Jap Troops In Shanghai Move Back

Tension Eased as Outbreaks Quelled In the Settlement

SHANGHAI, July 8 (AP).—Japanese soldiers and plainclothesmen withdrew from the International Settlement today easing a situation made tense by an outbreak of anti-Japanese terrorism.

International Settlement authorities made sharp protests when Japanese soldiers appeared on Nanking Road and began patrolling close to British Highlanders on emergency duty after the outbreak inaugurating the first anniversary of the war yesterday.

Another detachment of armed Japanese in civilian clothes boldly took posts bordering the settlement and the French Concessions. They stopped and searched numerous Chinese suspected of terrorist activities.

Settlement police and military units continued a patrol, unprecedented for its strictness, in an effort to suppress gunmen and bomb throwers who yesterday killed four and wounded five persons.

Nearly 1,000 Chinese were crowded into jails by settlement authorities in one of the greatest precautionary manhunts in Shanghai history.

The armored car division and infantry detachments of the foreign volunteer corps were called out.

Numerous civilians reported minor injuries.

In the French concession similar steps were taken. Police paralyzed traffic by stopping and searching motorists and pedestrians for firearms and bombs.

In Japan the anniversary was observed with thousands of solemn pilgrimages to military shrines and symbolic personal sacrifices to meet Japan's war needs.

Each household was asked to give the government one piece of metal. Gold silver, incense burners, pots, gardening tools and game kites were assembled to be melted for bullion or munitions.

The day brought little change in the military situation.

A communique from Hankow announced Chinese had withdrawn Tuesday night from Hukow, on the Yangtze river, but said reinforced units were counter-attacking and preventing the Japanese from advancing to the north of Lake Poyang.

Honeymooners Get Married Again to Make Affair Legal

LOS ANGELES, July 8 (AP).—Two film colony honeymooners — Lita Grey Chaplin and Arthur F. Day Jr.—marched back toward the marriage altar Thursday.

Their wedding last Tuesday in a Catholic church at Manhattan Beach created a legal question, they admitted, but nothing that another ceremony wouldn't answer.

Mrs. Day, former wife of comedian Charlie Chaplin, became the bride of her theatrical agent before her divorce from her second husband, Henry Aguirre Jr., was final.

The unexpected news reached her at a honeymoon suite in a Catalina Island hotel.

As explained to the startled couple, the Aguirre divorce was granted July 1, 1937, but not entered on court records until six days later. Therefore it couldn't become final until a full year had elapsed from the latter date.

Gill Wildcat In Yoakum Tops Anhydrite Flat With Bennett

By FRANK GARDNER.

Heading other interesting developments today in the North Permian Basin was topping of anhydrite at 2,460, 1,172 feet above sea level, by Ralph H. Gill, of Midland No. 1 Gulf Oil Corporation—S. J. Dixon, wildcat two miles northwest of the Bennett pool in southeastern Yoakum.

On the marker, the well is running about flat with the Bennett pool producers. The discovery, Honolulu-Cascade No. 1 Bennett, topped the anhydrite 1,165 feet above sea level and T. P. No. 1 Bennett had anhydrite datum of plus 1,162. A failure drilled two miles west and one-half mile south of the Gill test, Gulf No. 1 Dixon, topped anhydrite at 2,370, datum of plus 1,263. This puts the Gill well 96 feet lower on comparison of data, but regional dip would account for a good part of the relief.

Drilling in No. 1 Gulf-Dixon this morning had reached 2,090 feet, in anhydrite. It is located 2,200 feet from the north, 440 from the east line of section 611, block D, J. H. Gibson survey.

Allison Production Company No. 1 Bennett, test on the south edge of the pool, is washing hole to condition it for nitro shot. Total depth is 5,230 in lime. Shooter had tried to run a test shell to bottom, but it stopped on a cavings in the hole, necessitating the washing job. The well has been heading oil through rotary mud. T. P. No. 8 Bennett is drilling at 4,440 feet in lime.

Large Crane Well. Large production was in prospect for a well in the northern Crane area, Gulf No. 13 Henderson, as it topped main pay at 3,512 and flowed 160 barrels of oil in four hours while drilling at 3,519.

In eastern Crane, between the Waddell pool and the Church & Fields pool, Magnolia No. 1-15 University is drilling below 2,110 feet in anhydrite and potash.

Gulf No. 8 Waddell, western Crane Ordovician test, cored from 6,089-91, recovering three feet of Ellenburger lime, broken at bottom, which showed nothing. On 15-hour swabbing test after recovering circulating oil it gauged 60 barrels of oil and 19 barrels of sulphur water.

MARIETTA, O., July 8 (AP).—President Roosevelt asserted today the nation was on a "mental migration" seeking to open new frontiers of social and economic security.

The president spoke at the Northwest Territory celebration and pledged anew the leadership of his administration and urged the people not to be "afraid to help each other."

He referred to Senator Bulkley, opposing Governor White in the democratic senatorial race, in brief fashion as a "hard-working legislator."

His next speeches will be given at Covington, Ky., this afternoon; Oklahoma City, late tomorrow; Amarillo, Monday.

One major addition was made to his itinerary—an addition which will give him an opportunity, if he chooses, to lay a finger of disapproval on the re-nomination campaign of Senator George (D-Ga.).

He accepted an invitation of a delegation of Georgians, including Lawrence Camp of Atlanta, who is in the race against George, to speak at Barnesville August 11.

George has opposed the administration on occasions.

The Georgia speech will be made after Mr. Roosevelt has completed his swing across the nation and has taken a leisurely cruise down the Pacific coast, through the Panama Canal and back to Pensacola, Fla.

Britain Rushing Troops, Ships to Palestine Frontier

JERUSALEM, July 8 (AP).—A bomb blast at the busy Jaffa gate today killed four Arabs and wounded 36 in a new outbreak of terror which Britain is attempting to crush with warships and troops.

The response, one of the world's largest battleships, arrived at Haifa today.

JERUSALEM, July 8 (AP).—Arab tribes from trans-Jordan were reported massed on the Palestine frontier last night as Britain sped warships and troops to snash the bloodiest Jewish-Arab outbreak in the Holy Land's recent history.

Simultaneously, Jewish leaders warned their people against being "drawn into civil war."

In a pitched battle lasting four hours British troops found a band of 600 Arabs said to have just crossed the border from trans-Jordan, east of Palestine and part of Britain's Palestine mandate but governed by a local Arab administration.

Five Arabs were reported killed and eight wounded. There were no British casualties. Two days of rioting and battling ere 33 killed, 111 wounded.

However, a number of Arabs were said to have succeeded in entering Palestine and to be joined their comrades in the fighting for "Arab independence."

The tribesmen are said to be massing south of Tegar's Wall, the $500,000 electrified Syrian border, north of Palestine, to keep trouble-makers out of the country. Violence in Palestine continued despite a constan patrol by troops and police.

A spokesman military headquarters said 83 British troops now were in the Holy Land.

Since the first, the year nearly 300 lives have been lost and hundreds wounded in bombings, ambushes and pitched battles.

Having lived for a month in a subterranean apartment in Kentucky's Mammoth Cave in an effort to find out how easily man could adjust himself to living cycle differing from the age-old 24-hour day, two Chicago University physiologists find on checking up, that they are not much nearer their undergound test of a 28-hour day. Dr. Nathaniel Kleitman, director of the experiment, found that he was totally unable to break away from his regular routine, but his assistant, Bruce Richardson, adapted himself completely to the 28-hour schedule. In the picture above, Richardson, left, and Kleitman are shown attacking some Kentucky hickory-smoked ham and at left Richardson catches his nine hours' sleep out of every 28, while Kleitman, who never becomes drowsy until after 10 p. m., records scientific data on his partner's sleeping habits.

Less Than 27 Million Acres In Country

Compliance With AAA Program Is Reported Today

WASHINGTON, July 8 (AP).—Cotton planters will have less than 27,000,000 acres in cultivation this summer—the smallest total since 1900.

The federal crop reporting board reported the July 1 acreage at 26,904,000, 78 per cent of one year ago and indicated farmers as a whole were complying with the production restriction program.

Today's report was the first on this year's cotton crop. The law forbids issuance of government reports of condition and probable total production before August each year.

Cotton cultivation one year ago totaled 34,471,000 acres; abandonment one per cent; and 34,001,000 acres were picked.

The yield of lint cotton was 266.9 pounds per acre and total production was 18,945,000 bales.

The average acreage in cultivation on July 1 during the previous ten years has been 37,380,000 acres and the average abandonment 2.1 per cent. The acre yield for those years averaged 179.9 pounds.

Acreage under cultivation July 1, also percentage of the 1937 acreage by states includes: Louisiana, 1,244,000, 79 per cent; Oklahoma, 1,903,000, 78 per cent; Arkansas, 2,479,000, 80 per cent; Texas, 9,960,000, 78 per cent.

Nevills Expedition Down Colorado River Located by Airmen

LEE'S FERRY, July 8 (AP).—Past dangerous water, the overdue Nevills expedition was reported 20 miles up the Colorado river from here today. Fears for the safety of the group ended last night when two coast guard fliers reported contacting the party from the air.

EL PASO, July 8 (AP).—The six-member Nevills expedition which left Green River, Utah, June 20 and was thought to have met disaster on the Colorado river in Arizona, was reported found safe 20 miles northeast of Lee's Ferry, Ariz., by two pilots who left El Paso Thursday afternoon.

Lt Perry S. Lyons, United States coast guard commander here, was wired by Co-pilots R. W. Fendley and J. L. Riggs the party was communicated with between 7 and 7:30 o'clock last night.

Through notes written and answered by raising hands of six members of the party, it was determined the party does not need food and all are well.

As far as could be discerned there were three boats and six persons.

Coast guard fliers will return to Biggs Field today, Lieutenant Lyons said.

Education Board Says Additional Funds Necessary

AUSTIN, July 8 (AP).—Financial needs of the public school for 1938-39, requiring an estimated $24 per capita apportionment supported by an approximate 25-cent ad valorem tax rate for school purposes, were reported to the automatic tax board by the State Board of Education Thursday.

The increased rate and apportionment were an average of unofficial estimates by several education board members.

The current apportionment of $22 was increased $3 last year by the education board prior to the tax board action which set the rate at seven cents. Several law suits followed, the apportionment was rescinded, but finally was retained.

The figure $37,839,161 was decided upon by the education board members as the amount required to operate the schools the coming term for a period of six months, exclusive of the cost of free textbooks.

The amount figures $66,743,742 on a nine-month basis as compared to a total cost of $63,950,296 in 1936-37.

The board set the minimum figure on the basis of the constitutional requirement of six months salary for teachers. The figure does not include costs other than salaries. The maintenance cost, plus natural expansion, is expected to bring up the total, which, board members said, necessitated the increased tax and apportionment.
In suggesting to the tax board it take that figure, which was a five-year average concluding with 1935-36, the education group adopted the plan of President R. S. Bowers who urged the tax board, consisting of the governor, comptroller and treasurer, be furnished with costs of operation as a basis to determine a tax rate.
The tax board will meet July 20 or thereafter and the education board Aug. 1 at which time it will set the apportionment.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, July 8.—The political situation in this home state of New York promises to leave President Roosevelt with at least a partial headache—perhaps worse.

The one bright ray of sunshine for the White House there is the fact that the mix-up resulting from the death of Senator Royal S. Copeland has brought Jim Farley back to a more cordial relationship with Roosevelt and that the two men are working together to exert New Deal control over New York's Democratic party.

Although no one yet knows all the answers to the furious trading efforts now progressing in New York, Gov. Herbert Lehman is generally expected to achieve his ambition for the Democratic nomination to succeed Copeland.

Roosevelt would rather not have Lehman in the Senate, considering him hostile and somewhat conservative of late. But efforts are being made to force Lehman to support a New Deal choice for the gubernatorial nomination who would run on the Democratic ticket with Lehman and Senator Robert F. Wagner.

Congressman James M. Mead of Buffalo looks like an increasingly good bet for that nomination, although some New Dealers are still working for Solicitor General Robert H. Jackson, believing he would be a stronger candidate against District attorney Tom Dewey, the racket buster, in case Dewey became the Republican nominee.

MEAD'S COMPLICATIONS A-PLenty. Roosevelt and Farley hold the theory that Dewey will be "drafted" and Dewey is alleged to have whispered weeks ago that he would accept the G. O. P. nomination to run against anyone but Wagner or Lehman.

Yet Dewey would be handicapped by Mayor F. H. LaGuardia's refusal to run for senator on the elaborately emphasized ground that he had been recently re-elected and owed it to the voters to stay on the job.

A Democratic governor hostile to Roosevelt would put a bad crimp in F. D. R.'s hopes of liberalizing the party and dominating its 1940 national convention.

ABOUT JOE MARTIN. Congressman Joseph W. Martin of Massachusetts, who has been assistant House minority leader under Bert Snell and now is likely to succeed Snell as Republican leader, is a short, stocky, energetic, hard-headed, open-faced conservative Yankee with little of the spectacular about him.

The Republican party always has been able to depend on him for shrewd, hard work, however, and he is as popular as any G. O. P. member of the House. He is "Joe" to all and lives in a bachelor apartment at one of the capital's better hotels.

He was born one of eight children of a machinist in North Attleboro, Mass., grew up to be a reporter and finally publisher of a small newspaper. He served six years in the Massachusetts legislature, rose rapidly in organization politics and has been in Congress since 1925. He is chairman of the Republican presidential campaign manager in 1936, when he was re-elected by 20,000 even though Roosevelt carried his district.

The WPA workers all voted for me, but I couldn't get 'em to vote against Roosevelt," he explained.

College Grads Who Become Criminals Usually Forgers

DALLAS, (AP).—College graduates who become criminals in Texas usually are forgers, burglars, or murderers. This is the conclusion of Charles Lee Price in a Master's thesis written at Southern Methodist University after determining the educational status of inmates of the Texas-prison system in one year.

Statistics gathered by Price showed that one per cent of the prisoner population was college graduates and that two per cent of the prisoners had attended college. Thirty-three per cent of the criminals said they had graduated from high school or had attended high school. Sixty-four per cent either had quit school before they finished the sixth grade or were illiterate.

Of the prisoners who had entered college but had not graduated, 82 per cent were imprisoned for embezzlement, swindling, forgery, or bribery.

Price found a general tendency for prisoners with similar educational status to follow the same or related types of crime. He found no evidence to support belief that education, especially education, tends to promote crime, although he admits offenders having an education are probably more successful than the uneducated in avoiding arrest and conviction.

Until recently Texas had done little to educate the prisoners, Price said. The Texas prison schools was organized in 1911 but until 1930 little effort was made to improve the literacy of the inmates. Laws passed in 1930 require all illiterates to receive five hours of instruction a week, but school attendance by others is optional. However, both students and teachers were given credit on their terms.

The belief that prisoners are sent to prison to be punished and not to be reformed has contributed much to the slowness of school development in Texas prisons, Price concludes.

THE FORD EMPIRE has for its head lean Henry Ford and his son, Edsel (right), who recently celebrated the Ford Motor Company's thirty-fifth anniversary with an inspection of a $40,000,000 expansion project which will widen the industrialist's already vast motor kingdom. With thirty-five years behind them, they are thus still most interested in looking forward.

BUFFALO, N. Y. (UP).—The city is out $50 because Mrs. Edward B. Devine scorched her husband's shirt.

Firemen estimate that each response to an alarm costs the city about $50.

border area contended that the hotel facilities in some Mexican towns along the border were not good and that tourists preferred to stay on the American side and confine their foreign trips to brief excursions. The tourists all want to buy Mexican souvenirs, they said, and without the exemption from duty the tourist travel along the Southwestern border would decline.

"All tourists want to visit a foreign country and bring back some curios," Rep. Thomason (D-Tex) told the house. "I want to encourage such business rather than discourage it. It promotes friendly relations between the two countries and helps business both Mexico and the United States."

The bill gives the treasury authority to set any time limit, up to 24 hours, which the tourist must remain in Mexico, but Thomason told the house that he understood the department would not require the visitor to remain out of the country overnight.

Terms Melt Disguise; Youth Loses Freedom

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (UP).—If James Hutson, 17, hadn't cried in front of police officers everything might have been all right. But he did it and "melted" his painted mustache and revealed his identity.

Hutson escaped from the Boys Vocational school at Lansing, Mich., after being there two months following his conviction on burglary and motor theft charges. He adopted the painted mustache and dark glasses to avoid detection, but sharp-eyed officers weren't fooled.

At police headquarters he broke down and sobbed. The mustache

Law Imposing Duty On Gods Tightened

WASHINGTON, (AP).—Tourists visiting Canada hereafter will be required, under the provisions of a bill approved by congress and awaiting presidential action, to remain outside of the United States at least 48 hours in order to be able to bring back $100 worth of merchandise dutifree.

The secrets of the treasury will have the ability to issue regulations governing such importations from Mexico id members of congress from trips adjoining the Mexican bore said the present rules will not be changed.

The changevers the controversial points in bill pending in congress for nearly a year and a half. The measure, king many changes in administrative matters in the customs service, as passed by the house early in '37. It contained a provision that duty-free imports were to be restricted on both the Canadian and Mexican borders. The senate adopted an amendment by Senator Connly (D-Tex) exempting tourists from Mexico.

After weeks of discussion in the conference committee, the compromise was adopted.

Agitation for change in law arose from cham of commerce and other organizations in border cities who said thaurchases were being made abroad brought into this country duty free not by tourists but by residents of the border areas who were doing their shopping abroad.

Evening in White

(From John Wanamaker, New York)
Here are two beautiful summer dance dresses in chalk white to set off sun-tanned skin in dramatic fashion. The one on the girl at the table has a pleated décolletage that molds the figure, a skirt which flares at the hemline and a pert little jacket of white silk fringe. The other model, right—decidedly Empire in feeling—is worn with a charming white marabou jacket.

Feminine Fancies

For all the charges of impracticality that are brought against college curricula today, nobody can deny that there is a decided trend toward utilitarian studies.
An example of this is found in the candy-making course which has been added by the University of California. Candy-making might at first thought seem to be a trifle rather than a necessity in the daily routine of life. But when it is considered that the United States consumes each year about 13 3/4 pounds of candy per capita, the process of making enough sweets to satisfy this demand takes on the air of at least moderately big business.

We never mean to be a brake on the wheels of progress or such similar impediment but, somehow, we can't quite feel that a state university is the place to spend one's time learning the proper temperature and time of cooking for confections.

It may be an old-fashioned complex but the term university to us has a different connotation—something to do with figuring out the best in the ultimate goals for mankind and absorbing whatever generations dead and gone have assembled in the way of deep philosophy and rich understanding of humanity and its needs.

But why worry about what shall or shall not be included in a college catalogue when one can go out on a blistering summer afternoon and find such a recipe for coolness as this. White cotton with tiny green dots made up into a delight for evening wear—a dress whose skirt is of widening flounces each headed by a band of green. At the center front of each of these bands ap-

Miss Kate Sinclair Is Honored on Birthday

Remembering that Thursday was the birthday of Miss Kate Sinclair, pioneer resident of Midland, Mrs. W. S. Elkin and Mrs. C. G. McCall talked to a group of her other friends and arranged for an informal social in the afternoon.
Mrs. Elkin called at the Sinclair home first, supposedly to spend the afternoon sewing and talking with Miss Kate. Mrs. McCall arrived next and afterward Mrs. Fox, Mrs. M. D. Johnson, Mrs. M. J. Allen, and Mrs. W. A. Black came.
The honoree was taken altogether by surprise at the arrival of the group. She was presented with gifts from those calling and the afternoon was spent in "visiting."
Refreshments were served at the tea hour.

ppear a single white flower, a matching blossom centering the green band at the waist and the strip of green which marks the low squared neckline and continues on across the bodice front.
Nothing is cooler than green and white, especially with the white predominating.

Glass, which once had only numerous uses now has a myriad number. One of these is in an ultra-modern eraser. Believe it or not, spun glass forms a new eraser, which will be especially liked by accountants or others who work on important papers of good quality.
The glass, of course, will last a long, long time. And so, we predict, will the tempers of those who use the new eraser.

Whoever sits hour after hour at a desk will look with longing eyes at a new all-steel one. This has roomy drawer space but its real feature is in the unusual top. This is made of some composition which is said not to scratch and (all smokers stand up and cheer) not to show

Former Midland Resident Weds Ranger Girl

RANGER, July 8.—Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Brown are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Mae Jo to Kenneth Ambrose Jr., on Monday, June 27, at Palo Pinto, Texas. The announcement comes as a surprise to the friends of the young couple, who wish them much joy. Mrs. Ambrose has lived in Eastland county and Ranger all of her life and is a graduate of Ranger High School and Ranger Junior College. For the past two years she has been employed by the Ranger chamber of commerce. Mr. Ambrose has lived in Ranger about two years and has been employed by Southern Ice Company. He is a graduate of Deisel engineering school, of Kansas City. Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose are living temporarily with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Ambrose, on Elm street.

Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Ambrose formerly lived in Midland where he was the manager of the Southern Ice company. Their son, Kenneth, attended the Midland schools.

Mrs. Bobo Hostess To Porch Party Thursday Evening

Complimenting three couples, Mrs. Tom C. Bobo entertained with an informal porch supper and party at the Bobo home, 101 North G. Thursday evening.
The hostess had planned to have a lawn party and had arranged her flower-decorated supper table in the back yard at her home but when the standstill blew up at dusk, followed by calm, the group was entertained on the porch of the home instead.
The evening was spent in conversation.
Present were Mr. and Mrs. J. Ben Carsey, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Link, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Stinson, and the host and hostess, Dr. and Mrs. Bobo.

Westside Club Learns New Embroidery

A new stitch-in embroidery, appropriate for use on pillow cases or lunch cloths was demonstrated by Mrs. J. L. Hundt at the meeting of the Westside home demonstration club with Mrs. J. A. Mead Thursday afternoon.
Mrs. W. A. Conn won the prize for learning to do the new stitch first.
Cup towels were hemmed in the recreational period, with Mrs. J. H. Smith being awarded the prize in the contest to see who could first finish the hemming.
Refreshments were served to Mrs. Mmes. Frank Lord, J. L. Hundt, S. L. Alexander, C. G. Carden, W. A. Conn, J. H. Smith, Gene Harwell, Richardson, H. C. Whitmore, and the hostess, all members, and to Mrs. M. H. Carden, a visitor.
The water soon boiled away, and just as LaVigne rushed to rescue the tamales the can exploded. He went to a hospital.

Morning Bridge And Luncheon Favor to Club

Entertaining with a morning bridge followed by luncheon, Mrs. J. D. Dillard was hostess to the Twelve-ite club at her home, 1901 W. Kentucky, Thursday.
Larkspur and verberna were house flowers.
Guests gathered at 9:30 o'clock for the two tables of bridge which occupied the morning hours.
At 12:30 o'clock, a two-course luncheon was served at small tables.

Mrs. Frank Mackey of Big Spring was a guest.
Members present were: Mmes. R. I. Dickey, Hall Edwards, Frank Fulk, W. B. Harkrider, Sidney Iverson, W. P. Knight, L. G. Mackey, Dudley Wood, and the hostess.

Needlecraft Club Meets at Home of Mrs. Blacher

Needlecraft club held its weekly meeting at the home of Mrs. Eddie Blacher, 501 W. Texas, Thursday afternoon.
Modernistic pots of English ivy were used instead of flowers in the entertaining rooms, providing a cool touch particularly appropriate to the hot afternoon.
Needlework of various kinds, the exchange of recipes and ideas, and discussion of Carlsbad Cavern which most of the group have visited made up an interesting informal program for the club period.
A refreshment plate was served at the close of the sewing period to two visitors, Mrs. M. L. Wyatt and Mrs. J. K. Wright, and the following club members: Mmes. Wallace Ford, Ross Jeffers, Alvin Johnson, Robert Cox, Welden Worden, A. W. Wyatt, and the hostess.
The club will meet next Thursday with Mrs. Jeffers, 1901 W. Wall street.

During 1937 the gasoline taxes collected by the states amounted to $756,930,000. New York collected the greatest amount, $61,841,000. Pennsylvania the second largest, California, third, and Ohio fourth.

A Year of Conflict Builds 'Incident' Into Major War

The vast scope of the Japanese plan to dominate eastern Asia is shown by the above map. Note that even the tremendous gulf bitten off from northern and eastern China thus far is overshadowed by the great field in which responsible Japanese officials have indicated their armies may operate in the near future.

BY WILLIS THORNTON,
NEA Service Staff Correspondent.
A full year of bloody fighting across the best farmlands and through the mightiest cities of China has produced results whose long-time meaning no man can read. But there are other results, since the "border incident" of last July 7, which can be read all too clearly. Here are some of them:

At least 200,000 men lie dead. The ashes of 75,000 Japanese have been shipped home in neat little urns. More than 125,000 Chinese have rotted where they fell. Far more than a half million on both sides have suffered wounds. Unnumbered thousands of men, women, and children are dead or maimed, bombed in their homes and streets.

ter political enemies have been united in resistance; the political future of China has been changed no matter how the war comes out. YEAR'S TRAIL OF DEATH AND RUIN. ALL this is not yet officially a war. The "border incident" on the night of July 7 near the Marco Polo

The proudest cities of China—Peiping, Tientsin, Shanghai, and Nanking—have fallen before the invader. Nanking, in addition to the expected horrors of war, suffered the unbridled bestialities of a soldiery whose discipline completely broke down.

JAPANESE STRAINED. IN Japan, the military has gained complete control of the government, and sobered, by the realization that it has floundered into a major war, has clamped down on the people a rigid war-time discipline and industrial and military mobilization.

The PAYOFF

By HARRY GRAYSON
Sports Editor, NEA Service.
CLEVELAND.—Big Ed Walsh pleads for the return of the dead baseball and inside play. The famous White Sox pitcher of 30 years ago points out that it is practically all outfield play now... little infield play. The Big Moose yearns for more base running, hitting and running, double plays, and diving catches. In Walsh's day, a team had to do something besides bat a base runner around. Players had to stand out defensively as well as offensively. Walsh, now associated with a filtering plant outside of Meriden, Conn., dropped into Cleveland for a remarkable old-timers' game which saw Tris Speaker field his 1920 world champions intact. Most of them played nine innings, including a young catcher named Stephen Francis O'Neill. And after watching Smoky Joe Wood, Charley Jameson, Bill Wamby, Doc Johnston, Joe Sewell, and Elmer Smith cavort, and Walter Mails pitch, it might not be a bad idea for Alva Bradley to bring back some of the old Indians. Smith, for example, banged a home run a mile over the same right field wall which he cleared with the bases full in the world series against Brooklyn 18 years ago.

the New York Yankees outfield on either side of Joe DiMaggio. "The departure of Bob Seeds helped some," said Stephen Francis, shaking his noggin, "but the presence of Keller leaves us plenty of trouble in Newark." He says that the veteran Seeds has just caught up with the pitching, and will help the Giants. Outside of a young "buffalo" left-handed pitcher named Fred Archer, who was purchased from the Philadelphia Athletics along with Fink, O'Neill says Keller is the only young International League athlete ready for major league delivery. He expects the Bisons to collect $25,000 for Archer.

SLICKEST SHORTSTOP SINCE PECKINPAUGH, BANCROFT. Mails says that in Bill Lillard, 19, and in his second year of professional ball, San Francisco has the slickest Pacific Coast League shortstop since Roger Peckinpaugh and Dave Bancroft. Bill is a Los Angeles lad and a brother of Gene Lillard, who became a pitcher for the Angels after being shipped home by the Chicago Cubs as a third baseman. The DiMaggio adds that Dominic DiMaggio is a better outfielder than Joe, but that he is a year or two away in hitting. He lists Brooks Holder, a 21-year-old San Francisco outfielder who guards the plate like Max Bishop, and Schoolboy Hutchinson, a 19-year-old, 195-pound Seattle pitcher, as bright prospects. He says that the veteran pitcher, Win Ballou, now with the Seals, would aid any major league outfit as a relief worker. "Ballou's curve breaks like a ball dropping from a table," explains Walter Mails, the people's choice of Marin county.

O'NEILL THREATENS TO KIDNAP DUSTER MAILS. After Duster Mails pitched two innings, O'Neill asked him how long he believed he could go and be that fast. "For nine innings," replied the big left-hander now campaigning for the office of sheriff in Marin county, California, while serving as public relations counsel for the San Francisco Seals. "I've a notion to kidnap you... take you to Buffalo," said O'Neill. "You could win in the International League... no foolin'." It was a fine old-timers' game, with the 71-year-old Cy Young taking his turn for the Cleveland Naps of 1908. O'Neill asserts that Charley Keller of Newark would improve at Taierchchwang. Japan poured in strong reinforcements to storm Suchow and Chengchow, closing the gap between the Japanese armies. Present Japanese operations are along the Yangtze river aimed at Hankow, provisional capital of the Chiang Kai-shek regime. Japan probably has 750,000 soldiers in China proper, and must keep around 250,000 in Manchoukuo and the northern provinces to fight off guerrillas, maintain order, and be ready for a possible attack from Russia. The "border incident" which Japan evidently expected could be quickly concluded by swift strokes of a small force has been expanded into a major war with the future of China, Japan, all of Asia, and perhaps of the entire world, at stake.

SAN JOSE, Calif. (UP).—When William E. The latter came in very handy, for she was sentenced to 60 days in jail and didn't have to go home to pack.

Indian Village of Year 1300 Located

CANYON, (AP) — While the renaissance was clearing the shadows of the dark ages in Europe plains Indians inhabited communal slab houses, clustered pueblo-fashion on a natural shelf overlooking Antelope creek northwest of Amarillo. The pre-historic village, estimated to have been occupied about 1300 A. D., is being excavated and restored by a WPA party under the sponsorship of West Texas State College. The date of occupancy was fixed by comparing artifacts found there with those taken from other sites in the southwest where scientists, studying tree rings and other evidence, agreed upon a time basis. The excavations revealed walls made of rock slabs and adobe, the low doorways, the fire pits in the middle of many rooms, and well-made implements of flint, bone, and sinew. There were about twenty rooms in the village, a few circular, but most about 15 feet square. They were covered with roofs made of poles, brush, and earth with a smoke hole in the roofs. Evidence of habitation is very good, for charred embers and smoked earth are well preserved and appear to have been made recently. Lighting and ventilation obviously were poor, doorways being less than three feet high. Through these the hundred or more inhabitants moved on hands and knees, apparently, as they came and went about their daily tasks. Water was carried in pottery containers from the creek bed below. This pottery was not painted but covered with a cord-like impression from which it gets the name, "cord-marked pottery." These plains redmen were more peaceful than the nomadic tribes which probably annihilated them or drove them from this section. They hunted, raised corn and probably beans and squash, and bartered with residents of other villages, some of which were nearby. Burials often were made beneath the dirt floors of the houses. In one room of the Antelope creek ruin was found the skeleton of a middle-aged man in a flexed position. Prof. Johnston said the physical build appeared to be similar to that of the modern plains Indian. The location, one of many chart-
