200 Injured In Blimp Hangar Fire As Hurricane Strikes In Florida

MIAMI, FLA. —(AP)—More than 200 persons were reported injured Saturday night in a fire at the Richmond navy blimp base as a violent tropical hurricane which reached a peak velocity of 143 miles per hour. Swept inland across the Florida Keys. Hurricane warnings were ordered hoisted over all of the Florida Peninsula 50,000 persons were driven to seek emergency shelter in South Florida alone, and at least one death was reported.

Flames whipped by the great winds threatened to destroy the giant Navy blimp hangars at Richmond, 30 miles from Miami, which were described by the Navy as the world's largest single-arch wooden constructed hangar.

The Navy said no deaths resulting from the blaze had been reported, but all available ambulance, doctors' and medical personnel were being rushed through the storm to the base.

Three hundred enlisted men from Opa Locka Naval Air Station, Miami, were dispatched to help combat the flames. The cause of the fire was not immediately determined.

Another fire sprang up on the northwest fringe of downtown Miami, destroying a furniture factory and a tile-manufacturing plant and casting a great red glow up against the rain-whipped skies.

Relief workers went into the Florida Keys as the core of the storm raged over the Everglades in a curving northward movement. Hundreds of homes were reported damaged in the Keys, where the hurricane reached an officially recorded velocity of 143 miles per hour. At Caryport Light, 40 miles south of Miami, 99 mile winds in Miami.

Winds of 99 miles per hour roared over Miami itself but damage was held to a minimum by the tightly boarded up city.

An unconfirmed report said $7,000,000 worth of Navy and private planes, shifted from the Miami area to the hurricane-proof Richmond blimp base, were endangered by the fire there.

An advisory issued by the weather bureau said:

"Extended hurricane warnings of Florida Peninsula to include Jacksonville and St. Marks.

"The severe hurricane is central over the Florida Everglades 60 miles east of Miami, attended by winds of full hurricane force.

"Highest wind reported at Miami was 99 m. p. h.

"It is apparently moving north-westward at 12 to 16 m. p. h. with a tendency toward a slight northward curve which will probably terminate in a definite north-eastward movement while still over Florida interior close to the Gulf Coast or after emerging a short distance out in the Gulf of Mexico. This movement will cause the storm to affect all of peninsula Florida and adjacent water area.

To Hit Central Florida

"Destructive winds are indicated for central Florida late Saturday night and Sunday and over North Florida Sunday. Hurricane winds that now prevail over extreme South Florida will begin to diminish slowly after midnight.

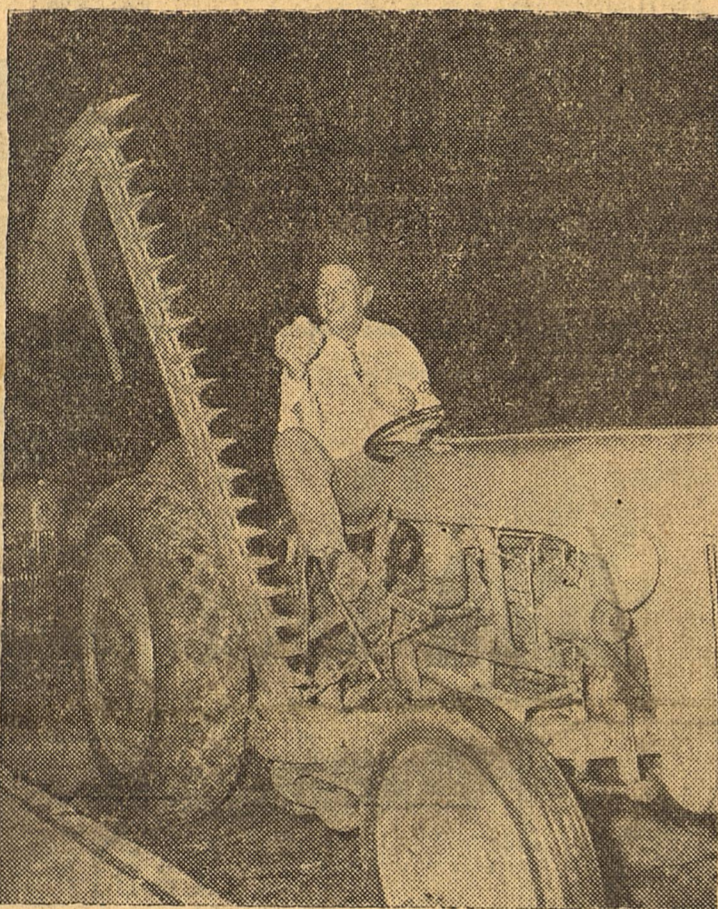

"Hurricane warnings are now displayed over the entire Florida peninsula."

At 8 p. m., the winds in Miami had ebbed to 68 m. p. h.

Grave fears that South Florida's multi-million dollar grapefruit, orange, lime and avocado crops would be destroyed were expressed. Many fruit trees were uprooted. A

Drives Tractor From Detroit To Texas

W. B. Burns, Ford-Ferguson dealer in Weimer, Texas, left Detroit Friday noon, August 31, to drive a tractor to his home town. The tractor has a heavy duty mower attached. Burns is pictured as he stopped in Dallas, Texas, en route to Weimer, Texas. The distance is 1574 miles and he made approximately 100 miles daily. The trip is officially sanctioned as a test run by the American Automobile Association. Among the results sought on the test run is confirmation of the roadability of the tractor, looking towards an early solution of farm transportation problems.

Twenty Veterans Of European War Die In Kansas City Plane Crash

KANSAS CITY —(AP)—Only one of twenty-one homeward-bound European war veterans, passengers aboard a military air transport plane which crashed early Saturday, remained alive Saturday night—and his condition was critical. A crew of three died in the craft which crashed and burned only a few seconds after it took off from Fairfax Airport.

Special Trains Carry Pacific Vets East

SEATTLE —(AP)—Four special trains, bearing Naval personnel brought back from the Pacific by the carrier Essex and the dreadnaught Massachusetts, left the Smith Cove Naval Station Saturday afternoon for East Coast points for discharge under the P-V-T system. The warships arrived in the sound Thursday and Friday. The first 1,400 of their "passengers" were brought here Friday by special ferry and tug service.

LATE NEWS FLASHES

SAN FRANCISCO — (AP) — The Japanese Domei News Agency in a domestic broadcast Saturday said a committee of the house of representatives of the former totalitarian political organization in Japan.

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Sen. Hatch (D-NM) has introduced a bill to settle a long disputed Oklahoma-Texas boundary question involving an area between the old Cimarron base line and the northern boundary of Texas in the Panhandle. Land totaling 4,900 acres is involved, in a strip 156 miles in length and running in width from a point to 500 feet.

TOKYO — (AP) — Lt. Gen. Masaharu Homma of Bataan "Death March" infamy and three other suspected war criminals surrendered to U. S. Army authorities Saturday night and were locked up in Yokohama prison.

Council May Divest Italy Of Colonies

LONDON —(AP)—A responsible source said Saturday night the Big Five Council of Foreign Ministers has decided tentatively to divest Italy of her colonial empire and to adopt a trusteeship arrangement giving ultimate independence to Italian colonies.

The informant said the council had accepted the American view calling for an international trusteeship of the colonies "in conformity with the United Nations Charter."

The official communique issued earlier said the foreign ministers had referred the Italian colonial question to the council's deputies with instructions to make the "fullest possible use of the plan proposed by the American delegation."

Control Of Dardanelles

This development on the Italian peace settlement followed earlier reports that Turkey had sent the council a note suggesting international control of the bases leading to the Dardanelles, strategic lines between the Mediterranean and the Black Sea, and of vital interest to Russia.

It was learned unofficially that the foreign ministers have no intention of naming Italy as the administrator of her former colonies. The United States delegation was understood to be anxious to end speculation that this might be done.

Under the American proposal, which presumably now will be included in the draft of the Italian peace treaty, an international trusteeship council would be set up under United Nations supervision. This council would designate an administrator.

The trusteeship would continue, it was understood, only until the colonies were able to show a readiness for self-government.

In turning over the colonial question to their deputies, the foreign ministers cleared the decks for the consideration Monday of the Italy-Yugoslavia border issue in which control of Trieste and the Istrian Peninsula at the head of the Adriatic are in dispute.

To Consider Other Views

While the council in a communique issued after the fourth day of the meeting, stressed the American plan. It also told the deputies to take into consideration views of the other delegations.

The council said the deputies were asked to submit recommendations two weeks before a date to be agreed upon later—of a second session of the foreign ministers.

This indicated the council has decided it will be unable to complete the draft of the Italian treaty for several weeks, or perhaps months.

Russia's influence was strengthened further in the council with a decision to add Poland, Ukraine and White Russia to the list of countries invited to submit views in writing, if they wish, on the Italian peace settlement.

Russia Rewards Officers In Move To Bolster Army

MOSCOW —(AP)—Red Army officers were freed from taxation, given free and extra food, and granted personal ordinals Saturday as rewards for war service and as steps toward "bolstering Soviet armed strength."

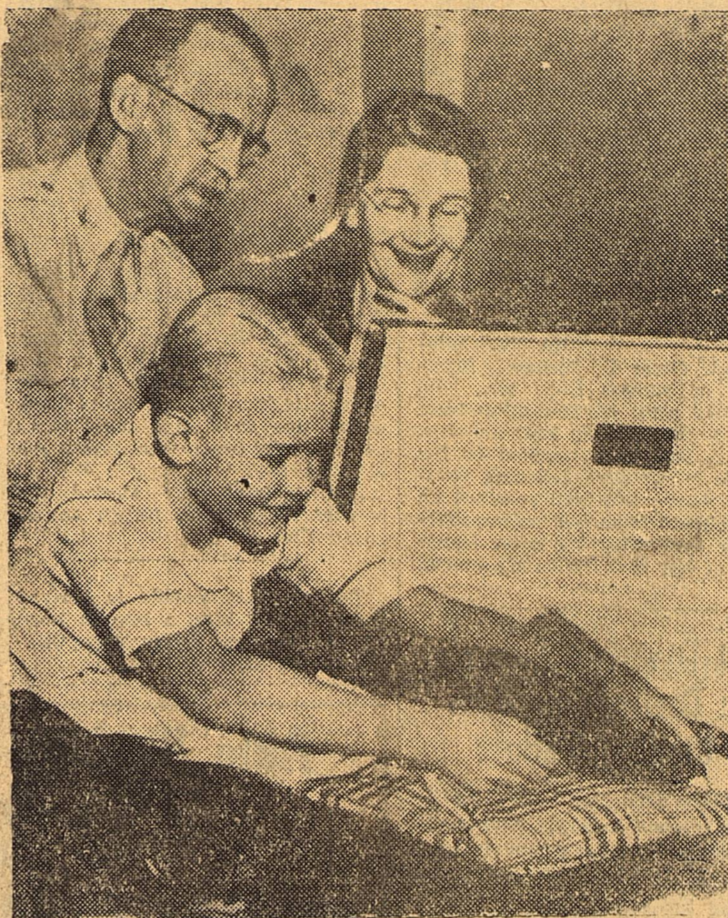

Premier Stalin, the Communist Party and the Soviet government joined in conferring the benefits, the army newspaper Red Star announced, adding:

"The Soviet officer must and can answer with only one thing—to increase even more his fruitful work in the name of strengthening the might of our armed forces for the welfare of the Socialist fatherland."

Elliott's Testimony Declares Proxy Settled Huge Debt

WASHINGTON —(AP)—Brig. Gen. Elliott Roosevelt told government investigators he borrowed over $600,000 to build a Texas radio network, and he said he never knew how Jesse Jones, former commerce secretary, settled his huge debts until he read about it in the papers.

The House Ways and Means committee Saturday completed the 200-page statement of the late President's second son. It expects to make a decision on its inquiry next week.

Elliott, now 35, is leaving the Army with his future employment unannounced.

Ways and Means Committee members said his statement indicates he is "broke."

Throughout the account of his business life, young Roosevelt hammers at one point—that the influence of his father, the President, never was used to promote his financial affairs. He gives in detail his own account of how his father was consulted by telephone by John Hartford, president of the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company before Hartford loaned Elliott $200,000.

Story From Revenue Bureau

Elliott's story was obtained by officials of the Internal Revenue Bureau. It was read behind closed doors by the Ways and Means Committee.

Committee members would not discuss it for publication. But Saturday from many sources, young Roosevelt's own account can be pieced together for the first time, as follows:

In 1938, when 28 years old, Elliott was president of Hearst Radio, which owned stations in Texas. This organization desired to dispose of certain of its stations. Elliott and two other men formed a corporation known as Texas State Network. Elliott was to purchase 55 percent of the stock, and the other two men to take the remainder.

Young Roosevelt asked his late uncle, Hall Roosevelt, to help him raise money.

Hall Roosevelt told Elliott that John Hartford, head of the grocery store chain, often made loans to young men starting out in business and sent Elliott to see Hartford in New York.

Hartford asked Elliott whether it would be embarrassing for President Roosevelt if he made the loan. Elliott suggested that Hartford telephone his father, then at Warm Springs.

FDR Said Sons Independent

Elliott did not hear what his father said to Hartford, but the President later told Elliott, according to the son's story, that he told Hartford if he wished to loan money to Elliott he must do it on the merits, that his children were independent to conduct their affairs as they wished.

At no time, the account added, was any suggestion made to Hartford that he or his company would receive any special consideration from government officials as a result of the loan.

Hartford loaned $200,000 to Elliott, "taking stock in the Texas State Network as security."

Then, a few weeks following, David Baird, a New York insurance broker, loaned Elliott $50,000, taking stock as collateral. Baird stipulated that the network take a $100,000 life insurance policy upon Elliott, which was done.

Elliott executed promissory notes both to Hartford and Baird, with

Supreme Commander Will Dictate To Nips Without Negotiation

By RAY CRONIN
Associated Press Staff Writer

General MacArthur cracked down on Japanese newspapers and the agency Domei Saturday and simultaneously stepped-up his schedule for occupation of other parts of the Nippon homeland.

The Allied supreme commander clamped on a tight news censorship and told the Japanese through his censorship chief he wanted it understood "that the Allied powers do not regard Japan as an equal in any way." Japan, he added, is "a defeated enemy which has not yet demonstrated a right to a place among civilized nations."

MacArthur made it clear that he has not been negotiating with the Japanese government.

"There are no negotiations," he said. "The supreme commander will dictate to the Japanese government."

Domei was suspended "for dissemination of news disturbing to the public tranquility." It resumed service under the eyes of American censors.

Meanwhile, the bag of suspected war criminals increased. Lt. Gen. Masaharu Homma, whose troops staged the infamous Bataan death march in the Philippines, surrendered for questioning. Lt. Gen. Shigenori Kuroda, another Japanese commander in the Philippines, also surrendered.

Refused to See Wainwright

Homma and Kuroda surrendered to U. S. Army authorities at a Japanese jail and were locked up in the Yank prison at Yokohama. Homma, who once refused to see General Wainwright "because of what he termed the American officer's 'inferior' rank, was taken in by a party of Americans headed by a second lieutenant.

Homma denied he ordered the death march and said "I don't think it was such a tough march." He added he was ready to "take full responsibility" for the acts of his subordinates.

Homma, who received the surrender of General Wainwright, hero of Corregidor, disclosed that the brave band of Americans and Filipinos, who defended that fortress to the bitter end almost had him killed.

He said defense of the island was so vigorous that he was on the verge of admitting Japanese failure when the Yanks hoisted the white flag.

More War Criminals

Others already in custody included Col. Kingoro Hashimoto, who ordered the bombing of the gunboat Panay in the Yangtze in 1937; Yoshitaka Ueda, secret leader of the imperialistic geo-political bureau; Lt. Gen. Teiichi Suzuki, minister without portfolio in the Pearl Harbor attack cabinet of

Car Workers Plan Series Of Strikes For Pay Increase

DETROIT —(AP)—The United Automobile Workers (CIO) threatened Saturday to strike all General Motors' factories to support its demands for a 30 per cent wage increase.

To spark an industry-wide drive for the increase, the union set aside $4,000,000. General Motors was selected for the start of the campaign with the others of the automobile industry's big three—Chrysler and Ford—to follow.

The turbulent reconversion scene in the vast automotive industry shaped up thus:

1. The UAW announced it would petition for the strike vote in 135 General Motors plants if the corporation does not meet the wage demand. Such a walkout would affect more than 300,000 workers.

2. The union said Chrysler workers would ballot Sept. 23 to decide whether they also would petition for a strike vote later. This would involve from 80,000 to 100,000 employees.

3. The Ford Motor Company's big plants were almost completely closed as the corporation declared it could not continue work because of strikes against suppliers of parts. About 50,000 workers were affected directly and 75,000 indirectly.

325,000 At General Motors

General Motors, employing 325,000 persons and largest producer of the car industry, was singled out by the union as the most strategic spot to launch the wage drive.

The Auto Workers Union, which has contracts with all major producers of the industry, has outlined a plan to strike each company separately in an effort to enforce the 30 per cent wage demand.

Thus the union would exploit the competitive position of one company at a time.

Plans of the UAW-CIO to throw $4,000,000 into the campaign were disclosed by George F. Addes, secretary-treasurer.

The union said it was anxious to bargain with General Motors but that so far the corporation had made no counter offer to the wage boost demand.

A strike vote would be taken under the Smith-Connally Act.

President Hints Of Changes In War Department

WASHINGTON —(AP)—President Truman interrupted a whirlwind series of visits with the home folks Saturday to disclose his intention to make further changes in his administration next week.

He hinted at possible changes in the War Department. Asked about reports of changes there, he said he thought he could give a better answer on his return to Washington.

There have been recurrent reports War Secretary Henry L. Stimson is planning to retire, and that General George C. Marshall, chief of staff, also may step out soon.

The President, however, made it clear that he has not decided upon his choice for the Supreme Court vacancy.

Truman, reporting to reporters at his offices in the Federal Building on earlier calls on his mother, his barber, and a former haberdashery store proprietor, also disclosed:

(1) That he will look into labor disturbances at Detroit on his return to Washington but that he has no intimate knowledge of the situation at the present time.

(2) That he has no knowledge concerning published reports that Major General Patrick J. Hurley, en route home from China, wants to resign his post as ambassador to that country.

Gulf Company Workers To Take Strike Vote

Union leaders said similar elections will be held at all refineries on the Texas and Louisiana coasts.

WAVE Wife Gives Instructions As Pilot Flies In From Carrier Essex

SEATTLE —(AP)—Lt. Jack E. Shumway, pilot of a dive bomber coming in from the Essex 300 miles at sea for a landing at Seattle received instructions Wednesday from the control tower. He was a long way from home—which is Amherst, Mass.

Suddenly the voice from the tower took on a new timbre. Matter of fact, it sounded sort of shaky and wavering and familiar, too.

It was the voice of his wife, a signalman first class in the WAVES, just recently transferred to Sand Point and ordered to direct her husband's home-coming landing!

Lieutenant Shumway's home-coming was rivaled by that of Lt. Comdr. Harry W. Wood, 25, executive officer of a fighter squadron, home after 20 months in the Pacific.

It was 4:30 o'clock last Wednesday and Seattle was being treated to a sudden and unheralded air show as 107 dive bombers, fighters and torpedo planes roared in from the west.

Thousands Crane Necks

Among the thousands craning their necks was Mrs. Harry W. Wood.

"Some carrier must be back from the war," she reasoned. "Of course I couldn't be that lucky . . . still . . . it MIGHT be the Essex."

Mrs. Wood climbed into the family car and started for Sand Point Naval Air Station where the planes were landing.

Aboard one of the planes of the four-squadron air group settling to earth was Lt. Comdr. Harry W. Wood, 25, executive officer of a fighter-bomber squadron, home after 20 months in the Pacific.

He dashed for an exit gate, tossed

Republicans Initiate Drive To Speed Discharges

WASHINGTON —(AP)—House Republicans are mounting a drive to force Congress to do something about ending the draft and getting out of uniform faster.

And they expect a lot of help from the Democrats in tackling what promises to be one of the hottest issues in many years.

Dissatisfied with failure of the House Military Committee to do something to speed up discharges, Republicans under the prodding of Rep. A. L. Miller of Nebraska are drafting a discharge petition to force a showdown.

A discharge petition is a procedure by which legislation bottled up in committees can be brought to the floor for a vote if 218 members request it in writing.

Two Years' Service

Miller has asked Chairman May (D-Ky.) of the Military Committee to consider the Nebraska bill to halt inductions immediately and to permit immediate discharge upon application of any man who has been a prisoner of war or who has been in the service two years.

He has served notice that unless the committee acts within thirty days, he will file a discharge petition.

May, whose committee recently sidetracked demobilization legislation in favor of a bill to encourage voluntary enlistments, said he had no immediate plans for hearings on Miller's proposal. But he indicated that he might change his mind.

Several other proposals, to discharge all fathers and men with dependents, also are pending before the committee.

A Cheer For The Bureaucrats

Cussing the bureaucrats was a favored and almost universal practice among Americans during the entire war period. Much of it still is going on. And honesty compels the admission that we have done our proportionate share.

But with this confession—and still insisting that bureaucrats deserved much of the cussing they received—this thought occurs

Isn't it time, and doesn't justice require, that the bureaucrats—like the devil—be given their due?

And, if given their due, can any reasonable person honestly deny that, on the whole and under the conditions existing, wartime bureaucrats did a splendid job and made an indispensable contribution to victory?

Emphatically, these statements do not attempt to argue for the perpetuation of widespread bureaucracy in government. Heaven forbid! Let us be rid of the war-born alphabetical agencies as soon as the nation's post-war economy will permit. That would be soon for most of them.

But eagerness to be rid of the agencies and the restrictions they represent cannot and should not deprive them of any credit due for whatever job they have done during the worst emergency ever to face this nation. We think they are due a great deal of credit.

True, they made many mistakes. There were instances of confusion, bungling and even absurdities. Beyond any question, many bureaucratic actions and policies did more to hurt than help the victory effort.

But such things were inevitable when one considers that the gigantic agencies usually had to be thrown together over night to tackle jobs which held the fate of a nation in their balance.

Far more than offsetting any mistakes made is their record of achievements. Prices were not allowed to get out of hand, as they did in World War I. The American people never lacked abundances of food and other essentials despite scarcities of individual items. Necessary materials were channeled to the places where they could be utilized best for victory. Production and supply represented miracles surpassing anything of similar nature in history. And, in all these achievements, the war agencies—the bureaucrats—played their parts.

Furthermore, it should be remembered that few of those who served in the more important bureaucratic positions wanted their jobs. They were drafted just as much as any man on the firing line was drafted. They served when every minute of service must have been miserable because of the criticism and abuse heaped upon them.

So isn't it about time that some of us tone down somewhat in our cussing of the bureaucrats? Aren't they deserving of at least one lusty, whole-hearted cheer for a job which, on the whole, was amazingly well done?

Veterans Of Pacific Arrive On West Coast But They Don't Cheer

SEATTLE —(AP)— There was no sky-larking, no cheering, no celebrating Saturday, as 2,196 officers and men—many of them wounded—disembarked from the Naval transport Jean Lafitte, after a voyage from the Western Pacific.

Master Sgt. Joseph Tyler of Chehalis, Wash., walked slowly off the ship. He looked up, once, into the rain; climbed into a Fort Lawton truck and waited quietly. Not once did he smile. The only thing he said was, "I want to go home."

Master Sergeant Tyler has been fighting from Attu to Okinawa. Most of the soldiers had been overseas three years or more. Some were from the 7th and 40th Divisions; the 13th and 15th Army Air Forces. Red Cross workers fed them milk and doughnuts—it was the first fresh milk in two years for several hundred of the Army casuals.

Many of the Naval contingent were from warships which had been sunk by enemy action.

They included survivors of the destroyer Callaghan when a Kamikaze plane hit it at midnight last July 29, killing 49 and wounding 72.

Seaman Joe Albert of Yakima and Prosler, Wash., was on the Callaghan. "I jumped into the water and in about two hours I was picked up. But all I could think of were the men who never got off," he said. Nearly every one aboard the transport wants to return to civilian life.

The name vaudeville is derived from Vau de Vire, a French town where humorous songs were written in the 16th century.

Man Dives Into River But 'Only Wanted Swim'

PHILADELPHIA —(AP)— John Mahan, a Fairmount park guard, saw a fully-clothed man dive sixty-five feet from a bridge into the Schuylkill river. Hailing another guard, Mahan launched a boat and hauled out Louis McPherson, 36. "I just wanted a swim," said the unharmed McPherson.

91st Division Texans Win Distinction With 289 Combat Medals

WITH THE 91ST DIVISION—Texas claims a large membership in the 91st "Powder River" Division, elements of which arrived in the United States Sept. 11.

Five hundred and ninety-nine Texans, veterans of the long and difficult Italian Campaign, distinguished themselves by winning 289 combat decorations.

"Twelve hours in enemy territory was too long to suit me," declared Pfc. James Brooks, Route 1, Bonham, as he recalled a close call which took place last winter in the Apennine Mountains.

"Returning from a patrol early one morning, I was caught in German territory, "Brooks related," and before I could reach our own lines, it was daylight. All that day I lay in an old stream bed, sweating out Jerries and our own mortar and artillery fire. I was sure glad when darkness came that night, and I was able to crawl back to the comparative safety of my foxhole."

Veteran of the Italian campaign is S/Sgt. Jesse L. Taylor, Roganville, who wears the Silver Star Medal, Bronze Star Medal, Purple Heart with one Oak Leaf Cluster, and the Presidential Unit Citation Badge. He was one of six men who reached the top of Monticelli Ridge in the Gothic Line breakthrough. In a seven-hour period, this small group of determined Yanks held off two counter-attacks until reinforcements reached them at dusk. It was for this action that Taylor won his Silver Star Medal.

The 91st Division was the first to enter the important port of Leghorn, and the first to reach the Arno River. The Fir Tree Division helped smash the Gothic Line, and its troops were among the first in Bologna in its sweep across the Po Valley. It also held positions in the Trieste area during the location of the Morgan line. Men of the division are receiving furloughs prior to returning to their units.

There were 399 Combat Infantry and Combat Medical Badges issued to Texans in the 91st.

Women constitute about 49 per cent of the textile workers this year; about 77 per cent of the clothing workers.

German Jet Plane Studied By Army

DAYTON, O.—(AP)—The first jet-propelled German army plane captured intact is being given the scientific once-over by army engineers at air technical service command headquarters at nearby Wright Air Field.

The German civilian test pilot who flew the plane on a trial run last March gave ATSC engineers one of their prize study subjects when he landed on an American-held airstrip and turned himself and the ME 262A-1 over to Americans instead of returning to the Messerschmitt factory where he was employed, Wright field officials said.

Adm. Nimitz To Return To Capital In October

WASHINGTON —(AP)—Fleet Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, who led the Navy's drive across the Pacific and signed the Japanese surrender document as official representative of the United States, will return to Washington the first week of October the Navy said Saturday.

Phillips And Cole To Open New Store Here

George D. Phillips, for many years a successful businessman here, and W. M. (Bill) Cole, a long time Midlander, have announced they will open a new store within the next 10 days. They will deal in automobile supplies, sporting goods, shelf hardware, guns and ammunition, household and electric appliances, farm tools, water heaters, gas and oil stoves and ranges, glassware, chinaware and other items.

Although expecting to open for business in a short time, Phillips said a formal opening would be announced later. The establishment is a Kenyon Auto Stores associate dealership, home-owned and operated, he said.

Both men will devote their entire time to operation of the store, now being readied at 115 East Wall Street.

Meat, Especially Pork, Still Scarce In Nation

CHICAGO —(AP)—The American Meat Institute reported Saturday that although a nationwide survey of meat dealers showed "substantial improvement" over supplies last month, beef, veal and lamb were still scarce in some areas and most pork items were short in all areas.

Elliott—

his wife, Ruth Goggins Roosevelt, a co-maker on the Hartford notes.

Texas State Network was losing money in 1938 and 1939. Elliott with the owners of state radio stations over the country decided to start a larger network.

Baird loaned Elliott another $70,000 for this venture, taking stock as security. In 1939, Elliott repaid Baird $10,000 on the Texas State loan. At the end of 1939 Elliott owed Baird $110,000.

The larger network failed and was pulled into receivership within a year of its organization. Baird ultimately received about $30,000 upon the liquidation, reducing Elliott's debt to him to approximately $80,000.

Texas State Network continued to lose money and borrowed money from Texas banks, running up to $283,000. The notes were guaranteed personally by Elliott.

Elliott entered the Army late in 1940. In 1941, while making hazardous trips by air, he told his father he was worried about leaving large debts for his wife and children.

The President advised Elliott to discuss his affairs with Jesse Jones, saying that in view of Jones' familiarity with the radio business and knowledge of Texas he might be able to suggest a course of action. Elliott saw Jones who said he would see what could be done.

Jones Made Settlement

Jones presented a statement of Elliott's financial condition to Hartford and Baird. Hartford settled for $4,000 and Baird for $500.

Jones never told Elliott what he paid to Hartford and Baird, young Roosevelt's story said, although Elliott's lawyer attempted to get the information. Elliott was out of the country on military duty from about the time of the settlement to April, 1945. Neither Elliott nor his lawyer knew the amount Jones paid Hartford and Baird until the information was published.

Jones received the pledged stock from Hartford and Baird and turned it over to the President's secretary, Miss Grace Tully for safekeeping.

Early in 1944 Ruth Goggins Roosevelt and Elliott were divorced. In the property settlement one-half of the pledged stock went to the wife. The other half was placed in trust for the children. Elliott said he has no interest in the stock and has never received any benefit from it.

The business of the Texas chain is reported to have improved materially and the stock increased in value in more recent years.

The inquiry was ordered when reports were published that Hartford listed the $196,000 he lost in the Roosevelt loan as a bad debt deduction on his 1942 income tax return.

He is familiar with conditions here, having been a resident of Midland several years.

Food Locker Service Observes Anniversary

The first anniversary of the installation of food locker service here is being observed this week by S. L. Alexander and H. M. McReynolds, operators of the A&M Packing Company.

A complete meat processing service is maintained at the plant and patrons have access to their food lockers 14 hours each week.

McReynolds stated that expansion of the service will be made when the urgency of wartime restrictions are eased to allow the broadened service.

As the Essex had steamed toward Puget Sound—still 300 miles out—she had launched the planes of Air Group 83, one of the Navy's greatest carrier-based units.

Essex Has Great Record

Members believe they hold a carrier record of the longest, unbroken period of combat—51 days of continuous warfare.

They told stirring tales of the 298 Japanese planes destroyed in the air, the 107 destroyed on the ground, and the additional 121 "probables" bagged in the air and on the ground; of the sinking and damaging of 265,000 tons of enemy warships and 77,000 tons of merchantmen. The sinking included the cruiser Yamato and four destroyers in the East China Sea last spring.

The Essex steamed 62,310 miles in the 158 days Air Group 83 was aboard. During that time Air Group 83 bagged 11 Jap planes and damaged 16 others. The planes flew 9,982 sorties, aggregating more than 39,500 hours, in which they made 10,658 landings on the Essex.

Ens. M. M. Truax, 22, of Fort Worth, Texas, set one of the war's top records, colleagues said, when he shot down six planes in three and a half minutes during the great aerial battle last April 6 near Okinawa. Essex planes shot down a total of 69 enemy planes that day and lost but one plane and one pilot.

Daily Oil Production Rises 3,908 Barrels

AUSTIN —(AP)—The Railroad Commission Saturday announced the total average daily allowable crude oil production in Texas last week increased 3,908 barrels daily over the previous week.

Average daily allowable for last week was 1,977,468 barrels.

The total number of wells this week was 102,938, an increase of 51 wells over the 102,887 figure for last week.

The Commission also reported a total of 4,904 drilling applications for the year to date as compared with 4,994 for the same period last year. There were 142 applications for the week ending Saturday.

Sixty oil well completions this week brings the year's total to 2,810 as compared with 2,483 for last year. One wildcat drilled brings the year's total to 100 as compared with 125 for the same period in 1944.

MacArthur May Testify Before Congress Board

WASHINGTON —(AP)—General Douglas MacArthur may be asked to testify in the Congressional investigation of Pearl Harbor.

This new turn developed Saturday as five Senators and five House members arranged to meet, probably Tuesday, to organize a three months inquiry into America's greatest military defeat.

Senator Brewster (R-Me.) said that if the investigation touches on conditions in the Philippines at the time of the Japanese assault on Hawaii, he will urge that General MacArthur be called to the stand.

GEOLOGISTS WILL ELECT OFFICERS MONDAY

Officers for the Midland Geological Society for next year will be elected at a luncheon of the organization Monday noon in the Crystal Ballroom of Hotel Scharbauer.

A committee which has been studying possibility of merging the Midland and West Texas Geological Societies will report and other business will be considered. George R. Gibson, president of MGS will be in charge.

TWO NEW OIL FIELDS ARE GIVEN NAMES

The field-naming committee of the West Texas Geological Society has selected "Y-Bar" as the name for the new Permian producing area in Crane County, recently discovered by Gulf Oil Corporation No. 2-T Henderson.

The Southwest Cochran County field developed by Stanolind Oil & Gas Company No. 1 Edwards, has been designated "South Plains" field.

The committee's recommendations become official when approved by the Railroad Commission.

SMALL DROP IN OIL ACTIVITY INDICATED

The Sept. 15 issue of The Oil & Gas Journal, carried a survey by Charles J. Deegan, an associate editor, which shows that a poll of key executive geologists, who occupy policy-making places in their respective companies, indicates wildcat drilling and leasing activity in the United States will drop less than 15 per cent between now and July, 1946, as compared with the peak of 1944.

The survey also revealed there were possibilities that drilling and leasing probably will start an upward trend at the end of the second quarter of 1945.

Deegan interpreted the information obtained in the poll to indicate that the petroleum industry in the United States is due to be called upon to find large volume of new reserves in this country as quickly as possible.

SCOUT ASSOCIATION HEADS TO MEET SOON

The first meeting for 1945 of the officers and directors of the National Oil Scouts and Landmen's Association is to be held at the organization's headquarters in Austin early in October, according to R. M. Knoepfel, of The Atlantic Refining Company, at Carlsbad, N. M., secretary-treasurer.

Executives are planning to resume a full program of activities, now that the war is over. The association's annual publication, "The Yearbook," will be issued soon, and plans are being made for a big annual meeting in the spring of 1946.

At the meeting in Austin in October, one representative from each district scout association will meet with national executives to plan the association's enlargement program.

Current officers, in addition to Knoepfel, are: H. F. "Tax" King, Continental Oil Co., Ardmore, Okla., president; F. D. Johnson, Superior Oil Co., Corpus Christi, first vice president; Hal Walker, Ohio Oil Co., Casper, Wyo., second vice president; and W. G. Sinclair, Gulf Oil Corporation, Wichita Falls, editor-in-chief.

BIG SPRING TO GET ANDREWS COUNTY GAS

Empire Southern Gas Company will build 41 miles of 8 5/8-inch welded gas transmission line from the Shafter Lake gas field, in North-Central Andrews County, to connect with the company's existing 8-inch line, from Big Spring to a point in Northwest Martin County.

The present line ties in with the West Texas Gas Company's line from the Panhandle gas fields. The new line to Shafter Lake will deliver gas from five wells already completed and six more now drilling, or to be drilled before Nov. 1, into the line to Big Spring, to supplement gas from Empire Southern is now purchasing from West Texas Gas.

Executives of Empire Southern reported that nine miles of gathering lines will be laid in the field. All the work is due to be completed early in November.

The company is spending about $300,000 on the program. The new lines will cost more than $300,000, and drilling the wells will require an expenditure of about $200,000.

MORE DUAL-COMPLETIONS

A hearing will be held by the Railroad Commission on Sept. 25, in Austin, on applications of H. W. Snowden, of Dallas, to dually-complete four wells in the Sharon Ridge field in Southwest Scurry County.

CONOCO OFFICERS VISIT IN MIDLAND

A party of Continental Oil Company officials spent several days in Midland last week in conference with executives of the company's division production, land and geological departments.

In the group were: W. C. MacMillan, vice president in charge of production; M. H. Shanahan, MacMillan's assistant, and W. H. Zwick, general attorney, all from headquarters at Ponca City, Okla., and E. B. Hurley, manager of the Fort Worth regional office.

ENGINEERS ASSOCIATION MEETS ON SEPT. 27

Next meeting of the Permian Basin Engineers Association will be in Odessa at 8 p. m. Sept. 27, according to Joe W. Graybeal, president.

Shell-Texaco Will Drill Offset To Four-Pay Discovery In S-W Andrews; Crane And Crockett Get Wildcats

By JAMES C. WATSON, Oil Editor

Location was reported Saturday for the second well for the Southwest Andrews County four-pay area discovered by Shell Oil Company, Inc., and The Texas Company No. 1 Ratliff & Bedford.

Wildcats were staked in Southeast Crane and in West Crockett counties. A Southeast Rannels county discovery was completed. Sulphur water developed in a North-west Andrews Devonian prospect and a Delaware sand wildcat in Ward was to make second attempt to run a drillstem test.

Shell and Texaco No. 2 Ratliff & Bedford, at center of southeast quarter of northeast quarter of section 4, block 73, psi survey, is slated as an exploration to 11,400 feet, to drill into the Ellenburger.

This project is one location southeast of the same owners No. 1 Ratliff & Bedford, now testing Devonian, after flowing at the rate of 96 barrels of oil per hour from the Ellenburger.

In latest test reported, No. 1 Ratliff & Bedford, which is testing perforated section at 8,777-8,850 feet, after treating with 500 gallons and 1,000 gallons of acid, the well flowed to pits for 21 1/2 hours to clean out.

Testing Devonian It was then turned to tanks and in three hours flowed 25 barrels of fluid, with a cut of eight per cent drilling fluid. There was no water. Gravity was 33 degrees and gas-oil ratio was 1,280-1. Testing was continuing.

Gulf Oil Corporation filed application with the Railroad Commission to drill No. 1 Atlantic Refining Company (Corlova-Union), as an 8,500-foot exploration in Southeast Crane County, on west side of the McCamey field, and almost on the Upton County line.

It will be 660 feet out of east corner of section 7, block 35, H&TC Addison To Drill A Addison Drilling Company, Midland, will drill No. 1 Hoover, located 1,650 feet from south and 330 feet from east lines of west half of section 1, block FF, B&B survey, in West Crockett County, to 2,200 feet, with cable tools, start shortly. It is near a dry hole to 2,145 feet, which had some indications of production, and is five miles south of the Shannon field.

O. P. Leonard, Fort Worth, completed his No. 1 Floyd Thompson, in Southeast Rannels County, in the Leonard area near Talpa, for a 24-hour flowing potential of 556 barrels of 43-gravity oil, from lime above 2,418 feet. This is the first production from that level in the district.

Leonard's No. 1 Livingston, first test drilled in the region, made 41.49 barrels of oil in 10 hours from a pay at 3,015-30 feet. It did not indicate in the upper section, producing in the No. 1 Thompson, which is one-quarter of a mile east of No. 1 Livingston.

Much Sulphur Water Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 1 Stevens, in southeast corner of section 10, block A-48, psi survey, in Northwest Andrews County, and about two miles west of the closest Devonian production on south side of the Fullerton field, was running an electrical log survey, preparatory to plugging and abandoning.

A 45-minute drillstem test was taken at 8,876-8,969 feet. Recovery was the 1,50-foot water blanket, and 5.130 feet of sulphur water, with no indications of oil or gas.

T. F. Slack and Al Parker, No. sound film, "Inside The Flame," will also be shown. It concerns the manufacture of carbon black.

FRIZZELL BACK ON JOB WITH SKELLY —R. H. "Bud" Frizzell Jr., recently was given an honorable discharge from the U. S. Merchant Marine Service and has returned to his civilian occupation of senior scout in the Permian Basin for Skelly Oil Company.

HUMBLE ENGINEER HERE FROM HOUSTON —Marion Cook, corrosion engineer stationed at Humble Oil & Refining Company's headquarters in Houston, is in the West Texas-New Mexico division for several days, helping the boys out here eliminate some troubles.

YARBOROUGH'S SON IN TOKYO BAY ON V-J DAY —I. G. Yarborough, district landman for Stanolind Oil & Gas Company, and Mrs. Yarborough, are very proud of a letter received last week from their son, Third Class Petty Officer Lewis Guy Yarborough Jr., a fire control supervisor on the battleship USS Idaho.

—He has been on that ship since August, 1942, and his latest letter was written from the ship on Sept. 2-V-J Day—in Tokyo Bay.

Lea And Eddy Counties Each Given Two New Wildcat Petroleum Projects

HOBBS, N. M.—Locations for four wildcats in Southeast New Mexico were reported Saturday. Two are to be in Lea County and the other two are in Eddy County.

Carl B. King Drilling Company, et al, Midland, No. 1 Santa Fe, is to be a 5,000-foot exploration to the San Andres-Permian, in extreme Northeast Lea County.

The location is 660 feet from north and 1,980 feet from west lines of section 29-98-37e. It will be near the point where the line of Cochran and Yoakum counties in Texas join the east line of Lea County.

Stanolind Oil & Gas Company No. 1 Mascho unit-State, to be 660 feet from south and west lines of section 31-215-34e, is slated as a 4,000-foot exploration in South-Central Lea.

It is southwest of nearest production in the West Eunice field. Drilling is slated to start shortly.

Harvey E. Yates No. 1 Yates-State, 1,980 feet from north and east lines of section 32-188-30e, in Northeast Eddy County, and between production in the Benson and the Leo fields, is slated as a 2,750-foot prospect. It has spudded and is making hole.

Robert E. McKee No. 1 Reed-Brainard, 1,980 feet from south and 360 feet from east lines of section 11-208-29e, is to be an 1,800-foot wildcat in Central Eddy County. It is between the Getty and the Russell fields.

The Texas Company No. 2 Lockhart, in northwest corner of section 18-228-33e, and on southeast side of the Drinkard area in Southwest Lea County, had progressed under 7,098 feet in lime, and was continuing.

Continental Oil Company No. 1-B-22 Skaggs, in northeast corner of section 22-208-37e, outpost to production from the Wolfcamp-Permian, in the Skaggs district of East Lea, had drilled below 7,080 feet in lime.

Completions in Lea County during the last week included two dry holes.

E. J. McCurdy No. 1-A State, in southeast corner of section 16-168-32e, completed on a total depth of 4,677 feet, with sulphur water at that point. A 4,590 feet in lime.

Vickers Petroleum Company No. 1 State-Shell, in northeast quarter of section 17-228-34e, a wildcat exploration bottomed out at 4,116 feet in dry lime. No shows of petroleum were reported from any zone on the project.

The Plymouth Oil Company No. 1-A Santa Fe, in section 13-159-10w, in McKinley County, had penetrated under 6,006 feet in lime and shale, and was drilling ahead.

Continental Oil Company No. 1 Mullis, South Chaves County, section 21-155-29e, slated 5,200-foot wildcat, had made hole to 3,068 feet in lime, and was fishing for tools.

McCurdy No. 1 Poole, in section 21-118-30e, in Southeast Chaves, had reached 3,345 feet in lime, and was drilling ahead, at last report.

McLaughlin and Cosden No. 1 State, discovery in section 2-178-32e, in Central-West Lea, is cleaning out and testing. The clean-out had reached 4,275 feet, over total depth of 4,419 feet. In a 24-hour period it swabbed and flowed 60 barrels of oil.

Stanolind Oil & Gas Company No. 1 Jones, in section 19-198-39e, seven miles southeast of Hobbs, in probably will be plugged back to about 4,500 feet, to test indications of petroleum encountered in the San Andres-Permian while drilling was in progress.

What's a cull? A cull, young lady, is something you don't want to be and something your owner doesn't want many of because they cost money to raise.

We believe Pan-a-min can help reduce the number of culls which result from mineral deficiency and slow maturity. Its tonics stimulate appetite and promote better use of feed. Its minerals help develop bone and laying capacity.

If a pullet has production bred in her, Pan-a-min will help bring it out.

Why is a worm like a hole in a sack?

That's easy. Both the worm and the hole waste chicken feed.

Name a good worm remedy. That's easy, too—Nicozine. Here's a product that destroys two species of poultry worms. These are the large roundworm and the ceecal worm. Nicozine, furthermore, is a flock treatment. It is given along with a little feed to the flock—they eat the mixture. Treat your flock now with Nicozine.

DIRT EATER

When this specimen has a hunger that acorns and roots won't satisfy, he eats dirt. That's his hit-and-miss way of getting the minerals he needs.

For domesticated swine produced for a profit, it's better to make sure they get the minerals. That's one reason for adding Hog Special to the ration.

There are two more reasons for using Hog Special. One, tonics—tonics that stimulate appetite and promote better use of feed. Two, vitamin D that helps prevent rickets. We believe we have given you three profitable reasons for adding Hog Special to the ration.

Snead Leads Nelson In Tulsa Tournament

TULSA, OKLA. (AP)—Sammy Snead, getting warmer as the second round wore on, bagged an eagle and three birds at Southern Hills Saturday

Bronchos Defeat Lubbock, 26-7

ODESSA—Odessa's surprisingly strong Bronchos struck the favored Lubbock Westerners quickly, powerfully and decisively Friday night, much like the norther that hit all West Texas earlier in the week, and emerged with a 26 to 7 victory.

It was Odessa's first victory over a Lubbock team and established the Bronchos as one of the state's top-ranking football teams.

Taking advantage of two Lubbock fumbles and a pass interception Odessa scored three touchdowns in rapid order in the first quarter and tallied again in the third on a pass. Lubbock scored on a sustained drive in the fourth period.

Naval Academy Mascot

(NEA Telephoto)

Chester, the goat, gift from the residents of Admiral Chester Nimitz' home town of Fredericksburg, Texas, stops for a brief visit in Washington on his way to the Naval Academy at Annapolis where he will assume the role of mascot. It was a hectic trip for Chester and his custodian, Texas Ranger Joe Luther, center, after they were bumped off an airplane last week and had to continue by train. At left is Commander Harry Ransom, USNR, and at the right is 8-year-old Marta Miller of Washington, D. C.

Bulldogs Will Open 1945 Football Campaign Friday Night With Pampa

By CROM HOLMES
Midland High School's Bulldogs will kick the lid off their 1945 football campaign Friday night on the Midland field in a non-conference game with the strong Pampa Harvesters of District 1-AA.

The game will feature a battle of T formations between the untried Purple and Gold Bulldogs and the Harvesters eleven which opened the season last Friday with a 14-to-7 victory over a strong Electra team.

Pampa used a straight T formation in its season opener, whereas the Midlanders will launch their third season with a modified T in which the backfield lines up behind the forward wall in the form of a letter T.

Clay Is Pampa Star
Midland, under-dog in Friday night's contest, will face a heavier Pampa team which boasts of Randall Clay, 165-pound fullback who sprinted 65 yards for one touchdown against Electra and passed to Jack Dunham, 172 pound end, for the other marker. A stand-out on the Pampa line is 194-pound Stan Simpson.

Coaches Gene McCollum and Aurea Mooncaster have not announced the starters for the Midland team. The Bulldog "A" squad is paced by six returning lettermen, including three regulars from last year's team. Returning regulars are quarterback Wilbur Yeager, center Jimmy Edwards and Tackle J. C. McNeal. The other lettermen are Bobby Drake, back; Barney Hightower, back; and Howard Micker, tackle.

Season Schedule
Other teams on the Bulldog schedule are Austin High of El Paso in Midland Sept. 28; Plainview at Plainview Oct. 5, Sweetwater at Midland Oct. 12, Big Spring at Big Spring Oct. 19, Abilene at Midland Oct. 26, San Angelo at San Angelo Nov. 2, Cisco at Midland Nov. 16, Lamesa at Midland Nov. 22, and Odessa at Odessa Nov. 29.

Study Of Flowers Heard At Meet Of Garden Club Here

An interesting as well as informative program on flowers and shrubbery was presented at a meeting of the Midland Garden Club Thursday when members met at the home of Mrs. L. C. Link.

Opening the session was the business period when reports were heard from committee chairmen.

An attractive floral arrangement was displayed by Mrs. J. E. Hill. Clara Gordia and Dolores pom dahlias and leucantha ranging from darker to lighter hues of pink and lavender were used in the bouquet which was arranged in a white pottery container.

In giving her talk on the subject, "Start With A Plan," Mrs. Frank Aldrich said a definite plan should be mapped out in landscaping a yard, including the shrubbery and flowers. Mrs. L. C. Mills spoke on the topic, "Planting for Uninterrupted Bloom." She discussed various plants that can be used the year around in floral arrangements.

Yearbooks displaying a colorful photograph on the front were distributed by the yearbook committee composed of Mrs. C. S. Longcope, Mrs. Ray Pool, Mrs. W. R. Tillman and Mrs. A. L. Repecka.

Those present were Meses Aldrich, H. L. Anderson, John Cassleman, Hurley Butler, W. H. Gilmore, Link, Longscope, Mills, Pool, E. E. Reigle, Repecka, Frank Stubbeman, R. E. Throckmorton, Addison Wadley, E. W. Vancepool.

Associate members present for the occasion were Meses Payton W. Anderson, Leslie T. Brown, Arch Cleveland, R. K. DeFord, Hill, J. A. Mascho and Poy Proctor.

The next meeting will be held Oct. 4, at the home of Mrs. Frank Aldrich.

Carlynn Cox Will Appear In Rodeo In Madison Square Garden In October

Miss Carlynn Cox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Cox, of Glasscock County is leaving Sept. 25, for New York City where she will participate in the cowgirl activities at the Madison Square Garden Rodeo to open Oct. 2.

Other girls from this area planning to attend will be Misses Billie Lou Thompson, Snyder; Erlene Jeffreys, Andrews; Jerry Portwood, Seymour and Patricia Clark, Abilene. The girls, who will be gone about eight weeks, will also appear in the Boston Garden Rodeo.

Miss Cox has participated in rodeos since 1941 and has won an array of prizes in rodeos at Midland, Stamford, Breckenridge, Snyder, Pecos and Ozona. She is a graduate of the Garden City High School and attended Texas Technological College in Lubbock last year where she was active in campus activities. She has chosen an annual husbandry as her college major.

Schofield-Stogner Marriage Rites Are Read In Midland

Marriage rites uniting Miss Dale Schofield of Lamesa and Wallace Stogner of Lamesa were read at 8 p. m. Saturday in the First Presbyterian Church in Midland. The Rev. Hubert H. Hopper, pastor, directed the rites for the double ring ceremony.

Prenuptial music was by Mrs. John Elliott, organist, who played "I Love You Truly" and "Always."

The bride chose for her wedding attire, a light blue two-piece suit with which she wore brown accessories. Her snoodier corsage was of tainian roses.

Mrs. Paul Codrington of Midland, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor. She wore a gold dress with brown accessories and a corsage of white roses.

Mr. Codrington served the bridegroom as best man.

Mrs. Margaret Hadlock of Kermit, sister of the bride, was present for the ceremony.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Schofield of Kermit, Mrs. Stogner was a nurse at the Malone and Hogan Hospital in Big Spring before her marriage. Mr. Stogner, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Stogner of Lamesa, recently returned to the states after serving in the Aleutians a year.

USO WILL PRESENT BROADWAY HIT AT MAAF MONDAY

"Girl Crazy," Broadway musical comedy hit, will be presented at Midland Army Air Field post theater Monday night. Two performances have been scheduled, 6 p. m. and 8 p. m. This entertainment is brought to MAAF by USO Camp Shows.

The show will feature music of George Gershwin plus a star-studded cast and a galaxy of beautiful girls.

When "Girl Crazy" opened in New York in 1939, musical comedy history was made and songs became hit tunes. Gingers skyrocketed into fame over night; Ethel Merman rose to stardom; the names of Willie Howard and Allen Kearns became box-office magnets; and "Embraceable You," "I Got Rhythm" and a score of other tunes achieved popularity.

The plot of the play centers around the story of the experiences of a playboy whose father became so outraged over his son's wild exploits in the realm of "wine, women and song" that he ordered him to the family ranch in Arizona. Chancing a taxi, driven by a hilariously amusing chauffeur, the son went west. A series of madcap adventures followed in which the exiled son opened a night club on his father's ranch and reached new heights in performing idiotic stunts.

A teaspoon of anise in a pint of warm milk makes a soothing, sleep-producing nightcap.

For Teen-Age Study

By EPSIE KINARD
NEA Staff Writer
NEW YORK—Taking over the till-bedtime shift in teen-agers' wardrobes are snazzy lounging costumes, designed to spell pajamas which work overtime as sleeping togs and loafing outfits.

Styled for relaxing at study or cutting a figure in front of fireplaces after winter sorties, designers have fashioned fencing shirts with plaid trousers. Just to give an idea of what's coming up for young moderns' wardrobes, two typical hand-picked styles are shown above.

Sensational is the word for the candy-striped wool knit pants, left, borrowed from the ballet dancer. Called "rehearsal pants," this high-voltage half of one of the sharpest outfits of the season comes with a sassy wool knit smock that is self-belted and decoratively stitched in white.

A little less distracting to study is the Chinese tunic-type of loaf-

CRIPPLED YOUTH WILL LEAVE HERE SOON FOR MEDICAL TREATMENT

Over a thousand dollars have been received by the Children's Service League of Midland to send a 15-year-old boy of this city to Houston where he will receive treatment at the hospital for spastic cases.

Final arrangements are being made by Miss Betty Wendover, Midland County Child Welfare worker, and the youth will leave in the near future for the three-month treatment.

The Children's Service League wishes to express its appreciation to individuals and organizations who contributed to the fund which will make possible medical attention enabling him to regain the use of his muscles.

Tommy Tucker Band To Play For Dances At MAAF

Tommy Tucker and his orchestra, one of the best show units among name bands, will play for dances at the Midland Army Air Field Service Club Monday and Tuesday nights.

Enlisted personnel and their guests will dance to Tucker's smooth rhythm on Monday while officers and their guests will attend the Tuesday night entertainment.

The Tucker organization recently underwent a radical style change. Originally one of the sweetest and smoothest bands, it has switched to a swingy, rhythmic style.

Although the band comes to MAAF with a new style, the same top vocalists who have headlined the show will be on hand.

The popular girl trio, known as "Three Two-Timers," has been acclaimed by servicemen all over the country.

If You Plan To Move, Be Sure Of Your Dates With Hauling Company

By JAMES MARLOW. WASHINGTON—(AP)— You moving?

A lot of other people are, too. Thousands of them. So here's a word of caution:

Be sure of the promises you get from your moving man before you get tangled up in definite dates.

Not everyone who wants to move can be moved at the same time. A breakdown of the truck that was supposed to move you can hold you up a week.

J. F. Rowan, executive secretary of a division of the American Trucking Association—called the Household Goods Carriers Conference—warns:

"Be sure of what kind of promises you get from a carrier. Some are not too careful about what they tell people."

Rowan emphasizes this point: Not Ordinary Times

These are not ordinary times. The moving industry has come through the war. There was a terrific strain on the industry then.

In addition to the strain there is the sudden burden now of everyone wanting to move at once.

Rowan's outfit represents about 5,000 household-movers in this country, many less than were available before the war.

Says Rowan: "People don't realize the bad situation. The railroads can't help much because they're pretty busy, too."

Rowan quotes these figures from the census bureau to show the mass migration during the war and to indicate the size of the moving problem which has now started and will continue:

15,300,000 people moved as migrants during the war. Of that number 7,800,000 moved across state lines.

With the war over now, swarms of them want to move back where they came from, or at least away from where the end of the war left them.

Morris J. Snider, Ph M/3c, was aboard the battleship Mississippi when it sailed into Tokyo Bay with other ships of Admiral Halsey's Third Fleet.

In a letter to The Reporter-Telegram, Snider related the missions of the Mississippi were so important during the war nothing could be said of its movements until the war ended.

"I am proud I was aboard the Mississippi when she sailed into Tokyo Bay. Now that this has been done I am ready for the final invasion, the invasion of the United States," Snider wrote.

Snider was employed at Midland Army Air Field before he entered the Navy Dec. 17, 1943. Mrs. Snider and their two children live at 405 East Kentucky.

Doughboy Lost Diary In Luxemburg In 1918, GI Of 1945 Returns It

By JACK RUTLEDGE
Associated Press Staff

If you've lost a cherished article and can't seem to find it anywhere, don't give up hope. Things have a way of popping up unexpectedly.

Take the case of Lt. Col. H. G. Stein, of Lockhart, Texas.

Stein was a sergeant in World War I. He kept a careful day-by-day report in a diary. When the armistice came his outfit was moved to Luxemburg.

The orders to return to the United States came suddenly, and Stein and his men packed so quickly that many things, including Stein's diary, were left behind.

Then came World War II. Again American troops marched into Luxemburg. A young GI named Frank A. Cado of Ohio was invited to a home for dinner. Before he left, the family gave him Stein's diary. They had saved it all these years.

Cado began a needle-in-the-haystack search for Stein. He found Stein was from Lockhart and contacted his draft board. He found that Stein, now a lieutenant colonel, was personnel service director for the AAF Central Flying Training Command at Randolph Field.

Now, 27 years later, Col. Stein has his diary back.

More Landowners Adopt Conservation

Supervisors of the Martin-Howard Soil Conservation District approved four farm plans and two ranch plans at their regular meeting, Herd Midkiff, district supervisor, announced Saturday.

Included in the plans for a complete soil and water conservation program are the farms of J. C. Newland, M. G. McConal, W. M. Stewart, and O. F. Crawford and the ranches of O. H. McAllister and W. Y. Bengel, making a total of 5,784 acres.

Also approved were applications for assistance in planning a conservation program on 457 acres in the farms of D. Branch, Mrs. L. Lewellen and W. C. Odell.

Gus Meissner has planned a soil and water conservation program on his 160-acre farm southeast of Midland. Meissner is a cooperator with the Soil Conservation District on his home place in the Prairie Lee Conservation Group. Assistance in making the plan was furnished by the Soil Conservation Service.

Truman Like Ordinary Fan

Attending his first game as President of the United States, Harry S. Truman behaves like an ordinary fan, as he sees Washington Senators trounce St. Louis Browns to hang onto heels of league-leading Detroit Tigers. Upper left, the President explains a play to Mrs. Truman at Griffith Stadium in Washington, D. C. Upper right, he takes time out for refreshments. ### Japanese Girls Are Extremely Coy And Giggle At Yanks

By HAL BOYLE
YOKOHAMA — (AP) — Japanese street scenes: Refugees flooding back to Yokohama, with women carrying babies in the traditional "piggy back" manner. . . Junior securely strapped to mama's tired shoulders by two cloth bands—one around his bottom and one under his arms.

Thousands of refugees living in rusty tin sheet huts in bombed out areas. Clothing is almost as big a problem as food for the Japanese. . . There are so short of fabrics that it is no longer possible for them to patch garments with cloths of the same color. . . One middle-aged, dignified man, wearing spectacles and carrying an umbrella, had a coat so patched it could have been stretched out and used for a chess board.

Japanese girls have come out of brief hiding. . . Their parents are convinced American soldiers won't harm them, an opinion in which the soldiers enthusiastically concur. "Most of them look more like Madam Dragonfly than Madam Butterfly," is the Army opinion. The girls are extremely coy and giggle whenever a group of soldiers pass.

Dress In Slacks
Few wear kimonos on the streets. . . Most dress in workaday slacks and, sad to relate, they bunch out behind just like the girls in trousers at home. . . "They look," said one critical soldier, "like they were carrying laundry back there."

In the rice fields and vegetable gardens bordering the city the Japanese of all ages bend to rend crops that must save them from starvation. Children who could still be riding around in baby buggies in Brooklyn work side by side with gray, wrinkled cronies. Movies are still entertainment where the Japanese seek to forget their troubles. . . No Japanese seems too poor to fork over the ten cents admission. . . They stand in long lines to get into film houses and kids run the last block. . . The pictures are Japanese productions. . . One American wisecracker: "They are still showing news reels of Pearl Harbor."

Navy Asks Relatives Not To Meet Ships

The quickest way to see a Naval son or husband being returned from overseas to be discharged from the Navy is to remain at home.

That was the sage advice offered Saturday by the Navy Department to relatives who are anxious to welcome their "boys" coming back to the States for release.

In the first place, if relatives travel to debarkation ports it is highly improbable that they will even see their sailors because the Navy demobilization plan calls for returning men to separation centers in their own Naval Districts. In consequence, men will not be free to visit their families at coastal ports, but will move without delay to their own districts.

Secondly, travel by dependents will only crowd the already overloaded transportation system and hamper the orderly operation of discharge.

And last, living accommodations in coastal ports are not and will not be available.

H. H. Woody Gets Naval Discharge

DALLAS — Hughie Handley Woody, Ship's Serviceman Third Class, Seabee of Midland, has been honorably discharged from the United States Navy.

He was released under the point system at the discharge section of the Naval Receiving Station, Galveston.

Woody enlisted in the Navy Oct. 16, 1942. He saw duty at Dallas; Norfolk, Va.; Williamsburg, Va.; Port Hueneme, Calif., and Galveston.

Important Meeting Of Legion Scheduled For Tuesday Night

The first meeting of the Woods W. Lynch post of the American Legion with a World War II veteran in charge will be held in the Crystal Ballroom of the Scharbauer Hotel at 8 p. m. Tuesday.

Charles Aiken, post commander, urges all members to attend so plans can be mapped to assist the rapidly returning veterans in every way possible.

Aiken said he has talked to a number of recently returned veterans who said they will be at the meeting and fill out their membership forms. The post commander said he has been unable to see all veterans but invites them to attend.

Among other matters due to be discussed will be plans for obtaining a Legion hut here. J. S. Noland is chairman of the building committee.

Cole Brothers Show Coming To Midland

Circus fans of Midland and this section will have the opportunity to see two performances of the nation's second largest circus when the Cole Brothers Circus arrives Sept. 29 by railroad to stage two performances at the show lot just west of the city limits on Highway 80.

The show has 400 performers and 800 other employees, in addition to a large menagerie.

Star of the show is Con Collano, famed artist on the tight wire. He is the only performer to ever accomplish a forward somersault on the tight wire.

The show carries 50 clowns to supply laughs for the performances.

A hundred horses trained by Paul Nelson are included among the animal performers.

The gates to the show will be opened an hour before each of the

New License Bothersome So To Marry First Girl

DENVER, COLO.—(AP)—A man who had obtained a marriage license came back to the license bureau.

"Say," he asked Mrs. Ruth Bridgford, the cashier, "if I want to marry another woman, do I have to go through all this rigamarole again? License, blood test and all that sort of thing?"

Mrs. Bridgford assured him that he did. The man mused a moment, pursed his lips, shifted from one foot to the other, then said, "Well, I guess I'll marry this one."

Work on paper as much as possible to save work time. Parings, pods and other refuse can be quickly disposed of.

performances to permit leisurely inspection of the hundreds of animals in the menagerie.

Air Lines Available To Civilian Travel

DENVER—Starting Saturday air travel and air cargo accommodations on Continental Air Lines as well as on routes of other domestic airlines are again opened to civilian use, Donald A. Duff, general traffic manager of Continental Air Lines, announced.

This is, in effect, the result of the new government order which eliminates 85 per cent of all priority authorizations which, until this time, have complicated civilian travel and shipping on the airlines.

On Oct. 15 the entire priority system will be eliminated. Since the end of the war, percentage of priority travel on Continental Air Lines has tapered off to a point that under the present ruling priorities are virtually eliminated, Duff said.

Midland Is One Of First Counties To Have Officer To Aid Veterans

Midland is one of the first counties in Texas to take advantage of the law passed by the last legislature permitting a county to employ a veterans service officer.

Merritt F. Hines, former county attorney and a veteran of 19 months service in the Army, has been employed by Midland county as the veterans service officer for this county and has established his office on the third floor of the courthouse just across the hall from the district clerk's office.

In general the county's service center works something like this. A veteran returns. He doesn't have much information as to the rights and benefits to which he is entitled by law, nor the procedure to follow in obtaining them.

The veteran goes to Hines who advises him concerning his rights and benefits, and does the necessary paper work for the veteran.

Citizens to Cooperate
Perhaps the veteran needs some advice concerning his income tax and Hines does not feel he is qualified to advise the veteran. The service officer will have the name or names of Midland citizens who are experts in tax matters, so Hines will send the veteran to a tax expert who will gladly advise the veteran and assist him every way possible.

Midland civic organizations have formed an over-all committee to work with the service officer in advising veterans concerning matters with which Hines is not familiar.

William L. Kerr is chairman of the committee and Daniel H. Griffith is secretary. Ily Pratt is the Rotary Club's representative on the committee; Russell Conkling, the Lions Club; Clint Dunagan, the Junior Chamber of Commerce; R. L. Miller, the Chamber of Commerce; Charles D. Vertrees, the West Texas Geological Society; R. W. Hamilton, the American Legion; Fannie Bess Taylor, the Business and Professional Women's Club.

The Midland Ministerial Alliance also will name a representative on the committee.

Kerr said it is not the plan of members of the committee to thrust themselves upon the veteran, but to be available if they can be of service.

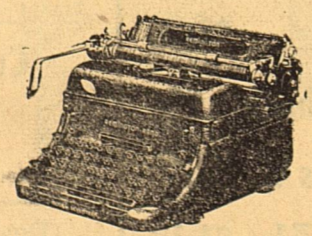

"Let us get away from that word rehabilitation," Hines suggested in discussing the work of his office. "With comparatively few exceptions the returning veterans don't need rehabilitating, but most of them do need information and some need advice."

Gunboat To Become Presidential Yacht

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A 245-foot gunboat, the Williamsburg, will become the presidential yacht late in October or early November.

The White House disclosed that the old presidential vessel, the Potomac, had been condemned as unseaworthy.

Now undergoing general overhaul at the Norfolk Navy Yard, the Williamsburg, originally a yacht, was built in 1931. The Navy purchased it and converted it into a gunboat in 1941.

Turtles Needed For Lion Carnival Race

A tortoise race will be a feature of the Lions Club carnival Sept. 26, John Scrogin, in charge of the races, said Saturday.

Three substantial prizes will be offered the sponsors of the winning turtles, he said. Citizens who wish to enter a turtle in the race can take one to Scrogin at 212 West Texas Street. He will pay 15 cents per turtle and will train the turtles for the race.

Since they must be trained for racing, Scrogin suggested the turtles be brought to him as early as possible.

City Council To Meet Wedne-day

The monthly meeting of the city council will be held in the council room of the City Hall Wednesday afternoon, Mayor A. N. Hendrickson announced Saturday.

A number of routine matters are scheduled to be taken up at the session.

Centuries ago the tomato was called "wolf peach" because it was thought to be poisonous. The so-called "wolf peaches" were thrown to the wolves to destroy them.

Fact Starved Europe Gets Books From U. S.

NEW YORK—(AP)—Fact-starved Europeans who have not seen an American book in five years—and longer in Germany—avidly are reading the first shipments of four million books of American origin.

Printed in English, French, Dutch, Italian or German the books will be distributed throughout Europe, at the request of the psychological warfare branch, to fill the vacuum created by the Nazis, who specialized in burning rather than publishing books.

Printed on cheap paper by Overseas Editions, Inc., (nonprofit agency of the council of books in wartime), the books are being sold abroad under an OWI program which calls for production and distribution without cost to the U. S. government.

Books offered under all facets of the program fall roughly into five categories: War, political, American, entertainment and informational. Ernie Pyle Included

Samples of the war books are "Tarawa," by Robert Sherrod; "They Were Expendable," by W. L. White, "Carrier War," by Lieut. Oliver Jensen; "G. I. Joe," by Ernie Pyle, and "A Walk in the Sun," by Harry Brown.

In the political category are "U. S. Foreign Policy" and "U. S. War Aims," by Walter Lippmann; "One World," by Wendell Willkie; "Lisbon Germany," by Thomas Mann; "Mission to Moscow," by Joseph Davies, and "Report From Tokyo," by Joseph C. Grew.

Americana includes "Huckleberry Finn," by Mark Twain; "Cimarron," by Edna Ferber; "Life With Father," by Clarence Day, and the related entertainment group offers such selections as William Saroyan's "The Human Comedy," and Ernest Hemingway's "For Whom the Bell Tolls." Included in the information group are John Ratcliff's "Science Year-book of 1944," and Paul de Kruif's "Microbe Hunters."

Says American Faith In Italy Justified

NEW YORK—(AP)—American faith that Italy would repudiate Fascism and return to Democracy has been "largely justified," Acting Secretary of State Dean G. Acheson, told the Mazzini Society Saturday.

In a message read to the Italian-American organization's national convention, Acheson said the Allies look forward to Italy's becoming a member of the United Nations.

TWO WELL-STOCKED STORES TO SERVE YOU!

(NEA Telephoto) President Truman awards the Medal of Honor to General Jonathan Wainwright during ceremonies on the lawn of the White House at Washington, D. C.

The Midland Reporter-Telegram

FIRST WITH THE NEWS

MIDLAND, TEXAS, SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 1945

SECTION THREE

Home Not Real Unless It's Texas For Pals With Gen. Wainwright

WASHINGTON—(P)—Home isn't home unless it's in Texas for two American soldiers who were included in the capital's homecoming celebration for Gen. Jonathan Wainwright.

The general's two right hand men who are from Texas are Lt. Col. Thomas Dooley, 31, of McKinney and Wainwright's orderly, Master Sgt. Hubert Carroll, 36, from Paris. "I had wanted to go straight to Texas as soon as we reached San Francisco," said Colonel Dooley, "but they had planned that big reception for us here in Washington. We have to go to New York Thursday, but then I'm hitting out for home."

The detour wasn't too bad, he added, for his mother was at the airport Monday to welcome him.

And there isn't a happier woman in all Washington right now than Mrs. T. P. Dooley of McKinney.

She didn't get a chance to be with her son much Monday because of the official welcoming ceremonies for General Wainwright, but later they all were allowed to rest and she made up for lost time.

Confident He Would Return
"Oh, I'm so happy I still don't know what to say," she remarked. "I haven't come down to earth yet. I just knew he would go back all right some day, and he looked so much better than I expected."

Colonel Dooley agreed that he had fared well compared with most of the Americans who were prisoners of the Japanese.

"It was a miserable life," he elaborated, "but personally I was very fortunate to come through it all right when all those boys of ours were dying."

After a few months imprisonment on Luzon in the Philippines, Dooley was taken along with General Wainwright to Formosa, and following two and a half years imprisonment there was removed to Mukden, Manchuria. He and Wainwright then were separated, the general being removed to a camp about 200 miles north of Mukden.

Freed on August 17
On Aug. 17 the prisoners were released a day after American paratroopers had dropped down to demand the surrender of the Japanese. Three days later Russian troops entered Mukden. On Aug. 27 a plane bearing General Wainwright stopped there and picked Dooley up and carried him to Manila. The Texan was with Wainwright at the surrender scene on the battleship Missouri and also when the Japanese surrendered shortly thereafter at Baguio, in the Philippines.

Throughout imprisonment he managed to get six letters through to his mother to let her know he was safe. Dooley is single, but he has a married sister, Mrs. M. S. Minton, whose husband, Dr. M. S. Minton, accompanied Mrs. Dooley to Washington.

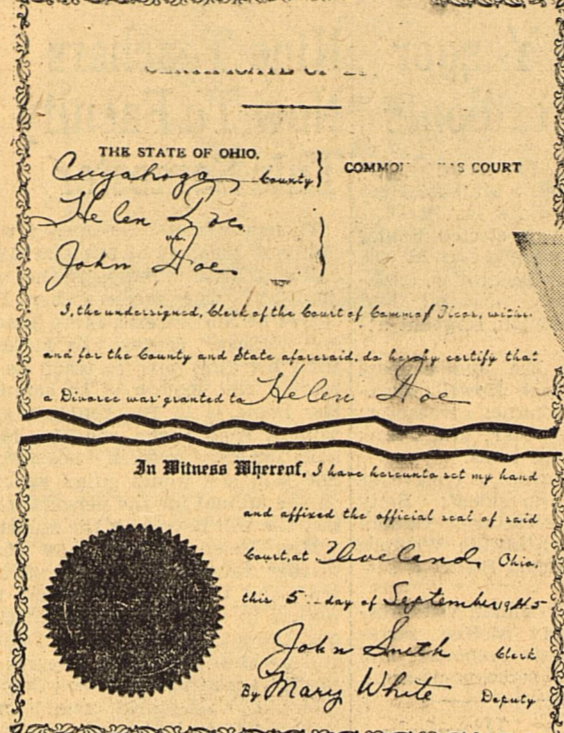

Sergeant Carroll, a regular Army man, has been in the service since 1934. Although he calls Paris home, he lived in several parts of Texas before entering the service. His parents are both dead but he has other relatives in the state.

Radio Networks Back To Normal Operation
NEW YORK—(P)—Radio networks NBC and ABC returned to normal operation Friday after a 26-hour strike by approximately 500 union broadcast engineers.

The engineers began returning to their jobs in New York and other major cities Thursday night. The walkout ended after officials of the companies and the union, the National Association of Broadcast Engineers and Technicians (NABET) agreed to resume negotiations Friday for a new wage contract.

Makes Proof of Divorce Easy

Thinking sympathetically of the trouble divorced folk sometimes have in proving they're really divorced, Leonard F. Fuerst, clerk of the Court of Common Pleas in Cuyahoga County, Ohio, came up with a bright idea. We have marriage certificates—why not divorce certificates? So he devised one, and his office plans to sell them for $1 apiece. Fuerst says they'll come in handy for dealings in allotments, insurance, court cases and proof of divorce when getting remarried. "I think," he says, "this might be better if we tied it up with blue and gold ribbon." The divorce certificate is reproduced in part at left, above. At right, Fuerst fondly regards his brain-child.

Col. Devereux Denies Send-More-Japs Call

TOKYO—(P)—Lt. Col. James P. Devereux denies that he ever sent the famous radio message "send us more Japs" as his heroic little Marine garrison was being overwhelmed on Wake Island in December, 1941.

Devereux was quoted by members of an air evacuation group who visited his prison camp in the mountains of Northern Hokkaido Island.

Now in command of the camp, Devereux told them, "The first thing I'd like to get on the record is that we did not send out such a radio message."

"We had all and more Japs than we could handle right then. There were just too many of them for us to hold off any longer."

Sgt. Al Martin of Roanoke, Va., and Topeka, Kan., who were in the rescue party, said Devereux did tell them he had to give the "cease fire" order three times before his weary and outnumbered Marines would quit the hopeless struggle.

Five Texans Among Corregidor Survivors

KUNMING, CHINA—(P)—Forty-four months of privation and ill-treatment were related by 21 gaunt survivors of Bataan and Corregidor, flown here for medical treatment.

The men, including five Texans, told how they were forced to slave at Jap-operated factories, and of the filthy conditions at their Mukden Prison Camp. Many of the veterans had participated in the notorious Bataan Death March.

One of the Death March veterans, Sgt. Earl W. Guye of Houston, Texas, said the temperature at Mukden often was 40 degrees below zero, "and the worst part of the life," he related, "was the lack of warm clothing, almost everyone in the camp contracted pleurisy, pneumonia or other exposure diseases."

Other prisoners told how they were forced to strip while the Japanese searched for contraband cigarettes which the men bought from Chinese working in the factories.

They said that the whole camp's rations were cut drastically as mass punishment when one of the Americans let up on the job or smoked in an unauthorized place. Red Cross parcels were also held up they said.

The men said the meals were the same every day. Breakfast: cornmeal mush and a bun. Lunch: maize and beans. Dinner: beans and a bun.

Texans among the group, besides Guye, were: Pfc. Lonnie M. Johnson, Jr., Dallas; Pvt. James N. Bowen, Weiner; Pvt. Herman R. Suttle, Pampa.

The croaking of frogs is almost as varied as the songs of birds.

Japanese Had Moved First Line Troops To Kyushu For Invasion

By VERN HAUGLAND

YOKOHAMA—(P)—Japan was saving her last planes for a desperate all-out thrust at the American invasion fleet on "D-Day"—a day that never came.

That strategy—of which the American High Command was well aware and which shackled any effective defense in the air which the Nipponese might have marshalled in the losing days of the war—was disclosed by Gen. Shozo Kawabe, chief of the Japanese Air Force since last April and one of the fathers of the Kanikaze (Suicide) Corps, which he said had tried without vestige of success to block the early B-29 raids.

The Japanese expected the Americans to land on Kyushu in late October or early November and planned to hurl every available plane at the invasion fleet.

Kawabe, and other high-ranking Japanese air officers, admitted that they were desperately short of aviation gasoline but claimed they had plenty of willing pilots to press home their attacks, although many were admittedly short of experience.

500 Planes An Hour
The Japanese had moved their crack units to Kyushu and believed they could hurl 500 planes an hour against the invading forces, Kawabe said.

They expected to lose very pilot but thought on plane in four could get through to hit a ship and could punish the invaders so severely that the Japanese ground forces would have a chance to win.

They expected by scraping the barrel of trainers and obsolete craft both from the army and navy to be able to send 9,000 planes against the Americans.

American commanders said the Japanese were dreaming wildly that the Kyushu fields all would have been bombed out by invasion day and the Japanese plane total would have been so whittled down that it would have been insignificant.

Short and thin faced, Kawabe, through an interpreter, said the army had 3,000 combat planes and 2,300 other planes at the end of the war.

Chinese Reds Lost Prestige After Russian Pact But Still Influential

By HERMAN R. ALLEN

AP Newsfeature
Chinese Communists were extremely independent in their attitude toward Chiang Kai-Shek's central government during the war, apparently counting on Russian support.

The recently announced Russo-Chinese pact, in which Russia promises to keep hands off Chinese affairs, seems to cut much of the ground right out from under the Chinese Reds.

One indication of this was that Mao Tze-Tung, chairman of the Chinese Soviet, suddenly agreed to visit Chiang in person to discuss Chinese unity. Previously he had insisted on sending a representative.

Despite their apparent loss of political pressure, the Communists still enjoy some influence in China. Their organization is widely spread, although rather thinly in many areas.

The Communists capitalized on the Japanese method of occupying The Japanese would drive into a given area, round up Chiang Kai-Shek's governmental representatives, create a little general havoc and then withdraw to the comparatively small part of China which they actually held at any time.

This created a sort of political vacuum, with no leaders. Communists Slipped In
The Communists then slipped into the area and set up a little Soviet. Maybe it consisted of only a village, maybe a county. Maybe they added a little territory to a neighboring area already organized.

At any rate, they infiltrated into a great many places and at one time claimed to dominate a third of free China.

The story of Chinese Communism begins 20 years ago. The Reds helped Chiang establish his government, but then Chiang and the Reds broke. The Reds holed up in a desolate section of southeast China. Chiang drove them out with tanks and planes, and they began their "Long March." This march brought them in 1935 to northern Shensi Province in northwestern China. Their capital there is Yenan.

In this Godforsaken near-desert the Communists built an agricultural economy, raised their own arms, established their own postal system, set up their own monetary system. Relations between them and Chiang Kai-Shek were deadlocked. Chiang kept troops along their borders, but there seldom was any serious clash.

Then the Japanese, who had established a foothold in Manchuria, started marching into China itself. Chiang was far too busy to do anything about the Reds, although he did maintain a watch on them. It was then the Reds began infiltrating back into the rest of China.

Satellites Sprang Up
Numerous "satellite regimes" have sprung up in various parts of China. One of the strongest is just across the Yellow River from the main Red stronghold. In the first ten months of 1944 this regime reported it expanded its territory about half, to about the size of Vermont, freed

Navy's Dick Sisler May Live Up To Dad's Athletic Greatness

AP Newsfeatures
BAINBRIDGE, MD. — Sons of great athletes rarely live up to their dads, but anyone around Bainbridge Naval Training Center will tell you that Dick Sisler, son of baseball's immortal George, is almost certain to be an exception.

Major league scouts agree, but they haven't a chance at the prize. The 24-year-old, six-foot two and a half inch powerhouse, is booked for the St. Louis Cardinals.

Shies From Comparisons
Dick, a lefty like his first baseman dad, plays the outfield. He can do an adequate job around first base, too, but shies away from it because of the inevitable comparisons that are drawn with pop.

But at the plate he stakes his claim to future greatness. Unlike the much smaller George, who punched singles and occasional doubles, Dick is a distance hitter who keeps opposing outfielders perched on the fences.

He had a fine three-year minor league record, but at Bainbridge this year he reached his athletic maturity.

Hitting from the cleanup spot, Dick compiled these figures in 55 games: Batting average, .370; hits, 86; two baggers, 24; triples, 8; home runs, 8; runs batted in, 58.

Outswatted Big Leaguers
He led the team in practically all those departments and outswatted such teammates as Stan Spence, formerly of the Washington Senators, Thurman Tucker, ex-Chicago White Sox, and Howie Moss, the International League's most valuable player and leading home run hitter last year at Baltimore.

An interesting footnote to this record—one that scouts relish—is that against major leaguers in ten games this year, Dick swung for the stratospheric average of .488.

Many of the service team pitchers he faced formerly were under the big top, too.

Dick likely will go first to the Cardinals' Columbus, Ohio, farm team of the American Association, and from there, those who saw him in action this year will tell you, he'll move up to the big show—and soon.

Truman's Re-Election May Depend On How Employment Fares

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON —(AP)— The prophets are at it again. Now they're predicting President Truman's political future.

It goes something like this:
1. Truman's chances for re-election in 1948 depend upon what happens to the 21-point program he gave Congress last week.

2. Upon passage of that program depend the Democrats' chances for winning the 1946 and 1948 Congressional elections.

That sounds odd, for these reasons:
1. It's too soon to be positive about the effect of the success—or failure—of the Truman program upon him or his Democrats.

2. Too many things can happen between now and election time to change the voters' thinking, whether the program goes through in full or not.

Truman's Popularity High
3. Truman's popularity is still riding high. This alone, if he retains it, will be a big factor in the future of himself and his party.

His program cuts two ways. Some of it is to solve immediate problems. Some is long-range, like full employment, housing, public works.

Perhaps failure of Congress to put through the program will affect this country critically. But when? Soon enough for it to affect the voters' thinking in the 1946 or 1948 elections?

Key to Prosperity
The key to our prosperity is full employment, or rather a lack of wide unemployment.

Unemployment is growing now. It will continue, for a while at least.

Then, economists inside and outside government think, employment should grow as industry gets going.

The point is: How long will fairly full employment last?
If it starts before the 1946 elections and lasts through 1948 it undoubtedly will do Truman and his Democrats a lot of good.

Vet Of Five Landings Says Salerno Worst

By HAL BOYLE
ABOARD USS ANCON, TOKYO BAY—(AP)—One of the coolest men in the American Navy during battle is Storekeeper First Class Bill Swain—he has gone through six major amphibious landings in the Pacific.

Aboard ship it is more technically known as "the chill box." That is where perishable goods, such as fresh vegetables, oranges — and canned beer — are kept. And that is where Bill works.

Right now Bill is happy as the sunrise because his Uncle Whiskers just decided he'd done enough for the Navy and started him back home toward Pinehurst in the great state of Georgia.

Bill has been in the Navy since July of 1942. He was flight instrument inspector at Wright Field before that.

While Bill hasn't done much gun shouldering he's seen more action than several million American soldiers.

North Africa To Japan
He saw the start of the war in North Africa and he was in at the finish in Japan.

Bill's five amphibious landings were made at Fedala in French Morocco, Scioletti in Sicily, Salerno in Italy, Normandy, Okinawa and Tokyo Bay.

Of all his landings, he thinks Salerno was the worst. It was there that the Germans first made major use of radio controlled bombs and they were out to get the Ancon, a command headquarters vessel which Bill came aboard in June, 1943.

"But we had to keep the food moving out. That bombing don't bother anybody's appetite."
It is about 36 degrees in the "chill box" — four degrees above freezing. Bill is one of the few men on ship who can work in and out of the box all day long in shirt sleeves. The temperature doesn't seem to bother him and he never catches cold.

"I sure would like to see Tokyo and buy me a souvenir kimono," he said wistfully, looking across the waters toward the pine-clad hills of Japan. "I sure came a long way from Georgia not to get ashore, and eye sure won't be coming this way again in my lifetime."

Improve Recreation Center

Bowlers soon will be able to invite their friends from other cities to bowl at the best alleys to be found in West Texas when the improvement project at the Plamor Palace is completed. The improvements are being made by factory experts.

Improvements At Plamor Palace To Provide Bowlers Best Alleys

When bowling league play starts at the Plamor Palace for the season, the scores of the players with the eight men's teams and the eight women's teams are expected to rise because of the improvement program at the recreation center.

A. R. Beals and Al Boring, owners of the concern, are having all the eight mapeways completely overhauled by factory experts. The owners emphasized this was not just a resurfacing of the alleys, but a complete overhauling which will put them in the best condition of any between Fort Worth and El Paso.

By the time the league play starts the new masking system will have been installed at the Plamor Palace. It is doubtful if alleys in any city the size of Midland have this system, the owners said.

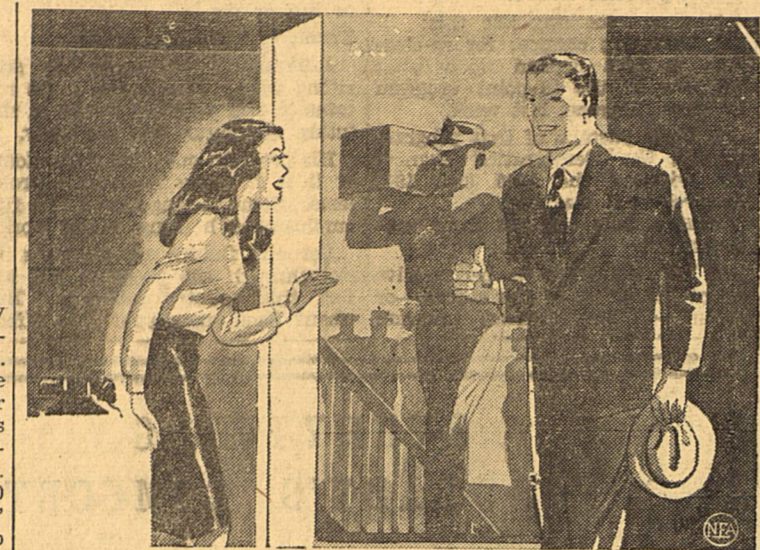

With the system installed the players can concentrate on the pins to the maximum as nothing will distract their attention. The pin boys and pin racks are completely hidden, and all the bowlers see are the pins, brilliantly illuminated.

LOVE BRAVES AN ATOM BOMB

THE STORY: Dr. Robert Hale, young scientist, and his assistant, Leana Sorni, stand in awe of the modern miracle they have performed. Hurdled, they lock their laboratory, plan to place a guard over their secret. Meantime, Dr. Hale has advertised for a secretary. At his office he finds Carolyn Tyler, beautiful, charming, salary is no item, but he warns her of the secrecy, the danger that must surround her work. She is not afraid. "But this," Dr. Hale continues, "is something that will revolutionize civilization!"

"THIS can be your desk. It's by a window. . . . Your typewriter needs a new ribbon. . . . Your notebook can rest on the desk arm, thus. . . . I can lower your chair, you are not so tall as I. . . . If I walk about as I dictate, don't be distracted, please. . . . You must weigh about 120 pounds, don't you, Miss Tyler?"

It was Carolyn's first chance to get in an answer. He had been speaking in a monotone, getting her settled with meticulous attention to details.

"Only 110," she corrected. Then added, half amused, "Must I pass a physical test, too?"

"Oh, no! I—I was just noting how becoming your tailored suit is. I am sensitive to all sorts of phenomena. It is unimportant at the moment. Immediately, we must hire a guard. Men, with guns. I have no idea where to get them!"

Carolyn looked her surprise. She noted that he was gazing off now, frowning. Something inside her told her to take the initiative; here, maybe, was her chance to make good with him at once! An exceptional job, with exceptional pay, the advertisement had said. Well, it meant she had to use her head, no doubt.

"I'll get them," she volunteered blindly. "How many men, Dr. Hale? And what salaries? And where?"

"Oh. Why, any salary necessary.

You must understand that money is no object here now, Miss Tyler! We are amply financed. We have something of transcendent importance. All former requisites, all of human thinking, must be reorganized so as to—

"Goodness! Then, no doubt, we can buy the necessary guns. What kind? And how many?"

"Why a dozen men at least. On all sides of the main laboratory yonder to see that absolutely no one even approaches the place night or day."

"Whew!"

"It is extremely important, Miss Tyler!"

"I don't doubt it. Let me use the telephone."

ODDLY enough, he appeared now to forget her entirely. She noted the way he buried his nose in papers and charts at his broad desk. Plainly he had been willing to delegate a task to her, then assume that she would do it promptly and exactly right.

She was a trifle nervous about all this. And yet, she would try! She dialed a number, Ken Palmer answered, and instantly she spoke most earnestly to him, in somewhat hushed manner.

"Ken! Ken, this is me. This is I, I mean. Look here, Ken, listen carefully. I got the job. I am out at Dr. Hale's laboratory now, at work and—listen carefully, Ken—stop whatever you're doing and go buy me one dozen rifles and one dozen pistols. . . . No, Ken, no and no and no! Listen to me! Get a dozen of each and send them out here at once! Money is—is no consideration. Send them C. O. D. or anything."

"And Ken, hire me some—I am NOT being funny, I tell you! Hire me a dozen trusted men to use those guns. I mean, to stand guard around a place for Dr. Hale. . . . Yes, guard, like—well, like soldiers or police or something. Men we know, or you know, Ken. Hurry!"

Something of her intensity must have slid over the wire to him. Ken Palmer became serious, as one does with any emergency call. A minute later Carolyn was back near her employer.

"It's taken care of," she announced. "They'll be here before night."

"That's fine. There's your dictation pad. A letter for Dr. P. D. Hines, University Hall, Detroit. 'Dear Dr. Hines: Miss Sorni and I hasten to report that the experiment was a complete success. Of course, I shall withhold details until adequate tests can be run. Anything but absolute secrecy would be devastating now. Also, there has been no time to prepare the necessary shields. It happened only this afternoon. Measure of the radiation is impossible today but lead plates can be arranged within a week. In any event there is grave danger

With nothing to lose he cashed his king of hearts and led a small heart to dummy. A heart was then ruffed, establishing dummy's fourth heart. ## Captured Texas Marine Relates News Leaked In U. S. Was Winning ABOARD A U. S. MERCY SHIP OFF TOKYO—(AP)—Three years in Kawasaki Prison Camp was described as "a living hell" by Marine Pfc. James E. Hinkle, 25, of Barry, Texas. The Texan was released Aug. 20 with other American war prisoners shortly after the Fourth Regiment landed in the Japanese homeland.

Captured Jan. 8, 1941, along with 23 other Marines, Hinkle was with the North China Force, Embassy Guard Detachment at Teintsin. When captured they were waiting for the ships to return from the Philippines which have evacuated the "Old" Fourth Marines.

"It's been a living hell under the Japanese," he said. "We were forced to work ten hours a day. Our food consisted of boiled maize and soy beans like the cows at home eat."

"We were never told of the progress of the war and anyone who asked questions was given a beating with a baseball bat. When new prisoners came into camp bits of information circulated and we were able to get a fairly clear picture of what was going on outside. That's what kept our courage up, I guess."

Hinkle added that the Japanese living quarters for internees were intolerable. Conditions were so crowded, he pointed out, that they were sleeping side by side with each other's feet in their faces.

When they were first captured in Teintsin, they were taken to Shanghai where they remained in a prison camp for two months. While there the Marines were assigned with labor units in erecting a miniature monument of Mount Fujiyama.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE with MAJOR HOOPLE OUT OUR WAY

SAY! DO YOU CHIMPS REALIZE WE'LL HAVE TO ROW BACK HOME UPSTREAM? PROVIDED SOME FARMER DON'T MISTAKE OUR HEADS FOR GOURDS!

CAN'T WE STEEF-ARM OUR WAY ONTO THE MAJOR'S HOUSEBOAT? IT'S NOT ATOM-POWERED BUT IT HAS AN ENGINE!—THE ONLY BUG IN IT IS THE HORSE—LAUGH HE'D HAVE ON US!

LET'S SNEAK AROUND IN THE WEEDS AND APPEAL TO POP—MAYBE HE'S STILL FEVERISH OVER HIS GIRL FRIEND!

HE'S STRETCHIN' TH' SCREEN A NAWFUL LOT! HADN'T YOU BETTER UNHOOK TH' DOOR AN' LEAVE HIM COME OUT?

YES, BY ALL MEANS! IF HE GOES MUCH FURTHER LIKE THAT, HE'LL GET HIT WITH A ALUTO AN' TAKE TH' HULL THING OFF!

Illustration by J. R. Williams.

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

YOU ARE BOOTS BROTHER?

SA-AY, WHAT GOES??

I'M NOT SURPRISED THAT YOU KIDS ARE PUZZLED! SIT DOWN! IT'S A LONG STORY!

"THEN YOU MEAN—ALL THAT HAPPENED WAS IN THE NATURAL ORDER OF THINGS?"

HARDLY! AH-AH! HEV' SHU! DON'T GO DOWN IN THERE! NO!

SECRET! SECRET! SHUSH! STOP AN' NO! WHEN I GET MARRIED, JEEP EVERY-THING'S GONNA BE OPEN AN' ABOVE-BOARD!

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

WE DON'T WANT OUR INITIATION TO BE A GRAVY TRAIN—LET'S MAKE IT TOUGH!

MURDER! SHE SAYS!

THE LOCUSTS HAVE SWARMED AND DESCENDED UPON US!

FIRST WE'LL GET SOME TAR, AND COOK IT SOFT AND GOOEY!

ROGER! THEN WE'LL GARNISH IT LIGHTLY WITH FEATHERS!

SORRY, POP... WE MUST MAINTAIN MILITARY SECRECY!

ZIP YOUR LIP—IT'S THE UNDERGROUND!

TINA LEAVES FUJIWARA THRU THE CEMETERY ON THE OUTSKIRTS

ALL ROADS OUT OF TOWN WILL BE WATCHED...

WHILE BO WANTS IN THE WOODS WHERE THEY HAD ONCE PICNICKED

WHAT IF SHE DOESN'T COME? WHAT IF THEY'VE—

WHO'S THERE?

BO! THANK GOODNESS YOU'RE HERE!!

RED RYDER

WHILE A FOSSE SCOUTS THE COUNTRY IN SEARCH OF JOSE VALDEZ, BLACK TOM IS QUESTIONED ABOUT THE SHOOTING OF TOBY.

THERE'S SOMETHIN' FISHY ABOUT THIS KILLIN', BLACK TOM!

WHY, SHERIFF?

PLAMED FUNNY THAT TH' KID O' JUAN VALDEZ COULD OUTDRAW AND OUTSHOOT TOBY?

THAT'S EASY TO FIGGER, SHERIFF! TOBY JUST DIDN'T EXPECT TO BE SHOT!

HAVE A CIGAR, BOSS!

Illustration by Fred Harman.

ALLEY OOP

NOW WE GOTTA START THINKIN' ABOUT HOW TO GET HOME!

THAT MAY BE SOME TIME OFF IF ANYTHING'S WRONG WITH THE TIME MACHINE!

WELL, AT LEAST WE SHOULD BE SAFE HERE WITH OUR GAR-RISON OF CHINA BOYS!

ALLEY! MY STARS, I SUDDENLY FEEL DIZZY!

YEH, ME TOO... GEE WHIZ!

WELCOME BACK HOME!

Swiss Play Grand Hosts To Yanks, Who Buy Souvenirs, View Scenery

By ERNEST G. FISCHER
AP Newsfeatures

BERNE—Has your soldier boy who furloughed in Switzerland sent home that plastic bear yet?

If not, be patient, the bear is coming. If not a bear, then a wooden knife and fork, or if the Swiss francs hold out, perhaps a cuckoo clock.

Don't expect a gold wrist watch because most of the better brands cost in excess of 400 Swiss francs (about $100). For the 150 Swiss francs, spending money allowed the military furlougher in Switzerland, he might be able to buy a steel-case better-brand watch—but then he will not have any francs left with which to buy milk and beer during his week's leave in Switzerland.

Even the Swiss, who set the 150 francs limit "to keep the boys from buying us out," waxed slightly sarcastic about what American boys will buy and do in Switzerland.

Girls Are Considerate

And, girls, if you fear the Swiss maidens will beguile your fiancé or husband, harken to what "Der Bund" of Berne says:

"We want to make sure that the waitresses in the hotels where the American boys stay keep wearing their black, cotton hose. America's women will be thankful if we show some consideration for the morals of their soldiers."

The sirens of this Alpine country should be geologists and historians, suggested the newspaper. These wise men should conceal themselves with microphones on every peak and when American soldiers appear the loudspeakers should blare forth learned dissertations on the landscape.

"And don't forget dates and altitude figures," cautioned "Der Bund."

In connection with the nation's unfavorable food situation, the newspaper wielded a double-edged weapon:

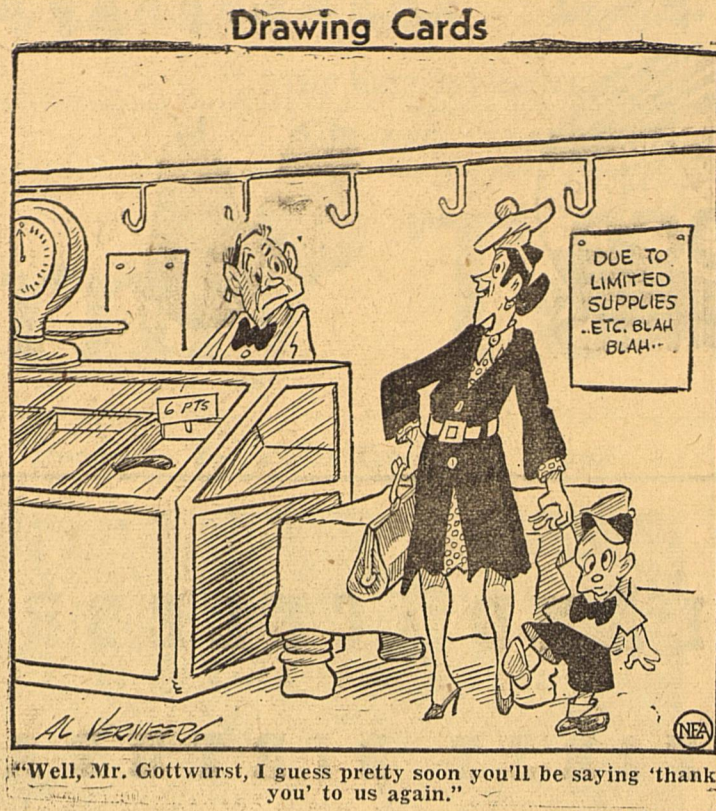

"In order to add zest to the meals of our khaki-clad guests, twice a day, at lunch and dinner, the war food administration ought to explain, in the English language, just how terribly bad our provisioning situation is."

(Under the American-Swiss agreement, the Swiss expert to be reimbursed in kind for the food the furloughers consume in Switzerland.)

Yodelers Attack Yanks

Yodelers, organ grinders and alphorn blowers ought to be hushed during the American visits, the newspaper asserts, and bars and cafes should be closed at fixed hours to give the boys a chance to see the art galleries, the museums and the libraries.

Taking a pot-shot at their own merchants for selling fabricated souvenirs, "Der Bund" said "After all, we cannot be indifferent to the fact that Jimmie or Jackie may decorate his barracks somewhere in the occupation zone with a carved bear or a skull cap when we had rather sell him some highly valuable piece of ceramics of an artistic piece of wood plastic."

ENOUGH SAID

SALT LAKE CITY—(AP)—An interdictory decree of divorce has been awarded Lloyd Shelton. The action followed Shelton's testimony that his wife on one occasion struck him and knocked him down.

Like Children Of Europe, Jap Kids Adopt Big-Hearted Yank Invaders

By HAL BOYLE
TOKYO —(AP)—The Japanese younger generation already has adopted the American Army.

Like the children of Europe and Africa, the Japanese "small fry" have fallen head over heels in love with big-hearted and big-pocketed American soldiers, marines and sailors. Growups may sneer openly or cast veiled looks of hatred at occupation troops from behind their mask of polite formality, but the kids themselves are seriously welcoming the invaders.

They line the streets whenever a military convoy passes, and stand for hours grinning and saluting. Whenever an American soldier jokingly throws them a return salute, they jump up and down, hysterically happy.

Most of the children are clad in rags, and some are so short of clothing that loin cloths make up their entire wardrobe.

Healthy Looking

Boys and girls begin the pack-mule life early in Japan, where child labor is the rule rather than the exception. But these children show few external signs of having lived on a starvation diet. They appear healthy and lively, with clear, tanned yellow skins. They wear happy grins and their faces are lively and expressive. Life hasn't yet molded them to the bleak impassivity of their elders.

When the family has a windfall and they get a big meal, they whoop and enjoy it.

They are quite willing to forget the past and go overboard for the "new order" the Allies are bringing. Many of them wave their fingers in the famous V sign. They picked that up from watching the troops. Some also have broken out Allied flags. One group of youngsters about 7 to 8 years old modestly wave American and British flags at a passing column.

They are picking up the English language quickly, and in less than a week every Japanese child from Yokohama to Tokyo has learned at least three words: "Hello," and "Thank you."

Each day they get more friendly, as one soldier put it—"they learn that Americans won't eat them or kick their teeth in."

The morning we landed in Japan you could hardly see a child on the street. They would peer out of windows or peer down from balconies, then giggle and, half-frightened by their own bravery, run back into the house.

Now they flood out from everywhere, play all over the streets, and you have to drive carefully to keep from wiping out the juvenile population with your wheels.

They didn't beg at first—as did the children of North Africa, Sicily and Italy. But that's changed too. No child who has gone long without sweets can withstand the miracle of American chocolate or the magic of American chewing gum. After the soldiers began half-shamefacedly tossing them out little bits of candy they caught on quickly. They have learned the technique that worked so well with European kids. They hold up their fingers in the victory signal, then hold out their other hand for candy.

Kids Carry Rifles For GIs

They are willing to work for it, too. Troops find it almost impossible to keep them away from their quarters. Children rush up at every chance to sweep for them, carry their Garands or help shine their shoes.

In France, where practically every child seems to take up smoking shortly after weaning, the kids used to work a stock gag to get their cigarettes. They would petition the troops: "Cigarette pour papa," but papa never got the cigarette. Here it is different. The Japanese boy takes candy and cigarette home to his father. They are very rare, and it is one way to show filial devotion.

But there is no way to make American soldiers hate children, or keep from giving them candy and gum. And they know that 25 years from now their own children will be cooperating with these same Japanese children in a better world—or fighting them in a worse one.

THE BULLDOG

Library Books May Be Kept One Week

Library books will be checked out for one week instead of two, according to information from Miss Martha Creagh, school librarian. Books may be re-checked at the end needs additional time for reading.

"This policy helps the librarian of the week, however, if the student keep up with her books in a better manner, and keeps the books circulating more effectively," Miss Creagh said.

Ernie Pyle's "Brave Men" is among the new books received here. Others are "The Yearlings," "Buffalo Coat," "Bomber Pilot," "Seventeen," "The Long Trains Roll," and "Romping Through Physics."

Library assistants this year are Gilbert Sevier, Frances Gibbons, Betty Richards, Edwina Hood, Louie Raines, and Patsy Charlton.

Bulldog's Kennel

The 1945 season for the Bulldogs begins next Friday on Lackey Field at 8:30 in a non-conference game against the Pampa Harvesters of district 1-AA. Last year the Bulldog's defeated Pampa 18 to 13.

Facing the 60 boys going out on both "A" and "B" teams are seven returning lettermen. They are Wilbur Yeager, Barney Hightower, Jimmie Edwards, Bobby Drake, Howard Mickey, and J. C. McNeill.

Coaches Aubra Noncaster and Jack Mashburn are assisting Coach B. E. McCullum this year.

Season Schedule

Sept. 21—Pampa at Midland.
Sept. 28—Austin High (El Paso) at Midland.
Oct. 5—Plainview at Plainview.
Oct. 12—Sweetwater at Midland.
Oct. 19—Big Spring at Big Spring.
Oct. 26—Abilene at Midland.
Nov. 2—San Angelo at San Angelo.
Nov. 16—Cisco at Midland.
Nov. 22—Lamesa at Midland.
Nov. 29—Odessa at Odessa.

The Pampa, Sweetwater, San Angelo, Cisco and Odessa games will be broadcast over KCRS, Midland.

New Bus Scheduled For Delivery $200

A new and larger bus is to be delivered to Midland about the middle of the month, Superintendent Frank Monroe announced. This bus will relieve the overcrowded bus system that now exists. Schedules will be worked out so buses will be running at the same time daily if possible. At present time six buses are operating.

Two New Buildings

The War Production Board has approved the building of two new elementary schools in Midland and has authorized the purchase of necessary materials. Plans for the buildings should be here next week.

Superintendent Monroe has drawings of the new buildings on display in his office and invites any one interested to come in to see them.

Six Girls Work In Principal's Office

The 1945-46 office force—headed by Miss Evelyn Pyle, who is Harlan Howell's secretary—consists of six girls, one for each period of the day. These odd-job girls are: Dorothy Faye Holt, first period; Monty Jo Glass, second; Johnnie Pearl Morelan, third; Pat Flanagan, fourth; Audie Merrell, fifth; and Sarah Hunter, sixth period.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

It is a source of genuine regret to us that we cannot give instant service to the hundreds now on the waiting list. At the very earliest day we can add more lockers, we will surely do so.

If your rental is about to expire, don't put off renewing it and getting the same locker you now have.

MIDLAND CELEBRATES ITS FIRST BIRTHDAY OF # FOOD LOCKER SERVICE

This week marks the first anniversary of this very modern service. We are happy and grateful to have been able to serve you to the extent we have. Truly this service has met with a warm welcome, and we thank you for having allowed us to serve you.

FRESHNESS KNOWS NO SEASON!

With the use of quick-freezing and the locker service that goes with it, all your meats, poultry, fruits and vegetables are available to you throughout the year with the same original freshness they had when processed and placed in your locker.

To bring this most modern of food services to you has been a privilege we cherish. Our principal regret is that the unusual conditions that have prevailed and are only now becoming less stringent have not made it possible to render this deluxe service to everyone.

However, there are strong indications that urgent wartime restrictions are being removed as rapidly as possible. We cannot reasonably set a date when these facilities will be greatly extended, but if you have not received this service, please be patient, as the time is not too far off for you.
