Looking Down as Fair Looks Up

Unusual panoramic view taken from a plane shows the condition of the grounds and buildings at the New York World's Fair shortly before opening day. At bottom of photo is the Federal building, on both sides of it are various foreign buildings. Before it is the elliptical Lagoon of Nations. The long avenue leading to the trylon and perisphere, these symbols, is called Constitution Mall. At the top is the New York City building.

Ector in Spotlight as Gill Stakes Wildcat, Rush Extends North Cowden

By FRANK GARDNER.

Ector county again today figured topmost in Permian Basin developments as R. H. Gill, Midland independent operator, announced location for a wildcat test three miles west of the northwest part of the Harper pool and a half-mile farther east extension of the North Cowden was indicated by J. M. Rush No. 1 Midland Farms.

The Gill location is his No. 1 J. E. Parker, 1,320 feet from the south and east lines of section 12, block 45, township 2 south, T. and P. survey. Cellar and pits are now being dug.

Rush No. 1 Midland Farms entered the main pay at 4,355, where formation softened, and early this morning reached total depth of 4,430. It was drilled with rotary, circulating oil, and no test was made of natural production. The well is reported to have made a small head last night. This morning, operators were cleaning out preparatory to running 400-quart nitro shot from 4,330 to 4,430.

In the northeast part of the North Cowden pool, Broderick and Calvert No. 4 O. B. Holt has been completed at 4,420 feet for 24-hour potential of 2,543.06 barrels of 33.7-gravity oil and gas-oil ratio of 925-1. It was shot with 540 quarts in pay zone topped at 4,225. Texas Pacific Coal and Oil Company No. 2 Holt topped main pay at 4,456 feet in lime, filling 100 feet with oil hourly, and this morning was preparing to shoot, bottomed at 4,464 in lime. It had 1,500 to 1,300 feet of oil in the hole. Sinclair-Prairie Oil Company No. 2 Fay Holt, short north outcrop, is moving out rotary and moving in standard tools after cementing 7-inch casing at total depth of 4,001 feet in lime with 150 sacks. Farther west, Gulf Oil Corporation No. 1 Holt logged showing of oil at 4,167 feet and is drilling ahead below 4,172.

No change had been reported as Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 1 TXL, wildcat in extreme northwestern Ector, drilled to 4,423 feet in lime.

Hockley Extender Testing. Texas Company No. 1-C Mallett Land and Cattle Company, assuring two and one-half mile south-west extension of farthest west production in the Slaughter pool, southwestern Hockley, this morning was testing at 5,050 feet, having entered the main pay near total depth. At that point, oil rose 4,000 feet in the hole. Operators will drill ahead in search of increases. First oil showing had been logged from 4,957-66, with more oil and some gas from 4,966-82.

S. W. Richardson No. 1 Sun-Denton, three-quarter mile north outcrop to Slaughter production, swabbed four barrels of oil hourly for 24 hours on natural test through 2-nh tubing set at 4,919. Total depth is 4,956 in lime. It then was acidized with 2,000 gallons and swabbed an estimated seven barrels of oil hourly, cut six-tenths of one percent with basic sediment and acid water. Another acid job was scheduled.

Texas No. 5 Bob Slaughter block flowed 21 barrels of oil the first hour of test, bottomed at 5,024 feet in lime, after being shut in for 24 hours. It had built up 450 pounds tubing pressure and 750 pounds on casing.

Texas No. 6 Slaughter is drilling at 3,526 in anhydrite. Daw-Tex Oil Company No. 1 J. E. Neely, north central Dawson wildcat is plugging to abandon at total depth of 4,349 feet in lime. It failed to show oil and encountered sulphur water from 4,866-49 which rose 150 feet in an hour and 45 minutes.

Shell No. 1 Waples-Platter Company, two miles northeast of the Bennett pool of southeastern Yoakum, this morning was still showing some water while testing at plugged back depth of 5,312 feet. On the east side of the Denver pool, southern Yoakum, Sinclair-Prairie No. 2-A R. M. Kendrick, bottomed at 5,150 feet in lime, was completed for daily potential of 1,048 barrels, with gas-oil ratio of 1-048. (See OIL NEWS) page 4

Inspiring Address By Carl Taylor Ends Town Hall Season

Aptly concluding the Town Hall lecture series for the year with an inspiring discussion on American principles and ideas, Carl Taylor, executive secretary of the Wisconsin Building and Loan League, addressed members of the organization in the Crystal ballroom of Hotel Scharbauer Wednesday evening.

Introduced by Fred Wempie, Midland business man, in a brief humorous talk, Mr. Taylor spoke on "What Made America a Great Country?" His address, with its evident sincerity and enthusiasm, was punctuated throughout with witty sallies.

Referring to the discontent and political unrest and class hatred which is rearing its head in America today, he declared that an alarmingly large percent of the population have "gone sour" on the country and that he is confident one-third of the population is ready for a change to another type of government. He warned Americans to beware of the time when this one-third becomes a voting See (Town Hall) Page 4

Amendments To Tax Bill Turned Down

Rigid Regulation Of Travel Bureaus Passes Both Houses

AUSTIN, Apr. 27 (AP)—The house today passed the senate bill imposing rigid regulation of automobile travel bureaus. Opponents contended the measure would exterminate travel agencies.

The senate refused to accept the house's amendments to the Doss Hardin old age pension liberalization bill and sent the measure to the conference committee. The plan recommended by the House committee was a substitute for that passed by the Senate 14 days ago. While it probably won't come up on the House floor until next Tuesday, opposing factions already had started marshaling their forces. Enemies insisted it would not muster the needed vote of two-thirds the membership of the lower chamber.

The House committee proposal called for a sales tax of one cent on each 50-cent purchase or fraction thereof. The merchant, if he desired, might absorb the levy on sales of 25 cents or less. There would be no tokens.

A section which drew fire in committee was one providing that revenues now going to old age pensions would be transferred to the general fund after next Jan. 1, to retire the $20,000,000 deficit. Representative Blankenship of Dallas argued in vain this revenue should be left in the pension fund so the proposed sales tax rate could be substantially reduced.

Committees estimated their measure would have a gross yield of $27,000,000 a year, of which about $20,000,000 would be available for pensions. This would give 185,000 old persons an average of $18 a month state and federal money. The pension rolls now aggregate 115,000, with the average grant approximately $14 a month.

"Full House" Expected to See Legion Play Presented Tonight

A "full house" is expected both tonight and tomorrow night at the high school auditorium when the American Legion presents the home talent play, "Mystery at Midnight." The play will start at 8:07 each night.

The play, a mystery-comedy, has been guaranteed by all concerned to produce more laughs and real enjoyment than any other play ever offered here.

All of the characters in the play, although talent scouts for the movies will probably not stampede the doors, will be playing their parts up to hilt. There will be 12 character actors and actresses, along with 13 members of a chorus and "beats and belles of 1939," a number of babies.

Jimmy Smith, better known as a lawyer and golfer, will make friends forget all his other accomplishments as he "goes over" in the role of the hero of the play. That is, if claims of his histrionic ability are to be believed. Dorothy Neuhard, as Bonnie Baker, proves the incentive for all the daring feats compiled by the hero of the play.

Don McKilben, as Detective Briggs, stumbles through, over and around clues until he finally staggers into a solution of the mystery.

Boyd Laughlin plays the part of the judge and he "goes" in a big way for Sally Grant, a typical flirt played by Dorothy Ann Perkins. Vann B. Mitchell as Professor Robottom, Kathleen Speed as the old maid, Elvira Nosegay, and Jack Murphy as Ronald Jarrett, the bus driver, are guaranteed to give outstanding performances that should bring merit badges from Hollywood.

Some of the others who take active parts in the show include Jimmie Harrison, Mary Jane Sweetman, Mrs. Frances Stallworth and John Ross. Ross is the mysterious Stranger of the play.

Steer Yearling Shipments Begin Early Next Week

From 3,000 to 4,000 head of steer yearlings will be shipped from Midland and nearby points around May 1, recent purchases have indicated, although the number is much smaller due to the fact that most calves sold last fall were moved directly to Corn Belt and Panhandle feed pens.

Clayton Jennings of Miller, S. D., here for his third season, had bought up to today 550 head of steer yearlings from Mabee & Pyle 400 from Roy Parks, 250 from Frank Cowden, 100 from Buck Kelton and 50 from Sherwood Foster, also approximately 1,000 head from ranchmen of the Big Spring and Sterling City areas. Part will be shipped to pastures near Miller, S. D., and part to feed lots at Livermore, Iowa.

A. R. McIlray of Phillip, S. D., west of the river near the Black Hills region, has bought from 500 to 600 head of steer yearlings from the McElroy Ranch Co. He runs big steers, up to three year olds, on his pastures where there is strong grass for beef animals.

Sam Baze of Stamford bought from J. E. Hill 350 head of steer yearlings, shipping them early this week to pastures in western Kansas.

Foy Proctor and Roy Parks, who bought approximately 15,000 head of calves in this section last fall, reserved them immediately to Roy Barton who shipped them out to various feeding centers, reducing the number of calves usually carried over to be sold as yearlings in the spring.

Man Sought After Four Are Slain

Farmer Threatened To Wipe Out All of Family at Emberson

PARIS, April 27. (AP).—Texas and Oklahoma officers and possemen combed the Red River bottoms of this area today for Marlon Mackey after the shotgun slaying of four persons.

PARIS, Texas, April 27. (AP).—Four persons were shot to death near Emberson, Texas Wednesday and officers were searching the Oklahoma-Texas border section for a farmer whose wife said he had threatened "to wipe out" a neighboring family.

Chief Deputy Sheriff George Robertson of Paris said the shooting apparently grew out of a year-long feud between Marlon Mackey and the family of J. W. Snow, living a few hundred yards away. They had had words, he said, over chickens straying out of their pens.

The dead were: J. W. Snow, 79; Mrs. Leo Dennis, about 50, daughter of Snow; Mrs. Will Kemper, about 45, daughter of Snow; Dee Chandler, about 46, a neighbor.

Mrs. J. W. Snow, 75, was shot in the head but Paris hospital attendants expected her to recover. Leo Dennis, husband of one of the slain women, was hit in the barrage of shots, suffering wounds in the head, shoulder and leg.

Officers hunted throughout the Red River bottoms for Mackey, 38-year-old farmer. Although the shooting occurred at about 1 p. m. news of it reached the sheriff's office late yesterday afternoon and no trace of him had been found last night.

Mrs. Marlon Mackey, wife of the hunted man, told Deputy Robertson in the presence of a newspaperman that she had heard her husband say he was "going to wipe out the whole family." Her son corroborated her statements.

As Robertson reconstructed the slayings from witnesses' stories, Mackey went to the Snow home armed with a 12-gauge shotgun. He and Snow argued and the latter went into his house and returned with a gun. The shooting started, he said, when Mackey and Snow walked across a field and in a shooting that followed Chandler was shot to death. No motive for his slaying was advanced.

Mrs. Mackey related that she saw her husband walk armed toward the Snow home and started in pursuit. She arrived just as the firing began. She said she grabbed Mackey's arm but the firing continued.

Assistant Co. Atty. M. Harrison, who with Robertson investigated the slayings, said no inquests into the four deaths would be held.

Emberson is an isolated community about 14 miles from here and about five miles from the Oklahoma border.

Revival Subject at Baptist Church Is "The Man in Hell"

Rev. H. D. Bruce, pastor of the First Baptist church, announced that his subject for the revival this evening is, "The Man in Hell." His subject last night was "The Man in the Hog Pen." The sermon in part is as follows:

"He would fain have filled himself with the husks that the swine did eat, and no man gave to him." Let us take a look at the prodigal tonight. His hat is the finest brand, but it is so greasy that it would make soap, his shoes are of the best, but they need shining and new stangers; his shirt is of softest silk, but it is badly torn and needs to be laundered; his trousers are of the best grade but they need cleaning and patching, like the man who was passing from Jerusalem to Jericho; He had fallen among thieves and had been stripped and robbed and had been left destitute. Conditions were such that he would gladly have filled himself with the husks that the swine did eat and no man gave to him.

The husks were the pods of the Carob tree, which were used for cattle feed, but were sometimes eaten by the poorer people. He was subsisting on what he could find. Today he would be at the mercy of the public. In our larger cities, he would be feeding from the refuse of hotels and restaurants. What a horrible condition sin brings one to! This horrible picture of a man feeding his swine and desiring that which he feels them, is disgusting and nauseating to refined and gentle spirits—but Jesus the most sensitive soul that ever looked upon man's sin, painted this horrible picture. I would like to have seen the disgust on his face when he said: "He would fain have filled himself with the husks that the swine did eat and no man gave to him." In this story of matchless simplicity, Jesus is saying to us that the tendency of sin is toward the hog pen, that sin of whatever nature, leads into destruction. If you are living in sin; playing with sin; embracing sin; walking in sin's way, you are on your road to the hog pen and wretchedness. You may never reach it, but thousands have and if you stay at it long enough you will. This is earth's end of the miserable way.

The sorest results of sin are not physical, it is spiritual. When men and women have no desire for God; when they rob Him of the tithes, never hunger nor thirst after righteousness; never offer a prayer; never lift their heart in praise; when they consider the church a burden; worship a bore; singing nonsense; the Bible a puzzle; preaching foolishness; the proclamation of the gospel "wind-jamming"—that is spiritual poverty. The "rich fool" had much material wealth, but was poor towards God. Many decent and respectable people are poverty stricken spiritually. Sin brings this poverty upon us. How unhappy he was. You will not mis-understand me when I say much of our hell is of our own making. (Here the preacher gave the story of a young woman who found See (Revival) Page 4

Incident in Life of Resident to Be on Air

A true incident in the life of the Scharbauer family of Midland, Texas, numerous members of which were responsible for the introduction of Hereford cattle to West Texas will be dramatized during the "Salute to the Pioneers" broadcast scheduled over the Texas State Network from 2:45 to 3 p. m. Sunday. Realizing that the profit to be derived from the sale of longhorns to northern and eastern markets was slowly but surely diminishing, John Scharbauer, veteran West Texas cattle raiser, in 1890 foresaw the profit-making advantages of Hereford cattle, as compared to the thin profitless longhorn breed. Sunday afternoon's dramatization concerns the first shipment of Herefords to Texas, and the lasting effect such an introduction had on the west.

Produced by students of Texas Tech, under the direction of Richard Flowers, the current "Salute to the Pioneers" series will discontinue with the May 14 broadcast. Material for each program has been secured through the cooperation of the West Texas Museum Association.

Connally Hot Oil Act Is Scored in Senate

WASHINGTON, April 27. (AP)—A House committee considering a Senate-approved bill to make permanent the Connally hot oil act heard it described Wednesday as a great conservation measure and as a tool of petroleum monopolies. The act expires June 30. It prohibits the interstate shipment of oil produced in violation of state laws. Senator Connally (D-Tex) told the interstate and foreign commerce sub-committee the law had aided state officials in maintaining an orderly production of petroleum with a consequent conservation of reserves. Representative Coffey (D-Wash.), author of a bill to repeal the act, declared it was working to the advantage of big oil monopolies who were able to maintain fixed price levels in Washington and other non-producing petroleum states.

Midland Named Meeting Place for 1940 District Club Convention

Midland was chosen as the meeting place for the eighth district convention of Federated clubs in the spring of 1940 at the final session of this year's meeting at Fort Stockton Wednesday morning. Mrs. John A. Haley presented Midland's invitation which was re-inforced by a wire from Mayor M. C. Ulmer and a wire from the chamber of commerce, both inviting the group to meet here.

Midland delegates present reported that the group seemed delighted to accept the invitation.

Midland clubwomen again won an honor when the Midland City-County Federation annexed first place in reports from City-County Federations with Fort Stockton's organization taking second place.

Mrs. John A. Haley presented the report of the Far West Federation, within the district, this report winning first place in its department, with second place going to the Davis Mountain Federation which far antedates the winning Federation in age. Midland is a member of the Far West group.

Mrs. P. H. Lanham's painting, "Guadalupe River," won sixth place in the art exhibit. The first ten winning canvases will be sent to another Federation exhibit.

Mrs. John Perkins presented the report of the Woman's Wednesday club yesterday morning. In club reports, Sanderson Study club won first place, Twentieth Century club of Pecos and the Alpine Study club tied for second place, and third place was a tie between the Marfa History club and the Merry Wives of Pecos.

Special interest was displayed in an address by Supt. Reeves of Fort Stockton schools.

The eighth district voted to donate something to the clubhouse at Austin. On the committee to purchase this gift were named Mrs. Haley of Midland, Mrs. L. C. Britz of Marfa, and Mrs. Schwartz of El Paso.

Each club is to contribute something toward purchase of this gift. Contributions to be paid by July which has been named Willa Morelock day in honor of the birthday of the eighth district president, Mrs. H. W. Morelock.

Clubs henceforth are to be judged separately. Mrs. Hal Peck of Midland making the suggestion that garden clubs, because of their different interest, be judged apart from clubs of other types.

A breakfast Wednesday morning and a Big Bend Park luncheon at the noon hour closed festivities for the convention.

Unique decorations marked the luncheon table. The head table bore a miniature fort and souvenirs marking the covers were stones with "Big Bend Park" marked on them in crude lettering.

Senator H. L. Winfield, scheduled to speak, was unable to be present because of the press of governmental business. Mrs. Winfield read a paper, giving interesting data on the Big Bend Park.

Tuesday night's program, which was in charge of Miss Lydie G. Watson, featured musical numbers including a violin solo by Ned Watson of Midland and an address by Miss Hill, head of the art department at Sul Ross college. Miss Hill spoke on "Our Heritage of Art."

Midland has a number of representatives in district offices of the Federation.

Mrs. Haley is chairman of law observance for the district; Miss Watson chairman of the Fine Arts department; and Mrs. Hal Peck chairman of conservation of natural resources, under which come the parks and gardens divisions.

Committee women from Midland include: War Veterans, Mrs. J. Howard Hodge; family finance, Mrs.

Dean Henry Meyer; Mrs. Edmond S. Hitchcock, studied at Our Lady of the Lake College, violin work under W. A. Gray of Louisville, Kentucky; Mrs. W. L. # The Town Quack

Not being a fisherman myself, I can see that I am missing out on a lot of fun and a lot of conversation. I've always held the opinion that fishing was about forty per cent getting tight, ten per cent fishing and fifty per cent conversation after getting home, but I'm sure there are exceptions. At any rate, there are numerous fishermen in Midland, and they comprise a fair share of the Red Bluff population most any week-end.

This is just leading up to some argument, I found in the Amarillo Globe between Publisher Gene A. Foye (nationally known sportsman) and Amarillo's Mayor Ross Rogers. I'm quoting only Gene's side of the argument, which is to the effect that Mayor Rogers is wrong in allowing trot line fishing on Amarillo's City Lake. The reason I'm not quoting the Mayor is that he didn't say anything. Quoting Old Tack: He (the Mayor) says that catfish is no good; that he wishes all of the catfish could be caught out of the City Lake. That is why trot-line is permitted at the lake.

For every person who prefers a bass to eat there are five who favor the catfish. It is the fish of the masses, of the ordinary folks. For every bass fisherman there are at least a dozen catfish fishermen.

I know of some bass fishermen who catch bass, which they give to their neighbors, and then go down to the fish markets and buy catfish to eat.

The expert opinion submitted to those in charge of the fish division of the Texas Game and Fish Commission is that trot-line fishing is destructive and deplorable and that it should not be permitted in public waters.

Men who know trot-line fishing also know how to catch bass and other game fish on them and much of it is being done everywhere.

Something else is that trot-line fishing depletes the catfish population so badly that the lakes become over and under-balanced. Small catfish are food fish for both bass and crappie.

It is reported that four out of every five automobile accidents occur on dry roads in clear weather. During bad weather, most motorists drive slower and pedestrians are more careful.

Two Clubs Meet At Big Spring In Opener Today

Although they won't go in the record books, two errors—one by Manager Jimmy Kerr and the other by pitcher Pat Patterson—cost the Midland Cowboys their second ball game of the season yesterday.

With the score tied in the twelfth inning, 6-6, and two men on base, the skipper erred by ordering Pat Stacey, Big Spring Baron clean-up hitter, passed to load the bases. Patterson then made his error by throwing one exactly in the groove wanted by third baseman Capps and he knocked it out of the park. And that ended the game although a few more plays were necessary.

Kerr was resorting to strategy that once won Bill Terry a World Series game. But it just happened to be the wrong thing to do yesterday.

For six innings yesterday the Cowboys had it all over the Barons, rolling up a 6-1 lead and appearing to be in for an easy win. But the Barons refused to give up, making one in the seventh, three in the eighth and one in the ninth to tie the score.

Right hander Bill Miller made his initial appearance on the mound for the Cowboys yesterday and deserved better luck than he received. He was jerked from the game in the eighth, but with better luck the Barons would never have scored in that frame.

The Cowboys got off to a one run lead in the third inning when DeNeff reached first on an error, stole second and came home on a hard single by Mort. The Barons tied up the score in the fifth on a single by Hobson, sacrifice by Berndt and another single by Decker, but the Cowboys went two ahead in their half of the inning when Mort singled and Malvica got his second homer in as many days.

The Cowboys apparently put the game on ice in the sixth when Witt singled, was forced at second by DeNeff, who then stole second and scored on Petzold's double and Mort kept up with Malvica in their home run race by belting one over the fence.

Miller threw a home run ball to Hobson in the seventh but no one became worried as the skinny right hander was apparently pitching stronger ball than in the first few innings when a couple of double plays were necessary to get him out of trouble.

But the Barons broke loose in the eighth and before they could be retired they had pushed three runs across the plate. Decker started the inning off with a walk, Wooten struck out and Volk came through with a double. Witt let a low inside ball get past him, Decker scoring and Volk going to third. Stacey then popped one to Malvica at short and Sam dropped the ball, then threw wild at home in an effort to get Volk. Stacey went to second on the play. Another passed ball put him on third and a single by Capps sent him home. Patterson then took over for the Cowboys and retired the next two men.

Patterson got into trouble in the ninth when he walked Berndt, first man up. Webster went in to pinch hit for Brown, who had relieved pitcher Swartz in the seventh, and laid down a perfect bunt that sent Soden, running for Berndt, to second. Decker pushed a "blooper" into center field for a base hit. Soden taking third, Wooten then hit a hard grounder toward first, the ball hit Vlasek on the shin and bounced straight to Petzold who made the put out at first. Soden romped in with the tying run on the play.

Jodie Marek, a football star at Texas Tech last fall, then went to the mound for the Barons and held the Cowboys scoreless for the next four innings while giving up two hits.

Patterson did not allow a man to get on base in the tenth and eleventh but met his doom in the twelfth. Decker, first man up, hit one into right that Mort almost got to, Wooten bunted him to second, Volk hit one to right that Mort got his hands on after a long run but could not hold, Stacey then came to bat and the rest is history.

The two clubs meet in Big Spring today for the season's opener there and play at the same spot tomorrow. Saturday and Sunday the Cowboys will be in Lamesa, returning home Monday to open a six day stay against Lamesa, Lubbock and Pampa.

Many are those who travel the broad and downward way of sin who never come to themselves, they die in their sins. They go out like Judas and 'it was night.'

Revival—

her home hell). How can we expect to find heaven on earth when we have hell in our souls? The prodigal's greatest poverty was within. The source of his great misery was not primarily because of his hunger, but because he had cast to the wind that which makes for happy living.

This man needed more than reformation. Reformation has never yet lifted man out of his deepest trouble. The sow always returns to the wallow and the dog to his vomit. Repent and remorse have never yet undone the wrongs of a soul. Reformation is simply a soul feeding on husks, hoping that they will turn into meat and bread. His greatest need was not food or clothes, but manhood. The greatest achievement in life is to be a man with a good name. God says: 'A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches.' What an asset is a good name. One of the greatest needs of the prodigal was a good name. He had lost his by riotous living. Sin will rob a man of the most prized assets of life and leave him with nothing but liabilities.

Notice again: 'No man gave unto him.' When a man is down and out the world is through. Friends will help you spend your money, but when want and poverty and hunger come, many of the friends are gone. But poverty is a blessing in disguise. The lower poverty comes the sooner he will come to himself and return to his Father's home. 'This man came to himself and said: 'I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him: Father, I have sinned against heaven and before thee, make me.'

My friend, have your feet left the path of righteousness? Have you found yourself treading the way that leads to wretchedness and misery, the way that the further you pursue it the darker and more dismal and the harder it becomes; stop and think before it is too late. There is another way, it is the way of righteousness—A way that becomes more beautiful the further 50 percent, for then the changes will take place.

He finds discontent in Midland as elsewhere, among the less fortunate classes and those which are on the WPA and relief planes.

In answer to his question, "What Made America Great?" Mr. Taylor said there are three major schools of thought to account for the greatness.

The first is that America is great because of her rich natural resources, independent of her people. The speaker opposes this belief and pointed out that Indians never built up a great country although they possessed the land long before the whites came.

"The second school of thinkers said that we are a great country because here we first mixed up all the racial streams and germ plasm of the peoples of all the earth," he said. With this belief too, he disagrees, declaring that in the history of the world such a mixture as America's has always before brought deterioration rather than added greatness.

It is the third school of thinkers to which Mr. Taylor gives his allegiance, the school which believes that America became great because it is for the first time in history, society said to the individuals which compose it, "You may do anything in the world you want to do and we'll reward you proportionately."

"I believe God gave us that system," he said. He emphasized repeatedly his conviction that American greatness has come from individual freedom.

He lashed out against the changes which have been putting restrictions on individual effort and penalizing those who have amassed wealth through such effort, pouring scorn on the agricultural policies of the New Deal cutting down the amount of produce to be raised. By specific example, he showed how the working of the present system plays into the hands of foreign manufacturers and producers, by tying the hands of American producers. (Mr. Taylor, as the proprietor of two farms on one of which he lives, knows something of the vicissitudes of those who work under the hampering restrictions.)

He declared that he believes "we have a system now that is diametrically opposed to the system that made us great."

He sounded the warning that no other country has ever given up the economic freedom that America has without this being followed by loss of political freedom and spiritual freedom.

He encouraged the youth of America with the splendid opportunities that await it in the future and throughout his talk strove to awaken the public to the realization of the greatness of America and the need to be alert in keeping that greatness.

President Leonard C. Thomas opened the Town Hall meeting.

Mrs. Chas. Brown reported on the recent election of directors. The club elected the following six as holdover members of the board: Ronald K. DeFord, L. C. Thomas, Mrs. Alma Thomas, R. I. Dickey, Georges Vorbe, Fred Wemple. New directors chosen were John P. Butler, Mrs. E. H. Ellison, Cary P. Butcher.

Those not now members of Town Hall who wish to become members next year are asked to sign membership cards or to communicate with L. C. Thomas, phone 528, or Mrs. Alma Thomas, phone 549.

107-1. It was given one acid treatment of 3,000 gallons.

Osage Drilling Company and Aaron S. Everest No. 1 Dr. E. H. Jones, northwestern Gaines wildcat in section 20, block A-7, public school land, is drilling plug from 7-inch casing cemented at 4,650 feet after rigging up cable-tool unit. Total depth is 4,800 in lime.

In the northwest extension to the Seminole pool of Gaines, Atlantic-Osage No. 2 Tippet's is drilling below 4,800 in lime. Humble No. 1 W. T. Caswell, southern Gaines wildcat, is drilling below 150 feet in blue shale, still using spudder. It has set 130 feet of 12 1/2-inch casing, which was not cemented.

Ordovician Test Shows Gas.

In the Sandhills Ordovician pool west of Crane, Sinclair-Prairie et al. No. 3 Tubb-Community showed 330 feet of fluid, 15 per cent distillate, and 3,642,000 cubic feet of gas when 25-minute drillstem test was taken from 5,828-84. It had topped the Simpson, middle Ordovician, at 5,836 feet, showing oil and gas in sand from 5,836-54. Operators now are reaming core-hole from 5,828 to total depth, then will drill ahead.

Humble No. 1 Ozona-Barnhart Trap Company, Crockett Ordovician test, is drilling at 7,590 feet.

Magnolia No. 1 Abell-Eaton, four miles southwest of Imperial, in northern Pecos, was reported rigging up tools preparatory to drilling plug from 7-inch casing cemented at 1,825 feet with 125 sacks. Sample from 1,890-94, present total depth, were said to have shown saturation, but it is understood that drilling time showed soft section somewhat above that point. It also is understood that heavy-duty rotary rig employed to drill No. 1 Abell-Eaton will be skidded 30 feet and another hole drilled to test the Ordovician underlying the shallow pay zone.

Leidecker and Cain No. 1 Texas-Lehn, closely-watched gas strike between the Masterson and Pecos Valley pools in Pecos, is fishing for bit, bottomed at 1,670 feet in lime. It is spraying a little oil on 10,000,000 cubic feet of gas.

House Asks Grand Jury Probe After Allegations Made

AUSTIN, April 27. (U.P.)—The house of representatives today asked the Travis county grand jury to investigate Monday charges of misconduct assertedly made against house members.

The resolution requesting the inquiry said a statement had allegedly been made at a Houston meeting to the effect motor truck interests at one time had paid a house member $600 and he kept the money all day before returning it.

Other charges related to alleged poker playing between lobbyists and legislators in which the latter were permitted to win large sums of money.

The inquiry proposal was subject to approval by the senate.

Oil News—

"Such charges," the resolution continued, "doubtless will be taken seriously by many citizens of Texas and will cause many such citizens to believe that cheapness and bribery is practiced extensively in the legislature concerning the promotion or defeat of legislative matters contrary to the welfare of the citizenship as a whole."

Rep. Fred Felty of San Antonio, opposed the inquiry on the grounds that the name of some innocent person might be dragged into it and he might be permanently damaged. Other house members took the position this could not happen because grand jury proceedings were secret-

To Make a Long Tail Short

We've seen houses without chimneys, and boats without a sail; but the coldest thing in winter is a shirt without a tail. One of the coldest deals that any dealer can hand a customer is to try to high-pressure him into buying a used car that cannot, and will not, justify the price asked.

Recreational Work For Girls Needed, Rotarians Are Told

Midland needs recreational facilities for girls, comparable to those provided for boys, the Rotary Club was told today by Mrs. A. Van Kampen who formerly served as recreational director for such projects at Milwaukee. She outlined the needs of both privileged and underprivileged girls, telling of the plan used in Milwaukee to provide social centers. Directed associations of girls and boys, and the attendant advantages, were described. Mrs. Van Kampen pointed out that a government director for such recreational work is available here. George T. Abell announced the Boy Scout financial drive, scheduled for Friday and Saturday, and President Clinton Lackey appointed the following to assist other workers, meeting tonight at the Boy Scout hall at 7:30 o'clock for instructions: John Thomas, H. N. Phillips, Ben Black, Harry Gossett, Chas. Vicellio, L. H. Tiffin, H. S. Collins, W. R. Upham, Geo. T. Abell, G. W. Bronneman, S. A. Debnam, Roy McKee, D. Davis and M. H. Crawford. Debnam was appointed chairman of a group to attend the charter night meeting of a new Rotary Club at Seminole May 5. Delegates S. A. Debnam and W. J. Pratt were elected to represent the Midland club at the Cleveland international convention in June, and Debnam and Lackey were named delegates to the Big Spring district conference May 7, 8 and 9. Three new members, H. N. Phillips, R. M. Barron and Newell Ellis, were welcomed to the club today. Visitors included Rotarians Leland Payne, J. J. Willis, Ralph Clark and Earl Griffin of Odessa, Alfred Stiles of Sweetwater and Fred Drake of Mitchell, S. D. Other

District Court, at the next regular term thereof, to be holden in the County of Midland on the 5th day of June, 1939, at the Court House thereof in Midland, Texas, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court, on the 27th day of April A. D. 1939, in a suit numbered on the docket of said Court No. 3221, wherein Melvina Sickles is plaintiff and Judge Sickles defendant. The nature of the plaintiff's demand being as follows, to-wit: That plaintiff and defendant are man and wife, having been married in February, 1926; that plaintiff is a bona fide resident of Midland County and has been for a period of more than six months next preceding the filing of the suit; that she is and has been for a period of more than one year preceding the filing of the suit an actual bona fide inhabitant of the State of Texas; that from the beginning of their marriage defendant began a course of cruel conduct toward plaintiff which caused plaintiff to separate from the defendant on November 28, 1938, since which time she has not lived with the defendant, and that the cruel treatment of the plaintiff by defendant is and was of such a nature as to render their further living together as man and wife insupportable; that one child, Sherman Sickles, a boy eleven years of age, was born to their marriage. Plaintiff prays for a divorce from the defendant and exclusive custody of the minor child until he shall become 16 years of age.

HEREIN FAIL NOT. And have you before said Court, on the said first day of the next term thereof of this Writ with your endorsement thereon, showing how you have executed the same. Given under my hand and seal of said Court and issued at office in Midland, Texas, this 27th day of April A. D. 1939.

Employers Urged Be Careful in Reports

SAN ANGELO, April 27.—Employers whose wage reports show inaccuracies in reporting the social security account number and the name of each employee are receiving letters from the Social Security Board requesting correction and more care in the future, according to W. C. King, manager of the Social Security Board's field office at San Angelo. He pointed out that even minor discrepancies between the name and account number, as reported by the employer and as they appear on the employee's account number card, cause difficulty and delay in posting wages.

The Board's highly mechanized system of record keeping makes it essential that the employee's account numbers and names given on wage reports agree exactly, both as to the numbers and the spelling of the names, with the employee's original records filed with the Board. Mr. King explained that even a slight difference between a worker's name, as reported, and as he gave it when he applied for an account number—such as transposition of the letters "e" and "l", the use of a single instead of a double letter, or the omission of a final "s" or "e"—must be corrected before the reported wages can be credited to the proper account. Similar difficulties occur if two digits are transposed in reporting the account number. In such cases the employee's wage report is automatically thrown out of the regular stream of work and requires special handling before it can be posted to the proper employee's account.

FEMINE FANCIES
By Kathleen Eiland

Nightgowns and pajamas blossom out in any number of styles, adapted to milady of most any temperament. If she prefers the druid style that has set the fashion world awirl in recent months, there is a nightgown of sheer print which boasts shirring at the snug waistline in druidic fashion. A demure little bolero accompanies the gown, to be worn if desired over the square cut neckline with its wide shoulder straps.

If you like the naive of the butcher boy style, there is the pajama suit of sheer cotton printed all over with designs of flowers and windmills and suchlike, the trousers of which are paired with a loose-hanging butcher boy blouse. As for prints, you may choose blue birds or other-colored birds or various and sundry designs of flowers and other articles, animate or inanimate.

Speaking of clothing for informal hours brings us to play clothes. It is no secret that slack suits are more popular and more colorful than ever before. Those gorgeous rust and wine and bronzy-brown shades are just as tempting in slack suits as in dresses.

Then there is the play suit, made with a blouse and shorts in one, over which may be buttoned a plain skirt to make it into a serviceable dress. This type of suit is handsome in ice-white sharkskin, though it comes in other solid colors. A slightly different design but in the same general style comes in brightly-colored prints and, though even more informal than the solid color ensembles, is attractive and gay in its own way.

Snooping about hither and yon, we've discovered glazed-cloth belts (at least that's what they appear to be made with rows of shirring down the center which gives a pleasantly ruffled effect. Whether these belts are imitation patent or plain old oil cloth, they are pretty and inexpensive and, coming as they do in a variety of solid colors, will lend a touch of brightness to many a slightly-drooping summer dress.
