Chinese Red Leaders Arrive In Chungking To Avert Civil War

Beribboned, saber-clanking Japanese generals with all the paraphernalia for a garden party, even to orange-ade served in pavilion tents, greeted drably dressed American officers from airborne forces spearheading the occupation of Japan Tuesday.

The Americans were business-like, the Nipponese as "polite as pie."

The Gilbert and Sullivan touch to the occupation was reported by Associated Press Correspondent Richard K. O'Malley as radio broadcasts indicated General MacArthur had moved his advanced headquarters from Manila to Okinawa, ready to lead the first major airborne contingent to Tokyo's Atsugi Airfield.

In sharp contrast with American Airfield.

Even grudging Nipponese commanders in Southeast Asia took the first halting steps toward relinquishing Nippon's vast southern conquests.

Communist Confer

Matching these developments, Chinese Communist leaders arrived in Chungking with Maj. Gen. Patrick J. Hurley, U. S. ambassador to China, for conferences with Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek to end the threat of civil war.

Also arriving in Chungking—from Manchurian prison camps—were 16 American and British generals, including the Philippines hero, 62-year-old Lt. Gen. Jonathan M. Wainwright.

The party included the British governors of Singapore, Hong Kong and North Borneo.

Tokyo asked for preliminary surrender conferences with MacArthur while Gen. Joseph Stilwell ordered all remaining enemy forces in the Ryukyu Islands south of Japan to surrender immediately.

Commander Harold Stassen, former governor of Minnesota, and other naval officers joined preliminary surrender discussions on Atsugi.

First American occupation forces to land in Japan were brought to Atsugi Airfield, 20 miles from the imperial palace, in 48 transports. One transport crashed in the take off from Okinawa, killing 20.

Move Into Tokyo Bay

The task of this vanguard is to set up communications and prepare for the arrival Thursday of General MacArthur and 7,500 airborne troops.

With MacArthur will be Lt. Gen. Robert L. Eichelberger whose Eighth Army will move into the Tokyo area.

Rear Adm. Oscar C. Badger aboard the cruiser San Diego moved into Tokyo Bay at the head of 10 warships spearheading Allied fleets involved in the occupation. As Bad-

Members of Midland County's commissioners court voted Monday to advertise for bids to purchase two road maintainers for the county's use.

The maintainers will be purchased as quickly as they can be obtained, County Judge Elliott H. Barron said.

Merritt Hines, former county attorney, was employed by the commissioners as a service officer. Hines recently received an honorable discharge from the Army after having served overseas.

The commissioners canvassed the returns of Saturday's election at their Monday session.

Businessmen To Meet Wednesday

Businessmen of the city have been asked to meet at 2:30 p. m. Wednesday in the Crystal Ballroom of the Scharbauer Hotel to discuss plans for promoting the city's annual championship matched calf roping contest Monday, Paul McHargue, chairman of the retailer's committee for the Chamber of Commerce, announced.

All businessmen of the city are urged by McHargue to attend the meeting.

Three Dead And Millions In Damages Left By Hurricane

HOUSTON—(P)—What was left of the Gulf hurricane which caused at least three deaths and millions in property and crop damage as it lashed the Texas Coast, was fast diminishing inland west of Houston Tuesday.

The weather bureau, in a final advisory, ordered all hurricane warnings down on the Texas Coast at 9 a. m. It said the storm was centered between Sealy and Columbus, Texas, 28 to 40 miles from Houston.

From the base weather officer at the Miami, Fla., Army Air Field, came a report that an Army hurricane hunter, flying over what remained of the hurricane area, disclosed "no winds higher than 50 miles per hour."

But before it left the coast the storm had battered a stretch of some 400 miles, demolished or heavily damaged buildings in exposed coastal towns, and scooped high water onto the low coastal plain.

Heavy damage to cotton and rice crops was reported.

Heavy rains accompanying the inland movement of the storm stopped traffic in Houston early Tuesday, and brought a threat of flood to those sections of the city near where bayous were brimming.

The death toll reached three as one man was killed in the collapse of a residence in suburban Houston, buffeted by a 55-mile an hour gale Monday night. Earlier two fishermen drowned off Port Isabel, Texas, when heavy seas capsized their boat.

There was an unconfirmed report that two cotton pickers, seeking protection under a house as the storm struck Austwell Monday, were drowned when the area was inundated.

Beside the dead, hundreds were left homeless in the storm's wake.

The center is moving north-northwestward five miles an hour after crossing inland over Matagorda Bay Sunday night. Seven-To-Ten Foot Tide

"It piled up a 7 to 10 foot tide on the southwest shore of the bay and raked the countryside with winds officially recorded at 85 miles per hour some distance from the center, and unofficially reported at 100 to 135 miles per hour outside the calm center, meanwhile moving very slow inland," the last advisory said.

Wharton, Texas, center of the storm Monday night was well boarded by against the 100-mile-an-hour winds which struck it. The city of 4,000 population, about 80 miles southwest of Houston, suffered electric power failure, restored partially Tuesday.

A report from Wharton said property damage was severe at El Campo, a town in the same area.

The roof of the El Campo hospital blew off and about 30 patients were evacuated to hospitals in Wharton.

Houston, an industrial city of 450,000 residents, had feared winds up to 85 miles per hour. Rains measured at 15.63 for a 24-hour period, fell here.

A core at 7,545-63 feet recovered 16 feet of dolomite, with 14 feet of the specimen having good oil stain and fine porosity.

Core Gas Signs

Stanford No. 1 Williamson, in section 5, block 45, TP survey, T-1-N, slated lower Ordovician prospect in the North Goldenith district of Northwest Ector was on trial depth of 4,424 feet, in San Andres-Permian, and was to ream-hole and core ahead.

In a drillstem test at 4,373-4,424 feet, open for one hour, recovery was 120 feet of heavily gas cut drilling mud. There was a good blow of air throughout the 60 minutes.

Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 4-B Tucker, Southwest Crane County wildcat, in section 25, block 1, H&TC survey, about three miles north of closest production from the Waddell-Simpson, in the Abell field, in North-Central Pecos County, was swabbing some oil into tanks from perforated section at 5,789-5,809 feet, where 120 holes had been

Stores Will Close Monday; Employees May Attend Roping

Employees of most Midland business concerns and offices will have an opportunity to be present at 2 p. m. Monday for the annual championship matched calf roping as practically all of the city's stores and office's plan to close for the day, Paul McHargue, chairman of the retailer's committee of the Chamber of Commerce, said.

McHargue said all businessmen with whom he talked said they planned to close Labor Day, except necessary service establishments.

Purse Is $2,000

Roping fans are expected to fill the grandstand to witness the contest between Toots Mansfield of Big Spring and Sunny Edwards of Odessa as they rope 12 calves each for a purse of $2,000.

In another contest Walton Poage of Rankin and N. A. Pittcock of Aspermont will rope eight calves each for a purse of $1,000.

Midland Fair Inc. officials said numerous ropers have indicated intentions of entering the popular jackpot roping.

Horse racing also is on the bill of fare for the big Labor Day event which annually attracts thousands of visitors to Midland.

Continental Air Lines Plane Is Damaged

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M.—All passengers and members of the crew of a Continental Air Lines plane escaped injury in an accident at the airport here Monday afternoon.

Robert S. Six, president of CAL, said.

The accident was believed caused by a landing gear failure and an investigation is being made to determine the exact cause. The plane ground looped and came to a stop a short distance off the runway.

Lorene Dibello, CAL hostess, quickly opened the door and had all passengers clear of the aircraft before they were endangered by flames which broke out and damaged the ship.

Several passengers en route to the West Coast continued their trips via connecting airlines. CAL planes have flown 109,438,966 passenger miles without injury to a passenger.

General Wainwright had been found safe and well by a parachute team of Americans at a Japanese prison camp deep in Manchuria earlier this month.

Wainwright was a prisoner of the Japanese for three years and three months.

General Wainwright took command in the Philippines in March, 1942, after General MacArthur had been ordered to Australia to become supreme Allied commander in the Southwest Pacific.

Citrus Fruits Are Practically Freed

WASHINGTON—(P)—Fresh and processed citrus fruits were free from practically all controls Tuesday, except on prices.

Orders, issued originally by the Agriculture Department to facilitate meeting military and other government requirements, were no longer considered necessary with the end of the war.

Terminated were orders covering manufacture and sale of citrus fruit and juices, citrus fruit required to be set aside for essential war needs and those covering disposition of grapefruit juice, canned orange juice and canned grapefruit and orange juice blend.

27 Negroes Hurt In Riot In Florida

STUART, FLA.—(P)—Sheriff Richard Hancock said Tuesday that about 2,200 imported negro farm laborers from the Bahamas and Jamaica awaiting shipment home rioted at Camp Murphy Monday and law enforcement officers from three counties were required to restore order.

Hancock reported that 27 negro workers were removed to hospitals, two with fractured skulls and another with a broken back, and six men were lodged in the Martin County jail at Stuart.

Wield Clubs, Defy Officials

The sheriff said the rioting negroes took over the former Army camp now used by the War Food Administration, swept through barracks wielding clubs and destroying coats and furnishings, and defied camp authorities.

Capt. R. G. Ray, Army officer at the camp, said the cause of the trouble had not been determined.

Labor experts said however that the probable cause was the negroes' unwillingness to return to their comparatively drab former existence after sampling the high wages and luxury goods during their employment in the United States.

Wainwright Arrives Safely In Chungking

CHUNGKING—(P)—Lt. Gen. Jonathan M. Wainwright, 62-year-old hero of the American and Filipino stand at Corregidor with eight other U. S. generals and seven British generals released from a Japanese prisoner of war camp in Manchuria.

The names of the eight American generals accompanying Wainwright were not immediately made public.

The British generals were headed by Lt. Gen. Arthur Ernest Percival, former commander at Singapore.

The party included Sir Shenton Thomas, former governor of Singapore, Sir Mark Young, former governor of Hong Kong and G. D. Smith, former governor of North Borneo.

Black Markets Disappear In Thin Air As Peacetime Goods Come Up Fast

WASHINGTON—(P)—Black markets were crumbling into thin air Tuesday—because more peacetime goods were coming up fast.

Black markets, prices, used cars, new cars, chickens, toys, and men wanting jobs—those were big subjects for Americans exactly two weeks after Japan threw in the sponge.

Reputable dealers in used cars and chickens said black markets in those fields are starting to disappear. That's because shiny new autos are on the way and there will be plenty of chickens for your dinner table "very soon."

Speaking of prices, there was this prime news about them today:

1. On used cars, they have finally started down.

2. On new cars, they will be at about the same levels as in 1942—says OPA.

3. On goods in general, an Army of retailers invaded Washington to protest that the OPA is trying to

Russo-Chinese Treaty Will Guarantee Peace For Coming Generation

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

The new Russo-Chinese treaty of friendship is on the faces of it one of the most constructive pacts of the entire World War period.

Of course the proof of the pudding is in the eating, but the 30-year agreement, if carried out in the fullness of its promise, would go far towards guaranteeing peace between Asiatic nations for the coming generation. And that would do much to insure global tranquility.

This in itself would be an inestimable boon to humanity, but the pact seems to strike much deeper than that. We have here a gesture by Moscow which appears calculated to dispel suspicions held by the other Allies regarding Russia's ambitions, not only in Asia but in Europe.

The world at large had been figuring that Moscow wanted to control Manchuria, among other territories, and that she might even dominate China.

Soviets Support Chiang

Now along comes this Russo-Chinese treaty in which Moscow signs away sweeping potential gains. The Soviet Union will support General Chiang's government morally and give it military supplies—and won't aid the Chinese Communists who are at odds with Chiang's regime. This might have the effect of removing the grave threat of civil war in China.

Russia is to withdraw her troops from Manchuria within three months of Tokyo's surrender and China once more gets this great state which Japan stole from her.

The Manchurian city of Port Arthur, which Russia leased from China in 1898 but lost in 1905 in the war with Japan, is to be used jointly by China and the Soviet Union as a naval base. The two countries also are to operate jointly the Chinese Eastern and Southern Manchuria Railways.

It seems to be a pledge by Russia that she has limited her spheres of influence.

Final Election Report Shows Salary Rejection

DALLAS—(P)—The final report of the Texas Election Bureau Monday night showed approval of the supreme court, welfare, and soldier voting amendments. The amendment which would increase the salary of legislators was rejected.

The bureau based its conclusions on returns from 230 of 254 counties with 46 complete.

More Rooms Needed For School Teachers

Still more rooms and apartments are needed if the school teachers who will arrive in Midland this week for the opening of school Sept. 4 are to have living quarters available when they arrive, Frank Monroe, school superintendent, said.

Several citizens telephoned Monroe Tuesday morning and listed rooms and apartments, but a number of more are needed, the school superintendent said.

Monroe expressed his appreciation to those who try to make housing available for the teachers.

Commissioners Vote To Buy Maintainers

Members of Midland County's commissioners court voted Monday to advertise for bids to purchase two road maintainers for the county's use.

The maintainers will be purchased as quickly as they can be obtained, County Judge Elliott H. Barron said.

Merritt Hines, former county attorney, was employed by the commissioners as a service officer. Hines recently received an honorable discharge from the Army after having served overseas.

Belgium Decorates 15 Air Force Officers

BRUSSELS—(P)—Belgian Defense Minister Leo Mundeleer Monday decorated 15 officers of the American Ninth Air Force "who particularly distinguished themselves" during the Battle of the Bulge in the Ardennes last December.

They included: Lt. Col. Cleere Smith, Pampa, Texas; and Lt. Col. John L. Locke, San Antonio, Texas.

185 Votes Cast In Saturday Election

A total of 185 votes were cast in the election Saturday to determine the fate of four proposed constitutional amendments, final returns reveal.

The proposed amendment to permit citizens in the armed forces to vote without payment of a poll tax in time of war was the most popular, carrying by a 149 to 33 majority.

The voters were against increasing the pay of members of the legislature by 122 to 57.

The proposal to increase the number of supreme court justices from three to nine won the favor of the voters by 135 to 43.

Voters favored increasing from $15 to $20 a month the amount of state funds which can be paid the aged, the blind and needy children by a tally of 115 to 69.

Youth Shoots Girl, 16, When She Opposes His 'Swap' To Her Sister

MIAMI, FLA.—(P)—A teen-age girl was in a critical condition here Tuesday, a victim of a gunshot wound inflicted, she told state authorities, by her 17-year-old sweetheart in a quarrel over her younger sister.

The girl, Juanita Luttrell, 16, told state investigator, I. Ray Mills, that her sweetheart shot her in the abdomen after he had proposed a "swap" for her 14-year-old sister, Evelyn.

The shooting occurred a week ago. The youth, Jackie Marsh, against whom no charges have been filed, was released Monday night in custody of his father, Mills said.

Mills said the girl told him that Marsh "got sore" and "was burned up" when she assented to his proposal that he change over to her sister.

Later according to the girl's story to Mills, Marsh accosted her with a 22 hunting rifle and said "Juanita, I'm gonna shoot you?"

"I begged him, please don't shoot me," but he did," Mills quoted her.

Getting Tough With Japan

The stern attitude Gen. Douglas MacArthur has taken toward the Japanese doubtless coincides more closely with the average American's views of appropriate treatment for the defeated enemy than was evidenced in previous negotiations with the Nips.

Probably most Americans reacted with the feeling of "It's about time", when General MacArthur became impatient with delaying tactics, and ordered the Japs to quit their "stalling" and to get to Manila without delay to proceed with the business of surrender. Beyond any question, the American public was growing impatient with the methods pursued by Tokyo. And there was unquestioned satisfaction in the fact that MacArthur's methods got action, speedily.

Likewise satisfying to most Americans, we believe, was the coldly formal treatment accorded the Japanese delegation while in Manila. From available reports, indications are that members of that delegation may have realized in Manila, for the first time, that Japan is a defeated nation, may expect treatment as such, and that there isn't much they can do about it.

It is to be hoped that they have become conscious of defeat.

However, the fact that most Americans may approve the stern course General MacArthur has taken does not imply criticism, necessarily, of early treatment of the Japs, following their announced acceptance of terms of the Potsdam Declaration.

It must be assumed that President Truman and all others who have had dealings with the enemy are determined that everything possible shall be done to eliminate him as a danger to future world security. It is absurd to believe that the President, or anyone else high in our government, has been deceived by the Japs.

If Truman and others have exhibited patience that has been difficult for many people to understand, surely there has been good reason for it. Doubtless they are convinced that their methods are saving American lives and will, at the same time, lead to the sort of control which will eliminate the Japanese peril for all time to come. Only time can prove or disprove the wisdom of their course. But if they are saving lives and, at the same time, are gaining the security desired, then their course is one that every American must approve.

Even so, most Americans undoubtedly applauded when General MacArthur gave evidence of "getting tough" with the enemy. Every American realizes that, sooner or later, someone will have to "get tough" to bring home the realization that crime among nations, as among individuals, is an unprofitable business.

materials without raising prices to consumers." This practice, the merchants said in a statement, "has gone about as far as it can go."

Plenty Of Toys For Christmas
Some more developments in the nation's ponderous progress from war to peace:

Toys—There will be plenty for Christmas, but most of them will be the wartime kind that were in the stores last year. Government officials and industry sources predicted only the barest handful of tricycles, and metal wagons.

Men not working—Robert C. Godwin, head of the U. S. Employment Service, said nearly 2,000,000 war workers have lost their jobs since Japan surrendered.

The National Automobile Dealers Association said the future flood of new autos has caused the first downward break in the price of used cars. Most of them now are selling below price ceilings.

The decrease so far is about $25 a car, on the average.

On new cars, the OPA announced a price formula by which manufacturers can figure their own prices. OPA Chief Chester Bowles said that generally speaking any increases over 1942 ceiling prices are "most unlikely."

More Poultry, Soon
Civilian chicken-eaters could rejoice Tuesday because:

Poultry raisers of nine leading chicken states were told they no longer need to set aside their chickens for the military.

As a result, an Agriculture Department spokesman said plenty of chickens for American dinner tables will be available "very soon."

The Agriculture Department lifted its restrictions on the production and sale of citrus fruits—both fresh

The WPB began allowing firms to stock up on certain materials. They can pile up such things as aluminum, cork, sand, gravel, and pipe fittings, because those things aren't scarce now. But strict controls will be kept on building up stocks of scarce materials.

Two more government departments—Interior and Postoffice—went on the 40-hour week, and the War Department plans to follow suit Sept. 9.

Man Goes To Get Paper But Front Porch Gone

DECATUR, ILL.—(P)—When Fred Gray went out to pick up his morning newspaper off the porch he started looking for the porch.

Police told him that during the night two youths lost control of their car and crashed into the porch, smashing a brick foundation, tearing up nine feet of flooring and breaking a basement window.

Gray said he slept through it all. He added he was a bit hard of hearing.

Contributions Needed To Help Crippled Youth

The parents of a 15-year-old boy, who was born a spastic and who up until now has been completely helpless, have learned their son will be able to walk, talk, and care for himself if proper treatment is given, Miss Betty Windover, Midland County Child Welfare worker, reported.

A specialist from Houston who recently examined the boy said that child's mentality is normal and he is confident that with the use of braces and a program of corrective training, the boy can learn to walk, and will gradually have the use of all of his muscles. The use of the braces plus three months' training at a school would be adequate.

Arrangements to enter school are being made. Miss Wendover has made arrangements for the child to enter school as soon as sufficient funds are raised. She reported that the braces will cost $385 and the course of training $388. This does not include transportation or board and room for the mother and boy.

The father of the boy makes $39 a week and has a family of four to support. He can pay $40 a month toward this bill, but cannot possibly pay the entire bill. A total of $200 will be given from the Midland County Crippled Children's Fund and $50 will be contributed by the Children's Service League. More money is still needed before this youth will be able to enter the school.

Those who would like to see this boy walk and talk, and otherwise become a useful citizen are asked to send their contributions to the Children's Service League, in care of Mrs. Fred Cassidy, president, 804 North Big Spring. Miss Wendover said any contribution, no matter how small, will be welcomed.

shot. In 24 hours of swabbing to pits after hole had been cleaned from last perforating the well made 25 barrels of oil.

Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 1 Parker, South Andrews County exploration was to drill ahead after a drillstem test at 7,990-8,041 feet, for 80 minutes. Recovery was 70 feet of drilling mud with no shows of oil or gas, and no flowing bottomhole pressure. The section was chert. Location is in section 24, block A-31, psi survey.

The Texas Company No. 1-B W. T. Coble, 580 feet from north and west lines of east half of labor 19, league 67, Hardeman County School Land survey, in West-Central Hockley County and 1 1/2 miles west of nearest oil well in the Levelland field, reported official pumping potential of 21 barrels of 29.79 gravity oil, in 24 hours.

The pay section at 4,765-4,829 feet had been treated with 2,000 gallons of acid. Gas-oil ratio was 896-1.

Another on Sealy-Smith
Shell Oil Company, Inc., No. 2 Sealy-Smith, 660 feet from south and 661 feet from east lines of section 37, block A, G&MMB&A survey, in Northeast Ward County, is to be a semi-wildcat to 5,700 feet to explore for pay in the Clear Fork-Perman, in the Monahan field where production has been proven from the Ellenburger, the Wichita-Albany section of the lower Permian, and from the Clear Fork.

The new development will be 1,866 feet southeast of same company's No. 6 Sealy-Smith, discovery for Clear Fork production in that territory, and is 1,218 feet north of the closest Ellenburger producer. Drilling is to start at once.

Maybe Flows Oil
Phillips Petroleum Company, No. 1 Talver, in northeast corner of section 15, block B-2, psi survey, and about three-eighths of a mile outside of proven Ellenburger production on southeast side of the Keystone-Ellenburger field, in North Winkler County, flowed 506 barrels of oil in six hours through a one-half inch tubing choke from open hole between bottom of casing at 9,951 feet and total depth at 9,966 feet.

The well is still testing and official completion gauge will be taken shortly. Top of pay was around 9,500 feet, but operator apparently is not going to try to produce from all of the section.

Skelly Oil Company No. 1 Sugg, Irion County lower Ordovician exploration in section 45, block 1, H&TC survey, was making hole past 9,415 feet in hard, Ellenburger dolomite.

Sinclair Prairie Oil Company No. 1 Ratliff, in section 25, block 73, psi survey, in Southwest Andrews, had progressed below 8,864 feet in lime.

ger steamed cautiously through the mine-swept and gun-lined entrance to the bay, Admiral Nimitz announced that every Pacific fleet force will be involved in landing occupation units in the enemy's broken empire and patrolling conquered waters.

Powerful units of Admiral Halsey's Third Fleet lay at anchor in Sagami Bay or rode at sea nearby, backing up Badger's task force 31 which is paving the way for landings at the great Yokosuka Naval Base and three guardian islands by 10,000 Marines and Bluejackets. MacArthur programed the landing for Thursday but fleet dispatches said they would start going ashore Wednesday.

Ready to Surrender
Twenty-eight of the 55 Japanese ships which survived the attacks of these combined fleets and air and submarine forces were reported lined up at the Sasebo Naval Base.

SAGAMI BAY, JAPAN—(P)—Admiral Nimitz, commander of the Pacific Ocean areas, will arrive in Japan Wednesday and make his flagship, the South Dakota his flagship, it was announced Tuesday.

of Southern Japan ready to surrender. Most of them were destroyers or submarines. Two other Nipponese submarines were brought into the U. S. fleet anchorage in Sagami Bay by American prize crews.

The commander of the former section 10, block 73, psi survey, and in the vicinity of Shell Oil Company, Inc., and The Texas Company No. 1 Ratliff & Bedford, four-pay discovery, in section 4, block 73, psi survey, had penetrated under 3,545 feet in shale, dolomite and sand.

George P. Livermore, Inc., and others No. 1 Wiese, Northwest Crosby County wildcat to 10,000 feet, in section 64, block C, D&W survey, had reached 7,671 feet in lime, and was continuing.

Axis submarine base at Penang on the approaches to Singapore was bluntly told Tuesday to meet British Naval officers at sea with full details of minefields in the area as a preliminary to surrender discussions.

Three sullen Japanese Monday signed preliminary surrender arrangements for all of the mikado's forces in Southeast Asia and the Dutch East Indies. They were told to clear the way for immediate British occupation of Malaya and its Singapore Naval Base. Occupation of the Indies was to follow the September 2 signing of formal surrender papers aboard the battleship Missouri in Tokyo Bay.

Gen. Tomoyuki Yamashita who won the nickname of "the Tiger" when he conquered Malaya and Singapore supplied American officers with a map of his carefully guarded hideout in the Northern Philippines. Ten thousand Japanese hiding in other Philippine mountains said they had received his orders to quit.

In their second mercy mission to prisoners of war, approximately 125 Superforts parachuted 430 tons of supplies to about 20,000 men in 69 camps in Japan.

Tokyo said these and other prisoners on the mikado's home islands would leave through seven ports for Manila.

The radio quoted the influential newspaper Asahi Shimbun as calling on Japan to "abolish militarism" which it blamed for the country's "miserable defeat."

The Stars and Stripes carried by the armies of the North during the last years of the Civil War had 30 years in the union.

San Antonio Is Without Newspapers Tuesday

SAN ANTONIO—(P)—San Antonio was without newspapers Tuesday following a breakdown in contract negotiations with union printers.

About 125 printers, members of the International Typographical Union (AFL) walked out Sunday. The three papers, the Light, News and Express, published four page and engraved editions Monday and announced they would discontinue publication for the time being.

J. Lawrence Deckert, president of the union local, said the publishers declined to recognize the union shop. The publishers declared in a statement they "stand ready to continue to negotiate a contract x x x but we cannot submit to a unilateral arrangement dictated solely by the union." The dispute has been referred to the War Labor Board at Chicago.

Scooter Riders Must Get Drivers License

Motor scooter riders were cautioned Monday afternoon at a meeting in the county courtroom by Highway Patrolman Russell H. Gifford they must have drivers licenses before they can ride their scooters.

Gifford explained that persons under 14 cannot obtain a license under any circumstances. Persons between 14 and 16 can obtain an authorization from the county judge for a license to be issued them provided their parents appear before the judge and make an affidavit it is necessary for a license to be issued. The person then must pass the regular driver's test before a license can be issued.

The youthful motor scooter owners almost filled the courtroom. Police Chief Jack Ellington and County Judge Elliott H. Barron were present at the meeting.

James Buchanan was the only bachelor President of the United States.

Three Cases Heard In District Court

Three uncontested civil cases were disposed of in district court Monday by Judge Cecil C. Collings. The cases were one removal of disabilities of a minor, one annulment of a marriage and one divorce case.

How to Help Your Electric Refrigerator Last Longer —Work Better

- Defrost regularly, at least once a week.
- Don't set the control for the lowest temperature except when freezing meats, desserts or other frozen dishes.
- Open the refrigerator door as seldom as possible and shut it quickly.
- Never use an ice pick or other sharp instrument to loosen ice trays. You may puncture the freezing coil and cause serious damage.

• Take good care of your electric refrigerator and help it continue to bring you the benefits of proper refrigeration. Your electric refrigerator is built to give long service. It serves you best if you give it proper care. Help your refrigerator last longer and operate more efficiently by following these suggestions.

Should your refrigerator need adjustment or repair, call the dealer from whom it was purchased, or some other reliable service man who is experienced with your make of refrigerator.

THE STORY: Brock Kittridge, here, is coming home to Daverton, Thayer, the girl he had known for 10 days on his last leave and then married, nervously awaits his return.

"WHEN I marry," Thayer had said once to Amy, "I'm going to be sure—and it's going to be for keeps."

But now there was Brock. "You're what I want, Thayer. Ten days, 10 years—what's the difference? When you know, you know; nothing changes that." Not laughing now; deeply in earnest.

"The difference is, Brock, do we know?" Everything within her pulling her toward him, even while the deep steadiness that was part of her counseled caution. "You love me, don't you, Thayer?"

"I love you, Brock." Never more than now with his eyes serious and grave upon her. "It isn't that."

"Then what is it? I don't get it, Thayer. Things can't be half—not with us. You're my girl—it's as simple as that."

Hard to meet his eyes and go on saying the reasonable thing. "Brock, you want me now . . ."

"You bet I want you." Standing there not touching her, yet by refraining holding her to him with something stronger than physical contact, a new maturity in his forbearance that moved her as nothing else could have, sent her heart into a side-slip.

They had driven out to Drumhead Hill, a rounded wooded knoll on the outskirts. They had got out of the car, above them the clear blue April sky. A man and a girl, the weight of their future pressing in upon them.

"Brock . . ."

"Thayer, I want to marry you; now—today. I want to think of you with my name, I want to know that you belong to me. I know there's the chance of my not coming back, but never the chance of my coming back with any different feeling for you." His eyes were searching hers; his hands came out in an odd little defenseless gesture. "Darling—it's for always, can't you see?"

She went into his arms then. He did not kiss her at first, he did not speak. He stood there holding her, his cheek pressed against her own, as if nothing mattered but her nearness. Then slowly he moved his cheek until her mouth lay beneath his own. It was a long kiss and it held a tenderness that made tears burn behind her lids. Then, suddenly, her arms went about his neck, her palms were against the back of his head, pressing him closer. He kissed her again; she heard him whisper her name in a sort of exultation.

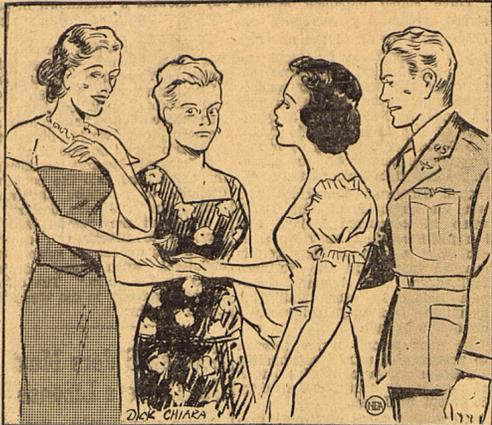

He was for carrying her off, then and there. She shook her head. "We must let your mother know, Brock. I wouldn't feel right if we didn't."

"Darling, mothers always oppose sudden change just as a matter of principle." Then, caught by her gaze, he said a little huskily, "Oh, I know you're right, Thayer." He drew her closer. "Always be right—for me." He kissed her. "My girl, my own girl—how'd I ever do it?"

April, 1942. Gas unrationed, and within two hours the road to Las Vegas unrolling swiftly beneath their impatient wheels.

THE little bedroom clock said 2:30.

Her living with Brock's mother was his idea. They returned from their short honeymoon to lunch

"Well," Aunt Hildreth had said, "so you're Thayer. . . . You're very poor at description, Corinne," she added to her sister-in-law. They don't like each other, Thayer thought, watching them.

with Mrs. Kittridge, Judson Kittridge—Brock's uncle, and his wife Hildreth. Thayer had not met Hildreth before. The very antithesis of Brock's mother, she was tall and thin, possessed of penetrating hazel eyes in a strongly featured plain face.

"Well," she had said, "so you're Thayer." Her handclasp was firm, her gaze dazzling. "And you're very poor at description, Corinne," she added, to her sister-in-law.

"Why," fluttered Mrs. Kittridge charmingly, "I told you, Hildreth, that Thayer was pretty, that she had brown eyes . . ."

"You told me none of the things

I'm finding out for myself," retorted Hildreth crisply. "What do I care for prettiness and brown eyes?" A quick warm smile illuminated her face and she took Thayer's arm. "My dear, we've no intention of dissecting you. When I'm pleased I forget my manners."

It was an odd meal. Fascinated, Thayer watched the play between Aunt Hildreth and Mrs. Kittridge. They don't like each other, she thought, and then involuntarily, I like Aunt Hildreth. She watched the sharp clever face, so in contrast to Mrs. Kittridge's gentle beauty, and then she was aware of something: Mrs. Kittridge's smile kindled to warmth only when it dwelt upon her son; her eyes caught no spark from it when they rested on anyone else. Only the tension of the moment enabled Thayer to have this discernment.

Afterward Brock and Thayer had driven out to Drumhead Hill, for tomorrow Brock would be leaving. Thayer had presented her views. "The war isn't going to last forever, Brock, and I'd rather be—on my own until you come back. I've told Miss Mary to hold my room."

"Hey," Brock said, pulling her over close to him. "I'm giving the orders. We Kittridges boss our women—all except Aunt Hildreth." He laughed, then sobered. "Why, Thayer, Mom's expecting you to stay. Didn't you see all the new chintz and stuff in the bedroom? She really went to town on it."

"Is it your room done over, Brock?"

"No, mine's next to Mom's; it could hardly hold me for all the junk I had in it."

Police Use Tear Gas To Chase Skunk Away

OLYMPIA, WASH.—(AP)—A skunk who apparently had never heard how hard it is to find a room in a hotel strolled into the lobby of an Olympia hostelry Monday. Residents shrieked . . . and almost checked out during the resultant excitement. But Police Officer Kenneth Utery saved the day with a tear gas shell. The skunk checked out—and for keeps.

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

America's Card Authority

Someone has started a rumor in regard to bridge rules which I would like to officially deny. The National Laws Commission is the body that writes the rules of bridge, and as chairman of that commission I can assure you there is no contemplated change in the no trump count. It is 40 for the first trick and 30 for each trick thereafter. Thus with 40 on part score, if you bid and make one trump, you make your game.

The contract of three no trump on today's hand was a sound one and was generally made in a New York duplicate game, but one East player was able to defeat it. East put up the queen of hearts on the first trick, not the ace. If South held both the king and jack, he reasoned, any play he made was immaterial. If South held only the king, he could lose nothing by the play of the queen. South felt he must win the trick. Then when he counted his tricks, he saw that his one chance to make the contract was to find the hearts evenly divided. He led a diamond, East took the ace and returned the ace and another heart. West took the setting trick with the long heart. Of course South could have made the contract by playing low on the first lead.

National Tennis Games At Forest Hills Open

FOREST HILLS, N. Y.—(AP)—The National Tennis championships, the first "major" national title event to be contested since the end of the war, gets under way Tuesday with a field that already has begun to show the effects of the cessation of hostilities.

The tourney was kept alive through the war years partly because of soldiers and sailors who managed to get leave to play and last year just half the men's field of 32 was composed of military and naval personnel. Sgt. Frank Parker, then stationed at Modoc Air Base in California, came East long enough to win the 1944 title in his thirteenth attempt to win the crown.

Service Men To Play

Returning to competition this year are Frank Shields, who served as a captain in the Army Air Force; Navy Lt. Gardner Mulloy, who was skipper of an LST during the landings in Africa and Europe; Major Frank Guernsey, a crack Army pilot, and Lt. Comdr. John Van Ryn of the Navy, a former Davis Cup player.

Parker, Lt. Seymour Greenberg and Air Cadet Bob Falkenburg, who played last year, were able to come back. Parker flying here from Guam where he was playing in an Army-Navy series.

The women's tourney, which maintained a high standard of competition through the war, finds Pauline Betz of Los Angeles seeking her fourth consecutive title to equal Helen Jacobs' record.

If a transport pilot should stay off an airway for three months, his authority to fly over it is automatically canceled.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

NEW YORK—(AP)—Although Navy football coaches aren't saying anything, can't be surprised if Midshipman Cecil Duffy of Birmingham, Ala., turned out to be the best back at Annapolis this season. Duffy was kept under wraps as a plebe last year, but those who have seen him say he really can go. . . . And incidentally, don't take too much stock of those reports of Navy's line "weakness." . . . Inspired by the success of the week-end visit of the Brookline, Mass., American Legion ball club, Toronto promoters hope to make it an annual tussle for the Eddie Quinn Trophy. . . . In his first year in the majors—1945—Ty Cobb got in so far wrong with his Detroit teammates that Manager Hughie Jennings decided to trade him off for the good of the club. The offers weren't so good, so Ty only remained a Tiger for 22 seasons.

Reconversion Note
Remember a couple of months ago when there was a two-front war on and it looked as if transportation troubles would wreck what was left of the sports program? . . . Well, look at this week's slate: the tennis nationals; the Chicago All-Star football game; the All-American kids' ball game; finals of the American Legion and National Semi-Pro baseball tournaments and what have developed into a pair of terrific pennant races. . . . To borrow Tommy Fitzgerald's swell line, the only ODT that seems to be causing any trouble is O'Neill's Detroit team.

Shorts and Shells
The will of Larry Conover, former Penn State football star and a noted official who died recently, offers Penn State a $5,000 fund for the New Jersey boy who "attains the best record in football and scholarship." The judge's are to be the football coach and the college registrar—which looks like the makings of a swell scrap. . . . Jack Saunders, who'll play in the outfield for Babe Ruth's East team in Tuesday night's Esquire ball game, plays the drums and xylophone in civic concerts at Cincinnati.

Browns Play Kind Of Ball That May Overtake Leaders

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
While others have been stealing the spotlight, the American League champion St. Louis Browns are quietly going about playing the brand of baseball that may gain them their second straight flag.

With Detroit and Washington, the only two teams ahead of the Browns in the standings, apparently going into nose-dives, the Sewellman, as a result of Monday night's 8-7 triumph over the Chicago White Sox, are only four games out of first place, and may sneak into the lead by Labor Day.

Should St. Louis sweep the two-game series with the Tigers starting Tuesday, they will stand a very good chance to overtake the Bengals and Nats. For while Detroit and Washington tangle with the tough Cleveland Indians and New York Yankees respectively, the Browns will have comparatively easy pickings in a four-game set with the White Sox from whom they've just concluded a five-game sweep.

Win 19 Of Last 24 Games
Monday's victory over the Pale Hose marked St. Louis' nineteenth win in its last 24 games, a 792 pace, or the best in the league during the past three weeks. The Browns have taken four straight from the Yankees and two out of three from the Senators.

Although the air-tight pitching which has featured their games in the last two weeks finally fell off, the Browns came through with some heavy hitting to pull out Monday's game. Trailing 7-5, they exploded for three runs in the last of the seventh to win.

Al Hollingsworth, fourth Brownie pitcher of the night, received credit for the victory, his sixth in a row. Vern Stephens helped with his nineteenth homer in the fifth with one on, Oris Hockett's grand slam homer for the Sox in the seventh went to waste.

Manager Jimmy Dykes and Coaches Mule Haas and Bing Miller of the White Sox were banished from the game in the seventh inning for arguing over called strikes. Giants Beat Phils Twice

The only other major league action was a two-night double header between the New York Giants and Philadelphia Phillies, won by the Giants 4-0 and 6-2. Bill Voiselle fashioned a three-hitter to shut out the National League cellarites in the opener. Sal Maglie gave up nine hits to register his third win in the nightcap. Nap Reyes' loaded bases triple started Charlie Schanz on the road to ruin in the first contest, while Outfielder Leon Treadway paced the Giants hitters in the second with three safeties off Pitcher Dick Mauney including two runs batted in.

Ruth and Cobb Today

Babe Ruth and a bespectacled Ty Cobb meet again—as managers in the All-American Boys' Game at Polo Grounds.

Babe Ruth's East Kids Are Favored Over Ty Cobb's Team Tuesday Night

NEW YORK—(AP)—Babe Ruth's East team ruled the favorite to defeat Ty Cobb's West team in the Second Annual Esquire All-American Boys baseball game at the Polo Grounds Tuesday night.

A young lefthanded pitcher, Bill Glame of Detroit, is the reason. Observers during the East's workouts were enthused over the work of the 17-year-old southpaw, who is expected to be the mound choice of Ruth.

Cobb indicated he might start George Fisher, a lanky righthander from Ogden, Utah. Another available pitcher is Bob Finch from Houston, Texas.

By HARRY GRAYSON
NCA Sports Editor
The All-American Boys' game at the Polo Grounds is as refreshing as it is concrete proof that the kids have not quit playing baseball.

Esquire must be credited with one of the more wholesome sports promotions. The magazine put on its show for the second straight year at a cost of $75,000.

It brings to New York 32 picked lads of 17 years and under and an equal number of baseball writers from as many sections of the country.

To make sure no youngster in their section would not be disappointed, Silliman Evans, publisher of the Nashville Tennessean, and his famous sports editor, Raymond Johnson, sent one boy from each of eight teams that competed in the Nashville area in addition to pitcher Bob Jones, who struck out 12 in the district's All-Star game.

Purpose: —o Uncover Talent
The purpose of the production is, of course, to uncover young talent. It is an idea organized baseball should have thought of years ago.

Perhaps carrying the heaviest responsibility will be Bill Glame, a little left-hander who had even the great Cobb, manager of the West, worried. Glame registers from Detroit, the city that gave the game of a year ago the slender southpaw
