chairman, and Bo Owens, president of the Jaycees. The ones in jail had to buy a shaving permit before they were released. The Beard growing contest is in conjunction with the Wild West Show slated to be here June 25-26. This is a Bicentennial program. (Staff Photo)

BICENTENNIAL HAPPENINGS

Arts And Crafts Show Set

The Arts and Crafts Show and Sale is slated for July 2nd and 3rd at the Haskell County Fair Grounds and interest is really building in this phase of our Bicentennial celebration. Booths are available to individuals, organizations and businesses and those wishing information may call Eunice Helweg at 864-3041.

The four divisions and their chairmen are: Arts, Eunice Helweg and Gladys O'Neal; Crafts, Paula Everett and Mollie Moeller; Needlework, Alice Yates and Erlinda Mayfield; and Youth, Glenda Drinnon and Nelda Lane.

Everyone is invited to bring their handiwork, whether it be Tole painting, Macrame, Pastels and Oil Painting, Drawings, Photographs or whatever. There will also be home baked goodies for sale and church and club groups are being encouraged to participate by having food booths.

We have made several Arts and Crafts shows in Abilene's Civic Center and nothing beats it for a crowd-getter! There are some really fine artists and craftsmen in the Big Country and those planning our show are hoping many of them will be here to display their work. Information sheets have been printed and placed in area schools and places of business and the word has really been getting around.

Of course Haskell County has some excellent artists, including Anita Herren, Florence Larned, and many, many more. If you paint, if you quilt, if you have created something especially for the Bicentennial, whatever it is, there is a place for you.

Young people, Senior Citizens, and everyone in between, here is your chance! The Exhibit building at the Fair Grounds is the perfect place for the show, with the older section for the displays, and the newer section for the booths for show and sale.

Mrs. Helweg emphasized that this is a show for everyone; there will be no judging and awards but simply a fun time for us to view each other's workmanship and enjoy, enjoy! And if we want to buy, so much the better! Paul Williams has already put in his order for something special, a calico cat, from Mrs. David Davis, one of the local talented ladies who is known for her crafts work!

One group with a booth already reserved is the Rice Springs care Home residents who do needlework and paintings.

Also, in the Youth division, there will be Bicentennial notebooks, themes, essays, scrapbooks, and all young people throughout the area are being encouraged to bring these, as well as needlework and other art work, to be placed on display.

Only a month away, so you amateurs and professionals set your sights on July 2nd and 3rd and call one of these ladies in charge to reserve a booth for sale or a space for display. It is expected that this year's celebration will bring many families together; one lady I talked to said she is expecting her three grandchildren to stay with her so they can get in on all we will be doing for this once-in-a-lifetime Bicentennial Party.

Rotarian Convention June 13-17

Some 200 Rotarians from 41 clubs in District 579 will be in New Orleans, La., June 13-17, for the 67th annual convention of Rotary International.

More than 15,000 Rotarians and their guests from nearly 100 countries are expected to attend. This year's convention theme is "Preserving the Future."

Leading the delegation from this area will be District Governor Joe B. Rushing, Chancellor of Tarrant County Junior College District, Dr. Rushing's tenure as District Governor will end July 1 when Claude Hicks, a member of the Rotary Club of Abilene, takes office as District Governor. Dr. Arthur Zappe, a member of the Rotary Club of Mineral Wells, is District Governor-Elect.

Rotary International is an association of 16,750 Rotary Clubs throughout the world. Rotary is comprised of more than 750,000 service-minded, professional leaders in 151 countries.

Utilizing Louisiana's storied Superdome, Rotarians will hear their Brazilian President, Ernesto Imbassahy de Mello; United Nations Secretary, General Kurt Waldheim; noted Italian futurist, Dr. Aurelio Peccei, co-founder of the Rotary Club of Rome; Dr. Misael Pastrana Borrero, former president of the Republic of Colombia, and the Most Rev. Philip N. Hannan, Archbishop of New Orleans.

Other convention highlights will include special presentations on World Community Service, Rotary's multi-national assistance program, and the Rotary Foundation, which this year has provided overseas study awards to 1,254 young men and women, participants at the convention will meet in idea exchange sessions to discuss better ways to serve their communities through Rotary. Vocational craft assemblies, forums for discussion of business ethics, will be another convention feature.

Entertainment will include a tribute to the U. S. Bicentennial, plus jazz trumpet master Al Hirt and vocalist Edie Adams. Many social events also are planned, including international dinners, the president's ball and similar activities.

Registration Set For VRJC

Registration for the first summer session at Vernon Regional Junior College will be held on May 31 in the Student Union Building on campus.

Registration will be from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and 4:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. and classes will begin June 1. The last day of late registration and schedule changes will be June 3.

Registration for the second summer session will be July 9 with classes beginning July 12.

Vernon Regional Junior College is offering both morning and evening classes during each summer session, which affords the student the opportunity to earn as many as fourteen semester hours during the two summer sessions.

Workshop At HSU June 21

A three-week science and mathematics workshop for teachers in early childhood education will be held at Hardin-Simmons University from June 21-July 7.

The workshop is designed especially for those presently teaching pre-kindergarten, kindergarten, and early primary grades, according to Dr. Esther Plank, professor in education at H-SU.

"The course should be of special interest to those who are seeking endorsement on a teaching certificate for kindergarten," Dr. Plank said. The course can be taken for graduate credit or by seniors for undergraduate credit.

Three semester hours of credit can be earned during the three weeks. Classes will meet each morning Monday through Friday from 8-12:30. This includes a laboratory period, in which students will work with 20 children from 4½-6 years old. H-SU's model kindergarten facility in Abilene Hall will be used.

Dr. Plank said a balanced program is being planned for the children each day from 9-11:30 a.m. Emphasis will be on activities implementing science and mathematical concepts appropriate for the children attending.

Dr. Plank said those taking the workshop will study ways of individualizing learning for children in math and science, develop learning centers focusing on one or both the areas, prepare a collection of mathematical and scientific activities appropriate for young children, take field trips, and have opportunities to consult with specialists in early childhood education.

NEW CITY ORDINANCE
Elsewhere in the Free Press today is a copy of the new Room Occupancy Tax. There has been some discussion about this tax. The Ordinance will clarify any questions a person might have about this new Ordinance.

Band Students Attend State Meet

The Texas State Solo-Ensemble Contest was held in Austin May 29-31. The Haskell Indian Band was well represented at the meet on Monday, May 31, 1976. Those participating and their ratings were: the twirling ensemble of Lisa McBroom, Christie McAdams, Kim Drinnon, and Jill Adkins, I rating and a medal each; and the twirling ensemble of Cindy Ivey, Patricia Arredondo, and Vickie Bledsoe, I rating and a medal each. Twirling solos were Lisa McBroom, II rating and a medal; Jill Adkins, II rating and a medal; Christie McAdams and Kim Drinnon, IV ratings; Cindy Ivey, III rating; Rosemary Kimbrough played a French horn solo and received a III rating. Connie Frierson played a bass clarinet solo and received a III rating. Jo Ann Dean accompanied Connie and Rosemary on their solos.

The students were accompanied to Austin by their band director, Wendell Gideon and his wife, Betty, Mrs. Anna Kimbrough, and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McBroom.

NOTICE

Dr. David Ballard of Stamford will be at the Fair Grounds Friday, June 4 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. to vaccinate all dogs and cats for rabies.

Weinert FHA Sponsored Bike-Hike

The Weinert FHA sponsored a Bike-Hike for the Texas Association for Retarded Citizens. The individual who collected the most money was Tammy Herricks, Clayton Pannell was second, and Deb Robertson was third.

The Weinert FHA would like to express our appreciation to the merchants and individuals who pledged money to sponsor the riders on the Bike-Hike. The total amount collected was $954.29. We thank you for your donations to this very worthy association.

Election Set For Sat. June 5

June 5 will be election day in Haskell again, only this time there will be no local candidates on the ballot. The Second Primary will be the run off for the office of Texas Railroad Commission. Candidates are Jon Newton and Jerry Sadler.

The other race is for Court of Criminal Appeals (unexpired Term). W. T. Phillips and Carl Dally are in that race.

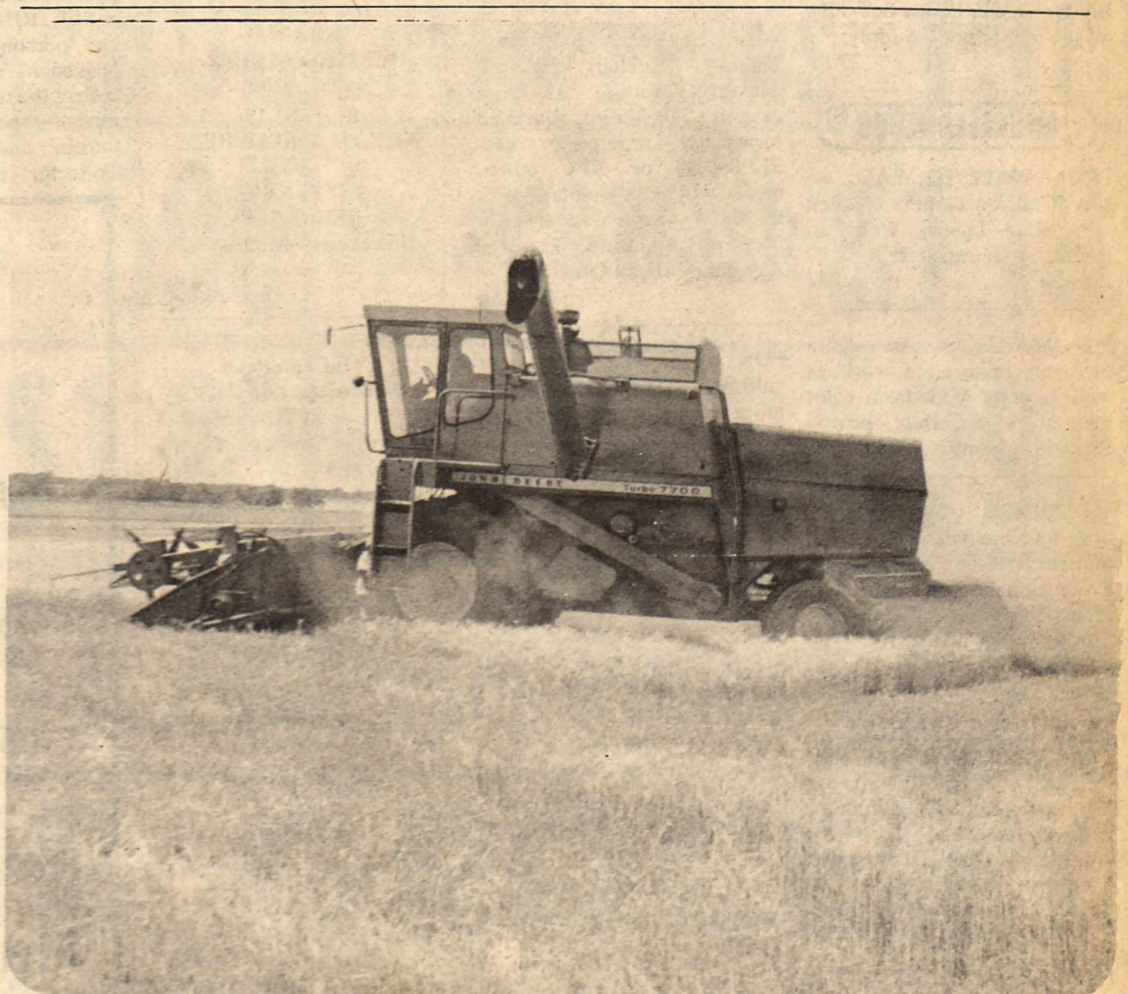

Haskell had a record turnout in the First Primary, with 3000 voters going to the polls. Be sure to cast your vote Saturday, June 5.

LEGAL NOTICES

CITY ORDINANCE AN ORDINANCE PROVIDING FOR THE ASSESSMENT AND COLLECTION OF A ROOM OCCUPANCY TAX; PROVIDING FOR CERTAIN EXEMPTIONS; PROVIDING FOR AN EFFECTIVE DATE; MAKING VIOLATIONS A MISDEMEANOR PUNISHABLE BY A FINE NOT EXCEEDING $200.00; PROVIDING A SEVERANCE CLAUSE; PROVIDING FOR PUBLICATION; AND DECLARING AN EMERGENCY. WHEREAS, the City Council has deemed it expedient to levy a room occupancy tax at this time; NOW THEREFORE,

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY OF HASKELL, TEXAS: SECTION 1. Definitions: The following words, terms and phrases for the purpose of this ordinance, except where the context clearly indicates another meaning, are respectively defined as follows:

A. Hotel: To mean any building or buildings, trailer, or facility in which a member or members of the public may, for a consideration, obtain sleeping accommodations. The term shall include hotels, motels, tourist homes, houses or courts, lodging houses, inns, rooming houses, trailer houses, trailer motels, dormitory space (regardless of whether the bed space is rented to individuals or groups), apartments and all other facilities where rooms or sleeping facilities or space are furnished for a consideration. The term "hotel" shall not include so as to include hospitals, sanitariums or nursing homes.

B. Consideration: Shall mean the cost of the room, sleeping space, bed or dormitory space or other facility in such hotel and shall not include the cost of any food served or personal services rendered to the occupant not related to cleaning and reading such room for occupancy and shall not include any tax assessed for occupancy therefor by any other governmental agency.

C. Occupancy: Shall mean the use or possession or the right to the use or possession of any room, space or sleeping facility in a hotel for any purpose.

D. Occupant: Shall mean anyone, who, for a consideration, uses, possesses, or has a right to use or possess any room or rooms of sleeping space or facility in a hotel under any lease, concession, permit, right of access, license, contract, or agreement.

E. Person: Shall mean any individual, company, corporation, or association owning, operating, managing or controlling any hotel.

F. Tax Assessor and Collector:

Shall mean the Tax Assessor and Collector of the City of Haskell, Texas.

G. Monthly Period: Shall mean the regular calendar month of the year.

H. Permanent Resident: Shall mean any occupant who has or shall have the right to occupancy of any room or rooms or sleeping space or facility in a hotel for at least thirty (30) consecutive days during the current calendar year or preceding year.

SECTION 2: Levy of Tax; Rate; Exception.

A. There is hereby levied a tax upon the cost of occupancy of any room or space furnished by any hotel where such cost of occupancy is at the rate of Two Dollars ($2.00) or more per day, such tax to be equal to Three Percent (3%) of the consideration paid by the occupant of such room, space, or facility to such hotel, exclusive of other occupancy taxes imposed by other governmental agencies.

B. No tax shall be imposed hereunder upon a permanent resident.

C. No tax shall be imposed hereunder upon a corporation or association organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, or education purposes, no part of the net earning of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual.

SECTION 3: Collection: Every person owning, operating, managing or controlling any hotel shall collect the tax imposed in Section 2 hereof for the City of Haskell.

SECTION 4: Reports: On the last day of the month following each quarterly period, every person required hereby to collect the tax imposed by this Section shall file a report with the Tax Collector showing the consideration paid for all room occupancies in the preceding quarter, the amount of tax collected on the City's behalf on such occupancies, and other information as the Tax Collector may reasonably require. Such person shall pay over the tax due on such occupancies at the time of filing such report. There shall also be furnished to the Tax Collector of the City of Haskell at the time of payment of such tax, a copy of the Quarterly Tax Report filed with the State Comptroller in connection with the State of Texas Hotel Occupancy Tax.

SECTION 5: Rules and Regulations—The Tax Collector shall have the power to make such rules and regulations as are necessary to effectively collect the tax levied herein, and shall upon reasonable notice have access to books and records necessary to enable him to determine the correctness of any report filed as required by this Chapter and the amount of taxes due under the provisions of this Chapter.

SECTION 6: Violations—If any person required by the provisions of this Chapter to collect the tax imposed herein, make reports as required herein, and pay to the Tax Collector the tax imposed herein, shall fail to collect such tax, shall fail to file such report, or shall fail to pay such tax, or if such person files a false report, such person shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine not to exceed $200.00.

SECTION 7: Penalties: If any person shall fail to file a report herein or shall fail to pay to the Tax Collector the tax as imposed herein when said report or payment is due, he shall forfeit five per cent (5%) of the amount due as a penalty, and after the first (30) days he shall forfeit an additional five per cent (5%) of such tax. Provided, however, that the penalty shall never be less than One Dollar ($1.00). Delinquent taxes shall draw interest at the rate of six per cent (6%) per annum beginning sixty (60) days from the date due.

SECTION 8: Effective Date This ordinance shall be and become effective on and after July 1, 1976.

SECTION 9: If for any reason any section, paragraph, subdivision, clause, phrase, or provision of this ordinance shall be held invalid, it shall not affect any valid provision of this or any other ordinance of the City of Haskell to which these rules and regulations relate.

SECTION 10: Publication shall be made one time in the Haskell Free Press, the official publication of the City of Haskell, which publication shall contain the caption stating in substance the purpose of the ordinance.

INTRODUCED AND PASSED BY THE CITY COUNCIL of the City of Haskell, Texas on First Reading the 11th day of May, 1976; and PASSED on Second and Final Reading this 25th day of May, 1976.

J. Belton Duncan Mayor

Texas Taxes

By BOB BULLOCK, State Comptroller

AUSTIN We are operating highway roadblocks in South Texas these days to spot check truck operators for proof they are paying the 6.5 cents per gallon Texas tax on the diesel fuel used to power their big rigs.

The roadblocks are paying off for Texas taxpayers. The first five days we operated the road blocks, we recorded 287 violations of motor fuel tax laws and collected $83,000 in motor fuel taxes that otherwise would have been lost.

Some of the truckers at first didn't want to take us seriously when we asked them to fork over the taxes they owed on the fuel they used in Texas. But, after we impounded 28 trucks, their owners got the message. All of those trucks were, of course, released once the taxes owed the state were paid.

I hope the message filters out among out-of-state truck operators that the Comptroller's Office intends to enforce the law requiring them to pay taxes on fuel used in this state. In case the message isn't clear yet, we are continuing the roadblock checks.

What we are discovering is that a lot of truckers haul cargoes into Texas and try to evade the diesel fuel tax by filling up their truck tanks before they cross the border into Texas. Some others have been bringing cargoes into Texas from points in Mexico where they fuel their trucks with diesel at much lower prices than they would pay Texas fuel dealers who collect the 6.5 cent per gallon diesel fuel tax.

We aren't harassing these truckers. We are trying to insure that everyone who operates one of those big truck rigs in Texas complies with the law the Comptroller is charged with enforcing. We simply want everybody to be treated the same when it comes to paying taxes.

There are two ways interstate truckers can comply with Texas law, as most of them probably do.

First, a trucker who will only make three or fewer trips per year into Texas can obtain a "Trip Permit" by mailing a money order or a certified check to the Fuels Tax Division, Comptroller of Public Accounts, Austin, for the amount computed by multiplying the total fuel tank capacity of the truck times 6.5 cents -- the tax due on each gallon of diesel fuel used in Texas.

The trucker should also have in the cab invoices covering the diesel in his fuel tanks at the time he is stopped for a check -- if he is stopped. The invoices should include the truck mileage at the time the vehicle was fueled.

The second alternative, required of truckers who travel in Texas more than three times a year is an "Interstate Trucker Permit". The permit must be obtained from the Fuels Tax Division and a $500 bond posted. Under this system a trucker must file quarterly reports with the Fuels Tax Division, paying tax only on fuel used in Texas.

If fuel is purchased outside Texas and used inside the state, tax will be owed at the rate of 6.5 cents per gallon. If, however, more fuel is purchased in Texas and used out of state, tax credit will be earned by the trucker. The tax credit, again computed at the rate of 6.5 cents per gallon, is refundable in cash or the trucker may apply it as a credit on future quarterly reports.

If a truck is based in Texas and it travels only in Texas, and if all records concerning the truck are maintained in Texas, no permit of any kind is required, but the tax still must be paid, and an invoice for the last fuel purchased must be carried.

IF YOU HAVE ANY STATE TAX PROBLEMS OR QUESTIONS, CONTACT YOUR LOCAL COMPTROLLER'S FIELD OFFICE OR CALL TOLL-FREE: 1-800-292-9687.

Reminder To Young People

Washington, D. C.—Congressman Omar Burleson reminds young persons who are interested in competing for nominations to the service academies, for the class entering July 1977, he uses a competitive method of selection so that all young persons who meet the necessary requirements may be considered.

The service academies are the Naval Academy at Annapolis, Maryland; the Military Academy at West Point, New York; the Air Force Academy near Colorado Springs, Colorado; and the Merchant Marine Academy at Kings Point, New York. These institutions offer a fine education and a great opportunity for service to their country by young persons who wish to follow a military career.

In order for Congressman Burleson to consider applicants, a candidate must meet these requirements: (1) Must be a U. S. citizen; (2) Must be over 17 and a legal resident of the 17th Congressional District; (3) Must be under 22 years of age on July 1, 1977; (4) Must never have been married; (5) Must be physically fit, including excellent eyesight; (6) Must have a good high school record.

Burleson stresses that political influence is not a factor in his nominations to the Academies. The important thing is not who you know but what you are.

Interested young persons who meet the above requirements should write Congressman Omar Burleson, House of Representatives, Washington, D.C. 20515, no later than July 16. Examinations will then be scheduled as a rating device to set up slates for nomination. The competition is kept by Congressman Burleson wants to assure that all young persons who are interested in a military career may have an opportunity to compete for nomination.

Drinnon Toliver Wed May 30

Leesa Ann Drinnon and Brian Burton Toliver were united in marriage Sunday, May 30, at 3 p.m. at the First Baptist Church.

Mrs. Kenneth Lane, organist and Miss Lynn Bragg, pianist, accompanied. Mrs. Doyle High sang "Wedding Song" and "Lord's Prayer."

The double ring ceremony was read by Rev. Dudley Bragg, pastor of the First Baptist Church. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Cleatus W. Drinnon.

The archway was decorated with mixed spring flowers and greenery, with baskets of mixed spring flowers, and baskets of greenery in the church.

Maid of honor was Sharla Drinnon, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Rosemary Kimbrough and Cindy Thomas. Melissa Davis, cousin of the bride, was flower girl and ring bearer was Jerry Davis, cousin of the bride.

Best man was Michael Turner, and groomsmen were Calvin Wilfong, and George Brown. Ushers were Jeff Teague and Les Lane.

The bride wore a long white gown of organza and lace. The fitted bodice was overlaid with Alencon lace and scattered pearls. Appliques of lace were repeated on the skirt and sleeves. The hem was outlined in scalloped lace with pearls and a detachable tubular train that was Chapel length. Her mini camelot cap with lace held her long veil.

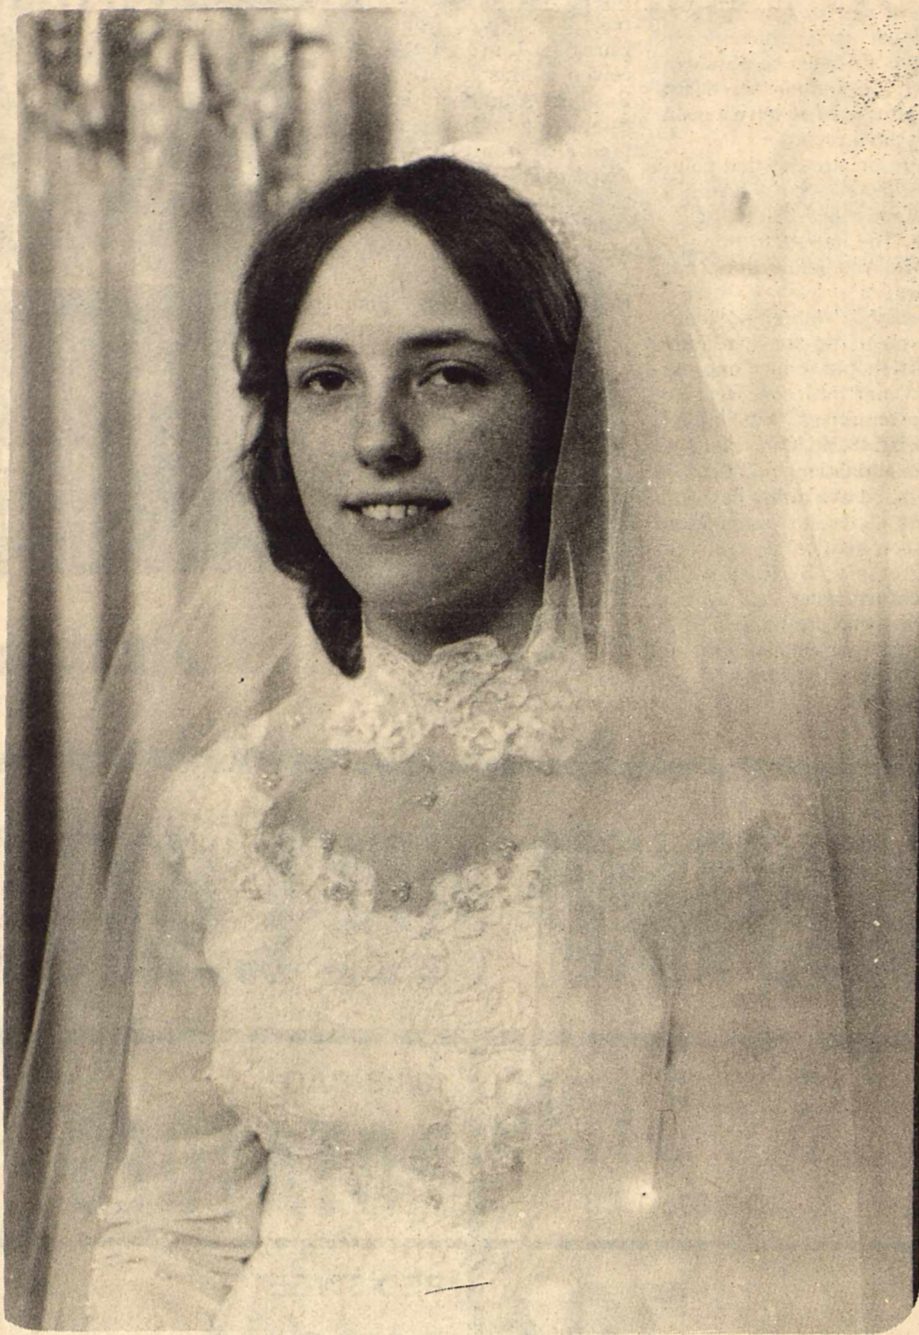

Her maids wore long dresses in white embroidered eyelette, with empire bodice. The V neckline had a tiny collar edged in eyelette ruffle and bow. The eyelette ruffle was repeated on the edge of the sleeves and the hem. They wore white picture hats of horse hair with white satin ribbon and streamers. Flower girl wore white eyelette long dress with a white satin bow streamer in her hair. The ring bearer was dressed in a baby blue tuxedo and carried a silver tray with a small satin pillow for the rings.

For something old the bride wore the gold wedding band belonging to Mrs. R. D. Lackey, the bride's great-grandmother.

For something borrowed, the bride wore diamond earrings belonging to her sister, Sharla Drinnon.

Traditional blue garter was worn by the bride. The bride carried a lace handkerchief from Belgium belonging to the groom's mother.

The rehearsal dinner was

MRS. BRIAN TOLIVER
...nee Leesa Ann Drinnon

hosted by the grooms parents in the backyard of their home.

The groom and attendants were attired in baby blue tuxedos.

A reception followed the ceremony in the First Baptist Church. Assisting with the reception were Mrs. Bill Reeves and Mrs. Mike Harrell of Houston, aunts of the bride and Mrs. Ken Lane and Mrs. Abe Turner.

The grooms table was covered with Maderia cloth of ecru linen, and flower girls baskets of mixed flowers, with chocolate cake, with silver appointments. Serving were Miss Lee Ann Toliver, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Stephen Drinnon, sister-in-law of the bride.

The brides table had a three tiered cake and crystal appointments, it was decorated with a white satin and net bridal tablecloth and it was decorated with the bride's and bridesmaid's flowers. Serving were Miss Debbie Stubblefield and Miss Teresa Carter. Miss Kem Kemp registered guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cleatus W. Drinnon and the grooms parents are Mr. and Mrs. Bailey Toliver.

The couple will live at 2903 3rd Place, Apt. D-6, Lubbock, Texas, where he will attend Texas Tech.

LINGERIE SHOWER

Leesa Drinnon, bride-elect of Brian Toliver was honored with a lingerie shower in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lane on Wednesday night, May 26th.

Each guest had attached to her gift items of food to represent her initials. The honoree then had to guess from these items who had given her each present.

Refreshments of punch and cookies were served from a white clothed table decorated with red candles and a basket of greenery.

The guests then helped the bride make the rice bags for her wedding.

Hostesses for the event were Mrs. Kenneth Lane and Mrs. Jimmy Turner.

LUNCHEON

The families and wedding party of Leesa Drinnon and Brian Toliver were honored with a luncheon in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Cadenhead Jr. on Sunday, May 30th.

Hosts and hostesses for the event were: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Herren, Mr. and Mrs. Jerf Jetton, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Herren, Mr. and Mrs. Abe Turner, Rev. and Mrs. Dudley Bragg, and Dr. and Mrs. Frank Cadenhead Jr.

POUNDING

Leesa Drinnon and Brian Toliver were honored with an old fashioned pounding in the backyard of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Abe Turner.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served from a table decorated with a yellow checked cloth and a pot of yellow chrysanthemums.

The hosts and hostesses for the event were: Mr. and Mrs. Abe Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Lane, Mr. and Mrs. Duane Gilly, and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Richardson.

HYH Club Last Meeting Of Year

The Haskell Chapter of Young Homemakers met Monday May 17th. Members joined together at the Home-making Cottage to form car pools for their progressive dinner.

The first stop was at the home of Mrs. Bill Blakely where the appetizer was served. Different types of salads and juices were served by Mrs. Blakely and her helpers.

After completing the first course of the menu, members traveled to the home of Mrs. Jack McAdoo where the main course was served. Mrs. McAdoo greeted club members at the door. After everyone was seated, they were served turkey, rice, green beans, tea and hot homemade buns.

Mrs. V. P. Terrell and Mrs. Carrie Josselet were so nice to let our club enjoy their special recipe of hot buns which was really a treat for everyone.

The club toured the home of Mrs. McAdoo and then traveled to the backyard of club member Mrs. David Davis where homemade ice cream was served.

At the conclusion of the dinner, club president Marijane Cunningham held a business meeting.

New officers were elected for the coming year. They are: President, Debbie Earles; Vice President, Laura Alsbrook; Secretary Paula Everett, Treasurer, Diane Owens; Reporter, Cecilia Davis; Parliamentarian, Marijane Cunningham. These officers will take over their offices in August at the installation banquet.

Outgoing officers are President, Marijane Cunningham; Vice President, Sherry Adams; Secretary Debbie Earles; Treasurer, Charlene Dumas; Reporter, Vickie Josselet; Parliamentarian Muriel Nanny.

The club voted to have a booth at the Crafts Fair in July.

The Young Homemakers will be involved in many Bicentennial activities this summer but there will not be Margaret Sue Hunter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Hunter, of New Orleans and granddaughter of Mrs. D. H. Persons and the late Mr. Persons of Haskell, graduated with honors on May 8, from Murray State University, Murray, Kentucky.

Miss Hunter, with a 3.86 grade average in three years out of a possible 4.0, received a B.A. degree in Spanish and German, Summa Cum Laude.

Out of 863 students in the graduating class, 202 were honor graduates.

STEPHENVILLE, Tx.—Christie K. McAdams, a May graduate of Haskell High School, has been selected to receive a Dick Smith Scholarship for the 1976-77 academic year at Tarleton State University.

The $500 scholarship was made possible by bequests from the estate of the late Dr. Dick Smith, who was a member of the TSU faculty for over 40 years. He was former head of the Social Science Department and author of several books on Texas government.

Forty other scholarships valued at $22,000 were awarded for the 1976-77 school year from the Dick Smith Endowment Fund, said Truman Bell, TSU director of student financial aid. Bell said that the amount would be increased to $40,000 in 1977-78.

"The scholarships are awarded to academically superior students in the School of Arts and Sciences," Bell said.

Ms. McAdams is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy G. McAdams.

Men In Service

—Navy Dentalman Ronnie D. Hise, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie L. Hise of Haskell, Texas, is participating in Operation "Solid Shield '76" aboard the nuclear aircraft carrier USS Nimitz, homeported at Norfolk, Va.

The two-week joint exercise off the North Carolina and Georgia coasts involves 36 ships and more than 50,000 men and women from all branches of the Armed Forces.

The exercise will include air, surface and submarine operations and amphibious assault. It is designed to test command and control plans and to provide training in the procedures for emergency evacuation of noncombatants from a simulated battle zone.

A former student of Paint Creek High School, he joined the Navy in May 1975.

Mental Retardation

Editor—This is one of a series of articles about Mental Retardation prepared by Mrs. Eugene Cochran and the Public Education Committee of the Texas Association for Retarded Citizens.

JEREMY

Jeremy—a most effective 30 minute film is part of the "This Is The Life" series produced by Lutheran Television. The film has been shown around the country for the past several months and includes scenes taken in the Good Shepherd and Bethesda Lutheran Homes. The film is excellently cast, produced and directed and features Philip Abbott, formerly of the long-running "FBI" series.

"Jeremy" tells the story of how the rejection of a mentally retarded youth by his actress mother impedes his progress and well being until she realizes his need for her love and acceptance. The film is done with a professional flair and has strong emotional impact. It can be particularly valuable as an introduction to the limited knowledge of mental retardation and its effects on families.

If the "This Is The Life" series has been showing in your area (usually on Sunday) it would be worth your while to check and see if "Jeremy" may be scheduled in the near future. Although it may already have been shown, the entire series will be re-run starting in September.

"Jeremy" is available for churches to use by contacting Lutheran Television, Box 14592, St. Louis Mo. 63178. This film ranks among the better productions dealing with mental retardation slanted to the general public.

The following books of interest may be obtained by writing to NARC Publications, 2709 Avenue E East, Arlington, Tx. 76011; How To Provide For Their Future; Primer for Parents of a Mentally Retarded Child; Behavior Modification of the Mentally Retarded; Feeding Mentally Retarded Children; Ministry and Mental Retardation; It's Effects on a Pastor's Theological Views. A free publications list is available on request.

WASHINGTON

"As It Looks from Here"
OMAR BURLESON
Congressman—17th District

WASHINGTON, D.C.—IN THE WEEKS AHEAD WE WILL BE HEARING more about legislation with the title "Full Employment and Balanced Growth." Coupled with this proposal is another called "Balanced Growth and Economic Planning Act," both commonly known as the Humphrey-Hawkins bill.

IF WE THINK WE HAVE A HUGE BUREAUCRACY NOW, with too many controls over the economic life of our Nation, let this proposal become law and we're likely to have one bigger.

PROVIDED IN THESE PROPOSALS is the establishment of an Economic Planning Board, a Division of Economic Information, a Council on Economic Planning, an Advisory Committee on Economic Planning and a Division of Balanced Growth.

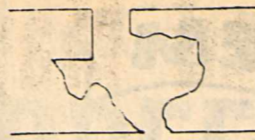

ALL THESE NEWLY CREATED BUREAUCRATIC ENTITIES will tackle the problem of joblessness by mandating that the United States Employment Service be changed to the United States Full Employment Service. It proposes to create a national network of "Local Planning Councils," "Community Public Service Works Reservoirs" and "Job Guarantee Offices", each with its own set of officers. There is something to be called "Standby Job Corp", after which comes the "National Institute for Full Employment" and a "National Commission for Full Employment."

THE IDEA SEEMS TO BE THAT FULL EMPLOYMENT can be attained simply by hiring the entire surplus labor supply. The bill says the Government owes everybody a job who is "willing and able," which is defined to mean any human being who can crawl, roll, stumble or crash into a "Full Employment Office". No one is to be excluded for any reason.

THE THEORY IN THE HUMPHREY-HAWKINS BILL, is absolute full employment, ignoring the plight of the "unemployables." If it is not full employment it, at least, disguises unemployment and hides it from ourselves. Instead of curing the problem of people out of work, it would weaken and imperil our whole economic system.

A PART OF THE BILL HAS THE GOVERNMENT paying the salaries of workers in private business, regardless of productivity or efficiency. In an attempt to answer the

TEXAS JOB TALK

The Texas jobless rate took a dip to 4.8 per cent for April, the lowest point in 17 months, according to Texas Employment Commission Chairman Harold K. Dudley of Austin.

"Not since November 1974 has the Texas unemployment rate been below 5 per cent," the TEC chairman related.

"It is significant that Texas' unemployment has declined three-tenths of one per cent for two consecutive months, March and April," Dudley said. "This definitely indicates the basic strength of the Texas economy."

"The dip in the jobless rate results mainly from seasonal factors," Dudley observed, "with increased construction and agricultural employment contributing to the trend."

"Total employment increased in Texas from 5,029,600 in March to 5,062,300 in April, a net gain of 32,700 jobs," Dudley said. "During April, almost 65,000 workers filed new job applications with the Texas Employment Commission, and the agency placed 37,730 people in jobs."

The Texas jobless rate of 4.8 per cent compares very favorably with the national nonseasonally adjusted rate of 7.4 per cent for the same period, the TEC official commented.

Twelve of the state's 23 major labor areas had April jobless rates below or equal to the state rate. The 12 are Abilene, 2.8 per cent; Amarillo, 2.9 per cent; Austin, 3.5 per cent; Dallas-Fort Worth, 4.2 per cent; Houston, 4.7 per cent; Lubbock, 3.0 per cent; Midland, 2.6 per cent; Odessa, 3.3 per cent; San Angelo, 3.6 per cent; Tyler, 4.8 per cent; Waco, 4.6 per cent; Wichita Falls, 3.8 per cent.

Major labor areas exceeding the state rate are Beaumont-Port Arthur-Orange, 5.7 per cent; Brownsville-Harlingen-San Benito, 8.9 per cent; Corpus Christi, 5.7 per cent; El Paso, 8.6 per cent; Galveston-Texas City, 5.1 per cent; Laredo, 14.8 per cent; Longview, 6.5 per cent; McAllen-Pharr-Edinburg, 8.7 per cent; San Antonio, 6.3 per cent; Sherman-Denison, 7.2 per cent; Texarkana, 8.2 per cent.

measure's inflationary possibilities, a clause is included ordering the Executive Branch not to let it happen.

APPARENTLY, EVERYONE IS TO BE SATISFIED under this legislation. It orders "job satisfaction for workers, consumer satisfaction for customers" and, naturally, "help for the small businessman." Any technical problems involved in carrying out the purposes of this legislation are to be taken care of by hiring academics to make studies.

THE LEGISLATION PROVIDES SUBSIDIES TO PRIVATE "BUSINESS" to hire people whether they need them or not. When all slots are filled a last resort is public service jobs—those created by all levels of Government from the Federal to a town or a city.

NO PRICE TAG COULD POSSIBLY BE PUT on a scheme like this. That does not seem to matter since the sponsors contend that full employment would do away with the necessity of paying unemployment compensation and, in theory, supposedly do away with relief and most other forms of Government support.

THIS LEGISLATION HAS ALREADY BEEN APPROVED by the House Education and Labor Committee and, presumably, will be scheduled for Floor action in the not-too-distant future.

CB Rules And Regulations

You CB'ers. You have sent in your license application and have your temporary permit so you can go on the air right away. But have you gotten the rules and regulations that apply to your citizens band radio?

The Federal Communications requires that you have these rules. So they have just put out a new lower priced booklet that lists only the Citizen Band Rules and Regulations (Part 95). Copies are available for $1.50 from the Consumer Information Center, Dept. 21, Pueblo, Colorado 81009.

Some of the rules and regulations are rather technical and relate to the power of the transmitter, height of antennas, and so on. But some are very practical and relate directly to your use of the CB on the air.

For instance, channel 9 is to be used only for emergency communications. It should only be used for calls to help save lives, protect property, or render assistance to a motorist.

And channel 11 should only be used to call other CB'ers with the idea of moving to another channel for your talk.

By the way, that talk should not go on longer than 5 minutes. And at the end of 5 minutes, you have leave a gap of at least a minute so others can use the channel.

And be sure you use either the temporary permit call sign or your permanent call sign with each transmission both at the beginning and the end. You can use your "Handle" in between.

Citizens Band Rules and Regulations ($1.50) is one of more than 240 publications made available by the Consumer Information Center of the General Services Administration. For a free copy of the Consumer Information Catalog listing these publications, write the Consumer Information Center, Pueblo, Colorado 81009.

HERE'S TO YOUR HEALTH
from Kenneth Jones

A mother told us about her teenage daughter who got a D in gym because, as her instructor said, "She can't do anything". Her mother pleaded, "She's not coordinated". That summer, she had her daughter do a series of daily exercises—the more exercises her daughter did, the more she enjoyed them. "She became more outgoing and more confident", explained the mother. "She had been fat and she lost weight. She looked better, she came out of her shell and became more popular at school." This experience may suggest a means to better physical and mental health for other teenagers as well.

IRS News

Dallas, Texas—Thousands of low-income North Texans may be eligible for checks of up to $400 each from the Internal Revenue Service. All they need to do is file a tax return and ask.

The Dallas office of the IRS said today that the extra cash, called Earned Income Credit, has been applied for by only 125,000 individuals in North Texas so far this year. Earned Income Credit, a tax break for parents who supported at least one child during 1975 and earned less than $8000, was available for the first time on 1975 tax returns.

Many people who are eligible for Earned Income Credit have such low incomes that they are not legally required to file tax returns. IRS officials say there are thousands of these qualified recipients who are simply unaware that Earned Income Credit exists or do not know how to go about getting it.

Even if they paid no withholding tax and have no income tax liability, individuals eligible for Earned Income Credit will receive payments equalling ten percent of their earned income, to a maximum of $400 on an income of $4000. Over $4000 the credit is reduced by $10 for each $100 of income.

Individuals who feel they may qualify for Earned Income Credit should contact their local IRS office or call for advice on the IRS' toll-free number, 800-492-4830.

4-H's Plot Small, Reap Big Rewards

CHICAGO—City gardeners are finding they don't need a lot of land in order to exercise their green thumbs!

Urban 4-H'ers, for example, are gardening on rooftops, windowsills and vacant lots, and using castoffs like wooden tubs and metal drums as planters. Any container that holds several inches of soil and allows for adequate water drainage can be planted to yield a nice crop of vegetables or a colorful display of flowers.

4-H gardening projects supervised by the Cooperative Extension Service give young people 9-19 in cities, towns and rural areas a chance to gain an insight into the workings of nature. And activities like planning a crop, planting and caring for it, even harvesting and marketing it, can be tools for learning and personal development.

Learn-by-doing projects The national 4-H gardening program, sponsored this year for the first time by Ortho Division of Chevron Chemical Company, encourages 4-H members to develop the skills they need to grow vegetables, flowers, lawns, ornamental plants or commercial horticultural crops.

While 4-H gardening activities teach practical skills, they also can be good exercise, relaxing and fun—especially when 4-H'ers team up to "farm" an unused neighborhood lot or share space in a community garden. And raising vegetables and fruits can help stretch the

Mrs. Evelyn Green from Ft. Worth visited her Aunt Mrs. Ora McCollough.

Sandra, Glenda and Karla Brothers visited Joe Teague.

Mrs. Gertrude Pinkerton from Austin visited her mother, Mrs. Willie Roe.

Mrs. D. H. Carrol and Mrs. Stephen Carrol from Weinert were visiting with patients in Rice Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayland Baugh from Lubbock visited Mrs. Mary Liles, Mrs. Alma Cole, Dutch and Jim Cross and Babe Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Rogers from Goree and Carl Moeller from Alma, Okla. visited Mrs. Annie Moeller.

We extend our sincere sympathy to the family of Mrs. Elmer Turner who passed away May 26th in Haskell Memorial Hospital. Mrs. Turner came to Rice Springs December 14, 1973 and remained here until May 14th when she entered the hospital. We shall really miss Mrs. Turner and her sweet disposition.

Mrs. Eva McMillin was visited by all her children and grandchildren this last weekend and a reunion was held at the American Legion.

The Church of Christ ladies from Haskell served homemade cake and punch for the birthday party this month honoring the May Birthdays family food budget and contribute to good health by adding variety and essential nutrients to the diet.

In the city or on the farm, 4-H'ers harvest bountiful crops in the national 4-H gardening program conducted by the Cooperative Extension Service. Young people 9-19 learn-by-doing to produce vegetables (like giant squash above), flowers, fruits, ornamentals, lawns or commercial horticultural crops. While they exercise their green thumbs, 4-H members can work for awards donated by Ortho Division, Chevron Chemical Company.

4-H'ers also investigate horticultural careers, and share their gardening know-how with others through exhibits and demonstrations.

Ortho provides incentives For outstanding achievement in the 4-H gardening program, Ortho Division of Chevron Chemical offers 4-H'ers a series of awards arranged by the National 4-H Service Committee.

This year, eight 4-H members will receive $1,000 college scholarships donated by Ortho. Winners will be announced at the 55th National 4-H Congress in Chicago Nov. 28-Dec. 2.

Eighteen sectional winners will receive expense-paid trips to Congress, and one winner in each state will be awarded a $50 U.S. Savings Bond. Up to four 4-H'ers per county can earn medals of honor.

All winners are selected by the Extension Service. Additional information on the new national 4-H gardening program is available from county extension agents.

that were for: Mrs. Minnie Stuart, Miss Cleo Mondy, Mrs. Eva McMillin, Mrs. Elizabeth Yakey, and Mrs. Susie Stark, Claude Sanders Luther Hines, and Sam Wright.

Mrs. Etta Leach, Mrs. Will Stegemoeller and Mrs. Cliff LeFevre from Sagerton made their regular visit to Rice Springs to spread a ray of sunshine by visiting their many friends here.

Mrs. Gene Wood and two granddaughters from Munday visited Bertha Yarbrough.

population of these pests to campers, fishermen, and hikers. Temporary protection can be accomplished by applying a commercial repellent to clothing directly from the bottle or spray can. Shoe tops, stockings, cuffs, and the edges of all openings in clothing should be treated. All exposed parts of the skin except the face should also be sprayed with an insect repellent.

Ticks do not usually cause discomfort; however, embedded ticks must be removed carefully so as not to leave the mouthparts in the skin and cause infection. The idea is to make it impossible for the tick to breathe through its body by covering it with alcohol, lighter fluid or nail polish remover. Hopefully, the tick will remove its head from the skin—but this does take a little time.

Chiggers cause more physical discomfort and annoyance than ticks (some species of chiggers may transmit disease to man but the chances of this happening are slim). The adult chigger spends the winter in the earth or some other place protected from the cold. During the warm days of spring, they come out to select a humid, shady spot to lay their eggs.

When these hatch, we have the first of several generations for the year. The larva, being a parasite, needs a host. Man, along with some 70 other types of mammals, birds, and even reptiles qualify as a host for the larva.

Chiggers do not burrow into the skin, but attach themselves by inserting their mouth parts into it, often in a hair follicle or pore. Here they inject the fluid; the fluid dissolves the tissues; the chiggers suck up the dissolved tissue.

This same fluid causes the red spot we see and makes the skin swell. This in turn causes the bump which actually rises around the chigger, giving the impression that he had burrowed into the skin.

When the chigger gets his fill of tissue, he drops off and changes into a second form. These are nymphs which later change into adults. Both nymphs and adult chiggers feed on insect eggs, small insects and other organisms found around wood decaying substances. The entire cycle of egg, larva, nymph, adult, and back to more eggs can be completed in less than two months. So it is easy to get several generations of chiggers in one season.

Precautions to avoid ticks and chiggers may prevent some disease and quite a lot of discomfort.

Capital Welcome Mat Is Out

They paid for it and you can benefit from it. A $7.5 million grant from the U.S. Department of Transportation has provided 2,000 air-conditioned Metrobuses to carry tourists conveniently through the Washington area.

You can get all the facts by calling (800) 424-9755. Experts will tell you about three conveniently located parking lots and the bus routes that lead you throughout the city. There is special radial Metrobus service along 17 existing corridors from outlying suburban areas, many adjacent to parking facilities, to and from downtown Washington.

These 17 special Bicentennial radial bus routes will originate at six locations in Virginia and a total of eleven in Maryland and all will be interconnected with the fringe parking lot shuttle service Metrobus routes.

JEFFERSON MEMORIAL—Considered by many the most beautiful structure in nation's capital, it's situated on the Tidal Basin.

Metrobus service — fringe parking lot shuttle and radial routes — will be identified with special Bicentennial bus route markings. This will involve a system of symbol plus color coding for easier bus identification by visitors and local residents alike. All Metrobuses will be further identified on front, sides and back.

In short, your convenience and less car congestion will more than make the Metrobus venture worthwhile.

CONSERVATION VIEWPOINTS USDA Soil Conservation Service

Assisting
California Creek and Wichita-Brazos
Soil and Water Conservation Districts

If you, as a farmer, know that your farm is different from any other farm—in fact, you say, it is not exactly alike on any two fields on the same place—Conservation planning will pay.

You don't run your farm business in exactly the same way as your neighbors—you don't have exactly the same tools and equipment—you don't even grow the same crops exactly, you don't keep the same kinds and numbers of livestock.

However, many of you, as farmers and ranchers and other landusers, have one thing in common—you make plans. Some of your plans are elaborate, written, while some are simply thoughts still floating along in your minds.

We of the Soil Conservation Service, are available to assist you in putting your plans down in a logical order, and in a practical manner. S.C.S.

personnel, working through the local soil and water conservation districts, are constantly assisting the farmer and ranchers, the unit of governments or a group of farmers, develop plans for the orderly and timely application of conservation work.

Like your farms, your conservation plan is uniquely developed to fit the total needs of your farm. No two conservation plans are the same just as no two farms are the same.

Your plan includes those decisions that you made for the treatment needed to preserve your land, to enrich your soil, and to make your life more abundant. These decisions are recorded in a manner that you can easily follow through in applying the plan.

In the last few weeks, Hudson and I have assisted many farmers and ranchers in developing new plans as well as updating and revising old plans that have been in operation for some time.

In the California Creek Soil & Water Conservation District new plans have been developed for Mrs. Clara Gesin, 688 acres, J. C. Kainer, Stamford, operator; the Astin Estate, 360 acres, Guy Denson, Stamford, operator; Harold Heffer, 111 acres, Dan Griffith, Paint Creek, operator; Dan and Sammy Griffith, 480 acres, Paint Creek; Jimmy New, Sagerton, 108 acres; Bill Hertel, Sagerton, 158 acres; Dennis Briles, Rule, 85 acres.

In the Wichita-Brazos SWCD new plans have been developed for J. Randy Goode, Rochester, 61 acres; T. R. Mayfield, Weinert, 146 acres; and Eddie Swanner (Westenhooven lands), Weinert, 517 acres.

Revision of plans usually means a landuse change, added or subtracted acres or numerous other items. R. V. Earles of Paint Creek, 558 acres; M. D. Coleman, 363 acres; O. C. Brinnel, Stamford, 373 acres; J. M. Blackwell, 520 acres; J. A. Hertel, Sagerton, 320 acres; O. E. Gilliland, Haskell, 324 acres; Four J. Cattle Co., Haskell, 7826 acres; Burl Medford, 427 acres; B. G. Tidwell, 832 acres; J. W. Wallace, 589 acres, and T. R. Mayfield, Weinert, 619 acres.

Plastic food has come one step closer with the successful marketing of a new human food protein called "Torutein." This latest step away from natural protein is a derivative of petroleum grown as a yeast from a culture of ethyl alcohol. Most of the buyers will be food processors trying to enhance the flavor of simulated foods now on the market and running into consumer resistance because of taste. Another major market will be bakery products where the oily invader has the extra advantage of a nutritive complement in addition to protein (its only high amino acid, lysine, is desirable in most bakery products). If nothing else, the time and money which went into the research and marketing of an oil-derived protein should illustrate to everyone the critical importance of research to develop and enhance all food-protein sources.

elect CARL DALLY

Judge of the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals

"Carl Dally has been a commissioner-in-aid to the court of criminal appeals for half a decade. He has argued before the U.S. Supreme Court and has had extensive experience in both the criminal and civil branches of the law. His opponent is a man with no judicial or appellate experience in criminal cases. We urge Texas Democrats eligible to vote in the June 5 runoff to inform themselves of the qualifications of the candidates in this and all races. We urge them not to vote for a vaguely familiar name, but to vote for the best man. In the case of the runoff for the criminal appeals court, the best candidate is clearly Carl Dally."

AUSTIN AMERICAN-STATESMAN

The Fort Worth Star-Telegram calls Carl Dally "eminently qualified" and the Houston Chronicle says he is "uniquely suited" to serve on the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals. Dally is also endorsed by newspapers in Dallas, Lubbock, Corpus Christi, San Angelo, Tyler, Bryan, Beaumont, Port Arthur, Victoria and Wichita Falls.

Ask your lawyer, your district attorney, any judge, or informed friend about the candidates in this important race. Then vote for the best man.

(Editor's Note: The following was written by Sylvia Driggins, Urban Rodent Control Specialist.)

During the past year I've been caught up in an occupation which involves me with rats and mice. I've been teaching people how to combat rats...how to keep them under control in their homes and businesses. I've been in a lot of homes and businesses, seen a lot of rats during this time, but, it has seemed as though it was always the other fellow's problem, not mine. The last week, something happened to change all of that...I got my moment in rodent control, I had a rat to invade my home and my "rat car"—my rat, which I had to control.

I had seen signs of rodent activity beside the door that leads from the garage into the house on Saturday afternoon. I mentioned this to my husband, and we decided that perhaps we should set a trap. The next morning, when my husband went out to get into his car, he noticed foot prints on the car's hood. He came into the house saying that he thought we had a rat in the garage, who had been walking on the car. I looked at him and said, "Are you sure it's a rat?" He only chuckled and said, "You have rats on the brain."

Late that evening, we were sitting in the kitchen...the lights were out...the garage was dark, when suddenly, we heard scratching at the door. We both looked at one another... "What's that?" "I think it's that rat." "What are we going to do?" we asked each other. "I brought a trap we could set." "Then let's set it!" replied my husband.

Simultaneously we opened the door and turned on the light. To our amazement, we caught the glimpse of a big rat scurrying across the floor under our cars. I got the trap out of my "rat car"...we set the trap, baiting it with peanut butter, but, in my haste to get back inside the house, I neglected to go back into the garage and close the tail gate door of my car.

The next morning, we found the trap sprung, the peanut butter gone, but no rat! How

The Consumer Alert

by John L. Hill
Attorney General

AUSTIN — Some unscrupulous business promoters take advantage of every fad, disaster, catchword, and trend in public opinion to market products or services that may have virtually no merit, our Consumer Protection Division attorneys warn.

"It's tornado time in Texas—will your roof stand the test?" or "Forget energy worries by harnessing the power of the wind with our special suburban-sized windmill!" or "Grow huge, disease-free organic tomatoes effortlessly in your own bathtub using the principles of hydroponics!"

Advertisements similar to the above should trigger a warning light in the mind of an alert consumer. They may or may not provide a useful product or service, but they do merit careful investigation before a purchase is made. That's because they trade on the fears or worries of a concerned consumer and, too often, our attorneys say, the person who buys under crisis conditions or out of panic is less than a careful shopper.

It is true that energy problems are a major concern, and utility bills are soaring—but does that necessarily mean that a small windmill in your backyard will reduce costs? Not likely, when the equipment may cost $100 or more, plus installation charges, and when your lot has 10 big trees that block the wind, making a windmill useless.

And really—is it feasible to grow tomatoes in your bathtub? Hydroponics can work beautifully under the right conditions, but it's unlikely that you can duplicate them in your bathroom. Besides, would your family be willing to shower outdoors under the hose during the entire growing season?

blowing to my ego as a rodent control specialist...I could tell others how to set traps and use rodenticides properly, but I could not catch "my rat." When getting into my car, I noticed rodent activity in the car itself...my first thought was that the rat was in my "rat car". There was, also, a fresh urine spot on the carpet, and I knew by that that the rat was almost certainly in my "rat car." I had planned to be on the road that day, and as I traveled along the highway, I kept thinking that I wasn't alone—I had company in the form of a rat!

Returning home that evening, I decided to set one trap in the garage as the night before. I also, left a package of rat poison for him to feed on in case he was not caught in the trap. I did not give the matter any further thought that evening.

The next morning, much to Tornadoes are a real threat in some parts of Texas in spring, it's true. But no roof—regardless of its construction—could withstand the full force of a tornado.

The point of these examples is that many promoters will encourage you to buy by linking whatever they're selling to what's in the news in some way—remember those A-bomb shelters? It's the job of the alert consumer to analyze critically all advertisements for products or services, decide whether or not he needs or wants them, and then determine that the advertised item offers the very best quality and guarantee for the very best price.

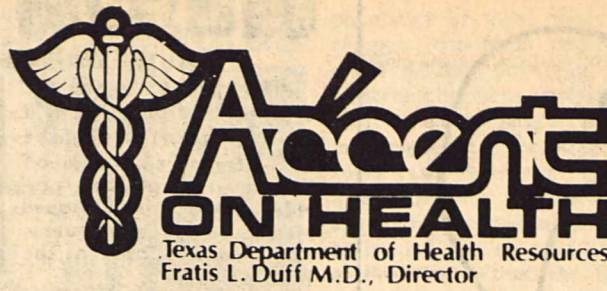

Our Consumer Protection Division recently obtained an assurance of voluntary compliance and $1500 from a promoter who was trading on the current high interest in sharks to conduct a show featuring a "Killer Shark"... a "Man-eater of the Sea" which came "directly from the waters of the Atlantic."

The promoter advertised that there was no admission charge, but that donations would go to "benefit crippled children." Our lawyers found that the promoter was pressuring people to "donate" at least $1 in order to see what turned out to be a bull shark that had been frozen for several months, and that only a small percentage of the money he collected was to go to charity.

Consumers should always be wary of exorbitant claims by promoters and should make pointed inquiries before spending any money—whether it's $1 or $100—if there is any question about the seller's reliability. If you are suspicious, find out how long the company or individual has been in business and talk to other customers before spending your money.

my disappointment, I found the trap and poison untouched! But, when I opened my "rat car", I found numerous signs of rodent activity. The little rascal had even shredded much of the insulation from under the dash board of my "rat car"—he had had a fantastic time! I cleaned out the car as best I could—I even went by the service station to ask the attendant to check under the hood to see if any hoses or wires had been gnawed by the rascal. I can't express the eery feeling I felt each time I got into my car to drive. I knew that the rat was still in the car; I heard him move several times during the day, but, there didn't seem as though there was much I could do about it unless the rat just happened to fall at my feet—then what was I supposed to do?!

That night I set two traps in the car, one in the garage and

How long can a person with complete kidney failure stay alive?

Apparently only time will tell, according to Dr. August R. Remmers, Jr., co-director of the Division of Nephrology and professor of internal medicine at the University of Texas Medical Branch in Galveston. Dr. Remmers says that no one knows how long a victim of kidney failure can continue on a dialysis machine.

"We've been in the program for nine years, doing both transplants and dialysis," Dr. Remmers said, "and one of our first patients is in his ninth year. He's been hospitalized only once in 8 and ½ years. He works every day—hard."

Dr. Remmers said that the application of hemodialysis—using a machine as an artificial kidney to remove impurities from the blood—is almost always successful, although some patients do better than others on the machine. In any case, the alternative to dialysis, until a kidney transplant can be arranged, is almost certain death.

That's one of the reasons Dr. Remmers is a vocal supporter of the Kidney Health Care Program of the Texas Department of Health Resources. He says, "it's a fantastic program. The Legislature and the people of Texas can take great pride in it. The money goes to the people who need it."

The program pays for the first three months of medical treatment following kidney failure, until the federal Medicare program takes over. In some cases, where patients can't qualify for federal funds and don't have adequate health insurance, the state program will continue to pay for kidney care.

Most patients on dialysis ultimately hope for a successful kidney transplant. That's particularly true for children, according to Dr. Luther Travis, director of the Pediatric Dialysis and Transplantation Unit. He explains, "If I as an adult had a renal disease, and had the option of dialysis or a transplant, I might opt for the machine instead of the transplant. I don't think I would mind being tied to a machine for years, I think I could emotionally handle that. But the experience in children is that they have not been able to put up with their lives being constantly monitored or led by a machine. In the adult program, dialysis often is the end, but in the children's program we have put it as the means to an end—the end always aiming for transplantation."

As Dr. Travis indicated, some adult patients actually prefer to remain on dialysis, rather than undertake the risk of an unsuccessful transplant

I left a package of rat poison for him to feed on if he didn't get caught by any of the traps. I rolled the window down so he could escape the car. In the morning, I found the poison gone and one trap sprung. It was several days before we began smelling the decomposing body...several days later, we found "my rat" curled up in a box. Since he was "my rat", I felt it my duty to give him a decent burial, so I dug a shallow hole in back of the house and left him covered with a mound of dirt.

VA News

Home loans guaranteed by the Veterans Administration have exceeded the nine million mark. Jack Coker, Veterans Administration Regional Director, reported today.

Of the 9,001,120 loans guaranteed by the VA—totaling $119.7 billion—nearly 4.8 million have been repaid in full, Coker added.

Since the GI home loan program began in 1944, veterans of World War II, Korea, post Korea and the Vietnam era have benefited from the more liberal financing terms offered by lenders on VA-guaranteed mortgages.

The VA operates three programs to assist eligible veterans to become homeowners—loan guaranty, direct loan and grants for specially adapted housing for severely disabled veterans.

Coker also reported the amount of loan VA will guarantee is limited only by the appraised value of the home and the capacity of the veteran to repay the loan on installments. Direct loans made by the VA, however, are subject to a maximum of $25,000. In many instances veterans obtain guaranteed or direct loans without down payments.

Specially adapted housing grants may be made to cover not more than one-half of the cost of the dwelling and lot, with a maximum grant of $25,000. A guaranteed or direct loan is available to finance the remaining cost.

Loans for the purpose of acquiring a single-wide mobile home cannot exceed cost of $12,500. For a double-wide unit, the maximum loan is $20,000 or $27,000 for a double-wide unit and an undeveloped lot.

The maximum term for single-wide mobile homes is 12 years and 20 years for a double wide. The maximum term for conventional homes is 30 years and 32 years.

The Veterans Housing Act of 1970 removed the delimiting date on veterans' GI home loans. Another law enacted in 1974 permits veterans who have used their home loan benefit to regain entitlement, provided the veteran has disposed of the property and the loan has been paid in full.

Entitlement also may be restored to a veteran if another credit worthy veteran assumes the balance on the VA loan and substitutes his own entitlement, Coker pointed out.

Requests for restoration of GI home benefits in 1975 totaled 56,334, of which 43,050 were approved.

For the past year the VA has been permitted to approve condominium projects for guaranteed loans without the previous stipulation that Housing and Urban Development must have insured loans in the same project.

JON NEWTON

Texas Railroad Commission

The Railroad Commission is one of the most powerful regulatory and conservation agencies in America. Two candidates are in the June 5th Democratic runoff election:

JERRY SADLER, 68, who entered politics in the 1930's, was defeated as Land Commissioner in 1970 after an official reprimand from the Texas House for refusal to cooperate in an investigation... bad absentee record in public office... investigated by a grand jury for using a state employee to run his private motel... sued for civil tax fraud by the IRS... in 1969 the Dallas Times Herald declared "Sadler has made Texas government a universal target of ridicule and derision," and in 1976 the San Angelo Standard echoed, "Under Sadler, the Railroad Commission just might become the laughing stock he once made of the General Land Office."

JON NEWTON, 34, three-term House member with solid record of public service... authored the law regulating strip mining... fought for a Public Utility Commission... serves on Interstate Oil Compact Commission, Mining Council of Texas, Governor's Energy Advisory Council, House Energy Resources Committee (vice chairman)... endorsed by major newspapers throughout Texas... described by the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal as "the resident expert on energy matters in the State Legislature"... in the first Democratic primary his Bee County neighbors gave him an 85% majority over his seven opponents.

Texas' energy and utility rate problems can be solved only by vigorous, responsible leadership and fresh approaches.

EIGHTH GRADE GRADUATION

Graduation exercises for the eighth grade class of Rule High School were held Friday night, May 28, at 8 p.m. in the high school auditorium. Miss Colleen Townsend played the processional and recessional for the students.

Kelli Alexander gave the invocation for the program which was followed by an address by the class salutatorian, Emily Moore. Miss Moore is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Moore and had a grade average of 95.33.

Following Miss Moore's talk, Tivo Flores directed the class in the singing of the class song, "Stop and Smell the Roses". James Cloud, valedictorian of the class then addressed the audience. James had a grade average of 97.06 and is the son of Mrs. Joe W. Cloud and the late Mr. Joe W. Cloud.

Kris Kupatt read the poem, "I Am An American" and Susan Swofford, president of the class, introduced the speaker, Rev. Neil Sheppard, Director of the Baptist Encampment Grounds at Lueders.

The topic of Rev. Sheppard's speech was taken from Proverbs 9:1. He challenged the class to build them a house of wisdom. To make it four stories high, making the first floor a living quarter or care of the body. The second story one of thought or care of the mind. The third story a laboratory for care of the soul and making the fourth story a telescope called faith. He asked them to use the seven pillars of faith, wisdom, purpose, courage, right thinking, genuineness and service. To cover this house with a roof of love because love covers everything. He also asked them to lay a solid foundation in Christ as their foundation and urged them to use a master builder, Jesus, one who knows how to build character. Not to pick a shoddy builder, Satan.

Following Rev. Sheppard's talk, Bobby Lusk presented the members of the eighth grade class for their diplomas to Lavon Beakley, who presented the diplomas to Malone Albert, Kelli Alexander, Tammy Anderson, Terry Anderson, Russell Beakley, James Cloud, Jackie Coker, Jerry Coker, Tivo Flores, Jessie Garcia, Amanda Hunt, Lenae Johnson, Kris Kupatt, Emily Moore, Albert Nararrette, Gilbert Navarrette, Rock Petty, Hector Puebla, Laura Rincon, Jimmy Smith, Susan Swofford, Rodney Threet, Bennie Whittaker, Cherie Williams and Toni Williams.

Principal Bobby Lusk presented awards assisted by Lavon Beakley. Students receiving certificates for not being tardy or absent during the 1975-76 school year were: Jesse Muniz, Jose Muniz, Missy Wolf, Evett Walker, Toby Dennis, Bennie Binavides, Paul Sorrells, Lester Walker, Darin Beakley, Lisa Baird, Charles New, Mike Rhoads, Clifford Stegemoeller, Jay Beakley, Fred Benavides, Dennis Cloud, Leon Greeson, Cindy Menchaca, Rod Petty, Terry Threet, Jina Flannery, Sandra Brothers, Jackie Coker, Kris Kupatt, Rock Petty and Rodney Threet.

Receiving the Citizenship Award of Honor for grades one through three were Carol Soto and Bruce Tony. For grades four through five were Kathy Soto and Albert Burkhuhl, and for grades six through eight were Emily Moore and Rock Petty.

At the conclusion of the awards Cherie Williams gave the benediction to close out the program. Ushers for the evening were Lisa DeBusk, Brenda Mitchell, Terry Threet and David Lisle.

Officers for the eighth grade class were president, Susan Swofford; vice president, Rock Petty; secretary-treasurer, Rodney Threet; treasurer, Russell Beakley and faculty sponsor was Mrs. Olga Taylor.

Class colors were green, yellow and white, class flower the yellow rose which each student wore Friday night and the class motto was, "We build the ladder on which we climb."

COFFEE

Mrs. Faye Dunnam was honored with a coffee Thursday morning, May 27th, in the Home Economics Room of Rule High School by the members of the Rule High School faculty.

Mrs. Dunnam was presented a silver tray with the inscription, "Faye Dunnam, Rule High School, 1950-76" by the faculty members.

Following the presentation sweet rolls, donuts and coffee were served to those attending.

SCHOOL FACULTY

With the hiring of three new members to the Rule School faculty, their list of teachers for the 1976-77 school year is complete. Mrs. J. B. Toney of Sagerton has been hired as the business teacher in high school, replacing Mrs. Faye Dunnam who is retiring. Mrs. Donna Whitney of Haskell and Mrs. Kirby White of Paint Creek will replace Paula Bartone and Ann Lichty in the elementary grades.

Others teachers contracts renewed are as follows: Mrs. Mildred Chambers, Mrs. Tom Kutch, Mrs. R. C. Pool, Mrs. Sheryl Robinson, Mrs. Lehrer, Bobby Lusk, Tom Kutch, Dennis Briles, Jasper Wilson, Bobby Robinson, Jerry Cannon, Becky Baker, Geneva Alvis, Olga Taylor, Wanda Briles and R. W. Callan.

Principal of grade school is Bobby Lusk and high school principal is Dennis Briles. Accepting job as head coach is Jasper Wilson, former assistant coach.

DOG VACCINATION

Dr. David Ballard of Stamford will be at the Rule Fire Station on Tuesday, June 8, from 4 to 6 p.m. to vaccinate all dogs and cats for rabies. City ordinance calls for all pets to be vaccinated and have a city dog tag. Dogs running loose in the city without such tags will be picked up and destroyed.

COFFEE

Mrs. Exa Lott was honored with a coffee in the home of Mrs. W. S. Cole on Tuesday, May 25, at 9:30 a.m. by the members of the Martha Class of the First Baptist church. Mrs. Lott is moving to Fort Worth to make her home there. A lovely necklace was presented to Mrs. Lott by the class members.

Guests enjoyed visiting and listening to records of Ford Cole, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Cole who is associated with youth ministry work.

Refreshments of coffee, tea and cookies were served guests from a table laid with an ercu lace cloth and a lovely floral arrangement.

Attending were Mmes. C. A. Jackson, A. E. Fouts, Bruce Miller, Ewell Kittley, Elsie Kittley, Clarence Ray, Faye Gibson, W. V. Almond, A. E. Ball, the honoree Mrs. Lott and hostess, Mrs. Cole.

ART DISPLAY

Displayed in the foyer of the Rule High School building through the eighth and senior high graduation was art work done by students in the fifth through eighth grades of Rule School under the direction of Mrs. Marsha Whittemore. Eighty six pictures were matted and displayed. The mediums used were charcoal, pencil and pastel. Selected as Student of the Year based on awareness of art, conduct and ability was Jose Muniz of the fifth grade.

From sixth, seventh, and eighth graders several pictures have been selected to be hung in the Aspermont Library during the month of June. Students work selected were Jose Muniz, Jackie Coker, Jay Beakley, Mark Whittemore, Danny Kittley, Casey Hannsz, Lisa DeBusk, Carla Kupatt, Rene Toney, Gena Peel, Tommie Ann Whittemore and one of Hector Valerio paintings of the fifth grade will be displayed.

Sam Bradford, a senior citizen of the Rice Springs Care Home and a former resident of Aspermont will also have several pencil drawings displayed.

HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATION

Thirteen seniors of Rule High School received their diplomas in graduation exercises held Monday night, May 31, at 8 p.m. in the high school auditorium. Colleen Townsend played the processional and recessional for the graduating class. Ushers were Cindy Thompson, Cynthia Sorrells, Wes Kittley and Robert Ace Turner.

Jerry Cannon gave the invocation to open the program. Leonard Rhoads, salutatorian, addressed the audience. Leonard had a grade average of 94.26 and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Rhoads of Rule.

Following his talk, the class sang the class song entitled, "The Way We Were", followed by the speech of class valedictorian Johnny Baitz. Johnny had a grade average of 95.40 and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Baitz of Sagerton. Jami Barbee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Barbee was High Point Girl with a grade average of 86.75.

Introducing the speaker Lynn Waggoner, was Barbara Plunk. Mr. Waggoner now of Waco, is a former teacher of Rule High School and had taught the graduating class in junior high.

Mr. Waggoner challenged the graduating seniors to be their own individual. To accomplish things as a person. He challenged them to carry hope for America in their hearts and to use their time, talents and ideals to improve the quality of their lives. To listen to others, seek new ideas, be congenial, and use their energy for good and just causes. To not let their graduation be their final education but, only the beginning of the cultivation of their minds.

Presenting the class for their diplomas was Dennis Briles, high school principal. Awarding the diplomas was a member of the Rule school board, Delbert LeFevre. Receiving their diplomas was Johnny Baitz, Leonard Rhoads, Jami Barbe, Joyce Dessivia, Norva Lehrmann, Frances Macias, Jimmy Macias, Johnny Menchaca, Barbara Plunk, Jackie Plunk, Robert Tribbey, Teresa Vargas and Dannie Whittaker.

Presenting awards was Lavon Beakley. Certificates were presented to those students who had not been absent or tardy for the 1975-76 school year and they were: Lisa Buhrkuhl, Ricky Kittley, Russ Lewis, Cheryl Marquis, Carl Stegemoeller, Judy Threet, Jerry Tumlinson, Linda Rhoads, Dwayne Landreth, Kraig Kupatt, Bobby Hunt, Lynn Fouts, Joanne Cloud, Wynette Williams, Robert Ace Turner, Cynthia Thompson, Clyde Stegemoeller, Terry Lee, Wes Kittley, Paul Flores, Leonard Rhoads and Frances Macias.

Receiving the coveted Citizenship Award of Honor Certificate for high school were Leonard Rhoads and Cynthia Sorrells. Receiving the Rotary Award presented by the Rule Rotary Club were Jimmy Macias and Jami Barbee.

Upon completion of the awards, Jasper Wilson gave the benediction to close out the program.

Class officers of the class were: president, Leonard Rhoads; vice president, Johnny Baitz; secretary-treasurer, Norva Lehrmann; reporter, Frances Macias; and watchdog, Jami Barbee. Faculty sponsors were Lavon Beakley and Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Robinson.

The class flower was the red rose and the class colors were red, white and blue.

Baccalaureate exercises were held Sunday night, May 30, in the high school auditorium at 8 p.m. with Colleen Townsend playing the processional and the recessional. Giving the invocation was R. W. Callan and Mrs. Mary Frances Lusk provided special music. Jackie Plunk introduced the speaker for the evening, John Greeson, minister of the Rule Church of Christ. Tom Kutch gave the benediction.

BOBCAT RECOGNITION NIGHT

Students of Rule High School who participated in UIL, FFA, FHA and sports were recognized at the Bobcat Recognition Night Banquet sponsored by the Rule Booster Club, Saturday night, May 29, at 8 p.m.

Leonard Rhoads gave the invocation and Cecil Lewis, president of the Booster Club welcomed students and others. Entertainment was provided by John Greeson and the puppets. Assisting with the puppets and putting on a very enjoyable show were:

Leigh Ann Greeson, Robert Ace Turner, Ohreana Greeson, Jackie Wilcox, Leon Greeson, Sandy Oliver, Ronnie Oliver and Wes Kittley.

Following the entertainment Mrs. Becky Baker told of the work done by the Future Homemakers of America during the year and awarded FHA pins to Bonnie Woods, Marla Lehrmann, Lisa Buhrkuhl, Cheryl Marquis, Judy Threet, Mary Macias, Deborah Soto, Lisa Peel and Tami Letz. She also announced that Bonnie Woods had received the Crisco Award for the year in homemaking.

Summarization of the football and basketball was done by Dennis Briles. Rule's record in football for the 1975-76 year was 6-4. Making All-District were Robert Ace Turner, Leonard Rhoads, and Johnny Baitz. Making all-State first team was Jimmy Macias and second team was Leonard Rhoads. Leonard Rhoads has been invited to participate in the Green Belt Bowl game to be held in Childress in August. Leading tackler for the year was Jimmy Macias and leading the rushing and scoring was Johnny Menchaca. Three boys were recognized and awarded plaques for not missing a workout or game for six years and they were Johnny Baitz, Jimmy Macias and Leonard Rhoads.

In basketball, the Bobcats record was 15-12 for the year and one boy, Jerry Tumlinson, a sophomore, made All-District. Leading rebounder was Leonard Rhoads.

Bobby Lusk recognized the golf boys and Rule won third in the district. All the boys but one, will be back next year.

Jasper Wilson reported on girls basketball and track. Girls basketball record for the year was 22-5 over all record.
