The 4-AA District Champion Haskell Indians will meet Hale Center next Thursday, Feb. 23 at 8 p.m. in Synder to decide the Bi-District title.

Ricky Rojas was the leading scorer for the tribe with 16 and Patrick McCoy had 13.

Hale Center fell 43-47 to Lorenzo Tuesday night to win second place in their District.

The Indians finished district with a 9-1 record and boast a 22-3 season record.

The tribe defeated Jacksboro 70-51 Monday night in a practice game and will face Winters tonight, Feb. 16, at 7 p.m. in Abilene Cooper

McCoy led the tribe attack against Jacksboro with 26 followed by Shane Hadaway with 16.

Tribe Coach Jim Dan Raughton said Wednesday that several of the Tribe had been down with the flu and he hoped that by the Bi-district game everyone would be healthy. Two members of the team were absent Tuesday with the flu and several others are back at school but not yet playing at 100%.

VOLUME NINETY-EIGHT HASKELL, TEXAS 79521, FEBRUARY 16, 1984 NUMBER SEVEN

Flu Epidemic Strikes Area

Haskell, as well as much of the State, has been struck by a flu epidemic. During the past two weeks about half of the middle age population and younger have suffered the illness.

Local doctors have seen record numbers of patients for almost three weeks and have observed that the flu has not effected older age groups.

Haskell school students have been hard hit with the illness and as many as 160 students have been absent in a day. That total represents about 20 percent of the total enrollment.

Elementary school Principal Bill Blakely said that several teachers have had the flu but most had not. He said that substitute teachers were practically nonexistent due to the fact that many either had the flu or had children who did. He added that the same epidemic has hit the entire area and surrounding schools are competing for available substitutes.

Secondary School Principal Clayton Neal said that during the flu epidemic attendance in the High School and Junior High had fallen from an average of 97 percent to below 88 percent.

Neal was hopeful that the illness had peaked late last week when about 100 students were absent from elementary school and about 60 from the secondary school.

State funds are paid to schools based on average daily attendance and schools are allowed to drop the lowest six weeks period when making the calculations. Neal was hopeful that much of the illness was past as the school system started a new six weeks period this week.

Both principals said that Monday and Tuesday absences were down from the past two weeks which might indicate that the flu had run its course.

Farm Bureau Represented By Two County Members

Haskell County Farm Bureau was represented by Lonnie Hodgins and Tim Burson at the Texas Farm Bureau Leadership Conference Jan. 29-31 in Waco. The meeting was conducted for county presidents and chairmen of state affairs, young farmers and ranchers, membership, and various commodity committees.

The 500 attendance heard from general session speakers U.S. Rep.

Eligio "Kika" de la Garza; TFB Pres. S.M. True, Jr.; TFB Executive Director Warren Newberry; James Rogers, president of the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of Texas and Richard Tallboys, British Consul-General. On Monday afternoon and all day Tuesday, leaders met in individual group sessions to discuss topics affecting Farm Bureau in the coming year. Monday night a panel discussion on workmen's compensation was held.

U.S. Rep. de la Garza told the audience that he wants to work with farmers and ranchers to develop a long-term policy in agriculture that would not need revising every few years. The chairman of the House Agriculture Committee advised Farm Bureau members to have the understanding and patience when dealing with Congress on the Farm Bill. He said one of his most difficult problems was developing a policy that would work effective in all parts of the country and asked Farm Bureau leaders "to help themselves, help us in their own communities by getting the word out on agriculture policy."

Little Dribblers To Open Season Next Monday

The Little Dribblers basketball season is well under way for 1984. Lonnie Tate is serving as President of the organization with Ervin Unger assisting as Vice President. Nancy Trussell will be serving as Secretary as well as Treasurer for this year. Beverly SoRelle was elected to serve as the Reporter.

Coaches have drafted their teams and have begun their weekly practices. The first scheduled game will be played Monday, February 20th at 6:00 p.m. Prior to Monday's game, at 5:30, all boys and girls teams with their coaches will be introduced. The teams will be presented individually in their uniforms and the public is cordially invited to attend.

Due to High School basketball playoffs, some of the early games may be rescheduled. Coaches will be notified as soon as possible of any changes.

Openings Available For Computer Class

Several openings are available in a basic computer programming class being offered by Western Texas College in Haskell.

The class, CS 231, will be offered Tuesday nights from 6:30 to 8:30 and will include the use of one computer for each two students.

Citizens Address Council Concerning Loud Music

Members of the Haskell City Council Tuesday night again heard citizens complaints of loud music during dances on East U.S. 380.

About 15 residents voiced objections to loud music in the Dave Cave building.

Peace Justice Geraldine Hise said Wednesday that two complaints have been filed in her office and the first is set for trial March 15.

In other action council members voted to change the pay status of Police Officer S.E. Braly. For the past two months officer Braly has been suspended with pay and council members voted to change that status to suspended without pay Tuesday night.

Officer Braly was suspended with pay following a shooting incident and has remained in that status until the present. His trial was scheduled to begin Monday but was postponed due to an illness in the family of the special prosecutor.

Council members discussed the possibility of re-assigning Officer Braly to another department.

Council members also called a City election for April 7 to elect a Mayor and two Council members.

The terms of Mayor Franciene Johnson and Councilmen Larry Gilliam and Bill Lane Jr. expire. Mayor Johnson and Councilman Gilliam have announced intentions to seek re-election.

Mayor Franciene Johnson passed a letter to members of the council containing the resignation of city secretary Desmond Dulaney effective March 31.

School Board Sets April 7 Election

Haskell School Board members officially set April 7 to elect two members to their board during their regular meeting February 9.

The terms of Max McMeans and David Frierson will expire. Neither has indicated wether or not they will seek re-election. Deadline to file is March 7 at the School Administration Office.

School Board members also accepted the bid of Johnny Billington for the purchase of the E.B. Evans school building and property. Two bids were received on the property and Billington's was the highest at $3,000.00.

C.H. Herren was given the bid on property insurance for the school. His bid was $4,825.00 per year for three years. A total of six bids were submitted and Herren was low bidder.

Board members also accepted the low bid of American Desk for $2,642.40 for Kindergarten furniture.

In other action, board members changed the date of the March meeting to March 13, renewed the contracts of principals Clayton Neal and Bill Blakely and heard cost estimated on heating and cooling the primary wings of the Elementary School.

It had to happen sometime!

And when it finally did, it all happened at once.

Last Friday started with both Comedy families leaving Haskell to attend the West Texas Press Association Mid-Winter meeting in Odessa.

Sunday afternoon upon arriving home, things seemed pretty much normal.

Then the phone rang and Free Press typesetter Tamala Drinnon reported that she had the flu and probably wouldn't be at work Monday.

Not much problem--so far.

Monday morning arrived with Office Manager Lisa Shaw stopping by to announce that she also had the flu and after a brief stop at the clinic would return home to bed.

The problem was growing, but still not unsurmountable.

Then composition employee Karen Mitchell arrived sounding much the same as Lisa and Tamala. After a trip to the clinic, she returned to the office and worked until noon before returning home to bed.

Suddenly, Bill and I found ourselves as the entire staff of the Free Press with two days to put-out a newspaper.

After two days of seminars at the press convention centered around making newspapers look better, more readable, better written and all the rest of the goals of hypothetical journalism, we were faced with the real world.

The world of "just getting it to the post office on time!"

We yelled help loudly and three ex-employees responded promptly.

Mrs. Dudley Phelps, Mrs. Phillip Cockerell and Mrs. Mark Hannsz all responded promptly. Mrs. Phelps had worked at the Free Press about 12 years ago and retired during the change from letter press to offset. Mrs. Cockerell left about two years ago to start a family and Mrs. Hannsz left last year to start a family.

If this issue reaches you sometime between February 15 and February 25, it is only because of the willingness of these three women to help when needed and they certainly have the sincere thanks of the Comedys.

Last week when I started gathering information for a story about the flu, I thought it was just another story. Several times this week I thought it was the only story worth printing.

Please understand these problems if every other page is upside down this week or whatever other may occur. Hopefully, next week we can get back to a normal routine and perhaps we can even consider the lofty ideas learned during the press convention.

Williams, Kupatt United During Sagerton Ceremony

Karla Michelle Kupatt of Sagerton and Mickey Don Williams of Hamlin were united in marriage Saturday, January 28, 1984 in the Faith Lutheran Church in Sagerton, with the pastor Tommy Sparks officiating.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Kupatt of Sagerton. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Williams of Hamlin. Grandparents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Bill Merritt of Neinda and Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Putnam of Hamlin.

The bride was escorted down the aisle by her father and given in marriage by her parents. The bride wore a gown of organza and chantilly lace. The bodice of the gown was designed with a Victorian neck with a sheer yoke. The long fitted sleeves of the gown were of organza and punctuated with a ruffle at the wrist. The imported chantilly lace of the gown was brought to a pyramid on the skirt and detailed ruffles accented the train. To complete the look, the bride chose a hat with imported lace.

She carried a bouquet of white and burgandy roses with accents of for-get-me-nots in burgandy and mauve.

For something old she wore her late grandmother Kanier's gold wedding band. For something new she carried a handkerchief given to her by her maid of honor. For something borrowed, she wore her late grandmother Kupatt's gold wedding band, belonging to the bride's sister, Jana Manske. Something blue was her garter.

Matron of honor was Jana Manske, sister of the bride. Maid of honor was Gena Peel of San Angelo. Bridesmaids were Mikeana Jeffrey of McCauley, Lisa Baird of Lubbock, Mary Lea Hawkins of Stephenville, and Carla Marquis of Abilene. They wore gowns of burgandy moire taffeta faille with scoop front and back neckline with a double ruffle flounce trim. The gowns had full skirts with a mauve flounced trim. They carried bouquets of burgandy and mauve flowers.

Flower girls were Denise Becker of Beaumont and Rebecca Lawson of Abilene, both neices of the groom. They wore dresses in mauve, identical to the bridal attendants. They carried white baskets filled with rose petals.

Attending the groom as best man was Darren Jeffrey of McCauley. Groomsmen were David Kupatt of Rule, brother of the bride, Monty Williams and Mike Williams of Sweetwater, cousins of the groom, Dale Hall of Hamlin and Joe Jeffrey of Hamlin.

The groom wore a white western tuxedo, white shirt, and a white rose boutonniere with burgandy for-get-me-nots. His attendants all wore grey western tuxedo, grey shirts and burgandy rose boutonnieres with mauve for-get-me-nots.

Ushers were David Kupatt and Monty Williams.

Candles were lit by Don Lawson of Abilene, brother-in-law of the groom.

Wedding music was presented by Mrs. Leland Nauert of Stamford. "The Wedding Song" and "Oh Perfect Love" were sung by Mrs. Tommy Sparks of Sagerton.

The bride's mother chose a formal length mauve polyester crepe gown. Her corsage was of burgandy roses.

The groom's mother chose a formal length gown of plum polyester chiffon. She wore a corsage of burgandy roses.

A registry table in the foyer of the church was covered in white, with a white lace overlay. A burgandy candle held an arrangement of burgandy and mauve flowers. A white basket held the wedding scrolls. Lisa Threet attended the registry table.

Following the ceremony, photographs were taken by Mike Harrell of Haskell.

The wedding reception was hosted by the bride's parents in the church fellowship hall.

The bride's table was covered in white and overlaid with white lace. Burgandy roses, burgandy and mauve miniature carnations, mauve frushia, white baby breath and English ivy adorned the tiered cake. Flowers matching those of the bride's cake encircled the silver punch bowl from which cranberry punch was served. A silver candelabra held candles and flowers of the bride's chosen colors. Silver appointments held mints and nuts. Serving at the bride's table were Pam Rash

Brush and Palette

An artist has to be organized. Often the basis for a sincere and creative approach to painting must start from some basic laws of thinking, then everything else related will follow respectively and show in the work you accomplish. Start with basics—drawing, color, composition. There should be no secrets in art—only hard work. An instructor in the arts that holds back on technique, and does not want to reveal a 'secret' painting formula may be relying on gimmicks instead of good sound drawing and painting habits. Has your teacher taught you how to glaze, scumble, dry brush, etc?

Q. Tell us something about painting a bluebonnet picture, please.

A. I don't suppose there is another subject in the art world that has been so badly done in so many ways as bluebonnets. Unless it is cactus! They are not that hard to paint, really. Some of the common errors are: 1. Don't make them too tall. Remember there is perspective in fields of flowers. Don't make them look like blue bushes. 2. Don't march them in rows like soldiers. 3. Don't render them in spotty clumps. Think about how bluebonnets look in the field. If yours do not look right, then try to figure out what you are doing wrong. Also, they do not grow in the shade, so don't cluster them around a tree. The blues you use will vary from one area to another. That is up to your knowledge of color. Add some green foliage and let some earth show through now and then. Also add other wild flowers to avoid monotony.

Q. How does one break away from copying and start doing originals?

A. Here we go again! I have written about this in several columns, #11 and #52 and one later, I am sure. One way is to go outside and start drawing and painting from nature. This is hard at first but if you are serious, you will soon learn to edit what you see and relate it to paint and canvas. You can also set up a still life with a pleasing composition. Take slides or snapshots and paint from them, editing as you work. Join us some Monday and Tuesday for a paint out in the field and experience the real feel of the beautiful world that God has given to us.

HINT: If you have a brush with dry paint (mercy NO!) you can clean it by soaking it in soap and water.

Write your questions and hints to me, Faye Schnuriger, P.O. Box 134, Haskell, Texas 79521. I will not use your name but do want you to sign your letters.

The most efficient, the most economical heating and cooling system for your home.

THE Electric heat pump.
It's part of "the plan" — the Energy Saving Plan

THE ELECTRIC HEAT PUMP: It can save you money on your home energy bills. And when it's used along with other WTU-recommended energy conservation measures according to the ENERGY SAVING PLAN, you can save even more. WTU will pay YOU money when your home meets all the E.S.P. requirements that ensure your home to be energy efficient. That's where the ELECTRIC HEAT PUMP comes in — it's part of "the plan" because it's the most efficient system for heating and cooling. During the winter it removes heat from the outside air and pumps it into your home. In the summer it reverses the process and becomes an air conditioner, so you get even comfort year-round. CALL YOUR LOCAL WTU OFFICE OR A FACTORY-TRAINED ELECTRIC HEAT PUMP DEALER TODAY TO FIND OUT MORE ABOUT SAVING ENERGY AND MONEY ON YOUR HOME ELECTRIC BILLS.

Capt. Lela Marie Holden Named Outstanding Young Woman

Mr. and Mrs. W.O. Holden of Haskell have been notified that their daughter-in-law, Captain Lela Marie Holden, has been selected as one of the Outstanding Young Women of America for 1983. The Board of Advisors, in making this announcement, shares their pride in her accomplishment. The purpose of this award program is to recognize the many young women like Captain Holden who give their talents, time and unselfish service to enrich the quality of American life. The Board of Advisors selected her from the thousands of nominations submitted by respected business and civic leaders throughout the country.

Captain Holden and her husband, Thomas W. Holden, are now serving at Clark Air Base in the Philippines where she is a nurse in the base hospital and he teaches languages in the Lilly Hill Clark Air Base School.

Captain Holden entered the Air Force as a First Lieutenant in 1982 and was promoted to Captain in October 1983. Most of her service with the hospital has been with the Intensive Care Unit, but she is now serving in the Psychology and Recreational Unit of the Base Hospital.

She was in the Philippines a year before joining the Air Force during which time she did voluntary work with the Base Hospital. Working as a Mental Health Staff Nurse at the USAF Regional Medical center inpatient unit is a rewarding and challenging job, according to Captain Holden. Talking with her for just a few minutes makes one realize she is a natural in this field.

The Waco, Texas native deals with a full range of problems in her job, from marital conflicts to drug and alcohol abuse. "I usually am called in to help a patient after they have experienced a major crisis in their life," says Captain Holden. "My job is to help them deal with it, understand it and accept it as a part of life." She claims she works with good people and "really likes" her job. "Crisis is a real opportunity to grow and change. It is rewarding for me to see people grow and change," says the captain. "It requires involvement, but objectivity."

She does voluntary work with the Family Advisory Council Endemic, primarily focusing her attention on teaching communications skills. She also gives lectures on mental health issues at the Department of Defense Dependents Schools here.

Captain Holden has been in the Air Force only two years and Clark is her first assignment. She is a 1977 graduate from the University of Texas at Austin with a Bachelor's Degree in Nursing and will complete her Master's Degree in March, 1984.

Her husband, Thomas, says she is interminably busy and always on the fast track. He says, "She's done it again; she just won Company Grade Officer of the Year Award for Clark Air Base, beating out pilots, engineers, etc." He says he hopes we get something nice for this one, probably a trip to Hawaii and of course a chance to compete for the same award at the Pacific Theatre level.

Lone Star Continues Full Program

Project HAP'N, the heating fuel assistance program for needy individuals sponsored by Lone Star Gas, is in operation again this year. Assistance may be obtained for heating fuel of any type, such as gas, electricity, butane, wood, etc.

The program will be in operation until April 30, 1984, unless all available funds are expended prior to that date. Persons interested in obtaining assistance may contact Marsha Whittemore at the Experienced Citizens Center, 1401 South 1st Street, Haskell or call AC 817-864-3875.

Children Learn Math Concepts Early

Children begin to learn mathematical concepts long before they go to school. They gain knowledge through everyday activities, according to Growing Child, the monthly child development newsletter.

Early number awareness comes from simple activities: Determining the difference between these things and those things; Sorting objects which belong together; Ordering objects in space.

Ordering Objects in Space
An example of how children order things in space happened when Jennie was helping her mother put away the dishes, flatware, and pots and pans in the kitchen.

In the beginning Jennie, who is three years old, would push the pots and pans into the cupboard any old way. She discovered, however, that when she did this, the door wouldn't close.

Then her mother suggested,

"Why not try to put the cookie sheets in first? I always put the trays on the bottom."

When Jennie accepted that advice, it didn't take too long before she got the door closed. There was really no mystery: she used her knowledge of how parts fit together. Children develop a mathematical sense when they must arrange or share space, food, or other materials.

Learning By Cooking
Cooking and baking are rich experiences for language enrichment and mathematical challenges, too.

With sugar, flour, eggs, salt, and water to measure, mix, sift, and stir, a child can work through abstract mathematical concepts long before starting school.

Think about all the concepts involved with cooking tasks: "heavy", "light", "long", "short", "more", "less", "a little bit", "a lot", "spoonful", "cupful", "hot", "cold", "cool". They proceed to the complex "more than but not as much as", and comparatives such as "long",

"medium", "short".

Learning From Water

Water play can be very enriching, too, if a child has a place to play, understands the rules for water play, and has the proper materials—old raincoat, washtub, plastic bottles, funnel, straws, sieve, sponges, soapsuds, egg beater. Bathtime can be a time for experimentation: "What floats? What doesn't float?"

Why?" A variety of common materials can be used in the tub—sponge, soap, paper, plastic cup, wooden spoon.

The Growing Child newsletter follows a child's development month-by-month. For more information and a free sample newsletter, write to Growing Child, P.O. Box 620N, Lafayette, Indiana 47902. Include child's birthdate when writing.

Haskell Garden Club Shares Know How

The Haskell Garden Club met Thursday afternoon, February 9, 1984 in the Bank Community Room with the president, Mrs. Marsha Whittmore presiding. "Sharing our Know How" from the garden theme "Growing-Showing-Sharing" was emphasized by Mrs. Hassie Couch in her very interesting and informative talk on "The Culture of Roses." She said she knew only about the roses in her yard and what it had taken to make them so pretty. She said the rose is the queen of the flowers of the yard. They are also more attractive in beds four feet wide, grouping one color to each bed for best landscaping, but she likes an old fashion bouquet of different colors mixed together. She said roses grew best in acid soil and spraying now with a dormant spray of lime and sulphur before they start budding will control the insects.

One year when setting out roses, she used a systemic rose food under each rose bush and was not bothered with insects for two years. Roses can be pruned about the last week in February and in July. Mulching roses will help to keep weeds down as well as insects and fungi. Do not fertilize after August. A good time to set out roses is from October to February.

Mrs. Couch has one of the finest rose gardens in Haskell. She helped to organize the Haskell Garden Club twenty-seven years ago. She, Nettie McCollum and Mrs. Ed Fouts are the only charter members still in the club and they were all present.

"Sow seeds for beauty," said Juanita Bevel. Now is the time for summer growing. Periwinkles, a mixture of annual cut flowers, zinnias, cosmos and marigolds were a few she mentioned.

Mrs. J. O. Blankenship reported on the Arbor Day planting of a crepe myrtle at the Leberier House, the oldest house in Haskell, at the park.

Mrs. Blankenship said the Haskell Garden Club won first place in District VIII on the President's Report and third place in the State out of 97 clubs.

The Spring Convention District VIII Garden Club will meet in Coleman March 23.

In Horticulture, Mrs. Couch showed her beautiful Amaryllis of eight or ten blooms. Nettie McCollum showed a green Phlox that came through the cold winter.

Juanita Rhea had a beautiful red blooming Kalanchoe and arrangement, "Beginning of Spring". Mrs. Blankenship showed a healthy herb.

Hostesses were Mrs. Blankenship and Mrs. Ira Davis, using a Valentine theme.

Hance Evaluates Reagan's Budget

Democratic Congressman Kent Hance, a United States Senate candidate, said today that President Reagan's new budget is headed in the right direction, but he still has problems with the projected deficit and proposed defense spending.

"I'm pleased there were no new tax proposals, and I think the budget sets reasonable goals for the nation," Hance said. He added, "We must examine defense spending for waste and abuse. No one has a firmer commitment for a strong defense than I do, but a real increase of 18 percent is unacceptable."

"I'm even more concerned about the lack of any significant deficit reducing proposals in this budget," Hance added. Noting the Reagan proposal reduces spending by $4.6 billion, the Lubbock Democrat urged further cuts in spending, loosening monetary policy, and tax reform. "We must do more to reduce the red ink in Washington. $180 billion deficits are intolerable," Hance said.

Hance called on President Reagan to implement a more flexible monetary policy. He pointed out that tight money has driven up interest rates, reduced the amount of capital available to private enterprise, and excluded the consumer from the loan market.

A member of the house ways and means committee, Hance renewed his call for a look at simplifying the country's tax code. Hance passed an amendment out the committee last year to study ways to make the tax code more simple and possibly reduce the personal income tax rate for everyone.

Finally, Hance said President Reagan is wrong to propose tuition tax credits, voucher programs for education and housing, and disruptive changes in the civil service retirement program.

The Hance campaign also announced today that it raised $895,814.95 in campaign contributions in 1983, and has more money on hand than the other two major candidates.

A total of $285,957.02 was transferred from Hance's previous races for congress, but the campaign did not borrow any funds in 1983. Spending was slightly more than $90,000.00, leaving the campaign war chest with $800,592.77 in the bank.

"I run my campaign the way I think government ought to be run," Hance said. "I'm tight with money."

Officials of the Hance campaign stressed that the major fund raising efforts have just begun. They also pointed out that Hance raised just as much money as his two chief rivals over a shorter period of time.

Hance said, "We are highly encouraged, we have a debt free campaign, a strong organization, and the momentum to win this Senate race."

Maidens Fall 51-54 In Last Season Game

The Maidens ended their season last Tuesday night losing another close game to Aducah, 51-54.

The Maidens led the Dragonettes at half-time by one point but the Dragonettes came back in the third quarter, out-scoring the Maidens by 7.

Leading the Maidens was Jennifer Davis with 12.

"Backing up and looking at the year as a whole, I can't really be very critical. We had a ball club with no returning starters and only 4 people that had any experience on the varsity level.

"As the year progressed the team started learning team defense centering around a full court press, and this press, in quite a few games, was effective as an offense also.

"The last half of district the team pretty well gelled and while losing 4 out of the 5 games, the scores indicated that they could have won any of them—one game by 1, one game by 2, and 2 games by 3 points, are not losses that cannot be overcome with work in the off season program.

"With a new district and 8 lettermen back, the Maidens can look forward to a successful year next year, but it'll only be as good as they want it to be. The talent is there, they are just going to have to put forth the effort between now and November 1, 1984," Coach Jim Bob Mickler said.

Applications Sought For Rural Carriers

Applications are now being accepted, and an examination will be given to establish a register of eligibles from which future Rural Carrier vacancies in the Haskell Post Office will be filled. All interested persons who meet the requirements described in this announcement are urged to apply.

There are no experience or training requirements in the rural carrier examination. Applicants must take a written test which consists of vocabulary and reading comprehension questions and computations. Sample questions will be sent when applicants are notified of date, time, and place of examination. The test requires about 3-1/4 hours. Additional time is required for completion of necessary forms. Total time required in the examination room is approximately 3-3/4 hours.

Applicants will be rated on the written test on a scale of 100. To be eligible, they will be required to attain a rating of at least 70 (excluding credit for veteran preference). Additional points for veteran preference are added to the written test score of those who pass in order to obtain the final numerical rating in the examination.

1. Applicants must be physically able to perform efficiently the arduous duties of this position. A physical examination will be required before appointment.

2. Applicants must have vision of 20/40 (Snellen) in one eye, glasses permitted, and be able to read without strain printed material the size of typewritten characters.

3. The ability to hear is not a requirement for this position.

An eligible selected for appointment must have a valid state driver's license and a safe driving record, and he must pass the Postal Service Road Test to show he can safely drive a vehicle of the type used on the job.

All rural carriers must furnish and maintain at their own expense vehicle equipment necessary for the prompt handling of the mails, but they are given an equipment maintenance allowance based on the daily mileage scheduled, or a minimum allowance per day, whichever is greater.

Applicants must have reached their eighteenth birthday on the date of filing application. This age limit does not apply to persons entitled to veteran preference. There is no maximum age limit.

All applicants must be citizens of the United States of America, owe allegiance to the United States of America, or be noncitizens who have been accorded permanent resident alien status in the United States of America.

Eligibility from this examination will be limited to two years, unless after eighteen months you request to have your eligibility extended for an additional year. This request must be sent to the postal installation holding your eligibility at that time. Maximum eligibility is three years.

Rural letter carrier starting salaries range from $17,320 to $25,018, depending on the length and character of the route.

Submit application card, PS Form 2479-A/B, to the postmaster, Haskell. Form 2479-A/B is available at the Haskell Post Office.

Applications must be submitted before Feb. 25, 1984.

So many people have asked me about the Legend of the sand dollar; may I use this to share it with everyone? There's a pretty little legend That I would like to tell Of the birth & death of Jesus Found in this lowly shell.

If you examine closely, You'll see that you find here Four nail holes & a fifth one Made by a Roman's spear.

On one side the Easter lily, It's center is the star That appeared unto the shepherds And led them from afar.

The Christmas poinsettia

Etched on the other side Reminds us of His birthday Our Happy Christmastide.

Now break the center open And here you will release The five white doves awaiting To spread Good Will & Peace.

This simple little symbol, Christ left for you & me To help us spread His Gospel Through all eternity.

Thank you for letting me share this.

Wanda Langford
P.S. And just think, the sand dollar comes from the bottom of the ocean!!

Power Surge May Damage Microwaves

Power surges from other kitchen appliances can damage a microwave oven and result in costly repair bills, says a Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service home economist.

A microwave oven should have its own 15 amp circuit, especially if it has touch controls rather than a mechanical dial controls, says Bonnie L. Piernot, a specialist in family resource management. Microwave oven manufacturers subscribe to the Underwriter's Laboratory standard that each major appliance should have its own electrical line. "But most houses are not wired that way, and many consumers have countertop ovens that are simply plugged into the most convenient outlet," says Piernot.

A microwave oven with touch control number pads has a micro-processor which is susceptible to the rapid rise and drop in electrical power caused by appliances like an ice-maker refrigerator or air conditioner. This power surge can damage the micro-processor's electronic circuit board, causing the oven control unit to fail.

A warranty typically covers the control unit for two years. After that, the unit will cost $125-200 plus labor, while the magnetron tube in a microwave usually carries a 5-10 warranty, the control unit is covered for only two years.

Check the amperage on the circuit you are now using to make sure it is sufficient to handle a microwave oven and other appliances at the same time.

If you have doubts about the circuit's adequacy, and don't want to install separate one for the microwave alone, consider re-arranging the appliances in your kitchen, she says.

Use your circuit-breakers to determine which outlets are on different circuits in your kitchen. Then arrange the appliances so the microwave oven is not on the same circuit with other power-intensive appliances. Avoid placing a frost-free refrigerator, toaster and toaster-oven on the same circuit as the microwave, suggests Piernot. But lights or low-power appliances like an electric can opener or mixer could be placed on the same circuit with little risk.

Placing the microwave on a different circuit from other appliances can have another advantage, says the home economist. "When several appliances are on the same circuit, you may get full power on your microwave, even on the high setting."

Paying attention to how the microwave fits into the demands on your home's electrical power system can help get maximum performance and extend the use life of the appliance as well as save on repair bills later.

Superintendent's Views

BY JAMES LANIER
Superintendent, Haskell ISD

We are in the midst of a flu epidemic as many of you are painfully aware. These sieges of this magnitude do not occur very often, but, when they do, they create havoc in the learning process and attendance at school. In fact, we have been running in excess of 100 absences every day for almost two weeks. Hopefully, this scourge is about to run its course. There is nothing as disruptive to school as to have a large number of absences including students and teachers. We contemplated turning out for a couple of days to help break the cycle of contamination; however, public health authorities informed us this would not help because everyone had already been exposed. Therefore, we chose to continue on.

I felt I should take this method to review the amended absentee policy at this time. Because of the philosophy of the importance of a student being in regular attendance at school, the administration recommended and the board adopted the following absentee policy:

"When a student accumulates a total of 10 absences, the parent will be notified by U.S. mail that absences are considered excessive and that medical verification of illness will be required to excuse all future absences. Thereafter, absences for personal illness will be recorded as unexcused unless medical verification is presented for each absence."

Because of the flu epidemic, some students may come under this requirement. However, most of the students who have contacted the flu have had to see a doctor anyway. A simple note from the doctor will fulfill the requirement of this policy.

It is difficult to write policies which cover all situations. We certainly did not anticipate a flu epidemic when we developed this policy. Hopefully, we will not have an attack of this magnitude in the next twenty years. Our kids have really been sick. If you do receive a letter from the school concerning absences, hopefully, you will be aware of the policy and not be caused any inconvenience.

SSI Payments Are Made To Needy

Supplemental Security Income payments are made to needy individuals who are aged, blind, or disabled. However, the right to receive such benefits carries with it the responsibility of reporting changes which may affect your right to receive benefits. As a recipient, you must report the following changes: Changes in your address or place of residence, such as when you move, enter an institution, or leave the United States; Changes in the family's income; Changes in the family's resources; Changes in your marital status.

When these changes are reported promptly, action can usually be made to adjust benefit amounts in the proper manner. However, if Social Security is not promptly advised of these changes, the recipient may become overpaid, or underpaid. Additionally, the recipient's delay in reporting changes may result in a penalty being charged in addition to the overpayment.

To avoid problems with your Supplemental Security Income payments, contact the Abilene Social Security office located at 142 S. Pioneer or call 698-1360 to report any change in your situation.

TAX PLANNING

Written by
James E. Rodgers, CPA

WHO MUST FILE?

Many people mistakenly believe that you are not required to file a tax return if you are under a certain age or over a certain age. In fact, your income, not your age, determines whether you are required to file a tax return. If you have a child who meets the filing requirements but is too young to prepare his own return, you are responsible for the filing.

The requirements are that you must file a tax return if you are:

- Single, under 65 years old, with income of $3,300 or more
- Single, 65 years or older, with income of $4,300 or more
- Single, claimed by your parents as a dependent, with $1,000 or more of income from taxable dividends, interest, or other "unearned" income
- Married and filing a joint return, both under 65 years old, with joint income of $5,400 or more
- Married and filing a joint return, one spouse age 65 or older, with $6,400 or more of income
- Married and filing a joint return, both 65 or older, with $7,400 or more of income
- Married but filing separately, with $1,000 or more of income
- Self-employed with net self-employment income of $400 or more (Even though you do not meet the other income requirements for filing, you will be subject to self-employment tax and must file an income tax return.)

You will want to file a tax return even though your income does not meet the filing limit if you had any income tax withheld from your wages and are due a refund. You will also want to file if you are eligible for earned income credit. This credit may give you a "refund" even if no taxes were withheld from your pay. It is intended for taxpayers who have earned income of less than $10,000 and who have a dependent child living with them.

William B. Throneberry

Funeral services for William B. Throneberry, 65, of Haskell were held February 15 in Holden-McCauley Funeral Home with the Rev. Kenneth Blair officiating. Burial was in Willow Cemetery.

Born August 7, 1918 in Shackelford County, he died February 12. He was a Veteran of the U. S. Army serving during World War II. He moved to Haskell in 1960 from Lamesa. He was a member of the First Baptist Church.

Survivors include his mother, Mrs. Cora Throneberry and one sister, Geneva Hartsfield.

Pallbearers were Carlos Rhea, Bentley Rhea, Eddie Gotcher, Hess Hartsfield, Olen King and Garth Garrett.

Reagan Proclaims American Heart Month

President Ronald Reagan issued a proclamation designating February as American Heart Month and urged the American people to join with him in reaffirming a commitment to the search for new ways to prevent, detect, and control cardiovascular disease in all of its forms.

The proclamation reads, in part: "Diseases of the heart and blood vessels are among the Nation's most important health problems. This year one and one-half million Americans will suffer a heart attack, and nearly one million people will die from diseases of the heart. The economic drain on our resources in the form of direct medical cost and lost wages and production will exceed $64 billion.

Regan's proclamation continues: "It is gratifying to note that mortality rates for heart disease and stroke are declining. Deaths from coronary heart disease have declined by more than 25 percent since 1972, while those from stroke have decreased by more than 40 percent. In large part, this favorable trend is the result of more Americans being aware of the personal risk factors for heart disease and adopting healthier lifestyles by changing their habits in such critical areas as smoking, cholesterol intake, exercise, and in controlling high blood pressure."

"Since 1948, the United States Public Health Service and a private voluntary organization, the American Heart Association, have joined in a concerted effort to combat cardiovascular diseases. These organizations have channeled their efforts and resources to reduce heart disease through such measures as prevention, diagnosis, and treatment; training of new research workers and clinicians; support for community service programs; and public education."

"At the same time, science and medicine have made great strides in the past few years in technology to diagnose and treat diseases of the heart and blood vessels. The dedicated scientists and clinicians who labor to uncover the hidden causes of heart disease also deserve recognition. Life-saving technology now in the hands of physicians has brought about more certain diagnoses of these diseases as well as the means to treat heart conditions that in the near past were considered beyond effective treatment."

Thousands of volunteers in Texas will join the effort to distribute heart information and collect contributions to support research, education and community service projects. These programs of the American Heart Association in Texas are aimed at reducing early death and disability from heart disease and stroke.

Dallas Surgeon Criticizes Government Medical Controls

Governmental controls on health-care fees would be ineffective and expensive, would threaten the quality of care and limit patients' ability to receive it, the president of the Texas Medical Association said Tuesday (Feb. 14) in Abilene.

Dr. Milton V. Davis, a Dallas surgeon, told physicians of the Taylor-Jones-Haskell County Medical Society that the way to control health-care costs is through "indemnity," a reimbursement plan that allows the patient to influence the final fee.

government plan would pay a specific dollar amount for a procedure and let the patient and doctor determine the total fee and how they will handle the difference," he explained.

Under the current Medicare and Medicaid systems, the patient is not a part of this decision-making process, Davis said at the medical society's February meeting.

"There's no way that we can control costs as long as any insurance plan - public or private - purports to pay the entire medical bill," he said. Controlling costs is also impossible "if the plan itself determines what services should cost."

"Congress cannot afford what the public says it expects," Davis said. "Industry cannot afford what its plans would provide as currently designed. Tax dollars and premium dollars are stretched to the breaking point. The Social Security trust fund is going bankrupt. What can we (doctors) do? We can hold the line on fees."

Davis noted that TMA's house of the delegates voted in November to ask the association's 22,500 members to voluntarily hold their fees at current levels for one year. "I'm here to tell you that our people are cooperating."

"Doctors get much of the blame for rising health-care costs," he said, "but we didn't cause it." Davis attributed 50 percent of the problem to inflation, 25 percent to expanding technology, and "most of the rest to poorly designed reimbursement and administrative systems."

He said the poor design of the governmental health system itself has caused prices to increase. "They determine the maximum fees at the administrative levels, and that's not where they ought to be determined."

Conservation Viewpoints
USDA Soil Conservation Service

In many instances grassed waterways and parallel terraces are two practices that work hand-in-hand to control erosion.

Grassed waterways serve as an adequate outlet for excess surface runoff. This excess surface water may come from terraces, diversions, or natural concentrations without causing erosion or flooding. Waterways must convey runoff water to a point where the outflow will not cause damage.

Those that have built grassed waterways this past year and have not planted the grass should keep in mind the planting dates for seeding waterways. The most popular grasses planted in waterways in this area are bermudagrass and kleingrass. The planting dates for these grasses are between March 15-June 1.

Terraces are constructed across the slope to reduce slope length, reduce erosion, retain runoff and prevent gully development. Several types of terraces may be built to meet the producers' needs for a particular field. The two basic terrace systems most benefiting this area are graded terraces and level terraces. Graded are designed to drain the rainfall from the land gradually into a safe outlet. Level terraces may be used for waterspreading on gentle sloping land and hold the rainfall on the cropland in order to conserve moisture. Outlets shall be installed and vegetated before the terraces are constructed if necessary to provide an adequate outlet.

If you have any questions concerning terraces, waterways, or any conservation practice, go by the Soil Conservation Office in Haskell. The SCS technicians will be glad to provide assistance on any conservation problem you may have. The SCS provides technical assistance to all landusers through the Haskell Soil and Water Conservation District, regardless of age, race, creed, sex, religion, or national origin.

BUILDING YOUR RETIREMENT IS AS SIMPLE AS A.B.C.

OPEN A TAX-DEFERRED, MONEY-MAKING INDIVIDUAL RETIREMENT ACCOUNT TODAY AT COMMODORE SAVINGS.

Retirement used to be a taxing situation. But not any longer. Because now, you can open an Individual Retirement Account (IRA) at Commodore Savings — the simple-to-understand retirement account that will save you money today so you can enjoy better tomorrows.

Just add up the benefits for yourself:

- All contributions are tax-deferred and 100 percent deductible. You pay no taxes on the money you invest in your IRA or on the interest it earns until you begin taking distribution as early as age 59½.

- Save as little or as much as you want each month. Up to $2,000 a year if you are single and employed. Up to $2,250 a year for a couple where one spouse is employed and the other is not. And up to $4,000 a year for a working couple. Save as little as $10 a month. Even skip a whole year's contributions if you prefer.
- Pay much less tax on your retirement income. By retirement age, you'll probably be in a lower tax bracket, so the taxes you'll pay on your IRA retirement income could be much less than you pay now.
- Almost everyone can qualify. If you are under age 70½ and are earning an income, you qualify for a Commodore IRA, even if you are already participating in another retirement program.

Best of all, the money you put into your IRA earns a guaranteed high compound interest rate. Save $2,000 a year for just 20 years, and your IRA investment could amount to well over $100,000!

Seven different retirement plans are available, including Regular IRA, Spousal IRA, Employer IRA, rollover IRA, Payroll Deduction IRA, IRA/SEPP and Keogh Plan. Find out which plan is right for you. Call Commodore today, and build yourself a better retirement at Commodore Savings. It's as simple as A.B.C.
