Bombers Hit 310 Miles From Japan

By LEONARD MILLIMAN
Associated Press War Editor

Aleutian-based bombers swept to within 310 miles of Japan in their deepest strike at the Kurile Islands, a Tokyo broadcast reported Friday in the was of the second devastating American blow at one of Nippon's greatest gasoline production centers.

Domei News Agency said 12 Liberators attacked Kita Island in the Kuriles twice Thursday. It said two were shot down in "a fierce air battle."

Kita is a pinpoint island 90 miles closer to Tokyo than any target previously hit on the northern road to Japan. No land-based bombers except Superfortresses have been closer to Japan. The distance from the Aleutians rivals the 2,500 mile round trip flight made by Southwest Pacific Liberators hammering at Balikpapan.

Southwest Pacific bombers destroyed or damaged nine more Japanese freighters off the Philippines, Amboina and Ceram. In two days communications have announced U. S. planes and submarines accounted for 33 more Japanese ships, mostly small cargo vessels but including four warships.

Presence of a freighter and a destroyer at Iwo in the Volcano Islands indicated Japan may be reinforcing that oft-bombed garrison 750 miles south of Tokyo. Both vessels were damaged.

Adm. Chester W. Nimitz reported the invasion of Palau, east of the Philippines, cost the lives of 1,043 Japanese and 1,022 Americans. U. S. casualties total 7,408, including 6,106 wounded and 280 missing. A Japanese communique claimed 13,000 U. S. casualties.

Tokyo conceded that bombers operating from captured Peleliu airbase were continuing heavy raids on other Palau Islands.

Lion's Discovery In Ward Shows For An Oil Well

By JAMES C. WATSON
Oil Editor

Lion Oil Refining Company No. 1-B University, section 43, block 18, University survey, Ward County, indicated a new discovery for commercial production from the Delaware line.

The well was shut in for 24 hours, after pay section at 4,970-85 feet.

ANOTHER ANDREWS WILDCAT MAKES PRODUCTION SHOW

The Texas Company No. 1-L University, section 41, block 9, University survey, on the east side of the Emma pool in South-Central Andrews County, swabbed 120 barrels of oil through tubing during 15 1/2 hours from 1 p. m. Thursday to 4:30 a. m. Friday and lost the swab line.

The oil was cut with an average of five-fifths one percent basic sediment and drilling water. Production is from a perforated section in the casing at 5,310-30 feet. Plugged-back total depth is 5,238 feet. The hole had been drilled to 5,520 feet. The lower section was watery.

British Capture Port Of Rion

ROME — (AP) — British invasion troops in Greece, striking along the north shore of the Peloponnese from captured Patrai, have overwhelmed the fortified port of Rion guarding the narrow entrance to the Gulf of Corinth. Allied Headquarters announced Friday.

Enemy security battalions have surrendered at a number of other points in Greece, a communique said. Fifteen hundred prisoners were taken at Patrai alone.

Immediately after seizing Rion, seven miles up the coast from Patrai, the British turned enemy coastal guns, captured there against large numbers of small craft in which the Germans were trying to flee northward across the Gulf of Corinth. An official statement said good results were obtained in this shelling.

In Southern Albania other British units which landed 11 days ago continued to harass German communications leading to the small port of Saranda, supply base for the Corfu Island garrison.

Allied guns on several Dalmatian Islands continued shelling of the Yugoslav coast.

Spotters Club Responds To Call For United War Chest Campaign Workers

A call for more workers in Midland's United War Chest campaign issued by Chairman E. L. Miller was answered by the Spotters Club, but still more workers are needed, he said.

The Spotters, headed by Mrs. Howard Watkins, were at work Friday calling upon citizens and giving them an opportunity to contribute.

Total contributions toward Midland's quota of $19,327 neared the half-way mark Friday morning with teams reporting $8,530 in contributions. A number of contributions were from persons who had not been approached, and mailed in checks voluntarily.

Mrs. James H. Chapple, directing the campaign in the Latin-American section of the city, Miller said, is doing a splendid job. One team from the Latin-American section turned in collections Thursday made up of $25.68 in pennies, nickels and dimes. The total was small but it showed enthusiastic support of the campaign, he declared.

The work being done by Robert L. Dickey in the First National Bank Building also was praised by Miller.

"It requires a lot of time and hard work to visit all of the offices in a building the size of the First National," Miller pointed out.

W. L. Kerr has been an enthusiastic worker in the campaign, and was in Midland Thursday and expressed satisfaction at the response in the campaign. He reported the campaign is proceeding highly satisfactorily over the entire district.

The National War Fund will receive $13,077 of Midland's $19,327 quota, the Boy Scouts will receive $5,000 and the Girl Scouts $1,250.

Yanks Open Big Mass Air Blow Friday

LONDON — (AP) — A fleet of more than 1,200 American heavy bombers attacked an airplane engine plant in Berlin and numerous other industrial objectives in Germany Friday.

Strong forces of British heavy bombers dumped a profusion of two-ton bombs and more than 350,000 incendiaries Thursday night on Saarbrücken, a major rail center and arsenal in the Siegfried Line behind Metz. Enemy broadcast said it was a terror raid.

British Mosquitos before dawn gave the German capital a sample of the heavier shower of explosives rained by one larger force of the four-engined American planes in daylight.

Fly 1400 Mile Trips

About 750 long range Mustang and Thunderbolt fighters escorted the bombers on this, one of the greatest mass air blows of the war. Some planes flew 1,400 miles round trips.

Besides the aircraft engine plant in Berlin, the Flying Fortresses and Liberators bombed a tank assembly plant, a military depot and an ordnance depot.

Weather was good enough for visual bombing and first reports said results were "generally excellent."

As a railway point and advanced base, Saarbrücken now is of critical importance to the Germans. It is a focal point for mail lines from nearly every part of Germany. Army units are being outfitted there constantly.

During the night other Mosquitos kept up their spectacular training-busting and barge-sinking activities in Germany and Holland. They attacked twelve trains in the Hamm area to run their total to 146 destroyed or damaged in five nights.

Allies Battle German Troops Near Belgrade

By DANIEL DE LUCE

MOSCOW — (AP) — Russian and Yugoslav troops fought the Germans in the outskirts of Belgrade Friday and front dispatches indicated patrols had crossed to the south bank of the Danube from captured Pancevo, less than nine miles from the capital.

Marshal Tito was reported near the front and it was believed troops of his Army of National Liberation would be the first formally to enter the fortified old city of 267,000. The range of hills at whose northwest corner Belgrade is located is ideal for Red Army infiltration tactics.

Pravda said other Allied Slavic troops had reached the vicinity of Nis, 130 miles southeast of Belgrade, where the Belgrade-Alibonja-Salonika and Belgrade-Sofia railroads meet.

Battle For Hungary

In Northern Yugoslavia along the Tisza River, other Russian troops were less than 30 miles across flat Hungarian frontier country from the second largest Hungarian city, Szeged, imperilled frontally from Romania as well. The conquest of Hungary was declared in Russian newspapers to be the first priority objective of Russian strategy.

Thousands of Partisans inside Belgrade were reported armed and ready to give blow for blow in the forthcoming battle to end the reign of terror under which the Germans have held the capital for 42 months.

(Except for reporting patrol activity, Moscow communique remained silent about any action elsewhere on the Eastern Front. Berlin has reported beginning of a new Russian offensive in Western Lithuania and invasion of the Baltic island of Saare.)

American Troops Pound Out Gains Near Po Valley

ROME — (AP) — American Fifth Army troops hammered out gains up to three miles Thursday over the rain-bogged, mountainous terrain on the approach to the Po Valley. They captured the road junction of Loiano, less than 14 miles south of Bologna on the main road from Florence. Allied headquarters announced Friday.

The Nazis threw reinforcements of experienced Austrian and German Alpine troops into the central sector adjacent to the highway and unleashed fierce artillery barrages. But on both sides of the road the Allies pushed ahead against stiff resistance.

Headquarters reported the capture of Monzuno, three miles west of Triano.

Despite the weather airmen bombed and strafed rail and motor traffic north of the battle area and enemy shipping in the Adriatic.

Finns Claim Nazis Applying Pressure

STOCKHOLM — (AP) — The Germans are exerting "very strong" pressure on Tornearv, on the Finnish-Swedish border, in order to relieve the two-way threat to their forces at Kemi to the Southwest, the Finnish communique said Friday.

Swedish reports said there was severe fighting at the outskirts of Tornearv, seized by the Finns in a surprise landing nearly a week ago, and that the Germans were slowly gaining ground in an effort to recapture the port. Through it the Finns have been receiving fresh troops and supplies. German bombers attacked the port area again Thursday.

TYLER — (AP) — Arrests were expected Friday in connection with an indictment charging 18 individuals and corporations with violation of the Connally Hot Oil Act. The indictment was returned Thursday by a federal grand jury to Judge Randolph Bryant for the Eastern District of Texas.

Names were ordered withheld from the public until arrests have been made and bonds filed.

REPORTS ARE DENIED

LONDON — (AP) — First Army soldiers, jumping off to the fifth day of attack in their wedge in the Siegfried Line at Ubach, ran into a storm of heavy armored counterattacks Friday and had to fall back at two points.

The Germans, acknowledging their Siegfried defenses had been breached, threw their first sizeable armored forces with hundreds of guns and infantry into their assaults in fierce determination to block the road to the Rhine. The Americans had to fall back from Beggen-dorf, a mile east of Ubach and three-to-four miles inside Germany.

Roosevelt Says Opponents Spread Fear Propaganda

By D. HAROLD OLIVER

WASHINGTON — (AP) — President Roosevelt, saying his Republican opponents are spreading "fear propaganda" in stating his administration is plotting to give the Communists control of the government, disowned Communist support for his fourth term bid in a radio address Thursday night.

Employing such spiced phrases as "rabble rousers," "political propagandists" and "bigots," Roosevelt declared:

"I have never sought, and I do not welcome the support of any person or group committed to Communism, or Fascism, or any other foreign ideology which would undermine the American system of government or the American system of free competitive enterprise and private property."

Soviet Relations Friendly

The Democratic candidate emphasized that this "does not in the least interfere" with America's friendly relations with the Soviet Union, adding: "The kind of economy that suits the Russian people is their own affair."

He devoted a large part of his second campaign speech—designed primarily as a "get out the vote" appeal—to references to Communism in opposition speeches. He did not mention names, but said it was a "source of regret to all decent Americans that some political propagandists are dragging red herrings across the trail of this national election."

MAAF To Aid In War Chest Drive

Col. Charles H. Dowman, commanding officer, announced Friday the Midland Army Air Field is formulating a campaign to raise funds for the National War Chest drive.

"It will be our aim for every member of this command, military and civilian, to contribute to the drive, with MAAF able to report a 100 per cent participation," Colonel Dowman explained.

Although definite details have not been announced, it is anticipated that the field's campaign will fall into sub-committees for officers, enlisted men, and civilian employees. Every section of the field will be covered and each member of the command will have the opportunity to contribute his share to making the goal — 100 per cent participation.

"Midland Army Air Field will take full advantage of this opportunity to contribute to the National War Fund. We realize that it is really a privilege to do our bit for an enterprise endorsed by the President and by the Secretary of War as a necessary war effort—one that does so much for us," stated Colonel Dowman.

Statistical Interlude

Statistics were invented for the busy man. Like dehydrated food, they are the essence of bulky, space-consuming matter, condensed to a point where they can be taken at one gulp.

But statistics can also be an idle, fascinating subject. Given the leisure and inclination, one can drop these dehydrated pellets of fact in the liquid of imagination and watch them swell almost to their former substance.

We have spent part of the afternoon curled up with a cozy table of figures on marriage. These were collected at the cost of some weary leg work by Census Bureau employees who went around to license bureaus in 91 cities of 100,000 population or more and found out how business was.

Their findings boiled down to an unexpected cutback in matrimony. Marriage, while undoubtedly here to stay, didn't flourish this year. Like miniature golf, filling stations, the Brooklyn Dodgers and roadside hamburger stands, it felt the manpower and/or material shortages.

Through August of this year, as compared with the first eight months of 1943, the marriage license business was off 30,508, or 8.1 per cent, in these 91 cities. And in June, the month of brides, the drop was 14.1 per cent.

The point is, we think, that June was not the month of grooms. You will recall that the Army was approaching its required personnel about then. And it's natural that weddings and draft calls should ease off at the same time.

For in spite of the old folks' head-wagging, young people continue to hurry to get married before the groom goes to war, just as they probably have in all wars. All the talk about the great hardship and injustice that war works on separated newlyweds just can't counteract that normal, human need to have something to cling to when the world is coming down around your ears. That's why marriages boomed before the cutback started.

The Census figures also give us a little insight into various cities' characters. For a sample, Detroit issued half again as many marriage licenses as Philadelphia this year, though it has only about four-fifths as many people—proving, of course, that it takes more than a global war to stampede Philadelphians into anything.

But one nugget of dehydrated intelligence refused to expand and clarify itself: From January to August, 1944, business at the Kansas City Kan., license bureau increased 140.9 per cent over 1943, while in Kansas City, Mo., it dropped 63.1 per cent.

Fire Prevention Week

The week of October 8-14 will once again be observed nationally as Fire Prevention Week. With all eyes straining overseas, the subject of fire defenses may seem trivial and prosaic. But is it?

When 10,000 of our men die in battle, we grieve for lives lost and ache in sympathy for loved ones of the dead. Yet a comparable number of people fall victim to fire every year in our own country. At least the soldier dies for a cause. The fire victim dies needlessly.

Nor will this loss of lives (to say nothing of the loss of more than $400,000,000 in property damage last year) be stopped by a peace treaty. Unless more people assume personal responsibility for reducing fire waste, the present rate of death and destruction by fire will continue.

Each of us must make and keep his own home and place of business or employment safe from fire. Then let us do what we can to improve the safety of our neighborhoods and our communities. For those of us who have ignored this responsibility heretofore, Fire Prevention Week provides an opportunity to turn over a new leaf.

From the second core, recovery was a full 100 percent, with bottom five feet also having scattered porosity and staining.

The well had tested for from 25 to 40 barrels per day on a drillstem test at 5,355-6,450 feet.

Woodley Petroleum Company No. 1 Goggins, section 249, block D, John H. Gibson survey, in Northwest Yoakum County, cored at 5,298-5,317 feet. Recovery was 16 feet of gray to brown, crystalline dolomite, with very few traces of anhydrite.

There was slight porosity, and slight to medium oil staining, and scattered spot of bleeding oil, and a very few traces of connate water. Another core was being taken.

Wildcat For Hoekley The Texas Company is moving in material for a rotary to drill a 5,000-foot wildcat in the Slaughter formation in Central Hoekley County.

Location for the project, to be Texaco No. 1 L. Y. P. Montgomery, is 580 feet from the north and east lines of labor 19, league 70, Val Verde County School Land survey. It is about six miles north of closest production in the Slaughter pool and about the same distance west and slightly north of Level-land.

British American Oil Producing Company No. 1 McCrea, section 1, block A-48, psl survey, approximately one mile southwest of the nearest production on the southwest side of the Fullerton field in north-west Andrews County, has been officially completed for a 24-hour flowing potential of 274.96 barrels of 40.3 gravity oil.

The potential was based on results of a six-hour flowing test through a 20/64th-inch choke. The pay section at 6,877-7,043 feet had been treated with a total of 15,000 gallons of acid by stages. Gas-oil ratio was 928-1.

Shill Creek In Parrott Humble 311 and Refining Company No. 1 Parrott, section 3, EL survey, in East-Central Upton County, which has indicated a new Permian lime discovery, was coring ahead from a corrected total depth of 7,607 feet in shale and lime.

After taking a Schlumberger survey, to the then bottom of 7,611 feet, core was cut at 7,611-7,623 feet. Recovery was five feet of shale with no shows, and three feet of sandy shale, with streaks of lime, with slight shows of oil and gas.

The 7,623-foot total depth was cemented to 7,607 feet, and the current core was started. Reports in unofficial sources indicate the operator likely will run casing.

Humble No. 1 Doss, section 9, block A-24, psl survey, on a plug-back total depth of 7,250 feet, swabbed all fluid out of the hole, and was recovering about three barrels of oil hourly, with a slight increase of gas, and was continuing to swab.

Test Failed Humble No. 1 Federal-Leonard, section 12-265-376 Southeast Lea County, New Mexico, discovery for Ellensburger production, tried a drillstem test at 11,912-948 feet. The packer failed after three minutes. Recovery was 13 stands of gas-cut drilling mud, showing some oil. The hole is now being circulated and conditioned, probably for another try for a definite drillstem test.

Sun Oil Company No. 2 Gardner, outpost to recent west extension to the Means pool in North-Central Andrews County and in section 17, block A-35, psl survey, swabbed and flowed 107.64 barrels of oil in eight hours, from pay section at 4,356.6 feet to the total depth at 4,720 feet. The production was through a 24/64th-inch choke.

In the next 10 hours the yield was 109.12 barrels of oil. Testing was continuing. Casing pressure was 300 pounds.

ment by Chairman Anderson (D-NM) of the House Committee on Campaign Expenditures that 13 Republicans in Congress had recently sent free through the mails more than 3,000,000 copies of a colleague's speech requiring more than 18 tons of scarce and expensive paper and at the taxpayers' expense.

This document, Roosevelt added, "says that the red spectre of Communism is stalking our country from East to West, from North to South—the charge being that the Roosevelt administration is part of a gigantic plot to sell our democracy out to the Communists."

Another breakthrough was acknowledged by the enemy in the area north of Nancy, in the Third Army sector.

To the north, the Germans declared, more Allied parachutists had been dropped in Holland to reinforce the Allied-held western loop between the Neder Rhin and the Waal west of Arnhem and Nijmegen in Holland.

To the south, Lt. Gen. George S. Patton's infantry, sprayed with shell fire from German strongpoints on either flank, fought into their third day for Fort Driant, whose "buttoned-in" garrison battled from underground passages and trapdoor gun posts.

The Americans after a five-day fight were clinging to slim positions at the northwestern and southwestern corners of the fort near Dornot, five miles southwest of Metz, under flanking fire from other forts on both sides of the Moselle.

Another battle raged into its second day near Sivry, ten miles north of Nancy, with little change of ground. Further to the south there was no news from the Seventh Army's push for the Vosges passes and the last ten miles to Belfort.

In the north, the Canadians, behind sheets of fire from flame-throwers, burst across the Leopold Canal into the enemy pocket south of the Scheldt and won a bridgehead north of Maldegem, 40 miles west of Antwerp and nine miles east of Brugge (Bruges). The Canadians also wedged into Holland beyond Putte, 11 miles north of Antwerp. They were within six miles of cutting the only mainland road link for German gun crews and garrisons holding the islands of Zuid Beveland and Walcheren.

Heavy Toll Of Liberators Taken By Japs In Borneo

ADVANCED SOUTHWEST PACIFIC BOMBER FIELD—(AP)—Japanese Zeros and gunners took the heaviest toll of Liberators in any raid in the Southwest Pacific when the "suicide boys" of the U. S. 13th Air Force smashed the great Balikpapan oil center of Borneo Tuesday.

The Japs were eager and put up a smart defense, but the Liberators got through and bombed "hell out of Balikpapan," said First Lt. Herbert W. Woolard, Jr., of Clarksburg, W. Va., who flew his ship for seven hours on three engines.

Liberator gunners shot down 19 of 40 interceptors and probably six more.

The 13th's famous suiciders accomplished this at a price of seven Liberators lost, a dozen damaged, and many returning crewmen wounded.

"Convoyed" Zeros closed in on the Liberators ten minutes from the target and shot down the first bombers over Balikpapan. A Japanese Betty bomber picked up the approaching Liberators and went over the target ahead of them, giving the anti-aircraft crews the exact level of the attacks.

Three American pilots could do nothing about it. They had no fighter cover and lacked time to change altitude. The resultant flak was described as the heaviest ever—thicker than Rabaul, Truk or Palau, all of which these veteran heavies reduced in a remarkable record of long-range unescorted bombings.

Despite serious damage to his plane, Lieutenant Woolard tried to cover the parachuting crews of one falling Liberator from strafing Zeros. Some of the "chutes were machine-gunned. Woolard also led one hopelessly crippled plane from the target and stuck with her until the pilot signaled him to go home.

Woolard's crew compensated for the dead engine and a damaged wing by chipping out the belly turret, thus lightening the ship. They got the plane home from the 2,500-mile roundtrip with the help of Bombarrier First Lt. James B. Crossgrave, St. Joseph, La., Navigator First Lt. Raymond DuPort, San Francisco, and Co-pilot, Second Lt. Charles V. Canine, Corpus Christi, Texas.

First Nurses' Aide Class Is Capped At Graduation

Thirteen volunteer Nurses' Aides were capped Thursday night in graduation exercises for the first nurses' aide class to be trained at the MAAF Post Hospital. The exercises took place in the Crystal Ballroom of the Scharbauer Hotel, with Miss Edith Staples, executive secretary of the Taylor County Chapter of the American Red Cross as the principal speaker.

After the invocation by the Rev. Vernon Yearby, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Paul F. Osborne, chairman of the Midland Chapter of the Red Cross, presented the guests from MAAF: Col. Charles Dowman, commanding officer; Lt. Col. E. G. Benjamin, post surgeon; J. B. Green Jr., Red Cross field director; and Miss Elizabeth Kelloway, assistant to Mr. Green. Mr. Osborne then discussed the work of the Midland Chapter of the Red Cross, and read letters of commendation to the women who have contributed much of their time to the volunteer production work of sewing, making surgical dressings, and to gray lady activities at the post hospital. Thirty-four women received these letters in recognition of their outstanding work.

"Integral Part of Civilian Defense" In her talk on the history of nurses' aide work, Miss Staples pointed out that the Nurses' Aide Corps works closely with the civilian defense organization, and is, she stated, "an integral part of civilian defense."

Following her talk, Mr. Osborne presented the aides who were to be capped, with Mrs. Margaret Kohler, R. N., doing the capping, and Capt. Katherine Yount, chief nurse, MAAF, awarding the pins. Judge Elliott Barron then administered the oath of office of civilian defense.

The ceremony closed with benediction by the Rev. Patrick J. Toomey, post chaplain, MAAF. Mrs. Frank W. Miller played the professional and the National Anthem, and accompanied Merle Cornelius, who sang "America." Flowers used to decorate the stage were through the courtesy of the Midland Floral Co., and the Midland Garden Club. Mrs. W. H. Sloan is chairman of the Nurses' Aides.

THE WAR TODAY

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press War Analyst

The fierce battle raging in the Aachen sector of the Western front, where Uncle Sam's First Army has crashed through the rust of the powerful Siegfried line, is in that critical stage where a bit of good luck might tip the scales heavily towards the Allied side.

The Germans are going all-out in their defense, having flung everything they can spare into this important engagement. They fully recognize that should the Allies make a clean break-through, carrying them across the Rhine, it would be just about complete, the hangman's noose for Hitler's neck. For this reason we may be sure that General Eisenhower has his microscope on the Aachen battle ready to pour in reserves and exploit any profitable looking opening.

Still Looking
However, despite the potentialities of this battle, we mustn't assume that Eisenhower necessarily has picked it for the supreme effort which ultimately will open up the route through which the Allied armies will pour into the Reich. He will develop it if it looks good, but otherwise will strike in some more promising spot.

Nazi propaganda minister Goebbels Thursday declared that the Allies have opened an all-out offensive against Germany. That undoubtedly is true in the sense that the preliminary attacks are under way throughout the length of the 650 mile Allied line. But Eisenhower hasn't yet turned loose all the war striking power at his disposal. He is in the process of stabbing at numerous points in the Siegfried line in an effort to find the soft spots, or at least the most feasible places for development, whether they be soft or not. When he finds what he wants he will hurl a great concentration of force against it for a grand break-through. The Aachen sector might provide that spot if the present drive goes well.

Sgt. James Dublin Cited For Bravery

15TH AAF IN ITALY—Sgt. James R. Dublin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben W. Dublin, of Midland, Texas, decontamination equipment operator and armament technician now serving his tenth month in the Mediterranean theater, has been awarded the Distinguished Unit Badge and one bronze cluster as a member of a veteran B-24 Liberator bomber group which twice has been cited for outstanding performance of duty in armed conflict with the enemy.

Commanded by Col. Robert E. L. Eaton, Belleville, Ill., the group received its original gold-rimmed blue ribbon for an attack on the Pruefening aircraft factory at Regensburg, Germany, on February 25. The cluster was added for a mission over the Ploesti, Romania, oil refineries on April 5.

Sergeant Dublin, a former student at North Texas Agricultural College and employe with the Standard Oil Company of Texas, enlisted in the Army Air Forces Jan. 8, 1943.

No Official Dope On Whether Hot Or Cold

Midlanders will just have to guess as to the maximum temperature for Thursday. The thermometer recorder ran out of ink and failed to record the temperature.

It is all inked up again and started off registering at 66 degrees at 9 a. m. Friday.

The tuna fish has been timed by scientists at a speed of 44 miles an hour.

Airborne General Confers

Lt. Gen. Lewis H. Brererton, commanding general of the First Allied Airborne Army; Maj. Gen. K. N. Crawford, director of air, British War Office, and Maj. Gen. R. E. Urquhart, commander of British paratrooper forces in Holland, following the latter's return from the Holland front.

Elmer Davis Predicts Delayed War And Some Rationing Relaxations

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The failure of Allied airborne troops at Arnhem, in the opinion of OWI Director Elmer Davis, makes "more remote" the chances of victory in Europe this year.

Davis said the "Arnhem affair" had made out of date an Office of War Information report which had predicted Germany would go down "before, or not long after, the end of 1944."

He referred to the heroic 11-day struggle to hold a bridgehead across the Rhine at Arnhem, Holland, against superior forces.

"Everybody agrees," Davis told reporters Thursday, that the defeat of the heroic airborne division makes German collapse "more remote than when our report was put together" three weeks ago.

The report was not intended for publication, but it "leaked" after 8,000 copies were prepared and some 4,000 were distributed to persons in the advertising business.

Upheaval
Forecasts that 5,000,000 workers would change jobs after V-Day in Europe, and that German collapse would bring "widespread and in some quarters serious" dislocations in civilian life were made in the OWI report.

While a substantial part of the displaced workers will be absorbed in the task of re-converting industry, the survey said that "in most cases a war job will continue to be the best job for at least six months after V-E Day."

Intended to guide advertisers in planning future campaigns in behalf of the war effort, the survey said inflationary pressures would increase after V-E Day and "price controls accordingly may be continued for quite some time." The need for heavy government borrowing will continue, it was said.

Rationing Changes
On rationing, the survey gave these as probable trends following V-E Day:

Butter and sugar—probably will remain rationed.
Meats, fats, milk and cream, and better grade meats—short supplies for first six months, with rationing uncertain, but plentiful thereafter.
Processed foods, fresh fruits and vegetables—adequate supplies without rationing.

Shoes—rationing will continue; other clothing will be short of civilian need.
Gasoline—very gradual easing over several-month period.
Fuel oil—rationing next winter as well as this.
Passenger car tires—rationing terminated within three months.

Astronomy is believed to be the earliest science.

Union Squabbles Threaten Movie Industry Strike

HOLLYWOOD—(AP)—The platinum plated movie industry, which hasn't had a grade-A strike since 1937, was keeping its well-manicured fingers crossed Friday after the outbreak of a union jurisdictional squabble which, all parties agreed, could possibly tie up the whole picture making business.

The row, which flared into the open Thursday when more than 200 workers participated in a walk-out, is between two AFL groups—the Screen Set Designers Local of the Painters, Decorators and Paperhangers of America, and the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees.

At issue is jurisdiction over the set decorators, the workers responsible in part for the lavish settings in which actors and actresses emote.

May Stop Pictures
The Association of Motion Picture Producers issued a statement Thursday night declaring the work stoppage "threatens to halt entirely the making of pictures by all studios, thus throwing many thousands of employes out of work."

The walkout was called at Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, one of Hollywood's largest studios, by Herbert Sorrell, president of the conference of studio unions which claims to represent some 8,000 workers.

Sorrell said the move was taken just to prove quickly who had jurisdiction over the set decorators. A meeting of the set designers has been called for Friday, he said, and of the painters Sunday, adding it is possible that strike votes will be taken.

If these groups vote to strike, Sorrell asserted, similar ballots will be taken by the eight other unions affiliated with the conference of studio unions.

Among objects which in the past have served as money are metals, furs, sheep, skins, cattle, skulls, grains, tobacco, olive oil and salt.

Community Planning Problems Now Being Studied At Austin

AUSTIN—(AP)—Community planning, defined as "simply looking ahead" is under the scrutiny here of about 150 community leaders and university professors from over the state.

The conference, sponsored by the University of Texas, at the request of several communities, proposes to find out what is worrying the communities of Texas and how to go about solving the problems.

Walter T. Rolfe, professor of architecture at the University, listed some of the considerations for community planning as follows: land use and erosion control; population trends; tax structure and income; highway and traffic flow; transportation; public works, recreation, tourism, education, health, government revision, building code revision, industrial and war industries development, reconversion of war housing to postwar use.

Sam Rayburn Returns Home For Short Rest

DALLAS—(AP)—Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex) returns to his Bonham, Texas, home Friday for a rest before going to Washington Oct. 25 to take part in direction of the Democratic Party's Congressional campaign.

In an interview Thursday, Rayburn stated that a victory for Roosevelt will mean gains for Democrats in the House of Representatives if political trends of the administration hold up in November.

"Every time President Roosevelt has run, we have gained strength in Congress," he said.

Texas Regulars Make Plans For Large Campaign

AUSTIN—(AP)—Five regional leaders in a campaign to "restore the integrity of the Democratic Party" were named here by the executive committee of the newly organized Texas Regulars.

The committee in an all-day session emphasized they were the "Regular Texas Democrats," and planned to campaign for their electors in every precinct in the state.

Their electors names will be printed on the ballot in the Texas Regular column, and the campaign seeks to draw Democratic voters opposed to re-election of Roosevelt.

Five regional campaign managers, to work under State Manager Merritt H. Gibson, were: E. B. Germany of Dallas, Northeast; W. Bedford Brown of Fort Worth, Northwest; Wright Morrow of Houston, Southeast; John Wheeler of San Antonio, Southwest; Roy Sanderford of Belton, Central.

Lamar Fleming of Houston was named finance committee chairman; W. A. Moncrief of Fort Worth, radio committee chairman.

Statement Of Principles
A statement of principles was read to the session by Sanderford:

1. Restore to the Democratic party the integrity which has been taken away by Hillman, Browder, et al.
2. Protect honest labor unions from foreign-born racketeers who have gained control by blackmail.
3. Return state rights which have been destroyed by the Communist-controlled New Deal.
4. Restore freedom of education.
5. Restore supremacy of the white race, which has been destroyed by the Communist-controlled New Deal.
6. Restore the bill of rights instead of rule by regimentation.
7. Restore government by law instead of government by bureaus.
8. Restore the individual ap-

S/Sgt. Harold Borden Awarded Unit Citation

15TH AAF IN ITALY—S/Sgt. Harold Borden of Midland is serving with a group recently commended for outstanding performance in the European Theater of Operations. His sister, Mrs. Eddie Blacher, lives in Midland, Texas.

As a member of a heavy bombardment B-24 Liberator unit, based in Italy, which has been cited for a sensational successful operation against the rail yards at Bucharest, Romania, he is now entitled to wear the Distinguished Unit Badge.

The group received its citation for its remarkable feat in destroying 40 Nazi planes of all descriptions while achieving the destruction of the target. More than 90 planes attacked the Liberators, then unscathed, using rocket guns, cannon and machine guns, and aerial bombs in a desperate effort to halt the American bombers. The battle raged for more than an hour and a half and at its zenith the big bombers dropped their lethal load on the marshalling yards and accomplished the return trip home with a loss of only seven planes.

The unit is commanded by Col. Thomas J. Gent, Jr., of Victorville, Calif., and has participated in over 130 attacks against widespread targets in Hitler's dying empire.

Appeal for justice, instead of through a politically-appointed bureau.

The party will draw up a platform based upon those principles. Members of the platform committee are Chit C. Small of Austin, T. H. McGregor of Austin and Gibson of Longview.

E. R. Eudaly Resigns A. & M. Position

COLLEGE STATION—(AP)—E. R. Eudaly, since 1931 dairy husbandman for the Texas A. & M. College Extension Service, has resigned and will become associated with a feed mill concern in Fort Worth (Universal Mills).

Announcement of the resignation was made Thursday by James D. Prewitt, acting director of the extension service.

The board of directors of the College last Dec. 12 announced the selection of Eudaly for state extension director. The federal extension service of the U. S. Department of Agriculture failed to approve the nomination but the board and President Gibb Gleichrist continued to urge that the nomination be approved. College authorities made no other nomination.

Eudaly's resignation will be effective Oct. 31.

GERMANY WILL TRY IT AGAIN

By Sigrid Schultz

Copyright, 1944, by Sigrid Schultz; Distributed by NEA Service, Inc.

As an American newspaper correspondent in Berlin from 1919 to 1941, Sigrid Schultz saw at first hand the events that led from World War I to World War II. And she saw the behind-the-scenes preparation for the coming "war-in-peace" that she warns may culminate in World War III. This is the story of Germany's plans to win the peace, plans that even now are being put into effect.

XI
ALL through the time devoted to laying the groundwork for Nazi domination, Hitler worked tirelessly, strictly adhering to the counsel of the German scientists who were coaching him and his friends for the job designed by the secret general staff.

The Nazi cells in every factory, in every office, in every school, reported regularly to their Party superiors, working like termites to undermine the Republic. Storm Troopers organized the men for training and auxiliary Party work, while the stronger men were enrolled in the Schutz Staffeln. Training courses for future political leaders, for subleaders, for youth groups, for women, for informers, health services, cabarets, press and propaganda services, all spread the Nazi creed of German superiority to the rest of humanity and of Nazis to the rest of the Germans.

Think back to the undermining and seizure of Austria, to the weakening of unity among the small powers of the Little Entente, among the big powers of the Allies, to the fifth-column activities in France and every other country conquered by the Germans, and you will find the same pattern wherever you turn; on one side, only complacency in the guardians of the law; on the other, deceit, intrigue and calumny, terrorism and intimidation—every step accompanied by scientifically controlled propaganda campaigns, and climaxed by the thrust of a compact, carefully co-ordinated body of trained men. That was the system through which the Nazis came to dominate Germany—the Hitler system.

HOW was the Hitler system applied in foreign countries? Through many channels. There were:

- (1) Germans or hyphenated Germans living abroad who could be coerced into working for the Nazis.
- (2) Groups won to Nazi thinking by anti-Semitism.
- (3) Groups which fell for the Nazi claim that Nazism was a protection against Communism.
- (4) Groups believing they could gain bigger profits by co-operating with the Germans.
- (5) Occupational groups hoping for success through Nazism. In Germany, Nazi decrees gave the state precedence over the individual. Abroad, they reversed the propaganda. A mouthpiece in each group complained about the way the government sabotaged their professional interests. If they would co-operate with some (camouflaged) Nazi group, it would find means of compelling the local state to favor them.
- (6) The World War I veterans, in all countries of the world. The veterans wanted no more wars; they wanted a lasting peace. At their conventions in the important European cities, they fraternized, and they rejoiced when friendly Germans assured them that Hitler's monumental architectural projects would take several generations to complete. If one went to the trouble of pointing out indications of imminent Nazi aggressions, many of them would burst out, "But the Nazis all say they love peace."

THE bulky files of inside information procured by Nazi agents cannot all be destroyed by British, American and Russian bombs. The agents can't all be killed in action. Hitler surely has more than one set of files and one set of spies. Once you start with agents and agitators, you have to have others to check on them, and ultimately a whole network of secret services. The Nazi plan has been carried out or furthered abroad by:

- (1) Organizations of Germans living abroad and affiliated local German clubs; colonial associations.
- (2) Official German diplomatic representatives, consuls, military, air and naval attaches.
- (3) Nazi Party representatives among the diplomats.
- (4) Gestapo agents masquerading as factory foremen, machinists, bridge-tenders, postmen, air-raid wardens, and the like.
- (5) The local equivalents of the former National Socialist clubs, under various aliases.
- (6) The German military espionage service under Colonel Nicolai.
- (7) The commercial espionage service of German big industry, making use of their American connections in cartels, trusts, agreements to exchange news.
- (8) This service acts to restrict foreign production and create trouble.
- (9) So-called patriotic associations with pro-Nazi backers.
- (10) Perverts and criminal elements which must obey the Nazis or risk exposure—the blackmail guard.
- (11) The Kultur groups, barefoot dancers, musicians, singers, so-called discussion clubs, professors, and students who think they are being brave and unshakable by espousing Nazi theories.
- (12) Anti-Semitic associations and their pro-Nazi, pro-Fascist collaborators.

Dead Desperado Said To Be Escapee From Texas State Prison

SALT LAKE CITY—(P)—A desperado who was killed Sunday in a gun battle with a posse in the foothills of the Pine Valley mountains near Leeds, Utah, has been identified by a G-man as Joe Lewis, a fugitive from the Texas State Prison at Huntsville.

Newman said the fugitive had more than $2,000 in currency on his person and was believed to have robbed a Prairie City, Oreg., bank before fleeing to the Utah badlands.

A native of New Jersey, Lewis previously escaped from the Texas Prison July 2, 1943, and from the Ohio State prison farm at London, Ohio, Newman stated.

By JACK LIVELY

This weekend we will start off by picking Midland to come through in the final three quarters and win over Plainview by a touchdown. We are keeping not only a finger crossed, but all fingers crossed on this prediction.

A look at the Plainview line-up reveals that the average weight for the team which will start is 160 and 4/11 pounds as compared with an average weight for Midland of 156 and 6/11 pounds per man. This means Plainview has an edge of almost four pounds per man on the Bulldogs. The Plainview team's heaviest man is Farris, backfield man at 168 pounds as compared with Midland's Hale, also a back, at 170. The water weights on the first strings are Yeager, at quarterback for Midland, at 130, and Plainview's Guard May, at 145.

Friday night will tell the story when the two teams, both undefeated, meet with a mighty crash at the Midland High School Stadium. The game is called at 8:30 p.m.

After last week's upsets we are a little slow in attempting to pick the winning college teams for the weekend but now with a lot of outside assistance we lay before you the following, but save enough to pay the income tax:

Texas Christian vs. Arkansas—Looks like the Frogs but could be the Hogs; TCU by two touchdowns.

Rice vs. Louisiana State—Doubt it Rice can bounce back from a 59-0 defeat this quick; LSU by a touchdown.

Texas vs. Randolph Field—Won't be as bad as Rice, but Randolph field by four touchdowns.

Southern Methodist vs. Southwestern—SMU should beat Southwestern as much as Texas; the Mustangs by three touchdowns, but Southwestern will score.

Texas A&M vs. Oklahoma—A tight fight for the whizz kids, but the Aggies by a touchdown.

Further Out

Iowa-Ohio State—Our bucks are on the old hometown Bucks; Ohio.

Tulane-Notre Dame—Maybe someone will stop Bob Kelly and the rest of the Irish, but not this week. Notre Dame.

Duke-North Carolina Navy—The Blue Devils on the rebound after Saturday's upset by Penn. Duke.

Iowa State-Baylor—Second Air Force—Our neck is out, but we'll take the Air Force to make it six straight wins.

Tennessee-Mississippi—The Vols comfortably, Tennessee.

Dartmouth-Pennsylvania—Those Penn freshmen backs and that 202-pound line look good, but Dartmouth gets the nod—a hesitant one.

Cornell-Yale—Impressive against Syracuse and Bucknell; Carl Snavely's boys look like winners. Cornell.

Washington-Willamette—Washington beat Willamette 71 to 0 in the opening game, so you guess this one.

Kansas at Tulsa—It's no guess. Tulsa.

Great Lakes-Northwestern—Lt. Paul Brown, Great Lakes coach, didn't like that tie with Illinois, so we'll take—Great Lakes.

Marquette-Wisconsin—The Badgers, looking forward to that Oct. 14 date with Ohio State, won't show too much—but it will be enough. Wisconsin.

Michigan-Minnesota—A toss-up, but we'll string along with Minnesota on her home lot.

Purdue-Illinois—You can't discount that tie with Great Lakes, so it's Illinois.

Wake Forest-Madryland—No hesitation—Wake Forest.

Brown-Army—The power-plus Cadets on the march. Army.

California-Southern California—By a shade—California.

Southwest Conference Games See TCU And Razorbacks Matched

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

One up in intersectional play, the Southwest Conference sends two members against outside opponents Saturday with an excellent chance of remaining ahead, but most of the interest centers on games of stay-at-homes Texas Christian against Arkansas and Texas against Randolph Field.

The T. C. U.-Arkansas contest means the most, as it is the start of title warfare, but the Randolph Field-Texas game carries great importance inasmuch as it will give a true line on the relative strength of Texas and Rice, and will show whether the Longhorns should be title favorites.

There are quite a few who think Texas has been misplaced in the No. 1 ranking, that the Orange and White has that edge, but won't be able to score enough to beat out such offensive units as Southern Methodist, Texas Christian and Texas A&M. Well, the Texas defense will get its greatest test this week and it now appears that the Longhorns will have to rely on a ground game that's been advertised as less than potent. Bobby Layne, whose passing has been the chief offensive weapon of the Longhorns, probably won't even get to play due to injuries.

Arkansas has more veterans and greatly outweighs Texas Christian, but the Razorbacks don't appear to have much scoring punch and for the first time in years have a very mediocre aerial attack. T.C.U. has the offense, mostly in the air, with not one but three strong passers. Randolph Field is an overwhelming favorite to beat Texas handily but not by such a margin as the 59-0 decision hung on Rice last week.

Southern Methodist will be playing at Dallas while the two other conference members, Rice and Texas A&M, tackle intersectional opponents. Rice battles high-scoring Louisiana State at Houston, while A&M engages Oklahoma at Oklahoma City in a night game. The Aggies appear to have the best chance of winning.

The Bible contains 3,586,489 letters, 773,692 words, 31,173 verses, 1,189 chapters and 66 books, according to calculations of a convict serving a long term in solitary confinement.

Humble Oil Will Broadcast Games

The Humble Oil & Refining Company will keep the air-lanes busy Saturday with five football broadcasts scheduled during the afternoon and evening.

The day's proceedings will start with the first conference game of the season, the T.C.U.-Arkansas tilt, at 2:30 p.m. over stations KTSA, San Antonio and KGKO, Dallas-Ft. Worth.

Another game of wide interest starts at 2:30 p.m.—the Texas University-Randolph Field affair. Stations airing it include WOAI, San Antonio and WFAA, Dallas-Ft. Worth.

At 2:50 p.m. fans can tune into stations KREL, Dallas to hear the S.M.U.-Southwestern game.

At 3:20 p.m. KTRH, Houston, will start the Rice-L. S. U. broadcast.

At 7:50 p.m. Saturday night the game between Texas A. & M. and Oklahoma University, goes on stations WOAI, San Antonio and WFAA, Dallas-Ft. Worth.

Rice-LSU Saturday Game Promises Thrills

Bulldogs vs Bulldogs

Plainview's Passing Marvel, Jack 'Slugger' Williams, To Be Midland's Greatest Worry

Friday night at 8:30 o'clock it will be Bulldogs pitted against Bulldogs at the Midland High School stadium when the undefeated and mentioned for district champions Plainview team meets Midland in Midland's first 1944 home game. The stands which have only a capacity of approximately 4,300, are almost sold out, indicating the interest that Midlanders have in their undefeated football team.

Coach Gene McCollum indicated Friday his team was in good shape with the exception of Bobby Hyatt, end, who has been confined to his home with a cold for the last few days but who returned to school Friday. The coach said Bert Conly may start in the place of Hyatt, but as for the rest of the team, they are "rarin' to go."

Plainview has, according to information received from there, the strongest team in years with a triple threat backfield featuring Jack "Slugger" Williams, 16-year-old magic passer whose bullet-like passes accounted for the majority of the gain that the Plainview Bulldogs have made this year. And Plainview has made plenty of gain.

Three-Man Line
He is the player that forced Childress to drop to a three-man line, which didn't do any good, as Plainview took them anyway.

The Midland team has been working out a defense against this super-passer and it is possible that it will be able to hold him, in spite of the fact he has completed an average

Sports ★ Roundup

By Hugh S. Fullerton Jr.

NEW YORK — (AP) — Clear dope from the Big Muddy: . . . You couldn't blame Mort Cooper much for being discouraged about the lack of runs in October—for his side. . . . Big Mort has started four World Series games and only once have the Cards given him any runs. . . . They were blanked for the eight innings he pitched in the 1942 Series opener, shutout again in last year's finale and didn't score Wednesday until Cooper had left at the end of the seventh. . . . Service men will get plenty of information on the World Series besides what they hear in the broadcasts. Sgt. Charles Kiley is there for Stars and Stripes in London and Paris; Sgts. Boy Myers and Bob Broeg for Leatherneck, the Marine paper; and Sgt. John Derr for the C.B.I. "Roundup." . . . Southwestern scribes report there's a boom in Oklahoma for a football game between Tulsa U. and the Norman Navy Zoomers, who have Len Eshmont, Emil Sitko and a few other good ones.

WHO SAID SHORTAGE?
When Macomb, Ill., High School authorities decided they needed a new athletic field this year, the lack of manpower, equipment and materials apparently had them stopped. . . . But someone remembered that 18 miles away at Camp Ellis, a practical training program was being outlined for some Army engineers. . . . The Army and Civilians got together and concluded that the engineers could get two weeks of good training by providing Macomb with a field that will include facilities for night football, baseball and track.

CLEANING THE CUFF
Madison Square Garden has just declared a dividend of 25 cents a share—or about what some of those summer fights were worth. . . . After seeing 15 of his Bainbridge Navy footballer transferred in ten days, Coach Lt. Joe Maniaci threatened to change his team's name from "Commodores" to the "Expendables."

of better than 66 per cent of his throws.
Midland has, and it won't come too far from balancing the scales, Bill Richards, who is by no means a second ball hurler himself. Richards, while the actual record is unavailable, has completed a high percentage of the passes he threw and his passing has improved during recent practice sessions.
Plainview High undoubtedly has a strong team and if the Midland eleven does win the game Friday night, then Midland itself will be a long way toward a district championship with three wins behind them and one of them the mighty Plainview Bulldogs.

Card Freshman Opposes Vet Jack Kramer, For Browns In Effort To Untie World Series

By JACK HAND

ST. LOUIS — (AP) — Encouraged by the phenomenal blitzing of young Sylvester "Blix" Donnelly, Manager Billy Southworth of the Cardinals put the finger on another freshman righthander Friday when he named Teddy Wilks to oppose 26-year-old Jack Kramer of the Browns in the third game of the World Series that is knotted at one game each.

Billy the Kid gambled heavily Thursday and won on Donnelly, a minor league no-hit maestro who had a mediocre 2-1 victory record all season. It was the four relief innings the Olivia, Minn., rookie threw and a cat-like play in the last inning that were largely responsible for the Redbirds' 3-2 triumph in the 11-frame nerve-wringer before 35,076.

After the first two games in which Mort Cooper was beaten and Max Lanier failed to hold a two-run lead, Southworth appeared to be going all-out for youth—and the record books backed him up on Wilks. The Fulton, N. Y., farm system grad overshadowed most of the 1944 newcomers with a 17-4 win record that included a streak of 11 straight. Three of his losses came in the midst of the Birds' September slump.

Cards Looking Up
On the strength of Wilks' past performance chart and evidence that the Cards were beginning to look more like their mid-summer selves, the National were re-established as favorites 9 to 20 in the series and 3 to 5 for Friday's game. Fair weather and continued 80-degree temperature were predicted.

Kramer, a former Seabee who was out of the game all of 1942 and most of last year, finished his first complete big league campaign with a 17-13 mark, sweeping his last four outings in the heat of the race and winding up with a 4-1 victory over the Yankees a week ago.

It was the Browns' turn to be the home club Friday and for the next two days, with the series now certain to run through Sunday. With half of the four games in which the players share already gone, it appeared the "player pool" would finally reach approximately $360,000, the lowest since St. Louis downed Detroit 10 years ago. Forty per cent of the receipts Friday and Saturday go to the War Relief fund.

Fans will long remember Thursday's thriller and it will provide fuel for many hot stove league sessions, when the Brownie defense cracked wide open in the third and fourth innings, it looked like "no contest" but Vern Stephens' over-the-head catch on White Kurovski's foul line fly to start an eighth inning double play was out of this world.

O'Dea Actually Won Game
Ken O'Dea actually won the game for the National Leaguers from Reliever Bob Muncieff with his pinch single to right in the 11th scoring Ray Sanders, who had singled and been bunted over to second by Kurovski, but you never would know it Friday. Mr. Donnelly, a 29-year-oldster who was making his second Series appearance in as many days, was the No. 1 attraction.

Before Donnelly came on the scene, the Cards had hopped into the lead in the third when Pitcher Nels Potter fumbled Max Lanier's pop bunt and threw wild past first for two errors after Verban had singled. That set the stage for Verban's score on Angie Bergman's infield out. Again in the fourth, the Redbirds rang the bell when they loaded the bases on Ray Sanders' walk, Kurovski's single and an error by Mark Christman on Marty Marion's hopper. Sander's came in on Verban's fly to Chet Laabs.

Lanier had allowed only Gene Moore's fifth inning infield single until the seventh, when the Browns tied it up. Frank Mancuso's pinch single scored Red Hayworth after the carrot-topped catcher had converted Moore's second one-bagger with a double that hit the top of the left field wall.

Donnelly replaced Lanier after Mike Kreevich opened the eighth with a double, and he struck out the side, picked up another victim in the ninth, two in the tenth and made it seven by whiffing Hayworth to end the game. George McQuinn had opened the Brown 11th with a double but was cut down at third when Donnelly hopped on Christman's bunt and hustled a throw to Kurovski, nipping the opening game hero in a photo-finish. That meant the ball game, as the next man, Moore, filed to deep right.

Scott-Marshall Winner Will Fight Lou Nova
GALVESTON — (AP) — The winner of the Buddy Scott-Jack Marshall Texas Heavyweight Championship fight here next Tuesday night will meet Lou Nova. Matchmaker Frankie Edwards said Friday.

Edwards announced he had signed Nova to appear this month in Galveston against any opponent the matchmaker chooses. He said it would be the Scott-Marshall winner.

Most Sportswriters Crawled Far Out On Proverbial Limb On St. Louis

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor
ST. LOUIS—Baseball writers gave up on the Browns in no time at all when they hit the skids in mid-August in Philadelphia—of all places—and finally blew a six-and-a-half game lead.

Despite the fact that they remained in the thick of one of the more exciting finishes, the Browns were virtually a forgotten team until the part-time worker Chet Laabs and Newhouse, the greatest one-two pitching punch in history. You would have thought that the Marx brothers were pitching for the Browns, who were getting the most consistent pitching of all, and from four pitchers—Nelson Potter, Jack Kramer, Denny Galehouse and Jack Jayvukl—not two.

The writers suddenly discovered that Steve O'Neill was a remarkable manager, wrote about old experiences with him. One yarn had to do with Black Steve's bird dogs. But when the Browns cried for leadership they got it from Luke Sewell. There was an exceptionally bad afternoon in Chicago. The as currency.

Browns ran bases like the Perth Amboy firemen. They couldn't field bunts.
That night Manager Sewell called the squad together and the Browns talked things over. Sewell stressed their advantages, especially in pitching numbers. He restored confidence.
The Browns lost a tough one at Comiskey Park the following night, 2-1 in 14 rounds, but all the bad baseball was out of their system.
Leaders Respect Browns
The baseball writers might have been fooled on the Browns, but managers were not.
When the Browns took three out of four on the occasion of their last visit in Yankee Stadium, Joe McCarthy stressed that they came closest in the American League to being a pre-war club.
