MONDAY WAS ONE OF those rare autumn days for our part of the world, that if it were possible to collect it, you would have wanted to save it for your collection.

Hopefully, we will have a number of other days just like that one for our fall season. The farmers desperately need a number of them, end to end, in order to complete their grain harvest, and then later, the cotton, which is still in the maturing stage.

Overall, it seems that we have had somewhat better weather this year for farming purposes. And the early indications are that crop yields will be up from last years. The price, at least for corn, is better than it was a year ago, so hopefully the farmers will come out better than they did in 1977.

It's going to have to be a continuing process, however, if the farmers keep their problems before the public and before Congress, and the leaders of the American Agriculture Movement are already making plans for a return trip to Washington.

THE U.S. SENATE continues to carve a reputation for itself as the most liberal group ever assembled in that governmental hall.

Despite the public outcry to do the opposite, and in spite of warnings that the very foundation of the country, the constitution, might be threatened if it did, the Senate passed the time extension for the adoption of the ERA amendment.

Never before in the history of government has such a move been made by our representatives. And the precedent it sets has some very dangerous implications.

How can we continue to preach majority rule, or even playing by the rules, if a lawmaking group changes the rules in "mid-game?"

To pass such an extension, and at the same time deny the other side of the coin: to allow states who had approved the amendment to rescind their action—is beyond belief.

We have been hearing for a number of years that our government is falling out of the hands of the people, and into the hands of the "people planners."

Such action by the Senate as this ERA passage, coupled with their earlier give-away of the Panama Canal would tend to make us think that we have, indeed, lost control of our government, and that "Big Brother" now has control of our very lives.

And where was our conservative voice in the Senate, Mr. Tower, when the latest vote was taken? Apparently he was out campaigning, since he was not in his seat in the Senate. Usually, we in Texas can at least count on a cancelling of the liberal vs conservative vote, with Tower cancelling out Bentsen. We didn't even get this concession on the ERA question.

Speaking in Friona earlier this year, Mr. Tower said "I'm sure the women of Texas by and large are against the things the ERA stands for. If they were, they didn't get their vote recorded."

WE DID GET some reaction to changing the tie-breaker game from the Bovina Mustangs to the Dallas Cowboy game, and virtually all of the reaction said "We don't like to pick scores of pro games."

So, to re-phrase an old quotation from Abe Lincoln, it proves once again that "You can please some of the people all of the time, all of the people some of the time, but never ALL of the people ALL of the time."

Hopefully, last Friday's Homecoming win by by the Mustangs will help to right their ship. With the team's injured players getting back on the field, perhaps things are looking up in the Mustang camp, and they will be ready to make a run for the title when district play begins in two weeks.

A gem is not polished without rubbing, nor a man made whole without trials.

LouAnn Hromas Week's Champ

Lou Ann Hromas is this week's winner of the Bovina Businesses Football Contest. Mrs. Hromas had 11 correct picks and was six points off on the tie-breaker. Lou Ann missed the Kress-Happy, Chicago-Green Bay and Houston-Oakland games.

There were twelve others besides Mrs. Hromas that got 11 correct. Their tie-breakers ranged from 7 to 27 points off the score. Gary McCormick, Hugh Rogers and David Steelman all tied for second with 11 correct and 7 points off on the tie-breaker.

McCormick missed the Kress-Happy, Friona-Vega, and Chicago-Green Bay games. Rogers missed the Kress-Happy, Chicago-Green Bay and St. Louis-Baltimore games. Steelman missed the Kress-Happy, Chicago-Green Bay and Houston-Oakland games.

Others getting 11 correct were Greg Hromas, 10 points off; David Villarreal, 15 points off; Jody Stanberry, 17 points off; Eugene Guss, 17 points off; Frank Galvan, Jr., 18 points off; Widdy Gromowsky, 18 points off; Nick Rodriguez, 20 points off; Leon Ware, 24 points off; and H.J. Charles, 27 points off.

Charles' score of 11 put him into the lead in the contest standings with a score of 50. Charles is tied with Johnny Martinez and Nick Rodriguez for first place.

In second place with scores of 49 are Dorothy Harris and Billy Smith. Smith has been in the runnerup spot almost every week.

A point back with scores of 48 are Wes Cockerham, Frank Galvan, Greg Hromas, Don Spring and David Villarreal.

Contestants are vying for a grand prize of $100.00 at the conclusion of the 13-week contest, which is co-sponsored with the Blade by 16 Bovina area businesses.

Contest officials remind participants that there are still eight weeks left, so the title is still up for grabs, with 112 points to be earned.

Contestants are also reminded of the provision that the Blade will pay a special prize of $5.00 for any contestant correctly picking a tie game. No more than two games on any one weekly list may be picked for ties, to qualify for the "tie bonus."

Five Found Guilty Of Assault

Five people from Bovina were found guilty of assault in the court of Judge Paul Fortenberry. The trial was held September 26 and 27 and was a jury trial.

Antonio Sanchez, Olga Sanchez, Juan Sanchez, Joe Sanchez and Rosa Sanchez Olivarez were all found guilty and will face sentencing Wednesday, October 11.

The trial was a result of an incident that occurred a couple of months ago at the Allsup's Convenience Store.

HOMECOMING ROYALTY....Kim Naegle, center, was crowned as the Homecoming Queen for 1978. The other candidates are pictured on

Ponies Take Victory In Homecoming Tilt

Friday night was Homecoming for Bovina High School, and the football team came through with a win for the school and fans. This was also the Mustangs' first win of the season.

The final score was 20-14, with scores coming on two touchdowns and two field goals for the Ponies.

Coach Monte Barnes was very pleased with the team as a whole and is hoping that the Mustangs will continue to improve as they did last Friday night. Barnes said, "We played very good the first half, but we had a mental letdown the second half. Our execution and blocking were a lot better."

The Mustangs accumulated 290 yards rushing and no yards passing. Ruben Salazar led the rushers with 160 yards on 20 carries. Doug Roring had 65 yards on 12 carries, and Michael Wiseman had 35 yards on six carries.

The Mustangs will be facing the Sunray Bobcats this Friday, October

13. The game will be at Sunray and will begin at 7:30 p.m. The Mustangs will be without the services of a couple of their players and four or five will be playing with injuries.

The Sunray team is undefeated so far this season. Their opponents have scored only 14 total points, while the Bobcats have totaled about 105 points. The Bobcats have good size and strength and play a ball control game. They use a 5-2-4 defense, but Coach Barnes expects they may use a 6-1-4 against the Mustangs. The Sunray team runs the Wishbone offense.

Offensive stars for the Homecoming game were Ruben Salazar at runningback and the whole offensive line, who blocked very well the whole game. The defensive star of the game was Stephen Stevenson. Stephen was also given the Big Hit Award.

Spotlight Is On Co-op Month

Farmer cooperatives, perhaps more than any other, have a special interest in the 1978 Cooperative Month theme, "Cooperatives—Democracy in Action."

That's because the theme describes how cooperatives operate. It proclaims that the farmers who are the owners really control the cooperative.

During the October observance, farmer cooperatives will emphasize that they are truly "Democracy In Action" because—

Farmers Establish Their Cooperatives. Cooperatives are established when farmers recognize a need for services that they don't have. By going together, and investing some of their own money for initial capital, farmers can realize the benefits of group selling and buying.

Farmers Control Their Cooperatives. Cooperatives are controlled by a board of directors elected by farmers who own and use the business. The farmer directors set policies and employ a manager who oversees the day-to-day operation of the cooperative.

Farmers Realize Savings From Their Cooperatives. Cooperatives are run to help members get a better return from farming. Unlike most other businesses, cooperatives are operated in a non-profit manner. Any excess of income over expenses is returned at the end of the year to the farmer member in proportion to the amount of business done with his cooperative.

Farmers Have A Voice In Their Cooperatives. Cooperatives encourage farmer members to attend and actively participate in the annual meeting. Each member exercises his control in the cooperative by voting on business matters and director elections. Active participation is encouraged, and training programs are conducted. Over the years, cooperatives have provided one of the best training grounds for the democratic development of leadership in rural America.

Much of the efficiency for which the American farmer is renowned today has been provided through his cooperatives. They have had to expand and grow to effectively compete with giant companies in agribusiness and the food industry. This growth has helped America's family farmers maintain their independence.

HOMECOMING BONFIRE....The 1978 Bovina High School Homecoming Bonfire is shown above. The turnout was very good as students and fans yelled and tried to urge the Mustangs on to victory. Apparently it worked as the Mustangs beat Lazbuddie 20-14.

1978 KING AND QUEEN....Kim Naegle and Richard Villarreal were chosen as the Queen and King for this year's Homecoming festivities.

Freeze Contest Is Underway

The 14th annual First Freeze Contest, sponsored by The Bovina Blade, is underway.

Those wishing to enter the competition can write the forecast of the first killing freeze on a postcard and mail it or bring it to The Blade office on Third Street. Do not forget to write the date on which you enter, the time and your guess of the date of the freeze.

If more than one person predicts the same date, the entry received first will be declared the winner.

Contestants are cautioned not to confuse the first frost with the killing freeze.

Deadline for entering the contest is 5 p.m. Wednesday, October 18.

The person coming closest to guessing the exact freeze date will earn a $5 cash prize, along with the title, "Champion First Freeze Predictor of Bovina, 1978."

The contest is conducted by The Blade because of the widespread interest among residents of the area in the first freeze. The interest is prompted by the effect of the freeze on the overall agricultural situation in the Bovina community.

Past champions include Charles Smith, '65; Mrs. E.L. Cochran, '66; Cathie Trimble, '67; Johnnie Horn, '68; Mrs. Rita Mast, '69; Dalton Morrison, '70; Mrs. Flossie Rhinehart, '71; Mike Spears, '72; Gary Cox, '73; Mrs. Donald Kay Kerner, '74; Mrs. Bill Bradshaw, '75; Mrs. Radford Venable, '76.

Lt. and Mrs. Bradley have been visiting relatives and friends in this area for several days. He leaves the latter part of this week for California. From there, Lt. Bradley expects to be sent overseas. His wife, the former Pat Steelman, plans to join him overseas as soon as she can obtain her passport.

SPS Accepts Rate Increase

Brac Biggers, Panhandle Division Manager for Southwestern Public Service Company, has announced that after considering all alternatives, SPS has decided to accept the $15.9-million rate increase granted by the Public Utilities Commission of Texas.

"We feel that to pursue the matter further would be an unnecessary added expense to the cities, our customers and the company," Biggers said. "However, the $15.9-million is not enough to cover our expenses as they were presented to the regulatory bodies.

In order to continue to build coal-fired plants to take care of our customers' needs and comply with Texas Docket 600, I'm sure it will be necessary to request another adjustment to our rates in the near future.

Docket 600 mandates that SPS curtail their use of gas as a boiler fuel by ten per cent by 1981 and twenty-five per cent by 1985.

"Of course, we will make every effort, as we have in the past, to hold the line on expenses and continue providing the highest quality of service to our customers," Biggers concluded.

Scooter's Scoops

By Scooter Russell

George and Bessie Trimble of Bovina spent last Wednesday in Amarillo visiting his sister, Thelma Bailey, who has been under the weather most of the summer.

Dorothy Stowers plans to open her beauty shop again next Tuesday, October 17, after being out for awhile, plus having a new baby girl.

Dorothy wants to let all of her friends and customers know she will be back on the job.

Irma Nabers spent last week in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, making preparations for her daughter Sharon's wedding.

Dean and Arlene McCallum recently spent ten days vacationing in the mountains of Northern New Mexico. Ronnie, Nancy, Ryan and Richard Sudderth joined them for a few days toward the end of their stay.

Last Monday, October 2, Jerry Ware, Minnie Kelso, Sid Lloyd and Bessie Trimble spent the day in Lubbock shopping for the Senior Citizens Association.

K.W. and Cathie Sharp were among those attending Bovina's Homecoming activities here last week. They also spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C.E. Trimble and Charlie.

Speaking of the Homecoming Game, we understand it was a thriller, with the Mustangs winning. However, Michael Wiseman was a casualty. He sustained a concussion during the game, and has been recuperating at home this week.

We hear that Henry Minter, who was hospitalized in Amarillo for awhile, is now taking treatments at Parmer County Community Hospital in Friona. He is making progress, according to Earnestine.

The Minters had visitors in their home this past weekend from Hereford. They were Earnestine's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Sid Kellogg.

Patsy Sherrill underwent surgery in Friona Monday. She entered the hospital on Saturday, and had the surgery Monday morning. Lorene Jefferson spent some time in the hospital in Amarillo last week, but she is at home now.

Visitors in the Pierceson Adams home over the weekend were his sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Just of Hansford, California, and their son-in-law, George Jackson of Lubbock, and Sherry Adams of Phoenix, Arizona.

All of the Adams relatives in the Bovina area are making plans for the Pierceson Adams' 40th anniversary on Saturday, October 14.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Lancaster, a cousin of Leslie McCain, from San Luis Obispo, California, visited last Thursday in the home of Les and Rose McCain.

Karen and Butch McCain of Amarillo also spent the weekend in the McCain home.

Don and Juanda Murphy and family attended a Patton family reunion in Lubbock last Saturday.

Mrs. C.A. Ross is back at Prairie Acres in Friona, after visiting her daughter, husband and family, the W.W. Evanses, in Oklahoma City last week.

Other hospital notes we learned about this week included Weldon Moody, who is hospitalized in Amarillo, and Allen Cumpston, who was hospitalized the first of the week in Hereford.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Bonds went to Austin last week for an LP Gas Users Convention. While in that area, they traveled to San Antonio to see their son, Tommy Keith, who is in dental school there.

Mr. and Mrs. Cap Naegle had a houseguest over the weekend. Sue's father, R.B. Van Blaricom from Indio, California left to return home on Tuesday.

He attended the BHS Homecoming Game Friday night and was especially pleased at getting to see his little granddaughter crowned as the Homecoming Queen.

Buck Ellison will be hosting the annual Fall Foliage Tour through Nogal Canyon in New Mexico this weekend. He will be joined at the family cabin by the Kassahns, Reads, Grissoms and many other friends and relatives from this area. The tour to view the beautiful fall colors and the Sunday morning inspirational service have become a tradition at the Ellison cabin for the past 15 years.

Buck says he hasn't missed an October 15 in the mountains since 1948 and says the coffee pot is always on. He invites all his Bovina friends to drop by for a visit on the mountainside.

Mr. and Mrs. L.M. Grissom and daughter Lola Jean were treated with a plane trip to Plano last week to visit with their daughter's and grandchildren there. The trip was a birthday present to Mr. Grissom from his son Leon Grissom.

Leon drove the three to Lubbock and put them on the plane. It was the first time for the Grissoms to take a trip on a large plane.

They were met at the Dallas Airport by Mr. and Mrs. Page Thomas. Mr. Thomas serves as the librarian at SMU.

While in Plano they also visited with Delane Crume, Carter and Olivia Crume.

The Grissoms enjoyed their trip and were quite proud of their first experience as members of the "jet set."

The Methodist Youth will sponsor a Spaghetti Dinner after church on Sunday at the Methodist Church.

No admission price has been established, but admission will be by donation.

Joy Harbison is visiting with the Harbisons in Bovina. She is also visiting Mr. and Mrs. Randy Kirkpatrick. Joy is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Harbison.

HD Club Elects '79 Officers

The Rhea Home Demonstration Club met Monday night, October 9 at "The Old House." Cecelia Schueler and Ona Patterson operate the museum.

Election of officers for 1979 were held with the following elected: Cecelia Schueler, president; Ona Patterson, vice president; Gay Taylor, secretary-treasurer; Retta Schueler, council delegate; and Velma Schlenker, alternate council delegate.

Around The House

By LAURA JACOBS

A potful of beans will go a long way, economically, nutritionally and tastefully. And what's a better time than fall for the ever ready hearty fare provided by seasoned-to-taste cooked dry beans?

No matter where you live—or what the occasion is—you can't go wrong with beans on the menu. Prepare them for immediate serving or have them ready to heat in the refrigerator. Or, serve them cold. And, have you ever tried a pork-and-bean sandwich?

Beans are popular fare in every part of America. Can you imagine a Texas barbecue without beans? Or, a country-style supper in Kansas or Oklahoma? Beans belong, no matter where.

If you're traveling in New England, you may be struck by the simply worded announcement "Saturday Nite Supper" on restaurant bills of fare or for community get-togethers. That's enough said. Bound up in the traditions of the area, the homely pork 'n beans combination is as truly New England as crepe suzettes are truly France.

In pioneer days of the Puritan settlers, the baked beans and pork, seasoned with molasses or brown sugar, were cooked in long and leisurely fashion all day Saturday. They were ready for serving at night and also for Sunday dinner, in observance of religious restrictions forbidding cooking on the Sabbath.

Many families, today, have their own cherished recipes for Boston Baked Beans passed down through the generations. Generally, the recipes call for cooking all day. Special ingredients used vary from a touch of ginger to graham cracker crumbs and an assortment of sweeteners. The type of pork used also varies. The most common is tender salt pork, but many New Englanders also use flavorful ham, bacon, or other spicy pork products.

The beans used also depend on the recipe, but leading contender for a favorite variety in New England is the pea bean, with kidney, yellow-eyed, and many other kinds also popular. Seasoning also may vary widely. In Vermont, maple syrup is a traditional touch. New Hampshire bean pots may be flavored with molasses.

But you don't have to be in New England to enjoy the goodness of beans. Travelers in Canada may recall the French variation "cassoulet," which combines white beans, garlic and spices, with goose fat, pork and bits of goose meat.

In Mexico, we have the frijoles, a pork and beans dish cooked at simmering temperature all day. A South American dish called Black Beans Brazilian includes sausage, bacon and other pork with the beans. Then, they'll add onion, garlic, chili pepper and olive oil. This delicious treat is served over rice.

Because beans are so adaptable to any occasion and because they are such excellent hosts to such a variety of seasonings, you can adopt or adapt—any of the many baked beans recipes in your cook book, as your own.

This is an especially good year to enjoy the abundance, the variety and the economy of dried beans, suggests the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA). Beans are so plentiful this month that USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service has issued a special Food Alert, to call attention to their abundance.

The crop is 18 per cent larger than a year ago, report USDA. Also, large carry-over stocks are on hand. So bean producers are not happy about the prices they receive for their bean crop. Many have to sell at less than actual costs of production.

But it means a bonanza of bountiful beans for the consumer—a bargain in nutrition—whether you go the New England, Canadian, Mexican or typically Southwestern route of preparing and serving them. Tell your family to be ready for a "Saturday Nite Supper." Enough said.

"My husband's wrestling his soul over the amount of our church pledge; personally, I think the fight's fixed!"

The Only Religious Authority

Only Christ can claim "All power in heaven and in earth" (Matthew 28:18). Christ commissioned his disciples to reveal his teachings, to the world (Matthew 28:18-20). To guarantee the accuracy of their teachings, God sent the Holy Spirit who guided them into all the truth (John 16:13). All the will of God having been delivered (Jude 3; Acts 20:27), any man, apostle, or angel who dared to change that original message was condemned (Galatians 1:6-9).

In order to preserve the heavenly message for future generations, they recorded all of God's will in writing (2 Timothy 3:16, 17; 2 Peter 1:12-15; John 20:30, 31). The inspired writers wrote the New Testament so that everyone can understand and obey it (Ephesians 3:4; Colossians 4:16; 2 Thessalonians 3:14). The Scriptures alone can make man perfect and furnish him completely to every good work (2 Timothy 3:16, 17). Therefore, authorities other than the New Testament are unnecessary. Only the New Testament contains Christ's complete message; it is therefore your ultimate source of religious authority.

Double Ring Ceremony Unites Chaney Coffman, Hugh Rogers

Chaney Cay Coffman and Hugh Arthur Rogers solemnized double ring vows in an early evening ceremony June 10 at the First Presbyterian Church in Hobbs, New Mexico. The Rev. Jack London, minister of the church, officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Frank Coffman of Lovington. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Rogers of Bovina.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Lt. Col. Bobby Lee Withrow, of Ellsworth Air Force Base, South Dakota.

Tommy Bonds of San Antonio attended the groom as best man. Groomsmen were Terry Nelson of Dell City, Steve Sherrill and Terry Sherrill, both of Bovina.

A sorority sister of the bride, Mrs. Mike Spears of Bovina, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Dorothy Brown of Roswell, Judy Jones and Allison Acree, both of Los Alamos. They were also sorority sisters of the bride.

Carra Cosby of Floydada was flower girl, and Clay Dutton, nephew of the groom, was the ring bearer.

Ushers were Mike Spears and Ken Jamerson, both of Bovina. Candlelighters were Chris Coffman, brother of the bride, and Toby Dutton, nephew of the groom.

Tambra Rogers of Bovina and Becky Anderson of Albuquerque, registered guests at the wedding.

A pair of seven-branch candelabras graced the church as well as two bouquets of blue and white carnations in brass urns beside the communion table. Candles decorated the entrance. Single hurricane lamps lighted the windows which were adorned with daisies and white carnations. Single and triple hurricane pew markers tied with blue and white satin bows completed the decor.

Mrs. William Vaughan, organist, accompanied Mrs. Jack London as she sang "The Wedding Prayer" and William Vaughan as he sang "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride wore a white wedding gown of sheer organza and valentine lace designed by Mori Lee. The moulded bodice, sprinkled with Venice lace flower motifs, featured a Princess Anne neckline edged in valentine lace, empire waistline defined in lace that swept to back fullness forming a chapel length train, and full bishop sleeves, shirred to wide lace cuffs with a dainty ruffle falling over each hand. Two panels of valentine lace trailed down the front of the skirt and circled to the back. Lace motifs were sprinkled at intervals on the skirt. The entire hemline and train were encircled with valentine lace.

Her silk illusion veil, caught to a lace camelot capulet, fell the complete length of the train. It was trimmed in matching valentine lace.

The bride's bouquet was a mixture of blue and white miniature carnations, highlighted with white rosebuds and baby's breath.

For the traditional theme of something old, new, borrowed and blue, the bride wore a diamond watch given to her by her mother for her wedding. The watch was a gift to her mother from her late father. Her wedding dress was new and her garter was blue. For something borrowed, she wore her mother's diamond earrings. The bride wore pennies minted in the year of the couple's birth.

Bridal attendants wore loose fitting gowns of ice blue quiana in evening length with front and back sleeves gathered at the top into a narrow oval neckband. The dresses featured above-the-elbow raglan sleeves with turn back cuffs. The elasticized waistline formed a blouson bodice. Each carried two single long stem carnations tied with ribbon. Blue miniature carnations and baby's breath were worn in their hair.

The bride's table, covered in white linen, featured a three-tiered wedding cake separated by cherub columns topped with a wedding bell motif. A flower arrangement adorned one tier, while a turtle dove adorned the other. Lemon pineapple punch was served from a silver punch bowl with blue and white mints. Crystal appointments completed the table decor.

A blue lined cloth covered the groom's table which was adorned with a small floral and candle arrangement in a brass pitcher and matching candlesticks. Chocolate cake, assorted meats and cheese were served. Coffee was served from a silver service.

Serving in the houseparty were Becky Bell, Linda Hager and Billie Altstatt of Lovington, Sheila Brainerd of Roswell, Lois Ann Holleyman of Portales, Leisha and Sharon Withrow and Mrs. Bobby L. Withrow of Rapid City, S.D., and Jan Barnett of Lubbock.

Friends of the bride's mother who helped were Mrs. B.F. Bell, Mrs. Wayne Smith, Mrs. Berry Wilson, all of Lovington, Mrs. James Gann, Mrs. Bill Gann and Mrs. Juanita Suderth of Hobbs.

For a honeymoon trip to Ruidoso, and El Paso, the bride wore a black polyester gaberdine jumpsuit featuring a white hip-length jacket trimmed in black braid.

The bride is a 1975 graduate of Lovington High School. She is past secretary, personnel chairman, assistant pledge trainer, and song leader of Chi Omega Sorority. She is also a member of Panhellenic Council at Eastern New Mexico University, where she is currently employed by the University Library. She is a senior, majoring in Elementary and Special Education.

The groom graduated from Bovina High School in 1972, and Ranger Junior College in 1974. He attended West Texas State University at Canyon and is now employed by Bovina Pump Co.

The couple reside at 1010 Second Street in Bovina.

Sponsor Haunted House

The Bovina Jaycees announced today that they will be sponsoring a Haunted House again this year. There will also be a carnival with booths put on by various organizations. The event is scheduled for Tuesday, October 31 from 7 p.m. until 11 p.m.

All local organizations are encouraged to contact Mike Spears, Burl Taylor or Lawrence Kriegel to reserve a space for their booth in the carnival.

The carnival and haunted house will be at 329 North Street. All proceeds will go to the Texas Jaycee Campus. A $5 charge for each booth will be assessed this year to help offset cost and whatever net profits is made by the Jaycees will go to the Campus.

BILL CLEMENTS WILL CUT TAXES AND GOVERNMENT SPENDING

Texas was built by men with the vision to look ahead and the grit to get things done. Bill Clements is the man to keep this tradition alive for the future of Texas.

Bill Clements will bring a strong, fresh and tough approach to our government in Austin. He is a businessman, not a politician.

Bill Clements started with nothing and built a successful, worldwide company with hard work and the skill to manage men and money. And now Bill Clements wants to preserve the future of our state and he wants the working people of Texas to have the same opportunities he had.

With his proposed "Taxpayers' Bill of Rights," Bill Clements is committed to protecting Texans from excessive taxation and runaway government spending. He is pledged to cutting taxes and returning that money directly to the taxpayers.

As former Chairman of the Southern Methodist University Board of Governors, Bill Clements knows how to make education in Texas the best in the Nation. He's for discipline in the classroom and "back to basics" quality education.

As the son and grandson of farmers, Bill Clements knows the frustrations that an indifferent government can cause people who make their living off the land. He will use the strength of the State Government to fight burdensome Federal restrictions.

"I believe that Texas has always had more promise than problems, but the balance is more delicate each year. We need to get to work now."
