Area meet next stop for FFA

Twenty-seven members of the Haskell FFA will compete Saturday in the area leadership contest in Big Spring.

The Haskell team swept firstplace honors in the Double Mountain District FFA leadership contest in Hamlin last week. A firstand second-place winners in this event qualified for the area contest.

Of 13 teams in the district meet, involving 200 students, the Haskell team registered 17 points for top honors. Anson followed with eight and Roby had six.

In the area contest, seven districts, representing 98 schools, will be competing.

First place winners in the district were:

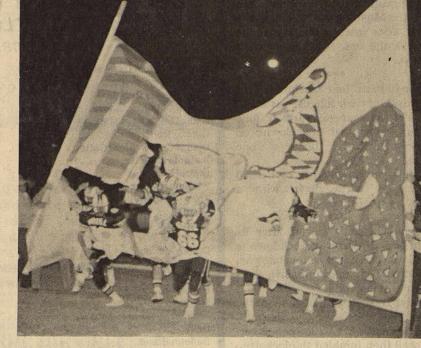

Extemporaneous Speaking: Leiza Morales; Senior Farm Skills-Kirk High, Wayne Geilhausen and Steven Klose; Farm Radio- Matt Lane, Jeff Neal and Jason Whitehead.

Junior Chapter Conducting: April Brandon, Dalyn Gilly, Paul Harvey, Gia Henshaw, Bobby Medford, Eric Mullen and Penny Peden.

Second place teams were: Senior Chapter Conducting: Scott Burris, Doug Davis, Jerry Davis, Mickey Dunnam, Patricia Henry, Andy Griffith, Val King, Julie Roewe, Joey Thomas, John Wilson and Junior Farm Skills-Brad Bevel, Cole Larned and Michael Mendoza. Mark Young took third in extemporaneous speaking and the Quiz Team of Mike Bailey, Alichia Boatman, Derrick Billington and Chan Guess took sixth.

Order deadline

Friday is the last day that Haskell FFA members can accept orders for fruit and turkeys. Orders may be placed by calling 864-3310 or by contacting any FFA member.

FINAL RUN

The Haskell Indians burst onto the field for the last time in 1985 at Colorado City Saturday night just before they locked horns with the Shallowater Mustangs in a first-round playoff game. The Indians lost, 27-7, after going into the fourth quarter with a 7-6 lead over the district 5-AA champs.

City sewage plant rated one of the best

The City of Haskell's sewage treatment plant was cited Friday as one of the state's best for its waste water system.

The Texas Water Commission placed the Haskell facility on its honor roll."

"It stays in good compliance and maintains a good working relationship with the agency," said Bill Colbert of the TWC's hazardous and solid waste section.

City Administrator Robert Baker said the city was recently given permission to discharge 700,000 gallons per day. He said the discharge into the creek is 94 to 97 percent pure water.

Also cited by the commission was West Texas Utilities' Paint Creek plant for being compliant with all regulations during inspections visits and exemplary operation and maintenance of its waste water system.

The Paint Creek plant joined those of Bangs and Pride Refining Co. for "Best" designation. The City of Snyder and the WTU Phantom plant were listed on the "Honor Roll" with Haskell.

By contrast, Brownwood's sewage plant was called one of the worst polluters in Texas.

In a group designed as "Rest of the Worst" were the Western Co. of Snyder and the city plants of Throckmorton, Goree, Seymour and Big Spring.

Big Christmas parade scheduled for Dec. 7

Letters went out last week to former and prospective participants in the annual Christmas Parade, inviting them to participate in this year's event.

The fourth annual Christmas Parade, sponsored by the Haskell Chamber of Commerce, will be Saturday, Dec. 7, beginning at 6 p.m.

The parade, Haskell's largest community event, regularly attracts 7,000 spectators, doubling the size of the community on that evening. It features a cast of 700 who are directly involved in the parade as riders, walkers, float builders and backup personnel.

Theme of the 1985 parade will be "Stories of Christmas." There will be three categories:

•Religious scenes: Seven floats, sponsored by the Haskell Ministerial Alliance, will depict scenes based on the second chapter of Luke. Floats will be made by members of the various churches belonging to the Alliance.

•Stories of peace, hope, unity, family, freedom and love. Floats in this category will be entered by Haskell service clubs.

•Fantasy stories: Local businesses are being asked to enter floats in this category. These floats may feature such fantasy characters as Frosty, Rudolph, Scrooge, etc.

At the end of these floats in the parade will be the Chamber of Commerce float, featuring Santa Claus. It will be followed by the City of Haskell's New Year's float.

Grace Womack is this year's parade marshall. She will be assisted by a number of deputy marshalls which will be assigned to the various units of the parade. Each will be equipped with a walkie-talkie radio connected to a single communication system on the square. Highway patrol, county sheriff and city police personnel will be in charge of traffic control.

Invitations to the parade will have been sent to 27 area mayors and Chamber of Commerce presidents. Also being invited are all high school, college and military bands in the area, in addition to various riding groups and drill teams.

Mayor and Mrs. Abe Turner will host visiting dignitaries at a reception in the Community Room of Haskell National Bank preceding the parade.

Trophies will be awarded to organizations with the best floats in each of the three categories. A panel of approximately 24 out-oftown judges will select the winners. Sandy Horton is coordinator of the judges.

Several local organizations will have concessions stands on the square, offering food and drinks.

Merchants to give tickets for drawings

Haskell merchants participating in the Christmas drawings this year will begin giving tickets to customers next week. Tickets will be issued with purchases at participating stores.

Drawings will be held on three consecutive Saturdays, Dec. 7, Dec. 14, and Dec. 21. Prizes will be in the form of gift certificates redeemable at any participating firm.

Drawings will be at 2 p.m. on those three dates on the south side of the court house.

First prizes on Dec. 7 and Dec. 14 will be for $200 each. A second prize on each of those two dates will be for $100. There will be three drawings on each of those two dates for a $50 prize. Persons must be present to win the full amount. If not present, the winners will be awarded only half of the amount.

Two drawings of $100 each will be on Dec. 21. Again, the winner will receive only half of the prize if he or she is not present.

A jackpot drawing of $500 also will be held on Dec. 21. For this prize, a person must be present to win. The drawing will continue until there is a winner.

The promotion is a project of the Retail Trade Committee of the Haskell Chamber of Commerce to encourage Christmas shopping in Haskell.

Local churches set combined services

The annual community Thanksgiving service of the Haskell Ministerial Alliance will be Sunday evening at the Greater Independent Baptist Church at the corner of North 3rd and Ave. C. It begins at 7 p.m.

The Rev. Jimmy Hopper, copastor of the First Presbyterian Church, will deliver the sermon. Eleven local churches, affiliated with the Ministerial Alliance, are cooperating to bring the service.

Participating churches are the Assembly of God, East Side Baptist, First Baptist, First Christian, First Presbyterian, Foursquare Gospel, Trinity Lutheran, George's Catholic, First Methodist, Greater Independent Baptist and the Church of God. A love offering will be received during the service for the support of the Transient Fund and Crisis Center, projects of the Ministerial Alliance.

The Crisis Center 1s the newest of the projects of the alliance. It was organized to help Haskell residents who find themselves in a temporary crisis, whether it be spiritual, financial, medical or personal.

If a person comes to the Crisis Center seeking financial help, he or she is encouraged to seek help from his or her local church. If not a member of a local church, the person may be helped by the center. but must be willing to seek spiritual help if financial aid is to continue.

Alliance members explain that the rational for this policy is based on Jesus' words in Matthew 6:33: ... seek first His Kingdom and righteousness, and all these things shall be yours as well."

The Ministerial Alliance encourages not only financial support of its activities, but it asks the support in the way of volunteer time in the Crisis Center, prayer for its endeavors and ministries and participation in all it does, a See Page 10

Legal briefing scheduled Dec. 5

A legislative briefing by the Texas Dept. of Human Resources will be held in Haskell Dec. 5.

Purpose of the briefing is to provide information on investigation, case management and treatment involving the Department of Human Services and the prevention of child sexual abuse.

The briefing will be in the jury room on the third floor of the Haskell County Courthouse. It begins at 6:30 p.m. Anyone in Haskell is welcome to attend. Barbara Evans, management services officer for the department, stated that some of the information to be presented will not be appropriate for children.

decorated for Christmas by next Friday, Nov. 29.

The Chamber is sponsoring a contest and will award plaques to the three best window decorations during the Christmas season.

Again this year, all stores will outline their windows with lights and will turn on these lights at 5 p.m. Dec. 7, an hour before the beginning of the annual Christmas parade.

Charles Thornhill is chairman of Chamber's Christmas the promotion program and is responsible for the getting all outside decorations put up downdown.

The Chamber is encouraging residents to decorate their homes. They are being asked to have their lights turned on at least by the night of the parade.

THEY QUIT!

There will be fewer smokers and chewers around Haskell High School-at least on Thursday. Coaches Jim Bob Mickler, Jim Raughton and Harold Hill and Principal Clayton Neal agreed to participate in the Great American Smokeout today (Thursday).

Pecan Show is Tuesday

Entries in the Haskell County Pecan Show must be delivered to the County Agent's office by 5 p.m. Friday.

The third annual show will be Tuesday at the Haskell National Bank Community Room.

There also will be a Pecan Bake Show. Entries in that event must be taken directly to the Community Room between 7:45 and 9:45 a.m. Tuesday.

Pecan show entries will be accepted only from growers in Haskell County. Each entry, consisting of 40 pecans in a ziplock ag, must have been grown in 1985 y the exhibitor.

Pecans will be judged between 9 and 11 a.m. Tuesday. Exhibits will be on public display between 1 and 4 p.m.

Judges will place entires in the correct classes for judging and entries for each class will be judged for size, color, appearance, shell thickness, cracking quality, kernel quality and attractiveness.

Ribbons will be awarded for the first five places in each class, and the grand champion and reserve champion exhibitors will receive. gifts.

The Pecan Bake Show also is restricted to residents of Haskell County (male or female). There will be two divisions, one for adults and the other for youth.

Classes will include pies, cakes, cookies, candies and coated nuts. The food exhibited must have been prepared by the exhibitor but pecans contained in the entries do not have to have been grown by the exhibitor.

Pecans must be included in the recipe contents, and not just for decorations. A written or typed recipe giving exact measurements of all ingredients must accompany each entry.

Judging in the Bake Show will begin at 10 a.m. Blue, red and white ribbons will be awarded and special awards will go to the grand champion and reserve champion exhibitors.

Haskell had not seen a passer as effective as Shallowater's Davey Rhodes. He completed 17 of 25 for 208 yards and two touchdowns.

On the Mustangs' first four plays in the second half, he threw four completions to four different receivers. That gave him a streak of seven since he had connected on his last three attempts of the first half.

He was sacked once, for 4 yards, by Ponciano Lopez, with help from Sam Baker.

After Haskell recovered a fumble in the end zone to put down a Shallowater threat at the 6:17 mark of the first quarter, the scoreboard clock would not stop. The official time was kept on the field for the rest of the period. The clock was fixed by the time the second period started.

Few will deny that the better team won, but many Haskell fans will always wonder if things would have turned out differntly if an Indian touchdown had not been called back.

With the ball on the Haskell 36 and 6:24 to go, Felipe Arredondo pitched out to Stephon Brockington who threw a perfect strike to Joel Torres. Torres had streaked past

Two fine runs which do not show up in the statistical report of the game were turned in by Brockington and Mark Young. Brockington returned Shallowater's final kickoff 55 yards, from his own 13 to the Mustang 32. Young ran 31 yards after intercepting a Rhodes pass in the end zone in the first period.

The Indians' lone touchdown was the result of their longest sustained drive of the year-80 yards in nine plays. It included first downs on three consecutive plays at one point.

The 3-yard touchdown by Larned came on fourth down with a half-foot to go for a first.

From Haskell's kickoff after its third period go-ahead touchdown to Shallowater's next two touchdowns, the Mustangs ran 21 offensive plays to the Indians' one.

After Haskell went ahead 7-6, the Mustangs marched 57 yards in 10 plays to make it 12-7 in their favor. Haskell then fumbled the kickoff to the Mustangs who ran two plays

'Most Wanted' list adds new suspect

John Deere heavy equipment dealers in North Texas and Southern Oklahoma can breathe a little easier now that a theft ring that had been victimizing them is out of business.

Well, maybe they ca completely relax yet.

That's because the man described by investigators as the "mastermind" of the ring is still at large.

James Edward Jordan, 42, is wanted on warrants charging him with organized criminal activity and theft.

Texas Ranger Phil Ryan, who has been tracking Jordan for most of the past year, says the theft ring was extensive.

Almost $1 million worth of heavy equipment has been recovered to this point, Ryan said, with a large amount of property still being sought.

A Wise County Grand Jury indicted seven people in connection with the theft ring. Six of the seven have been apprehended. Only Jordan remains at large.

Ryan said Jordan "thinks he's a master crook."

He said the ring would break into a heavy equipment dealership at night. With one of the offenders equipped with a walkie-talkie remaining outside as a lookout, the other offenders would steal heavy equipment, farm tractors, riding mowers, pickups and even tractor trailers.

One John Deere dealer in Rome, Texas, was particularly victimized.

The ring stole the same truck and trailer three different times and used it to transport other stolen equipment. Then they dumped the stolen truck and trailer in a deserted area to be recovered by police.

On more than on occasion, suspicious law enforcement officers would follow the theft ring as it travelled through their area. However each time Jordan, who was in a separate vehicle, would begin driving erratically to draw attention to himself, thus allowing the second vehicle with the stolen property to continue unscathed.

Jordan is described as a white male, 5-7, 135 pounds, with brown hair and hazel eyes. Investigators say he walks with a limp and has to use a cane.

This week Jordan has been added to the Texas Most Wanted list. A reward of up to $1,000 is being offered by the Governor's Office

Clyde Hendricks

Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. today (Thursday) for Clyde Hendricks.

Hendricks, 67, a retired farmer, died Monday in Hendrick Medical Center in Abilene.

Services will be at Hopewell Baptist Church with the Rev. Uriah Hill, pastor, officiating. Burial will be in Willow Cemetery, under direction of Holden-McCauley Funeral Home.

Born in Tennessee Sept. 8, 1918, Hendricks had been a resident of Haskell since 1942. He was a member of Hopewell Baptist Church. He was married to Bobbie Brockington in Haskell on Jan. 2, 1965.

Survivors include his wife; a son, Charles Hendricks of Denver; a daughter, Wanda Jean Johnson of Denver; his mother, Alberta Bells of Paris, Texas; two brothers, James Hendricks Jr. of Paris and Roy Payton of O'Neal, Ark.; a sister, Johnnie Lee of Paris; three step-sons, Jimmie Lee Hammon and Carl Dean Thomas, both of Haskell, and Lawrence Thomas of Houston; a step-daughter, Betty Jean Tate of Abilene, and four grandchildren.

Grace West

Services for Grace Cross West, 78, of Lubbock were Friday morning at the First United Methodist Church in Lubbock. The Rev. James Price, associate minister, officiated.

Burial was in Resthaven Memorial Park under direction of Sanders Funeral Home. Mrs. West died Wednesday, Nov. 13, at her residence. She was born in Palo Pinto and moved to Rule in 1908. She taught school at Jud and at Northwest Ward School in Lubbock from 1926 to 1929. She married Sam F. West, a major league baseball player, in 1930. They lived in Lubbock during the off-season and moved there permanently in 1942.

She was a member of the Junior 20th Century Club and the Junior League of Lubbock. She participated in the women's division of the Chamber of Commerce and the American Red Cross.

Mrs. West was the daughter of pioneer Haskell County residents, Robert W. and Minnie Ola (Beaty) Cross.

Survivors include her husband; a sister, Kate Johnson of Albuquerque, and several nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents and three brothers, Henry, Jim and "Dutch," all of Rule.

Carlton C. Wyche

Funeral services were held Nov. 12 in Restland Memorial Chapel in Dallas for Carlton C. Wyche.

The Rev. James Garrett and the Rev. Raymond Womack officiated. Burial was in Restland Park. Wyche died Nov. 10.

Pallbearers were his nephews, Frank Kuenstler, Clifford Hammond, Bill Buchanana, Richard Bischofhausen Jr., David Bischofhausen and Carter McKinzie.

Wyche was born in Haskell June 21, 1907 and grew up here. He graduated from high school in Haskell and attended Texas Tech University. He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. H.C. Wyche.

He was associated with Wyche and Company Wholesale Building Materials, owned by the late Mitchell Wyche, until his retirement.

He was married in June 1929 to Maudie Hall.

He is survived by his wife; a son Robert of San Francisco; two sisters, Mrs. Slydell Henson of Phoenix and Mrs. Mary Bischofhausen of Haskell, and four grandchildren.

Day to go smokeless

So, you think that because you don't smoke tobacco that the American Cancer Society's Great American Smokeout today (Nov. 21) isn't for you? Well, according to the American Cancer society, the Smoke-out is for all tobacco users, and that includes you "smokeless" users who dip or chew. November 21 can be a day to kick every tobacco habit for 24 hours.

In recent years, the use of smokeless tobacco has risen dramatically in this country. Once restricted to a relatively small percentage of the U.S. population, smokeless tobacco is now used by about 22 million Americans, estimates the National Centers for Disease Control in Altanta. Promotion of smokeless tobacco is also on the increase. Ads for chewing and dipping smokeless tobacco products are on television and in magazines and feature popular sports figures. Athletic events are sponsored by tobacco companies to promote their smokeless products. Free samples of snuff and chewing tobacco are distributed by attractive young people to help potential users get started. In 1983, average retail sales were $500 million.

The implication of these promotions is that smokeless tobacco is harmless. But who needs discolored teeth, bad breath and decreased senses of smell and taste? And more importantly, says the society, like other tobacco products, smokeless tobacco is habit-forming and hazardous to your health.

Smokeless products do not carry the warnings on packages and ads that cigarettes do. Earlier this year, the Federal Trade Commission asked the U.S. Surgeon General to do a full-scale review of the possible health effects of each of the smokeless tobacco products. In at least three states-Massachusetts, New York and Utah-laws requiring health warning labels on smokeless tobacco products are being considered.

If you are a smoker or a dipper the Smokeout is for you. The American Cancer society wants you to be aware of the dangers of smokeless tobacco, and by joining fellow tobacco users during the Great American Smokeout, perhaps find it easier and more fun to give up a bad habit. Smokeout's Adopt-a-Smoker program can include dippers and chewers, too. Thee's lots more for quitters on Smokeout Day, Nov. 21st.

Scouts and God

Editor: Please run this letter which was in the Abilene Reporter-News, written by Don Knecht, scout executive of the Chisholm Trail Council.

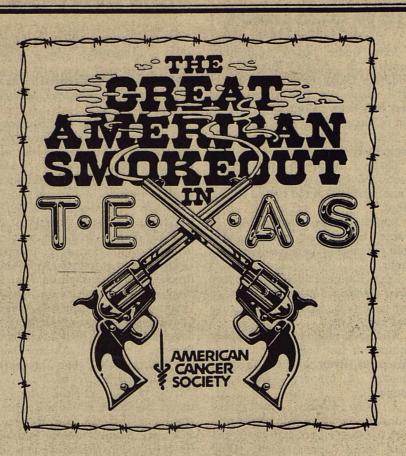

I have had a lot of questions about this and would like everyone to know the Boy Scout policy has not changed. 1

> Bill Perry Cubmaster Pack 136

There has been absolutely no change in the policy or attitude of the Boy Scouts of America, either locally or nationally, in regard to "Duty to God." The scout oath still states "On my honor I will do my best to do my duty to God and my Country, and to obey the Scout Law-." A part of the scout law is still "A Scout is Reverent."

and law. A representative of the National Boy Scouts of America made a thorough investigation of the situation which involved discussion with the boy, the family and local scouters. The conclusion reached was that the boy does indeed subscribe to the scout oath and law and should remain in scouting.

Since I did not talk to this individual boy and his family I cannot answer the question of whether his beliefs were originally misunderstood or have since changed. More important than this is the fact that the policies of the Boy Scouts of America have not changed. And isn't it great that so many people are concerned about what an individual boy in Virginia believes about God? I pray that we will all show this same interest in the boys who live in our own families, neighborhoods and communities.

Mayor's proclamation

Whereas, the Great American Smokeout is a lighthearted effort to encourage cigarette smokers to give up their habit for 24 hours on Thursday, November 21, and

Whereas, many smokers have indicated a willingness to participate in this event, and

Whereas, the health benefits of not smoking are substantiated and wellknown, and

Whereas, there are additional civic benefits such as a reduction of the risks of accidental fire,

Now, therefore, I Abe Turner, Mayor of Haskell, do hereby proclaim Thursday, November 21, 1985 as the day of the Great American Smokeout in Haskell, and in so doing urge all cigarette smokers in the community to demonstrate to themselves and their friends that they can quit if they wish.

"I believe in standing up and fighting for what I believe in," says the politician.

That's the kind of statement that Gaines Kincaid of the Fort Stockton Pioneer calls a TWOT. That's an "Time-Wasting acronym for Obvious Truth."

Definition: A claim, declaration, statement or comment that is totally needless because the opposite idea would be manifestly absurd.

"America must be strong," says another politician.

Can you imagine anyone proclaiming: "What we need is a weak nation."

"Honesty is the best policy." "We need a leader who is courageous." "We need someone who will take the bull by the horns and get the job done.'

Needless all, because the opposite ideas would be mainfestly absurd.

And the list goes on:

"We must take care of our senior citizens who helped make this country great."

The opposite would go something like this:

"Let's let our old people starve or freeze. They sure made a mess of this country."

Politicians are not alone in the use of TWOTs. Parents who tell Junior to be a good boy while they are away from home would never think of expressing the manifestly absurd: "Here's a box of matches. Burn down the house as soon as we leave.

A sportscaster says, "The Cowboys are behind by six points. They'd like another touchdown."

A preacher would never tell his listeners that the Lord loves a little hanky-panky, so why would he shout from the pulpit: "I tell you, Brothers and Sisters, adultery is a sin!"

There's nothing wrong with TWOTs. They just leave empty messages.

So next time you feel like you need to say something, but don't know what, just climb upon the nearest soapbox and yell to one and

"I'm against crime, juvenile delinquency, drugs and higher taxes!"

Secret Service protection only came to $10.5 million. That's $1.2 million less than three years ago. primarily because Bess Truman died and Amy Carter turned 16. Ford spent $21,075 for travel and spent more than $9,000 on postage.

Nixon spent $11,470. Carter apparently didn't stray too far from Plains, Ga., as his travel bill came to only $1,187.

Each former president receives $82,438 in pension, plus $100,000 plus for staff expenses. Lady Bird Johnson gets a $20,000 pension.

Presidential libraries, for the living and the dead, cost us a whopping $14 million. And we only have three-Truman, Eisenhower and Johnson. There's been talk of libraries for Nixon and Ford and I'm sure someone will come up with the idea of a Carter library one of these days. If they ever build one for Nixon, look out. Any future president will automatically qualify.

Four named 'Outstanding Young Men'

Four young men from Haskell have named "Outstanding Young Men of America" and will be featured in the prestigious annual publication of the national organization.

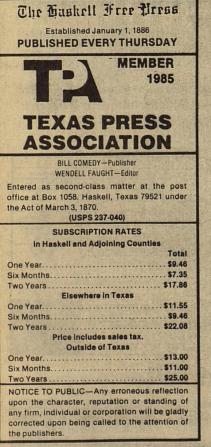

Included are Brian Robert Burgess, David Wayne Brown, Jim H. Crain and James Edward Harris.

The Outstanding Young Men of America program recognizes the achievements and abilities of men between the ages of 21 and 36. They are honored for their outstanding civic and professional contribution to their communities, their states and their nation.

"Our Board of Advisors and editors salute these men," said Doug Blankenship, board chairman and past president of the U.S. Jaycees. "We take great pride in bringing their accomplishments to the attention of the American public."

Nothing has changed.

Many people were confused by stories about a scout in Virginia who was first denied a rank advancement because he could not support his part of the scout oath

Likes the old

Editor: I would like to say I enjoy the Haskell Free Press very much. But, I miss the "old, out-of-date" heading on the paper. It may not be what modern, up-to-date papers use, but it did depict the industry and interest of the circulation area. I believed it distinguished the Free Press from other papers.

In a time where radio, T.V. and space satellites gather the news minute by minute, a weekly paper is hardly "news" so if it does not depict and express the interests of the people in the area, it defeats its own purpose.

Jill Jennings of Haskell will be among more than 1,600 4-H'ers from every state, the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico who will gather for the 64th National 4-H Congress Nov. 30-Dec. 5 at the Chicago Hilton.

Miss Jennings will be one of about 50 Texans in attendance.

With the theme, "4-H for Youth for America," the week-long educational program focuses on the basic concept of 4-H—to help youth acquire knowledge and develop life skills that will enable them to become productive citizens and leaders, said Lou Gilly and Max Stapleton, county agents with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Congress delegates are selected by the Extension Service based on outstanding achievement in 4-H projects. Miss Jennings received an all-expense paid trip to Congress as a result of submitting a statewinning record book in foods and nutrition.

The week-long Congress will feature a number of workshops and educational field trips as well as recognition breakfasts, luncheons and banquets. Highlights will include the National 4-H Fashion Revue and an address by Rafer Johnson, decathlon winner of the 1960 Olympics in Rome.

During the week, 287 scholar-ships valued at $287,000 will be awarded in some 40 program areas.

Rice Springs Care Center News

This week's residents' social column of human interest would like to highlight our new activity director.

Our new director is not new to Rice Springs. She has been a caring employee and friend for many years. Judy Wolsch began working in the activity department this fall and is doing a super job. If you have not met her, please feel free to stop by and get acquainted with Judy.

As a result of Judy being with us, we have varied activities, exercises, thoughtful discussions and reality orientation for our residents. Many new colorful seasonal decorations adorn the home also.

The residents are in anticipation of a favorite family-oriented holiday for all of us, the good ole Turkey three-liter pop bottles, scraps of trim, lace, buttons, felt, etc. We invite you to get involved with us. It may prove to be one of the most rewarding experiences of your life.

As we prepare to serve our residents a delicious meal of turkey, dressing and all the trimmings, topped off with scrumptious pie, we sincerely hope you and yours will have a good family-together Thanksgiving.

Sports

Basketball season opens this week

Coach Jim Raughton's fourth edition of the Haskell Indians' basketball team opened its season Tuesday night, playing host to Roby. The Haskell girls' team, coached by George Martin, also opened its season against Roby as did the junior varsities of both the girls' and boys' teams.

On Friday night the boys' teams will travel to Breckenridge for their second games. Girls' teams will play here against Coleman. No games are scheduled for next week. The Indian varsity returns only two lettermen from last year's outfit which posted a brilliant 25-2 record. Sammy Baker and Tim Johnson, both seniors, are the only returning monogram winners.

Raughton expects a competitive team this season despite the lack of experienced players. By the time district play comes around Jan. 3, he expects his charges to be ready to compete for a fourth consecutive district championship.

Several members of the Indian football team joined the team Monday, but the coach says it will be a while before their impact will be felt.

Haskell has posted records of 24-8, 26-5 and 25-2 in Raughton's three years as coach.

Girls' team Coach George Martin looks forward to a winning season. Last year's team won 17 and lost 9.

PICKS UP YARDAGE

quarter at Colorado City Friday night for the Cinderella Haskell Indians.

Shallowater's Mustangs scored 21 unanswered fourth-quarter points as they came from behind to hand the Indians a 27-7 defeat.

Haskell had entered the fourth period nursing a 7-6 lead, but it was not nearly enough to offset five Indian turnovers during the final 12 minutes.

But until the fatal fourth-period collapse, the Indians had fought toe-to-toe with the highly favored champions of district 5-AA.

Twice in the first period, Haskell had turned back Shallowater at the goal line and once the Indians had thwarted a Mustang drive at the 20.

Shallowater got the game's first touchdown with a minute to go in the half when a pass interception gave the Mustangs possession at the Haskell 33. It took Quarterback Davey Rhodes just two plays to move his team in for the score. He passed 17 yards to Tim Lennon and then hit Greg Roberts for 16 yards and a touchdown. A failed extra point left the score at 6-0.

Haskell answered with an 80yard drive in the third quarter. The nine-play drive featured a 41-yard jaunt and a 13-yard gainer by Kendall Larned. Larned scored the touchdown from 3 yards out and Joel Torres' kick staked the Indians to a 7-6 lead.

The lights went out in the fourth Shallowater returned the kickoff to its own 43 and then set out on a 10-play 57-yard march, climaxed in the opening minute of the fourth quarter by Rhodes' 2-yard keeper for a touchdown. A running play for a two-point conversion was foiled, but the Mustangs were on top 12-7.

Haskell fumbled the ensuing kickoff to the Mustangs at its own 36. But Shallowater fumbled the ball back to the Indians, who gave it right back to the Mustangs on another fumble. Shallowater then went 31 yards in nine plays for the score, Lennon getting the touch-down on a 6-yard pass from Rhodes. The Mustangs made it 20-7 with a two-point conversion on a pass from Scott Chamberlain to Lennon.

Haskell countered with the game's most spectacular play, but it went for naught when the Indians were whistled down for illegal procedure. Stephon Brockington took a pitchout from Quarterback Felipe Arredondo and passed down field to Torres who had a streaked behind his defender. Torres raced in for an apparent 64-yard touchdown.

Three plays later, the Mustangs intercepted another Indian pass at the Haskell 40. Shallowater marched in for its third fourthquarter touchdown to take a commanding 27-7 lead. The score came on a 4-yard pass from Rhodes to James Pair, the Mustangs' third The lead was short-lived. touchdown pass of the game.

The Weinert Bulldogs raised their season record to 8-1 by winning their zone playoff game over the Ira Bulldogs by a score of 50-0 in a game that was called with 8:06 left in the third quarter.

Weinert got on the scoreboard when Louis Perez ran 6 yards with 6:17 left in the first quarter. Kevin White kicked the point after.

Shannon Forehand had part in Weinert's next five scores. He ran 22 yards for a touchdown and threw scoring passes for 24 and 32 yards to Louis Perez and 22 and 32 yards to Ricky Perez. White was successful on three out of the five PATs. This ended the first half with Weinert leading 44-0.

Weinert came out after halftime and with 8:06 remaining in the third quarter, Edward Perez ran up the middle for a 34-yard touchdown. The game was then called by the 45-point rule, which gave Weinert its 50-0 victory.

Forehand had 113 yards passing and 88 yards rushing. Louis Perez had 54 yards on 9 carries and Edward Perez had 35 yards rushing. White kicked four extra points.

Steve Benson was Ira's leading rusher with 35 yards on 9 carries. Weinert will play Tornillo Friday at 7:30 p.m. in Imperial in a bi-district contest.

Selling Haskell Co. for over 25 years

THE $64,000 QUESTION - ANSWERED!

In last week's column you were challenged to make a choice between two equally priced, identical homes. One was described as being nearly the largest and also one of the most expensive homes in "Thousand Oaks". The second, in "Waverly Hills", was described as one of the smaller homes in the area, priced at the bottom of the range for that area.

You were asked to decide which you would purchase, assuming that features and price were identical.

Here's the story (and possibly the correct answer): In "Thousand Oaks" the $64,000 home with 2,000 square feet and the features mentioned last week becomes what is commonly known as "a big fish in a little pond". It is the largest and is priced at the top for "Thousand Oaks". Experience shows that the value of the home will be held down by the smaller, less expensive homes since it will appear overpriced.

In "Waverly Hills" that same $64,000 home with 2,000 square feet becomes the "little fish in a big pond". It is one of the smallest, lowest priced homes there. Thus, its market value will usually be pulled upwards by the higher priced homes surrounding it. A "rule of thumb" often used by buyers is: "No matter what price or size home you buy-make sure it is the smallest and lowest priced home in the neighborhood. *******

Rochester. She is the great-granddaughter of Mrs. Maude Rhodes of Haskell and Mrs. Jim Tibbets of Rochester. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Adron Tekell of Bynum and the grandson of Mrs. Florence Patterson and Mr. and Mrs. N.C.

Tekell, both of Hillsboro. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a designer original white silk taffeta gown. The basque bodice featured jeweled Alencon lace, a high Victorian neck, sheer yoke and Juliet sleeves. A silk taffeta "A" line skirt, lace hemline with pick up front skirt and a full attached chapel train. She wore a lace bridal hat accented with white wedding roses and satin bows with Engligh illusion. She carried a cascade bridal bouquet of dusty pink roses and baby's breath trimmed with white lace.

The bride carried a penny in her shoe for good luck; for something old, she carried a handkerchief, which belonged to her great grandmother Maude Rhodes; for somthing new, her wedding gown; something borrowed, pearl earrings from her matron of honor and something blue was her garter.

Maid of honor was Brandy Strickland, sister of the bride, of Rochester; matron of honor was Jana Finch of Hillsboro.

Bridesmaids were Julie Williams of Ft. Worth and Susie Sulak of Hillsboro.

The bridal attendents wore matching floor length "A" line fantasia suede rose gowns fashioned with a Victorian high ruffle neck, sheer yoke, long sleeves, satin ribbon defining a natural waist and a pick up hemline. They each carried nosegays of dusty pink and burgundy, carnations, baby's breath, and were trimmed in white lace and burgundy ribbon.

The groom wore a gray tuxedo with tails, and a white pleated front shirt. His boutonniere was a dusty pink rose surrounded by baby's breath.

The best man was Jimmy Lehmann of Brandon.

The groomsmen were Ronny Finch of Hillsboro, Jeff Arnold of Ennis, and Tim Tekell of Itasca, cousin of the groom. They wore gray tuxedos with white pleated front shirts, dusty rose ties and cummerbund. Each wore boutonnieres of dusty pink carnations surrounded by baby's breath.

Ushers were Darren Denger, Brent Mathis, brother of the bride; Todd Williams all of Hillsboro, and Richard Wilson of Stephenville.

Regestering the guests in the foyer of the church was Marva Brid of Haskell. Handing out scrolls was James Loyd Strickland, brother of the bride.

Nuptial music was presented by Sandra Brackin of Itasca, cousin of the groom. Vocalist was Janice Loveless of Hillsboro who sang, "To Me", "You Are My Only Love", and "The Wedding Song". She was accompanied by Chuck Dye of Plano at the piano.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church social hall. Decorations carried out the bride's colors of dusty pink and burgundy. The bride's table was draped with a white satin cloth accented with white bows at the center and corners. It held the wedding cake containing a fountain encircled by a heart shaped filigree frame. The cake tiers were decorated with dusty pink and burgundy wedding roses which draped all three tiers. The top layer contained a white wedding bell. A Precious Monents porcelain bisque bride and groom figurine was placed within the upper pillars.

The groom's table was draped with an off-white satin cloth accented with center and corner bows. It featured a chocolate sheeth cake topped with two heart shaped cakes decorated to match the bride's cake, containing the names of the bride and groom.

Members of the houseparty were Jan Bennett and Lea Ann Harvey at the bride's table; Kathi Tekell and Shannon Heart at the groom's table.

Following a wedding trip, the couple will live in Waco.

Jill Jennings qualifies for state contest

Haskell's Jill Jennings is one of four Rolling Plains District 4-H members who has qualified for the State Food Show next year.

Her entry in fruits and vegetables at the Nov. 9 district Food Show in Wichita Falls earned her that right. New ways to prepare and serve some old favorites joined traditional recipes as 211 boys and girls from 21 counties exhibited their nutritional knowledge and cooking skills at the Wichita Falls show. The four winners in the senior division, including Miss Jennings, will advance to state competition.

Winners and alternates were chosen for two other divisions, intermediate and junior.

Joni Penman was a winner in the junior division. Jennifer Shaver was an alternate in the intermediate division and Kim Gilly an alternate in the junior classification.

Other Haskell County 4-H members entered in the district show were Tamra Burnett, Traci Landes, Janet Quade, Jana Saffel and Emily SoRelle. All were awarded blue ribbons.

All contestants had earned championships in their county to advance to the district meet, which was viewed by thousands of shoppers during the daylong competition.

Dishes were judged by panels of professional home economists and homemakers. Contestants were quizzed on nutritional values, preparation methods and costs of preparation.

This show is one aspect of the year-round foods and nutrition project in 4-H, explained Elaine Houston, district director with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

in regular session Nov. 14, in the Community Room and during the business session voted to donate $1,000 to the Haskell Memorial Civic Center.

This was made possible by the good response of the community to the club's recent chicken tetrazzini supper in the high school cafeteria. The treasurer, Arnolia Foote, reported that 446 tickets were sold. Mr. Bittner of Modern Way was commended for his donation of spaghetti. There were several donations by individuals.

Thelma Thomas, corresponding secretary, read a letter of request from Cathy Jones to assist Haskell Cub Scouts with camping equipment since they have only borrowed supplies. The request was tabled until more definite information is available.

Lois Richardson volunteered to serve as leader to prepare the float for the Christmas Parade Dec. 7. The theme will be "Stories of Freedom". The work will take place in the Richardson barn. All members are to contact Lois immediately and help complete the project soon.

The Dec. 5 meeting will feature Holiday Bingo with Nancy Toliver as captain. Prizes will be donated to Girlstown and Haskell Elementary School Library. Members will exchange inexpensive ($3-5) gifts. Judy Patton, Trail Boss for the Texas Heritage program, Jan. 9, 1986, divided the members into four teams to compete in a Texas Chili cook-off. Each team will elect a chairperson and have a separate table to display its name, theme, recipe and chili, 20-30 servings, which will be judged on flavor and appearance, and the team on originality. Two awards, Terlingua and Lone Star, will be presented to winners. The social committee will

The Progressive Study Club met be responsible for serving. The supper will be at 7 instead of 7:30, the regular meeting time.

The roll call and reading of the minutes preceded the American Heritage program under the direction of Peggy Hairgrove, Home Life chairperson. The Pledge of Allegiance and "The Star-Spangled Banner" introduced the program. Mr. George Butler, an ordained Methodist minister and licensed counselor of the Pastoral, Care, and Counseling Center, Abilene, which serves the Big Country area, was guest speaker. As a counselor he ministers to the whole person, emotionally and physically, and helps a person handle anxiety, tension, grief, frustration, pain, and joy and develop a sense of well-being

Grandparents and the stepfamily relations were emphasized because there are so many step-families today, and the percentage will be much greater in the 21st century. Mr. Butler told how to build walls and bridges in step-families and how to love spiritually, empowered by agape, one who is not liked.

Mary Martin, Oleta Cornelius, Mattie Felker, Anita Herren and Janet Strickland, hostesses, served pumpkin pie, nuts, hot tea and coffee to 20 members and one guest.

Cotton program status explained

1985 Farm Bill becomes law, Glenn percent of parity. If quotas are executive director, ASCS, said this week.

In compliance with permanent according to Brzozowski. farm legislation, the U.S. Dept. of Agriculture has proclaimed an acreage allotment of 16 million acres and a marketing quota of 17,133 million bales for the 1986 upland cotton crop, Brzozowski requirements to vote in the said.

Marketing quotas are used to allocate the market among farmers growning upland cotton when an excess crop is expected. "Unless new farm legislation prevents it, marketing quotas will be required if approved by at least two-thirds of the producers voting in a December referendum," said Brzozowski.

If marketing quotas are

Goal approached

The Fort Worth Museum of Science and History's campaign to raise $150,000 through its Museum Associates Program had reached the three-quarter mark as of Nov. 8.

Authority for next year's upland approved, the 1986 upland cotton cotton program reverts to statutory program will include mandatory, provisions of the Agricultural acreage controls and price support Adjustment Act of 1938 until the for cooperators as a level of 65 to 90 R. Brzozowski, Haskell County disapproved, price support for executive director, ASCS, said this cooperators will be established at 50 percent of the parity price,

"Farmers and other interested persons are invited to submit comments on a date for holding the referendum, the method of eligibility and balloting, referendum," Brozozowski said. Written remarks should also contain recommendations for the level of price support which will be in effect if the referendum passes, the percentage of State and County acreage allotment reserves, and a statement on whether price supports should be extended to noncooperators if the referendum fails.

The ASCS official said public comments must be received in Washington on or before Nov. 15 to be considered. Comments on the 1986 Upland cotton program should be mailed to the Director, Commodity nalysis Division, Room P.O. Box 2415, 3741-S, Washington, D.C 20013.

Here are Pecan Show rules

HASKELL, TEXAS 79521, NOVEMBER 21, 1985

THE HASKELL FREE PRESS

Here are the rules governing the Show and Pecan Bake Show which will be held Tuesday in the Community Room of Haskell National Bank.

PECAN SHOW Entries accepted from pecan growers in Haskell County only.

Credit act gives rights to consumers

A poor credit report can make it difficult for you to buy a house or car, or get certain jobs. Yet, until recently consumers had little protection against credit reports containing erroneous, incomplete or dated information.

'The Federal Trade Commission's Fair Credit Reporting Act now gives consumers some rights that can help them clear a poor credit report," says Nancy L. Granovsky, a family economics specialist with the Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service.

For example, if you have been denied credit or employment because of information in a credit report, you have the right to be told the name and address of the reporting agency, she explains.

Then that agency must tell you the nature, content, and source of all the information in your credit file, except medical information.

The agency must also reveal who has received a consumer report on you within the last six months, or the last two years if the report was for employment purposes, advises Granovsky.

All pecans entered in the show third annual Haskell County Pecan must have been grown in 1985 by the exhibitors. Pecans will be returned to the exhibitor.

Each entry must consist of 40 pecans, brought in a plastic ziplock bag. Paper plates will be furnished for the exhibit.

All entries of nuts must be entered and delivered to the County Agent office by 5 p.m. Friday, Nov. 22. Entries must be indentified by grower's name, address, and pecan variety (if known).

Growers are limited to one entry of each variety per family. (Example: John Smith can enter only one entry of each variety such as Burkett, Mahan, Stuart, etc.)

There is no limit on number of entries of seedling or native pecans. (40 nuts from each tree).

Pecans must be left on display until 4 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 26. Open house will be from 1 to 4 p.m. Nov. 26 for the public. You can pick up your pecans between 4 and 5 p.m. Nov. 26.

Classification committee or official judges will place entries in correct classes for judging. Judging of varieties will be from 9 to 11 a.m. Tuesday, Nov. 26.

Classes will be judged on size, color, appearance, shell thickness, cracking quality, kernel quality and attractiveness.

Ribbons will be awarded 1-5 places in each class. A class with less than five entries will be given awards based on judges' decision. The Grand Champion pecan exhibitor will receive a special gift;

reserve champion will also receive a gift.

BAKE SHOW

Entries will be accepted from any male or female resident of Haskell County.

There will be two age divisions in the Bake Show: Adult and Youth. The youth division will include all unmarried youth through age 19. Food Division classes: I. Pies, II. Cakes (with or without icing. Mixes may be used as an ingredient in a recipe; but no mixes may be used by themselves.); III. Cookies, IV. Candies, V. Coated Nuts.

The food exhibited must have been prepared by the exhibitor.

It is requested that all pie entries be exhibited in a disposable pie plate. Pies must be covered with transparent plastic wrap. All cake, cookie, candy and coated nut entries must be exhibited on a paper plate or other disposable container and covered with transparent plastic wrap. Each container of cookies and candies must contain 11/2 dozen pieces. Each container of coated nuts must contain two cups of nuts. Exhibitors must have food entries already covered prior to registration.

Pecans for food exhibit do not have to be grown by exhibitor. Pecans must be included in the recipe contents and not used just for decoration.

A recipe, handwritten or typed, on a standard sheet of paper must accompany the food exhibit. The recipe must give exact measurements. The exhibitor's name, address, phone number and age division (adult or youth) must be on the back of the recipe. Recipes will not be returned to exhibitor.

Food exhibits may be entered between 7:45 a.m. and 9:45 a.m. Tuesday, Nov. 26 at the Haskell National Bank Community Room. Judging will be done between 10 a.m. and noon on Tuesday, Nov. 26.

Either a blue, red or white award ribbon will be awarded to each entry. Rosettes will be awarded for the grand champion and reserve grand champion in each age food division.

Adams Extract assorted gift packs of flavoring will be awarded to the grand champion exhibitor in each age food division. A large bottle of Adams Extract vanilla will be awarded to the reserve grand champion in each age food division.

An overall adult and youth winner will be picked from all food entries. Each of these winners will receive a special award.

Exhibits will be open to the public from 1 to 4 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 26.

Food judged may be donated to the Pecan Show for a silent auction. All proceeds from the silent auction will be used for next year's pecan bake show. If the owner does not choose to donate the baked item to the silent auction, it must be picked up between 4 and 5 p.m. Nov. 26. Neither the Haskell County Extension office nor the Pecan Show Committee will be held responsible for food left after 5 p.m. Nov. 26.

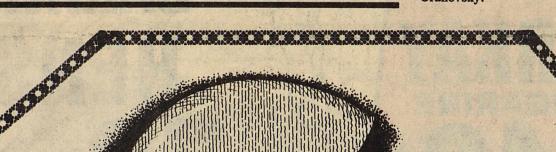

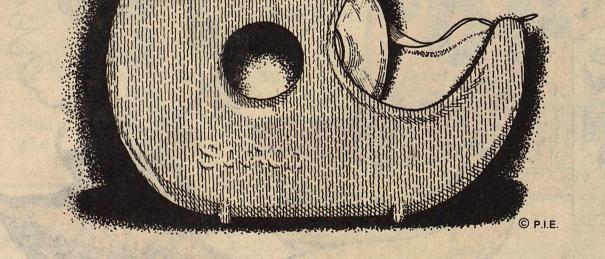

Rule man delegate to Cotton Council

Noris Anders of Rule is one of 44 Texas cotton industry leaders who have been named delegates to the National Cotton Council. They will adopt recommendations defining Council policies and programs at the industrywide organization's 48th annual meeting Jan. 26-28 in Orlando, Fla.

The Council, composed of 295 delegates from all branches of the cotton industry in the 18 cotton-producing states, serves as a forum for developing and carrying out industry policy on a national basis.

Alternate delegates include Eugene Olson and W. B. Harrison III of Stamford.

Increase Your Energy Savings By Following These Conservative Tips:

SET THERMOSTAT AT 68°

Set your thermostat at 68 degrees or lower. Turn it down at night and use an electric blanket. Turn it down even lower when 60 70 80 90 you leave home for an extended period of time.

Every degree you lower your thermostat will help to increase your energy savings.

KEEP DAMPER CLOSED

Tightly close the damper in your fireplace when you're not using it. The same draft that is needed to help make a fire burn could circulate through your fireplace and pull warm air out of your home.

OPEN DRAPES & BLINDS Keep drapes and blinds open during the day so the sun's energy can help warm your home. Be sure to close them on cloudy days and at night so they can help insulate your home against the cold.

CHANGE FILTER REGULARLY

heating unit regularly.

Cleaning or replacing a dirty filter will often make a difference in your system's performance. Also, make sure air vents aren't blocked by furniture or drapes.

Pride.

A tradition in the good country. And at Olney Savings.

The tradition of pride runs deep in the good country, and it sets the people here apart from others.

In one sense, it's pride in being the best they can be. But more importantly, it's pride in knowing that their efforts are directed toward a common good - the kind of pride that can be experienced only through shared achievement.

At Olney Savings, that's the kind of pride we encourage - and always will. Because that's the kind of pride that makes the most important things in life happen.

Come see us soon. Or call and we'll come see you. We'd be proud to serve you.
