Tammany Leader Resigns

Won't Face Charge Preferred by New District Attorney

ALBANY, N. Y., Dec. 3 (AP).—Albert Marinelli, Tammany leader, today submitted his resignation as New York county clerk to Governor Lehman in the face of charges by republican elect District Attorney Thomas Dewey that he is unfit for office.

Marinelli sent a letter to the governor two days after he was called upon to answer charges that he was a "political ally of racketeers, harbored a federal fugitive, and consorted with known criminals."

He explained that his term expires December 31 and the time is too brief to justify humiliation to others at a public hearing.

Carter 2 Brand Defines Western Limits of Wasson

BY FRANK GARDNER.

Filling 1,700 feet with sulphur water in 24 hours after being swabbed down through tubing, A. G. Carter No. 2, E. C. Brand has apparently defined the western extent of the Wasson pool in northwestern Gaines. Operators were pulling tubing yesterday and will attempt to plug off water. However, since no oil was present in fluid, it is doubtful if the well will make a producer. It is bottomed at 4,995 feet and has been acidized with 1,000 gallons. It is located 2,200 feet from the south and 440 feet from the west line of section 54, block AX, public school land.

On the southeast edge of the pool, Shell No. 1 Cox, which also encountered water in drilling to 4,995, is unloading hole at 2,000 feet. It will be tested to determine if water was shut off by plugging back to 4,970 feet. Location is 440 feet east of the northeast corner of section 380, block G, C. C. S. D. & R. G. N. G. survey.

Wynne No. 1 Thomas, southwestern Yoakum test between the Wasson and Denton pools, was drilling plug from 7-inch casing cemented at 4,960 and will be tested today. Total depth is 5,030 feet in lime. Wynne No. 1 Willard is drilling below 4,300 in brown lime and anhydrite.

Murchison & Fikes No. 1 Sawyer, north of the Denver area, topped Yates sand at 5,040 and is fishing for slip at 3,410.

In the Bohago area, Skelly & Sun No. 1 Kiser showed 60 percent water after plugging back to 5,271 from 5,300 and is plugging back further. Standard No. 1 Sawyer failed to effect shutoff of bottom hole water by plugging back to 5,317, and will run an additional 60 sacks of cement.

In western Yoakum, Wiggins et al No. 1 Bartlett is drilling hard lime at 5,184 feet, while Stogner and Pipkin No. 1 Brock estate, in northwest Yoakum, had drilled to 3,700 in anhydrite and red rock.

Marlin Test Plugging.
The western Marlin wildcat, Greene, Conkling and Parker No. 1 O. B. Holt, will be plugged and abandoned. It was learned today. It had 300 feet of sulphur water in the hole in 12 hours. Water was struck in the last three feet drilled. Total depth was converted to 4,753 from 4,780 when steel line measurement was made. The test topped solid lime at 4,468 and drilled a good section. Location is 440 feet north and west of the center of labour 20, league 319, Garza county school land.

Cliff No. 6 Wadell, apparent failure in the Ordovician zone in western Crane, began flowing sulphur water when crew was coming out with core from 6,112-26. Turned into tanks, it made 100 barrels of sulphur water and two gallons of oil in one hour, then was shut in. The well ran 116 feet low to its east offset on top of Ellenburger, lower Ordovician. It is 1,097 feet from the south, 1,980 feet from the west line of section 4, block B-27, public school land.

Gulf No. 3 McKnight, also a deep test, is drilling lime at 5,095.

Magnolia No. 1-79 Gealey estate, Ward test five miles west of production, is plugging to abandon after halting drilling at 4,315 in lime. No shows were found.

Pecos River Test Staked.

L. B. Hoss and Frank J. Downey have staked location for a wildcat in south Ward county, close to the Pecos River. It is their No. 1 Mrs. Viola Myers et al, 330 feet from the northeast and northwest lines of the southwest 80 acres of section 17, block 32, H. & T. C. survey. The location falls one mile northwest of producers in the Netterville pool across the river in Pecos, and a mile and a half southeast of the nearest South Ward field wells.

Symbolic of thousands of winter sports enthusiasts who are flocking to winter's snow-covered playgrounds, is this skier as he swoops down a glistening slope in Yosemite National Park. With ski-poles flung wide and waxed wooden blades biting into fresh-fallen snow, the skier is shown as he executes, with expert precision, a difficult Christiania turn only a few feet from the camera.

Midland-Panhandle Polo Clubs Ready for 2 Games

Eight or ten men and from 35 to 40 horses will be seen in action Saturday and Sunday afternoons at Midland Fair park when the Midland polo team engages the fast Panhandle "4" in two full-length games.

Moisture which fell Thursday and early today tended to speed up the field which already had been scraped, rolled and packed to a smooth, fast surface. Sideboards which had been removed for the additional work were being replaced this morning and all was in readiness for the games, both of which will be played at 3 p. m.

Gene Linthicum, No. 2 man for Midland, arrived yesterday from his Barnhart ranch, bringing four of his best horses. After a workout he returned to the ranch but will be in again today to stay through the series. Gene formerly played with the Concho Kids team at San Angelo, that aggregation winning the southwestern crown.

Cecil Childers, six-goal player, who will hold down the No. 4 or safety position for Midland, will arrive this afternoon from Abilene, bringing his string of highly trained ponies.

Jay Floyd, who will play No. 3, and Rip Smith, No. 1, for Midland, are ready with their mounts at the fair park stables.

For the visitors, three crack Lamesa players and one Lubbock man will be in the starting line-up. A. C. Woodward of Lubbock, one of the best mounted players on the plains, will be at No. 1. At Nos. 2 and 3, respectively will be Eric and Spencer Barron of Lamesa, members of the "Barron brothers" team there, also the town's first string polo aggregation. Sheriff Gus White of Lamesa will play No. 4. The Dawson county cowboys are mounted on fast, nimble footed horses and are said to be the hardest riding aggregation in this section.

W. Willis Cox, Abilene polo player will referee both matches. Known for his outspoken and firm decisions, he is regarded as one of the best field officers in West Texas.

Tickets were on sale at drug stores, cigar and news stands today and also will be available at a booth in the Hotel Scharbauer lobby. Adult admission is 40 cents for children, with a 25 cent charge for game of school age, all tickets being good for the grandstand at no extra charge.

"The Price of Carelessness" Related In Winning Safety Contest Essay

BY VIRGINIA ANN HILLIARD

Winner in Modern Study Club High School Essay Contest.

The scene is a hospital. The time is any day in the year of 1937. As we walk through the corridors of the immaculately clean hospital, we marvel at the wonders which medical science has made possible. Our minds are diverted from these thoughts by the sight of a nurse in a white uniform rolling a ten-year-old child in a wheelchair. The child is paralyzed from the waist down and will never walk again. Something will be missing in her life just because her father had been a little too careless and in too big a hurry that While we walk down the hall the nurse tells us that the girl's father was thrown through the windshield into a ditch. His spine was broken and he died before the ambulance reached the hospital.

We learn that the lady who is in the room at the right is suffering from amnesia. She was visiting the big city to do some Christmas shopping and was suddenly hit by a speeding car. Not only did she suffer a broken leg, but now she cannot recall her friends, her family, nor her past.

A shrill siren is heard and a moment later a long, black ambulance rolls into the driveway. The doors open and the internes carry in a stretcher. Lying there, unconscious, his hands cut at the wrists and dangling helplessly, is a man. Yes, he will live. His hands may be amputated, and his broken nose can be mended, but can he ever enjoy life again?

Sadly we leave the hospital. These are only a few of the cases that happen every day. "Must accidents like this occur?" we ask ourselves. The answer is no.

Statistics show that in 1936 there were 36,000 people killed in automobile wrecks. The number of fatal-

Five Treated After Wrecks Last Night

12 Cars Piled Up As Wet Pavement Hampers Driving

Five persons were treated in Midland hospitals for injuries suffered last night in two automobile wrecks, one of them on Main street, and the other about 11 miles west of town.

Jack W. Stough, who resides at 409 North F street, a salesman for Armour & Co., was said to be in a serious condition today with seven broken ribs and possible internal injuries suffered when the car in which he was riding crashed into a truck near Warfield. Approximately a dozen cars were said piled-up on the highway before the road could be cleared.

Although details were lacking, it was reported the truck was stopped on the highway and that wet pavement caused the Stough car to run into it as the driver attempted to "brake" for a stop. Ed Darnell, following not far behind the car, seriously damaged his own car, when, in an effort to dodge the truck and other car, threw on his brakes and slid into some posts erected at the sides of the highway. Other cars piled up rapidly but most of the drivers were fortunate enough to stop before injuries resulted.

W. S. Watson, Cisco, also with Armour company, and reported to have been riding in the car with Stough, suffered a broken arm and slight bruises and abrasions.

Jimmie Lee Owen, an occupant of another car, received slight lacerations about the head and was given treatment at a local hospital.

Mrs. O. H. Lamar, wife of O. H. Lamar, manager of the Banner creamery, suffered a broken shoulder bone and severe bruises and lacerations when the car in which she was riding was struck by a light truck being driven by I. W. Watson, negro. Watson received lacerations about the head, none of them considered serious. The accident occurred at the Main and Wall street intersection.

R. D. Lee, night watchman, an eye-witness to the accident, declared that Mrs. Lamar was driving north at what he estimated to be about 15 miles an hour when Watson, driving westward struck her car about mid-way, driving it up onto the curb in front of the Midland National bank. Lee declared Watson was driving "at least 40 miles per hour." Watson was knocked from his car by the impact of the crash and fell under the truck.

Excessive Taxation Hit by Oil Leader

DALLAS, Dec. 3. (AP)—Oil operators of the middle and southwest were urged here last night to join business leaders in other fields for a crusade against duplicate and excessive taxation.

Baird H. Markham of New York, director of the American Petroleum Industries committee, a division of the American Petroleum Institute, told committees on taxation of the Mid-Continent Oil and Gas association, the way to such an end lies through curtailment of governmental expenditures.

"This nation, above all nations, is dependent upon the welfare of business and industry, the source of our living," said Markham. "Our government, of all governments, must be concerned with the welfare of business and industry because that is the welfare of the people themselves. x x x it is obvious that common welfare demands government have the benefit of business experience, brains and abilities."

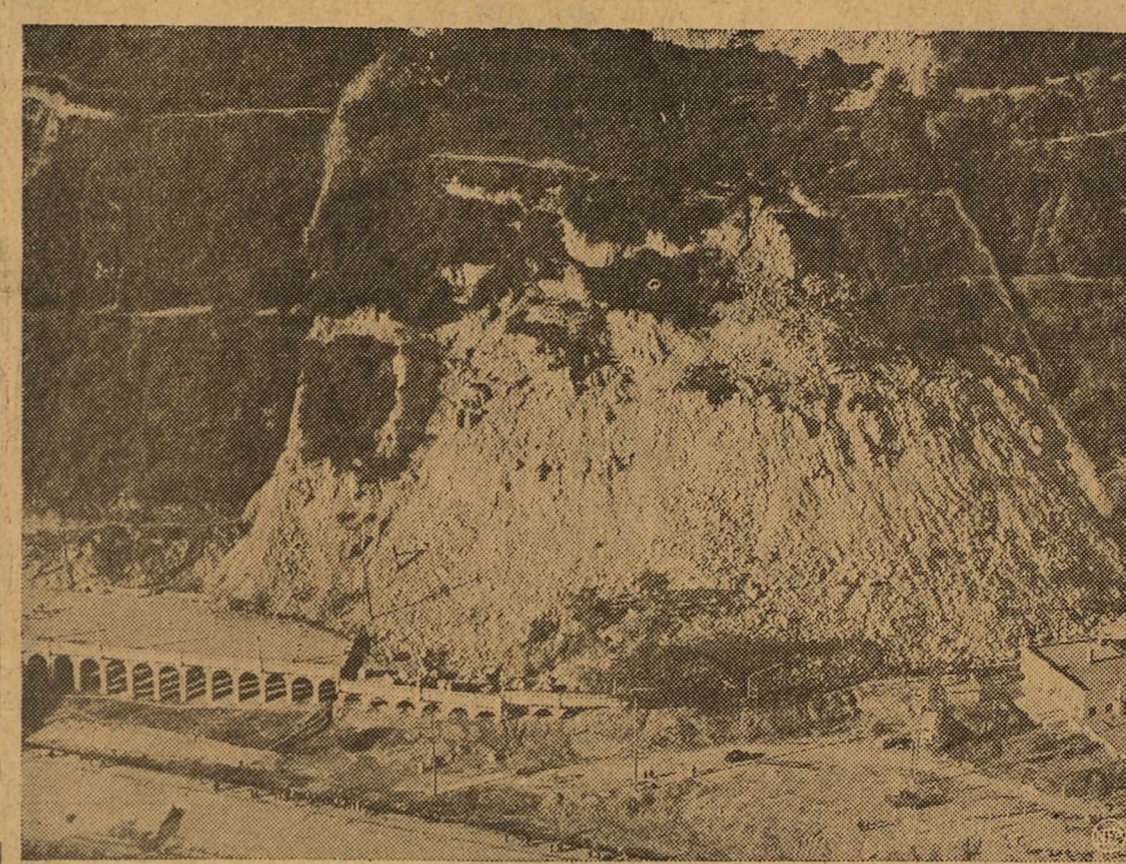

Markham said that through understanding various duplications taxes on the oil industry might be removed. He suggested concerted effort in passing along information on taxes and their effects.

The two hundred oil men earlier heard a recommendation from W. H. Francis of Dallas, general counsel for the Magnolia Petroleum company, that they insist upon a fair distribution of this (tax) burden to all the people.

One Avalanche Down and Another Coming Up

While Los Angeles seeks to dig an Elysian Park highway out from under the millions of tons of rock and earth shown above, geologists warn that another and perhaps still more crushing mountain-side avalanche may be expected soon. This remarkable photo shows the results of the first hillside collapse, which buried a highway, crushed a bridge viaduct and sent huge boulders to within a few feet of business buildings, shown at lower right, which might be destroyed if scientists are correct in their predictions of another slide. The picture shows the outlines of the collapsed section and the sheer cliffs left behind by the avalanche.

LaGuardia Hints At Desire for the Job of President

NEW YORK, Dec. 3. (AP)—In an impromptu speech before a wholly urban audience describing farm relief as the greatest American necessity, Mayor Fiorello H. LaGuardia of New York last night virtually served notice that he has larger—perhaps national—political aspirations.

LaGuardia, who ascended to greater increased prominence last month when in the city election he became the first man ever to defeat the democratic machine twice in a row, appeared before the 25th anniversary dinner of survey associates, a research organization, with Governor Frank Murphy of Michigan, Professor Felix Frankfurter and other nationally known figures.

Almost at the start of his address, the mayor brought the presidency into the consciousness of the audience by referring obliquely to a statement some time ago by William Allen White, Kansas editor, to the effect LaGuardia was a presidential possibility.

"We have one man of great discernment here," said the mayor, smiling broadly. "He is Mr. William Allen White of Kansas. He said I was good."

Sliding Allotment Base For Cotton Is Approved

LEAD 2 col 24—Slide Scale

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3. (AP)—Senator Borah (Rep-Idaho) criticized the senate farm bill today, saying it would impose punishment on farmers who failed to sign adjustment contracts.

He said the measure would provide for complete bureaucratic control.

In the house, leaders abandoned plans to complete consideration of the house farm bill by tomorrow night. Chairman Jones, Texas, said that he expected debate to continue for three or four days more.

During Borah's speech, Majority Leader Barkley broke to ask what the Idahoan would do to solve the farm problem and feed the needy. "I would separate domestic demands and surplus," replied Borah. He said the surplus could either be used for needy or exports.

"I know farmers need help," he said, "but I know that if we increase this program of reduction to about half of the people of the United States."

Representative Thomason told the house he would fight a proposal to send the farm bill back to the agriculture committee for revision.

"I agree there are faults with it now," he said, "but I think these can be ironed out with amendments. The committee spent weeks working out this legislation, and it is not for a small group who have spent much less time studying the subject to try to get it sent back for revision."

In opposing the five year base for cotton, Thomason cited as an example an area near El Paso where thousands of acres have been placed in cultivation in the last year or two, and where farmers expected to place thousands more in cultivation to pay for a recently completed irrigation system.

He said in that section of Texas and parts of New Mexico, Arizona and California, irrigation farmers found cotton their only large pay crop, freight costs to distant markets making other crops unprofitable.

Settlement Vacated After Protest Made

"Victory Parade" Receives Grenade Tossed by Student

SHANGHAI, Dec. 3. (AP)—Japanese troops bowed to a United States marine command today and withdrew from the American-guarded sections of the international settlement after a grenade explosion interrupted a victory march celebrating domination by the Japanese of Shanghai.

A Chinese student hurled the grenade and momentarily broke the ranks of 6,000 marching Japanese. The student was slain by a Chinese policeman, a member of the settlement's force.

Immediately after the explosion, Japanese cleared an area of some 50 blocks around the scene. Because a portion of the American marines' sector was included, a vigorous American protest came immediately. Japanese yielded and withdrew from the section.

Four persons, including three Japanese soldiers, were wounded by the grenade.

The "Victory parade" was held despite protests of American and other foreign officials and municipal authorities who held no demonstration provided opportunity for a possible fateful incident.

Tanks and armored cars escorted the stocky little Nipponese through the settlement while warplanes flew overhead.

Officially, the parade was described by a "transfer of troops from Jessfield to Hongkew" (from the west of the international settlement to its eastern part).

Japanese officials and officers, however, said the procession was symbolic of Japanese conquests in China and of Japan's might.

Early today British troops on guard duty at Jessfield, on the border of the western defense sector, where the parade entered the foreign area, removed barbed wire barricades under direction of Major-General A. P. D. Teifer-Smollett, commanding British troops here.

When the parade passed the outpost, a British squad turned out and presented arms in accordance with military courtesy.

British, Chinese and Sikh police lined the route of march and police patrol cars were stationed at intervals to guard against possible incidents. The parade took 30 minutes to pass a given point.

Another Lofty War Illusion Is Broken

Maybe we will have to revise our ideas about aviators, if we are to have any hope of getting the horror of war out of the world.

Exhibit A in the case is the book just written by Vittorio Mussolini, the dictator's son who is currently one of the ornaments of an Italian bombing squadron.

War, says young Mussolini, is "the quintessence of beauty"; it is "magnificent sport," particularly the bombing raids. Then he describes some of his adventures during the war in Ethiopia, to prove his point.

Speaking of a raid on a detachment of native cavalry, he writes: "We arrived upon them unobserved and immediately dropped our loads of explosives. I remember that one group of horsemen gave me the impression of a budding rose as the bombs fell in their midst. It was exceptionally good fun, and they were easy to hit as we were not too high up. They made a perfect target."

And a little later he describes the bombing of an Ethiopian town called Adi-Ado. Incendiary bombs were dumped here, as follows: "This was swell, and had a tragic but beautiful effect. Our best fun was trying to hit a large hut which stood in the middle of the town. I had to fly over it three times to make it. The third time I hit it I saw it begin to burn. Ethiopians leaped out and tried to escape. We started enough fire to heat half the globe."

It takes all sorts to make a world, of course, and this gallant young hero may be of a different stripe from ordinary military flyers. But what he writes is worth pondering over, because it does show how an aviator's-eye view of war can differ from the view one gets on the ground.

That budding-rose effect, for instance, could be seen only from the air. At ground level one would miss the delicate unfolding beauty and see only the mangled bodies, the pain and the terror. And the boyish fun that can be had from trying to drop an incendiary bomb into somebody's home is not quite the sort of emotion that would be experienced by the people who were inside the home at the time. They might feel very differently about the affair.

Now we have got into the habit of looking on aviators as dashing and romantic warriors. It has been said that they restore the essence of knightly chivalry to warfare. Much fine stuff has been written about their daring and about the way they have restored adventure to war.

It is about time we revised our ideas. Aviators make war on defenseless folk; they kill women and children, burn houses that are full of non-combatants, and find "exceptionally good fun" in dismembering people who can't hit back. If there is anything knightly or romantic about that, it is hard to think what it can be.

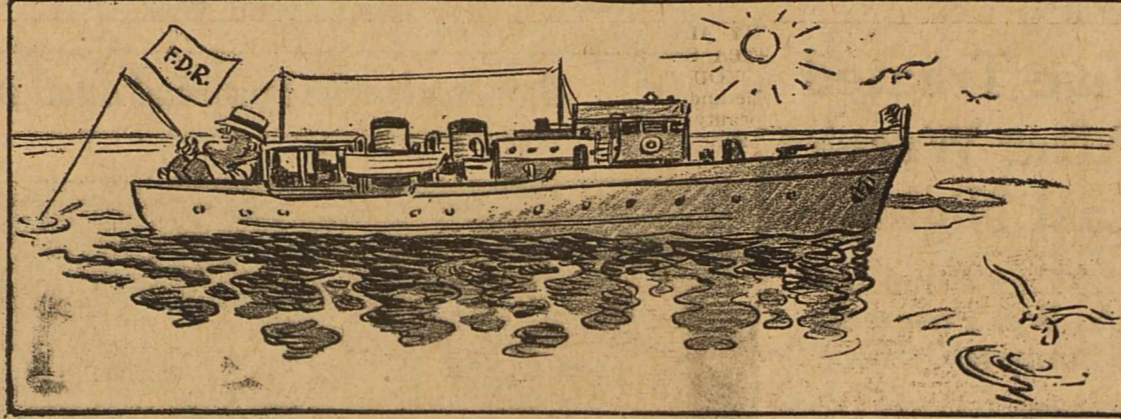

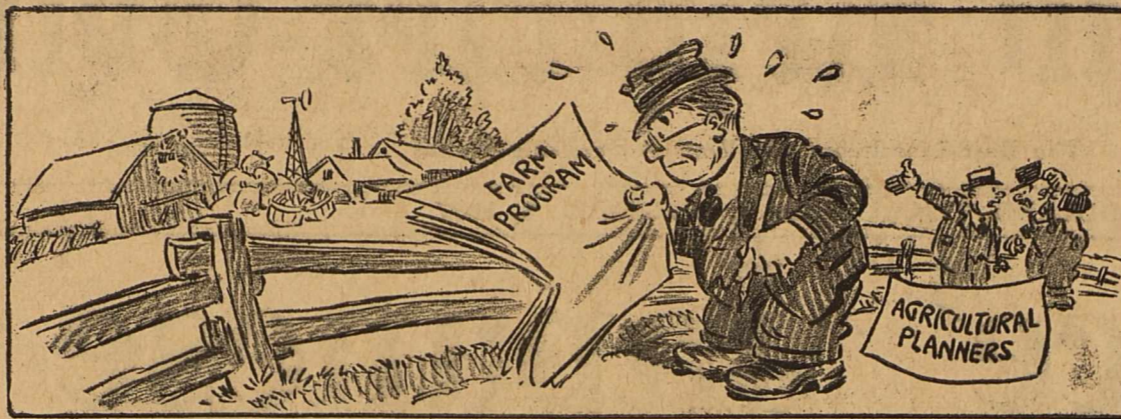

Mussolini's callous jubilation may help us change our opinions.

to Paducah, Ky., 648 miles, he said. According to Lilienthal, a great part of the South and its farmers will be "deeply affected." Greater prosperity will be brought to the farms and industries of several states through use of the river route, he said.

Link to Mississippi.

As the river is opened to navigation by large trading boats, it will become a part of the Mississippi river network. It is probable that the Tennessee will become a highway for extensive and varied commerce.

Because shipping goods by water is cheaper, it is estimated that the Southern farmer will save money each time he sends his goods down the river route.

Lilienthal contended that the improvement to date of the Tennessee already has increased activity along the river. Any number of terminals are being constructed and farmers continue to inquire concerning the availability of water service, he said.

Statistics show that traffic on the Mississippi river system increased from 25,566,000 tons in 1920 to 73,902,000 tons in 1936. The inference is that cheaper freight rates with satisfactory service caused the increase.

STORIES IN STAMPS

RESTORING BATTERED RHEIMS TO GLORY

SHELLS whined across the lofty, ancient spires of Rheims cathedral first in 1914. They smashed its pinnacles, its statues, fired the building and left a shattered waste of priceless 13th century glass windows. In September of 1914 the Germans seized the cathedral, littered its floors with straw and billeted troops in the vast nave.

When the Germans withdrew from the town, hard-pressed French converted the church into a hospital. Then the shelling was renewed, Germans claiming the high towers of Rheims sheltered military observation posts. Throughout the entire war Rheims rocked and crumbled under airplane bombs and long-range fire. Only the massive strength of the building's thick walls prevented complete destruction.

So the cathedral which was the favorite coronation place of French kings and where Charles VII took his scepter in 1429, attended by Joan of Arc, emerged a gaunt, wracked pile at the end of the war. It has remained closed for 23 years. But reconstruction has been under way meantime, financed largely by the French government and John D. Rockefeller, Jr. Works of art, carried off to safety during the war, have been returned. And recently, Rheims was reopened. The church is shown on a 1930 French stamp.

Four Are Hostesses for Bridge at Country Club Thursday Afternoon

Christmas Air Features Appointments For Twenty-Six Table Party Given by Mmes. Greathouse, Chapman, Mobley, Street

Ushering in the Christmas season in more important social affairs was the twenty-six table party for which Mrs. W. B. Chapman, Mrs. W. H. Street, Mrs. Barney Greathouse, and Mrs. R. T. Mobley were hostesses at the Country Club Thursday afternoon.

Mistletoe and candles reflected Christmas gaiety in the club ballroom and set the motif for party appointments.

Table covers were in white with poinsettia designs and tallies followed the Christmas theme.

At tea time, ices were molded in poinsettia shape and individual cakes bore names of the guests. Favors were tiny Christmas trees.

Mrs. W. C. Maxwell held high score for the afternoon's play and was presented with a carved bouddoir tray decorated with gold lace work.

Second high score went to Mrs. Allen Tolbert who was awarded gold salt and pepper shakers.

Mrs. Thomas K. Betzel cut high and received a gold card tray.

Tea guests were Mmes. Iva M. Noyes, Jimmie Lott, C. P. Wilson.

Mmes. F. H. Schouten, L. A. Tullos, M. C. Ulmer, Bill Van Huss, Sam Warren, Bill Wyche, Vern Wesley, Bill Collins, Richard Gile, Tanner, Jimmie Maxwell, Bert Ross, R. S. Anderson, W. D. Anderson, Thomas K. Betzel, Oliver Haag, L. C. Link, Rogers, M. F. Turner, James H. Goodman, Albin Tolbert, C. Q. Cliett, Harry Prickett.

Mmes. Karl Radloff, Don Stookey, B. W. Stevens, Lester Short, Hubert Isbell, Robert Tucker, M. A. Park, T. A. Pollard, J. Howard Hodge, Wallace Irwin, C. P. Lancaster, F. C. Cummings, W. C. Maxwell, Ghas. McCann, McLendon, Tom Roberts, F. R. Schenck, John W. Skinner, Harvey Sloan, Dallas Dale.

Mmes. Bill Bryant, Sam Giesey, Frank Williamson, Bates Hoffer, Elliott Barron, Hardy, Joe Mims, Crow, Tom C. Bobo, Frank Stacy, Chas. L. Klapproth, Sparks, Curtis, Jerry Phillips, John Perkins, M. L.

Rumania suffered the greatest average loss in the World War, 44.76 per cent of her men under arms.

Beauty Looking Forward to Spring

BY ALICIA HART.
NEA Service Staff Writer.

YOU wouldn't have to spend extra dollars and money on special pre-Easter beauty routines if, during the rest of the winter, you would follow this program:

HAVE a weekly hot oil treatment, and, in addition, brush your hair every night. (If you cannot afford to do not like professional scalp treatments, then simply massage scalp and hair with warm olive oil the night before your appointment with the hairdresser.)

DECIDE whether your skin is dry, oily or just normal, then get a few really good preparations, made especially for your type of skin, and use them regularly.

EAT one huge green salad every day. (Obliterates any need for sulphur and molasses treatments come April.)

INVEST in bathroom scales. If you know that you've gained a pound, you'll probably take immediate steps to get rid of it. If you only suspect that you have, you're likely to keep right on eating everything in sight at every meal.

REFUSE to let your wardrobe get pretty dull as winter goes on. Often, the money spent on one gay belt or a new purse or a new hat pays generous dividend. Do not let boredom with your winter clothes or thoughts of spring ones keep you from being just as meticulous as ever about grooming details.

APPLY a protective foundation lotion under makeup before you expose your face to wind, sleet, snow or whatever. (If your skin is very dry, it might be a good idea, before going out in the morning, to pat face and throat with rich night cream, remove only the excess, then put on makeup.)

BRIDAL Shower is Compliment to Mrs. Teinert

Mrs. Alwin C. Teinert, who before her marriage on Thanksgiving Day was Miss Eldora Baumann, was honored at a miscellaneous shower with Mrs. J. L. Huddle as hostess at her home northwest of town Wednesday afternoon.

Christmas decorations were used in party appointments.

A "treasure hunt" theme was employed for the shower. The honoree was bidden to follow a thread which led her first to a bridal cake iced white and decorated in pink with the names "Alwin-Eldora" on it and then to a huge pink-and-white basket overflowing with gifts.

At the close of the afternoon, refreshments were served, with Mrs. Teinert cutting the decorated cake.

Present were: The honoree, Mmes. O. M. Tyner, R. O. Brooks, F. C. Dale, J. A. Andrews, Bernice Munn, J. A. Mead, S. L. Alexander, S. H. Gwyn, A. C. Caswell, J. M. Reising, Eva Wrayford, L. C. Stephenson, Hubert Drake, J. D. Webb, Boyce Eidson, P. P. Barber, W. J. Glenn, Agnes G. Dietrich, W. A. Baumann, A. R. Baumann, C. C. Carden, C. H. Cally, Misses Bess Eidson, Vera Webb, Dorothy Caswell, Neva Rae Drake, and the hostess.

Pet Sparrow Frolics And Returns to Cage

ST. LOUIS (U.P.)—Thirteen-year-old Lorraine Decker's pet sparrow, Pritzy, is still wild but enjoys all the comforts of a home—including three square meals a day.

Every morning Lorraine releases the sparrow from its cage. Promptly at 11:30 a. m. Pritzy returns for dinner. At 4:30 p. m. it returns again, is fed and placed in the cage for the night after a day spent among wild friends.

Girl Scouts Make Map, Play Games On Thursday

Girls studying first class work for Girl Scouts were taken to Cloverdale Thursday afternoon to make an observation map. Mrs. O. I. Wood was in charge of the group including Liza Jane Lawrence, Bobbie Wood, and Betty Kimbrough.

Mrs. R. V. Lawrence and Mrs. M. R. Hill were in charge of other Girl Scouts who met at the Baptist annex. Games were played, birthday songs were sung, and a check was made on sales of Christmas cards.

Three new members present were Nancy LaForce, Suzanne LaForce, and Doris Jean Mayers.

Wilda Jane Bond was a visitor. Scouts present were: Margaret Mims, Margaret Ann West, Jimmie Kendrick, Elma Jean Noble, Dolores Barron, Frances Ellen Link, Lou Nell Hudman, Alberta Smith, Charlotte Kinsey, Marilyn Sidwell, Ella Ann Tolbert, Patsy Collins, Martha Jane Preston, Emily Jane Lamar, Betty Kimbrough, Bobbie Wood, Lela Mae Craddock, Carol Patricia Butcher, Doris Lynn Pemberton, Liza Jane Lawrence, Kathryn Francis, Mary Lee Snyder, Joanna Bond, Kathryn Blair, June Utterback, Beth Ann Taylor, Geneva Whigham, Willine Pace, Virginia Wright, Nancy LaFore, Suzanne LaForce, Doris Jean Myers, Billy Walker.

Red Predominates In Appointments for Bien Amigos Party

Using red sweetpeas in the playing room and prize wrapping and tallies in red and white, Mrs. C. A. Mix entertained for the Bien Amigos club and a quartet of guests at her home, 800 W. Louisiana, on Thursday afternoon.

Awards in the three tables of bridge played went to Mrs. J. M. Haygood for high score among club members, to Mrs. A. P. Luskamp for high score among guests, and to Mrs. Edgar Clayton for cut.

A party plate was served at the close of the games to: Guests, Mmes. A. P. Luskamp, Glen Lewis, Bill Simpson, Clayton, members, Mmes. F. F. Winger, John House, E. A. Wahlstrom, F. E. Weaver, P. F. Bridgewater, Nelson Young, Haygood, Harvey Hardison, and the hostess.

Lois Class Holds All-Day Meeting To Quilt, Sew

Despite disagreeable weather, 26 women gathered at the Baptist church Thursday for an all-day meeting of the Lois class.

Meeting was held in the basement of the church and two quilts were quilted and completed during the day. New curtains for the class room were also made.

A covered-dish luncheon was served at noon.

Visitors were Mrs. C. A. Travelstead and Mrs. W. T. Chandler Sr. Miss Iva Ayers and Mrs. J. T. Howze were honorary members present, and Mrs. C. M. Shankles was a new member.

Others attending were: Mmes. Tyson Midkiff, J. V. Hobbs, W. T. Chandler, G. W. Williams, J. D. Webb, F. E. Sutherland, W. A. Sherrod, Chas. Langford, C. H. Houston, L. O. McCallian, O. G. Jones, C. C. Cobb, Stringer, B. C. Cook, C. V. Dale, L. Bryan, S. G. McLaughlin, Lula Peeler, C. R. Richardson, Annie Collier.

Boy Unwittingly Jumps Upon Sleeping Coyote

REGINA, Sask. (U.P.)—Henry Gilbertson, 12, had the unique experience of riding a coyote. The boy was walking across a field on his father's farm and took a running jump over a clump of Russian thistle landing on the neck of a sleeping coyote.

The animal sprang up and after a brief sprint deposited young Gilbertson on the ground.

Professor Conducts Dust Census in Room

MINNEAPOLIS, (U.P.) — Prof. Frank B. Rowley, director of the University of Minnesota's experimental engineering station, studying air in connection with development of air conditioning, has made a count of the number of dust particles in a room.

He says that in some places there are 2,000,000 to 4,000,000 dust particles per cubic foot.

Flier Warns of Fire, Then Calls Apparatus

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (U.P.) — Elmer Adcock still has his farm home because of an observing National Guard airplane pilot.

Capt. Eric Kaepfel, flying at 2,000 feet, saw smoke puff from the roof of the Adcock home. He circled the house until the roar of his motor aroused the farmer. Then the flier circled the general store a mile away until he attracted attention. Next he flew back to the Adcock farm.

Mrs. Walter Hall, the store's proprietor, said: "We finally saw the smoke and figured out what he was trying to tell us." The fire department was called and the fire extinguished.

Owl Upsets Decorum Of City Night Courts

MIAMI, Fla. (U.P.) — A hoot owl threatened to break up a night session of the city court.

Judge Norman N. Blakely, after several minutes of dignified ducking, called a 15-minute recess.

Spectators threw hats and coats into the air in attempts to capture the intruder. The owl was snared in mid-air with a well-aimed hat.

Three Waive Claim To $45,400 Estate

ELYRIA, O. (U.P.) — An inheritance of 45,400 was refused by three beneficiaries of the estate of Frank Caley, when three children of the deceased brought suit to break the will.

Caley left $5,000 to his housekeeper, and the rest to a nephew and a neighbor.

His children charged their father was not of sound mind when he made the will. All the beneficiaries agreed.

A lot of something about nothing in particular: This will be Alabama's fourth trip to the Rose Bowl—they have two wins and a tie. Quick: Who won the Rose Bowl last year??? Bobby Dodd. All-American quarterback at Tennessee a few years ago, was never fazed by opposing teams but fainted dead away when told he was the father of a 9-pound girl. The Santa Clara Broncos, who will meet LSU in the Sugar Bowl, go through a short but snappy boxing drill before every workout. The coach claims it improves footwork. It is said that Rolly Hemsley, Browns' star catcher, paid more than $4,000 in fines during the 1937 season, which is more than his salary. Professional football scouts believe Andy Farkas, Detroit halfback, is the hardest-running ball-carrier in collegiate ranks. He is so flat-footed that the Titan management had to have his shoes made to order. Tiny Thompson, goalie for the Boston Bruins, starts his 13th season wearing the same protective pads. Lynn Waldorf, known as one of the calmest of football coaches, had his reputation impaired during the Wisconsin game when he stuck a lighted pipe in his pocket, doing his suit very little good. Pug and Phil Manders, Drake halfbacks, are younger brothers of Jack Manders, former Minnesota great and now one of the outstanding Chicago Bears. Lou Ambers doesn't claim to be much of a hunter. The Herkimer Hurricane recently went on a month's expedition and his total bag was three pheasants. Bob Haak, Indiana's gigantic tackle, has been known to consume two whole chickens after a game. Sons of three former big league baseball stars started with the Indiana freshmen football team this year. They were the boys of Vic Aldridge, Johnny Corridan, and Jimmy Middleton. Jimmy Perrin, New Orleans featherweight, is preparing against the day when he no longer will be able to make his living with his fists. Perrin, when he isn't training for a fight, is an expert operator in his mother's beauty parlor. An enterprising mathematician has figured out the chances of naming a football team that will go through the season undefeated, untied and unscored on 838 to 1. Cecil Smith, nine-goal player, will lead a 27-goal outfit against an Argentine 25-goal polo team in Mexico City in December. Lou Little claims Sid Luckman is the greatest passer he ever has seen, including Benny Friedman and Harry Newman. Fred Janke was deemed so valuable by his Michigan teammates that even though he was bench-ridden most of the season by injuries, the Wolverine tackle was elected captain of the 1938 team. One of the closest rivalries in football, as far as points are concerned, is the Notre Dame-Southern California series. In 11 games played so far, the Irish have scored 148 points and the Trojans 137. When Knox and Monmouth college played to a scoreless tie it was the first time in 53 games that both failed to score. Jim London, the Golden Greek and former world heavyweight wrestling champion, has grossed $10,000,000 in box office receipts. This was the first year since 1915 that a Harvard football team defeated both Yale and Princeton. Army cadets who are permitted to spend the night of the Army-Notre Dame game in New York are allowed only $5 apiece for expenses. Lynn Waldorf considers his present crop of sophomores the most promising he has had at Northwestern. Six of them have seen a great deal of varsity service. Fritz Crisler took drastic measures to ferret out Princeton faults while preparing the Tiger for Yale. Princeton's coach injected himself into the lineup on a few practice plays to get first-hand information. Some member of the Chicago Univ. team posted the following: "You cannot halt the opposition by lying in a prone position." That's good advice to any football team.

Frame Gardening Is Finding Favor

COLLEGE STATION— "What trench silos are to farmers and ranchmen, frame gardens will be to farm and ranch women," Miss Jennie Camp, food production specialist of the Extension Service division of Texas A&M College, predicted on her recent return from Northwest Texas, where many frame gardens are located.

Frame gardens came from cold frames, according to Miss Camp. They had their inception in the Panhandle section, where county home demonstration agents found that small areas, protected from cold, wind, and sand, produced earlier and more vegetables of higher quality than did the regular gardens.

"People in Northwest Texas find that they can plant frame gardens in March and have fresh vegetables by the middle of April, or about the same time as vegetables are ready for gathering in Central Texas outside gardens," Miss Camp said. "Normally they would have to wait until June to have vegetables."

Brick and Stucco

This house, designed by Architect William S. Koch, of Kansas City, Mo., combines brick and stucco in a seven-room house with a two-car attached garage. The Federal Housing Administration issued a commitment to insure a $7,000 mortgage on the property which is located in Topeka, Kans. A feature of the house is the large master bedroom with open fireplace. The plan permits the addition of an extra bedroom over the garage at a future date, if desired.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Hoff have gone to Dallas to see the Rice-SMU game Saturday.

Geo. Donnelly, independent contractor and driller of Fort Worth, is in Midland.

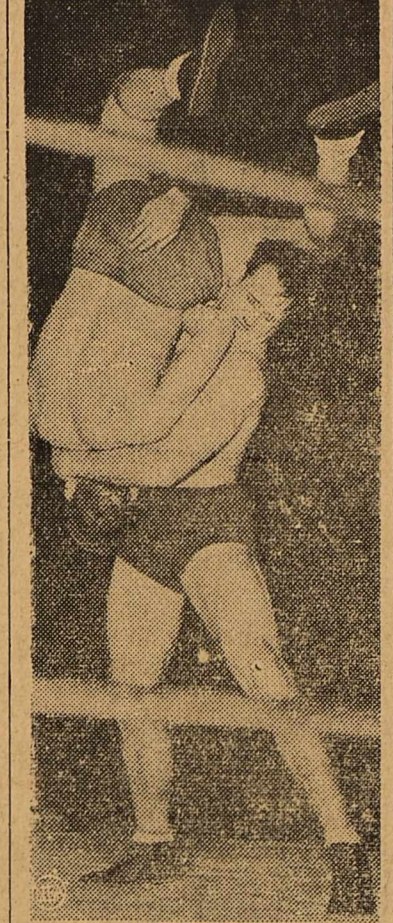

Guy Landrum, of Fakes & Company of Fort Worth, is a visitor here.

Clifford Mores, of Tulsa, Oklahoma, is an out-of-state visitor in town.

C. G. Forster, McCamey chamber of commerce secretary, and C. B. Coulter, business man of the same city, are here today on business.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Hodge have gone to Abilene, where they will attend the Howard Payne-Hardin-Simmons football game Saturday.

Bronko Nagurski, the pro footballer who claims the world's heavyweight rassing title, made a valiant attempt to ram Dean Detton's head right through the ring in their match in Los Angeles, but the floor stood under the strain. However, the Bronk did score a fall with the maneuver as he defeated his old rival.

system has been amazing. They are inexpensive for they or usually made of scrap lumber, revarnished with barnyard manure, and covered with canvas, according to Miss Camp. Where only a few years ago only an occasional frame garden was found, there are now hundreds in Northwest Texas. One county, Lynn, has 67 such gardens.

"I found one instance in which a woman has harvested vegetables valued at $24.15 from an area 4 by 16 feet," Miss Camp reported. "I think the frame garden has great possibilities over a large portion of the state, especially in cases of restricted areas, poor soil, lack of rainfall, or other unfavorable conditions."
