Just A Thought

by Carter

I was recently looking over the law as it relates to Public Offices and found some interesting facts, such as Art. 6252-17 title 110A section 2 paragraph (a) quoting in part "No closed or executive meeting or session of any governmental body for any of the purposes for which closed or executive meetings or sessions are hereinafter authorized shall be held unless the governmental body has first been convened in open meeting or session for which notice has been given as hereinafter provided and during which open meeting or session the presiding officer has publicly announced that a closed or executive meeting or session will be held." Another portion that interested me was Art. 6252-17, title 110-A section 4 paragraph (a) and quoting "Any member of a governing body who wilfully calls or aids in calling or organizing a special or called meeting or session which is closed to the public, or who wilfully closes or aids in closing a regular meeting or session to the public or who wilfully participates in a regular, special, or called meeting or session which is closed to the public where a closed meeting is not permitted by the provisions of this Act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction is punishable by a fine of not less than $100.00 nor more than $500.00 or imprisonment in the county jail for not less than one month nor more than six months, or both."

interest in doing something about it. Gentlemen, it is a refreshing pleasure.

It looks like I will finally be back with my family (by the time you read this, shortly and none to soon for me, although I will miss my friends in Haskell. Bachelorhood is fun, for some men to joke about, but I wouldn't want to be single again for anything. Fortunately, I have a great wife and four kids that will soon bring an end to my temporary dilemma.

By the time you read this I will be among the absent (in body only). No, I have not been run out of town, I have only accepted another job in the Metroplex area. I will however continue to keep abreast of what is going on here in Haskell and comment on same in "Just A Thought" with the permission of Bill Comedy of course. I would like to thank my friends for making my stay as short as it was, a real pleasure and you will all be truly missed by me. Thanks again and God bless!

Screwworms Found In Haskell County

Max Stapleton reported the first case of screwworms in Haskell County in some time. The case was found on the MLB Davis and son Ranch in the southern part of the county.

The test came from a tick wound in a steers ear. The steer was one of several brought up from Brook County.

Historical Info Sought About FBC

We need your pictures, certificates, clippings, and other things related to the history of the First Baptist Church for display at the 88th Birthday Celebration on September 12. Bring these articles to the Church office with your name on them and as much information about them as you can give.

Sign Up Now For Boll Weevil Spray Program

Haskell County cotton producers have the opportunity to help themselves with matching funds available from the Texas Department of Agriculture to increase cotton production by signing up for the fall Cotton Boll Weevil Diapause Program.

The fall Diapause Spray Program is designed to kill boll weevils before they leave the cotton fields in the fall and thus keep them from going into overwintering quarters. The program calls for six aerial applications beginning September 6th and ending the first week in November. The material to be used is sixteen ounces of low volume Guthion per acre.

Farmers are asked to check with the Boll Weevil office in Rule at the Rule Co-Op Gin and sign up their acres on the map. If there are any questions concerning the program please call 817/997-2626.

This program is of great importance to producers, landlords, and to the over-all economy of Haskell County.

Rochester Man Dies In Truck Accident

Vicente Perez, 22 of Rochester was pronounced dead at the scene of an accident about 3 a.m. Sunday after the pickup in which he was a passenger ran into a parked grain truck one mile north of Rochester on State Highway 6.

This was the second traffic death in Haskell County this year according to Sgt. Frank Jirick of the DPS.

Investigating Dept. of Public Safety Trooper James Davis of Haskell said the pickup apparently ran off the road. The grain truck was parked in a ditch.

Ruben Saucedo of Rochester, driver of the pickup, was taken to Knox City Hospital and transferred to Wichita General Hospital in Wichita Falls.

Haskell County Justice of the Peace H. H. Bledsoe pronounced Perez dead. Services for Perez were held at 2 p.m. Monday in St. George's Catholic Church in Haskell.

Burial was in O'Brien Cemetery, directed by Smith Funeral Home.

He was born July 19, 1954 in Yancey.

Survivors include his father, Frank Perez; his mother, Tomasa Perez of Rochester; and two sisters, Leonare and Janie, both of Rochester.

World Dove Shoot Set Sept. 4-5

The world dove shooting championship will get underway, Saturday, September 4th and last through Sunday, Sept. 5th with 400 trap targets being thrown for trap shooting enthusiasts. All targets will be registered with the Amateur Trap shooting Association and will become part of a shooters permanent record. The only thing that bothers me said W. L. Norman of Dougherty, Texas is I don't know whether or not I'll make the top 10 this year. I haven't been shooting that well, but it'll be fun trying. Only the top ten on the total 400 targets will prevail for a spot in the World Dove Shooting Championship.

According to W. E. Wooten, originator of the World Dove Shooting Championship said, "I hope we don't have a tie for the championship, because if they do the game laws won't let the shooters shoot more than 10 birds, the limit. The only way it could be settled is by the longest run or let it be carried over until the next day, Sept. 6th or settle it among themselves.

Last year, Brooks Gilbert of Kansas City, Mo. killed 10 for 11 and was 2 birds ahead of his nearest competitor and will be on tap Saturday to try for a spot in the top 10. Saturday shooters will begin with 50 pair doubles followed with 100 handicap. Sunday, 100 singles and 100 handicap will round out the total 400 clay targets thrown from the 4 trap lay-out at the Haskell Trap Club.

Sen. Farabee In Lower 25% In Spending

Senator Ray Farabee is in the lower 25% of the 31 members of the State Senate as to total expenditures for the fiscal year ending August 31, 1975. This was disclosed with the release of the State Audit published last week covering expenses for members of the 64th Legislature.

Senator Farabee stated, "I was pleased to learn of my ranking in regard to expenditures. It is important for those of us in public office to practice what we preach and to set an example with our own budgets by conserving the taxpayer's money."

"At the same time, there is work to be done to serve my constituents in the 30th District which covers 29 counties and is the second largest Senatorial District in the State. I have been able to see that this work is done in an economical manner with the help of an efficient staff, by avoiding unnecessary travel, and by cutting back on my staff when the Legislature is not in session," Senator Farabee concluded.

During his first term in the Texas Senate, nineteen bills authored by Senator Farabee were passed into law. He served on the Finance Committee, the Natural Resources Committee and the Jurisprudence Committee.

During the interim between sessions, Senator Farabee is serving on the Texas Legislative Council, the Texas Coordinating Commission for State Health and Welfare Services, the Property Tax Study Committee and the Texas Coastal and Marine Council.

Be sure and play it SAFE. Aim for safety and hunting fun by following these rules....

Treat every gun, loaded or unloaded, with due respect; it may save you and your fellow hunters.

Guns should always be left unloaded when not in use. Guns should be carried in cases to hunting zone.

Always be sure that action and barrel are clear of obstructions, and that ammunition of the proper size is being used.

Always carry your gun in such a way that you can control its muzzle direction, even if you should stumble.

Always keep chamber empty or on safety until you are ready to shoot.

Be sure of your target before you fire; acquaint yourself with your intended game's features.

Keep guns and ammunition away from the reach of small children and careless adults.

Don't climb a fence or tree or jump a ditch with a loaded gun; keep muzzle pointed away from yourself and others.

Never target practice without proper backdrop; never shoot a flat surface or water's surface, as bullets can ricochet.

As seasoned hunting buffs know: drink and live ammo don't mix; avoid alcoholic beverages before, during, and after the hunt.

Pre-plan your hunting agenda and area movements so that you and your companions are not in each other's line of fire.

Wear the prescribed safety hunting color for your area; make sure the color covers not less than 50% of your body.

I am not yet familiar with the hunting laws, dates and

Red Cross
First Aid
Class Available

The whole Emergency Medical Services System in Haskell is dependent on getting immediate care to the critically ill and injured.

In some cases the few minutes that elapse before professional emergency technicians arrive could mean a great deal of difference in the care and condition of a patient.

For this reason the more people who have emergency medical care training, the safer the man on the street.

The American Red Cross offers courses in First Aid. In the event of an accident, around the home, on the ranch, or in the middle of town, the Red Cross-trained citizen can render first aid until an ambulance arrives.

For more information on services offered by the Red Cross, contact Mr. Gerald McCoy Sr., 1804 N. Avenue H, Haskell, Texas 79521.

Also the American Heart Association (AHA) offers an 8-hour course on cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR). This training enables someone to help a cardiac patient in the event of a "heart attack." It could prevent brain damage as well as saving a life. Citizens who have a cardiac patient in their family are especially encouraged to call the AHA at (915) 673-5371 to enroll.

times for Haskell and surrounding areas, so I would suggest that you contact our local game warden, Jackie Young. He will be in the best position to inform you on these subjects.

One final word of caution, be extra sure that you have the proper hunting permits from landowners and operators. Be especially sure that you hunt within the prescribed limits and bounds set by the landowner, and that you make no mistake in your target. Livestock killed by hunters are very expensive to the hunter.

Observe all hunting rules and laws, as this, too, can be very costly for the hunter in fines, jail sentences, and loss of hunting permits.

WASHINGTON

"As It Looks from Here"

OMAR BURLESON
Congressman—17th District

WASHINGTON, D. C.—

UNDER NEW PROCEDURES, THE CONGRESS is required to have all appropriation bills completed by September 15. After that time it is the feeling of quite a few of us that the Country would be better off if the Congress adjourned for the remainder of the year. As long as it is in Session, there is always someone dreaming up some new expensive scheme in the name of "benefits" to the Country.

THERE IS SOME ENCOURAGEMENT in the fact that the leadership in both the House of Representatives and the Senate has abandoned consideration of several highly controversial proposed measures. One such measure is the so-called Humphrey-Hawkins bill providing for full employment and balanced growth.

THE OIL "DIVESTITURE" BILL which would force oil companies to engage in only one facet of the business is also being abandoned for the time.

NATURAL GAS PRICE DEREGULATION, although approved by the Senate Commerce Committee, is not likely to be considered. It lost some of its impetus when the Federal Power Commission raised the ceiling price for new natural gas.

ANY NATIONAL HEALTH INSURANCE LEGISLATION is too big a subject to tackle at this late date. Here again, it will be around in the next Session as it has been for the last several years.

THE POSTCARD VOTER REGISTRATION BILL has passed the House of Representatives but it is in dispute in the Senate as to which Committee has jurisdiction over it. It is fortunate the prospects for its final enactment into law are slim. This is a measure which attempts to tell States how to conduct their voter registration. It is obviously an imposition on States' rights. Although our State of Texas has a postcard registration law it nevertheless need not be told how to further conduct its affairs in this regard.

GUN CONTROL LEGISLATION has been approved by a Senate Subcommittee but the sponsors say no further actions will be taken unless they are assured that the House will act. Just this past week, the House turned down gun control legislation passed by the District of Columbia Government controlling handguns which pretty well assures that there will be no gun control legislation in this Session.

AN OMNIBUS REVISION IN THE FEDERAL CRIMINAL CODE although good in some parts, hardly has a chance of passage before the adjournment of the Congress and has taken a low priority in both Chambers.

TENTATIVE PLANS CALL FOR THE CONGRESS to either adjourn or recess on October 2. Due to the November election on November 2, it is necessary that Members return home for their campaigns. If the usual pattern is followed, there is good chance that the Congress would only recess and return after the election and would likely be in Session for the remainder of the year. It is worth repeating that the Nation would probably be better off for the Congress to remain out of Session until next January.

Field Day
Set Sept. 8

Rep. W. S. "Bill" Healy of Paducah talks about Rolling Plains agriculture on Sept. 8 when he takes part in a field day of the Texas A&M University Vegetable Research Station at Munday.

The veteran legislator will join Dr. Dudley T. Smith, assistant director of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, in emphasizing the importance of vegetable production to goals of the Rolling Plains Economic Program.

The Sept. 8 field day begins at 9:30 a.m. and ends about noon, said resident director Dr. B. D. Kingston. Guests will see research in the field with not only numerous vegetables but also such crops as sorghum, guar, cotton and soybeans.

Dr. Wayne G. McCully, resident director of the Texas A&M University Agricultural Research and Extension Center between Chillicothe and Vernon, will join other Experiment Station scientists to tell what research is finding about producing vegetables in the Rolling Plains.

Entomologists Dr. Jeffrey Slosser and Ronald D. Kirby, agricultural engineer David Bordovsky and soil scientist Dr. Cleveland J. Gerard, all of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, will tell about data they have gathered in studying insect control in vegetables and cotton and in managing the irrigation of potatoes and grain sorghum.

New Licenses
Now Available

One million resident hunting, combination hunting and fishing and exempt hunting licenses are on their way to license sales deputies and Texas Parks and Wildlife Department offices across the state.

Mailed Aug. 13, the licenses should be available for sale to sportsmen during the week of Aug. 16. They will be valid for use on Sept. 1 P&WD officials say the 1976-77 licenses are much the same as they were last year, with buck and antlerless deer tags and turkey tags printed on waterproof, tear-resistant paper. Date of kill on deer tags this year either may be marked out in ink or cut from the tag. License fees also are unchanged—$8.75 for a combination hunting and fishing license, $5.25 for resident

Solution To Local Tax
Increases

Rep. Dan Kubiak of Rockdale said recently he will propose legislation when the next Legislature convenes that will save Texans almost $1 billion in local property taxes. Kubiak predicted a "taxpayers' revolution" because property owners and citizens across the State "have suffered not only continuous but dramatic increases" in local property taxes during recent years.

Under Kubiak's proposal, the state would begin picking up the portion of the Minimum Foundation Program for public education, a portion that is now paid entirely by local school districts. He said this local fund "share" totalled $985 million for the current and the upcoming school years.

While transferring this local cost to the State, Kubiak told a Capitol news conference his bill would guarantee that local taxpayers in school districts across this State will see their taxes go down.

"My legislation will mandate that each local school district must reduce its local taxes by an amount equal to their local fund assignment," Kubiak said. He added that

Local Tax
Increases

Under Kubiak's proposal, the state would begin picking up the portion of the Minimum Foundation Program for public education, a portion that is now paid entirely by local school districts. He said this local fund "share" totalled $985 million for the current and the upcoming school years.

While transferring this local cost to the State, Kubiak told a Capitol news conference his bill would guarantee that local taxpayers in school districts across this State will see their taxes go down.

"My legislation will mandate that each local school district must reduce its local taxes by an amount equal to their local fund assignment," Kubiak said. He added that agri-facts Pat Hale Cotton crop contracting is the total subject of a study now being distributed by one of the research organizations of Texas A&M. Dr. Robert Branson, director of the Texas Agricultural Market Research and Development Center, recently summarized the report by specifying three actions which could improve cotton contracting. Since one of the major shortcomings of crop contracting has been the refusal to honor some contracts, Dr. Branson suggested formation of a central reporting agency... one which would provide financial information on buyers and delivery information on producers. Other suggestions called for a crop disaster clause in every contract and development of low-cost Government crop contracting insurance. Complete information on the report is available from Texas A&M.

Waiting for the right time to deal with a problem should be the first step toward a solution, Mrs. Barbara Elliott, County Extension Agent, contends.

One of the worst times for trying to discuss or settle a problem is when people are tired and upset. This is because when exhausted, most people lack patience to cope with problems arising among co-workers, family or friends, she added.

After a long, hard day at work, even the smallest problems can seem overwhelming. Too often, a person loses his temper at children or spouse because he is tired and on edge.

Most of us occasionally have unloading frustrations on our families and later regretted our actions. Family relations will feel less guilty if discussions are delayed when one is tired or upset—or hungry.

After a test or relaxation period, the situation usually looks clearer.

It's easier to be more diplomatic then, too, she pointed out. Allowing time, if possible, to relax before tackling a pressing problem may prevent overreacting or saying something which might later be regretted. Being in firm control of your own reactions and aware of other's feelings can prevent situations which cause anger, resentment and defensiveness, she said.

Dark-Carroll Are Wed

Miss Lezlie Kay Dark and Mr. John Lee Carroll exchanged vows on August 28 at 7:30 p.m. in the Mayfair Church of Christ in Huntsville, Alabama. Miss Dark is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Franklin Dark of Huntsville and the granddaughter of Mrs. Richard Smith of New Boston, Texas. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Harold Carroll formerly residents of Haskell and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Carroll of Haskell and Mrs. J. M. Glass of Haskell.

The ceremony was officiated by Robert Anderson of Huntsville with Mr. Kenneth Turvey at the organ and Robert Larkin violinist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and the bridesmaid was Miss Linda Cameron, attendants were Patricia Carroll, sister of the groom, Gloria Kerr, Lea Smith, and Jamee Startzman. The flower girl was Jami Teel daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Teel, Jr.

Groomsmen were Steven Carroll, brother of the groom, best man, Phillip Dark, brother of the bride, Keith Wells, Cliff Gaddis, Jeff Lawrence, Gary Summers and Allen Cameron.

The bride chose a gown in candlelight silk organza. Tiny oriental pearls outlined the Cameo portrait neckline of her pea d'ange lace bodice, with the lace forming the top and cuffs of her shepherdess long sleeves. The floor length domed skirt of organza was decorated with motifs of the lace and scalloped pea d'ange lace circled the hem above organza ruffles that swept to a circular chapel train. Pearlized orange blossoms in a profile arrangement held her tiered English silk illusion cathedral veil. Her bouquet featured pale pink and white silk flowers intermingled in a cluster of white orchids with streamers of pink satin ribbon and lace.

The attendants wore formal gowns in Celj blue georgette with elbow length double caplets over sleeveless Empire bodices. Georgette was crushed at their raised waists above triple georgette flared tiers that created the floor length skirts. Their matching garden hats of milan braid were decorated with satin ribbon streamers. They carried round nosegays featuring pink, blue and white silk flowers with blue satin streamers.

Mrs. Dark, mother of the bride, chose a gown in maise chiffon with a cowl neck finger-tip length cape.

Mrs. Carroll, mother of the groom, wore a gown in pink knit with a pink lace jacket.

Reception was held in the Mayfair Church of Christ following the ceremony. The couple left on a wedding trip to Florida and will return to reside in Auburn Alabama to continue their education.

The tables were laid with red and white check table cloths with red geraniums tied with red and white gingham bows for the centerpiece.

The Young Homemakers served their husbands with a delicious old fashion style dinner. At the conclusion of the meal, Mrs. Eddie McKeever, state officer on the State Executive Committee, installed the new officers for the coming year 1976-77. The banquet was concluded with a HYH business meeting while the husbands adjourned to the next room for a visit.

All the Young Homemakers are looking for 1976-77 to be a rewarding year and pledge their support to the new slate of officers.

ONE YEAR AS MISS RODEO TEXAS

In our lifetime there are "pipe" dreams and then there are dreams that come true. Becoming "Miss Rodeo of Texas" was one that came true for 20 year old Glenda Gayle Chapman, on a sunny September 1975 day in Stephenville, Texas. This blonde young lady, with a winning personality, began her dream at a very early age. A common sight a few years ago at the Jack Chapman farm, east of Haskell, Texas, was a petite girl in pigtails riding the barrels on a stubborn sheltand pony, "Cocoa". The youngest child in the family, with three older brothers to assist, Glenda Gayle not only learned horsemanship, but was always on hand when branding time came. As is always the rule, school became an important part of her life. Mattson Rural School was the first school attended. Soon this school consolidated and Haskell schools gained a fine pupil. Scholastic interests shared her time with 4-H Club, track, basketball and cheerleading. In May 1973 a determined girl graduated from Haskell High School and enrolled at Tarleton State University. College activities did not leave much time for the sport of rodeo, but when summer came one could find Glenda Gayle and her brothers at many rodeos.

After a year at Tarleton State, Miss Chapman enrolled at Texas Tech University. While at Tech she was chosen "Miss Rodeo Texas Tech". Representing Tech she was privileged to enter the "Miss Rodeo of Texas" pageant. Prior to entering the contest, Glenda Gayle and her mother, Joy Chapman, spent many a midnight hour at the sewing machine. Almost all of the western attire worn by Glenda in the pageant were designed and made by this mother and daughter team. After being chosen "Miss Rodeo of Texas" a new and exciting life unfolded. A contract was signed to attend major shows throughout the year's reign and to promote PRCA rodeos in Texas. The first major show attended was in Abilene which is near her hometown of Haskell. Many friends and relatives were pleased to see one of their own wear a title such as "Miss Rodeo of Texas". At this time, the Haskell Jaycees and other interested citizens began a fund to assist the financial needs of their new queen. The principals of friendship, love and understanding for the fellowman have been appropriately shown in more than thirty cities by this smiling and personable young Christian lady. Among the Texas cities visited were Waco, Mesquite, Dallas, Lubbock, Odessa, Ft. Worth, San Antonio, Houston, Paducah, Wichita Falls, Seymour, Stamford, Coleman, Snyder, Brownwood, Ralls and Roby. She was also privileged to visit Louisville, Ky., Denver, Colorado, Tennessee, Oklahoma and Bozeman, Montana. Reigning as "Miss Rodeo of Texas" has led to many duties. Among these have included modeling, telethon appearances, radio commercials and a lot of autograph signing. Perhaps the highlight was competing and being chosen among the finalists for "Miss Rodeo America" in Oklahoma City, Okla. But the greatest asset that goes with the crown, is the opportunity of meeting and making new friends. Being a queen has not been the entire role of Glenda Gayle in 1976. She has worked in a western clothing store in Lubbock, as well as driving a tractor and hoeing on her Dad and brother's farms in Haskell County. Looking back over 1975-76 Glenda Gayle Chapman can readily say one of my dreams has come true, and she is looking forward to the future which includes securing a job and returning to Texas Tech University to further her education.

Every now and then some of our former residents come by and spend a few minutes or hours visiting with old friends here at Sagerton, and we are always very happy to see them and talk about "the good old days", and some of them not so good! We hope that they enjoy visiting with us, as much as we do their visit. Last week Roy Wienke, who operated a gin here until 1946, visited with many of our residents. The Weinkes now live near Kerrville. Recently Bill and Jeanette Schroeder from Seagraves stopped by.

Mrs. M. Y. Benton has had guests in her home last week. They were: Mrs. Estes Drake and daughter, Melba, of Houston, Mrs. Johnny Barown and Mrs. Oloman of Midland, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Men Charged With Water Hyacinth Sale

BROWNWOOD—Two men have been arrested and charged with selling water hyacinths, classified under state law as potentially harmful noxious aquatic vegetation. The pair, listing San Antonio home addresses, was arrested in Comanche by Texas Parks and Wildlife Department game wardens. According to an ongoing investigation, the men allegedly sold what they termed "Spanish hyacinth" to retail firms in North Central Texas. An Angelo State University professor, however, identified the plants as Eichhornia azurea, or water hyacinths, native to Brazil.

According to law, it is unlawful to sell, import, transfer or release these plants without a permit, says Lou Guerra, P&WD noxious vegetation control program director.

At the time of their arrest, some 180 plants were confiscated from the men by law officers. Retail outlets in Comanche, Eastland, Brownwood, Abilene, Haskell and San Angelo so far have been traced as having bought plants from the suspects.

There were indications that similar sales of suspected water hyacinths were made to retailers in Midland, Lubbock, Fort Worth and San Antonio.

week. He is Fred's cousin and a former resident of Sagerton.

"These plants are the rooted variety; they are hard to control because we don't have any chemical that will stop their spread to navigable waters," Guerra said.

"The growth characteristics of these plants are such that we can't control their spread with herbicides to an acceptable level," Guerra noted. "Under normal circumstances these plants grow rapidly, fragment easily and their potential for damage is great, once they become entrenched in navigable waters."

The case and subsequent arrests were triggered by a Brownwood botanist who recognized the potentially harmful hyacinths at a retail outlet and informed Parks and Wildlife Department officials. "These South American plants usually find their way into Texas waters after people become tired of having them in their aquariums and dump them. The plants are hardy survivors with great reproductive potential," Guerra added.

Guerra is to meet with representatives of the U. S. Department of Agriculture to determine if the water hyacinths were imported from out of the country. If such a determination is made, federal law also may have been violated, Guerra pointed out.

Retail establishments have been warned to be on the lookout for persons attempting to sell such plants for aquarium displays. Wardens stressed that anyone who has purchased these plants should contact the nearest P&WD office.

Individuals should not attempt to dispose of the plants, since that also is a violation, game wardens said. The investigation, meanwhile, continues.

The cases will be heard in Justice of the Peace court, where conviction carries $200 maximum fine for each transaction.

VA News

Some veterans may be making unnecessary premium payments on their National Service Life Insurance policies according to C. H. Herren, Service Officer for Haskell County.

All NSLI policies provide for a waiver of premiums in the situation in which the policy holder becomes totally disabled. To qualify for a waiver of premiums a veteran must have a total disability which has existed for six or more months and commenced prior to his 65th birthday. Additionally, this six months period must begin after the insurance has been applied for and the policy must be on a premium paying basis during that period.

Waiver of premiums is not granted automatically. The insured, or someone acting on his behalf, must make an application for the waiver. If the insured died without filing a claim for waiver of premiums, proof of total disability and the claim must be filed by the principle beneficiary within one year after the insured's death. Refunds of premiums already paid are usually limited to one year prior to the filing of the claim.

For insurance purposes, "total disability" means that there is an impairment of mind or body which continuously prevents the veteran from gaining meaningful employment.
