Reds Demand Big-3 Peace Europe, Council In Japan

LONDON —(P)— U. S. Secretary of State James F. Byrnes and Soviet Foreign Commissar Vyacheslav M. Molotov brought into the open Wednesday a disagreement among the major powers whether a Big Three understanding existed for blanket participation by all five principal powers in European peace settlements.

Molotov, outlining to a press conference the Soviet stand on the 22-Tuesday night in a debate over procedure, disclaimed any knowledge of an agreement for blanket participation of all five powers.

Earlier Byrnes had said President Truman and Prime Minister Attlee left the Potsdam Conference with the understanding that France and China would be permitted a full share in discussions of treaties, but that Marshal Stalin apparently understood the two nations would be barred from such discussions.

Molotov admitted the existence of disputes within the council, but expressed hope for future collaboration to insure world peace.

With the breakdown of the conference diplomatic sources here predicted that a new meeting of Premier Stalin, President Truman and Prime Minister Attlee would be necessary, but French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault asserted that any meeting of the Big Three powers alone would be "disagreeable to France."

France demands Port

Bidault, also addressing a press conference, made it clear France was determined to have an equal voice with Britain, Russia and the United States in drawing up the European peace.

Molotov was asked about the reported agreement early in the council conference which would have permitted all the foreign ministers to take part in the peace discussion. "You show it to me," he retorted. "Could there be such an agreement without signatures?"

He said the United States, Russia, France and Great Britain had agreed on certain questions about a peace treaty for Italy and that the Big Three nations had resolved certain questions about peace treaties for Romania, Bulgaria and Hungary. He said Russia and Great Britain "without difficulty" had reached an agreement on Finland.

Byrnes said the United States considered it essential that the nations which participated fully in the war be allowed to participate fully in making the peace.

Truman Requests $40,000,000 Cut In Expenditures

WASHINGTON —(P)—The White House said Wednesday President Truman has recommended reductions of nearly $40,000,000 in funds appropriated for the current fiscal year ending June 30.

A statement said the sum recommended for repeal was slightly in excess of $39,750,000,000 out of total available appropriations of approximately $105,000,000,000.

Funds recommended for repeal included $28,700,000,000 for the Army, $3,300,000,000 for the Navy and $2,800,000,000 for emergency and war-related activities.

Cut In Contracts

"In addition," the statement added, "the President recommended reductions of slightly more than $4 billion in contract authorizations, $5.3 billion in unrequited balances in prior year appropriations and $9,318,307 in administrative expenses for government corporations. In addition, $1,190,500 was recommended to be returned to the treasury from government corporations established by the office of inter-American affairs."

"In transmitting his recommendations the President has in each case indicated to the Congress that all war and war-related appropriations will be under continuous study. He has declared that he plans another full review of such appropriations and will make a report to Congress on January 3, 1946, containing recommendations concerning further adjustments."

LONDON —(P)— The Moscow radio announced Wednesday Russia has informed the United States that the formation of a four-power control government for Japan should precede organization of a Far-Eastern consultative commission to direct long-range policy toward the defeated Pacific enemy.

The Russian view was set forth, the radio said, in a letter handed U. S. Secretary of State Byrnes by Foreign Commissar Molotov in London Tuesday.

Byrnes announced Sept. 29 that the formation of a consultative commission in which other countries that fought Japan would be given a voice had been agreed to by Britain, Russia and China.

"Position Has Changed"

Molotov's letter, the broadcast said, reaffirmed Russia's agreement with such a project, but added that Byrnes' announcement "does not reflect the present position."

"The Soviet government considers that while the military period existed and the Japanese armed forces were not disbanded, there was a reason for the concentration of all functions for the control of Japan in the Allied commander-in-chief.

"However, the Soviet government considers the creation of an Allied advisory committee must be preceded by the formation by the governments of the four Allied powers of a control government for Japan, since the postponement of this decision creates considerable difficulties."

Ft. Worth Plane Workers Strike

FORT WORTH —(P)— Consolidated-Vultee's giant aircraft production plant was shut down Wednesday as an estimated 700 members of the AFL Machinists Union here went on strike and established a picket line.

The picket line was established by union members in the midst of negotiations by their representatives for a new contract with the aircraft company which during the strike produced B-24 and B-29 bombers, and is currently engaged in three development projects for the Army Air Forces.

8,000 Left Idle

Roland G. Mayer, manager of the Fort Worth Convair plant, was barred by the picket line when he arrived at the plant at 8 a. m., but later found other means of entrance and was in his office. An estimated 8,000 workers were left idle by the cessation of operations, and only a few maintenance workers and switchboard operators were permitted to enter the plant.

The union had proposed a contract calling for a 30 per cent wage increase, a seniority clause, closed shop, vacations and improved grievance procedure.

Union spokesmen, who declined to be quoted, said that contract negotiations with the company had been halted, but Mayer said that as far as he knew he negotiations were scheduled to be continued.

Workers Obtain Total Of $3,250 For Victory Chest

The total of funds obtained in Midland County's United Victory Chest campaign had reached $3,250 by Wednesday morning, R. J. Dickey, general chairman, reported. The county's quota is $3,077. A total of $2,244 was turned in Tuesday.

"A number of the workers have not turned in their reports and Dickey urged them to make their reports as quickly as possible.

"The campaign chairman reminded citizens they need not wait for a campaign worker to call upon them in order to make a contribution as they can give or mail their checks to Ralph Barron, treasurer, at the Midland National Bank.

"The need for funds for the Victory Chest is as great as it was at any time before hostilities ceased," Dickey said. "Midland citizens must not fall to meet their responsibility to hundreds of thousands of soldiers still overseas."

Congress May Cut Tax Over Five Billion

WASHINGTON —(P)— Congress appeared Wednesday to be going considerably beyond the Administration's $5,000,000,000 tax cut recommendation.

In an expansive mood, the House Ways and Means Committee Tuesday voted individuals a reduction next year of almost a half billion dollars more than Secretary of the Treasury Fred M. Vinson proposed.

And there were indications, as the committee turned to corporation taxes Wednesday, that it might go beyond repeal of the 95 per cent excess profits levy as Vinson suggested.

The Administration won one major point as the Ways and Means Group voted Tuesday to relieve 12,000,000 low income persons from income taxes after this year. But the committee brushed aside Vinson's proposal for outright repeal of the three per cent normal tax.

Instead, it adopted a Republican-sponsored compromise keeping the normal tax but on a more liberal basis of exemptions for dependents. This plan also reduces individual surtax rates by four percentage points in each of the graduated brackets.

Bigger Tax Relief

This would grant individual taxpayers—estimated to number 50,000,000 when the war ended—relief of about $2,500,000,000 against the $2,085,000,000 Vinson sought through simple repeal of the normal tax.

Rep. Carlson (R-Kan.), author of the 1943 pay-as-you-go legislation, offered the compromise program.

The adopted Carlson plan stipulates that the surtax exemptions—$500 for the taxpayer and $500 for each dependent—be applied to the normal tax. Then, the surtax schedule would be reduced four points. This would mean that it would start at a 16 instead of 20 per cent assessment on the first $2,000 of taxable income after exemptions. Similarly, the next surtax bracket would be cut from 22 to 18 per cent, and so on up the scale.

Chief reason for the compromise plan is to permit holders of the old government securities to continue to gain some tax exemptions. Interest on these bonds is exempt from the present normal tax but not from the surtaxes.

MacArthur Warns Japanese To Keep Hands Off Korea

TOKYO —(P)— General MacArthur Wednesday restricted Japanese overseas financial and business communications to messages he has approved, and warned the Nipponese government to keep its hands off Korea—while threats of famine brought fresh troubles to the Japanese cabinet.

Russia meanwhile has announced to the United States its determination to take a hand in control of Japan, the Moscow radio reported. The radio report said formation of a four-power control government for Japan should precede any previously-agreed-upon "consultative commission" to direct long-range Allied occupation policy.

American officials Wednesday reported they were watching strictly the activities of more than 100 former secret patriotic societies of Japan and "all other subversive" groups. Authorities are particularly vigilant, they said, against any evidence that these groups might be going underground to continue rightist activities which were instrumental in whipping Japan into imperialism.

The warning to Nippon to keep its hands completely off Korean government affairs followed purported "promotions" of Japanese officials or civil functionaries serving in Southern Korea.

The first report of a rice riot in Northern Japan gave further warning of the approach of inevitable famine—and possible disorders—this winter.

Rodent Campaign Alley Inspection Committee Named

Eleven more buildings were treated Tuesday in the Union Chamber of Commerce's rodent control campaign, bringing to 27 the total for two days. Graham Smoot, sanitarian for the Midland County Health Unit, reported.

Smoot and Carl Jacobs of the Fish and Wild Life Service put out 176 baits Tuesday. In checking the baits put out Monday, workers found well over half of them gone and they removed 17 rats from one building alone.

The inspection of alleys to be made by a citizens committee will start at 1:30 p. m. Friday when the members of the committee meet at the Midland County Health Unit. Members of the committee are Smoot, chairman, Mayor A. N. Hendrickson, Jack Ellington, John J. Redfern and J. Elliott H. Barron.

The alleys will be scored on cleanliness.

Smoot particularly requested building owners to make sure no food particles are left so rats can get to them as they will not eat poison until they are hungry.

Texas Man And Wife Slain Mysteriously

SAN BERNARDINO, CALIF. —(P)— A body identified as that of William Bryant Cole, 47, of Amarillo, Texas, has been found 12 miles east of Ludlow, Calif.

The Coles, who left Amarillo Sept. 1, were both apparently killed near Ludlow, the sheriff stated and expressed the belief that the slayer fled eastward in the victim's car with Mrs. Cole's body.

The couple left Amarillo a month ago with Ted Patterson, 29, Mrs. Cole's brother.

Decisions Of Labor And Companies Due; Other Strikes On

WASHINGTON —(P)— CIO oil workers reportedly were ready Wednesday to accept a government plan that would end their cross-country refinery strikes. Coal and telephone troubles persisted.

The oil plan calls for arbitration of the union's wage demands and a temporary 15 per cent pay hike. The union wants 30 per cent.

Decisions of the union's executive board, and of the ten companies whose plants are struck in 15 states, were to be given to Secretary of Labor Schwelbenbach at 3 p. m. (CST).

Rejection of the peace plan almost inevitably would lead to government seizure of the refineries.

Schwelbenbach has said Army and Navy supplies soon will be critically short and that civilian stocks already are in danger in such areas as Detroit.

Meanwhile, Detroit's Mayor Edward J. Jeffries Jr. Wednesday appealed to President Truman and Schwelbenbach for quick action to settle the strike because Detroit "needs gasoline badly."

Fast spreading soft coal strikes served meanwhile to intensify the Labor Department's efforts to settle the oil dispute, now in its seventeenth day.

Demonstration Shutdown

And a scheduled four-hour "demonstration" shut-down Friday by 200,000 members of the National Federation of Telephone Workers, also has the government worried.

The coal strikes, already involving 90,000 miners, producing one-third of the nation's bituminous supply, forced the Solid Fuels Administration to impose stringent distribution controls. Coal supplies from the critical areas were tagged for essential services only, such as hospitals and utilities.

John L. Lewis said tight as mine after mine shut down in Pennsylvania and Virginia. "These shutdowns followed refusal of the soft coal operators to confer with Lewis on recognition of his former man's union, a branch of United Mine Workers' District 50.

Lewis Avails Reaction

The mine chief appeared to be waiting for the operators to call such a conference.

The oil workers executive board was reported on good authority to have voted to accept Schwelbenbach's proposal for a 15 per cent increase and submit to an arbitrator for final settlement.

But seven of the companies wanted more time, and the deadline was pushed ahead 24 hours.

Two More Strikes Close Refineries In South Texas

HOUSTON —(P)— The Oil Workers International Union moved nearer to a solid CIO strike front in the Texas oil industry Wednesday.

A refinery in Houston and one in Ingleside, Texas, shut down Wednesday.

The flow of crude oil through pipe lines from Houston to Corpus Christi and over Southeast Texas stopped at dawn. The shut-down began at 6 a. m. and was completed an hour later.

The strike had been voted last week by the Oil Workers International Union (CIO). It is the seventh unit under the local union's jurisdiction that has closed.

District 4 of the international Tuesday night rejected Secretary of Labor Schwelbenbach's arbitration proposal. District 4 extends from the Mississippi River to the Mexican Border, embracing the south two-thirds of Louisiana and the south half of Texas. It includes one-third of the total members of the international, Secretary Jess J. Hickman said.

About 5,000 workers are now idle in the Houston area. Pickets at bulk stations have choked off deliveries of gasoline to approximately 700 filling stations.

Ninety per cent of the Humble Oil and Refining Company workers at Ingleside, near Corpus Christi, voted to strike. The plant is to close Wednesday.

Stills at the Sinclair Refining Company in Fort Worth shut down at 6 p. m. Tuesday. It was the first refinery shutdown in Fort Worth during the nationwide "52-49" wage controversy.

The strike action at the Texas Pipe Line Company here affects the South Texas Division of the line, which comprises the Corpus Christi, Houston, Beaumont, and Port Arthur areas. It will idle 350 workers in those areas.

Two Towns Without Power In Labor Strife

AUSTIN —(P)— The Lower Colorado River Authority Wednesday announced it has restored service to Lampasas, San Saba, Glodwin and Lometa, leaving only Burnet and Llano without power as a result of a strike of union workers seeking recognition and collective bargaining rights.

The LCRA said it would put its huge generating unit at Buchanan Dam into operation during the day. It already has started the wheel turning at the Lake Austin dam plant, leaving only Mansfield Dam and Inks Dam closed down.

The international Brotherhood of Electrical Workers (AFL) said it would continue indefinitely to picket the hydroelectric power production plants of the Lower Colorado River Authority.

Picket lines were being maintained day and night at Lake Austin Dam, Mansfield Dam 16 miles north of here, at Roy Inks and Buchanan Dams near Burnet.

A Time Of Confusion

Right now there is a good deal of confusion in the public mind over the highly important matters of occupation policy for Japan and demobilization of our own Army.

Some of it comes from official sources and some from unofficial but important Army spokesmen. General Eichelberger has said that if the Japs behave themselves the occupation may not last more than a year. General Wainwright, with his painfully acquired knowledge of Japanese character, says it should continue for 20 years. General Barney Giles has upped the occupation estimate to a full century.

Generals won't decide the length of occupation or initiate any formal government policy, though they may be consulted. When the State Department announced that Japanese policy would be made in Washington, not by American occupation forces, it was stating an obvious fact. It was also, by general agreement, rebuking General MacArthur.

This rebuke may have been called forth by the general's remark about reducing the occupation forces in Japan to 200,000 in six months. Or it may have been because of some unpublicized disagreement over policy or operation between Washington and MacArthur headquarters. At any rate, it succeeded in getting the public pretty well mixed up.

Some people seem to have the idea that the 200,000 figure applies to the whole postwar Army in the Pacific. They are disturbed by the feeling that we are taking unnecessary chances with Japan.

In other quarters there is an apparent fear that the Army is retaining a lot of men needlessly, although the immediate size of our force in Japan is not the determining factor in demobilization.

Probably most of this confusion is inevitable, and probably the only remedy for much of it is patience. It takes almost as long to unwind from a war as it does to wind up for one. There are still supply and transportation problems, as well as separation-center bottlenecks, to slow the rate of demobilization.

But there is an element of danger in this impatience. Every family with a member in the armed forces wants that member home as quickly as possible. That is right and natural. And because it is, it might tempt some congressmen and other officials to turn the whole thing into a political football.

Congress already has its eyes on the 1946 elections. And what the country doesn't need right now is a scramble of legislators to see who can make the most promises for quickest demobilization, and to introduce numerous hurried, ill-considered and time-wasting bills to implement those promises and impress the voters.

The immediate result could only be more confusion. And the ultimate result might be a national defense based on blind faith in the atomic bomb and another skelton Army and Navy.

Hard work has a habit of taking your mind off the few troubles that hard work won't cure.

Scientists seem agreed that the atomic age means "one world or none." We'll take the "one," thank you!

"The observance of Navy Day should be an occasion of tribute to our glorious Navy and an expression of our profound gratitude for its high achievements in the defense of our country and in the cause of freedom," he added.

GOOD? IT OUGHT TO BE GOOD!

Sure, the New Phillips 66 is a swell gasoline

Why Not?

...hundreds of thousands of man-hours and brain-hours... weren't spent in vain!

Good gasoline? Man, it ought to be good!

We'd be ashamed of ourselves if it wasn't! Since Pearl Harbor we've put every ounce of sweat and energy we possessed into perfecting the finest combat fuels the world has ever seen.

Millions of dollars worth of new equipment

And if you're one of those who aren't surprised that Phillips research and Phillips know-how have produced a world-beater of a gasoline, here's a little thought you can tuck in your hatband:

The most important thing about a Phillips 66 Service Station is still the man who runs it. Yes, he can give you fine gasoline. But he'll also give the consistently high standard of thoughtful, courteous service that has always characterized the sign of 66.

We didn't forget how to deliver that during the war, either!

Poles Try To Lynch Prison Camp Nazi

LUENEBURG, GERMANY—(AP)—An angry throng of displaced Poles, watching the reburial of 243 murdered victims of the Nazis in a pine forest at the outskirts of Luenenburg, tried vainly Wednesday to lynch one of the Germans being forced to do the job.

"This is the Magdeger Kautsch," the Pole screamed. "This is the man who beat my brother." The crowd picked up clubs and started closing in. Belgian military police unslung their guns and fired over the heads of the Poles.

Sow Farrows 25 Pigs In 9 Days

FRANKLIN, IL.—Probably the largest one-season litter per acre for a single brood sow is illustrated here by these 23 purebred Duroc pigs and their owner, Charles Finch, Morgan county commercial pork producer. They were farrowed recently by one sow in two litters which came nine days apart. The 23 Duroc pigs shown comprise the remainder of the double litter, two of them (one from each litter) having died soon after birth. Two nurse sows were called in to assist the original mother in raising her offspring. They have since been weaned and are now well on the way to making hogs of themselves under the careful management of Mr. Finch and Russell Denham, his herdsman.

It is understood that owner will probably continue drilling to the Ellenburger.

Union Oil Company of California No. 1-A Williams, in northwest corner of section 7, block C-44, psi survey, South Gaines County wildcat, three miles southeast of Seminole, was drilling ahead. The exploration was making rig repairs, and when that is finished will ream out the core hole and coring ahead in the lower Permian. Skelly Oil Company No. 1 TXL-Reagan, wildcat exploration in North Reagan County, had spudded to 50 feet and was to continue.

To Take Log

Phillips Petroleum Company No. 1 Elsinore, Central-South Pecos County exploration, in section 53, block D, GC&SF survey, 25 miles south of Fort Stockton, had reached 8,522 feet, in lime, and was reported attempting to run an electrical survey.

Woodley Petroleum Company No. 1 Preston, in section 20, block C-41, psi survey, in Southeast Terry County, was drilling ahead below 5,050 feet, toward the contract depth of 5,250 feet.

Development Of Water Resources Is Urged

AUSTIN —(P)—Complete development of Texas water resources under a program of "dynamic action" was urged Wednesday by Wesley R. Nelson of Amarillo, regional director of the U. S. Bureau of Reclamation.

Addressing the opening session of the Texas Water Conservation Association's annual meeting Nelson said the bureau plans 18 irrigation projects in Texas which are calculated to add $60,000,000 annually to the cash value of crops.

The developments will provide new or supplemental water for almost 1,000,000 acres of land, he said. The proposed Bureau of Reclamation projects are in the basins of the Nueces, Rio Grande, Colorado, Guadalupe and Canadian rivers. Others are under study in the basins of the Brazos, Red, Pecos, Trinity and Sabine-Neches.

Lions Are Told Of Juvenile Problem

Out of 225,000 arrest reports made to the Federal Bureau of Investigation by local law enforcement officers the largest number was for the 17-year-old group, R. C. Suran, special agent in charge of the El Paso office of the FBI, told members of the Lions Club at their meeting Wednesday noon at the Scharbauer Hotel.

"There has been a tremendous increase in juvenile delinquency in recent months, and if it is to be curbed parents must teach their children Americanism and respect for law and order," the speaker declared.

The federal officer told of three cases of native born Americans — two men and a woman — turning spies for the enemy in the war.

"These people had not been taught Americanism and respect for law and order when they were children," Suran said.

The FBI apprehended 33 spies during the war. This was done because the FBI had plan ready before this nation ever entered the war, he related.

John J. Redfern Jr., president, announced the board of directors will meet Thursday noon in the Blue Room of the Scharbauer.

R. I. Dickey, chairman for the Victory Chest campaign, told the members of the need for contributions to the campaign.

J. M. McDonald was presented with a framed copy of the Lions code of ethics by the club in recognition for his work as chairman of the carnival committee.

Three Textile Mills Ignore WLB Order

DALLAS —(P)—Three Texas textile mills have refused to comply with orders issued by the Regional War Labor Board, John M. Scott, attorney for the companies told the board here.

The mills are Hillsboro Cotton Mills, Itasca Cotton Manufacturing Company and the Corsicana Cotton Mills.

Terminating the board's orders "never have had any legal effect, Scott said at a shot-cause hearing here Tuesday that "there was strictly a public duty during the war to accept the board's orders and follow them."

He said he does not think the public is "morally obligated to accept the board's directives now."

Scott's statement was denounced by Paul Schuler, international representative of the CIO union, who said, "there is no justification of that position in the light of present day civilization or in moral decency."

In the case of the Corsicana Mill, vacation pay is the principal issue. The Hillsboro Cotton Mills and the Itasca Cotton Manufacturing Company had been cited for alleged failure to comply with board orders concerning grievance procedure, arbitration, wages, maintenance of membership and other issues.

LOVE BRAVES AN ATOM BOMB

WHEN X-999 EXPLODES— XVII

KNOWLEDGE of her power at this moment, and of the vengeance she was about to wreak on the Tyler girl, gave Leana Sormi's face a wild look of exhilaration. She threw her transmitter switch as if the act were a definite little finale.

And finale it was! Not even Leana Sormi's brilliant scientist, had known the extreme potency of X-999!!!

Simultaneously with her touch of that switch, all of hellfire itself belched over the universe. The earth shook in a staccato of doom. Tonto Mountain, it appeared, was lifted skyward. A great spreading bulk blacked out the light of day, extended eastward over a full five miles, then came pelting—roaring—crashing down in an all-consuming bombardment.

The top half of Mummy Ridge itself was blown square off and a minute later it and all its area there to the east were buried under countless tons of debris. The very physiography of a mountain range was being altered. And nobody—no living soul—heard Leana Sormi give her long, hysterical scream.

FROM other points of view (as told countless times in the months and even years to follow) the explosion of Tonto Mountain was that of a volcano, no less. Except that this particular volcano spewed fire from only one side of its mouth, after first bursting out an opening.

The actual eruption was not straight up, but angled. The great force of the explosion naturally took the path of least resistance. The west half of Tonto Mountain was a bulwark of granite, virtually solid rock a mile thick at its base. A flat white face of that granite had showed at the peak to form a landmark for centuries. But in nature's own eruptions: some ago she had loosened and stirred the eastern half of Tonto, upending its strata and pushing there loose boulders, smaller rocks and soils. It was this loose deposit which gave way under the force of X-999's explosion.

The granite half, stood firm, merely shaken by the recoil. But the circumstance proved to be extremely fortunate for puny human beings who had dared entrance themselves in nature's bosom here. It was as if nature had kept a benign hand over them and their little huts. Not that the huts escaped damage—every window in the scientists' village was broken, and every china dish, every bit of glass equipment in the laboratory.

Rock chimneys were toppled over. One cabin was moved quite off its foundation. The stables, flimsy structures at best, were flattened and three of the horses killed. A dozen major or minor avalanches were started on neighboring mountains.

WHEN Carolyn and Leana left him at the stables shortly after 5 o'clock, Bob Hale lingered to rub down his black gelding rather than give the task to a stable boy.

About 15 minutes later he was called to the stable telephone. It was Leana. "Robert, dear," she began, "is it too much to ask that you drive in to Blair for me, at once? There is some equipment—a microscope part—which I simply must have in the laboratory early tomorrow morning, and I really wanted it tonight. It was due on the mail stage today and the Blair post-office closes at 6."

"Surely, Leana! I can drive right over now. Our group doesn't eat until 7. Be a pleasure." He didn't rush because there was abundant time, but he did take his car immediately and head off down the old road from the mine. It swung south and west from Tonto Mountain, winding in picturesque way.

When he reached Blair he paused to chat a bit with the postmaster. Leana's parcel hadn't arrived, after all. She would be disappointed.

Vaguely he wondered why a mere microscope lens, or whatever it was, could be so urgent. There were other microscopes at hand in the laboratory. But then, a person gets used to a favorite one, he knew. He switched the talk to deer hunting.

"Shore thing, Dr. Hale," the postmaster was friendly, "it's deer as'll 'im right over you around here in autumn time! Shore's you're born! Big bucks with 10, 20 points all up in that Tonto Mountain country. You stick here till October, you'll see. You got a good rifle?"

They went into the matter of guns, man talk. They were examining the postmaster's own 30-30 when—

BROO-O-O-O-O-O-O-O!

THE earth trembled, shook them to their very teeth! Glass cracked and fell from the bursting shock of the explosion.

Bob's muscles froze. The postmaster looked quickly at him in consternation. Neither spoke at first. Then both looked out.

The late sun-yellowed sky back toward Tonto was blooming in a magnificent mass of black earth and rocks and shooting flame. They saw it boil. Saw it grow—billowing, spreading, roaring and echoing furiously now. It was greater than anything in their comprehension. It was reaching out over half the horizon, as if it meant to engulf all the universe. "I know!" Bob rasped, from the deep frenzy now within him. "It—it—Carolyn's there! Carolyn's still there! . . . Come on! . . . Oh, my God! . . . Carolyn!"

The two men were running to Bob's car.

Killed Yamamoto

Lt.-Col. Thomas G. Lanphier, Jr., above, 29, of Washington, D. C., was the American pilot who shot down the Jap bomber carrying Adml. Isoroku Yamamoto, killing the man who boasted he would dictate peace in the White House. Naval Intelligence cracked the Jap code and learned Yamamoto would be over Bougainville Island on April 18, 1943. American planes, including Lanphier's in a P-38 Lightning, waited in ambush. They also shot down another Jap bomber, killing members of Yamamoto's staff.

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY America's Card Authority

There is an interesting play in today's hand, played by Cpl. Alvin Roth in a rubber bridge game at the Mayfair Bridge Club in New York.

When Roth saw the freak distribution in dummy, as well as in his own hand, he decided to provide against freak distribution in the opponents' hands. He won the first club trick, and immediately cashed the king of diamonds. He entered dummy by ruffing the king of clubs, played the ace of diamonds, and discarded the heart nine. His next play was the jack of diamonds, and he made up his mind that, regardless of East's play, he was going to discard the king of hearts. This play cannot lose, as the queen of diamonds is the only card of that suit outstanding. East ruffed with the nine of spades, a nice play. If Roth over-ruffed with the jack he still would lose a spade and a heart; but by discarding the king of hearts, Roth could ruff low any return made by East, pick up the outstanding trumps and make his contract.

Stock Fatten Up On Irish Potatoes In Lubbock Tryout

By JACK RUTLEDGE Associated Press Staff You've heard the whimsical but impractical suggestion that cows be fed chocolate so they can give milk chocolate. Well, in Lubbock they're feeding cows, sheep and hogs top grade Irish potatoes.

built-in fried potatoes, popular as such a dish would be. The plainsman in the Lubbock Journal explains with obvious awe that it's just another of those government things. The government gave potato growers a $2.30 floor price. The crop turned out to be a record. Now the government, says the plainsman, "has potatoes running out of its ears." So someone in Washington wrote W. L. Stangel, dean of agriculture and professor of animal husbandry at Texas Tech, asking if he would experiment and see if raw potatoes weren't excellent as a fattening agent for stock. Stangel agreed.

Potatoes Pour In Potatoes began to pour into Lubbock. Seven carloads, or 126 tons (or 252,000 pounds, if you insist) came in the first week. Later the shipments dropped to 54 tons a week, finally 36 tons. In all, the plainsman figures they've shipped in 680,000 pounds to date. At the floor price, this amounts to about $16,000 worth of grade-A potatoes.

Is the experiment working? Do the cows like spuds? Yes. First, the potatoes were cracked up and mixed with ensilage, but now they're fed whole. Cattle, hogs and sheep gobble them up. They're getting fat on them, all right.

They should, comments the columnist. For example, one group of Herefords gets two feedings per day—one bale of hay for all 33, but an average of 30 pounds of potatoes per animal per feeding. At $2.30. ---

Stock raisers have known for a long time that animals go for sweet potatoes. But the fact that cattle and sheep will eat Irish potatoes whole is something new. (They haven't tried horses and mules yet.)

In conclusion, the plainsman questions whether ranchers can afford to feed their stock better potatoes than they themselves eat at home, but admits reluctantly that "despite the drought, they (the cattle) are putting in good flesh and for that the potatoes must be given credit."

Air mail stamps were first placed on sale to the public in 1924.

Slayer Will Be Sent To Hospital As Insane
EL PASO.—(AP)—William F. Main, 28, of Philadelphia, charged with murder in the decapitation slaying of a 72-year-old county poor farm inmate last June 22, will be committed to a state hospital at Big Spring, Texas.

Main was adjudged insane by a district court jury here in an uncontradicted verdict following a sanity hearing.

Member of a wealthy Philadelphia family, Main was arrested following the death of Edward Baker. Baker's body was discovered in a shallow grave near El Paso and several days later the head was found in a hotel checkroom.

Midland Points To Tough Contest

In practice Tuesday afternoon, the Midland Bulldogs whipped up an offensive and defensive for a game in Plainview Friday night with the Plainview (ditto) Bulldogs who boast of the best backfield in the history of Plainview football.

The plans city backfield star is Jack Williams, triple-threat quarterback, who carries the ball, passes and punts. Williams is supplemented by Jack Weldon, 165 pound fullback, who is considered the best runner on the team, and the two halfbacks, Rudolph Haile and Jim Graham are no slouches at carrying the ball. All but Haile are lettermen.

The Plainview line has only three lettermen, Claude May, captain and left guard, John Stoneham, right guard, and Doyle Malone, center. In two games Plainview has not been scored upon while the District 1-AA boys were running up 26 points against Childress and 7 against Electra.

The Midland club will go into the game with five lettermen. The sixth, Wilbur Yeager, quarterback, will stay out of competition until the district campaign begins next week, with a game here against Sweetwater. Yeager was injured in the Pampa game.
 Last year Midland defeated Plainview on the high school gridiron here, 32 to 6.
 The Plainview eleven is coached by a new mentor staff. Head coach W. C. O. Harris coached 20 years in the Fort Worth schools. Assistant coach Claude Flowers was all Southwest conference tackle at T. C. U. the past two years and played with the College All-Stars against the Green Bay Packers in Chicago this summer.

Borowy And Newhouser Pitch As Cubs And Tigers Open World Series

By SID FEDER
 DETROIT —(AP)—The Detroit Tigers and the Chicago Cubs collide in newly-painted Briggs Stadium Wednesday in the first game of the 1945 World Series, before what is likely to be an all-time record Detroit baseball crowd.

With 5,000 standing room tickets to be added daily to the completely snapped-up 44,000 reserved seats and 10,000 bleacher benches in a pennant-wacky city that takes its baseball as seriously as its automobile building, the chances are all in favor of a jam-packed turnout within shouting distance of the 60,000-mark.

There were no last minute changes in the lineup and batting order of either of the teams as they worked their way through overloaded Detroit and headed for the ball orchard at Michigan and Trumbull Avenues to pry the lid off the series that has its first three games here—Wednesday, Thursday and Friday—then goes to Wrigley Field Chicago to complete its run.

Newhouser Is Favored
 Lefty Hal Newhouser, the 25-game winner and most-feared flinger in the American League, goes to the post for the Tigers in the opener, a 5 to 7 favorite to come home as a winner. Opposing him, the Cubs called on Hank Borowy, the mild, likeable right-hander they bought from the Yanks as "pennant insurance" in mid-season. Hank paid off his $100,000 "premium" by winning 11 games for Chicago, including the National League pennant-clincher in Pittsburgh Saturday.

Sidelight Notes On World Series Players

DETROIT —(AP)—Tee shots on the World Series:
 Fordham Hank Borowy will have a lot on his mind besides the Detroit Tigers and some $6,000 series swag in his opener, a duel with Hal Newhouser Wednesday. The slim right-hander will become a father any minute now which is why Mrs. Borowy isn't here cheering hubby. The Borowys have a daughter.
 The former New York Yankee tosser was calmly confident as he took on the Bengals. "I know how to pitch to them and my arm is stronger than it has been all season," Blonde Hank quietly asserted.

The Tigers, to a man, faced Borowy without any false illusions. "We know he's tough, but we're counting on Newhouser to be just a little tougher," declared Roy Cullenbine.
 Greenberg still likes to talk about that four-run homer that clinched the pennant for the Tigers against St. Louis last Sunday. "It was inside the foul line by only this much," grinned Hank extending hairy arms a yard apart. "It was a screw-ball I hit and I knew the minute I connected that it was going places."

When the Cubs invaded their Detroit dressing room for the first time Tuesday, Dizzy Trout who probably will pitch the first game against the Bruins at Chicago next Saturday, trooped in as a one-man welcoming committee. The genial Diz wandered between the disrobing Cubs tossing hearty handshakes here and there.

Tied to Rudy York's locker was a fawn-colored cocker spaniel puppy. "I bought her yesterday," declared the brawny Tiger first sacker. "She may bring me luck and maybe she won't, but she's really a cut trick." The pup's name is Lassie.

Lefty Ray Prim, the Cubs' 38-year-old 13-game winner, pitched against Greenberg 14 years ago when both were rookies in the Piedmont League. "He used to hit home runs then, too," recounted silver-thatched Prim. "I don't remember whether he got any off me."

Only a question of time...

Telephone factories are already turning out some of the equipment needed to serve the 246,000 persons waiting for telephones in the Southwest at war's end.

That stream will grow mightily in the months ahead. It will move slowly for a while of course. It takes time to manufacture and install new apparatus.

A telephone alone contains 248 precision parts. Switchboards and dial central office equipment for only 10,000 telephones must be designed to handle nearly 50,000,000 possible interconnections.

But we've made a start. We've turned the corner. We're on our way. Every month ahead brings us closer to serving all who want telephones without delay.

SOUTHWESTERN BELL TELEPHONE CO.

Officers On Duty Till Terminal Leave Ended
 RANDOLPH FIELD—Officers may be cleared of the Separation Center and have arrived at home, but they aren't out of the Army for good and are still considered on an active duty basis until they have used up all that terminal leave—if they have any.

Of course that doesn't necessarily mean that they'll be called out of bed bright and early some morning and told to stand by for a special review. It's merely a technical clarification of their status just received from higher headquarters by the AAF Central Flying Training Command.

And it's all in their favor, too. For the War Department has ruled that if officers are still on an active duty basis while they're using up their terminal leave, they can accrue leave on terminal leave time, plus the travel time allowed for travel home. This time will be computed from the day following date of release from Separation Centers.

Time authorized an officer in traveling from a Separation Center to his home will be computed by the shortest usually traveled rail route unless travel by privately owned conveyance is authorized. Such travel time is computed on a basis of 200 miles of travel per day.
