Storm Abates, Citizens Dig Out on Coast

95 Deaths Blamed Upon Weather as Skies Clear Up

AURORA, Me. Nov. 28. (AP). — A police chartered airplane dropped food today on snow-marooned hunters and CCC youths of this northeastern main forest area while national guardsmen battled to open travel lanes.

Thirty sacks of food were dropped to 20 parties that had been marooned since Thanksgiving.

Shivering in winter's chilly grip, the Northeast dug out last night from its second severe snowstorm in three days.

About five inches more of snow fell throughout New England and New York onto the heavy crust of packed ice and snow left by winter's Thanksgiving debut, and general wintry weather prevailed throughout the East, Middle West and even in Dixie.

The Eastern Seaboard was in for more of it, too, on the basis of a weather bureau warning of a disturbance centered about 200 miles off Atlantic City and moving rapidly northeastward with increasing intensity.

Storm warnings were ordered hoisted along the Atlantic Coast from Virginia to Eastport, Me. It included all small craft from the Delaware breakwater to New London, Conn. and south to the Virginia Capes.

At least 95 deaths were attributed directly or indirectly to the Thanksgiving record-breaker and to the snow and wind which followed Saturday night and Sunday before most of the country had dug completely out of the first one.

Meteorologists were wary of Thanksgiving night mishaps and few serious traffic accidents were reported over the week-end, despite treacherous roads in many sections.

Highway travel was generally slow, but road workers were on the go, including 42,000 of them in New York City, to keep thoroughfares cleared.

Snow had blanketed Manhattan to a total depth of 15.8 inches within three days.

Sanitation Commissioner William F. Carey estimated $1,000,000 had been spent on snow removal.

Railroad lines reported little or no delay. Airlines operating out of the eastern terminal at Newark, N. J., were on nearly normal schedules as were bus lines.

Unseasonably warm weather was reported from the west coast in contrast to the mass of cold air which the Weather Bureau reported was centered over the Great Lakes region and moving slowly eastward.

Sub-freezing temperatures were general through the Middle West with light snow in most sections.

Chicago White Sox Ace Faces Loss of Leg After Accident

Motorist in Charge of the Chicago White Sox, Was Rushed to a Hospital Here After He Suffered an Accidental Bullet Wound While Hunting Rabbits Sunday, and His Physician Said It Appeared Amputation of His Right Leg Would be Necessary.

DALLAS, Nov. 28. (AP). — Monk Stratton, ace pitcher of the Chicago White Sox, was rushed to a hospital here after he suffered an accidental bullet wound while hunting rabbits Sunday, and his physician said it appeared amputation of his right leg would be necessary.

The operation would mean the end of a brilliantly budding career for the 26-year-old right-handed hurler.

Dr. A. R. Thomason, chief surgeon in charge of the case, decided against an immediate amputation but said "in the end it is pretty certain that Stratton will lose his leg."

Dr. Thomason said the pitcher was in a weakened condition from the loss of blood, "and we will not operate until we can build him up somewhat."

The surgeon said the amputation, if performed, probably would be done today.

The large vessel behind the knee was severed by the bullet.

Stratton was hunting alone on his mother's farm near Greenville when his pistol, lodged in its scabbard, suddenly discharged.

The bullet tore into his leg between the hip and knee. An emergency operation was performed in Greenville, about 70 miles from Dallas, but the bullet was not located. He was brought to a hospital here.

The accident occurred about half a mile from the residence of Stratton's mother and the pitcher crawled almost to the house when one of his brothers saw him. He waved for aid and the family rushed him to a Greenville hospital.

Incentive Taxation To Stabilize Work Is Urged by Swope

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28. (AP). — Gerard Swope, President of the General Electric company, told the senate committee today he believed the government must adopt some form of incentive taxation if it hoped to induce industry to stabilize employment through an annual wage.

He testified he "hoped" profit sharing with employees was good business but added, "I don't know whether it is or not." He said $1,000,000 in profits had been shared with employees during the last 22 years.

French Government Given Setback in Labor Drive

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The French government won a point in one quarter but received a setback in another yesterday in its drive to overcome labor opposition which has called a one-day general strike for next Wednesday.

Spokesmen for railway workers estimated to number more than a half million men offered a partial compromise on the decision of their unions to join the walkout called by the general confederation of labor.

"They said the railway employees would join the strike movement but they would report at their regular posts 'to guarantee security, prevent sabotage and maintain order,'" one spokesman said.

On the other hand, the Metal Workers Union of the Valenciennes district reversed its decision of Saturday and ordered its 25,000 members to continue a strike started last week. They previously were ordered back to their jobs tomorrow pending the proposed general strike.

Daladier broadcast anew his determination to quell the labor up-

Ferdinand the Bull

One day a mild little bull that liked to smell the flowers sat on a bumble bee. The bee stung Ferdinand, upper left, and he pawed and puffed fiercely. S-o-o-o he was taken to the bull ring to fight. But he just sat and smelled the flowers of the pretty ladies while the matador broke his sword—he was that mad, upper right. So Ferdie was a flop and they dragged him out of the ring by the tail, lower, but he didn't care and he went home to the farm, still smelling flowers, and there's where Walt Disney found him and put him in a movie.

Midland Youth Serves As Marquette Mascot In Game at Lubbock

John Van Kampen, ten year old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Van Kampen, served as mascot for the Marquette football team at Lubbock Saturday, in the game with Texas Technological college. Mrs. Van Kampen is a graduate of Marquette University and the family lived in Milwaukee prior to locating in Midland. John, today, made a brief talk in chapel exercises at junior high school, telling of sitting on the bench between members of the Marquette squad. The score was "two to twenty one," he said.

No Obligation to Defend the French, Chamberlain Says

LONDON, Nov. 28. (AP). — Prime Minister Chamberlain told the house of commons today Britain had not committed herself to send an expeditionary force to France in case of war.

Sir Percy Harris asked "whether this country is under certain circumstances committed to send an expeditionary force, and has there been any increase in such commitments."

Chamberlain replied brusquely, "the answer is in the negative."

'Mad Sculptor' Gets 134 Years For Murder of 3

NEW YORK, Nov. 28. (AP). — Robert Irwin, eccentric young sculptor who pleaded guilty to the 1937 Easter morning triple slaying of Veronica Geeode, attractive model, her mother and Frank Byrnes, boarder, was sentenced to 134 years in prison today by Judge James Wallace.

Irwin's lawyer, in offering a plea for a light sentence, told the court the sculptor was "as crazy as a bed bug."

4 Convicted In Kidnaping Of Salesman

OLYMPIA, Wash. Nov. 28. (AP). — Dr. Kent W. Berry, 50, and three other men were convicted by a jury Sunday of kidnaping and assault in the "jealousy" abduction and torture of Irving Baker, handsome automobile salesman. The jury recommended life imprisonment for all four.

Survivors include his son, Dr. Berry allegedly plotted the kidnaping after accusing the 37-year-old Baker, a former coast guard officer, of attacking the physician's attractive 27-year-old wife after a party last July 4.

Baker and numerous other defense witnesses contradicted the attack accusations and Trial Judge John Wilson refused to permit the jury to consider the "unwritten law" as a defense.

Convicted with Dr. Berry were William K. McAloon, a former town marshal; James Reddick, a taxicab driver, and Robert H. Smith, dairy farmer.

All were held guilty of kidnaping, an offense punishable by death under the Washington state laws unless the jury specifies life imprisonment.

Dr. Berry, McAloon and Reddick also were held guilty of first degree assault, for which maximum punishment is 20 years in prison if pre-sented without a change of expression. The eight men and 4 women of the jury deliberated 10 hours. They reported it took mank ballots.

Judge Wilson said he would hear within two weeks a motion for a new trial. Pronouncement of sentences will await disposal of that motion.

Chamberlain to Pay Visit to Duce Early In the Next Year

LONDON, Nov. 28. (AP). — The government announced tonight Prime Minister Chamberlain and Foreign Minister Halifax would go to Italy during the first part of January to confer with Premier Mussolini in furtherance of Chamberlain's European appeasement policy.

Informed persons described Chamberlain as confident that by personal contact with Mussolini he might set in motion negotiations which would lead to a broad scale accord between Britain, Germany, Italy and France.

Challenge Not Accepted-- STOCKYARD STRIKE CONTINUES

Silver Shirts Among the Fists

CHICAGO, Nov. 28. (AP). — An attempt by American Federation of Labor workers to operate the Chicago stockyards in the face of a strike called by the CIO apparently failed today.

The local business agent of the AFL livestock handlers union had guaranteed to have about 150 men at work this morning but shortly before noon not a man had reported for work.

Trading remained suspended as the CIO massed 250 pickets.

Trading in Chicago's great meat animal market has been suspended since last Monday when the CIO stock handlers walked out to enforce demands for pay increases, a checkoff system, a closed shop and other concessions.

Bitter said that the Armour delegates discussed plans for "a national contract with the meat packing company and upheld the stock handlers in the Chicago strike."

"A letter will be sent out by me tomorrow," Bitter said, "to Armour and also to the Stock Yards Company, demanding that they sign a wage agreement with the stock handlers."

"Unless this stock handlers' situation is settled in the very near future a general walkout may be called in every one of Armour's plants."

Harris said that in Armour's 25 major plants 25,000 men are directly employed in slaughtering and processing cattle. "Of these," he said, "85 per cent are members of the CIO."

Supervising Police Captain John Stege said he was prepared to cope with any emergency which might arise. The police department, he added, will comply with an AFL request to keep the 150 officers on strike duty out of the yards.

A delegation of AFL workers conferred with Henkle Friday and the Stockyards Company manager told them then if they wanted to come back to work Monday they could do so.

He added they would be hired as individuals and not as members of the AFL since the CIO has for some time past been the accredited bargaining agency for the company's employees.

CIO officials declined to say whether a one-day "work holiday" enforced in the Armour slaughtering department Saturday would be extended this week. The holiday was called because, union leaders said, the company had used stockyards property in receiving livestock shipments.

Negotiations for settlement of the strike were to be resumed tomorrow afternoon with Federal Department of Labor conciliators.

Rites Read Today For Dr. J. R. Vance, Stanton Pioneer

Funeral services for Dr. John R. Vance, pioneer Stanton physician, banker, and real-estate owner who died last Sunday afternoon, were to be held at his home at 3 o'clock this afternoon, with Geo. Sheuburn of the Church of Christ officiating.

Death came to Dr. Vance, 82, at his home following an illness of about a week. He had been in ill health for several years.

Survivors include his son, Turner Vance, lawyer of Refugio, Texas, his daughter-in-law, and four grandchildren.

Pall bears were to be tenants from Dr. Vance's farms. Interment was to be in Evergreen Cemetery.

John Reese Vance was born in Brown county, Ohio, Jan. 30, 1856. He and Mrs. Vance came to Stanton in 1891 where he practiced medicine over a wide area, held public office, became a banker and acquired large land holdings. He had retired from active practice and business several years ago.

When the young physician came to Stanton he had already practiced medicine at Danville, Ohio, for some 10 years. Stanton at that time had a population of about 200 people and the prairies encroached upon the town so that antelope would come to the courthouse water trough to drink. He practiced northward to Lamesa, southward to Garden City and Sterling City, east to Colorado, and west to Monahans (going by train to visit patients in the latter town).

In the early years of his residence in Stanton, a struggle was going on between the cattlemen and the sheepmen. In 1892, Dr. Vance was elected county treasurer as the candidate of the cattlemen.

During the years of progress and continued settlement of the county, Dr. Vance followed the early 90's and the first part of the Nineteenth century. Dr. Vance, in addition to medical practice, engaged in banking. He became president of the Home National Bank of Stanton, the institution later being sold to another banking firm. He acquired large real estate holdings.

Some 13 or 16 years ago he retired from active medical practice, though still answering emergency calls, but maintained an office in Stanton.

At the time of his death he still lived in the big white house on the outskirts of Stanton where he and Mrs. Vance resided from 1900 until her death some five years ago.

Mabee Well Southwest of Bennett Pool Running Tubing for Testing

By FRANK GARDNER

With hole bottomed at 5,277 feet in lime, J. E. Mabee No. 1-D Coline-N. W. Willard, promising a mile and a quarter southwest extension of the Bennett pool in southeastern Yoakum, today was running tubing preparatory to making first test. It was drilled in circulating oil, and amount of oil shows encountered was not certain. However, the well has run high structurally and has been conceded a good chance of developing production. It is located 440 feet from the north, 2,200 from the west line of section 741, block D, J. H. Gibson survey.

A mile and a half to the east, Shell No. 1 J. M. Ruyts was moving off rotary tools preliminary to installing pumping equipment. Bottomed at 5,296 feet in lime, it had swabbed approximately three barrels of fluid per hour, showing some drilling water with oil, on last test. Hole has been given a 500-gallon acid wash.

Cascade No. 2-A Bennett, northwest edge test in the Bennett pool, is drilling at 4,830 feet in lime. Honolulu No. 5-678 Bennett had reached total depth of 5,262 feet in lime and was circulating. A west edge test, Texas Pacific Coal & Oil Company No. 15 Bennett, is drilling at 4,465 feet in anhydrite, while the same owners' No. 14 Bennett is drilling lime at 4,965.

Shearer Pool Adds Couple.

Two more completions for the active Shearer pool of Pecos were reported today. W. H. "Bill" Street, discoverer of the area, gauged his No. 4 W. T. Shearer at flow of 196 barrels a day following 20-quarter shot in pay zones between 1,388 and 1,455, total depth. Oil tested 35.2-gravity, and gas-oil ratio was 200-1.

Childress Royalty Company No. 2 Shearer flowed 394.83 barrels on 24-hour gauge, with oil testing 36.4-gravity and gas ratio of 300-1. It topped pay at 1,449, reaching total depth of 1,483, and was shot with 50 quarts.

In the Payton pool on the Pecos River, Western Well Service Corporation No. 1-C Johnson flowed 148 barrels of 36-gravity oil daily, with ratio of 1,650-1, following an 80-quarter shot. Pay was topped, at 1,963, and total depth is 2,065.

J. L. Greene and Paul Davis No. 1 Gulf-Shearer, half-mile outpost to the Shearer pool, is preparing to plug and abandon at total depth of 1,548 feet in lime. It had encountered sulphur water from 1,518-22-which rose 1,300 feet after a 40-hour shut down at the latter depth.

George T. Abell No. 1 F. C. Baldwin-State, Imperial area wildcat in northern Pecos, is rigging up cable tools. It is in the southwest corner of lot 1, section 24, block 9, H. & G. N. survey.

Shafter Lake Failure.

Texas No. 1-H State, Andrews wildcat a half-mile south of Shafter Lake, was scheduled for abandonment at total depth of 4,857 feet in lime after running Schlumberger. On bailing test at 4,841 feet, it balled 1 barrel of sulphur water in four hours. First water was struck at 4,540 feet, with increase at 4,734 and from 4,836-41. Only slight shows of oil were logged before water was encountered. The test is in section 4, block 14, University survey.

Anderson-Prichard and Osage No. 1 University, new test in the southeast corner of section 13, block 14, two and a half miles southwest of Shafter Lake, is moving in rotary equipment.

Wentz No. 1 W. F. Cowden estate, southeast of the Emma pool in southern Andrews, is reported to have been shot with 105 quarts from 4,330 to 4,420, and now is cleaning out 125 feet off bottom. Plugged-back total depth is 4,428 feet. Before shot, the well balled one barrel of oil and three barrels of water following a 46-hour shut-down.

Rogers & Rogers No. 1 University, southern Andrews test east of the Emma pool, is cleaning out on bridge 1,200 feet off bottom after shot with 195 quarts from 4,388 to 4,406, top of plug.

Visit Speeded Up-- SANTA CLAUS TO ARRIVE FRIDAY

Attention Kiddies . . .

Santa Claus will pay his annual pre-Christmas eve visit to Midland one week earlier than was announced in yesterday's Reporter-Telegram. W. B. Simpson, chairman of the Retailers Committee of the Midland Chamber of Commerce, announced this morning following notification from St. Nick that it would be impossible for him to be away from Toyland on December 9 as previously announced.

Plans were thinning out in motion to welcome Santa Claus next Friday, a parade headed by the local high school band to be staged in his honor. The beloved gentleman will perhaps arrive by air at about 3:30 o'clock Friday afternoon, an automobile to escort him from the airport to the high school where the parade will from Santa Claus will distribute candy from a pie-clip-up to all children along the line of march.

Following the parade, Christmas lights will be turned on in the downtown section and store windows will be unveiled, the Christmas shopping season to be declared officially open Friday afternoon. Various merchants said this morning that they were well pleased with the moving up of the Santa Claus festivities, and that the opening of the shopping season on December 2 rather than December 9 should stimulate early Christmas shopping to the benefit of all concerned. Stringing of the lights will be started early tomorrow.

Solicitations of funds to pay for the street decorations was started this morning and will be continued throughout the early part of the week, liberal contributions being urged by chamber of commerce officials in order that the downtown section may be exceptionally well decorated.

Citizen Corrigan

It may have been mentioned before, but it will do no harm to repeat. Douglas Corrigan has the makings of a great citizen, if he isn't already one. His movie career may be short, it must be added.

For he shows a magnificent independence of Hollywood froth coupled with amazing sense about a lot of things, including money. Corrigan had occasion recently to explain about his salary, simply that he is getting half of the $100,000 which the studio said it was paying him. "Of course," he added, "I'm not kicking. It's still a lot of money."

It is little short of felonious in Hollywood to admit you're making less money than the studio advertises you are. The immediate result will be greatly improved public relations out of Hollywood and a new crop of press agents whose hair turned white overnight.

Wars and Treaties

U. S.-British-Canadian treaty has been received in many ways by the U. S. citizenry. Many people believe with Secretary Hull that the trade agreement presages a new era of international amity and understanding and a great boom in trade.

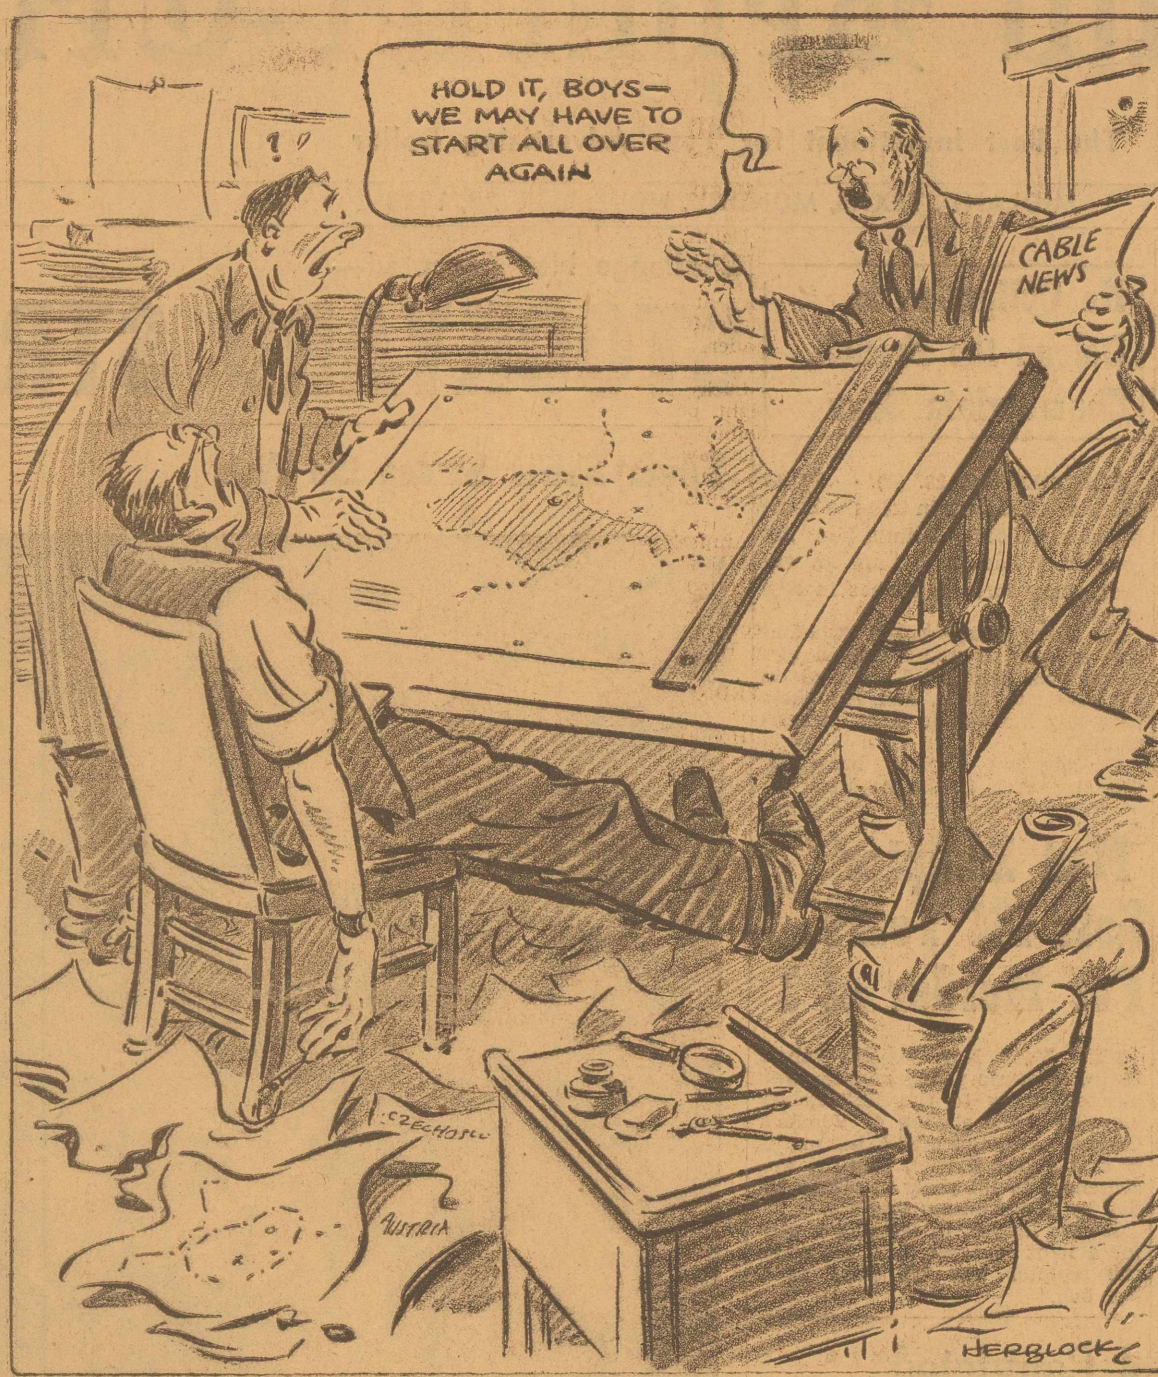

Contrasted with this approval is the sentiment of such opponents as Governor Aiken of Vermont, who said the treaty appears to be a plan "to turn New England solely into a recreational area."

Trade experts disagree as to what the result may be. The nations involved will have to wait and see.

The palm for adverse comment must go to some unnamed historian who has observed:

"Leave it to the United States to do things in a big way. Chamberlain lost the World War at Munich, but Hull has gone further back with his trade treaties and lost the Revolution."

Drawing the Map of Europe

JOHN T. FLYNN

NEW YORK, Nov. 23. — There probably never has been a country which had more problems than this one. That is understandable. But what is not understandable is that there should be so many problems, pressing problems, about which the country has no policy. Take the railroads. A modern American railroad might itself be defined as a collection of problems. But the government hasn't a semblance of a policy respecting them.

Here is one consequence of that. The Delaware, Lackawanna and Hudson Railroad, like many another, cannot make enough money to pay its taxes to the state of New Jersey or the city of Buffalo. So it asks the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to lend it the money. This sort of thing has gone on since the R. F. C.—was formed by Hoover. Railroads have borrowed millions to pay taxes to states and cities. They have borrowed millions to pay rents on real estate. They have borrowed money to pay the rentals of roads they were operating. And the R. F. C. has accommodated them apparently whenever they have needed this help.

They have borrowed millions to pay interest on bonds and notes, oftentimes to bankers. FROM VANS TO MORGANS. I RECALL protesting against this when the R. F. C. was first organized. The Van Swearingen borrowed $10,000,000 to pay a loan to the Morgans. I was informed that the reason for that was a profound economic one. It seems that then—in 1932—we were in a depression because the banks would not lend money. This was the explanation given me by the wizards in Washington. While it seemed rather terrible to have the government supply money to the Vans to pay off loans to the Morgans, the profound idea behind it was that this would put money in the bankers' purse; indeed all the R. F. C. loans were achieving that end, and then presently the bankers would have so much money they would be burning a hole in their pockets. And they would start lending it.

NO SERIOUS THOUGHT. The folly of that must be apparent by now. The banks have had billions poured into their pockets, but they haven't started lending yet—the pockets remain unburned. When the R. F. C. paid taxes and rentals for other roads, it was told this was helping cities and states in trouble. The folly of that must also be apparent now. The whole truth is that the government not only has no policy about the roads, but it refuses to even think seriously about it. Since 1931 the desperate character of this problem has been apparent. But as far as the government has gotten is to dole out a few dollars every time one of these ragged vagabonds come around looking for a handout, thus prolonging the agony, while the roads sink to new levels of distress.

Had there been a courageous facing of the problem in 1933 when that was possible the roads would be on their way to health now. Auto Tourist From Afar. SACRAMENTO, Cal. (U.P.) — California attracted automobile visitors from 27 countries of the world during recent months, according to a check on licenses issued. ## Texas Manufacture Of Cheese Declines

AUSTIN.—Manufacture of creamery butter and American cheese in Texas during October declined from the like month last year, but aggregate production of these products during the first ten months of the year was substantially above that of the corresponding period a year ago, according to the Bureau of Business Research of the University of Texas. Manufacture of ice cream, however, was well above that of October, 1937, the Bureau reported.

Reports from representative groups of creameries, cheese factories, and ice cream plants indicate a decline from October last year of 22.3 per cent in creamery butter production, a decline of 13 per cent in cheese production and an increase of 13.6 per cent in ice cream production. During the first ten months of the current year creamery butter production exceeded that of the corresponding period last year by 12.3 per cent, and ice cream production was virtually unchanged with a decline of only 0.2 per cent.

Poultry Shipments At Low in October

AUSTIN.—Shipments of poultry from Texas to interstate points during October almost reached the vanishing point, but egg shipments were well about a year ago, according to the University of Texas Bureau of Research. Only four carloads of poultry were forwarded this year compared with 43 cars during October last year. Egg shipments totaled 40 cars, compared with 22 cars a year ago. Only one car of eggs was brought into the State, compared with six cars during October last year.

The elasmobranchs, a huge prehistoric reptile, swam through the seas of Kansas some millions of years ago.

The Town Quack

Seems like it was only about a week ago that folks were saying we hadn't had any winter. Beginning about a week ago this evening, however, we have had some winter. The mercury got down to 21 degrees again this morning, and right on top of a comparatively warm night. So, if you have been holding back on buying some long-handles and other winter equipment, you may proceed with confidence. Winter time is here.

I don't know whether Editor Jim Kelly of the Stanton Reporter had reference to this editor or Ralph Shuffler when he referred to "the underdog," but here is some comment he used to help hurry out his paper last week, so as to give full time to getting his feet under the table for Thanksgiving turkey.

We're endeavoring to publish the Reporter Wednesday of this week, is the reason we are delving down on the copy hook and bringing out age-old copy—saves us a lot of uncalled for mental strain on all otherwise overtaxed brain remnants of multitudinous proportions that is common to this department on the first of the month. But as we are naturally always sympathetic for the underdog, though the conlab between this department and Paul Barron of the Midland Reporter-Telegram took place prior to the Midland Odessa Bronco football game, we are compelled to expose our good friend Paul Barron to our other good friend Ralph Shuffler of the Odessa News-Times. Us three, Ralph Shuffler, Paul Barron and the Editor, if no more knows there have been a battle of friendly words going on between Paul and Ralph for some time. Shuffler bet the Editor county glass court-house again Paul Barron's Petroleum building that the Odessa Bronco would tie, of the odds of the Midland Bulldogs in the game that has already been played and sent the Bronco home with only the "nicker," and that a weak sister, Barron told he wagered only to satisfy Shuffler's desires. . . . That Midland had no space to put the Editor's bet. That all the space Midland could possibly acquire was being rapidly gobbled up by a swift growing and permanent population. . . . that he, Barron, would have gladly given Shuffler the Petroleum building had he won, as Midland was badly in need of space to supply the demand for skyscrapers, and donating the Petroleum building to Odessa would have enabled that little oil city a skyscraper, its first, and perhaps, only one. Paul said he didn't want to be hogged with Ralph, but what is a fellow going to do when so many folks are clamoring for sites to build permanent homes, business blocks and towering skyscrapers, as is the case with Midland. Paul said that in just a few short years Midland would be known as the "telescope" town. . . . folks would have to arm themselves with the star detectors so they could see the top of their business blocks. Paul said he couldn't help it because he was living in so fast a growing town. It was an "unfortunate" affair for a country boy like him. Paul said, Now, Ralph,

Electric Power Consumption Off

AUSTIN.—Consumption of electric power in Texas during October declined more than the usual seasonal amount from September but was slightly above October last year, according to the Bureau of Business Research of the University of Texas. Reports from seventeen representative power companies in the State show a decrease of 6.3 per cent in consumption from September and an increase of 1 per cent over October last year, the Bureau said.

Commercial consumption was a down 10.2 per cent from September but 14.7 per cent above October last year; industrial consumption decreased 2.8 per cent from September and was 8.7 per cent below October a year ago; while residential consumption declined 10.0 per cent from September but was 11.9 per cent above October last year.

Building Permits in State Gain in Oct.

AUSTIN. — Building permits in Texas during October were moderately above the preceding month and sharply above the corresponding month last year, according to the Bureau of Business Research of the University of Texas. Reports from upward of forty Texas cities show an increase in value of permits of 10.5 per cent over September and an increase of 40.3 per cent over October last year.

The major portion of the increase in the total is attributable to Houston whose permits increased more than 50 per cent over September and 250 per cent over October last year.

Beware The Cough That Hangs On

No matter how many medicines you have tried for your common cough, chest cold, or bronchial irritation, you may get relief now with Creomulsion. Creomulsion not only contains the soothing elements found in many cough remedies, such as Syrup of White Pine Compound with Tar, and fluid extract of Licorice Root, but it also has fluid extract of Ipecac for its powerful phlegm loosening effect, fluid extract of Casarea for its mild laxative effect, and most important of all, Beechwood Creosote nicely blended with all of these so that it will reach the source of the trouble from the inside. Thousands of people who really know their drugs, use Creomulsion in their own families, realizing that this excellent preparation aids nature to soothe the inflamed mucous membranes, to heal the irritated tissues, and to loosen and expel germ-laden phlegm. # SWEETHEARTS

"They're so divine in the first act!"

"Riviera Loafer!" "Music Murderer!"

"Oh, these family telephone calls!"

"What about all these invitations?"

"Miss Marlow has an engagement—and it's pretty special!"

Gwyn Marlowe (Jeanette MacDonald) and Ernest Lane (Nelson Eddy), darlings of the Broadway stage, are celebrating both the sixth anniversary of their appearance in the musical comedy "Sweethearts" and their sixth wedding anniversary. Their engagement on the opening night of the show was as romantic as are their roles in the production. Their romance has remained as bright and shining after six years of marriage as it was on their wedding night.

Idolized as sweethearts in private life as well as in their stage roles, they have become a Broadway symbol. Felix Lehman (Frank Morgan) producer of "Sweethearts" believes there'll never be an end to the run of the show unless (and perish the thought!) cry Gwyn and Ernest) his two stars fall out of love! But, though everything is rosy with his stars and at the box office, there remain, nevertheless, clouds of war in the "Sweethearts" ranks.

Leo Kronk (Mischa Auer) the play's librettist and Oscar Engel, the composer (Herman Bing) are enemies to the death! Leo claims Oscar's music will one day ruin his book; Oscar argues the reverse. When Leo, after a long absence lapping up sunshine on the Riviera, returns suddenly for this sixth anniversary performance, Oscar ominously predicts the worst! Something will happen, he knows, to ruin them—to end the play's run—to doom them all to oblivion!

While Felix, at his wits' end, tries to placate Leo and Oscar, Gwyn and Ernest send each other love notes between acts. Kay Jordan (Florence Rice) their secretary, rushes from the one's dressing room to the other's with messages and telegrams of congratulations. Gwyn and Ernest are glowing with the secret that at the end of the performance they will run off alone to the little restaurant where they celebrated their wedding night supper. ## Senior Endeavor Studies Liquor Traffic Sunday

Senior Endeavor of the First Christian church met Sunday evening at 6 o'clock with Billy Noble, president, presiding.

Following the singing of Endeavor hymns, Marvin Park was leader for the program on "The Liquor Traffic."

He gave the opening talk on "The History of the Liquor Traffic." Billy Noble spoke on "The Influence of the Picture Show on Drinking for Good and Bad."

Elma Jean Noble discussed "Are Newspapers Allowed to Print the Truth Always?"

A roundtable on the subjects for the evening was held after the talk.

Twenty-three were present including: E. J. Ragsdale, Jimmie Pickering, Frank Wade Arrington, Johnnie Pickering, Elma Jean Noble, Paul Shipley, Rev. J. E. Pickering, Doris Jean Shockley, Mary Lee Snider, Clenna Jones, Jean Schottlander, Betty Shockley, Billy Joe Hall, Dorothy Mauldin, Doris Lynn Pemberton, Mrs. J. E. Pickering, Robert Howe, Marvin Park, Billy Noble, Rev. H. C. Shipley, and two others whose names were not reported.

Junior-Intermediates.

"Looking Forward to Christmas" was the topic of the Junior-Intermediate Endeavor program.

The program opened with song service and scripture reading in unison.

The following were present and took part on the program: Ada Belle Leroy, and Charles Reader, Sylvia Holman, Patsy Lou Arrington, Irvin Lee Reecer, Betty Mae and Frances Collins, Van Cummings, Betty Ruth and Eloise Pickering.

Visitors besides Mrs. Z. T. Reader, who is assistant, were Mrs. Holman and Mrs. Fleener.

The program was closed with sentence prayers by the circle and the benediction followed the business meeting.

Naomi Class Hears Lesson Taught by Mrs. Earl Griffin

"Thou Shalt Not Steal," another study in the series of the Ten Commandments, was the subject of discussion at the meeting of the Naomi class at Hotel Scharbauer Sunday morning.

Mrs. Earl Griffin taught the class, in the absence of Mrs. J. Howard Hodge.

Miss Drobtha Johnson presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. A. E. Horst. She also led the lesson reading.

Mrs. J. B. Sanders led the scripture reading.

Offering was played by Mrs. O. H. Lamar.

A business session was held, in addition to the lesson study, in which it was decided to distribute blankets to needy families this week.

Fifteen women were present.

Whooping Cough Warned Against

AUSTIN. — "Some communicable diseases are measurably controllable from a public health point of view. However, whooping cough is not yet one of them. It appears and spreads rapidly despite every effort to hold it in check. Because of the great difficulty in applying effective measures, many parents consider this childhood trouble as inevitable. They foolishly argue that since their child is bound to get whooping cough anyway, the sooner it is history, the better," states Dr. Geo. W. Cox, state health officer.

"It is true that many older children do not appear to suffer serious consequences from this disease, nevertheless in this group pneumonia and tuberculosis sometimes follow in its wake, which is serious enough. But when the attack is experienced by the very young, it is likely to be extremely dangerous. For example, of the whooping cough deaths in Texas during 1937 totaling 337, ninety-five percent were under five years of age," Dr. Cox pointed out.

"While it is impossible to keep children from other youngsters, parents must realize that a cold actually may be the forerunner of whooping cough. Once this possibility is appreciated, a physician will be summoned when a cold evidences itself and the child prevented from mingling with other children. It should be understood that it is at this period of the attack, usually before a diagnosis has been made, that whooping cough is most contagious. This rule may seem unduly harsh. However, if parents would apply it, there is reason to believe that the whooping cough incidence would decline, and perhaps markedly so. And in this connection, the necessity for early recognition of the disease in very young infants cannot be stressed too strongly.

"As it now stands in most instances physicians and health officials have no knowledge of the case until the disease is well defined and usually noted by the parents themselves through the characteristic 'whoop' in the cough. By that time the child has contacted many

Honoring Charlotte Kimsey, who has returned from a three-months' visit at Long Beach, California, Doris Lynn Pemberton entertained with a waffle supper at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. L. B. Pemberton, 1108 W Illinois, Saturday evening.

The return of the honor guest was unknown to the other guests until she appeared at the party, making the occasion one of surprise to most of the group.

The Thanksgiving theme was carried out in decorations of the dining table which was centered by the figures of two large turkeys. Plate favors were small china turkeys on baskets of mints.

SOBER CLOCK GOES ON SPREE

MELBOURNE, Australia (U.P.) — A clock, installed in the Elizabeth Street postoffice in 1890, and which had led a sober, Victorian life ever since, went on a spree and at noon the other day struck 135 times at the rate of about 23 chimes a minute. However, the minute and hour hands refused to join in the general binge, dissociated themselves from the chiming mechanism and continued to perform their duty in the accustomed sober manner.

other children and has been the spreader of the infection. Moreover, the possible damage to the youngster himself through this delay has been increased.

At best, whooping cough is a mean antagonist. It requires wholehearted and prompt cooperation not only on the part of the physician and public health officials but by parents also. Until this happy combination is more generally recognized the likelihood of definitely diminishing the present power of whooping cough will continue to be slim.

Take Calotabs to Help Nature Throw off Colds

Millions have found in Calotabs a most valuable aid in the treatment of colds. They take one or two tablets the first night and repeat the third or fourth night if needed.

How do Calotabs help Nature throw off a cold? First, Calotabs are one of the most thorough and dependable of all intestinal eliminants, thus cleaning the intestinal tract of any virus-laden mucus and toxins. Second, Calotabs are diuretic to the kidneys, promoting the elimination of cold poisons from the blood. Thus Calotabs serve the double purpose of a purgative and diuretic, both of which may be needed in the treatment of colds.

Calotabs are quite economical; only twenty-five cents for the family package, ten cents for the trial package.—(adv.)

CRISLER COACH OF YEAR WITH KERN RATED SECOND ON CARNEGIE RECORD

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Service Sports Editor

Herbert Orin Crisler of Michigan is the coach of the year. Rated behind him on 1938 performances and in the order named are Bill Kern of Carnegie Tech, Elmer Layden of Notre Dame, Harry Stuhldreher of Wisconsin, Tom Stidham of Oklahoma, Don Faurot of Missouri, Richard Harlow of Harvard, and Howard Harding Jones of Southern California.

Although he inherited sophomore backs of rare speed and versatility and a veteran line, Fritz Crisler in his first fall at Michigan erased the defeatist habits of four years. The old Chicago man left no room for doubt as to the potential abilities of his squad, achieved blocking and tackling reminiscent of another era and restored poise and self-confidence by the simple formula of hard work and launched a program of offensive emphasis probably unparalleled in Wolverine history.

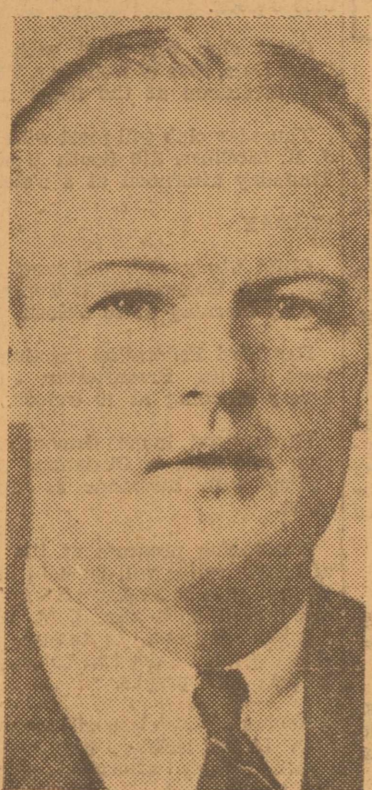

Crisler had the good judgment to use his young backs from law in place of veterans who had got nowhere previously.

A missed point after touchdown in the Minneapolis match was all that separated Michigan and its new coach from an undefeated campaign and the Western Conference championship.

club of which little was expected, beat Holy Cross and Pittsburgh, real powers which had not been repulsed for more than two years. The Tartans suffered their only loss after more than holding their own with Notre Dame until upset when Reterese Johnny Getchell lost track of the downs to give the Irish the ball in the final period.

Kern learned his football well... as a lineman and then as line coach and chief scout under Jock Southland of Pittsburgh for nine years. Layden guided a young Notre Dame club back to the dizzy football heights the South Bend institution enjoyed under the immortal Knute Rockne. The current edition is a typical Rockne array, especially in alertness.

Stuhldreher in his third season took Wisconsin to the very threshold of its first Big Ten championship in 26 years. Stidham swept Oklahoma to its first Big Six championship in history. The unbeaten Sooners' average net gain nearly quadruples that of their combined rivals. They are the nation's ranking team defensively... having been scored on only twice in eight engagements.

HARLOW RALLIES HARVARD; HOWARD JONES COMES BACK
One-Sixteenth Creek Indian and the rest Irish, Stidham is a native Oklahoman, having been born at Checotah, in the old Creek nation. He was the 220-pound running mate at tackle of huge Tiny Roebuck under Dick Hanley at Haskell. Faurot made Missouri a good scoring machine for the first time in more than a decade... turned big Paul Christman into one of the slickest passers and finest sophomore backs in the land.

Dick Harlow rallied Harvard after a dismal start... brought the Crimson to a glorious finish. Howard Jones restored much of Southern California's lost prestige

No story about coaches would be complete without mention of Wallace Wade of Duke, Dutch Reese Neyland of Tennessee, Dutch Myer of Texas Christian, Dr. Sutherland of Pittsburgh, Benie Bierman of Minnesota, and Frank Thomas of Alabama, but football men long since have grown accustomed to superlative seasons by these masters. Their records down through the years should be something in the way of proof that while material is highly essential there is vastly more to the business of coaching than many suspect.

Increase Shown in Number New Charters

AUSTIN—The number of new charters granted Texas corporations during October increased moderately over both the preceding month and the corresponding month last year, while the total capitalization increased sharply over September but was well below October last year, according to the Bureau of Business Research of The University of Texas.

Data compiled from records of the Secretary of State show a total of 111 new charters granted during October compared with 107 in September and 99 in October, 1937, the Bureau reported. Total capitalization was $1,899,000 in October, an increase of 42.6 per cent over the preceding month but a decline of 12.1 per cent from October last year.

Groups showing increases in number of new charters over both comparable periods were banking, finance, oil and real estate-building. A large proportion of charters granted were for corporations with a capitalization of $5,000 or less. Only three corporations with capitalization of $100,000 or more were chartered during the month compared with five during October last year.

More Commercial Failures in State

AUSTIN—A marked increase in number of commercial failures occurred in Texas during October in comparison with the preceding month and the corresponding month last year, according to the Bureau of Business Research of The University of Texas. Total liabilities also rose sharply.

According to reports from Dun and Bradstreet, Inc., there were 26 failures in October, compared with fifteen the month before and nineteen during October last year, the Bureau said. Total liabilities of $474,000 were up 17.2 per cent from the preceding month and 141.8 per cent from the like month last year. Average liability per failure was $18,000 during October, compared with $11,000 the month before and $42,000 during October last year.

With play in district 7-B officially over, sportswriters can point with pride to their selections made before the season opened. The Wink Wildcats were the unanimous choice to win the district flag—and that is just what they did. A fight for second place between Midland and Pecos was predicted and once more predictions were right, Midland winding up one game ahead of the Pecos club. However, most of the "experts" picked Monahans to come out ahead of Crane for fourth place in the standings and that one failed to hold up, Crane finishing ahead of Monahans. It was generally agreed that Kermit would finish ahead of Stanton, and this was what happened.

In fact, there was not more than two games played in which an "upset" occurred. Monahans lost to Crane and Pecos lost to Midland in the only two games that went contrary to expectations of dopsters. Season records for all 7-B schools follow:

Mustang Boys Club Column

The Mexican boys defeated the Mustangs in football to the tune of 18 to 12 last Saturday morning. The winning touchdown was made in the last few minutes of play. The game was clean cut with considerable pep on both sides. This makes one victory each for the two teams. The Mustangs playing in the game were: Jack Kennedy (captain), Flash Duncan (Co-captain), Murray Howell, Jimmy Slaughter, Joe Harwell, Lomer Green, Charles Forest Jr., Louis Wingo, Glenn Brunson, Monroe Patton, Joe Whitmore, Jack Walding, David Kinnebrew, Morse Woods, John Olliff, Hershel Parkis, L. C. Hobbs, Buddy Bledsoe. The Mexican lineup was not available for this report. Most likely the game next Saturday will be with the Midland Caddies. The third and rubber game with the Mexicans will be announced later and should prove most interesting.

Informal Table Tennis and Carrom tournaments were held in the Corral Saturday night. The winner of the Table Tennis matches was Glen Brunson with Robert Blacklock runner-up. In the Carrom struggle, L. C. Hobbs was top man with Glen Brunson trailing.

Quite a few of the Mustangs have strayed to other pastures. Several have gone to CCC Camps. Others are in school in Wisconsin, California and other towns in Texas.

Houston Man Named State Chairman of "Fight Infantile Paralysis" Program

NEW YORK—William L. Clayton of Houston, Texas, widely known through the Cotton Belt of the South, will be chairman for the state of Texas in this year's broadened and intensified "Fight Infantile Paralysis," Keith Morgan, Chairman of the Committee for the Celebration of the President's Birthday, announced today.

"The Lone Star State already is being organized with a chairman for every county and will be high among the leaders in the drive for funds," Mr. Morgan said.

Mr. Clayton is a partner in the Anderson Clayton Company, cotton brokers, with main offices at Houston. A number have moved. Flash Duncan, who now lives in Pecos, gets over to the meetings whenever he can.

It was decided that to be eligible for the exclusive Mustang Minute Men, the wild horses wishing to belong would have to learn about five new paces. The first pace will be to learn how to tie twenty different knots. The second pace will be announced at an early date.

An interesting event will be discussed at the next meeting. The club will discuss the possibility of inviting the most famous or most popular horse in America and its rider to become honorary members of the Mustang Boys Club.

Jack Kennedy shot an empty-ump point deer over Thanksgiving. The monthly Mustang "Chow-wow" (gastrological for pow-wow) will be announced soon.

ton and branch offices in many other cities. Mr. Clayton is a trustee of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. Associated with him in the Texas organization is Waverly Briggs, as vice-chairman, and Frank Watson, as director of the organization.

In a message to Chairman Morgan, Mr. Clayton said: "Texas is deeply interested in the new program of the National Foundation of which I am proud to be a trustee. This program means the establishment in Texas of permanent chapters of the Foundation embracing all of our counties."

"Moreover, a new plan to divide the Foundation's funds on a 50-50 basis will aid hundreds of crippled children in our state. We are sure of the united support of Texans who always respond immediately to appeals for those who are afflicted."

Mr. Morgan delighted over the acceptance of Mr. Clayton as state chairman, said: "The new foundation plan as announced by Basil O'Connor, President of the Foundation, is a third great step in the struggle of American citizens to conquer this invisible invader."

"The permanent chapters will constitute the Foundation's national guard," authorized to act in time of epidemics, constantly on duty to aid those suffering from the after effects of the disease and ready to disseminate the latest knowledge regarding diagnosis and early treatments.

STORIES IN STAMPS

The Names That Grant Could Never Lose

BORN the eldest son of Jesse R. Grant, a tanner and farmer, and Hannah Simpson Grant, on a sunny day, April 27, 1822, at Point Pleasant, Ohio, the celebrated American general-to-be was christened Hiram Ulysses. But events were one day to change his name to Simpson for all time.

In 1829 Jesse Grant, desirous that his son should receive a better education than had been his own, secured an appointment for Hiram to West Point. So Hiram Ulysses Grant matriculated, but Congressman Hamer, who arranged the appointment, had sent in his application with Hiram's mother's name, Simpson, attached. Young Hiram went down on the books as Ulysses Simpson and he tried in vain to have the error corrected.

The second name he never lost came with the capture of Fort Donelson on the Cumberland. When Grant took the strategic fort on Feb. 16, 1862, its commander, Buckner, proposed a commission to settle the terms of capitulation, but Grant replied, "No terms other than an unconditional and immediate surrender can be accepted." The capture made Grant a national hero and a byplay on his name resulted in "Unconditional Surrender Grant." The Civil War general and 18th President of the United States is shown here on a new stamp of the U. S. regular series enlarged. (Copyright, 1938, NEA Service, Inc.)

Men's Class Raises Funds to Feed the Needy Christmas

Progress was reported by the Scharbauer Men's Class, meeting each Sunday at Hotel Scharbauer, toward raising funds for Christmas baskets to be distributed to needy families of Midland. Boyd Laughlin, Midland attorney, made a talk on behalf of the project. Efforts will be made to increase the fund substantially each Sunday in order to have liberal gifts available by Christmas time.

Mayor M. C. Ulmer addressed the class on "Honesty in All Things." He will speak at an early date, it was announced, on the present day problems of the Jews. Sam Laughlin directed the singing. An attendance of 29 was reported by Alton Gault, class secretary.

First Rehearsal for Christmas Cantata Is Scheduled Tonight

Pope Pius Able to Make Talk Sunday

VATICAN CITY, Nov. 28. (AP)—Pope Pius XI astonished 400 Hungarian pilgrims Sunday by talking to them for 10 minutes after he had seated himself unaided on the papal throne.

One of the happy pilgrims described the 81-year-old pontiff, who collapsed Friday morning with a heart attack, as "very pale, but he appeared the master of strength and unhesitating in his motions."

Doctors indicated the holy father passed a calm night and he arose from his sick bed Sunday morning to undertake a strength-taxing schedule of audiences which reached a climax in his appearance before the Hungarians.

In the afternoon he went to bed for about two hours, but asthma bothered him again, members of his household said, and he arose to sit in an arm chair until 6 p. m.

Labor Available for City Clean-Up Drive

Property owners needing laborers for the Clean-Up campaign, scheduled for this week under auspices of the Federated Clubs and the City of Midland, may get them promptly by calling the Texas State Employment Service, No. 335, or by calling at the office, 200 East Wall, it was announced today by Ira C. Pratt manager.

Numerous unemployed men with families are listed there and will be given preference on the clean-up jobs.

City trucks will go about the residential sections Tuesday, gathering up trash and rubbish which the property owners are asked to have ready in the alleys.

Vacant lots and property where owners are not available will be cleaned off by the city, to aid in the mid-winter clean-up and employment campaign.
