Hull Scores Opponents of Trade Pacts

Says Abandonment of Program Sure Way to Damage Prosperity

CHICAGO, Dec. 6. (AP).—Secretary Hull, assailing foes of his trade pacts as "narrow and short-sighted," asserted last night that abandonment of the program would "render infinitely more difficult the process of building an orderly and prosperous world."

RUSSIANS ONE-FIFTH WAY ACROSS FINLAND

Efforts Made To Cut Nation In Two Parts

Completion of Drive Would Put Soviet on Switzerland Borders

KIRKENES, Norway, Dec. 6. (AP).—On this twenty-second anniversary of Finnish independence, the Russian army was reported to have driven almost one-fifth of the way across northern Finland—apparently under orders to cut Finland in two.

Russians were said to have penetrated 35 miles into Finland, reaching Kuolaajarvi. Completion of the drive would put the Russians on the Swedish border, near Sweden's rich iron mines.

Finnish sources contended the Russian advance was discounted in advance because the region already penetrated was practically uninhabited.

Finns declared the invaders would encounter "unbreakable" resistance when they reached Finnish defenses west of Kuolaajarvi.

The Finnish general staff said that on the whole it was a "dull day" on the southern front in the Karelian Isthmus with bad weather keeping airplanes grounded.

But many Finns were fearful of violent raids against Helsinki today, the anniversary of Finnish independence.

In the Petsamo district, above the Arctic Circle, frequent machine gun attacks by Russians were reported with the Finns using their automatic rifles to good effect.

Finnish troops were reported withdrawing from the towns of Uusikirkko, Valkjärvi and Rautu in accordance with a pre-arranged plan.

Heavy pressure was reported on the eastern frontier with the Russians using their motorized equipment with some effectiveness.

For the last two days the Russian fleet was said to have bombed the outer islands of the Suursaari group in the Gulf of Finland. The largest of the group, Hytaarsaari, was occupied by Russians after Finnish sea guards there moved out.

Finnish fliers managed to make a few reconnaissance flights, attacking some Russian troop concentrations despite the weather, a military spokesman said.

A Finnish announcement said Russian prisoners had declared their officers informed them the Finns were the aggressors, and that the war would be over in five or six days.

War Debt Payments May Be Used By Roosevelt to Aid Finland

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6. (AP).—President Roosevelt today expressed to President Kallio of Finland his "earnest hope" the Russo-Finnish war will end soon so Finland may continue her steady development "untroubled."

The president cabled the Finnish leader on the occasion of the twenty-second anniversary of Finland's independence.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6. (AP).—As a further gesture of sympathy for Finland, President Roosevelt disclosed Tuesday that he was seeking a method of using Finnish war debt payments for the benefit of people of the little Baltic nation, now being attacked by Russia.

At the same time, he took occasion to slap the critics of his foreign policy. Objection to it has come, he said, from statesmen in Russia and Germany, from the public director of the republican national committee—whose name he said he could not remember—and from a small number of politically-minded people in the house and senate.

It was learned, meanwhile, that the administration was postponing a decision on the question of recalling the American ambassador to Russia, a course of action strongly proposed by several republican leaders, who have criticized the president for recognizing Russia originally. In this connection it was indicated the administration is hopeful the Russo-Finnish hostilities may be ended soon.

A fourth development of the day was a statement by Sumner Welles, the acting secretary of state, making known that the United States was ready to take part in a joint denunciation of Russia by a number of American nations.

Mr. Roosevelt told of his plans for the Finnish war debt payments at a press conference, in the course of which he replied with an abrupt and emphatic negative to a question whether it would be unneutral to forgive the Finnish debt payment under the circumstances.

As to just what would ultimately be worked out, Mr. Roosevelt was uncertain. Thus far, however, he said, he had asked Secretary Morgenthau to segregate the Finnish debt payment of $234,000, expected on Dec. 15, in a separate account and leave it untouched until the best method of making the money available to the Finnish people could be worked out. Some similar treatment may be accorded Finland's last payments, he indicated.

The fact that Finland, alone of all the nations of Europe, has scrupulously kept up her debt payments to the United States, has served to intensify the already deep sympathy for that country in her hour of duress. Suggestions that she be given special treatment regarding her debt payments have been made in several quarters.

However, it has been pointed out that only congress can change the terms of any of the present debt agreements. A default, however technical and however much approved by popular opinion, would, moreover, legally prevent the Finnish government from obtaining credits here under the Johnson act. Meanwhile came the intimations of hope that the Russo-Finnish hostilities might be quickly halted. The administration, it was said in his quarters, was advised that efforts to that end were being made abroad, efforts in which the United States was not a participant. Mr. Roosevelt, it was said, does not regard the outlook as hopeless and does not wish to upset the apple cart by breaking off relations or recalling the American ambassador.

Several leading republicans, among them Herbert Hoover and Senator Vandenberg (Mich.), have proposed such action. They have with one degree of emphasis or another reproached the president for having recognized Russia in the first place.

RR Comm. Official Heard in Speech at Lions Club Today

Predicting a bright future for the oil industry in West Texas and stating that Midland, as an oil center, has one of the most brilliant futures of any city in the State of Texas, S. Ross Carr, connected with the oil and gas division of the Texas Railroad Commission, was the guest speaker at the regular weekly luncheon of the Midland Lions club today noon, subject of his interesting and educational address being "The Oil Industry in West Texas."

District Eight, he said, extends from Dickens county on the northeast to the Big Bend on the southwest and from Mitchell county on the east to El Paso on the west. Thirty-four counties, 17 of which have producing oil wells, are included in the district, he said. The Midland office supervising production over the district. The district has 9,219 producing wells, according to the speaker. During the first 10 months of 1939 there were 1,301 producing wells completed in this district, only 75 dry holes being drilled during the same period, he said. Mr. Carr said that the 9,219 producing wells are located in 74 separate fields, 10 of which were discovered during the first 10 months of this year. There are 400 individual operators and 1,900 individual leases in the district, he said. According to the speaker, the district has a daily potential of more than 14,000,000 barrels of oil.

Ten refineries, eleven casinghead plants and two carbon black plants are located within the confines of district eight, he said, adding that there are 22 pipe line companies and 30 gatherers by truck, operating in the area. Interesting facts on individual fields in this section of West Texas were discussed by the speaker, the fields mentioned being the Yates, Hendricks, Goldsmith, and Wesson. The Goldsmith field has the largest daily allowable of any field in West Texas and the Wesson field is the second largest field in the United States, he said.

Also appearing on the program was Jack Hurt, Jr., Midland high school student, who spoke briefly in regard to the purchase of Red Cross Christmas seals, sales of which are being sponsored by the Midland County Public Health Board. The talk was exceptionally well prepared and well delivered. Lion Gene Reischman was in charge of the program.

It was announced that the annual ladies' night program party of the Lions club will be held next Thursday night at the Midland Country Club, the night meeting to supplant the regular weekly luncheon next week. Santa Claus will make his appearance at the affair. Club members present voted unanimously to again join with Howard Hodge, manager of the local theatres, and with the Rotary club and American Legion in sponsoring the annual free Christmas theatre party for the children of the community. The party will be held on the morning of December 23 at the Yucca theatre.

Guests present at today's luncheon included Chauncey Nelson of Abilene, and Mrs. De Lo Douglas and Oliver Haag of Midland.

Largest producer in West Texas north of the T. & P. R.R. tracks loomed today as Texon Oil & Land Company No. 6 Midland National Bank, on the east side of the North Cowden pool in northern Ector county, gauged natural flow of 836 barrels of oil in two hours and 25 minutes.

Drilled in with cable tools, the well topped pay at 4,228 feet and had filled hole with oil when depth of 4,245 had been reached. It commenced to flow while drilling at 4,345 feet, putting 310 barrels into the first hour and gauging 526 barrels the next hour and 25 minutes. Drilling was halted at 4,380 feet. Operators killed the well and today were running tubing.

Sinclair-Prairie Oil Company No. 4 Fay Holt, in the northwest part of the pool, swabbed 20 barrels of oil natural in 24 hours then was shot with 300 quarts from 4,185 to 4,264 feet, the total depth. It now has 300 feet of oil in the hole while cleaning out at 4,100 feet.

In southern Andrews' Emma pool, Sinclair-Prairie No. 1-69 University is drilling lime at 4,072 feet. Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 71 J. S. Means, in the pool of that name in northern Andrews, rated 24-hour potential of 1,866 2/3 barrels of 22.3-gravity oil, with gas-oil ratio of 1.885-1, after acid treatment totaling 10,000 gallons in lime pay between 4,500 and 4,526 feet, the total depth.

BRUCE CATTON IN WASHINGTON

BY BRUCE CATTON Reporter-Telegram Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON.—For the second time in history, one of the major political conventions may be held as late as August.

Chairman John D. M. Hamilton of the Republican National Committee has pretty well sold the party high command on the idea that the Republican convention in 1940 ought to be held after the Democratic convention. Now the idea is being carried farther, in high Republican circles, and there is talk of holding the convention late in July or August.

This will be one of the subjects discussed when the party's executive committee meets here Dec. 7.

FAVOR LATE DATE TO AVOID LETDOWN

THOSE favoring a late date argue that there is always a letdown after a presidential convention. The delegates go back home full of enthusiasm and energy, then have to wait a couple of months before they can really get to work.

One suggestion being advanced is that it might be smart to make the presidential campaign swing into high immediately after the convention, have the formal notification of the nominee as soon as possible, and start the candidate out on his speech-making tour right after that. This would keep tempo high all through the campaign.

In line with this idea, plans are being made to get as much as possible of the routine spade-work of the campaign out of the way before the convention.

In 1936, it is recalled, Mr. Hamilton took office as chairman and found—as new national chairmen usually find—that he had to start from scratch. Nobody knew how much money was going to be available, where it was going to come from or who was going to get it.

HOPE TO ELIMINATE ROUTINE WORK

IF enough of this routine work can be eliminated ahead of time, it is figured, the campaign can swing into high right after the convention without any waste motion.

Naturally, it won't be possible to do all of it. For one thing, a new nominee is always entitled to name a new national chairman, who in turn may name a new committee staff. But it is felt that enough can be done to make the job of the new chairman (if there is a new one) a good deal easier.

One reason for wanting a late Republican convention is the prevailing uncertainty about what line the Democrats are going to take. In 1936 everybody knew the Democrats would nominate Roosevelt on a straight New Deal platform.

This year no one knows whether the Democratic nominee will be an ardent New Dealer, a middle-of-the-roader or an abt. The Republicans can shape their platform and perhaps pick their candidate more intelligently if they know just who and what they're going to be up against.

CIVIL WAR DEMOCRATS CONVENED IN AUGUST

SINCE the Republican party was organized—in 1856—there have been 21 presidential elections—and, of course, 42 national nominating conventions. Thirty-three of these conventions have been held in June, six in July and two in May.

The only one ever held in August was the Democratic convention of 1864. This was when the Civil War was on, and the line the party took was going to be determined pretty largely by what happened in the field.

Kitten Adopted by Dog as Special Pet

HOUSTON (AP)—Lady, who hasn't had any puppies for four years, has overcome all her traditional hatred for cats and adopted a tiny baby kitten.

Lady is a snow-white Spitz. For 14 years, said D. L. Bowen, she took out her spite on cats. Once she killed a cat.

One day Bowen looked out his window and saw the first evidence of reformation in his pet's nature. A tiny reddish-brown kitten, too young for its eyes to be open, was lying beside Lady. Lady hasn't left it since.

The first hair-curling method consisted of winding the hair about a cylindrical stick, moistening it with a chemical solution, enclosing it in a metal tube, and then heating it.

It is no cinch to compete with Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel on the radio. This is the opinion, in effect, of Rep. Weldon Burney of Evans, who has had some experience along that line.

Even though they have equal amount of free time on the air, according to Burney, opponents of the governor's taxing suggestions have difficulties reaching the same audience.

The governor has been speaking at 9:30 a. m. each Sunday and some member of the House of Representatives, or perhaps Senator Joe Hill of Henderson, at 10 a. m. or at 3 p. m.

"In the first place, the governor has a huge radio following, built up over the years," Rep. Burney said. "When he goes on the air thousands listen as they long have been doing."

"Legislators who oppose his views can't get to this audience as well as the governor does."

"Moreover, the governor has a better hour. At 10 o'clock everyone is going to church and how many people listen to their radios at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon?"

The legislators hope by hammering away to score a fair average as to listeners and results over a period.

The State senate chamber is being dolled up. Some of the senators, as a result, may not recognize the place when next they visit it.

Seven hundred dollars worth of Venetian blinds now shade the 36 tall windows, 18 to each side of the huge hall.

One benefit, it is agreed generally is that the beautiful paintings in the chamber, among the most important show pieces in the capitol, are better lighted, those of President Roosevelt and United States Senator Tom Connally especially being displayed to improved advantage.

The new blinds recently replaced old shades, some of which were faded and tattered, having been in use many years.

The old ones however, have not been altogether discarded. Some have been turned over to employees of the house of representatives for use in the chamber of that body.

"We are glad to get them," said Ernest O. Boyett, house sergeant-at-arms and custodian of the house hall. "They may have been too old for the senate, but some still are better than what we have."

In addition to the 36 blinds for the senate windows, four were provided for the windows in offices of Lieut.-Gov. Coke Stevenson on the south side of the capitol, and Bob Barker, senate secretary, on the north.

That makes a total of 40 sets of blinds installed on the senate side of the statehouse.

A new "Mystery" drape also has been hung in the senate chamber, and an order has been placed for two beautiful new flags to float above the rostrum of Stevenson, who because he is lieutenant-governor, is president of the senate.

The drapery, of heavy fabric, hangs on the white wall behind the rostrum in heavy folds, dark red in color, it is the subject of much curiosity among visitors, who, almost invariably, want to know, "What is behind that curtain?" Nothing is behind it, except the wall. It hangs there to add beauty to the chamber and to give the senators something pleasanter than the white wall to look at.

It replaced drapery, originally green but faded to brown, which had hung in the spot about 20

Persons Working in Stores During Xmas Season Told to Have Social Security Cards

SAN ANGELO, Dec. 6.—Persons who expect to work temporarily in stores, shops, and other business establishments during the Holiday Season were urged by W. O. King, manager of the San Angelo office of the Social Security Board, to assure themselves that they can produce their social security account numbers before making application for employment.

"Those who have not already done so should equip themselves with an account number because many employers now require account numbers to be recorded before the workers may start on the job," King said. "Duplicate cards should be requested by workers whose original-issued cards have been lost or destroyed."

Employment in seasonal businesses such as turkey picking, pecan shelling, and part-time work usually is covered by the law. It was pointed out that the fact that workers are employed on a temporary basis does not exclude them from participation in the old-age and survivors insurance program. Generally, any employment in the fields of commerce and industry is covered. Wages received for such work are counted toward old-age and survivors insurance.

"Employers should request all employees to obtain account numbers promptly, and make a record of them since each employer is required to report each three months the name of each worker, his number, and amount of wages paid

The new flags will be two in number, the Lone Star flag and Old Glory, and in dimensions will be six by nine feet. They will be made of government standard banner silk, the finest material for the purpose.

At the last session of the legislature, some senators called attention to the faded condition of the flags, long in use, and facetiously raised a question whether they were really red, white and blue.

A resolution was adopted authorizing generally and needed improvements in the chamber. The shades, flags and drape were decided upon by Stephenson, Barker and Senator Claude Isbell of Rockwall, chairman of the senate committee on contingent expenses.

a few minutes. Account cards are forwarded for applications received by mail on the same day they are received, provided they are properly executed.

It was explained that persons who already have established social security accounts should not apply for another. King emphasized that a workers keeps his one social security account number, reporting it to each of his employers, throughout his working lifetime, regardless of the number of firms by whom he may be employed.

in the world. They run more free stuff for which they should be getting the usual advertising fee than any other medium. The radio boys are smarter.

Also, so are the California newspaper publishers. When they run anything that isn't news, they consider it advertising and get the money or leave it out. Two California young men moved to Sweetwater and bought the Reporter. The biggest wrong impression they had of this country was the manner in which newspapers are expected to carry free advertising. The postoffice instance is just one of many such cases.

An anonymous postcard writer advises he is glad to see that we want to keep out of the rut. He says we ought to get up to date on how many shopping days it is until Christmas. We said Tuesday there were 15 days left. Taking the writer's advice and counting on our fingers, we find that there should have been 16. Anyway, you still have 15, but you might as well consider there are only 14 as you won't find any merchandise left on the last day anyway. But thanks for the correction.

The postoffice, for whom we have been running free "mail early" etc. stories and editorials ever since I can remember, had some circulars printed telling how to send your Christmas cards. We didn't get the printing job but we got the usual free publicity in the paper.

Which brings me around to something I've heard many, many times. Newspapers are the biggest chumps

AGGIES ACCEPT INVITATION TO MEET TULANE IN THE SUGAR BOWL

Cotton Bowl Bid Is Turned Down After Long Study

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 6 (AP)—The New Orleans Mid-Winter Sports Association announced last night that Tulane University and Texas A. & M. College had accepted invitations for their football teams to play in the Sugar Bowl here on New Year's Day.

Texas A. & M., undefeated and united in 10 games, is currently ranked as the nation's No. 1 team in the Associated Press poll of sports editors. Tulane, which has been tied by North Carolina and won all the rest of its nine-game schedule, is No. 5.

The Sugar Bowl announcement climaxed a day in which a sudden offer of $85,000 each to Texas A. & M. and Tennessee to play in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas failed to bring results.

For weeks it has been predicted that the Aggies, Southwest Conference champions, and Tulane, co-champions of the Southeastern Conference, would meet in the Sugar Bowl. Yesterday's developments had created fears that the Texas representative would be diverted to the Dallas game.

The Sugar Bowl sports program, especially the football classic, has grown phenomenally since a group of business men and firms guaranteed $30,000 for the first one in 1935. Officials receive no salaries and even buy their own tickets to events but the original guarantors are given the first opportunity to buy tickets.

The five previous games, attendance and estimated amount paid each team, follow:

1935—Tulane 20, Temple 14; $2,026; $20,759.20.
1936—Texas Christian 3, Louisiana State 2; 33,476; $29,794.44.
1937—Santa Clara 21, Louisiana State 14; 36,483; $38,035.68.
1938—Santa Clara 6, Louisiana State 0; 39,031; $40,000.
1939—Texas Christian 15, Carnegie Tech 7; 49,645; $50,000.

COTTON BOWL GAME TO BE PLAYED
DALLAS, Dec. 6 (AP)—Director J.

Curtis Sanford of the Cotton Bowl post-season football game said last night a game would be played on New Year's Day here.

"The decision of Texas A. and M. to play in the Sugar Bowl in no way affects our game," said Sanford. "Naturally, we are sorry conditions would not permit the Aggies to play in our game, but we wish them success. And that goes for Tennessee, too."

The Cotton Bowl officials had worked without rest for two days in a valiant effort to match the Aggies and Tennessee, currently ranked the nation's No. 1 and 2 football teams by the Associated Press poll.

Both had been offered $85,000 guarantees.

Sanford said he had contacted "several good football teams, and Dallas will have a great attraction."

The group of business men who joined Sanford in attempting to put over the Aggie-Tennessee game, will stay behind him in his game.

Sets Record for Baton Twirlers

By NEA Service.

FRESNO, Calif. — A new world record for baton throwing is being claimed for Wynnton Cochran, 18-year-old freshman baton twister for the Fresno State College band.

Between halves of the San Jose game Cochran heaved his baton 75 feet into the air and made a sensational catch as the silvery stick came down.

Judges witnessed his effort from an elevated platform on one of the stadium light towers. A wire stretched 65 feet over the field served as a standard of measurement.

The shamrock is supposed to have become the national emblem of Ireland from the belief that St. Patrick made use of it to illustrate the doctrine of the Trinity.

Aggies Greet News Of Invitation to Play in Sugar Bowl

BY FELIX MCKNIGHT

COLLEGE STATION, Dec. 6 (AP)—Powerhouse Texas A. and M., a team that felled 10 straight foes in its greatest season since 1920, greeted the formal announcement it had been selected to play in the Sugar Bowl post-season classic against Tulane with rebel yells.

Many hours before, the Aggies, currently ranked the country's best football team, had met in closed session with Coach Homer Norton and voted a preference for the New Orleans classic.

Not, however, until it appeared the last possibility for a New Year's Day date with mighty Tennessee in the Dallas Cotton Bowl had faded, did the Cadets make their decision.

Mulled Over Idea

Offered $85,000 each by a group of Dallas business leaders, Tennessee and the Aggies mulled over the idea for two days. Finally, Tennessee announced it would make no formal declaration until after Saturday's game with Auburn.

The Aggies, believed to have had the Sugar Bowl invitation in their pockets all the while, decided not to wait until Saturday.

Dean E. J. Kyle, chairman of the Aggie athletic council, said that A. and M. had long considered the Dallas offer because it believed the school "owed the State of Texas a debt of gratitude for its support during the recent season."

School officials stressed that every effort was made to book the Tennessee game in order to give the Aggies' normal following, the fans who stayed with them through their great march this season, a chance to see the Texas game.

Throughout the long negotiation, which kept football mad Dallas and Texas at the breaking point, the Aggie officials reminded that the players' wishes would be followed.

They voted for the Sugar Bowl after being advised that the proposed Tennessee game had struck snags and decisions would necessarily have to be delayed until Saturday.

Vols Have Inside Track

The belief has always been strong in Texas that Tennessee, not the Aggies, had the inside track for a Rose Bowl bid.

The Aggies feared that Tennessee, if it hurdled the Auburn hump, would accept a Rose Bowl invitation.

To further confuse the matter, rumors seeped in from the Pacific Coast that University of California at Los Angeles, the team Southern California must beat to earn their spot in the Rose Bowl, had a definite yen to play the Cadets if they became the western representatives for the Pasadena classic.

Not even Christmas shopping could compete with breathless street corner gossip here. Newspaper offices were flooded with calls and radios hummed with reports.

A Tulane-Aggie game won't be new.

For many years the two teams battled annually at New Orleans, attracting huge crowds. Memorable was the game back in the early thirties when the Aggies, with just an average team, almost upset a green wave that eventually rolled smack into the Rose Bowl.

The Aggies are expected to get back into training in a few days. Coach Norton and other athletic officials were believed to have departed for New Orleans to lay final plans for the game.

11th Anniversary of Oil Find Celebrated

MONAHANS. (AP)—Ward county, considered one of the most prolific-oil-producing counties in Texas, recently celebrated the 11th anniversary of the discovery of oil.

Shiplay Oil Co., drilling a wildcat test, made the discovery in November, 1928, when it struck pay on land owned by S. F. Hayslett, in the east quarter of section 17, block 5, H&T Co. survey.

Crude oil today is the county's greatest source of revenue.

The horsepower generated by a stop within 295 feet from a speed of 70 miles an hour is sufficient to pull 10 cars 16.5 feet into the air.

Officers Unable to Find Gun Said Used In Slaying Police

SWEETWATER, Dec. 6. (Special).—In a day-long search of the muddy waters of city lake here, officers failed to find the gun which Rafael Comacho confessed to have used in killing Asst. Police Chief W. J. O'Leary of Big Spring in the early morning hours of Nov. 28.

A short time after making the confession in which he stated he threw the gun in the lake here, the Mexican hanged himself in Weatherford jail.

The search will be continued, however, and further efforts will be made to drain the approximately two and a half feet of water from the reservoir. The drainage pipe is clogged with mud and efforts made to force the obstruction out with a pressure hose failed. Abandoned as a city water reservoir, the lake has not been drained in years.

Officers have been using a magnetic instrument in an effort to pick up the weapon. They also have been picking up the mud in the bottom of the lake with pitchforks and wading.

Sheriff Joe Turner of Parker county and Captains John Reed and W. W. Legge of the state highway patrol, highway patrolmen and local officers have been participating in the search.

Texas Youth Winner Of National Prize With His $35 Steer

CHICAGO, Ill., Dec. 6. (AP).—Fame and fortune came to a Texas steer Tuesday.

Mayfield Kothmann's brown and white Hereford, Lucky Boy 2d, was selected grand champion of the 2,000 purebred steers entered in the fortieth annual International Livestock Exposition.

It was the tenth time since the grand championship was established in 1900 that a Hereford, considered by stockmen as an ideal range animal, captured the purple and gold ribbon.

Kothmann, an 18-year-old 4-H Club boy from Mason, Texas, entered international competition for the first time this year. He said he paid $35 for Lucky Boy 2d sixteen months ago, when the animal was 2 days old.

It weighed in for competition at 1,240 pounds, and Kothmann may realize more than $4,000 on it at the public auction Thursday. Last year's grand champion, an Aberdeen-Angus owned by Irene Brown of Aledo, Ill., brought $3.35 a pound on the hoof. Lucky Boy 2d was the only animal entered in competition by Kothmann. It was raised on a 800-acre tract where Kothmann lives with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Kothmann, and five sisters. The family has a herd of thirty Herefords.

Another Texas Hereford, Texas State Fair, owned and exhibited by Jack Baker of Bluff Dale, won the reserve grand championship. Exposition officials said it was the first time in the show's history that Texas steers carried off both the grand championship and the reserve.

Moscow Paper Hits U. S. as Actively Against the Soviet

MOSCOW, Dec. 6 (AP) — The Communist party monthly magazine Agitator's Companion, which provides propaganda material for organizers and lecturers, attacked President Roosevelt and American imperialism Tuesday, and added: "The American Communist party is actively preparing for fulfillment of its historical task in the new international situation."

In an article by far the most bitter against the United States yet to appear here, N. Ross wrote: "President Roosevelt is more and more siding with the incendiaries of war. The United States Government is issuing extraordinary decrees which it is claimed are directed against spies and saboteurs but in reality are used against Communists and all anti-war forces. "American toilers are faced with a great task: that of crushing the war plans of a powerful foe—American imperialism. The American Communist party is actively preparing for fulfillment of its historical task in the new international situation. "Dreaming of world hegemony, American imperialists are striving to supplant competitor-imperialists from Latin America. They are striving to strengthen their position in China. "Already during the first months of the present war imperialist American circles are preparing to spare no effort in order to save European capitalism from the offensive of the proletariat and are doing everything to convert the war between imperialists into a war against the U.S.S.R."

Midland Boys Given Top Department Grades

Billy Joe Hall and Robert Throckmorton of Midland, Texas were congratulated today by Dean J. Thomas Davis of John Tarleton College for having a perfect department record for the first preliminary of the school year. Removal of Parking Meters Is Sought ODESSA, Dec. 6 — An injunction petition was filed here Tuesday in the 70th District Court seeking removal of 151 parking meters installed here by the Dual Parking Meter Co. of Oklahoma City.

The petition alleges that the parking meter company is a "foreign" corporation and that the firm has no permit to do business in Texas.

Judge Cecil Collins, who is conducting the regular term of the district court here now, set a hearing on the petition for tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

Previously the Oklahoma company had proposed to remove the meters, installed for a 120-day test period, for $3,500. This offer however, had been refused. The meters were installed about two weeks ago.
