U.S. Transports Land Chinese Nationalists At Northern Port

By RICHARD BERGHOLZ TSINGTAO —(P)—Thousands of American-trained and equipped Chinese Nationalist troops are landing unopposed Wednesday from U. S. transports at this North China city, occupied Oct. 11 by American Marines who since have been cooped up by the presence of Chinese Communists nearby.

Whether the Marines will be pulled out of their lone foothold on Shantung Peninsula reportedly dominated by the Reds, was not made known. The Leathernecks of CHUNGKING —(P)— Chinese Communists have destroyed one-tenth of all China's railways—approximately 875 miles of track—causing "widespread dislocation" of the country's transportation network. Cabinet Spokesman P. H. Chang asserted Wednesday.

Maj. Gen. Lemuel C. Shepherd Jr.'s Sixth Division, have been limited to garrison duty since accepting surrender of more than 10,000 Japanese.

Some of those Japanese, allowed to retain arms, stand guard over Tsingtao industries which include nine large cotton mills. Many Japanese civilians are keeping the factories open.

Reds Surround Port Chinese Red troops ring the port by land. On the Peninsula's tip, the strategic ports of Chefoo and Weihaiwei are in Communist hands.

A landing was considered early last month at Chefoo but Vice Adm. Daniel E. Barbey reported no Japanese in the area, hence there was no reason for the landing.

The Tsingtao landing, by major elements of the Chinese Eighth Army, is nearly 300 miles south of Chungking where the Chinese 13th Army was put ashore Oct. 30 by the same transports.

By JAMES C. WATSON, Oil Editor George T. Abell of Midland filed application to drill his No. 1 Scharrf & Blackmon, located 505 feet from southwest line, 330 feet from southeast line, and 330 feet from west line of south side of section 22, block 3, H&TC survey, in Central-North Pecos County, as a 2,500-foot wildcat.

The drillsite is four miles south of Imperial, and will drill with cable tools, starting at once. Shell Oil Company, Inc., and Cities Service Oil Company No. 1-E TXL, in section 5, block 45, TP survey, T-1-S, completed as an Ellenburger producer in the TXL field, of West Ector County, for a 24-hour flowing potential of 1,998 barrels of 44.2 gravity oil, natural.

An Ellenburger Well Gas-oil ratio was 995-1. The well is 668 feet from east and 665 feet from south lines of southwest quarter of the section, and a diagonal northeast offset to the TXL-Ellenburger discovery. Pay section was at 9,615-9,830 feet.

Marine officers who were with the two wounded said Chinese Communists did the firing and later apologized by letter, explaining they had thought they were shooting at Japanese.

FBI Warned Armed Forces Of Attack 11 Days Before

WASHINGTON—(P)—Rep. Gearhart (R-Calif.) reported Tuesday after a conference with J. Edgar Hoover that the FBI learned of Japanese war intentions 11 days before Pearl Harbor and advised the armed services but that they failed to act.

The FBI got "considerable and very important evidence of the Japanese intention to resort to war action" by tapping wires into the Japanese consul general's office in Honolulu, Gearhart told reporters, and "all of this information was promptly reported to the Army and Navy by Mr. Hoover.

Some of the messages were received in code and the Navy arranged for translations and reported back to the FBI.

On the basis of the intercepted messages Hoover "alerted" his agents in the Hawaiian Islands, Gearhart continued, but "no warnings or directives of importance were received in the islands by the military."

Hoover May Testify Gearhart and Rep. Keefe (R-Wis.), members of the Congressional committee which opens an investigation of the Pearl Harbor attack on Thursday, met with Hoover. Gearhart said the FBI director probably would be called to testify and predicted "very startling disclosures."

"The failure of the Army and Navy to act decisively and promptly at Pearl Harbor will be one of the mysteries which will be solved in the investigation," he declared. "Make that will be emphatic, because it certainly will be."

Asked to comment on an assertion by Sen. Hatch (D-NM) that political controversy attending the investigation would result in a "divided opinion," Gearhart said: "We wouldn't know."

'Give Up Atomic Bomb's Secret,' They Urge

Testifying before House committee hearings on the May-Johnson bill for government control of atomic energy resources and secrets, the men above, representing the younger scientists involved in development of the atomic bomb, urged release of atomic research from the present strict secrecy. They are, left to right, Dr. H. C. Urey, Nobel prize winner, of Chicago University; Dr. Leo Szilard of Chicago University; Dr. L. B. Borst, chairman of the Oak Ridge, Tenn., group of atomic scientists, and J. C. Stearns, Washington University, of St. Louis, Mo.

Palestine Goes On Protest Strike

JERUSALEM —(P)—A 12-hour general Jewish strike in protest to new British proposals for settling the Palestine problem started at noon Wednesday without incident. All Jewish shops, restaurants, work shops and factories were closed.

and Jewish-operated buses and taxis stopped. Jewish workers in essential services were requested to continue work in military camps, hospitals, post-offices, telegraph and broadcasting stations as well as at the El Aviv Harbor, where the first cargo ship to arrive since 1940 began discharging merchandise.

The people of Palestine eagerly were studying British foreign secretary Ernest Bevin's statement. A number of mass meetings demonstrations were planned in Palestine towns during the afternoon.

There was widespread objection throughout Palestine to Bevin's statement that Britain and the United States jointly would attempt to solve the problem, and to his intimation that eventually Palestine would be placed under a trusteeship. Britain at present governs Palestine under a League of Nations mandate.

Press Assails Statement The Jewish press generally assailed the Bevin statement. Typical of the comment was that of the Palestine Post, which said it failed to deal squarely with President Truman's repeated proposals that 100,000 Jews should be admitted to Palestine immediately.

Evidence Indicates Reds Will Be Asked To Expose Science

WASHINGTON —(P)—Allied officials involved in the atomic bomb talks here indicated Wednesday they are largely concerned now about Russia's reaction to the forthcoming Anglo-American-Canadian proposal for controlling atomic force.

Evidence available from British authorities is that President Truman, Prime Minister Attlee and Prime Minister MacKenzie King of Canada will seek particularly in their communique on plans for international atomic controls to reassure Russia. This may be done by offering to share scientific knowledge of atomic power fully with the Soviet Union and other countries.

Indications are that at the same time Russia will be invited to reassure the Western Allies about her policies and intentions by agreeing to toss her scientific information in the contemplated pool and, possibly, by giving some evidence of her long-range territorial and political aims.

There is a strong feeling evident on the part of some that this is one of the climatic weeks of history. Decisions now being whipped into shape will influence vitally

MOSCOW —(P)—Highly important discoveries which may well have a direct bearing on Russian explorations in the field of atomic energy were reported Wednesday from Mt. Alagos on the shores of Lake Karagel in the Armenian Socialist Republic.

An expedition engaged in studying cosmic rays was reported to have discovered that cosmic rays knocked proton out of lead.

Allied scientists say that splitting the lead atom, if it could be done, probably would yield enough atomic energy for either atomic bombs or power, but Allied experiments have shown that the appearance of protons when lead atoms are hit by cosmic rays is not necessarily a sign of splitting.

the future of Anglo-American relations with Russia. These relations are the core of United Nations plans for policing world peace.

Problem of Acceptance Officials are faced with this problem: What if Russia doesn't want to accept the Anglo-American proposal? Would a negative reaction from Moscow, they ask, tend to split the world into two camps? Would it take all the wraps off an atomic armament race?

Because of the dangers foreseen by Allied diplomats in the Big Three agreement among the Big Three over the handling of atomic power, there is some chance that the proposals put forward by Attlee, Truman and MacKenzie King will be general in approach to the problem rather than hard and fast specifications for a solution. This would leave the way open for Russian suggestions and counter-proposals and avoid the appearance of laying down a demand for a take-it-or-leave-it reply.

Industry To Give Big Issue Policies Before Conference

WASHINGTON —(P)— Industry plans to lay on the line Wednesday or Thursday, its stand on every big issue before President Truman's management-labor conference.

As the industrial peace parley entered its tenth day, the management delegation decided, in the words of President Ira Mosher of the National Association of Manufacturers, that the time has come to "shove things along a little."

Almost the entire 18-member industry delegation started work Tuesday night on a statement of business' position on collective bargaining, observance of contracts, jurisdictional quarrels and other subjects on the conference agenda.

As they worked, however, one of the nation's most important wage disputes—the demand for a $2 daily wage increase from United States Steel Corporation—came to a new impasse.

Rejects Schwelienbach's Appeal The corporation rejected Secretary of Labor Schwelienbach's second appeal that it enter into wage discussions, starting Wednesday in Washington, with the United Steel Workers of America.

U. S. Steel's president, Benjamin F. Fairless, telegraphed Schwelienbach Tuesday night that further discussions would be fruitless until OPA acts on long-pending requests for steel price increases. The union had accepted the invitation to resume talks.

Fairless told Schwelienbach that "we believe in and strongly support" collective bargaining but "we feel no useful purpose could be served by the proposed meetings."

Fairless said the requested wage increase would cost the steel industry "at least $225,000,000 a year" and added this was more than all steel companies now are earning.

Although none of the conference's several committees so far has reported agreement on any single question before it, Mosher said he was "far from disappointed" as to the progress to date.

The industry group evidently hopes, by giving the labor group something to shoot at, to bring the discussion down to specific remedies for labor strife.

GREEKS SENTENCE POLICE TRAITOR TO DEATH ATHENS —(P)—The people's tribunal Tuesday sentenced to death Gen. Alexander Lambon, who was in command of special security police during the German occupation and was accused of collaborating closely with the enemy.

Arriving in Midland Wednesday with his family is the Rev. Howard H. Hollowell, new minister of the First Methodist Church.

The new preacher, his wife, and eleven-year-old daughter will move into the church parsonage immediately.

Hollowell, a native West Texan, was born in Sweetwater and attended public schools in that city. He received a Bachelor of Arts degree from McMurry College, Abilene, in 1938, appearing in the 1938 edition of "Who Who in American Universities and Colleges." He took graduate courses from Southern Methodist University.

The Midland pastor went from McMurry College to Ackerly for his first assignment. A new church was erected and paid for during his last of three years there. Then followed two years at O'Donnell.

Mr. Hollowell comes to Midland from Spur, where he served two years.

He is a Mason, Rotarian, and member of the Knights of Pythias.

$275,000 Water Project Starts

Ditching for water lines in the west end of the city is in progress. This is the start of a $275,000 water improvement project for Midland.

Sixteen-inch lines will be laid to receive water from a two million gallon reservoir to be constructed in the west end.

Feeder lines will be laid where needed. Engineers are preparing for a $125,000 sewer system improvement program.

Story Of Yanks Being Bayoneted Related At Trial

MANILA —(P)—The story of the inhuman bayoneting and burning alive of two American airmen was added Wednesday to the long list of atrocities charged against Japanese soldiers in the Philippines.

Bodies of the fliers, gunners from a twin-engine plane that crashed off Cebu, were found by an American officer in charge of graves registration who told the U. S. Military Commission trying Lt. Gen. Tomoyuki Yamashita on war crimes charges of the atrocity.

The court session was attended by all key personnel except the Soviet prosecutor, who telephoned from Moscow his reversal of his previous stand. At two previous meetings of the prosecutors, the U. S. proposal to include the younger Krupp as a defendant was defeated by a three-to-one vote.

The tribunal announced it would return a decision at a later date on the motions for the delay and the substitution.

More Than 500 Vets File Discharges More than 500 discharged servicemen from Midland County have filed service papers with the county clerk's office and a half dozen discharges or certificates of service are being received daily, Mrs. Susie G. Noble reported.

Veterans are advised to record their discharge with the county clerk for a permanent record as protection to them as ex-soldiers.

War Undersecretary McCloy Resigns Post WASHINGTON —(P)— President Truman Wednesday accepted the resignation of John J. McCloy, assistant secretary of war, effective Nov. 24.

The White House made public an exchange of letters in which the President expressed his "very great regret" on having to let McCloy go.

McCloy offered his resignation Sept. 6, with the retirement of Henry L. Stimson as secretary of war, but the President refused to accept it at that time.

McCloy recently returned from a mission to the European and Pacific theaters, undertaken in connection with occupation problems.

Police Prevent Second Honolulu Riot By Sailors Following Attacks

HONOLULU —(P)— Civilian and military police joined forces Tuesday night to forestall a repetition of Monday night's rioting in which, said Police Chief William A. Gabrielson, 1,500 Naval personnel tangled with civilians.

The violence would not have occurred, he asserted, if Navy officials had cooperated "the way they said they would."

Shore patrolmen telephoned civil authorities for help Tuesday night when sailors confined to the Naval Air Station (NAS), began to gather near its gates. The combined police force broke up the crowd without disorder.

The Honolulu police chief's accusation that lack of Navy cooperation permitted Monday night's violence was repeated by Detective Captain Eugene Kennedy who contended:

Jurisdictional Czar?

Labor Secretary Schwollenbach has suggested to labor unions that they might find a solution of jurisdictional disputes, once and for all, by hiring a "czar" such as the motion picture industry and professional baseball now have.

If there is a possibility that an inter-union czar could accomplish what his movie and baseball counterparts have, then the plan is an excellent one. But it seems to us that the suggestion should come from within organized labor rather than from a friend of labor in government.

When Judge Kenesaw M. Landis was appointed high commissioner of baseball in 1920, and Will Hays was asked to head the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors Association two years later, both the sport and the entertainment industry were in the public doghouse.

The Black Sox scandal of 1919 had shocked and saddened the sports-following public. And when Hays took over, both the movie colony's private lives and the studios' products were in such a mess of bad morals and bad taste as to create a real wave of popular indignation.

Both industries—if they may be called such—quickly saw the light. They realized that their livelihoods and very existence, both dependent on public favor, were threatened. Their first concern seems to have been to recapture public confidence before working out elaborate machinery for ending their troubles and preventing their recurrence.

So each selected a well-known figure of unquestioned integrity from outside its own organization. (Baseball first sought the services of former President Taft before engaging Judge Landis.) Each then drew up a rigid set of rules and gave its czars authoritarian power to enforce them.

These far-sighted moves by baseball and Hollywood achieved their purpose admirably. And perhaps the most important point of the whole story is that Judge Landis and Hays had remarkably little to do. They made big money in easy jobs and seldom had to exercise their sweeping authority. Once the club owners and studio heads had imposed a set of rules upon themselves, they bent over backward to live up to them.

Organized labor might ponder this story as it applies to jurisdictional strife. As President Truman told union representatives at the Labor-Management Conference, nothing is so destructive of public confidence as these disputes. The American people have little understanding of them, and less sympathy with them at a time when the whole industrial situation gives cause for legitimate worry.

But government appointment of an inter-labor czar holds little promise. Schwollenbach's suggestion can bear no fruit until the striving unions realize that all labor is losing through jurisdictional strife and strikes, until there is a spontaneous desire for a Hays or Landis for labor from within the unions, together with a genuine wish to make and abide by their own rules for peaceful settlement.

Return Of Isolation

For more than two centuries Japan chose to live in feudal isolation, shut off from the world by warrior rulers of arrogant power and mystically fanatic minds. Now, according to Hugh Baillie, president of the United Press, defeat has returned Japan to an isolation as complete as before, but one of hard necessity rather than choice.

Baillie, just returned from the conquered country, calls Japan "quarantined," and "a vast concentration camp run by its inmates." He pictures a land of wreckage and threatening starvation, of unemployment and apathy and despair.

Thus the Japs, like the Germans, are paying the price of cruel ambition. Their fate is the answer to those who talk of a "soft peace." For there is no question of harsh or lenient surrender terms. What the Japs are suffering today is the consequence of war, not of capitulation. It is the harvest of a national economy geared to destruction and inviting destruction in return.

Japan's fate is the fruit of war which is eaten in peace. It is a cruel fate even for a cruel people. But it is a necessary lesson, and one which should endure for at least a generation or two and serve to stay the hands of any group of war lords with plans for immediate and vengeful conquest.

Fruitful Failure

In retrospect, there seems to be one bright spot in the gloomy outcome of the foreign ministers' meeting in London. And it can be found, oddly enough, in the meeting's utter unproductiveness and failure of agreement.

The curse of professional diplomacy is that something always has to be brought home and exhibited from a meeting of powers. Something has to be accomplished as proof of the diplomatist's ability. It can always be dressed up in diplomatic language and made to look good.

If, later on, it turns out that the diplomatic accomplishment was to a nation's detriment—as has sometimes happened—that's just too bad.

It may be that Byrnes, not being a professional diplomat, didn't know what was expected of him, and hence stuck to a course that he thought was right even if it meant coming home with nothing to show the folks.

If that is so, perhaps we have reason to thank him. At any rate, as things stand now, the Big Three differences are clearly defined and each knows where the other stands, even if it isn't on common ground.

HUNTER COMPLAINS BECAUSE BUCK REQUIRES SECOND SHOT

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. — (AP) — It was a good two-day hunting trip for Jack Hicks who came home with a 250-pound buck and 450-pound bear.

However, apparently mindful of the ammunition shortage, he complained because the buck was tougher to kill. It took two bullets.

Six Books Donated To Midland Library

The Midland County Tuberculosis Association has donated six books to the Midland County Library, according to Mrs. R. E. L. Taylor, secretary of the local association.

Titles of the books are as follows: "Tuberculosis and Genius," by Lewis J. Moorin, Md.; "The Modern Attack on Tuberculosis," by Henry D. Chadwick, Md. and Alton S. Pope, Md.; "Rules for Recovery from Tuberculosis," by Lawson Brown, Md.; "An Autobiography," Edward Livingston Trudeau, Md.; "1,000 Questions and Answers on Tuberculosis," edited by Fred H. Heise, Md.; and "Tuberculosis as It Comes and Goes," by Edward W. Hayes, Md.

"These books are the best now available," Mrs. Taylor said, "and are both interesting and informative." She reported that the association plans to add several more books within the next several months.

One publications depot serviced more than 1,000 units in the Mediterranean Theater of Operations, U. S. Army, with more than 35,000 different publications and blank forms.

"Joe's afraid he might forget to be Polite"

To TELL the truth, our employees don't need signs to make them mind their manners. They're just naturally polite whenever they're serving our Pabst Blue Ribbon retailers (and at all other times as well!) And they aren't that way merely because it's good business, but because they and the public they serve associate outstanding service with a beer that stands out from the crowd like Pabst Blue Ribbon. Incidentally, if you can't always find Pabst, ask again next time, won't you?

Baptist Convention Enters Second Day

FORT WORTH—(AP)—The second session of the 60th annual meeting of the General Baptist Convention gets under way Wednesday.

More than 4,000 persons jammed Will Rogers Memorial Auditorium here Tuesday for the opening session of the state convention.

Dr. Roy Johnson of Canyon, a recording secretary of the convention, said registration had totaled 1,750 at the start of the session. Highlights at Tuesday's meeting included the announcement that the Rev. Baker James Cauthen has been named secretary for the Orient of the Southern Baptist Convention. Rev. Cauthen was formerly pastor of the Polytechnic Baptist Church in Fort Worth.

'BAPTIST BELIEFS' IS STUDY TOPIC FOR BAPTIST WMU MEETS

Circles of the First Baptist WMU met Monday to continue the study of the book "Baptist Beliefs." At a meeting of the Loekett Circle held at the home of Mrs. Fred Wycoff, the Bible study was led by Mrs. R. O. Walker. Present for the program were Meses. S. L. Alexander, Walker and Wycoff.

Mrs. W. H. Hall was hostess to members of the Rebecca Circle. Following a round table discussion on the study book, a business session was held. Those present were Meses. Troy Elland, Frank Taylor and the hostess.

Six members and two guests attended the meeting of the Annie Barron Circle held at the home of Mrs. W. G. Epley. Present were Meses. Stracener, O. R. Collins, B. Campbell, W. B. Preston, Leif Olson, Joe Howze, Fred Armett and Epley. The Bible lesson was taught by Mrs. Thurman Pylant at the Mary Elizabeth Truly Circle program.

Mrs. J. D. Hatch was hostess for the meeting attended by O. L. Bevil, Pylant, John Dumanan, J. K. Wright and one guest, Mrs. O. E. McNew.

Members of the Mary Martha Circle met with Mrs. B. A. Wall. Mrs. Richard Hinkle presided during the business session which was followed with a prayer by Mrs. J. S. Griffith and a talk on "Stewardship" by Mrs. Wall. Those present were Meses. M. D. Cox, Hinkle, J. P. McEldowney, E. F. Connor, B. L. Red, A. C. Barton, F. W. White, Griffith, and the hostess.

A question box program conducted by Mrs. Harold Cheeves was featured at a meeting of the Lottie Moon Circle held at the home of Mrs. Billie Gilbert. Members gave answers to the questions they drew.

After the business session, refreshments were served by the hostess to Meses. Frank Monroe, C. G. Murray, Cheeves and J. E. McCain.

Rigid Health Routine Keeps Pretty Pin-Up Models Always In The Pink

PATRICIA VANIVER: Popular model shuns late hours.

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

Late autumn lethargy holds many of us in its grip; our spirits sag, our resistance is low, and our hips begin to spread from too much sitting still. The effects of summer's healthful outdoor life are rapidly dwindling. We all need a good shaking up, but wishful thinking won't produce sleek body lines and bounding vitality.

One person not affected by the seasonal trend is Patricia Vaniver, luscious, honey-blond, Thornton pin-up girl, who has a formula for keeping summertime health and beauty all year round.

If you feel well, you look well, she thinks. Build up your vitality with sleep, fresh-air and moderate exercise. Sleep—nine hours of it every night is her rule—will reward you with dewy fresh eyes, clear skin, and added energy. She plans her exciting "nights-out" for those evenings when she doesn't have to get up early in the morning.

Get Out and Hike

Few of us get enough fresh air during the winter—we shiver and shake and rush from one heated place to another, forgetting that fresh air is one of our best beauty friends. Miss Vaniver some time each day—it may be early in the morning or after working hours—slips into warm clothes and hikes around the park at a brisk pace. Walking will not only tone up your muscles, she says, but will relax frayed nerves.

Swimming, she has found, is the best exercise for keeping weight properly distributed. Twice a week the lithe beauty hunts up an indoor pool and indulges in her aquatic talents with enthusiasm. Her lightly-tanned skin is no hangover from summer. Miss Vaniver stretches out under a sun lamp a few minutes a day both for beauty's sake and to build up resistance to ward off winter colds.

Mrs. O. F. Hedrick Conducts Lesson Study For Viola Holt Class

Mrs. O. F. Hedrick conducted a lesson study from Psalms 34 at a meeting of the Viola Holt Class Tuesday in the Scharbauer Educational Building of the First Methodist Church.

The commentary of Adam Clark and Matthew Henry was used in the explanation of the lesson. An outline study by Grace Saxe from one of Billy Sunday's group is being used by the class.

These meetings are open to interested persons. Sessions are held at 10 a. m. each Tuesday in the Educational Building.

Education In Latin America Is Study For 20th Century Club

"Education in Latin America" was the theme for a program presented at a meeting of the Twentieth Century Club Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. B. Koenig, 1410 West Texas.

After an introduction to the study by Mrs. Koenig, a talk on "Public Schools in Latin America" was given by Mrs. Ernest Neill. The speaker gave a review of the early Indian period up to the present time and pointed out the differences in education in Latin America and the United States.

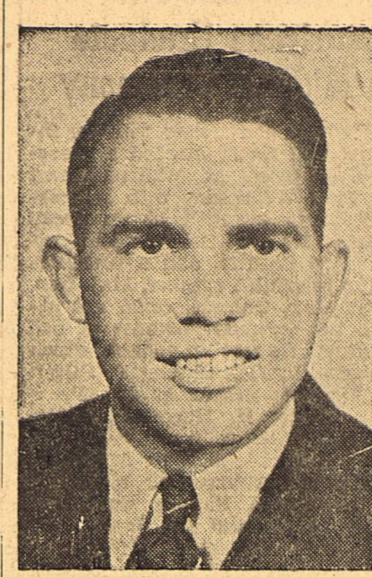

Mrs. S. M. Erskine chose as her topic for discussion "Church Schools" and gave the plan followed for the Baptist sponsored schools in Chile. Concluding the program, Mrs. Louis Chase reported on education in the United States at the present time. She emphasized the problems of the returning veterans to high school and college and how to get back in schools over a million teen-age boys and girls who have been engaged in war industry.

During the business period conducted by Mrs. Harlen Howell, the group voted to assist with the OPA price survey of grocery stores in Midland. Meses. Howell, B. E. McCollum, Lawrence Evans, Chase, Raymond Leggett and E. H. Kemp will represent the club in the survey.

Mrs. Leggett proposed three amendments to the constitution to be presented at the next meeting. Members voted to support the civic governing board and to send a representative to the meetings.

Those present were Meses. Chase, Erskine, Howell, Kemp, Koenig, Leggett, Charles Lehner, McCollum, Jerry Phillips, W. E. Shipley Jr., John M. Speed Jr., C. C. Thomas, J. G. White, Jack Jones and Neill.

Rev. Cy Reid To Speak

The Rev. Cy Reid, who has just completed his training in the Baptist Seminary in Dallas, will be guest speaker for the prayer service at 7:30 p. m. at the First Baptist Church. At a revival meeting held at the Baptist Church two years ago, Mr. Reid led the music and presented musical saw numbers. Mr. Reid and his family are en route to the West Coast where they will make their home.

Poor Digestion? YES NO
Headachy?
Sour or Upset?
Tired-Listless?

Do you feel headachy and upset due to poorly digested food? To feel cheerful and happy again your food must be digested properly.

Each day, Nature must produce about two pints of a vital digestive juice to help digest your food. If Nature fails, your food may remain undigested—leaving you headachy and irritable.

Therefore, you must increase the flow of this digestive juice. Carter's Little Liver Pills increase this flow quickly—often in as little as 30 minutes. And, you're on the road to feeling better.

Don't depend on artificial aids to counteract indigestion—when Carter's Little Liver Pills aid digestion after Nature's own order. Take Carter's Little Liver Pills as directed. Get them at any drugstore. Only 25¢.

Bulwinkle Bill Gets C Of C Endorsement

Midland Chamber of Commerce directors, at their regular meeting Tuesday night, adopted a resolution endorsing the Bulwinkle Bill which now is before Congress.

The proposal will retain for the Interstate Commerce Commission the powers of rate making for public transportation through rate bureaus. This power had been questioned by the attorney general's department and both railroads and truckers' associations favor the Bulwinkle Bill. It has received the endorsement of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce and many other organizations.

Internationals And Americans Graduate In Midland Ceremony

Graduation exercises with an international flavor marked a peace-time ceremony at Midland Army Air Field Wednesday with bombardier wings awarded 52 American cadets, 30 American student officers, 26 Chinese, and a Brazilian.

The scheduled speaker, Maj. Gen. P. T. Mow, Chinese, could not attend the ceremony because of bad weather. He sent an address, which was read by Col. Chester P. Gilger, commanding officer of MAAF.

Lt. Ernest H. Hugonnet, Public Relations Officer, made the principal address. He said: "The war proved cooperation and teamwork of the United Nations won from the Germans and the Japs. And that same fine spirit which carried to victory still is demonstrated on the flying line of the school here."

"We learned the toughness of a long struggle and appreciated the fortitude of the Chinese when we ourselves met the Jap in combat. Cooperation made the Allies strong. It made them indomitable in war against Germans and Japanese."

Lt. Col. Charles F. McKenna, director of training, awarded the American bombardier wings. Maj. Chen Ching Kai, Chinese cadet commandant, awarded the Chinese wings.

The American and Chinese National Anthems closed the ceremony.

WAR DOGS PROBABLY FIND MEAT BONES ARE BETTER

PORTLAND, ORE.—(AP)—The gate-watch at the Swan Island Navy Receiving Center has a new pass-word.

It's a big raw meat bone, preferably with some choice red meat still in evidence. Five big jungle veteran K-9 Corps dogs back from the Pacific make short work of the bones—as they did several Jap snipers.

WORLD FREEDOM OF PRESS CONVENTION IS PLANNED

A poll conducted by a national automobile association indicates vacation travel will exceed five billion dollars a year in the immediate postwar year. Eighty-five per cent of the vacationers indicated a preference for automobile travel.

Retailers To Make Plans For Christmas Season In Midland

Christmas season plans for Midland were placed in the hands of the retailers' committee of the Midland Chamber of Commerce by its directors at their regular meeting Tuesday night in the Scharbauer Hotel.

Efforts will be made to obtain sufficient materials to repair light streamers so Midland can be decorated properly for the Christmas season. The retailers committee, headed by Paul McHargue, chairman, will cooperate closely with the Midland Junior Chamber of Commerce which is planning an elaborate Christmas season program. It won top honors in the nation last year for its Christmas activities.

Merchants will confer soon to outline the program and, meanwhile, inquiries are being made to determine if sufficient colored light bulbs and materials can be obtained to brightly light Midland during the Christmas season.

Reports were heard by the directors on many activities of the organization including plans for improved hospitalization facilities, a proposed war memorial plan, zoning, airports, air lines and finance.

Gilger Says MAAF Is Bombardier Hub

"Midland Army Air Field is the hub of all bombardier training of the Army Air Forces," Col. Chester P. Gilger, commanding officer, told the Midland Lions Club at its meeting in Hotel Scharbauer Wednesday noon.

"Texas hospitality is as big as the state. We never could have made the record at MAAF we did without the fine cooperation from our host city, Midland," the officer stated.

Colonel Gilger said MAAF now had four objectives: 1. separation of eligible personnel from the services, 2. re-enlistment, 3. Victory War Bond sales, and 4. bombardier training.

Many Men Separated He said more than 3,000 officers and men had been separated from the services at MAAF since V-J Day.

The colonel did not predict what would happen to MAAF. Speaking as an individual, he said, "the air field is an excellent installation. It appears it should be kept as a part of the Air Forces' system."

H. F. Oliver was installed as a new member of the club. The club voted to contribute $100 to the Midland War Chest Drive.

Entertainment and program committees of the Lions will meet Thursday noon in the Blue Room of Hotel Scharbauer to discuss plans for a Christmas banquet.

Abell Will -

The production came from perforations at 11,181-282 feet, and at 11,380-422 feet. The water was said to be coming from the lower zone. Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 1-B Humble well, 1,980 feet from south and 660 feet from east lines of section 8, block A-24, pd survey, one quarter of a mile north, and same distance west of discovery well for Clear Fork production in the Doss field, in South Gaines, was running 5 1/2-inch casing. Total depth is at 7,133 feet in lime.

The project had some free oil, and some oil and gas cut drilling mud, in a drillstem test at the start of the week, and apparently operator is planning to try to make an oil well of it.

Black 55-minute drillstem test was taken at 9,161-9,235 feet. Recovery was 430 feet of drilling mud, with no shows of oil or gas, and 3,600 feet of black sulphur water. Operator has not revealed the identity of the formation—it is supposed to be some section of the lower Ordovician.

Standard Oil Company of Texas No. 1 Tucker, South Crane County outcrop to a recent wildcat discovery from the Waddell section of the Simpson, and in south corner of section 21, block 3, H&TC survey, was bottomed at 4,422 feet, in lime, and was running 7 5/8-inch casing before drilling ahead.

Union Oil Company of California No. 1-C Post estate, Northeast Garza County wildcat, in section 29, block 4, K. Aycock survey, about five miles northeast of Post, has been abandoned, and will be plugged, on total depth of 3,446 feet, in lime, with a hole full of water.

Carl B. King Drilling Company, et al. No. 1 Santa Fe, in northwest quarter of section 29-98-37e, in extreme northeast Lea County, New Mexico, failed to "kick" and failed to show, after treating at 4,915-66 feet, with 2,000 gallons of acid, and swabbing out.

Operator was making new hole, and when bottom gets to about 4,995 feet, probably will test again.

Schlio Petroleum Company No. 1 Faver, Northeast Nolan County wildcat which is unofficially reported to have shown some free oil, some gas, and some salty water in the Strawn-Pennsylvanian, at 5,670-82 feet, is supposed to have pulled a core from 5,682-92 feet, which had some oil in the sand.

Operator is not releasing any information on the project—and all reports of shows of petroleum are without official confirmation.

From Young County Informed sources in Midland report that the L. T. Burns No. 1 C. F. Kunkel, North Young County wildcat which blew out the first of the week from the Mississippian at 4,890-98 feet, had flowed at a rate of around 250 barrels of oil per hour—instead of the 1,000 barrels per hour, reported in some circles.

The well is two and one-half miles west of Olney, and at last report it had been killed and owner is starting to re-condition the hole preparatory to running casing and trying to complete it.

Honolulu Oil Corporation No. 1 Altman, Northwest Garza County exploration in section 1255, TT survey, which is unofficially reported to have entered Ellenburger at 9,175 feet, on an elevation of 2,967 feet, is bottomed at 9,603 feet, and is waiting for plug to set on 5 1/2-inch casing set at 9,539 feet, with 100 sacks of cement.

Operator is slated to test slight shows at various points in the project, when the pipe is securely settled.

No Test Obtained Sinclair Prairie Oil Company No. 1 Rathliff, Southwest Andrews County prospector, in section 25, block 73, pd survey, failed to get a drillstem test at 10,502-800 feet, in lime, and will drill ahead.

Skelly Oil Company No. 1 Golden, North-Central Pecos County wildcat, in section 30, block 10, F&GN survey, cored at 5,811-29 feet, and recovered 13 feet of lime and shale, with no shows, and is to drill ahead. It is some place in the Simpson, middle Ordovician.

GM Gives Wage Hike To Office Employees

DETROIT.—(AP)—General Motors Corporation Wednesday announced its approximately 70,000 salaried employees would be given a 10 per cent increase on the first $500 of monthly salary, retroactive to Nov. 1.

The general increase does not apply to senior officers, directors and factory employees.

Commenting on the GM 10 per cent increase, Walter P. Reuther, UAW vice president and director of its General Motors department said: "If the 10 per cent salary increase granted General Motors office employees is not used by the corporation as a lever to get price increases for its cars, it is a welcome down payment on the 30 per cent increase to which all General Motors employees, office workers and factory workers are entitled."

Now... telephone factories are working for you

More than 246,000 people in the Southwest have had to wait for telephone service for one reason: Telephone factories were working for war.

Now those factories are turning from war to peace. All the facilities and know-how that did the war job are beginning to produce the mountains of telephone equipment—switchboards, dial apparatus, cable, wire, and instruments—needed here at home.

The task ahead is not easy. In the next 12 months we expect to be able to add one telephone for every 10 now in service. They will serve most of those who are waiting. For others, in localities where heavy construction and installation is necessary, it may take longer.

But we've made a start; we're on our way. Now all our efforts are aimed at making the wait just as short as possible—to provide telephone service to all who want it, when they want it.

That's Phillips 66

When you pay for protection—it pays to get the best! That's why we'd like to call your attention to Phillips 66 Motor Oil—the oil that's as tough as an old bull-elephant's hide!

You know, toughness isn't something you can refine into an oil. It's got to be there in the first place. Well, Mother Nature made this oil tough—and it took her thousands of years to do it!

All we do is pump it out of the ground... give it some special Phillips refining... and bring it to you with all those wonderful God-given lubricating qualities unimpaired!

When there's only a few pennies difference between "the best" and "mediocre," why take a chance? Drive in where you see the big Orange-and-Black sign with the double-six and say—"Fill 'er full o' Phillips!"

You won't find a more honest, natural lubricating oil in America!

Atomic Bomb Problem Simmers Down To Stand On Sovereignty

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The word "sovereignty" stands like a red light on the track leading toward full world agreement—an agreement with real meaning—on controlling the atomic bomb.

We've always been jealous of our national "sovereignty." So have other nations. The word means simply this:

Yet some independent nation will not let any other nation or group of nations tell it what to do.

Would we be willing—since the bomb is so catastrophic—to let a majority vote of the other nations make decisions on the bomb?

If we entered that kind of agreement—where we'd abide by a majority vote—we'd be yielding some of our sovereignty. So far we haven't been willing to abide by a majority vote on international affairs.

Yet in our domestic affairs we run our country by a majority vote and hold up that method as the truly Democratic way of life.

Problem Of Sovereignty Right now the problem of national sovereignty in connection with the bomb is being talked of widely.

The word "sovereignty" haunted the San Francisco Conference last spring that led to creation of the United Nations Organization.

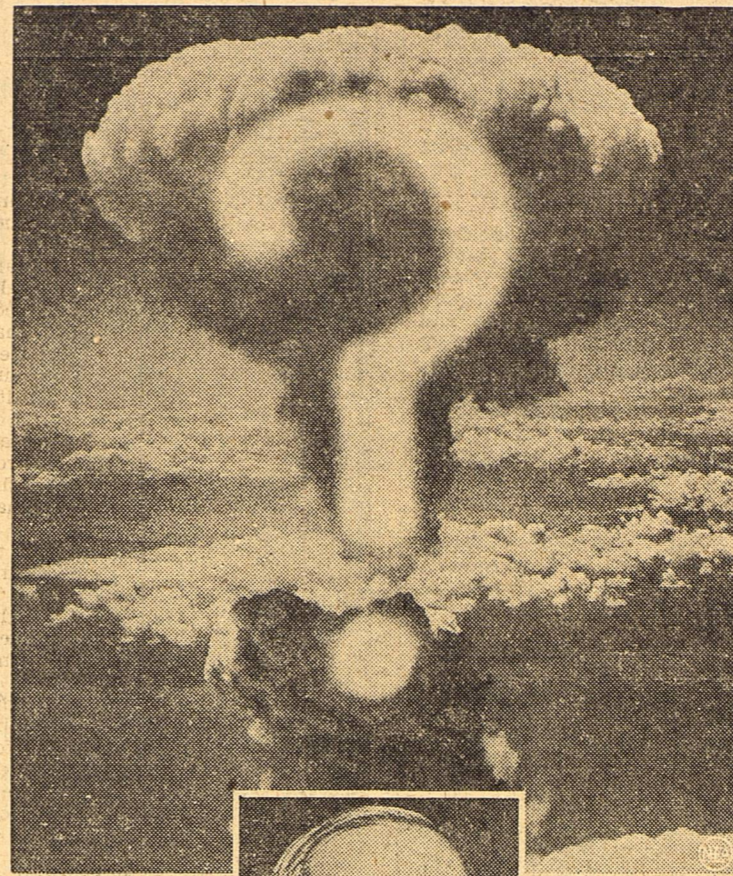

Even in the face of the atomic bomb, it is not likely the Senate would be willing to yield any of our national sovereignty.

Yet some Senators already have said the bomb must change our thinking, that we must enter fully into international agreements, even if it means yielding sovereignty.

It has been argued here, especially by the British, no change would be necessary in the UNO charter if the Security Council took control of atomic energy developments because it would be part of the council's job to prevent wars and the bomb is a war threat.

The atomic bomb is our secret. Now the question is: If we share the secret, do we have to yield sovereignty to some extent?

In 3-Way Parley Over 'Hot Potato'

"Hot potato" among international questions is what to do with the atom bomb. Heads of the three nations that share the secret will try to thresh it out when President Truman, Britain's Prime Minister Clement Attlee, left, above, and Canada's Prime Minister Mackenzie King, right, meet in Washington.

Army Recruiters To Visit Midland

Army recruiters, who will be in Midland at the postoffice Wednesday and Thursday, announced a deadline of Nov. 21 has been set for re-enlistment in the regular Army with special privileges of all men who were discharged between May 12 and Nov. 1.

This is for men who wish to maintain their former ratings. They also will receive the re-enlistment bonus of $50 a year for every year of service if the enlistment becomes effective within 90 days after discharge.

The recruiters also pointed out: Men discharged from the Army after Nov. 1 will have a period of 20 days from date of discharge to re-enlist and receive their ratings and re-enlistment allowances.

Men enlisting for three years do not have to take their ninety days enlistment furlough at the beginning of the enlistment. A man enlisting may sign a waiver as to when he desires to take his re-enlistment furlough.

AAF Will Discharge Air Crew Trainees

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Army Air Forces announced Wednesday it will discharge about 4,000 air crew trainees who have had two years or Army service and are no longer needed.

They are enlisted men who transferred from other branches of the Army to Air Forces for crew training. Previously, AAF had provided for release of air students who volunteered from civilian life.

The order classes as surplus, and eligible for discharge, all trainees who volunteered from enlisted status, who have completed two years service between Sept. 16, 1940, and Nov. 9, 1945, who have not volunteered to remain in the service.

Lucille Harper Of Nixon Is Wed To Wallace H. Roy

Announcement has been made here of the marriage of Miss Lucille Harper, daughter of Mrs. Clyde Harper, of Nixon, Texas, and Wallace Henry Roy, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Roy, of this city.

The marriage was an event of Nov. 6 in Nixon where the single ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Holland, pastor of the First Baptist Church. Only relatives and close friends were present for the rites.

Attired in a deep rose suit, the bride chose accessories of brown and a corsage of white carnations.

Mrs. Roy is well known in San Antonio where she attended high school before her marriage. The bridegroom attended Midland High School. He recently returned to the states after serving 21 months overseas with the 41st Infantry. He wears the Purple Heart, the Combat Infantryman's Badge, and three campaign ribbons. He received his discharge on the point system from the armed forces and is now employed at the Humble Service Station in Midland.

After Saturday, the couple will be at home at 203 East Washington.

Operators Testify On Oil Proration

AUSTIN—(AP)—A December oil proration order for Texas will be issued by the Railroad Commission on the basis of testimony of operators at a statewide hearing here Wednesday.

Although the Bureau of Mines has estimated Texas' December demand at 1,940,000 barrels daily, Commission Chairman Olin Culbertson has said he believes demand is as strong as ever.

The Bureau of Mines estimate is 50,000 barrels below the November estimate of that agency and 86,572 barrels less than average daily allowable reported by the commission Nov. 10.

Purchaser nominations for December are 2,220,596 barrels daily, an increase of 87,419 barrels over November nominations.

SWISS WAR DAMAGE

BERN—(AP)—Switzerland suffered 80,000,000 to 100,000,000 Swiss francs worth of damages in military operations during the war, according to the newspaper Der Bund. Eighty-five places were bombed, 1,200 explosive bombs were dropped, 84 persons were killed, 85 seriously injured and several hundred slightly hurt.

Report On the War

By General George C. Marshall

JAPAN'S OBJECTIVES

NOT only were the European partners of the Axis unable to coordinate their plans and resources and agree within their own nations how best to proceed, but the eastern partner, Japan, was working in even greater discord. The Axis, as a matter of fact, existed on paper only. Eager to capitalize on the preoccupation of the western powers in Europe, Japan was so greedy for her own immediate conquests that she laid her strategy, not to help Germany defeat Russia and Great Britain, but to accumulate her own profit. Had the way been open Germany and Japan would have undoubtedly joined their armies in Central Asia, but to Japan this objective was secondary to looting the Far East while there was no real force to stop her. The War Department General Staff's analysis of Japanese objectives follows:

France had been overrun and eliminated. England was threatened by German invasion. The U. S. S. R. was attempting to repel a German invasion on her Western front reaching to the gates of the capital. The United States had become the Arsenal of Democracy, with major efforts directed toward the support and preservation of our European Allies.

"The Tripartite Pact had been signed, giving Japan a free hand in Asia. She had a large and relatively well-equipped army and a moderately good air force well trained by actual combat in China. She had obtained by forced agreements a staging area in French Indo-China. She had a fairly large navy especially strong in the transport craft available. She had accumulated by great national economy a good stockpile of strategic materials at home for the initial effort and with each successive conquest she obtained new and important areas from which other supplies of materials could be drawn, such as oil, rubber, and tin. The Japanese mistakenly believed in the hearty cooperation of 'liberated' peoples of the so-called Greater East Asia Co-Prosperity Sphere with their huge labor pools. Japan considered herself ready to strike.

"Japan's objective was the conquest, consolidation, and eventual domination of the whole Far East. She intended to make her conquest in a rapid surprise drive which would overpower all resistance, to form an iron ring of outer defenses against which the spiritually inferior, pacifistic combination of opponents could beat themselves into weariness, while she consolidated her gains at leisure."

What Japan Intended

The best estimate of Japan's plan for the accomplishment of her objectives appears to be the following:

1. Neutralize or destroy the U. S. Pacific Fleet by an attack on Pearl Harbor.
2. Drive rapidly south overcoming the Philippines and the Southwest and South Pacific Islands.

More than half of the estimated 100 million automobile wheels now rolling on American streets and highways are doing so on synthetic rubber.

lands in order to cut sea routes of supply or attack from the East and gain the vast natural resources of the East Indies.

There can be no doubt that the greed and the mistakes of the war-making nations as well as the heroic stands of the British and Soviet peoples saved the United States a war on her own soil. The crisis had come and passed at Stalingrad and El Alamein before this Nation was able to gather sufficient resources to participate in the fight in a determining manner. Had the U. S. S. R. and the British Army of the Nile been defeated in 1942, as they well might if the Germans, Japanese, and Italians had better coordinated their plans and resources and successive operations, we should have stood today in the western hemisphere confronted by enemies who controlled a greater part of the world.

Our close approach to that terrifying situation should have a sobering influence on Americans for generations to come. Yet, this is only a prelude of what can be expected so long as there are nations on earth capable of waging total war.

Announcement Of New Car Prices Delayed

DALLAS (AP)—The announcement of new car prices has been delayed at the request of Rep. Patman (D-Texas) of the House Small Business Committee. Dick Womack, regional OPA executive, said here. Chester Bowles, OPA administrator, has been asked by Patman to postpone announcement of automobile prices until the representative presents a picture of the problem of dealer margins to the House committee. Womack said he had been informed.

Oklahoma Mentor To Retire After Season

NORMAN —(P)—Suffering from what he termed "football battle fatigue," Coach Dewey (Shorter) Luster, who piloted the University of Oklahoma to two straight big six titles, will retire at the end of the present season.

The pint-sized, bespectacled mentor said he had intended to resign for the past two years due to his failing health but remained upon insistence of college officials.

Luster will continue at the university, assisting in the intramural athletic program.

In most English dictionaries printed since 1940, the word "noun" has appeared as a common noun.

Hood Maroons Pace Texas Service Teams

By The Associated Press
The Camp Hood Maroons roll along as the only undefeated team in Texas service football but Corpus Christi Naval Air Station and Army Air Forces Training Command furnished the season's major surprises last weekend.

Corpus Christi, which was trimmed 35-7 early in the season by Jacksonville Naval Air Station, got the Florida team on its home field Saturday night and tumbled the Jax 14-13. It not only pushed Corpus Christi into second place in Texas service standings but it was the first defeat of the year for Jacksonville.

On the other hand, the Training Command eleven, long rated favorite to win the National Service League title, dropped its second game in a row—this one a conference affair to the First Air Force 24-6.

The Camp Hood Maroons didn't play a game last week. Hondo Air Field went out to California and beat the Santa Barbara Marines 13-7 while the Camp Hood Doughboys banged Camp Swift 21-6. Bergstrom Field journeyed to Rockford, Ill., and trimmed Camp Grant 12-0.

Games This Week
This week the Camp Hood Maroons meet Southwestern University at Gatesville, Corpus Christi Naval Air Station plays Havana University at Havana, Cuba, and the training command goes to Tampa, Fla., to engage the Third Air Force.

DUCK REVIVES AND FLIES AWAY WITH HANDKERCHIEF
MILTON, WASH. —(P)—Mark Wyland is looking for a duck wearing a white handkerchief. He said he bagged the duck on a hunting trip and knotted his handkerchief around its neck to ease the carrying chore. When a flock of ducks flew over Wyland dropped his bird to take a shot and the "dead" duck got up and flew away, handkerchief and all.

Scout Banquet Honors Parents

Parents of Boy Scout Troop 151 members recently were guests at a banquet prepared by the boys. Speakers were F. D. Spratt and Frank Whitley. The event was held in the Calvary Baptist Church. Master of ceremonies was Scoutmaster Allen C. Heard.

Banquet food of roast beef, gravy, green beans, and pie was prepared by the Scouts. Tables were decorated with the American and Christian flags and miniature Boy Scouts. Also a Scout of Honor banner was unfurled.

Bulldogs Compare Equal With Cisco

Tickets for the Midland-Cisco game here Friday night at 7:30 in the Midland High School Stadium went on sale Tuesday at the high school.

The duets will be on sale at the Chamber of Commerce downtown after Thursday. Coach Gene McCollum of the Bulldogs expects a tough tussle out of the Lobbes. He pushed his MHS charges through practice sessions Tuesday and another rowdy drill is scheduled Wednesday.

Cisco from District 9-AA brings a season record something like Midland's. The two elevens compare equally in weight and experience. Will-to-win is expected to provide the difference in Friday night's score. The Bulldogs are in good condition and will be ready for the whistle Friday night.

Penn's George Savitsky is Lineman-Of-Week

By TED MEIER
NEW YORK —(P)—Huge George Savitsky, University of Pennsylvania tackle, has earned recognition as the outstanding football lineman on the week.

The 252-pound tackle, who gets a crack at Army's famed forward wall on Saturday, easily won The Associated Press poll for his teeth-jarring performance in Penn's 32-7 defeat of Columbia on Franklin Field in Philadelphia last week.

Newspapermen, coaches and players joined in praising the work of Savitsky, who set up Penn's first three touchdowns by blocking one punt and recovering two fumbles.

Of the other linemen singled out for acclaim Rodney Giske, of Washington State, turned in the most unusual feat. On one play he threw such a strong block on two Oregon players that both Oregon men were knocked out.

Other players nominated this week included: Ends—Bill Gear, Texas Aggies; Dale Schwarzkop, Texas; Bruce Bradbeer, Rice; Jack McBride, Rice.

Tackles—Bernie Winkler, Texas Tech; Floyd Lawhorn, Texas Tech; Tom Dean, Southern Methodist; Monte Moncrief, Texas Aggies.

Pro Coaches Say Army Good, But Pay-Play Boys Are Better

By GAYLE TALBOT
NEW YORK —(P)—Stout Steve Cwen of the New York football Giants can expect to have his previous high standing among the professional gridironers seriously impaired if he doesn't cease and desist from raving about Army's football team.

"The Giants' mentor is flaunting one of the oldest rules and traditions of the play-for-pay circuit by refusing to say that any team in the National Professional League could lick Army or any other college outfit three times in an afternoon if the light held out.

"I'm simply not going to say one way or another," he replied firmly when asked how he thought the Cadets' unbeaten eleven would fare against one of the good professional clubs.

Asked, then, if he would appraise Coach Earl Blaik's team strictly on its merits, Owen brightened at once and threw his 300-odd pounds headlong into what plainly was one of his favorite topics.

"It's one of the greatest football teams I ever saw," he said. "I've never seen two such backs as Glenn Davis and Doc Blanchard in the same backfield, and that big, swift line of theirs is nothing of wonderful. I can't name any college team I ever saw that I would say was the equal of this one."

While Owen, at least, sounded like he would give the Cadets a whole of a chance against a pro team, three other coaches of professional clubs said: "Any of the big pro teams could beat Army. It would be one hell of a game, but we'd win. I don't want to take anything away from Army's great backs, but we have some too, and we have some All-Americans in the line"—Earle "Greasy" Neale, Philadelphia Eagles.

"I doubt very much if Army, as good as it is, could beat a pro team. Like a good amateur boxer fighting a professional, the professional is too ringwise. If that isn't true, then the pro teams aren't what they're cracked up to be. We practice three hours a day and spend almost that much time in chalk talks. We may not be any more rugged than Army, but we have more versatility"—Andy Degroot, Washington Redskins.

"I've been in college football 20 years and only one year in pro ball, but personally I believe a top-flight college team any day"—Adam Walsh, Cleveland Rams.

Jubilant Red Raiders Face Bob Fenimore

LUBBOCK —(P)—Jubilant at their 12-0 victory Saturday over the Texas Christian Horned Frogs, the Texas Tech Red Raiders invade Stillwater, Okla., this weekend with high hopes as they face the unbeaten Oklahoma Aggies and mighty Bob Fenimore.

Coach Dell Morgan feels his charges, if they play as they did against TCU, will do much better in halting Fenimore, the Aggie All-American, than many others have done. Only minor injuries were apparent among Techsians after the TCU encounter. Morgan is depending on his line, rated one of the toughest by TCU coaches, to halt the Aggie ace.

Powerful Walter Schlinkman, Texas Tech's All-American candidate, added much to his bid for that honor against the Horned Frogs when he sparked the team he captained to victory in his final home game before a 10,000 homecoming crowd.

Despite an injured shoulder, Schlinkman amassed 137 of the team's 138 net yards on the ground and carried the ball four straight times for 25 yards and the Raiders' second touchdown in the closing minutes of play. In addition, he intercepted two passes and punted six times for 199 yards. His season's rushing yardage moved to 729 as the result of the afternoon's play.

Corpus Christi Ignores Petition To Resign

CORPUS CHRISTI —(P)—A second request to resign was declined by Mayor Roy Self and three members of the Corpus Christi City Council.

The Better Government League, represented by Hayden Head, attorney, Tuesday urged the mayor and council members to submit their resignations, after more than 5,500 Corpus Christi voters had signed petitions for their recall.

Mackenzie's COLUMN

By DEWITT MacKENZIE AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Tuesday was a real Anglo-American day, what with Prime Minister Attlee's address to Congress and the agreement between Washington and London to join hands in a committee of inquiry to deal with the problem of the Jewish national home in Palestine.

Attlee's job, I take it, was largely one of salesmanship. He wanted to convince America that there's no threat to our interests in England's new Socialist government with its nationalization program, and that a loan is justifiable. As to the loan, he will find two schools of thought in this country, but probably most people will agree with one striking statement which is calculated to provide a basis for world cooperation. It is this:

"I look forward to an era of increasing cooperation and friendship between the U. S. A. and Great Britain—not as an exclusive friendship but a contribution to the knitting together with all peoples through the United Nations Organization in the bonds of peace. Each Follow Peoples' Will"

"In our internal policies each will follow the course decided by the peoples' will. You will see us (Britain) embarking on projects of nationalization x x x we shall be working out a planned economy. It is more important that we should understand each other and other nations whose institutions differ from our own. It is essential if we are to build up a peaceful world that we should have the widest toleration, recognizing that our aim is not uniformity but unity in diversity. It would be a dull world if we are all alike."

That's a thesis which seeks after peace can support. It means that America and any other nations which wish to pursue a policy of individual enterprise can do so and still be able to cooperate with countries which prefer nationalization and perhaps regimentation of the individual. A nation doesn't have to accept or even endorse the political ism of another country in order to be friendly.

The decision to create a joint Anglo-American committee to study the Jewish question, both in Europe and in Palestine, will bring little immediate comfort to the host of homeless Jewish refugees who are facing the tragedies of winter on the continent. However, it's important that the wheels are turning towards a decision.

Survey Shows Producers Want Crude Price Rise

DALLAS —(P)—Results of a survey of 17 major oil companies by the Independent Petroleum Association of Texas, show that 10 favor an increase in the price of crude oil to producers at the mouth of wells in the Mid-Continent area.

D. Harold Byrd, president of the association, in making the announcement Tuesday said the 10 companies also favor a corresponding rise in the price of petroleum products.

Two of the major companies, Tide Water Associated and Shell Union Oil Corporation, withheld their views. Five others have not answered.

The following companies favor the position outlined in the survey: Magnolia Petroleum Company, Humble Oil and Refining Company, The Texas Company, Standard Oil of New Jersey, Standard Oil of Indiana, Pure Oil, Continental Oil, Phillips Petroleum, Cities Service and Socony-Vacuum.

TEXAN IS KILLED IN KEROSENE TANK EXPLOSION

COTTON VALLEY, LA. —(P)—C. L. (Jeff) Coak, 29, of Palestine, Texas, was killed Tuesday in the explosion of a 10,000-barrel tank of kerosene at the plant of the Cotton Valley Operators' Committee, five miles southeast of Cotton Valley.

clearing a path for the Eagles!

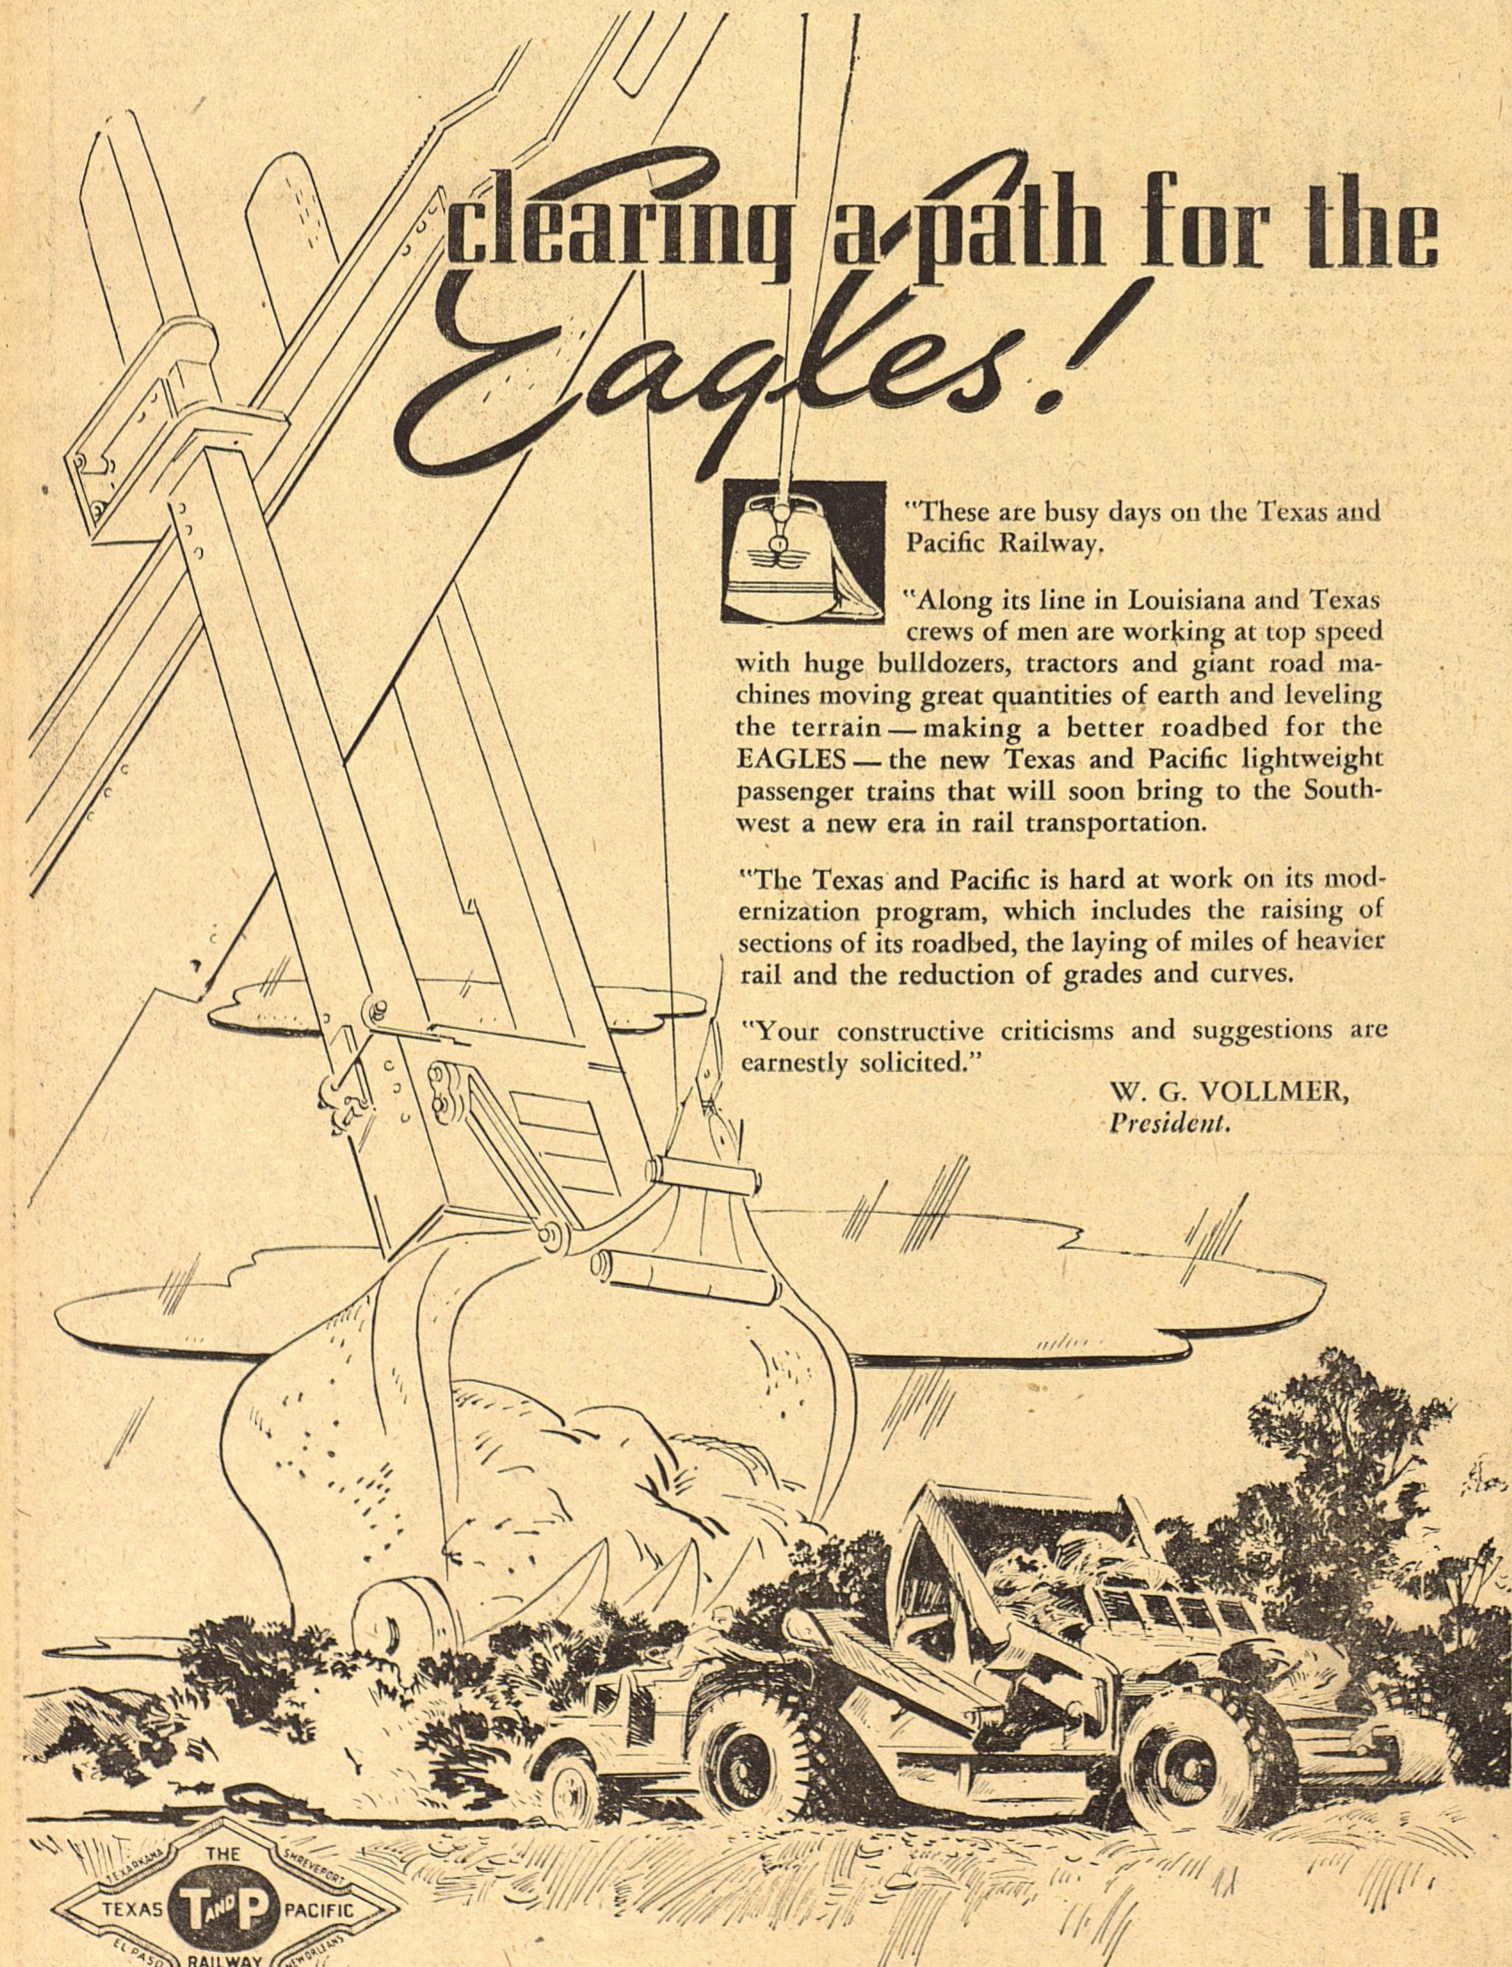

"These are busy days on the Texas and Pacific Railway.

"Along its line in Louisiana and Texas crews of men are working at top speed with huge bulldozers, tractors and giant road machines moving great quantities of earth and leveling the terrain—making a better roadbed for the EAGLES—the new Texas and Pacific lightweight passenger trains that will soon bring to the Southwest a new era in rail transportation.

"The Texas and Pacific is hard at work on its modernization program, which includes the raising of sections of its roadbed, the laying of miles of heavier rail and the reduction of grades and curves.

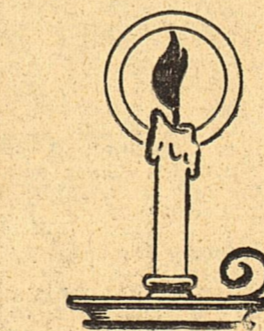

"Your constructive criticisms and suggestions are earnestly solicited."
