MANCHURIA HEAVILY BOMBED

Eighth Army Now 'Across The Rubicon'

ROME — (AP) — The Eighth Army has hammered across the historic Rubicon and the Allied commander in the Mediterranean expressed hope Tuesday the crossing "will lead, as with a famous commander in the past, to a decisive victory" for Allied forces in Italy.

Crossing of the little stream which Caesar made famous came after German counterattacks slowed advances both of the Fifth and Eighth Armies. The Rubicon flows into the Adriatic just north of Rimini.

The Eighth Army captured coastal Barchinone six miles north of Rimini, in a night tank and infantry attack. The Rubicon was crossed farther inland, several bridgeheads being won.

Below Bologna, the Fifth Army was driving down several valleys running in a northeasterly direction after breaking the Gothic Line. Northeast of Firenze, Americans smashed three counterattacks near Monte La Fine and were reported fighting the reinforced Germans in the streets of Moraduccio, 22 miles southwest of the Po Valley road center of Imola.

On the American right flank, British and Indian troops captured the road junction towns of Palazzo, 8 1/2 miles east of Firenze, and Marradi, 12 miles east.

In the Ligurian coastal area, heavy machinegun and mortar fire were encountered but an official report said "continued moderate advances were made by Brazilian troops of the Northern Army and the 82nd Infantry Division and other American elements."

Extensions Made To Oil Pools In Ector And Lea

By JAMES C. WATSON Oil Editor

Oil pools in North Ector County, Texas, and Central Lea County, New Mexico, are both assured quarter of a mile extensions.

Woodley Petroleum Company No. 1-B Holt, section 18, block A, psi survey, approximately 1,600 feet south of the closest producer from the middle Permian Holt zone, on the northwest side of the North Cowden field in North Ector County, had over 1,000 feet of oil in the hole from pay section topped at 5,130 feet.

With the test on a total depth of 5,132 feet, tubing had been run and preparations were being made to treat the horizon with acid and test its productive ability.

Flowed 22 BOPH

Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 1-P State, section 9-17s-36s, one-quarter of a mile south of the initial producer in the Turner west extension to the South Lovington field in Central Lea County, flowed an average of 22 barrels of oil per hour for 24 hours. It carried a dilution of three percent basic sediment and drilling water.

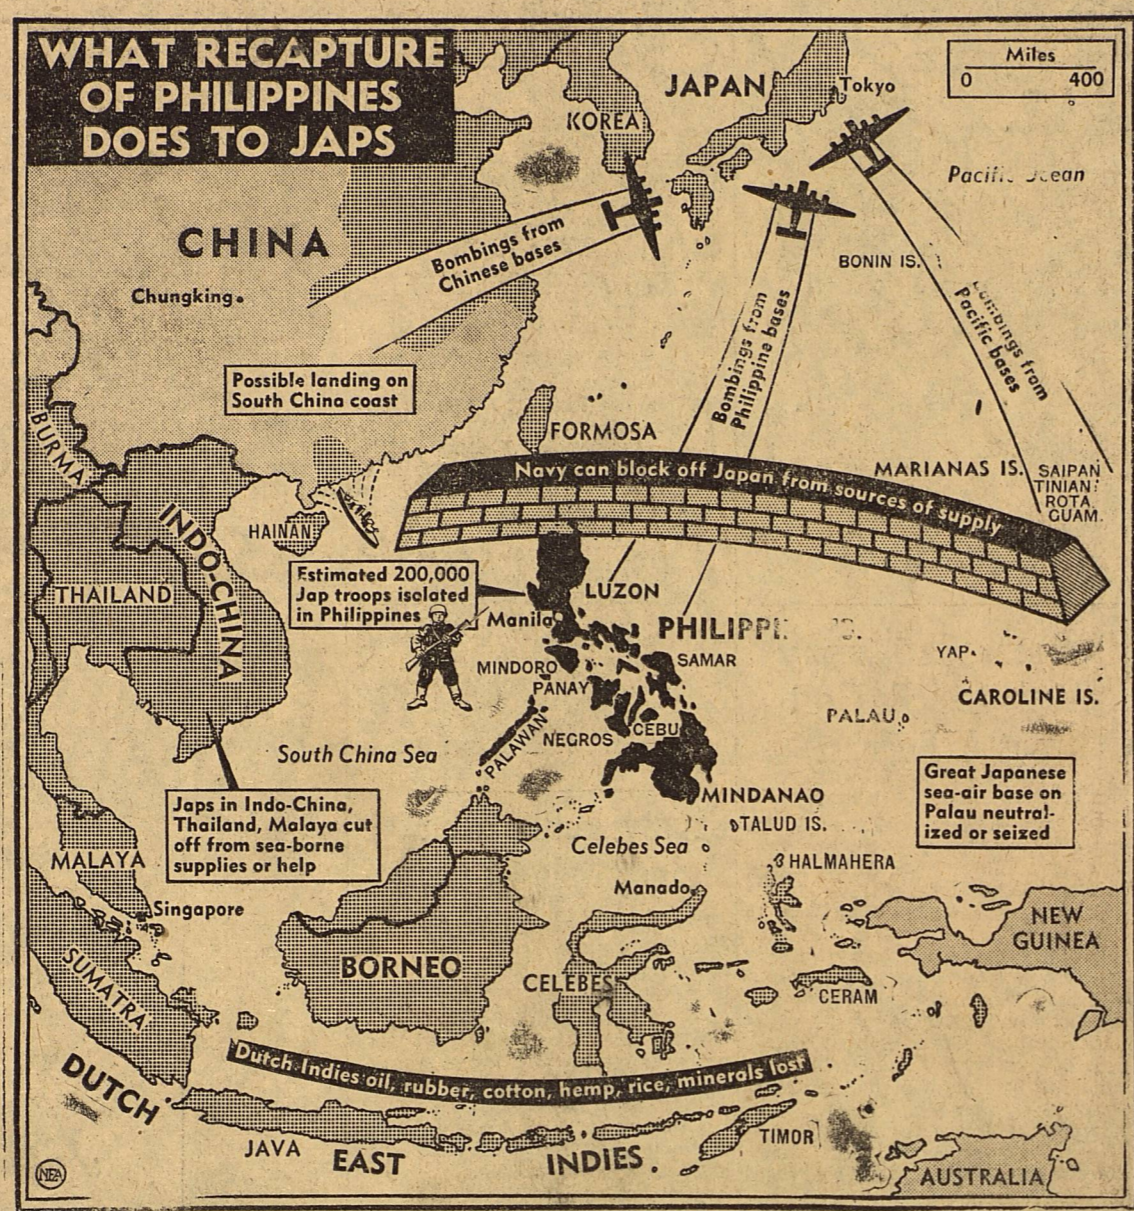

Total depth is at 5,100 feet in line. The producing string of 5 1/2-inch casing had been cemented at 4,678 feet.

Union Oil Company of California No. 1-B Mess, section 44, block 42, TP survey, T-2-S, extension made to the southeast side of the South Cowden pool in Central-East Ector, had a recovery of 210 feet of black brackish water and 630 feet of drilling mud, with no shows of oil, on a 50-minute drillstem test at 4,680-4,827 feet and is to be plugged and abandoned.

Stanford Oil & Gas Company, after cancelling former location for No. 5 Sealy-Smith, in the North Monahan area of Southeast Winkler County, has filed application with the Railroad Commission for a permit to drill No. 5 Sealy-Smith on a new site.

The location is now to be 660 feet from the north and east lines of section 52, block A. G&MMB&A survey. That puts the test 1,320 feet west and the same distance south of the discovery for Tubz zone production in the district. It is one location south of the same operator's No. 4 Sealy-Smith and the same distance west of the No. 3 Sealy-Smith. Drilling to around 6,500 feet, or pay in the lower Permian above that level, is scheduled to start by Sept. 28.

Humble No. 1 Federal-Leonard, section 12-26s-37e, Ellenburger exploration in Southeast Lea County, New Mexico, drilled 12 feet more through 11,858 feet to 11,870 feet, through line. No oil shows were reported. The hole was being continued on Page 5.

Security Silence Maintained In Latest War To Open Ruhr

Allied Planes Pour Rockets To Germans

LONDON — (AP) — Allied planes again supported hard pressed airborne troops in the Arnhem area of Holland Tuesday with rocket and machine-gun attacks on German troop concentrations, gun emplacements and other targets along the Eindhoven-Nijmegen corridor.

British Mosquitos before dawn bombed Mannheim on the Rhine opposite Ludwigshafen, which American planes worked over Monday.

Unescorted Liberators from Italian fields attacked Greek harbors for the second straight day Monday, bombing Salamis, Skaramanga and Piraeus. Following all-day attacks on troop masses and communications in Northern Italy, medium bombers struck during the night in Milan, Verona, Genoa and south of Bologna, starting many fires. The Balkan air force ripped up roads and rails in Yugoslavia, Albania and Northern Greece. Eight planes were lost in the south.

For hours Monday in the mist and low clouds, Spitfires and Typhoons provided air cover for troops beleaguered at Arnhem, fighting off more than 200 German craft which at various times attempted to strafe the British Red Devils.

Twenty-four German planes were destroyed; six Allied craft were lost.

LONDON — (AP) — Supreme Headquarters placed the security cloak of a news dim-out Tuesday over the struggle for Dutch Arnhem in the battle to open the Ruhr, but German broadcasts said British airborne troops still held out there on the north bank of the Upper Rhine.

Ten miles to the southeast, British and American forces fought through the forest approaches to Kleve, northern bastion of the Siegfried Line, in a double-headed invasion of the Reich from Holland.

(A wholly unconfirmed French broadcast said Kleve, eight miles inside Germany, had fallen.)

The Berlin radio also asserted that U. S. troops far to the south had launched a big push in the Epinal-Remiremont sector of France, apparently in prelude to an offensive against Belfort, 30 miles to the southeast. Belfort's fortresses guard the mountain gap in Southwestern Germany.

As for Holland, the enemy asserted the fierce German blows were intended to win time and delay the "final Allied assault on Germany until winter, when defense conditions would be more favorable."

At last reports parts of three or four Nazi divisions were hammering at the pocketed airborne soldiers fighting west of Arnhem—holding an Allied foot in the door to the German Ruhr, rich in war factories.

Churchill Strong Against Neutral's Harboring Nazis

LONDON — (AP) — Prime Minister Churchill reiterated Tuesday that the British Government insists German war criminals find no haven in neutral territories.

Some neutrals already have made satisfactory statements on the matter, Churchill told Commons, but he has not "noticed any particular pronouncement" from Spain in this connection. His statement about Spain was in reply to a direct question.

Cheered from all quarters of Commons as he resumed his seat following the Quebec Conference, Churchill planned a full-dress statement Thursday. A two-day debate starting then may disclose Britain's attitude on what to do with Germany after the war—a question which already has brought divided opinion in President Roosevelt's cabinet.

Churchill Asked

Churchill was asked about a statement that present machinery might leave Hitler himself untouched if he managed to escape to a neutral country. As to whether neutrals had been properly warned, he asserted caustically:

"The government are resolved to do their utmost to prevent Nazi criminals finding a refuge in neutral territories from the consequences of their crimes. It is not our intention to allow the escape of these men to be effected without exerting almost every resource which a civilized power can contemplate."

In answer to the first peace question directed at him, Churchill confined himself to the Dumbarton Oaks Conference, saying no commitments had been reached there as yet on postwar plans.

Latvia Capital Under Russian Heavy Assault

MOSCOW — (AP) — Russia's powerful northern armies hammered the final small pocket of German resistance in Estonia Tuesday and began organizing an assault on two key islands guarding the Baltic Sea approaches to Riga, the besieged capital of Latvia.

The islands—Ristin and Osel—dominate the entrances to the Gulf of Riga, to the southeast, and the Gulf of Finland, to the northeast. Lying some six miles off Estonia's West Coast, they could be bypassed indefinitely by the Russians, but as long as enemy garrisons remain there they will have a certain nuisance value.

On the west coast of the Estonian mainland, Marshal Leonid A. Govorov's Leningrad Army has now captured all important ports except Virtsu.

Heavy Gunfire Reported

Helsinki dispatches Monday night reported heavy gunfire from the Finnish Gulf and belief was expressed in that capital that the Red Fleet had moved in strength into the Baltic Sea.

The battle of Warsaw, now in its 56th day, brought no fresh news from Russian official sources, but Polish sources just back from the Vistula front line declared the Germans were being shoved back steadily.

German - Hungarian reinforcements appeared to have parried temporarily the Red Army's invasion thrust to Southeastern Hungary. No Russian advance has been mentioned there in the past 48 hours.

The Moscow communique announced advances in Southern Poland, including the capture of Bereh Gurke, three miles from the Czechoslovakian frontier. The combined Russian and Slovak forces continued to send patrols into Slovakia.

Dewey Claims New Battle Cry For GOP In Oklahoma Speech

By JACK BELL

ENROUTE WITH DEWEY — (AP) — Confident he had given the Republicans a new battle cry with an assertion the American people will vote in November to "restore integrity to the White House," Gov. Thomas E. Dewey traveled across Oklahoma Tuesday for his last two scheduled stops at Sapulpa and Tulsa on a Western campaign swing.

In a bitter, caustic reply to President Roosevelt's Saturday night speech ridiculing and mocking Republican attacks on the New Deal, the GOP standard bearer told a shouting, overflow crowd of nearly 10,000 persons in Oklahoma City's civic auditorium Monday night:

"I say the time has come to put a stop to everything that is summed up in that phrase, 'The Indispensable Man.'"

The GOP nominee's special train carried him to Sapulpa, where after a welcoming ceremony on the high school steps for Mrs. Dewey, the New York governor and his wife planned a brief visit with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Orin E. Dewey. Next stop was Tulsa for a series of conferences, after which the special was to leave for Albany, N. Y.

But all of this was anti-climax to Dewey's punching comeback in (Continued on Page 5)

Light Rain Falls; Believed General Over The County

Always welcome rain began falling in Midland Tuesday morning and by noon .09 of an inch had fallen at the city gauge, bringing total rain for the year in Midland to 11.65 inches.

This was the first rain to fall in Midland since Sept. 6, when .08 of an inch fell following the 2.02-inch downpour of Sept. 5.

Total rain for the year is now average of 11.07 inches for the first nine months of the year. Total precipitation received in September is .79 of an inch greater than the 2.3 inch 28-year average for September.

Reports gathered by the AAA office indicate light rains were falling Monday morning over most of the county. A. G. Bohannon reported light rain falling at his place in the northern part of the county. Sam Mickiff also reported a light rain falling at his place. In the southern part of the county D. W. McDonald and Dick Midkiff reported light precipitation.

While rain is always welcome for ranges and pastures, much moisture right at this time may slow up cotton gathering, County Agent I. O. Sturkie said.

Texas Regulars Form Organization In Midland County

Anti-Roosevelt Democrats of Midland County Tuesday formed an organization of Texas Regulars to wage a campaign in this county and to serve as temporary headquarters for anti-fourth termers in the Congressional district.

Hamilton E. McRae was elected chairman of the organization and John P. Butler was named treasurer. Plans for the campaign and for opening a headquarters here were discussed and funds were contributed by a number of those in attendance.

The organization will be known as Midland County Texas Regulars. T. D. Kimbrough will be chairman in Precinct No. 1 of Midland County and W. A. Yeager will head the organization in Precinct No. 5.

Indications were that another meeting will be called within a few days. Richard S. Brooks, Texas Regular elector from this district, presided at the Tuesday session.

A platform was outlined and will be submitted at the next session. The Texas Regulars will be requested to sign petitions so their names may be used for publicity purposes. They endorse unqualifiedly the Texas Regular's slate of unopposed candidates for presidential electors and oppose policies of the New Deal, and oppose the reelection of President Roosevelt for a fourth term, but support all Democratic candidates for state and local offices from constable to governor.

Pro-FDR Democrats Chart Campaign

DALLAS — (AP) — A revised State Democratic Executive Committee Tuesday charted a triple-threat course of action designed to poll 1,000,000 Texas votes for Roosevelt in Truman, raise $150,000 in Texas in the presidential drive, and give the party power to "define its own membership and control its own affairs."

Chairman Harry L. Seay of Dallas told the group here Monday in its organization meeting that "we are proud of what we have to sell, and we are going out for a million votes in the November election. We won't be satisfied until every precinct in every county is organized and solidly behind us."

State National Committeeman Myron G. Blalock of Marshall said Seay would spearhead the vote-getting phase of the program and added that a drive for approximately $150,000 was planned as the state's part in the national campaign.

RR Commission Names New Petroleum Chief

AUSTIN — (AP) — C. W. Strance, deputy supervisor for the Houston district since July, Monday was appointed chief supervisor of the oil and gas division of the State Railroad Commission succeeding J. D. Baskin.

Strance has been employed by the commission since 1942. He is a former deputy supervisor of the Palestine district.

Tokyo Announces Philippines Are Fully Refortified

Superfortresses smashed at Japan's vital war industry in Manchuria Tuesday, abruptly switching American air power blows from the Philippines to northern segment of the Nipponese Empire.

It was the third B-29 attack on the enemy's mainland arsenal in three months. Tokyo broadcasts said the target was Anshan, site of Nippon's second largest steel works, bombed by the giant China-based planes July 29 and Sept. 8.

One broadcast said interceptors of the Rising Sun were lying in wait for the Superforts, and engaged them in "heavy fighting" as they came over for two daylight attacks.

"Fully Reinforced"

Tokyo asserted its Philippines air bases, denuded by attacks of the flying arm of Adm. William F. Halsey's Third Fleet, have been "fully reinforced by newly-arrived aircraft."

Japanese propagandists, unabashed by the destruction of 906 Nipponese planes in the area in less than three weeks, described their Philippines air bases as "truly formidable." They made no further reference to their previous reports that seaborne American planes resumed their devastating attack Sunday.

A single Catalina flying boat found a Japanese seaplane tender refueling two destroyer escorts in Davao Gulf of the Southern Philippines and hit them all in a single bombing run. The resulting explosion hurled the Black Cat 300 feet into the air.

Anti-Roosevelt Democrats Get Place On Ballot

AUSTIN — (AP) — Texans will have their choice of six slates of presidential electors, including Roosevelt-voted Democrats and anti-Roosevelt Democrats officially listed as "Texas Regulars," when they go to the polls Nov. 7.

The anti-Roosevelt faction of the Democratic Party in Texas, losing control of the state convention and defeated in an effort to get its electors on the Democratic column on the ballot, filed under a new label late Monday, and the filing was accepted by Secretary of State Sidney Latham.

Delbert Downing Returns To Midland

Delbert Downing, well known Midlander who has been serving as a field director with the American Red Cross in Puerto Rico and the Guianas in South America, returned to Midland Monday night with his duty with the Red Cross completed.

Downing, widely known for his civic work and an outstanding speaker, went to Puerto Rico in July of 1943 where he served as a field director. Among his duties was the job of straightening out the different legal and personal snarls that the United States servicemen would have come back at their homes while serving overseas; the proper investigation of allotments to dependents and in many other ways acting the part of advisor for soldiers and sailors who were unable to adjust their own difficulties.

Ordered To Puerto Rico

In January of this year, he was sent to the three Guianas, where he worked until July, at which time he was ordered back to Puerto Rico with full charge of Red Cross work on the island.

While in South America he contracted an infection that soon hospitalized him. (Continued on Page 5)

Let's Pull Together

At the United Automobile Workers' convention the CIO made public a broad general program for high post-war employment. It is a sound and desirable plan which recommends expansion of the aircraft and automobile industries, modernization of railroads, construction of superhighways, slum clearance, industrial plant improvements, power and flood-control development, and extension of foreign trade.

Most of these recommendations would require private financing, and all of them demand the co-operation of labor and management. But that co-operation may be hard to achieve, if the temper of the UAW convention is any criterion.

The convention delegates were told that industry is preparing for a bitter postwar struggle with organized labor. That sweeping accusation may be true, but if it is then American businessmen are not as smart as they are cracked up to be. For any employer who can see beyond the end of his nose must know that if we are to come close to balancing our peacetime budget and still achieve the desired prosperity, we must have full employment, a high standard and the high buying power that goes with it. And you don't get those things by grinding down labor unions, even though you may not like them.

But the speeches and debate at the UAW convention made it sound as if that million-member organization, at least, was preparing to declare peacetime war on management. If a good word was said for industry or any plea made for peaceable co-operation after the war, it was not recorded in detailed reports of the proceedings.

To be sure, the convention did vote to continue the no-strike pledge, but only after bitter wrangling. But the question seemed to be weighed less on the basis of lives lost and war prolonged through work stoppage than by pleas of expediency and the fear that renouncing the pledge might play into management's hands and elect an anti-labor Congress.

Today labor is big and strong. It can afford to be both brave and responsible, as many of its leaders are now. But if organized labor feels that it has lost public support during the war, it can look to itself for the chief blame.

There have been too many strikes against a slow-moving War Labor Board, and too many for trivial causes. Surely union leaders must realize they cannot achieve the CIO postwar plan by taking a militant antagonism into the peacetime world. For their own sake and their country's they must plan to compose their not insoluble difficulties peaceably, as well as to stand up for their rights as bravely as they have done in the past.

Inflation-Deflation Jitters

Admitting he is scared of postwar inflation and deflation, Price Administrator Chester Bowles has a neat little story to illustrate how some people in the country can get what he calls an inflation psychosis, while others may be hit by the deflation jitters at the same time. It goes something like this:

Here you have two families living in two houses, side by side. In one lives a war-plant worker whose wife has also had a war job. They've saved up some money and want to build a house. Then along comes the end of the war, and these people lose their jobs. Immediately they start hoarding their money and holding back on their plans. That's deflationary.

Right next to this family there lives an insurance salesman. He and his wife want to build a house, too. But the insurance man thinks business is going to be good, and what scares him is that prices are going to be higher as soon as controls are off. He wants to build that new house now, and buy that new car now, before everything goes up. He's inflationary.

Bowles points to these two cases, right on the same street, as examples of the crazy, cockeyed economy the country is going to have as soon as the war is over. Boom it can go up, or bang it can hit the skids.

Officially, Bowles won't guess which way it's going to go, believing that the drift may change from month to month. But he realizes that a mistake by OPA on its post-war pricing policies may throw the economy one way or the other, and that's what he's hoping can be avoided.

Reportorial Instinct

One of the most interesting quotes from the latest Quebec conference came, to our mind, in the first day's story, when Roosevelt called out to Churchill, "Eleanor is here."

This was almost in the class of astronomical phenomena. Except for the trip to Monterey in 1943, the orbits of our widely traveled chief executive and his first lady have not joined in recent years.

Naturally we don't know what brought this about. But we are inclined to credit it to the journalistic instinct of Mrs. Roosevelt, a columnist. She has seen the bottoms of coal mines and the Pacific fronts. She has talked to share croppers and world leaders. She has rubbed shoulders, to say nothing of noses, with many peoples. But she never had a first-hand-reportorial idea of what is said and done at one of those Roosevelt-Churchill conferences.

Probably such a lack of coverage was just more than the natural curiosity of a newspaper woman could bear.

Humpty Dumpty's Last Stand

Discharge Of Servicemen Will See Extreme Fairness In New System

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Who gets out of the Army when Germany quits? There's no simple answer. Discharges will be given soldiers on an individual basis and not by companies or regiments or units of any kind.

And each man released will have to meet certain standards. Those standards—which are really credit ratings—give him a priority for consideration when troops are being discharged. Here are the credits:

1. Service Credit—based upon the total number of months of Army service since Sept. 16, 1940.
2. Overseas Credit—based upon the number of months served overseas.
3. Parenthood Credit—which gives credit for each dependent child under 18 years up to a limit of three children.

Result Of Opinions
The Army says this credit system is the result of opinions expressed by the soldiers themselves because: Thousands of them were interviewed here and abroad to learn how they thought discharges should be granted.

But the value of the point credits will not be announced until after the European war ends.

But even if a man had all four credits—and the highest possible number of points for each credit—it is no guarantee he would be discharged after the war with Germany.

The Army will first consider whether that individual soldier is still needed for the continuing war against Japan because of some special ability or for some other reason. If so, he would be kept in the Army.

Here's what will happen after Germany goes down: Some troops will be kept in Europe as an Occupation Army; some—from Europe and the United States—will be sent to the Pacific for the war against Japan.

Highly Involved
All of this will involve shifting troops and supplies, reorganization of some units, and a reduction in the total size of the Army. In that process some troops will be considered surplus on the basis of the credit system outlined above.

Those considered surplus will be sent to surplus pools in this country. Into those pools will go soldiers from other war theaters, such as the Pacific.

Two things should be remembered here:

1. A tremendous amount of shipping will be used in transporting troops from the European theater to the Pacific theater. So this will somewhat delay getting troops back from the war in Europe.
2. Troops in the Pacific area will be sent back to be discharged. They will be rated also according to the credit system, once the German war is over, but with this understanding:

Pacific area troops will not be sent home, no matter what their discharge credit rating, until replacements have been sent in to take their places. So, their discharge may be delayed.

And this should be remembered: Troops in this country, who have never served abroad at all, will figure in the discharge system.

For instance: their length of service and the number of children dependent upon them may be a large factor in their discharge.

But from the various pools of surplus men these soldiers-about-to-be-discharged the men will be sent to what the Army calls "separation centers."

It is from these centers, always closest to their homes, that the men will be sent home.

WPB Announces Plan For Slackening Industrial Control

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A detailed plan for dropping off industrial controls on V-Day in Europe is due to be completed and started on the rounds for government approval late this week.

War Production sources who revealed this Tuesday said it calls for removal of about 500 of the 700 WPB orders and schedules now in force.

Those remaining to protect the continued flow of supplies for the war against Japan will cover textiles, chemicals, forest products and some other war items expected to be scarce even after 40 per cent of war contracts are canceled.

From 1875 to 1886 Japan had 658 earthquakes.

Public Warning!

BEWARE OF PIN-WORMS

War-time living conditions may be the cause of spreading Pin-Worm infection. Scientific reports in many communities have shown, at least one-third of the examined children and grown-ups to be victims of Pin-Worms—often without knowing what was wrong!

Watch out for the warning signs that may mean Pin-Worms in your child or yourself: the tormenting, embarrassing itching of the rectum, the uneasy stomach, bed-wetting, nervous fidgeting, finicky appetite.

New Discovery Hailed By Doctors
After centuries of distress caused by Pin-Worms, a new and highly effective way to deal with this stubborn pest has recently been discovered. This scientific discovery, hailed by medical authorities, is a remarkable drug (gentian violet). It is the vital element in P-W, the new Pin-Worm treatment developed by the laboratories of Dr. D. Jayne & Son, America's leading specialists in worm medicines. P-W tablets are small and easy to take, and they act in a special way to destroy the creatures.

So don't take chances with Pin-Worms. At the first warning sign, ask your druggist for P-W, and follow the directions. P-W means Pin-Worm relief!

District Court And Grand Jury To Meet Monday

The fall session of district court will convene at 10 a.m. Monday with District Judge Cecil O. Collins presiding.

First week of the session will be devoted to trial of non-jury civil cases, most of which are divorce suits.

The grand jury will convene at 10 a.m. Monday and begin its deliberations. The grand jury will have a few criminal investigations to make, County Attorney Joe Mims said.

Following are those summoned to serve as grand jurors:

- George Abell, John P. Butler, H. A. Hemphill, J. C. Miles, W. A. Yeager, W. M. Conner, Leonard Proctor, W. L. Brown, J. B. Hoskins, W. R. Upham, John B. Livingston, F. B. Armstrong, A. C. Caswell, L. G. Mackey, A. E. Cameron, John Hughes, Hugh Corrigan, Allen Cowden, M. D. Cox, W. Chapell Davis.

Rijnhart Circle MEETS AT HOME OF MRS. G. H. BUTLER

The Rijnhart Circle of the First Christian Church met Monday at the home of Mrs. G. H. Butler, 933 N. Baird.

The devotional, "Keepers of the Light," was led by Joe Norman. Mrs. John E. Pickering, chairman, had charge of the business meeting, and Mrs. B. W. Reecer conducted the study entitled, "World Call."

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Other members who attended were: Misses, George Bennett, Ed Black, H. G. Bedford, W. F. Dunnan, J. S. Cordill, Charles Klapproth, W. E. Price, Ella Ragsdale, D. B. Snider, J. T. Tucker and M. Sholte.

Overseas Christmas Parcels Can Be Sent Without A Request

The mailing of Christmas packages from Midland for those in the armed forces overseas is not proceeding rapidly, N. G. Oates, acting postmaster, said Tuesday.

The light mail may be due to the fact many are not aware they can mail the Christmas packages without a request from the person overseas. One package a week until October 15 can be mailed without a request, Oates pointed out.

A daily average of about 40 packages has been mailed to date, Oates estimated. Early mailing of the packages was urged by Oates as the best assurance those overseas will receive them by Christmas.

Eviction Suits On Increase In Court

The number of eviction suits tried in justice court continues to increase, Justice of the Peace B. O. Girdley said Tuesday.

Girdley attributed cause of the large number of eviction suits being filed to the mistaken opinion held by many tenants that OPA rent control prevents tenants being evicted.

OPA rent control regulations tend to prevent hasty evictions, as do some provisions of the soldiers' and sailors' relief act, but tenants can still be evicted for proper cause, Girdley pointed out.

There has been no case tried yet in justice court where the landlord failed to obtain possession of his property, Girdley said.

The first adhesive postage stamp of Great Britain was made in 1840, and bore a portrait of young Queen Victoria.

Dumbarton Oaks Meet Lumbering Into Sixth Week Of Organization

WASHINGTON—(AP)—American officials are reported to have revised sharply their estimates of how long it will take to get a world security organization into operation. Their confidence in ultimate success remains, but they see it now as a slow-uphill job.

This is due to the amount of time required for representatives of the United States, Britain and Russia to get together on an organization blueprint in the talks at Dumbarton Oaks.

Latest word is that at least one important question—what happens if one of the big powers is accused of aggression—will have to go unanswered for the time being.

To Blacklist Pro-Nazi Firms
(One postwar agreement was disclosed Monday night in a British-United States announcement that they will continue after the war the blacklisting of firms found to have been pro-Nazi.)

If many points should remain unsolved after the imminent conclusion of the Russo-Anglo-American talks a second Dumbarton Oaks meeting might have to be held.

The present session was originally scheduled to last three weeks and has now run into its sixth.

Consequently officials no longer expect a world security system to snowball into existence. They anticipate a slow and tedious process of consultation and agreement that may mean an interim of more than a year between the ending of the war in Europe and the formation of machinery to maintain peace by permanent co-operation among the United Nations.

Now's The Time to RID YOUR LAMPS of Summer's dust!

CLEAN LAMPS GIVE MORE LIGHT!

Now that fall is here and folks are spending more time indoors, get rid of that film of summer dust on lamp bulbs and lighting fixtures so you'll get the full amount of light from your lamps.

First, disconnect the lamps, wash the bulbs and glass reflector bowls with a soapy cloth...rinse...then dry. Brush lamp shades to remove dust. You'll be agreeably surprised how much brighter your lamps are; how much it improves the appearance of the room.

Your eyes need all the help you can give them, especially during these wartime days and nights when so much depends on good eyesight. Don't handicap your eyes with too little light.

All Churches To Help In Collection Of Clothes For Europe

Sponsored by the National Council of Church Women, St. Ann's Altar Society of St. George's Catholic Church, the Ministerial Alliance, and all other church groups, the drive to collect clothing for the liberated European countries will take place in Midland Sept. 29 and 30. Representatives of these church groups will be at the Mustang Club Building, 300 W. Illinois, and St. George's Hall, 417 E. Texas, from 10 a. m. to 12 noon, and from 1 to 5 p. m., to receive and sort the contributions.

The appeal is for clean clothing and bedding in good, usable condition. Director Herbert H. Lehman, chairman of the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration, announced this month that the need for these items throughout the liberated countries is acute, and that the peoples of these nations must depend on America to clothe them this winter.

Some of the most critically-needed articles are: infants' garments, particularly knitted clothing; men's and boys' overcoats, topcoats, suits, jackets, shirts, work clothes, sweaters, underwear, robes and pajamas; women's and girls' coats, sweaters, dresses, underwear, aprons, jumpers, smocks, robes and nightwear. Bedding needs include: blankets, sheets, pillow cases, aig-hans and quilts.

Cartons and bales sent overseas will be marked to indicate that the contributions were made by religious groups of America.

This collection is just one of many activities in which the churches, parishes and synagogues of the country are participating, to bring comfort and relief to the war-torn countries of Europe.

An appeal to women

Needed Now
by Army Hospitals —
Technically trained women to serve as Wacs

LABORATORY TECHNICIANS NEEDED!

DENTAL TECHNICIANS NEEDED!

MEDICAL TECHNICIANS NEEDED!

X-RAY TECHNICIANS NEEDED!

MEDICAL STENOGRAPHERS NEEDED!

PSYCHIATRIC SOCIAL WORKERS AND ASSISTANTS NEEDED!

SURGICAL TECHNICIANS NEEDED!

In this gigantic world-wide war of liberation . . .
CASUALTIES ARE GREAT — AND WILL BE GREATER.
The flow of wounded into America is almost unceasing. Convoys of gallant men, suffering agonies of body and mind, are coming home.
We owe our lives, our freedom, to these men . . .
But above all, we owe them a fighting chance to live happily again, as they so richly deserve. Free from pain and horror.
To help give them this chance, the Army needs 22,000 technically trained women
Today, there is a great need for more trained medical technicians in U. S. Army hospitals in this country.
The wards and surgeries and laboratories are in need of qualified women technicians . . . so that the men may be sent out to staff base hospitals and outpost medical units — overseas.
As Wacs, you can replace these technicians. You can help wounded boys get well faster.

Thousands of laboratory tests must be made. Blood counts taken and analyzed. Penicillin and blood plasma prepared. The course of disease and infection watched with faithful care.
There must be more help in the surgeries. In the wards. Teaching, reconditioning. Helping broken men to regain their strength and hope.
this is your opportunity to serve
Not only to help and comfort men who have risked death and torture for you . . .
Not only to lend your infinite woman's compassion, your soothing voice, and understanding heart . . .
But to put your own fine training and knowledge to glorious use in the Army of the United States.
Here every rare and common disease is diagnosed and tended. Here Tomorrow's scientific wonders are making men well again. Here incredible New World equipment is being put to practical use.
You will work with it all. You will gain rich, on-the-job experience that cannot help but broaden your own postwar horizons.

Only those women who have helped men undertake the work of war can ever really understand what freedom means. Only they can truly share the fruits of victory — and the honor and the glory — with the men who fought war the hard, dirty, bloody way.

Gripsholm Docks At Jersey City With Wounded

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Swedish repatriation liner Gripsholm arrived at Jersey City Tuesday morning, bringing back 219 seriously sick and wounded American officers and enlisted men who have been prisoners in Germany. The State and War Departments jointly announced the arrival.

The Americans were exchanged for disabled German prisoners at Gotteberg, Sweden, early this month along with more than 1,700 British and other United Kingdom prisoner nationals.

Dewey Claims —

reply to what he described as the President's "speech of mud-slinging, ridicule and wise cracks," which the New York governor contended "plumbed the depths of demagoguery by dragging into this campaign the names of Hitler and Goebbels."

Disclaiming any intent to use such tactics, the bushy-browed Republican nominee asserted "the winning of this war and the achievement of a people's peace are too sacred to be cast off with frivolous language."

Opening a smashing attack on the President with the assertion "he has asked for it. Here it is!" Dewey said that Mr. Roosevelt had called a "malicious falsehood" the statement that he regarded himself as indispensable.

Dewey quoted Senator Harry S. Truman, the Democratic vice presidential nominee, and Mayor Frank Kelly of Chicago to the effect that the nation must re-elect the President in order to attain its own "salvation" and to assure "the very future of the peace and prosperity of the world." Dewey said he had heard no presidential repudiation of either statement. Then he added: "Let's get this straight. The man who wants to be President for 16 years is indeed indispensable. He is indispensable to Harry Hopkins, to Madam Perkins, to Harold Ickes, to a host of other political job holders.

"He is indispensable to America's leading enemy of civil liberties—the Mayor of Jersey City (Frank Hague). He is indispensable to those infamous machines, in Chicago — in the Bronx — and all others."

British say crisis

This security step was designed to keep the Germans from obtaining useful information from Allied sources in the touch-and-go battle described officially as fluid. The British press termed it a crisis.

There was no news of the British "Red Devils" who held out into their ninth day of heroic sacrifice keeping a fighting foothold north of the Neder Rhine in the wooded high ground 1,000 yards back from the north bank of the river west of Arnhem.

They were still there—that was all that was known.

Nazis Break Route

The German broke the supply corridor midway between Eindhoven and Nijmegen Monday night for the third time, keeping a five-mile stretch of the road cut for five hours before the British hurled them out.

Above Aachen, German lines suddenly opened and the Nazis herded several thousand refugees out into no-man's land and toward the American lines. These persons were described only as non-German. It was not clear why the enemy gave them up, unless it was to be rid of the burden of feeding them.

The see-saw fight for the Lorraine plain east of Nancy widened to the south. It was heavy going, but American and French troops of the Third and Seventh Armies scored gains up to several miles. Near Dieuze, 25 miles northeast of Nancy, six German tank and infantry attacks were stopped Monday.

Judge Atwell to stay the injunction which had been granted in his court.

Judge Atwell had stated in granting the temporary injunction that it was in the public interest.

Humble Oil and Refining Company asked for the injunction on the grounds that there was no labor trouble at its plant.

The government contended in its argument that there was no intention of seizing the plant and that its agencies were powerless anyway to do so.

Humble alleged that representatives of the War Labor Board and the Petroleum Administration for War had made threats of government seizure of the Ingleside property in an effort to force Humble's acceptance of a maintenance-of-membership clause in union contract.

Lt. Col. Easterling Dies In Dallas

DALLAS — (AP) — Lt. Col. Albert H. Easterling, 51 deputy adjutant general of the Eighth Service Command, died Monday night at a hospital following a heart attack Sunday.

Colonel Easterling, whose home was Ellisville, Miss., had been in the Army since World War I, and served from 1936 to 1941 in the Philippines.

Funeral services will be held Friday in Arlington National Cemetery, Washington, D. C.

Government To Retire From Building Game

AUSTIN — (AP) — The Federal Government will retire from the housing business and turn it back to private capital after the war, Marshall W. Amis of Fort Worth, regional director of Federal Housing, told delegates to the 47th Convention of the Texas Federation of Labor (AFL) here Monday.

"Postwar homes will not be planned or built by any federal agency," said Amis, "except in such cases where private capital fails to provide for every citizen the decent home which is his American birthright."

He scotched the idea that post-war houses would be constructed almost instantly of miraculous prefabricated materials. "Homes will still be built of wood and brick and stone by your labor," Amis told the convention.

Crude Oil Production Declines Slightly

TULSA, OKLA. — (AP) — United States crude oil production decreased 4,590 barrels daily in the week ended Sept. 23 to 4,737,510 barrels daily, the Oil and Gas Journal said Tuesday.

Illinois output was down 10,100 barrels daily to 194,700 barrels daily; Eastern fields, 1,800 to 70,000; Michigan, 110 to 49,990; and the Rocky Mountain area, 1,130 to 124,620.

Texans Will Cope With Newspaper Page Size General Election Ballot

AUSTIN — (AP) — Texans will cope with an eight-column newspaper-size general election ballot November 7.

Secretary of State Sidney Latham's clerical forces Tuesday prepared for certification to county state-wide offices. To these names county officials will add the names of numerous district, county and precinct candidates, making up a ballot like this:

Eight vertical columns carry these party headings in this order: Democratic, Republican, the New Texas Regulars' party, Socialist, Prohibition, America First, Independent, and a blank unheaded column for write-in votes for every office in the other columns.

Four Full Slates

The Democratic, Republican, Texas Regulars' and Prohibition columns list full slates of presidential and vice-presidential electors at the top. The Socialist and America First columns lead off with partial elector lists.

The Democratic column includes a full slate of 11 statewide government candidates in addition to a full complement of district, county and precinct candidates. This year the Republican column presents 10 state candidates (only agriculture commissioner is omitted) and several district candidates, too.

Republican congressional candidates are certified to oppose Democrats in their respective districts.

Across the bottom of the long ballot are For and Against selections on two state constitutional amendments in this order:

1. Authorizing cities and towns
2. To set up a retirement system for their employees; authorizing the legislature to set up such retirement systems. (This is a double-barreled proposition and is so worded that the voters may choose either or both or reject either or both).
2. Authorizing county commissioner courts, after a vote of the people, to reallocate county tax levies not to exceed 80 cents per $100 assessed valuation. (This means that a court could assign 30 cents of the tax to general fund, if it is wished, or otherwise juggle revenues which are now set at maximums of 15 cents for jury funds, 15 cents for roads and bridges, 25 cents for the general fund and 25 cents for permanent improvements.

Which of These Statements is Correct?

1. UNITED STATES STEEL IS OWNED BY 86,743 PEOPLE.
2. UNITED STATES STEEL IS OWNED BY 204 PEOPLE.
3. UNITED STATES STEEL IS OWNED BY 222,602 PEOPLE.

No. 1 and No. 2 are wrong. No. 3 is correct. 222,602 people own U. S. Steel. Among this army of owners is a remarkably large number of women shareholders, 97,106 of them. A good many shares are held by 1,246 charitable and educational institutions, and other large amounts of stock are owned by insurance companies for the benefit of policyholders.

You'll find owners of U. S. Steel stock at work in stores, in factories and on farms, in every one of the forty-eight states. They're the typical Americans you rub elbows with on a bus or at the movies. Their stake in U. S. Steel is a good example of American thrift.

GERMANY WILL TRY IT AGAIN

By Sigrid Schultz

Copyright, 1944, by Sigrid Schultz; Distributed by NEA Service, Inc.

As an American newspaper correspondent in Berlin from 1919 to 1941, Sigrid Schultz saw at first hand the events that led from World War I to World War II. And she saw the behind-the-scenes preparation for the coming "war-in-peace" that she warns may culminate in World War III. This is the story of Germany's plans to win the peace, plans that even now are being put into effect.

WE do know, and we should never forget, that the German militarists consider us Germany's principal enemy. Our democracy is a symbol of hope to the oppressed. As long as it survives, the nations the Germans are determined to subdue will never resign themselves to German domination.

And we must draw the logical conclusions from our knowledge, calmly but quickly. As late as the summer of 1943, German propaganda still trumpeted the belief of an appalling number of Americans and Britishers that the mistakes of the Versailles Treaty fattered the German aggressive spirit which brought about the Second World War.

Certainly the Treaty of Versailles was far from perfect. Certainly, too, the sufferings of the German people were intense. But only a small fraction of that suffering came from the terms of the treaty. A great part of it came as an aftermath of the war itself and from the German militarists' determination to bootleg Germany a new army.

But the Germans blamed us, and our peace treaty. The more sentimental of us echoed the plaint. If we had not been so unkind to the poor Germans at Versailles, we said, they would not have felt the need to rearm, they would not have fallen prey to a demagogue like Hitler.

On such lopsided, literally Jerry-built logic, we based a whole theory of war guilt, in which we were both judge and villain.

The truth is that German militarism never meant to give up the fight when the German army sued for armistice in 1918. It only went under cover to lick its wounds. Our alleged unkindness at Versailles had nothing whatever to do with Germany's dedication to another war and, should that war fail, to still another.

The truth is that in August and September of 1918, when they were privately told by General Ludendorff that defeat was imminent, Germany's cleverest, most ruthless men, the German General Staff, the top-ranking industrialists, and some of the most astute university professors, came together with a strong common purpose: to form a central, powerful and fanatic enough to make ready a new army and to sweep Germany to victory after a short armistice.

ALL around Ludendorff in that tense autumn of 1918, however, there was indescribable national confusion. The various cliques settled in a ferment; the cabinet members despairing of favorable armistice terms if the Kaiser did not withdraw; the old-time, feudally trained men among the army officers supporting the Kaiser's defiance; and the Kaiser himself swaying from one bewilderment to another as the popular discontent became too apparent to be ignored. For the people had learned that it was the Kaiser's refusal to abdicate that was keeping the longed-for peace dangling just out of their reach.

Von Hindenburg, the Kaiser and Ludendorff confer on a point of strategy in World War I. It was Ludendorff who later helped bring about the Kaiser's abdication, rallied the military clique that stabbed the German Republic in the back and paved the way for Nazism.

During all these hazardous days the industrialists, who had always actively but discreetly directed the government, kept themselves far in the background. But they were busy. All the men whom Ludendorff had tipped off as to a possible German defeat used what private pressure they could to bring about the abdication.

THE differences between the closing days of World War I and World War II are bound to be many. One of the fundamental dissimilarities lies in the persons of the heads of state. As king and emperor, the Kaiser automatically commanded the absolute loyalty of his officers, just as his forebears had commanded the loyalty of their ancestors. But, in the eyes of the master-powers of Germany, who has Hitler ever been? Just a rather vulgar little man who was useful, whose daring, whose visionary qualities and extraordinary insight emboldened him to take steps which the more respectable if equally ruthless military commanders feared to take. Further, being a commoner, he could reach the mind of the masses. Separating from the Kaiser was a hard wrench, like parting from a close family member—getting rid of Hitler, only a pleasure to many of the key men who have followed him obediently enough, but with murder in their hearts. Many as the differences must be, in circumstances and in background, the one great similarity remains the same: the reason for making the change—to despoil the victors of the fruits of victory.

When finally, in the dense morning fog of Nov. 10, the Kaiser fled, Prince Max von Baden, back in Berlin, hurriedly thrust the leadership of the state into the hands of the Social Democrat, Friedrich Ebert. With tears in his eyes, Prince Max begged him to "do whatever you can for the German Reich."

To this Ebert replied, "I have already given it two sons."

Both Ludendorff and his friends hoped that the 14-point program of President Wilson would soften the terms imposed on Germany. But they took no chances. Everything within reach that could be of use in future war, was effectively hidden: blueprints for new arms, models, materials, and molds suddenly vanished. Ludendorff himself supervised the removal of part of the general staff files from the redbrick staff building near the Victory Column. He also won the heart of his industrial friends by ordering the removal of most of the documents of the Kriegsamt, the War Office branch responsible for the manufacture of German war equipment. These files contained proof of the profiteering which had made the rich industrialists richer. Once the Kaiser had fled, Ludendorff felt he could move more freely, for the high officers on whom so much of his plan depended were no longer divided between their obedience to him and their allegiance to their king or emperor.

Postoffice Is Short On Route Carriers

Two Sizes Of Grain Bins Made Available

Two sizes of grain bins have been made available for Midland County farmers and ranchers, W. E. Pigg, chairman of the Midland County A.C.A., announced Tuesday. The bins come in 1,600 and 3,000 bushel sizes. The bins are shipped knocked down, and are not used bins. They are shipped five to the car, and their arrival may be expected about three weeks after they are ordered, Pigg said.

Those needing grain bins should place their order at the Midland County A.C.A. office. When as many as five persons have placed orders the bins will be shipped.

One of the most interesting matches in this year's Masters team-of-four contest occurred in the semi-final round, when the defending team of Howard Schenken and Edward Hynes, Jr., of New York, Pfc. John R. Crawford, Sidney Sidor and Charles H. Goren of Philadelphia competed against Mrs. B. M. Golden, Charles J. Solomon, Stanley O. Fenkel and Simon Baker of Philadelphia and E. G. Although they were out in front 1600 points at the half-way mark, the defending champions lost out in the last half by 10 points.

Today's hand, taken from that match, was the subject of a great deal of discussion. On Goren's opening lead of the ace of spades, Sidor played the nine-spot and Solomon played his singleton queen. Sidor intended the nine-spot as a suit-directing play, asking Goren to shift to a diamond. Had Goren done this, Sidor would have trumped, and the contract would have been defeated. However, Goren continued with a spade and the contract was made.

Pennant Race Tie Possibility Is Worrying League

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
President Will Harridge had the American League constitution out for an airing Tuesday, studying the rules relating to a pennant race tie as the St. Louis Browns again settled down in first place, dead-

The Bulldogs are a Midland football team with new life. This was evident in the spirited practice on the Midland gridiron Monday afternoon when the team worked out for the first time since it defeated Pampa Friday. The boys were yelling and you could hear Quarterback Yeager calling the plays all over the field.

This weekend the Bulldogs meet Austin High School at El Paso. Last season, Midland bested the Austin High team by the score of 32 to 6. This year with a stronger team and a team that has the spirit to win, despite the fact that the scouts report the Austin school has a heavy hard-fighting eleven, Midland should repeat or better the score.

Change Considered
Coach Gene McCollum has hinted a change in the team. Due to the extremely heavy duties of Bill Richards, star halfback and sparring plug of the Bulldogs, whose bullet-like passes account for a good percentage of the yardage gained by the team, will get some needed aid. For the time being, Wilber Yeager, quarterback, will assume the responsibility of calling the plays and deciding the strategy of the team.

Richards has done a bang-up job in this capacity but with the maneuvering that he has to do and the quick decisions that must be made to successfully complete his passes, the coach decided it was just too much. And it was.

Yeager is well qualified for the position and is equipped with a quick mind which is packed with football lore. His duties, while heavy, still qualify him better for cool thinking than the man in the backfield who has so many additional problems before him.

State Picture
Looking out over the Southwest teams a little we find that the Longhorns are stressing light workouts and polishing up of plays. This weekend the University of Texas meets Southwestern University. No lineups have been announced.

Coach Redman Hume, SMU, told his team Monday the North Texas Aggies were a much stronger bunch than had been anticipated. The teams will meet Saturday in Dallas.

The victorious Arkansas Razorbacks journey to Oklahoma City Friday night, to play Oklahoma A&M.

Rice, the Texas Aggies, Texas Christian and others are readying for tilts this weekend and mentors at the respective schools, are expressing optimistic predictions for the coming games.

locked with the Detroit Tigers. The rule book said a one-game playoff would determine the winner and the site of the tilt should be determined by the toss of a coin. Both Steve O'Neill and Luke Sewell were said to be polishing tip two-headed coins.

Changes were against the Browns sticking up there as a four-game series with the persistent New York Yankees follows two more games with Boston. Detroit has Washington coming in when the Tigers finally get rid of Connie Mack's troublesome A's after two more tilts. Each team had six games to play.

Browns Back
Nelson Potter put the Browns back in a tie by stopping Boston, 3-0, with two hits, singles in the third inning. Chet Laabs and Rookie Boris "Babe" Martin from Toledo, who would not be eligible for the World Series, if and when, were the hitting stars of the timely triumph.

Connie Mack continued to take a hand in the race from a seventh place position. The A's, who belted the Yanks out of the lead 10 days ago, toppled Detroit, 2-1. Monday on the four-hit chugging of lanky Russ Christopher. By the victory, Philadelphia took an 11-9 season series edge over the Bengals.

hill after Stubby Overmire complained of arm trouble, saw his four-game win streak smashed. The Yankees stuck in there, three games back, trimming Chicago, 3-1 in 12 innings and 5-4 in regulation distance behind Rookies Mel Queen and Walt Dubiel. Cleveland's "Specs" Kileman blanked Washington, 6-0, in the other American League contest.

St. Louis Cardinals scored three unearned runs to mark up win No. 102 by a 3-1 edge over Brooklyn. Buddy Kerr's leadoff homer in the ninth enabled the New York Giants to top Cincinnati, 3-2.

Pittsburgh clung to a big lead for an easy 13-8 victory over Boston in a "suspended" game from Aug. 1 but lost the regular tilt in 13 frames, 5-4. Chicago downed the Phils twice in a two-night double, 7-6 in 10 innings and 4-1.

Lord Nelson Has British Open Yen

PHILADELPHIA—(AP)—Top golfer Byron Nelson, his financial and tournament fancies turned true, wants to win the British Open before hanging up his clubs.

"I never in my fondest dreams expected to win the money I've taken on the tournament circuit this year," he said, disclosing his $40,000 War Bond prize total may reach $50,000 by the time he tees off with Uncle Sam on income tax reports.

Following a Red Cross exhibition match here with Harold (Jug) McSpaden, Nelson told interviewers: "I'm only 32 now and if I keep on playing this kind of golf, I don't see any reason why I shouldn't win the National Open again when the war ends."

Plainview Has Passing Miracle

PLAINVIEW—(AP)—Want to be a star football player? Then take up golf.

Jack (Sluggo) Williams did and not only became a champion but the pressure of tournament play made him one of the coolest, smartest footballers seen in the Plains country.

Williams, only 16 years old and with two seasons of football left in high school, runs with the ball and is a good kicker, but it's his uncanny accuracy at tossing the pigskin that keeps the enemy guessing.

No Defense
Jack, in two games this season for Plainview High, pitched 37 passes, completing 24 for 285 yards. And he hasn't had a pass intercepted, although one of Plainview's opponents, Childress, dropped to a three-man line in an effort to stop him.

The Sluggo, a tall, mild-mannered chap, didn't get his awesome moniker on the gridiron or in the boxing ring, but on the golf course. Consistent 275-yard drives brought the nickname and helped win the Plainview City Championship. He holds the course record of 30 strokes—six under par.

The 164-pound youngster came into his own in the final games of 1943, his brilliant passing almost single-handedly beating Lubbock 26-0. This season against Hollis, Okla., he completed 14 of 19 passes, and against Childress connected with 19 out of 18.

Sports Roundup
By Hugh S. Fullerton Jr.

NEW YORK—(AP)—Bill Crowley, veteran football official who will advise J. Basil Maguire in organizing the New York club of the Trans-America (Chick Meehan) League, argues that so many good football players are developed in the colleges that one pro league can't use nearly all of them.

Observation Post
The Notre Dame publicity department reports sadly that the team's first three left halfbacks average less than 168 pounds. George Tellep and Steve Nemeth 168 each, Nunzio Marino 165. Where the Irish have the advantage over some clubs is having three left halfbacks, regardless of weight.

One-Minute Sports Page
The Sleepy Hollow Golf Club turned in just $1,000 toward the fund to build a course at Halloran Hospital as a result of the Byron Nelson-Edie Deiggs vs. Jug McSpaden-Ed Dudley exhibition Saturday. . . Paul Richards, who is getting a lot of credit for the Tigers' fine pitching, was a rookie catcher with the Dodgers the same year that Van Mungo was a rookie pitcher.

Fourteen boys have turned in their scores for the qualifying round of Midland Country Club's junior golf tourney. Gaither Nowell, club pro, said Tuesday.

The tournament is being held for children of members. Only those youngsters under 16 are eligible. When this tourney is completed a city-wide junior tournament will be held.

Those who have played their qualifying rounds are: Jimmie Cornwall, Bill Erskine, Roy Kensey, Bill Hamilton, Bobbie Woods, Graham Mackey, Charles Ruckman, Fred McMurray, Jimmie Houston, John House, Bill Rhorer, Frank Ashby.

Men Will Be Asked To Aid In Scouting
More Midland men will be asked to help in promoting Boy Scout activities in the city, a meeting of Scout leaders decided Monday night at the Scharbauer Hotel private dining room.

The Scout leaders will interview a number of Midland citizens and ask their assistance in Scout activities.

A committee was appointed to take necessary steps to obtain the old school building for use as Boy Scout headquarters. Members of the committee are Ray Upham, Charles Shaw and Stanley Erskine. Plans for a Scout circus and a winter camp were discussed at the meeting.

Nazi Enslaved Labor Not In Position To Accomplish Too Much

By J. M. ROBERTS, JR.

General Eisenhower's call for action by organized cells among Hitler's enslaved foreign labor indicates his confidence that Allied Armies will soon be in Germany in force, and gives the first official intimation that we expect any real help from inside.

There is a vastly different situation among the millions of foreigners in the Reich, however, as compared with the French Maquis which enabled thousands of soldiers to devote their energies to the main effort.

By every report, Germany has kept a tight hand on her imported labor. These men and women from all over Europe have been confined only to a slightly less degree than prisoners of war. They have had little opportunity to learn the country or even to meet privately.

Organizing For V-Hour.
Out of the 8 to 12 millions, of course, there are a great number, even though a small percentage, who have nursed the fires of vengeance, sabotaged the German war effort, and organized for V-Hour. They are closely watched, and may be able to do little until Allied armies are so near that industry would be disrupted anyway, but in the aggregate the effect may be considerable.

At any rate they may be emboldened by the knowledge that their serfdom is almost over. Eisenhower's call, and Tuesday's dim-out on news from the Holland front, add to the growing feeling of several days that the big push is about on. That, too, is the meaning of repeated German counterattacks along the Westwall, whose only purpose can be an attempt to unbalance the forces we have poised for a major effort.
