

YANKS CLOSE TRAP ON NAZIS

Mid-Continent's Wildcat In Andrews County Flows 150 Barrels Oil Per Hour

By JAMES C. WATSON, Oil Editor

The Mid-Continent Petroleum Corporation No. 1-7 University, West Texas' first Siluro-Devonian producer, in section 20, block 13, University survey, in Northwest Andrews County, kicked off and flowed 150 barrels of 40-gravity oil per hour early Friday morning.

After perforating 7-inch casing at 8,460-8,600 feet with 395 shots, the operator ran two-inch tubing, and perforated that string at 8,597-8,600 feet.

The swab was pulled five times, and the well kicked off and flowed. For first hour the oil was run into pits.

In the second hour it was turned back to the tanks and made 135 barrels of oil. The flow during the third hour after the kick-off was 150 barrels. The oil came through a 3/4-inch choke. It was out with 44 per cent drilling mud and acid residue resulting from the acid washing of 1,000 gallons, used after the casing had been perforated.

This discovery—classified by many as a major development—is about two miles southwest of production on the southeast side of the Fullerton field. It missed pay in the regular Fullerton section of the lower Permian, above 7,500 feet, and after standing temporarily abandoned for several weeks, was reworked and started out to test to the lower Ordovician, around 10,500 feet.

The new pay zone developed, slightly unexpectedly. The well shut in to build storage.

When the new oil section was encountered several weeks ago, some observers called it Wolfcamp, lower Permian. This has been revised and the section has been designated by the operator as Siluro-Devonian.

Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 1 State National Bank of El Paso, trustee, Central-North Pecos County wide, in section 7, block 140, T&STL survey, about nine miles southwest of the Apo-Warner pool, is shut in while the operator is mixing Lore mud to use in getting the project definitely killed so it can core ahead from the total depth at 5,449 feet.

During Thursday 12.5 tons of heavy mud was put in the hole and that load killed the well for 15 minutes. Then it tried to unload.

All developments at this exploration indicate the possibility a new Ellenburger producing area has been uncovered. The operator has not definitely determined what the formation is in which the project is now bottomed.

However, several qualified observers believe that the power now evident is from the lower Ordovician section. Some high-gravity crude oil has been recovered from the slush which has been created.

Superforts Blast Japs' Home Island

By J. E. KRUEGER

Associated Press War Editor

The Pacific war reached a new turning Friday, launched auspiciously by the first Allied offensive bombing of the Philippines, more B-29 attacks on harried Japan, liberation of Guam and by a historic Roosevelt-MacArthur-Nimitz meeting which may have set the U. S. course toward Tokyo.

The triumph blows rained upon them from every quarter impelled the Japanese to begin work on a plan "for strengthening of domestic defense." The Japanese cabinet decided to outline such a plan by Aug. 15.

Superfortresses flying out of China Thursday bombed Nagasaki on Japan's home island of Kyushu, where planes are made. Another group of the sky giants based in Southeast Asia inflicted damage on the big oil installations at Palembang on Sumatra. Of the Nagasaki raid, Tokyo acknowledged that "the manner in which the enemy carried out his attacks was extremely fierce." The terse War Department announcement said that the raids were "medium-sized."

Bomb Philippines

Davao, chief Japanese base on Mindanao, southernmost of the Philippines Islands, was bombed for the first time since Corregidor fell May 6, 1942, in three raids beginning Aug. 7. Gen. MacArthur's raiders, presumably flying from newly-won New Guinea area bases, caught Davao with its lights out, and smashed airdromes from which Japan could contest future landing attempts by Allied forces.

Simultaneously with news of this new blow, MacArthur announced that Japan's trapped 18th Army, once 60,000 strong, had been crushingly defeated, its remnants sent fleeing into New Guinea's mountains and toward by-passed Wewak. The 18th's casualties in the last town of Pesera, where the major dead and wounded, as an army it had disintegrated.

Admiral Nimitz announced Guam was now restored to the U. S. Reconquest cost 1,214 American dead and 6,033 other casualties. The Japanese lost 10,971 dead and an island within Superfortress range of Japan, the Philippines and China. A few enemy survivors were being dug out of caves and ravines.

Canadian General Injured By Bomb

WITH THE CANADIAN FIRST ARMY IN FRANCE—(P)—Maj. Gen. R. F. L. Keller, commander of the Canadian Third Division, was wounded recently when a formation of U. S. heavy bombers dropped a group of fragmentation bombs short of their mark and into the Canadian troops' area.

Lt. Gen. Lesley J. McNair of the U. S. Army was gassed in Normandy recently under similar circumstances.

Keller was hit in the left arm and leg and also suffered a minor chest wound.

The bombs, dropped a short distance south of Caen, caused a number of casualties among personnel. None of the troops had time to take cover before the bombs started to explode.

Bombers Attack Oil Dumps, Rails And Airfields

LONDON—(P)—American heavy bombers smashed in force Friday at oil dumps and airfields near Paris and at rail yards in the German city of Saarbrücken and the Alsace Lorraine cities of Strasbourg, Mulhouse and Belfort.

All the rail yards were bottle-necks for German troops which invasion headquarters reported were moving "westward" toward the French front. Railway facilities through Strasbourg, Antwerp, Brussels, Metz, Lille and Sedan were bombed during the night.

Blast Berlin Again

Before dawn, up to 1,000 heavy British bombers attacked oil supplies for submarines, trains and other targets while Mosquitos gave Berlin residents another restless night by plunging two-ton globe-busters into the German capital.

Up to 1,000 U. S. planes, half Flying Fortresses and Liberators, bombed and strafed these objectives.

Captured German Generals Call On Nazis To End War

By Daniel De Luce

MOSCOW—(P)—Two captured German generals, in statements appearing above, in their signatures Friday in the Soviet press, called upon the German people and the army to end the war.

"Over 30 German divisions are doomed to extermination owing to an irresponsible Hitler's strategy," said the statement, by Lt. Gen. Von Kurovski of the 110th Infantry Division and Maj. Gen. Lindeman of the 361st Infantry Division.

"There is but one issue—it is to stop the struggle and lay down arms," the statement said. "It is time to finish with Hitler and his clique. He who fights against Hitler fights for Germany."

The declaration, dated Aug. 6, professed complete agreement with a manifesto which 60 of their fellow generals reportedly signed July 22 repudiating Hitler.

British Aid In Shaping Pocket; Opposition Light

By Gladwin Hill

SHAEF—(AP)—American forces which knifed eastward of Le Mans to within a little more than 90 miles from the Paris suburb of Versailles, without meeting serious German opposition, were reported turning northward Friday in a scythe-like sweep threatening all the Germans south of the Seine.

British troops, supporting a Canadian-Polish thrust below Caen which appeared to be shaping a huge pocket in conjunction with the American drive, stormed into Thury-Harcourt, German stronghold on the Orne.

Field dispatches said the Americans, driving at least 10 miles beyond Le Mans, still had met no solid enemy resistance, but Friday's Allied communique announced the destruction of 15 German tanks by aircraft somewhere in the area.

(An NBC broadcast said "Chartres, 37 miles from Versailles, was in Allied hands, but German broadcasts specifically denied it, and there was no Allied confirmation.") northward from Le Mans with strong air support, and the Paris radio reported the Americans had burst past Alençon, 30 miles north of Le Mans. The Germans said the Americans had run into heavy fighting in that direction.

There was no official confirmation at Supreme Headquarters of various reports of striking progress past Le Mans, but it was obvious that the Paris-pointed spearhead there had the alternatives of swinging northward toward the English channel short of Paris, swinging south of the capital in an encircling move, or splitting and passing on both sides of it.

A swing northward of the scythe would threaten the rear of the Germans' stubbornly held swivel position below Caen and approximately 20 German divisions or remnants of divisions—upwards of 800,000 men. If the sweep crossed and continued to threaten the isolation of Le Havre and other channel ports as well as the rocket bomb coast.

Stevenson To Ask Legislators To Redistrict Texas

AUSTIN—(P)—Governor Coke Stevenson announced Friday he will ask the next legislature meeting in January, 1945, to redistrict the state for legislative and judicial purposes.

Legislative districting is now based on the 1920 census and population shifts since then have not been given cognizance by succeeding legislatures which have refused to reapportion representation although the constitution requires it following each decennial census.

Many sections of the state, especially South Texas and the Gulf Coast area, have decanted inequities which have resulted through increased population in those areas and continuance of the 1920 census apportionment basis.

The governor recommended legislative redistricting two years ago but the legislature failed to authorize it.

Germans Are Busy On Secret Weapons

LONDON—(P)—The Daily Mail, in a dispatch from Stockholm, Friday quoted an Austrian research worker who fled from Germany as saying 250,000 to 500,000 persons are making "secret weapons" for the Nazis.

He said many of the persons either firing the flying bombs or being trained for the purpose were former airmen grounded for lack of aircraft.

NEW YORK—(AP)—Reports from Bern, the British radio said Friday, said Premier Ion Antonescu of Romania has resigned. There was no confirmation.

SHAEF—(AP)—American forces captured 4,322 Germans in France in 24 hours ended at midnight Wednesday.

STOCKHOLM—(AP)—Twelve Nazi troop trains were reported by the Free Danish Press service Friday to have passed southward through Aarhus in the last 24 hours, indicating a heavy movement of German troops from Denmark probably toward France.

A Fake Bombing?

It has been suggested by the German journalist Curt Riess in a series of articles, "The Corporal vs. the Generals," that the July 21 attempt on Hitler's life was a frameup. The suggestion makes excellent sense, and to review accounts of the event only strengthens its logic.

Perhaps the best evidence of fakery is in the "scene of the crime," as revealed by a Nazi photograph. The room where the bomb exploded is demolished. Beams hang from the blasted ceiling, furniture is blown to bits, windows are out, doors off their hinges. It is inconceivable, in this setting of utter destruction where others were killed and wounded, that Hitler should have suffered only minor bruises and burns, and maybe a compound multiple fracture of the seat of his pants.

And where was Hitler's bodyguard? (There's nothing phony about that, at least.) Did the alleged bomber, Col. Count Klaus von Stauffenberg, sneak by the Gestapo, remove papers from his bomb-loaded briefcase, then casually put it in such an unlikely spot as under Hitler's desk? Did he then leave with no fear that someone would come running and shouting, "Hey, Herr Graf, you forgot your briefcase"? Or did he remain, confident that Providence would protect him as well as Hitler from the bomb?

It doesn't make sense. As Riess says, "German generals, no matter how brutal and ruthless they are, do not plant bombs. . . . It would have been too simple for one of them . . . to shoot him."

Howabout the revolt that was to follow the assassination? The plotters moved too slowly and, as Riess points out, the Gestapo moved too fast. According to the Nazi account, the plotters made no first attempt to seize a radio station. Rather, they went after a fanatically Nazi battalion of guards in Berlin. And if the Gestapo was caught flat-footed, as we are supposed to believe, how did they happen to head first for long-retired General Beck, and kill him within 10 hours?

There comes a time when there is no one left to purge except those who will weaken yourself. That time has come for Hitler. His best generals are now gone—those who might have managed his last retreats with a semblance of order and a saving of lives.

Instead, Hitler and the Nazis will surely end the war in an orgy of blind blood fury—costly to their enemies, surely, but costly also them in men and in the growing, righteous vengeance of an infuriated Europe.

Enemies Of Inflation

Not so many years ago the public was sold many of the necessities of life at prices based on all the traffic would bear. The result was that laws and regulations were evolved to try and prevent gouging of the consumer. But laws alone cannot put character into merchandising practices—there must be character in the merchandising plan itself if the consumer is to enjoy maximum benefits.

One of the main reasons that prices have been held so well in control during this critical period, has been the method of retailing developed in our country during the last generation, which depends on a small profit per sale on a mass turnover of goods, rather than all the traffic will bear on a minimum number of sales.

Our retail stores must be given credit for developing this sales method to its present high state of efficiency. If our nation had not been enjoying a smooth-working mass distribution system, the rationing and price control program could never have functioned as it has. Our system of retailing was built to order for the war emergency and the character of its management was the biggest asset OPA had for price control.

THE WAR TODAY

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press War Analyst.

While we were waiting for a clue to the mystery of the Battle of Paris (just where is that fast-moving Yank armored force which already has captured Angers and Nantes in its race for the French capital?) the Russians are providing us with another first class mystery as the Battle of the Vistula swells to its climax.

The tip comes from the Germans in their announcement that the Muscovites are developing a flanking movement west of the Upper Narew River, that is, along the southern border of East Prussia. When you fit this bit into theigsaw puzzle, you see that the Red forces ostensibly—a though perhaps as a ruse—are pursuing at the moment the same strategy employed by the Russian armies which met terrible disaster in East Prussia in the last war.

Back in 1914 the Russian plan for conquest of East Prussia was to advance with two armies, one to the north and the other to the south of the notorious Masurian Lake region. The northern army attacked near the Insterburg Gap, east of Konigsberg, and flung the Germans back. Then the southern army drove up against the Germans in the Allenstein sector and precipitated the historic battle of Tannenberg in which Field Marshal Von Hindenburg inflicted a great defeat on the Czarist forces.

Reds Know Perils
The aging Von Hindenburg had spent much of his long life studying the Masurian Lakes. He used to torture his troops with grilling maneuvers each year in this inhospitable country. Folk regarded him as daff on the subject, but when it came to the show-down in East Prussia the kaiser sent for the "old man of the lakes" as the only general who knew that region.

Well now, the Russians once more are driving against the East Prussian border east of the Insterburg Gap, and the Hitlerites have been counter-attacking with a ferocity which in itself is recognition of the possibility that the Red Army is trying to reach that strategic gateway. At the same time we get the Russian flanking movement along the southern border, southeast of Tannenberg.

It's an intriguing picture, but in calling attention to the similarity I'm not suggesting that the Red generals are bent on duplicating the strategy of their World War predecessors. There may be tricky afoot. Anyway, we needn't worry for fear the Muscovites don't know the perils of the Lake Country.

It would be a happy coincidence—and one that could happen—if Warsaw and Paris fell at the same time. What a staggering blow for der fuhrer!

Mass Arrests Are Reported In Germany As Purge Continues

LONDON—(AP)—Adolf Hitler's newspaper Voelkischer Beobachter was quoted Friday by the Berlin radio as saying the new German scrape-the-barrel manpower decrees were only the beginning and declared that "this time we mean business."

The decrees banned normal entertainment, ordered domestic servants into industry or the army, required women up to 50 to work, and ordered many industrial workers into the army.

A Moscow broadcast reported "mass arrests in Germany not only among generals and senior officers but also among important civil servants" as Heinrich Himmler continued his purge.

Moscow said shooting broke out in East Prussia and Danzig when Nazi SS Elite Guardsmen attempted to arrest army officers, and that "many SS men were killed."

The Soviet radio reported the latest victims of the purge included Dr. Hjalmar Schacht, Nazi economist, banker and minister without portfolio, and Baron Konstantin Von Neurath, a high Nazi once reported being groomed as Hitler's successor. Previous unconfirmed reports said Schacht had been arrested and possibly killed.

18,000 Gallons Of High Octane Gasoline Are Destroyed In Fire

COVINGTON, KY.—(AP)—The most fantastic and potentially most dangerous fire within memory of three veteran fire chiefs burned with unabated fury Friday on a 20-foot-square table of earth at nearby Bromley, consuming upward of 18,000 gallons of war-precious 100-octane gasoline from refinery stores of the Standard Oil Co. of Ohio.

The gasoline represented the contents of three ten-inch pipelines leading from a destroyed pump-house to huge 750,000 gallon tanks high on a hill 500 or more yards away.

When the lines drained, the fire would die, the chiefs agreed as 12 fire companies, two from Cincinnati, fought the flames.

Standard Oil officials were quoted as believing a spark from a motor in the pump-house ignited a quantity of oil or gasoline.

An initial blast flared 100 or more feet into the air and broke windows in homes and stores within hundreds of feet, but left others intact.

Ford Says Major Postwar Task To Eliminate Hatreds

By DAVID J. WILKIE
BIG BAY, MICH.—(AP)—One of the major postwar tasks, according to Henry Ford, will be to level off the far-reaching hatreds that have been created by the present world conflict.

The noted industrialist took time out from a vacation with Mrs. Ford at his summer lodge on the nearby Lake Superior shore to comment upon the progress of the war and the steps that must be taken to make it the last war.

"There can be no lasting peace where hatred exists," he said and added that "hatreds will continue as long as the causes of war are not rooted out and exposed."

"Remember that this war was not brought on by men who work for their living. It was caused by the individuals—many of them unfortunately citizens of our country—who profit from the manufacture of munitions and explosives."

"And mark this well, until these individuals are exposed, there can be no peace—only another armistice. By exposing them I mean making them so well known that every school child can identify them by name and tell their purposes."

"If another Hitler comes into power after this war it will be because the war mongers have not been ousted and want another war because this war with its terrific battles was fought solely for the benefit of the munitions makers and not for the preservation of democracy."

The United States, Ford said, "will rebound quickly from the ravages of war." "If we make full use of all our facilities, our unlimited productive capacity in the factory and the land, we not only will pull ourselves up to a standard of living better than any we have ever known, but we'll be able to do much toward helping the rest of the world attain a living level that will make life worth while."

Most Taxpayers Have Paid Bills

More than 93 per cent of county and state taxes due in Midland County for 1943 have been collected, county tax officials said Friday.

Work will start next week on making up the 1944 tax roll. The county tax rate for 1944 is expected to be set soon. Last year the rate was 80 cents for the county and 47 cents for the state. This year the state rate has been set at 55 cents.

Discount Again In 1944
Attention of taxpayers was called to the fact that the roll will be ready by October 1 and those who pay their current taxes during October will be given a three per cent discount. Those who pay in November will receive a two per cent discount, and one per cent will be given those who pay in December.

Those who wish to take advantage of the split payment plan must pay half of their current taxes by December 1. They then have until next June 30 to pay the second half, and without interest or penalty.

Army Removes Guards From Street Cars
PHILADELPHIA—(AP)—The Army removed all guards from the city's trolleys, buses, subways and elevated train Friday and announced these vehicles will operate without guards in the future, except "from 8 p.m. until morning," when guards will be assigned to each.

The latest action marked the first step toward the eventual restoration of the lines to normal operation by the Philadelphia Transportation Company following the six-day transit tie-up.

Before going to the hospital, Morris left the fire in the care of Hamilton Owens, a nephew.

Cutback In Aircraft Output Is Surprise

DALLAS—(AP)—The government's aircraft production cutback program including B-24 bombers came as "a complete surprise" says H. F. Schwedes, division manager of the Texas division of North American Aviation, Inc.

"Our plans have been based on the fact that our present contract would carry B-24 production forward at least another eight months," said Schwedes in a statement. "Changes in these plans made necessary by the government's action will be announced as soon as we are fully advised of the government's new program and have had an opportunity to study it."

"We cannot tell what this new program means in terms of individual jobs, but obviously it will be necessary to make some reduction in the working force."

Artillery Battalion In Front Line Provides Entertainment For Men

By HAL BOYLE
WITH THE AEF IN FRANCE—

(AP)—You can listen now to world news and music right in the front line during the battle lull, if you are attached to one comfort-minded artillery battalion.

It pipes the latest news, local talent, musical concerts and even the funny papers to its soldiers over the telephone lines in periods of inactivity.

Stars in this battlefield entertainment network are soldiers in a sextet headed by two brothers from Welch, W. Va.—Pfc. James P. Christian, who whang the guitar, and Pvt. Mike W. Christian, a fiddler.

The other four provide vocal accompaniment to hillbilly tunes. They are Cpl. Grady R. Lewis, Savannah, Tenn.; Pfc. Clarence Moore, Mattoon, Ill.; Pvt. Curtis F. McAdoo, Temple, Texas; and Pfc. Carl A. Byrd, Carthage, Texas.

Request Programs
The program operates strictly on a request basis. Men in the gun pits phone what they want to hear and the sextet obliges with anything from "Arkansas Traveler" to "Carroll County Blues."

Sometimes the program is interrupted by a sudden voice breaking in with "Fire mission!" Then the entertainers and audience both scramble to the guns and before long the batteries are playing a serenade on German positions.

That is the music these artillery men like best.

Cpl. Bucky Blachford of Overt, Neb., thought he was doing a good job learning French until it cost him the German bicycle the corporal used to deliver messages. Off duty, the corporal stopped to chat with some French civilians, and with a great deal of gesturing managed to convey that he'd appreciate a little cider.

The Frenchman nodded vigorously, hopped on the corporal's bike and pedaled off. A few minutes later he returned with a quart of cider which he handed to Blachford with many a profuse "merci."

Then the Frenchman hopped back on the bicycle and rode away. It was only then that the corporal realized he's been traded out of the bike.

NEW YORK—(P)—Vice President Henry A. Wallace has been assured recently by President Roosevelt that he can have an important government position if the administration is returned to office in the November elections, the New York Times says.

$100,000,000 Law Suit Is Filed

PHILADELPHIA—(P)—A stockholder of the United Corporation, one of the nation's largest holding companies, has sued J. P. Morgan and Company and 32 other defendants for $100,000,000, charging United Corporation's funds were "wrongfully wasted" in inter-company dealings. The suit was filed in the U. S. District Court for the District of Delaware by Edward R. Downing, who described himself as "a resident of Massachusetts" and holder of 2,500 shares of United's capital stock. In a bill in equity, he said he sued in his own behalf and in behalf of other stockholders "who may elect to come in and contribute to the expense of this action."

WACs Are Gaining Too Much Weight

WASHINGTON—(P)—Army chow, a WAC parade, a general's discerning eye and a survey combined to produce this edict: Fifteen minutes of physical training daily for all members of the Women's Army Corps in the military district of Washington. The reason: The survey showed that 67 out of 95 enlisted WACs gained an average of 9 1/2 pounds each since entering the service.

Capture Two Cities

(An NBC broadcast from France said Americans in this drive were attacking Chateaudun, 62 miles from Versailles and 30 miles from Orleans. Chateaudun is 52 miles east of Le Mans. The Brazzaville radio said there were reports Chartres was in Allied hands.)

Combat teams made rapid progress in the Brittany Peninsula to the rear, completing the capture of the Loire River cities of Nantes and Angers, and wiping out all resistance except at one stronghold, the citadel, in St. Malo on the north coast, thus cleaning up three of the six large centers of Nazi resistance on the Brittany rim. The large-scale encirclement that thus appeared to be in the making would be far more disastrous to the Germans' whole defense of Western Europe than simply pushing Rommel's line back to Paris and the Seine.

British Open Bridgehead

The British renewed pressure on their end of this huge maneuver by throwing a third bridgehead across the Orne River and storming to within half a mile of Thury-Harcourt, 15 miles below Caen.

Two other powerful battering rams, set up by the Canadian First Army, were driving against Rommel's gun-studded anti-tank screen — one last reported within five miles of the German stronghold city of Falaise, 21 miles south of Caen, and the other thrusting east-

The women who wouldn't sit and wait

IT ISN'T EASY to say "good-bye" to the family, and to friends, and to nice long week ends. It may not be natural for a woman to salute and stand at attention and say "Yes, sir" ... But ask any Wac if she'd change places with anyone in the world—and the answer would be "No!" For deep down inside, every Wac knows the enormous satisfaction of being truly useful at a time of critical need. The Wac spirit is a gallant spirit. The spirit of women who would rather be in the war, than sitting and waiting for it to end. The Wac pride is an honest pride. In a job well done. In being part of the Army of the U. S. You really have to hand it to the women of the WAC. ... For they symbolize everything that is America.

PLEBE

WHEN Ike arrived at West Point he was just another "Mr. Ducret," "Mr. Doowhistle," or "Mr. Doowille," names applied to unknown plebes. He found himself in a world of "sirs" where every upperclassman must be so addressed. He was put through the customary plebe catechism.

These, or a similar ritual in many changing versions, according to the time, are but specimens of what "plebe knowledge" is supposed to be.

What do plebes rank? "Sir, the Superintendent's dog, the Commandant's cat, the waiters in the Mess Hall, the Hell cats, and all the admirals in the whole blamed Navy."

What time is it? "Sir, I am deeply embarrassed and greatly humiliated that due to unforeseen circumstances over which I have no control, the inner workings and hidden mechanisms of my chronometer are in such accord with the great sidereal movement by which time is commonly reckoned, that I cannot with any degree of accuracy state the exact time, sir; but without fear of being very far off, I will state that it is so many minutes, so many seconds, and so many ticks after the Xth hour."

I do not understand! "Sir, my cranium consisting of Vermont marble, volcanic lava and African ivory, covered with a thick layer of case-hardened steel, forms an impenetrable barrier to all that seeks to impress itself upon the cashen tissues of my brain. Hence the effluent and ostentatiously effervescent phrases just now directed and reiterated for my comprehension have failed to penetrate and permeate the somniferous forces of my atrocious intelligence. In other words, I am very, very dumb and I do not understand."

of 10. His total proportional rate was 697.04 out of a maximum 840. But all the while he was absorbing the human knowledge of soldiery and warfare, contacts and relationships with his fellowmen in which he excelled.

STRONG disciplinarian that he later became, tempered by kindness and a high sense of justice and loyalty, young Ike chafed under the rigid discipline of routine.

These reactions make an interesting study in the "Skin Sheets," or "Quill Book" in the records at West Point. As a "beast," or a plebe, in 1911, we find him: "Late to target formation 7:05; absent at 8 a. m. drill formation; Sunday overalls not arranged as prescribed at retreat; late at chapel; room in disorder afternoon inspection; late at guard mounting; tarnished brasses at inspection; shelves of clothes-press dusty; chair not against table at 8 a. m. inspection."

There were other, similar demerits in later years. Simple as these "delinquencies" may seem, they are rigidly enforced in military academies. Here, for four years, youth is severely trained in rules and regulations. The slightest infraction is subject to punishment. Soldiers in the making are forged on the anvil of discipline.

Once Ike was barred from the dance hall for 30 days for dancing ragtime.

The dignity and pomp of waltzes and two-steps did not appeal to this young man from the plains of Kansas. He could do them in a most gallant manner if the occasion required, but he much preferred to whoop it up in syncopated rhythm to the beating time of stamping feet and clapping hands, advance guards of the jive and hepcats which were to follow in the next generation. His courtesy with an "Army Brat" (daughter or son of an Army officer) was Chesterfieldian, and with a "Drag" (young lady) on his arm he could compete with an English lord, but his inherent fascination was that of the breezy westerner, the spirit of the "wide open spaces."

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY

America's Card Authority At the Minocqua Lakeland Tournament at Minocqua, Wis., Larry Ball and Carroll Baymiller of Peoria, Ill., won two of the championships, the open pairs and men's pairs. Here is an interesting defensive hand that helped them win the open pair event.

East played the nine on the opening diamond lead and West continued with the jack, showing his solid sequence. East completed the echo by playing the deuce; but West knew that South also was void of diamonds now. He laid down the ace of hearts, upon which East played the deuce and figuratively "played the deuce" with South's hopes of making his contract. West now laid down the diamond ace and East ruffed with his "useless" trump trick. He thus created the setting trick in his partner's hand, as "South" could not avoid the loss of a trump trick.

Advice For Persons Hunting Gifts

TOPEKA, KAN.—(P)—Pvt. Lee Huntington, 20, of Kansas City, Kan., who was wounded in the Italian campaign and now is a patient in Winter General Hospital, gives this advice to those hunting gifts for service men:

"Anything to eat," and add: "You haven't got time to shave or play checkers in combat."

WLB Puts Severe Penalty On Plant

CLEVELAND—(P)—The regional War Labor Board Friday issued a finding for $125,000 against Lear Avia Inc. of Piqua, Ohio, largest penalty ever levied by the WLB, for institution of wage scales, vacation plans and promotion systems not authorized under the wage stabilization code.

EIGHT ARMY AIRMEN DIE IN PLANE CRASH

SCOTT FIELD, ILL.—(P)—An officer and seven enlisted men were killed when a Scott Field trainer ship crashed and burned Thursday at Ferguson, Mo. Those listed as killed include Cpl. John Sharp, 27, Big Spring, Texas.

THREE GERMANS ESCAPE

DALLAS—(P)—At large from the prisoner of war camp at Hearne, Texas, are three German prisoners who escaped Thursday, says D. R. Morley, agent in charge of the Dallas FBI office.

DETAIL FOR TODAY

Chow Language

Unless a Navy or Coast Guard man knows the CHOW LANGUAGE, and has a good forceful voice to go with it, his chances of getting anything passed to him are slim. Almost everything has a slang name. Different ships and stations have various ways of saying the same thing. However, if someone hollers, "Heave the COW GREASE," you can be sure it is the butter that is wanted. RED LEAD is catsup; DEEP SEA TURKEY is salmon; MYSTERY BALLS are meat balls; ANGEL JUICE is water; SEA DUST is salt; SWAMP SEED is rice and SEA-WEED is spinach. All in all, if you can't think of the CHOW LANGUAGE name for it, get up and go get it—it's a lot quicker!

Coming In On A Wing And A Hot Lunch

ORLANDO, FLA.—(P)—In order to provide long-range bomber crews with more than cold snack lunches, the Army Air Forces have developed small, electrically-heated food-warmers which are installed in planes.

The warmer resembles the icy-tray section of a refrigerator when opened. Prepared meals are kept piping hot while the boys do their stuff over an enemy target.

Maj. Gen. Houston Commands Army Corps

SHAEP—(P)—The United States Eighth Army Corps is operating in France under command of Maj. Gen. Troy Houston Middleton.

The Eighth is the fourth full army corps disclosed in action. Others are the Seventh, Fifth and 19th. An Army Corps consists of two or more divisions.

General Middleton commanded the 45th Infantry Division in Sicily.

 The Golden Text is: "My soul, wait thou only upon God; for my expectation is from him" (Psalms 62:5).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "The Lord is my portion, saith my soul; therefore will I hope in him" (Lamentations 3:24).
 The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "As the children of Israel were guided triumphantly through the Red Sea, the dark ebbing and flowing tides of human fear—as they were led through the wilderness, walking wearily through the great desert of human hopes, and anticipating the promised joy—so shall the spiritual idea guide all right desires in their passage from sense to Soul, from a material sense of existence to the spiritual, up to the glory prepared for them who love God" (page 566).

Yankees Drop To Fourth Place In American League

By Jack Hand

Associated Press Sports Writer Joe McCarthy's "world champions" rested in fourth place Friday, 9 1/2 games back and no longer a threat to St. Louis' bid for its first American League pennant unless the age of miracles is just around the corner.

When Denny Galehouse shut out the New Yorkers with six singles Thursday, 3-0, allowing only one man to reach second base, he drained most of the hope from the Yankee fans who had banked on a clean sweep or at least 3 out of 4 from the Brownies to put them back in the running.

Tenth Straight Victory
It was the Browns' 10th straight victory, the longest string in the league this year, topping their sensational opening spurt by one, and protected their 6 1/2-game margin on second place Boston.

Boston Beats Chicago
Boston remained hot for the weekend St. Louis series by taking a second straight from Chicago, 2-1, behind Emmett O'Neil. Both Johnson's three hits helped send Joe Haynes down for his second loss.

Detroit shouldered New York out of third place by trimming Washington in a night game, 3-2. Dizzy Trout had to travel 10 innings to beat Johnny Niggeling but he did the trick on a 5-hitter for his 18th win, tying Hal Newhouser and Tex Highson.

Cleveland Wins
Myrl Hoag's single scoring Russ Peters in the ninth gave Joe Evers his seventh victory and Cleveland a 5-4 shade over Philadelphia. Jittery Joe Berry, who relieved Luke Hamlin, was charged with the defeat.

Mort Cooper lifted the St. Louis Cards 13 1/2 games out in front of the National League with their 74th victory in 101 games by shutting out the Phils, 2-0, on Whitey Kurowski's 13th homer with Ray Sanders on base in the fourth. Red Barrett hurled the third scoreless game of the day by outpointing Bucky Walters for Boston's 2-0 margin over Cincinnati.

Tom Warren's pinch single with the bases loaded scored two winning runs in the 10th inning in Brooklyn's 6-4 victory over Chicago as the Cubs missed a chance to regain fourth when New York bowed to Pittsburgh, 10-4. Frank Colman socked two homers to help Preacher Roe coast to an easy relief win over Jack Brewer.

Rides Buzz Bomb

Mrs. Anna Reich, above, won title "Biological Phenomenon" and an Iron Cross, according to Nazis' reports, by riding inside robot bomb during early experiments. Lying in almost horizontal position, gazing through periscope, she discovered faults which defied other tests. Her nickname came because she was apparently unaffected by tremendous air pressure, but she was severely injured in her flight.

Schoolboy Teams Will Clash Friday Night In Wichita Falls

WICHITA FALLS — (AP) — The state's first football game of the season will be played here Friday night—the tenth annual all-star battle which closes the Texas High School Coaching School.

To hear the fans tell it, this is going to be a preview of the Texas-Rice game of the fall because it's Bobby Layne vs. George Walmisley. Layne is expected to be the spearhead of Texas' 1944 team with Walmisley holding the same spot for Rice.

Both Won All-State Honors
But Friday night Bobby will be playing for Highland Park High of Dallas, where he won all-state honors last season, while little George will be cavorting for Goose Creek, where he earned a similar honor. Forty-eight top footballers of the 1943 schoolboy campaign are in two camps—24 for the southern district of the Texas Interscholastic League and 24 for the upper or northern brackets. It will be their final game as schoolboys because each has finished his high school eligibility.

On the northern team is Jimmy Watson, Midland High School end.

Sports Roundup

By Hugh S. Fullerton Jr.

NEW YORK — (AP) — If the Cardinals and Browns clash in the World Series — which now seems quite likely — the attendance may be the smallest since the Red Sox-Cubs playoff at the end of the abbreviated 1918 series. That one drew only 128,483 spectators and $179,919 for six games. Sportsman's Park holds about 34,000 fans (The Browns' official high is 31,931 paid) and at that rate four games could draw only 136,000. No wonder a Cleveland player recently commented "If the Browns win and we finish fourth, we'll owe Uncle Sam 89 cents as our share of the series pool."

Week's Worst Gags
Headline: "Glass arms developed for Yanks crippled in war." . . . Now we know what happened to Joe McCarthy's pitchers. . . Pitcher Frank Wurm, discharged from the Army after serving in Italy, has joined the Dodgers. Almost any day you can expect the papers to report: "Wurm's turn."

One-Minute Sports Page
Turk Edwards of the Redskins and Walt Kiesling, who'll head the Car-Pitts coaching staff, agree that it's a lot easier to find pro football players this year than last. The reason, they say, is Army discharges. . . Lt. (jg) Larry French, former Cubs and Dodgers flinger, brings back news from the war zone that the Americans took baseball right along into Europe. . . Uncle Ed Diddle, Western Kentucky coach, argues that basketball has passed football as a major college sport and is due for another tremendous boom after the war.

No Formal Program At Jaycee Luncheon

draws County, has been completed for a 24-hour pumping potential of 120 barrels of oil, plus 17 barrels of water—believed to be drilling water.

The completion is after the section at 4,605-96 feet had been shot with 500 quarts of nitro. Total depth is 4,717 feet in lime. Pipe is cemented at 4,553 feet.

DeKalb Agricultural Association, Inc., No. 1 Mitchell, section 23, block B-10, psi survey, in Southeast Winkler County, one mile north of the initial producer in the North Monahans field, where the oil is from the Tub zone of the lower Permian, has been temporarily abandoned at a total depth of 6,500 feet in lime.

Only 6-Inch Show
A six-inch section between 6,258-68 feet, in the Tubb, had a slight bubbling show of oil and gas. That was all the petroleum signs reported.

Unofficial reports indicate that this project might be deepened at some time in the future—if developments in the area should warrant. Skelly Oil Company No. 1 Hodges, section 446, block D, John H. Gibson survey in West Central Yoakum County, was at total depth of 4,486 feet in lime and fishing for twisted-off drill-pipe.

More Oil—No Water
Top of the Brown lime—not San Andres lime—had been unofficially called at 4,100 feet over the elevation of 3,407 feet.

Running Lower
British American Oil Producing Company No. 1 McCrea, section 1, block A-48, psi survey, west outcrop to the southwest side of the Fullerton field in Northwest Andrews County, had progressed past 6,055 feet in lime and was going ahead.

This development is being watched by many operators because it has been running approximately 50 feet low on all points, as compared with the Anderson-Prichard Oil Corporation No. 1 McCrea, nearest producer, which is approximately seven-eighths of a mile northeast of the British American prospector. The Anderson-Prichard well, which was completed as a producer, had less porosity than the owners would like to have had. The 50 feet drop in the British American test might cause that well to have better porosity, some operators think.

Superior Oil Company No. 1
Wheeler, north flanker to the Wheeler-Ellenburger field in East Winkler County, was on a core from 10,715 feet in the Ellenburger.

After taking a core at 10,713-714 feet, and recovering one foot of dolomite with string oil show, a drillstem test was run at 10,655-715 feet.

The tool was open two hours. A 500-foot water blanket and a 5/8-inch choke was used. Gas came in 55 minutes. Recovery was 30 feet of free oil; 346 feet of oil and gas-cut water blanket, and 306 feet of oil and gas-cut drilling mud. No bottom or formation water has developed.

Women Convicted On Conspiracy Charge

DENVER — (AP) — Three Japanese-American sisters accused of helping two German prisoners escape from an entertainment camp were convicted by a U. S. District Court jury Friday of conspiracy to commit treason, and were acquitted of treason charges.

Judge J. Foster Symes withheld imposition of sentence, which, under the law, may not exceed two years in prison and $10,000 fine. If they had been convicted of treason the penalty could have been death.

Aided Prisoners Of War
The defendants—Mrs. Tsuruko "Toots" Wallace, 35; Mrs. Florence "Flo" Shizze Otani, 33, and Mrs. Billie Shitara Tangoshi, 31, exhibited no emotion when the verdict was read in court.

The government accused the sisters of furnishing maps, clothing and aid to Heinrich Haider and Herman August Loescher in their flight from the Trinidad, Colo., internment camp last Oct. 16.

Storm Troop Uniforms Are Seen On Broadway

NEW YORK — (AP) — Police responded quickly when informed that three men, two garbed as storm troopers and another in the green of the Wehrmacht and all wearing swastikas were seen on Broadway.

But it wasn't an invasion. The three were actors making a documentary film for the Polish Information Service.

WPB Will Assist Returning War Veterans

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The War Production Board said returning war veterans "will be aided in establishing or re-establishing themselves in the small combined service and gasoline station business," by a WPB order.

Under the order anyone can go into the business of distributing replacement parts by acquiring up to $1,000 worth of parts as an initial inventory before becoming subject to certain inventory limitations, it was explained.
