Hitler Triumphant Enters Vienna

Darrow Is Dead

Clarence Darrow, famed attorney and speaker, died Sunday of a heart attack. Funeral services had not been announced early today.

Clarence Darrow Is Victim of Heart Attack Sunday

CHICAGO, March 14 (AP).—Clarence Darrow, champion of the "underdog" and bitter foe of capital punishment who won international fame as a defense attorney, is dead.

The 80-year-old lawyer who once wrote, "I've fought all my life for the underdog" succumbed at his home at 12:40 p. m. (C. S. T.) Sunday after a long illness. Heart attack was given as the immediate cause of his demise.

The master pleader for the defense in a long list of criminal cases including that of Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb, the "thrill slayers" of little Bobby Franks in Chicago more than a decade ago, had been confined to his bed for the past two months.

Mrs. Darrow, who had been in constant attendance at her husband's bedside, his son, Paul, and Darrow's sister, Mrs. Jennie Darrow Moore, were with him when he died.

The defender of the late Eugene V. Debs, Socialist leader, who had been accused of conspiracy during the American railway strike in 1894, of John T. Scopes, defendant in the famous Tennessee "monkey trial" and of many others whom Darrow considered as "unfortunates" had been in retirement for five years, but he never lost his interest in world affairs nor in the cause of the "underdog."

Less than a year ago he gave out a brief outline of his philosophy in which he declared that the greatest satisfaction he had gotten out of life had been "my efforts in behalf of unfortunates" and that his hardest task had been "trying my hardest to help overcome the cruelties of the world."

Roswell Stockman Ends Life Before Trial Is Opened

ROSSELL, N. M., March 14 (AP).—Henry Russell, 66-year-old pioneer Roswell stockman and farmer, shot himself fatally at the city police station here Sunday, Sheriff Perry Bean said, a few days before he was to have gone on trial for murder.

Bean said Russell, held for trial March 13 in the fatal shooting of Omer E. Bybee, "apparently committed suicide."

Russell at liberty under bond, entered the station restroom about 9 o'clock and a shot rang out, Bean said. He died instantly.

A Roswell resident for 37 years, Russell was charged with fatally shooting Bybee, a 49-year-old CCC carpenter, last Sept. 20 in an argument over a $20 debt he claimed Bybee owed him.

Surviving are his widow, a son and a daughter.

Anyway Allred Knows if He Will Run Again

AUSTIN, March 14 (AP).—Governor Allred said today he had made up his mind regarding his attitude about seeking a third term and would announce his decision later in the week.

The governor returned to Austin after a week of travel in west and north Texas and several days of "meditation" at Mineral Wells. The reason for delaying the announcement was a desire for time in which to form his statement.

Guilty Plea By Whitney Is Heard

Continued on $10,000 Bail By the Court

NEW YORK, March 14 (AP).—Richard Whitney, head of Richard Whitney & Co. brokerage firm and former president of the New York Stock Exchange, pleaded guilty today to a grand jury indictment charging grand larceny.

The indictment accused the financier of theft of $105,000 from the estate of his father-in-law, George Sheldon. The district attorney agreed to continue Whitney at liberty on bail of $10,000.

Cotton Quotas for 1938 Assured by Farmer Referendum

Midland county's long lead in favor of 1938 cotton quotas were in line with those of the entire cotton belt, a Washington report issued Sunday showed. Midland voted 241 for to 14 against.

First published tabulations, as reports began to come in to Washington offices, showed 735 of the 1,050 cotton producing counties giving 1,135,296 votes for the quotas, with 68,521 against. The incomplete votes, tabulated, accounted for about 93 per cent of the total.

Under the new AAA Act a two-thirds majority of those voting makes the quotas apply to all cotton farmers. Those who sell beyond their quotas are subject to stiff penalty taxes.

Country Club to Have Important Meeting Tonight

Country Club stockholders and associate members were reminded today by Addison Wadley, president, that an important meeting will be held at the club house tonight on the matter of reorganization and expansion of the club, with issuance of an additional $20,000 worth of stock.

The meeting is crucial in accomplishment of the project, Wadley said, and he urged everyone having any interest in outcome of the club and the golf course to attend.

The meeting will open at 7:30 o'clock, it was announced.

Home Town's Troop 52 Makes Clean Sweep Of Boy Scout Field Meet at Local Grounds

Amassing a total of 375 points, Boy Scout troop No. 52 of Midland, Alvon Patterson, scoutmaster, outclassed the entire field to walk off with high honors at the field meet of Boy Scouts of the Midland-Odessa district of the Buffalo Trail council held here Saturday afternoon, more than 100 scouts from Penwell, Odessa and Midland participating.

Troop No. 54 of Midland, Buster Howard, scoutmaster, scored 260 points to win second place, while Scoutmaster Pettys' troop No. 55 of Penwell annexed third place honors by running up a total of 90 points. Troop No. 59 of Odessa scored 65 points to win fourth place.

Penwell troop No. 55 was awarded a special prize for having the largest percentage of its membership in attendance. Twelve of the thirteen scouts enrolled in the Penwell troop were in attendance at the district meet.

Adults Offered an Industrial Course In Show Card Work

Details have been completed and dates set for a short unit course in show card lettering for Midland business men, to be held evenings at the high school, under the supervision of the Midland public schools.

The first meeting of the group is scheduled for Tuesday, March 15, 8 p. m., in the biology laboratory of the high school. Some 25 men have already signed up for the course and others have signified their interest in this work. Any person 16 years of age or over and employed full time is eligible for instruction and is invited to attend this class.

This course is given in cooperation with the state department of industrial education in response to a widely felt need in the distributive occupations for more training along this line.

The class will be conducted by H. C. Kyle, Midland commercial sign painter, and will consist of 48 classroom hours of instruction. This should enable all beginners who complete the prescribed work to do elementary card lettering, while those who have had experience will have opportunity to do advanced work in layout, color schemes and other phases of advanced design.

In the development of a program in industrial education the school board is aware of the many possibilities of this type of adult education, and will be prepared to offer other short unit courses in various phases of business and industry of the community at such time as the need arises.

Nance's Colt Wins Again at Caliente

Tom Nance's brown colt, Johnny Brigade, won his second handicap race in a row at Agua Caliente Sunday, Nance was advised by telegram from his trainer, D. J. Drake. The three-year old handily won the three-quarter mile Julian handicap, over a field of eleven horses, in the mud.

The colt won his first race a month earlier, both wins being on Sunday the thirteenth. Shortly before that, he was second in a "picture finish" race of a mile and seventy yards.

American Legion to Celebrate Founding

All over the country tomorrow, March 15, the American Legion will be celebrating the nineteenth anniversary of its founding.

From 6:30 o'clock in the morning until approximately midnight, various programs will be presented over the radio in commemoration of the Legion's birthday, with a special national broadcast from 11 to 12 o'clock in the morning.

American Legion members here call the attention of all Legionnaires and others interested to the commemorative programs.

C-C HEADS TO MEET.

Directors of the chamber of commerce will meet at 7:30 o'clock this evening for the regular March business session of the body. All members have been urged to attend promptly to complete the busy program with dispatch, according to Bill Colyns, manager.

Britain to Match Arms Of Germany

To Meet Hitler Program Force With Force

LONDON, March 14 (AP).—Prime Minister Chamberlain today warned Germany that Britain would expand her vast rearmament program to match force with force in answer to Reichfuhrer Hitler's absorption of Austria.

However, Chamberlain, in a statement of policy before the house of commons, did not promise backing to France if she should go to war to save Czechoslovakia from Pan-Germanism. Chamberlain said Czechoslovakia had been in consultation with Britain but he refused to discuss what Britain would do to guard the central European republic for whose 3,500,000 Sudean Germans Hitler had proclaimed himself protector.

Chamberlain bluntly rejected the German statement that Britain had no right to interest itself in Austrian independence.

If Allred Runs, That Makes Two Says Carl Estes

DALLAS, March 14 (AP).—Carl Estes, Longview publisher today "dared" Governor Allred to run for a third term and added that "if he announces, I will also announce my candidacy."

Estes said "it would not be fair for Bill McCraw to run against the political twins," Allred and Ernest O. Thompson.

Safety Luncheon Ticket Sale Gets Off to Good Start

Active sale of tickets for Wednesday's safety luncheon, sponsored by the Midland Safety Council, the Lions and Rotary clubs and the various civic and federated women's clubs of the city, was started this morning. Early reports indicated that from 250 to 300 will attend the luncheon at which L. G. Phares, chief of the state highway patrol, will speak.

The public is invited to attend the luncheon. Tickets may be secured at 75 cents per plate at the chamber of commerce office. Reservations should be made today or Tuesday, committeemen said.

Funeral Services For Aged Man to Be Held Here Today

Funeral services for George Walter Jones, 77, who died in a Midland hospital Sunday night of complications from injuries sustained in an automobile accident several days ago were to be held at the Ellis Funeral chapel this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment was to follow at Fairview cemetery. Rev. J. E. Pickering was to officiate at the rites.

Survivors here include the widow, a son, G. E. Jones, and grandchildren.

Mr. Jones had lived in Midland for several years.

Buster Cole Wins Cup In Exposition's Boy Calf Roper Contest

By winning three of the five roping appearances of Midland's five juvenile contestants at the Southwestern Exposition, Fort Worth, Buster Cole was awarded the silver loving cup offered by the stock show management.

Buster, 14 years old, won first place at the second, third and fourth shows. Clarence Scharbauer Jr. won first place in the first show and Marion Flynt Jr. won first place in the final show Sunday night.

Midland fans, returning from a week-end at the Exposition, declared that the roping act staged by the five youthful contestants from Midland was one of the most interesting features of the show and that a big hand was given the boys each time out. Results follow:

Friday night—Clarence Scharbauer Jr., 6.2 seconds; Marion Flynt Jr., no time; Buster Cole, 8.8 seconds; Bill Wyche Jr., 9.5 seconds; Roy Parks Jr., 9 seconds.

Saturday afternoon—Clarence Scharbauer Jr., 10.2 seconds; Marion Flynt Jr., no time; Buster Cole, 5.7 seconds; Bill Wyche Jr., no time; Roy Parks Jr., no time.

What Germany Gets Through Austrian Coup

A tiny little country is Austria—only a little larger than our own state of Maine—yet it is a rich prize to slake the ambitions of Adolf Hitler and his Nazis. In addition to the fact that Austria is rich in minerals and agricultural products, its domination by Germany was a supreme triumph for Hitler in his campaign to project Nazi principles throughout central Europe.

No wonder, then, that Italy's

Benito Mussolini watches the Austrian scene so closely in the animated map above, drawn by NEA artist George Scarbo. He doesn't like to contemplate a Nazi-dominated Austria just across the Alps from his domain.

Hitler is caricatured as he sends his goose-stepping troopers into Austria to complete the subjugation which reached its climax when Chancellor Schuschnigg resigned. Swastikas fly over every city.

What does Hitler get by taking over Austria? About 32,300 square miles of land... populated by 6,760,000 persons... of whom 6,116,000 are Catholics... 295,542 are Protestant... the rest Jews... whose principal occupation is agriculture... growing 1,000,000 acres of rye, 700,000 of oats, 500,000 of wheat, 400,000 of barley... and who produce much timber, minerals and other natural resources... and manufacture machinery, automobile, textiles, leather goods, furniture and paper.

Plains Towns Form Polo League; Map Season Schedule

LUBBOCK, March 14. — Representatives of four West Texas towns met here Sunday for a luncheon and business session, at which the West Texas Polo League was formed.

Six teams, the Whites and Blacks, of Lamesa, the El Rojas (Plainview), Plainview, Lubbock and Lockney, make up the league.

A 30-game schedule, opening April 17 and closing July 31, was drawn, and a league tournament, probably to be played at Lubbock, was planned.

The league will be associated with the National Polo Association and all league games will be played under National rules.

A four-goal handicap was placed on Lamesa, two goals to apply on Gus White, one on A. C. Woodward and one on T. E. Barron. The handicap will apply on a six chucker basis. Other clubs are on the zero playing basis.

Bob Hester of Lubbock is president and Claude Hurlbit, Lubbock, is secretary-treasurer.

New Bennet Pool Well Flows Rate Of 1916 Barrels A Day

By FRANK GARDNER.

Another large well was completed today in the southeast Yoakum Bennett pool, as Mid-Continent Petroleum Company No. 2 Bennett flowed at the rate of 1,916 barrels a day. Potential was based upon the well's flow the last six hours of a twelve-hour test, during which it made 479 barrels. Test was taken through open 7-inch casing after shot with 630 quarts, from 5,038 to 5,236, the total depth. No. 2 Bennett is situated 1,320 feet from the south, 440 feet from the west line of section 678, block D, J. H. Gibson survey.

Honolulu-Cascade No. 3-678 Bennett was ratholing at 5,036 in line.

Showing marked thinning of the upper section, Magnolia No. 1 J. D. Webb, central Yoakum wildcat two miles southwest of Plains, topped rotary line at 4,105 feet, 406 feet subsea. It topped the Yates at 3,410, datum of plus 559. The test, log, datum of plus 559. The test, log, datum of plus 559. The test, log, datum of plus 559.

Mother of Midland Resident Dies

Mrs. Woody Elkin returned today from East Texas where she attended the funeral of her mother, Mrs. C. N. Christie, 84, who died at the home of another daughter at McKinney Saturday. Death followed a long illness. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the Christian church at Allen, Texas, and interment was at Rowlett.

Besides Mrs. Elkin, Mrs. Christie is survived by three other daughters and four sons, all of whom were with her at the time of death. Pallbearers were six grandsons.

Silver State Shows Open for Week Here

Opening of the Silver State Shows is scheduled for tonight at the carnival lot west of Pagoda pool, the management announced today as equipment was being set up. The shows will be here all the week.

Twelve shows and ten rides are featured, with a free act, "The Flying Willards," to add to entertainment of the crowds.

Omar Murad, "the Hindu," who was featured at the San Diego exposition, is one of the show's offerings. He appeared in several MGM pictures and is the stellar attraction of the Silver State Shows.

Thousands Greet Him On Route

Situation Bad For Catholics, Socialists, Jews

VIENNA, March 14 (AP).—Adolf Hitler today triumphantly entered Vienna, the capital of the German state he has absorbed in his great German Reich.

Hitler, who changed to an open automobile during the 100 mile journey from Linz, entered Vienna standing up, bowing and smiling to the hundreds of thousands lining the route.

Behind his automobile was another car carrying Heinrich Himmler, chief of the German police, and other high officials of the Reich.

The journey through the smiling countryside was like a royal procession. The Austrian government of his choice had prepared for his coming by announcing the absorption of Austria into the German nation.

The situation was dark for Catholics, Jews and socialists. There was some beating of Jews and plundering of Jewish stores. Nearly all former socialist leaders had fled. There were but few arrests. Catholics attending mass found the swastika flag above the archbishop's palace.

Hitler will speak tomorrow when he will be officially welcomed to Vienna. In an impromptu talk, he said "no force on earth can shake us."

Austria Absorbed As Part of Germany.

VIENNA, Germany, March 14 (AP).—Austria ceased to be a Nation Sunday night and became part of Adolf Hitler's German Reich, extending from the North Sea almost to the Adriatic.

The end of the political freedom of ancient Austria was achieved by two legal steps.

First, President Wilhelm Miklas resigned. He had opposed the Nazification of his country.

Then, Arthur Seys-Inquart, the Hitler-chosen Chancellor, took charge of the Government under constitutional authority provided for such emergency and announced decrees legislating Austria out of existence.

Anschluss (union) of Austria to Germany was accomplished at the height of a great wave of Nazi sentiment, vastly stimulated by Hitler's presence on the soil of his native Austria.

He spent the day at Linz, 100 miles west of here, deferring the climax of his triumphal home-coming, his entry into Vienna. Near Linz he visited the graves of his parents.

The death blow to Austrian independence was administered in the historic Chancellery where the Congress of Vienna was held in 1813 and where in 1934 Engelbert Dollfuss, the little Chancellor who fought Nazism was assassinated.

Change Requires Only a Minute.

It was a prosaic but tense session of the Austrian Government.

Miklas stepped out at Seys-Inquart's demands. Then Seys-Inquart took charge and it was all over in a minute. The Austro-German border had been wiped out.

Messages immediately went to Hitler at Linz and to his ally, Premier Benito Mussolini in Rome. In a few minutes it became known in the streets, where deliciously happy Nazis went wild. In the first excitement there seemed to be no mourning for the old Austria.

A new day had been hailed by a united German people—and the world wondered what next. Statesmen everywhere realized they were face to face with an entirely new situation in Europe.

The absorption of Austria seemed to be final, but provision was announced for some sort of plebiscite on April 10. The question to be put to the Austria people was not known, but it was assumed they would be asked merely to approve an accomplished fact. There seemed no doubt the new Nazi Austria would approve.

Economic Plan for Austria.

Austria, it was made clear, will be drawn immediately into the German economic structure and articulated to Germany's four-year plan for economic self-sufficiency. The Austrian and German armies are to be merged. Other functions of the two States, now one, were being drawn together.

The general policies of German States were to be taken over into Austria. One significant statement was that Austrian Jews would not be permitted to wear the swastika.

Ministers of the old Chancellery said the new German Nation is to be a land of youth and vitality. Thus persons of both sexes who have reached the age of 20 will be permitted to vote in the coming plebiscite.

No objections to the new order were visible in Vienna streets this historic night.

A radio broadcast stated the Anschluss decree, in five articles: "1. Austria is a land of the German Reich. See (Hitler) Page Six

Behind the Scenes in Washington

Editor's Note: The opinions expressed in this article are those of Mr. Dutcher, NEA-Reporter-Telegram Washington correspondent, and are not to be construed as expressing the editorial policy of The Reporter-Telegram.

WASHINGTON, March 14 — The concentration of interest on the forthcoming primaries and elections which lately has been shown by Mr. Roosevelt and his friends is partly traceable to a fear that 1939, rather than 1940, may turn out to be the last stand of the New Deal.

If F. D. R. is to control the Democratic party when it undertakes to nominate his successor more than two years hence he is going to need something that can be hailed as a personal victory next November.

To achieve that, he must identify himself with the campaign through certain definite issues. Moreover he must assure the return to office of "loyal New Dealers" in Congress and if possible, the defeat of conservative Democrats who have fought Roosevelt policies.

A year ago, when the battle over the Supreme Court reorganization plan was on there was plenty of talk about punishment and reprisal. Roosevelt himself inspired much of it. But the voters who had returned him to office in 1936 never did get excited about that issue and the President learned to his disappointment that he couldn't get them to punish senators simply because he resented their disagreement with him on that one point. At one time he had been almost convinced that any senator who opposed him on the Court issue was committing political suicide.

Has Its Hands Full. UNTIL quite lately it seemed that the administration, far from being in a position to inflict reprisals on anyone for desertion on the

SIDE GLANCES

Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs

Court and other issues would have its hands full in merely trying to save the skins of the faithful.

Specific endorsements of Senators Alben Barkley of Kentucky, Claude Pepper of Florida and Ryan Duffy of Wisconsin—all in spite of solemn assurances that the White House "as usual" was keeping its hands off the primaries—tended to emphasize the impression that the New Deal was on the defensive.

There was a period of moaning and gnashing of teeth over the paucity of strong New Dealish candidates who might have a chance of beating such senators as Clark of Missouri, Adams of Colorado, Long of Louisiana, McCarran of Nevada, Smith of South Carolina and Tydings of Maryland—all up again this year.

The situation actually hasn't changed much, but it is apparent that Roosevelt is out to do everything he possibly can to see that it does. The first overt move was the announcement by Congressman Otha Wearin of Iowa from the White House steps that he would seek the senatorial seat of Guy M. Gillette. Wearin is a progressive, a liberal, a New Dealer. Gillette is considered an anti-New Dealer.

See Nothing to Lose.

NEW DEALERS in the administration have been telling Roosevelt that he has nothing to lose by making the strongest possible effort to reward his friends and punish his enemies this year. Delicately they have sought to convince him that he has lost a great deal already.

His prestige has diminished, if not his popularity, and his power has waned to the point where he can't control Congress and doesn't try. A depression has wiped off 5 per cent or more of the New Deal recovery, at the same time weakening the political strength of Roosevelt's allies in the labor movement.

Efforts to build up Solicitor General Robert H. Jackson for governor of New York and as a presidential possibility haven't been very successful. The Democratic party machinery is largely in the hands of men who have no great sympathy with Roosevelt's policies and objectives.

San Quentin's New Death Cell

Quick and sure is the death which will be dealt out by the new lethal gas chamber being built in Denver, Colo., for California's famed San Quentin prison. This death cell, pictured above, is reputed to kill within 15 seconds after cyanide eggs are dropped into pots of diluted sulphuric acid. The gas fumes come up through circular holes under the metal seat on which the condemned person sits.

President Still Aggressive.

UNDER the circumstances it has not been difficult to convince Roosevelt that the situation demands a certain amount of aggressiveness on his part if he is to be the important force in 1940 which he desires to be. His recent and subsequent public statements should be taken as intended to influence the political and business situations rather than as efforts to impress Congress.

It isn't easy to forecast the degree of success the President will have in the effort to retain political leadership. He may even find his opponents so strong that he will feel compelled to "join 'em."

Dog Tried as Vicious Convicted and Banished

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore. (UP).—A municipal court jury here returned a verdict against a dog, and Chief von Wilsona Hof, 4-year-old Harlequin Great Dane, was ordered banished from the city.

In a courtroom filled with friends and enemies of the dog, testimony was presented in the suit brought by three persons, who said their small dogs had been attacked and permanently injured by Chief.

The jury decided the defendant was a vicious dog.

Your Income Tax

Deduction for Traveling Expenses

To obtain a deduction for traveling expenses, which form an important item in the returns of many taxpayers, certain regulations must be observed. The taxpayer is required to attach to his return a statement showing the nature of business in which engaged, number of days away from home during the taxable year on account of business, total amount of expense incidental to meals and lodging, and total amount of "other expenses" incidental to travel and claimed as a deduction. Among the "other expenses" are tips, provided they are reasonable in amount.

Traveling expenses are deductible only when the trip is on business. They are limited to such expenses as are reasonable and necessary in the conduct of the business and directly attributable to it.

Traveling expenses incurred in connection with a journey to another city to accept or seek employment are not deductible. Subordinates who commute daily from their homes to their places of business are not permitted to deduct the cost of transportation, it being a personal expense.

Claims for deduction for traveling expenses must be substantiated, when required by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, showing in detail the amount and nature of the expenses incurred.

RULES CLARIFY NEW PROVISIONS OF HOUSING ACT

WASHINGTON, D. C. — The Federal Housing Administration, from its headquarters here and from its 67 insuring offices throughout the country, has completed necessary plans and regulations with which to expedite the carrying out of provisions of the National Housing Act amendments of 1937, recently passed by Congress, it was announced by Administration Stewart McDonald.

Though only one completely new set-up is provided for in the amendments—that applying to insurance of mortgages on multiple-family projects and groups of individual homes valued at from $16,000 to $200,000—specific interpretation of the regulations had to be made and transmitted to the 67 insuring offices from here. In addition, the more than 7,000 approved mortgages required notification and precise information on the amendments.

Notification went out promptly following the President's signing of the amendments to 7,000 approved mortgages authorizing them to again make loans and advances of credit for the modernization, repair, and improvement to virtually all types of existing structures. The original Modernization Credit Plan, embodied under Title I in the National Housing Act of 1934, resulted in a total of 1,451,076 modernization and repair notes reported for insurance. Though allowed to lapse at the end of April in 1937, due to the belief the emergency law which it was originally intended had passed, the modernization measure has been revised, with some changes, by the present amendments.

The multiple-family and group insurance provisions will be administered under the direction of the Rental Housing Division of FHA, Mr. McDonald said, which also directs the large-scale rental housing projects of FHA.

All approved mortgages of the Federal Housing Administration have been notified further of the changes effected by the amendments. These changes include provision for the reduction in the mortgage insurance premium on mortgages not exceeding $5,400 from 1 1/2 to 1 1/4 per cent annually on the outstanding principal and the change in the annual mortgage insurance premium on mortgages already insured from its former calculation on the original face amount of the mortgage to the present provision for its calculation on the outstanding principal of the obligation.

A further change involves the removal of the annual service charge on all mortgages insured by FHA which, with reduction of the insurance premium, effects a saving of about 1 per cent per annum to home builders and buyers on newly constructed houses carrying mortgages of $5,400 or less and a saving of about 3/4 of 1 per cent per annum on all other insurable mortgages.

But my old friend Hired, Tired, Fired comes to the rescue with some beautiful and philosophical verse, which passes on to the readers something besides the drudgery of every day family life. Here is the poem which he attributes to one Frank L. Stanton:

Just keep the heart a beatin' warm
Be kind to every feller
Look for the rainbows in the storms
But carry your umbrella
Be brave to battle with the strife
Be true when people doubt you
Don't think that money is all in life
But carry some about you

And you have done your mission
Just put your trust in Providence

Endeavor Groups Study Varied Subjects Sunday

"Salvation" was the topic discussed by members of the Senior Endeavor in their regular meeting Sunday night.

Lucille McHargue was leader. Others taking part on the program were: Margaret Erwin, Alice Lip-pold, Marvin Park, Rex Sackett, B. W. Reecer.

Donald Griffin, president, acted as chairman.

Following the program, a business meeting was held with Mrs. S. P. Hall and a St. Patrick's social at Mrs. Hall's home was planned for Thursday evening.

Eighteen members were present.

Intermediate Endeavors.
A small group of Intermediate Endeavors presented a program dealing with "Jesus, His Day of Decision," this being the second in a series of studies on the life of Jesus.

Dale Mickey was leader and following his talk four others were given by Charles Reader, Doris Lynn Pemberton, Doris Mickey, and Rev. J. E. Pickering.

After the song service, sentence prayers were offered, opened by Doris Lynn Pemberton and closed by Mrs. Z. T. Reader.

Adults present included Mr. Pickering, Mr. and Mrs. Z. T. Reader.

Junior Endeavor.

"Great Men of the Bible" were studied by the Junior Endeavors.

Scripture reading for the evening was presented by Mrs. J. K. Graves.

Parts were taken by Sharon Lee Cornelius, Ada Belle Reader, Leroy Reader, Clarissa Mann, Leora Mann, Betty Ruth Pickering, Eloise Pickering, Sylvia Holman, Van Cummings, and Howard Mickey.

Bible drill was led by Mrs. J. K. Graves.

The group was dismissed by the Mizpah benediction.

Colorful Shoes for Spring

(Shoes from Helstern, New York)
What with dark, wine-red shoes with navy suits, pink pigskin ones for resort wear, toeless sandals and beautiful pumps in all fabrics and all designs—spring shoes are really exciting. Shown on the model's feet are toeless navy blue kidskins with cut-out work on the front. In her hands is a backless sandal of perforated patent leather. The salesman offers a high-cut, lizard pump, and on the shoe box is a navy gabardine pump, toeless, with kid stripings.

Mrs. Peters Is Hostess to Bridge For Joie de Vie

Fruit blossoms used throughout the entertaining rooms along with purple iris introduced the spring note into appointments for the afternoon bridge with which Mrs. Len Peters complimented the Joie de Vie club Friday at her home, 406 N. Marienfeld.

Club guests were Mrs. A. P. Shirley and Mrs. Tom Sealy.
Mrs. John Dublin scored high in the three tables of bridge played, while second high score was held by Mrs. Frank Fulk.

A party plate was served to guests and the following club members: Meses. P. F. Bridgewater, Chas. Brown, Dublin, Fulk, Wade Heath, Chas. L. Klapproth, J. R. Martin, Foy Proctor, J. M. Speed Sr., Fred Turner, and the hostess.

Deadly Effect of Wind On Trees Demonstrated

ST. LOUIS (UP).—The Missouri Botanical Garden, in an experiment to determine the effect of excessive wind on the growth of trees, set up a movie wind machine to blow upon a 15-foot American linden.

Although the machine was operated only six hours each day and produced a breeze of an average speed of about 17 miles an hour, the experiment had to be called off after three weeks due to loss of moisture in the tree. The tree recovered.

House-Bound Women Need One Night for Beauty Each Week

BY ALICIA HART, NEA Service Staff Writer.

She may not be able to go to a beauty shop for more than a week-ly shampoo and finger-wave, but the average woman generally can arrange to have a beauty-evening at home once a week.

This may mean a stricter budgeting of time or more self-discipline about leisure hours. It may even mean a bit of reorganization of the household schedule. But a beauty-evening is worth any one of these, or all of them. It will pay huge dividends in youthfulness, a pleasanter disposition, a brighter outlook.

Simply set aside one night for yourself. Resolve not to answer the doorbell or the telephone—not more than once, anyway. Begin as soon as the dinner dishes are out of the way and the children, if any, have been put to bed or are busy with their homework.

Start by giving your hair one hundred upward strokes with a clean brush. Now tie a towel or strip of gauze around your head, carefully clean face and neck, then cover them with your richest cream.

You do limbering and stretching and perhaps one or two reducing exercises next. It's the end of the day, and you're tired, so you do these for only seven or eight minutes. You won't believe it until you try it, but exercises will relax your tired body, calm your frazzled nerves. Do them slowly, quietly, stimulating circulation gradually, taking the kinks out of aching muscles in un-hurried manner.

Now for a bath. And let it be a tub bath, warm and soapy, with bath salts thrown in for good measure if you happen to have some. Scrub your shoulders, back, feet, knees and elbows with a brush. Then unless sitting in the water seems

Cromwells Transplant Entire Coconut Grove

HONOLULU (UP).—When Doris Duke Cromwell wanted a coconut grove for the back yard of her new $500,000 beach home here, she wanted it quickly, and she got it. It takes coconut trees long, long years to grow and Mrs. Cromwell did not care to wait that long.

So Robert C. Thompson, her landscape architect, solved the problem for her. He purchased a fair sized coconut grove near the heart of the city and had it transplanted tree by tree to the Cromwell estate some six miles away. The cost of the transplanting was estimated at $150 a tree.

The PAYOFF

Midland, Texas, Saturday, March 12, 1938.

To the Baseball Fans of Midland:

I trust that you will accept this letter just as I intend it—not as a threat, but as a last plea and warning. The time for idle talk and promises is long past. It is now time to call a spade a spade and put forth action with rapidity.

I was not invited to come to Midland; I came here because I thought I visualized a wonderful, progressive city. I turned a deaf ear to the outside baseball world, when they told me this city would not support baseball. I was of the opinion, and told the baseball world as much, that the occurrence last year (1937) was not the fault of Midland, but the result of an individual. I am yet of the opinion that Midland can support baseball just as well as Big Spring, Wink, Lubbock, Clovis and Hobbs—the other members of the West Texas-New Mexico League.

I came to Midland early in January with the idea of again placing a team here. I met with several influential baseball fans and citizens. They asked me what was necessary for a SUCCESSFUL SEASON and seasons to come. I explained that I had experience in professional baseball dating back to 1924 in various capacities such as organizer of eight leagues; club president-owner; club business manager; and club field manager-coach. I pointed out that I had managed five champions out of eight tries. I offered references as to integrity and among my references were the names of bankers, merchants, doctors, lawyers and business men, as well as references from some of the highest officials in professional baseball.

In my requirements I have asked only for what is customary to produce a successful season in a city the size of Midland. First, I asked that I be granted a three-year contract in writing on the baseball park and that the park be replaced in playing condition since it has been allowed to become the prey of vandals. I requested the three-year contract, because it is customary and past experience has taught me that the club should have this protection. Why should any man exert his efforts toward a successful campaign only to awaken the second year to the fact that others had seen his success and try to overbid him for the use of the park, when the original man had made possible this success and looking forward to the second and third years to reap the rewards of his efforts?

Second, I proved from actual figures that the club would show a deficit the first year of approximately $2,500 in a city the size of Midland. I did not seek donations, even though the city donated approximately $1500 to a man last year. I asked that the fans and business interests subscribe for tickets to the amount of $2500, which would be honored any of the first three games. We began this campaign Feb. 18th and I offered to work with any group, who would assist in this campaign. To date there have been only four men, who have made an effort, with the result that only $512 has been raised and 10% of this amount must be paid to the government in the form of amusement taxes.

Justices's-Wives Hold 'Session'

Black are pictured above during an informal chat. They were photographed at the annual stunt party given by the Women's National Press Club at which Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt and other wives of Washington officials were the guests and targets for friendly jests.

I have had this money placed in one of the banks of Midland in escrow and do not intend to use one penny until I am satisfied that Midland desires to cooperate and really ready to support the team. What other indication of support could I expect other than the purchase of tickets?

I am not seeking to "shove anything down anyone's throats." I am merely asking, "Does Midland want professional baseball or not?" There positively is no ill feeling, I like Midland and desire to become a permanent citizen with baseball as my business during the summer and other business during the fall and winter. I have moved my family here and feel that I have already done more than any other manager in the West Texas-New Mexico League. Big Spring is furnishing the club owner with a new park free of rental and DONATING finances, not selling tickets. Clovis has guaranteed their club a DONATION of $1000 and ticket sales for opening day of $1000 as well as free rental on a new park with a grandstand that cost $7500. (Clovis is the same size city as Midland.) Hobbs is raising $2000 in donations in addition to opening-day ticket sale and free use of the park. Roswell, who recently had their franchise transferred to Hobbs, is very anxious to again be a member of the league and is offering a donation of $1500, free park rental with lights, in addition to opening-day ticket sale, to anyone with a West Texas-New Mexico League franchise to place a team there.

For six weeks I have been in Midland pleading for recognition and offering to assist. The time has arrived when something must be done IMMEDIATELY, but I do not have the time, now, to assist. It is necessary that I devote my time to preparing the team and other details, if we are to have a winner. The season opens April 27th. I have to begin training my team from the pick of over 30 players that I have under contract beginning not later than April 13th. Previous to the 13th and from right now I have to arrange exhibition games, choose uniforms, prepare the playing field, attend league meetings and many other things, that requires all of my time.

It is positively necessary that Midland "does or doesn't" on or before midnight Thursday, March 17th. I must have the contract on the park and the necessary funds from the sale of tickets on that date, or move the franchise and club elsewhere. I have been offered a deal by another town, but prefer to remain in Midland. This other town desires something definite by Friday, the 18th, and I don't want my desires to gain over certain success elsewhere. If Midland wants the club, I will be more than pleased to continue my efforts, here.

There are only six franchises in the league. Five of these have been taken by the cities of Wink, Big Spring, Lubbock, Clovis and Hobbs. I am trying to place the sixth, which I own, in Midland. There are other cities seeking admission.

I trust and hope that Midland desires that I retain the club in Midland just as much as I desire to retain it here; but it is now squarely up to Midland and Thursday is the last day. I feel that my offer is much more liberal than that accepted by other towns, but will be glad to discuss with interested persons.

Sincerely yours,
F. E. Withers.

Artist Calls Coolidge His Hardest Subject

NEW ORLEANS (UP).—Dario Rappaport, Viennese artist, believes Calvin Coolidge was his hardest subject, and Herbert Hoover one of his easiest.

In the wide range between them, he placed Premier Benito Mussolini, Pope Pius XI and the late Premier Georges Clemenceau of France.

Mr. Coolidge, the artist explained, was "so impersonal, or rather, unpersonal."

"He was cool, too cool," Rappaport said. "I want my subjects to talk to me, to be alive, to be animated."

Marble Stairway Buried For Century Is Found

PHILADELPHIA (UP).—Workmen laying plumbing lines for the model home to be built on the Benjamin Franklin Parkway by the civic project "Philadelphians at Home" unearthed a 100-year-old marble stairway 10 feet underground.

The stairway, which was said to have been built about 1840, was in perfect condition. It is of the type used to lead from the street level into the basement.

Inside were found a lintel and several ferrules evidently used to connect the house with the water main.

THE BIG FISH!

Tuna may spell sport to the sportsman but it means Sunday night supper to me

By Dorothy Greig

ABOUT this time of year the rotogravure sections of the papers blossom with pictures of prideful gents standing beside six foot or so of Tuna fish brought in by their prowess. We have visions of the mighty fisherman lugging his tuna home to the Little Woman and saying grandly "I'll have it fried for supper, please"—which would certainly be a poser.

No, we prefer our tuna fish in the can, please. We can do things with it then, especially for Sunday night supper. We have two tuna fish dishes that are especial favorites for their unusual, delicate flavor!

Tuna Fish and Mushroom Loaf
1 can tuna fish (7 oz. size)
1 can condensed cream of mushroom soup
½ cup milk
2 ½ cups soft bread crumbs
1 tablespoon pimiento, chopped
1 tablespoon parsley, chopped
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon pepper
2 eggs

Put the tuna fish in a strainer and run hot water over it to take out the extra oil, then put the meat through the food chopper, using the small blade. Soak the bread crumbs in the ½ cup milk. Then combine tuna fish, bread crumbs with milk, pimiento, parsley, seasonings, condensed cream of mushroom soup, and eggs and mix thoroughly. Put into a well-greased loaf pan and bake in a moderate oven (375°) for 50-60 minutes.

Tuna Fish-and-Mushroom Loaf slices nicely and tastes like chicken.

This serves six or seven people. Sometimes it is served hot and sometimes cold. It is good either way. And for some reason it resembles chicken so closely in flavor that it often fools guests into thinking they are eating chicken loaf.

The other tuna fish dish is a quick one to prepare, good to know about when a hurry-up dish is in order.

Tuna Fish on Toast with Tomato Sauce
1 can tuna fish (7 ounces)
1 tablespoon butter
5 slices bread, toasted
1 can condensed tomato soup

Melt the butter in a pan and add the flaked tuna fish. Heat until the tuna fish is hot. At the same time heat the tomato soup just as it comes from the can. Place the hot tuna fish on a slice of toast and pour over it two generous tablespoons of condensed tomato soup. Garnish with parsley or sliced stuffed olives. Serves 6.

And now while on the subject of fish we must give you this extra good recipe for codfish cakes. There's nothing tastier than a large platter of these for Sunday night supper.

Gloucester Codfish Balls
1 cup salt codfish
2 ½ cups potatoes, peeled and cubed
½ tablespoon butter
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 egg (beaten slightly)

Soak codfish overnight in cold water. The following morning pour off the water and shred by placing on cutting board and pulling apart with a fork. Codfish shreds easily if soaked at least 12 hours. Cook potatoes until tender, drain thoroughly and return to kettle in which they were cooked. Shake over the heat until thoroughly dry, mash well, add butter and pepper and beat until light. Add flaked codfish and continue beating until mixture is light and fluffy. Add more salt if necessary. Make the balls by dipping with an ice cream scoop (No. 16) or by dropping from a spoon. Fry in deep fat (385° F.) for one minute. Drain on brown paper. If cakes stick to hand when being shaped for frying, roll lightly in small amount of flour. Makes nine 2 oz. cakes. Serves 4-5.

Tomato Sauce for Codfish Balls
Heat condensed tomato soup just as it comes from the can. Pour the hot tomato sauce in a platter or chop plate and place the golden brown codfish balls in the hot sauce. Garnish with parsley.

Curb Service, Too!

Be Ad-vised Before You Buy

If a competent expert could pass on each purchase you make, you would be sure of getting full value for every dollar you spend. But experts are rare, and even then are seldom trained to know more than one type of merchandise. What an imposing retinue of these specialists you would need to pass judgment on your routine purchases of gasoline and gloves, hammocks and hosiery, linen and linoleum!

But you can get competent and honest counsel on almost everything you buy without ever meeting an expert. How? By being ad-vised in advance by the advertising pages of this newspaper.

Here you will find all kinds of reputable merchants and manufacturers telling you about their best bargains, and inviting comparisons. In a matter of minutes, you will find more bona fide bargains in print than you would discover on the counters of all the stores you could visit in a six-day shopping trek.

Read these advertising pages regularly for just one week, and then you'll know first-hand that it pays to be ad-vised before you buy. Your money will s-t-r-e-t-c-h farther, and your purchases be more satisfactory.

Eager Colonists Await Invitation to Matanuska

SEATTLE (UP).—Dr. H. Milton Colvin, legal counsel for the WPA, said Matanuska is definitely established and is here to stay.
 "The 160 families taken from relief rolls in the Middle West and transported to the Northern valley are carving a new and productive empire, and are finding for themselves a new and promising destiny," said Dr. Colvin.
 "There are 15,000 persons on the waiting lists, wanting to become members of the colony."
 Dr. Colvin pointed out that the government wanted to make Alaska self-sustaining by its own food products, because of a military necessity. If a war blockade should stop Alaska shipping for one month, Alaskans would face virtual starvation unless they had food resources within the territory.
 Dr. Colvin recently returned from six months of activity in the colonization project.

Embezzler Talks Way Into Prison for Year
 PUEBLO, Colo. (UP).—Clarence Williams, 24, almost "talked" his way out of a penitentiary sentence. Williams had admitted guilt on an embezzlement charge and was delivering a stirring plea for probation. Judge Harry Leddy was impressed by the prisoner's desire to get a job and repay the money until Williams said he wanted to get a job on WPA and marry a woman with seven children.
 "One to two years in the state penitentiary," the judge interrupted. "There are too many on WPA right now."

Signals Are Deadened In Ocean Graveyard

Officers Elected By W. T. Teachers

BIG SPRING, March 14 (AP).—Adoption of a new constitution to conform with that of their state organization, action on resolution touching on educational topics and election of officers marked the concluding session of the West Texas Teachers Association here Saturday.

WOMEN'S AILMENTS

Dallas, Texas — Mrs. Sue Jordan, 2014 Cross St., says: "I was actually nervous, could eat scarcely anything, felt tired and dizzy, and had pains in my side and headaches due to functional disturbances. I used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and my appetite returned. I gained in weight and strength and felt just fine in every way. Get it in liquid or tablet form from your druggist today."

Rabbit Drive for Stokes Community Set for Friday

Third rabbit drive of the season has been announced, to start at Stokes school house Friday morning at 8 o'clock. All Midland people and those of neighboring counties are invited to take part in the drive.

J. C. Brooks, one of the spokesmen for the drive, said he hoped there would be no "candidate speaking" because he is a candidate for commissioner of that precinct, also that to leave it off might attract a bigger crowd of rabbit hunters. However, he said if the candidates get to wanting to talk, they probably will get a chance.

Trucks will leave the Farmers' Co-Operative Gin here at 7 o'clock, and it was advised that those not having rides to the rabbit drive should report there and ride the trucks. Ammunition may be bought at the drive by those who run out prematurely.

Free barbecue will be served at noon at the Ellis well in the Fassen pasture. To reach the well, Brooks said to drive two miles south from Stokes school house, then one mile east and another mile south.

Stokes school may be reached by going east past Cloverdale to a point fourteen miles east of Midland. Those preferring to go by the highway, may go east from Midland to Blocker's Store, fifteen miles east of town, turning south from there.

The public was strongly urged to take part in the fun and aid in riddance of predatory jack rabbits in the Stokes community.

R.F.D.--Regular Floating Delivery

Picking up floating "mail boxes" thrown into the Gulf Stream by passing freighters is routine business for the Miami Beach fishing boat operators, shown hooking one above. The mail is placed in sealed glass jars such as Mate "Slim" Felt holds at left. A stick is strapped securely to the jars and a home-made white flag, labeled "MAIL," is attached. Often the jars drift many days, but few are lost. The fishing crews take the mail ashore and post it.
