merchant, some time during the game.

Taylor has said that he hopes the Bulldogs can roll up a fairly heavy score over the invaders but that he will be satisfied with a one-point victory.

A win tomorrow would place the Bulldogs in a tie with Monahans and Crane for fourth place in the league standings—conceding now that Crane will be defeated by Wink and Monahans will win over Kermit.

day's 14-0 victory over Southern Methodist, the Cadets have turned this week to revamp their attack along lines based on Freshman Coach Hub McQuillan's scout dope on the Owls.

The Aggies' Dick Todd, Owens Rogers and Bill Audish; and the Owls' Ernie Lain, Ollie Cordill and "Scat" Sullivan are expected to combine in what may be the greatest display of running power the conference has offered to date this year.

The Owls also offer an effective passing attack both at long and short ranges. The Aggies set something of a modern dry-field Southwest Conference record by tossing only seven passes against the Mustangs, but they pack passing ability in reserve and probably will bring their offensive play to a more even balance for the Owl game.

Saturday's game will be the last chance for the Aggies, who have only an outside chance to tie for the conference championship, to battle one of the leading conference teams. Their only other circuit appearance will be against the University of Texas Longhorns, who are completely out of the race. Despite this fact, however, the Aggie Cadets have obtained permission from the faculty to make the game a corps trip, and more than 2,000 of the khaki-clad Cadets are expected to parade through the business section of Houston Saturday morning.

"Giant Killing" Role Facing The Aggies This Week

Baylor Hoping to Make Comeback Against Ponies

WACO, Texas, Nov. 10.—Coach Morley Jennings began Monday morning taking stock on injuries and disabilities coming from the tough Texas Steers in their weekend invasion that sent the Baylor Golden Bears to their first defeat of the 1937 season.

He took charge of the bruising effects of Hustling Hugh Wolfe, the big bad wolf of Dana X. Bible's eleven that rose to great heights and leave blood stains over many stadium field Saturday afternoon. With a slightly dampened attitude on the mention of bowls the Bears began preparing for the trip to Dallas for Southern Methodist Mustangs.

Slowly did they trudge to the Athletic building for duty in the afternoon Monday to receive skull practice while the rain beat down. They appeared to be in a reflective mood. They wondered if Ted Husing jinx had been poured down upon them—or, if the letdown was bound to come anyway. Soon, however, they were limbering up and the Texas game was cast into the background to serve only as a reminder that they can be whipped.

Only bruises were sustained and the Bears, noted this year for excellent training and conditioning, were back at work without much serious damage as result of the disastrous try against the hard-fighting Longhorns. Texas played her greatest game of the year. The boys were charging through the line and getting Bullet Bill Patterson before he could cock his usually accurate right arm for many passes.

For about the first time of this hectic Baylor season, the Bruins led with 17 first downs to 15 for Texas, although long dashes by Wolfe and Alchison accounted for most of the Bible gains. Only nine of Patterson's passes were completed out of the 31 attempts, five being intercepted. Six of the Texas 15 passes went good. The two teams were equal on punting—Baylor averaging 25 yards on five kicks and Texas getting 32 on 11 thuds.

The Bruins were also taking stock. Their chances for a Southwest Conference crown, although dimmed because of the loss to the Steers, was uppermost in their minds. They were mindful of the fact that in Southern Methodist next week-end, they will have a worthy opponent, a foe that will be out to swat the Bears at every corner. A victory over the Mustangs and over the Rice Owls on Saturday following Thanksgiving would give the Jennings a clinch for a tie for the title, even though the rough and ready Kittens in Houston win every other tilt.

Heineman Is Mines' Candidate for Little All-American Team

EL PASO, Nov. 10.—Texas Mines' candidate for Little All-American honors, Ken Heineman, sophomore backfield star, did all right by himself in the Border Conference game with Northern Arizona State of Flagstaff here Saturday.

Here is Heineman's record for the day: Completed 12 passes in 21 attempts; completed three passes for touchdowns; returned a kickoff 96 yards for a touchdown; skipped around end for 46 yards and a touchdown; averaged 7 yards every time he carried the ball; and in addition did most of his club's punting and kicked an extra point from placement. The Mines defeated the Arizona team, 53-13.

In spite of the fine showing of his team against the Lumberjacks, Head Coach Mack Saxon is fretting over the Armistice Day conference tilt with the Arizona Teachers of Tempe in Tuckers. The Bulldogs handed the Muckers their only border league licking last year after

When Your Car Won't Start

Unemployed Lists Not to Be Published

Unemployed persons and partially unemployed who fill out and send in cards for the National Unemployment Census, between November 16 and 20 need not fear that their names will be published, or made public in any way.

This pledge is contained in the instructions sent to all offices where the census is being taken.

"The confidential nature of the answers to questions on the Unemployment Report Card will be respected by the Administrator of the National Unemployment Census," the instructions state.

The information given by unemployed or other signers of the cards will not be used to their disadvantage in any way, such as in tax matters, questions of citizenship, or relief. The data on the cards is to be used solely for the purposes of the census. Further, positive action was taken to exclude from the census any supplementary enumeration or registration which might be imposed on the regular unemployment census by those seeking to take advantage of the government's undertaking for their own purpose.

Instructions went to all local committees in connection with the unemployment census, which read:

"It is quite possible that you will receive proposals for supplementary enumeration or registration projects, to precede or accompany the National Unemployment Census, and designed to provide special information for your community. However commendable such proposals may be in themselves, we must urge you to discourage them, or to request their postponement until after November 20.

"Their effects would be to detract from the census and to confuse the public mind. The main objective in this national enterprise is to secure a complete, honest and accurate registration, and any competing interest of the same general character would detract from this objective. It would also be to the ultimate disadvantage of your community itself."
