Peace Plan Is Presented

FDR Forsees Chance Of Plan Working

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A detailed but incomplete plan for maintaining peace by force was presented to the world Monday by the United States, Britain, China and Russia, and President Roosevelt asserted the task of designing the future security of the world "has been well begun."

The organization of the world to preserve peace and security, Mr. Roosevelt said in a statement, represents "a major objective for which this war is being fought, and as such, it inspires the highest hopes of the millions of fathers and mothers whose sons and daughters are engaged in the terrible struggle and suffering of war."

The security organization calls for converting the war-born United Nations into a permanent peace organization backed by powerful armed forces, including special air detachments capable of lightning blows against future aggressors.

Announcement of its tentative details came as United Nations diplomats foresaw the possibility of an early four-power meeting "at the highest level" to tighten war-end relations and to complete the security organization's blueprint.

General Assembly

As now drawn, it would consist of a general assembly of all "peace loving states," a security council of 11 nations which would have final authority on all uses of force; an economic and social council to work out the world's economic ills, and an international court of justice.

The general assembly, the security council, and the economic and social council each would have a president but the greatest prestige obviously would attach to the presidency of the security council, whose members would include permanently the "big four" and, "in due course," France.

Forces to back up the decisions of the council, when peaceful methods failed, would be made available "on its call" by member nations of the organization. The air force details—

'Free China Day' Set By Gov. Dewey

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Calling for an "ever-greater degree of aid to China," Gov. Thomas E. Dewey Monday projected his presidential campaign definitely into the arena of international affairs.

The New York governor, returning from West Virginia, where he spoke Saturday night, proclaimed Tuesday as "Free China Day," after demanding more public information about Poland's postwar future.

Published reports that Dewey would like to retain Secretary of State Hull in at least an advisory capacity on international affairs if elected this November brought no confirmation from the Republican nominee or his campaign managers. They termed it "purely speculative."

Dewey Sunday remarked:

"We would like to know more about the results of the private deliberations of those who now discuss Poland's future in secret."

This was a brief broadcast saluting Poland's hero of the American Revolution, General Casimir Pulaski, during a Polish-American parade on New York's Fifth Avenue.

Dewey turned quickly from Nazi-battered Poland to Japanese-mauled China with this proclamation:

"It is our obligation to our Chinese ally, to the speediest possible defeat of Japan and to a strong and lasting peace after victory, to speed an ever greater degree of aid to China as soon as possible."

Marcus Island Under Pacific Naval Gunfire

By LEONARD MILLMAN
Associated Press War Editor

A strong U. S. battle force stood off Japan's tiny Marcus Island all day Sunday and with "deliberate and destructive gunfire" silenced "the greater part of the coast defense batteries."

Neither Admiral Chester W. Nimitz' surprise announcement early Monday morning or a previous report by Tokyo made mention of planes attacking or defending the outpost island 1,135 miles southeast of Tokyo.

Chore defenses and installations were heavily damaged by the bombardment, which Tokyo said included the 16-inch guns of U. S. battleships. The attack was carried out by units of Admiral William F. Halsey's Third Fleet, which has been pounding the Philippines and the Falou Island.

Nazis Say Koror Raided

The German Transoceanic News Agency said that over the week-end about 1,000 American planes raided Koror, administrative center of rounded islands situated in the heart of Falou.

In the conquest of nine Southern Palau Islands, Marines and soldiers killed 12,233 Japanese and captured 225 since they first landed Sept. 15.

Admiral Nimitz announced Sunday night that ground troops advancing behind Corsair planes dropping 1,000-pound bombs made small gains against the only remaining pocket of Japanese on Peleliu, largest of the conquered islands.

Bombers patrolling sea lanes south of the Philippines sank or damaged 25 Japanese coastal vessels and small craft, hit seaplanes at Zamboanga, and lashed again at the vital Balikpapan oil center on Borneo.

Nazis Claim B-29 Coup

Tokyo claimed a surprise Japanese raid on the Superfortress base at Chengtu in Northwest China destroyed 44 American planes, including 23 B-29's Tokyo said the attack was made through adverse

10,000 Plane Storm Cloud Blasts Reich

LONDON—(AP)—Close to 10,000 Allied planes hammered Germany and Holland over the weekend in the greatest 24-hour assault in the history of aerial warfare and only unfavorable weather across Holland and France kept the number from being much greater.

While the heavy bombers, which had their biggest day of the war Saturday, were grounded Sunday, American and British tactical fleets based on the continent flew more than 1,500 sorties in support of the ground armies.

Ninth Air Force fighter-bombers, roaming the length of the Western Front, were credited with destroying 132 enemy guns opposing the American First and Third Armies. Meanwhile, RAF fighter and medium bombers slashed at German towns, railways and barges in the Nijmegen and Tilburg areas of Holland.

Knocked 43 Locomotives

The Ninth also knocked out 43 locomotives, 104 freight cars, cut railroad tracks in 29 places and destroyed three German planes parked on the ground.

While great damage was done to German oil plants, tank works, aircraft factories and railway centers, the most spectacular weekend raid was carried out by a force of 13 RAF Lancasters that smashed the Kembs Dam across the lower Rhine with 12,000 pound delayed action "earthquake" bombs.

The Germans probably intended to dynamite the dam themselves, as soon as they had crossed the Rhine. The resultant floods already have made the river impassable for the Nazis caught on the wrong side.

Italian Campaign Speeding Up As Yanks Near Bologna

ROME—(AP)—American troops have advanced nearly two miles along the main road to Bologna, bringing them within 10 miles of that major communications center of the Po Valley, Allied headquarters announced Monday.

The newest advance was made in bad weather along Highway 65, between the twin mountains of Castellazzi and Barbarolo and against strongly reinforced enemy positions. The Germans, meanwhile, continued to mass reinforcements in front of both Bologna and Imola and were reported bringing up heavy artillery for a further delaying action.

Monte Gallo Cleared

In the Adriatic sector, Eighth Army troops advancing across the Fiumicino River, have cleaned up German resistance on Monte Gallo, the commune said.

On the right flank of the 12-mile front south of Bologna, British Fifth Army troops for the third straight day battled Germans for possession of strategic Monte Cece, overlooking the Palazzuolo-Cestel Bologna road.

In the coastal area negro troops of the American 92nd Division crossed the Serra River and entered Saravezza, about 21 miles southeast of La Spezia.

Headquarters said Brazilian troops continued limited advances against snipers, machinegun and artillery fire in rough and difficult terrain to the east of the 92nd Division sector.

Despite bad weather, a few Allied planes attacked barges and schooners at Sestri Levante on the Gulf of Genoa.

Large Crowd Attended Burial Of McPherson

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—Approximately 400 ministers and lay followers of the Foursquare Gospel, representing virtually every section of the United States, with thousands of the denomination's Southern California members, attended funeral services Monday for evangelist Amice Semple McPherson, founder and leader of the church.

Accommodations for 6,000 persons were provided in Angelus Temple, where her body has lain in state since Friday. She died Friday, Sept. 27, in Oakland, Calif.

'Let's Wind It Up,' Miller Says About United War Chest Campaign

"If Midland is to go over the top in its United War Chest campaign, persons must send in their checks promptly without solicitation," Chairman R. L. Miller said Monday.

He lauded the response to campaign workers' solicitations, but said everyone seems so busy it is impossible to obtain enough workers to call on even a major part of Midland's citizenship.

Persons desiring to mail checks can make them to the United War Chest and mail them to the United War Chest, Postoffice Box 1230, Midland.

"The last $9,000 is the most difficult to obtain," Miller said, as he pointed to the fact only $10,465.35 of the county's $19,327 quota has been contributed.

Last Big Campaign Of Year

In writing checks to the United War Chest, citizens should remember there will be only one similar campaign in the next 12 months—the campaign of the Red Cross.

Wendell Willkie's Death Brought Notes Of Sympathy From 'One World'

NEW YORK—(AP)—The body of Wendell L. Willkie, whose death Sunday brought messages of sympathy from many parts of the "one world" in which he took such a vital interest, will lie in state at the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church from 2 p. m. Monday until funeral services at 3 p. m. Tuesday.

The man who polled 22,333,801 votes for president in 1940, when he was the Republican candidate, died at 2:20 a. m. Sunday at Lenox Hill Hospital, which he entered Sept. 6 for a rest and physical checkup.

He contracted a streptococcal throat infection last Wednesday which affected the heart muscles. Death resulted from coronary thrombosis.

Burial In Indiana

His family said the body of the 52-year-old former public utility executive would be sent to Rushville, Ind., where burial will be in the family plot. The date of burial will be determined by the return of Mr. Willkie's son, Lieut. (jg) Philip Willkie, USNR, now on convoy duty in the Atlantic.

Thousands of messages of sympathy deigned the family. President Roosevelt said:

"The nation will long remember Wendell Willkie as a forthright American. Earnest, honest, whole souled, he also had tremendous courage. This courage, which was his dominating trait, prompted him more than once to stand alone and to challenge the wisdom of counsels"

Fourteen Army Men Killed In Plane Crash Near Dallas

DALLAS—(AP)—Fourteen members of the crew of a four-engine bomber of the heaviest type were dead Monday after the huge craft crashed and burned on the edge of the storage tank farm of a Texas Company refinery near here.

Scores of persons Sunday saw the spectacular crash of the craft, some pieces of which fell in streets and yards almost three miles from the refinery.

Lt. W. E. Dowell, assistant operations officer at Hensley Field here, reported that all fourteen of the crew perished.

The huge ship, speeding earthward, clipped a power line, cut a corner off a warehouse and burst into billowing flame within 50 feet of two large gasoline and kerosene mixing tanks, witnesses said.

Investigation of the crash was first assumed by Hensley Field officials, but later was turned over to authorities at Love Field here, and to officials of Pratt Army Air Field, near Wichita, Kas.

Encirclement Of Aachen Only A Matter Of Hours

WITH U. S. FIRST ARMY—(AP)—The jaws of Lt. Gen. Courtney H. Hodges' pincers closing on Aachen cut the main road to Julich and Cologne Monday and were within a mile and a half of the complete encirclement of Aachen itself.

LONDON—(AP)—The multiplied blows of Lt. Gen. Courtney H. Hodges' First Army threatened a 20-mile-wide breakthrough toward Cologne and Dusseldorf Monday as American fighting men pinched the Aachen escape gap to four miles or less.

They were reported fighting within Aachen itself after sending patrols and small armored task forces to feel out the garrison, which possibly had been reduced to only 1,500 last-ditch SS Guards.

To the south, the Seventh Army moved to within eight miles of Belfort in the strategic mountain gap fringing Switzerland and pounded that town's outer defenses with shell fire.

To the north, Canadian forces staged a bold amphibious stroke in the rear of an isolated garrison of 5,000 Nazis holding on to a small pocket among the canals and dikes south of the Schelde, and landed just east of the small village of Hoofplaat, 33 miles west of Antwerp.

The landing, made before daylight, was aimed at the relief of a small Canadian bridgehead across the Leopold Canal, established three days ago with a flame-thrower barrage but beaten back to a desperate position by determined German counterattacks.

The Germans here were fighting with their backs to the Schelde and the flooded Waalcheren and Zuid Bevel and island north of the river where 11,000 to 15,000 Germans were all but cut off by a 1,500-yard Canadian push north of Antwerp. This latter advance to Calmpoort just outside Korteven put the Canadians virtually astride the dike escape road out of the islands.

Soviets Trap Fifteen Nazi Divisions

By DANIEL DE LUCE

MOSCOW—(AP)—A powerful new Russian offensive, surging 62 miles through the wavering German Baltic front, appeared Monday to have virtually cut off at least 15 German divisions north of the port city of Memel, while Soviet columns invading Hungary from Romania were reported within 72 miles of Budapest.

The Baltic breakthrough on a 175-mile front west of Siauliai in Lithuania, a Soviet communique said, enveloped over 2,000 populated places in four days and carried to within 25 miles of Memel, presaging a quick capitulation of that port and a thrust southward on the German soil of East Prussia.

The Russians destroyed the backbone of a force of more than 800 German tanks and 200 self-propelled guns and captured large numbers of prisoners, with the German dead and wounded mounting to several thousands, Pravda reported.

It appeared that the Nazis—with this significant loss—may have considerable difficulty in holding a line along the Niemen River, which is the natural northern defense line of East Prussia, and where a great major battle seems to be shaping up.

Reach Tisza River

Meanwhile, Russian columns speeding into Southern Hungary in two days reached the Tisza River, last big hurdle before imperilled Budapest, capturing 4,000 Nazi prisoners.

Cuipepper, who comes from Lewisville, Texas, played possum. An enemy patrol, thinking everybody inside the tank was dead, approached after dark and started setting up a machine gun on the sheltered side of the tank. With a heavy hammer, Cuipepper reached out and conked one Nazi. The others fled.

End Of Slavery

General Eisenhower has issued two "emancipation proclamations" since our armies entered Germany. One was his appeal to the impressed foreign workers in the Reich to begin their fight against the Nazis. The other was his statement of the conditions of military government in conquered German territory.

Both of these proclaim a release from slavery. And both give promise of a slow and painful fulfillment. For the slave labor seized and transported from occupied nations, General Eisenhower's summons brings the prospect of suffering and death to many. But suffering and death are not new to these unhappy victims of war.

Now these sacrifices will be for the sake of an open blow, if not a strong one. Before, their weapons were the slowdown and sabotage. Now liberation is at least close enough for them to rise up, and to harass and divert the Gestapo. After all, there are an estimated 11 million foreign workers in Germany. Their very number, and the scores they have to settle, must strike fear to many Nazi hearts.

The general's other proclamation offers freedom to a nation of apparently willing slaves. It is a severe document, as it should be. It offers stern justice and swift action against any infringements of military regulations. It demands discipline and prompt obedience.

It remains to be seen whether the occupation will invite spying and sabotage, and whether the enforcement of this proclamation will effectively prevent it. After all, we are not liberating France now, but conquering Germany. However, the Germans are not the French.

A guess, based on past performance and made far from the scene, is that there will be no such resistance from the German population as the Nazis encountered in the occupied lands. If the ordinary German had a fierce will to defend his way of life under Hitler, the Eisenhower proclamation would only make him more cautiously determined. But it is doubtful that the fuhrer's way of life looks as inviting as it did even a year ago.

So it may be that these rules of military occupation will turn out to be less a defensive weapon than a psychological one. Strict regulations, hard discipline, swift punishment, these are things that the acquiescent Germans have been used to.

Only this time their dictated behavior is a preliminary to responsible self-government—a circumscribed, carefully watched government, but their responsibility nevertheless. The days of disastrous paternalism are ending.

And there must be some Germans who are exhilarated at the prospect. If General Eisenhower can find and trust them, the first step toward the future Germany may perhaps be taken.

University In Uproar Over Rainey Affair

AUSTIN (AP)—The administrative heads of the University of Texas and Regent D. F. Strickland, of Mission, were in sharp disagreement Monday over a statement of University vice-president J. Alton Burdine that he had been instructed to tell President Homer P. Rainey that Rainey was "making too many speeches, like those before religious groups."

Strickland said "there was no ultimatum and no conversation," adding there has "been no attempt to get Rainey."

Burdine issued a formal statement here, saying that Strickland telephoned him on October 1, prefacing "his discussion of a number of matters by informing me that he, Judge John H. Bickett and Mr. Scott Schreiner had conferred earlier that morning."

Strickland told him in substance, Burdine said, "to tell the president that he was making too many speeches, like those before religious groups."

Rainey said here Sunday night that "they are harassing me in every way possible. I said a year ago that there was a campaign of petty sniping. I may issue a statement later in the week and tell the whole story."

At Dallas, Bickett, chairman of the board, said: "No such conversation occurred in my presence with reference to undertaking to limit speeches or public utterances by Dr. Rainey. So far as I know, no such conversation occurred."

The controversy arose after publication in the Sunday Austin American-Statesman of a story saying that an ultimatum had been and 30 minute drillstemmer. A 45-stand water blanket was used. The blanket came to the surface in 41 minutes. Gas was estimated at 1,656,000 cubic feet per day. Gas-oil ratio was 1.235-1. When the drill pipe was broken down recovery was 910 feet of clean oil.

Humble No. 1 Dees, section 9, block A-24, psi survey, in South-Central Gaines County, was swabbing to test, after treating perforated section at 7,030-7,233 feet, with 1,000 gallons of acid.

Not Too Good
During the first nine hours after treatment, the well swabbed into the pits. In the next four hours it swabbed to tanks, and recovered an average of five barrels of oil per hour, cut with two per cent acid sludge.

It was shut in several hours and then was tested for six hours, and swabbed an average of three and one-half barrels of fluid, per hour, out an average of 25 per cent water.

Humble No. 1 Parrott, section 3, EL survey, in Central-East Upton County, which has shown for some sort of production from the Clear Fork section of the Permian, had drilled to 7,666 feet in shale and lime, and was coming out of the hole with the tools.

Amerada Petroleum Corporation No. 1 Jones, section 59, block AX, psi survey, two miles west of the Wasson field, in Northwest Gaines County, took a Schlumberger survey to the total depth of 7,838 feet, in dolomite, and has now cemented a 5 1/2-inch casing at 7,550 feet, with 550 sacks, and is waiting.

Another Core
Woodley Petroleum Company No. 1 Grogins, section 249, block D, John H. Gibson survey, Northwest Yoakum County wildcat, cored at 5,322-50 feet. Recovery was 15 feet of dolomite, with traces of porosity, and some bleeding oil and some bleeding water. A Schlumberger survey was taken and the operator is now drilling ahead.

Standard Oil Company of Texas No. 1 McElroy, section 135, block E, CCS&DRNG survey, in West Upton County, was drilling ahead after taking a core at 5,353-65 feet. Recovery was 10 feet—the top two feet was dolomitic silt, with an odor of clean gas, and the remainder of the core was black shale.

The Texas Company No. 1 Johnson, section 41, block 42, TP survey, T-4-N, Southwest Borden County exploration, was making new hole below 3,645 feet, in lime, after coring at 3,352-72 feet. There was a 100 per cent recovery of slight porous, fractured dolomite, with a showing of sulphur water. This test is contracted to 7,500 feet.

Looking For Pay
Richmond No. 2-B Hobb, section 41, block 35, H&TC survey, East Crane County extension effort for the Crosssett pool, was starting a core at 5,352 feet. A core at 5,328-30.5 feet recovered one foot of chert conglomerate, with some sand and lime, showing some oil.

Champlin Refining Company No. 1-B University, section 5, block 11, University survey, in Southwest Andrews County, which had cemented a 5 1/2-inch casing on bottom at 8,535 feet, in lime, is unofficially reported to have perforated around 8,440 feet, with 40 shots in the pipe.

Stanolind Oil & Gas Company No. 1-D University, section 8, block 11, University survey, had drilled below 8,430 feet, in lime.

Had Slight Shows
Richmond No. 2-B Hobb, section 41, block 35, H&TC survey, East Crane County extension effort for the Crosssett pool, was starting a core at 5,352 feet. A core at 5,328-30.5 feet recovered one foot of chert conglomerate, with some sand and lime, showing some oil.

There was a soft section at 4,805-03 feet, with some signs of oil. The lime hardened at 4,817 feet, and was still hard at 4,824 feet.

Members of the Chamber of Commerce committee in charge of observance of Fire Prevention Week started Monday morning making plans to bring to the attention of all civic groups of Midland the need for taking proper precaution against fires.

Importance of Fire Prevention Week was stressed Monday by Fire Chief Luther Tidwell, who said it was worth dollars to the community if every citizen cooperated in eliminating fire hazards.

ments, however, would be "held immediately available" for action.

It was said on high authority that the means by which the United States would furnish its share of forces remain to be decided, but the administrative branch is expected to press for a blanket authorization to obviate the necessity of asking congressional authority each time forces were to be used.

Plot For Years
In his statement Mr. Roosevelt said "aggressors like Hitler and the Japanese war-lords organize for years for the day when they can launch their evil strength against weaker nations devoted to their peaceful pursuits."

"This time," he continued, "we have been determined first to defeat the enemy, assure that he shall never again be in position to plunge the world into war and then to so organize the peace-loving nations that they may, through unity of desire, unity of will, and unity of strength, be in position to assure that no other would-be aggressor or conqueror shall even get started."

The security plan, which also provides detailed proposals for peaceful settlement of disputes, is tentative because it has not been formally accepted by any of the governments involved. Drawn up at the Dumbarton Oaks conferences which ended Saturday, it was issued in textual form here by Secretary of State Hull who described it as an "effort to make permanent a victory purchased at so heavy a cost in blood, in tragic suffering and in treasure."

Soberly Hull warned in an accompanying statement that the road to establishment of the proposed organization "will be long x x x and difficult," adding that "much work remains to be done before a set of completed proposals can be laid down for a full-dress United Nations conference to bring the organization into being."

His passing is a loss not only to the Republican party x x x but to all of us Americans of both parties who shared his faith in representative government and his earnest hopes for world peace."

Wilkie's death left without a definite answer one of the most questions of the 1944 presidential campaign—which candidate, if either, he intended to endorse.

New Government Publication Says Fish Are Musical

WASHINGTON (AP)—A big chin-whiskered fish which eats standing on its head with its tail out of the water was complimented in a new government publication for its musical attainments.

The black drum fish, Miss Rachel L. Carson, aquatic biologist in the Office of the Coordinator of Fisheries, declared enthusiastically, is "probably the best musician of all the large family of drums or croakers to which it belongs."

This salt water tympnist and a couple of dozen other important Southern food fish and crustaceans are described by Miss Carson in a 45-page pamphlet entitled "Fish and Shellfish of the South Atlantic and Gulf Coasts."

"People who have always supposed fish to be universally silent creatures are surprised to learn that many of them have voices so loud that they can actually be heard a considerable distance above the surface of the water," she observed.

These vocal effects in the case of drums, are produced by the vibration of special band-like muscles against the taut air bladder.

Indians of the Foscagoula Bay region of the Gulf Coast left legends of sweet, plaintive music issuing mysteriously from the water on summer evenings. Just schools of drum having a little jam session, Miss Carson contends.

The drum is "a heavyweight among fishes," the expert says, and no wonder—they apparently are great gluttons, and when feeding stand on their heads with their tails out of the shallow water, oblivious of all but the meal at hand."

In the shallow inshore bays of Texas the drums sometimes run into navigating troubles, and farmers chase them over the shoals with pitchforks. The farmers can recognize the drums by "whisker-like barrels on the lower jaw."

'44 Cotton Crop Estimate Raised By Department

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department Monday forecast this year's cotton crop at 11,953,000 bales of 500 pounds gross weight, compared with a forecast of 12,483,000 bales a month ago, 11,427,000 bales produced last year, and an average production of 12,455,000 bales in the ten years 1933-42.

The Census Bureau announced that 3,984,761 running bales, counting round as half bales and excluding linters, had been ginned from this year's crop to Oct. 1, compared with 3,749,745 bales a year ago, and 5,006,307 bales two years ago.

The condition of the crop was reported by the Agriculture Department to be 79 per cent of a normal on Oct. 1, compared with 75 a month ago, 72 a year ago, and a ten-year Oct. 1 average of 63.

The indicated acre yield was forecast at 284.6 pounds, compared with a forecast of 273.4 pounds a month ago, 253.5 pounds last year, and a ten-year average of 226.9 pounds.

The Oct. 1 condition, indicated acre yield and indicated total production, in equivalent 500 pound bales, were reported as including: Oklahoma, condition 78 per cent of a normal, indicated acre yield 204 lbs., and indicated total production, 600,000 bales; Texas 71, 168 and 3,600,000; New Mexico 85, 493 and 12,000.

The more than 4,000 women of the CWAC's, Canada's equivalent of the WAC's, wear a small duck as part of their insignia.

The bow and arrow were used by ancient people in almost every country on the globe, and their origin is unknown.

weather which curtailed U. S. Air operations.

Chinese troops prepared for a last-ditch defense of the only remaining U. S. Air center in Southeast China at Kweilin.

Despite the loss of six advanced bases in recent months, Gen. Joseph Stilwell reported the 14th U. S. Air Force sank 158,000 tons of enemy shipping, killed 4,000 Japanese and destroyed 42 planes last month at a cost of three Yank aircraft.

He indicated the Ledo and Burma roads would soon be joined to supply China through the backdoor, despite the enemy's progress toward cutting China in two and blocking the coast to the U. S. Fleet.

"Chinese reported some successes against Japanese invasion forces in the vicinity of Fochow on the central coast, which Tokyo reported had been captured.

Southeast Asia headquarters announced the Japanese had been driven from another village on the Arakan front of Southwest Burma.

"The plane seemed about 3,000 feet up and was coming down in an inverted spin. I waited for the men to bail out, but none did. There was plenty of time. When the ship crashed flames spurted several hundred feet high."

Deputy Sheriff Pat Thornburg said he heard what sounded like a muffled explosion in the sky. He said the plane went into a spin and parts of it stripped off in the air.

"Immediately after the explosion, all four of the plane's engines stopped, and it began spiraling toward the earth in an eerie silence," said Thornburg.

R. V. Karlson, assistant superintendent of the refinery, said an estimate to refinery property had not been completed.

Several Army and Navy fliers who saw the accident expressed the opinion that centrifugal force directed toward the top of the plane may have made it impossible for the crew to reach the escape hatch in time to jump.

First rubber raincoats were worn by South American Indians, who smeared their bodies with liquid rubber.

4-H Clubs Of County Entertain At Tea For Rural Non-Members

A tea for rural non-members was given by the Midland County 4-H Clubs at the Assembly Room of the Home Demonstration Office Saturday afternoon.

The tea table was set with fiesta ware, with fall flowers used as decorations. Sprays of flowers were trelled across the table to the floral centerpiece, making a colorful and attractive display. The refreshments were contributed by the members of all the clubs, and the decorations were arranged by the girls themselves.

Presidents Receive

In the reception line were the presidents of the four clubs: Julia Edith Midkiff of Valley View, Mary Frances Phillips of Midland Cloverdale, Bobbie Nell Reinhardt of Prairie Lee, and Nadine Manning of Warfield. Doris Wilson of Warfield and Maxine Eckert of Valley View registered the guests.

La Nelle Howard of Valley View, and Jane Manning of Warfield poured, and Jeanette and Johnnie Stewart of Cloverdale, Mary Lynn Manning, and Lela and Pauline Norwood of Warfield served.

Lois Eiland, Pigg Sisters Play

Music for the tea was supplied by Lois Dee Eiland and Velda Dee and Billie La Jean Pigg.

Others present at the tea were Sylvia Holman, and Sara Beth and Willie Mae Wheeler.

Mrs. O. R. Phillips, Mrs. I. J. Howard and Mrs. Locke Reinhardt, sponsors of the club, and Mrs. Dalton B. Hall, county home demonstration agent, assisted the girls.

Prospective workers are Mes. Felix Ankele, Joe Heidelberg, L. Waldo Leggett, J. G. Simmons, V. Crawford, Don Johnson, J. E. Beakley, Steve Hazlip, J. E. Gaffney, R. L. Ray, Ginny Moore, A. E. Houck and T. E. Steele.

Third War Efforts Show To Be Given Here Tuesday Night

Three different subjects will be presented at the High School auditorium at 8 p. m. Tuesday as the third of a series of war effort educational film programs sponsored by the Lions Club and the Midland County Defense Corps. Admission is free.

The feature subject is "Divide and Conquer," which graphically shows how Germany conquered the low countries and France, leaving England to stand alone. The subject is one of the "Why We Fight" series.

The second film shows how men and supplies were landed under fire on the coasts of Sicily and Italy, as well as a paratroop attack on Lae in New Guinea.

"Life Line," third subject on the program, shows how those wounded fighting the Japanese are evacuated by the Medical Corps.

Price Panel Holding Sessions This Week

The price panel of the Midland County War Price and Ration Board was in a series of Monday meetings with operators of eating establishments to discuss price problems with the operators.

The price panel will hold sessions each day this week through Friday. Every operator of an eating establishment in the county is being given an appointment with the panel to discuss his price problems.

Operators of other types of business concerns having price problems can obtain an appointment with the panel by telephoning the ration board.

Country Club Members Will Meet Monday

Directors of the Midland Chamber of Commerce will vote in the annual West Texas Chamber of Commerce referendum and discuss plans for their 1945 program at their regular meeting Monday night in Hotel Scharbauer. The meeting will start at 8 p. m., President Paul McHargue said.

The nine points of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce's referendum will be explained to the directors before the ballots are cast. A tentative program for the Midland organization was outlined recently by Bill Collins, manager on leave while in the Army.

Several other matters of importance to Midland are scheduled for discussion.

Oklahoma Woman Fights Burglar For Clothes

OKLAHOMA CITY—(AP)—Mrs. Betty Wells, 50, noticed a light in her clothes closet, and tried to pull the door open, but somebody inside was holding it. Says she:

"I finally got the door open and there stood a short, chubby man. He had my clothes in a travelling bag. I grabbed him and he struck me on the chin. I grabbed him again, scratched his face and he hit me again. The third time I ripped all the buttons off his shirt and scratched his face and chest, breaking my fingernails. He pushed me aside and ran out the door, but I saved my clothing."

GERMANY WILL TRY IT AGAIN

By Sigrid Schultz

As an American newspaper correspondent in Berlin from 1919 to 1941, Sigrid Schultz saw at first hand the events that led from World War I to World War II. And she saw the behind-the-scenes preparation for the coming "war-in-peace" that she warns may culminate in World War III. This is the story of Germany's plans to win the peace, plans that even now are being put into effect.

XIII
A COOL and dispassionate appraisal of the last 25 years is indispensable if we are to better our record with the new peace. For it is startling to realize with what lack of coolness and dispassion we reacted in the past—swinging from an extreme war hatred to an extreme in sentimentality.

Both England and the United States succumbed very quickly last time to German propaganda aimed at our Christian ideals of forgiveness and compassion. We had won; we must be generous. A lack of generosity would mean that we were vindictive. Quite a number of observers in Germany warned that a new war was in the making. But the Allies felt that since they had won, their victory was both complete and permanent. They were also weary and haunted with horror at the thought of a new conflict. Meanwhile the Germans searched out the chinks in our armor. Where they saw weaknesses, they made use of them. Whereas victory lulled the victors, defeat only sharpened the wits of the vanquished.

They found weaknesses in our eagerness to forget and make up in our embarrassment about our war hatred, in our disregard of the letter of the treaty law, which we made ourselves, in the distrust that always springs up between Allies, in our sympathy for themselves because we believed them to be underdogs, and above all, in our yearning for "better business than usual." "Hang the Kaiser," we had said, and with our Allies solemnly included clauses in the Versailles Treaty calling for the punishment of German war criminals. But when the Germans protested and their officers rattled their swords, we changed the subject. We accepted a trial of war criminals that was no more than a farce.

Our own indifference to these clauses convinced the Germans that given time and a little help from their foreign sympathizers the whole treaty could be scrapped. Until then, they would emasculate it as quickly as possible. And they determined that we should help them.

To shield a criminal is not Christian; it is merely to become an accessory after the fact. But we shall be asked to shield criminals. Hardly had the first tentative signs of a United Nations victory shown themselves when the arguments in favor of forgiveness and leniency to the still undefeated enemy assailed at the same time our ears, and our hearts. We can scarcely avoid a concerted sympathy-offensive with the new peace treaty.

It will be much more powerful than the one to which we were subjected last time. And that was effective enough. The minute we laid down our arms in 1918, the friends of Germany and the Germans themselves went to work on our respect and affection for the old-fashioned, nonmilitaristic German, which he deserved, trading on our belief in the peaceful intentions of those other Germans who deserved neither.

OUR soldiers, diplomats, businessmen and newspapermen in Germany in 1919 could see with their own eyes how thin the people were, how shabbily clad. All the Germans we met blamed the Allied blockade for their misery. That saddled us with a feeling of guilt, although a blockade is a war weapon like any other, and when we wear weapons ever pleasant? The Germans had done all the blockading they could, with their U-boats and their raiders indiscriminately sinking ships. That blockade wasn't mentioned. We were busy being tactful.

But there were other causes for German plight. In those cold winters of World War I, the Germans were diverting quantities of their staples, potatoes and grain, to the manufacture of alcohol and other military synthetics. The population got whatever potatoes were left over, often frozen and half rotten because of the breakdown of transportation. What rolling stock remained in working shape was used to carry troops wherever the High Command wanted them, from Brussels to Kiev, from Riga to Bagdad.

Then there were the black markets. People who had money and who knew a farmer or two in the country could buy whatever they wanted. The rich hoarded, and so reduced everybody's rations. Much of the hoarded food spoiled from improper storage. But the German people were hungry and had been hungry for years. It was easier to blame outsiders than to look for the real cause. The Jews came in for an unjust share of abuse, and above all, the "criminal blockade." Not until the late 1920's did American officers, studying at the Berlin Technical High School, become aware of the extent to which foodstuffs had gone into industrial war exploitation. Then it was too late.

The superb physical condition of the German troops as they invaded country after country in World War II astonished all military and journalistic observers. The old-timers remembered the prophecy of serious medical experts in and after 1919 that the generation born near the end of the war would forever be puny because of malnutrition in their youth. They did look peaked and frail in the postwar years. Those that survived, largely because of food rushed to them from foreign donors, became the superwarriors of 1939, men who showed only contempt and cruelty toward nations which had distinguished themselves in their humanitarian attitude toward Germany.

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY
America's Card Authority

In a strong field such as that in the Master's pair championship this year, it is an honor to finish in the first ten. Mrs. J. E. Folline of Richmond, Va., and Benjamin Johnson of Spartanburg, S. C., finished in tenth place this year. This is the second time that Johnson has come to New York and made a good showing. Last fall he won the Metropolitan open pair championship in New York.

Here is an interesting hand played by Mrs. Folline and Johnson in the Masters pair. When East and West went to five hearts, it required a fine opening lead and then the unaided aid of Johnson to defeat the contract one trick. Declarer did not cover the queen of clubs, as he suspected the singleton and wanted to keep North out of the lead. When the queen held the trick, Mrs. Folline led the jack of spades, and was rewarded when Johnson won with the king and returned a club. Declarer ruffed with the ace, but the queen of hearts provided the sitting trick.

PVT. DROOP HAS MISSED THE WAR!

When GI Joe wanders off the post he runs into civilian hazards which last year caused 60,000 accidents. Tests of safety pamphlet, "Pvt. Droop Misses the War!" reduced furore mishaps by 61 percent. Now each GI will get a copy. Here are some of its features.

Do You Risk Your Life After Dark?
You DO--if you assume that just because you can see an oncoming car, the driver can see you. Not enough light is reflected by a soldier's uniform to reach the driver's eyes until too late. That's how many a soldier has been killed. When you are on foot, take it for granted that every driver is stone blind. If he doesn't see you, he might as well be.

Are You Guilty of Dangerous Acts?
One-arm driving of an automobile is an example; so is walking around on streets after drinking quite a bit. Running for a bus without watching for cars has resulted in death. Soldiers have burned to death in forest fires caused by their own carelessness with matches, cigarettes, and campfires. They have been decapitated by sticking their heads out of railroad car windows, and have lost arms that way, too.

Do You Drive While Dead Tired?
Fatigue is almost as treacherous as alcohol in its effect on an automobile driver. That's why soldiers who make these 700- and 800-mile non-stop trips home often never get there. Stop, get out of the car and exercise, or pull off to the side of the road and sleep for an hour or two.

Do You Hitchhike With Care?
Do you keep eating farther and farther out into the highway hoping you will be seen first? It is dangerous to stand in the probable path of automobiles, it is undignified to be begging a ride or anything else, and it is against Army regulations to hitchhike.

Do You Drive After Drinking?
Nobody is immune to the effects of alcohol. You get a kick from alcohol because it enters your bloodstream and travels at once to your brain. Your judgment is impaired and so is your ability to manipulate your arms and legs. Nobody is a good driver after drinking.

THE WAR TODAY

By DEWITT MACKENZIE Associated Press War Analyst

We can't complain about this being a blue Monday, what with the continued success of the American First Army in the Aachen battle and the great Russian advance in Lithuania.

Taking it on the whole (and knocking wood discreetly, just in case) things look very good for the Allies. We really are getting ahead with the job.

The most important news from the Western front is that fair fighting weather, upon which may depend whether the Allies are able to force Hitler's surrender this year, smiled on the invading forces for a change at the week-end.

As a result British and Yankee warplanes swarmed over the Reich in one of the heaviest aerial assaults of the war. For the first time, too, we find the Germans labeling the Aachen show as a major assault.

Indications are that this Nazi estimate is correct. If it is, it means that things are going well enough in the Aachen sector to warrant General Eisenhower in regarding it as offering chances for a clean break-through of the Siegfried and Rhens defenses.

The ancient and famous city of Aachen is reported to be all but surrounded by First Army forces, and it's unofficially said that fighting is raging through the streets. The closing of the gap on the Eastern side of Aachen will put the Yanks astride the Nazi rail communication with the great Rhensish city of Cologne.

The plight of the fine old town of Aachen, which came through the last war without even hearing a gun fired in anger, well illustrates the point that the Germans, who have waged war against many countries but never before in modern times have experienced it at home themselves, certainly are learning what it means now. They're having a terrible lesson, due to Hitler's decision to sacrifice everything to save his own skin—a lesson which is bound to produce bitterness among them but which is likely to create a healthy respect for peace.

Quite apart from the terrific aerial bombardment which the Reich is enduring the Nazi troops ruthlessly are destroying towns as they retreat—a scorched earth policy to deprive the invaders of defenses or resources. If the war continues in this fashion, Germany will be a land of devastation. Perhaps this will provide a salutary example for the world at that.

Air Transport's Cub Should Join Chennault

KANSAS CITY — (AP) — Private Tuffy, 14-month-old lion cub mascot of the Air Transport Command, bit both arms of a pilot who tried to recover a hangbag with which Tuffy was playing. The 125-pound kitty ran into an officer's room and was locked in until zoo attendants could come to the rescue with a lasso and a hypodermic needle.

Peacefully passed out, Tuffy was carted to the zoo. That probably will be his permanent address from now on.

Monday May Be Series Pay-Off

Nelson Potter Will Face Either Lanier Or Donnelly In Box

By JACK HAND

ST. LOUIS—(AP)—Luke Sewell's Browns are ready for another last-ditch stand Monday after a season of comeback successes, but the Cardinals have them groggy, trailing 3-2 games, and desperately needing a victory by Nelson Potter to stave off a knockout punch. Either Max Lanier or Blix Donnelly will attempt to do the job for Billy Southworth's National Leaguers.

Mort Cooper's 12-strikeout job in Sunday's 2-0 Redbird triumph was a blow between the eyes to the Browns' title hopes, and the Series' largest crowd of 35,568 which came to cheer for the underdogs went home fearful that the end was near.

Despite the week-long assurance that St. Louis can't lose no matter which team wins, Brownie fans were hoping against hope that Potter would square matters Monday and Jack Kramer would take the big one Wednesday.

Cards Hold Batters

If sentiment still is working for the Browns, the boys with the dough aren't. The Redbirds are favored 11 to 20 to win if Lanier pitches and wise money is so sure it will be over Monday that no series prices are quoted.

Not since Howard Ehmke emerged from the shadows of the Philadelphia Athletics' bullpen to strike out 13 Chicago Cubs and set a series mark 15 years ago has a pitcher been able to fan 12 men in one game in the annual classic. Never before have two pitchers like Cooper and Denny Galehouse whiffed a total of 22 victims in one series afternoon. The old mark of 21 was held jointly by the A's and Cubs of 1929 and the White Sox and Cubs of 1906.

New Record Set

If Monday's opponents are in a strikeout mood, a new all-time record for total Series' play can be established. To date there have been 78 third-strike victims, a mark topped only by the Cards and A's in seven games in 1931, with 87, and the Yankee-Giant eight game set that produced 82 in 1921. The sixth-game mark of 75 definitely has been surpassed.

Cooper and Galehouse hooked up in one of those games that it's a shame anybody has to lose. Just as on opening day, when the Browns beat Mort behind Galehouse, on two hits, the club with the fewest hits took the cake and did it on home runs.

Homers Pay Off

Ray Sanders' clout atop the roof of the right field pavilion and Danny Litwiler's long distance hit into the unscreened stands past the 400-foot marker provided the only scoring of an exciting game.

Big Mort's defeatist complex about the American League was just a rumor

this time as the husky right-hander from Atherton, Mo., fast-balled the Browns back to the bench. The Sewell crew kept pecking away here and there, collecting seven hits, but when the blue chips were down, Cooper had it. In the sixth he gave one of his best pitching exhibitions by throwing the ball past Al Zarilla and Mark Christman after the American Leaguers had loaded the sacks with one out. They said his curve wasn't breaking and Southworth had Teddy Wilks in the bullpen, but the fast ball Mort threw that inning never needed a curve for help.

Semi-Professional Randolph Field Team Questioned

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

AUSTIN—(AP)—Coach D. X. Bible of the University of Texas said Monday the collection of football stars at Randolph Field was serving "a worthy cause."

"As I understand it, this fine team was collected for a very definite purpose. Playing football alone would not justify it, but the team's share of receipts going to such a worthy cause would, I have been informed there are several such teams over the country. But this is nothing new. A year or so ago Wallace Wade and Bob Neyland did the same. Games were played over the nation and the money given to the war effort."

Bible said Randolph Field received more than $20,000 for playing in the Cotton Bowl and this had gone to Air Corps Relief.

Press Questions

A lively discussion has developed in the Texas press since Randolph Field beat Rice 59-0. Andy Anderson, Houston sports writer, criticized matching professionals and all-Americans against 17 to 20-year-old boys. Weldon Hart, Austin writer, said "the Army Air Forces would do well to come out with a clear, frank statement as to why such teams as Randolph Field and Second AAF have been collected."

Why shouldn't Texas have one of them?

George White of the Dallas News said the fans wanted to see such a team and beaten by Randolph Field would have no effect on a college's standing.

Coach Jess Neely of Rice, asked if his team would play Randolph next year, replied: "No. We've built enough morale for one year."

Bible said that of course a college hated to lose by a big score and lose prestige with fans in other sections who did not understand the situation but that, on the other hand, a college team could learn much by playing such an aggregation as Randolph Field.

Randolph Field officials declined comment.

Civilians Take Part In Texas Prison Rodeo For First Time

HUNTSVILLE—(AP)—For the first time in the history of the Texas prison rodeo, civilians Sunday took part in two events during the first of four performances of the victory rodeo.

A capacity crowd saw Buster Bishop of Midland, life terner from Retrieve Prison Farm, duplicate his 1942 performance by winning first place in saddle bronc riding and third in bareback riding.

Leslie Sutton, serving 12 years from Refugio, placed second in bareback riding and in bull riding.

The civilians participating included Mano Miles of Refugio, who won both the calf roping tie down and the calf roping breakaway.

Results

Saddle bronc riding—Buster Bishop, Midland, first; J. R. Castleberry, 100 years from Wichita Falls, third.

Bull riding—Orville Miller, five years from Brady, first.

Bareback riding—Herman McCoolley, five years from Refugio, first.

Wild mare milking—Morris Coleman, 45 years from Comfort and Carl Heffner, 99 years from Longview, first place.

Wild mule race—Ollie York, life from Giddings, first.

Wild horse race—J. W. Mann, life from Lubbock, first; Arthur Fulton, five years from Austin, second; Ford Laxson, life from Ballinger, third.

neighborhood of almost 180 ponds. Compare this with the Midland Bulldogs, averaging 156 ponds, with some of the heaviest men in the backfield.

Sweetwater Can Be Beaten

We are mindful of the 33 to 18 defeat Midland suffered at the hands of Sweetwater last year but we are equally mindful of the fact that Midland has a better team this year, and of a further fact, being the observation that Sweetwater can be beaten.

If Midland can preserve the spirit it displayed here Friday night, the game is in the bag. If the last three victories Midland has enjoyed develops the attitude that the Bulldogs are a team to be reckoned with and that they will just ride on through the season with little further effort, this corner just recommends they remember that the Plainview team was named Bulldogs and that it had several victories behind it, too.

A continuation of the heads up playing of the other night will see the Midland team riding the crest of the conference at the end of the year's play.

Our attitude is that regardless of the size of the opponents, if a team is clicking in every way, weight isn't too important.

Here on the home territory, with a wonderfully enthusiastic cheering section backing the Bulldogs, it is one story, in a distant city it is another.

Plainview came to Midland a strong team, fully expecting to take an easy victory. It left, a beaten team, that had its spirit so broken that the second string was able to hold it with little trouble for an entire quarter.

Maybe Midland will do that at Sweetwater, we will wait and see.

STRAIGHT SPARES

SAN FRANCISCO—Howard P. Graves bowled 30 consecutive spares without a strike. Each game was good for 155 pins.

From The Press Box

By JACK LIVELY

Last Friday night's football performance by Midland was one of the finest we have ever seen anywhere, at anytime, on any football gridiron. Every Bulldog was pulling his share of the load and every Bulldog play was clicking.

From the opening minute of play until the final whistle ended the game, there was nothing but synchronized play after play.

Now our greatest worry is that this will make them so cocky they will go to Sweetwater and come back to Midland like the Plainview team had to go back to Plainview.

That would be bad.

It has been rumored around this corner that Sweetwater has a team with a line averaging around the neighborhood of almost 180 ponds. Compare this with the Midland Bulldogs, averaging 156 ponds, with some of the heaviest men in the backfield.

Here on the home territory, with a wonderfully enthusiastic cheering section backing the Bulldogs, it is one story, in a distant city it is another.

Plainview came to Midland a strong team, fully expecting to take an easy victory. It left, a beaten team, that had its spirit so broken that the second string was able to hold it with little trouble for an entire quarter.

Maybe Midland will do that at Sweetwater, we will wait and see.

Cardinals Make First Game Error Sunday

ST. LOUIS—(AP)—Stan Musial's fumble Sunday was the first Cardinal error of the series. Previous to that play the Redbirds had handled 172 chances in the field without a miscue. Fielding .995, the National Leaguers have a good chance of setting a new record for a six or seven game series.

Airplanes Buzzing Series Constantly

ST. LOUIS—(AP)—Airplanes of all varieties—from a single seat sightseeing ship to one of the newest four-engined bombers—have "buzzed" Sportsman's Park for a free look at the games. One time Sunday, Denny Galehouse stopped his pitching chores completely and watched a huge bomber swoop low over the field. Then he went back to work and struck out Johnny Hopp.

No Conference Title Warfare Slated This Week

By JACK RUTLEDGE

Associated Press Staff

Southwest Conference football teams pass up this warfare this week in favor of inter-sectional play with the Texas-Oklahoma game at Dallas as the feature.

Vying for No. 1 spot in interest will be the clash of the Rice Owls with Tulane at New Orleans while Texas A. and M. plays Louisiana State at Baton Rouge and Arkansas tackles the Norman, Okla., Naval Zoomers.

Meanwhile, Southern Methodist will be seen for itself if what they say about Randolph Field is true when the Methodists meet the Ramblers, victorious over both Rice and Texas by overwhelming scores, at San Antonio.

No Change

Conference teams and fellow travelers scored 153 points in five ding-dong battles that were far and away the season's best week but when the dust settled the situation was like your pocketbook after a day at the races—no change.

Conference teams divided honors in inter-sectional games, favorites came through as expected and Arkansas and Texas Christian, opening the title race at Fort Worth, tied 6-6.

Arkansas outplayed TCU roundly except inside the Frog 19-yard stripe. The Razorbacks made 15 first downs to five for TCU and gained 324 yards to 134, but when they neared pay dirt the Frogs wouldn't give.

Owls Staged Comeback

Rice upheld conference honors in inter-sectional play. Paced by George Walmsley and Bob Nemir the Owls staged a comeback after their Randolph Field defeat and took Louisiana State at Houston 14-13.

Randolph Field continued its March of massacre by taking the Texas Longhorns 42 to 6 at Austin. The star-studded service squad found its toughest resistance of the year in the Longhorns who scored early in the game.

At Dallas, Southern Methodist had to go all-out to defeat a scrapping Southwestern University team. It was a free-for-all and the 16-to-15 score is a true picture of the tightness of play.

In the second inter-sectional game Texas A. and M. bowed to University of Oklahoma 21 to 14 at Oklahoma City. The Sooners scored in every period except the third, while the Aggies struck in the second and third when their T formation clicked with Jim Cashion doing a brilliant job.

Tickets Go On Sale For Sweetwater Game

Football fans who want to see the Midland High School Bulldogs in action Friday night against Sweetwater can obtain tickets to the game at the Chamber of Commerce.

School officials announced Monday. The block of tickets received here are all for reserved seats and are well located in the stand.

A number of fans are expected to attend the Sweetwater game since the Bulldogs' victory over Plainview last Friday night.

St. Louis Browns Receive Horseshoes

ST. LOUIS—(AP)—The Browns' dressing room is lined with 25 extra-large silver-painted horseshoes, gift of a St. Louis brewery which told the club it needed them more than the horses did. "We've gotten literally hundreds of gifts," Manager Sewell said, "but I got the best one—a two-headed silver dollar that might come in handy during the long winter."

Schoolboys Games Highlight Week's Play With Clashes

By The Associated Press

Waco's Tigers pushed forward to a spot in the top ranking of Texas schoolboy football teams Monday as the field headed into virtual all-out offensives along the conference front.

Victors over Highland Park's Scotties, the unbeaten, untied Tigers were given the nod as No. 1 in the lower bracket of the Texas interscholastic league campaign although there were such teams in that division as Tyler, Lufkin and Brackenridge of San Antonio.

In the upper or northern bracket Highland Park still was considered a team to beat and San Angelo, defending state champion and pre-season favorite to repeat, was well back in everyone's good graces.

Eighteen teams stood out as the schedule went up for conference warfare with 34 of the week's 52 games counting in the championship standings of 14 of the 16 districts.

Undeclared and Untied

These eighteen, only nine of which are undefeated and untied, were:

West Texas—Lubbock, Amarillo, Vernon, Wichita Falls, San Angelo, Sweetwater, Breckenridge, Midland, Odessa and Paschal (Fort Worth).

North Texas—Highland Park (Dallas) and Sunset (Dallas).

Central Texas—Waco.

East Texas—Tyler and Lufkin.

South Texas—Port Arthur Brackenridge (San Antonio) and Austin.

Of these Lubbock, Sweetwater, Midland, Paschal, Sunset, Waco, Tyler, Brackenridge and Austin are unbeaten and untied.

Other teams in the state with perfect records are: El Paso High, North Side (Fort Worth), Bryan, Goose Creek, South Park (Beaumont), Kerrville, Edinburg and Kingsville.

San Angelo climbed back into one of the state's top spots by beating Amarillo 13-7. Previously the Bobcats had lost to Lubbock, Amarillo's chief rival in District 1, Lufkin, which dropped its opening game of the season to Tyler, swept back to prominence with a 20-6 decision over heralded Port Arthur.

Midland Distinct Threat

Midland came forward as a distinct threat by smashing an undefeated, untied Plainview eleven 32-6. Vernon, which had fallen before Amarillo, went to Breckenridge and beat the favored Buckaroos 26-12.

However, Waco's defeat of Highland Park was the week's feature. But at that, few were moved to mark Highland Park from the list of top contenders. Coach Harry Stiteler of Waco said he figured Highland Park would be a team for all to worry about in the state race. "The material is there," Stiteler opined.

Sports Roundup

By Hugh S. Fullerton Jr.

NEW YORK—(AP)—Second guessing the series... At long range the most striking thing about the World Series, aside from the pitching, is the futility of some efforts. For instance, four pinch hitters faced Mort Cooper Sunday and all four fanned. The Brownies haven't made a successful effort to sacrifice yet and at least two Cards failed Sunday to lay down a bunt that would advance a runner... When the Browns had the bases full in the sixth, Zarilla and Christman just stood there while Cooper fanned a third strike past them, not even making a pass at the ball. Sanders did the same thing for the Cards with two aboard in the eighth inning of the third game... On the other hand, Ken O'Dea has established a new record with his third pinch hit in World Series competition. Mort Cooper, beaten on hits by Moore and McQuinn in the opener, held that pair hitless Sunday and chalked up three strikeouts against them... Denny Galehouse has fanned 15 batsmen in two games and seven of them—three Sunday—went down on three straight pitches.

Monday Matinee

Although Sammy Baugh wasn't on hand for Sunday's 31-31 Redskins-Eagles tie, the "jinx" in which Sammy has figured prominently held good. The Philadelphia club has never beaten Washington in Shibe Park... Rhode Island State has given the cold shoulder to the Boston Garden basketball program but indications are that the "Ivy League" is warming up to the big time shows. Yale and Dartmouth will play there in December... Tip from the Southwest says Tulsa's Henry Frika is holding back a freshman tailback whiz, Bobby Stuart, to spring on the Iowa Seahawks in November.

Luke's Bad Boy

Sig Jakucki, the "semi pro" pitcher who started for the Browns Saturday, was bounced out of the 1944 national semi-pro tournament because he had signed to play with two different clubs that year. The next year Sig became annoyed at an umpire's decision in the Wichita tournament, caught the arbiter on a bridge and was about to dunk him in the Arkansas River when the cops arrived. And as a result of that playful performance, he was ruled out of the 1943 tourney.

BUMPER BACKFIELD

STATE COLLEGE, Pa.—Penn State has 10 fine backs, nine of them freshmen, and is particularly strong in ends.

and Brackenridge with Kerrville. They are the only tilts in which unbeaten, untied teams figure on each side.
