Registration Set For WTC

Registration for summer classes at Haskell extension center of Western Texas College will be held on May 29, Dr. Duane Hood, Dean of Student Services and Registrar, has announced.

Students are to register between 6:30-8:00 p.m. in the high school library. Classes will begin on May 31 and continue through Aug. 1. Classes will meet on July 4 and then be recessed for a holiday on July 6.

Classes on the summer schedule for the Haskell campus are English 231 (Tuesday nights), Government 231 (Monday nights), State/Local Government 232 (Wednesday nights), History 132 (Tuesday nights or Thursday nights), Philosophy 132 (Tuesday nights). Two sections of History 132 are scheduled, one meeting on Tuesday and one on Thursday, so students may select the night which best fits their schedule.

Students will attend class one night per week for each course in which they are enrolled. Classes will meet from 6:00-10:00 p.m.

Persons wishing information about the extension center may contact Bill Blakley, coordinator, at AC (817) 864-2848, or the office of the registrar at WTC, AC (915) 573-8511.

WTC will also be offering summer classes at the extension centers in Kstan, Crosbyton and Sweetwater. Summer classes on the Snyder campus will be available for day and evening students in sessions starting May 31.

Sagerton Homecoming Scheduled

The Sagerton Homecoming has been set for Saturday and Sunday, May 26 and 27, at the Sagerton School Community Building. This is the sixth homecoming (held every five years) and also marks the Fiftieth Anniversary of the school at the present site. Three school buildings were built between 1907 and 1964. Commemorative plates will be sold picturing the last building built.

Reece Clark is Chairman of the Homecoming Committee and some twenty people have been appointed to help him.

The Sagerton Homecoming event is unique in that no tickets are sold for the Sunday dinner; only donations are given. Reservations are requested.

A special feature will be a bus tour on Saturday afternoon between 3 and 5 p.m. of the historical sites in and around Sagerton as well as the new homes.

Informal meetings will be held Saturday night for visiting. Light refreshments will be served at 6 p.m. at the school building.

Sagerton, with a population of about one hundred, swells to five hundred on homecoming weekend.

Hise Selected To Play

Vonnie Hise has been selected to play in the Texas High School Coaches Association All-Star game this summer in Ft. Worth.

Hise was one of six players in this area of the state to receive appointments to the teams.

He will play on the North All-Star team. The game will be played July 28, at 7:30 p.m. at TCU's Amon Carter Stadium.

Hise is a 6', 220 pound running and defensive back who has received several honors and notable recognition during his career at Haskell High School.

Fire Station Fund Nears $22,000.00

Donations and pledges to the building fund of the Haskell Volunteer Fire Department are nearing $22,000.00.

The total received and pledged to date is $21,884.00.

Members of the Haskell County Jaycees have completed work on the removal of flood debris from the creek and hope to receive those funds within the next week.

Actual construction on the new fire station will begin within the next few weeks with the removal of the gas station east of the City Hall. Following the removal of the station, work will begin on the preparation of the foundation of the new 5,000 square foot station.

After the building is ordered, it will be about eight to ten weeks before it is delivered, which will allow ample time to complete the foundation.

Department members are hopeful that the building can be erected by mid August and that work can begin on the interior at that time.

Members of the fire department have agreed to do all finish work on the interior of the building. This work will be accomplished as funds are available to purchase the necessary materials.

The new facility will provide room for several more firetrucks than the department now uses and will eventually include offices, training rooms, maintenance areas, and storage areas.

A sketch of the floor plan is on hand at the fire station and visitors are welcome to view the tentative plans.

Department members intend to build the new facility with donations and are excited about the response of residents, and businesses of Haskell and the surrounding area.

Stamford Spades Win Local Tourney

BY GINA JENNINGS

A crowded ball park, honking horns and the cheers of an enthusiastic crowd marked the first Invitational Tournament of the Softball Association of Haskell which began on Friday evening. And, as is so often the case these days, the man behind the scenes who "started the ball rolling" was Ervin Unger. Unger, an active supporter of adult recreation in the community, served as chairman of the tournament. "We've made mistakes which will help the next tournament but overall it turned out to be really successful," he commented.

The tournament was held to raise money for the association to make improvements in the ball park and, according to Unger, to have a good time. The six teams played a total of 11 games to determine the champs of the double elimination tournament.

In the first game on Friday night Ungers Scrappers met M-System's Mustangs with the Scrappers coming out on top 18-3. Jerry Jennings, Randy Ivy, Donnie Anders and Ervin Unger came out strong at three hits each. In the second contest Anson put down West Texas Utilities 10-7 with WTU giving up 9 runs in the first inning and coming back strong in the last six

Headstream Memorial Center Dedication Ceremonies Held

BY GINA JENNINGS

Tri County Clinic officially became Headstream Memorial Center at dedication ceremonies on Sunday afternoon. The facility has been re-named in honor of the former director, Aubrey Headstream. Approximately 300 people attended the dedication and open house following.

Rev Jarrell Sharp, United Methodist District Supt. Seymour District, gave a memorial address, followed by Dr.

Frankie Williams, Outreach Supervisor from Vernon Center. Other speakers for the occasion included Dr. T. W. Williams who has acted as consulting physician for the clinic since its opening in June 1970 and Jerry Jennings, current director for the facility.

The speakers praised Headstream for his dedication and service during his eight years as director of the clinic. Characterizing him as a man who always had a warm smile, one speaker initiative, and the requirements of the individual job.

The council took each of the approximately 25 city employees individually and granted raises which will become effective May 15.

The total salary increases to the employees will amount to an increase of approximately $17,000.00 per year.

In other action the council heard a report by Haskell Jaycee President Charles Thornhill on the activities of the Jaycee Rodeo which will include a square dance and street dance on the courthouse square, gospel singing, parade and art show and flea market.

The council appointed a tax equalization board of Ervin Unger, John Kimbrough, and Vergil Smith. Council members also appointed Dr. Wayne Cadenhead as city health officer and appointed Bill Comedy, A.C. Pierson and Hugh Horton to the planning and zoning board.

noted that he was an optimistic person who saw the good in everybody. Each spoke of the great service which the facility has provided for the community. The Center was Aubrey Headstream's dream; a dream which became a reality.

Special recognition was given to Marjorie Headstream for her work and support throughout the years. The wife of the former director was presented with a plaque commemorating the occasion.

Also honored at the ceremonies were Myron Biard-Alcoholism Counselor, Advisory Board Members B. O. Roberson, Oleta Baird, Raja Hassen, Mayre Wiseman and Frank Omen, Haskell County Judge John Wayne McDermott, Stonewall County Judge George Rhodes and Knox County Judge Homer T. Melton.

During the open house reception immediately following, the public was given a tour of the recently remodeled facility.

FBC Activity Center Planned

Construction on the First Baptist Church Family Activity Center is scheduled to begin within the next 30 to 40 days. It is to be located at Avenue and Third Street.

The building should be finished 3 1/2 months after actual work begins.

Haney-Sivley Construction Company of Abilene has contracted the construction. In size the insulated metal building will be 60'x116' and will house completely outfitted gymnasium with provision for basketball, volley ball and roller skating. A recreation room at one end of the facility will be used for table games. Included in the plans are a kitchen and snack bar and a control and storage room.

Billington, Jordan Wed

MRS. JESSE BILLINGTON

Edith A. Jordan and Jesse Billington were married Saturday, May 5 at 7:00 p.m. in the Independent Baptist Church with the Rev. Billie Joe Forward of Dallas officiating, along with his son-in-law Rev. Taylor also of Dallas.

Music was provided by Rev. Donald Burton, cousin of the bride, of Abilene.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Yeldell of Haskell. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Billington of Haskell.

Maids of Honor was Birdie Mae Jordan, sister of the bride. She wore a long blue gown and carried a long stem white and blue carnation. Bridesmaids were Mrs. O. T. Johnson of Dallas, cousin of the bride; Juanita Billington of California, sister of the groom; and Gorgia Billington of Dallas, sister of the groom. They wore matching blue gowns and carried blue carnations.

Angelia Jordan, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a short full ruffled blue dress. She was escorted by Patrick Billington, nephew of the groom, of Haskell. He wore a blue suit. Tina Billington of Dallas, niece of the groom wore a long blue dress and was escorted by Derrick Billington, nephew of the groom.

Carl Dean Thomas of Haskell was Best Man. Groomsmen were O. T. Johnson of Dallas, John Earl Billington and James Ray Billington, both of Haskell. They wore black tuxedos with light blue shirts. Ushers were Lynn and Georgia Billington. Both wore long blue dresses.

Candles were lighted by O. T. Johnson and James Ray Billington.

The bridegroom wore a two tone light blue and dark blue tuxedo with a dark blue shirt.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Robert P. Yeldell. She wore a gown of plau D'Ange Lace enriched with organza ruffles, with high rise neckline, bishop sleeves and semi-flow skirt. A repeat of ruffles enhanced the skirt and chapel train. A touch of pearl and sheer outlined the neckline and a picture hat of matching lace held the flowing veil.

She wore a new penny in her shoe given to her by Lois Redwine, a blue garter made by Patrice Jordan, a borrowed string of pearls belonging to her sister and an old proverb given her by her mother. Her bouquet was of blue and white carnations.

The mother of the bride wore a blue formal. The mother of the groom wore a green formal. The church was decorated with white candles and flowers of white and blue carnations and gladiolus.

The parents of the bride hosted a reception in the church annex. The reception area was decorated in blue and white flowers. The bridegroom's sisters served the guests.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will reside in Haskell.

The bride is employed by West Texas Utilities Paint Creek Power Station as secretary. The groom is employed by McAdams Construction Co.

Water Safety

Violations Frequent

There are several indicators that spring has finally arrived, and recently, Texas game wardens in the Lubbock region have found another indicator—empty citation books.

Game wardens in the Abilene, Amarillo, and Lubbock districts have issued over 236 citations for violations of the fishing, hunting and water safety regulations. This figure is for only three weeks of April without counting the last weekend.

The majority of the citations were for no fishing licenses as 186 were issued by 32 game wardens. Normally, game wardens get all kinds of excuses for the lack of a fishing license when the officer walks up to the angler. The increased fishing violations have the officers curious as to why people go fishing in Texas without first obtaining a license.

No one, including the wardens, has a sure answer or reason for the fishing license violation increase. These licenses are normally available at all sporting goods stores, bait shops, marinas, P&WD offices and other license vendors across Texas. It would seem as though many Texas anglers are taking a chance on not being checked by a game warden, but 186 of these individuals didn't get by in April.

The P&WD would like to remind everyone that a

Ever see a 15-million dollar cattle truck? It looks as though that's where things are headed with the announcement by major air carriers that 747's are going to be converted to livestock haulers for international markets. Officials say live cattle transportation to countries outside North America is already 80 percent by air with both the volume and the percentage expected to increase during the coming years. For the animals themselves it's all first class. Interiors are redesigned and structured to resemble a barn with separate pens or stalls. Special temperature control and ventilation systems are being designed and separate studies are underway to determine other ways to increase animal comfort. No one has yet decided whether to include in-flight movies but it sounds as if they may not be far away.

resident fishing license is required of all Texas residents who fish in the waters of Texas with the exception of those: under 17 years of age; over 65 years of age; fishing in private waters; fishing in the county of residence with trotline, throwline or ordinary pole and line having no reel or winding device attached; holding a valid Texas commercial fishing license or holder of a $1.25 Exempt Fishing license available to certain disabled veterans or the blind.

A resident fishing license is $4.50. A non-resident fishing license (no exemptions) is $10.50 and a temporary (five-day) non-resident fishing license (no exemptions) is $4.50.

Now is the time to obtain your fishing license and give it a try as the whitebass, crappie, walleye, blackbass and catfish start spawning and biting in Texas.

Standards Effective July 15

Use up your small and undersized envelopes and cards before July 15. That is the date when the Postal Service's new size standards become effective.

After July 15, envelopes and cards measuring less than 3 1/2 inches high or 5 inches long will be returned to the sender if mailed. Postmaster Alves said that because the envelope and greeting card industries have had more than three years to prepare for the new standards, few retailers should still be selling undersized pieces.

"Many consumers, however, are likely to still have smaller envelopes and cards in their supply of stationery," Alves said.

The regulations also prohibit flimsy cards. In the future they must be at least seven-thousandths (.007) of an inch thick. An official postal card, for instance, has a thickness of nine thousandths of an inch.

Undersized pieces and flimsy cards are being banned because they can become trapped in other mail, tear and jam mail processing machinery. As a result, the letters of others can also be damaged.

The standards also affect oversized and odd-shaped pieces of mail. For first-class mail weighing on ounce or less, there will be a surcharge of 7 cents for pieces more than 6 1/8 inches high or 11 1/2 inches long.

For more information, the postmaster suggests customers check with a post office window clerk.

Jehovah's Witnesses Attend Assembly

Area Jehovah's Witnesses returned from Sunday following their weekend semi-annual Circuit Assembly in Arlington. Robert E. Hoisington, local congregation spokesman, reported "a spiritually uplifting program based on the Bible Books of Titus and First Thessalonians, stressed our individual role to maintain a high moral standard in every aspect of our christian life. Vivid experiences, demonstrations and Bible discussions elaborated how cleanliness must affect our minds, hearts and actions. We must avoid situations at school, work or recreation that could easily erode our Bible trained conscience and lead us into uncleaness of various kinds. Excellent scriptural counsel was directed to parents to aid them more fully in their training of young ones in the family. We then appreciated a sobering and heart searching talk on being zealous and not apathetic in our public Bible teaching work."

There were five that presented themselves for water baptism after listening to the warm encouraging talk on faith and trust in Jehovah in imitation of Christ Jesus.

"All of us were given many serious questions of self-examination as to our individual lives in exhibiting holiness and purity in mind and heart and daily routine of activity. Especially was this accented in the Sunday afternoon Bible discourse by Dennis N. Bennett, district overseer, called, 'A Cleaned Earth-Will You Live to See It?'. The peak attendance of 727 was reached in this weekend spiritual instruction that we will share with our neighbors in days to come", concluded Mr. Hoisington.

OIL PERSPECTIVE

By John M. Houchin

The Oil & Gas Industry has been criticized in some influential circles because it cannot give exact figures on reserves of oil in the United States. Most of the criticism probably has been due to ignorance, although there are signs that some of it is malicious. Certain groups which would like to see the petroleum industry nationalized in this country are using such situations to promote their cause.

Oil is in the ground at various depths, and with so-called "pools" extending in various directions for various distances; and, then, too, the thickness of the oil-bearing sands or rocks is another variable. In addition, there are such variables as porosity and permeability of the rocks and sands containing the oil and the viscosity of the oil itself, some oil being almost as thick as tar or asphalt.

With so many sub-surface variables, the geologists and engineers whose responsibility it is to estimate how much may be in these pools must rely on seismic and test data, core samples and previous wells for their calculations.

Another variable with respect to the extent of reserves is the constantly improving technology in getting more oil out of the reservoirs through "secondary," "tertiary," and other aspects of enhanced recovery.

So reserve estimates of two or three years ago may be out of date today, due to the technology advances, and also due to additional drilling in existing pools to establish that they don't extend as far as technicians had previously estimated, or that they extend further.

The American taxpayer should be happy that these complex problems relating to oil reserves are being handled by private enterprise, since if the extent of our reserves is underestimated, or if it is harder to obtain the oil than anticipated, and hence more costly, the added burden will be borne by private enterprise, and not by the taxpayer. If the government was in the act, we would certainly see more money being spent in recovering these reserves and resolving the variables by technology than would otherwise be the case.

There is, of course, a proper area of co-operation between private enterprise and the government, with respect to oil reserves.

One of these has been worked out by the Department of Energy through its Bartlesville, Oklahoma, Center. The government furnishes part of the money and private enterprise furnishes the remainder for experimentation in enhanced recovery from existing oil fields. There are some 70 to 75 such projects now being carried out all over the country.

The results of this enhanced recovery program, so far, will be on display in an "Enhanced Recovery Hall of Science" at the onshore International Petroleum Exposition, to be held in Tulsa, Oklahoma, September 10-13, 1979.

This private enterprise oil show, which costs the taxpayers nothing, will provide exhibits of new and improved equipment, services and technology, covering the exploration, drilling, production and pipeline/transportation divisions of the petroleum industry.

The Tulsa onshore exhibit is held every three years. The Show was first held in 1923.

Attendance of oil men from all of the 50 states and more than 60 countries of the world is expected.

Note: Mr. Houchin is retired president and chairman of the Phillips Petroleum Company and current President of the International Petroleum Exposition.

Evidence Required For SS Number

People who anticipate that they or their children will need social security numbers in the near future might well take some time to get together the evidence they will need when they apply.

Everyone, no matter how young or old, must furnish evidence of age, identity, and U.S. citizenship or lawful admission status when applying for a social security number. In addition, a person 18 or older must apply in person.

It is a good idea to apply well before the number is needed, since it takes about 6 weeks to receive the number after the necessary evidence is submitted.

Only original or certified copies of documents should be submitted. Photocopies are not acceptable, and documents are subject to verification.

A birth certificate or church record of birth or baptism recorded before a person's 5th birthday is preferred as proof of a person's age and place of birth for people born in the U.S. Other documents can be used if these are not available. Evidence of identity should show the person's name and signature or photograph.

Naturalized U.S. citizens should show their citizenship papers. Non U.S. citizens should show their immigration papers.

If parents are having trouble getting evidence of identity for young children, they might consider clinic or doctor's records, vaccination certificates, day care or nursery school records, insurance policies, or church school records as possible sources.

The leaflet, "Applying for social security number," lists many different proofs that can be used. A copy of this leaflet can be obtained at the Abilene social security office.

HEIDENHEIMERS

Washington, D.C. — I have introduced a bill (H.R. 3809) in the House of Representatives this past week entitled the Producer Elected Farm Policy Advisory Board Act of 1979. This bill will establish a vehicle whereby the Nation's farmers and ranchers can bring direct producer input into the decision making processes of the Department of Agriculture on policies, procedures, programs, and practices. I believe this will help to alleviate a common complaint from farmers and ranchers that the Secretary and the Department are not responsive to the needs of agriculture.

I have provided that the Board will function for a period of five years, after which the Congress may review the Board's record of achieving the objectives set forth in the bill prior to extending the authority of the Board or letting it expire. I feel that this bill will help to reduce the number and improve the credibility of existing appointed advisory groups in the USDA and will allow the Nation's agricultural producers direct input by their elected representatives in the decision making processes of the Nation's agricultural policies.

Several of my colleagues have introduced bills this session to provide for Cost of Production Boards that would formalize the existing practice of appointing those persons. I believe these bills fail to recognize that usually such Boards only become the instruments of the current Administration in power at the time, and therefore are unable to speak out freely and act accordingly on the issues that are of concern to the farmer. Too, these boards would lack the authority to address the full scope of agricultural issues that my bill envisions.

The Board I propose will be composed of 30 agricultural producers, three from each of the ten regions across the Nation. These Board members will be elected by the ASCS committee members in each county in the U.S. and will be unpaid for their services, though they will be reimbursed for travel and per diem expenses while actually on Board business. The members will serve three year terms with a two term limit. The ten regions designated in my bill were selected on the basis of total agricultural income and the number of farms, in an effort to achieve a good cross section and fair representation of all farmers and ranchers and agricultural production. The Board's clerical and administrative support will come from the Department of Agriculture in an effort to insure that the Board will function as an integral part of the Department and Secretary's office. The Board will nominate all commodity task force members, who will be appointed by the Secretary. The Board and all task force meetings will be open to the public and records of their meetings will be available for public inspection.

SPECIAL TRAINING EXERCISES were held during the regular Monday night drill of the Haskell Volunteer Fire Department. Members of the department drill regularly learning advanced firefighting techniques. Purpose of the Monday night drill was to provide a training exercise which would require several different aspects of training. The drill included the use of air packs, advancing hose, ladders, ventilation, and rescue.

GTE Now Has Over 1.5 Million Phones

General Telephone Company of the Southwest has over 1.5 million telephones in service, according to B.D. Drennan, Brownwood division manager.

General installed its one millionth telephone in May 1973 at Texas A&M University. The one million milestone was reached after almost 47 years of operation, the company being incorporated in June 1926.

However, the trip to the next million appears to be much shorter as it has taken less than six years to install another half a million, and projections on company growth indicate the 2nd millionth telephone will be installed by late 1982.

General Telephone serves over 400 exchanges made up of over 990 communities with over 2.2 million in population in 59,000 square miles of area in Arkansas, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Texas. Size of exchanges range from 51 telephones in Fowler to 85,391 in Garland in the Dallas Metroplex.

American Ag News

BY BETTYE MCBROOM

Another week has passed, and the farmers have been and are busy in the fields. Some of us received a shower and some a good rain within this past week. However, we are all thankful for the moisture we did receive.

The question has been asked why there is not more local news in this article than articles taken from the American Agriculture News.

As most of you know this past year has been a most unusual year. First it was too dry and then it was too wet for the farmers to be in the fields, and so the men were at the American Agriculture office during the day. There was news gotten from the state office and the Washington office nearly every day.

When the farmers could get into their fields it has been an almost around-the-clock process since the crops were late being gotten out and the land readied for this next crop. However, this does not mean the Haskell American Agriculture has folded.

Our main link with the rest of the people involved in AAM is through the American Agriculture News. This is such an informative paper that we like to share it with you. This paper is printed in Iredell, Texas, a town of 300 people. It was begun in February, 1978, and now has a coverage of over 14,000 subscriptions.

Several other people besides myself think it is worth the $12 a year.

The Haskell AAM still have their office, and as soon as the crops are "laid by" you will see activity again at their office.

The Texas AAM in a state meeting April 28 and 29 in Irving did vote to organize Texas and they adopted By-Laws. The charter will not be checked and filed by an attorney. Mike McCathern will act as state coordinator during the time the charter is being filed and until an election can be held.

Since the meeting was held in District 3, a District 3 delegate and alternates were elected. H.R. Pruitt was elected delegate, and Jimmy Grissom, Ken Lane and John Williamson alternates.

Quoting from the American Agriculture News May 8, 1979: "The American Agriculture Movement was conceived in adversity, born in despair, nurtured with hope, grew with participation, and lives with determination," said Mike McCathern.

"We have used our tractors, the symbol of our industry, to bring to the attention of the American public and to the Congress of the United States, the problems which exist in rural America. We have been successful in bringing together the largest group of grass-roots farmers in the history of our nation. We have proven that we are willing to actively participate in the political processes of this Nation, and we feel that we must now bind ourselves together in a nationally recognized organization to continue our efforts of seeking 100% full parity prices at the marketplace for all of our agriculture commodities," he said.

"The AAM will continue to be governed by the grass-roots members, just as it has been from its inception," McCathern said. "It's goal will be to have maximum input from grass-roots farmers into all future legislation, to keep the nation informed of problems which exist in agriculture, to support political candidates who support agriculture, and to oppose those who oppose our goals of full parity prices for our commodities," he continued.

"We urge our members to continue their work and support of the other farm organizations and commodity groups, and to work towards full cooperation between these groups in order that we can eventually have one true voice in agriculture."

By the way, you do not have to be involved in the AAM to receive a subscription to the American Agriculture News.

DOYLE HIGH WITH MINI-COMPUTER

Computer Is Match For Many Tasks

BY GINA JENNINGS

There's been a new addition to Doyle High's family. His computer family that is, although the gleam in his eye may indicate that in the world of advanced electronics there is a new and warm relationship between man and his. And why not? Fifteen years ago, if a man found someone who could answer his question honestly, balance his bank account, follow his instructions perfectly and entertain the children with games for hours, he would have gotten a minister and said "Until death do us part" without wasting a minute. Since those are just a few of the many things that Doyle High's new mini-computer does, it's easy to understand his enthusiasm. High has already been employing one computer at The Drug Store for a year and a half. Printing prescription labels and handling accounts receivable, it performs the tedious paperwork that would normally need one full-time and one part-time employee. However, according to High, its functions are limited because it is pre-programmed only for specific jobs. The advantage of the newer computer is its "open-mindedness." It can be programmed for an infinite number of tasks, from playing blackjack to preparing tax returns.

He explains that because the new computer can be programmed in a basic language rather than the normally complex computer jargon, it is possible for the amateur, with the aid of guide manuals, to create his own program for the computer to follow. "It is like a big jigsaw puzzle," says High, "I just have to get the knowledge to put all the pieces together."

With the help of Joe Alves and Giles Kemp, High has already developed several programs for the computer to run. It now performs services such as printing out bank drafts and mailing lists for the Lions Club and Country Club. Because of the computer's versatility he says there are "unlimited uses for it right here in Haskell." High also comments that he hopes to develop it into a business within itself.

When entered on a type-writer-like keyboard, the computer program appears on a screen that looks like a standard television set without the dial. Not only does the computer record the programs, it will also balk at incorrect data, asking the programmer questions like "Your totals don't balance, would you like to put them in again?" After the programs are initially entered into the computer, they are recorded onto cassette tapes. To re-run the program, the cassette is put back into the computer and the name of the program is entered on the keyboard, making every program easily accessible to the programmer.

In addition to being a business tool, the computer can also be programmed as an educational aid. It can help to teach math, spelling and other subjects as well as giving progress reports on students. At home, the computer can be used to manage household budgets and records.

Neither Doyle High nor his computer are all work and no play however. When last seen together, they were playing "torpedo." The tiny white dot dropped down the video-screen missing the slowly moving target by a fraction of an inch. "Gee," the words appeared, "Try again."

As the computer itself said after giving a demonstration of its many talents, "Amazing, isn't it?"

TEXAS GRAPE GROWERS have disproved the skeptical but long-held belief that high quality grapes cannot be grown in this state, according to Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown.

He notes that Texas now has some 40 stable vineyards, which produce on the average of four to six tons of grapes per acre. The grapes are produced for Texas' fledgling wine industry.

Nursing Home Week Set

The spectacular success of a song and two of the brightest stars of the entertainment world are adding impetus to observance of Nursing Home Week this year.

Pat and Debby Boone are the superstar entertainers donating their influence as hosts for the week honoring Nursing Home residents and the theme "Light up a life... visit a Nursing Home" is borrowed from Debby Boone's recording of "You Light Up My Life" which sold millions of copies and remained at top popularity longer than any other in all history.

Dan Pomykal of Ennis, Board Chairman of the Texas Nursing Home Association sponsoring the week beginning on Mother's Day, Sunday, May 13, predicted that more people than ever before will visit nursing homes during the Sunday through Sunday week.

"We know that the participation of Pat Boone and his lovely daughter will do much to encourage the public to visit residents in our nursing homes," he said. "The Boones are not only the most popular entertainment figures in the country today, but they also personify the warmth of family relationships and the spirit of goodwill and neighborliness which is really what Nursing Home Week is all about."

In their public message, Debby Boone says: "Light Up a Life... visit a Nursing Home," and her father Pat adds: "The life you light up most will be your own!"

Texas licensed nursing homes now number 1,020 with accommodations for 102,804 residents/patients.

Livestock & Grain Bodies

Bigger Than Ever, Better Than Ever

Precision engineered roll formed 52" high steel sides provide greater capacity at less cost.

We've built rugged truck bodies for over 50 years and today we're continuing that tradition. That's the reason you can't make a better investment than an Omaha Standard steel or hardwood farm body.

Omaha Standard Hoists
Seven hoist models from 4 to 34 ton for bodies from 8 to 24. All models are power-up power-down (double acting) and come with inside cab controls.

Omaha Standard bodies and hoists have been time-tested on thousands of farms throughout the United States and Canada.

- One-piece roll formed steel sides with built in tarp rail. Available in 28", 40" and 52" extra-capacity heights... all with maximum corrugation for maximum strength.
- 40" and 48" hardwood sides also available... the truck body Omaha Standard built its reputation on.
- The toughest platform in the business—laminated wood, smooth steel or tread plate.
- Easy-conversion hardwood upper racks—greater flex and life than steel fold down racks.
- A full line of rugged gates—all engineered to make your job easier.

Look to Omaha Standard for the best. Our equipment takes all the punishment you can dish out—and comes back for more year after year. We stake our reputation on it.

We've been a part of successful farming and ranching for over 50 years

Sagerton Community News

We received between two and three inches of rain this past week. A little hail was reported but not enough to do any significant damage, so overall we are in good shape going into the upcoming cotton planting season.

Congratulations to Dewayne Monse who was a member of the Rule Junior High School doubles tennis team that placed third in the district meet recently. Dewayne's name was left off of the list last week and your writer apologizes for the error.

Mr. and Mrs. August Angermann and Mr. and Mrs. W.F. Teichmann visited with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Vahlenkamp of Abilene last Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth

Hertel and Gail of Hamlin were Sunday dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J.A. Hertel.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baitz and Kacy were in Kerrville over the weekend visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Delvin Boyd.

Get well wishes are extended to Mrs. John Clark, Mrs. Rosic Stremmel and August Ender who have been ill this last week.

Johnny Baitz was a Sunday dinner guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Baitz.

A workday was held Monday morning at the Sagerton Community Center in preparation of the Sagerton School Homecoming which is coming up Memorial Day weekend.

The community would like to sincerely thank the Rule Lion's Club for the picnic table they are constructing in Hermann Baitz Park, and also the county crew who have been helping them.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Monse and Dewayne were in San Angelo recently for the wedding of George Mullins and Barbara Barnett. Mullins was a former resident of Sagerton.

Mrs. Lena Schaake, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Monse attended the Helm family reunion near Roscoe Sunday. Approximately 85 persons attended the event.

Mrs. and Mrs. Jerry Hlavaty of El Campo spent the weekend here visiting with relatives.

WTC To Offer Off Campus Classes

Western Texas College received approval for several off-campus course offerings when the Coordinating Board of the Texas College and University System held its quarterly meeting in Austin on April 27.

Approved for WTC were: Adult Vocational courses in Aspermont, Hamlin, Rule, Stamford, Gail, Bronte, Jayton, Roby, Rotan and Roscoe, all subject to final approval by the Texas Education Agency. Child Care and Real Estate courses in Haskell County.

General academic, Adult Vocational and technical programs in Ballinger.

Law Enforcement and secretarial programs in Crosbyton.

State law requires the Coordinating Board to approve any courses offered for credit by public junior or senior colleges at off-campus or out-of-district sites. The purpose is to avoid duplication and conflict in courses offered by institutions serving the same area. WTC's new approvals will not affect its programs at the extension centers already in operation in Sweetwater, Haskell, Crosbyton, Rotan and Ballinger.

Local Bike-a-thon Nets $821 For St. Jude Hospital

"St. Jude Children's Research Hospital now has $821.00 more to continue its humanitarian work because people in Haskell and Weinert care about children," Tom Jones, said today, announcing the results of April's "Wheels For Life Bike-a-thon", which netted $21.00.

"We had a great ride, and the money raised was for a great cause, but more importantly, we have been able to show the Haskell and Weinert communities that St. Jude Children's Hospital is as important here as it is to the entire world," said Jones.

"More people here now understand that St. Jude's research is providing many answers about childhood cancer and other diseases. The progress being made at St. Jude Hospital benefits children all over the world," Jones stated. The ride has helped put our communities on record as a supporter of this world-famous institution. "We would like to thank all who supported our riders with pledges most of all, our thanks to the Young Homemakers Club, for work and refreshments donated and to the following merchants for their donations: Haskell Free Press; Haskell National Bank; First Federal Savings and Loan; M-System and J.R.R. Supermarkets. Our thanks to all of you for a grand job well done," said Jones.
