Grain sign-up to begin

Singup for the 1986 wheat and feed-grain programs will be March 3 through April 11, reports Glenn Brzozowski, of the Haskell County ASC.

Other farm program provisions announced include:

Producers may request 100 percent of their diversion payments and 40 percent of their projected deficiency payments when they sign up.

Payment rates for the 2½ percent paid land diversion for wheat and feed-grain producers have been established (per bushel) at $.57 for barley, $.73 for corn, $.36 for oats, $.65 for sorghum and $1.10 for wheat.

The payment rate for the additional paid diversion option for winter-wheat producers is $2 per bushel in accordance with the Food Security Act of 1985.

Estimated per bushel deficiency payment rates are: barley, $.95; corn, $1.03; oats, $.45; sorghum, $.98; and wheat, $1.83.

Seventy-five percent of the advance deficiency payments will be paid in cash during signup, and the remaining 25 percent will be paid as payment-in-kind beginning May 1. Producers will have from May 1 through Sept. 30 to request the PIK portion of their advance deficiency and/or diversion payments.

Producers who have price support loans-regular, special or farmer-owned reserve-on any commodity on the date the advance payment is requested must make that loan collateral available to satisfy their PIK. The quantity of the loan collateral that must be redeemed for PIK purposes will depend on the value, as determined by the Commodity Credit Corporation, of the commodity under loan at the time PIK is received.

Producers who do not have commodities under loan or producers who commodities under loan are insufficient to meet their PIK entitlements, will be issued Continued on page 10

Flashback

In 1889, the new town of Haskell boasted four drygoods and grocery stores, two drug stores, one hardware, one notion store, one hotel, one restaurant, one blacksmith shop, one wood shop, one saloon, two livery stables, four doctors, eight lawyers, three land agents, one newspaper and one school.

Churches included the Methodist, Baptist, Presbyterian and Christian.

A gin built that fall by J.L. Jones and N.C. Smith on the block east of the square ginned 149 bales of cotton from an area as far west as Dickens and Cottle counties.

Voter registration cards are mailed

New voter registration cards have been mailed to all Haskell County voters by Tax Assessor-Collector Bobby Collins.

Any voter not receiving a card should contact Mrs. Collins' office. Errors also should be reported.

Girls are champs!

The Haskell Maidens, champions of district 6-AA, will meet either New Deal or Shallowater in Snyder next Friday in a bi-district playoff.

Coach George Martin's Maidens completed their district schedule with a perfect 10-0 record, to take both halves of the 6-AA crown.

The game in Snyder will be part of a doubleheader which also will feature 6-AA runnerup Hawley against Morton. The second-place team in the district which Morton won will not be decided until this Friday, thus Haskell does not know whether it will be New Deal or Shallowater.

Bi-district winners will advance to the area meet the following week

Indians face playoff

Boys' basketball teams from Haskell and Hamlin will meet this weekend in a playoff to determine the second-half winner of district 6-AA.

The winner of that game will meet first-half champion Hawley next Tuesday to determine the final first- and second-place standings.

The playoff was necessitated by a second-half tie between Haskell and Hamlin. Both teams finished the second half of the district season with 4-1 records.

Haskell Coach Jim Raughton was upset that the playoff with Hamlin was deemed necessary. The Indians had beaten Hamlin in their head-to-head match in the second half (they and winners of area will qualify for the regional tournament which will determine state tournament participants.

Haskell clinched the district title with a 45-41 victory Friday night over Hawley as Denice Young scored 16 points and Tamala Randle added 10.

In their district finale Tuesday night, the Maidens crushed Stamford 69-47. Young scored 18 points, Lori McGee had 17 and Randle added 15.

With the regular season now completed, the Haskell girls own an impressive 19-4 record. They haven't dropped a game since the Haskell tournament in December.

also won in the first half).

Haskell had identical 4-1 records in the two halves of the district season for an overall mark of 8-2. Hawley, the first-half champion, also had an 8-2 overall mark on the strength of 5-0 and 3-2 records during the half seasons. Hamlin, while 4-1 in the second half, was 7-4 for the full season.

Haskell, which lost to Hawley last Friday, closed its 6-AA campaign with a hard-fought 51-46 victory Tuesday over the Stamford Bulldogs. Trailing 24-23 at halftime, the Indians took a 38-35 lead at the three-quarter mark and then held on for the victory.

Only one contested race in county

Quiet primary looms

It will be a quiet Democratic primary May 3 as far as local elections are concerned.

When the filing period closed Monday afternoon, only one contested race had developed for the 11 county and precinct offices to be decided this year.

Steve Alsbrook filed as a commissioner candidate from precinct 2 to oppose incumbent Ronnie Chapman to provide the only contested race.

A late filing was that of Art

Williams as a candidate for county attorney to fill the unexpired term of Charles Chapman who resigned last year when he was named district judge. He will not be opposed.

Other candidates who will be unopposed include incumbents Carolyn Reynolds, district clerk; B.O. Roberson, county judge; Woody Frazier, county clerk; Willie Faye Tidrow, county treasurer; Hugh Peiser, county surveyor; Bud Turnbow, commissioner of precinct 4; Roy T. (Buck) Everett, justice of the peace of precinct 1; and Elaine Holcomb, justice of the peace of precinct 6.

Jane M. Short filed as a candidate for justice of the peace from precinct 5, a position which is now vacant.

In Austin, W.R. Hailey of Tolar filed as a Democratic candidate to oppose incumbent Rick Perry as representative of the 64th legislative district, which includes Haskell County.

Incumbent district judge Charles Chapman did not draw opposition.

Fund-raiser for Perry to be Monday

A fund-raising chili supper for State Rep. Rick Perry of Haskell begins at 6:30 p.m. Monday in the Civic Center.

Tickets, priced at $10 each, may be purchased at the door. Advance tickets are available from local supporters of Perry.

Invited guests to the event include a number of state political leaders, including Speaker of the House Gib Lewis of Fort Worth.

Perry serves the 64th district of Haskell, Callahan, Hood, Palo Pinto, Shackelford, Stephens, Throckmorton and Young counties.

He is a candidate for re-election to a second term in the House. He is opposed in the Democratic primary by W.R. Hailey of Tolar.

Malfunction blamed for phone outage

Telephone customers in Haskell and some 18 area GTE communities may have experienced difficulty in placing or receiving long distance calls between 3:20 and 6:30 p.m. last Friday when an equipment malfunction occurred in the Southwestern Bell long distance switching center in Wichita Falls.

Ray Krueger, local manager for GET in Olney, said, "At 3:20 p.m. our central office long distance carrier alarm systems indicated a major telephone outage occurred. After completing several equipment testing procedures, it was determined the source of the problem was in the Wichita Falls switching center."

Krueger added, "We made contact with Southwestern Bell officials who were aware of the problem. We remained in constant touch with them until the intergrated circuit card equipment failure was located and replaced."

Krueger concluded, "We at GTE want to apologize to our customers for any inconvenience this long distance calling outage may have created."

Denice Young and Ponciano Lopez

HHS teams select sweetheart and hero

Representing the Haskell High School basketball teams as sweetheart and hero this year are Denice Young, senior, and Ponciano Lopez junior.

The sweetheart was chosen by members of the boys' varsity team while the varsity girls chose the hero.

A member of the basketball team, Miss Young also competes in track. She is a member of the band and the HGAA.

Lopez is a member of the basketball team. He also is a member of the football and track teams, is a member of the annual staff and a member of the H-Club.

County highway to get re-surfacing

State Highway 6 from Rule to the Knox County line, will undergo a surfacing treatment this spring. The 15.4-mile stretch of highway is part of 51 miles in Haskell, Shackelford and Taylor counties to be surfaced as a result of additional highway funding approved by the 1984 legislature.

The State Highway and Public Transportation Commission has approved a contract with Cox Paving Co. of Blanco, which was awarded the project at a low bid of $988,890.02.

Work involves 'seal coating' the highways to protect and improve the roadway surfaces. A seal coat consists of spreading a layer of liquid asphalt on the roadway, followed by a coating of fine rock chips which sink into the asphalt, making the layer thicker and helping it adhere better.

The process seals the highway surface to retard the formation of potholes, and provides smoother, safer travel lanes for motorists.

Ray Green, the highway department's public affairs officer in Abilene, said that Joe Higgins of Hamlin will be the agency's engineer in charge of supervising the work.

The project also includes 16.8 miles of SH 351 in Shackelford County, from US 180 to the Jones County line.

HIGH SCHOOL

The local group included five members of the high school band and four members of the junior high band.

Members of the all-zone band will perform a concert at Cullen Auditorium at Abilene Christian University this Saturday, beginning at 7 p.m.

JUNIOR HIGH

Commentary

Too good to be true

"Congratulations! You have your choice of one of the following of our promotional items:

"TV set, Refrigerator, AM/FM Stereo, Motor Boat.

"We must give you your choice. However, you must pay insurance, freight and processing fees. These costs are minimal—always under $125, and if you are not 100 percent satisfied with your item, you may exchange it for any one of the other three."

How can you turn down an offer like that? Many people don't and each year those who just can't let a good deal that's too good to be true slip through their fingers are bilked out of millions of dollars.

The offer mentioned above is an excerpt from one of the most recent mail fraud schemes aimed at small-business customers. Postal inspectors in Los Angeles have initiated an investigation of a company operating out of the Los Angeles area which is sending small-business customers a card to complete with their choice of one of the above promotional items. The company then sends an envelope with a $124 COD charge to the customer. The envelope is supposed to contain a certificate for the promotional item.

If the customer decides not to pay the COD fee, the company sends letters stating the original card signed was a binding legal contract to pay the fees, and if they are not paid, they will be charged an additional $124, the matter will be turned over to the collections department and the incident could result in legal proceedings and seriously affect the customer's credit rating.

According to Inspector In Charge D.C. Strader in Fort Worth, postal customers in Texas and Oklahoma, worried about having their credit rating ruined, have contacted his office to find out if they have to accept these COD items. They are advised that if they want to refuse the item, they can do so prior to paying the Postal Service for the package or letter. Once the customer pays the Postal Service for the article and opens it, no refund can be made. He added that customers should not feel intimidated into paying for items they do not want.

Over the years, the Postal Inspection Service has conducted extensive media campaigns to expose mail fraud and to alert people to its dangers; however, as consumers become more aware, fraudulent companies disguise their schemes to fit the more informed customer. Inspector Strader says the best defense is to learn to say no. He added, "If there is any question in your mind about a solicitation that sounds fraudulent, then check it out. It's an old saying, but the truth is, that if it sounds too good to be true, then it probably is."

Choose carefully

Although the volume of individual tax returns completed by paid preparers increases from year to year, the taxpayer remains legally responsible for the accuracy of the return.

This is why the IRS advises taxpayers to exercise the same degree of consideration that one would in choosing a doctor, lawyer or any professional person.

The IRS offers these tips on what to expect in dealing with a preparer:

*Taxpayers should not sign a blank return, nor one which is partially completed, nor one prepared in pencil.

*Preparers should sign the return and give his or her identification number, as required by law.

*Taxpayer must be given a copy of the completed return.

*Preparers who promise a refund, claim a special relationship with the IRS, or boast of ways to beat the tax system should be avoided.

*Preparers are required to keep copies of returns or a list of taxpayers' names and identification numbers for three years.

*Paid preparers (other than bank preparers) cannot endorse, cash, or negotiate a client's refund check.

TAX PLANNING

Written By
James E. Rodgers, CPA

DON'T OVERLOOK DEDUCTIONS

Your accountant needs to know as much about you and your financial life as possible. Accountants operate under a strict code of ethics and will keep all information about you confidential. Therefore, at tax filing time do a complete review of the past year with your accountant. In addition to finding more tax breaks for you, your accountant will probably spot other areas where some professional assistance or recommendations could make or save you money.

To begin with, discuss all sources of revenue. Everyone knows that wages are taxable income, but not everyone realizes that such sources of revenue as gifts, inheritances, life insurance proceeds, and some law suit awards are not taxable income. Money from retirement plan distributions, the sale of your residence, and the sale of personal or business assets may qualify for tax-favored treatment.

Then discuss activities and expenses during the year that might result in tax deductions and credits. For example, suppose you didn't change jobs during the year, but you did spend money looking for another job. You made a number of long distance phone calls, paid a secretarial service to prepare resumes, and traveled to several interviews. Unless you discuss these events with your accountant, your deduction for these expenses may get overlooked.

Most accounting firms use some form of checklist to insure that all possible deductions are spotted. Take the time to review the checklist carefully. Also take some time to review your records - cancelled checks, activity calendars, etc. - to see what you did during the year that may have resulted in deductible expenditures. The more your accountant knows about your financial affairs, the more help he can be.

Letters to the Editor

Oldtimers recall earlier days

Kaigler family

Editor: In enjoy your paper but suddenly you have changed my apartment number of Q 102 instead of Q 106. Now it is two weeks late if I get it at all.

I liked the story about the Kaigler reunion since we go back to the beginning. My grandfather Moses E. Park was an early sheriff there. He and his brother hauled rock from Albany to help build the first courthouse, jail and Methodist Church, among other things.

My mother, Mrs. Lela Park Kaigler, taught speech for nearly all the time she was there. She put on nearly all the plays, programs, etc. for the schools, clubs, Methodist Church, etc., for 30 years.

Between my mother and my sister, Louise Kaigler, who taught piano and dancing, they taught nearly every kid there and from towns around. They moved to Lubbock in 1940 and taught there. I'm sure if you will look from 1940 back you can see it all in your paper. My mother also wrote for your paper—the social news—and was the reporter of Haskell to Abilene, Wichita Falls, Fort Worth and other papers.

I am glad to know you are getting the history of Haskell. I will love to read about the old timers like me. My family always loved the town and the people.

My brother, Tom, just moved back to Haskell and his wife just can't believe all the nice things that people have done and are still doing. They have come by, called, brought little gifts and food goodies. It's wonderful to have loving friends like them.

I was at the Kaigler reunion and was sad to hear about so many passing on. Whole families, except one or two, who were close friends like the Kemps, Kimbroughs, so many Ratliffs and so many more families.

My mother and sister taught so many of the children either in class or church. I was there only a day. I talked to Anita Herren and I finally told her I would stop asking about people—just too many close friends had gone on.

I'm sorry. I guess I just got carried away, but I do love the people there.

Thanks for lending an ear. I do hope you can read this. At my age, oh boy, I do have a hard time writing.

Long family

Editor: I noticed in the Free Press that you are interested in information about early-day citizens for you Sesquicentennial edition. Although there have not been any of my Long family living in Haskell for many years, I thought you might be interested in this enclosed sketch since they were very much a part of the community in former days. My Shook family remained in Haskell, so I am sure you will have information on them. My aunt, Mrs. Mildred Green, is still a resident there.

Haskell has a special place in my heart, because even after we moved away in 1929 when I was nine years old, I spent most of every summer vacation visiting my grandparents, the M. S. Shooks, and other relatives.

My mother, Mrs. M. O. (Man) Shook, formerly EffieNola Long, has enjoyed receiving the Haskell Free Press every week for many years. The three Long children still living, EffieNola, Burnice and Mary enjoyed attending the Haskell homecoming when it was possible for them to do so, and they hope to attend the next one.

Where's Pinkerton

Editor: On a cold day in 1922, we drove our wagon into Haskell from Knox County, on out to Pinkerton. We bought our home between Midway School and Pinkerton. Midway was a good school, one of the best. If you don't believe me, just ask Mrs. Bill Holden.

We all were members of the Pinkerton Church. Mrs. Sloan was our neighbor. Her son, Emory Menefee, was a great help to me. After my husband died I would visit his mother and Emory would come at noon singing. "We Will Kill the Old Red Rooster When She Comes."

I had the pleasure to drive by Pinkerton four years ago and my home was gone. Please...what happened to Pinkerton?

My eyes are bad but at 92 I thank God, so far so good. I don't think this is worth printing, but all I want to know is "Where did Pinkerton go?"

Why jail non-violent criminals?

By Wendell Faught
When children become pests, they can be sent to their rooms. Can we deal with adults in the same way and confine them to their homes?
The latest case of "house arrest" involves David Wayne. He gained notoriety in August 1980 when he wrote to President Carter to announce he would never register for the draft.

A philosophy student at the time, he wanted to publicize his contempt for the law. He even traveled the country, calling upon other young men to follow his example.

Now, Wayne has been sent to his room—six months house arrest. Some people feel he was more than a pest and should be in jail rather than enjoying the comforts of home. But they can take heart from the fact that the taxpayer is not footing the bill for his upkeep.

As a criminal, Wayne is merely a nuisance. He deserves to be punished. But, he is not dangerous. The taxpayers need not be forced to pay the $35,000 a year or whatever it takes to keep a man in prison.

Besides, this publicity-minded young man would make a jail sentence sound like martyrdom. It's harder to be a martyr when you're only treated like a bad boy.

So far, home-detention programs have been successful in Alabama, Florida, Indiana, Oklahoma and South Carolina. Provided candidates are carefully selected, the system will save money.

Certainly, it sounds better than what a lot of states are now doing to relieve prison crowding—putting murderers and rapists in minimum-security camps and releasing armed robbers early.

Now, there are new gadgets that make house-arrest easy to enforce. Electronic-tracking devices, attached to the criminal, sound an alarm if he leaves his home. They already are in use in Los Angeles.

In house-arrest, we have a tested, enforceable, low-cost answer to punishment for non-violent crimes. It's time we tried it.

"Yeah, I hit her, but I didn't hit her more than the average guy beats his wife," says singer Ike Turner, commenting on reports that he mistreated his ex-wife, Tina Turner.
Maybe that's one way to look at it. But kids are supposed to look up to celebrities, so let's hope he never gets too far below the average.

I had to do a double-take as I thumbed through some back issues the other day. In big, bold type, the ad proclaimed: "5 Gals $1. Try Ethyl."

Nope, it wasn't an ad for a house of sin. It was a depression-era ad for a gas station.

Farabee lists contributions for half year

State Sen. Ray Farabee of Wichita Falls, who represents Haskell County in the State Senate, collected $2,126 in political donations in the last half of 1985.

Year-end campaign finance records filed with the secretary of state showed Farabee reported spending $12,126 during the six-month period.

Contributions to Farabee included $1,500 from a Fort Worth-based cattlemen's group and $125 each in transportation from Dan Wright and A. B. Wharton III of Vernon.

Farabee's expenditures included $4,858 for computer equipment, $2,227 for tickets and contributions, $1,094 for political meetings, $912 for travel and $276 for photography.

PIK provisions described

Details of the U.S. Department of Agriculture's advance deficiency and diversion "generic PIK" provisions, under which producers may receive certificates for commodities in lieu of cash payments for program participation under the Food Security Act of 1985 have been announced.

USDA's Commodity Credit Corporation will issue payment-in-kind certificates that are generic, meaning that the certificate will not be commodity specific. The certificates will be redeemable by producers for any regular, special or farmer-owned reserve loan commodity, and by commercial certificate holders for any CCC-owned commodity.

PIK certificates will be issued in the monetary amount due the producer and will be available for issuance by the Haskell County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office beginning May 1. Each producer will have until Sept. 30, 1986, or until the maturity date of his loan, whichever is earlier, to request issuance of his certificate and to market the certificate.

Producers holding commodities pledged as loan collateral at sign-up must redeem that loan collateral (except peanuts and tobacco) to satisfy their PIKs. Producers may elect to use any commodity they hold under loan as a payment-in-kind. The quantity of the loan collateral that must be redeemed for PIK purposes will be determined using the per-unit value as announced by the CCC on the day the certificate is presented for redemption.

Producers who do not hold commodities under loan or whose commodities under loan are insufficient to satisfy their PIK entitlement may sell their certificates to: a commercial entity who may in turn redeem them only for CCC-owned commodities; another producer who may use the certificate to redeem his commodity loans; or producers who are co-op members who may designate an approved co-op to market their PIKs.

Commercial holders of PIK certificates may redeem them at any time but before Dec. 31, 1986. Commercial holders may redeem PIK certificates with the Kansas City Commodity Office (KCCO), 8930 Ward Parkway, Kansas City, MO.

KCCO will make available a listing of locations of CCC-owned commodities for in-store delivery and the applicable redemption prices. Lot selection will be on a first-come, first-served basis as established through the Western Union Easylink system.

Commercial certificate holders who have CCC-owned inventory may request redemption of certificates for commodities at their own storing locations even though the commodity may not have been listed as being available by KCCO. CCC reserves the right to require warehousemen who have CCC commodities to take delivery at their own warehouses when redeeming certificates.

Albany joins 6-AA; Rotan drops a notch

Albany will replace Rotan as a member of district 6-AA next year, it was announced Thursday by the University Interscholastic League. Otherwise, the makeup of the district will be the same, with Haskell, Anson, Hamlin, Hawley and Stamford making up the rest of the membership.

The addition of Albany to the district will bring about a renewal of an ancient Haskell-Albany rivalry. In past years, the Lions and Indians have competed in the same district.

Rotan, because of a declining high school enrollment, drops to Class A. The Yellowhammers have been the weak sister of district

6-AA this year. The football team did not win a game last season and the basketball teams have fared little better.

Class AA will be made up of 217 Texas high schools with enrollments between 135 and 284.

Little Dribblers

Conrad Roewe was elected president of the Haskell Little Dribblers Assn. when members met for an organizational meeting last Thursday.

Other officers elected included Bob Brandon; vice president; Debi Burson, secretary; and Nene Comedy, reporter.

Maidens

By Andy Griffith

The Haskell Maidens, now called the District Champs, are going to the playoffs next week. An official date has not been set.

The Maidens finished the first half of district play 5-0 with victories over Anson, Rotan, Hamlin, Hawley and Stamford.

In the second half, they continued their winning ways.

In the third game they defeated the Hamlin Lady Pied Pipers 51-48 at Hamlin.

Leading scorers for the Maidens were Denice Young with 14 followed by Julie Roewe with 12 and Lori McGee contributing 10.

The Maidens hosted the Hawley Lady Bearcats in Indian Territory, defeating them 45-41.

The Maidens outscored the Lady Bearcats in three of the four quarters played last Friday.

High scorer for the Maidens was Denice Young with 16 followed by Tamala Randle with 10.

The victory over the Lady Bearcats clinched the district 6-AA girls' basketball crown for the Maidens.

"I don't really think that the idea of being district champs has quite sunk in yet. I knew if we just put our minds to it we could do it," starter Roewe said.

The Maidens finished district play last night with a game against the Stamford Lady Bulldogs.

Jayvees

By Scott Schaake

The JV Indians ended their season with an 8-1 record in district play.

Their only loss came when the Hawley Bearcats beat them 35-30 Jan. 31.

They were behind by one point at half 15-14, but they couldn't catch up to win the game.

Leading scorers were Cole Larned with 8. Marty Decker had six and Michael Mendoza had five.

They traveled to Hamlin Jan. 28 to face the Hamlin Pied Pipers. After trailing 16-14 at halftime, they got the hot hand and defeated the Pipers 40-33.

Leading scorers were Paul Harvey with 12 and Brad Bevel and Mendoza with 7 each.

They played their last game Feb.

4 when they hosted the Stamford Bulldogs, but scores were unavailable, at press time.

Freshmen

By Mickey Dunnam

The ninth-grade Warriors finished the season with a victory over the Aspermont Badgers.

The Warriors lead first half 32-17. They came out second half and dominated the scoring to make the total 60-37.

The leading scorers were Brad Bevel with 18, both Paul Harvey and Derrick Billington had 14 each, followed by Cole Larned with 10.

The Warriors showed their talent this season with an 11-0 record and by taking championship honors in two tournaments.

8th grade

By B.J. Mitchell

Monday night the Warriors wrapped up their season on a bad note as they were defeated by the Stamford Bulldogs 23-37.

Their two posts Michael Lane and Stoney Trussell were out with injuries so the Warriors were without a big man inside.

Shane Osborne lead the Warriors in scoring with 8 followed by Stephen Holt and Scotty Martin with 4 each.

The Warriors finished the season with a record 11-5, losing to Stamford twice, O'Brien twice and Hawley once.

By Tina Lacey

The eighth-grade Maidens ended basketball play Monday night against Stamford with a 25-19 victory.

Missy Davis was high point with 13, and Holly Reed followed with 6.

The team entered the Haskell Junior High Tourney last weekend and split into two groups.

The first team battled Stamford on Thursday night and was defeated 23-14.

Marty Trussell, Joann Villa and Silvia Alvarez tied for high point with four each.

The second group battled O'Brien on Saturday and came up victorious with a 33-18 victory.

Davis led the scoring with 15 while Reed had 8.

The first team played against O'Brien on Saturday and lost 29-17. Alvarez and Jenny Hayes each had four points.

The second team nipped the Stamford Lady Bulldogs 21-19 in the championship round for first place Saturday night.

Davis again led the scoring with 16.

"I was disappointed in the way the team played even though we won. I felt they should have won by more. The team played well all year and has a 10-1 record," coach Jim Bob Mickler said.

7th grade

By Sammy Baker

The seventh grade Warriors played their final game of the season last night against Stamford. The Tribe won the game 25-19.

The Warriors managed to pull the game out by playing tough man to man defense.

The leading scorer for the game was Chad Gibson who put in 7 points.

The Warriors participated in the Haskell Junior High Tournament last weekend. Because of the lack of teams in the tournament, the Warriors split up to make two teams.

Team A which consisted of Gibson, Jay Miller, Craig Hanson, Rusty Stocks, Adam Coleman, Cole Callaway and Jeremy Fuentes, won the seventh grade bracket of the tournament.

They first defeated O'Brien 21-17. Coleman led the scoring with 13. Then in the championship game the Tribe beat Stamford 30-14. Gibson had 10 points followed by Hanson with 7.

Team B which consisted of Steve Quattlebaum, Morgan Kreger, Rod Jeter, Nole Hadaway, Rene Garcia, Chris McGee, Heath Green and Eric Lowry, did not fare as well as the A team.

They lost the first game to Stamford 50-28. The leading scorer was Garcia with 26 points.

The second game the Tribe had to play without Garcia which hurt their offense. O'Brien beat them 26-6.

"The Warriors had a fine season. They won 14 of the 17 games they played," Coach Jim Dan Raughton said.

The seventh-grade Maidens won first place in the Haskell Junior High Tournament last week.

In the Maidens first game they blew by O'Brien 26-16.

Sheila Unger lead the scoring with 16 points.

Stamford was their next opponent. The Maidens won easily 24-13.

Cori Brzozowski and Heidi Mullen were high point with 6 points each.

Monday night the Maidens traveled to Stamford and defeated them again 18-14.

Geneva Lopez was high point with 7 followed by Becky Cline with 6 points.

"The girls played pretty good even though they could have done better," said Coach Jim Bob Mickler. "I was disappointed in a way, but with a 10-1 record what can I say."

Haskell Nursing Center

Haskell Nursing Center is pleased to introduce our new activity director, Christy Riggs. Christy has a lot of energy and new ideas, and we are happy that she has joined our staff. She would like to extend an invitation to stop by and meet her.

Each Sunday the foursquare Gospel Church will hold services at 3 p.m. and the Haskell Church of Christ will be here at 4 p.m. for services. We are very happy to have the Church of Christ coming out again and look forward to their services.

The First Baptist Church of Haskell hosted the monthly birthday party for our residents on Monday. Everyone got to enjoy ice cream, cake and punch and then joined in a sing-a-long. Honorees were L.J. Dunn, Delma Glover, Edith Long, Bessie Hokett and Billie Oliphant.

Our sympathy is with the family of Melvin Harrington on their recent loss. Our prayers are with them.

We have to say a sad farewell to Elizabeth Killion. She is moving to Odessa to be closer to her family. Mrs. Killion has been with us for several years and we will miss her very much.

We would like to thank all our visitors and volunteers. You make our residents days so much brighter with your visits. It would be impossible to run a nursing home without you. Thanks so much.

Working Together.
A Tradition in the Good Country.
And at Olney Savings.

When our great grandfathers settled this part of Texas long ago, they had the vision to see that much more could be accomplished by working together to get the tough jobs done.

It's a tradition that still lives in the Good Country — and one that we live by every day at Olney Savings. There are many ways we can work with you to help you meet your personal financial goals.

Come see us soon. Or call and we'll come see you.

Grain sign-up

negotiable certificates in the net remaining monetary amount due them.

Certificates may be sold to others, but are redeemable only for CCC-owned commodities. The certificates may be used to purchase commodities in CCC inventory at a value determined by CCC.

A producer who accepts an advance payment, but who later does not comply with program provisions, must refund the amount of the advance payment with interest.

It is the USDA's intention to require cross compliance for 1986 crops of wheat feed grains, cotton and rice. However, the administration will accept a technical amendment to the 1985 act dealing only with cross compliance. If cross compliance is made discretionary for all 1986 crops, it will not be required for that crop year.

Bases and yields are being determined in accordance with the provisions of the Food Security Act of 1985. Producers who believe that the bases and yields for their farms are incorrectly established may file an appeal with their local county ASC committees through the end of the sign-up period.

Contracts signed by program participants will be considered binding and will provide for liquidated damages for failure to comply with program requirements.

Farmers may sign up for the 1986 farm programs at their local Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service office.

CHECK YOUR FILTER

A Clean Filter Will Help You To Save Money In Home Energy Bills.

The purpose of a filter in your heating or air conditioning air blower is to help catch dust and dirt before it can enter your unit. In time, the filter will accumulate dust and dirt. If it gets clogged, your filter won't be able to do the cleaning job it is supposed to and your unit will use more electricity.

To avoid damage to your unit and to save energy and money, be sure your filter is clean. Permanent types can be cleaned according to manufacturer's instructions. Non-permanent filters should be replaced.

West Texas Utilities recommends checking the filter in your heating unit once every 30 days to help keep your system in top operating condition.
