Carolina Tornado Moves Toward East Coast Storm Area

A southern storm which sent two tornadoes ripping through Charleston, South Carolina, yesterday, moved rapidly toward Long Island and the hurricane-stricken area of New England today.

The weather bureau said there was little likelihood its force would be as devastating as last week's storm.

The tornado dipped furiously into Charleston early Thursday, killing at least twenty-two persons, injuring between 200 and 300 and damaging hundreds of thousands of dollars' worth of property.

Hours after the destructive twister struck, searchers dug into the ruins of wrecked buildings, and it was feared additional bodies would be recovered.

Hospitals listed fifty-five victims seriously hurt. Others were given first aid for comparatively minor injuries.

Charleston counted the storm's toll of 6 dead, 200 injured, some seriously, and a damage estimated at over two million dollars. The dead included 14 whites.

The weather bureau said the storm was about 200 miles southeast of New York at 7:30 a. m.

THIS To Prevent War

MUNICH, Sept. 30 (AP).—The official communique issued at the end of the four-power conference follows: Germany, the United Kingdom, France and Italy, taking into consideration the agreement which has already been reached in principle for cession to Germany of the Sudeten German territory, have agreed on the following terms and conditions governing the said cession and the measures consequent thereon and by this agreement they each hold themselves responsible for the steps necessary to secure its fulfillment:

First—The evacuation will begin on October 1. Second—The United Kingdom, France and Italy agree that the evacuation of the territory shall be completed by October 10 without any existing installations having been destroyed and that the Czechoslovak government will be held responsible for carrying out the evacuation without damage to the said installations.

The conditions governing the evacuation will be laid down in detail by an international commission composed of representatives of Germany, the United Kingdom, France, Italy and Czechoslovakia.

Occupation by stages of the predominantly German territories by German troops will begin on October 1. The four territories marked on the attached map will be occupied by German troops in the following order:

How the Germans Will March In. Territory marked number one on the first and second of October; territory marked number two on the second and third of October; territory marked number three on the third, fourth and fifth of October; territory marked number four on the sixth and seventh of October.

The remaining territory of preponderantly German character will be ascertained by the aforesaid international commission forthwith and be occupied by German troops by the tenth of October.

The international commission referred to in paragraph three will determine the territories in which a plebiscite is to be held. These territories will be occupied by international bodies until the plebiscite has been completed. The same commission will fix the conditions in which the plebiscite is to be held, taking as a basis the conditions of the Saar plebiscite. The commission will also fix a date, not later than the end of November, on which the plebiscite will be held.

There will be right of option into and out of transferred territories, the option to be exercised within six months from the date of this agreement.

Joint Commission to Work Plans. A German-Czechoslovak commission shall determine detail of option, consider ways for facilitating the transfer of population and settle questions of principle arising out of the said transfer.

The final determination of the frontiers will be carried out by the international commission. This commission will also be entitled to recommend to the four powers, Germany, the United Kingdom, France and Italy, in certain exceptional cases minor modifications in strictly ethnographical determination of the zones which are to be transferred without plebiscite.

The Czechoslovak government will, within the period of four weeks from the date of this agreement, release from their military and police forces any Sudeten Germans who may wish to be released and the Czechoslovak government will, within the same period, release Sudeten German prisoners who are serving terms of imprisonment for political offenses.

Annex to the agreement. British and French Stand By. His majesty's government in the United Kingdom and the French government have entered into the above agreement on the basis that they stand by the offer, contained in paragraph six of the Anglo-French proposals of September 19 relating to an international guarantee of the new boundaries of the Czechoslovak state against unprovoked aggression.

When the question of Polish and Hungarian minorities in Czechoslovakia has been settled, Germany and Italy, for their part, will give a guarantee to Czechoslovakia.

The heads of the governments of the four powers declare that problems of Polish and Hungarian minorities in Czechoslovakia, if not settled within three months by agreement between the respective governments shall form the subject of another meeting of the heads of governments of the four powers here present.

Supplementary declaration. All questions which may arise out of the transfer of territory shall be considered as coming within the terms of reference to the international commission.

Control Program Defended Today by Secretary Wallace

FORT WORTH, Sept. 30 (AP).—Henry A. Wallace, secretary of agriculture, vigorously defended the federal cotton control program against widespread southern criticism in an address to farmers meeting here today at noon.

He assailed the domestic allotment plan and a proposal for a substantially higher loan on staple and advocated re-enactment of the cotton processing tax to assure maintenance of a parity price for the South's money crop.

Bleeding Cores Recovered From Yingling Wildcat

By FRANK GARDNER.

Cores bleeding oil were recovered today from S. C. Yingling No. 1 Gulf-Nettle Barrier, east central Yoakum wildcat nine and a half miles northeast of the Bennett pool. It was cored from 5,314-32, recovering 14 feet of lime and anhydrite bleeding oil but with no porosity. Formation was said to be about 80 per cent lime and 20 per cent anhydrite. A second core was taken from 5,332-51, showing recovery of 19 feet bleeding oil, but also with no porosity. The last four or five feet of the core bore possible indication of sulphur water. At last reports, operators had resumed coring. The No. 1 Barrier, located in section 6, block D, J. H. Gibson survey, had shown oil staining in samples from 5,240-60.

Don Danvers et al No. 2 Shell-Lynn, in the Denver pool of southern Yoakum, flowed 102 barrels of oil the first nine hours of potential test. It has been treated with 1,500 gallons and re-treated with 6,000 gallons, bottomed at 5,085 feet in lime. Humble No. 1 Randall, See (OIL NEWS) Page Six

Wildlife Planning Board Officers Elected Here

Dr. K. F. Campbell, Midland dentist, hunter and fisherman, Thursday afternoon was elected president of the Midland County Wildlife Planning Board, organized under the direction of Dr. Lee W. Fisher of Alpine, regional game manager for the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission. Game Warden Tom Grammer of Midland also aided in the organization.

Russell C. Conkling, independent oil operator and all round sportsman, was named vice-president, and S. A. Debnam, county agricultural agent and game enthusiast, was selected as secretary.

The board will work toward the building up of stocks of game and wildlife in the county, carrying out projects to be recommended after a survey by Dr. Fisher and his associates. Restocking projects are carried on under the Pittman-Robinson act through which the federal government pays 75 per cent of the cost and the state government 25 per cent. Local suggestions for projects are welcomed by the board.

Financing of the projects is by the tax on arms and ammunition and apparently will go on indefinitely.

Six months of a year will be required to make surveys of the 24 counties of which Dr. Fisher is regional manager. Local species of game will be cared for first, under protective measures, with projects started for increasing this game and possibly adding new species.

Those attending the meeting yesterday, at the commissioner's court room, included Dr. Fisher, Warden Grammer, Dr. Campbell, Debnam, Teague Hutchinson, F. F. Elkin, and T. Paul Barron. Most members of the board were out of town and a subsequent meeting is planned soon, according to officers.

BRITISH, GERMANS SIGN PEACE PACT

MUNICH, Sept. 30 (AP).—Prime Minister Chamberlain and Reichsfuehrer Hitler today added a new Anglo-German declaration of peace to the four-power Munich accord that gave Germany parts of Czechoslovakia and averted a European war.

After the British and German chiefs signed with Premier Mussolini of Italy and Premier Daladier of France the pact for Czechoslovakia's dismemberment they made a joint declaration of the will their "two peoples will never go to war with one another again."

German troops on the Czechoslovak border will begin a gradual occupation of Sudetenland at midnight, since Chamberlain announced:

"Czechoslovakia accepts the Munich accord."

An international commission to supervise the cession was meeting in Berlin and was expected to enter Sudetenland tomorrow.

Chamberlain announced demobilization of Europe's armies and the British navy would come later, after German occupation is accomplished within ten days. He expressed belief the Munich conference would open the way to "appeasement of Europe," and on this note of peace he flew to London.

Daladier flew to Paris after a declaration of French friendship for Germany. Mussolini had entrusted earlier to face the acclaim of his people as the "savior of peace in Europe."

The Munich accord expressed satisfaction of Hungary's and Poland's claim for cession of Czechoslovak territories. After that, Germany and Italy were pledged to join Britain and France in a guarantee of the diminished frontiers of Czechoslovakia.

Diplomats in Rome believed Mussolini soon might begin withdrawal of Italian troops from Spain as further contribution to the general appeasement.

Principals and Scene of Conference To Decide Peace or War for Europe

Benito Mussolini: Socialist agitator and journalist... Front-line World War soldier... Joined and soon headed Fascist movement in Italy... Seized power by "March on Rome," 1922... Became "premier," actually dictator... Expanded military, conquered Ethiopia, 1935... Proclaimed Victor Emmanuel emperor, 1936... Closely allied with Hitler in "Rome-Berlin Axis."

Adolf Hitler: of Austrian middle-class... Front-line courier and corporal in the World War... Bricklayer's helper and man-of-all-work... Began "Push to East."

Munich, scene of the conference between Hitler, Mussolini, Chamberlain and Daladier, may have been chosen by Hitler because of its associations. It was in this historic Bavarian city that Hitler, in 1923, attempted his "putsch" or march on Berlin, which was broken up by the republican police. Sixteen victims of this affair are buried in a place of honor beneath the square colonnades in the foreground of the above picture of the city. The "Brown House," Nazi headquarters, is shown at left, behind the colonnades, while dominating the skyline are the famous twin towers of the Frauenkirche.

Vision of a Far Land

Things seen at a great distance have a marvelous simplicity. Prominent in one of the country's greatest newspapers recently was a news dispatch from Australia bringing word of a current worry that would seem to have that far continent by the ears.

Koalas, in event you have forgotten, are the little Teddy bears native to that land. It seems that the koala is becoming more and more rare, and a long sea journey would likely be fatal to one.

So that constitutes the big news from Australia these days! The place is worrying about the effects of sea voyages on Teddy bears! It makes it sound like a heaven on earth in these times of mutual slaughter, political hysteria, crumbling governments, and economic depression.

But then you recall that more than a few citizens of other far corners of the world suffer the belief that America's chief current concerns are the choice of a Scarlett O'Hara and the problem of whether to swing it or play it straight.

Another pipe dream goes up the chimney.

and federal constitutions and federal laws.

One political commentator says it is significant that the platform did not declare against a sales tax. He points out that the previous democratic platforms, adopted when Governor James V. Allred controlled the conventions, did contain such declarations.

At the same time, it is recalled Governor-Nominee O'Daniel has repeatedly said he was opposed to the sales tax and that he had pledged himself in his campaign against it.

The commentator observes that at the very least the platform placed no stumbling blocks in the paths of members of the Legislature who will work for a sales tax to defray cost of pension.

A great deal has been written about the lack of harmony at the Beaumont convention and many predictions have been made that the seeds of dissension sown in that meeting will flower in the general session of the Legislature which starts in January.

One view about the capitol is there may be more harmony than some think for the reason that O'Daniel and members of the Legislature in a sense will be in the same boat. A way to satisfy the people on old age assistance must be found and the problem is both O'Daniel's and the Legislature's.

When he arrives in the next world, C. V. Terrell, member of the Railroad Commission, wants to hear three songs, and he wants them to be played by O'Daniel's Hill Billy Boys.

So he told the statewide pronation hearing at which he announced he was turning over the commission chairmanship to Ernest O. Thompson. His action was the aftermath of his recent defeat for Re-election by G. H. Jerry Sadler of Longview.

Simplicity of the Current Fashions Is Good Showcases for New Jewelry

By MARIAN YOUNG, NEA Service Staff Correspondent.

NEW YORK. — With coiffures more formal, evening clothes more romantic and necklines on the majority of day time dresses perfectly simple and quite high, costume jewelry takes on a new importance this fall. Never before have bracelets, necklaces, earrings, rings, fobs and various other types of ornamental gadgets been more alluring, more enticing.

New and smart are lace collars of semi-precious stones to wear when your hair is brushed up your gown strapless. And the less formal jewelry collars in gold or silver mesh or combinations of mesh and large, inexpensive stones are lovely with high-necked street frocks. In the latter category, a necklace-collared made of rows of silver chains, with the rows joined together here and there with odd-shaped bits of turquoise, is outstanding.

To wear with sports clothes and tailored suits, a smart designer makes charming pieces of green gold in three shades—gold, green and yellow. Or, if a lapel clip strikes your fancy, there are engaging head-hunters with gold rings in their ears and noses.

Clips for Daytime

For simple daytime frocks there are attractive clips and pins in antique-type gold settings with amethysts or sapphires. One of these with a bracelet to match gives the finishing touch to a simple black daytime dress. Or, to carry out the feeling of a 1900 dress, try a delicate gold leaf clip with small rhinestones outlining the veins of the leaf.

With strapless and off-the-shoulder evening gowns, old-fashioned lockets (you can even put pictures or locks of hair or whatever in them) are revived. Sentimental too are chateaus of gold or silver to pin on trim, square shoulders or to wear on your belt. The modern adaptations of the chateaus which your grandmother wore and loved are young and charming, however, and you'll like especially those which have dainty Dresden paintings or lockets dangling amid their loops and keys. After years of obscurity, earrings have emerged as the brightest stars in the winter jewelry picture. Upswept coiffures and tiny hats have concentrated attention upon the head and, as a result, ears have a bare, denuded look unless covered with a bit of gold or jeweled glitter.

Small earrings with a single stone in each ear are right for tailored daytime frock and little doll hat. More ornate types are featured for afternoon. But, for evening, gorgeous court earrings, reminiscent of the fabulous jewels of Marie Antoinette, will flash and gleam as their wearers do the Lambeth walk on the smartest dance floors in the country.

This is indeed the time to realize that you can alter the entire effect of a dress simply by changing the jewelry. For instance, the business woman who wears a plain gold clip at her throat during the day can carry her cocktail jewelry in her bag. Then, at five, she can replace the gold piece with a mammoth one of glittering sapphire, clasp a matching bracelet around her wrist and step forth in glamorous fashion—ready for an evening's informal gawdy.

Sans Souci Club Opens Year With Afternoon Bridge

Sans Souci club re-opened its activities for the winter season with an afternoon party for which Mrs. Roy J. Downey was hostess at her home, 1210 W. Indiana, Wednesday at 2:30 o'clock.

Room decorations were bouquets of cut flowers. Mrs. Tom Rainbolt, who is leaving to make her home in Houston, was presented with a gift from the club as a farewell courtesy.

Mrs. W. H. Street was elected club president and Mrs. R. T. Mobley, vice-president. Six new members were present. They were: Mmes. W. P. Thurmon, L. A. Tullis, Lester M. Short, John B. Richards, L. Alton Absber, H. B. Dickson.

Awards in the three tables of bridge went to Mrs. Rainbolt for high score, to Mrs. Mobley for travel prize, and to Mrs. Dickson for cut.

A salad plate was served to the new members named and to the following additional members: Mmes. B. L. Hoffer, Mobley, Rainbolt, Rea Sindorf, Street, Frank Williamson, and the hostess.

FEMININE FANCIES

By KATHLEEN EILAND

We've discovered something—that if you want hook-and-eye fastenings on your fall dress, you don't actually have to go down and purchase giant size metal hooks and eyes.

There are light-weight composition hooks and eyes in the needed size. And they come in clear red, in green, or in white to suit your fancy and your frock.

Nautical-minded draperies are in their heyday now. There is a heavy material which shows ships and anchors in an attractive design—and for double attraction, is so woven that it may be reversed to show a side stressing red and therefore even brighter than the original design.

If you wish to hemstitch in your hems or hang the curtain with rings, it may be reversed as often as the housewife grows tired of the color scheme.

Inexpensive but clever small electric lamps show a wooden base carved into the semblance of a Scottie's face and tops this with a shade likewise picturing the lovable little dog.

For the puppy-enthusiast, or for any boy's room or man's den, these little lamps are quite suited and almost sure to be liked.

Cleverest thing we've heard of in the way of purses in a blue moon is one that any business girl in general and a reporter in particular might be willing to strain the month's budget to have. It is just the usual purse on one side—but the other side lets down to form a miniature writing desk.

Somebody who has had to balance a pad of paper on anything from a wall to thin air and try to write upon it thus certainly must have been the designer of this innovation in handbags. Three cheers for him or her or them.

Speaking of bags, there is a novelty creation that would be a pleasant fillip for a conservative costume. The bag is shaped like a box with handle long enough for convenience and top which laps over the side and closes with a tricky little key-effect.

Inside is the regulation coin purse, a pocket to hold cigarette package or case upright, and a pocket each for matches and a lipstick.

It comes in such nice colors as duobunnet, black, or other shades. Leather, of course.

An effective use of color is seen in a black velvet evening gown combined with a jacket hand-beaded in queer blue-green beads with designs edged in gold.

Use newspapers . . . the most powerful sales-producing force in the country.

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "The works of the Lord are great, sought out of all them that have pleasure therein. . . They stand fast for ever and ever, and are done in truth and uprightness" (Psalms 111:2, 8).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Mortal must look beyond fading, finite forms, if they would gain the true sense of things" (Page 264).

SATURDAY.

Story Hour will be held in the children's library at the courthouse, Saturday at 10 o'clock.

Right Chickens for Frying.

Frying chickens should weigh from 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 pounds dressed, the breastbone should be flexible, the body well-rounded and evenly distributed with fat, the skin soft, smooth and slightly oily, unblemished and without bruises or tears. Bruised poultry indicates possible careless handling and storage with a resultant impaired flavor and quick spoilage.

White Vinegar for White Pickles.

Use white vinegar for pickling white onions or any other white vegetable or combinations of vegetables.

Stunning Fall Slenderizer

ELIZABETH HAWES, foremost American designer, showed this stunning two-tone ensemble at a recent Ritz-Carlton fashion show. The slenderizing dress, cut in the easy, flowing lines for which Miss Hawes is famous, is of sheer black wool with strips of tan wool extending from shoulders to hemline at the front. Notice the high, bonnet turban.

Mrs. Jones Hostess To Lucky Thirteen Club Thursday

Colors of pink and blue were carried out in appointments for the afternoon party with which Mrs. O. H. Jones entertained the Lucky Thirteen club at 2011 W. College Thursday. Tallies for the three tables of 42 which furnished recreation for the afternoon were in the chosen colors.

Roses and zinnias were used in the party rooms.

Mrs. Jones' home has been recently completed and a feature of the afternoon was an inspection tour of it by the group.

Mrs. L. F. Joplin held high score and Mrs. Houston Sikes low score in the party games.

Playful guests were Mrs. S. A. Debnam, Mrs. Harvey Childress, and Mrs. A. G. Bohannon.

Guests calling at the tea hour were Mrs. J. J. Mills and Mrs. Eddie Rochelle.

Members attending were: Mmes. B. M. Hays, Sikes, W. N. Cole, J. A. McClurg, S. P. Hall, W. F. Hill, Joplin, Ellis Conner, J. C. Hudman, and the hostess.

Needlecraft Club And Guests Meet At Wyatt Home

Scene of the weekly meeting of the Needlecraft club Thursday was the new home of Mrs. A. W. Wyatt, 515 W. Holmsley. Upon arrival, guests were shown through the house which is built in the ranch style so popular at the present time in the Southwest.

Old-fashioned garden flowers decorated the rooms, their colors fitting in pleasingly with the gaily-hued Mexican pottery used in serving at the tea hour.

When guests had inspected the new home and old and ably over its completeness and style, the group settled down to an afternoon of needlework and conversation.

Club visitors were Mmes. John Hix, B. C. Girdley, Ed LeLoach, J. L. Rush, Ray Hyatt, and two tea callers, Mrs. Iva Noyes and Mrs. B. K. Buffington.

At the close of the sewing period, the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Miss Marcelline Wyatt, served a party plate to the guests and the following club members: Mmes. Wallace Ford, Niles Winter, Alvin Johnson, Geo. Phillips.

Next Thursday the club will meet with Mrs. Robert Cox, 1907 W. Texas.

Mother's Standby in Treating CHILDREN'S COLDS

FOR RELIEVING discomforts of chest colds and night coughs, rub Vicks VapoRub on throat, chest, and back at bedtime. Its poultice-vapor action relieves local congestion and helps the youngster relax into restful sleep.

FOR COUGHING and irritated throat due to colds, put VapoRub on the child's tongue. It melts, bathes the throat with comforting medication. Also massage on throat and chest.

FOR HEAD-COLD "sniffles" and misery, add a spoonful of VapoRub in a bowl of boiling water. Have the child breathe the vapors. This loosens phlegm, clears air-passages.

POPULAR MRS. JONES ALWAYS HAS TIME FOR CLUB MEETINGS

Mrs. Jones learned long ago that you're sure to live a lonely life if you tie yourself down to household drudgery—she phoned us the very day she realized all she was missing—we've been doing her laundry efficiently ever since—and Mrs. Jones has time to be popular—two days a week, when she used to be washing and ironing! But we do it for her now!

NUBBINS PLAY HERE TONIGHT; BULLDOGS TO IRAAN SATURDAY

ALL CONFERENCE CLUBS TAKE ON FOES THIS WEEK

All district 7-B clubs set action again this week, most of the clubs playing tougher opposition than has been met heretofore.

Midland fans will have to journey to Iraan tomorrow afternoon if they get to see the Bulldogs in action this week, but an attraction that is likely to be more worth looking at will be held at Lackey Field tonight when the third string Bulldogs meet the Seminole Indians at 7:30. The Seminole boys are reported to be plenty potent and observers declare they will give the Nubbins a much better battle than Iraan will give the first string boys. In fact, the Seminole boys are favored to roll up a win over the inexperienced local aggregation.

The Bulldogs go to Iraan for a game that should not be much of a test to them unless they suddenly show a complete reversal of form. The home club is in a confident mood but are not fooling themselves about having a walkover unless they put out. Coach Taylor has announced he would leave his first team in the game tomorrow for as much of it as possible. The coach is hoping for a much closer game than either of the first two played by the Bulldogs but will not pull any punches in an effort to make the score close. Taylor would like for the Bulldogs to get a real test before meeting the Wink club here just three weeks from now, but he is determined to let his first string get all work possible in the game tomorrow in an effort to better polish up some of the plays on which the boys have appeared to lack proper timing. The Wink Wildcats, with one of the best teams in the history of the school, will be at home against Littlefield in their second inter-regional game in as many weeks. Just what Littlefield, the team that met Midland in the regional finals two years ago, has got this year isn't known but it is doubtful if they will give the Wildcats more than a workout. If Wink is to be stopped this year it appears up to Midland or Odessa to do the job and chances of either being successful are exceedingly slim.

The Pecos Eagles, one of the four strong clubs of the loop, get a real chance to see what they have in a game at Odessa tonight with the Class-A Broncs. The Eagles have rung up a couple of wins over Fort Stockton and McCamey but have not been particularly impressive in either start. They will be the underdogs in the game tonight but are in more than a long chance of coming out on top.

The Monahans Green Wave, already victorious in three games, will journey to Crane for another conference battle. Right now, the Green wave tops the conference standings with a win over the Stanton Bulldogs. Other clubs will not meet conference foes until next week. Monahans is an overwhelming favorite.

The weak Stanton club, loser of two games to date, was scheduled to play the Ackerley club this afternoon in Stanton. Without going into details, it can be said that Stanton was the favorite in a game for the first time in many months.

The Kermit club, finally able to score last week for the first time in more than a year, should be able to continue the improvement tonight by winning a game. The Yellowjackets meet the Van Horn club and prognosticators have made the Winkler county lads the favorites.

Dry Skin Problem of West Texas Women

Women of West Texas have the outstanding problem of dryness of the skin to contend with in their beautification regimes, according to Mrs. Beth Hale, representative of the Martha Lee line of cosmetics, who has been at the Central pharmacy this week giving beauty advice and cosmetic demonstrations. This dryness is accompanied by a thickening of the skin caused by the sand and constant wind. Make-up is now following a trend to lighter, more transparent, natural effects, she said. The effort is to give the effect of a thinner, transparent skin. She advised the use of a cloth for removing cream instead of paper tissues, as the latter contain lint particles and dust which may clog the minute oil pores of the skin.

Junior High Grid Squad Will Play Odessa Saturday

Members of the Junior High school football team will get their first test of the season in the morning at 10 o'clock when they journey to Odessa to tackle the junior lads of that school.

Coaches L. M. (Firro) Freels and Cotton Kimbriel of the Junior High team have been working their boys hard all week and are optimistic of the outcome, despite the fact there are almost twice as many out in the Ector county capital for the team as there are here.

Head coach Freels announced today he would take 24 boys to Odessa in the morning for the game, including: Odie Kelly, Chas. Kelly, Bob Wheeler, Mack Cook, John Pittman, John Sindorf, Ken Taylor, Monroe Patton, Homer Green, Billie Stickney, Jack Brewer, Junior Gordon, Wilford Lester, Woody Davidson, Ivan Hall, Ken Wheeler, E. NOTICE OPERATORS OF CARS AND OTHER VEHICLES

SECTION 15 of the City's Traffic Ordinance reads: "The driver of a vehicle, on the approach of a fire engine, fire-wagon, or any other fire apparatus, or upon hearing the fire alarm, shall immediately draw up the vehicle which he is driving or operating as near as practicable to the right hand curb and parallel thereto, and bring it to a standstill, until such fire vehicles have passed."

Also, when the fire engine leaves the station a flashing amber light is turned on the traffic lights which flashes on and off for a period of three minutes to warn car operators and pedestrians to pull to the curbs and stop immediately, remaining there until the regular signal lights come back into operation. Serious injury and possible loss of life and property may be averted by stricter compliance with the above regulations and City officials urge the same. Otherwise it may be necessary to inflict penalties for violations. J. L. Tidwell, Fire Chief, M. C. Ulmer, Mayor, City of Midland.

Body of Missing Youth Discovered

BALLINGER, Sept. 30. — The badly decomposed body of L. G. Simmons, 16-year-old Buffalo Gap boy missing since last Thursday, was found by a former schoolmate yesterday afternoon four miles northeast of Miles not far from the place where he was last seen alive. The discovery was made at 5 o'clock. Gerrell D. Edmison, one of the three Buffalo Gap youths who set out today on a searching expedition of their own, found the body lying face downward under a highway culvert. Others in the searching party were Royal Tony and James Bilberry. A four-inch gash on the neck, inflicted by a pocket knife which lay opened under the boy's shoulders had brought death. Yet how he met his death seemed as mysterious as his disappearance a week ago.

Officers of Runnels, Taylor and Brown counties, after a preliminary investigation discounted the theory of murder. The possibility was revived, however, when Pete Elliott, Abilene undertaker who took the body overland to Abilene, discovered that the youth's high school class ring and pocket book were missing. Parents believed their son had from $5 to $15 on his person when he was last seen alive.

Personal effects Elliott found on his body were 33 cents in change, a pocket comb, the clasp, three small keys, a handkerchief and a slip of paper with several numbers written on it.

Mackey Previews New 1939 Dodge

L. G. Mackey, Midland Dodge and Plymouth dealer, returned last night from Dallas where he attended a conference of Dodge automobile dealers and factory executives and witnessed a preview of the new 1939 Dodge.

The new, larger, entirely different models Mr. Mackey reports, created much enthusiasm and were unanimously regarded not only as the most luxurious cars yet built by Dodge, but as the industry's style leaders for 1939. None of the Dodge merchants left the gathering without placing a substantial order for cars; many of the dealers who had placed 'sightseen' orders earlier, insisted on booking sizeable increases of their original commitments after seeing the new cars displayed at the meeting.

East of the Vacuum pool; Helmerich & Payne and Conoco No. 1-G-36 State is drilling at 4,947 feet in lime. Oil rose from 4,420 up to 3,920 feet, a rise of 500 feet, in 24 hours while drilling. While bottomed at 4,920, the well had swabbed and flowed 20 barrels of oil in five hours through open 5 1/2-inch casing, and in the following 12 hours headed 42 barrels of oil. A 2,000-gallon "dumpy" acid job was unsuccessful, and it was decided to deepen the well.
