Red Cross Roll Call Will Open Here Tuesday

1500 Members to Be Sought in Midland During 1-Day Drive

Tuesday is Red Cross Roll Call Day in Midland and in the morning at 8:30 o'clock approximately 70 workers, all ladies, will start solicitations for Red Cross memberships, determined to go "over the top" on the record-breaking goal of 1,500 members set for this city. Residential sections as well as the downtown business district will be canvassed in an effort to reach every citizen of Midland. The city has been divided into sections with a captain and a team of workers assigned to each district. Booths will also be set up in various downtown lobbies, with a team of workers stationed at each booth. Ralph Geisler is roll call chairman of the Midland Chapter of the American Red Cross and Mrs. Don Sivalls is vice-chairman. Mrs. John A. Haley is chairman of the Midland chapter.

Team captains and roll call officials met at a breakfast in the Blue Room of the Scharbauer Hotel Coffee Shop this morning to map out details of the drive and to familiarize themselves with the sections to which they have been assigned. Following the meeting, officials announced that the organization had been completed and that everything was in readiness for the launching of what is hoped will be the most successful Red Cross membership campaign ever attempted here.

All workers in the roll call have been asked to meet on the mezzanine floor of Hotel Scharbauer in the morning at 8:30 o'clock, at which time final orders will be given and supplies and equipment issued. The solicitations will start immediately thereafter. Officials hope that the drive proper will be completed late tomorrow afternoon in order to speed up the drive as much as possible, residents are requested to join promptly when called upon tomorrow.

Memberships in the American Red Cross range from one dollar per year and up. Chairman Geisler requesting Midland citizens to give as generously as possible when solicited.

The Red Cross is supported by the annual roll call, and it is necessary that sufficient funds with which to carry on the year's program, both national and local, be raised during the campaign which is staged throughout the nation from October 15 to Thanksgiving. This year, due to troubled conditions in Europe and throughout the world, the Red Cross is attempting to secure a million more members than were enrolled last year. Midland has been asked to do her share in increasing the number of Red Cross memberships.

Last year leading the entire state in Red Cross memberships on a per capita basis, Midland has always exceeded its membership quota and it is felt that again this year the campaign will go "over the top."

The Midland County Red Cross Chapter has for years been one of the city's most active organizations and is deserving of all the support the citizenry can give it. Local citizens are urged to support the local organization as well as the national set-up by joining the Red Cross Tuesday.

Persons out of the city tomorrow or those otherwise missed in the drive may leave their membership contributions at the chamber of commerce office in Hotel Scharbauer.

A 100 per cent Red Cross Roll Call in Midland is the appeal of the volunteer workers who are giving of their time in securing memberships for the great American Red Cross.

Missing Flier Is Discovered Dead in Wreckage of Plane

LARAMIE, Wyo., Nov. 13 (AP).—Thomas Ballard, 35, who quit the Omaha police force to become an airplane pilot, was found dead Sunday in a small plane wrecked in the Horsecreek country northeast of Laramie.

The wreckage was discovered Sunday noon by a government trapper, William L. Dorton, who said he saw it early Thursday, but then believed it was a road grader.

Sheriff E. L. Wood and coroner Joseph Shannon decided the plane fell at midnight Wednesday. Ballard's wrist watch was stopped at 12 o'clock.

It was snowing heavily at the time he was believed to have crashed, and location of the wreckage indicated Ballard had circled back from his westward flight and was heading toward the beacon light on Pilot Knob, fifteen miles distant.

The single-seat Piper Cub J-3 was demolished. Parts of the wreckage were scattered about 150 feet distant. One wing was crumpled beyond recognition. The motor was pushed back into the fuselage. The ignition had been turned off, but the throttle was wide open.

Ballard, recently employed by the United Air Lines, was lodged in the wreckage. His neck was broken and his face was badly cut. The coroner said he was killed instantly.

He left Great Bend, Neb., Wednesday, his log book indicated. Under the heading, "Time of arrival at next destination," someone had written "0."

The crash occurred east of the mountains in a fairly fine boulder-strewn country, forty-five miles northwest of Cheyenne in south-eastern Wyoming.

C. D. Thomas, a Cheyenne mail carrier, was with Dorton Sunday when they came upon the wreckage. Ballard was flying from Omaha to Seattle, Wash., his papers indicated.

THE HAGUE, Nov. 13 (AP).—Premier Jan de Greer told the Netherlands today "there's not a single ground for uneasiness in the nation" despite "many rumors causing alarm" in the past few days.

The premier said fear of imminent danger was caused by reports circulated abroad and by "certain measures of our government."

He urged Holland not to court danger by nervousness and thus risk losing "the blessing which God has given us—vocation of stimulating peace and thus serving others."

The premier said Holland's mobilization was in preparation for any development.

British Will Continue War On Germany

Churchill Declares Nazi Regime Must, Will Be Destroyed

LONDON, Nov. 13 (AP).—Winston Churchill, First Lord of the Admiralty, declared last night the Allies would keep on making war against Nazi Germany "until the other side have had enough of it."

"You may take it absolutely for certain that either all that Britain and France stand for in the modern world will go down or that Hitler, the Nazi regime and the recurring German or Prussian menace will be broken and destroyed," Churchill said in a broadcast.

Churchill asserted German troops were concentrating near the Netherlands and Belgium and declared: "If we are conquered all will be enslaved and the United States will be left alone to guard the rights of man."

Churchill listed restoration of Poland and Czechoslovakia among Britain's war aims.

The admiral's chief of staff said Adolf Hitler and his "cluster of confederates" could not find "one single friendly eye" in the world.

"Not one Russia returns them a flinty stare; Italy averts her gaze; Japan is puzzled and thinks herself betrayed; Turkey and the whole of Islam have ranged themselves instinctively but decisively on the side of progress."

"The great English speaking republic across the Atlantic Ocean makes no secret of its sympathies or of its self-questioning and translates these sentiments into action of a character which anyone may judge for herself."

Saying that Britain had been "agreeably surprised" at the ten weeks allowed her by Germany to get herself in "fighting trim," the head of the admiralty declared: "Now the mists and storms of winter wrap our island and make continuous bombing attack of military objectives far more difficult."

Soviet Russia had barred Germany from the east, he said, "so now these boisterous and bullying Nazis are looking with hungry eyes for some small countries in the west which they can trample down and loot Austria, Czechoslovakia and Poland."

"Now they turn their fierce but also rather prudent glare upon the ancient civilized and unoffending Dutch and Belgian nations."

They have not chosen to molest the British in the Channel, he said, because the British are so strong in the west of the English Channel that they can trample down and loot Austria, Czechoslovakia and Poland.

Politics Ignored by Governor in Speech To the State Sunday

AUSTIN, Nov. 13 (AP).—Governor O'Daniel in his regular weekly radio program Sunday ignored state governmental issues and delivered a political address advocating that America stay out of the war in Europe.

For the first time in many Sundays, the program was interspersed with songs by the Governor's Hill Billy band. No mention was made of O'Daniel's previous intimations there would be no special session of the Legislature to consider adequate support of old age pensions and the social security program.

"To those who say that our boys fought and died in vain, that the world was not made safe for democracy, I say I believe they are mistaken. I believe they (World War victims) won an overwhelming victory for democracy," he said.

The Governor said democracy and religion were the basis for permanent peace.

Former Held After Two Children Slain

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Nov. 13 (AP).—Two children who Constable Alexander said were beaten and slashed by their father during a period of despondency over a serious illness died Sunday in Pottsville Hospital.

The father, Charles Ebert, 31-year-old junk yard worker, was held on charges of murder.

His wife, Rachel, 27, beaten and slashed along with the children in the Ebert home at nearby Port Carbon Friday night, was reported in a critical condition with a fractured skull.

The first child, Charles Jr., 3, died about midnight. Death came to the second, 6-year-old Shrtle, four hours later.

Neighbors told Constable Alexander that the mother ran screaming from the home in the middle of the night, blood streaming from her face and head.

The constable said the wife was beaten with a machinist's hammer. The throats of the children were slashed with a razor as they lay in bed.

Crockett Ordovician Test Tops Strawn 900 Feet High to Well a Mile Distant

BY FRANK GARDNER. ## Delegation Is To Leave for Home Tonight

Concessions Asked By Russians Refused On Government Order

HELSINKI, Nov. 13 (AP).—The Finnish foreign office announced today its delegation in Moscow would leave for home tonight, suspending lengthy negotiations by which Russia had been seeking concessions from Finland.

Previously, Foreign Minister Erkkö had said only "last minute" modification of soviet demands for territorial concessions could prevent recall of the Finns from Moscow.

The negotiations were initiated October 7 after Russia won concessions from Latvia, Estonia and Lithuania strengthening her military position in the west and north.

MOSCOW, Nov. 13 (AP).—Widespread Soviet naval demands upon Finland, including bases in the Gulf of Finland, were disclosed for the first time yesterday as Russian newspapers hammered at what they called Finnish "obstinacy" against coming to terms.

An article in the newspaper Red Fleet, organ of the Soviet army, said Russia must gain control of Finnish areas west of Murmansk in order to protect that port, the northernmost ice-free harbor of the Soviet Union.

(Finland now has access to the Arctic through a narrow strip of land between Norway and Russia.)

The newspaper Trud, organ of the Soviet trade unions, warned Finland she was playing a "dangerous game" which "may have grave results," and criticized the United States government on charges of interference in the Russian-Finnish issue.

At Moscow newspapers carried a Tass, official Soviet news agency, dispatch of last night which charged that the Finns had intensified "their irreconcilability" in the Moscow negotiations.

The negotiations were initiated Oct. 7 by Russia after she had gained the right to establish naval, military and air bases in the Baltic through concessions from Lithuania, Estonia and Latvia.

Sunday's newspapers also published Tass dispatches from Helsinki quoting a Finnish magazine, Sohtu, that Sweden was trying to get the Finns to wage war on Russia, pointing to the backing of all Scandinavian states.

Great Britain, this article charged, was backing Sweden in this maneuver which it said was "directed from London."

Red Fleet's article said Leningrad could not be safe unless Russia controlled both sides of the gulf of Finland.

It said she therefore should create a naval base in the mouth of the gulf in the region of Hangö Island; must erect fortifications on Sidsuden and other islands in the eastern part of the gulf; and should have "the islands of Suursari (Hogland), Seyskari, and Lavansari as well as Tutarsari."

The Newspaper Trud said the Finnish attitude in current talks in Moscow "surprised and roused the indignation of the Soviet people. The Finnish leaders have game a sinister and dangerous game—it is madness and nonsense."

"It is strange that Roosevelt is worried over the fate of Finland," Trud added. "Why hasn't the United States government worried about countries which are neighbors of the United States? Why did the American government which 'worried' about Finland look on calmly when Hangman Trullio (General Rafael L. Trullio, former president of the Dominican Republic) made a bloody festival in Santo Domingo and annihilated tens of thousands of inhabitants of Haiti?"

Midland's Share in the Red Cross Will Be Met Again With a Smile

The American Red Cross, in facing its greatest peace-time test, this year appeals to the American public for a million more members to support its constant battle against human suffering. During the past year we have been drawn closer to the Red Cross through its far-flung disaster relief, its aid to the innocent non-combatants of war, as well as through its daily services designed to stamp out misery in the form of disease and the ever-present threat of accidental death.

Labor Harmony Is Possible

Big wigs in both of America's labor organizations might take a lesson from what C. I. O. and A. F. of L. local councils have brought about in Granite City, Ill., just across the river from St. Louis. Granite City has about 25,000 citizens who work chiefly in steel foundries, rolling mills, syrup factories, Unionists there were having the same trouble as their parent bodies, until leaders in both local groups realized neither the C. I. O. nor the A. F. of L. union was getting anywhere.

Aviation Progress

The progress of aviation can be written between two wars. Before the First World War, aviation was little more than a swaddling infant, enveloped with the promise of a rosy future. Today, it is part of everyday life. The usefulness of the airplane is not confined to war. During the past seven months, commercial airplanes have flown 500,000 passengers and have traveled 50,000,000 miles without one fatality.

DOLEFUL LEOPOLD, WILHELMINA SEEK PEACE

WHEN doleful King Leopold of the Belgians teamed with Queen Wilhelmina of the Netherlands in the latest bid for world peace, it wasn't the first time the two crowns have been linked in the news. Once before—while Princess Juliana of Holland still was looking for her prince charming—the wires buzzed with reports that Leopold would be the groom. The news died down, Juliana married her German prince and Leopold became a monarch of equal rank with Juliana's mother, not a son-in-law.

King Leopold

Queen Wilhelmina

Leopold, a man of 37 sobered by two tragedies—death of his father in a mountain climbing accident in 1934 and of his wife, killed in an auto crash in 1935—is strictly a family man. When, on a trip to London in 1937, he went partying with a beautiful but unidentified blond, it was unusual that the magazines made much of it.

Her eccentric liking for ridiculous hats is not reflected in her character. Short, full and beamy, she has the blue eyes, heavy upper lips and the profile of circular cheeks and chin that is the epitome of everything Dutch. Hers is a queenly carriage, on the Victorian style. She loves jewelry, boasts one of the finest collections of diamonds in Europe.

These she is able to forgive, for birth of two grand-daughters has assured Queen Wilhelmina that the lineage of the House of Orange that has ruled Holland ten centuries, will continue—and on the feminine side.

BRUCE CATTON IN WASHINGTON

BY BRUCE CATTON Reporter-Telegram Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—Back of the Bureau of Mines' announcement that there are tremendous proven deposits of iron ore in the far western states, forces are in motion which may bring an important shift in the steel industry. Right now negotiations are under way between eastern steel interests and Bonneville Dam authorities for a contract for electric power to operate a steel mill in Bonneville area.

great "industrial empire" which department enthusiasts have been predicting for the Columbia valley ever since the Bonneville and Grand Coulee projects got under way.

It also suggests that it would start the development of that west coast steel industry which President Roosevelt recently said he was anxious to see established. WESTERN ORE LIES UNMINED The far west has an abundance of iron — one of the nation's greatest deposits, for instance, according to the Bureau of Mines, is in Madera county, California—but to date its ore has not been extensively exploited.

TEXAS TODAY

By the Associated Press If winter comes to Texas, and it always has, it will be hog-killing time and that means pork sausage. But there is sausage and sausage, and for the person who likes good sausage there is nothing as appetizing as good pork sausage.

America's Social Companion Perhaps there is nothing so disappointing to a person who likes good things to eat as a murdered pork sausage. On the other hand, there is nothing that brings the comfort and satisfaction, and rosy an outlook on a troubled world as real pork sausage with exactly the right amount of ground red pepper and sage.

The Town Quack

A busy week is coming up with one of the big days of Midland's history scheduled for next Saturday afternoon. Dedication of Midland Municipal Airport will find scores of fine airplanes on hand and thousands of West Texas and New Mexico citizens here to witness an example of the growing importance of aviation. Army officers, pilots and big men in aviation and air transportation will assemble at Midland in appreciation of the city's forward strides in providing one of the state's best airports and landing fields.

After you have selected the good meat from good hogs, ground the meat properly, mixed the seasoning and fried the sausage slowly over a low blaze you must not ruin the breakfast by eating the sausage improperly.

Free Education Attracts Many Army Recruits

NEW YORK (UP)—The main reason young men enlist in the army is to learn a trade at Uncle Sam's expense and not because of the spirit of adventure, according to Col. L. B. Magruder, recruiting officer for the second corps area.

Magruder said seven out of every 10 applicants ask whether they can learn a trade in the army "and the answer to that is always yes."

Magruder said one reason for the excellent trade-learning possibilities is that the men are free from worry about expenses.

There's No Greater Mystery about Cigarette Tobaccos

THERE ARE FOUR TYPES of tobaccos found in the more popular cigarettes, namely... Bright, Maryland, Burley and Turkish.

ALL THESE TOBACCOS except Turkish (which is bought direct from the planters in Turkey and Greece) and Maryland (which is bought through sealed bids under government supervision) are bought at public auction, just like any other auction where you might have bought in a table or a chair.

AT THE AUCTION SALE the tobacco is piled in baskets weighing from about 100 to 500 pounds and each purchaser buys all of his tobaccos by competitive bidding for the particular piles he wants.

THE CHESTERFIELD BUYERS buy the best of these mild ripe tobaccos for the Chesterfield blend. And it is Chesterfield's Combination... the right amounts of Burley and Bright... just enough Maryland... and just enough Turkish—that makes the big difference between Chesterfield and other cigarettes.

IT IS BECAUSE OF this combination that Chesterfields are COOLER, have a BETTER TASTE and are DEFINITELY Milder. They are made of the world's best cigarette tobaccos. You can't buy a better cigarette.

MIDLAND-SAN ANGELO GAME IS TOPS FOR THIS WEEK

A look at the district 3AA standings today shows that the Midland Bulldogs are leading the field in one important division — scoring. However, the Bulldogs are going to have a lot of trouble holding on to the lead for the remainder of the season. While they are playing the San Angelo and Odessa teams, the Sweetwater team, only seven points behind over the season, will be playing Big Spring and Lamesa.

The Bulldogs, while leading the league in offensive play, rank fifth in defensive play both over the year and in conference games. The Midland boys have scored a total of 202 points over the season and had 101 scored against them. Sweetwater has tallied 195 points to rank second and has the best defensive record by having given the opposition only 52 points.

The Bulldogs also boast the high scorer of the district and two other boys in the first eight scorers of the district. Jay Francis is pacing all the other boys with 193 points and should be able to wind up the season as the top scorer. Jim White of Midland is fourth with 36 points and Dell Truelove is tied with three others boys for fifth with 30 points.

Most important game of the week in district 3 will find the Midland Bulldogs pitted against the San Angelo Bobcats on the Tom Green county grid next Friday night.

The San Angelo team has not won a conference game this year but has been especially tough for all opposition. The Cats dropped one touchdown decisions to Sweetwater and Odessa and came from behind to tie Big Spring at 13-13.

The Bulldogs last week realized what it meant to underestimate the opposition and this week should find them preparing for one of the toughest games of the year.

The Bulldogs, expecting to romp over Lamesa, were lucky indeed to come from behind in the final minute of play and eke out a decision. However, they probably realize that the San Angelo boys will be out to win their first conference game this week and will go into the game with a different mental attitude.

The Odessa Broncos, after losing a heart-breaker to Sweetwater Saturday, cannot afford to let down this week as they prepare to meet the Class-A Wink Wildcats. The Wink club is one of the toughest in West Texas and will likely make it rough for the Broncos when they meet next Saturday afternoon in Odessa.

Sweetwater should take it somewhat easier this week with Lamesa than they had it last week against Odessa. The Lamesa team proved plenty tough for Midland but chances for a win over Sweetwater are slight, especially since coach Larry Priddy of the Mustangs scouted the game here and well knows what it will take to stop the Dawson county boys.

The Big Spring boys journey to Abilene for what should be an easy win. The Abilene club hasn't won a game this season and there is no logical reason to suppose they can upset the fine little Big Spring gridgers.

Sulphur Springs and Waco Sew Up Championships in Districts

BY HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Staff

Sulphur Springs and Waco won district championships and eight other teams virtually clinched sectional honors but the big news in Texas schoolboy football last week was the downfall of Luftkin.

The Panthers, hailed as probably stronger than last season's juggernaut, had been big favorite to come through in District 12 but Nacogdoches nosed out Willie Smalley and company 8-6 and assumed command of the drive. Nacogdoches has Mexia and Henderson left to play.

Another upset in a season of topsy-turvy football was the 6-6 tie Longview played with the hitherto widely-heralded Tyler Lions. However, this game did not materially hurt Tyler's chances at the title as the Lions have only to win over often-beaten Marshall to grab off the honors.

Other teams conceded championships, although they still have games to play, are:

Sweetwater in District 3 which yet has to battle Lamesa and Big Spring; Gainesville in District 5, with Bonham and Sherman on the schedule; Woodrow Wilson, in District 8, which meets Dallas Tech and Sunset; Breckenridge in District 9, which faces Mineral Wells and Cisco; Austin (Houston) in District 13, which plays Jeff Davis and Sam Houston of Houston, and Brownsville in the lower bracket of District 16, which has only Harlingen left on the schedule.

In other districts the picture is like this:

District 1—Amarillo and Lubbock undefeated; District 2—Childress has slight lead but must yet play Wichita Falls and Electra, ranked about as strong as the Bobcats; District 4—El Paso and Austin (El Paso) defeated; District 7—Masonic Home and North Side tied for the lead; District 14—South Park (Beaumont) undefeated but must play strong Beaumont and Livingston teams; District 15—Austin unbeaten but has that tough Kerrville team left on the schedule; District 16—upper bracket, Corpus Christi and Robstown undefeated. Rain played havoc with last week's schedule with six games either postponed or cancelled. The muddy field also contributed toward the downfall of several leaders and held the scores down in other games.

The state's six undefeated, untied teams did not run afoul of upsets, Sweetwater beating Odessa 19-0, El Paso High downing Cathedral (El Paso) 44-0, Gainesville nipped Denison 13-0, Breckenridge beating Brownwood 13-0. South Park taking out Orange 26-0 and Austin defeating Breckenridge (San Antonio) 7-0.

Sulphur Springs clinched the District title with a 6-0 win over Greenville and Waco smashed Cleburne 26-0 to take the Central Texas crown.

Funeral Services For Chapman to Be Held in Cisco Today

LUBBOCK, Tex., Nov. 13 (AP)—Lubbock bid farewell Sunday to Wellington Bailey Chapman, one of the most popular football coaches in Texas and the man who gave Lubbock high its greatest triumphs.

Chapman, former president of the Texas High School Coaches Association and for almost two decades a high school mentor in the Inter-scholastic League, died Saturday after a week-long siege of bronchial pneumonia.

Funeral services were held here yesterday and the body was taken to Cisco, scene of his early coaching efforts, for burial today.

Chapman, coach at Lubbock High School eight years, had been in ill health since the time his Lubbock team won its first football championship of the district for a local high school team in 1931.

Messages of sympathy and condolence came from nearly every coach and sports writer in Texas, as well as from any of his former players and friends. Approximately 3,000 persons attended the funeral services.

A vigorous follower of the Warner, or wing-back system, Chapman never failed to attend a coaching school at which Warner was present, or to visit Warner's spring training camps. The two had developed a warm friendship and exchanged football theories and plays regularly.

Chapman died a few seconds after his high school team here had defeated Plainview in a traditional game.

Aggies Prepare to Continue March to Pennant This Week

COLLEGE STATION (A&M)—When the Southwest Conference was organized back in 1914 Texas A&M and Rice came into the fold as charter members and every year since, excepting 1918-19, the two schools have been meeting on the gridiron. Through 1938 the all-time record stands at 15 victories for the Aggies, six for the Owls and two others were ties.

This next Saturday they will meet for the 24th time on the Rice Field at Houston with game time at 2:30 o'clock. Although Rice has had a bad season they are apt to be leveling for the Aggies to avenge the 27-0 licking they took last year and

Schoolboy Sidelines

Howard Brickey, sports writer of the Wichita Falls Times, can really claim to be one of those "I told you so" guys. It was Brickey who in '37 nominated Jack Crain for the All-State team... Crain, playing with Class B Nocona, was not considered by the general run of scribes because few knew anything about him... It's hard to get a line on the players who do not perform on Class A teams, therefore they are not considered in picking the All-State... Now Howard has another nomination, Curtis Holder, 150-pound tailback for Wichita Falls... "Last year he was a terror sure man," writes Howard, "but has not been quite so spectacular this year. He's not Jack Crain, understand, but he's along that line. In a broken field he's really poison... Punters don't dare punt to him"... But again Howard's nomination may fall on deaf ears because right now Wichita Falls doesn't look as though it will move out of its district. And it's hard to get the notice if the team doesn't enter State play.

Now is the time of the year when the coaches are nowhere near normal about all they can think about are forward passes (with their defending halfback 15 yards from the receiver), blocked kicks with the ball bounding behind their goal lines and interrupted passes with their defenders failing to cover up... Therefore, Coach Joe Gibson of Childress can be excused for the absent-minded thing he did the other day... Gibson's center, Max Jones, was stricken with a stomach ache... Gibson promptly ordered up some medicine, mixed it, and then turned up the glass and drank it himself... "How do you feel now, Max?" he asked, turning to Jones.

Adding to the saga of Travis Raven, Austin's one-man riot, is this from Wilbur Evans, Austin American-Statesman sports writer: "I find it a bit difficult to compare stars today with those as far back as ten years ago but Tom Pickett was about the only back I saw last year who was in Raven's class and he couldn't do as many different things"... We have seen Pickett in action, thank you, and if Raven is better than the Temple star then he gets our nomination for a place on the All-American schoolboy team... Incidentally Raven knows what it is to be an unusual hero who makes a specialty of clearing the way for the football stars to usurp the headlines... Raven has scored 108 points this year but last season was used primarily as a blocker and made but six points... And you never heard of him then."

Jerry Malin, who has followed Texas schoolboy football for 15 years, is of the opinion that leveling of the playing limit has produced at least one harmful effect: that of increased injuries... He comments that the injury toll may be even higher next season when the age limit is lowered still another year... He admits that "we do not have that mad, un-sportsmanlike recruiting" of players in the high schools like we used to but that the year 1939 must go down as the most harmful for schoolboy football in League history with respect to injuries... That is one reason why the coaches are against the new rule... Another reason is that it lowers the brand of football.

It is 42 in a row for Hull-Daisetta... And that's the longest winning streak in Texas schoolboy history... Also Hull-Daisetta is the national leader because Ord, Neb., which had not lost a game since Thanksgiving, 1934, was beaten last week by Albion, Neb., 20-6... Ord was the only team offering any challenge.

Sh-h-h! Don't let it be bruited about because Southwest Conference coaches have enough to worry about this year trying to stop Jack Crain of Texas... But there's another thing... The other night Leo Daniels of Milton Crain, former Breckenridge (San Antonio) star, who is coveting with the Baylor Cubs at this time... Milton is totally unlike Jack... He weighs 210 pounds, which is 40 or more pounds more than the Texas U. flash, and he can run 100 yards in 11 seconds... They say he also has a champion appetite—at least that's the report from Texas A&M where Crain had a meal the other day.

The Waco Tigers, who right now are being boomed as the State's No. 1 team, can take it as well as give it... The other night Leo Daniels of Bryan caught the opening kickoff and ran it back 90 yards for a touchdown... But did that make the Tigers downhearted?... Bryan scored 18 points which, as the canny Jim Tucker wrote in the Waco News-Tribune, confirmed the suspicion that the Tiger defense is not of championship quality... But Waco got 67 points, and why worry about a defense when you can score three or four touchdowns to the opposition's one?

Frank Tolbert, Fort Worth Star-Telegram writer comments that San Angelo has a college president who is backfield coach of the football team... He's Dr. Wilson (Bull) Elkin who went to Texas and Oxford... The "Bull" is a misnomer, Tolbert comments... "You'll no more think of calling this keen-faced, unsmiling young man 'Bull' than you'd call Senator Tom Connally 'Butch'... The name was tacked on when Dr. Elkins was an athlete at Brackenridge (San Antonio) and he persisted through the University of Texas, but the Britons put a stop to it at Oxford where he became Mr. Elkins, first-rate rugby player

Gridiron Glamor Boys... No. 3 THIS GRID STAR IS GOOD COOK, TOO

Esco Sarkkinen, Ohio State End, Is Also Top Flight Student

Third of a series of gridiron glamor boys.

BY JERRY BRONDFIELD
NEA Service Sports Writer.

COLUMBUS, Nov. 13.—Esco Sarkkinen, big blond end, is another football player who hits the books as hard as he does opposing players... A senior, majoring in physical education, this Ohio State All-American candidate has a cumulative scholastic point ratio of 3.1, which means he's in approximately upper seven per cent of student body.

From Fairport, O., a town of 5,000 on Lake Erie... is 6 feet tall, weighs 192... Handsome Finnish lad of 21... Wants to coach... One reason opposing athletes find him so tough to take out is that he spent one summer working with packing gang in cement plant.

Last summer Sarkkinen shipped as second cook aboard Great Lakes ore freighter... which explains why he's so handy with skillet and egg-beater in slick apartment inhabited by him and three buddies.

"BROTHER EINO is sophomore halfback... They're called Big Sark and Little Sark... Little Sark has bubbling sense of humor... also is known as 'Delightful Delirium.'"

Esco Sarkkinen is member of Beta Theta Pi... also rated membership in Bucket and Dipper and Sphinx, junior and senior men's honorary societies... Favorite subject is anatomy... likes books and music.

One of the apartment mates, John Homan II, is camera bug... Takes delight in shooting him from all angles.

Sarkkinen is extremely popular with teammates... Mild-mannered except on football field, where he is terror... Likes to sleep... First class is at 8, but doesn't get out of bed until 7:30... Deadliest tackler... Considers Minnesota backs the hardest blockers he has faced against and Ken Haas of Missouri the best tackle he has faced this season.

Is a natural southpaw which hampers his golf game... Isn't superstitious, but has Saturday lunch with same girl, cutie Mary Mason, freshman co-ed from Toledo, before every home game. Menu: Tea and toast.

NEXT: John Schiechl of Santa Clara.

Earth" strikes up the band in New York, next Spring, Ward hopes that he'll be back in grass-pants, ankle-deep in sawdust, letting the office get along as best it can.

It is reported by traffic engineers that in 25 per cent of all fatal traffic accidents, the driver has been drinking.

Esco Sarkkinen, Ohio State's All-American end candidate, hits the deck at 7:30 every morning. An excellent cook, he prepares many of the meals in the cozy apartment shared by him with three buddies. Below, left, is a sight enemy halfbacks hate to see. Below, right, the big blond relaxes after practice by listening to a few recordings.

Engineering, Not Clowning, His Job But First Love Was and Is Big Top

WICHITA FALLS, Tex. (AP)—Joe E. Ward, a successful consulting engineer, is satisfying a boyhood ambition, making new friends and taking his vacations by performing as a circus clown.

When Ward and his brother were boys they excitedly helped pitch tent for every circus that came to town and later erected trapeze equipment in their back yard. Joe wanted to be a clown but turned to engineering. He graduated from the University of Texas and began a successful professional career.

He still visited the circus performers back stage at every opportunity, however, and sometimes followed them along their circuits. A veteran clown told him one day he "might as well join the show," so familiar did he become around the big top.

So Ward got permission to join Ringling Brothers circus as a clown several years ago. He draws no salary but eats with the other performers on the numerous occasions that he feels the urge to go off on tour.

His most recent tour began with Ringlings' Sept. 25 at Big Spring. He clowned in the sawdust arena at Lubbock, Abilene, Fort Worth and Dallas, left the company to attend to some engineering business in East Texas, and rejoined it for the Austin and San Antonio performances.

A University of Texas rooster Ward's clown suits are always of the school's orange and white colors. His favorite uniform, he will tell you with pride, was made for him by Elsie Jung, famous circus aerialist and equestrienne.

Ward, a Sunday school superintendent here, said he admired circus performers for their "good, clean fun" if for no other reason, he said, circus performers must lead temperate, orderly lives in and star track man... But we'll bet you they still talk about "Bull" Elkins when they discuss his athletic prowess at San Antonio or Austin.

Nervousness Makes Child's Teeth Decay

BOSTON (UP)—Nervousness precipitates decay in children's teeth, according to Dr. Percy R. Howe, director of the Forsyth Dental Infirmary. He said long research had shown that a child's diet might be sufficient for good tooth structure and condition, but the diet advantage would be offset by a nervous spell.

Stressing the need for strict care of a child's diet to see that proper minerals and vitamins are obtained for good tooth culture,

Howe said: "This supervised diet can be nullified, however, by a nervous condition in a child—a fact not generally known to parents. A complacent upbringing for a child in pleasant surroundings is just as important as selected diet in enabling the child to have a mouth filled with fine and healthy teeth."

Here's How to Retrieve That Hasty Letter

NEW YORK (UP)—Did you ever mail a letter and then wish you hadn't?

Don't expect to wait at the corner box and ask the mail collector to hand it over. He won't. Postmaster Albert Goldman explains that the proper method is to notify the local post office, and it will take the proper steps, even intercept the letter at the railroad station.

In New York, such crises are referred to the Classification Section, which gets from one to five requests a day to intercept letters. It usually overtakes the letter at the main post office or at the railroad station. If it already is on its way out of town, the sender must pay for a telegram to the post office at the destination.
