Football season is over for the teams in Haskell County. One of the best games we have seen all year was the Rochester-Gorman game last Friday in Eastland.

The game went smoothly with only a few penalties and a lot of good hard hitting football.

Rochester lost the game 11-6 to almost the same team that defeated them last year for Bi-District.

While on the topic of football we would like to convey our thanks to Junior High School Principal James Lanier for covering the Haskell football games this year. James did a fine job during the football season and has already begun working on

City Council Holds Meeting

Members of the Haskell City Council met in regular session Tuesday night at the City Hall with the following members present: Mayor Belton Duncan, Councilmen Bob Philpot, E. J. Stewart, Loraine Johnson, and Guy Kennedy, Water Supt. Marvin Collins and City Sec. Desmond Dulaney.

The meeting was called to order and the invocation was given by Mayor Duncan.

Following the approval of minutes of the last meeting, Mayor Duncan reported that the City had received a sales tax check for $3,754.33.

Following a discussion, members of the council decided to present City employees with merit awards.

The existing dog ordinance was amended to read that a penalty of $2.00 per day will be charged for keeping a dog picked up by the City with a minimum of $10.00. Dogs running loose will be picked up starting immediately. Persons who have their dogs picked up by the City should report to the City Hall to obtain information concerning their return.

It was also decided that the City Hall would be closed December 24, and the City Dump will be locked December 24, 25 and 26.

The next regular meeting of the Council will be December 14.

Most businesses in Haskell will close Thursday for Thanksgiving and a few will close Friday. We were not able to determine just exactly who would be closed when because some business people were not sure when we contacted them.

Propst said a special letter will be mailed soon to encourage farmers throughout much of Texas to take part.

He said farmers wishing to pledge a bale of cotton to the Rehab Center should contact

The following were selected for the band: Kim Campbell, bassoon; Connie Frierson, bass clarinet; Sharon Gray, drums; Terri Therwanger, flute; Peggy Harris, contra-bass clarinet; Clark Richardson, cornet; Jim Turner and Thomas Long, trombone; Katie Wooten, Mona Bledsoe, Betsy Opitz, and Cindy Everett, soprano clarinet; Karon Gray and Rosemary Kimbrough, french horn. These students rehearsed all afternoon for the concert given that night.

Haskell and Hamlin had more representatives in the band than any other school.

Roundball Season Underway

Basketball season began last week for the Haskell High School Maidens and Indians with the Maidens getting the jump on the Indians by playing two games last week. The B-girls defeated Olney by 12 points; Kerry Therwanger got a hot hand for 22 points. However, turnovers, and untimely fouls caused the B-teams to lose to Seymour 39 to 37 on a basket as the buzzer sounded. The B-team girls wound up a pre-Thanksgiving play with a record of 1 win and 1 loss.

The varsity girls played 2 games last week, losing one on the road and winning one at home. At Olney, the Maidens played a fine first half to battle Olney to a tie, 34-34. However, in the 3rd quarter they only got 6 shots and 3 points and Olney blew them out and held on through the 4th quarter to win 60 to 46. Betsy Opitz used her jump shot to garner 20 points, but fouls simply destroyed the Haskell defense as Sherrie Everett, Floradean Hawkins, and Tonya Whitaker all fouled out. The Maidens were whistled for 30 fouls to 21 for Olney.

On Thursday, the Maidens evened their season record at 1 and 1 by defeating Seymour by a score of 51-42. Jeanette Randle was the leading scorer for the Maidens with 22 points, several of them key last half buckets. The Maiden guards did a good job of shutting down Kim King, the Seymour gunner for the 1st half. She returned for 15 points the second half but the damage was done. She finished 26 points for the evening. Sherrie Everett was particularly effective on defense and did a good ball handling job. On offense, Kem Kemp, Betsy Opitz, and Sarah Cox all played well at times. Cox especially was effective in the 4th quarter by getting 5 of 9 Maiden points.

LITTLE DRIBBLERS

There will be a meeting of interested parents of Little Dribblers on Thursday, December 2nd at 7:30 p.m. in the Junior High Library. The purpose of the meeting is to elect new officers for the coming season. The registration of athletes will be handled at the elementary school. The athletes involved are both boys and girls ages 9-12. It is very important to have a good turnout of parents so that the program can be started with enthusiasm and vigor.

Last Monday night, the boys' Jayvees, girls and boys varsity traveled to Albany. The Maidens ran into a human buzzsaw called Janelle Smalley who scored 42 points on 21 field goals. The Maidens could not get untracked against the bigger, faster Albany girls. The Maidens stayed close for the first half with Albany leading 25-20. But the second half Albany got hot and the Maidens were unable to stem the tide. The final score was Albany 75, Haskell 41.

The Haskell Jayvees jumped off to a quick 1st half lead but got into foul trouble the last half and could not sustain the momentum as Greg Gideon and Gabriel Capetillo both fouled out. Albany was extremely hot from the free shot line as they canned 20 out of 28 attempts to only 3 out of 15 for the Jayvees. The final score was 44 for Albany 43 Haskell.

Haskell boys' varsity opened their season by losing to Albany 45 to 39. The Indians only have 3 seniors out for basketball. However, they showed good discipline and aggressive defense to hold a good Albany team to a close margin. Coach James Raughton is introducing a new system emphasizing tough man to man defense and a shuffle offense. The Indians made several turnovers but are adjusting quite well to the new system. an outstanding game scoring 24 points. Vonnie Hise had his moments especially on defense.

Accountant Details Bell Accounting Practices

As Southwestern Bell Telephone officials, public utilities commissioners and intervenors have been preparing their cases for the current statewide telephone rate hearings, an Austin accountant and telephone rate consultant has been busy doing his homework, too.

The result is Bell Is Phony, a book interpreting the telephone company bookkeeping practices which justify periodic rate increases for subscribers.

Citing documented sources from within the telephone company, author Bryan Sloan answers some often-asked questions about Ma Bell. "Why do telephone rates keep going up?" "How are periodic rate increases justified?" "Does Bell really keep two sets of books?" "Are we paying more for phone service than it's worth?"

arguments significantly as the hearings progress. By the time allocations are set, Sloan says, there may be some surprising changes made in the original request.

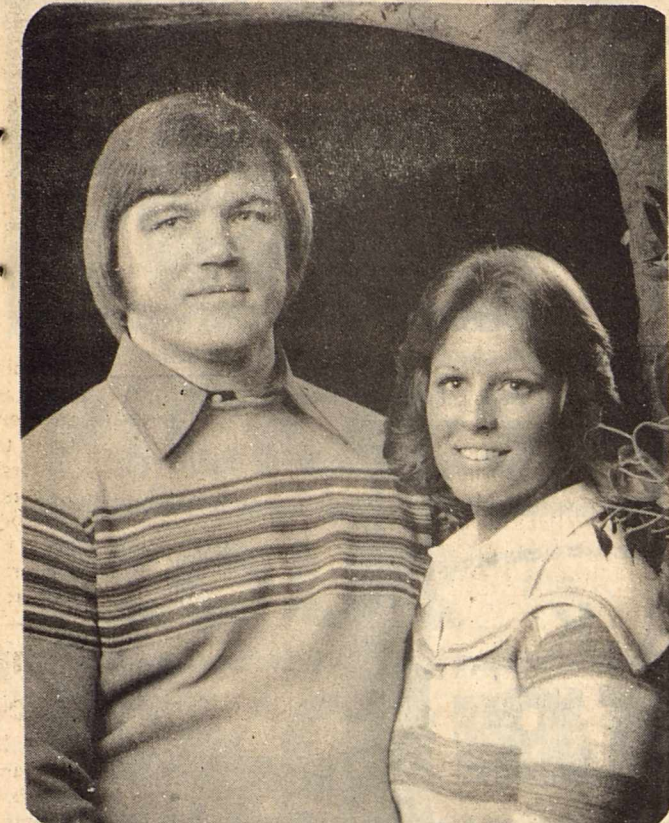

During the second phase of the hearings, cities in ten "rate-bands" will present arguments concerning rate-setting in their own particular areas. Commissioners hope to have a final decision made by January 4.

The new rates would go into effect during the first week in February, unless Bell is allowed to post a bond. In that case, the rates as requested would go into effect immediately, retroactive to October 7. If the final rate increase is less than Bell's original request, the difference would be reimbursed to subscribers.

Bell Is Phony is available from your bookseller or by mail from Oasis Press, Box 1825, Austin, Texas 78767. Cost of the book is $3.95, plus 50 cents postage and handling. Texas residents should add 5% sales tax.

Girls Teams Win Four Lose Two

The Haskell Junior High girls' basketball teams started the season off with a flurry as each team played 3 games last week. The 7th graders played in the Paint Creek tournament. In the 1st round, they ran into the sharpshooting host team and lost 38 to 26. The 7th graders defeated Lueders-Avoica in the second round 22 to 18; however, in the consolation finals, turnovers and inexperience killed the youngest girls' team. They lost to Throckmorton 24 to 21.

The 8th graders got the season underway much more successfully by defeating Wylie by a score of 28 to 8. On Tuesday they traveled to Olney and smashed the Olney 8th grade girls to the tune of 38 to 20 as the first unit played less than a half. On Thursday night Seymour forced the 1st unit to play almost 3 quarters before Haskell simply broke the game open 42 to 18 to bring the record to 3 wins and no losses.

The junior high boys will open the season and the girls return to action after the Thanksgiving Holidays against Knox City-O'Brien at 5 p.m. The 7th and 8th boys and 8th girls will play.

Report your comings & goings by calling 864-2686.

To support his study of Bell's "unique" accounting system, Sloan offers detailed tables, itemizing information on AT&T subsidiaries, profit patterns, growth rates, stockholder return, investment and expenditure records, and others.

Bell Is Phony makes an interesting supplement to daily news reports from the Public Utilities Commission hearings in Austin. The hearings are currently in the first of two phases. Arguments are being heard from Southwestern Bell in defense of its multimillion dollar rate increase request, as well as from consumer groups which oppose the measure. Cases will also be presented by the Texas Municipal League, the state Attorney General's office and the federal government.

At the end of these initial hearings, phone companies revenue requirements will be determined and statewide allocations set.

Author Sloan predicts that evidence unearthed during these initial hearings will require all the major parties in the case to restructure their

SO YOU CAN KNOW US BETTER

INTRODUCING . . .

TO SERVE YOU BETTER

John Sam Rike III is the "newest" addition to Haskell National Bank's staff of officers, serving in the capacity of Vice President and Security Officer, and on its Board of Directors. He returned to Haskell to make his home and began his employment with H.N.B. in October of 1975, a real lucky day for the City of Haskell, and especially for the bank. He is so highly qualified for the work he does, that H.N.B. can hardly believe that it was able to lure him away from the larger city banks. He occupies the front office in the main lobby of the bank building, and can ably handle any demand that is placed upon him, either by customers or other bank personnel, who take full advantage of his super knowledge of banking rules and regulations. He meets all these challenges with a very shy wit, and superbly "hip" sense of humor.

John Sam is the only son of Mrs. John S. Rike of Haskell, and the late Mr. Rike. Grandparents from both the maternal and paternal background were true Haskell County pioneers, having established one of Haskell's very earliest stores, (which is still in operation), and being among the first families to start farming and ranching operations here. John is a Haskell High School graduate, and a graduate of Texas Tech University, with a degree in finance. While at Tech, he also participated in the R.O.T.C. program, and was commissioned a Lieutenant upon graduation. He was first stationed at Fort Sill, Oklahoma, later was sent to Korea, where he served with the U.S. Army Artillery from 1964-1966. He ended his Tour of Duty with the military at Fort Hood, Texas.

John and his wife, Mary, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Metcalf of Elysin Fields, Texas, lived in Haskell during the first year of their marriage, where he was associated with his father in their farming and ranching operation. John accepted employment with the First National Bank in Marshall, Texas where he worked for two years, before becoming a National Bank Examiner for the U. S. Comptroller of Currency, a position he held for five and one half years. The Rikes lived in Lubbock during that time. Later, John became the Vice President of the First National Bank in Brownwood for two years, before being persuaded to return to Haskell and a position with Haskell National Bank.

Further seeking to improve his banking skills, John completed the two year requirement for a diploma from Southwestern Graduate School of Banking at Southern Methodist University in 1970. He has been teaching an American Institute of Banking course, "Principles of Banking" for twenty bank employees from Haskell, Hamlin, Rochester, Knox City and Throckmorton. Classes began in August and will be completed in December.

John and Mary have two sons, Fred, a fourth grade student in Haskell Elementary School and James, age five. They are active in many civic affairs, John is a member of Haskell Lions Club, and a director in Haskell Chamber of Commerce. Mary is a very talented artist, and both are avid tennis enthusiasts, displaying championship form, (at least, Mary does).

The Rikes live at 1002 North Seventh Street in Haskell, and are in regular attendance at First Christian Church.

Gingerbread People From Santa's Workshop

Part of the traditional holiday preparations in many homes is the shaping and decorating of an assortment of cookies. Create the magic of Christmas in your house by having a cookie baking spree. Commemorate Christmas past by selecting some favorite cookie recipes from your childhood—and Christmas present with some new additions.

Gingerbread people are made with "sugar 'n' spice 'n' everything nice." Ground peanuts are incorporated into the batter and whole peanuts are used to decorate the cookies. These delicious cookies make excellent Christmas tree ornaments or stocking stuffers.

GINGERBREAD PEOPLE

- 2-1/4 cups unsifted flour
- 1 cup Planters Cocktail Peanuts, ground
- 1/2 teaspoon baking soda
- 3/4 teaspoon ground ginger
- 1/4 teaspoon ground nutmeg
- 1/8 teaspoon ground allspice
- 1/2 cup (1 stick) margarine
- 3/4 cup sugar
- 1/2 cup molasses
- 1/4 cup water
- Currents
- Candied cherries
- Planters Cocktail Peanuts

Mix together flour, ground peanuts, baking soda, ginger, nutmeg and allspice; set aside.

Cream margarine and sugar until light and fluffy. Beat in molasses and water. On low speed gradually add flour mixture; blend thoroughly. Chill several hours. On well-floured board roll out dough to 1/8-inch thickness. Cut with floured 5-inch gingerbread cookie cutter. Place on greased baking sheets. Roll and cut scraps of dough. Press currants, pieces of candied cherries and peanuts in dough for eyes, nose, buttons and other trims.

Bake at 375°F. 8 to 10 minutes, or until set. Place on wire racks to cool. If desired trim with confectioners' sugar frosting. Makes 2 dozen cookies.

Accent ON HEALTH

Texas Department of Health Resources
Fratris L. Duff M.D., Director

If your children have a pet, or if you're thinking about getting a pet for your child, you'll be interested in a new program that has been developed by the Bureau of Veterinary Public Health of the Texas Department of Health Resources. The purpose of the program is to teach children how to care for their pets.

Dr. William Bilderback, director of the state's Zoonosis Control Program, explained that the pet care project is intended for children in the second grade. He said, "This is something we have never had the capability of doing, and it's something that most of us have dreamed about in the past, but now it's a reality."

The program is designed around a single classroom lesson, using a filmstrip with a pre-recorded narration. A coloring booklet reinforces the major concepts in the lesson, and each participating child receives a second booklet to take home.

The educational materials were developed by the Pet Food Institute, the trade association of pet food manufacturers, and by the Orange County (California) Veterinary Medical Association Women's Auxiliary. Additional printed materials, including a Teacher's Guide, have been prepared and reproduced by the Texas Dept. of Health Resources. A Spanish-language version of the filmstrip, photograph record, and printed materials is being developed now and should be available next Spring.

Bilderback said, "We do have some marvelous educational programs for adults, but this never seems to quite do the job, and we've failed in the past to have educational materials that reach to the real 'education point.'" He stressed that importance of teaching pet care at an early age so that children will have a base on which to build "the fundamentals of environmental responsibility and pet ownership."

The educational materials will be available to teachers through the twenty Regional Education Service Centers. In addition, the women's auxiliaries of the local veterinary medical associations in many communities will put on the program in the local schools. Also, a veterinarian in each of the ten Texas Public Health Regions will be available to present the program.

The content of the program stresses the importance of providing a suitable shelter for a pet, the pet's nutritional and grooming needs, and rudimentary pet training. The theme, "a pet is a very special friend," emphasizes the child's responsibility toward the pet.

Beauty Here And There

By Bernadine Wyche For Haskell Garden Club

I just returned from a trip to Seattle, Washington. Seattle is so beautiful in the fall. The tall green, Douglas Fir background to the Autumn red leaves of the maple trees and against these an array of giant dahlias and roses in every hue and tint. Red and golden delicious apple trees loaded with fruit dot the landscape and lush tomatoes grow in the midst of flower beds and planter boxes. And back of it all is majestic Mt. Ranier with its perennial cap of snow. At night the Kaleidoscopic reflection of the city in the bay with the lighted space needle towering over the scene is a never to be forgotten sight of beauty.

Near Los Angeles the almond, walnut, and olive orchards had been harvested but were green and well groomed. In West Hollywood where I visited my grandson, his hanging baskets of lush green ferns and ivy on partially enclosed patios and under a sky light a huge rubber plant—all were picture book pretty.

Passing through Arizona blooming cacti dominated the scene. Coming into Haskell I was surprised to find that the fall rains had left color and beauty everywhere.

For September the Fair with its display of vegetables, plants, grains and flowers was a good representation of the horticultural skill of our community. Those who judged the Fair Flower Show commented, "Haskell has the most beautiful horticulture we have ever judged. It is a pleasure to judge here."

For October the garden of Dr. and Mrs. T. W. Williams was outstanding with gorgeous white football mums in just the right places to add distinction and fragrance to the landscape. The Japanese garden is especially appealing with its quiet serenity.

The cactus garden of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Dunnam is very interesting with its many varieties of cacti and its unique placement of rocks and Haskell "railroad cinders." The barrel cactus was in bloom with its yellow blooms in a perfect circle around the top.

Then came November with its snow and ice turning Haskell into a winter Wonderland. It is beautiful but devastating to the farmers. But let us remember our State and Haskell themes "For such a time as this; Look toward our Future with Strength and Determination."

Study Club Holds Meeting

Members of the Progressive Study Club met in a regular meeting November 18.

A report was given by Mrs. T. P. Barnett concerning the cookbook being printed which will contain favorite recipes of club members. The book will go on sale in early December.

Mrs. W. H. Pitman was program director for the evening.

A prayer of Thanksgiving was given by Mrs. T. P. Barnett preceding the meal, a tasting bee of foods prepared by club members from recipes to be included in the cookbook. Piano selections were played by Miss Mona Bledsoe.

"Thanks For Blessings, Large and Small" was the topic chosen by the guest speaker, Rev. Charles Graff, pastor of First United Methodist Church, Haskell.

Rev. Gragg told the story, recorded in the Gospel of Luke, of the ten lepers who were cleansed by Jesus. Though ten were healed of their disease, only one returned to give thanks to Jesus.

"The nine men got all they came to get—their healing. But the one who was grateful not only got all he came to get—his healing, but he received much more; he got all that Jesus had to give. It is the person with the grateful heart who receives the extra blessing—the wholeness of life," Rev. Graff said. The Thanksgiving theme was also reflected by the speaker as he reminded the group of Paul's admonition to the Thessalonians—"In everything give thanks; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you."

Guests included Mrs. Charles Graff, Mona Bledsoe and her mother, Mrs. Earl Smith. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Mary Rosser and Mrs. Wayne Lehrer. Tables were decorated in the holiday motif.

Veterans enrolled in GI Bill training are eligible for up to an additional nine months training. Jack Coker, Director of the Waco Veterans Administration Regional Office, said today.

The Veterans Education and Employment Assistance Act of 1976, signed into law by President Ford October 15, increased the training entitlement for thousands of veterans who have not reached their 10-year delimiting date, Coker said.

Effective October 1, 1976, the law extended entitlement to 45 months for veterans, if they have served at least 18 months on continuous active duty after January 31, 1955.

Previously, basic entitlement was 36 months. An additional nine months was available only if the GI Bill Student was pursuing an undergraduate college degree.

Unchanged is the 10-year delimiting date. Veterans retain eligibility for 10 years after release from active duty or until December 31, 1989, whichever is earlier, Coker explained.

The new law also provided an 8 percent increase in monthly allowances for all training offered by the GI Bill, except flight training, effective October 1, 1976. A single veteran attending school full time receives $292 monthly. If a student has one dependent, the rate is $347; two dependents $396. For each additional dependent, the monthly rate is increased by $24.

Entitlement for correspondence training is charged at the rate of one month for each $292 paid. Entitlement for flight training was continued at the rate of one month for each $270 paid.

family and the Haskell Livestock Auction employees for supporting a successful Bake Sale for the 8th Grade and Spanish I & II classes.

The usual 12:00 Noon cattle sale was delayed to auction cakes, pies and brownies. Over $300 was raised for the Spanish classes with one cake selling for $27.50.

We appreciate Earl Sargent, Farm Editor for Radio Station KWFT, Wichita Falls for advertising the sale. Some say he gave more attention to the Bake Sale than to the Livestock Auction.

Buyers were from Spur, Weatherford, Sweetwater, Hamlin, Seymour, Abilene Weinert and Haskell.

Dear Editor,

I for one would like to second Dr. Charles Traylor's letter to the editor that was in last week's Haskell Free Press, commending our band director of the Haskell Public Schools, Mr. Wendell Gideon.

The people of Haskell are very fortunate to have a band instructor of Mr. Gideon's ability and his leadership and influence on his pupils, and the fine examples he sets for them to live by.

Sincerely,
Floyd Satch Lusk

It's much easier to separate the yolks from egg whites if the eggs are cold. (The yolks are also less apt to break.)

Festive dessert idea: scoop ice cream into balls and place them on a tray covered with wax paper. Then, return them to the freezer until firm. Roll to the frozen ice cream balls into: (a) tinted coconut, (b) crush fruit, (c) mincemeat, (d) chopped nuts, or (e) "whatever." (Try your own ideas.)

Cancer Weapon Now Available In Haskell

A new "weapon" against cancer is now available in Haskell County to provide the public with current, factual information on cancer, its prevention and early detection.

Called the Cancer Information Service, the new program utilizes a toll-free phone line (1-800-392-2040) to answer public inquiries on cancer. The service will be extended to all residents of Texas by late this year.

The CIS is part of a public educational effort sponsored by The University of Texas M.D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute with assistance from the American Red Cross, American Cancer Society and many other health agencies in Texas which provide services to cancer patients and their families.

Funded by the National Cancer Institute, the CIS functions as part of a nation-wide network.

Open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. on weekdays, the phone lines are operated by trained American Red Cross volunteers. All background material used to answer questions is reviewed by physicians to insure accuracy.

The program is designed to help create a positive sense of awareness about cancer that will encourage the public to seek physician evaluation for early detection and prompt treatment of suspected cancers.

"Important diagnostic, treatment, rehabilitation and research developments are occurring more frequently now. If people could overcome their fear of cancer many more people would seek medical help at an earlier stage—when the rate of successful treatment is much greater," said Dr. R. Lee Clark, president of M. D. Anderson.

In addition to answering questions on the telephone, the CIS staff mails many pamphlets published by health organizations, professional societies and government agencies involved in health education.

Information not readily available from existing files can be obtained by the staff from an advisory panel of over 75 clinicians and other qualified sources outside Houston.

"Because the CIS is based at M. D. Anderson and is part of a national communications network, we have easy access to information on important work being done at many other cancer centers," explained Dr. Clark.

Similar programs are in operation at the other 18 Comprehensive Cancer Centers which were designated by Congress for outstanding work in cancer treatment and research.

The new program enjoys the support of the Texas Cancer Coordinating Commission and the Texas Medical Association having been endorsed as a "worthwhile educational program" by TMA's committee on cancer.

Other public services of the program include a monthly news column "Cancer Answerline".

Ever see a 15-million dollar cattle truck? It looks as though that's where things are headed with the announcement by major air carriers that 747's are going to be converted to livestock haulers for international markets. Officials say live cattle transportation to countries outside North America is already 80 percent by air with both the volume and the percentage expected to increase during the coming years. For the animals themselves it's all first class. Interiors are redesigned and structured to resemble a barn with separate pens or stalls. Special temperature control and ventilation systems are being designed and separate studies are underway to determine other ways to increase animal comfort. No one has yet decided whether to include in-flight movies but it sounds as if they may not be far away.

CUB SCOUTS DEN II

Rule Cub Scouts Den II, Troop 144, met Thursday night, November 18, at their Den, a recently acquired building located next to the Rule Barber Shop. Den leader Jack Gore had a short business meeting. A report of the bake sale held by the Cub Scouts was $35.00, the total amount taken in. The scouts decided to have another bake sale before Christmas.

The scouts also voted to participate in the Pet Parade sponsored by the Rule Chamber of Commerce on Saturday, December 18, in observance of Rule's downtown Christmas activities.

Scouts worked on their building for the evening and following refreshments served by Mrs. Dora Torres, adjourned. Attending the meeting were Lane Wolf, Kevin Mathis, Joe Ray Torres, Shannon Martin, David Daniels, Billy Wayne Friske and assistant helper Mrs. Eddie Daniels.

Mrs. Alves and her husband and family moved to Haskell in August of this year, where Mr. Alves is employed as postmaster at Haskell. They have two children, Kristi and Scott.

Proper Energy Management Can Save You Money!

ON ELECTRIC COOKING

- Make double use of your oven by preparing an extra dish or planning meals ahead; or prepare total oven meals.
- Start foods cooking on a high heat and reduce heat when the foods reach boiling. Use just enough heat to maintain the desired rate of cooking. Turn off controls before cooking is completed; use retained heat to finish cooking.
- Cook vegetables in a small amount of liquid to conserve energy and vitamins.
- Select pans with flat bottoms for best contact with heating units, and match pan size of surface unit or cooking area for efficient heat transfer.
