Prior to each class, an open lab will be held in order to give the students a chance to familiarize themselves with the computer.

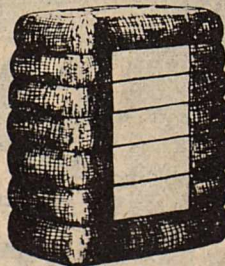

The course is being offered to Haskell seniors. A minimum of 15 students must sign up before Jan. 8. If the minimum requirement is not met, then the public will be invited to sign up for the class.

To encourage Haskell's seniors to sign up for the class, and because Haskell does not offer a computer course, Haskell ISD will pay half the tuition fee for each student. Students would pay $43 for the course.

Council Discusses Variety Of Topics In Session

By Janet Wilke

The Haskell City Council met at 7 p.m. in the Council Room of City Hall Tuesday night.

Joseph Thigpen was appointed City Attorney, after Larry Gilliam made the motion as such, and this was seconded by Joe Cortez. The vote was unanimous.

The next item on the agenda was a meeting with former police officer, S.E. Braly.

Braly was terminated from his employment with the City of Haskell, after he was charged with aggravated assault in the Nov. 1983 shooting of Danny Ashley.

Braly was not convicted of the charges, as his trial of March 1984 resulted in a hung jury.

Braly, who was represented by his attorney Isaac Castro of Aspermont, asked the Council to re-instate him to his former position of asst. chief of police, and to pay him all of his back pay, since he was suspended without pay in the early part of 1984.

Mayor Turner then advised that the Council would be going into a closed session to discuss this matter with their attorney.

This occurred at 7:08 p.m.

At 7:31 p.m., the meeting was re-opened, and the City Council with their attorney Thigpen, told Braly and his attorney they were in no position at that particular time to honor Braly's request for reinstatement and back wages.

Prior to the closing of the council chambers, Councilman Jerry Stocks asked Braly if he planned to stay employed with the City if he were reinstated. Braly said he did not.

The Council decided to table the item until they could study all of the options and the case, in general.

At one point, the Council asked if Braly would be coming back to work for the city or if he just wanted backpay.

Castro said his client wanted to be reinstated, but as to when to resign his position, that decision would be Braly's.

"If he wants to resign the minute you reinstate him, that's his business," Castro said.

Councilman Cortez asked Braly why he would not take another position in the city structure, and Braly replied, "Because I was hired as an officer."

"Do you not feel that you could do another job somewhere else?" Cortez asked the former officer.

"No, not as things were going before," replied Braly.

Braly said the main reason he wanted to resolve the case against him was because he had a chance to work for another dept., and he just "wanted to get this over with so I can be gone."

Attorney Castro and Braly were asked to reappear before the Council at their next meeting, January 22 when hopefully the issue would be resolved.

In other matters before the council, they discussed the annexation resolution, which would give general law cities the same authority of annexation as home rule cities have.

Council members were going to seek aid from legislators Rick Perry and Ray Farabee to adopt legislation on this issue.

A motion to this effect was made by Joe Cortez and seconded by Stocks. The vote was unanimous.

Baker discussed in detail the financial aspects and needs of the Creek project in the city. This is a project which would provide better drainage for the city in the event of too much rain and/or snow, which the city's drainage facilities cannot accommodate at present.

This project, when completed, would add some new bridges and make some additions to the existing bridges along the creek. Also, it would facilitate low water crossings, and the entire creek would be rechanneled.

This project is funded with a $500,000 grant from the U.S. Dept. of Housing and Urban Development, and Baker said that the city was hoping to begin work on the project as shortly after the bidding on January 22 was completed.

Councilman Larry Gilliam met with local bank officials to secure a note for the payment of the new M-Co dumpsters, which had been purchased and will be used in the near future.

Gilliam set up the note at a 7% variable rate, with a 10% fixed limitiat the Haskell National Bank; Baker pointed out.

Much discussion was given to the new garbage system, which is to be implemented soon.

This system will utilize the use of dumpsters, and the trucks to dump these receptacles.

Approximately 154 new dumpsters will be put into use by mid-month and the trucks to dump these will also be ready for service at that time.

A drainage problem on North 19th street was discussed by the council, and they are hoping to alleviate the problem by perhaps providing a manhole with a grate-top opening, so the water, but not all the washup, will go into a ten inch water line, which will drain off the excess water in that area of town.

In other matters, Baker asked the Councilmen to hire a temporary bookkeeper to assist him in finding a $7,000 problem in the payroll fund. Baker said he felt that it would take no more than a week to find the problem, which results when several hundreds of thousands of dollars are handled in the course of a year.

The Council also gave their approval to the Church of Christ to build an awning from the annex building to the main church complex, which would cover over a small driveway, which garbage trucks were originally thought to have been entering through.

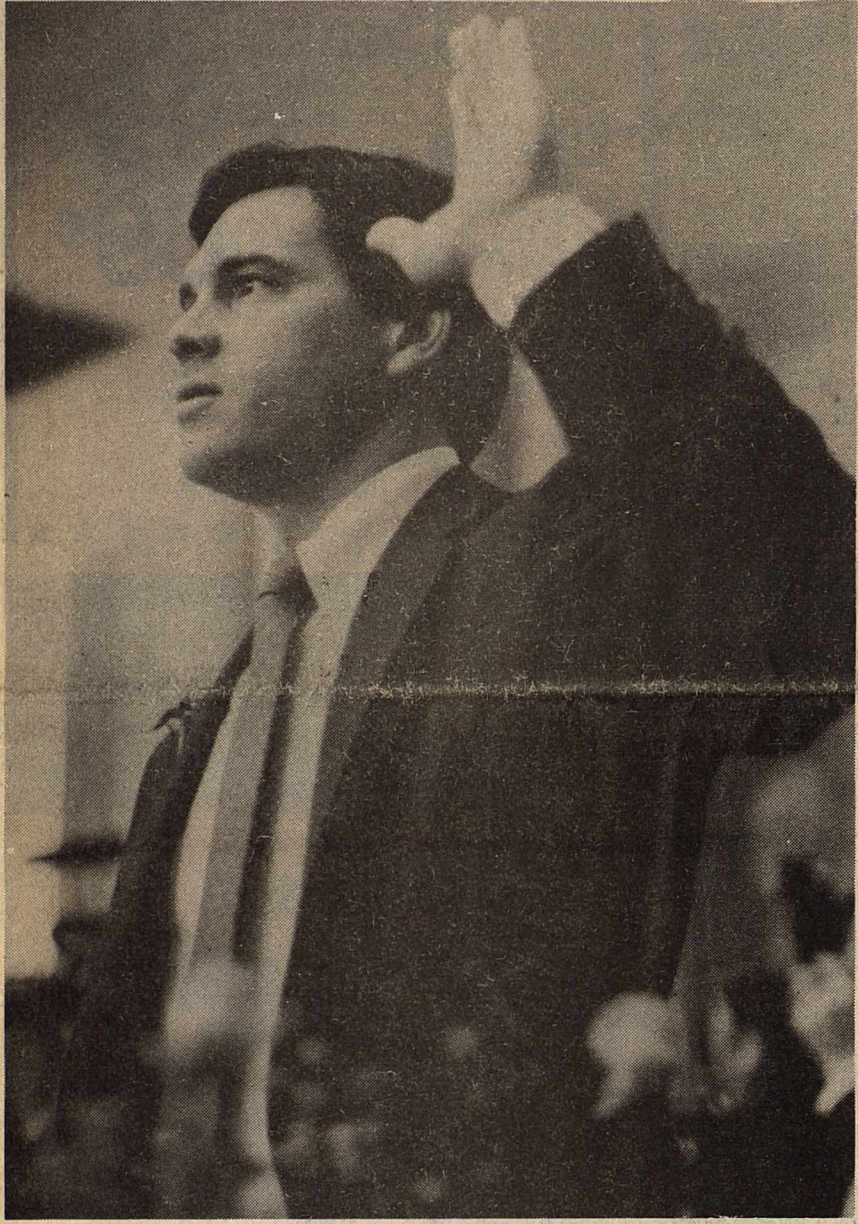

However, it was discovered by the Council that this area is not an alleyway, and that the original alleyway, which is south of the church, will be left as is.

Councilman Watson made the motion that the council give their authority for the awning, and this was seconded by Stocks, and passed.

Fees to the Ambulance Service from the city were raised to $1000 per month on a motion from Jerry Stocks and a second by Joe Cortez, with the vote unanimous.

The meeting adjourned.

Council members present were Kenny Watson, Jerry Stocks, Larry Gilliam, Darrell Smith, and Joe Cortez. Mayor Abe Turner was present and so was City Manager Robert Baker.

Tuesday marked the beginning of the sixty-ninth session of the Texas Legislature in Austin.

During the next 140 days, the destiny of our State will be decided by less than 200 elected officials.

Most of us have been critical of the actions of legislators during the special session last summer and now we have a chance to have input in improving the system.

Visiting with several members of the House and Senate Tuesday, I was surprised to see how sincerely proud the folks in Austin are of H.B. 72. They are well aware of the fact that there are problems in the new law but, really believe that the law will point education in the right direction. Almost all of the members of the House and Senate which I visited with were eager to address problems in the bill but at the same time were quick to point out that there are many serious problems facing the State during this session.

All agreed that the only possible changes will be those which can be agreed upon by a large majority of teachers, parents, taxpayers, principals, coaches, and administrators.

During the special session, most of these groups could not agree on the best way to implement reforms and the result is a bill which compromises many of the ideas we think should have been included in the bill.

The time has come for us to quit criticizing and start offering viable solutions.

The difficult part in offering solutions becomes obvious when you compare Haskell and Houston; Rule and Richardson; and Weinert and Wichita Falls... But there are solutions and this will be the only chance for two more years.

The State Board of Education met on December 8 to adopt rules and regulations concerning cocurricular activities. We will try to summarize the rules as they were passed down to us in this column.

A. The State Board of Education by rule shall limit participation in and practice for extracurricular activities during the school day and school week.

1. School districts shall not schedule, nor permit students to participate in, any school related or sanctioned activities on or off campus that would require, permit, or allow a student to be absent from class in any course more than 10 times during the 175 day school year.

2. The one exception to the 10 day limitation rule is if a student qualifies beyond the district level in UIL sponsored activities only. In that case, the Commissioner of Education may grant an exception. Exceptions shall not exceed a total of 5 days.

B. A student, other than a mentally retarded student, enrolled in a school district shall be suspended from participation in out of school practice for any extracurricular activity sponsored or sanctioned by the school district during the grade reporting period after a grade reporting period in which the student received a grade lower than 70 in any academic class. A campus principal may remove this suspension for identified classes.

1. Beginning in the fall of 1985, in order to participate a student must earn the following cumulative number credits:

- Seventh Grade: passed the 6th grade
- Eighth Grade: passed all but one 7th grade course
- Ninth Grade: passes all seventh grade courses and have credit for all but one eighth grade course
- Tenth grade: At least 4 credits
- Eleventh grade: At least 9 credits
- Twelfth grade: At least 15 credits

2. This academic role goes into effect this year at the end of the fourth reporting period.

3. A student who is suspended under this role cannot participate in out-of-school practice.

4. A student can become eligible after in six week grading period if they are passing all courses.

C. School districts must limit the number of hours a student may practice outside the school day in any single extracurricular activity to eight hours per school week starting on Monday and ending on Thursday, not including Fridays, weekends and holidays. The school shall also limit the total number of hours any student may practice a combination of all extracurricular activities outside the school day to 20 hours per week. These limits include travel and performance time. Total time counted against practice time for the first of such performance shall be limited to two hours.

The rules passed down go on to define extracurricular activities, etc. As you can readily see, the new changes can have a rather profound effect on our extracurricular program.

USDA Soil Conservation Service

Do you know that a 13 mile an hour wind can remove from a field, soil particles that contain 10 to 20 times as much humus and phosphates as the heavier particles that stay on the ground? It's true that soil particles don't blow until there is sufficient wind speed and insufficient cover.

Hot summer winds reduce the amount of moisture in the soil that crops need to grow on, twice as fast as the sun by itself. This agitates soil particles that in turn are picked up by the air and damage young crops. This also depends on the amount of moisture an area gets.

Windbreaks are particularly useful today because it costs so little to establish and the benefits are enjoyed for years to come. It's much easier to work in an environment where you and your work is undisturbed by cold winter winds and summer sandstorms. Windbreaks around the home add a natural warmth and glow to a home. If you live next to a busy street, trees are excellent buffers of sounds that might keep you awake at nights and during the day. Also the home is more scenic and easier on the eyes to look at.

Trees can also reduce home-fuel needs as much as 15 to 25 percent or more. They even protect flower and vegetable gardens in the late spring and summer, when the plants are young and still growing.

In this part of Texas, where sandstorms frequently visit, it's good insurance to plan and grow an attractive windbreak, because it is an investment that will pay off sooner than you think.

Now is the time to sit down and consider a suitable location for your windbreaks, whether it be for the home, field, or pasture, before you come by the Soil Conservation Service.

When planning a windbreak you want to make sure it is weed and brush free. Water must be readily accessible to establish the trees, and the type of soil should be known so the right variety of trees can be chosen.

These tips will help make planning and planting your windbreaks much easier.

Come by the Haskell Soil Conservation Service office for assistance. Tree orders will be taken thru February 15, with delivery on March 1st from the Haskell Soil and Water Conservation District.

PUBLIC NOTICE

In accordance with the Public Utility Regulatory Act and the Rules of the Public Utility Commission of Texas, AT&T Communications of the Southwest, Inc. (AT&T Communications) gives notice to all of its Texas customers that a new procedure for long distance billing was made effective on an interim basis on August 6, 1984 in Docket No. 5800.

The procedure referred to is "Rate Period Specific Billing" and it applies to all message telephone service (AT&T Long Distance calls) including non-REACH OUT Texas calls within the State of Texas. This new procedure effects all AT&T Long Distance customers. All intraLATA long distance calls and all interstate long distance calls are currently billed using this procedure.

Under this procedure, customers are billed a specific charge for long distance calls according to the rate or rates in effect throughout the time of each call. If a call begins in one rate period and extends into a different rate period, the customer will be charged whatever rate is in effect for each portion of the call.

For example, if a customer places a call at 4:58 p.m. on a weekday and talks for ten minutes, the first two minutes of the call would be charged at the full weekday rate which extends from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. The remaining eight minutes of the call would be billed at the evening rate which extends from 5:00 p.m. to 11:00 p.m. and includes a 25% discount. If Rate Period Specific Billing were not in effect, the entire call would have been billed at the higher day rate. Calls which extend from the evening rate period (25% discount) to the night and weekend rate period (40% discount) or from the night and weekend rate period (40% discount) to the day rate period (no discount) would also be billed according to the actual minutes of use during each rate period.

AT&T Communications anticipates a minimal increase of approximately .02% in its revenues or approximately $250,000 annually.

A complete copy of the "Rate Period Specific Billing" tariff is on file with the Texas Public Utility Commission.

Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the Commission as soon as possible. A request to intervene or participate or for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. Further information also may be obtained by calling the Public Utility Commission Consumer Affairs Division at (512) 458-0223 or (512) 458-0227 or (512) 458-0221 teletypewriter for the deaf.

FACTS & FIGURES

Every week, hundreds of lives could be saved. That's how many people in this country are killed in motor vehicle accidents. Every day, almost 10,000 others are injured on our streets and highways.

If you are involved in a car crash in which you are wearing a safety belt, you are much less likely to be injured or killed than if you are not wearing any safety belt, according to the U.S. Department of Transportation, National Highway Traffic Safety Administration. Wearing a safety belt more than doubles your chances of surviving an accident.

If every driver and passenger in the United States would wear safety belts during every trip in a car, about 14,000 lives would be saved every year. Twenty billion dollars in costs would be substantially reduced every year. Costs that are borne by taxpayers who pay for extra police, medical rehabilitation and welfare services, by employers who pay for lost work time, and by people who must pay higher insurance premiums due to deaths and injuries that wouldn't have happened if safety belts had been used.

Phemister. Everyone opened their Christmas presents from their secret pals. The next meeting will be held at the Homemaking Cottage, Jan. 14, at 7:00 p.m.

Mixing Or Crushing Medications Can Be Dangerous

Elderly people who take many medications may be tempted to crush or mix pills so they will be easier to swallow.

But not all medications can be safely treated this way, cautions gerontologist Dr. Judith Warren.

Some tablets are coated to conceal the unpleasant taste of the medication, prevent irritation of the mouth and esophagus, or to delay release of the drug, says Warren, a specialist with the Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service home economics program.

Crushing a coated tablet immediately releases the drug and may cause a bitter taste in the mouth, stomach irritation and nausea. This may cause some elderly to avoid taking the medicine as prescribed, Warren notes.

Drug overdose can also result since some preparations are designed with multiple coatings or beads that permit gradual absorption of the drug, cautions the specialist.

When time-release capsules are crushed or mixed with a liquid, a greater than normal amount of the drug is released and the symptoms of overdose or intense side-effects can occur, she adds.

Some elderly may prefer to mix their medication with milk or fruit juice, but this is not always safe either, says Warren. These liquids can alter the solubility and absorption of some drugs. Fruit juices can also inhibit drug action, she explains.

Since crushing or dissolving any medication can alter its effects, elderly patients or those who care for them should ask the pharmacist, doctor or nurse whether an alteration will be safe or not, Warren suggests.

Other questions to ask include: Can this drug be taken with fluid? If so, how much? With what food or fluid can this drug be safely mixed?

Taking precautions when crushing or dissolving medication can insure that medicines actually have a chance to do their job, Warren notes.

EGYPT — HOLY LAND VISITORS

Area Resident Return From Egypt—Holy Land Tour

Area residents have returned from Egypt-Holy Land tour. The members were Bobby Hudson, Charles Owens, Betty and R.S. Sanders, Raymond and Lucille Pickering, Julia Propps, Bob and Betty Dulaney, Bailey and Nancy Toliver, Gerry Spain, Augusta Pogue, Doris Reeves, Ann and Bobby Therwanger, Nerva Oates, Grace McKelvain, Debra Hudson, Daniel Hudson, Iva Nixon (not pictured) and their guide Issac.

The Egypt-Holy Land Pilgrimage for area residents was the realization of the actuality of far-away places studied since early childhood. The vastness of the Egyptian desert with the green ribbon-like Nile Valley was a land to behold from the air. Visits to the ancient temples, tombs and pyramids dating as far back as 5,000 B.C. caused the group to admire and appreciate the culture of so long ago.

The rolling hills, the Sea of Galilee, and the fertile farm land of Israel easily indicated to the group why the "Promised Land" has been such an area of conflict since the days of Abraham.

The many Holy Sites visited included where Jesus was born, where he lived as a child, where he began teaching around the Sea of Galilee, where he prayed, was tried, put to death, buried and finally ascended into Heaven. These places touched the hearts of the members as each in his own way paused for meditation and prayer.

Preschooler Children Constantly Test Parents

Preschool children are constantly testing the limits of their world—the behavioral limits as well as the physical ones. This testing is natural and normal, but it can become a problem unless parents recognize it and know how to handle it, according to Growing Child, the monthly child development newsletter.

Four problem behaviors often seen in preschoolers are whining, temper tantrums, sulking, and clinging. Parents can most effectively deal with these by ignoring negative behaviors and rewarding positive ones.

Whining

Some children seem to whine all the time. Nothing ever pleases them. They will whine for an ice cream cone, but when the parent produces it, the child will whine that the flavor is not right. When the parent produces the right flavor, the child will whine that it is melting and sticky. No matter what the parent does, it does not please the child.

Whining is a negative behavior. If parents consistently reward it by trying to always please the child, they will produce a chronic whiner. If they consistently ignore the whining, it will soon stop.

Temper Tantrums

What do you do about a child who screams, rolls on the floor, kicks, and bites? Temper tantrums are certainly negative behaviors.

The general advice is to ignore them, too. If you get involved in the tantrum or try to stop it, you are rewarding the behavior with attention. Of course, it is difficult to ignore a noisy, violent tantrum. At first, it may embarrass you and drive you up a wall. But be patient. If you succeed in ignoring tantrums, you are not rewarding them, and they should quickly stop.

Sulking

A sulky child withdraws from any challenging situation. He will not try. Parents need to ignore the withdrawal, and at the same time insist that the child try his best, even if it means "putting him through" or "forcing him through" certain tasks.

Clinging

The clinging child is too dependent on his parents. He cannot do anything by himself. Again, the advice is to ignore the dependent behavior. At the same time, encourage the child to do things on his own, and reward independent actions with praise and attention.

The Growing Child newsletter follows a child's development month-by-month from birth to six years old. For more information and a free sample newsletter, write to Growing Child, P.O. Box 620N, Lafayette, IN 47902. Include child's birthdate when writing.

TAX PLANNING

Written By
Gerald Rodgers, CPA

INFLATION REDUCES TAXES

A provision in the Economic Recovery Act of 1981 goes into effect in 1985. It is the provision that calls for an inflationary adjustment to the tax rates, the standard deduction ("zero bracket amount"), and the personal and dependency exemptions. The tax indexing rate for 1985 is 4.1%. The January withholding tables issued by the IRS reflect this adjustment, meaning slightly more take-home pay for individuals.

The upper and lower limits of each tax bracket have been adjusted by 4.1%. The table below compares the 1984 and 1985 tax brackets for joint returns to give you an idea of how much benefit this adjustment means to you.

TAX RATE	1984 BRACKET	1985 BRACKET
0%	$ 0-3,400	$ 0-3,540
11	3,400-5,500	3,540-5,720
12	5,500-7,600	5,720-7,910
14	7,600-11,900	7,910-12,390
16	11,900-16,000	12,390-16,650
18	16,000-20,200	16,650-21,020
22	20,200-24,600	21,020-25,600
25	24,600-29,900	25,600-31,120
28	29,900-35,200	31,120-36,630
33	35,200-45,800	36,630-47,670
38	45,800-60,000	47,670-62,450
42	60,000-85,600	62,450-89,090
45	85,600-109,400	89,090-113,860
49	109,400-162,400	113,860-169,020
50	162,400-	169,020-

The standard deduction for singles in 1985 will be $2,390, an increase of $90; for married couples it will be $3,540, an increase of $140. The personal and dependency exemptions increase from $1,000 to $1,040.

A 4.1% inflationary adjustment will strike most people as insignificant; however, if "indexing for inflation" is retained as a permanent part of the tax law, the result will mean substantial savings to you.

Indians Triumph

By Janet Wilke

In the first game after the holidays, the Haskell Indians showed the hometown crowd that they had not lost any of their old form as they downed the Weinert Bulldogs, 72-42.

Shane Hadaway led in scoring with 17, as Ricky Rojas had 12, Sammy Baker had 9, and Robert Ivey and David Adams each had 8 points, respectively.

Walker had 15 and J. Perez had 10 for Weinert.

In scores by quarters the Indians never lost their sizable lead throughout the game, as they had Weinert down 23-8 in the first period, and then had a 48-21 lead at the half. The third period, the Indians had Weinert at a 60-29 total, and then ended the game at 72-42.

The Haskell boys shot 6 of 17 from the line and made 33 of 66 field goals for a 50 percent total from the field.

In the rebounds, the team had 46 total, with Shane Hadaway leading with 11 and Rojas with 8.

David Adams led the team in assists with 8.

JV Girls Take Down Anson JV

By Shawna Welch

The JV Maidens traveled to Rotan Tuesday, but scores were not available at press time.

The Maidens skinned Anson 28-25 last Friday. DeShawn Lewis and Pam Weise led the girls with 8 points each. Rebecca Flores followed them with 4.

The Maidens led at half-time 10-9, and by the end of the third quarter the two teams were tied at 22.

In the fourth quarter the Maidens added six points to Anson's three points. This put them on top 28-25.

DeShawn Lewis made the only two free-throws for the Maidens while 13 of Anson's 26 points were free-throws.

8th Grade Wins

By Jennifer Davis

The eighth grade Maidens began district play Monday, defeating Anson 30-26.

Leading for the Maidens was Joy McKeever with 7.

"The eighth grade is a team-oriented group in that there are no real stars, they just play well together. They've continued to improve since the beginning of the year, and there are some really good high school prospects in the group," Coach Jim Bob Mickler said.

Boys Win

By David Adams

The ninth grade boys' basketball team defeated the Anson Tigers Monday night 33-25.

After a slow start, the Indians kept the lead throughout the game.

Casey Reed led the scoring with 10 points while Patrick Perez added 8.

The ninth grade will host Hamlin Jan. 21.

Indians Take First Win

BY JANET WILKE

The reigning district champion Haskell Indians slapped the Anson team Friday night in their first district game, 73-33.

Senior Shane Hadaway scored 29 points, with Ricky Rojas adding 19.

The Indians never trailed in the game, as they were two points up on the Tigers at the end of the first period, 9-7, and then led by a sizable margin at half, 37-15.

The third period, the Indians widened an already large lead to 56-21, and won convincingly 73-33.

From the field, Haskell hit 33 of 79 shots, and made 11 of 23 attempts from the free throw line.

Shane Hadaway and Ricky Rojas led in the rebounding dept. and the team snatched the ball away a total of 56 times during the course of the game.

Since this was the first game in the district season, Coach Jim Raughton said he felt that Haskell could play ball with anyone in the district but he did have plans to make a slight change on the offense against Hawley when the teams meet.

The Indians possess a 13-1 seasonal record, and have a perfect 1-0 record on the district slate.

They played Rotan, Tuesday night, and were to face Hamlin on Friday night at Hamlin.

As far as changes go, the Coach said he was expecting to keep the team pressing and was going to concentrate on having the Indians get the ball down the court.

"Ricky Rojas has really been a contributing factor to our team since his comeback," Coach Raughton commented.

It will be remembered that Rojas had a knee injury earlier in the year, and was out the first few games of the basketball season.

"Rojas really gets the crowd into the game," Raughton added.

The Indians and their coach urge all of the Haskell fans to get out and watch some high school basketball. District has already begun, and Jim Raughton, and the Indians are hoping to make it three in a row to the Regional Tourney.

Maidens Edge Anson In 61-59 Dist. Win

BY JANET WILKE

Although they possessed a seven point lead at one time, the varsity Maidens edged by Anson by a mere bucket Friday night, 61-59.

Julie Roewe led in the scoring with 14 points, closely following her were Jennifer Davis with 13, and Holly McBroom with 12. Lori McGee had 10.

Sue Blackwell scored 14 points for the Anson girls.

The Maidens were 50 percent from the free throw line, making 11 of 22.

Haskell was the underdog by one point at the end of the first period, 15-14, but came back and had a seven point lead by halftime, 34-27.

In the third period the Maidens still led by 6, 50-44 but nearly saw their first district win go down the tubes to a tough Anson team, but did pull out a win, 61-59.

"At times; we played as well against Anson as we've played all year long," said Coach George Martin, of the win.

"Anson played well. They still have three starters off of last year's regional qualifying team."

The Maidens played Rotan at Rotan Tuesday, but Martin had said earlier that one of their biggest rivals would be against Hamlin, who the Maidens are set to play tomorrow night, in Hamlin.

"We are planning on running on Hamlin, and we are hoping to make the baskets and hit well from the free throw line," summarized Martin of his plans for Friday's game.

Hamlin will have the home court advantage, and they are also the reigning District champs, whose record last year was 9-1.

Returning from last year's team will be four starters who are people to watch for in the game: Willis, Titus, Bond, and George.

"We are fortunate to have actually seven starters. We really have two other girls on the Maidens who could come in at anytime and do just as well as anyone we start," Martin said.

Lori McGee, Julie Roewe, Denise Young, Tamala Randle, and

Jennifer Davis are starters for the most part, but are backed up by the talents of such strong ball players as Holly McBroom and Kim Lanier.

"Holli High has been out with an injured ankle, and we are hoping to get her back very soon," Martin also added.

Denise Burriss is still questionable and is not expected to play in any game in the near future because of an injured knee.

The Maidens are 11-5 on the year and 1-0 in district.

Coach Martin asked all of the followers of Maiden basketball to get out and support the girls as they continue to look for a District Championship.

Seventh Wins

By Todd Harris

The seventh grade Warriors defeated Anson 36-28 Monday night.

Stephen Holt led all scorers with 12 points. Baldmore Perez and Salvador Rodriguez both had 6 points.

"We played well together and beat them pretty good. We looked better than I expected since the long layoff during the holidays. We shot well and moved the ball well," Coach Jim Raughton said.

The Warriors will face Rotan, there next Monday with games beginning at 5 p.m.

9th Girls Lose

By David Adams

The 9th grade Maidens suffered a 27-19 loss to Anson Jan. 7. Leading the scoring for the Maidens was Vicki Chavez with 8 points while Tamra Burnett finished with 5 points.

On Dec. 17, the Maidens beat Stamford 35-23. Robyne Weaver had 14 points while Sheree Dumas added 8 more.

The game was close with a 15-14 halftime score, but the Maidens widened their lead to 12 by the end of the game.

The Maidens will play here against Hamlin Jan. 21.

Bullock To Send Rep. To Abilene

Comptroller Bob Bullock announced he is sending a representative from his Abilene Office to Haskell on January 15, 1985 to assist local taxpayers and answer questions about state taxes.

Bullock said Tax Representative Royce Manning will meet with local taxpayers at the Haskell County Courthouse, Commissioner Courtroom from 2:00 p.m. until 3:00 p.m.

"If Haskell County area merchants, or anyone else for that matter, have any questions about state taxes or need help in preparing tax forms, Royce will be there to assist them",

Bullock said. "We're trying to cut the red tape in this office and we believe these face-to-face sessions with taxpayers help do just that", Bullock added.

Bullock reminded those taxpayers who are unable to meet with his representative on January 15, 1985 that they can still get their questions answered quickly by calling his Toll-Free information number in Austin. That number is 1-800-252-555.

The Abilene office, headed by James Martin, serves Taylor, Callahan, Fisher, Haskell, Jones, Mitchell, Nolan, Scurry, Shackelford, and Stonewall Counties.

Maidens Pull Off Weinert Victory

By Janet Wilke
Despite the fact that the Haskell Maidens trailed throughout the game, they were able to finally put the Weinert girls away in the final period with a surge of free throws, 46-37, in their game Dec. 31, here.

Leading in scoring was Denise Young with 15, but Tamala Randle was really the star of the Haskell show, as she scored 12 points, as five of these were from the line in the final period of the game. The team hit 10 of 13 free throws the last half of the game and hit 18 of 23 for the game. According to girls coach, George Martin, there were 9 free shots in the last period which turned the tide for Haskell.

In scores by the quarters, Haskell trailed Weinert 12-9 in the first period, then was still behind at the end of the first half, 25-20. By the end of the third quarter, things still had not turned around and the Maidens were trailing 32-27, but pulled it out 46-37. Haskell's girls had 22 rebounds with Tamala Randle leading with 7, and Miss Randle also had five of the team's 14 assists credited to her.

In field goal shooting, the Maidens hit 2 of 8 in the first period for 25 percent, then shot 4 of 12 in the second for 33 percent. Third period, the team shot 2 of 13, and then ended the game with 5 of 14 for 33 percent.

Coach Martin said the team changed strategy at the half and went to a man to man defense instead of staying with what they had been playing on Weinert earlier, and this helped things go for the Maidens, as well.

8th Graders Beat Tigers

By Todd Harris
The eighth grade Warriors defeated Anson 47-32 Monday night with the aid of a strong performance by Paul Harvey.

Harvey had 21 points, while Cole Larned netted 10 points.

"We missed too many easy shots, but that is to be expected after the long layoff during the holidays. We need to work on our transition game and also work on getting on the boards, both offensively and defensively. We are 10-0, and that's not bad," Coach Jimmy Lisle said.

The Warriors will face Rotan next Monday, there, with game time at 6 p.m.

7th Girls Victorious

By Tina Lacey
The seventh grade Maidens traveled to Anson Jan. 7 to cage the lady Tigers 37-22 for their second win against them this year.

The seventh grade Maidens will travel to Rotan Jan. 14 to play the Lady Yellowhammers.

When You're Looking For A New Home, Look For An E.S.P. Home...

It'll Save You Money!

SAVE THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS on your electric bill over the life of your home by owning a WTU-Approved E.S.P. Home. Some homes on the market may seem energy efficient, but you can be confident an E.S.P. Home really is. WTU has carefully inspected and qualified each E.S.P. Home to meet energy efficiency requirements.

E.S.P. REQUIREMENTS include some of the most important energy saving features, such as:

- Ceiling insulation of R-30 and wall insulation of R-16.
- Storm windows or insulated glass.
- Weatherstripping and caulking around all doors and windows.

- Electric heat pump with a Seasonal Energy Efficiency Ratio (SEER) of 8.0 or above.
- Air conditioning with a SEER of 8.5 or above.
- Air infiltration control.

COMPARE HOW MUCH YOU CAN SAVE with an E.S.P. Home over a one-year period:

An average 1800 square foot home will cost you approximately $775 a year to heat and cool. An E.S.P. Home of 1800 square feet will cost approximately $570 a year to heat and cool, which results in an annual savings on electricity of 26 percent or more. (Energy savings may vary according to the type of home, family size and individual energy usage habits.)

For more information on the E.S.P. Program, call your local WTU office today. AN E.S.P. HOME CAN SAVE YOU MONEY ON FUTURE ENERGY BILLS.
