

To Attend Basketball Camp At RJC

Lisa Jones, Lorie Johnson, Kim Lane, Becky VanStory, Sheila Bartley and Gina Brooks have been accepted in the Ranger Junior College basketball camp May 30-June 4. This camp is directed by Ron Butler, Coach of the Ranger Junior College Range-ans, the 1971 National Junior College Champions.

This is the Eighth annual camp and the only one of this kind in Texas. The camp is for girls of junior varsity and junior high.

The primary purpose of the camp is to teach new skills in the fundamentals of sound basketball and to improve the individual abilities of each girl. Along with these ideas, the camp will also stress the ideals of good sportsmanship, leadership, and good citizenship.

This year's camp has some of the state's top coaches: Larry Tucker formerly of Rivercrest High School, Rogata, Texas; George Scott of Miami High School, Miami, Texas; Don Durham of Carroll High School, Southlake, Tex.; and Don Bates of Ranger Junior College.

Named Best Actress In State UIL

Junanne Brock, granddaughter of Mrs. R. L. Brock of Haskell, was named Best Actress in State UIL One-Act Play Contest for Class AAA schools in Austin on May 8. Miss Brock, the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Ben Brock, will be graduated from Snyder High School this month. She plans to enroll in Texas Christian University in the fall, majoring in theatre and minoring in vocal music.

Production of the one-act play for UIL competition is a major project of the Snyder High School speech and drama department each year. This was the fifth time that the school has won the state title.

Miss Brock had been named to the All-Star cast when this year's play, "Blood Wedding," was presented in district competition. As a junior she was named Best Actress at both the district and regional meets when Snyder presented "The Tempest."

She was selected as Outstanding Junior Class Choir Member as a junior, and during her senior year, Miss Brock has been named Drama Sweetheart, secretary of the National Honor Society and secretary of the choir. Winner of the top Rating I in vocal solo contests throughout high school, she is a member of The Swingers, a vocal group which performs popular music, and had the title role in the drama department's production of the musical "No, No, Nanette" earlier in the season. She also represented her school in the UIL Poetry Interpretation contest in district and regional levels.

Beard Contest To Start Today

The Haskell Jaycees will have a beard growing contest in connection with the Wild West Show slated for June 25-26.

There will be three prizes awarded for the worst, the fullest and the best, according to chairman Gwynn Butler.

Shaving permits will be sold for the ones who do not wish to grow beards. If you do not have a beard or a shaving permit, you will more than likely, end up in jail.

The contest will start today, [Thursday], May 20 and judging will be held on the last night of the Wild West Show.

This is a fun program and the Jaycees urge everyone to take part in it. The shaving permit money will be used to pay for the three prizes.

Sign-Up Day For Summer Reading Set

Sign-up day for the Texas Summer Reading Club 1976 will begin June 1st at the Haskell County Library.

This year's club materials will include a set of ten time-line pictures depicting ten means of transportation used in the United States from about 1780 to the present. These pictures depict a canoe, stagecoach, balloon, train, riverboat, horse trolley, early automobile, biplane, helicopter, and moon rover.

On the back of each participant's reading log is a cut-out figure with a place for the participants' name. As the participant reads his books, he moved his figure from one time-line picture to the next, from past to present.

Mrs. Elsie McGee, Librarian urges all young county readers to join the Texas Summer Reading Club 1976. She stated that many new books have been purchased for this age group.

Growing interest in track within the school athletic program has created more need for a track facility. The Board discussed the needs and possibilities with the group and agreed to take the possibility into consideration.

Band Booster's Hold Meeting

The Band Booster's met in their final meeting of the year, Monday, March 17, 1976. Presiding for the meeting held in the Band Hall was Mrs. Cleatus Drinnon in the absence of the President, Mrs. Duward Campbell.

Band Boosters voted to purchase a tenor saxophone for the Indian Band, plastic tote bags for the band hats. A new piano for the Band Hall will be purchased by the school for next year's use.

Needs of the concession stand were discussed.

Mr. Gideon, Band Director expressed thanks for the hard work and support of the Band Boosters and for the carpeting which was placed in the Band Hall by the Band Booster's last summer.

Local Doctor Retains AAFP Membership

James Frank Cadenhead, M. D., has completed continuing education requirements to retain active membership in the American Academy of Family Physicians, the national association of family doctors. The Academy formerly was called the American Academy of General Practice.

The requirements call for members to complete a minimum of 150 hours of accredited continuing medical study every three years. Members become eligible for reelection at the end of the third year following their election to membership. The Academy, the country's second largest national medical association, is the only national medical group that requires members to keep up with medical progress through continuing education.

The Academy, founded in 1947 and headquartered in Kansas City, Mo., was instrumental in the establishment of a new primary specialty in family practice in 1969. The new specialty is expected to increase the numbers of family physicians available to serve the public in the future. The Academy's continuing education program is the foundation of eligibility for family doctors now in practice who apply for certification in the new specialty.

WTR Center To Hold Coffee Project

Several hundred waitresses within a 100 mile radius of Abilene are already busy selling plastic American flag pins in participating restaurants as a part of the 1976 Memorial Day Coffee Project which benefits the West Texas Rehabilitation Center.

Last year's project raised $8,250 to help the Rehab Center during the critical summer funding period. The lapel flag pins, which sell for $1.00 each, entitle the wearer to a free cup of coffee in any of the participating restaurants on Memorial Day (May 31).

Top waitresses in each of five categories will receive a western wardrobe valued at $100 from Luskey's Western Wear of Abilene. In addition, any waitress selling as many as 100 pins will receive a $10 gift certificate.

Last year almost 125 restaurants throughout West Texas participated in the project.

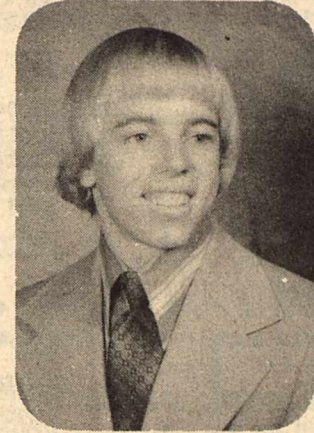

According to Shelley V. Smith, Executive Director of the West Texas Rehabilitation Center, the project provides the necessary funds for a special five weeks therapy-recreation program for almost 100 of the Center's handicapped youngsters. Smith said, "Without this project the summer program for the kids would have to be discontinued." "For the past four years waitresses have kept the program going."

Farm-facts

A Weekly Report Of Agri-Business News
Compiled From Sources Of The TEXAS DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE
John C. White, Commissioner

You May Be The One... Just The Facts... 90 Per Cent Increase.

During the latter part of this month, you may be receiving a crop questionnaire from the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service. If you do get one, you are requested to fill it out and return it by mail. All individual reports are confidential and are used only for state and county totals.

This information will be the basis for determining the planted acreage for Texas and for each county. A total of 24,000 farmers throughout the state will receive the crop questionnaires.

IF YOU FIGURE PARITY

the same way school grades used to be understood, agriculture is only two points above failing financially. The latest parity for agriculture is 72. In times past, school grades below 70 were considered failing. Parity is a formula calculated to show how agriculture is doing financially compared to the rest of the economy.

The 72 parity ratio for April is two points above a month ago and three points above a year ago.

But before you think that things are that much improved, consider individual commodity prices and parity. As of the middle of April, only four commodities -- oats, sheep, lambs, and mohair -- were above parity levels.

The wheat price as of mid-April averaged $3.55 per bushel (it's in the $3.50 range now). That is $1.34 cents below parity. And remember, wheat production in Texas this year will be about half of what it was a year ago.

Sorghum price average for the state is $4.26 per hundredweight. Parity is $5.49.

Cotton continues to be way below parity, too. Cotton prices in Texas as of mid-April averaged 44.5 cents per pound. That is 18 cents above a year ago, but is 2.3 cents per pound under a month ago. Compared to parity, cotton is about 35 cents per pound below that ratio.

Hogs are $8 under parity; beef cattle are $20 under parity; calves are about $38 below parity.

So the facts are that farm prices have a long way to go yet before approaching parity levels in the majority of cases.

SHEEP AND LAMBS ON FEED in Texas as of May 1 are 90 per cent higher than a year ago, but are 12 per cent below a month ago.

The Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service notes that Texas drylot sheep feeders with a capacity of 2,000 head or more had 57,000 sheep and lambs on feed for slaughter as of May 1. Placements during April totaled 19,000 head. Sheep and lambs marketed for slaughter during April totaled 17,000 head.

Current intentions to market are 29,000 through this month; 21,000 during June and 7,000 during July.

Accident Report

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated seven accidents on rural highways in Haskell County during the month of April, 1976, according to Sergeant Frank Jircik, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area. These crashes resulted in one person killed and four persons injured.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the first four months of 1976 shows a total of 21 accidents resulting in one person killed and eight persons injured. The rural traffic accident summary for the 60 counties of the Lubbock Department of Public Safety Region for April, 1976, shows a total of 510 accidents resulting in 10 persons killed and 318 persons injured, as compared to April, 1975, with 425 accidents resulting in 18 persons killed

Summary of Key Provisions of 1975 Act on Handicapped

The following information is a summary of the key provisions of the Education for All Handicapped Children Act of 1975.

FUNDING—Starting in fiscal year 1978, the federal government will pay a percentage of the actual cost of serving children at the following rates: FY 1978—5%—Estimated $350 million, 1979—10%—$750 million, 1980—20%—$1,600 million, 1981—40%—$3,100 million. The state-local distribution will be 50% state and 50% local for fiscal year 1978. In fiscal year 1979 and subsequent years, the proportions will be 25% state and 75% local. In both instances, the states may use 5% of total funds received, or $200,000, whichever is greater, for administrative costs. All fiscal year 1976 and fiscal year 1977 funds will continue to go directly to state agencies.

FULL SERVICE REQUIREMENT—In order to be eligible for funds, each state must assure that "a free appropriate public education" will be available by Sept. 1, 1978, for all handicapped children 3 to 18 years old and by Sept. 1, 1980, for all handicapped children 3 to 21 years old.

SUPPLANTING PROHIBITED—State and local agencies must assure that federal funds will not be used to supplant state and local funds, except where the state provides evidence that full services are available to all handicapped children covered by the act.

GRIEVANCES, COMPLAINTS—The new law retains previous safeguards and strengthens grievance and complaint procedures. Among the provisions: parents or guardians will have an opportunity to examine all records concerning the identification, evaluation and placement of their children and to obtain an education evaluation of the child. Parents or guardians must receive prior written notice when the agency is to initiate or refuse to change a child's placement. The notice must be in the parents' or guardians' native language and must provide an opportunity to complain about the matter. Parents will have an opportunity for a hearing before the state or local education agency, but in no case shall an employee of the agency involved in the child's education conduct the hearing. Adequate appeal procedures are required.

COUNTING LIMITATION—For purposes of funding under the act, a state cannot count children in excess of 12 percent of all children aged 5-17, children in federal compensatory education programs or children with special learning disabilities.

LEARNING DISABILITIES—Within one year of the effective date, the U. S. commissioner of education is required to prescribe regulations establishing criteria to determine whether a particular disorder may be considered a specific learning disability and to establish and describe diagnostic procedures used to determine whether a child has a disorder that qualified him or her as being learning disabled.

STATE ADVISORY PANELS—The governor or other authorized officials will appoint an advisory panel of individuals involved in or concerned with the education of handicapped children, including handicapped individuals, teachers, parents, or guardians, state and local education officials and administrators of programs for handicapped children.

The functions of the panel are to: Advise the state education agency on unmet needs and prescribe general policies for educating handicapped children. Comment on rules and regulations issued by the state and on procedures proposed by the state for distribution of funds. Assist the state in developing and reporting such data and evaluations as may assist the commissioner. If an existing council or panel is already performing these functions or is able to perform them, the state is not required to establish another panel.

SANCTIONS—The commissioner can withhold funds when, after reasonable notice and opportunity for a hearing, he finds that the state is substantially not in compliance with the application requirements, it will suspend payments. If the state agency determines that a local agency or intermediate unit is unable or unwilling to establish programs or to consolidate programs, or has children who can best be served by a regional or statewide program, the state agency will use the funds to provide services directly to those children.

Did you know that glass wax is marvelous for cleaning silver? It is also fast and economical. A little goes on forever.

Or know ye that club soda is the greatest thing for getting fresh stains out of your carpet. We saw a few swipes with club soda take out an embarrassment of red wine on a white carpet. There wasn't a whisper of it after the area dried.

Besides the people who talk to plants to have them grow—there is also the contingent who use Joy, the household liquid. A tablespoonful in a quart of water is the joyous potion that really pampers your greenery.

If you want to get breakfast egg stains off your dishes in a hurry use COLD water. Also cold water rinses make your dishes shine.

Any time you've fed your washing machine or dishwasher too much detergent or other suds and it has overflowed just put in a capful of fabric softener and watch the suds subside. (HK)

Protein potential is the primary reason for the special reception being accorded a new variety of hard, red winter wheat, Lancota, the new variety, is being released by agricultural experiment stations in four states. Ten to twenty percent more protein is produced by the new variety, according to development researchers who say that if all Nebraska's wheat acreage were converted to Lancota, protein production would be increased by 100 million pounds. Proponents of the newcomer say the best thing of all is the location of the protein... it's in the part of the kernel made into white flour. That means it won't be lost during the milling process. Early performance testing of the new variety indicates it should be tough enough to compete with other high performance varieties throughout the plains states.

Soil and Water Conservation Districts

Haskell County farmers could save 44,000 gallons of tractor fuel just by eliminating one plowing on their fields this year. And, less plowing can give a bonus of greater profit and more land protection.

These benefits are possible through minimum tillage farming. This study was started by Jim Boykin, Soil Conservationist with the Soil Conservation Service at Terrell, Texas while he was located here at Haskell, and was completed with farmers in Kaufman County.

Minimum tillage simply means reducing the amount of plowing, cultivating, or other operations done to produce a crop. Many farmers in the California Creek and Wichita-Brazos Soil and Water Conservation Districts are already moving in this direction by using chemicals instead of plowing to control weeds.

The benefits of minimum tillage can be listed as less erosion damage, higher net profit through reduced expense, more food and cover for wildlife, reduced fuel consumption, and cleaner air and water for all citizens.

Research shows that minimum tillage is very effective in reducing soil erosion, sometimes by more than 90 percent. With reduced plowing, more leaves and stalks from the previous crop are left on the soil surface. This surface cover breaks up the erosive effect of falling raindrops, letting them trickle harmlessly onto the land.

Even after the raindrop reaches the soil, the protective cover is still working. Each bit of stalk acts as a tiny dam, holding back the water and giving it more time to soak into the soil. Any water finally running off such fields carries less sediment, which means mud and silt in streams and lakes.

Potential fuel savings through minimum tillage are tremendous. Many farmers average eight to ten trips over the land to grow a crop of sorghum or cotton. Full use of minimum tillage may eventually cut that figure in half.

Two elements are usually needed to make minimum tillage successful. One is full use of chemical weed control, and the other is machinery that can plant the crop into a stubble cover.

Texas farmers used minimum tillage on 1.2 million acres of cropland in 1974 with an estimated fuel savings of six million gallons. With fuel prices constantly going up, savings like that are a big incentive for farmers to turn to minimum tillage.

I would like to stress that minimum tillage can help tremendously in reducing wind erosion during the winter and early spring.

Our services in SCS here at Haskell are available for the asking. They are available to everyone without regard to race, creed, color, sex, or national origin. Come by and let us assist you with your conservation problems.

The two-week joint exercise off the North Carolina and Georgia coasts involves 36 ships and more than 50,000 men and women from all branches of the Armed Forces.

The exercise will include air, surface and submarine operations and an amphibious assault. It is designed to test command and control plans and to provide training in the procedures for emergency evacuation of noncombatants from a simulated battle zone.

REDDY'S HELPFUL TIPS

- Your air-conditioner will operate inefficiently if filters are not cleaned regularly. Dirt and lint, collected on the filters, restricts air flow to the coils. Clean filters every two weeks.
- Let nature help you save energy by shading your home with trees and shrubs to help cut down on summer cooling costs. Draw draperies against afternoon sun.
- Remember to keep outside doors, windows, and fireplace dampers closed. If you have window units, close the heating vents near the floor, as cool air falls and can escape through vents.

Over the years, America's health services delivery system has grown from the days of individual private physicians working alone in their own communities, to the present complex, interdependent network of physicians, clinics, laboratories, hospitals, emergency medical systems, and public health agencies. Not too many years ago, the only contact most people had with the health system began when they became ill, and ended with a visit to their family doctor. Now, at least in the larger metropolitan areas, people can choose from an array of private, public, and semi-public health services, not only to treat illness but to prevent it.

The system, however, has grown with virtually no coordination or planning. Thus some areas have more services than the public can effectively use, while other areas—especially rural areas—still lack even the barest minimum.

The National Health Planning and Resource Development Act of 1974 is intended to overcome some of these problems by providing for a degree of coherent direction. Last year, the Texas Legislature designated the Texas Department of Health Resources as the State's health planning and resource development agency.

Robert O. Humble, Director of the Division of Health Planning, explains that the State Agency will operate primarily a coordinating body for a network of 12 Health Systems Agencies. He says, "The Health Systems Agency is intended to provide health planning and resource development at the local level. These agencies will be responsible for developing plans for improving the health of residents of their areas, and they will be responsible for implementing these plans."

Humble says that each Health Systems Agency, of HSA, will draft a two-stage plan. "The health systems plan will be a long-range, goals-type plan, and it will consider elements for as far as five to ten years in the future. There also will be an annual implementation plan, which will be the means by which the HSA will carry out the long-range goals."

Implementation, as Humble explains it, does not mean that the HSA's will actually provide the services which they determine are needed. Humble says, "The health providers, the health resources, the institutions in the area will be responsible for actually providing the services. The HSA will not be allowed to provide funds for direct services; in other words, they won't be able to pay for the care of patients, but rather, for the planning and development of the institutions or services that are required in the area."

Each of the Health Systems Agencies will serve a specific geographic area. There are twelve HSA's for the entire State and each agency covers a large territory. Because of sparse populations in some areas of the State, there is wide variation in the number of people that each HSA serves. Humble says, "The HSA's range, in terms of population, from less than 300,000 all the way up to almost 3 million."

This concept supports and complements the Department's development of Public Health Regions, which has been in process since 1970, and is predicated upon the same reasoning. Eight Public Health Regions are currently in operation, two more will be activated in September of this year and an additional two are planned so that an ultimate total of twelve will exist and function within the same geographical areas as the Health Systems Agencies as required by Section 1.08, Texas H.B. 2164, 64th Legislature and P.L. 93-641.

All of the HSA's are organized along similar lines; several have been established by the existing Councils of Government. Each HSA has a governing body, or board of directors, and a professional staff. According to Humble, guidelines have been developed to ensure that the governing bodies include broad community representation. He explains, "The governing body will be comprised of at least 51 percent, but not more than 60 percent, consumers of health care. Of this body, one-third can be elected local public officials."

"The remaining members of the governing body—anywhere from 40 to 49 percent of the membership—will consist of providers of health care. These members typically would include physicians, nurses, dentists, hospital administrators, and others who are directly involved in providing health care services to the public."

With overall guidance from the Texas Department of Health Resources, the hope is that the newly-founded Health Systems Agencies throughout Texas will be able to ensure that someday every citizen will have ready access to the health services he or she needs.

Cajun Chili

Chili That's as French as France?

Ever long to be more peppery? Here's your chance to be just that . . . in the kitchen. A delightful cookbook, C'est si bon filled with endless variants of "Cajun" cooking as well as passed-down recipes has just appeared on our scene . . . and its Cajun Chili recipe has spice and delight in every mouthful. If you can get your hands on the Lou Ana cooking oil that is mentioned in the recipe you'll have a pure oil that came right from the farmer. Quite a feat in this day of chemical food additives!

CAJUN CHILI

- 3 large onions (chopped)
- 2 green peppers (chopped)
- 4 ribs celery (chopped)
- 1/2 cup Lou Ana oil
- 4 to 5 pounds ground meat
- 5 pieces minced garlic
- 1 quart water
- Salt to taste
- Black pepper
- 1 large can tomato paste
- 5 tablespoons paprika
- 4 tablespoons chili powder
- 1/8 teaspoon red pepper

Sauté onions, green pepper and celery in oil. Add meat and garlic and cook slightly (until greyish in color). To this mixture add water and cook fast for 15 minutes or until desired thickness. Add salt and pepper to taste. Add other ingredients and let simmer for about 30 minutes. This is best when allowed to "age"—make ahead and refrigerate or freeze.

O'Brien Sets Homecoming June 12-13

Plans are continuing for the 1976 O'Brien Homecoming scheduled for June 12, and 13, and officials expect a big turnout of ex-graduates, ex-teachers, and just ex-students.

This year's event will be "Jamboree Style" and on Saturday night, June 12, a night of fun is being planned. Those who attend are asked to "bring yourself and mate, your favorite instrument, and your singing voice and enthusiasm." Old fashioned singing, good music, a square dance exhibition, a joke or two, possibly skits, and a lot of good times are in store, a spokesman said.

Registration will begin at 2:00 p.m. Saturday at the school with class meetings, a chance to see and visit old school chums, and also coffee, tea, and refreshments. A short business meeting will be held prior to the 8:00 p.m. Jamboree.

Sunday, a catered noon meal consisting of chicken fried steak, baked potato, gravy, salad, green beans, Texas Toast, and pecan delight will be served and officials are hopeful that interested persons will note that the meal will be by advanced reservations only in order that the caterer will know approximately how many plates to prepare. Those wishing to make advanced reservations are urged to do so by clipping the form appearing in the O'Brien Homecoming ad elsewhere in this week's Free Press and mailing it to Mrs. Ruby B. Wilson, Box 391, Knox City, Texas 79529 by May 27.

FORT DAVIS OFFERS HISTORIC NOSTALGIA IN REFRESHING SETTING

On the eastern edge of the rugged, beautiful Davis Mountains in West Texas stands Fort Davis, a remarkably well-preserved frontier army post.

Fort Davis—since 1961 it has been Fort Davis National Historic Site—is situated on the route of the old Butterfield-Overland Trail, in the heart of what was once Apache and Comanche raiding country.

Today a visitor to the historic site can scarcely escape the feeling of loneliness and frustration, laughter and song, sorrow and tragedy, that must have pervaded old Fort Davis when it was occupied by infantry and cavalry troops between 1854 and 1891.

the styles of the era. And during the off-season the officer's home may be viewed by signing out a key. A number of self-guiding trails are located on the grounds. The North Ridge Trail joins the trail system of the Davis Mountains State Park which adjoins the fort grounds. While you're there, be sure to stand in the parade ground and listen to the haunting sounds of the recreation of an 1875 dress retreat parade. You can almost see the troops assembling and marching in review.

Girl Scout News

Brownie Girl Scouts grow so soon into Junior Girl Scouts! To help them prepare for Junior ways, the Program Committee of the West Texas Girl Scout Council, has given the 3rd grade Brownie troops of the Council the option to earn Brownie-sized badges. There are five this year: BE A DISCOVERER, BE A READY HELPER, SAFETY-WISE, BE A FRIEND-MAKER, and OUT-OF-DOORS.

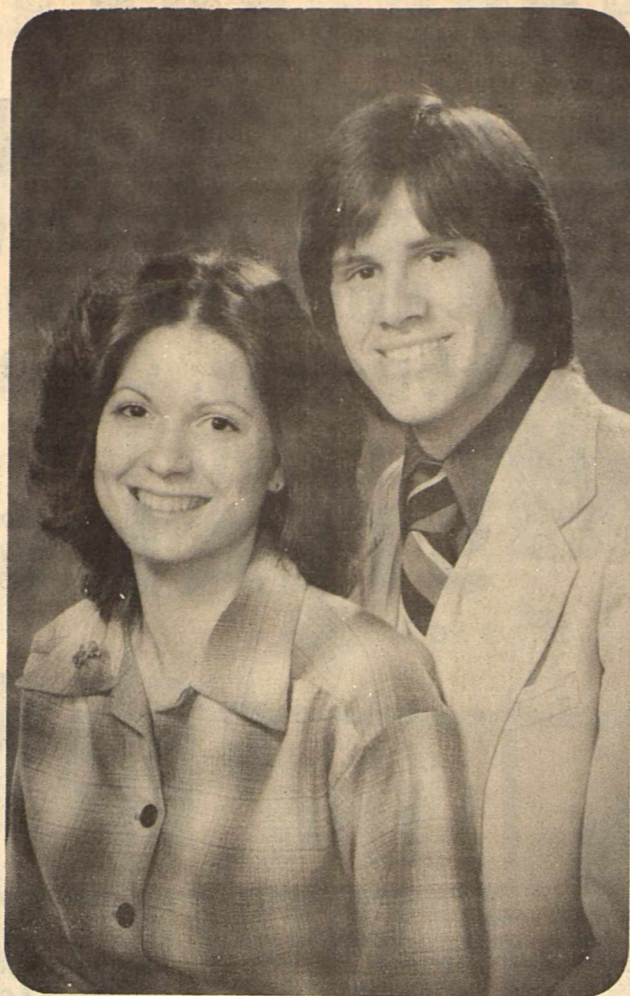

The Out-of-Doors Brownie Badge has as its purpose: to learn about the out doors and camping skills the Brownie will need as a Junior Scout. It was earned first by ten Brownies at Lamesa.

According to Brownie Troop 21 of Colorado City leader Ann Gregory, the first badge they earned, Be A Discoverer, was a lot of fun, especially doing Requirement #4. "We grew popcorn where it was visible between clear glass and paper towels; also beans, sweet potatoes, and flower seeds".

Most popular of the five Brownie Badges is Be A Ready Helper because the Scout enjoys doing things for her self and others. Brownie troops in Abilene, Big Spring, Merkel, Snyder, Sweetwater, Haskell and Roscoe have had fun playing hostess and helper.

Some troops have been working on all five badges including Troop 130 of Sweetwater, leader Mrs. Ron Mason; Troop 219 of Snyder, leader Mrs. Pearlina Stewart, and Troop 12 of Abilene, leader Mrs. B. D. Click.

Girls wear their badges on the right side of their Brownie uniform beneath troop numerals. As a Junior Girl Scout they may be transferred to the badge sash.

Roxie Parker returned home Saturday from a visit in Louisiana. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Ed Dzer of San Antonio, and they managed to crowd a lot of visiting and sightseeing into two weeks.

Among other things they attended Roxie's high school reunion (her first since she graduated 35 years ago) and visited her mother and sister in Shreveport.

A tour of plantation homes and historic spots in South Louisiana, plus stops in Acadian (Cajun) Country, was greatly enjoyed—and Roxie came home with a notebook filled with everything from recipes to ideas for making Haskell a mecca for tourists.

WASHINGTON

"As It Looks from Here!"
OMAR BURLESON
Congressman—17th District

WASHINGTON, D. C.—"THE ATTEMPT TO STEAL THE BICENTENNIAL" is the title of a report of a Senate Internal Security Subcommittee. The target of the Subcommittee's report is the "Peoples Bicentennial Commission".

THE "COMMISSION", despite the official sounding name, is not official at all. It is a private organization headed by left-wing radicals, who, according to witnesses before the Senate Subcommittee, have a $300,000 operation. The report says that this outfit has been more successful in reaching our churches, schools, and news media than has the official American Revolution Bicentennial Administration with $21 million in Federal funding.

A FIRST THOUGHT OCCURS that if this organization, with comparatively modest means, preaching further American revolution against the "establishment", including our capitalistic system, can be so effective, why can't the official Bicentennial with greater means do better? The conclusion seems to be that the Peoples Bicentennial Commission is cleverly operated in the big cities with propaganda outlets to reach great numbers of people. The official Bicentennial has a greater activity at grass-roots level. These people have evidently gone far on their cleverness and energy in sending out their materials by the ton. The report says that a series called "Voices of '76" sponsored by the Peoples Bicentennial Commission has been placed over 924 radio and 102 television stations across the Country. Seemingly, it has a number of gimmicks to serve some purposes or other, such as offering $25,000 to secretaries who inform on and get their high-ranking corporate bosses imprisoned for crime. It seems they have also circularized wives to suggest that they quiz their husbands about corporate morality.

THE HEARINGS HELD BY THE SENATE SUBCOMMITTEE producing this report have been criticized by some liberals as reverting to McCarthyism and not enough witnesses were brought before the Committee to really develop and substantiate all the allegations made in the report.

ON THE OTHER HAND, THE SUBCOMMITTEE in the introduction says that their conclusions are, "this heavily documented evidence establishes beyond challenge that the Peoples Bicentennial Commission is a far-left organization whose true views are far closer to those of Castro and Mao than they are to those of our founding fathers." They further say of this organization "Its participation in the Bicentennial is a deception and a fraud. By muscling in on the Bicentennial observance, it seeks first of all, to pervert its meaning and, secondly, to exploit it for the purpose of overthrowing our free society."

THE DOCUMENT'S INTRODUCTION WAS WRITTEN by Senator James O. Eastland, Chairman. He had this to say, "Peel back the patriotic veneer of the name, 'Peoples Bicentennial Commission' for the purpose of examining and laying before the Congress and the public, facts by which the legitimacy of this organization's publicly stated goals and objectives and the integrity of their spokesmen, may be objectively evaluated."

WHATEVER MAY BE THE CONCLUSION OF THE SUBCOMMITTEE'S REPORT, it is a rather strange operation that this official-sounding organization would attempt to divert attention to its own disguised radical aims from the American Revolution Bicentennial Administration.

WTR Needs More Equipment

West Texas Rehabilitation Center has been successful in its two-month drive to replenish its equipment stock but needs more help to help the handicapped persons who often cannot afford expensive wheelchairs and other necessary items.

James McBryde, shop supervisor at the 4601 Hartford Center in Abilene, said the drive has resulted in a hydraulic lift, six wheelchairs and a number of walkers and crutches being donated.

"We were about to the point of having to turn people away," McBryde said.

The Center now has close to 50 wheelchairs being used free of charge by handicapped persons who would not be able to afford to buy their own.

Included in the gifts, he said, were an electric wheelchair which costs about $1,000 and a child's wheelchair.

He said that some of the equipment still in use is getting old and wearing out.

An adult's wheelchair typically costs from $400 to $500.

Although many Big Country residents have received the benefit of the equipment, Abileneans have contributed most of the equipment in this drive, with the only donations outside the city coming from Snyder and Hamlin, McBryde said.

"The Center is in particular need of wheelchairs", he said.

You Are What You Eat

"What's the big idea?" In nutrition education there is only one big idea: "You are what you eat!" And soon 150 elementary students in 2nd and 5th grades will be learning about "Big Ideas" in nutrition following a Dairy Council, Inc. inservice training session for 7 Haskell ISD teachers. Teachers from Rule and Weintert also participated in the workshops.

The workshops, presented by Mrs. Nancy L. Smithson, nutrition consultant, Abilene, was held at the Haskell Elementary School through the cooperation of R. B. Jones, Principal. Mr. John McGaughey, Director of the Haskell-Knox Consortium in O'Brien was instrumental in arranging the workshop.

The structure of the Dairy Council, Inc.'s nutrition education program begins at the pre-school or kindergarten level. "The objective of the program at the 3-to-5 year old level," as Mrs. Smithson explained, is to enable the child to identify a variety of foods, to identify the foods in altered forms and to group foods into 10 broad food classes. Three sequenced lessons, taught with a set of 105 colorful plastic-coated food pictures, lay the groundwork for the next unit in second grade, "Balanced Meals."

The achievement level for the second-grader involves modifying his food classification system. In 10 lessons, the student learns to classify foods from his environment using the Four Food Group system; milk, meat, fruits, and vegetables, breads, and cereals. With this knowledge, he then proceeds to the selection of a balanced meal.

"The ultimate goal of the Dairy Council, Inc.'s program is to teach people to make wise food choices," Mrs. Smithson explained. And in the fifth grade, the student then learns to use the Four Food Group System to select foods which meet the minimum daily requirements.

As the fifth-grade teachers learned through the workshop objectives, identifying serving amounts, knowing the number of daily servings needed from each food group, and the ability to analyze one's daily food selections, must become an integral part of not only the elementary student's but everyone's daily eating habits.

Dairy Council, Inc. aims to not only train teachers in nutrition education programs for classroom use, but hopes to educate the community about nutrition. Mrs. Smithson emphasized the fact that the ideal time for introducing a child to nutrition education is at the initial onset of formal education.

Dairy Council, Inc., a non-profit, tax-exempt health and nutrition education organization, and a National Dairy Council affiliate, coordinates its seven-state, 19-office area in San Antonio, Texas. The program, carried out by a professional staff of 35 nutrition consultants and dietitians is totally supported by the area dairymen.

INTRODUCING . . .

TO SERVE YOU BETTER

Upon completion of your call to Haskell National Bank, the sweet little voice that usually answers, belongs to Janet Hannsz Strickland. Janet, and the new switchboard arrived almost simultaneously—and it is a real tribute to her tenacity, that she didn't leave. She began work Dec. 22, 1975, just in time for all the year-end horrors associated with banking—then had the new telephone system to learn in January of this year. She remains perfectly calm in the face of five blinking, (and beeping) outside lines—plus twenty inter-office extensions—all flashing at once. In addition to her switchboard duties, Janet is the receptionist, and helps keep the lobby traffic flowing smoothly. On her way to work each morning, she stops at the Post Office for the daily mail load, opens and distributes it to the various offices, and prepares the Bank-by-Mail deposits, and the direct deposit Social Security and Air Force transfers. She also makes the return trip to the Post Office in the afternoons. In her "spare time"—she helps with secretarial duties, assists customers in placing orders for personalized checks, and filling out applications for the Club.

Janet, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Hannsz of Haskell, is a graduate of Rule High School, and Draughtons Business College of Abilene. She has three children, Kevin, Kendall, and Kimla, all students in Haskell Elementary School. They reside at 1200 N. Ave. G and are members of First Baptist Church in Haskell.

Janet is an active member of Haskell Young Homemakers, and is a real asset to Haskell National Bank, and the community.

Haskell Bicentennial Happenings

By Roxie Parker

Realizing that there is nothing so boring as hearing about someone's "trip", unless it is having to view home movies of same, I am trying hard to refrain from telling you all about my recent travels!

But since time didn't permit me to get any "Haskell Happenings" after arriving home Saturday night, perhaps a little history pertaining to the American Revolution won't be too far off base. Even if it did take place in Louisiana!

Most everyone is aware that counties in Louisiana are called parishes and one of those in the southern part of the state is named West Feliciana.

In 1776 West Feliciana was a part of sparsely settled British West Florida; did you know that in 1763 West Florida became the Fourteenth Colony? We scarcely ever get past the original Thirteen in our thinking.

The settlers in the Fourteenth Colony were not concerned with unrest that plagued the other Colonies and were sort of lackadaisical in their attitude toward the Revolution.

But the young governor of Spanish Louisiana, when Spain joined France as an ally against England, went up the river and seized the fort at Baton Rouge almost before the British knew what was happening. West Florida then fell to Spain.

The West Feliciana Rebellion which successfully challenged Spanish rule in 1810 culminated in a 74-day republic over which flew the original Lone Star flag, known later as the Lone Star of Texas.

When the governor of the Louisiana Territory was sent to annex the tiny republic he marched up the hill to St. Francisville, lowered the Lone Star and raised the Stars and Stripes.

This bit of Revolutionary history I learned from the Pilgrimage booklet published by the West Feliciana Historical Society in St. Francisville.

The booklet bears the official American Revolution Bicentennial emblem and is filled with pictures and information concerning the 1976 Audubon Pilgrimage. Some of our readers have made these tours, held in the spring each year.

My daughter and I enjoyed visiting in West Feliciana Parish and touring several plantations and museums. Our motel in St. Francisville had special display rooms where all 435 of John James Audubon's prints, "Birds of America", may be viewed.

It was fun as we travelled over Louisiana, and later through East Texas to San Antonio, to see the Bicentennial emblem displayed and wonder what was being done in each of the communities and cities to celebrate our country's 200th birthday.

AUSTIN—A bill to create a state detective force has been introduced into the House. The force would include one captain, who would be paid $124 per month; eight sergeants, who would be paid $90 per month; and 100 men, each paid $80 per month. Members of the detective force would assist all peace officers throughout the state when called on to make arrests. The bill was referred to committee with instructions to report immediately.

WACO—Waco has shipped about 36,000 bales of cotton this season. More than a bale of cotton is often made to the acre on the river and creek bottoms and more than half a bale on the uplands. From 25 to 30 bushels of corn, from 30 to 50 bushels of barley or oats are the usual products of an acre.

FORT WORTH—There is reliable information that nine men were hung by a mob for horsestealing in Jack County last week and six in Erath. Two of those hanged in Jack County are said to have been innocent.

BROWN COUNTY—The government will begin to have all supplies, freights, etc. hauled over the new stage route from Concho to Dallas immediately. This route will be of immense benefit to the people of the towns which it passes.

FORT WORTH—The Fort Worth "Democratic Weekly" editor calls on the Tarrant County Construction company to build a grain elevator in Fort Worth. If the railroad reaches Fort Worth by the time designated, a grain elevator is a prime necessity. It will be expensive and burdensome to handle the wheat that will be brought hither for sale and shipment without an elevator.

SAN ANTONIO—A more substantial sewer should be constructed in the place of that which at present conveys the washing and impurities of the main market into the river. The water simply flows over loose earth and gravel, much of it being absorbed, which produces a constant stench in the locality of the market.

GALVESTON—One of the insane inmates of the county jail was released yesterday and sent to New Orleans. In the absence of any law to provide for the insane, Sheriff Jordan has decided to take the matter in his own hands until such time as the Legislature shall pass the necessary laws enabling the County Court to act.

HOUSTON—It is understood that the total property valuation of Houston now being made out by the city tax assessor and collector will not go beyond $7½ million, the assessments being cut down from those of 1875.

IRS News

DALLAS, TEXAS—Over one million tax refund checks averaging $367.42 have been mailed out to North Texans this year, but IRS district director A. W. McCannless reminded taxpayers today that the receipt of a refund check is no guarantee that the IRS won't audit the tax return at a later date.

"A refund check only means the initial processing of the returns has been completed," McCannless said. "Checking the returns is time consuming, and an audit may not take place until several months after the refund check arrives."

A federal tax return can be audited at any time before the statute of limitations expires. The statute of limitations is generally three years from the date the return is filed.

The IRS suggests that taxpayers keep their financial records for at least as long as the statute of limitations is running. Complete and orderly records can help to substantiate income and expense items and itemized deductions if the return is eventually audited.

Some records, such as those concerning the sale or purchase of real estate, should be kept indefinitely.

For more information on recordkeeping requirements, North Texas taxpayers can call the IRS toll-free at 800-492-4830 and request a free copy of IRS Publication 552, "Recordkeeping Requirements and a Guide to Tax Publications."

The Speaker Reports

by Bill Clayton

AUSTIN—During the past week in Austin the three House committees involved in seeking out ways to put the brakes on runaway gas prices in the State had the opportunity to fill in the gaps in their information about the price our consumers are having to pay.

We received a great deal of information from a great number of people involved in all aspects of the situation.

Among those providing us with information were spokesmen for consumer organizations, farmers and ranchers and rural electric cooperatives. Likewise we heard what the petrochemical industry, the gas service companies and the pipeline transmission companies had to say.

Wildcat producers, independent producers, oil and gas associations, major companies and royalty owners were also heard.

The Public Utilities Commission, the Governor's Energy Advisory Council, scientists and a liberal sprinkling of other interested parties were heard over a three day period.

As the hearings began, I asked the 30 lawmakers who were involved to keep in mind that anything less than a 10 per cent reduction in customer utility bills would be of no consequence.

I reiterated that when we decide on a course of action that we must provide substantial benefits to the consumer, but we must not erode the State's tax base nor must our proposals have the effect of reducing exploration and expansion of the gas industry.

There is no doubt that we now have a most substantial bloc of information on the natural gas situation in Texas. Through the remainder of May our committees will be including this information into the data they previously gathered. I have asked for a report and recommendations from each committee by early June.

With the cumulative information we will then be in a position to determine if we have enough meat to warrant asking for a special legislative session.

The facts we were presented by many of those testifying at the hearings had a sobering effect on those who would like to roll back natural gas prices. I think the message we got was that cheap energy has become an extinct species.

We can't resurrect that corpse. What we in the Legislature are trying to do is put a sharp pencil to the bottom line of utility costs and use every means we have to help our citizens pay the price that is going to have to be paid.

I reiterated that when we

It's time your family stopped being just "Smith Harold" in the telephone directory.

The new edition of your telephone directory is going to press soon.

If you have only a single listing, a lot of people are going to have trouble looking up other members of your family.

Certainly, your wife deserves her own listing. And giving a teen-ager a place in the directory is a nice way of saying "You're growing up."

To add or change a listing just call our business office. They can tell you how little extra an additional listing will cost.

It's as easy as picking up the phone.

FLEET OF FOOT

Rule sent five participants to the state meet in Austin, last Saturday, May 15, and placed fifth in the state track meet, tying with Mozell, with twenty points.

Ricky Kittley placed fourth in the 880 yd run with a time of 2:02.3. Wes Kittley placed fourth in the 440 yd dash with a time of 49.9, and the mile relay team of Robert Ortiz, Charles Threet, Ricky and Wes Kittley, placed third with the time of 3:27.1. Alternate was Paul Flores. All these boys will be back next year and are looking for a return to the state meet. With a state as large as Texas, it is an honor for a boy to get to go to state, with the competition he has to overcome. Track is hard work and many times it boils down to an individuals personal effort. Congratulations boys, you represented your school well.

Charles, a junior, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Threet. Robert, a freshman, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gavino Ortiz, Paul, a junior is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Flores. THE BIG ONE FOR DRY COUNTRY

IT'S DEPENDABLE

Dependable yields of consistently high quality fiber even in drought years. That's what made LX 571 a long time favorite with farmers here about. And it's nice to know that you don't have to give up something else for drought resistance. Farmers appreciate the good grain turn-out of fairly long staple fiber which makes in the premium range under normal conditions.

At maturity you'll like the looks of LX 571's storm resistant bolls and at harvest you'll appreciate how well it strips one-time-over.

LX 571 along with other Lankart varieties account for half the cotton planted in the Abilene Cladding Office territory... strong testimony from people who know how to grow cotton in this area. If you think this might be a dry year

CHECK THESE CHARACTERISTICS:

- Good dryland cotton
- Good root system for drought resistance
- Top yields
- Good gin turn-out
- Medium early maturity
- Storm resistant bolls
- Excellent stripper variety
- Well-adapted to one-time-over harvesting
- Staple length in the 1" and longer range
- Micronaire in the premium range (under normal growing conditions)

CHECK THESE RESULTS:

• Jones County (Tx)
In a strip test reported by the County Agent in 1973 LX 571 (Lankart) produced 53 lbs. more lint per acre than the average of 11 varieties in the test—18% above the average yield.

• Foard County (Tx)
In a dryland cotton variety test conducted by the County Agent, LX 571 produced 367 lbs. lint per acre. There were 11 cotton varieties in the test and LX 571 produced 137 lbs. more lint per acre than the average of all these varieties.

• Knox County (Tx)
In a 1973 cotton variety demonstration on dryland conducted by the County Agent, LX 571 (Lankart) produced 455 lbs. lint per acre which was 40 lbs. more than the only competitive variety in the test.

If you raise dryland cotton in this area where drought is a threat, go with LX 571 this year. You can get Lankart LX 571 from your ginner.

The following is the procedure for taking a water sample:

Unless the sample is collected in a sterile bottle and every precaution is taken to prevent accidental contamination.

Three. Mrs. Exa Lott has returned home from Fort Worth, where she had been visiting her grandson and family for two weeks, Mr. and Mrs. Dan R. Williams and also with Mrs. Don Lott.

Mrs. W. C. Camp returned home after a weeks visit with her daughter in Abilene, Mrs. Odessa Hatfield and Jerry.

ation, the results of a bacteriological examination are meaningless. The following should be observed carefully:

1. Samples should be submitted only from properly constructed water systems. Water systems should be constructed in such a manner as to prevent the entrance of dust, insects, snakes, small animals, surface drainage, pump packing gland leakage, etc. Laboratory examinations in most instances will reveal the presence of contamination in samples collected from streams, ponds, unprotected springs, open storage tanks, unsealed wells, wells equipped with rope and bucket or pumps which require priming. When new wells are constructed, when existing wells or tanks are cleaned, when repairs are made to well pumps, or when the piping system is altered or repaired, the system should be chlorinated to remove contamination which may have entered during construction or repairs.

2. The faucet or water tap should be flamed with a blow torch, alcohol lamp, or other flaming device.

3. After flaming, the water should be allowed to run freely for several minutes.

4. Carefully unwrap the bottle which has been furnished by the laboratory for collecting the sample. Grasp the bottle cap carefully and avoid touching the neck of the bottle. Carefully unscrew the top, removing without touching the lip of the bottle to anything which might introduce contamination. Fill the container with the water to be tested and carefully replace the cap. The fingers, or any other object, should not be permitted to come in contact with either the insides of the cap or the lip of the bottle at any time.

5. The identification slip accompany the bottle should be completed with as much detailed information as possible, using a soft lead pencil to permit reproduction of the laboratory report. Wrap the identification slip in the paper furnished. Mail the sample immediately to the laboratory chosen to do the test. Specimens submitted without completed identification slips, samples containing less than three ounces of water, and samples submitted in bottles other than those furnished by the laboratory will not be examined.

6. Samples should arrive at the laboratory within 48 hours after collection.

7. Water samples should not be collected from faucets which have leaky washers, vertical pipes, drinking fountains, rubber hose or other places which cannot be properly sterilized.

Mail Water Samples to: Abilene Taylor County Health Dept., 2241 S. 19th, Abilene, Texas 79605.

Farm Bureau News

A Texas Farm Bureau spokesman told a legislative hearing Tuesday that "irrigation farmers face a major and immediate problem with the supply and price of natural gas to fuel their irrigation pumps."

TFB State Affairs Director Pat Smith testified before a joint hearing of subcommittees of the Ways and Means and State Affairs committees of the Texas House. The May 11-13 hearing received testimony from a number of groups on energy resources.

The Texas Farm Bureau offered recommendations for both short-range and long-range solutions to the natural gas situation.

"The long-range solution for adequate supplies of energy at fair and reasonable prices is immediate return to the market system with a minimum of government intervention," Smith said.

"Many of our problems are a direct result of impractical, inefficient interference by government regulations, particularly the federal regulations," the Farm Bureau spokesman said. "These interventions has created shortages, unfair and unequal prices, and must be dismantled."

The TFB legislative representative said that agriculture has major short-range problems that require immediate solution.

"The plight of the irrigation farmer is most severe and immediate," he said. "More than three-fourth of all irrigation pumps in Texas are powered by natural gas. Change to other fuels such as diesel and electricity is impractical because of cost of conversion and shortages of these sources of power," he said.

Smith said that Texas users of natural gas for irrigation are paying a much higher price for gas at the well-head than out-of-state users. He said prices have increased in many instances from 300 to 500 percent in one year.

Other long-range solutions, Smith said, include research programs, relief from unrealistic environmental standards, and preservation of natural gas supplies for making fertilizer.

One short-range solution, he said, would be state legislation "to correct inequities" of taxes between intra-state and inter-state gas.

"We believe natural gas should be taxed at the well-head on a unit basis rather than a dollar basis," he said.

Other short-range recommendations included possibility of relief through courts of inequities between Texas prices and inter-state prices, and maintenance of agriculture priorities in any allocation program.

Smith said the increased prices for natural gas are particularly bad for agriculture because farmers cannot pass along the higher costs to consumers.

"Unless some solutions are found, there will be a large number of irrigation farmers that will discontinue or significantly alter their operations," he said.
