HASKELL, TEXAS, 79521, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1976

NUMBER FORTY-FIVE

Remember...you read it in the Free Press...if you thought that the City of Haskell had suddenly become wealthy after reading the City Council story last week, such is not the case.

The story stated that the City had received a Sales Tax check for some $16,000 while in reality the check was for about $1,600. What teacher was it that told me zeros are place holders and don't mean anything?

ps

Our congratulations to Doyle High on the completion of paving around his new drug store. Congratulations are also due on the new store itself, but since construction, moving, etc. all went well, we felt Doyle would appreciate being congratulated more when the long overdue paving was completed this week.

ps

Visited with Pete Beecher this week and received the good news that Miller Creek Lake received about 1/2 inch of water from last week's rain. A few more rains like this one (hopefully after wheat has been sowed and cotton stripped) and we can begin receiving water from the lake.

ps

In addition to stopping planting and harvesting the rain caused another problem last week.

The Cyclethon was scheduled Saturday morning and after four days of solid rain, officials postponed the event until November 6. The postponement came Friday afternoon so that all participants could be informed.

One good thing from the postponement will be the chance for participants to contact more sponsors and therefore raise more money for the Heart Association.

ps

Pat Neill, History teacher at HHS, called Tuesday to invite us to visit the school and view the school election.

All high school students and members of the eighth grade class were eligible to vote and the election was run as near to the real thing as was possible.

The main problem was that in attempting to make the ballots authentic in size, four 8 1/2 x 11 sheets were mimeographed and stapled together. The process was a lengthy one and a much larger than expected turnout caused problems when more ballots had to be prepared Tuesday afternoon.

It will be interesting to compare the HHS election with the results of the general election. If the HHS election results are completed in time they will be published in this issue, if not they will be published next week.

Tribe Eliminated From District

The Haskell Indians were eliminated from district contention last Friday night by the Hamlin Pied Pipers by the score of 17 to 8. The Indians had several opportunities to win the ballgame; however, they simply could not capitalize on their opportunities. Three times on 4th down and short yardage inside Hamlin territory, the Indians fumbled and failed to pick up the necessary yardage. The Haskell defense played exceptionally well; however, Hamlin refused to turn the ball over, played very conservatively and were able to move the ball when they had to.

The Indians finish the season on the road with a game next week at Knox City. Knox City is in a rebuilding year. However, they have been boosted by several athletes from O'Brien which is speeding the reconstruction process. Game time is 7:30 p.m.

Last Friday night, the Indians moved for one first down after a short kick-off. However, they were stopped and tried to punt Hamlin deep. The snap sailed over punter Archie Crim's head deep into Haskell territory. The Indians demonstrated a stonewall defense and forced a punt. However, on the second play, Haskell fumbled the ball away again deep in their own territory. Hamlin could not penetrate the end zone against the rock ribbed Haskell defense so Stanley Jones kicked a 26 yard field goal to make the score 3 to 0. That ended the scoring the first half.

In the second quarter, Haskell cranked up a good drive of over fifty yards but were stopped on 4th and 2 on Hamlin's 14 yard line by a fumble. Hamlin could not move the ball and the half ended with Haskell again on the move.

During the entire 3rd quarter, Hamlin did not get a first down. Haskell again moved down inside Hamlin's 25 on the bull-like rushes of Vonnie Hise and the quick outside darts of Kelvin Marshall. However, on 4th and 1, the Indians fumbled and stopped the drive. Hamlin was forced to punt. Then, on 3rd down, Delbert Thompson dropped off from his linebacker position, intercepted a quick pass, and dashed 55 yards for a TD. After the PAT the score stood 10-0.

The Indians were still not convinced; they cranked up still another sustained drive which moved inside Hamlin's 5 yard line. However, on fourth and 2, the Indians fumbled away another golden opportunity. Hamlin took the ball and marched over 50 yards eating up the clock along the way. However, the Pied Pipers finally committed their only turnover of the game. The Indians then moved downfield quickly on three pass plays to score. The last completion was a HB pass by Marshall to Frank Jordan for 33 yards. On the PAT, the Indians lined up in an unusual formation, pitched a lateral to Jimmy Browning who dashed into the end zone for 2 points, making the score 10-8. The Indians tried an onside kick

INDIAN GARY McADAMS runs around left end and with a good block by Jessie Billington, picks up about twelve yards. The play came six plays into the fourth quarter and moved the ball to the Hamlin twelve yard line. The Tribe moved to within the five before giving the ball up on downs. (Staff Photo) and came within six inches of pulling it off; however, the ball slipped out of bounds with no one in control. It was simply not to be this evening for the Indians. Desperately trying to take the ball, the Indians allowed Delbert Thompson to slip outside and break 51 yards for a TD and

PAT by Jones. This drove the Indians flat against the wall. The Indians played aggressive, tough defense all night

Mental Retardation

Editor—This is one of a series of articles about Mental Retardation prepared by Mrs. Eugene Cochran and the Public Education Committee of the Texas Association for Retarded Citizens.

The Advantages of a Trust
You can use your will not only to make financial provisions for your child but also to specify your wishes for his or her future care and management. You can, for instance, control the use of funds left for your retarded child by arranging for a portion of your estate to be handled by a concerned and competent relative, friend, or bank "in trust" for the use and benefit of your child.

What is a Trust? A trust is a relationship in which one person (the trustee) administers property and its proceeds (the trust estate or trust property) for the benefit of another (the beneficiary) in accordance with the directions of the person who created the trust.

A trust can be created by a trust agreement executed while you are alive (inter vivos trust) or it can be created by the provisions of your will (testamentary trust.) Although we tend to associate a trust with a large sum of money, there is no reason whatever that this useful device cannot be used to control the distribution of a modest estate.

Varied Trust Arrangements—A trust can be established and so arranged that the trustee can exercise the same powers over the funds of a retarded child that you as a parent exercise.

With the trust, parents can determine what portion of their estate should be used for their retarded child. They can also give to the person who is named trustee limited or wide discretion in making expenditures for the benefit of their child.

In the case of small trusts, provision can be made to give the trustee discretion to use part of the principle of the trust for exceptional expenditures or unusual needs. In the case of an institutionalized child, the trustee's power may be restricted so that funds cannot be used for institutional charges but only for personal and incidental expenses of the child. In small estates, it may be best to preserve the principal of the trust for the day when the child may be able to return to the community.

If there are brothers and sisters, you can set up a joint trust for the benefit of all the children, with a directive to the trustee that there need not be equal distribution of the assets. This arrangement again provides for flexibility, and enables the trustee to make expenditures in the member and served in numerous capacities. She enjoyed home decorating and gardening. For the past five years, Mr. and Mrs. Burton have lived at Leisure Lodge at Munday.

Survivors include her husband; a daughter, Mrs. Bailey (Nancy) Toliver of Haskell; four grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. B. M. (Mary) Stodghill and Mrs. Troy (Kivian) Warren, both of Vivian; and a brother, Joe Rogers of Fort Worth.

Pallbearers will be J. E. Walling, Royce Williams, Bud Herren, Jerry Jetton, Bud Lane, and Raja Hassen.

The highlight of the program was the Gold Star Awards presented by County Judge B. O. Roberson. The Gold Star Award is the highest award a 4-H member can receive. Gold Star Girl for Haskell County is Kim Campbell. Kim has been in 4-H for seven years. She has served as president of the Haskell 4-H Club and held several other offices in her project groups. She is Vice Chairman of the Haskell 4-H Council and the Junior Leaders Association.

Her projects include Foods, Clothing, Leadership, Grooming and Management.

Kim has represented Haskell County and District III in the State 4-H Food Show where she was a 2nd place winner and has participated in the State 4-H Dress Revue twice. She was a finalist in the 1976 State 4-H Dress Revue.

She has participated in Texas 4-H Congress for one year.

The Haskell High School Junior is Drum Major for the Haskell Indian Band.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Duward Campbell of Haskell. Kim was also presented with a $50.00 Saving Certificate from the Haskell National Bank.

Gold Star Boy is Russ Lewis, who has been a member of the Rule 4-H Club for six years. He has carried outstanding projects in Swine and Sheep as his awards and trophies will indicate. Russ and his brother have a herd of swine and sheep that have been the resource of 4-H projects for several other 4-H members.

For the past two years he has been a member of the Haskell County 4-H Livestock Judging Team that competes with teams from other counties in Extension Service

District III each year.

This past summer Russ attended the District Leadership Lab at the State 4-H Center in Brownwood.

He has held various offices in his local club and is a member of the County 4-H Council.

The 15 year old sophomore from Rule High School is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Lewis. He is a member of the Rule Football, Basketball and Track Teams. Russ was presented with a $50.00 Saving Bond by the Farmers National Bank.

Other action included the appointment of Mrs. Ruby Smith as election judge in the Absentee box to replace George Fouts who had resigned, transferred $15,000.00 from general fund to officers salary fund, agreed to subsidize ambulance fund in the amount of $500.00 and agreed to close courthouse offices November 2, because of the election and several offices used as polling places.

Don Comedy met with members of the court and presented tax information which had been presented to the court when meeting at the board of equalization. The information showed wide variance in the valuations of many business buildings in Haskell.

The same information was presented to the board of equalization and no changes were made in the valuations. Members of the court said the matter would be considered when the board of equalization met again next year.

Weather clears in time for pancake supper

Approximately $460.00 has been received to date from the Haskell Lions Club Pancake Supper held last Friday night according to Don Comedy, Secretary of the Club. Proceeds from the event go to the Goodfellow fund.

Some members have not turned in money from tickets sold and bills have not been paid but club members are pleased with the apparent success of the supper.

Bad weather throughout the week caused much concern among the Lions but a much larger than expected crowd showed up when the weather cleared slightly before the event started.

Lion C. O. Holt, chairman of the project, expressed his thanks to the following merchants who donated supplies to the supper: Pogue Grocery, M-System, JRB, Gholson, Haskell Steak House, Dean Butane Co., Haskell Butane Co. and Tom Watson.

Other new officers include: First Vice President, Mrs. Dale Bradshaw, Abilene; Second Vice President Mrs. Bailey Crain, Pearsall; Third Vice President Mrs. Bobby Howard, Haskell; Fourth Vice President Mrs. Hugh Barton, Canadian; Recording Secretary Mrs. Robert McLeod, Amarillo; Corresponding Secretary Miss Randy Haggood, Henrietta; and Treasurer Mrs. Jake Hess, McLean.

Named CowBelle of the Year is Mrs. Chester Bell, a charter member of the Texas CowBelles and currently serving as third vice president.

The convention, Oct. 24-25, included a reception in honor of three cattle industry group leaders. Honored during the reception was Wray Finney, president of the American National Cattlemen's Association; O. J. Barron, Jr., president of the Texas Cattle Feeders Association; and J. A. Whittenburg, III, president of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association.

EDDIE NICHOLSON

Special Program TEL Class Set At East Side Baptist

The Rocking Chair Philosopher, Eddy Nicholson, attacks our fast moving society in an unusual way. Convinced that most Americans need to slow down and live, Nicholson has parlayed his program FOLKS AIN'T A-LIVIN' NO MORE into national attention. Dressed in overalls, the Tennessean relates how it was on a small farm after milkin' time at the close of a day. The entire performance is done in a rocking chair. Skillfully blending mountaineer humor, country stories and gospel songs, Eddy pulls no punches in urging families to spend more time with their young-uns' and with things that count.

Audiences laugh, cry, sing and reminisce as Nicholson leads them in a stroll through yesteryear...to a time when folks weren't so busy being busy. Before they know what is happening, people who hear this program find themselves re-evaluating priorities, and that is exactly what the hillbilly in the rocking chair wants. Enjoyed by young and old alike, this program is as unique as a mountain sunrise. Folks everywhere love the down home style which is real and not created by some historic genius.

All this is wrapped up in a pair of overalls. It is called THE ROCKING CHAIR PHILOSOPHER presenting FOLKS AIN'T A-LIVIN' NO MORE.

Eddy Nicholson will make a personal appearance at the East Side Baptist Church, Wednesday November 10 at 7:00 p.m.

A fund has been established at the Haskell National Bank for the restoration of LaBriere House. Members of Progressive Study Club voted Thursday night to place $300 in the fund and are encouraging civic and service clubs, other organizations and individuals in Haskell to add to this initial amount.

The Haskell City-County Bicentennial Committee purchased the house with some assistance from the city and it has been moved onto city property behind the Depot Museum.

LaBriere House was the first house built in Haskell, erected in 1883 by John LaBriere. Progressive Study Club voted earlier this year to take as its project for 1976-77 the restoration of the house.

John Leonard LaBriere was born July 2, 1860 in Missouri and came with his brother Henry from St. Genevieve County, Missouri to Texas in the late 1870s.

In the 1880 census there were about 35 people living in Haskell County and John LaBriere was one of those people, living on a line camp with a Mexican national. In her excellent book, "Interwoven," Sally Reynolds Matthews mentions that Henry LaBriere was about 14 years of age and was living in Throckmorton County, listed as a ward with the Matthews family.

John LaBriere returned to Missouri and claimed Sally Ballard as his bride July 24, 1882. Sally was the sister of Mrs. W. F. Draper, Mrs. Henry Post, Mrs. J. H. Meadors and Tom Ballard, all Haskell County pioneer families with the exception of Mrs. Meadors; she and her husband helped to settle Dickens County.

The young couple came back to Texas with the Ballard family to Granbury in Hood County in that same year, living at Ft. Griffin for a time, then came to Haskell in 1883 and built a house on Block 6, Lot 1.

Lumber was hauled from Albany to build the two-room

Cattle On Feed Declines... From 1867 To 1976... $3.10 To $57.70.

The number of cattle on feed in Texas and nationwide is showing a downward trend, according to the latest report from the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service.

Cattle and calves on feed in Texas feedlots totaled 1,460,000 head as of Oct. 1. This is down two per cent below a year ago and is one per cent below the Sept. 1 count.

Nationwide, cattle and calves on feed were down less than one per cent from a year ago.

Feedlot operators in Texas intend to market 800,000 cattle through the rest of this year. This would be 55 per cent of the number on feed as of Oct. 1 and represents an increase of four per cent from marketings during the same period a year ago.

Cattle and calves placed on feed during the July 1 to Sept. 30 quarter totaled 921,000 head; this is seven per cent below the corresponding quarter last year.

Marketings of fed cattle from Texas feedlots totaled 1,001,000 during the July 1 to Sept. 30 quarter; this is up 36 per cent from the same period in 1975.

In the October totals, steers accounted for 62 per cent of the cattle on feed and heifers made up 48 per cent.

IF YOU THINK LIVESTOCK PRICES ARE LOW now, consider prices of 40 years ago and even a century and more ago.

A hundred years ago, the average cattle price was less than $9 per head; the year of 1868 was apparently the lowest ever, with an average value of slightly more than $4 per head.

These and a host of other figures about the Texas livestock industry from 1867 through 1975 are contained in a report titled Texas Historic Livestock Statistics.

On a price-per-pound basis, the report begins with the year 1924. And as you might expect, the low years were in the Great Depression of the 1930's.

Cattle prices in 1932, 1933, and 1934 ranged from $3.10 per hundredweight to $3.30. Calf prices ranged from $3.60 to $3.90 per hundredweight.

The highest average price per pound for cattle came in 1973 with a 44 cent figure. The highest price for calves was also in 1973 with a 57.70 cent average.

The year of 1873 records the lowest total number of cattle in Texas, with 4,600,000 head. Last year, the record number of cattle and calves in the state was set with 16,600,000 head.

Hog prices had their ups and downs, too. In 1867, the value of a hog was placed at just under $2. The highest hog price came in December of 1975 with an average value of $67.50 per hundredweight.

Lamb prices have varied from a low of $2.35 in 1932 to $16.40 in 1973.

Milk cows ranged in value from a low of $6.70 per head in 1869 to a high of $380 in 1974.

Thousands of Texans who have been hospitalized at one of the three chest hospitals operated by the Texas Department of Health Resources went seeking treatment, cure and hope for the future.

While receiving these things, they have in most cases found something else: a new set of friends in the hospital doctors, nurses and other staff members.

The hospitals do more than just treat tuberculosis. Although noted for the expert, specialized treatment which tuberculosis patients must have, hospital personnel deliver it with compassion. They also provide guidance which affects the lives of many patients, particularly alcoholics. This counseling services is important because the recurrence of tuberculosis in many cases is associated with excess intake of alcohol and resultant nutritional deficiencies. The importance of nutrition to health is emphasized.

For patients stricken by tuberculosis, the chest hospitals located at Tyler, San Antonio and Harlingen are always open to receive them. It's the only place many Texans—those without financial resources—can go for treatment of this contagious disease.

The hospitals don't stop at the treatment for tuberculosis. If other medical or dental problems are found, these conditions also are treated while the patient is hospitalized.

In addition to the care given tuberculosis patients, the chest hospitals also provide treatment for persons with chronic respiratory disease (asthma, emphysema, bronchitis and other chest diseases including some cases sent to the hospital and later found to have cancer.)

The hospitals are accomplishing their extensive programs on a budget of $15.5 million. And, more than a fourth of this is returned to the state's General Revenue Fund. Patients who enter a chest hospital and are able to pay are charged commensurate with this ability to pay. Also, those who have private insurance, or are eligible for federal or other benefits, are charged for the services for which they are covered. These payments last year totaled $4.5 million. Since these payments do go into the General Fund the net cost to the state for the operation of the hospitals is some 25 percent less than the money appropriated for their operation.

The three chest hospitals last year admitted 3,200 patients, including most of the 2,600 new cases of tuberculosis diagnosed in the state. The hospitals get the worst cases of tuberculosis, those harder to treat who normally must spend more time in the hospital. Some tuberculosis patients are treated at contract hospitals.

Persons entering a tuberculosis hospital today spend an average of 65 days, while those with milder infections stay an average of 20 days in the contract hospitals.

A decade ago, the average stay in a chest hospital was 200 days.

In other words, said Dr. Fratis L. Duff, Director of Health Resources, patients are receiving better care today than in the past and are having to remain in the hospital only a third of the time they did just 10 short years ago.

Cost for a hospitalization in a state chest hospital is only $48.09 per day, compared to $145 per day for a patient in a full reimbursement contract hospital.

If all tuberculosis patients admitted to the state chest hospitals in 1975 had been admitted to the full reimbursement contract hospitals and kept for the same period of treatment, the additional cost to the State of Texas over the cost of operating the chest hospitals would have been more than $13 million.

A big bonus provided these Texans by the hospitals, said Dr. Duff, is the provision of outpatient care including laboratory work, X-rays and medications, and special treatment for people who have chronic respiratory disease. Certain members of the medical staffs of the hospitals conduct clinics for chest disease patients in the surrounding communities.

All the advances are made possible by better management, improved care programs and the addition of newer methods of treatment of tuberculosis. Comparing the cost of state chest hospitals with the money paid to private providers for even lesser services reveals that in chest hospitals patients receive care at a fraction of what it would cost in another setting.

Without the chest hospitals, said Dr. Jerome H. Greenberg, Deputy Director for Preventable Diseases, Texans with tuberculosis would have to pay some three times the cost for services—if they could afford to pay at all.

COOKING Brilliantly

TIPS FROM THE TOP

Helpful Ideas From Leading Holiday Inn Food Specialists

Hot dogs can look really top dog if you split them lengthwise, place a strip of sharp cheese in the cut and wrap each with a slice of bacon, secured with wooden picks. Broil on a rack, about 15 minutes.

For a more flavorful salad, put the dressing in the bottom of the salad bowl first, then add the ingredients that taste best marinated, (mushrooms, onions) put the greens on top and set the whole bowl in the refrigerator until just before you're ready to serve, then toss salad at the table.

Cooked broccoli can have a tasty Italian accent if it's heated in a saucepan with olive oil and sprinkled with grated Parmesan cheese.

4-H's Report Bread Making On Uptrend

CHICAGO—Home bread making is on the uptrend. Spurred by renewed interest in the nutritive values of foods, more and more consumers are turning out mouth-watering, nutritious breads in their own kitchens.

Homemade breads, like a deliciously fruity orange rye loaf (see recipe below), supply many of the body's daily requirements for vitamins and minerals.

Nutrition-conscious young people can learn all about bread making in the national 4-H bread program, sponsored for the 25th year by Standard Brands Incorporated.

In practical projects supervised by the Cooperative Extension Service, 4-H members 9-19 acquire and demonstrate skills in planning, preparing and serving breads and cereals that are both good tasting and good for them.

Boys and girls explore the scientific principles of bread making: how yeast works, the importance of correct temperatures and differences in flours.

Foreign breads add an international flavor to family meals and snacks as 4-H's learn the significance of grain products in diets and cultures around the world.

4-H members can bake their way to honors that include up to four medals per county, one expense-paid trip to National 4-H Congress per state, and six $800 scholarships at the national level. Awards are donated by Standard Brands and arranged by the National 4-H Service Committee.

National scholarship winners will be honored at the 55th National 4-H Congress, Nov. 28-Dec. 2 in Chicago.

Winners are selected by the Extension Service. More information on the 4-H bread program is available from county extension agents.

Easy-to-bake orange rye bread is great as a nutritious toast for breakfast, in sandwiches or for snacking.

ORANGE RYE BREAD (Makes 2 loaves)

- 2 3/4 cups warm water (105°F-115°F)
- 2 packages active dry yeast
- 1/2 cup firmly-packed dark brown sugar
- 4 teaspoons salt
- 3 tablespoons softened margarine
- 3 tablespoons grated orange peel
- 1 1/3 cup dark molasses
- 3 3/4 cups unsifted rye flour
- 5 1/2 to 6 1/2 cups unsifted white flour

Measure warm water into large warm bowl. Sprinkle in yeast; stir until dissolved. Stir in sugar, salt, margarine, orange peel, molasses and rye flour. Beat until thoroughly blended. Stir in enough white flour to make a stiff dough. Turn out onto lightly floured board; knead until smooth and elastic, about 10 to 12 minutes. Place in greased bowl, turning to grease top. Cover; let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour.

Punch dough down; divide in half. Roll each half to a 14 x 9-inch rectangle. Shape into loaves. Place in 2 greased 9 x 5 x 3-inch loaf pans. Cover; let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour and 10 minutes.

Bake on lowest rack position at 375°F about 40 minutes, or until done. Remove from pans and cool on wire racks.

With renewed consumer interest in nutrition, home bread making is on the uptrend. Young people 9-19 acquire bread-making skills—and bake their way to college scholarships and other recognition—in the national 4-H bread program conducted by the Cooperative Extension Service and sponsored by Standard Brands Incorporated.

Cotton Classing

MUNDAY
Cotton gins and warehouses in seven North Central Texas counties, on Oct. 26, began submitting samples to the Munday, classing office, reports Donald W. Bratton, regional director for the cotton division of the U. S. Department of Agriculture Agricultural Marketing Service, El Paso.

The Munday office serves 24 gins and warehouses in Archer, Baylor, Haskell, Jack, Knox, Throckmorton and most of Young counties.

Sidney C. Ferrell is officer in charge at the Munday office, which last year classed 58,971 samples. It is estimated that this year the office will handle 60,000 samples, until it closes with the end of the cotton harvest. Early-ginned cotton about 3,500 samples from the Munday territory has been classed at Abilene.

Cotton producers may request reviews of classification reports from the Munday office, P. O. Box 74, Munday, Texas 76371. Producers, as well as news media, gin operators and others of the cotton trade, may be placed on a mailing list to receive weekly reports on quality sales and other market information prepared each Friday by the Munday office. The telephone number is 817-422-4063.

ABILENE
Cotton is bringing from 3500 to 3600 points above CCC loan prices, according to Sidney Ferrell, in charge of the Munday Classing Office. Trading was light with only a small amount of free cotton (cotton not under contract) available.

Grade 41 was the predominant quality this week, accounting for 29 percent of the classing total. Grade 42 was next with 26 percent, followed by grade 51 with 25 percent. Eleven percent was grade 52 and 3 percent was grade 43. Reductions in grade because of bark or grass accounted for 6 percent of the total. Staples 31 and 32 were predominant with 36 and 33 percent, respectively. Nineteen percent was staple 30 and 9 percent was staple 33 or longer.

Mike readings were excellent with 94 percent falling in the 3.5-4.9 range. Only 1 percent miked less than 3.5; and 5 percent, 5.0 and higher.

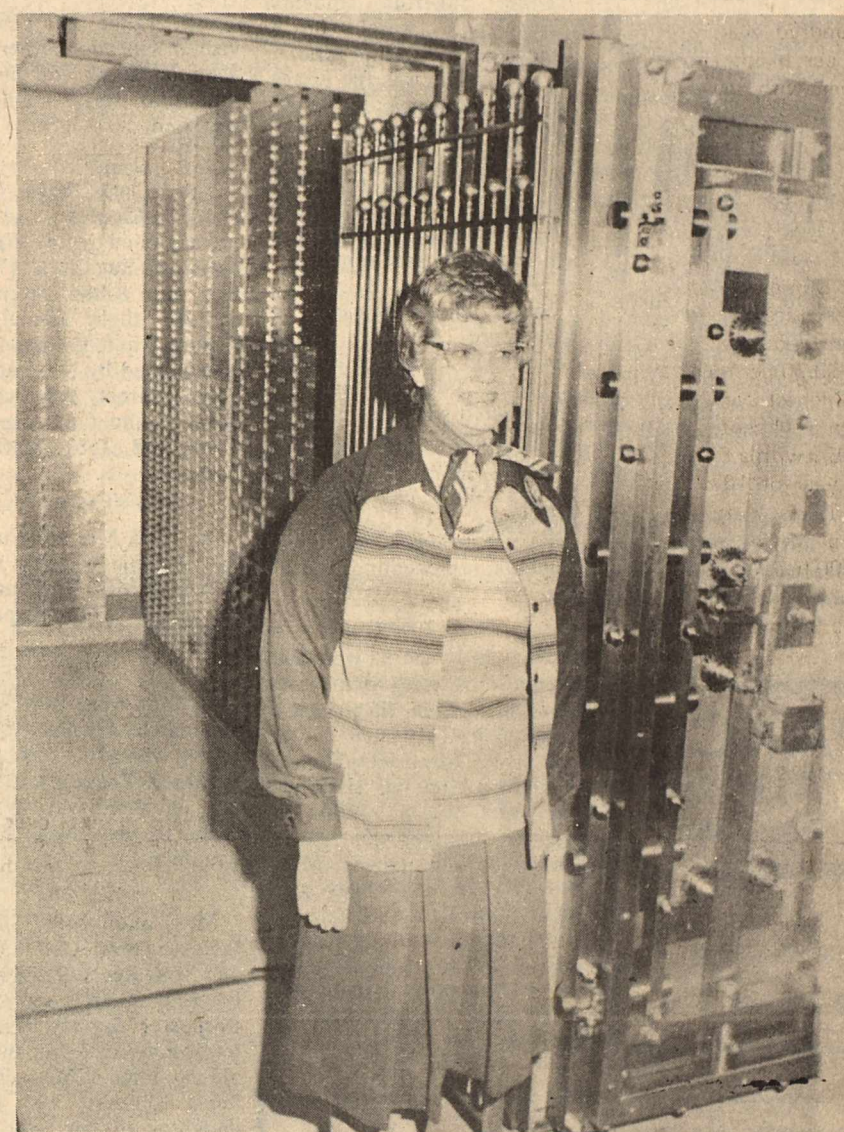

About 1600 samples were classed by the Munday Classing Office during the first week of operation, ending October 29, 1976. Receipts are down to practically nothing. All cotton on hand has been classed.

REVIVAL
Revival will begin at the Church of God, Throckmorton Highway, November 3 through November 7. The evangelist is Rev. Jack Kee of Powderly. Services begin each night at 7:30. Sunday night at 6:00. Everyone is invited to attend. Rev. J. W. Davis is pastor.

INTRODUCING...

TO SERVE YOU BETTER

Carolyn, (Mrs. Buck) Everett is one of Haskell National Bank's few "old timers". Now, HNB hastens to add that terminology is applied to number of years of service, not to age! Carolyn began her career with HNB twenty years ago, in August of 1956, following the time honored tradition of working her way through bookkeeping, proof machine, and teller duties. From the beginning of her employment, she took a very active interest in doing everything to the best of her ability, and never turned away from going that extra mile, or taking on an added duty. She has never taken the attitude that "that's not my job." She would have to receive the "jack-of-all trades" award at HNB, because she can handle any job that comes her way, very competently. Her official title is Assistant Vice President, and Assistant Trust Officer, a title which apparently means a lot of things. Carolyn supervises the bookkeeping department, trying to keep an equitable balance of duties among the employees there, and is not above assisting them in any way needed. In accordance with her Trust Department duties, she makes the many entries, and keeps abreast of the various income and disbursement vouchers associated with that division. She also handles the I.R.A. accounts, and the direct deposit items connected with the Social Security checks. Another time consuming chore is the processing of Student Loans. HNB is the only bank in this entire trade area that handles these loans. As in all government connected items, there is an endless amount of paper work involved with these loan applications and much time must be spent in organizing the whole procedure, and much time spent in converting them to "pay-off" schedule when they eventually become due. Carolyn exerts a lot of time and energy to these loans. She also must work the daily analysis of the bond investment portfolio into her busy schedule. In her "spare time", she has charge of renting the Safe Deposit Boxes, and keeping a file on available boxes for rent.

Carolyn is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Turner, and was born in Rule. She attended grade school there before she and her family moved to Haskell. She was graduated from Haskell High School, attended Hardin Simmons University in Abilene, and has completed work for the Standard Certificate from American Institute of Banking (A.I.B.). She is married to Buck Everett, who is also a graduate of Haskell High School. He has been connected with the Postal Department since 1947 and has been a Rural Carrier for Route 2, out of Haskell since 1961. Buck and Carolyn raised two Haskell Indians, Tim and Keith. Tim is a graduate of Angelo State University, coached in Sweetwater for two years, and is presently farming here. He is married to the former Paula Terrell. Keith is a graduate of Texas Tech University, and is employed with Plains Meat Co. in Lubbock. He is married to the former Jill Fincher. The entire Everett family has always been actively engaged in all community and church affairs. Carolyn is a member of Progressive Study Club, and has served in various offices of the civic organization.

The Everetts' reside at 1507 North Avenue G, and are members of Haskell's First Baptist Church. Carolyn has taught classes in the Young Adult Dept. for many years, and is a stand-out member of the church choir. Many, many Haskell families can attest to the comfort they have derived from hearing her beautiful voice singing great hymns during times of bereavement.

The sun looked so good when it came out Saturday after being cloudy and rainy all last week. Miss Mary Macias, a sophomore at Rule High School and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cato Macias, Sr., was elected from her class to run for Homecoming Queen at the Rule High School Homecoming which was held last weekend.

We are proud to have these students representing Sagerton.

Ever see a 15-million dollar cattle truck? It looks as though that's where things are headed with the announcement by major air carriers that 747's are going to be converted to livestock haulers for international markets. Officials say live cattle transportation to countries outside North America is already 80 percent by air with both the volume and the percentage expected to increase during the coming years. For the animals themselves it's all first class. Interiors are redesigned and structured to resemble a barn with separate pens or stalls. Special temperature control and ventilation systems are being designed and separate studies are underway to determine other ways to increase animal comfort. No one has yet decided whether to include in-flight movies but it sounds as if they may not be far away.

National 4-H Congress Set In Chicago

CHICAGO—1,600 of the nation's top 4-H members will arrive in Chicago for the weekend of Thanksgiving for the 55th National 4-H Congress Nov. 28-Dec. 2.

The 4-H delegates are select representatives of the nearly 5.5 million young people enrolled in 4-H, and for some of them the trip to Congress is the fulfillment of their dreams.

Most of the young people are state, sectional and national winners in 4-H projects and activities supervised by the Cooperative Extension Service.

A total of $215,400 in scholarships will be awarded during the five-day meeting at the Conrad Hilton Hotel. 276 delegates will take home national and regional scholarships ranging in value from $500 to $1,000 each.

The 1976 Congress theme, "4-H—Room to Grow," will emphasize how 4-H provides opportunities for young people to grow as they set goals and respond to new challenges.

During Congress, prominent leaders in government, education and business will meet with delegates to share their knowledge and experience. Special emphasis will be given in discussion groups and assemblies to developing a better understanding of the American economic system.

Taking advantage of the cultural offerings of Chicago, delegates will spend an evening at the Art Institute and tour the Museum of Science and Industry, Field Museum of Natural History and other points of interest.

Throughout the week, delegates will be honored at special recognition events hosted by 4-H donors and other friends of 4-H.

National 4-H Congress is conducted annually by the Extension Service and the National 4-H Service Committee. It is made possible by the generous support of some 60 businesses and foundations.

Delegates to Congress will come from all 50 states, the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico.

The 55th National 4-H Congress will officially open at 2 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 28, with an assembly in the International Ballroom of the Conrad Hilton Hotel. Keynote speaker will be Dr. Russell G. Mawby, president of the W. K. Kellogg Foundation, who is a former 4-H member, volunteer leader and state 4-H leader.

SAFETY QUIZ

Every minute of every day, on the average, a fire occurs in an American home. Knowing how to prevent one from happening in your house—and what to do if it does—can help keep you and your family safer. Here's a quiz to help you test your knowledge.

DO YOU KNOW WHAT TO DO FOR FIRE SAFETY?

1. Oily household rags should be kept in (a) tightly covered metal cans (b) open metal buckets (c) tightly covered wooden boxes.
2. A fondue or chafing dish alcohol burner should be filled (a) up to the top (b) never more than half full (c) while it's lit.
3. If a fire does start (a) jump out the nearest window (b) take the main stairs (c) follow one of the escape routes you've planned in advance.

ANSWERS:
1. (a) Oily household rags are fire breeders. If you must keep them, keep them in tightly covered metal cans. Confine them with just a little air can cause spontaneous combustion. 2. (b) Never fill an alcohol burner more than half full because the liquid expands and can spill. Use a heat-resistant tray. 3. (c) If you must jump out the window, never go back for anything. Call from another phone or the nearest alarm.

KITTENS & YEARLINGS TIE 6-6

The Rule Junior High Kittens hosted the Rochester Yearlings last Thursday night, October 26th, in Bobcat Stadium and played to a 6-6 tie. It was basically a defensive game the first half, marred by a number of fumbles.

Rochester took the opening kickoff and carried to their 26 yard line. Rule received the ball on downs at Rochester's 33 yard line. A fumble by Rule put them back on Rochester's 12 yard line. Following two turnovers, Rule scored when David Lisle ran around right end for a touchdown, but a penalty wiped the touchdown out and Rochester again received the ball. Following another series of turnovers, Rochester scores around their right end but again a penalty wipes the touchdown out. Rule recovered two Rochester fumbles and on the last fumble they recovered, they began to drive for the goal line and had Rochester backed up against their own goal line when time ran out for the half.

The second half both teams came out fighting and Rule scored with six seconds left in the third quarter when Lisle went around left end for the touchdown. The PAT was no good, being spoiled by a fumble exchange.

Rule then held Rochester and gained possession by way of a punt with 5:07 left in the fourth quarter. Rule stepped back to punt but David Lisle received a wide snap from center and had to fall on the ball. Rochester then went on to score through the middle with 3:53 left in the fourth quarter. Marc Thane made an important tackle to stop the extra point and leave the score tied 6-6. Rule drove down to about the 20 yard line of Rochester before the game ended and time ran out. Both teams were hurt by penalties. Rochester had one touchdown called back and Rule had two touchdowns called back, one of these touchdowns came in the last minute of the game. Rule's season record stands at 6-0-1 while Rochester's stands at 4-1-2.

Outstanding defensive performance was turned in by Wes Jones, Terry Threet, Leon Greeson, Victor Ortiz and Rod Petty.

STYLE SHOW

Members of the Rule FHA presented a delightful and nostalgic style show last Monday evening, October 25, in the Rule High School auditorium. Dresses worn by the girls included styles worn in the fifteenth century to the 1940's and then after an intermission styles were shown from the 1940's to the 1960's. Each dress had been worn by an individual and brought back many memories of the years past. Just a few of the items included a gym suit worn at the University of Texas, a medieval costume of the years past, a dress worn by a former faculty member of Rule High School and two wedding dresses were included in the style show.

Background for the fashion models was a Bicentennial quilt, white with a large gold eagle and then trimmed in colors. The quilt was made by Mrs. Will Stegemoeller of Sagerton and was very lovely.

Also on the stage was a dress form, a large mirror and a rocking chair. Narrators for the style show were Cynthia Sorrells and Betty Kittley. As each model came onto the stage, comment was made on the detail of the dress being worn. Entitled, Fashions From The Attic, the style show was very delightful.

Assisting in entertainment at intermission were the junior and senior class boys in Home and Family Living Class who presented a womanless wedding. Needless to say it was hilarious. Conducting the ceremony was preacher-Steve Hertel; daddy was Robert Baiza; mother-Paul Flores; bride-Tommy Sorrells; groom-Mark Lewis; flower girls-Kraig Kupatt and Jerry Tumlinson; ring bearers-Wes Kittley and Terry Lee; bridesmaids-Dwayne Landreth, Ronnie Oliver and Larry Denson; groomsmen-Eddie Brass, Robert Ace Turner and Ricky Miller; soloist was Jeff Thane and organist was Clyde Stegemoeller.

Girls participating in the fashion show and doing an excellent job were: Lesa Peel, Kelli Alexander, Bonnie Woods, Amanda Hunt, Linda Rhoads, Lisa Sherman, Kris Kupatt, Irma Puebla, Rosie Spurek, Cynthia Sorrells, Deborah Soto, Sylvia Ortiz, Tina Laughlin, Lisa Smith, Jill LeFevre, Tami Letz, Tammy Anderson, Betty Kittley, Emily Moore, Joanne Cloud, Debbie Flores, Cheryl Marquis, Susan Swofford, Judy Threet, Marla Lehmann, Martha Kittley, Lynn Fouts, Carmel Navarette and Mary Macias.

Kansas.

Going by class instead of age, the oldest graduate present was Mrs. Audie Penick of Sweetwater, class of 1911 and the next was Mrs. Nora Leon of Rotan, class of 1912. The graduate traveling the longest distance was Mrs. Inell Mason Vogel of Cape Girardeau, Missouri. Mr. and Mrs. Leon Biffle were from Alaska, but they are residents of Rule during the winter, and so they were not counted.

Approximately seventy five persons stood when asked who had received their entire schooling at Rule, from the first through and completed the twelfth.

Following the recognition exercises, the nominating committee submitted a list of officers for the next Homecoming to be held in 1978. Voted on and approved were the following officers: president-Jerry Hannsz, vice president-Kenny Tanner and secretary-treasurer-Mrs. Faye Dunnam. Serving as Homecoming officers for 1976 were: president-Joe B. Cloud, vice president-Jerry Hannsz and secretary and treasurers-Geraline Pool and Joy Jones.

Following the business meeting, Wes Kittley and Wynette Williams, accompanied by Colleen Townsend on the piano sang a duet entitled, "Remember."

Introducing the speaker was Jerry Hannsz. Mr. Hannsz spoke of E. B. Whorton Jr., known as Sonny, as a former classmate. He spoke of his going to Baylor on an athletic scholarship and then of other scholarships and grants Dr. Whorton had received and of the various honors he had received.

Before giving his talk Dr. Whorton reminisced a few moments about his former classmates, former teachers, and other people in Rule who had made an impression on his life. He displayed a pipe given to him by a former Rule teacher, Frank Baker when he had finished his schooling at Baylor and told of the words of encouragement Mr. Baker gave him to succeed in life.

Dr. Whorton stressed a person have goals in life and to work toward those goals. He stressed that they place God first, family second and self third. He spoke of the formative years from grades one through twelve and the influence teachers and people have on children. The need for reading, writing and arithmetic and plus. In his schooling in various states, he would nearly always run into someone from home, Rule. He said people may change but, not Rule, Rule was here and, always would be and Rule was his family. He cared very much for the people in the community and what they had meant in his life and the encouragement his family and friends had given him.

Following Dr. Whorton's talk a member of the class of 1957 displayed a former cheerleaders uniform and said she would be unable to model in it as it might be X-rated.

Twirlers, Cindy Thompson, Debbie Flores and Lynn Fouts presented a twirling display. This was followed by the benediction by school superintendent Lavon Beakley. The cheerleaders of 1976-77, Wynette Williams, Colleen Townsend, Joanne Cloud, Jill LeFevre and Linda Rhoads led the group in the singing of the school song to conclude the program.

MRS. ANDERBERG

Funeral services for Mrs. Julian (Nell Jones) Anderberg, 78, formerly of Abilene were held Monday, November 1st, in North's Memorial Chapel in Abilene. Burial was in Elmwood Memorial Park. Mrs. Anderberg died at 9 a.m. Friday, October 29th, in the Baptist Memorial Center in San Angelo after a lengthy illness.

Born September 22, 1898, in Haskell, she was the daughter of early pioneers of Haskell and Rule, the late Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Jones. She married Roger C. Grafft in 1917 in Rule. He preceded her in death and she moved to Abilene in 1920. She married Julian Anderberg. He died in 1967. She was church librarian at First Baptist Church for several years and was a member of Grape Way Club, Eastern Star, Abilene Woman's Club, and First Baptist Church.

Survivors include a son, Roger C. Grafft of Jacksonville, Florida; two brothers, Chester Jones of Arkansas and Foster Jones of Kerrville; two sisters, Mrs. Frances J. Hills of Denton and Mrs. W. S. Cole of Rule; three grandchildren; and a great-grandchild.

SOCIAL SECURITY

A representative of the Social Security Office from Abilene will be at the Rule City Hall on Wednesday, November 10, between the hours of one to two p.m. Persons having business with their social security representative or wishing to ask questions, are asked to meet with them at this time. They come to Rule once a month. Persons needing to contact the Social Security before they come, may do so at the main office in Abilene.

Health Views

DON'T LET THE HOLIDAYS GET YOU DOWN

We should all look forward to the Holidays. And yet, it is amazing to note how many people can hardly get through them without a great deal of stress and exhaustion.

The fast pace of modern living seems to make people almost frantic in their approach to the Holiday season. Pressures build for both the business person and the homemaker as they seek to fulfill all social, business and family obligations in a short span of time.

ENJOY YOUR FUN—Don't let festivities keep you from feeling fit.

What many of us don't realize is that the way we feel under pressure (mentally and physically) depends to a great extent on our overall health. No one can feel relaxed, pleasant, and capable of coping with a busy schedule if his body is not functioning properly.

Even under normal circumstances, there is a difference in the reactions of those individuals whose health is up to par and those whose health is less than should be expected. Add to that the overindulgence in food and beverage during the Holiday season, the drain on mental and physical capacities, and the result is more obvious. Since the central nervous system influences every part of the body, stress shows up in extreme fatigue, nervous tension, and lowered resistance against disease and disablement.

It's easy to say "slow down for the Holidays," but your doctor of chiropractic offers some sound advice based on his health care experience and training.

1. Before you jump on the merry-go-round of activities, pull out and pitch all the non-essential projects that were time-consuming and wasteful the previous year.

2. Concentrate on essentials, and pace yourself. Make up a list of projects to be done by priority and allow sufficient time for them.

3. Don't try to get all your entertaining into the Holidays. If you "owe" someone dinner or social response, try to schedule it after the Holidays. Since other people suffer the same frustrating schedule as you do, they might also appreciate an invitation when the pace slackens.

4. Resist the temptation to over-eat or to indulge in an excess of rich foods.

5. Get plenty of sleep and relaxation.

6. Keep an important place on that calendar of busy activities for periodic health examinations, including a spinal examination.

Your doctor of chiropractic reminds you that having a happy Holiday depends on staying healthy, being energetic, and being free of pain and illness. Persistent or recurring aches in the back and limbs may suggest a possible spinal or pelvic problem. This often requires a structural correction of the cause in order to relieve the condition. Although drugs may hide the pain temporarily, the spine and sacroiliac must be aligned to their proper position for their proper function.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

I can remember when Halloween came, children were allowed to trick or treat in their own neighborhood and maybe a parent would drive them over to their grandparents, uncles and aunts, and maybe a special friend.

Not so any more, the streets of Haskell Saturday night were unbelievable. Cars and pickups, loaded with children and I mean loaded were systematically driving up and down streets and children were piling out of cars, running across streets, knocking on every door.

In the past, if a porch light was not on, Trick or Treaters knew they were not welcome. This was disregarded this year.

This letter is not written in criticism of children in any way, but to remind adults that children's actions are governed by parents, teachers and all adults they come in contact with.

It is surprising that several children were not injured Saturday night. At the speed of 5 miles per hour, I almost ran down two.

Let us hope for a quieter and safer Halloween next year.
