

"MY TURN"

By Carol
Ellis

THE SONG GOES "Oh, Christmas Tree. . . Thy branches green for-e-ver!" Well, maybe not quite forever when you purchase your Tannenbaum and it dies in the trunk of your car on the way home. Half the needles are in your trunk and the other half will be hiding in your carpet until someone walks through the room barefooted next July. Then they'll jump up and getcha!

Of course, part of the fun of having a "real" tree is the shopping and bargain hunting. Do you want a Scotch Pine, a Douglas Fir, Norway Spruce, White Pine, Red Cedar? You can spend an hour picking out just the perfect tree at the store, the tree lot or wherever, and you'll walk around studying the symmetry, height, width, etc., but when you get home it always has a few bare spots and leans toward the north.

Some people tend to take pity on the underdog and bring home the little scrawny, scraggly tree that no one else wanted. Others have no sense of size and end up having to cut off the top or the bottom of the tree that looked just perfect before they got it home.

If you're looking for "neat" with no resin on your hands and no needles to clean up, then you are the "fake tree" type person. I can remember when the first artificial trees came out. They were those tinfoil monsters that revolved, changed colors and snowed all over. After a few people electrocuted themselves with those things, the plastic tree was born. Today's fake trees claim to be "silk" but I doubt that a silk worm ever had anything to do with it.

In my younger days, I was one of those purists who said I'd never have a fake tree in my home. I wanted all the needles, the resin, the tree-tilt, the whole works. . . but most of all the real Christmas spirit, in my mind, was tied up with the SMELL of the evergreen boughs.

Well, all that dewy-eyed sentiment came to a screeching halt one Christmas about 25 years ago when we had new shag carpet and two baby kittens. The tree was in one of those little stands that holds water, with the optimistic thought that this would keep it fresh. The kittens went up and the tree went down three times that Christmas season and we had an electric heater going full-blast for weeks while we tried to dry out the water in the new shag carpet.

We committed to a artificial tree the following Christmas and when we sold the house to Delphine and Bobby Weid six years later, I think there were still some needles in that shag carpet from our last real tree.

When we commit to something we do it forever. We still have that same old artificial tree from 24 years ago and it goes up every year at Christmas time. The kids won't let me throw it out and get a newer, fancier one. So one year I sprayed it white, thinking that would give it a "new" look, at least. Well, the white didn't cover very good. Some of the green still shows through, but the result is, it looks more like a real pine.

The inside ends of the branches were color coded to go into certain holes in the wooden trunk. Over the years the colors have all worn off, so the branches just get stuck in wherever. This also adds to the "real" look because it isn't perfectly symmetrical anymore like most of your fake trees. In fact, the older this tree gets, the more realistic it looks.

A few years ago I found a small tree that had the same type of branches as our old one. I brought this little fellow home, sprayed it white so it would match, and stuck it up on top of the old tree. There's a high ceiling in our family room and now we have a nice tall, skinny Christmas tree with a few bare spots, that tilts a little toward the north. I buy the smell of the evergreen boughs in a spray can now and Christmas still comes around every year, same as always.

SCS Announces Agency Changes

The Soil Conservation Service has officially been restructured into a new agency called the Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS).

"The Natural Resources Conservation Service is the federal agency that works hand-in-hand with the American people to conserve natural resources on private lands," said Thomas Reed, local SCS spokesman.

"Our recent name change, from the Soil Conservation Service to the Natural Resources Conservation Service, more accurately reflects what we do--helping people conserve all natural resources on private lands. It reflects a streamlined agency that provides quality service more efficiently," Reed said.

"Our name has changed, but some things will not change. The Natural Resources Conservation Service will continue to build on our 60 years of experience, our scientific and technical expertise, our voluntary program, and our partnership with conservation districts and others.

"Consolidating administrative and financial management activities is one of the complex challenges we face in the months ahead. It involves not just the changes internal to NRCS, but a plan for the entire mission area of Natural Resources and Environment, an organization of some 60,000 people (NRCS and Forest Service, plus the Under Secretary's staff)," he concluded.

The SCS has been located in Friona, serving all of Parmer County since 1948. The Secretary of Agriculture announced on December 6, 1994, that the newly created NRCS would co-locate with the Farm Service Agency (ASCS) and the Rural Economic & Community Development (FmHA) agency which are located in Farwell.

The Secretary's goal is for all three USDA agencies serving Parmer County to be located in the same building. The location of the building will be determined at a future date as the current building leases expire, according to Thomas Reed, district conservationist, NRCS.

Looking Up!

By RICHARD GRISHAM

Our family enjoys the decorations and lights of Christmas time. We feel Christmas should be a time of great joy and praise as we celebrate God's gift of Christ. No "Bah! Humbug!" attitude for us!

But what about all this emphasis on the secular aspects of Christmas? How about Santa Clause and Rudolph and "Jingle Bells?" I agree with Dr. James Dobson's recent page in Focus On The Family magazine entitled "Dr. Dobson Answer Your Question." In it he says it is true that the timing of our modern Christmas season coincides with some ancient pagan festivals, etc. It was Constantine, the Roman emperor, who declared that the festivals should continue but with new meaning.

The old pagan celebration was transformed into a celebration of Jesus' birth. Dr. Dobson goes on to say, "Despite the secular origins of the Christmas holiday, I am not troubled by its celebration. I do understand why other believers are, and I respect their point of view. To my mind, it is what you make of the event that counts...."

Yes, we should be careful, so our family goes lightly on Santa, Rudolph, etc., but we try not to take the joy and fun out of the season. After all, it is Jesus' birthday! The main thing is that we honor and glorify Him.
In love, Bro. Richard.

Season Evokes Lasting Memories

Of all special days, Christmas evokes the most memories. These dreamlike excursions into a vanquished past are made of many things — the merry blinking of lights garlanded about a fragrant evergreen; the savor of cinnamon and nutmeg, ginger and all-spice adding its scent and flavor to cookies cut in festive shapes; the crackle of a yule log on a cozy fire; the razzle-dazzle of brightly colored wrappings and ribbons.

Christmas memories are made of sounds and scents, sights and tastes, bound together with good feelings. They reach back through the years and decades, to the earliest recalled moments of childhood and beyond, to stories told of holiday seasons long before — memories passed on by parents and grandparents — to become part of the fabric of this most magical of seasons.

People from all over reach out to one another, and families come together to rejoice and celebrate, to recall and make memories, and their sense of an occasion celebrated in common has the power to overcome differences.

This rebirth of the human community and family unity is the true wonder of Christmas, and infuses the season with the glow of childhood, as glorious as it is innocent.

Food gifts are sure to make a hit with just about anyone on your list, especially for persons who are older and live alone. The following recipes were some of Clessy's favorites:

PEANUT BRITTLE

1 cup white corn syrup
2 cups sugar
1/2 cup water
2 cups raw peanuts
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
2 teaspoons baking soda
2 tablespoons water

Place the syrup, sugar and water in an iron skillet and cook to soft ball stage. Add the peanuts. Stir and cook to the crack stage. Remove from heat. Stir in the butter, baking soda and vanilla. Pour onto a greased platter. Turn quickly and stretch until very thin. When cool, break into pieces.

DIVINITY

2 cups sugar
3/4 cup water

3/4 cup light corn syrup
3 egg whites, beaten stiff
1/8 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons vanilla
1/2 cup whole walnuts
Stir sugar, water and syrup over low heat until sugar is dissolved. Cook until soft ball stage. Pour beaten egg whites into syrup, stirring constantly. Add salt. Place over boiling water and beat until mixture stands up in peaks. Remove from heat and add the vanilla and mix. Spread on a greased platter. Cut into squares and mash 1/2 walnut in center of each square.

CHOCOLATE FUDGE

2 ounces unsweetened chocolate
2 cups sugar
1/8 teaspoon salt
1 cup cream
2 tablespoons corn syrup
3 tablespoons butter
2 teaspoons vanilla
1 cup nuts, chopped

Cook the first five ingredients

over low heat until soft ball forms when dropped in cup of cold water. Stir frequently. Remove from heat and add the butter. Beat until the fudge begins to harden. Add the vanilla and nuts. Pour onto buttered platter. Cut into squares.

OATMEAL COOKIES

1 cup brown sugar
2/3 cup butter
1 egg
1/2 cup buttermilk
2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon baking soda
2 teaspoons cinnamon
1 teaspoon cloves
1/2 teaspoon ginger
2 cups oatmeal
1 cup seeded raisins
1 cup chopped nuts
2 teaspoons vanilla

Beat sugar and butter until fluffy. Beat in egg. Combine dry ingredients and add alternately with milk. When mixed, add vanilla. Drop dough by small spoonfuls onto greased sheet and bake 20 minutes at 350 degrees or until light brown.

SUGAR COOKIES

1 cup sugar
1/2 cup butter
1 egg
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 teaspoon baking soda
1/4 teaspoon salt
1-1/2 cups flour
1/2 cup sour cream

Cream sugar and butter. Add egg and vanilla. Combine baking soda, salt and flour. Add flour mixture alternately with sour cream. Chill dough for about 1 day. Roll and cut into shapes like Christmas trees or stars. You may decorate with red and green sugar.

DREAM BARS

Crust--
1 cup flour
1/2 cup butter
Blend flour and butter until smooth. Spread mixture in a 9x13 pan. Bake in 350 degree oven for 12 minutes.
2 eggs, beaten
2 cups brown sugar
1 cup coconut
1 cup chopped pecans
2 tablespoons flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/8 teaspoon baking soda
2 teaspoons vanilla
Mix the above ingredients and spread on the crust and bake in a 350 degree oven for 25 minutes. Cut cookies in small squares.

SUGARED POPCORN

2 quarts popped popcorn
2 cups pecan halves
1 cup almonds
1-1/2 cups sugar
1 cup butter
1/2 cup white syrup
1 teaspoon vanilla

Mix popcorn and nuts on a cookie sheet. Combine sugar, butter and syrup in a saucepan. Bring to a boil over medium heat, stirring constantly. Continue to boil and stir--about 18 minutes, or until mixture turns light brown (hard ball stage). Remove from heat and add vanilla. Pour over the popcorn and nuts and mix well. Spread out on cookie sheet and cool. When cool, break apart and store in tightly sealed containers. Decorate.

FRUIT CAKE

(About six pounds)

1/2 pound butter
1 pound brown sugar, sifted
6 beaten egg yolks
2-1/2 cups flour
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1 teaspoon allspice
1 teaspoon cloves
1 teaspoon nutmeg
1 teaspoon baking soda
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup wine, whiskey or grape juice
1/2 cup molasses
1/2 cup sour milk
1/2 pound maraschino cherries
1 pound seeded raisins
1 pound chopped candied fruit
1 pound pecan pieces

1 tablespoon vanilla
6 stiffly beaten egg whites
1/8 teaspoon salt

Cream butter and sugar; add egg yolks and beat until fluffy. Sift 2 cups flour with the cinnamon, allspice, clove, nutmeg, baking soda and salt. Add the sifted ingredients to the butter mixture alternately with the wine, molasses and sour milk. Sprinkle the fruit with the remaining 1/2 cup flour and add the vanilla. Fold the egg whites and salt into the batter mixture. Place the dough in greased loaf pans lined with a layer of heavy wax paper. Line the bottom of the oven with pans of hot water and bake loaves in a 300 degree oven about 2-1/2 hours or until done. Remove the wax paper and wrap the loaves in fresh wax paper and store the cakes in tightly covered tin boxes. Soak the cakes every 3 days with 2 tablespoons wine. Place 1/2 apple in box with the cake to prevent drying.

Note: I make this recipe several times about 3 or 4 weeks before Christmas. I have learned that making about six pounds at a time gets better results and is easier to mix.

PARTY MIX

1 cup butter, melted
1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon garlic powder
2 teaspoons Accent
1 cup pecans
1 cup peanuts
4 cups Rice Chex
4 cups Wheat Chex

Heat oven to 350 degrees. Place melted butter in bottom of 9"x13" baking pan. Add other ingredients and place in oven for 15 minutes. Stir or toss at 5 minute intervals. Cool before packaging.

Our December 24 Happy Homemaker will offer suggestions for appetizers and main dishes selected from "Granny's Nutritious Home Cooking."

Facts About The

THE MOTHER MARY.

AS THE MOTHER OF THE MAN DESTINED TO BECOME THE MESSIAH, MARY COULD NOT HAVE KNOWN THE FULL FATE THAT AWAITED HER SON, BUT WHENEVER SHE IS MENTIONED IN THE NEW TESTAMENT IT IS EVIDENT THAT SHE WAS A PATIENT AND TRUSTING WOMAN. ONLY ONCE DID SHE CHIDE HER SON--THE INSTANCE BEING THAT OF THEIR TRIP TO JERUSALEM WHEN JESUS WAS TWELVE YEARS OF AGE (LUKE 2:42) WHEN THEY HAD TO GO BACK A FULL DAY'S JOURNEY BECAUSE THE YOUNG JESUS HAD STAYED BEHIND IN THE CITY TO CONVERSE WITH THE DOCTORS AND RABBIS IN THE TEMPLE. ONLY A VERY PATIENT AND SPIRITUALLY MINDED MOTHER WOULD HAVE PUT UP WITH THE ANSWER THAT HER SON GAVE HER-- AFTER HAVING TO GO THREE MORE WORRISOME DAYS BEFORE FINDING HIM! (LUKE 2:49)

ONE OF THE LAST PICTURES THAT WE HAVE OF HER IS, STILL PATIENT AND SUFFERING, WAITING BESIDE THE CROSS FOR HER SON TO DIE IN AGONY--AND NEVER COMPLAINING OF HER ROLE IN LIFE OR THE SORROWS SHE HAD TO CONTEND WITH-- A BEAUTIFUL EXAMPLE OF A DEVOTED AND PIOUS MOTHER!

By CAROL McINTOSH

I want to announce that our "Resident of the Month" is Nannie Rhodes, who has been here since January 13, 1994, and "Employee of the Month" is Patsy Widner. She is a Certified Med Aide and has been employed here since September 3, 1994.

We want to remind everyone about our Resident Christmas Party to be held December 22 at 6:30 p.m. If you would like to come, please bring a snack tray and just enjoy the visit and entertainment.

Prairie Acres would like to welcome Ora Mae Anthony and Ella Collier. We invite everyone to come and say "hi."

Thank you's go to: Betty Freeman for the donuts she brought for staff members; FHS speech and drama class for the turkey breast they donated for the residents; Deke Kendrick for the magazines; Friona FFA for the beautiful apples; and a special thank you to everyone who was kind, thoughtful and generous enough to adopt a resident for Christmas, so that they would be sure to have at least one package under the tree. Not all residents are lucky enough to have family members who are able to get away for the holidays, and I'm sure they appreciate a special person to be with at this time. We also want to thank Big Boy's Pizza for the delicious pizza they brought to us.

The following donations have been made to the Love Fund:

In memory of TRUMAN FARMER: Opal Baxter and Family.

In memory of JOHN GAEDE: John and Jo Blackwell.

In memory of LEORA GARNER: John and Jo Blackwell.

Sen. Bivins Appointed Committee Chairman

State Sen. Teel Bivins (R-Amarillo) this week was named chairman of the Senate Nominations Committee by Lt. Gov. Bob Bullock.

The Senate is required to vote to confirm appointees to state boards and commissions by the governor. The Nominations Committee is the first step in the Senate confirmation process.

"Since Texas' many state agencies are run by the people appointed by the governor, it's an important responsibility to oversee the committee that will screen these appointees," Bivins said. "As chairman, my duty will be to insure that appointees meet all legal requirements for service on boards and commissions."

"The Lieutenant Governor's selection of a Republican as chairman of nominations is a clear message that he respects the new governor's constitutional duties to appoint Texans that George Bush believes will serve the state well," Bivins said.

Bush is expected to appoint approximately three thousand Texans to boards and commissions during his term as governor. A majority of the appointments will require confirmation by the Senate.

Bivins also was reappointed to the Senate Finance, Education, and Natural Resources committees. He also will serve on the Agriculture Subcommittee.

Sr. Citizens Set Christmas Dinner Tues.

The Friona Senior Citizens will hold their Christmas luncheon and game session on Tuesday, December 20 at Friendship House, 15th and Washington.

Games will get underway at 10 a.m., with a covered dish lunch starting at 12 noon.

The program will consist of Christmas carols.

All senior citizens are urged to bring a covered dish and join the group for a good time of food and fellowship.

Correction

In last week's editions of The Friona Star and The Bovina Blade, we ran an engagement announcement for Stefanie Howle and Denver Redwine.

Reading from the form we had to go by, under "parents of groom" was written, "Clyde Redwine." From that form we typed that Denver Redwine was the son of Clyde Redwine.

The announcement should have read that Denver was the son of "Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Redwine." We apologize for any inconvenience or embarrassment this may have caused.

The Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring a Christmas decorations contest and first prize is $200. Second prize is $100, and third prize is $50.

Be sure and turn your lights on every night because I am already out taking pictures at night. If you see a white car, a camera and tripod propped in the middle of the street, slow down or stop because it's me taking pictures.

There are already so many homes decorated real pretty and if you want to enter the contest, fill out the entry form, in this week's paper or give me a call.

Juanda Murphy's condition is stable after a week in the Clovis hospital. She is still in intensive care following thirteen hours of surgery to correct complications following a gall bladder attack.

Her entire bladder had to be removed and the small intestine attached to the liver. It was so very scary for all of her family but things are looking good now.

The Murphys' children, Darlene from Midlothian and Rodney from Abilene came for a few days and also Juanda's brothers, Dwain, Howard and Bobby came the latter part of the week. We've all been very concerned and continue to pray that all will go well.

Edna Scott and daughter Dinah drove to Dallas and met with Erra Louise Jamerson and grandson Scott. Also with the family were Erra's daughter Carol Scott of Abilene and they all attended a Christmas cantata at the Prestonwood Baptist Church in Dallas.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Another meeting was held Monday, December 12.

Poetry Competition Announced

A total of 51 prizes will be awarded in a national poetry competition sponsored by Hollywood's Famous Poets Society, open free to everyone.

A handsome book prize will be awarded to the finalist in each state. The Grand Prize winner, chosen from among the 50 finalists, will receive a cashier's check for $1,000!

"Texas has always produced great poets," says Dr. Martha French, Hollywood's famed Contest Director, "and I would like to see a person from the Bovina area take top honors. Beginners are welcome!"

Entries must be postmarked by midnight, January 31, 1995. A winner's list will be sent to all entrants on March 28.

To enter, send one poem of 20 lines or less to: National Poetry Competition, 7095 Hollywood Blvd., Suite 730, Hollywood, California 90028.

They enjoyed shopping in the beautiful malls, also toured a home with furnishings by Dillard's. Erra said the home was selling for $780,000 and the furniture for $200,000.

Erra said her grandson, Kirk took her through the dental school and it was interesting.

Deborah Beauchamp underwent laposcopic surgery to remove her gall bladder two weeks ago in the Methodist Hospital in Lubbock. She came home from the hospital the next day but said it has taken a while to feel real good again.

Deborah was telling me about her grandfather, Ernest Jones, who is a patient in a Lubbock hospital. He underwent surgery on Monday of this week and will be in rehab for a while when he is released from the hospital.

Deborah's mother and dad, Dorothy and Grady Sorley have been in Lubbock much of the time with Dorothy's parents. They have a trailer on the grounds.

A. L. Nuttall hosted a pheasant hunt for about thirty hunters and the men had a good time together and shot a few birds. The hunt was scarce this year, I suppose because of the dry conditions.

Usually you can see several birds along side the road but there just aren't many this year. This year the limit was raised to three birds.

There are always a lot of hunters who come great distances into Parmer County for the pheasant hunt every year. Jack Patterson had several hunters with him from out of town.

Mike Prather, preacher at the Church of Christ, recently earned his master's of arts in New Testament degree from Lubbock Christian University on Saturday, December 10.

The people from his church presented him with a chiming wall clock. This is quite an accomplishment to be proud of because he is a busy man with his church, wife and two little girls. Congratulations, Mike!

Sonny Roach was in the office visiting and told us about the place where they always go deer hunting. He said his son, Jerry, has a good friend who has a five thousand acre ranch near Austin that he lets them hunt on.

It has a house on it where they stay and Sonny said it is so peaceful and such a pretty part of Texas. Jerry got deer in recent weeks there. Sonny said he didn't get one this time but sure enjoyed the trip.

I hope all of you have a chance to see and perhaps purchase one of Richard Grisham's book of poetry, "Christmas is Forever" that he wrote and has recently published.

It would be an excellent Christmas present for anyone and even has large enough print that an older person could read and enjoy it. If you'd like one to purchase they are $7.95; give him a call.

I met daughter Tami in Amarillo and we spent all day Saturday Christmas shopping, had dinner at the Olive Garden, and walked through the pretty Hobby Lobby. Had lots of fun!
