

FIRE TRAINING

Over 3,000 persons attended the 55th annual Firemen's Training School last week at Texas A&M University. Pictured above is one of many fires students fight in training exercises at the school. Attending the school from Haskell were Tom Watson, Don Comedy and Clayton Neal. Watson and Comedy Loth serve as instructors at the annual school.

Last week marked the 55th annual Texas Firemen's Training School on the campus of Texas A&M University. The school is recognized worldwide as the largest and best of its kind anywhere.

Total registration this year was slightly over 3,000 including over 2,200 students and over 400 guest instructors.

The school offers a variety of 30 hour classes ranging from basic firefighting and fire prevention to advanced officer training, rescue, tactics, arson investigation, fire cause determination and methods of teaching in the fire service.

Residents from towns represented at the annual fire school receive several benefits.

One tangible benefit is that fire insurance rates are reduced in towns where firemen attend the school. The State Board of Insurance recognizes the importance of training and has approved credits for towns who send firemen to the school. Haskell residents receive a 5% reduction in fire insurance because of participation by the Haskell Volunteer Fire Department in the school.

Another benefit is the reduction in fire damage which should result from using the newest methods in fire suppression which are taught at the school. Firefighters at the school have an opportunity to see and try first hand the newest methods of fire suppression available and are encouraged to incorporate these new methods in their own departments. Direct benefits from these methods and the teaching of other established methods will ultimately result in fires being extinguished faster and more efficiently with less fire damage as well as less water damage.

From one to five members of the Haskell Volunteer Fire Department have attended the school every year since it was started fifty-five years ago. Ultimately it is the property owners of Haskell who benefit from this continuing education.

Few fire departments from towns this size can boast this continued dedication to improved learning in a effort to serve their communities.

The Haskell Indian Marching Band will begin preparations for the 1984 marching season on Monday, August 13. The time for the rehearsals are tentatively set for after the football 2-a-day workouts. An exact time will be announced later.

"I am looking forward to the first of several outstanding years with the Haskell bands," said Carl Wilke, new director of the Indian band. "If the students will come to band with a positive attitude toward band, and a willingness to improve themselves daily, we can resume the band's tradition of First Division and Sweepstakes awards."

All high school band members, and all high school students with previous band experience, are encouraged to attend these rehearsals. The rehearsals will cover marching and playing fundamentals, and uniform checkout and other organizational details.

1984-85 School Budget Studied In Workshop-Hearing Set August 21

Members of the Haskell Independent School District Board of Directors met Tuesday night in a special budget workshop session.

Board members studied the 1984-85 budget which calls for total expenditures of $1,967,000.00. The proposed budget calls for expenditures of about $452,000.00 over the 1983-84 budget.

Much of the increase comes from two categories, teacher pay raises and special education.

Under the new teacher salary schedule, Haskell ISD will pay an additional $200,000.00 during the coming school year. Total salaries will increase from about $1,137,000.00 to $1,339,700.00.

Another major increase in the total budget is reflected by the inclusion of Haskell ISD's portion of the Haskell-Knox Consortium. The new state law allocates special education funds directly to the schools who in turn will assign the funds to the coop. In the past these funds were allocated directly to the coop. This change added about $130,000.00 to the Haskell ISD budget.

Other increases included the purchase of a new bus and increases in all utility categories.

Board members set a public hearing on the budget for August 21 at 7:30 p.m. in the board room. Interested citizens are invited to the Impact Of H.B. 72 Still Not Understood

BY DON COMEDY
Free Press Editor

(Editor's Note: This is the third in a series of articles intended to discuss recent changes in school funding and curriculum caused by the adoption of new laws.)

This week we will discuss the financial impact of H.B. 72 on Haskell Independent School District and in following weeks will look at the impact on other districts in Haskell County.

When the school year begins in a few weeks, local administrators and school board members must have in place a budget. In addition to the budget, a local tax rate must have been set.

These two requirements have been necessary for almost as many years as there have been schools but, there are a few new problems with the process this year.

The first problem is that under the funding portion of H.B. 72, all schools will receive funds based on the average daily attendance of students in the school system. Strict attendance records must be kept for a four week period in the fall semester and another four week period in the spring. The school district will receive state funds based on the best four week period.

All state funds are now paid based on ADA which is a drastic change from the old finance program. One potential problem is that budgets must be adopted based on some estimated ADA. If school enrollment grows, the school will be better off financially when the final allotments are calculated, but if attendance drops from the estimated numbers, a school could receive much less state money than expected.

Under the new law, schools will receive $1,290.00 per ADA as a basic entitlement. There are several other allotments (also based on ADA) which will also be paid to fund specific programs such as vocational education, special education, bilingual, transportation and several others.

As H.B. 72 neared final adoption, word was received that Haskell ISD would receive about $420,000.00 in new money. According to most state legislators, the bulk of this money would be used for teacher pay raises and a new career ladder for teachers.

Such was not the case. About $200,000.00 will be needed for state mandated teacher pay raises not including the career ladder.

That leaves about $220,000.00 in what was originally called equalization aid.

When school personnel started looking at the new law they started seeing new requirements and ever new requirement cost money.

A major new cost in the Haskell ISD budget was the inclusion of funding Haskell's share of the Haskell Knox Consortium. The special education coop is shared by nine school districts and each district pays a portion of the cost based on ADA. In prior years state funds were sent directly to the fiscal agent for the coop. Under H.B. 72 the funds are included in the entitlements and allotments to local districts who in turn will assign the funds to the coop. Haskell's share of the coop this year will be about $130,000.00.

Also included in H.B. 72 are provisions for a pre-kindergarten program and a special summer program, both of which must be in place by the 1985-86 school year.

Present estimates are that Haskell ISD will be able to fund the budget this year with no increase in local taxes but the future for 1985-86 is not nearly so good.

Included in H.B. 72 are provisions to increase the basic entitlement from $1,290.00 to $1,350.00.

An added cost in the future which can not be estimated at this time is the career ladder. Haskell ISD currently has 47 teachers on the payroll. Under H.B. 72 these teachers have five years to reach level two on the career ladder or they will not be allowed to teach.

Based on H.B. 72, allotments are provided for the career ladder but even with 50% of Haskell ISD's teachers at level two, there is not sufficient state funding to pay for the program.

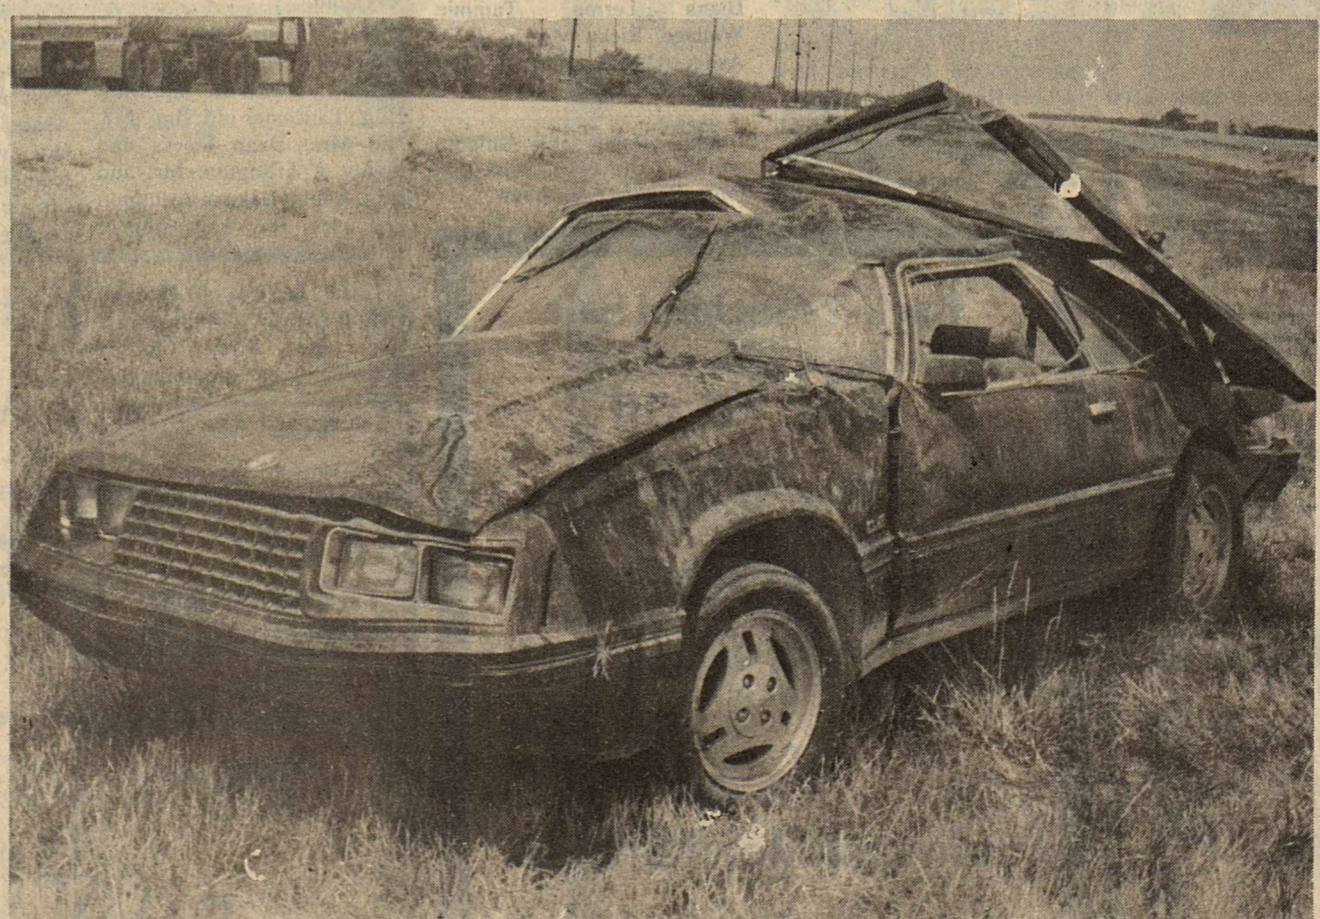

When all 47 teachers reach level two, local taxpayers will have to provide an additional $20,000.00 to $35,000.00 above the amount paid by the state. Potentially, the program could be underfunded by as much as $200,000.00 per year in Haskell.

At the present, it appears that Haskell ISD will not have to raise taxes this year to comply with H.B. 72 and Chapter 75 (new state mandated curriculum), but local tax increases will probably be necessary next year.

Not all school districts in Haskell are not as fortunate as Haskell ISD. Weinert, Paint Creek, Rule and Rochester are all faced with tax increases this year. The financial impact of H.B. 72 on these districts will be discussed next week.

Mississippi. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Milliman, Sr. The Rev. William F. Evans officiated the 2 p.m. double-ring ceremony.

The center of the altar was decorated with large urns of white mums, gladioli and lemon leaves, surrounded by calums of draping fern baskets. The pews had streamers of white and pink ribbon.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a white taffeta full length gown featuring asymmetrical bodice with hand folded taffeta pleats accented with hand folded taffeta rosettes, with off the shoulder pleated puff sleeves, accenting an anabellum skirt flowing into a semi-cathedral train. Wearing a fingertip veil of French illusion attached to a bandeau of silk flowers and beaded baby's breath, the bride carried a flowing bouquet of white and pink roses, honeysuckle, ruffled fern and baby's breath.

For something old, the bride carried a handkerchief belonging to her maternal grandmother. For something new, she wore a string of pearls given to her by the groom. For something borrowed, she wore pearl ear rings belonging to the mother of the groom. She wore a blue garter and a lucky sixpence in her shoe.

Mrs. Kathy Lynn Moore, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a formal gown of rose matte taffeta, featuring an off the shoulder bodice and softly gathered anabellum skirt, accented with a pleated cummerbund at the waist. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Dori Robinson, sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. Rachael Hargette. They were dressed identically to the matron of honor and carried bouquets of pink and white roses, baby's and ruffled fern. The groom wore a tux of light grey with dark grey accents, with a white rose and baby's breath, taken from the bride's bouquet.

Ushers were Tim Robinson and Scott Robinson, brothers of the bride. All of the groom's attendants wore tuxes identical to that of the groom.

Summer Benard, niece of the bride, served as flower girl. Her gown was identical to that of the bridesmaids. Shane Robinson, brother of the bride, served as ring bearer and wore a tux matching the groomsmen.

A reception followed the ceremony at the church fellowship hall. The bride's table was covered with white linen with appointments in silver and crystal. The three tiered wedding cake featured two white doves on the top and underneath the cake was a flowing punch fountain. The mother of the bride choose a tea length dress of baby pink jacquard design silk, featuring ruffle effect sleeves, a pleated yoke and matching cummerbund. The mother of the groom selected a tea length mauve silk organza, neckline and long sleeves accented with ruffles. The bodice is enhanced with vertical tucks, covered buttons, self belt and featuring a full flowing skirt. Both wore orchid corsages.

Members of the house party were Pam Milliman, Leigh Watkins, Tammy Hutton, Sherie Milliman, Patricia Knight, Helen Milliman, Sherry Robinson and Becky Pritchard.

For traveling to the Virgin Islands, the bride chose a white, two piece suit, soft jacquard design, buttoned down the front, pleated softly at the waistline and matching accessories.

The couple will reside in Lafayette, Louisiana, where both are presently employed.

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Milliman, Sr. The affair was held at the Down Town Club of Meridian, Mississippi.

METER TAMPERING NOW A FELONY

The State of Texas has recently adopted an amendment to the State Penal Code making meter tampering a third degree felony. A third degree felony comes with a punishment of confinement in the Texas Department of Corrections for a term of not more than 10 or less than 2 years. In addition to imprisonment, an individual adjudged guilty of a third degree felony may be punished by a fine not to exceed $5,000.

Before the amendment of the new law, it was a class A misdemeanor for meter tampering unless the loss of service was more than $200. Under the new law, any meter tampering regardless of the amount of loss is now a felony of the third degree.

Meter tampering consists of, but is not limited to:

- (1) Diverting electricity from passing through the meter device.
- (2) Preventing electric service from being correctly registered by a meter device.
- (3) Unauthorized activation of electric service.

As a special note to our members, it will also be considered meter tampering if a meter is reset and electrical service is restored by anyone other than a Cooperative employee.

All Cooperative meters are sealed. This seal should not be cut or broken without special authorization. In cases where the seal must be cut for emergencies the Cooperative should be notified as soon as possible so that the meter can be resealed.

Bullock Issues Warning To Bingo Operators

State Comptroller Bob Bullock is warning Texas bingo operators they can say good-bye to their state licenses and hello to local police if they ignore state laws governing the game.

"When bingo people stray outside the Texas Bingo Enabling Act, they risk charges under the state's criminal laws against gambling," Bullock said. "All the Comptroller's Office can do is take away their license, but local police and prosecutors can treat them just like they'd been caught in a back alley crap game—just like any other two-bit gambler."

Comptroller agents have recently visited 500 bingo games and found nearly a third are violating some section of the bingo law.

"Most of these violations were minor mistakes made by honest charity groups running their own games," Bullock said, "but that doesn't mean we can sit still for them. We have warned these groups and sent copies of the warnings to local police."

"A more serious problem is with commercial promoters who dupe charitable groups into letting the promoters run the game, count the money and give the charity what's left—if anything. The Texas bingo law just won't allow this. Where we find it, we're jerking licenses faster than you can say B-10. We suspended two licenses for this violation this week and we've got a hearing on a third set for next week."

"We'll be continuing to visit bingo games and our auditors will be looking closely at the books of everybody involved in bingo—the promoters, bingo organizations, supply distributors and manufacturers. These people can expect to hear from us and they can also expect us to share evidence of whatever violations we find with their local district attorney," Bullock said.

Newton, accompanied by a 35-piece orchestra, will appear

The working cowboy and the great cattle ranches are still a part of the Texas landscape and not just American folklore. Tough skilled men continue to ride in the legendary kingdoms of cows and horses, unwilling to surrender their place of honor in the Lone Star state to TV's J.R.s or any urban counterpart.

Once again, these descendants of the Wild West will gather to compete in traditional contests in the fourth in Six Flags' Festival Concert Pavilion at 9 p.m.

Folding chair seating will be provided for the first 5,000 concert-goers. Late arrivals are encouraged to bring their own cushions or blankets.

Seating will be on a first-come-first-served basis.

There will be a concert charge of $2 for Newton's show, in addition to Six Flags' regular ticket price. Children age five and under will not be charged the concert fee.

annual Texas Ranch Roundup, scheduled for August 17-18, at the Wichita County Mounted Patrol Arena in Wichita Falls.

More than 200 real working cowboys, wagon bosses, cooks and immediate ranch family members will pit their skills against each other in roundup competition, which features events patterned after activities on a working ranch. The roundup will benefit three state charities.

In addition to selecting the "Best Ranch in Texas" and "Top Hand," judges this year will also pick a "Top Horse."

Roundup participants will represent thirteen of Texas' largest ranches, boasting a combined acreage totalling about 2.2 million, or a little less than half the size of New Jersey.

The Lewis Ranches of Clarendon will return to defend the best ranch title they won twice—in 1981 and in 1983. If they win for a third time, the Lewis ranch hands will ride home with a replica of the prized Lex Graham traveling trophy for keeps.

Others included in the competition will be the R.A. Brown Ranch, Coldwater Cattle Co., Inc., Cowan & Son Circle Bar Ranch, Double U Hereford Ranch, Moorehouse Ranch (1982 winner), Pitchfork Land & Cattle Co., Scharbauer Ranches, Renderbrook-Spade Ranch, Tongue River Ranch Corp., Triangle Ranch/Burnett Ranches, Inc., U Lazy S Ranch and the W.T. Waggoner Estate.

The roundup opens Friday, August 17, at 7:30 p.m. Teams of cowboys from each ranch will compete in saddle bronc riding, team roping, team branding, wild cow milking, team penning and a wild horse race. A country and western dance will begin at 9 p.m.

On Saturday, jackpot roping and barrel racing, two events outside regular competition, will begin at 8 a.m. A ranch food cookoff, talent contest and the first lady contest will be held Saturday afternoon before the final roundup events begin at 7:30 p.m. Another dance will begin at 9 p.m., with the awards ceremony getting underway at 10:30 p.m. in the arena.

Points will be awarded on a team basis in each event to determine the ranch, that will take home a traveling trophy, a bronze sculpture by Lex Graham. Judges will cast ballots for the top hand, who receives a hand-tooled saddle. Team members of individual events also will receive awards.

Roundup tickets are available for $9, reserved seats, and $4, general admission. Tickets to the dances are $5 per person per evening. Tickets to the Saturday afternoon contests are $4 for adults and $1 for children.

Tickets may be obtained by writing Falls Distributing Co., 3811 Tarry, Wichita Falls, Texas 75308, 817/692-9011.

The roundup is co-sponsored by the North Texas Rehabilitation Center, Abilene, and the West Texas Boys Ranch in San Angelo.

Congressman Hightower To Speak At B-K Electric Coop Meeting

On Friday, August 10, 1984, the Honorable Congressman Jack Hightower of the 13th

JACK HIGHTOWER

District will be guest speaker at the 38th B-K Electric Cooperative's Annual Meeting. The meeting will be held in the Seymour High School Auditorium beginning at 7 p.m.

Jack Hightower was first elected to represent the 13th District of Texas in November, 1974, and has won re-election ever since. He began his first term with the 98th Congress which convened in January, 1983. His national legislative experience will have spanned five Congresses and three Presidents.

Congressman Hightower is a senior member of the Texas Delegation, and serves on the prestigious House Appropriations Committee. Three major subcommittees that the Congressman serves are the Subcommittee on Agriculture, Rural Development and Related Agencies, and the Subcommittee on Defense, and the Legislative Branch Subcommittee.

In 1982, Representative Hightower helped form the Farm Crisis Group, a coalition of farm-state congressmen advocating agriculture reform legislation to save the nation's family farmers from extinction. In March of that same year, Hightower was presented a National Security Leadership Award for his work in Congress to promote a strong national defense. The citation was made by the American Security Council, the executive arm of the Coalition for Peace Through Strength. The Coalition is a pro-defense group of national organizations which include the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Congressman Hightower was born in Memphis, graduating from Memphis High School with Honors in 1944. After serving in the U.S. Navy, he entered Baylor University in Waco, graduating with a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1949 and a Bachelor of Laws degree in 1951. After graduating, a law practice was set up in 1951 in Vernon. The congressman was elected to the Texas House of Representatives in 1952 and after serving a term in the House, he was appointed District Attorney in January, 1955, and served in that position for seven years. He has served as President of the Texas District and County Attorneys Association and was appointed by Governor Price Daniel to the Texas Law Enforcement Commission; he also has served as a Vice-President of the Texas Junior Bar Association.

Congressman Hightower is married to the former Colleen Ward of Tulsa. He is the father of three daughters and is an active churchman and Mason. Plan to attend your annual meeting and show your Congressman the support and voting strength that rural electric cooperatives have.

The House Small Business Committee Chairman announced today that Congressman Charles W. Stenholm has been named chairman of the Subcommittee on Energy, Environment and Safety Issues Affecting Small Business. Chairman Parren J. Mitchell (D-Md) said the vote by the full House committee for Stenholm was unanimous. Stenholm, a third-term representative, said he believes the chairman's seat will be a boost to all small business people in the 17th District. "Being named chairman of a House subcommittee will allow me to have a more positive impact on legislative issues of great interest to the small business community, not only in the 17th District and Texas, but in the nation as a whole," the Stamford Democrat said. "Given the fact that over 13.7 percent of the 17th District is self-employed, this leadership position will be very valuable," the 45-year-old congressman said. "We have almost twice as many self-employed people in our district as the national average. The input that comes from our business community will be very helpful in all areas of legislation viewed by the subcommittee," Stenholm said. "The major areas of concern are, of course, energy issues, environmental issues and concerns for the safety of small business people and their employees," he said. "Since Texas is at once both an energy and environmental state, any legislation in these areas will have a vital impact on our district and the state."

Stenholm said, "This chairmanship will give me a clear position to use my knowledge from Texas business people and positively affect the small business concerns of the nation as well."

PUBLIC NOTICE

AT&T Communications has filed with the Public Utility Commission (PUC) of Texas to introduce a new intrastate, optional long distance service to begin August 1, 1984, the same date "Reach Out® America" plan will be available for interstate calls.*

A new service designed to give customers the opportunity to reduce the cost of long distance in Texas has been filed with the state PUC by AT&T Communications of the Southwest, Inc.

"Reach Out® Texas" is an optional calling plan which will provide additional discounts on long distance rates for Texas customers who frequently place calls in the evening, weekend, and night time calling periods.

The new "Reach Out® Texas" plan for the first time extends the benefits of competition to many Texas consumers who previously have not had any discounted long distance service available to them.

AT&T Communications customers who choose this new optional service will pay a monthly charge of $14 which entitles them to one hour of intrastate "Direct Dialed" (1+) calling during the weekend and night rate period.

An additional customer savings for those participating in the plan will be that any Direct Dialed calls placed during the weekend and night rate period that exceeds the one hour period will be charged at an hourly rate of $12, or $.20 per minute.

Customers selecting this option also receive an additional 15 percent discount for intrastate Direct Dialed calls during the evening discount rate period for a total savings of approximately 38 percent.

A one-time charge of $6 is billed when a customer orders the "Reach Out® Texas" plan. The $6 is collected by AT&T Communications and paid to the local telephone company to establish the service. This charge will be waived during the first 90 days that the offering is available.

AT&T Communications is proud to offer this optional service for its Texas long distance customers and will in the future continue to introduce cost cutting programs to help Texans reduce their long distance bills.

A complete copy of the "Reach Out® Texas" tariff and rate schedule is on file with the Texas Public Utility Commission at Austin, Texas.

AT&T Communications estimates that the revenue impact of this new service would be significantly less than 2.5 percent of annual gross revenues.

Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the Commission as soon as possible. A request to intervene or participate or for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. Further information also may be obtained by calling the Public Utility Commission Consumer Affairs Division at (512) 458-0223 or (512) 458-0227, or (512) 458-0221, teletypewriter for the deaf.

*Customer billing for the optional calling plan will be provided for AT&T Communications through billing contracts with the local telephone companies. Therefore, the introduction of these rate plans into a specific area is contingent upon local company billing capabilities. "I was surprised how quick the variety was ready to graze."

"In fact, some of my neighbors tried to rent my pasture when they saw how much better established it was than others all around us."

Pioneer® variety 2157 gets off to a fast start, quickly establishing the kind of healthy, vigorous growing stand so necessary for good pasture. Its upright growth habit helps provide maximum available grazing.

And because 2157 has proven to be such a good yielder, you can count on it to deliver top-quality wheat at season's end.

If pasture is part of your wheat program, new 2157 should be, too.

New Wheat Variety 2157

Superior Yield • Excellent Standability • Outstanding Grazing

"When I pulled my combine into the field, I knew for sure this wasn't an ordinary wheat crop."

"That 2157 was standing out there good and straight. And when I moved down the rows, I could hear the cylinders running full!"

Farmers who've seen this impressive new high yielding variety like its standability and tolerance to dry growing periods and severe weather. It has excellent resistance to leaf rust, fungal leaf blights, soil borne mosaic virus and the Hessian fly.

In side-by-side comparisons, Pioneer® brand 2157 wheat has consistently out-yielded other popular varieties. And it has shown consistently high test weights.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Don,

We appreciate your school articles; thanks for undertaking to inform us.

As you know, Fred Barnett is in basic cadet training at West Point Military Academy. He has an address now, to which Nancy Toliver wanted to have the Free Press sent. It is: New Cadet Frederick Barnett

P. O. Box 4515, USCC 88 West Point, N.Y. 10996

In addition, Fred writes that he is getting along well. "We've had many lectures about honor, duty, and country. The lectures make me feel really fortunate to be here. There is no way that they will make me quit. 'They' being the cadre (upper class)."

He further says, "I've come out for football. I am pretty sure I can make the JV this year. But I don't guarantee it. Hope so, though."

Altogether he sounds determined and happy, and like someone who would love to have mail from home.

Thanks, Don.

Disabled Vietnam Vet's List Of Accomplishments Is Long

Gene Murphy didn't have to go on that patrol into the jungles of Vietnam just 30 days before he was scheduled to return to the United States. But the 20-year-old sergeant wanted to be with the men of the squad he led.

"Six of us were hit by small arms fire," recalled the Sioux Falls, S.D., man 15 years after that harrowing day.

"After being hit, I felt a burning and stinging feeling. I thought I'd bought the farm," he remarked, meaning that he believed he would die.

"I couldn't feel my legs when I fell, so I moved to see if my legs were still there. When I moved, they opened fire again, and I was hit in the ankle. So I quit moving."

That was the beginning of a day and a night of anguish and pain as Murphy waited for military choppers to get close enough to lift him out of the dense Vietnamese jungle. For 14 hours, he waited.

Months of hospitalization could not cure the paralysis of Murphy's legs, but that didn't dim the will to live that sparked Murphy's soul as he lay wounded in the thick heat of Vietnam. And that determination has since carried him to a prominent position of leadership among South Dakota's handicapped citizens.

Murphy's accomplishments were recently recognized by the Disabled American Veterans (DAV), which chose him as 1984's national Disabled Veteran of the Year. The stocky Vietnam vet will receive the award at the opening of the DAV's national convention in Washington, D.C., Aug. 26.

When he first returned from Vietnam, Murphy was angry, demanding that doctors and clergymen stay away, but that mind-set didn't last long. "I guess I've had a positive attitude all my life," he remarked. "Looking around and seeing others worse off than I have made me feel very lucky to be alive."

Even so, he was apprehensive about returning to his hometown, White, S.D., in a wheelchair. But before long, he was out hunting with his brothers and cruising around with his buddies. And he decided to enroll at Dakota State College in Madison, S.D., where he majored in business administration.

There he met a nursing student named Eldine, whom he married in 1972. Today, they enjoy swimming and playing computer games with their perky, 7-year-old daughter, Erin.

After his marriage, Murphy continued his studies at Augustana College in Sioux Falls and became active in the DAV. He's held just about every elected position in Sioux Falls DAV Chapter 1 and the DAV Department of South Dakota, currently serving as commander of the state DAV organization.

That rise to prominence brought new responsibilities as he was appointed to various boards and committees charged with improving conditions faced by disabled South Dakotans. He also lobbied before the South Dakota legislature, advocating the needs of disabled vets, veterans generally, and handicapped people.

But most meaningful, personally, to Murphy is the one-on-one counseling he's often called upon to do with others who've recently undergone spinal cord injury.

"Some of them want to give up entirely," he noted with concern. "They don't even want to live anymore. I try to encourage them, tell them of their potential, their abilities. There are still so many things they can do."

Paralysis didn't dim Murphy's enthusiasm for sports, and he's taken on a leading role with the Sioux Wheelers, a group of disabled vets and other handicapped people who've achieved an enviable record in such athletic fields as basketball, softball, trap shooting, and track and field.

Describing why he and two others organized the Sioux Wheelers, Murphy said, "We liked the exercise and the fun of competing, and we wanted to show other handicapped individuals that you don't have to crawl into a corner or sit in a back room at home just because of some physical impairment."

Murphy is one of the team's top competitors, and his home and office sport shelves of trophies, including gold and bronze medals won at the National Wheelchair Veterans Games in Long Beach, Calif., last year.

Summarizing the meaning of a life as full as Gene Murphy's would be a chore, but Larry Bouska, supervisor of the DAV's national service office in Sioux Falls, recently gave it a shot.

"He is without a doubt the inspirational leader for not only veterans, but all of the citizens and handicapped individuals in our community and state," Bouska commented. "Gene is a doer and a leader."

TAX PLANNING

Written by
James E. Rodgers, CPA

THE KEY TO TAX SAVINGS; GOOD RECORD KEEPING

The best way to beat taxes is to keep good records of your transactions. Until a few years ago, you could get away with sloppy record keeping. No more. More accurate information reporting by payers of taxable income and IRS computer surveillance have made it imperative that you know what you're doing.

Proof the 1099's for services, interest and dividends that you receive by keeping a detailed record of the checks received and deposits. Keep your check stubs on payments received for wages and verify total wages, taxes and social security withheld.

Always write checks for deductible items. Don't pay in cash. Get receipts for deductible items.

Keep a diary to record deductible expenses. If you do not have business or farm records to keep, set up an envelope system to keep track of your personal deductions. Keep individual envelopes for each major category of itemized deductions listed on Schedule A of Form 1040. Include: medical expenses, taxes, interest expenses, charitable contributions, casualty and theft losses, miscellaneous deductions. Break miscellaneous into appropriate envelopes, such as home-office deductions, investment expenses, education expenses, employee business expenses.

This record keeping system works. It will save you tax preparation costs or time and help you get through an audit.

Tom Chatwell

A popular salesman for the large national feed and seed companies in Texas, Tom C. Chatwell, of Pleasanton, loved his work so much he worked past retirement age, visiting his long established contacts and enjoying the many friends he had made through the years.

At 69, an automobile accident sent Chatwell to the doctors who discovered the happy salesman had cancer. Friday, Chatwell, 73, died at the St. Benedict Nursing Home in San Antonio.

His wife, Frieda Chatwell of Pleasanton, said he was very well known in the feed stores throughout Texas, sharing jokes and stories with his friends. It was on such a visit to Poteet that they first met.

"He was such a jolly person and folks just took to him. Even the young folks would gather around to hear what story or joke he had ready," she said.

His colorful personality assisted him in his successful sales career, working for the major part of his life for the Staffels Feed & Seed Co., but his success in making friends was more important than his success in making money, his wife said.

"Money didn't mean that much to him," she remembers, "He was the type of person that would give the shirt off his back."

His talents went further than sales, and he enjoyed playing the piano and other instruments at family gatherings, leading them in song, Chatwell said.

"He wrote a Christmas song, with words and music that said, 'The chapel bells are ringing, peace is its heavenly theme. Today the world is resting, to make the heart serene,'" she said.

Chatwell was a veteran of numerous San Antonio Stock Show and Rodeo trail rides. He also participated in the Pleasanton Cowboy Homecoming each year and was a member of the Baptist Church. Other survivors include a son, Jerry Chatwell of Borger; daughter Julie Wedell of San Antonio; step-daughters Ernestine Persyn of Leming, Yvonne Ivy of Richardson, Shirley Parsons of Cameron, and Wanda Dadig of Albuquerque, New Mexico; sister Mary Hagele of Stamford, Lucy Williams of Rule, and Louise DeJarnette of San Antonio.

Services were at 10:30 Monday, July 23 in the Hurley Funeral Home chapel in Pleasanton with burial in the St. Joseph's Cemetery in Leming.

Dove Hunters Reminded Of Proposed Changes

Dove hunters are reminded that some significant changes have been proposed for the upcoming dove hunting seasons in Texas, and they still have time to comment on the proposals.

The Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission will take final action on the dove regulations when it meets in a regular public hearing at Parks and Wildlife Department headquarters in Austin on July 25.

Included in the proposals is an alteration of the boundary line between the Central and South Zones and a reduced mourning dove bag limit during the special white-winged dove season in the portion of the South Zone designated as the Special White-winged dove area.

The recommended change would allow hunters to take 10 doves in the aggregate each day of the four-day season, not to include more than two mourning
