

Superfortresses Make Mightiest Raid

Six Million Pounds Of Explosives Blast Ten Nip War Plants

By LEONARD MILLMAN
Associated Press War Editor

Superforts made their mightiest demolition raid Tuesday on invasion-conscious Japan which Premier Kantaro Suzuki said was grimly determined to repel American assaults whenever they come.

Almost 500 Superforts, guarded by fighters from Iwo Jima, rained 6,000,000 pounds of explosives on 10 war plants in the Nippon mainland. Other American planes raided Canton arsenal, Nanking oil facilities and a Formosa alcohol factory.

The U. S. Navy announced the loss of the minesweeper Salute in the Borneo area, where Tokyo said a new Allied invasion is in the making. Nine men of the Salute crew were killed or missing. It was the 319th naval vessel lost during the war.

Japan's fears that her main (Honshu) island is the "ultimate objective" of American amphibious forces centered around Tokyo reports that an invasion fleet of 200 ships is assembled in the Okinawa area. This doubled the size of the fleet given in a previous Tokyo report.

Tokyo broadcasts reported an invasion of Ternate Island, south of the Philippines and 10 miles west of Halmahera; again told of a pre-invasion bombardment of Balikpapan on Southeast Borneo; and predicted other Ryukyu Islands lying between Okinawa and Japan would be invaded prior to an assault on the homeland.

All of this invasion talk was ignored by American commanders. Gen. Douglas MacArthur did belatedly report a 40 mile leapfrog landing by the U. S. 25th Division at Baier Bay on Eastern Luzon Island in the Philippines.

Powerful formations of B-29s striking at medium altitude Tuesday were escorted by Mustang fighters from Iwo Jima. The Superforts turned loose more than 3,000 tons of high explosive bombs on six aircraft factories and four ammunition and ordnance factories.

Seven plants were in or near Nagoya, two in Osaka, and one at Akashi near Kobe. It was a powerful follow up of mass fire raids which have burned out 112 square miles of leading industrial cities.

Tokyo, which always makes exaggerated claims, asserted eight Superforts were shot down by anti-aircraft fire alone and 14 damaged.

American air power is so great in the enemy's home areas that "there's no such thing as a safe harbor for the Japanese anymore," said Rear Adm. Frederick C. Sherman, veteran of 37 months of carrier warfare. He said the Japanese had to choose either unconditional surrender or extermination.

Allied planes striking all around Nippon from the northern tip of the Kuriles to Borneo sank ten small enemy craft and damaged four.

Nipponese suicide planes struck again at Okinawa where 794 more Japanese surrendered, making a total of 8,696.

LONDON—(AP)—The All-India radio said a Japanese broadcast heard there Tuesday reported that Allied forces were attempting an invasion of an island half-way between Okinawa and the Japanese main islands.

SAN FRANCISCO—(AP)—Premier Kantaro Suzuki told the Japanese people Tuesday they faced an invasion crisis unparalleled since the Mongol hordes swept over the islands.

United Nations Charter Is Signed By Delegates Of 50 Nations At San Francisco

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

SAN FRANCISCO—(AP)—With great issues of war and peace hanging on their pen strokes, delegates of 50 countries went to a flag-draped conference auditorium Tuesday to sign the new United Nations Charter, and then hear President Truman make his first major address on American foreign policy.

A triumphant meeting of the United Nations Conference—its last working session—Monday night approved the final version of the charter. The signatures go on Tuesday, next comes the slower process of ratification.

Rapping Monday night's session to its close, Britain's tall delegation chief, the Earl of Halifax, who presided, solemnly told the conference: "I think we all agree we have taken part in a historic moment in world history." All controversy had been cleared away days before this final action, and the vote of approval was a unanimous standing ovation.

Dr. V. K. Wellington Koo of China headed a procession of 153 delegates into the auditorium of San Francisco's Veterans Memorial Building for the signing ceremony. President Will Speak

President Truman, who received a thunderous welcome to the city, is scheduled to make the closing address of the conference beginning about 7 p. m. (CWT). His speech will follow brief talks by delegation chiefs of the Big Five and representatives of five small nations, beginning at 5:30 p. m. (CWT).

Officials estimated that the signing would require about eight hours.

American Forces Move In For Kill In Philippines

By SPENCER DAVIS

MANILA—(AP)—Fifth Air Force fighter and attack bombers, flying at least 300 sorties a day over North Luzon, ripped and ravaged Japanese making their last stand in the upper Cagayan Valley Monday as Americans and Filipinos closed in for the kill.

Strafing roads and bombing concentrations of enemy troops and supplies wherever found, the Lightnings, Mustangs and Thunderbolts gave their most striking example of effectiveness in "Death Valley." There the 33rd Division's 130th Infantry Regiment, pushing east along the Balud River, northeast of Baguio, found Japanese bodies, fragments of vehicles and shattered supply dumps littering the valley slopes for eight miles between Bokod and Ambulaco.

The carnage resulted from repeated aerial attacks and artillery pounding by 240 millimeter howitzers.

When doughboys finally entered the valley they found survivors of the Japanese division dead, starving and unable to offer worthwhile resistance.

Another Beating
Japanese were taking a similar beating from the air near guerrilla-defended Tuguegarao, Cagayan provincial capital. The enemy was fighting a fanatical battle to regain the ruined town despite the approach of the 37th Division, last reported within four miles.

Disintegration of Japanese forces elsewhere on Luzon was emphasized by the First Cavalry Division's report that more than 300 Formosan service and garrison troops had been conducted into American lines in a single week by one Formosan prisoner of war.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur announced that elements of the 25th Division had made an unopposed 40-mile amphibious hop June 10 to land at Baier Bay, birthplace of the late president Manuel Quezon. The landing added another check on disorganized Japanese in Southern Luzon.

Almost 1,000 Houston Meat Markets Close

HOUSTON—(AP)—Almost 1,000 meat markets were closed Tuesday, as proprietors entered the second day of a shutdown in protest against over-calling prices and tie-in sales, Pat S. Stone, secretary of the Retail Grocers Association, announced.

Reports to the association showed that the closing of members is practically 100 per cent, he said, while of all independents throughout the city, the shutdown is 90 per cent.

Chain stores have announced they will keep their markets open, as have some independents.

The close-down of independents will continue until the objectives of the association are achieved, Stone said.

Objectives Stated
They are: to break the black market in Houston; to eliminate tie-in sales demanded by meat wholesalers, and to assure a fair distribution of meat to all markets throughout the city, so that the small units will get their fair share of meat available, just the same as larger stores.

It said that many markets which had previously indicated they would remain open had decided to join the association and closed before the end of the day Monday.

The OPA has indicated that a wholesale investigation of meat deals is pending, and the rationing board issued a statement asking that consumers report any overcharges to the board.

World Charter May Be Effective Before Year's End
By JOHN F. CHESTER
SAN FRANCISCO—(AP)—If given a quick go-ahead by the United States Senate, a sufficient number of other United Nations may ratify the new World Charter in time to bring it into effect before the end of 1945.

This was the prospect shown Tuesday in a poll conducted at the World Security Conference by The Associated Press. Out of the first 26 nations to reply to a questionnaire, 20 predicted ratification by their home governments before the end of the year. None raised any bar to ratification. Six declined to fix a probable date.

Assuming Senate approval, the feeling expressed by delegates here was that a real landslide of favorable votes by small nations would follow.

Must Ratify
All of the major powers—the United States, Britain, Russia, France and China—plus 23 of the other 45 members of the United Nations must ratify it before the charter can become effective.

The United States, Britain and China, together with 18 small nations replying to the current questionnaire, already have been placed on the line as probable signatories before January 1, 1946.

Against the unanimous prediction of final ratification the comments of the various delegations formed a varying background.

India, for instance, said the parity was "as great a success as can be expected in the present state of international affairs." Turkey said the new charter was "not completely satisfactory" but the best that could be achieved here.

Leopold's Decision Still Pending

BRUSSELS—(AP)—Lt. Gen. Walter Ganshof van der Meersch, trusted adviser to the throne, declared Tuesday he is not attempting to form a new government at King Leopold's request and expressed belief that the monarch would announce a final decision on the question of his abdication within 48 hours.

Van der Meersch said Leopold had summoned approximately 30 high political figures from Brussels to his headquarters in Austria in an effort to learn the extent of opposition to his return to Belgium.

Shareholders of the Midland Memorial Foundation at their first meeting Monday night elected Frank Stubbeman chairman and Dr. John B. Thomas vice chairman of their organization, James N. Allison was elected secretary.

By-laws were adopted by the foundation which immediately will file an application with the secretary of state in Austin for a charter. The charter application was signed by Stubbeman, Dr. Thomas and Mrs. Clarence Scharbauer.

Plans of the foundation call for erection of a modern and complete 75-bed general hospital here at a cost of approximately $500,000. The corporation being formed is a non-profit charitable organization.

Elect Trustees
Shareholders elected the following trustees who will serve as a board of directors for the foundation: John P. Butler, R. M. Barron, George T. Abell, Mrs. J. Howard Hodge, Fred Wright, Stubbeman, Mrs. Scharbauer, Allison, J. S. Nolan, John House and Dr. Thomas.

The trustees will elect their officers, but, meanwhile, Stubbeman was named temporary chairman to arrange their first meeting.

Shareholders at the meeting Monday night included Stubbeman, Ralph Barron, Butler, Mrs. Scharbauer, House, Allison, Abell, Nolan, Clint Dunagan, Lester Grant, R. L. Miller and Dr. Thomas.

Members of the nominating committee to select the trustees were Miller, Grant and Dunagan.

Plans for the organization and plans for a financial campaign for the project were discussed before the group adjourned.

War Bond Sales Lag In Midland

Midland's War Bond sales lagged Tuesday and total purchases in the mighty Seventh War Loan campaign totaled only $1,475,142.75. Purchases of Series E War Bonds totaled only $396,081.25.

Midland has exceeded its quota in the campaign, but is lagging on Series E Bond sales. The overall quota was $1,425,000 and the Series E $600,000.

Mayor A. N. Hendrickson, campaign chairman, urged citizens to purchase more E Bonds immediately as the drive will close Saturday night. He was confident that Midland would exceed the E Bond quota as it has never failed to meet a War Bond goal.

Gen. Eisenhower Is Resting In Virginia Spa

WASHINGTON—(AP)—General Dwight D. Eisenhower has left Washington for a few days rest after a week's round of homecoming celebrations, the War Department said Tuesday.

The department did not disclose the Allied supreme commander's whereabouts but it was understood that he had gone to White Sulphur Spring, W. Va., site of the Army's Ashford General Hospital. The general, obviously tired, arrived in the capital Tuesday from his home town, Abilene, Kan., and attended a reception last night at the home of Secretary of War Stimson.

Germany's Future Government

Curt Riess, writing from Germany, reports that most Germans regard the Russian occupation as more lenient than that of the Americans or the British. He bases this statement on his observation of the American occupation program and on talks with people who have lived in the Russian-occupied zone.

The correspondent writes that the Russians are giving their German charges more food than they received in the last months under Hitler; that plays, movies and concerts have been resumed; that radio broadcasts stress present co-operation and future hope, while ours are more inclined to emphasize past misdeeds.

Most of this Riess says he believes. And even at this distance there would seem to be logical reasons why he should.

The Russians naturally hate the Germans who overran their land, laid waste their cities, and inflicted barbarous cruelties on their countrymen. They have greater reason even than the French and British, and infinitely greater reason than the Americans, for loathing the whole German race.

Yet the Russian government realizes, as do other governments, that Germany must exist and be lived with in the future. Moscow is pledged to concerted action with London and Washington in ruling Germany until such time as the Germans are thought fit for self-government. When the time comes Germany probably will be permitted to choose an acceptable form of government in a free election.

Naturally each of the three Allies would like to see a German government patterned after its own model. And the Russians would seem to have begun already a campaign to present communism in the best possible light.

Thus far they seem to be succeeding. After Dr. Goebbels' tales of Russian terror and vengeance, any gentleness must have been an agreeable surprise to the Germans. And if any of the numerous Communist Party members of pre-Hitler Germany survive, they will undoubtedly try to help in making this first impression a lasting one.

The prospect of a Russian-dominated Europe sets many Anglo-American minds reeling. But the prospect is not a foregone conclusion. The Americans and British in Germany also have an opportunity to sell their way of life to the Germans through propaganda, education and general behavior.

There is no reason why communism, republican democracy and constitutional monarchy should not compete on their merits for German acceptance. But it is imperative that the occupying governments abide by the eventual German decision. The only alternative would be to let a defeated Germany again endanger the peace of the world.

Prospects Of A Long War

The Japanese defense of Okinawa has served to quiet most of the wishful talk about an early surrender that was so prevalent a month ago. And General Stilwell, in a recent statement from that embattled island, has blown the last wisp of rosy cloud away by showing the bad logic of most of estimates of Jap weakness.

The general points out the foolishness of expecting mass disintegration of morale from an army which displays such individual stubbornness and determination. He rightly discounts the hope that Japan will quit once the "voice of the people" is raised. The people are not likely to overthrow easily a strong, ruthless military clique that came to power by means of assassination and can preserve power in the same way.

And General Stilwell views the Jap suicide attacks not as something born of desperation, but as something which the Japs believe is an effective tactic. We sometimes forget in this country what an expendable commodity human life is to the Japanese.

In predicting a war of perhaps two more years' duration, General Stilwell did not mention Japan's official "acknowledgment" of the complete destruction of her great cities, since it is undoubtedly propaganda calculated to make America complacent. But, propaganda aside, it is beyond question that our air attacks have caused tremendous devastation.

Yet Japan fights on. The Japs are doomed and their government surely knows it. It is a senseless, suicidal war they fight, but they seem now to have made their decision.

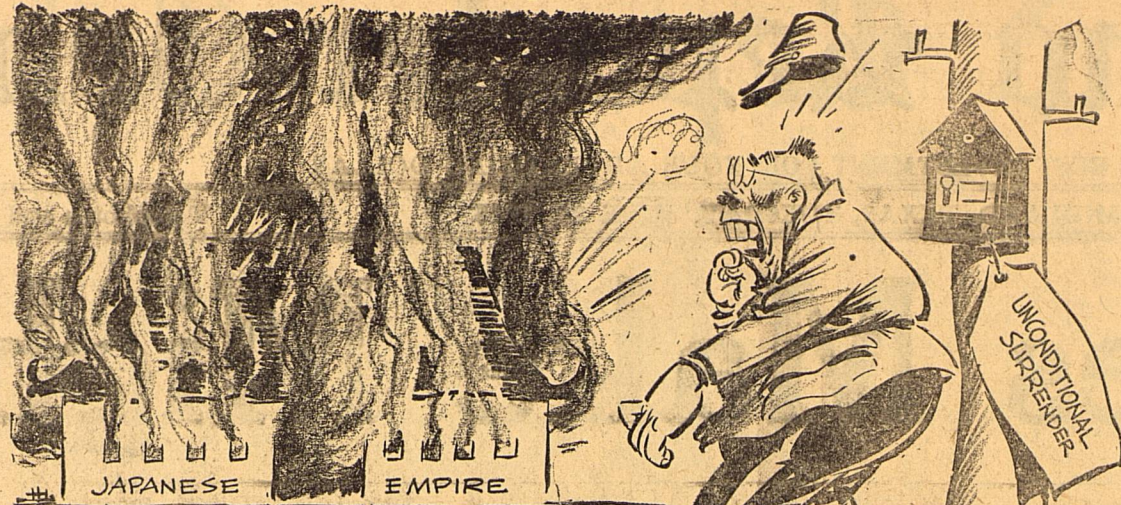

At this stage of the game, the Japs appear less defeatist-minded than the Germans did at approximately the same stage of their progressive downfall.

Three of the most popular expressions of the day are "No," "Sorry" and "Just out."

Our fighting forces are going to stick to the finish. That's your job, too—with the buying of War Bonds!

Most drunks are not convinced that they will never get anywhere by drinking, until they start home from the same corner about five times.

Leo T. Crowley Says Allies Must Keep Eye On Germany For 'Generations'

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Leo T. Crowley, foreign economic administrator, told Congress Tuesday the Allies must keep an eye on Germany for "generations" or there'll be war again.

Crowley, testifying before the Senate's Kigore Committee studying the German economic and political setup, proposed that an "Allied general staff" be set up to assure freedom from German aggression.

He said this might sound pessimistic but that everything discovered by FEA, digging deep behind the motives and actions of the Germans in two world wars, supports it.

Crowley proposed disarmament of more than the German army, navy and war factories; he said the whole German economic setup must be dismantled because it contains a war potential.

Must Watch Industries
"The peace of the world requires considerable organized governmental attention to the course of industrial and economic development and operations in Germany," Crowley declared.

"This will be true at least until generations of peace from German aggression have demonstrated that it is no longer necessary to keep open the watchful eye and maintain the necessary surveillance and control."

He said the trouble in 1918 was

Independent Thinking Clearly Demonstrated At Peace Conference

By FLORA LEWIS
SAN FRANCISCO — (AP) — The pulling and tugging which split delegates to the United Nations Conference and welded them back into agreement revealed a few surprises about the world's new political lineup and dashed some old beliefs.

Perhaps the most unexpected political development was the tight solidarity of the Arab League, formed in Cairo only a few weeks ago.

France's close cooperation with the four inviting powers—Britain, Russia, China and the United States—made a real Big Five. France occasionally broke away from the "penthouse line" in debates, but almost invariably voted with the sponsoring powers.

British commonwealth solidarity—which many orators called "six votes for England" when the new League of Nations was being formed—scarcely even put in a guest appearance. Australia and New Zealand were on the opposite side from the United Kingdom on many questions. And Canada was with the Anzac most of the time. South Africa and India sat on both sides of the fence.

Stand Together
On the other hand, the true extent of Pan-Americanism became evident. At times the Latins seemed to be voting in bloc, at times they were split wide open—it always depended on the issue. If a matter directly and primarily concerned the Western Hemisphere, Latin America can be expected to stand together and to resent outside interference.

This showed in developments on admitting Argentina and fitting the Pan-American system into the world peace agency. On matters of general world concern, each nation followed its own policy.

In many cases, Russia easily could influence four votes besides her own. However, there were times when the Ukraine and White Russia opposed the Soviet in debate and abstained on issues Moscow was backing.

VANCOUVER, WASH. — (AP) — An Army Corps veteran at the launching of the troopship Ernest Pyle didn't know why two bottles of champagne are always used.

"But the sponsor didn't miss," the veteran said hopefully.
Kaiser caught on and the airman got the bottle.

THE WAR TODAY

By DEWITT MacKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

The question of Germany's future form of government—one of the great (and dangerous) problems in the regeneration of the Reich—already has been thrust to the fore by the German Communist party, which Herr Hitler and Gestapo Chief Himmler tried unsuccessfully to kill.

The Communists, having survived as a hunted underground organization throughout the Nazi regime have now registered as a legal party in Berlin. They state in a manifesto that they don't favor a Soviet system for Germany at present but instead an anti-Fascist regime within a democratic parliamentary republic—a coalition government friendly to Russia.

What about the suggested "democratic parliamentary republic"? It's interesting to see that proposal crop up now in view of the mournful failure of the Weimar Republic which preceded the Hitler dictatorship.

Love To Goose-Step
The mentality of a nation can be changed but certainly up to the present the Germans have shown clearly that they not only respond well to regimentation, but that they love to goose-step. All in all, it strikes me we are justified in concluding that right now the people of the Reich aren't qualified to govern themselves—and the probabilities are that most of them don't want to. They prefer to be governed.

In view of all this it isn't strange that there should be some discussion of the advisability of reviving the monarchy which went out with the abdication of Kaiser Wilhelm at the end of the last World War. The Kaiser ruled by "divine right" and satisfied the yearning of his people to have someone do their political thinking for them.

Democratic Prince
Should there be an effort to restore the monarchy, the outstanding candidate for the throne would seem to be Prince Louis Ferdinand Hohenzollern, the 37 year old grandson of the late Kaiser.

Prince Louis Ferdinand is a surprising young man—for a Hohenzollern. He is friendly and so democratic in his views that back in the thirties he spent considerable time working as a mechanic in the Ford plant in Detroit to learn the automobile business.

Demonstration And Lecture Feature Engineers Meeting

A demonstration and lecture on "Flame Propagation in Pipe Lines" was the feature of the program of the monthly dinner meeting of the Permian Basin Engineers Association, Monday night in the Crystal Ballroom of Hotel Scharbauer.

G. M. Kintz, Dallas, of the U. S. Bureau of Mines, presented the program. He was assisted by two other representatives of the bureau, Harold F. Broom, of Dallas, and P. M. Hanahan, of Houston.

Members of the PBEA discussed a proposal that a Permian Basin section of the American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers be formed in this area and the present association be merged into that organization.

The matter will be considered in more detail at the next meeting which will be in Odessa around Aug. 1. Joe W. Graybeal, president, announced.

The program for the next session will be given by W. H. "Bill" Hopkins, of Tube-Kote, Inc., on the subject of "Thermo-Plastic Coating of Tubular Goods to Prevent Corrosion."

Among visitors at the Monday night meeting were R. E. McFall and C. W. Van Wagoner, of Onyx Industries, Abilene; K. M. Fagin, The Petroleum Engineer, Dallas; Warren J. Jackson, Lane-Wells Company, Dallas; and John Woodruff, with the extension service of The University of Texas, Austin.

Staff Sgt. Estes Returns To France

A U. S. TROOP CARRIER BASE, FRANCE—Subsequent to the salvaging of three C-47 Douglas Skytrains, forced down by flak in Northwestern Germany during the final days of the war, Staff Sgt. Aldredge Estes Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Eldredge Estes Sr., Midland, has returned to his base to resume duties with the 454th Air Service Group.

Sergeant Estes, an aircraft instrument specialist, was accompanied by five other aircraft technicians who traveled in a mobile repair section, cooked their own food and slept in improvised quarters until their mission was completed.

Enlisted in the Armed Forces Aug. 14, 1942, Sergeant Estes was formerly in partnership with his father in a cattle ranch. He has been awarded a Bronze Service Star for technical work performed during participation in the campaign "Germany" near Wesel.

Nancy LaForce Is Complimented At Morning Coffee

Complimenting Miss Nancy LaForce, who will become the bride of Lt. Thomas Hall Keyes, III, June 30, was a morning coffee Tuesday at the home of Mrs. J. D. Bodkins, 1511 West Holloway. Hostesses for the entertainment were Mrs. Bodkins and Mrs. Robert Muldrow, III.

As the guests arrived, they were introduced to Mrs. T. Hall Keyes, Jr., of Larchmont, N. Y., mother of the groom-to-be, Miss Patricia Cox of Colorado Springs, Colo., and Miss Constance Dean of Topeka, Kan.

The Bodkins home was attractive with arrangements of daisies.

Centering the dining table, which was covered with a white sheer cloth, was a bouquet of pink rosebuds and daisies cleverly arranged in a white picture hat. Flanking the centerpiece were small white bouquets of green and yellow and tall green tapers decorated with gold. Also adding a decorative note to the dining table was the green ribbon streamer extending from the coffee service to the coke tray. Silver appointments completed the table setting.

Misses Suzanne LaForce and Helen Armstrong presided at the refreshment table.

Guests were Meses. Tommie Cookman, Jack Nobles, Norman Goodman, K. C. Light, Frank E. Essex, Francis Mickey, George Brown, Lucille Wannamaker, John A. Place Costume Accents Where They Will Draw Attention To Your Face

GLORIA DE HAVEN, GINGER ROGERS—Attention-getters.

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

Put the eye-catching gimmick used to enforce interest in your costume near your face—not way down where it drags glances away. This is one of the infallible tricks which M-G-M designer Irene uses to enhance box-office appeal of the stars she dresses. Famed for her applique work on nude soufflé, the designer shows you, above left, how it is used to point up the lovely face of blonde Gloria deHaven.

Doing the same thing for Ginger Rogers, right, are "diplomatic ribbons" slashed across one white pique lapel facing. You can use this device on a suit with lapels by covering one with white pique and turning the other one in. Across the lapel facing run two dark grosgrain ribbons. Tack at one end in side lapel and draw ribbons through bottomhole slits—two cut for each ribbon as shown.

To make necklaces look as though they belong to costumes, Irene tacks jewelry to the neck-lines of gowns in back from shoulder seam to shoulder seam.

She glorifies figures for the screen—listen, because this trick will work for you—by showing waistlines low and making skirts a little longer for good balance. She either whittles down shoulder pads or skips them entirely, and says a phony shoulder shouldn't jut out farther than the full part of your arm.

To make pallid shades of hosiery darker and more flattering to legs, Irene dips them in stocking tint, and goes one step farther than directions on the label. That step is a vinegar rinse—once cupful of vinegar to a basin of water—used to "set" new stocking color and make it more permanent.

Fort Worth Plans Celebration For Lt. Gen. Simpson

FORT WORTH —(P)— This is General Simpson Day in Fort Worth.

It marks the triumphant return to his native state of Lt. Gen. William Hood Simpson, commanding general of the 9th Army in the Allied conquest of Germany.

Several nearby towns join Fort Worth in the celebration. They are Weatherford, Simpson's home town; Aledo, his mother's home; and Mineral Wells, where Simpson once commanded Camp Wolters.

General Simpson and his party are expected to arrive here by plane about 3 p. m. He will be greeted by his two brothers, John N. Simpson and Constant C. Simpson, both of Fort Worth.

Gov. Coke Stevenson is scheduled to deliver the official welcome message at the airport. Others who will extend greeting on behalf of the official committee of Texans are Homer Covey, president of the chamber of commerce, and Lt. Gen. Barton K. Yount, commanding general of the Army Air Forces Training Command.

After the airport ceremonies, which are scheduled to be climaxed by a 15-gun salute, General Simpson will be escorted to the Tarrant County courthouse to begin a parade through the downtown section.

A formation of four-engine bombers will thunder a welcome overhead as the procession moves through downtown Fort Worth.

Wednesday, at Weatherford, General Simpson's home town, and Parker County have planned a big homecoming celebration.

It Just Couldn't Be, Not Out That Long

DALLAS —(P)— Deputy Sheriffs J. L. Hulse and C. C. Mooney admitted that the logic expounded by a negro arrested for speeding was unusual—but not good enough.

When the motorist demanded to know why he had been stopped, the deputies told him he was going more than 65 miles an hour.

"That couldn't be true, the accused man insisted, because he hadn't been away from home for an hour."

He finished the night in the county jail.

530,000 MEN LIKE THESE TO CARE FOR...SO FAR

THAT'S WHY YOUR 7TH WAR LOAN QUOTA IS THE BIGGEST YET!

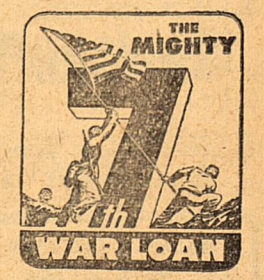

Look at these men.
There are hundreds of thousands more like them. And before this war's done, there's no telling how many will start the long voyage home on their backs.

Think about that trip.
As our battle lines move farther and farther away, the road back becomes longer and more painful. And more costly!

Taking care of that "costly" part is our job. It's up to us to see that those who have really made a sacrifice are given every bit of help—no matter what we must "sacrifice" to do it.

And this 7th War Loan will mean sacrifice.
But if our fighting men are to have the care, the rest, the chance to live again, we must lend to the limit.

The brave men in the picture didn't flinch—and they've certainly met their quota like Americans.
So can we!

MY CO-PILOT GOES BATTY

EVERYTHING was all right for about five minutes. Twice I asked Hung what the hell he was trying to do, but he didn't answer. He continued to stare directly ahead and kept his hands clenched in his lap. The overcast was climbing higher by then, and we were going right into it, and I was busy with the instruments, checking our position against the known peaks in the vicinity. And when you're under oxygen for a long stretch you doublecheck those things because it's easy to get careless—woozy—the stuff is so much like a drug.

Without warning this time Hung grabbed the controls again. He really had a death grip on them, and he was heading us straight down into almost certain death. I had no alternative. I reached over, pulled off his oxygen mask with my right hand, loosened my safety belt and came around in a roundhouse with my left, catching him squarely on the jaw. His head bobbed over on his shoulder, his hands relaxed on the controls, and I pulled out of the dive. I don't know how close we came to disaster because I couldn't see a hundred feet ahead of me. According to my charts we should have hit a 23,000 foot peak at that point, and I'm sure we must have missed it by only a few seconds. In any event, I replaced the oxygen mask on Hung's limp face and we got back to 26,620 feet and made the crossing without further trouble.

We were down to about 7000 feet and within sight of Dinjan when Hung slowly roused himself and began to feel his chin.

"What the hell happened to you?" I demanded. I still felt I hadn't settled my score with him.

Hung looked at me, startled.

"Nothing, Captain," he said. "I'm all right."

"What was our highest altitude?" I asked him.

"Eighteen thousand, sir," he replied instantly.

"You don't remember going above 18,000?" I asked.

"No, sir. We haven't been above 18,000," Hung said.

"What are you rubbing your jaw for?"

"It's sore. I must have bumped it. I don't remember. . . I don't know when . . ."

HUNG was too good a boy to do what he had done unless he was out of his head, and by the time we landed I could make a pretty good guess as to the cause of his conduct. To some extent it was typical of the Chinese, even the smart ones like Hung. Little details irk them; they aren't naturally scientific in their thinking or in their conduct; and if they can't see the immediate value of a procedure or a policy they are likely to figure it is unimportant. That may not be true of all Chinese, but it is definitely true of the ones I have known. It was true of Hung.

"Let's see your mask," I said to him as soon as we stepped out of the plane at Dinjan.

He handed it to me and I tilted it. A good half-ounce of water ran out into my hand. I shook the water from my palm and handed the mask back to him.

"If that ever happens again, Hung," I said, "I'm going to report you."

The most dangerous mistake a person can make who is dependent on an oxygen mask is to let the condensed moisture from his breath remain in the mask after using it. The orders are specific in that regard: you drain your mask and dry it every time you use it. Hung had failed to do so, and in the intense cold above 18,000 feet a little clot of ice had formed in the tube, almost completely blocking off his oxygen supply. Most people would have fainted under such circumstances; Hung had gone batty instead.

the only ones to reach the slam in diamonds on this hand. However, the others went down, as they took both the club and the diamond finesse. Mrs. Young refused both finessses.

She won the opening heart lead with the ace, ruffed a heart, returned to her hand with the king of diamonds and ruffed another heart. The hearts were now all good, so she picked up the diamonds, cashed her ace and king of clubs and, when the queen fell, the jack of clubs gave her all 13 tricks.

London Poles Protest Proposed Provisional Government Agreement

LONDON —(P)—The Polish exile government reported Monday to have handed Britain and the United States a formal note protesting against the agreement for formation of a new Polish provisional government, recently announced in Moscow.

Authoritative sources said the exile government had taken the position it would refuse to recognize the legality of the proposed new government.

One spokesman for the London group, who declined to permit use of his name, said the new regime would be "a poor specimen of a puppet government and nothing else."

Accused Texas Woman Will Attend Inquest In Death Of Sailor

BRIDGEPORT, CONN. —(P)—Mrs. Imogene Stevens, 24, attractive wife of a New Canaan army major, leaves her Fairfield County jail cell Tuesday to attend an inquest in the death of Albert Kovacs, 29-year-old Norfolk sailor she is accused of shooting.

Statements made by principals in the case indicated Corner Theodore E. Steiber would hear conflicting versions of the affair.

Mrs. Stevens, held on a manslaughter charge, was quoted by New Canaan Police Chief Otto Schmidt as saying she shot the youth in self defense.

James Kovacs, 26, who was with his brother when he was killed in New Canaan late Saturday, told newspapermen "Albert never made any attempt to attack Mrs. Stevens."

Her father, J. O. Dumas, is en route to New Canaan.

Kovacs, a submarine sailor on leave from Portsmouth, N. H., was shot in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Milton where he and his brother had gone to call on Miss Faith Ooombs, a maid.

Mrs. Stevens, a neighbor of the Miltons, told police she found the Kovacs brothers apparently alone in the Milton residence late at night, demanded an explanation of their presence and ordered them to leave.

Allie Reynolds Wins Crown For Night Pitching

By TED MEIER Associated Press Sports Writer Bucky Walters of the Cincinnati Reds no longer is "king" of night game pitchers in the major leagues. An off-day study of this year's box scores, as the big league teams spent Monday traveling, revealed that the third baseman-turned-twirler, undisputed after-dark master in 1944, has won only two of six starts under the lights this season. Replacing him at the top is Allie Reynolds, fireball righthander of the Cleveland Indians, who is unbeaten in four starts.

Sports Roundup

NEW YORK (AP)—If all the sports booms which are predicted for the postwar period materialize, a lot of veterans will think an artillery barrage still is going on. George Corcoran, head of the Carolina section of the PGA, now comes up with the statement that golf is due for a boom after this war even bigger than baseball made after the war between the states. His reasons are that the Army, Navy and Marines have put a great deal of emphasis on golf and that equipment will be more reasonably priced.

Hold Your Breath Dept. Comment from Carter (Scoop) Latimer, the Greenville, S. C., scribe: "Probably the strain of pitching in 43 games last year is telling on Bill Voiselle. Remember? Dizzy Dean once paid the penalty for overwork. Bill will come back, though, unless the deafness which made him 4-F went in one ear and came out in his right arm. Since Mel Ott imposed that $500 fine, it could be Voiselle has Ottburn from over (Heating)." Service Dept. The Norfolk Naval Training Station already has received a basketball challenge for next season from the Dayton, Ohio, Air Technical Command team. The Bainbridge Naval Training Center's football squad which won 17 straight games in two years has moved out completely.

Tommy Holmes Holds Batting Leadership

NEW YORK (AP)—Consistency seems to be paying off for the Braves' Tommy Holmes and the White Sox' Tony Cuccinello in the major league batting races. These two continued to head the parade in their respective leagues through Sunday's games with averages virtually unchanged from the previous week. Holmes, with 10 hits in 25 times at bat, raised his average one point to .386 last week while Cuccinello's mark dropped five points to .342 with only seven blows in 23 at bats. Neither had a rival within shouting distance.

Lt. Col. L. E. Patterson, who recently returned to the United States from service with the U. S. Army in the South Pacific since before the Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor, addressed the Midland Geological Society Tuesday noon in Hotel Scharbauer. Patterson, and an artillery unit to which he was attached, landed in Java in early January, 1942, and stayed there until the island was evacuated Feb. 25 of that year. He told of many events in the South Pacific theater during that time. The most interesting was the story of the evacuation of 1,050 men, including American, British, Dutch, Australians and South Africans from Java, on a Dutch merchant ship loaded with high explosive bombs.

Governor Vetoes Pay Increase For District Judges

AUSTIN (AP)—An annual pay raise of $1,000 a year for district judges and a larger increase for appellate judges in the biennium beginning Sept. 1 was a dead issue Tuesday. The pay raise aggregating $413,000 was stricken from the Judiciary Appropriation Bill by Gov. Coke R. Stevenson who declared the increase would have lessened public confidence in the judiciary. In a veto message filed with the secretary of state Monday the governor theorized that the 49th Legislature should have restricted the state for judicial purposes before it increased judges salaries. The legislature failed to restrict the courts despite a recommendation which the governor said was based on demands of the people. Inequities Exist He said he had high regard for the judiciary as the bulwark of democracy but inequities existed among district courts based on a report of the state bar which showed some district judges handling far more cases than others.

Churchill Declares British Must Stick With United States

COVENTRY (AP)—Prime Minister Churchill, tired-looking but still sharp-tongued, continued his 1,000-mile electrifying tour through the English countryside Tuesday after taking cheers and boos with equal unconcern in the first day of his intensive campaign on behalf of the Conservative Party. Led by a police escort and bowing and smiling from an open touring car, Churchill praised the United States, insisted upon friendly relations with Russia and flung taunts at his political enemies in numerous brief speeches. Crowds Are Good-Natured "You haven't much chance against me with my microphone," he told Laborites at Coventry who sought to drown him out with their party song, "Red Flag."

Montgomery Says Americans Saved British Empire

WIESBADEN, GERMANY (AP)—Field Marshal Montgomery told a group of American officers and enlisted men Tuesday that Britain was finished in 1941 and could not possibly have survived without American aid. "I admit it," Montgomery said. "We were finished and you came along and gave us a helping hand." These remarks climaxed a ceremony in which 100 American officers and enlisted men received the Distinguished Service Order, the Military Medal and the Military Cross from Montgomery's hand. "In 1941 the Axis made a great mistake by attacking Russia, and the Japs made an equally great mistake by attacking America," Montgomery added. "History will show these mistakes cost the Axis the war."
