

Blast Stratford, 34-8

Tribe Red Hot At 9 Below Zero

BY DON COMEDY

A chill factor of about ten degrees below zero didn't seem to bother the Haskell Indians whatsoever last Friday in Lubbock as the Tribe blasted Stratford 34-8 in the quarterfinal contest. The win qualifies the Tribe to meet China Spring in the semi-final game this Friday night in Brownwood at 7:30.

China Spring has an 11-1 record with their only loss of the season coming on the third game of the season when they were defeated 23-22 by Robinson which is a Class AA school.

The team is a big, strong team which concentrates on controlling the ball with a running attack. The team runs from a straight T offense and passes only about 20-25% of the time. Defensively, they run a 4-3 with big ends and line backers.

China Spring held five of their opponents scoreless during the season.

All members of the Tribe are healthy this week with only minor bruises.

Indian coaches stated Tuesday that they were very pleased with the playing last Friday considering the weather and were looking forward to better weather this week. They also expressed thanks for the people who furnished heaters for the players on the sidelines and the fans who braved the temperature to boost the team.

The only other class A semi-final game will be between Lexington and Franklin this Friday at Bryan. Franklin should be a favorite in that contest.

The first five possessions of last Friday's game were futile attempts at football by both teams as adjusting to weather magnified mistakes. The two teams fumbled the football a total of four times in the first quarter but neither team lost the ball as all fumbles were recovered by the offensive team.

Until near the end of the first period, both teams had one first down each when the Tribe mounted their first scoring drive on the Stratford 48.

The drive took ten plays with Mark Wallace and Vonnie Hise each picking up good yardage. In the drive, Harris gained 26 yards and Hise got 19 and the score on a two yard run. Hise kicked the PAT with 44 seconds left in the first quarter.

Five plays later Wallace recovered a Stratford fumble and the Tribe moved the ball 42 yards in seven plays with Wallace scoring from the eight. Hise kicked the PAT with 9:29 left in the half.

Stratford mounted their only scoring drive of the game near the end of the first half when they completed five passes to move the ball to the ten. The five passes were the only completions of the night for the team and all came on the one scoring drive.

The TD came on a ten yard pass with 31 seconds in the half. The PAT failed but the Tribe was offside and Stratford passed for the two point conversion to make the score 14-8 at halftime.

The Tribe made short order of their work in the second half coming back to score two TD's in the first five minutes of the third quarter.

The first score came on a 21 romp by Vonnie Hise with 10:17 left in the quarter. The PAT was no good.

The defense held Stratford on their next possession and a short punt gave the Tribe the ball on the 36. Six plays later, Wallace carried in from the 13 for the score. PAT was good.

The Tribe's final score of the evening came on their first possession of the fourth quarter. The drive covered 56 yards in nine plays with Hise carrying in from the three. The TD was set up after a 26 yard completion from Wallace to Steve Escobedo. The completion was one of two for the night for the Tribe.

Defensively Monnie Hise intercepted three passes and Wallace intercepted one and recovered a fumble for the Tribe. Haskell attempted a field goal near the end of the game with the ball on the 19. The kick was wide.

This Friday will mark the second time in the history of Haskell High School that the team has played in a semi-final game. The only other semi-final game was in 1970 when the Tribe lost 14-13 to Iowa Park.

All Indian fans are urged to attend the game and boost the Tribe to victory.

Swink Trial Underway

The murder trial of Roy Glenn Swink, 17 of Aspermont, began Monday in the District Courtroom in Haskell.

Officers of the court met Monday morning for hearings on two motions filed by the attorneys for the defendant. The motions, if sustained, would have prevented Haskell Attorney Royce Adkins from assisting District Attorney Joseph Thigpen in the prosecution and would have prevented all physical evidence from being introduced. Both motions were overruled by District Judge William P. Ratliff.

Jury selection began Monday afternoon at 1:30 and lasted until about 8:30 p.m. when the seven woman, five man jury was selected.

Selected to serve on the jury from 144 persons who received summons were: Tammy Adkins, Donald Cobb, David Collins, Tomi May, Janet Thane, Eunice Helweg, Charles Gibson, Sharon Alves, Clyde Hunt, Jerry Camp, Mona Beard, and Marjorie Spieler Huss.

About 110 of the prospective jurors who received summons actually appeared. Others were excused.

When the trial was reconvened Tuesday morning, District Attorney Joseph Thigpen read the jury the grand jury indictment which was returned by the grand jury in Stonewall County last May. Following the reading of the indictment, the defendant, Roy Glenn Swink, entered a plea of not guilty.

Swink is being tried in connection with the shotgun slaying of his 14 year old brother, Royce, on January 24, 1978 at the family home in Aspermont. Also slain at the same time were the defendants' father, H.W. Swink, and his step-mother, Ilene.

Two witnesses were heard Tuesday. They were Wayne and Marlene Swink, uncle and aunt of the defendant.

During the testimony of Wayne Swink, photographs of the home of the H.W. Swink family, the bodies of the victims, and the crime scene were offered for evidence.

Attorneys for the defendant, Clifford and Mike Brown of Lubbock, objected to the introduction of many of the photographs and the District Judge ruled that some of the photographs, most of which included the bodies of H.W. Swink and Ilene Swink, could not be introduced.

Testimony in the trial was expected to continue through most of the week.

Council Faces Lengthy Agenda

Members of the Haskell City Council met Tuesday night and faced a lengthy agenda which included: request for street improvements, Cable TV rate increase, City Park Improvement grant, and city water rates.

Raymond Andrada requested that the City repair streets between S. Ave. D and S. Ave. E and members of the council agreed to see that the work was done.

Jerry Smith, Cable TV manager, met with the council and was granted a rate increase from 7.50 to 8.25 effective Jan. 1. Smith told members of the council that the company would provide a new CBS station for Haskell customers by the first of August 1979. The station will probably be a new station from Abilene but in the event that the station is not operating by August, the company will provide Channel 4, Dallas. If channel 4 is provided there will be an additional rate increase of .50 at that time.

A public hearing was held regarding a grant application for improvements to the City Park. Attending the hearing were: Sammy Larned, Peggy Darden, Sammy Decker, Charles Thornhill, John S. Rike and Doyle High. Mem-

Weight Problem Advice

Few health problems get more attention from more types of people than maintaining the right body weight. Whether the motivation is health-oriented, cosmetic, or required for some special athletic endeavor, keeping oneself the proper weight has at one time or another been a concern of nearly all of us. There are two sides to this story—too much weight and too little weight. First, we will deal with the more common problem.

Whether we speak of persons who need to lose a few pounds or persons who are obese, being overweight is a common problem.

"It can be more perplexing to those who need to lose just a few pounds," says Barbara L. Taylor, Director of Nutrition Services at the Texas Department of Health.

"Such persons are likely to be very weight conscious and have a strong desire to control their weight."

In contrast, a person who is extremely overweight has had poor eating habits for a considerable period of time, and may even begin to adapt to the heavier condition. Any attempt to lose weight would require a rigorous effort.

How much is too much? Ideal body weight can be determined by the following formula: for men, 106 pounds for the first five feet in height and six pounds for each inch over that; for women, 100 pounds for the first five feet, and five pounds for each inch after that. For a large frame, add 10 percent; for a small frame, subtract 10 percent. A person is overweight if 10 pounds above the ideal weight. Twenty percent above the ideal weight is considered obese.

There are two keys to losing weight and keeping it off—patience and balance. An effective diet covers a long period of time and may involve a lifestyle change. While making gradual cuts in the quantity of food eaten, one must be sure not to slight one food group over another. The body functions best when foods from the four basic groups can act together. These four groups are the meat and fish group, the milk and cheese group, the fruit and vegetable group, and the bread and cereal group. Balance in one's eating will assure ample vitamin intake without the need for vitamin supplements.

"Diets often fail because dieters try to do too much too fast," reports Mrs. Taylor.

"Long range plans to control weight and small, manageable changes in eating habits will spell success."

Often, fad diets strictly limit the intake of one of the four basic food groups. Though adverse effects of an unbalancing diet may not show up for 10 or 15 years, nutritional problems will inevitably result from an inadequate diet followed for a considerable period of time.

On the other side of the fence, the problem is less obvious. Particularly in our culture, we tend to think of thin people as healthy, trim or even chic. But underweight is fairly common. The danger arises because underweight people do not have any physiological reserves to draw on in an emergency. Fever, for example, could present a serious situation to an extremely underweight person.

Most underweight people have a more sensitive "hunger thermostat" than the average person. Their appetites are more quickly satisfied than the rest of us. To gain weight, the underweight person must therefore increase the number of calories in the quantity of food already being eaten. For example, adding powdered breakfasts, powdered whole or skim milk or blended fruit to a glass of milk will increase the caloric content, but the volume of milk does not increase.

Most importantly, weight should be gained slowly. Eating too many high-calorie foods can cause nausea. Also, metabolic changes caused by aging may correct the underweight condition, particularly if the person's activity level decreases slightly. For chronic underweight people, there is little danger of going overboard in the weight gaining process and not being able to stop. Once the desired weight is reached, the same "hunger thermostat" which helped to cause the underweight condition will again function to stop the weight gaining process.

Obesity and its relation to nutrition problems throughout the life cycle will be among the points discussed at a statewide nutrition conference January 30-February 1, 1979 in Austin. The theme, "Food and Fitness-Nutrition Throughout the Life Cycle: Phase II" complements the first statewide nutrition conference held in Austin in September, 1977. Among those scheduled to speak are Dr. Kenneth Cooper, Director of the Aerobics Center in Dallas, Dr. William Darby, President of the Nutrition Foundation in New York City, Irma Vyhmeister, Loma Linda University School of Allied Medicine, Lt. Governor William P. Hobby, and Dr. William J. McGanity, Chairman of the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology at the University of Texas Medical Branch, Galveston. Nutrition problems in Texas will be focus of the conference, sponsored by the Texas Department of Health and the Texas Public Health Association.

TRIBE OFFENSIVE players dominated the ball last Friday during their 34-8 victory over Stratford to win the quarterfinal title. But while the offense was moving the pigskin at will, the defense was stopping everything Stratford attempted. The defense allowed Stratford a total of 140 yards during the game, 18 in the last half. The defense unit recovered one fumble and intercepted four passes.

WTU Searches For Alternate Fuel

A research project which could lead to development of an alternative fuel for gas-fired power plant boilers has been initiated by West Texas Utilities Company and the other three operating companies within the Central and South West System.

The project is a gasification experiment, designed to produce a gas from heavy fuels such as oil and coal. The process being tested would remove undesirable sulfur before the gas is used, making it essentially clean.

The program is being carried out at the La Palma Power Station, operated by Central Power and Light Company of Corpus Christi near San Benito in the Lower Rio Grande Valley. Participants are the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, the Foster Wheeler Energy Corp., and the Central and South West Corporation. The EPA funded engineering, fuel and operating supplies and is providing monitoring of environmental effects. Foster Wheeler designed the facility.

CSW and its four companies provided for construction of the research unit.

The companies are interested in finding fuels to use in the boiler of their existing natural gas-fired power plants, which still provide most of the CSW System's generation. West Texas Utilities Company depends entirely on natural gas at its eight major generating stations except that several can be converted to fuel oil when natural gas is curtailed during extremely cold weather.

According to S.B. (Si) Phillips, chairman and chief executive officer of the CSW, the corporation and its operating companies "are fully committed to programs of research and development, especially those that show the highest possibility of resulting in practical and economical sources of energy."

At the moment, Phillips said, the most promising project CSW supports is the gasification program at La Palma. Phillips, now of Dallas, formerly was president of WTU in Abilene.

The CSW companies also support nuclear fusion research at the University of Texas at Austin and geothermal-geopressed research being conducted near Houston.

The gasification research is being conducted on an operational unit at the La Palma, which is CPL's oldest active power plant. Electricity generated during the experiments will be fed into CPL's transmission system for use by customers.

Other CSW operating companies are Southwestern Electric Power Co., Shreveport, and Public Service Company of Oklahoma, Tulsa.

Naomi Class Has Christmas Program

The Naomi Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church met Monday night, Dec. 11th, in the home of Mrs. Frank Cadenhead, the teacher. The home was beautifully decorated throughout with poinsettias and bells. Mrs. Mattie Muriel Felker, president of the class, presided over the business. The class discussed helping some needy family with clothing and voted to take the clothes this week; also, to give some gifts to shut-ins.

The class then sang Christmas Carols led by Freddie Ballard and accompanied at the piano by Mary Martin.

A Christmas story, "The Unused Cradle" by Ester T. Barker was given by Mary Martin. This was a very inspiring story and enjoyed by everyone. Mrs. Lois Sherman led in prayer.

Each year the class brings their Lottie Moon Christmas offering to the party, and Mrs. Helen Oates, secretary of the class, gave a report of this offering. The class had $432.00 at the present time.

Mrs. Felker presented Mrs. Billie Cadenhead, the teacher, and Mrs. Faye Woodson, assistant teacher, with gifts from the class showing our appreciation for their good and faithful services.

HERE'S TO YOUR HEALTH
from DOYLE HIGH

Winter itch is a condition causing discomfort most often to the elderly. It seems related to the tendency for people in our society to be excessively clean. By soaping away the natural oil of the skin, it leaves the skin dry and free to chafe and itch. An oil is available from your druggist which will help to relieve winter itch. Some doctors advise using soap only to cleanse hands and face.

Letters To The Editor

(EDITORS NOTE: The Haskell Free Press will publish letters to the Editor dealing with any subject. All letters must be signed but names will be withheld by request. All letters are subject to editing for length and liability.)

Dear Editor:
To the Baptist Church and the Church of Christ we say "Thank You" for taking some of the high school band students on your buses to Lubbock to the Quarterfinal football game. Also, a "Thank You" goes to each person that carried an extra band member in your car. To some of us parents it is as important to have students in the stands to support our team as the football boys on the field.

was bad the spirit was high as the fans participated along with the cheerleaders. Thank you girls for all the work you have done this football season.

Thanks goes also to the twirlers and band for their hard work and excellent support. It takes all students to have a winning team.

Good luck students Friday night in the game for Semifinals against China Spring. You are appreciated.
Bettye McBroom

Yes, I realize some of the band students were sick, and yes I know the weather was freezing, but there still should have been a school bus to take those students who did not have a way to go. After all, who pays the taxes to help keep the school doors open?

We are proud of the football boys and coaches. Some of the boys were sick too, and they went to play ball. What would have happened if the parents of these boys had asked the coaches to forfeit the game?

Without the determined parents and fans who sat in the stands in the freezing weather our boys would not have played as hard as they did. They played their hearts out because they knew they were being backed by loyal family and friends.
Even though the weather

Dear Editor:

The cheerleaders would like to thank all of the Haskell fans for their great support of our last three football games. You do not know how much it has meant to the guys as well as us seeing all of you come out and give 110% of your spirit and support at each game. We can look up in the stands and tell that our fans are very proud of our Indians by your chanting and terrific enthusiasm. The Indians have gone a long way this year and are not stopping till they get to the TOP! Keep up that super support and we will see all of you in Brownwood Friday night cheering our #1 Indians to state!

THANKS AGAIN!

AN UNIDENTIFIED INDIAN crosses the goal line surrounded by a host of Stratford players for a Tribe TD. While the Tribe offense was rolling up 34 points the defense held Stratford to 8 points and during the last half allowed the opponents only 18 total yards and one first down. The Tribe will advance to the semi-finals this Friday night in Brownwood against China Spring. Game time is 7:30 at Cen-Tex Stadium. (Staff Photo)

Delegates Attend State Convention

Nine delegates from Haskell County Farm Bureau attended the 45th annual Texas Farm Bureau convention in Dallas, Nov. 26-29, according to Dan Griffith, county president.

They are: Mr. and Mrs. Tim Burson, Haskell; Mr. and Mrs. Phil Coleman, Haskell; Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Aycock, Haskell; Coyt Hix, Haskell; Burnell Gilleland, Haskell; and Mrs. Marvin Phemister, Weinert. Marvin Phemister, State Representative of District 3, also attended.

Approximately 1,350 voting delegates representing the 228,079 member families voted on state and national policies. The delegates adopted a compromise flexible parity farm program recommendation, which will be forwarded to the AFBF annual meeting in January in Miami Beach. This recommendation embodies provisions of the Dole Bill which TFB endorsed in February, 1978.

Carrol Chalouka, Dalhart grain and cattle producer, was re-elected as TFB president, and George White, Thomsonville, was elected state director, replacing the retiring Milton Harborth of Seguin.

The Board of Directors, in a meeting following the final session of the convention, re-elected Reed Long, Rio Hondo, as vice president; and S.J. True, Jr., Plainview, as secretary-treasurer.

Melissa Lane Cosper, 18, from Edna in Jackson County, was crowned TFB queen in the final competition over nine nominees from other districts. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cosper, Kassandra Sain of Detroit, Red River County, was runner-up.

Sandy Hudson, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hudson, Canton, won the Talent Find and Tammy Sue Joines of Wharton was runner-up.

A young farmer from Robstown, Bruce Dugger, won the Discussion Meet in competition with three other finalists. The topic of discussion was "what a farmer can do to have more input in domestic and international marketing, processing and transportation of his products".

Thomas L. Paben and his wife Dianne, of Waller, received the TFB Outstanding Young Farmer award.

The Queen, Talent Find, Discussion Meet and Young Farmer winners will represent TFB at the American Farm Bureau Federation annual meeting in Miami Beach.

Adopted resolutions pertaining to state-level matters become state policies for the coming year, while resolutions dealing with national issues are forwarded as recommendations to the AFBF annual meeting.

WOOPS!...The elusive football got away from runners several times last Friday in below zero temperatures in Lubbock. Even though both sides bobbled the ball several times most of the miscues were recovered by the offensive units and only three fumbles were lost during the entire game. Haskell won the quarterfinal contest defeating Stratford 34-8 and will meet China Spring this Friday in Brownwood for the semi-final title. (Staff Photo)

Sagerton News

After several days of cold weather we are finally beginning to thaw out. The temperature dipped to around 10 degrees Saturday morning and by late afternoon snow had moved into the area. Who knows what else 1978 holds for us!

Cotton and milo harvesting are getting underway so farmers are staying pretty busy. It will be quite a while before all the crops are harvested due to the sporadic maturity and unpredictable weather.

We were again saddened to lose one of our long-time residents this last week. Mrs. Eddie (Clara) Kainer passed away. She had lived in the area for many years and was a member of Faith Lutheran Church. We extend our sympathy to her family.

A large crowd attended the shower for Karen Gunter, bride-elect of Steven Lehrmann on Saturday afternoon at the Faith Lutheran Parish Hall. Steve and Karen will be married December 31, at her hometown, Claude. They will live in Sagerton.

Mrs. Mary Hertel of Munday was a guest in the J.A. Hertel home last week. Clarence Stegemoeller joined them for a domino game later that night.

Also visiting the Hertel's during the week were Mrs. Walter Hertel, Mrs. Don Hertel, and Louise Verhalen all of Benjamin, Mr. & Mrs. Sam Smith and Craig of Swenson Ranch, Mr. & Mrs. Clarence Teichelmann, and Johnny Baitz.

Congratulations to Kris Kupatt, René Toney, and Lisa DeBusk who will represent Rule High School as twirlers and cheerleaders next year.

Mr. & Mrs. Joe Clark hosted the Zion Lutheran Church LWML Christmas party Sunday evening. Guests were Pastor and Mrs. William C. Peterson, Mrs. Ester Youngquist, Mrs. Rachael Gronau, Grandma Mergen-hagen, Mr. & Mrs. Bill Webb,

Mr. & Mrs. Marvin Evers, Mr. & Mrs. Richard Lunsford, Mr. & Mrs. Rodney Maxson, Mr. & Mrs. Walter Mergen-hagen, Mr. & Mrs. Art Gazaille, all of Abilene, Mrs.

H.C. Rappelt of Stamford and Mr. & Mrs. Leon Stegemoeller. The group enjoyed supper, exchanged gifts and sang Christmas carols.

The Consumer Alert

by John L. Hill
Attorney General

AUSTIN—Planning to Christmas shop on credit? Many Texas consumers will be doing just that this holiday season, and many will choose this time of the year to make a major purchase.

The cost of borrowing or buying on credit varies depending on the source of the loan or the credit arrangement, and, of course, you should seek the best credit deal available when buying merchandise.

Suppose, for example, you're planning to surprise a family member with a portable TV, a stereo, or a new dishwasher or some other appliance on Christmas morning. Our Consumer Protection Division attorneys say you should comparison shop to find the best credit source available.

If you make such a purchase, usually the seller will have a credit plan available whereby you can make monthly payments for a certain number of months. What you need to check is the total amount of finance charges and the annual percentage rate of interest during the payment period. This information, by law, must be given to you in writing.

The finance charge is the amount of money you will pay for credit, and includes all charges that you must pay to buy the merchandise—interest, any finders' fees, carrying charges, as well as any required insurance premiums.

The annual interest rate is a percentage figure that is determined by using a standard formula, and annual percentage rates can be used for comparison shopping since they are all determined in the same way. Once the business person gives you these figures, write them down so you can check them against credit costs available from other finance sources such as your bank or credit union.

The lawyers in our Consumer Protection Division offer the following suggestions about holiday buying on credit:

*Pay as much down on the merchandise as you possibly can, and arrange to pay off the note in the largest monthly installments you can afford. The longer the note runs the more expensive it is.

*Always comparison shop for the best credit deal. The difference between the best and the worst credit arrangement may save you several hundred dollars in finance charges on a major purchase.

If you have a consumer complaint concerning a credit agreement, contact your local Better Business Bureau or our Consumer Protection Division in Austin, Houston, Dallas, San Antonio, Lubbock, El Paso, or McAllen. If you live outside these areas, call toll-free: 1-800-252-9236.
