Molotov Nearly Left Council When Bevin Said Method Hitlerian

LONDON—(P)—Informants high within the council of the foreign ministers' conference said Tuesday that Soviet Foreign Commissar V. M. Molotov threatened to go home over the weekend after a heated argument with British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin.

The two have been reported at loggerheads frequently during the sessions which were drawing toward a close.

The representatives of the United States, Russia, Great Britain, France and China met more than two hours Tuesday morning and re-convened for another session later. It seemed that even the most superficial agreement could not be reached.

Molotov was reported by persons present at the weekend exchange to have taken exception to a remark by Bevin that the Soviet Commissar's methods were "Hitlerian."

The clash resulted when Molotov demanded that the ministers revoke a decision of Sept. 11 on procedure, which permitted France and China to sit in on all discussions.

This is the issue which had deadlocked the conference for more than a week with Russia insisting that the Potsdam decisions be adhered to with only the foreign ministers of the Big Three discussing any drafting peace treaties for the Balkan states.

The report was that Molotov said in effect that when the group of powers reached an agreement in common and that afterwards one or more realized their mistake, the council should reconsider and rescind the decision.

Called Method 'Hitlerian' To this, Bevin was understood to have said he had "never heard any thing more like Hitlerian methods."

Persons present said Bevin's remarks were translated into French and Russian while the ministers sat in tense and waited for an explosion.

When the interpreters finished, Molotov arose, walked toward the door, turned and said: "Unless that remark is withdrawn, I am leaving the room and the conference will be over."

A few seconds of silence elapsed. Then Bevin spoke, saying he withdrew his remarks.

Molotov returned to his chair. Persons present said that at this point there seemed no hope of the conference continuing. The ministers, however, attempted to get back down to work and break the deadlock on the Balkan issue.

Later during the session, Molotov in a speech described as full of implication and innuendo, recalled previous conferences of foreign ministers which he said were successful because they were held at Tehran and Moscow and because former U. S. Secretary of State Cordell Hull and former British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden were present.

Molotov was reported to have told the council there were "cordial relations" during those previous sessions.

Byrnes Smooths Matters On the same Sunday evening of the clash, Secretary of State James F. Byrnes also spoke in what was described as an attempt to smooth things. Persons present said it was "a moving speech."

It was reported that the ministers, toward the end of the Sunday night meeting, packed their papers in their brief cases and were prepared to end the conference then.

But the Chinese foreign minister, Wang Shi-ho, just before adjournment, proposed one more meeting, emphasizing that the conference could not end on such a note. The others agreed.

There still was no definite indication of when the five top diplomats would give up and bring the conference to an end. Each minister appeared to be maneuvering to avoid being the first to say the long, turbulent sessions had ended in failure.

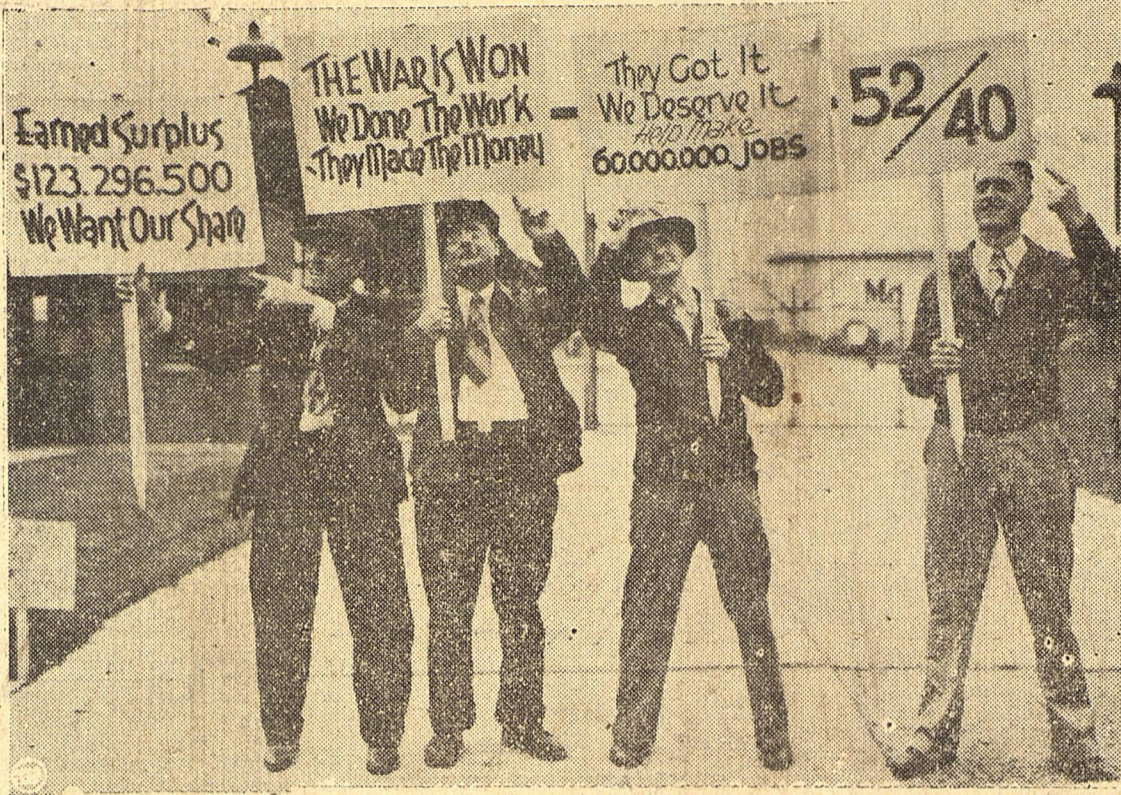

Tax Collections Start With Rush

Tax collections started off with a rush Monday at the city tax office in the City Hall as taxpayers were quick to take advantage of the three per cent discount on city taxes for payment in October. By Pratt, city and school tax collector, issued 82 receipts during the day.

Collections were slower at the county tax office. J. H. Fine, county tax assessor-collector, issued 12 receipts. A three per cent discount is given on state and county taxes paid during October.

In addition to the receipts issued at the city tax office Pratt had received numerous payments by mail but hasn't had a chance to post them.

Auto Workers Picket Industry

Auto Workers Union members picketed a Detroit plant with placards showing some of the claims made by the workers against the automobile industry. The 52/40 sign represents their request for 52 hours pay for a 40-hour week so their income will be equal to what it was during the longer working hours during the war.

Strikers Fired, Vets Hired In Texas Power Plant Walkout

AUSTIN—(P)—The Lower Colorado River Authority announced Tuesday it has fully restored electric power to all its Central Texas customers except at Lampasas and vicinity.

Thirty hours after striking union workers suddenly walked off the job at its four big hydroelectric plants along the Colorado River, the LCRA had made connections with privately-owned utility companies, with the City of Austin's generating plant, and had completely put Austin dam plant back into service.

Threats of serious water shortages and other breakdowns in public services at such towns as Kerrville, Giddings, Brenham, Schulenburg, Fredericksburg were averted as the state-owned utility agency emphasized that the strikers would not be re-employed.

Max Starcke, general manager of the LCRA, said he would tell a federal conciliator scheduled to arrive here Tuesday "there is nothing to conciliate."

"The men who walked off are out of their jobs and will not be re-employed," he said.

Still without power, but with prospects good for restoration Tuesday were Ewart, Burnet, Loomis and San Saba. The LCRA said it hoped within a few days to start the turbines rolling again at Mansfield Dam, Roy Inks Dam and Buchanan Dam.

Several Vets Hired Starcke said that the LCRA had already hired several war veterans as linemen, dispatchers and switchboard operators to fill the jobs left by the strikers, and would continue that policy insofar as possible.

He said a preliminary check-up of the company's roster showed that there were approximately 90 of its 150 operating employees who left their jobs. Union sources Monday said 140 men had struck.

The LCRA Monday night flatly rejected an offer from Mayor Tom Miller of Austin to aid in mediating the strike. The LCRA manager, who charged that restoration of service Monday had been delayed by "acts of sabotage and vandalism" said that one leader line near Schulenburg had been grounded out of commission during the night, but that no other trouble had been reported.

$1,006 Obtained First Day Here For Victory Chest

Workers in Midland County's United Victory Chest campaign reported to R. I. Dickey, general chairman, they obtained $1,006 Monday toward meeting the county's $23,077 quota.

Dickey said some of the teams which began work Monday following a breakfast at the Scharbauer have not reported the results of their first day.

The chairman urged the team captains to turn in reports daily as to the amount of money collected and the progress they are making covering their territories.

Results from the special gifts campaign are expected to begin coming in soon as letters were mailed out last week by Holt Jowell and F. H. McGuigan, members of the special gifts committee.

LATE NEWS FLASHES

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A high Labor Department official said Tuesday he was "confident" the oil strike disputants would accept the government's arbitration proposal but a conflicting view was held in CIO quarters.

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—Workers at the Union Oil Co. refinery at Wilmington went on strike Tuesday in support of demands by the CIO Oil Workers Union for 52 hours pay for a 40-hour week.

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Truman shoved in the chips Tuesday for a politically-important Senate showdown on his nomination of Raymond S. McKeough as a maritime commissioner. Truman reportedly told his legislative lieutenants he wants the nomination of the former New Deal Congressman voted up or down.

Weather Continued cloudy Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday with showers. Not much change in temperature.

Government Set To Take Over If Plan Not Accepted

CIO Workers Close Texas Co. Plant

By The Associated Press

CIO workers closed Tuesday the Texas Company's Galena Park Refinery, near Houston, and said they would close the Texas Pipe Line Company, possibly Tuesday. The total of workers idle rose to 23,000. A strike vote in progress at the Ingleside, Texas, refinery of the Humble Company continued.

Closing of the Texas Company refinery brings to four the number of industrial areas, which normally account for nearly half of the refining in the country.

Still operating in the Houston area are the big Humble Oil and Refinery Company plants at Baytown with capacity of about 190,000 barrels of crude oil daily, the Eastern States Oil Company, with 20,000 barrels daily capacity; Maritime Oil Company, 5,000 barrels daily, and the Phoenix Refinery, 2,500 barrels, in Houston.

The Baytown Employees Federation, bargaining agent for the Humble Refinery, is asking for a 30 per cent wage increase, the same as the CIO oil workers are asking for, but have declared that their demands will be settled by arbitration, instead of by strike action.

"Our contract calls for arbitration, and that is what we intend doing," H. G. Bally, president, said.

Longshoremen to Go Out Houston longshoremen, reportedly dissatisfied with delays in settling their wage demands, Monday night voted to walk off their jobs at midnight Thursday unless their demands are met by steamship operators.

The vote was taken at a meeting only six hours after an authorized one-day strike against Navigation District Facilities at Port Houston by car unloaders was settled temporarily, and longshoremen returned to work.

An International Longshoremen's Association official said Monday night's meeting was not in accord with the international's policy in the West Gulf area, because L. A. leaders have accepted a 10-cent hourly wage increase for deep sea longshoremen pending settlement of their demands by Oct. 15.

The I. L. A. is asking a $1.35 hourly wage for longshoremen and $1.12 1/2 for car loaders.

A possibility that the action might be the forerunner of widespread walkouts of port labor throughout the West Gulf area was indicated when it was learned that local representatives of the union will confer with Galveston representatives on Thursday.

Refuses Charge Also at Houston, Hiram A. King, vice-president of the Sinclair Prairie Oil Company, said his company has "not refused to furnish gasoline to the Army or Navy." His statement was made in answer to a charge by Harvey O'Connor, publicity director of the Oil Workers International Union (CIO) that the union last Friday authorized loading a boat at Houston with oil needed by the Army but Sinclair officials forbade its loading.

T. W. Embry Dies, Services Wednesday

Thomas William Embry, 83, died Monday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. A. Beaucham, 407 West New York Street, following a lengthy illness. He was born Nov. 6, 1861, in Coryell, Texas, and came to Midland in 1907 where he was engaged in farming before his retirement.

Services will be held from the Ellis Funeral Home Chapel at 10:30 a. m. Wednesday with Dr. Will C. House, pastor of the First Methodist Church, officiating. Interment will be in the Fairview Cemetery.

Survivors are two sons, M. L. Clifford and Dr. W. T. Embry; three daughters, Mrs. Beaucham, Mrs. G. W. Moore and Mrs. A. E. Vinn; and a number of grandchildren including Mrs. R. E. Klebold.

Mrs. Embry died four years ago here.

WASHINGTON—(P)—CIO oil workers and 11 big oil companies—locked in controversy over wages—Tuesday studied a government peace proposal calling for:

- 1. A temporary 15 per cent pay increase, and
- 2. Agreement by both sides to accept an arbitrator's final settlement.

Acceptance would bring an immediate end to strikes which began September 16 and spread to 12 states. Latest hot area is the West Coast. Pacific military and naval supplies thereby were jeopardized.

Secretary of Labor Schwelbenbach presented the peace plan early Tuesday to weary negotiators who acknowledged a hopeless deadlock after seven days of conciliation under government supervision.

Schwelbenbach had to turn his attention elsewhere, too, as John L. Lewis' soft coal miners added to government strike worries, and troubles piled up in the telephone, auto, and Southern textile industries.

Government Ready To Seize The government, with papers already drawn for seizure action should the oil dispute continue to leave refineries idle—prodded union and management representatives to compromise on the CIO demands for 30 per cent higher wages—but quickly.

Continuing that "if this strike continues on into the winter, the people will be hungry and cold," Schwelbenbach suggested:

- 1. Immediate return to work by the 30,000 striking union members and full resumption of operations by management.
- 2. Return to a 40-hour working schedule "as soon as manpower availability permits" with an increase of 15 per cent or its equivalent in the basic pay rate.

3. Agreement to accept the findings of an impartial arbitrator on the differences between the union's demand for 30 per cent and the companies' counter offer of 15.

The arbitrator would make his decision by December 1. In the meantime, collective bargaining could be continued.

Fort Worth Oil Refinery Strike Set For Tuesday

FORT WORTH—(P)—Fort Worth's first oil refinery shutdown in the nationwide "52-40" controversy is scheduled for Tuesday at 6 p. m. when employees at the Sinclair Refinery Company will walk out, according to an announcement from J. A. Guhl, president of Local No. 308, Oil Workers International Union (CIO).

"There will be cut out the refinery at that time unless a settlement has been reached in Washington, D. C. before that time," the announcement stated.

Guhl stated a meeting was being held with Supt. John Cutter "to effect an orderly means of shutting down" and that gasoline for essential uses such as for hospitals, doctors, the Army, and Navy would be made available "if it is possible to arrange."

The union also announced a meeting was in progress Tuesday morning with the management of the Magnolia Petroleum Company refinery to negotiate the union's demands on the 52-40 program and that a similar meeting with Gulf Oil Corporation management is set for 7 p. m.

"No shutdown is scheduled at this time at Magnolia pending negotiations," Harvey O'Connor, publicity director for the OUIU, stated.

Humble Wildcat In S-W Andrews Had 80 BOPH Fill-Up From Simpson Zone

By JAMES C. WATSON, Oil Editor Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 1 J. E. Parker, wildcat located 660 feet from north and 1,380 feet from east line of section 24, block A-41, psi survey, in central Southwest Andrews County, filled up at rate of 80 barrels of clean oil per hour, from the Simpson, middle Ordovician, during a one-hour at 30 minute drill-stem test at 8,625-8,808 feet.

Operator was taking an electrical survey Tuesday and was then planning to drill ahead to the Ellenburger.

Gas came to surface in 25 minutes after tester was opened and there was a blow of gas during remainder of the test.

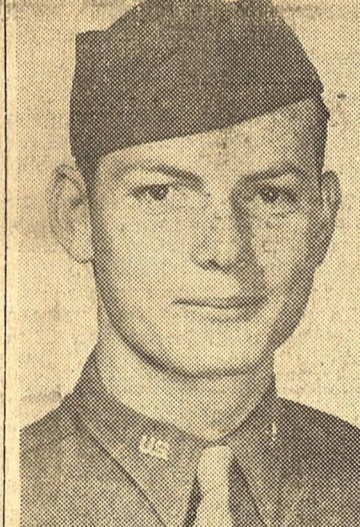

Unloaded Oil After three dry stands of drill-pipe had been pulled the pipe started unloading drilling mud and flowed that fluid for one minute and then flowed pipe line oil for 34 minutes.

Then 34 more stands of pipe were pulled and drill-pipe again unloaded oil for 30 minutes. It continued to unload all the rest of the way down. Operators estimated that 3,500 feet of oil came into the drill-pipe during the 90 minutes the tool was open to make a fill-up of 80 barrels of oil per hour.

Pressure Increased The fluid was 33.7 gravity corrected. Flowing bottomhole pressure ranged from 1,400 pounds at the end. No shutin bottom hole pressure was reported. The section is about the McKee formation of the Simpson.

Barnsfield Oil Company No. 1 Williams, in southwest quarter of section 2, block 8, EL survey, in West Lynn County, started cording at 5,110 feet, in San Andres lime, after the section at 5,100 feet, 5,110 feet had softened considerably, and had shown some porosity, some oil stains and an odor of oil. ## Our Mild Aid To Liberty

A few days ago an estimated quarter-million people in Buenos Aires joined in a demonstration for freedom and against the Argentine military dictatorship which, by restrictions, threats and violence, maintains itself in power. Political and social differences were forgotten as marchers pledged their continuing support of the constitution and shouted "Death to Peron!"

On the same day a story from Washington said that wartime economic sanctions imposed by this country and Britain against Spain and Argentina were up for review, and might be eased or abandoned.

The governments of these two dictator countries need coal and oil. They didn't get much of either during the war. Both items were scarce. There was little for export, and the bulk of whatever surplus there was logically went to friendly countries.

Now, though coal is still in short supply, oil is reasonably abundant. There seems to be no economic reason why increased shipments could not be made to the two countries. In fact, a good excuse could probably be found for doing so in Argentina's case, since our oil exports are being exchanged there for flaxseed and linseed oils, which are much needed here.

But there are urgent moral reasons why these curbs should be continued. Any relaxation would surely be interpreted by Franco and Peron, and by their countrymen who oppose them, as indicating a softer Anglo-American attitude. It would strengthen the dictators' hands. It would prolong the ordeal of freedom-loving people under their rule.

The situation in Spain and Argentina mocks the great military victory which the United States and Great Britain, with their Allies, have won over dictatorship and tyranny. And it is a situation that has been fostered by the general mildness of British and American policy.

It may be hoped that these two powers will not take new steps to prolong the power of two pompous proteges of the defunct Axis. The resistance by Franco's opponents in and out of Spain, though nearly crushed, has not died. The wishes of the Argentine people are unmistakable. It would be a shame if we and Britain should now withhold the mild aid of limited economic sanctions from these people in their fight for liberty.

New Czar In Hollywood

Well, we can't call the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America the "Hays office" any more. And it seems likely that more than the popular name for it will change now that Eric Johnston has taken over as president.

The handsome and energetic Johnston says he thinks "the Hays job will have to be remodeled and changed." That statement won't mean much even to the avid reader of movie fan magazines. To the average movie-goer the Hays job was clocking screen kisses, regulating the length of skirt and the dip of neckline, protecting the nation's eyes from overexposure to feminine curves and its ears from horrid words.

Naturally there was more to the job than that, though we have no idea what. However, when Johnston speaks of films as "America's salesmen, her ambassadors of good will," he is speaking of more familiar things.

Hollywood hasn't done too good a job of international relations. Through the years it has emphasized our wealth and superficialities. And so the world, most of which has become acquainted with this country through movies, has received a false and distorted picture of our life. Hollywood also has been patronizing or downright stupid in some condescending attempts to coddle Latin America with "good neighborliness."

We hope that the traveled and intelligent Johnston will be able to persuade our movie makers to present America and Americans to the world in a somewhat truer and more adult manner.

A California doctor says thousands have died from kissing. Just think how many are dying to be kissed.

Following a wave of hats for Victory comes a wave of hard work for Peace.

We've heard the cry "Cease firing" on the war front—now let's have it on the industrial front.

The tax on inheritances is not likely to be reduced for some time. 'Twill still come under the head of the high cost of giving.

A new era is about to dawn. How bright it is for you depends on whether or not you're wide awake.

How busy isn't as important as why busy. The bee is appreciated—the mosquito swatted.

The average person's troubles are chiefly imaginary—the kind hardest to cure.

Overheard on a street corner: "You all don't know nobody that don't want to hire nobody to do nothin', does yuh?"

Don't let your desire to acquire outdo your desire to enjoy.

Officers Of Lula Brunson Class Are Installed Monday

New officers of the Lula Brunson Class of the First Baptist Church were installed in impressive services conducted at the church Monday in the Young People's Department.

Bouquets of daisies, chrysanthemums and gladioli in the class colors, yellow and white, were used in decorating the meeting place.

Nine white candles centered the table where the teachers and installing officers were seated. In the background were white crepe paper streamers and two tall candelabra containing burning tapers. # "So I'm in business for myself!"

Shine, mister—?

Yep, I'm in business for myself. Not a very good business, I guess.

Funny. That used to be an old dream of mine—way back in 1945. A business of my own.

Never thought it would work out this way ...

Shine, mister—?

Those were the days. I was making more money than ever in my life. And buying Victory Bonds on the Payroll plan—setting up the nest egg Mabel and I thought would someday help us toward independence.

Shine, mister—?

Yep. We had it figured out. We'd keep on buying bonds; keep on saving. And at the maturity of those bonds, we'd have had it all—and more. Four dollars for every three when our "E" bonds matured!

And then—my own radio repair place! Had lots of ideas. It would have been a big success, too ...

Not quite enough gumption, I suppose, back in 1945. I sloughed off on my bond buying. Even began to cash in on the ones I had ... Shucks, the war was over and I thought 'so what.'

Guess I've been a terrible fool ... Shine, Mister—?

* * *

The difference between success and failure can be a small difference—the difference between sticking to a resolution or dropping it.

Keep those War Bonds—and buy more and more Victory Bonds! They can mean your own business—your own home—the education of your children. Think of your future—hang on to your bonds!

Lions' Carnival Ends Tuesday Night

The Lions Club carnival will play its final performance Tuesday night starting at 7 p. m. and with a reasonable break in the weather the grounds are expected to be packed with citizens out to enjoy the carnival and help the club obtain funds for its charity fund.

Although the weather was bad Monday night enough citizens turned out to make the night a profitable one for the charity fund.

An auction will be held at 11 p. m. of articles donated by Midland business men to the club to boost the carnival. Practically all of the articles are on the scarce list.

John J. Redfern Jr., president of the Lions Club, and J. M. McDonald, chairman of the carnival committee, expressed their thanks to those who have worked making the carnival a success in spite of some bad breaks from the weather.

Five MAAF Officers Receive Promotions

Five officers at Midland Army Air Field, four bombardiers and one administrative officer, have been notified of their advancement in rank by the War Department.

Major George E. Doyle, who has held the key post of director of supply and maintenance for several months, has been promoted to lieutenant colonel, and each of the bombardiers was advanced one grade.

Promoted to first lieutenant were James Holland, Sterling H. Rogers and James R. Brown. Capt. Jack N. Rivers, a returned-from-combat bombardier assigned as a ground school instructor, was promoted to major.

Strikes —

(Continued from Page One) constant patrol of transmission lines and a watch was set up over such key points as transfer units. State Rangers stayed on duty at generating plants. The LCRA said there had been a good response from county officers to its appeal for aid in keeping its transmission lines in order.

Army Posts Serviced Early
Many of the employes who did not walk out remained at their posts for 30 hours to aid in restoring service.

The first to get power Monday were San Marcos Army Air Field, the city of San Marcos, Camp Swift, Eastrop, Bergstrom Army Air Field. Soldiers at Camp Swift patrolled the power line feeding that military installation Monday night on War Department authority.

At a news conference Gov. Coke R. Stevenson expressed agreement with the LCRA's no-reemployment policy for striking workers.

Said the governor: "Any man who commits sabotage on the property on which he is employed should not be re-employed."

The governor added that he told Manager Storcke that the state through the public safety department would supply as many guards as necessary to protect property.

Sixteen Buildings Treated First Day In Rat Campaign

The rodent extermination campaign sponsored in Midland by the Junior Chamber of Commerce was off to a good start Monday with 16 buildings being treated, 256 cup baits put out and six fountain baits, Graham Smoot, sanitarian for the Midland County Health Unit, reported.

The work is being carried on under the direction of Carl Jacobs of the Fish and Wild Life Service.

Since clean alleys are a necessity if the rodents are to be exterminated, an inspection of the alleys in the business district will be made Friday by a committee of citizens and the alleys will be graded on points. The city is providing an extra truck this week which will follow the garbage truck and pick up rubbish which does not go in the garbage truck. The rubbish must be piled if it is to be carried off.

The alleys will be graded on six points: only metal garbage containers are used, all garbage in containers, tight fitting covers on containers, containers reasonable clean, alley free of rubbish, and alley free of weeds.

BEWARE OF PIN-WORMS

Recent medical reports reveal that an amazing number of children and grown-ups may be victims of Pin-Worms—often without suspecting what is wrong! Watch out for the warning signs that may mean Pin-Worms in your child or yourself—especially the tormenting, embarrassing rectal itch. Because now you can and should do something about it. After centuries of distress caused by Pin-Worms, a highly effective way to deal with them has been made possible. It is based on the medically recognized drug called gentian violet.

This special drug is the vital ingredient in P-W, the Pin-Worm tablets developed in the laboratories of Dr. D. Jayne & Son. P-W tablets are small and easy to take, and they act in a special way to remove Pin-Worms.

So if you suspect this ugly infection, ask your druggist for JAYNE'S P-W and follow the directions. Satisfaction guaranteed or your money back.

It's easy to remember: P-W for Pin-Worms!

The Midland Junior Chamber Of Commerce

P. O. Box 1606
Midland, Texas

Dear Fellow Citizens:

On Friday, October 5, a Committee of Citizens will inspect all alleys in the business district to determine and report on progress being made in our alley sanitation and rodent control program. It is not possible to exterminate rodents and safeguard health unless alleys are kept free of conditions which attract and protect the enemies of good health.

The alley in each block of the business district will be visited and graded on the following score card:

Points	Conditions Inspected	Maximum Points
1.	Only Metal Garbage Containers	25
2.	All Garbage In Containers	20
3.	Tight-Fitting Covers on Containers	20
4.	Containers Reasonably Clean	10
5.	Alley Free of Rubbish and Trash	15
6.	Alley Free of Weeds, Etc.	10
	Total	100

We ask that you and your neighbors try to score 100 points. We can provide you with rat poison and trained personnel to apply it, but the success of the campaign depends upon how well you and your neighbors cooperate with us in keeping the alleys clean.

We are spending $500 on the rat poison alone and each JayCee takes this opportunity to publicly thank those who are helping us shoulder this load with their contributions. To us, your contribution means that you are with us all the way in making Midland as clean and healthy as possible.

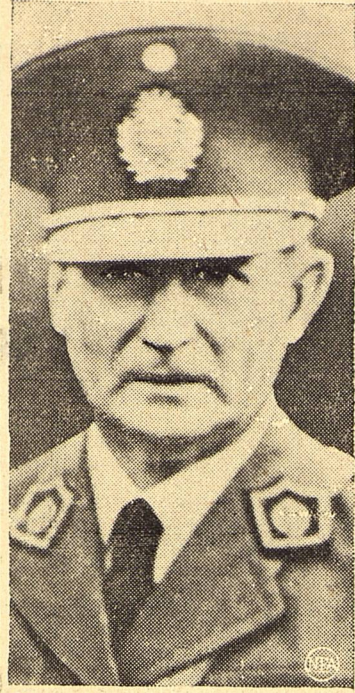

Yours truly,

World Series To Open Wednesday In Detroit With Fair Weather Promised

By SID FEDER DETROIT (AP)—The Tigers and the Cubs took their one and only pre-series look Monday at the baseball patch on which they start slugging Wednesday, leaving the rosters by the thousands to finish the hottest 1945 World Series argument—how come all the Detroit optimism over what left-hand pitching can do to the Cubs.

The opening game of the series will start at 12:30 p. m., Central Standard Time. The weather-man promised to keep the rain faucets, which were running like broken beer taps all day Monday, shut down Tuesday for the lone pre-series workout for the two clubs.

Incidentally, a win for Hank as a Cub in this one, on top of his 1943 performance as a Yankee in triumphing the Cards, would make the likeable "$100,000 arm" the first two-league series winner since old Jack Coombs bowled over the Cubs three times in 1910 and the Giants once in '11, as a member of the Philadelphia Athletics, and belted the Boston Red Sox as a Brooklyn Dodger five years later.

Since both teams have showed up, thereby assuring the folks that the series is on, the rival managers weighed in with their predictions. Of course, they picked their own outfits to win. Steve O'Neill tabbed the betting-favored Tigers in six games, and jolly Cholly Grimm went for the Cubs, "but with none of this number of games stuff—we'll just play one game after the other until we're home."

"Let's get down to numbers," one veteran of the series circuit pointed out. "We'll admit Newhouse's a hot heater. But he's only 6 to 5 in the betting books to beat the Cubs. Then O'Neill says he's going to come in with Stubby Overmire.

and he says it like he's confident about it. He must be kidding. You had to admit this guy had something, because the records show that the Cubs this season tangled with portside elbows 40 times, and knocked them off in 26 games, against 14 losses. Of course, a flinger like Harry Brecheen of the Cards found out they were his cousins, but they even whipped him in the big one that counted—the first game of last week's all-important National League series with St. Louis in Chicago. And even a Detroit fan will admit Overmire's no Brecheen.

It is pointed out, too, that while O'Neill is making speeches about how his lefties will find big holes in the bats of such left-handed hitters as Phil Cavarretta, Stan Hack and Bill Nicholson, the Cub lineup also sports a few pretty fair country ball-batters who hit from the knife side of the plate. Andy Pafko, for instance, has clouted a dozen homers and knocked in 111 runs; Peanuts Lowrey has sent 87 tallies home this year and Don Robinson wound up with a 302 mark.

Crowds Pour Into Detroit Detroit simmered down from its original city-wide delirium to a simple insanity as it waited Tuesday, while the thousands pouring in hour by hour still spent their time looking for a place to hang their hats the next few nights.

Meanwhile, the Figger Filberts broke out their special adding pencils and came up with the interesting possibility that this set may produce the biggest player's share of all series history for the winners. It was noted that the all-time top winner's paycheck came right out of the last series between these same two outfits—back in 1935, when the Tigers took down the heat, if not gaudy, chunk of $6,544.76 per Tiger, which is not hay, even to the off-season farmers on these clubs.

With sell-out crowds assured for the first three games in Mr. Briggs' ballyard Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, plus the ample accommodations in Wrigley Field for the fourth game Saturday—the last one the players cut—a new ceiling might very well be hit. Since it's still several more months to income tax time, the players Tuesday unanimously admitted they don't feel a bit hurt about it.

Critics Say TCU Passer BETTER Than Baugh, O'Brien In First Year

PORT WORTH (AP)—Coach Dutch Meyer made the statement before the football season opened that his freshman passer, Leon Joslin, was as good as Sam Baugh and Davey O'Brien were in their first years at Texas Christian University.

Baugh and O'Brien, as you know, were among the top passers of all time before they finished at T. C. U. and they carried their aerial brilliance into professional football with the same results.

Well, veteran critics now are one-up even on Meyer. They declare Joslin is better than either Baugh or O'Brien in their first year. And if the slender freshman keeps up the pace he has set in the two games played to date—against Kansas and Baylor—he'll eclipse everything his illustrious predecessors did for the Horned Frogs.

Joe Louis, Civilian Again, Attends Fight

NEW YORK (AP)—Joe Louis is back in civvies, trim and fit at 219 pounds, and sure he can hit just as hard as he could before he entered the Army in January, 1942.

Wearing a grey suit and a light grey hat, the world's heavyweight champion celebrated his return to civilian life by attending Monday night's Freddie Schott-John Thomsen bout at the St. Nicholas Arena, just six hours after his honorable discharge at Camp Shanks, N. Y. "I don't feel no different than when I fought Abe Simon three years ago right after I got in the Army," drawled burly Joe. "I might be a little bit slower but I know I can hit just the same. This Army life was good for me, kept me in good shape and close to the game. They let me box all I wanted (about 700 or 800 exhibitions) but I guess just like every other soldier I'm glad to get out."

"First," he told a reporter, "I'm catching the first train to Detroit to see the Tigers clean up those Cubs in six games. Hal Newhouse is going to win two. After that I'm coming back here for a conference with Uncle Mike Jacobs (the promoter) and then I'm off to California for two or three months."

Veteran AP Writers To Cover Series

DETROIT (AP)—An Associated Press staff of veteran writers and photographers will cover the 1945 baseball World Series between the Chicago Cubs and the Detroit Tigers opening in Detroit Wednesday. A staff under the direction of General Sports Editor Bob Cavagnaro will have Gayle Talbot and Sid Feder writing the general lead stories daily for morning and evening newspapers, respectively, Charles Whitney reporting activity and developments in the club houses, and Whitney Martin producing his morning newspaper column on the series scene.

The play-by-play account of the World Series games will be transmitted directly from the ball parks on The Associated Press' main trunk line, which will be supplemented by additional facilities.

Texas Among Blind Vets To Attend Series

MENLO PARK, CALIF. (AP)—The World Series at Detroit was the destination Tuesday of ten veterans—four of them totally blind, the other six only partially. Their enthusiastic attendance at local games despite their handicap caused them to be specially selected from among the other patients of the blind rehabilitation program at Dibble Hospital here.

Sports ★ Roundup By Hugh S. Fullerton Jr. NEW YORK (AP)—Ralph Ventresca, the only prewar player on the Penn State football squad, was declared ineligible the day before the opening game against Muncie, Ind. The reason was that he had flunked too many courses in his last semester in college—in 1941. . . . In the interim he collected five battle stars fighting in Europe and once spent 115 days in a foxhole, but that won't get him back to the varsity before Nov. 1.
