Jill Jennings Gets 4-H Gold Star Award

A 17-year-old Haskell High School senior has received the county's highest 4-H Club award.

Jill Jennings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Jennings, is recipient of the Gold Star Award, which goes annually to one or two deserving Haskell County 4-H'ers.

To be considered for the honor, a student must possess excellent leadership and citizenship abilities, must have outstanding academic credentials and have church and community affairs responsibilities outside 4-H work.

In recognition of her selection,

Jill received a Gold Star pin, a 4-H jacket, donated by Trammell Bit Co., and a U.S. Savings Bond, courtesy of Haskell National Bank.

In addition, she and her parents will be special guests at the district 4-H gold Star banquet in Benjamin Nov. 19 and also at the Haskell County Extension Homemakers Information Day Nov. 20.

Jill has been a member of the Haskell 4-H Community Club for seven years. During this time she has been her club's treasurer, president and county 4-H Council delegate. She also has served as a Teen Leader and has shared her knowledge and 4-H experiences with beginning 4-H'ers.

Jill has always had a genuine interest in all aspects of the 4-H organization. During her 4-H career she had carried a wide variety of projects, including foods and nutrition, clothing, fashion show, child development, home designer, method demonstration, leadership, citizenship, and rabbit. As a result of involvement in these projects she has participated in local, district and state 4-H food shows. She also has participated in local and district fashion shows, district home designer events and district and state method demonstration contests.

This year Jill and her partner placed 3rd at State Roundup with their demonstration on pecans. The last area she has competed in is an accumulation of all her 4-H projects and 4-H record books. This year Jill's Food and Nutrition Record Book was a state winner, earning her an all-expense paid trip to the National 4-H Congress in Chicago.

Jill also has represented the Haskell County 4-H at various activities. She has attended Tenn Leader Lab in Brownwood and State 4-H Congress in College Station. She has presented programs for local civic clubs, ladies' organizations, and Extension Homemakers Clubs. She has served as a judge for neighboring county's food shows and has done numerous radio programs.

Jill is active in church activities. She attends the Haskell Church of Christ where she is an active member of the youth group. She attends the church's annual Singing School and helps teach Bible classes.

She attends Haskell High School where she is a twirler for the Indian Band, an honor student and a member of the National Honor Society and FHA. She willingly volunteers her time to help with community activities. She has helped with the March of Dimes drive and the Jump Rope for Heart activity. She helped the Art Club paint a city mural for the 100th birthday of Haskell.

During the 1984 political campaign, she conducted a telephone survey for Rick Perry, State Representative. Because of her civic leadership, Jill was chosen to participate in the 1985 State Farm Bureau Citizenship Seminar.

We're proud to announce this week the appointment of Wendell Faught as editor of the Free Press.

Wendell is a veteran West Texas and New Mexico newspaperman and we're happy to have been able to get him here.

During the coming weeks and months, more and more of his ideas about style and makeup will be seen in the Free Press.

We invite the people of this area to come by the office to meet Wendell. The biggest immediate challenge of any new editor is getting to know the people.

Newspapers like towns grow with new ideas and new people. We feel Wendell and his family will prove to be an asset to the Free Press as well as the Haskell area.

Wendell, his wife, Pat, and their son, Jamie, are as settled as possible in a new home, new office and new school three days after a 500 mile move.

When visiting with Wendell, give him your ideas and suggestions for stories, pictures, features and columns. Without reader input, an editor's job is twice as hard and your suggestions will be appreciated.

We're happy to have the Faught family in Haskell and know that the wonderful people of this area will make them welcome.

Indians To Meet Quannah

Still searching for that elusive first victory, the Haskell Indians journey north to Quannah Friday to meet a team which has rebounded strongly from a first-game loss to score two impressive wins.

It'll be the 0-3 Indians of Haskell against the 2-1 Indians of Quannah in this interdistrict clash.

The young Haskell team has lost to Munday, Electra and Seymour in its first three outings of this rebuilding year. But Coach Harold Hill said Tuesday that the team was coming along and learning a lot each week. "They should look pretty good this week," the coach said.

A junior-sophomore dominated team, the Indians started the season with only two players who had varsity experience.

Quannah opened its season with a narrow loss to Childress and then won consecutive victories over Archer City and Paducah.

Friday's game will be the first of three away-from-home contests for Haskell. The Indians will play in Iowa Park next week and in Hamlin the following week before their next home game against Rotan Oct. 18.

New Mexican Named Editor Of Free Press

Long-time Texas and New Mexico newsman Wendell Faught this week assumed duties as editor of the Haskell Free Press.

Faught moved to Haskell from Albuquerque where he has been working as an editor for the National Information Center for Educational Media, a firm which produces catalogs and database indexes of educational material for distribution to universities and libraries.

He was publisher of the Deming Headlight and Deming Graphic, New Mexico's largest weekly newspapers, from 1961 to 1979. He also owned and published the White Sands Missil Ranger in Las Cruces, N.M., from 1968 to 1982.

Before moving to New Mexico in 1961, he was editor of the Seminole (Texas) Sentinel and sports editor of the Brownfield (Texas) News. He also owned a weekly newspaper in Plains, Texas.

A native of Eldorado, Okla., Faught began his newspaper career while a youngster. While attending the University of Oklahoma, he worked part time and during summers for a number of Oklahoma newspapers.

Faught is a past president of the New Mexico Press Assn. and a past president of the West Texas-New Mexico chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, national society of professional journalists.

Mrs. Faught (Pat), who grew up in Quannah, also has an extensive newspaper background. She worked for newspapers in Seminole, Plains, Deming and Las Cruces.

Mr. and Mrs. Faught have three grown daughters and an 11-year-old son. Two of the daughters live in Albuquerque and the other lives in Austin.

Haskell Woman Hurt In Car-Truck Crash

A spectacular downtown crash Tuesday morning seriously injured a Haskell woman, but a major disaster which was momentarily feared was averted.

Mrs. Sherry Stratton, who was trapped in a 1982 Ford Escort partially underneath an 18-wheel oil transport truck at North Avenue E and North 2nd Street, underwent surgery Tuesday afternoon at Hendricks Medical Center in Abilene.

A hospital spokeswoman told the Free Press late Tuesday that Mrs. Stratton was in serious condition, suffering a fractured sternum and possible spinal fractures. She underwent surgery early Tuesday afternoon.

The accident occurred at 10:15 when the truck, driven by Danny R. Perkins of Abilene, collided with the left rear of Mrs. Stratton's vehicle before jack-knifing and landing on its side just a few feet away from the gasoline pumps at Rodriguez Texaco. Both vehicles were traveling south.

The truck driver escaped with minor injuries, but Mrs. Stratton was trapped inside her demolished car, which rested against and partially under the oil tanker.

It took Haskell Volunteer firemen 25 minutes to free the woman. In the meantime, personnel of the Haskell County Ambulance Service had started IV and oxygen administrations to Mrs. Stratton.

Mrs. Stratton was taken to Haskell Memorial Hospital and then was transferred to Abilene by the Haskell County Ambulance Service.

Perkins, who was a driver for the Abilene-based Big Tex Crude Oil Co. truck, told Police Chief Tom Paul Barnett that he had just started to pass Mrs. Stratton when she suddenly began to make a left turn. He said he swerved to avoid a collision, but he hit her anyway, causing the truck to jack-knife, scooting Mrs. Stratton's car across the street. Mrs. Stratton's car was pinned beneath the rear of the tanker. As it came to rest, the truck also collided with a parked vehicle.

There were several anxious minutes by law officers, firemen and the ambulance crew, as well as a swelling group of onlookers, before it was known that the tanker was carrying raw crude. At first it was feared the tanker might contain gasoline or diesel which would have presented a serious risk of explosion. The presence of the nearby gasoline pumps at the Texaco station heightened the fear.

Police Chief Barnett said Tuesday afternoon that the accident is still under investigation.

County Child Welfare Board Plans Events

Members of the Haskell County Child Welfare Board have expressed their appreciation to all who contributed to their first money-raising project, the "Car Bash," at the County Fair.

At a meeting of members last Tuesday, it was pointed out that the project increased the public awareness through the theme, "Kids, You Can't Beat Them." They said that money raised will be used to help needy children with school supplies and Christmas gifts.

During the meeting, it was decided to combine the two agencies and have a Christmas parade entry depicting "A Happy Family." Having a child's picture made with Santa Claus for a fee will be another activity.

There is a need for representatives from Precincts, 1, 2 and 3, as the terms of those who drew for one-year terms have expired. Some precinct areas have not been fully represented. Members are appointed by the various commissioners.

Attending last week's meeting were David Smith of Headstream Mental Health Clinic and Linda Haynes, Haskell County Child Welfare director.

Treat Yourself To A Safe Halloween

Halloween is one of the world's oldest and most popular holidays. It enables adults as well as children to engage in the fun of fantasy and make-believe.

Manufacturers of Halloween products, in cooperation with Toy Manufacturers of America, the industry trade association, recently developed a Safety and Consumer Information Program. The basis of the Program is a Booklet from which the following safety tips are excerpted.

Makeup: Use makeup containing ingredients that are labeled "Made with U.S. Approved Color Additives," "Laboratory Tested," "Meets Federal Standards for Cosmetics" or "Non-Toxic." Follow manufacturer's instructions for application and removal.

Masks: A mask should have holes large enough to allow adequate breathing and vision. Cut to adjust, if necessary. Elastic should be permanently attached to the mask, with no sharp points. Wear mask on top of the head when walking; pull it over the face upon reaching the location.

Costumes: Costumes should be of flame-retardant materials and large enough so that clothing can be worn underneath. Children should wear comfortable shoes or sneakers. Use light colors, reflective tape and/or patches on costumes and treat bags so that trick-or-treaters are visible at night.

Accessories: Children should carry flashlights or light sticks, never a candle. "Knives," "swords" and other accessories should be made from flexible materials such as cardboard.

Neighborhood Safety: Go into familiar neighborhoods, stopping only at well-lit places. Draw a simple route, make certain child and parents have a copy and designate a return time. Give children coins and tell them to call if they are going to be late.

Trick-or-Treat Phone Squad: Recently, many communities have organized a contest to encourage children to return home on time. The contest is sponsored by houses of worship, the PTA, clubs or the police. Children enter by submitting their names and telephone numbers. Names are drawn and the children telephoned. Those who answer the phone at a predetermined time—such as 8:00 PM—win prizes for being home on time.

Treats: Give children a meal or snack before they go out and emphasize that no treats should be eaten until they get home! Label treats that you give with your name and telephone number so that parents can identify the source of treats. Make your own labels or use readily available, inexpensive printed address labels. Discard commercially produced candy if the wrapper is loose or the seal has been broken. If anything is suspicious about treats, report this to the police.

Consider the following inexpensive, nonedible items for treats and/or prizes: balls and jacks; bubble pipes; coloring books; comics and storybooks; miniature collectible and wind-up figures; clay; magic tricks; puppets; yo-yos; small stuffed animals and dolls; snack coupons to a fast food shop or ice cream parlor; and stickers.

Remember not to give products with small parts to children under age three and look for age guidelines on packages.

This and other information, such as unique ideas for Halloween celebrations, recipes, party-giving hints are in the 32-page booklet, 13 Great Ways To Celebrate Halloween. For a copy send 50 cents order payable to HALLOWEEN BOOKLET, to cover first class postage and handling, along with your complete name and address to: HALLOWEEN BOOKLET, P.O. Color Analysis Is Topic Of Next FHA Meeting

By Denise Johnson
 The Haskell FHA members' next meeting will be at 7 p.m. Oct. 7 when they will have a program on color analysis. Mrs. Pat Hakanson of Stamford, a color analysis specialist, will show good color selections in clothing according to skin tones.

She will select one FHA member to use in her demonstration of what colors go well with individual skin color and hair.

Mrs. Hakanson also will give pointers on how to select jewelry to complement face shape and coloring. FHA members will have a door prize.

The first FHA meeting Sept. 16 was a welcome back party. Lynn Dewey, vice president, discussed the programs for the coming year. Christy Peiser, treasurer, talked to the group about dues. Janie Villa, vice president of Encounter, gave a skit about leadership. Tina Lacey, president, presided.

FHA is open to any student, male or female, who has taken a home-making class or is presently enrolled in one. The group meets the first Monday of each month.

Fort Leaton

WELCOME TO DINNER

DINNER FOR THE INDIANS...
 The U.S. Army established a fort near present-day Presidio in 1848. When the army left, rancher Ben Leaton moved in. It became known as "Fort Leaton". To improve relations with the Indians Leaton had a dinner for them. After the Indians left Leaton discovered they had stolen his horses. He invited them back for another dinner, while they were eating, a cannon was rolled into the patio and the Indians were killed.

Indians Bow To Seymour In Homecoming Contest

The Haskell Indians, giving up two big touchdown plays in the first quarter, lost their homecoming game Friday to the Seymour Panthers, 47-18.

Tailback Mark Peters had a great offensive game, scoring three of the Panthers' seven touchdowns. His first two came in the opening period on runs of 30 and 20 yards. He also carried in the two-point conversion after his second touchdown.

Peters struck back in the second quarter with a run of 43 yards. The point-after was good. Running back Charis Hardamon had two touchdowns in the second quarter. His first came on a 30-yard run. The PAT was good. His second run was one of 35 yards. The PAT was good.

The Indians were able to put six points on the board during the second quarter. They called on running back Kendall Larned who was able to sneak in from a yard out. The score remained 41-6 at halftime.

The crowd was entertained at halftime with the announcement of the homecoming queen, senior Stephanie Browning.

Running back Fred Shaw took the second-half kickoff and returned it 85 yards for an Indian touchdown. The PAT was no good.

The Panthers also were able to score in the first quarter. The touchdown came off a one-yard quarterback sneak by Jon Hrcirik. The PAT was no good.

Each team was able to score once in the fourth quarter. The Panthers' score came off a one-yard run by tailback Corey Daniels. The PAT was no good. The Indians' touchdown came off a two-yard run by runningback Joel Torres. The PAT was no good.

Next JV Game Against Hamlin

By Michael Wallace

The Haskell JV Indians will play the Hamlin JV in a game beginning at 7:30 p.m. Oct. 3 in Hamlin.

The JVs were idle last week, but some of the team members played the homecoming game with the varsity. Those joining the varsity for last Friday's game were Derrick Billington, Angel Comacho, Chan Guess, Paul Harvey, Matt Lane, Jeff Neal, Louie Torres and Bo Watson.

Good defense was the key to the JV's 14-6 victory over Knox City Sept. 12.

Coach Jim Bob Mickler said the team was picking up the offense well. This was evident as Guess connected with Billington on a 57-yard scoring pass.

The team then scored the two-point conversion a pass from Guess to Michael Mendoza.

For the next touchdown, Guess kept the ball on the option and streaked 15 yards for the score.

In the JV's first game at Munday, they were trailing 14-6 at the end of the third quarter when the game was called because of lightning. The game will be rescheduled for a Saturday.

8th Grade Team Off To Good Start

By Val King

The eighth-grade Warriors have started off better than last year already. Last year, there were only 13 members of the team, which made it hard for substitutions. This year the squad has increased to 15 members.

The line played a major part in the Warrior's win. The line consists of Ramon Salazar, Davis Chapman, Robert Swan, Scotty Martin and Wade Foreman.

Rodney Johnson and Salvador Rodriguez led the Warriors' running attack. Against Seymour, Johnson ran for the Warriors' only two touchdowns. Salvador ran a kickoff back for a touchdown, but it was called back. "We don't have many people, but we have talent. I was surprised at the speed we have," Coach Jim Bob Mickler said.

This week the eighth-grade Warriors face the Stamford Bulldogs here at 6:15 p.m.

Seventh Graders Lose To Seymour

By Lance Hanson

The seventh grade Warriors traveled to Seymour last week to face the Panthers. They were beaten, 0-12.

"It was their first game and some didn't really know what was going on, but they are getting better," Coach George Martin said.

Guthrie Edges Pirates, Ira Bulldogs Next Foe

The Guthrie Jaguars scored first. But the Paint Creek Pirates came back with a touchdown pass from Danny Letterman to Bear Braley which was set up by a 45-yard pass from Letterman to Thad Jennings. The extra point was good with a pass to Mikeal Gonzales.

The Jaguars took the kickoff and scored again. PAT was good. The Pirates responded by scoring twice more in the first half with a 10-yard run by Medford and a dump pass to Kenneth Jeffcoat from Medford that covered 40 yards. The halftime score was 27-14 in the Pirates' favor.

The second half was a different story when the Jaguars scored 34 unanswered points to overcome the Pirates' lead. Even a touchdown pass to Braley didn't help. The final score was Paint Creek Pirates 33 and the Guthrie Jaguars 48.

The Pirates will face the Ira Bulldogs this Friday with their first home game.

Junior Pirates Win Two

Paint Creek's Junior High School football team, consisting of Troy Jeffcoat, Garland Medford, Johnny Hoadley, Chris Cockrell, Kelly Williams, Rodney Medford, Jesse Rodriguez, Grant Compton and William Greene, began its 1985 season Sept. 12.

The Pirates boarded ship and sailed to Rule where they faced an excellent group of Bobcats. After four quarters of good effort by both teams the Pirates came out victoriously by a score of 24-12.

Sept. 19, the Pirates were attacked at home by the Jayton Jaybirds. And again, after four quarters of hard effort by both teams, the Pirates came out on top by a score of 20-0.

The next Pirate opponent will be the Goree Wildcats at 6 p.m. Thursday at Goree.

Estate Planning Seminar Planned

The Knox County Building Management, from College Station will be conducting the seminar. He will be discussing the importance of estate planning, steps to estate planning and the different ways to handle estates. There also will be a question and answer period.

Estate planning is something that everyone needs to know about. With the way the laws are continually changing it is becoming even more important to do estate planning.

Rural Changes To Be Discussed

Changes facing rural communities, and options for coping with them, will be explained for Haskell County families at the annual meeting Friday, October 4, of the Rolling Plains Economic Program.

The meeting will be in the Wilbarger County Auditorium, 2100 Yamparika Street, in Vernon. Registration will begin at 9:30 a.m. The fee for the daylong conference is $7.50 and includes lunch. Advance registration may be made at the county Extension office.

"Facing Tomorrow" will be explored during the luncheon address by Sister Thomas More Bertels, a Catholic nun from Manitowoc, Wisconsin. Sister Tomas More has earned national respect as a critic of farm issues and spokesperson for farm families.

Participants will be able to select two of three concurrent workshops dealing with bankruptcy courts, oil and gas lease options, and personal health and fitness, said Lou Gilly and Max Stapleton, county Extension agents.

Exhibits at the program will provide blood pressure and blood sugar screening; offer computer analysis of sodium and hidden sugar in the diet, and provide an exercise program; and give county stocker cattle operators an individual computer analysis of their operations. Stocker operators need to bring cost figures for the latter analysis.

The Rolling Plains Economic Program is a regional organization sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, an arm of the Texas A&M University System, to promote economic growth and development in a 30-county area.

NEW SIGN

Workers installed the sign on the Civic Center just in time for Homecoming activities last weekend. The new facility is nearing completion and was used for the business meeting and dance during the seventeenth biennial homecoming of the Haskell and Mattson schools.

Veterans Face New Rules On Reporting Income To VA

According to C.H. Herren, Veterans Service Officer for Haskell County, this year will bring about some changes in the time and manner in which VA pensioners are to report their annual income to the Veterans Administration.

In previous years, all veterans, their widows, and their children, in receipt of disability or death pension benefits, were provided with an income card on November 1. The income report was required to be completed and returned prior to the following January 1 or pension benefits were terminated. Nineteen eighty-five will see some changes in the manner and times for this income reporting.

On October 1, 1985, the VA will send out income report forms to veterans, widows and children in receipt of pension under laws that were in effect prior to January 1, 1979, and to dependent parents of veterans whose deaths were caused by service-connected disabilities. Also included in this first mailing of income reports will be pensioners under the new law that came into effect January 1, 1979, but only those who have foreign mailing addresses.

Beginning on December 1, 1985, and extending through September 1, 1986, the report forms will be mailed to a number of new law pensioners each month. This should drastically reduce the tremendous load of income reports Service Officers have been faced with November 1 for the past several years. When a pensioner receives the report form, he or she should contact the local Veterans Service Officer for assistance in completing it as quickly as possible.

Frierson Grandson Top Rodeo Performer

The grandson of Pete Frierson and the late Jimmie Frierson of Haskell is one of five youngsters who have completed a 10,000-mile American Junior Rodeo Assn. circuit which took them to such places as Del Rio, El Paso and Carlsbad, N.M., in an effort to become ranked among the Top 10 in the AJRA.

Matt Frierson, 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Frierson and a fifth grader at Cecil Everett Elementary School, was recently named top cowgirl in that organization.

breakaway roping, ribbon roping, barrel racing and pole bending. The group began the rodeo season in full force prior to the end of the 1984 school year, and didn't finish until the week of Aug. 11 when they took part in the AJRA National Finals in Snyder.

A granddaughter of Frierson also has won some rodeo honors. Laura Frierson, a member of the Azle High School Rodeo Club, was recently named top cowgirl in that organization.

New Residence Law Needs Clarification

Law enforcement officials of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department said further clarification may be needed for the "county of residence" law for hunting license exemptions which went into effect Sept. 1.

The law, adopted by the Texas Legislature during its last session, requires that hunters possess a valid hunting license to hunt any bird or animal anywhere in the state, including their county of residence. Only persons hunting on land on which they legally reside are exempted, and they must possess a $6 exempt license to hunt deer or turkey.

Officials said the law requires hunters to possess a valid hunting license to hunt any bird or animal, not just those classified as "game" species.

There was no change in other hunting license exemptions, including those for persons under 17 years of age or 65 years old or older, and for certain service-connected disabilities sustained by veterans of the armed forces of the United States, for the 1985-86 seasons.

Round-Up Gets Going

The Cattlemen's Round-Up for Crippled Children went into full swing this weekend with trailers picking up cattle and horses in Corpus Christi, Kingsville, Oklahoma City, Catarina, and San Antonio.

During the next two weeks, cattle and horses will come from the large sprawling ranches to the livestock producer of less than 10 head.

The West Texas Rehabilitation Center, organized in 1953, receives part of its support from the Cattlemen's Round-Up for Crippled Children, now in its 26th year. Jim Alexander, general chairman of the Round-Up, stated this is not only a much needed program for WTRC but is has become a symbolic effort of livestock producers throughout the southwest to let it be known they believe in the free enterprise system.

Alexander said that although proportionately cattle are bringing less money per head than at any time in history he is pleased with the extra effort being made on the part of the livestock producer.

Within the coming week heavy beeves will be picked up from feed lots in the Hereford-Summerfield area as well as cattle off the range from as far north as Clayton, NM and Dalhart, Texas.

Among the featured bulls will be Santa Gertrudis, Charolais, Brangus, Angus, Hereford, Limousin, Simmental, and Longhorn.

Producers and ranchers are pooling their efforts to see that the livestock arrive for the first sale on September 30 at Abilene Auction. Approximately 300 head of cattle are expected to be auctioned at this sale. The horse sale on October 5, also at Abilene Auction, will offer over 100 horses.

Other sales will be the sheep and goat sale in Junction on Oct. 14, and special sales in Coleman and Stephenville, Oct. 9; San Saba, Oct. 17; and Brownwood, Nov. 4.

Proceeds from all sales help support the West Texas Rehabilitation Center with campuses in Abilene and San Angelo and special affiliates in Kermit, Monahans, and Pecos.

The West Texas Rehabilitation center has operated for over 33 years without turning any patient away for financial reasons. This private, non-profit corporation provides rehabilitation in the form of physical therapy, occupational therapy, speech pathology, audiology, educational diagnostic and remedial services, social services, work evaluation, and diagnostic clinics.

County Gets $33,000

State Treasurer Ann Richards has sent checks totalling $7.3 million to Texas' 254 counties for road construction and maintenance.

The Treasurer each year disburses money appropriated by the Legislature for the Lateral Road Program. The grants may be used by counties for the purchase of right-of-way and for construction and maintenance of lateral roads, farm-to-market roads or state highways.

The money is allocated to each county under a formula based on the county's area, rural population and lateral road mileage, Richards said.

Haskell County received $33,036.64.

Was This YOU Last Winter?

Be Ready for Cold Weather This Year with an Electric Heat Pump.

Don't wait for cold weather to set in again to start shopping for a new heating system. Start shopping today, and start with an electric heat pump.

The electric heat pump is the most efficient system for heating and cooling your home. One of the main reasons it is so efficient is because it MOVES heat rather than producing it.

There's heat in the air all the time . . . even in the winter! The electric heat pump pulls heat from the outside air in the winter and pumps it into your home. In the summer, it reverses the process and pulls the heat OUT of your home, so you get even comfort year round.

You'll not only save money in home energy bills with an electric heat pump, but WTU WILL PAY YOU A CASH BONUS FOR INSTALLING ENERGY EFFICIENT EQUIPMENT that meets the E.S.P. requirements in your home.

For more information on the electric heat pump or the Energy Savings Plan, call your local WTU office or any factory-trained electric heat pump dealer today.

Say!

It's that time of the year again! Time to have the furnace serviced for the winter.

Washington Hears Texas Farmers

"Farmers deserve a fair price for their labor," was the rallying cry this week of Texas Farmers Union members joining over 350 farmers, ranchers, workers, rural business people and bankers nationwide in a National Farmers Union all-out lobbying effort on Capitol Hill.

"Once again the voice of the American farmer was heard," said Joe Rankin, president of Texas Farmers Union and leader of the Texas delegation. "Farmers want a farm bill they can live with. Our attempt—and I believe it was successful—was to make the needs of rural America clear before the final version of the 1985 Farm Bill is drafted." Referring to a tentative version of the Farm Bill released by both the Senate and House Agriculture Committees prior to summer recess, Rankin said, "The small family farm owners will not survive a 'free market' philosophy. There are those in the Reagan Administration who claim this type of farm program will halt the solvency crisis besieging rural America. This could not be further from the truth.

"The simple fact is that this philosophy would cause a drastic tumble in prices for farm goods, creating a world price war that farmers—without the financial backing of our government—would surely lose. Small farm operations would be forced out and big corporate style operations would take over.

"We are not independent. Every major exporting nation subsidizes their farmers in some way or another. American agriculture is in a state of emergency. It's time Congress work up to this fact."

Robert Girard, vice-president of Texas Farmers Union and a participating lobbyist in the September 9, 10, and 11 Washington Fly-In said, "Texas Union is endorsing mandatory production controls and farmer held referenda. It's a program designed to limit the surplus of agriculture commodities that the domestic and import markets have thrown out of balance. They're calling this a 'bust the farmers Farm Bill,'" he said, referring to the general consensus of lobbying participants converging on Washington. "Our purpose was to take action in the defense of the family farmer. Following five disastrous years of agriculture, and facing re-election bids in 1986, the House and Senate are giving careful consideration to farm policy decisions."

The group made up of Texas Farmers Union members from Nueces, Haskell, Wilson, Hopkins, Bastrop, Crosby, McLennan, Hansford, Hopkins and Liberty counties concentrated on five points Farmers Union believes vital to preserving the family farm system:

- Non-recourse loan rates and/or target prices which will provide a return equal to at least the cost of production including debt retirement, management costs and return on investment.
- Mandatory supply management programs adopted through producer referendum for all basic commodities.
- Realistic limitations on payments and loans to target those benefits to the family farms.
- Continuation of the farmer-owned reserve.
- Effective soil and water conservation programs.

Lobbying efforts of the group were rewarded in part late Tuesday, September 10, when the House Agriculture Committee approved a farm bill that included several provisions advocated by Farmers Union.

"It's still far from adequate," said Rankin, "but hopefully we now have something to work with."

Rural Ministers Take On New Role

The role of rural ministers is more important today than ever before because so many rural residents are struggling from financial hardships, a state agricultural official said in College Station today (Sept. 9).

Dr. Zerle L. Carpenter, director of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, told some 100 ministers attending the 40th Annual Town and Country Church Conference at Texas A&M University that they can help farmers and ranchers suffering through the current financial crisis that is gripping the agricultural industry.

"A lot of farmers have lost the only way of life they know due to the current economic crunch," Carpenter said. "They are independent and proud and are having a difficult time coping with their situation. This is where you can play an important part."

Carpenter also told the ministers that they can be a solace to those surviving these financial hard times. "Those who survive financially will have to make adjustments as well," he said. "You can help in this transition period, just as our county agents and agricultural and home economics specialists can help people adjust and cope with changing conditions."

"With jointly shared interests and concerns, we can overcome the problems besetting people," Carpenter added. "Let us remember that we are all joining together to assist people—we are partnership to help people grow."

"The Extension Service and ministers have much in common," added Carpenter. "We are educators with a common goal—to make society better."

Carpenter spoke at a luncheon honoring the 1985 Texas Rural Minister of the Year, the Rev. Lloyd Tatlock of Jacksboro.

The annual Town and Country

Conference is conducted by the Extension Service to help rural and small town ministers and church leaders cope with change.

School Newspaper To Be Given Away

By Rebecca Holt

Two dramatic changes have been made in The War Whoop, the Haskell High School newspaper.

First, no subscriptions will be sold and the newspaper will be given free to all students, from elementary through high school.

With an increased circulation of 1,000 the newspaper will be available at Allsup's, Buster's, Free Press, Modern Way and M-System.

The second major change will be in the physical appearance of the newspaper. Not only will the newspaper be larger (tabloid size), but it will be printed on newsprint.

"Publishing on newsprint is less expensive, and therefore we can give it away this year," Tina Lacey, co-editor, said.
