Oil And Gas Production Boost County Income By $31 Million

The sale of crude oil and natural gas from Haskell County wells in 1980 boosted the county economy and accounted for $31.2-million of the $31.2 billion value placed on Texas production last year.

In a report on the economic impact of oil and gas industry operations in the top producing counties of Texas, Dallas-based Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association said the county ranked 141st among Texas' 254 counties on the basis of the value of its marketed petroleum production. This includes condensate and casinghead gas.

The county's wells produced 1.4-million barrels of crude oil, valued at $30.5-million, and 424,235 Mcfs of natural gas, valued at $630,838. Owners of royalty in the county received $3.9-million as their share of the output, the Association said.

"Although crude oil and natural gas production in Texas declined slightly last year from 1979 levels, we in the industry are encouraged by the fact that drilling starts in 1980 were up 16-percent over the previous year," said the Association's chairman, Avery Rush, Jr., of Amarillo. "Since petroleum remains the cornerstone of our state's economy and its tax base, Texas must continue to encourage the development of its energy resources," Rush added.

In addition to paying local, county, and state property taxes, producers in the county also supported state government through production tax payments estimated at $1.5-million, according to the Association. Crude oil taxes amounted to $1.4-million while natural gas levies totalled $47,313.

Based on Texas Employment Commission figures, some 100 oil and gas industry employees in the county received wages of about $1.4-million in 1980.

In the search for new petroleum reserves in the county, oil and gas operators spent a reported $8.6-million in the drilling of 99 wells, including 29 wildcat, or exploratory, wells. This effort resulted in the completion of 38 oil wells, although some $4.4-million was lost in the drilling of 61 dry holes. As of March 1, 1981, there were 454 producing oil wells in the county.

Extra Caution Urged For Safe Holiday Driving

The Department of Public Safety has estimated that as many as 89 persons may perish on Texas streets and highways during the Christmas and New Year's holidays.

Colonel Jim Adams, DPS director, asked Texas drivers to make this holiday season the safest in recent years.

"Nothing would please us more than to get through these holidays with far fewer fatalities than we project," Adams said. "We can reduce the number of fatalities if more drivers will moderate their speed, refrain from using alcohol or drugs if they plan to drive and make sure everyone in the vehicle wears a seat belt."

The DPS estimated that 51 persons would die in motor vehicle accidents during the Christmas holiday weekend and another 38 people would be killed during the New Year holiday weekend. Both holiday periods are 78 hours long.

Adams said 64 persons died in traffic crashes during the Christmas holiday period last year. Motor vehicle accidents claimed 58 lives over the New Year's holiday weekend.

During the first nine months of this year, 151,261 persons received injuries in Texas traffic accidents.

"That's an increase of slightly over 10 per cent compared to the same period in 1980," Adams said. "More than 19,000 of those people received serious, incapacitating injuries."

Traffic deaths over the same period totaled 3,378, an increase of almost six percent compared to the first nine months of last year.

The DPS director said that during the first six months of 1981, more than 98 per cent of the persons killed in passenger vehicles were not wearing seat belts.

"A head-on crash at only 30 mph hurls a person's body forward with the same force as a fall from a third story window," Adams pointed out. "A buckled seat belt keeps passengers from striking their head or another part of their body and prevents serious injury."

Adams also recommended that before traveling, children under four years of age or weighing less than 40 pounds should be strapped into an approved child restraint seat.

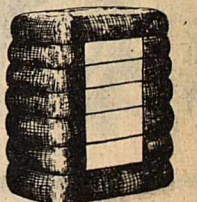

"This would be a very sensible and perhaps lifesaving gift for an infant or small child from a caring parent or grandparent," he said.

The DPS director said all available troopers would be on patrol duty during the fatality counting periods. For Christmas, the count will begin at 6 p.m. Thursday, December 24 and end at midnight Sunday, December 27. The New Year's period starts at 6 p.m. Thursday, December 31 and ends at midnight Sunday, January 3, 1982.

The DPS headquarters in Austin will release information on the various accidents as part of the "Operation Motorcade" program.

NOTICE TO PUBLIC—Any erroneous reflection upon the character, reputation or standing of any firm, individual or corporation will be gladly corrected upon being called to the attention of the publishers.

This has been a beautiful Christmas filled with blessings and joy. We look forward to the New Year with much enthusiasm. Make resolutions to paint more, to be increasingly original and to participate in our ever-growing art circles. The greater number of artists we have, the more interesting it will become.

This is the last column of 1981! It has been my pleasure to communicate with artists in the area and so many have expressed "thank you" for the information. Many have set up note books for reference, which pleases me so much. God gave me this talent and I must share it with you. Remember, this is your column. Now, we go on to the New Year of 1982 and more "Brush and Palette" news will be coming your way. Let me hear from you.

Q. What blocking-out devices are used in watercolor?

A. Watercolor has been said to be a 'bag of tricks'. Retaining the white surface of the paper is one of the important tricks. Various methods can be employed to block out portions and the most popular is a liquid frisket. When the painting is dry, simply remove the frisket by rubbing your fingers gently over the coated area. Then continue to retouch that area or leave it white.

Another liquid frisket is rubber cement thinned enough to make it flow freely. This has a tendency to stain the paper so determine where you can use a stained area.

Paper masking tape makes a good blocking-out device if the area is to retain a simple shape. Using scissors or razor, cut the shapes and if necessary piece together the larger or more intricate ones. The painting procedure is the same as with liquid frisket.

Don't concentrate unduly on the technical aspect of a subject. Remember, the design and color are far more important considerations.

Q. Are brushes not made so well these days. Mine wears out quickly.

A. Watercolor brushes should not wear out so quickly since they are used on paper. I do not find that good quality brushes have changed much over the years. The materials and methods of assembling are still about the same. We should respect brushes as fine delicate tools. We should not scrub with them, especially sables. Another way to ruin brushes is improper cleaning. Wipe them off immediately and if you cannot wash them, let them stand in a container of kerosene that has a plastic chore girl in the bottom. I use a mesh vegetable sack rolled and secured with a rubber band in the bottom of my cleaning tank. Denatured alcohol is good to clean acrylic brushes - even nylon ones. I still use soap and water. We have discussed cleaning brushes in a previous column. If you missed it let me know and I will call or write to you.

HINT: Make a New Year's Resolution to "paint some every day".

Write your questions and hints to me, Faye Schnuriger, P.O. Box 134, Haskell, Texas, 79521. I will not use your name but do want you to sign your letters.

Conservation Viewpoints

Just a reminder, there will be a Resources Conservation Act meeting in the Haskell National Bank Community Building at 7:00 p.m., Monday January 4th. RCA is the U.S. Department of Agriculture's analysis of soil and water resource problems facing America today and a series of proposed solutions or alternatives.

The highest national priority in the proposed conservation program is reducing soil erosion to maintain the long term productivity of agriculture land. Other priorities include reducing flood damages, conserving water and improving water supply and quality, improving fish and wildlife habitat and increasing the use of organic waste.

Another major idea is to establish new conservation coordinating boards at the local, state and national levels. More details are available at the Soil Conservation Service office in Haskell and will be reviewed in the meeting Monday night. All comments on the RCA must be mailed to the State SCS office in Temple by Friday January 15th.

12th Annual Rehab Countdown Underway

The countdown is on for Rehab '82, the 12th annual telethon to benefit the West Texas Rehabilitation Centers. This year's event will be aired on 15 television and 12 radio stations in the Southwest.

Colonial Rehab Rangers, a joint program between WTRC and Colonial Food Stores, Inc., kicked off December 16 with a fund drive to end January 9, the day of the telecast. "Rangers" who sign up at a Colonial store will be going door to door in their collection for the handicapped children.

Heading up the program again this year is Rex Allen, Jr., co-host on the weekly TV show Nashville on the Road. Allen was in West Texas recently filming commercials for the Rehab Ranger program. They will be aired soon.

All Rehab Rangers will turn in their collections during the telethon either at the Abilene Civic Center or at KCTV in San Angelo.

Donation collected by volunteer "Rangers" will be used to help defray operational expenses for the handicapped at West Texas Rehab campuses in Abilene, San Angelo, and Snyder.

Participants in this year's program, aside from the satisfaction of helping a crippled child, can qualify for prizes including an Intelelevision game, 10-speed bicycles, a motorcross bicycle, Texas Ranger T-shirts, bats and caps. For every Ranger collection of $250 or more, an all expense paid trip to a Texas Ranger baseball game will be awarded.

The annual telethon provides a large portion of the operating budget for WTRC campuses. A diagnostic and treatment center for the handicapped, WTRC has an annual budget of $3 million. The private, non-profit outpatient facility depends primarily on contributions for support.

Schaffner Elected To TFB Board

Leonard Schaffner of Henrietta has been elected to the board of directors of Texas Farm Bureau. Schaffner was nominated by members of his district, TFB District 3, and elected by the voting delegates to Texas Farm Bureau's 88th annual convention in Corpus Christi recently.

Schaffner raises registered and commercial Angus cattle, and grows wheat, cotton and feed grains in Clay County. He has been active in the Clay County Farm Bureau, as a member of the board of directors for six years and president for five additional years.

A native of the Clay County area, Schaffner attended Henrietta High School, and he is active in local affairs. An ordained deacon in the Baptist church, he is serving currently as chairman of the county Field Crops Committee. He has served nine years on the ASCS Committee, and three years for the Farmers Home Administration.

Schaffner and his wife Lavenia have two sons and one daughter -- Glenn, 25; Alan, 22; and Joy, 19.

Schaffner's district, TFB District 3, includes the following counties: Archer, Baylor, Clay, Cottle, Foard, Hardeman, Haskell, Jack, King, Knox, Montague, Motley, Stonewall, Throckmorton, Wichita, Wilbarger, Wise, and Young.

Adaptive Equipment Available From VA

According to C.H. Herren, Veterans Service Officer for Haskell County, the Veterans Administration is now able to reimburse veterans suffering from service-connected ankylosis of one or both knees or hips, for the purchase of adaptive equipment which will enable them to drive their own automobiles or other vehicles. The expansion of VA's automobile adaptive equipment program was made possible by enactment of Public Law 97-66, signed by the President on October 17, 1981.

Under the program, VA makes available grants of up to $4,400 for some seriously disabled veterans to purchase an automobile or other conveyance. The agency also pays for special equipment, such as engine and steering controls and wheelchair lifts, required for the operation of the vehicle by the disabled veteran.

The $4,400 one-time automobile purchase grant goes to veterans or active duty personnel with service-connected loss, or permanent loss of use of one or both hands or feet, or permanent vision impairment to both eyes to a prescribed degree.

Victims of ankylosis are not eligible for the vehicle purchase grant, but only for VA adaptive equipment.

The VA will also pay for the repair, replacement or reinstallation of the special equipment in subsequent vehicles.

Veterans having questions concerning the purchase grant or eligibility for adaptive equipment should contact their local Veterans Service Officer.

Farabee Appointed To Committee

Senator Ray Farabee of Wichita Falls has been appointed to the Finance Subcommittee of the Governor's Water Task Force. The subcommittee will propose methods of financing projects to enhance water quality, to conserve and develop water resources, and to help control flooding.

"Water availability is one of the most important issues facing our State today," Farabee stated, "and the methods of financing these water projects must be determined as quickly as possible".

The subcommittee will identify alternative legislative proposals and solicit viewpoints of various interested and informed groups around the State prior to submitting their recommendations to the Texas legislature in January 1983.

"This will help my work as Chairman of the Agricultural Subcommittee of the Texas 2000 Commission," Farabee explained. "Many cities and towns are threatened by a limit on their available water supply, but the most pressing immediate need is for agricultural water".

The other members of the subcommittee are the Chairman, Josiah Wheat, State Senator Ed Howard, Speaker Bill Clayton, George McCleskey, Hobby McCall, Ray Hutchison, Don Howell, John B. Clayton, III, and Catherine Perrine.

Winter Wildfires Could Be A Problem

Wildfires could be a problem in Texas this winter, if Texans and the weather don't cooperate.

Lush vegetative growth -- stimulated by ample summer precipitation -- constitutes a significant fire hazard this winter, says Pat Ebarb. Ebarb is head of the Texas Forest Service Fire Control Department.

"How hot a winter fire season state firefighters will have depends greatly on how fire prevention minded Texans are and on how dry a winter we have," says Ebarb. "The fuel load is there."

According to the TFS fire control chief, many people don't realize how quickly vegetation can dry and become highly flammable during the winter months.

New Year's Dance Set At Irby Hall

There will be a formal New Year's Eve dance at the Irby Hall Thursday Dec. 31, for Sons of Hermann Lodge Members and guests. Bring snacks for your table.

"A few days of dry, windy weather can quickly dry light, flashy fuels such as grass and leaves," he said. "The ground may still be damp, yet grass and leaves will often be dry enough to carry a fire."

Ebarb reported that TFS crews have fought some 1,900 fires which have burned almost 25,000 acres this year. Some 1,260 fires burned over 19,000 acres during the first three months of the year, a fact which Ebarb said points out the potential danger of the winter months. The presence of dead and dormant vegetation causes a general rise in fire danger during winter months, he added.

Higher fire danger doesn't have to translate into more wildfires. A look at TFS statistics reveals why. Last year 48 percent of the wildfires TFS crews fought were attributed to careless trash and brush burning; another 11 percent to smoking and camping combined.

The number of wildfires in Texas can be reduced dramatically if all Texans will simply observe some fire precautions suggested by the TFS spokesman. Burn trash and other debris in covered trash burners. Stay with fires until they are out. Clear a line down to bare mineral soil around material to be burned. Burn in the morning hours when humidity is highest and winds are generally lowest. Crush all smoking materials completely out before discarding.

Ebarb added some other fire safety precautions peculiar to the holiday season. "Keep your Christmas tree green longer by using a stand which will hold water. Turn off tree lights at bedtime. Also, dispose of your Christmas tree properly. A dry tree can erupt in flame with potentially serious consequences."

By observing these precautions, Texans can ensure themselves a safer winter and holiday season, even if the weather should turn dry and windy.

THE BATES FAMILY SINGERS will be with the First Assembly of God Church December 31 for a Watch Night Service beginning at 9 p.m. The pastor and congregation invite the public to attend.

Funny or Unfunny

FOREIGNERS READ YOUR MAIL
by Richard V. London

Seventy-two members of the Senate have allowed agents of a foreign government to comb through mail sent to them by their constituents.

This revelation by Marvin Rappaport, associate director of the Washington office of the Anti-Defamation League (ADL), further confirms the SPOTLIGHT's previous reports that the ADL—an unregistered agent of the government of Israel—often wields more power over the Congress than do the American people.

Rappaport, speaking at the B'nai Israel Jewish Community Center in Rockville, Maryland, made it clear to his sympathetic audience that the senators had not just provided simple data on the contents of pro-AWACS mail, but had actually given the ADL privileged access to the letters in order for the ADL operatives to sniff out anti-Israel (so-called "anti-Semitic") comments which may have been made by the letter writers.

Rappaport did not say whether the ADL had obtained the names and addresses of the American First letter writers. But he did reveal that approximately 32 percent of the mail spoke unfavorably of Israeli interference in U.S. foreign-policy making, while nearly 7 percent contained "anti-Semitic" references. It was, of course, the ADL which made the final determination of which letters were simply against Israeli interference and which were, in the ADL's view, "Anti-Semitic."

Hypothermia Can Effect Older Adults

Older adults, beware of hypothermia -- it doesn't have to be freezing for the disorder to occur.

Hypothermia occurs when the body cannot produce enough body heat, and body temperature drops lower than it should, says Judith L. Warren, a family life education specialist in aging.

Persons with impaired circulation, specific diseases of veins and arteries, hypothyroidism or those taking phenothiazines (used to treat anxiety, depression and nausea) should be particularly cautious, the specialist warns.

Temperatures can be as high as 60-65° for hypothermia to occur, and anyone can be affected, she continues. Warren is on the home economics staff of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

SIGNS TO WATCH FOR

If a family member possibly has stayed too long in the cold and has become sick, look for the following signs:
*Skin is pale and waxy, face may be puffy and swollen.
*Chills often occur or parts of the body tremble.
*Person may say he feels warm.
*He may speak and breathe slowly and have difficulty saying words.
*He may seem confused, forgetful and cannot understand what you ask him.
*He may become tired and cannot get up even after resting.

IMMEDIATE ACTION

If a family member or friend shows any sign of hypothermia, do the following things: 1) Put him in a warm bed and cover him with layers of blankets, 2) Take off any heavy outer layer of clothes and lie close to the person to pass your body heat to him, 3) Fill hot water bottles with warm water, wrap towels around them and place them on the victim's chest, ankles and feet, 4) Electric blankets may be used, but be sure no to set them on high or they may cause burns, 5) Elevate the person's feet higher than his head--this will help force blood to the head, 6) Keep the person quiet, 7) Give him warm water or warm milk, 8) Do not allow him to drink any alcoholic drinks or take tranquilizers or sleeping pills, and 9) Call a doctor as soon as possible.

Happy 24th Birthday

Natural Fibers Fashion Review Set March 6

The 11th annual Natural Fibers Fashion Review is being planned for the 1982 Southwest Farm Show. The fashion contest and show will be held on March 6 in Fort Worth.

The contest is open to any homemaker from the Southwest Farm Show states of Texas, Oklahoma, and New Mexico who is involved in agricultural production or an agriculture-related business.

The Fashion Review is designed to promote the use of natural fibers produced in the Southwest and to emphasize excellence in garment construction and fashion in home sewing.

Garments entered in the show must be made of a minimum blend of 50 percent cotton or 50 percent wool and/or mohair.

The competition will have four divisions: day wear, evening wear, mother and child, and former grand award winners. The contest provides a showcase for exhibiting designs made from natural fibers.

Prizes will be awarded to first, second, and third place winners in each division. The Grand Award winner will be selected from the winners of the mother and child, day wear, and evening wear divisions.

Sponsors of the event include the Southwest Hardware & Implement Association and Progressive Farmer. The Texas Agricultural Extension Service is coordinating and managing the contest and review.

Entries must be submitted by February 19, 1982. Contest rules and entry blanks may be obtained from county Extension offices, young homemaker organizations, and local tractor pulling associations.

The Natural Fibers Fashion Review will be presented at 4 p.m. on Saturday, March 6, at the Southwest Farm Show in Fort Worth.

First Six Months of 1981 Shows Crime Increase

The following article is a public service by the Haskell Free Press through the cooperation of Joseph Thigpen, District Attorney and The Prosecutor Council. Its purpose is to make you aware of a prosecutor's role, of your responsibility as a resident of this District and how we can work together to alleviate some of society's problems.

CRIME IN TEXAS FOR THE FIRST SIX MONTHS OF 1981

- (1) A MURDER is committed every 3 hours and 48 minutes.
- (2) A RAPE is committed every 1 hour and 19 minutes.
- (3) A ROBBERY is committed every 18 minutes.
- (4) AN AGGRAVATED ASSAULT is committed every 13 minutes.
- (5) A BURGLARY is committed every 2 minutes.
- (6) A THEFT is committed every 71 seconds.
- (7) A MOTOR VEHICLE THEFT is committed every 7 minutes.

These statistics were compared from data submitted to the Texas Department of Public Safety Uniform Crime Reporting Bureau by 730 Texas Sheriffs and Chiefs of Police whose jurisdictions represent 92.4 percent of the State's population.

One major crime was committed in Texas every 36 seconds during the first months of this year. This is and increase of 3.3 percent over the same period last year. Murder was the one crime to decrease—down 2.1 percent. Reported burglaries showed the largest increase—up 8.2 percent.

Other statistics show:
- Larceny-theft made-up over one-half of the crimes reported.
- In rural areas 40 percent of the reported crimes were burglaries, as opposed to burglaries comprising only 30 percent of urban crime.

- Motor vehicle theft occurs twice as frequently in counties with a population over 100,000.

- The rape per person in cities under 2,500 is nearly as high as in cities over 100,000.
- 3,941 offenses of arson were reported with resulting property damage very near $50 million.

- Law enforcement agencies continue to be the most successful in clearing or solving a greater percentage of murders (75 percent) than any other crime. The least success is with burglaries (15 percent).

This article is provided by The Prosecutor Council in cooperation with your local prosecutor and the Texas Department of Public Safety. FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CALL: Thigpen at 864-2072.

State Senator Ray Farabee To Announce For Reelection

State Senator Ray Farabee announced today that he would not seek the Democratic nomination for Attorney General of the State of Texas. The present Attorney General, Mark White, announced recently he would vacate his position and seek the Democratic nomination for Governor.

In declining to make the statewide race, the Wichita Falls Democrat stated that he would formally announce for re-election to the 30th District Senate post in early January.

"As a practicing attorney for more than twenty years, the prospect of being the chief legal officer for the State has a great deal of personal appeal, but I feel I can contribute more at this time by providing leadership in the legislative process," Farabee said in an Austin news conference.

Farabee is chairman of the powerful Senate State Affairs Committee and a member of the Legislative Budget Board which formulates the preliminary budget for Texas. He is the former chairman of the Jurisprudence Committee and was recently appointed by Governor Clements to the Governor's Water Task Force, the Texas 2000 commission and by Lt. Governor Bill Hobby to the Select Committee on Public Education.

Card of Thanks

CARD OF THANKS
We would like to express our sincere and heartfelt thanks to each member of the Haskell Volunteer Fire Department for the wonderful job you did in containing the fire at our residence December 18. Your prompt response and the efficient manner in which the fire was controlled and extinguished will be forever appreciated. The actions of members of the Fire Department in removing personal belongings and furnishings and in protecting other articles in the house will always be remembered.

We would also like to thank our many friends and neighbors who were there when we needed you. Your assistance will always be appreciated.

Dr. and Mrs. T. W. Williams 53c

CARD OF THANKS
Words cannot express the gratitude we feel to all of you wonderful friends who came to help us endure the most horrible experience of our lives. God bless each of you who came to join in the search. The dishes of food, beautiful flowers and plants, countless cards and the memorial contributions will always be remembered with deep appreciation. Never to be forgotten will be the love and concern in your eyes and hearts as you came to be near us. We truly were blessed to have Brother Mike Struve and Brother Mike McKinney constantly with us sharing their love and knowledge of God's love. To be able to provide beautiful music in the midst of heartache and grief is a God given gift; thank you Nelda Lane and Brian Burgess.

Sterling's favorite song for me to sing to him was "You Are My Sunshine". "Sing Sunshine Mama" as I did so many times while I rocked him. He was my Sunshine.

Jerry, Maxine, Cary and Casey Hannsz. 53p

Unusual Plants Will Supply Food, Experts Predict

Consumers all over the world can expect to see more food products and food ingredients from cottonseed, soybeans and sunflowers, say industry experts at a recent conference at Texas A&M University.

Non-conventional plants also will provide more fuel, rubber, plastics, lubricants and animal feed, the experts predict, as researchers find replacements for products now imported into the United States such as castor oil and tung oil.

HEATING & AIR CONDITIONING

Free Gas or Electric Furnace

with the purchase of any Heat Pump or Standard Cooling Unit.

These units can save you up to 50% or more over your old system.

The more energy costs rise, the more you need T.H.E.™ Heat Pump by Coleman.

T.H.E.™ Heat Pump uses free solar energy to slash your electric heating bills... even fossil fuel bills in some cases... thanks to Coleman's "Dual Fuel Control." And that's only half the savings story.

The other half is in T.H.E.™ Heat Pump's high energy efficiency rating as an air conditioner. That's right T.H.E.™ Heat Pump both cools your home in the summer and warms it in the winter... efficiently and dependably.

Let us show you all the differences between T.H.E.™ Heat Pump and the competition. Once you compare purchase price, operating efficiencies and overall quality, we think you'll agree: Few, if any, competitive units even come close to matching T.H.E
