Flooring Poured For New Fire Station

The new Haskell Fire Station is beginning to look like a building, with the footing poured last week and the slab poured this week. The people of Haskell will soon have a new fire station.

The building material arrived here Wednesday, and construction will start very soon.

This project was started February 19 when the local Jaycees and the fire department decided to clean up the creek through town after the flood. In only five months the fine people of this community have donated and pledged $47,284.49 to this project.

With the slab poured and the building material here the project should progress fast now.

Again fire department members are asking that all persons and businesses who have made pledges to the new fire station, please deposit their pledge at the Haskell National Bank or leave the pledge at the Fire Station.

Vacation In Texas This Summer

State Comptroller Bob Bullock Monday said gas line-weary Texans will save both fuel and money if they vacation in Texas this summer.

Texas continues to have the nation's lowest gasoline tax rate at five cents a gallon, Bullock said, adding that short, in-state trips will conserve more fuel than long, cross country vacations.

The highest gasoline tax rate is 12 cents a gallon in Washington.

Bullock said gasoline tax rates in the nation's nine northeast states are nearly double the Texas rate—averaging 9.5 cents a gallon.

Nine states—Arkansas, Georgia,

Iowa, Michigan, Montana, Nebraska, Pennsylvania, South Dakota and Washington—have recently increased gasoline tax rates.

Bullock also said consumers who are seeing their budgets chewed up by inflation benefit from Texas' low sales tax rate. The state's four percent sales tax is lower than the tax rates levied in 18 other states and equal to the rate set by 10 states.

The highest sales tax rate—seven percent—is levied by Connecticut.

Vacations may never be free, Bullock said, but Texas' lower tax rates will stretch holiday dollars.

The natural gas industry has an excellent safety record.

The fact that you can smell natural gas is because we add a harmless chemical to it as an extra safety feature. Otherwise, it would be completely odorless. If you detect faint whiffs of what you think may be gas, investigate. It may be something that is as easily and safely corrected as a pilot light that has gone out, or a burner valve that's partially open.

If your equipment seems to be working properly and the odor intensifies and seems to be everywhere, please follow these precautions:

1. Do not switch anything electrical on or off. Do not use the telephone in your own home. Do not strike a match. Do not do anything that might cause a spark.
2. Have everyone leave the house immediately, leaving doors open to help ventilate.
3. Go to a nearby telephone and call Lone Star Gas Company. Wait until we have found the source of the odor to determine whether it's safe for you to return to the house.

You may never have a natural gas leak, but we want you to be informed in case one does occur. Please make sure your family is aware of these precautionary steps. And we suggest that you keep this message for future reference.

Information Given On SS Disability Payments

Glyn Hammons, manager of the Abilene Social Security Office, said that some people have the mistaken idea that everyone who qualifies for social security disability payments receives benefits for the rest of their lives. This idea probably came about because of the definition of disability in the Social Security Law. To qualify for monthly social security benefits, an applicant must have a disability that is medically determinable, and is expected to last 12 months or longer, or result in death. This is a very strict definition of disability. However, many people who have such severe disabilities do recover and return to work.

The Law requires the Social Security Administration to furnish the State Vocational/Rehabilitation Commission the names and addresses of all applicants for social security disability benefits. Vocational Rehabilitation also receives information regarding the extent of their disability, work experience, and educational background. If Vocational Rehabilitation believes they can be of service in returning the individual to the work force, the individual is contacted.

Rehabilitation will help the individual with counseling, additional training, and sometimes assist him in obtaining employment that he can perform in spite of his handicap.

Rehabilitation has been quite successful, particularly with younger workers, in returning them to the work force. Many times young workers who have never done anything but manual labor suffer disabilities that prevent them from ever doing this type work again. However, it is frequently possible for them to secure training that enables them to work at jobs that do not require strenuous physical exertion.

Hammons said some workers make complete medical recovery and return to their old jobs without any outside assistance. The Law requires that anyone who is able to return to work must have their disability payments terminated. Most beneficiaries who return to work are eligible for a trial work period of up to 9 months. This means their social security payments will not be terminated until they have had an opportunity to determine if they have recovered sufficiently from their disability to continue working. After the successful completion of a trial work period, payments can be made for an additional 3 months and the payments then are terminated.

Anyone with questions regarding social security disability payments can visit, write, or call the nearest social security office for additional information.

Mrs. Brothers Completes Training

The Texas School Assessors Association has announced that Mrs. Charlene Brothers of O'Brien, has completed the education and advanced training required, and has been awarded the highest Achievement Certificate available to any tax office personnel.

The "Certified School Tax Administrator" is an accomplishment to be proud of. The Knox City-O'Brien Consolidated School District is to be commended for having as part of their administrator's team a person with this much determination and dedication.

The District and all their taxpayers will benefit from the expertise of Mrs. Brothers, according to J.D. Whitmire, Admission Chairman, and W. J. Dodd, Board Chairman.

Mrs. Brothers is also a Certified Texas Assessor after having passed the state exam with the Texas Association of Assessing Officers, last fall and also received the Registered Professional Assessor at the same time with the State of Texas Board of Tax Assessors Examiners.

Official Memorandum
By
WILLIAM P. CLEMENTS, JR.
Governor of Texas

GREETINGS: AUSTIN, TEXAS

For the United States to maintain its leadership in the world economy during the 1980's, a strong agricultural base is essential. Texas is blessed with an efficient and productive agriculture to meet the challenge. Our abundance helps permit a strong flow of food exports, contributing millions of dollars to our trade balance and enabling us to help relieve hunger in many parts of the world.

One of the most persistent barriers to agricultural well-being has been farm and ranch accidents. Accidents not only cause human suffering but by causing equipment damage, time delays, and permanent disabling injuries, accidents rob the agricultural sector of valuable talent and productive capacity.

It has been proven that accidents on farms and ranches can be prevented by controlling equipment hazards, ending unsafe practices and by the use of protective equipment. Each year approximately 10,000 Texas farmers and ranchers suffer disabling injuries. This time and effort invested in safety education activities to prevent accidents can be considered an investment that will prevent the losses sustained every year through farm and ranch accidents.

To encourage renewed emphasis to make Texas farms and ranches a safer place to live and work, the State of Texas joins the entire Nation in the designation of a 1979 National Farm Safety Week.

A week-long, statewide campaign to inform Texas rural residents about farm and ranch accident prevention will be conducted by the Texas Safety Association, the Texas Agricultural Extension Service of the Texas A&M University System, the Texas Farm Bureau, Future Farmers and Future Homemakers and the Young Farmers of Texas.

THEREFORE, I, as Governor of Texas, do hereby designate the week of July 25-31, 1979, as and urge all who live and work on Texas farms and ranches to make accident prevention a part of all activities. Further, I urge persons, organizations and suppliers who work with or serve agricultural producers to assist in this effort with every possible means to reduce the deaths and injuries resulting from farm and ranch accidents.

In official recognition whereof, I hereby affix my signature this 11th day of July, 1979

W. P. Clements, Jr.
Governor of Texas

Applications For Game Wardens Being Accepted

The next Texas game warden academy will be held in Austin beginning in October and persons interested in this outdoor career opportunity should apply by July 31, 1979.

Application forms may be obtained at the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department's offices in Abilene, Amarillo, Lubbock, Midland, and Wichita Falls, or write the P&WD, 4200 Smith School Road, Austin, Texas 78744.

Game warden applicants are required to have graduated from an accredited senior high school and the applicant must be at least 21 years of age and possess good health and vision.

The P&WD's game warden training program will encompass 1,000 hours of study and training in fish and game laws and identification, Texas Penal Code, defensive driving, wildlife habitat study, civil defense, hunter and water safety, and self defense.

Upon successfully completing the training program 4½ months later, the officers will be assigned duty stations across the state.

The new wardens will then perform work involving the enforcement of all game and fish laws, Texas Water Safety Act, water pollution laws, and sand, shell, and gravel laws within an assigned area.

All P&WD game wardens maintain a 24-hour on-call status which means they may leave home before sunup and not return till late at night. Many game and fish violations occur at night and to stop this type of thief, the game warden will work at night during these peak violation periods.

The P&WD is an equal opportunity employer and hopes all persons interested in a game warden career will apply in July.

VBS Slated July 30-August 3

Clements Designates Farm Safety Week

Governor Bill Clements has designated the week of July 25-31 as Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Week. The purpose of the observance is to encourage renewed emphasis to make Texas farms and ranches a safer place to live and work. Texas Safety Association in cooperation with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service of the Texas A&M University System will conduct a week-long statewide safety campaign.

Urging all who live and work on Texas farms and ranches to make accident prevention a part of all activities, the Governor noted, "One of the most persistent barriers to agricultural well-being has been farm and ranch accidents."

Texas Safety Association

Vice-President for Farm and Ranch, Gary S. Nelson pointed out that, "each year approximately 10,000 Texas farmers and ranchers suffer disabling injuries. Accidents not only cause human suffering but by causing equipment damage, time delays, and permanent disabling injuries, accidents rob the agricultural sector of valuable talent and productive capacity."

Clements further noted, "It has been proven that accidents of farms and ranches can be prevented by controlling equipment hazards, ending unsafe practices and by the use of protective equipment."

The State of Texas joins the entire Nation in the designation of July 25-31 as Farm and Ranch Safety Week.

We recommend Ambush
INSECTICIDE

When bollworms or tobacco budworms infest your cotton fields there's no time for half way control measures. That's why thousands of growers rely on a new insecticide AMBUSH for dependable control.

AMBUSH insecticide is applied only when insect pressure begins to build up. So you must check your fields on a regular basis. As you know, each area will vary by climate, soil type, type cotton seed variety—so check with our representative in your area, he will give you instructions on the best method of application for your particular cotton operation.

Here are some of the important advantages you get with AMBUSH insecticide: effective control of budworms and bollworms, healthier plants, earlier maturity and bigger yields. Don't delay, order your supply today.

American Ag News

BY BETTYE McBROOM

A group of farmers and their wives gathered Friday night, July 20, to hear Marvin Meeks, District 2 Delegate, talk about the American Agriculture organization. AAM is now organized state and nation wide.

Marvin told us that the Congressmen in Austin were like the ones in Washington in one respect. The urban Congressmen are more aware and on the side of the farmer than the rural Congressmen. He also said that a producer's board in Texas has a very good chance of being put to use by the Governor. This producer's board will be made up of producers across the state.

It was interesting to hear that the "Little White House" in Washington, the official Texas house, has had no Texans in it representing Governor Clements nor the preceding governor. Governor Clements has appointed David Senter, an American Agriculture member, to go to Washington and work in the "Little White House" as his representative.

The WASHINGTON STAR has introduced on their front page "A bushel of wheat for a barrel of oil." And, Paul Harvey has helped to put into the minds of the people that as little people can stand up and try to right the wrong that is being done to us as farmers and individuals.

The dues for the State and National Organization are $150.00 this first year. This seems high but we have to keep the people informed and have to keep someone lobbying for us. Much has been accomplished through AAM and we cannot stop now. Of this $150.00, $25.00 goes into a district travel fund for the district delegate, $25.00 goes to the AMERICAN AGRICULTURE NEWS for the newspaper and the flyers that will be coming out to Texans, $10.00 will be for the local office, and $90.00 will go to the State Office.

There are to be three kinds of memberships: (1) charter member, those of us who join this first year, (2) regular member, those who join after the first year, and (3) associate member, those who are not in agriculture but would like to help the farmers in their 100% parity in the market place.

The organization will be county wide, and the officers will be elected on Monday night, August 26. We need all interested people to come and support the American Agriculture.

wives, and the speaker and his wife last Friday night. All sixteen farmers joined the State and National Organization. There have been several others to join since then. You can see we are sincere in our plight for 100% parity in the market place, a producer's board in the state and in Washington, and keeping America free for our children to grow up in.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Don:

Thank you for running the FFA Convention story from Lubbock last week, with Paul's picture; Paul Barnett was a voting delegate to that convention and Jimmy Little, Haskell's new ag teacher took him there. Please allow us to add some local details to that story. Lone Star Farmers from every area in Texas were recognized, among them Rebecca Buerger from Paint Creek, Stanley Hager from Weinert, and Robert Browning, Gary Frierson, Mark Hannsz, Yvonne Howard from Haskell. Paint Creek, Rochester, Weinert, and Haskell FFA chapters were also recognized as superior chapters. Obviously some quality work has been done by the responsible teachers and students in our county's vocational agriculture programs. We are grateful.

Sincerely, Tom and Lee Barnett, Haskell

Have Soil Tests Made Now

The recent rains have provided good moisture for the crops, the range and pasture grasses. Much of the cotton already had enough moisture for the present time. With moisture being plentiful, now is the time to initiate a program for fertilizing and controlling weeds in your Bermuda grass, Kleingrass, or any other improved pasture grass.

This past winter was pretty severe on these grasses. In some areas much of the grass froze out, while other areas were undamaged. But a large amount of the grass did survive and came back slowly. Special care should be taken to get the grass back into production. Fertilizing the grass will help to reestablish it into a vigorous stand.

Newly planted grass should also be fertilized now. One should have a soils test made to determine the proper kind and amount of fertilizer to use. If no soils test is available, studies indicate that approximately 250 lbs of 16-20-0 fertilizer or its equivalent will be sufficient on most soils in Haskell County. The fertilizer will help to get the grass established. Extra production from fertilizing can be grazed or cut for hay. Generally your Bermuda grass will need to be fertilized more heavily. Much energy will be needed to permit the plant to send out runners to establish a good turf. Also a grass such as Kleingrass will need the nutrients for a good seed crop which can produce new seedlings next or the seed can be harvested. The quality of the grass or hay will also be improved by fertilizing.

Also with the extra moisture weeds are posing a problem. Weeds consume much more water than grass. They also compete for the available nutrients. Weeds can block out the sunlight to a small grass seedling. If the young seedling does not have his light it can not produce food for its growth, thus leaving a weak plant which may die. These weeds should be controlled by spraying or shredding.

Not only will production benefit, but also the grass will store up the extra energy for next years growth. This will help the grass survive the dormant season and will enable it to a good start next season.

Some 231 U.S. veterans of the Spanish-American War are alive. Over 392,000 American servicemen took part in that conflict which lasted from 1898 to 1902.

WTCC Grant Available

A one thousand dollar grant to be used by the Private Enterprise Development Committee of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce to award excellence in the teaching of Free Enterprise was announced today by the West Texas Chamber Foundation.

A Foundation spokesman stated that the grant carried with it a great deal of significance since it is the first grant made by the Foundation which was chartered in 1971. In making the grant the directors of the Foundation felt that there was no better way to formally activate the Foundation's efforts on behalf of West Texas than through recognition of the Free Enterprise System as it relates to future generations that must be depended upon to perpetuate the Free Enterprise System.

Bob Corkins, WTCC President accepted the grant on behalf of the Regional Chamber. Corkins stated that the money would be used to encourage the achievement of excellence in the field of free enterprise education in the public school systems of West Texas.

Fred Barrington, Chairman of the Private Enterprise Development Committee, responsible for administration of the funds said that an awards program would be announced at the beginning of the 1979-80 school year encouraging teachers actively engaged in teaching the required course on the "American Free Enterprise System" in public school systems to enter competition for an award.

The awards program will be open to secondary level teachers representing a public school located within the WTCC service region.

Award recipients will be announced at the 62nd Annual Meeting of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce to be held in San Angelo in April, 1980.

The West Texas Chamber Foundation was created to conduct research, accumulate and disseminate information of a charitable, scientific, literary and educational nature which will result in solutions to urgent problems facing West Texas.

Donations and memorials are encouraged. For complete information write West Texas Chamber Foundation, P.O. Box 1561, Abilene, Texas, 79604 or call AC 915 677-4325.

Congressional Comment

Washington, D.C. — For most of this century agriculture has been a depressed or subsidized sector of our economy. This situation has not occurred because of obsolescence, or poor management, or low productivity as has happened in other ailing industries. The reason that agriculture has been experiencing difficulties is because the farmer has been encouraged to produce to the point where he more than satisfies the needs of the market. The problem we have been facing most of this century is not shortages — but surpluses. And with surpluses have come less expensive food and low farm income.

We are continually faced with the dual problem of providing for the world's nutritional needs and at the same time insuring an adequate return to our producers. One of the most successful programs that addresses both of these goals is the farm loan system and more recently the grain reserve. This program is administered by the Commodity Credit Corporation. Farmers can store their produce in government warehouses and receive a loan payment. If the market prices go above the loan rate, then the farmer can withdraw his crop in an orderly fashion and sell it in the marketplace. If the market price is below the loan rate for a sufficient period of time, then the loan expires and the produce becomes property of the government. This policy, when administered properly, as is the case recently, can provide a good return to producers and insure an adequate supply to the consumer at a fair price. The cost to the taxpayer is relatively low. Over the 40 year history of the loan program, for every dollar paid out by the government, 90¢ has been recovered from the market.

Currently the 1980 wheat program is being developed. The Secretary of Agriculture is considering a program which will call for all out production. I have written the Secretary outlining my proposals on this issue. I feel strongly that we should not provide for a zero set aside without adequate compensation to the farmer. Experience has taught us that too great a level of output will depress prices below the cost of production. I can still recall the effects of the 1974-5 program which encouraged the farmer to produce fencerow-to-fencerow, and from which we are just now recovering. I fear that just as the American grain farmer is beginning to enjoy relative prosperity, we will produce a record domestic crop which could wreck our market if foreign output increases. In response to this situation, I am calling for minimum loan prices on wheat of $2.43 per bushel, which will result in a trigger price of about $4.80 and a $6.00 call price. Also the target price should be set near the $4.20 bushel mark, which will allow all Americans to share the risk if we once again over-produce. Farmers have suffered greatly from the high cost and unavailability of diesel and I feel these price levels are justified if we are to ask our farmers for all out production.

Some voices will be raised to say that the prices I have outlined are excessive. But we must remember that in order for a person to stay in business he must receive a reasonable rate of compensation for the services he provides. Food is essential for our survival and the continued vitality of the agricultural industry is important to our economic and defense position in the world. If you eat you are involved in agriculture and agricultural policy.
