"WHATEVER IT IS that somebody did that you didn't want done---I didn't do it!"

When I see silly signs like the one above, in offices on other people's bulletin boards, I always jot them down. Here's a couple of good ones:

"I know that you believe you understand what you think I said, but I am not sure you realize that what you heard is not what I meant."

"If I am not here, please be patient. I'm lost and have gone looking for myself. If I return before I get back, please have me wait. Thanks."

Here are a couple more items from my file entitled "Silly Stuff." Some of my friends who spend a lot of time on the internet have sent me several recent additions for this collection:

The weekend golfer who, having four-putted the last hole, threw his clubs into the golf cart and drove toward the clubhouse. Arriving there, he saw a squad car parked by the entrance. As he walked toward the locker room a policeman stopped him. "Did you drive from the fifteenth tee about half an hour ago?" the officer asked.

"Yes, I did," the duffer answered.

"Did you hook your ball over those trees and off the course?"

"Yes, as a matter of fact, I did," replied the puzzled golfer.

With a touch of anger in his voice the policeman continued, "Your ball sailed out on the highway and cracked the windshield of a woman's car. She couldn't see where she was going and ran into a fire truck. The fire truck couldn't get to the fire, and a house burned down. What are you going to do about that?"

The golfer pondered a moment, picked up his driver and said, "Well, I think I'm going to open my stance a little and move my left thumb around farther toward the right side."

Pillsbury Doughboy Dies

Veteran Pillsbury spokesman, Pop N. Fresh, died yesterday of a severe yeast infection. He was 71.

Fresh was buried in one of the largest funeral ceremonies in recent years. Dozens of celebrities turned out, including Mrs. Butterworth, the California Raisins, Hungry Jack, Betty Crocker, the Hostess Twinkies and Skippy P. Butter. The grave site was piled high with flour as longtime friend, Aunt Jemima, delivered the eulogy, describing Fresh as a man who "never knew how much he was kneaded."

Fresh rose quickly in show business, but his later life was filled with many turnovers. He was not considered a very smart cookie, wasting much of his youth on half-baked schemes -- conned by those who buttered him up. Still even as a crusty old man, he was a roll model for millions.

Fresh is survived by his second wife. They have two children and a bun in the oven. The funeral was held at 3:50 for twenty minutes.

An assortment of funny bumper stickers and one-liners, also from the internet:

Change is inevitable, except from a vending machine.

Why is the word abbreviation so long?

Always remember you're unique, just like everyone else.

Sometimes I wake up grumpy; Other times I let him sleep.

I took an IQ test and the results were negative.

Experience is something you don't get until just after you don't need it.

IRS: We've got what it takes to take what you've got.

Why do we drive on a parkway and park on a driveway?

Warning. . . Dates in Calendar are closer than they appear.

What was the best thing before sliced bread?

Why is it that no one is ever listening to you until you make a mistake?

He who laughs last, thinks slowest.

If a midget escapes from jail, would he still be considered at large?

I spilled spot remover on my dog and now he's gone.

If a book about failure doesn't sell, is it a success?

Real women don't have hot flashes, they have power surges.

Why is it that when we send something by car it's a shipment and when we send something by ship it's a cargo?

He who hesitates is probably right.

Out of my mind. Be back in five minutes.

Okay, who stopped the payment on my reality check?

Pride is what we have. Vanity is what other people have.

It's lonely at the top, but you eat better.

I just got lost in thought. It was unfamiliar territory.

Laugh alone and world thinks you're an idiot.

No matter what the temperature is, it's still room temperature.

Couple's Grandson Earns Scholarship at Auburn

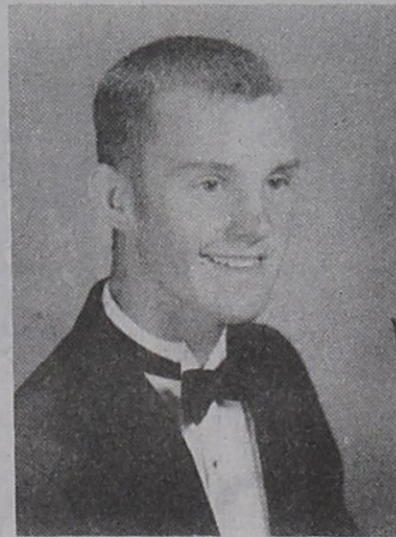

(Editor's Note: Jones' father, Randy, grew up in Bovina and graduated from Bovina High School. Austin's grandparents are longtime local residents and former business-folks, Paul and Ola Lee Jones.)

What began with a wooden spoon and wiffle ball sixteen years ago turned into a college scholarship for golfer Austin Jones of Lakeland, Florida.

Recently, one day after sinking a five-foot birdie putt on the 18th hole to give George Jenkins High School a one-shot victory in the district tournament, Jones signed a national letter-of-intent with Auburn University.

The 6-foot-2, 155-pound Jones, the son of Dr. Randy Jones and Rosalind Hay of Lakeland, chose Auburn after also considering offers from Florida Southern, Texas Tech, North Florida and Tennessee-Chattanooga.

"I just liked the coach (Mike Griffin) and the facilities," Jones said. His mother said it was mostly the coach.

"Once he met the coach and the team, that was it for him," she said.

Scooter's Scoops

By SCOOTER RUSSELL

Graduation is over in most parts and summer is on the way. We have had some hot days but it hasn't been too bad yet. The smoke in the air looks like clouds and seems it ought to be cooler even though it isn't. We have iron railings around our front porch and noticed that they had a coat of gray from the smoke. A good rain all over would be helpful and rain has been predicted for this week so maybe one of these days...

NEWS AROUND TOWN

Paul and Ola Lee Jones flew to Orlando, Florida and attended their grandson, Austin Jones', graduation from high school.

Austin's parents are Dr. Randy Jones of Lakeland, Florida and Rosalind Hay, also of Lakeland. Randy grew up in Bovina and graduated from Bovina High School.

Emmagene Calaway spent the weekend in Lubbock with her aunt Orpha Wichard. She went on Thursday and returned home on Monday. While in Lubbock, she attended the graduation of her grandson, Brandon Beardain, from Frenship High School. He plans to attend college at Texas Tech.

Brandon's parents grew up in Bovina. They are Rex of Lubbock and Julie of Wolforth, Texas.

Our sympathies to the family of Leslie Wilson, wife of Kody Wilson. She was only twenty years old and fought a hard battle with cancer. Funeral services were held in Carlsbad, New Mexico on Sunday and graveside services were held in Bovina on Monday.

Members of the senior group of First Baptist Church enjoyed a delicious meal hosted by Dale and Tonya Gober on Sunday following the morning worship service.

Those attending were Joe Looney, Irma and Carl Schrader, Nelline Spicer, Artie Faye O'Hair, Charlsie Eubank, Dottie and Vernon Ward, Dick and Pernie Free and the hostesses. The meal consisted of chicken casseroles, salads and pie.

Chris Cupit was not seriously injured in the two vehicle accident that occurred Monday in Bovina. She said her face looked as though she had kissed a bowling ball due to the airbags hitting her, but that she was only sore and had lots of bruises. We understand the other couple, from out of town, were not seriously injured.

Our sympathies to Larry Hodnett, whose mother passed away. She was Wanetta Hodnett Brook of Lamesa. Graveside services were held at Lamesa.

Jim and I, Pat and Pat Kunselman and Doris Wilson went to Spearman and attended commencement exercises at Spearman High School for our granddaughter and great-granddaughter, Gina Kunselman, daughter of Tami and Arty Kunselman.

Gina will be attending Amarillo College in the fall and this summer work as a lifeguard at the Spearman swimming pool. She will also be taking some night classes from Frank Phillips College during the summer months.

Pat, Pat and Doris went to Spearman Friday evening and spent two nights before returning to Bovina. Arty's sister, Vickie and Leland Jennings of Flag, were also there for the graduation.

Artie Faye O'Hair enjoyed having her grandsons, Michael and Shane O'Hair, visiting from Longview. They had a good time together and enjoyed eating out in Clovis.

Becky London is leaving the staff at the Bovina Blade this week. She is joining Mike in Mountainair, New Mexico. He has been working there with a railroad construction crew since March. Becky said they have been "running up and down" the highway on weekends to see each other.

Mike and Becky plan to keep their home and farms in Bovina and travel with the company for a while. Their first child is expected November 7. We wish them the best of luck in their travels.

SMILE: High school student to store clerk: If my parents like it, can I bring it back?

Thanks for helping with the Scoops, watch out for storms...Scooter.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Mr. Ellis,
I surely enjoy reading the Bovina Blade.

Of course, I was born and reared there. I finished high school in 1955 at Bovina High School.

I always look forward to articles that speak of the people I know.

I have just got home from Bovina where I spent five weeks with my dad, Amos Steelman.

Sincerely,

Facts About The BIBLE

This is a dramatized version of facts taken from the book of I Samuel intending to show some of the customs of these ancient and traditional times.

SAMUEL AND SAUL

SEEKING AND TO FIND HIS LOST ANIMALS, SAUL, WITH HIS SERVANT, HAS REACHED SAMUEL THE PROPHET IN RAMAH....

...AND AS SAMUEL SEES SAUL, THE LORD SPEAKS IN HIS EAR...

BEHOLD THE MAN WHOM I SPAKE TO THEE OF! THIS SAME SHALL REIGN OVER MY PEOPLE!

TELL ME, I PRAY THEE, WHERE THE PROPHET'S HOUSE IS?

I AM THE PROPHET! DO NOT FEAR FOR THINE ANIMALS—THEY ARE ALREADY FOUND!

GO UP BEFORE ME INTO THE HIGH PLACE FOR YE SHALL EAT WITH ME TODAY, AND TOMORROW I SHALL TELL THEE ALL THAT IS IN THINE HEART!

BUT I AM ONLY A BENJAMITE! IN THE LEAST FAMILY OF THE SMALLEST TRIBE OF ISRAEL! WHY, THEREFORE, DO YOU HONOR ME IN SUCH MANNER?

AND MUCH TO THE ASTONISHMENT OF SAUL AND HIS SERVANT, SAMUEL PUTS THEM IN THE CHIEF PLACE OF HONOR AT THE HIGH FEAST...

Here Is 32 Cents. Take This To New York City.

Last week, I mailed my water bill to the City of Friona.

Even though I drive by City Hall several times a day, I mailed them my water bill.

Even though our Main Street is nice and new and I could park at the City Hall front door and run in to pay the bill, I still mailed it.

The United States Post Office is only about six blocks down Main Street from City Hall. I decided to pay them the 32 cents (about a nickel per block) and let them deliver it for me.

Actually the neat deal is that I wrote the check and addressed the envelope at home, put it in my curbside mailbox and raised the little red flag. My nice postlady even picked it up at my house and took it to City Hall. All for 32 cents.

There has been a great deal of whining criticism from the great unwashed because the U. S. Postal Service plans to increase the price of a first class stamp by one penny. Soon it will cost 33 cents to "hire" the post office to deliver a letter for you.

Old timers are fond of recalling when a stamp cost three cents. They rant and rave about "them bandits at the post office that are ripping us off and can't even deliver the mail on time."

It doesn't seem to bother these same old-timers that the cost of a gallon of gasoline has risen from nine cents to a dollar and nine cents (or more), while a stamp has only gone up 30 cents during the same time period.

Raising the price of a first class stamp to 33 cents doesn't bother me. There is a price level for a stamp which I would not pay, but 33 cents ain't it. It is still one of the best bargains around.

I think it is time to stop with all the criticism about the postal service.

The Big Paper in Amarillo ran an editorial that concluded "it is not fair for the postal service to ask for more money." Who decides what is fair?

The last time I took a look at life, there were numerous occasions which seemed unfair. For instance, I don't think it is fair that a box of cereal costs $5. I don't think it is fair that others win the lottery.

I don't think it is fair that an airline can lose your luggage and still charge you for the air ticket. Fair is fair but usually we don't care if it applies to others, just ourselves.

I have two kids in Wichita Falls, one in Colorado for the summer, one in Dallas, and one in Coppell, plus a bunch of friends scattered from coast to coast.

For 32 cents and the cost of a card or piece of paper, I can hire several people to deliver a message to them.

Of course I could drive to Colorado or Dallas and carry the letter myself for maybe $100 and a couple of days travel time.

Fax machines are fast. Only problem I have found is that the other person needs a machine too.

I could e-mail if I had any idea how to do that. I think you need a computer hooked up to a telephone modem and of course you need to know their e-mail address.

If I was in a really big hurry, I could spring for an overnight UPS or Fed-Ex delivery which could run anywhere from $8 to $15.

I'd rather put $10 in an envelope and send it for 32 cents. So what if it takes a couple of days for it to get there. If I have something important to say I can always use digital cellular cordless satellite phone.

To a society that worships instant gratification, expects instant results, and can't get out of the car long enough to sit down and eat, the United States Postal Service is an easy target.

They get beat up with jokes like "postal service is an oxymoron". First class mail is derided as "snail mail." Killing people in anger is even described as "going postal."

Some folks joke about the caps and ties and merchandise the post office sells these days. Isn't this still America?

I bought some really neat thank you notes at the Friona post office, but I must admit their ties are pretty loud but I don't wear ties anyhow.

I don't care what they sell. Nor do I think they should be criticized for making a billion dollar profit the last two years.

Nobody criticizes Bill Gates for making billions selling you software programs you don't even know how to operate.

The postal service is only raising first class rates. There are still other postage options, like second, third, and fourth class or bulk mail.

I use Priority Mail all the time to send stuff to Zac and Megan. They get excited when they see the red, white, and blue package in the mailbox.

I have a friend who writes for a travel magazine in New York City. We correspond on occasion. I can write him a couple of pages and have it carried to New York City for only 32 cents.

Besides, I like to go in the post office and see if I can get the last word in a conversation with Valton Howard, a true civil servant.

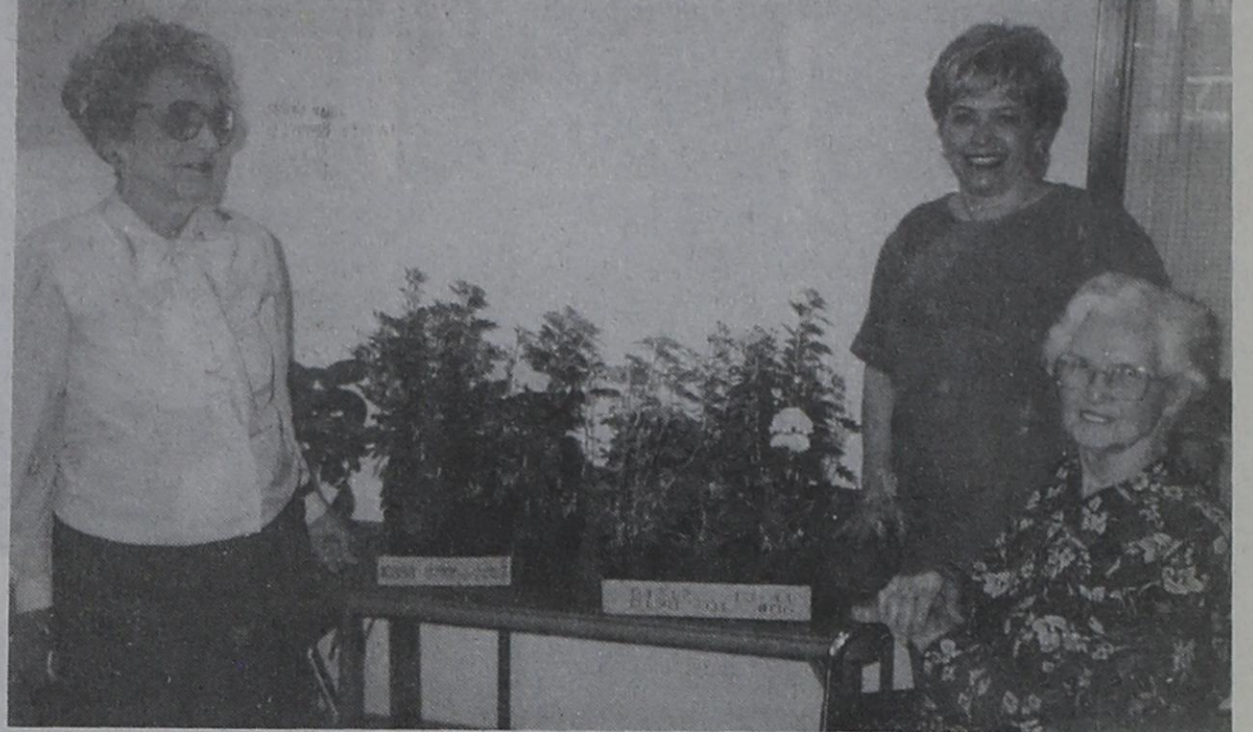

Find something else to whine about. A 33 cent stamp is still the best bargain around.

C. Aycock To Lead State Bar

Parmer County Attorney Charles Aycock of Farwell will be sworn in as president-elect of the State Bar of Texas at the organization's annual meeting in Corpus Christi in June.

In the new position, he will chair the Budget Committee and help set policies that provide services to the 63,000 lawyers in Texas and the public.

A partner in Aldridge, Aycock, Atkinson & Rutter of Farwell and Clovis, New Mexico, Aycock is a former Texas assistant attorney general.

He earned a bachelor of business administration degree from Texas Tech in 1963 and is a 1967 graduate of the University of Texas School of Law. He is licensed to practice in the Northern and Western Districts of Texas, the 5th and 11th Circuit Courts of Appeals and the U.S. Supreme Court.

A. Jones Is Top Golfer

Jones, 18, has played golf pretty much all his life. He said he began playing when he was about five years old, but his mother said it actually started about three years before that.

"We gave him a wooden kitchen spoon and a wiffle ball," she said. "He used to hit the ball around the house with that."

For the Eagles this year, Jones averaged 36.6 strokes per nine-hole round. He had only one round out of 16 this year, at the Club at Eaglebrooke (Jenkins' home course), when he didn't shoot in the 30s.

His low round of the year was a 31, also at Eaglebrooke.

Tuesday, he led the Eagles to the district title and a berth in the upcoming state tournament with a 7-under-par 65 at The River Club in Bradenton.

But it wasn't until he sank the five-foot birdie putt on the 18th green that the Eagles wrapped up the one-shot victory against Bloomingdale with a score of 303.

"I'd be willing to bet a 65 is some sort of record," said Jenkins Coach Sisi Hedges.

The Florida High School Activities Association keeps records only for state tournament play, not district play. Only once has a golfer shot a 65 in state tournament play. That was by Robert Dyke of Eau Gallie in 1971.

Jones also earned district medalist honors by six strokes against Lakeland High's Brad Stainsby, who had a 1-under 71.

There isn't one specific aspect of Jones' game that stands out above the others, said Hedges.

His strength, she said, is "his management of the course."

"He's got the whole game, but it's mostly his mental ability to get around the course, and his course management."

Jones was The Lakeland Ledger's 1997 Prep Golfer of the Year with a 37.7 stroke average. As a sophomore in 1996, he averaged 41.0 and in 1995 as a freshman, he had a 40.5 average.

Summer in the Panhandle can sometimes feel like the Sahara. That is, unless you have the Energy Efficient Heat Pump. In summer, the heat pump removes the warm air from inside your home to keep you cool and comfortable. And in winter, it reverses itself to become a high-efficiency heating system. Today's heat pumps save more energy and money than ever before...on the average, they're 40 percent more efficient than models were 10 years ago.

Energy, beyond.
