Army Arsenal Blows Up; Thousands Left Homeless by Blast

OSAKA, Japan, March 2. (AP).—A death toll of unknown proportions was taken by an army arsenal explosion at suburban Hirakata which spread fire and destruction through a wide residential area Wednesday, the war office in Tokyo announced this afternoon.

Police said probably 200 persons were blown to bits and burned to death. The war office said only ten were known dead but that scores were missing and that it was impossible to set the death toll definitely because many victims apparently had been incinerated. The war office said 472 persons were injured.

Masterson Area Is Given New Wildcat By Midland Oil Firm

By FRANK GARDNER

Second wildcat in as many days for the Masterson area of Pecos was seen today as Culbertson & Irwin, Inc., of Midland, announced location for their No. 1 Ed Promme. It is 330 feet from the northeast and southeast lines of the west quarter of section 106, block 10, H. & G. N. survey, about one mile south of production in the pool proper. A projected 1,500-foot test, it is slated to start drilling with cable tools Saturday.

In the Pecos River area, O. E. Schkade No. 1 Nevill has been abandoned at total depth of 2,558 feet in brown lime. It found six barrels of water hourly from 2-465-87. George T. Abell et al. No. 1 O. W. Willard, east of Imperial, is drilling below 1,300 in brown lime. Cities Service No. 1 Dorr is drilling at 135 feet in sand and red rock.

On the Ward county side of the Pecos Valley pool, DeKoch and Lyman No. 1 Kessler topped Yates sand at 1,705 feet, 16 feet high to Edwards and Donnelly's large producer farther west, and is drilling ahead below 1,740 in lime and anhydrite.

Bennett Pool Oiler

Honolulu No. 10-695 Bennett, in the pool of that name in south-easter Yoakum, on potential test established daily rating of 1,856.92 barrels of 32.8-gravity oil, with gas-oil ratio of 943-1. It had been acidized with 7,000 gallons in pay zone from 5,030 to 5,250, the total depth. Shell No. 1 Waples-Platter Company, two miles northeast of Bennett production, is drilling below 4,939 feet.

New location for the eastern portion of the Denver pool in Yoakum is Shell No. 3-C George Baumgart, 230 feet out of the southwest corner of section 866, block D, J. H. Gibson survey.

Crew Gone, She Charts Own Course

Though abandoned as "sinking" after a collision with the German freighter Wiegand of Barnegat Lightship, N. J., the U. S. freighter Lillian remained afloat, as shown in this air view. Because any abandoned vessel is a salvage prize for the first person to board her, Lillian's captain—who had started New Yorkward aboard the Wiegand with his rescued crew—hastily returned to his deserted ship, found that it had drifted 15 miles farther out to sea.

Musical Program Heard at Rotary; Mustangs Boosted

Rotarians heard an all musical program at the luncheon today, under direction of Wallace Wimberly. The program chairman himself played a piano number, Mrs. Lloyd Haseltine played a violin solo, with Mrs. Lee Cornelius playing the piano accompaniment. Billy Noble played two piano numbers.

Spirited talks were made toward boosting ticket sales for the Mustang Club show at the Ritz theatre Tuesday evening. Besides the regular moving picture program, boxing bouts by members of the Mustang Club are staged. The theatre has been bought at a flat price by the Rotary Club, all proceeds above that amount to be used for the Mustang annual outing in the Davis mountains next summer. Tickets are 40 cents for adults and 20 cents for children.

President Clinton Lackey named Harry Gossett chairman of the "on to Big Spring" committee to secure 100 per cent registration of Midland Rotarians at the district conference to be held at Big Spring early in May.

The establishment of the new projects will increase the number of such projects in operation in Texas to 12, since five are already operating. The water facilities program in Texas is a cooperative enterprise being carried on jointly by the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, the Farm Security Administration and the Soil Conservation Service.

Mustangs Ready to Greet Public With Two Stellar Events

Plans were practically completed today for two outstanding events to be staged by the Mustang Boys' club, the Pet Parade set for Saturday and the boxing bouts Tuesday evening in connection with the Ritz theatre's regular bill. The first event, to be staged on the downtown streets at 11 o'clock Saturday morning, is free to the public and will be a colorful, spectacular procession of juvenile oddities.

None Injured as Two Cars Collide

Several persons narrowly escaped injury last night early when a special mail box to be placed by Mrs. J. A. Jones struck another one bearing five boys and caused it to overturn at the intersection of Wall and Loraine streets. Louie Barron, driver of the car that overturned, was accompanied by Wesley Prime, Wayne Merriman, Conway Baker and Norman Slaughter at the time of the accident. According to an officer, the boys were headed west and the car being driven by Mrs. Jones was headed north when the collision occurred. None was more than slightly injured.

Southerners Charge Freight Rate Structure Is Damaging

WASHINGTON, March 2. (AP).—Southern after southerner arose Wednesday before congressional committees to reiterate the charge that the freight rate structure was damaging to Dixie, but most of them declared remedies should be applied only after painstaking and thorough study.

Otherwise, they said, new injuries might be inflicted on the economic system in their section and in other areas. C. E. Widell, of Nashville, Tenn., the concluding witness today before the senate interstate commerce subcommittee studying several freight rate bills, opposed the bill introduced by Senator Hill (D-Ala.), chairman of the subcommittee. He said it would be an unjust and dangerous experiment.

Widell is traffic manager of the Tennessee Products corporation. Senator Hill interrupted Widell's testimony to remark that his bill had received "very little support" from witnesses before the committee this week and indicated it might be abandoned. "I just introduced the bill to be shot at, so to speak," he said. "One serious objection to the pending bills is that congress would arbitrarily fix specific rates and rate levels by legislative declaration without hearing or appropriate proceeding for determination of facts," Widell stated.

O'Daniel Chooses Texas' Birthplace As Site to Rap Foes

WASHINGTON-ON-THE-BRAZOS March 2. (AP).—Governor O'Daniel stood on the sacred site of Texas' birthplace today and condemned those who would engender class hatred by opposing a constitutional guarantee of pensions for the aged and needy.

Pony Express Riders Complete First Lap; Arrive Here Saturday

Seventeen saddle-wise cowboys and a 16-year-old girl sprinted out of Nocona at nine o'clock yesterday morning when Amon G. Carter, Ft. Worth publisher, fired the starting pistol, the event marking the start of the new-fangled pony express to the Golden Gate Exposition, a distance of almost 1,800 miles.

By nightfall most of the riders had covered the 48 miles to Wichita Falls. Shorty Hudson of Knox City leading the way into Wichita Falls. Most of the group spent last night at Archer City, departing early this morning for Abilene and points west. Taylor Tuck of St. Jo was second and Jack Clifton and Miss Bennie Greenwood tied for third at Wichita.

The pony express riders took to the saddle in a race to get to Oakland and the Golden Gate Exposition where a $750 cash prize awaits the first rider arriving there.

Good sized crowds lined the streets in all towns passed through to date to watch the riders gallop by. It took about six hours to make the trip from Nocona to Wichita Falls. The riders are picking up pony express mail at each town, carrying it through West Texas to El Paso, Las Cruces and Lordsburg in New Mexico and on to Phoenix, Yuma, Los Angeles and up the Pacific Coast to Oakland and the exposition. Each rider is allowed two mounts, one of which rides in an auto trailer while the other is ridden.

At their present rate the journey will take around 30 days. The original pony express, allowed frequent changes of mounts, used to make the trip from St. Joseph, Mo., to California in eight days.

The riders are scheduled to pass through Midland sometime Saturday, the exact time of the first arrival not having been ascertained. Midland pony express mail will be picked up by the first rider arriving in Midland, the mail to be taken from a special mail box to be placed in front of the Popular Store on North Main street. Approximately 50 pony express stamps had been sold here by this afternoon, the stamps being sold at the chamber of commerce office and at the Popular Store. Special Midland covers are also available at either place.

ON WESTERN TRIP.

Mr. and Mrs. Foy Proctor will leave tomorrow for a business trip to Deming, N. M., and to Phoenix and Wilcox, Ariz. Mr. Proctor recently bought some cows at Deming, which he will receive and ship to wheat pastures near Hereford.

To Take Name Of Pius XII For Position

Balloting Shortest Since 1623; Member Of Royal Family

VATICAN CITY, Mar. 2. (AP).—Eugenio Cardinal Pacelli today was elected the two hundred sixty second Pope.

The new pontiff, papal secretary of state under Pope Pius XI, succeeded to the throne of St. Peter's on his sixty-third birthday. He will take the name of Pope Pius XII. The new spiritual head of the Catholics is an Italian.

Gamillo Cardinal Caccia Dominiotti made the announcement election from the central balcony of St. Peter's. Cheers from a great crowd in the piazza greeted the announcement. The new pope is a member of an Italian noble family whose relations with the vatican have always been intimate. He visited the United States in 1936.

His election on the third ballot without precedent in modern history of the church. Not since 1623, when Benedict XV was chosen, has the conclave acted so promptly.

The new pope had served as head of the church since Pope Pius XI died. He called the world conclave of cardinals that chose him for the high office.

The new pope imparted his first papal benediction from the central balcony to a wildly cheering throng shortly after his election.

The new pope had had one of the most distinguished careers of any man in the present College of Cardinals. He was born in Rome, March 2, 1876, and comes of a family which has long had close connections with the Vatican. His father, Filippo Pacelli, was dean of the consistorial advocates.

His brother Francesco, played a considerable part in the negotiation of the Lateran treaties between the Vatican and Fascist Italy, and for his service was made a Marquis and a councillor of the new Vatican state.

Eugenio Pacelli was ordained to the priesthood in 1901. After getting his degrees of Doctor of Divinity and Doctor of Canon Law, he was assigned to Pope Leo XIII in 1900 for duties in the offices of the papal Secretariat of State. In 1908 he was made professor of diplomacy in the Accademia del Nobilita. He had also served in the Sacred Congregation of Extraordinary Ecclesiastical Affairs, thus coming to the notice of the great Cardinal Gasparri who for so many years conducted the foreign affairs of the Vatican.

Pope Pius X and later, Pope Benedict XV, made Pacelli, Secretary of the Congregation. Later Pope Benedict consecrated him as bishop in the great St. Simeon Chapel and in 1917, in the midst of the World War, sent him as Papal Nuncio to Bavaria.

Here, among other things, he worked hard to further the Pope's last effort to bring the warring powers together and to end the war. When the Germans lost the war and the Bolsheviks for a short time, ruled Bavaria, Pacelli's life was in danger and he finally left. But later he returned and secured a concordat between Bavaria and the Vatican.

He was consecrated Archbishop of Sardes and in 1920 was sent as first Papal Nuncio to the new German republic. In Berlin he worked so well that he secured a concordat between Russia and the Vatican.

Returning to Rome he became undersecretary to Cardinal Gasparri. He was created a cardinal in 1929. In 1930 he succeeded Cardinal Gasparri as secretary of state and succeeded Cardinal Merry del Val as archbishop of St. Peter's. In these posts he was brought into especially close touch with Pope Pius XI, who had an increasingly warm regard for him and entrusted him with many important missions of the Vatican.

Ex-Ambassador Fined As Hit-Run Driver HANOVER COURT HOUSE, Va. March 2. (AP).—Doctor William Dodd, former Ambassador to Germany, was fined $250 and costs in a Hanover circuit today on a plea of guilty to a charge of hit-run driving involving injury to a negro child.

Recruits Called to Colors by Italy as Others End Service ROME, March 2. (AP).—Italians born during the first four months of 1919 were called to the colors today along with regular classes of 1917-18 to keep the standing army at full strength. Foreign observers estimated the new classes would provide Italy with 300,000 conscripts to replace those completing regular service this year.

BRUCE CATTON IN WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, March 2.—Administrator Elmer F. Andrews is perfectly willing to get tough, if he has to, in order to enforce the wages and hours law.

Nevertheless, the law thus far has met much less opposition than might have been expected. There has been nothing like the tidal wave of litigation that greeted the national labor relations act.

Considering the fact that approximately 11,000,000 workers are covered by the act, that record is a trifle surprising.

Not that all is sweetness and light. Some 3000 complaints have been filed by workers. The Wage and Hour Division recently added two dozen field inspectors to its force, giving it a staff of 128 men who spend all their time checking complaints.

GOVERNMENT HOLDS HIGH CARDS.

MAYBE one reason the record to date is rather mild is that in any scrap the Wage and Hour Division holds all the aces. It can proceed against an employer in criminal court and the penalty for an employer convicted can be a fine of $10,000—or, for a second offense, six months in jail. Or the division can get a federal court injunction restraining an offending employer from breaking the provisions of the law.

So far, the Wage and Hour Division has filed six injunction suits. They include: SUIT to restrain the Harwood Manufacturing Corp. of New York from paying less than 25 cents an hour to its 400-odd workers in a plant at Jessup, Ga., making shirts and pants.

SUIT against the Powers Manufacturing Co. of Waterloo, Ia., makers of athletic uniforms. This injunction was granted in a consent decree; the company also agreed to pay $200 to employees as difference between what they got and what they should have got since the law went into effect.

SUIT to recover unpaid minimum wages or unpaid overtime compensation. He can collect twice the sum that is owed him; in addition, the employer can be assessed for the court costs and for "reasonable attorneys' fees."

The law went into effect last Oct. 24. It took time to organize the staff, and the work was new to most of the officers; if it hadn't been for that, the whole job probably would have been dramatized.

Scheme was to make the first court case a heart-wringer; to pick out the worst case on the books—preferably one in which poor-but-honest working girls were being exploited within an inch of their lives—and make the welkin ring with it.

Your Income Tax

Your Federal Income Tax. No. 18. DEDUCTION FOR BAD DEBTS.

Bad debts constitute a considerable item in the returns of many taxpayers and may be treated in one of two ways—either by deduction from gross income in respect to debts ascertained to be worthless either in whole or in part, or by a deduction of a reasonable addition to a reserve for bad debts.

What constitute a "reasonable addition" to a reserve for bad debts must be determined in the light of the facts and will vary as between classes of business and with condition of business prosperity.

It will depend primarily upon the total amount of debts outstanding as of the close of the taxable year, those arising currently as well as those arising in prior taxable years, and the total amount of the existing reserve. In case subsequent realizations upon outstanding debts prove to be more or less than estimated at the time of the creation of the existing reserve, the amount of the excess or inadequacy in the existing reserve should be reflected in the determination of the reasonable addition necessary in the taxable year. A taxpayer using the reserve method should show in his return the volume of charge sales (or other business transactions) for the year, and the percentage of the reserve to such amount, the total amount of notes and accounts receivable at the beginning and end of the taxable year, and the total amount of the debts ascertained to be worthless and charged against the reserve during the taxable year.

Auto Theft Ring Is Broken by Officers

SAN ANTONIO, March 2. (P)—Local and federal officers last night probed further into what they described as a vast auto theft ring which lured victims to an inn, doped them and took their automobiles. Eleven persons were arrested here and six others taken into custody in Monterey, Mexico. Officers said the cars were stolen in San Antonio, Houston and New Orleans, and "cleared" at the headquarters here for shipment into Mexico. Charges were filed against five of the 11 caught here. They are accused of conspiracy to transport two stolen automobiles in foreign commerce between San Antonio and Monterey between Jan. 1 and Mar. 1.

Charged before U. S. Commissioner Paul A. Lockhart were Herbert D. Galbreath and his wife, Adelaide "Lita" Gonzales Galbreath; Gordon "Jack" Harper, Augustine Tarin and Arthur Converse. Agents of the federal bureau of investigation have traced only two of the stolen cars, but Deputy Sheriff John Klevenhagen said officers had information indicating 1000 cars were stolen and transported by the ring in the last few months.

FEMININE FANCIES

By Kathleen Eiland

A sandstorm is bad medicine any time. It is especially difficult to take with serenity when it comes only a few hours after the trusty Ford has been washed and polished into a state of respectable shininess. Well, a sandstorm is not so destructive of the shininess as a shower would be. (Little Pollyanna can most always find something to be grateful for.)

Add to things that are upsetting; to write a long report on an eminent lecturer's address and then find that one page of the notes has been overlooked in the shuffle. Life's like that.

You might say that Town Hall members have had a cosmopolitan group of lecturers so far this season. Out of the four who have appeared here, one speaker has been Australian, one Chinese, and one English, with one American-born. Among those listed to complete the schedule is another foreigner, a German, if we mistake not.

Of course we don't agree with everything those from other countries say. Still the best way to find out about what other peoples think is to have one of their members come and tell us. We at least find that there are other ideas than those we hold.

We still think that a sure designating a girl as the darling of the gods is the fact that she is able to keep her hands as soft and dainty as the hand-lotion ads advise, and her shoes as dustless and polished as the beauty columns urge—all with, apparently, no effort at all. The dispensations of Old Mother Nature seem distinctly unjust at times. Especially those times when we're struggling with refractory finger nails or scuffed slippers.

than was indicated earlier. Reserve balances maintained by member banks with the Federal Reserve bank rose considerably in January when the reserve city banks shifted a substantial amount of idle funds to the Reserve bank.

The number of commercial failures in the Eleventh District in January was more than double that in December and the average indebtedness of defaulting firms was three and one-half times greater. According to Dun & Bradstreet there were 35 insolvencies with liabilities totaling $754,000, the largest reported for any month in more than three years, the Review says. The value of construction contracts awarded was about one fourth lower in January than December, but showed gain of 73 per cent over January last year, and was larger than in any corresponding month of any year since 1931. STOP Coughing and Stop It NOW

Enjoy A Good Night's Rest
BUCKLEY'S MIXTURE certainly makes short work of relieving those stubborn old hang-on coughs and colds that other cough remedies fail to budge, according to Mr. H. A. Allen. Mr. Allen says: "For years I suffered every winter with a terrible cough. I have had many sleepless nights and coughed until tears ran, and my stomach ached. I started again with the same old cough this year, but after a few doses of BUCKLEY'S MIXTURE my cough was gone."
You can't go wrong on BUCKLEY'S — by far the largest-selling cough medicine in all cold Canada. One or two doses and stubborn tough hang-on coughs are often on their way. And it's only a few cents at drugists everywhere. Money back if not delighted. City Drug Store, Taylor Pharmacy. (Adv.)

Good Cooking Must Conserve Vitamins Present in Food

Editor's Note: The following article from "The Market Basket" of the U. S. Department of Agriculture is submitted by Miss Helen Weatherford, home management supervisor of the Farm Security Administration in Midland, Ector and Andrews counties.

It's not only what vitamins come to the kitchen via the market basket or the garden that count in the family's nutrition—but also how much of those vitamins reach the table in foods served up so appealingly that the family can't resist them.

There are many forces at work to destroy vitamins en route from garden to table. Unnecessary vitamin losses often occur in the kitchen. For if a cook does not take precautions she may unknowingly destroy some of the very food value she planned for so carefully in her menu.

Almost everyone recognizes the culinary tragedy of a tender, juicy piece of meat being put through the ordeal of sizzling fire throughout its roasting, at the hands of an inexperienced cook. The destruction of good flavor—the shriveled, charred remains—bear witness to wrong cooking methods.

Just as tragic, though not so evident, is the cabbage that has been over-cooked until it has lost much of its valuable vitamin C. Or the carrots chopped into minute pieces, submerged in cooking water, then served up minus the water—and consequently minus much of their vitamin and mineral content.

To sum up the situation, food values that may be lost in cooking are certain vitamins and minerals. Minerals are not destroyed, but may dissolve in the cooking water and be lost if that is not used. Some vitamins also may be dissolved in the cooking water, namely B1, C, G, and the pellagra-preventing factor. Vitamin B1 or thiamin, and C or ascorbic acid, are in double danger of being lost, for they also may be destroyed by heat.

To assure the preservation of the most vitamins and minerals in the cooking of fruit or vegetable follow the simple, easy-to-observe rule—"cook quickly, in as short a time as possible, using the smallest amount of liquid that is practical. Make use of the cooking water."

This, of course, is no revolutionary idea to the good cook. It is what she does anyway—to get the most pleasing texture—to preserve the natural good flavor and color of fruits and vegetables. She doesn't need special kettles or fancy equipment. It's just a matter of method and timing.

She knows, for instance, that it is not necessary to flood vegetables during cooking. For many, a small layer of water in the bottom of the pan will be enough to form steam to cook them. Then when the cooking is done, there'll be about enough cooking water to furnish liquid for a butter sauce or to be combined with other fats and seasonings and served with the vegetables. If considerably more water must be added, often it may be put in soups, gravies and sauces.

All of the vitamins are more easily destroyed in a solution that is alkaline than in one that is acid. So nutrition experts put "thumus down" on the adding of soda to preserve the color in green vegetables. Even though this practice may bring out the green color it destroys vitamins—especially vitamin C and vitamin B1. A recent experiment with green beans showed that the very least amount of soda that would preserve the color destroyed nearly 1/3 of the vitamin B1 content.

When cooking vegetables, heat them quickly to remove air in their tissues. Avoid any unnecessary contact of air with the vegetables during cooking. Stirring air into hot food during cooking or sieving increases vitamin destruction by oxidation.

Another vitamin-saving practice is to use vegetables as soon as possible after buying them or bringing them in from the garden. Buy green vegetables from day to day if that is practicable, from a dealer who gets in a fresh supply of vegetables frequently. Under ordinary storage conditions there is a gradual loss of vitamins C, A, and B1. The vitamin C losses are most serious—especially in nonacid vegetables, and these include practically all vegetables but tomatoes. Keeping vegetables in the refrigerator or a very cold pantry helps to cut down on vitamin loss in storage.

Vegetables that have been preserved by commercial quick freezing or "frosting" are best cooked without preliminary thawing to protect their vitamin content. They should be taken out of the package and dropped immediately into boiling water. Considerable vitamin C is lost when the vegetable is allowed to thaw in the air. There is no evidence that quick freezing with storage afterwards at low temperatures has any destructive effect on vitamin content.

Such are the general rules for all of the vitamins. Three of them, C, B1, and A need special mention.

Vitamin C, often called ascorbic acid, is one nutrient in which many diets are low. It is necessary for good tooth nutrition and for the prevention of scurvy. It must be provided daily, because the body cannot store it. Best sources are tomatoes, citrus fruits, and raw leafy vegetables. It is the most easily destroyed of the vitamins in cooking, but foods that are an excellent source of it when raw retain significant amounts of it if cooked according to the rules already suggested. It is fortunate that the acid in fruits, especially citrus fruits, and in tomatoes protects the vitamin C—in storage, canning, and cooking.

Vitamin B1 or thiamin is necessary to keep muscles in good "trim" and for keeping the digestive tract and the appetite in good order. Vitamin B1 is very soluble in water and may be destroyed in cooking. It is widely scattered in nature, but there are few really excellent sources. The richest plant sources are whole grain cereal and legumes. But green leafy vegetables and many fruits rate as good sources.

Vitamin A does not present the same cooking problems as vitamins C and B1. In vegetable cooking practically none of it is destroyed by heat or goes into solution in the cooking water. Yet American diets often contain too little of it. It has long been known to be necessary for good tooth and bone formation, to stimulate growth, and for well being at all ages. Recent experiments have shown that an insufficient amount of vitamin A causes "nutritional" night blindness, or the inability of the eyes to adjust to dim light.

Inexpensive sources are the plants that contain provitamin A, which is changed to vitamin A in the body. These are the green leafy vegetables and the yellow vegetables. Other important sources are liver, egg yolk, butter, cream and whole milk, oily fish, and of course, fish liver oils.

Texas Program Marks Meeting of Wednesday Club

Combining a special program on Texas with a business session, members of the Woman's Wednesday club met at the home of Mrs. John Perkins, 1909 W. Brunson, Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The Texas program was opened with Jo Ann Proctor singing "The Eyes of Texas," "Texas, Our Texas," and "Beautiful, Beautiful Texas," accompanied by Mrs. Holt Jewell at the piano.

Mrs. M. R. Hill, who was leader for the afternoon, then read three poems about Texas.

"Beautiful, Beautiful Texas," played by Mrs. Jewell, completed this section of the program after which Mrs. Hill presented her paper on the Big Bend area. She discussed the scenic beauties of the country and the possibilities of tourist trade. Maps of the state made by two seventh grade pupils were also displayed.

In the business period, the club voted to have a program of current events for the club next year. Under this system, each member will select some subject on which to report and at each meeting throughout the year will give a five-minute report on that subject.

It was decided to ask Mrs. M. C. Ulmer to present her history of Midland county at the program meeting of the City-County Federation for which the club will be responsible.

Mrs. Ernest Sidwell was a guest for the afternoon. Members present were: Meses. J. M. Caldwell, R. C. Conking, Elliott F. Cowden, J. M. DeArmond, Andrew Fasken, George Glass, C. M. Goldsmith, M. R. Hill, R. L. Miller, Erle Payne, M. C. Ulmer, W. T. Walsh, W. G. Whitehouse, and the hostess.

Solons Call Quits On Work for Week With Job Incomplete

Tech Band to Come Here Monday; Local Youth Is a Member

LUBBOCK, Texas, March 2. —When the famous Texas Tech band plays at the Midland high school auditorium Monday evening, March 6 at 8 p. m., a product of the Midland high school band will be found playing a very important part on the program. Fred Stout, first chair trombone in the Tech band, is a senior engineer in Texas Technological college this year, and had all of his high school band training in the Midland high school band.

Most of the big committee hearings were out of the way and floor work can be started in earnest next week. A House sub-committee will be asked to complete a program for new taxes by Monday. A committee of three senators was appointed today to formulate a tax program for consideration by the Senate.

Named on the sub-group of the Senate constitutional amendments committee were Olan R. Van Zandt of Tioga, A. M. Aihen, Jr., of Paris and Clint C. Small of Amarillo. They were asked to report an old age pension financing plan to the main committee by March 13.

The House put a $1,095,000 supplemental appropriation for rural school aid in position for floor consideration next week. Advocates obtained the necessary vote to take it up out of regular order.

The House oil and gas committee recommended a bill to extend Texas' participation in the interstate oil compact two years beyond next September 1. A two-year extension of the state's market demand oil production law had been recommended earlier.

There were no developments on the truck load limit issue. A meeting of the Senate highways and motor traffic committee scheduled for today was postponed until Monday. Member of a sub-committee studying proposals to boost the maximum load allowed by trucks said they still were unable to agree on a new maximum figure.

The House highways and motor traffic committee probably will vote Monday on a motion that one of the load limit increases before it be reported adversely. Such action will be necessary before advocates can move to print on minority report. The group voted yesterday, 11 to 10, against a majority report on one of the proposals.

Joe Monahan of Uvalde, chairman of the House committee, announced it and the Senate committee would hold a joint hearing next Wednesday on the bill sponsored by county judges to provide for state assumption of many additional road bonds. On the following day, the two committees will consider a new drivers' license law. All driver's licenses heretofore issued will remain in effect until the Legislature acts again on the question.

The Legislature voted an additional $275,000 appropriation for expenses of the current session. This brought the total to $525,000.

Ex-Judge Indicted by Special Grand Jury
NEW YORK, March 2. (AP).—Martin Manton former senior judge of the United States court of appeals, was indicted by a special grand jury today on charges of conspiracy to defraud the government.
George H. Spector, insurance agent, was indicted with the former jurist.
Manton resigned from the bench recently after district attorney Dewey had accused him, in a letter to Chairman Hutton Summers of the house judiciary committee, of having accepted loans from persons interested in cases before his court.

LUCKY, Texas, March 2. —When the famous Texas Tech band plays at the Midland high school auditorium Monday evening, March 6 at 8 p. m., a product of the Midland high school band will be found playing a very important part on the program. Fred Stout, first chair trombone in the Tech band, is a senior engineer in Texas Technological college this year, and had all of his high school band training in the Midland high school band. Stout is vice-president of the Tech band, a charter member of the Kappa Kappa Psi, national honorary band fraternity, and has a record of attendance in the Tech band unequalled by any other senior in the college. Records show that he missed one rehearsal during his freshman year, and since that time he has not missed a single rehearsal of the band. He has not missed a single trip that the Tech band has made during the past four years, and is the only senior engineer that has been able to carry on band activities without any interruption for a four year period.
Other Midland boys who have played in the Tech band the past five years are: Malcolm Brennehan, Billy Noyes, Barney Grafa and Felix Haltom.
