A READER submitted this story about the "Magic Jelly Bean Jar," and we decided to share it with you:

Once upon a time in a Kingdom by the Sea there was a Jolly King who wanted his subjects to be happy in their old age. It seems that many people who grew old didn't have any jelly beans and the king felt very sorry for them.

He called the Magicians together one day and decreed that they should set up a plan whereby everyone who reached the age of three score and five could receive a supply of jelly beans on the first of every month for the rest of their lives. But how could they do this?

After much deliberating and partaking of the juice of the grape, the King's Council came up with a daring plan. They said, "Why don't we create a Magic Jelly Bean Jar? Every week we will require the young workers to put jelly beans into the jar until they reach the age of three score and five. We will then proclaim widely that by doing this the Magic Jelly Bean Jar will also be creating MORE Jelly Beans. These trust-worthy citizens just might believe us. We'll tell them the Jelly Bean Jar will NEVER BE EMPTY and when they reach the age of three score and five they will no longer put into the jar but will take out jelly beans for the rest of their lives."

Now the King's Council was very clever and the promise of free jelly beans someday in the future appealed to all of the loyal subjects in the Kingdom. Only a few people questioned the wisdom of putting in jelly beans for 45 years and taking them out for 10 years. Nobody paid any attention to these people though, and the great Magic Jelly Bean Jar was created.

Every week the young workers would put jelly beans into the jar and dream of the day when they could take them out. The old people of three score and five were very happy and not one old person in the Kingdom was denied free jelly beans.

At first it seemed like the Magic Jelly Bean Jar would overflow because so many jelly beans were being put into the jar and so few were being taken out. The people thought: "This is indeed magic." All the workers had visions of eating lots of jelly beans in their old age.

But then something happened. The old people were eating more jelly beans than were being put in and the Jelly Bean Jar was not full. The King and his Magicians worried about the people discovering the truth of the Jelly Bean Jar not being magic. However, they didn't worry for long. The Chief Magician told the king he had the perfect answer to their problem. He said, "Let's tell the workers that if they will put in MORE jelly beans every week they can have MORE jelly beans when they reach three score and five."

This happened many times and the young workers murmured against the king. It seems the workers wanted to eat some of the jelly beans NOW instead of putting all their jelly beans in the jar for their old age.

Then, the old people began to complain. They discovered that while they had put in large jelly beans for many years that the jelly beans they were getting back were smaller. True, they were getting MORE jelly beans as promised, but the King's Council never told them that someday the jelly beans would be smaller.

Nobody was happy...except the King and his Magicians of course, because they were being paid jelly beans every week for guarding the Jelly Bean Jar.

Then one day it became apparent that the Jelly Bean Jar was getting emptier and emptier.

The King and his Magicians began

GAS THEFT....Herman Grissom, manager of the Bovina Coop service station, explains what happened last Friday evening when one man and two young women stole about $21.06 worth of gas. The theft led to a two-county, high-speed chase and a shootout between police and the suspects. The pickup shown above almost matched the one used in the theft.

Grid Guessing Scores Improve

For only the second time this season, there was no tie on the slate of games on the Bovina Businesses' football contest, and the scores were the best of the season.

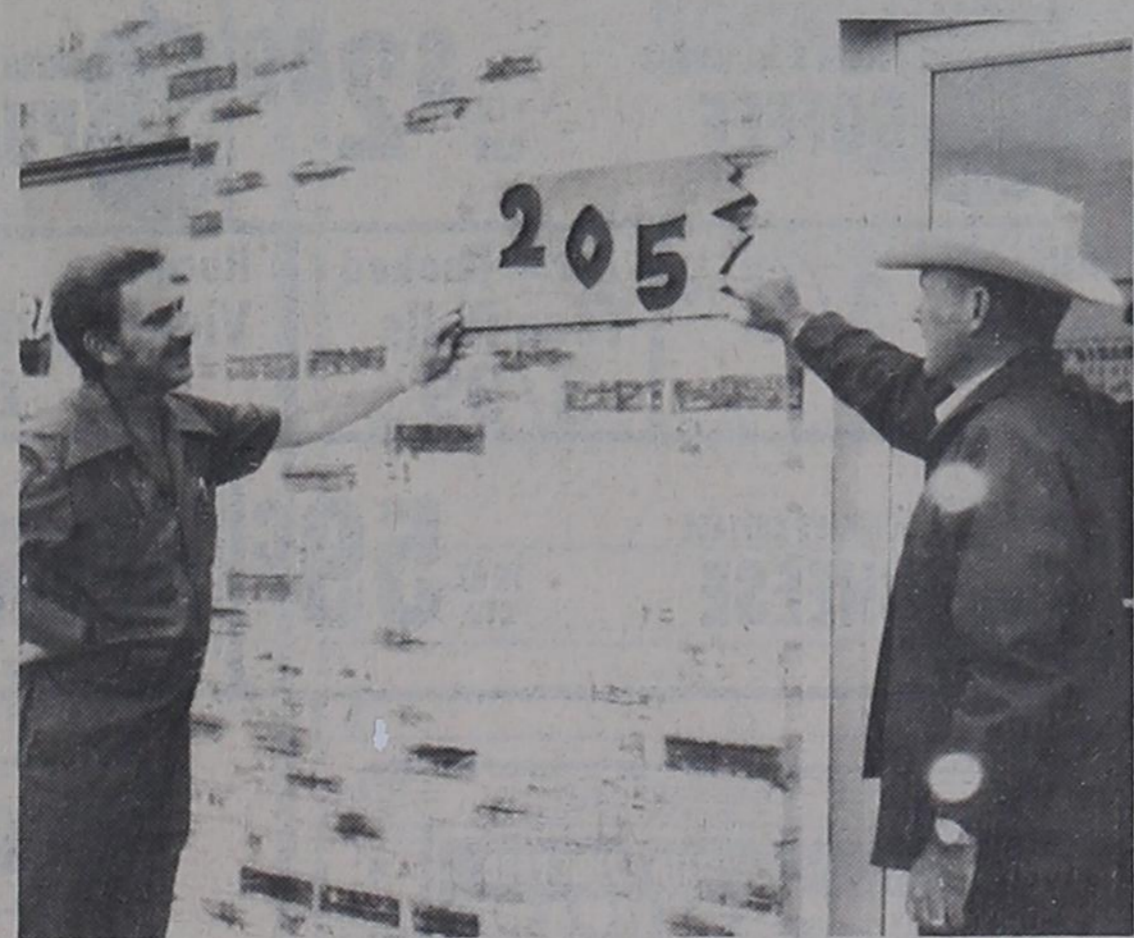

Three people missed only one game, and they claimed the top three prizes. Another five contestants missed only two games, twenty-three missed three, and another thirty-six missed only four games.

Lavonia Hawkins was the winner of the sixth week's contest, and a cash prize of $7.50. She missed the Cleveland-Washington game and was ten points off on her tie-breaker. She had pegged the score at Dallas 21, Los Angeles 7. (The Cowboys won, 30-6).

Darrell Barlow of Friona took second place. His miss was the Amarillo-Clovis game, won by the Sandies, 7-3. Barlow's tie-breaker guess was 16 points off, as he had picked Dallas to win, 21-13. He was awarded $5.00.

Wes Cockerham won third place and $3.00. He missed the Cleveland-Washington game, as ironically, the three winners missed different games. Cockerham was 20 points away from the tie-breaker score, picking the Cowboys to edge past Los Angeles, 28-24.

Those scoring 12 games correct were Billy Smith, Billy Whitecotton, Lary Sides, Ralph Ramon and Daryl Hawkins.

HOUSE NUMBERS....Tom Bonds and Don Spring look over the new street number for City Hall. The numbers are to be installed by the Bovina Ambulance Service, with all proceeds going to the New Ambulance Fund. Residents are invited to call City Hall to get their name on the list for new numbers.

Gas Theft Locally Starts Wild Chase

by BILL ELLIS

The theft of $21.06 worth of gas from a Bovina service station last Friday led to a high-speed chase across two counties, and an exchange of bullets which left an 18-year-old Iowa man wounded, but also facing charges of attempted murder as well as theft.

It was about 7:15 last Friday evening when the late-model green pickup truck occupied by a young man and two girls, pulled into the Bovina Wheat Growers' Co-op station on Highway 60. Herman Grissom, manager, said he had closed the station, and was changing the lettering on the advertising sign which the station maintains.

"The man asked me to fill up the pick-up, and when I explained that we were closed, he said 'I sure need some gas, if you can re-open for me,'" Grissom related.

Grissom said he filled up the pickup tank, and the driver then asked him to fill up a spare tank in the bed of the pickup. The pickup had to be moved to accomplish this operation. While the pickup was backed around, Grissom noticed it had an Arizona license plate.

About the time Grissom finished filling the gas tanks, the pickup driver got out of the cab and asked him "You don't know where I could sell a couple of shot guns, do you?" ("I knew right then I might be in trouble," Grissom said.)

"I asked him what kind he had, and he said '20 gauge.' I asked to look at one, and he got a gun out of the cab and I inspected it. It was a single-shot rifle, which was unloaded at the time," Grissom recalled.

"I told the youngster I wouldn't be interested, that this wasn't the type of gun most folks liked for hunting, and turned toward the station," Grissom continued.

"The man put his hands on the pickup side and vaulted over into the bed, and one of the two girls in the cab slid over under the wheel. They dug out of the station, and turned south at the intersection, going on Third Street," Grissom recalled.

The station manager said he went into the station and called Bovina City Marshal Jerry Atchley, and told him what had happened.

"A few minutes later, Jerry drove up. He had put out bulletins to the area police departments," Grissom continued.

The Bovina marshal asked Grissom to accompany him to Friona, which had radioed and had the vehicle in surveillance.

A little later, they learned that the pickup and its occupants evaded the roadblock, which had been set up on the west side of Friona near West Friona Grain. Friona patrolman Nick Hand pursued the vehicle, which sped through that city at a high speed. Hand notified the Hereford Texas Highway Patrol by radio, and another roadblock was set up near Summerfield.

"At one point when we were following, we heard Patrolman Hand say on his radio 'I'm going 105 mph, and I'm not gaining a bit,'" Grissom said.

One of the officers involved verified the high speeds, and said that

Gasohol Meeting

There will be a meeting of the Gasohol Coop members at the Civic Center in Muleshoe next Tuesday, October 23 at 8 p.m.

Members are urged to attend the meeting to discuss the by-laws of the corporation. This will also be an organizational meeting and talk will be heard on the growers' agreement.

Another subject of the meeting will be where the Coop stands with G.P.I. The lawyer representing the Coop will explain the legalities involved.

Anyone interested in joining the Coop is urged to attend.

the pickup passed at least one vehicle on the right side. "We were lucky that someone was not hurt during the chase, particularly since it was on a two-lane highway," the officer said.

The pickup again ignored the roadblock, and this time fired at THP officer Gary Whitfill of Hereford. Whitfill advised Hand to back off, due to the gunfire.

The pickup turned north off Highway 60 at the intersection which leads to the Armour Beef Plant going the other direction. About a half-mile north, they "ran out of road."

"They went up over a steep irrigation ditch, and literally left the ground. When they landed, the pick-up blew out a tire," said Marshal Jerry Atchley.

At about this point, the vehicle became stuck, and its occupants jumped out and left on foot. It was about "twilight" by this time.

The officers continued their pursuit, also having to go on foot after their vehicles became stuck.

The trio again opened fire on the officers, who began to shoot back. After a brief exchange of gunfire, the 18-year-old was hit in the side, and offered to surrender.

Eric Eugene Ewers, 18, was taken to Deaf Smith General Hospital in Hereford, where he was in serious condition for awhile. He has been put under a 24-hour guard.

The two girls, aged 15 and 17, were taken to the Deaf Smith County Sheriff's office, booked, and put into jail. Ewers was charged with attempted capital murder, as well as theft of the pickup, which reportedly was stolen in Arizona. The shotguns, which may have been in the pick-up, also were stolen, officers reported.

It was later learned that the pickup was stolen on Thursday night in Kingman, Arizona.

Marshal Atchley filed charges for theft of gas on Karen Kay Streight, 17.

AW SHUCKS....Pearl Murry is shown holding two Xmas wreaths made by her daughter, Roberta Vandiventer. The wreaths were made from corn shucks while Mrs. Vandiventer, who rides in Hawaii, was visiting here recently.

Ponies To Open District

The Bovina Mustangs are busy preparing for their opening game in District 3A play this Friday night. The Mustangs will take on the Vega Longhorns at Vega.

The Longhorns, winners of the District 3A crown last year, are favored along with Kress, to win the District title this year. According to Coach Monte Barnes, the 'Horns possess average talent and speed, but they play with a lot of intensesness and they execute well. Barnes attributed their play to the winning tradition and pride they have in themselves.

The Mustangs are trying to come off the 27-0 loss they suffered at the hands of Sunray last week. The Mustangs looked good on defense part of the time, but their mental concentration could have been compared to the surf on the coast, it came and then left.

Coach Barnes hopes to correct many of these mental errors and to prepare the team for a tough game. The Mustangs will have to play much better ball and have better concentration on the field to beat Vega, but Barnes feels that the Ponies are capable of handing the Longhorns a district opening loss.

The game will be played at Vega, and game time is slated for 7:30 p.m. Mustang fans are reminded that game time for the rest of the season will be 7:30 p.m.

and writer, Scooter Russell. Mrs. Hawkins won first place in the contest by correctly predicting 13 out of 14 games.

PROCLAIM MONTH....Agriculture Commissioner Reagan Brown, right, and Texas Governor Bill Clements' Proclamation declaring October as Cooperative Month in Texas.

October Declared Cooperative Month

Throughout the nation the month of October is annually proclaimed and recognized as "Farmer Cooperative Month." Texas' Governor Bill Clements, in his official proclamation, urged the people of Texas to "give special recognition to the constructive and responsible role of agricultural cooperatives in the economic progress of our State."

The Texas Federation of Cooperatives has named Reagan V. Brown, Texas Commissioner of Agriculture, as Texas' Honorary Chairman for Farmer Cooperative Month.

Farmer-owned and controlled cooperatives play a key role in making the family farm the highly productive and efficient system it has become. Food is still one of our biggest bargains. The citizens of the U.S. spend an average of just 18.5 per cent of their disposable income for food, contrasted by 30 per cent in England and Japan, 55 per cent in Russia, and almost 85 per cent in many Asiatic and African nations.

In Texas, there are 450 farmer-owned cooperatives that process and market commodities, purchase farm supplies and equipment and provide services necessary to conduct an efficient and progressive agricultural industry for approximately 125,000 member-patrons. This past year these cooperatives had a business volume exceeding $2-billion.

Farmer cooperatives are large and small and are located in towns, cities and in the country. Wherever they are and whatever their size, they are busy serving members, their communities and the general public.

Robyn Baker, Alan Rhodes Exchange Wedding Vows

Robyn Baker and Alan Rhodes were united in marriage on August 11 at 5 p.m. at Bear Valley Church of Christ in Denver, Colorado. Warren Wilcox of Denver was the officiating minister.

A brass archway entwined with greenery enhanced the front of the altar. On each side of the archway stood a brass candelabra containing eight coral colored tapers. On the front of the candelabra was greenery and a bouquet of coral and white carnations surrounded by baby's breath.

The aisle was graced by six single coral colored tapers on a brass holder. Greenery and coral satin bows finished off each holder. On the first pews on both sides of the aisle were miniature candelabras containing three tapers. The flower and greenery work resembled the decorations on the two main candelabras.

The bride wore an ivory gown of organza. The Queen Anne neckline, the princess waist, and the long sleeves were made of alencon lace and touched with sea pearls. Alencon lace delicately graced the gown as well as the chapel length train. The bride wore an ivory hat trimmed with alencon lace and sea pearls. Her veil was finger length coming from the back of her hat.

She carried an oval bouquet of silk flowers of sweetheart roses, stephanotis, lily of the valley and baby's breath. Outlining the bouquet were angel leaves. A lace streamer down the front of the bouquet completed the arrangement.

The maid of honor was Susan Denewiler of Denver.

The best man was Riley

Armstrong, the groom's brother-in-law of Roswell, New Mexico.

The flower girl was the groom's cousin, Andrea Bailey of Albuquerque, New Mexico. The ring bearer was the bride's nephew, John Baker of Denver.

Other bridesmaids included Debbie McDowell of Lubbock, Annette Hyland of El Paso, Keila Cruce of Plainview, and Cherri Dunagan of Lubbock.

Other groomsmen were Kevin McClaran of Bovina, Steve German of Dumas, John Caldwell of Bovina and Mike Benaglio of Tucson, Arizona.

The junior bridesmaid and groomsman were the bride's niece and nephew, Stacie and Tony Baker of Denver.

The bridesmaids wore long coral colored dresses made of satin crepe. Over their dresses they wore sheer peach colored jackets with pink and coral flowers. Their ensembles were completed with the coral hats, and they carried fireside baskets containing silk flowers of coral and pink sweetheart roses, pink gip flowers and baby's breath. A pink satin bow and streamer finished the baskets in front.

The groom and groomsmen wore toast colored tuxedos.

The ushers were Kent Rhodes of Lubbock, Dennis Willard and Ken Sorley, both of Bovina.

The bride's mother wore a long, pink dress made of chiffon.

The groom's mother wore a turquoise chiffon coat with a beaded silver midriff which concealed a matching chiffon empire waisted dress. The coat was edged at the sleeves and neck in marabou.

All who attended the wedding were invited to the buffet dinner and reception immediately following the ceremony at the bride's parents'

DID YOU KNOW...

ONLY JESUS CAN SAVE ?

"Neither is there salvation in any other (thing); For there is none other Name under heaven given among men whereby we must be saved." (Written of Jesus-Acts 4:12).

The Bible Says Salvation Cannot Be Found In:

- Good Works...
- The Ten Commandments...
- Church Membership...
- Water Baptism...
- Doing Your Best...
- Trying To Do Right...
- Nor Any Other Good Work!

"Not by works of RIGHTEOUSNESS which we have done but according to God's mercy HE SAVES US" (Titus 3:5).

Salvation Is A Gift From God!

"For the wages of sin is death; but the GIFT OF GOD is eternal life, through Jesus Christ Our Lord" (Romans 6:23).

Receive Jesus Christ-
Receive Eternal Life

"But as many as RECEIVED HIM (Jesus); God gave the authority to become children of God" (John 1:12).

LIFESAVER.

Whether you're lost in a strange neighborhood, or just going to be late for dinner, a telephone booth is a welcome sight.

That's why it's important that we keep them in working order. In my job I do more than collect the change from the coin box. I also make sure that the instrument is working correctly. If it needs minor repairs I do them on the spot.

That way we make sure that you get a working phone when you need it. That's one reason I'm proud to be one of the people General Telephone is talking about when they say "We keep you talking."

Director Named For County Spelling Bee

For the 32nd year, the Amarillo Globe-News and West Texas State University, Canyon, joined together in sponsoring the National Spelling Bee.

The director for Parmer County is Don Malone, principal of the Farwell Elementary School.

The county bee director is totally responsible for planning and directing the county event. He may conduct the Spelling Bee in an oral or written competition. However, the 1980 county winner will spell orally in regional competition in Amarillo on April 12.

This year's Regional Spelling Bee will be held earlier than in past years because the National Spelling Bee is now scheduled for the week of May 25, rather than the first week in June. This came about because the National Spelling Bee is moving to new headquarters in Washington, D.C. and the new facility cannot accommodate the Bee group the first week in June. In all future years the Bee will move again to the first week in June.

The top county winner in area competition in Amarillo on April 12, 1980, will receive the all-expense paid trip to Washington, D.C. to represent the area in national competition. The Amarillo Globe-News awards this trip to the district champion and one escort.

Numerous other prizes will be given with approximately the top 12 receiving special awards. Every school boy or girl who competes, beginning at the classroom level, will be given a certificate, suitable for framing.

Copies of the new 1980 "Words of the Champions" are now available from the Amarillo Globe-News at 30 cents each. To obtain this practice booklet, containing more than 500 changes, students, teachers and/or principals may order direct from the newspaper by writing the Spelling Bee Editor, Amarillo Globe-News, P.O. Box 2091, Amarillo, Texas 79166.

Rules, established by the national sponsors, the Scripps-Howard Newspapers, allow any student who has not reached his/her 16th birthday or gone beyond the eighth grade at the end of the current school term, to compete. Public, private and parochial students may enter.

The AGN-WTSU area promotes a Junior Bee for boys and girls in grades four, five and six. These county Junior winners do not compete in the district event unless the student wins both divisions. They are special guests at a luncheon preceding the April 12 spell-down at the Amarillo Country Club and will be given special trophies during the afternoon activities.

The luncheon will be given in honor of the Senior County winners. The 1979 Regional Winner, Rick Stout, will be guest speaker. He is from Dumas.

Additional information may be obtained from Mrs. Jeane Bartlett, the newspaper spelling bee editor, or Gene Parker, director of placement, WTSU, Canyon.

Blessing In The Midst Of Trial

Submitted by
JERRY ROCKWELL

From all indications the fall corn harvest is rapidly coming to a close. Most indicate that the harvest has been good and the yields are high. This comes at an important time because prospects for the future do not appear too bright.

I have never seen so much optimism (locally), in the midst of much pessimism (nationally). The talk is recession and great difficulty for the American people in the future. Yet, it must remind us, who are Christians, that we are American people secondarily. Our primary designation should be God's people. Sometimes I believe Christians lose sight of this fact.

The situation that prevails is exactly the perspective the people of God are to have, namely optimism in the midst of pessimism. While the world around us is in turmoil and confusion we have the prospect of a great present and a bright future.

Depression and discouragement are not the Christian's natural way of life. It is victory! Joshua was told by God to "Be strong and courageous..." (Joshua 1:6). This encouragement came at the conclusion of what God said in verse 5: "No man will be able to stand before you all the days of your life. Just as I have been with Moses, I will be with you; I will not fail you or forsake you."

The present situation is an illustration of what God will do for His people. He will be with us. The blessings in the midst of difficulty speak to us that God will not fail nor forsake the child that belongs to Him. God's promise is for all His children, we just need to learn to act on what He has said.

Just returned from almost two weeks in Idaho with daughters Janee and Tracy and their families...Had a great time...the grandkids Jason and Rene being the main attraction...While there, Jason and I celebrated another birthday...Tracy and Clay celebrated their first wedding anniversary...Son-in-law Bill took us on a long scenic trip across Idaho...Clay and Tracy's friends, Coleen and husband, Pilot John, took us on a very exciting hot air balloon ride early one morning...Met all the good people at the Mountain Home News where Janee and Tracy work...Anyway, just had a real good time...partly because Adam stayed in his cage while I was there...Adam is the two-foot garter snake captured by Jason and lives in a snake cage in his room...

It's good to be back and much appreciation to R.D. and Bill who made it possible for me to be out of the office....

NEWS AROUND TOWN...

Willie Mae Ross is home once again. She has been with her daughter, Mary Evans in Oklahoma City for several weeks. Friends said she is getting along real well.

Rose and Les McCain had company over the weekend: Leslie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude McCain of Fieldton and Leslie's cousin Unie West of Hereford.

Tessie and J.T. Jones have just returned home from a trip: first they went to Lubbock for J.T.'s yearly checkup and all reports were fine. They spent a few days with children Joe and Denice Jones and daughter D'Anna of Eastland, and visited with Tessie's sister, Creola Schafrota of Porter.

They attended the Huntsville Rodeo at Huntsville and visited with Clarence and Margaret Gauntt of Rochester. The Joneses returned home last Thursday and said that they had a real good time. They also said that Joe and Denice were very happy in their work at Eastland.

Elmer Patton, Juanda Murphy's dad, spent a week having tests run at the Methodist Hospital in Lubbock. Juanda said all reports were good and he is back in his home in Ballinger.

We want to remind you of the wedding of Glenn Corbin and his bride-elect, Laurie Summers, which will be held at the Methodist Church in Clovis, located on the corner of Main and Yucca, 7:00 (Texas time).

Ovid and Doris Lawlis have been visiting their children, David and Barbara Lawlis and children, Connie, Keith and Christie of Dallas.

The Lawlis went Thursday and came home Sunday.

Pat Turner and her family enjoyed company Friday night. Pat's brother-in-law and sister-in-law, Tom and Debra Turner and son Rowdy of Tulsa. They attended the football game together Friday night.

Houston and Laura Bartlett had their three small grandchildren over the weekend: Laurie, Cole and Serina. The Bartletts live a ways out of town but had all three little ones to Sunday School and Church Sunday so they are to be commended!

Roberta has been with her mother for the past three months. Pearl said they had had a wonderful time together and it was a very short summer.

Tell Your Friends...October Is

NATIONAL COOPERATIVE MONTH

a good word for a GOOD IDEA

And you can't keep a good idea down. All over the world people are working together, to make life better for themselves and others.

In our own country, millions share ownership in cooperatives of all sorts—from city apartment co-ops to rural electric co-ops.

So what makes a co-op different? This: it serves the people who own it at cost. Each consumer-owner has a voice in running the co-op; one member, one vote.

October is Co-op Month. All over the country, the people of America's cooperatives are committed to working together for a better tomorrow. We are proud to help carry out this pledge.

A COOPERATIVE IS: PEOPLE HELPING PEOPLE!

People Working Together... Accomplishing Common Goals Through Cooperatives — MEMBER-OWNED BUSINESSES!

★ COOPERATIVES Raise The Standard Of Living — Lower Costs Of Living.

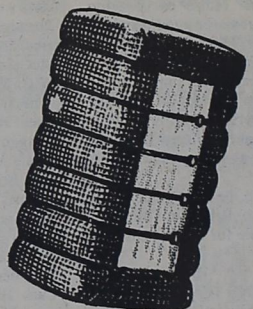

★ Being A Cooperative Does Make A Difference!

COOPERATIVE PEOPLE ARE PARTNERS,

QUESTIONS OFTEN ASKED ABOUT YOUR EYES

By B.W. Armistead & Steven D. Smith
Optometrists-Littlefield

Q: I dread trying to select a new eyeglass frame since I cannot see how I look with my eyeglasses off. Is there anything new that can help this?

A: Yes, there is. Many have this same problem and up to now there has not been a satisfactory solution. Mirrors that magnify help a little for some. Clip-on lenses which approximate the patient's prescription have been tried, but this only distracts from the new frame.

In our office, we have solved the problem by using closed circuit television...one of those electronic wonders.

A: How does it work?

A: The patient tries on a new style frame and a TV camera records their picture in a closeup shot on video tape. Several different styles of frames may be tried on and recorded in full color. The patient then puts their old eyeglasses on and the video tape is played back instantly on a TV monitor where the patient can see themselves and make a selection best suited to their facial characteristics and needs.

Q: That sounds good...how successful has it been?

A: We have had it only a few months, but so far it has been very successful and our patients have been very enthusiastic about it.

Q: Is it true that some frames look good on some faces and the same frame is not flattering at all to another facial type?

A: Yes. This is why we have so many styles of frames from which to choose. Our frame stylists continue to study facial characteristics in order to help the patient select a frame that will accentuate their good features and play down any features which are not so good. Closed circuit TV has been a great help to our frame stylists as well as to our patients. They can literally demonstrate to the patient which frame looks best and why.

Q: Do other offices have closed circuit TV in their dispensing area?

A: To our knowledge, there is only one other office in this area which has closed circuit TV. Eventually many more will be installed, but right now it is a new idea.

Disaster Office Is Open

Fifteen West Texas counties have been declared a disaster area by the Small Business Administration Administrator Vernon Weaver. Farmers, ranchers and crop producers who had crop losses due to the recent hailstorms and severe weather are eligible for low interest loan assistance from the Agency.

These loans are at either five per cent or 7-3/8 per cent interest, depending upon the applicants ability to obtain credit from other sources, and are repayable on terms in line with the repayment ability of the applicant. Up to half of the loan proceeds may be used for 1979 operating debt repayment with the balance to be used for crop production next year.

Applicants may borrow only up to the amount of actual loss as verified by the County ASCS Committee and the SBA cannot duplicate insurance, ASCS, FmHA or other assistance received. The SBA in determining eligibility uses the following formula: acres planted x established normal yield x percentage of loss x market price-recoveries equal loss amount.

The Agency will open offices on Monday, October 15 through Saturday, October 20, in order to hand out applications and answer any questions. Nearest offices for farmers in this area are at the court house in Muleshoe and at First State Bank at Dimmitt.

Loan applications must be submitted by April 10, 1980, on physical loss and July 10, 1980 on Economic Injury disaster loans to agricultural related businesses suffering losses due to the disaster.

The eligible counties include the following: Oldham, Potter, Deaf Smith, Randall, Armstrong, Donley, Parmer, Castro, Swisher, Briscoe, Hall, Bailey, Lamb, Hale, Floyd, Motley, Cochran, Hockley, Lubbock, Crosby, Dickens, Yoakum, Terry, Lynn, Gaines, Dawson, Borden, Andrews, Martin, Howard, Ector, Midland, Glasscock, Crane, Upton, Reagan, Crockett, Milam, Falls, Bell, Williamson, Lee, Burleson and Robertson.

Course Is Scheduled

A Farm Arc Welding short course for adult farmers will be held October 22-25 under the sponsorship of the Bovina High School Vocational Agriculture Department, according to Bob Owen, Superintendent, Lawrence Widner and Butch Willoughby, teachers of vocational agriculture.

Royce Hart, Arc Welding Specialist with the Vocational Agriculture Division of the Texas Education Agency, and the Department of Agricultural Engineering at Texas A&M University, will do the instructing in the course. He is headquartered at Texas A&M University.

The short course at Bovina High School is scheduled to begin October 22-25 at 8 p.m. in the vocational agriculture building. During the dates the short course is in progress, Mr. Hart will be available to assist farmers with individual problems and to provide on-the-farm instruction, according to Lawrence Widner.

Farmers interested in attending the short course should write or call Owen, superintendent of the school, or Widner. An entry fee of $10 will be charged. Farm Arc Welding short course certificates will be presented to each enrollee.

Bull Town

to worry mightily because, they figured correctly, that if they forced the workers to put in more jelly beans or if they made the jelly beans smaller the people would rise up and chop off their heads.

The King called his Council together and asked, "What shall we do?"

One of the assistant magicians who had been chewing on a jelly bean proudly declared, "I have given this some thought. Isn't it perfectly obvious that if we reduce the number of old people who are taking jelly beans that the Jelly Bean Jar will not empty so quickly. Therefore, let us raise the age for receiving free jelly beans from three score and five to three score and ten."

"A brilliant idea," cried the King. "Now there won't be a drain on the Jelly Bean Jar. The people won't realize that it is not really a magic jar."

Well the workers didn't like the idea of waiting five more years to get their jelly beans and there were lots of stories about the eventual bankruptcy of the Jelly Bean Jar. However, the people didn't want to believe this was possible so they ignored all of these wild tales about the demise of the Jelly Bean Jar. They just kept dumping in their jelly beans every week.

Then one day all the people were standing in the village square staring at an almost empty Jelly Bean Jar.

Suddenly a bright eyed lad shouted loudly:

"The Emperor ain't got no clothes on!" ...or something like that.

And, everybody looked. The Jelly Bean Jar was empty. The citizens suddenly realized that the Jelly Bean Jar never was MAGIC.

They grabbed sticks and stones and broke the Jelly Bean Jar into a million pieces. Then they stormed the King's Castle and the King and his Magicians were frightened. They held a quick meeting and came up with an ingenious solution.

The King came out on the balcony. The citizens booed and shouted, "Off with his head." Finally the King calmed them down and said, "I'm sorry we fooled you all these years, but we honestly thought the jelly bean idea was a good one. You will be glad to know that we have the answer to the problem."

Now for years the people had believed that the King's Council had the answer for all problems so they listened.

The King said, "We will rebuild the Jelly Bean Jar and we will print pictures of the jelly beans and we will fill the jar with billions of colorful jelly bean pictures. The jar will be full again."

Suddenly the crowd became very quiet. The people all looked at each other.

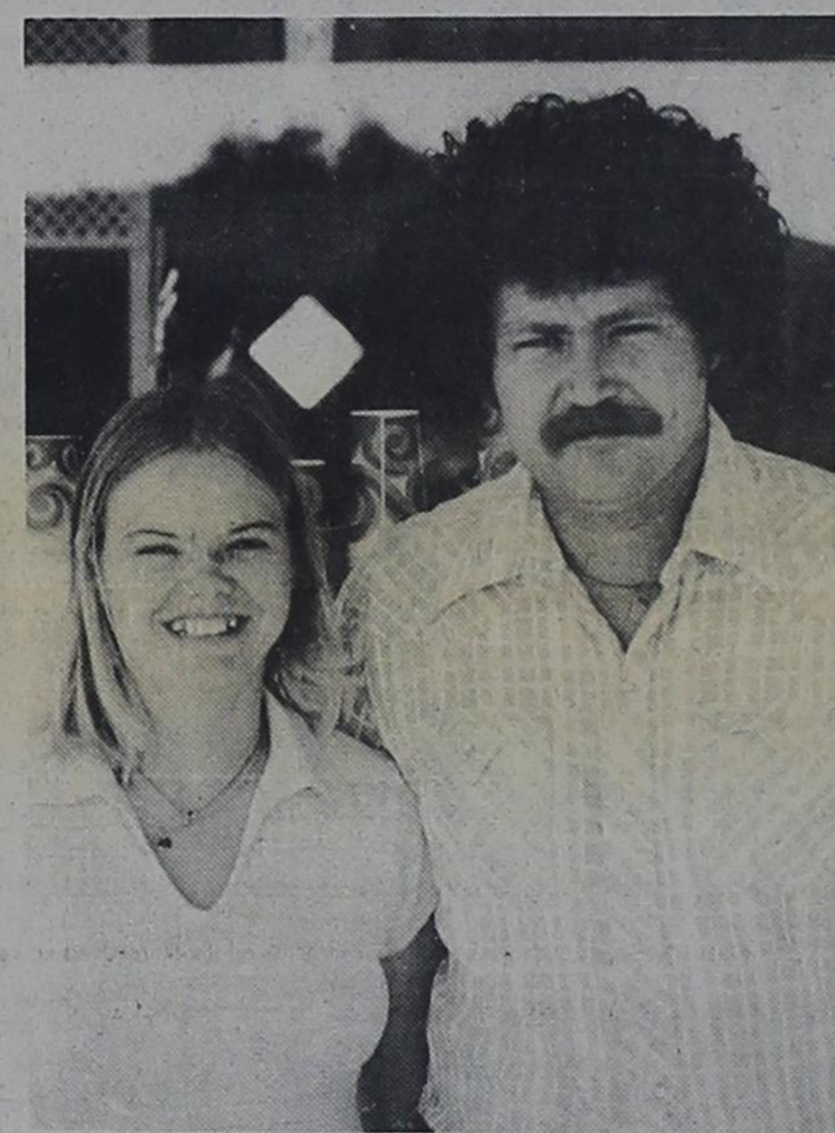

Then do you know what they did?

They I'm sorry but the ending of this story must be written by YOU.

What are YOU going to do about the "Social Security Jelly Bean Jar"?
