Farmers sign up for program

Sixty-seven Haskell County farmers had signed up for the federal program to take erodible cropland out of production by the time of Friday's deadline. The acreage total was 9,019.

Each farmer making application was required to submit a bid to the government, based on the income the land would produce.

Bids were sent to Washington and the local Soil Conservation Service office expects to hear by Thursday which of them are accepted by the government.

Jim Hudson of the SCS said that the 9,019 acres in Haskell County included tracts ranging in size from 20 to 700 acres.

Farmers accepted for the program will enter into a contract with the government to convert the land to cover. The government will share the cost of the conversion on a 50-50 basis and the farmer will be responsible for all costs of maintaining the cover, including fertilizer and weed control. The farmer will receive annual payments, based on the accepted bid figure.

Under the program, no more than 25 percent of a county's farm land can be eligible. Hudson said that means that that approximately 87,000 Haskell County acres could be eligible.

Baptists to celebrate Passover

The Adult Training Department of the First Baptist Church will sponsor an educational, exciting and unique reenactment of the world's oldest holiday (holy-day), the feast of Passover, at 7 p.m. next Thursday, March 27.

Celebrated continuously for three and a half millennia, Passover, the most joyous high day of the nation Israel, not only commemorates God's choosing of this people and their miraculous deliverance from Egyptian slavery under Moses, but is for all time a prophetic picture of the deliverance from slavery to sin and death made available through Christ, God's perfect Passover lamb (1 Cor. 5:7).

Anyone desiring to participate in the feast must pre-register during an hour-long study of God's seven "Holy-Days" this Sunday evening (March 23) at 5 p.m. in the chapel of the First Baptist Church in Haskell.

Each of the seven days is prophetic of one stage in God's redemptive plan until the day He writes "The End" on the final page of human history.

The first four days have already been fulfilled: Jesus was crucified on Passover; He was buried on Unleavened Bread; He arose from the dead on First Fruits (more commonly known as Easter, the name of the ancient Babylonian fertility goddess, who was worshipped with rabbits and eggs and the wearing of new clothes); and Jesus poured out the Holy Spirit on Pentecost.

Trumpets, Day of Atonement and Tabernacles are awaiting their fulfillment by Christ. It appears from scripture that this fulfillment will take place in this generation, probably in the next few years.

Those who would like to explore these prophetic days and celebrate Passover are encouraged to attend this Sunday's meeting study. They are urged to be on time.

Flashback

The raising of turkeys was an important business in early Haskell.

In the fall of 1912, Virgil Hudson shipped out more than 2,000 turkeys. During the next three years, the industry increased greatly. In 1915, a Turkey Association was formed and it sold 4,000 turkeys that year. This was in addition to the number sold otherwise.

Turkey business began to fall off after that as roaming turkeys took a toll on farm crops.

HASKELL, TEXAS 79521, MARCH 20, 1986

16 PAGES—TWO SECTIONS

Haskell teachers Paula Everett, right, and Glenda Drinnon were among more than 300 teachers displaying posters in Abilene last Thursday when Gov. Mark White arrived at the airport.

Teachers protest

More than a dozen Haskell County teachers joined some 300 other Big Country educators last Thursday to let Gov. Mark White know of their dissatisfaction with his administration's treatment of the teachers.

They congregated at the Abilene Municipal Airport to greet the governor as he arrived in Abilene where he was to address a couple of meetings.

Displaying posters with such messages as "White Lies," "Don't Mark White on Your Ballot" and "Traitor," teachers were showing their contempt for parts of House Bill 72. The teacher competency tests, taken three days earlier, no doubt helped fuel their fire.

Hance daughter stumps for father

Sixteen-year-old Susan Hance stopped in Haskell Monday afternoon on one leg of a 38-city campaign swing for her father, Kent Hance, Republican candidate for governor.

Using her spring break from Coronado High School in Lubbock where she is a junior, Miss Hance said "I feel my dad is the one." She pointed out that Bill Clements had his chance and "he couldn't beat Mark White." And she said Tom Loeffler lacks the experience to be governor.

She said her father, a former state senator from the 28th District, and a former three-time U. S. representative from the 19th Congressional District, is the only candidate for governor who has working experience both as a Texas legislator and a member of Congress.

Hance's previous political positions were as a Democrat. He switched to the Republican party a year ago, feeling that party was more representative of his beliefs.

Susan and her brother, Ron, a Texas Tech student, are part of army of volunteers who are supporting Hance in his race for governor. "More than 90 percent of our county coordinators from the 1984 U. S. Senate race have joined us," said Susan. (Hance was a candidate for the U. S. Senate in 1984, losing in the runoff to Lloyd Doggett, who lost to Phil Gramm in the general election.)

Susan Hance

Haskell County coordinator for the Hance campaign is Joe Thigpen.

She said Hance has a county coordinator in each of 150 counties statewide and that her father had captured the endorsement of nearly half of the members of the State Republican Executive Committee.

Susan's whirlwind journey through Texas will take her to Athens and back to Lubbock. She began Monday morning, visiting in Lubbock, Post, Snyder, Rotan and Anson before arriving in Haskell. She spent Monday night in Seymour before continuing her campaign swing eastward.

WTU applies for reduction of rates

West Texas Utilities Company's retail customers of Haskell and other areas it serves should see another decrease in their electric bills soon if the Public Utility Commission of Texas approves a request filed Monday in Austin.

WTU is asking permission to refund to customers a total of $9.3 million in retail revenues collected in excess of actual fuel costs, and to lower its fuel charge rate. The total includes $9,146,092 in actual fuel cost savings which have accumulated since the current fuel rate for WTU was set by the PUC last August, plus $215,837 in interest.

This would be the second time within a year for WTU to make a refund and to lower its fuel cost factor. More than $16 million was refunded last August.

If a reduction in its fuel rates, technically known as the Interim Quarterly Fixed Fuel Factor, is approved, WTU officials estimate the fuel cost charges to its customers will drop by 8.2 percent during the three-month quarter beginning in May.

The due amounts on customer bills include both fuel costs and base rates. Utility companies are not allowed to make money on fuel. WTU has had no change in its base rates since 1984.

Under WTU's proposal, all existing retail customers would receive refunds through one-time credits to their bills in the billing month of May, except for seasonal cotton gin customers, who would

Beta Chi marks 50th year

Beta Chi Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma Society International, an organization of women teachers, held its golden anniversary celebration tea March 8 at the First Baptist Church Chapel with a special tribute to the 16 charter members.

Dorothy Myers, president, welcomed members and guests. One very special guest was Miss Phyllis Ellis of Fort Worth, who was present March 7, 1936, in Seymour when Beta Chi Chapter received its charter from Dr. Eula Lee Carter, Alpha state executive secretary. Dr. Delores Akins of Hurst, chairman and author of the new international constitution, accompanied Miss Ellis.

Other guests were Helen Lyles, Area VII coordinator, 1979-81, Gamma Epsilon, Henrietta; Imogene Crenshaw, Nocona; Virginia Grove, president, Zeta Lambda, Snyder, and former Alpha State executive secretary and treasurer; Helen Mock, Zeta Lambda, Snyder and former Area XII coordinator and Alpha State Scholarship chairman; Gean Moody, Epsilon Omicron, Lamesa, Area XII coordinator; Linda Burton, Lamesa, president of Epsilon Omicron; Mary Jo Lankford, past president of Beta Chi and now a member of Beta Gamma, Vernon; and Nettie McCollum, Haskell, sister of Marguerite McCollum Jordan, a charter member.

Ellen Rieger, the most recent member, presented prelude piano selections while guests and members registered and received name tags.

Linda Chapman, music chairman, and Mary Martin sang "Prayer Song." Mary Martin, program coordinator, introduced the program by giving a brief rhyming history of Texas, 1836, at Washington-on-the-Brazos, Alpha State, 1929, at Austin-on-the-Colorado, and Beta Chi, 1936, at Seymour-on-the-Brazos. Haskell and Stonewall counties were joined by Knox and Throckmorton counties to form the new chapter area.

Each charter member was represented by a red or white silk rose placed beside her gold-colored, with red trim, biographical sketch. The 16 vases with nine red roses and seven white ones covered three sides of the red-draped table. Three large historical scrap books were in the center.

Another table contained the original personal information cards of the charter members. The yearbooks of the 50 years were also displayed. Some of them had been made by the members.

Erma Liles of Weinert began by reading about Miss Minnie Ellis, a pioneer Haskell County teacher and "lady superintendent." Erma added personal remarks as she was a student of Miss Ellis.

Kathleen Tanner of Haskell read about Miss Marguerite McCollum; Penny Winchester of Munday read about Miss Mary Louise McNeil, Rule Spanish teacher, Miss Gladys Crume, Mattson High School English teacher, and Mrs. Rotha McClain Berry, Fort Worth, a relative of Mrs. Berry, now in her 90s and who recently completed a book about a Navaho boy, Swift Deer, added delightful personal information.

Mary Martin of Haskell did Miss Madalin Hunt, Haskell North Ward principal and third grade teacher; Mary Holden of Haskell did Mrs. George V. Wimbish, Haskell High math and government teacher, now of Fort Worth, and added personal information since they were good friends.

Mauryse Stone of Munday did Mrs. John B. Ingram, first-grade teacher of Munday, Miss Ruthy Faye Miles, almost nothing is known about her, and Mrs. W. A. Baker, Seymour High School principal. LaRue Reeves read about Miss Grace Orsborn, Knox City, and third grade teacher at Sunset; Lillian Logan of Knox City did Mrs. E. F. Branton, principal of Union Grove and Knox City and now of Fort Worth.

Marie Ward of Aspermont did Mrs. Alex Dickie, Woodson, who transferred to Denton Chapter; Leona Partridge of Munday did Mrs. Irene Ballard, Haskell South Ward principal and teacher at Sagerton and Paint Creek; Jill Druessedow of Haskell did Mrs. W. D. Hinson Jr., Weinert first-grade teacher and now a resident of Houston.

Melodee Christian of Haskell read about Hazel Weaver, her aunt, who was a Haskell County rural principal and teacher and Haskell High English teacher. Melodee added beautiful personal remarks.

Mary Martin completed the biographical sketches by reading a tribute to Mrs. Weaver, written by Ina Cowan of Munday, which told of their experiences at Lake Creek, a three-teacher rural school. Mrs. Cowan's description was typical of rural community life of the 1930s and how teachers continued their education. Mrs. Weaver received three degrees by going to school in the summers and doing correspondence and extensions and never missed a year of teaching for 48 years.

Most of the biographical sketches had tributes added by ex-students and friends.

Linda Chapman led several songs and concluded the program by having everyone sing the official Delta Kappa Gamma song.

The Beta Chi golden anniversary tea in the dining hall of the church was catered by Flora Pace of Haskell and featured a needlepoint-type red lace draped table. A bouquet of red roses was flanked by twin double candelabra holding red tapers.

Rose-decorated lemon cake squares, salted nuts and strawberry cream punch were served from lovely brass appointments by Janice Vacek of Knox City and Sherry Hacker of Knox City to about 52 guests and members.

She also reminded club members about Rally Day which will be in Seymour March 27.

Family Night, a chuck wagon supper to be April 3, was discussed. Also discussed was the District TEHA meeting to be April 15 in Anson.

The Progressive Study Club met in regular session at 7:30 p.m. March 13, 1986 at the Community Room with Mrs. Kenneth Quattlebaum, president in charge. Mrs. Quattlebaum, president turned the meeting over to the social leaders for a very "Crazy" Dinner. As each member entered the Community room they were greeted by hostess Mrs. Bill Reeves with a "welcome to the Shamrock Flim Flam Room." The members and guest were seated at a table by their personal Irish Colleen waitress. She handed each person a menu and you were to number each blank in the order in which you wish your 7 course dinner be served. The menu included the following: Shillelagh Shenanigan, Gailie Runaround, Jaberwacky whim-wham, Leprechaun's La-de-da, Gobbledegook and Blarney Stones, Flapdoole and Farie Dust, Fliberty gebbet Fantasice. You were also to indicate which side order you preferred, A, B or C.

Side Order: A-Thingamabob; B-Watchamacallet; C-Dohickey. The side orders turned out to be our silverware, Thingamabob was a knife, Watchamacallet a fork, and dohickey a spoon. It was quiet a sight to see people eating stew with a knife.

The Hostesses of this very fun dinner were Mrs. Bill Reeves, Mrs. Milton Christian, Mrs. Bill Holden, Mrs. Sandy Horton, Mrs. Elbert Johnson, and Mrs. Tom Richardson.

Following the social hour the president Mrs. Kenneth Quattlebaum called the club to order for a short business session.

BUSINESSPERSON OR SHOPKEEPER (Which Are You?)

It seems that the operators of small businesses can be divided into two main classes, businesspeople and shopkeepers.

Businesspeople analyze, compare, budget, project, and review information to try to be the best in their business community and to make the most profit on their invested time and money.

Shopkeepers, on the other hand, open their doors at 8:00 and close at 6:00 day after day all year long. They show up at their accountant's office in April of the following year and ask, "What's left over for me?" or, "Did I make any money?"

Do you suppose that 20% of the businesses do 80% of the volume and the other 80% of the businesses get the remaining 20%? It's impossible to run a business properly without a record system designed for your specific needs. To be in the top 20%, you must have adequate financial information to make proper decisions.

Whether your business is large or small, it needs management information. Such information will help you to control costs, manage inventory, assess equipment purchase needs, do tax planning, etc. If the business is small, your system will be simple and the cost to install and maintain it should be minimal in relation to the benefits. If your business is large, you need management information to survive profitably, and the cost to obtain such information will be returned in higher profits.

Many businesspeople with poor information systems promise themselves that each year they'll have a better reporting system. Well, next year is here and if you as the owner-manager don't decide to improve the system, no one else in your organization will get the job done. Get together with your accountant and decide your business needs.

receive their refunds in December. A typical residential customer would receive refunds of $22.

Glen D. Churchill, WTU president and chief executive officer, said this refund, as well as the one made last year is necessary because of a softer fuel market and the fixed factor method of collecting for fuel costs.

The present method was ordered by PUC after the Public Utility Regulatory Act was amended in 1983. Previously, an automatic fuel adjustment clause matched fuel billings to fuel expense each month.

Churchill said WTU's fuel costs have declined two years in a row.

"This reflects our successful efforts to purchase natural gas at lower prices to the extent possible, and to take advantage of declining prices," he said.

"Also, we have substantial benefits from lower fuel costs associated with our system's high-voltage direct current tie with Public Service Company of Oklahoma, which now has been in operation for a full year."

Natural gas is the principal fuel for all of WTU's eight major power generating stations. In recent years, fuel costs have amounted to more than half of WTU's total operating costs, but have dropped from an all-time high of $3.18 million BTU in 1983 to $2.55 in 1985.

Baker chosen all-region

Senior Sammy Baker was officially named to the second team all-region basketball team in Region 1-2A by the Texas Assn. of Basketball Coaches.

Baker was a two-year starter for the Haskell Indians. The combined team record of those two years was 45-11.

"Last year as a junior, Baker was mostly a role player trying to get the ball to seniors Shane Hadaway and Ricky Rojas," said Coach Jim Raughton. "But this year, due to their graduation, Baker had to take over the scoring responsibilities."

Baker averaged 19 points a game this season. He was named first team all-district and received honorable mention last year. He also was second-team all-district in football as a defensive end.

Hunter Cooley, a junior from Hawley, also was named to the all-region second team. Cooley edged Baker by two votes for the district's most-valuable honors.

Tryouts set for cheerleaders

All sixth-grade, seventh-grade and high school girls wishing to try out for cheerleading squads need to pick up forms in the high school office. Permission slips need to be returned to the office by April 8.

Students trying out will practice after school Monday through Thursday until April 3.

Candidates for cheerleader tryouts must have a B grade-point average, and that average must be maintained.

Varsity track

Indian relay teams win first

The 400- and 1600-meter relay teams of Haskell High School took first-place honors Saturday in the Mogul Relays at Munday.

As a team, the Indians came in second in a field of 15, finishing behind defending Class A state champion Munday.

The 400 relay team, composed of Stephon Brockington, Mark Young, Joel Torres and Fred Shaw clicked off a 43.9 reading. The 1600 relay quartet was composed of Brockington, Joel Torres, Louie Torres and Mark Young.

Individually, Haskell performers took three second places, in the 200-, 400- and 800-meter runs. Brockington's second-place finish in the 200 was the result of a 22.82 performance. Young was clocked at 52.26 in the 400 for runnerup honors and Louie Torres came in second in the 800 with a clocking of 2:07.73.

Shaw took third in the 100-meter run with a time of 11.31 and Joel Torres came in third in the 200 meters at 23.14.

As a team, Haskell accumulated 79 points, second behind host Munday's 92. Other teams in the event, in order of finish, included Seymour, Paducah, Hamlin Electra, Knox City, Albany, Rotan, Jayton, Munday JV, Petrolia, Archer City, McCaulley and Benjamin.

This Saturday, the Indians will participate in a meet at Jayton.

Maidens second at Munday

The Haskell Maidens finished second behind Paducah as a team at the Mogul Relays in Munday Saturday.

Haskell accumulated 69 points, behind Paducah's 103, to finish ahead of the other 13 teams participating.

Tammi Miller took second place in the 100-meter run with a time of 13.24.

Joy McKeever was third in the 100-meter hurdles at 16.55, Mindy Smith was third in the 100-meter run with a time of 13.6 and Teresa Rodriguez was third in the 400-meter run at 67.01.

The 400-meter relay team of Vicki Chavez, Tammi Miller, Mindy Smith and Joy McKeever was third with a time of 53:02 and the 1600-meter relay team of Gloria Castillo, Sheree Dumas, Teresa Rodriguez and Lisa Morales took third with a time of 4:32.1.

Haskell girls will take part in the invitational track meet at Jayton Saturday.

Jayvees to run at Jayton

By Sammy Baker

The junior varsity track team will participate in the Jayton Relays Saturday, March 22.

"Because of the loss of two of the team's high-point scorers, one through injury and one through advancement, the team may have a tough time getting another second-place finish as they did at Anson," Coach Jimmy Lisle said.

Junior B. J. Mitchell will be unable to run because of a torn cartilage in his knee. He runs the sprint relay, the 100 and the 220.

Sophomore Michael Mendoza was promoted to the varsity to pole vault. He was third in the 880 at the Anson Relays.

The team will leave at 7 a.m. Saturday. This will also be a varsity track meet for both girls and boys.

The Personality Shoppe

Owners observe 40th anniversary

By Wendell Faught

It took a lot of nerve to go into business right after the end of World War II.

Some economists and other business observers were predicting that a Great Depression would follow the world conflict, just as it did after World War I.

But a couple of Haskell sisters, anxious to get out on their own, didn't heed the warnings.

This week, Opal Adkins and Veta Furrh mark their 40th anniversary as owners of The Personality Shoppe, an exclusive women's clothing store which has earned a reputation for quality and service far beyond the confines of Haskell County.

The sisters will host an open house Friday and Saturday and are inviting all their customers and friends to drop by for refreshments and to register for door prizes.

"We're not planning a big sale, or anything like that," said Mrs. Furrh, "although there will be a few things on sale. It's more an appreciation event to let the our friends know how much we have appreciated their business."

The oldest dress shop in Haskell, Mrs. Adkins and Mrs. Furrh have owned the Personality Shoppe since Jan. 6, 1946. The business was founded in the late 1930s by Mrs. Elma Guest.

Mrs. Adkins had worked for Mrs. Guest before she and her husband purchased a tailor shop which they operated for several years.

After selling the tailor shop, Mrs. Adkins asked her sister if she would like to go into business with her.

Mrs. Furrh, a first-grade teacher who had been teaching 17 years, liked the idea when her sister suggested that they buy out Mrs. Guest.

Mrs. Guest told Mrs. Adkins that she would rather sell to her than anyone else because she knew that Mrs. Adkins and her sister would maintain the image of the store.

They signed a contract to buy the business in the fall of 1945, and on the following Jan. 6, the new owners opened their doors in the building where the Hayloft is now located. Three years later, as their business grew, they moved to their present location. They have expanded several times since.

But the business grew. A steady clientele was built from Haskell County and outlying areas. Before long, the Personality Shoppe was serving customers from a wide area.

Mrs. Adkins and Mrs. Furrh have kept their store modern and up-to-date. They maintain an excellent inventory of the latest in women's fashions.

The women attend market in Dallas five times a year. Mrs. Furrh says she has not missed a market in 40 years and her sister has missed only three, each time when she was recuperating from surgery.

Having the latest fashions and extending good service to their customers have been the trademarks of the business. As a result, the Personality Shoppe regularly has shoppers from such distant cities as Abilene, Wichita Falls, Lubbock and Fort Worth.

"Our customers have made us what we are," said Mrs. Furrh. "We feel flattered by their devotion and we want to continue to serve them in every way we can."

The popularity of their store with customers is attributed to the personal service the Haskell sisters offer to them.

Mrs. Adkins and Mrs. Furrh started working as teenagers at the country store of their grandmother,

"Aunt Tilda" Weaver in the Vontress community about 15 miles northeast of Haskell. After they moved with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Weaver, to Haskell in 1919, they continued to work at their grandmother's store during the summers.

Mrs. Furrh is quick to point out that her sister has been involved in much civic work, such as Chamber of Commerce projects. Mrs. Adkins quickly adds, "but you've had to carry the load here a lot of the time to allow me do these things."

Another sister, Mrs. Clara Biard, has worked at the store for several years.

Neither sister entertains any thought of retiring any time soon. Both are just as enthusiastic about their business as they were back on Jan. 6, 1946.

White continues to sidestep debate with foes

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—Is Mark White deliberately avoiding a debate with his primary opponents, and is that strategy helping or hurting him?
Only the Governor and his campaign advisors know for sure, and probably they are the only ones who think the strategy, if it is that, is working.
Last week the League of Women Voters gave up efforts to arrange a debate among Democratic candidates for governor because Mark White, the lone holdout, won't agree on a date.

The League has arranged a similar debate for Republican candidates with little apparent trouble, and that's one reason why many of the Texas Democratic faithful are hopping mad.
White's sidestep means the Republican debate will get some millions of dollars in free television time while the Democrats get none. And don't kid yourself, the word all over the Capitol is that White is ducking.

Excuses, Excuses
Only two weeks ago, White was confronted by challenger Andy Briscoe, who had to show up at one of White's own press conferences to get an answer out of him. White said he would debate March 20.
But as of last week, those arrangements couldn't be worked out with PBS, and the League, with time drawing short, announced it was giving up.

Could it be the old political dodge of just stalling for time on White's part?
Voters Cheated
White's advisors are publicly saying he is trying to arrange a date, but the schedule just isn't flexible enough.
At least that's a little more response than his initial response, when one advisor wrote the League that White would be too busy to debate. Maybe that first letter said it all, and the rest is wasted time.
Certainly it's a waste to the voters, the Democratic Party and to Andy Briscoe and Don Crowder, who are close to a runoff competition with the elusive Governor.

Briscoe is a conservative party loyalist. Crowder's style is daring and combative. Both are concerned with changing the direction of the Texas Democratic Party.
Politically, it's a collision course with White and Party Chairman Slagle on one hand and several Democratic officials and candidates on the other.

Gifts To Officials
State officials filed their personal financial statements last week.
Some of the gifts White reported he received from friends and political appointees included an $1,800 suit, a left-handed rifle, a tanned alligator hide, and a week-long Alaska fishing trip.
The $1,800 suit came from a Lubbock surgeon who was appointed to the Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission by Mark

Industry necessary for town's survival

By Wendell Faught

Ask anyone in Haskell what this community needs more than anything else and the odds will be at least 10-to-1 that the answer will be something about industry or jobs, or payroll.
Do the same thing in Stamford, Seymour, Abilene, El Paso or Timbuktoo, and the results will be the same.
Every town, from the tiny hamlet to the giant metropolis, is after the same thing. Most larger cities, and even some small towns, have paid staffs which do nothing but seek out industries which might be enticed to locate in their areas. It's a tough game. The competition is furious.
Most small towns desperately need some kind of industry to keep them alive. You don't have to drive too many miles in any direction to find deserted downtown areas, full of abandoned, decaying buildings and busted dreams.
The roots of these towns are still there, represented by the senior citizens and the older generations. But the fruit, represented by the young adults, is flocking to the larger cities which offer the young man and the young woman a livelihood and a future. So the young, nourished and educated at the expense of the small town, are forced to use their talents to make some bigger town a better town.
Statistics are striking!
In 1975, just 11 years ago, 38 of Haskell's finest received their high school diplomas.

Where are those 38 today?
Well, 29 of them are NOT in Haskell.
That means there are 29 young people out there somewhere who still call Haskell their home, but for the lack of opportunity they are denied the right to live where their roots are.
Multiply that 29 (or what ever the average may be) by the number of Haskell graduating classes over the years, add spouses, offspring and the number of immigrants those numbers would have brought about, and the aggregate is astounding. Of course, not all would have remained, even under the most ideal circumstances, but a few job openings here and there would have certainly increased the retention rate. And some of those who went on to get college degrees would have had chances to practice their professions in the community which nourished them.

Such facts underscore the importance of local jobs, and the need to turn every stone in the pursuit of industrial development. The pursuit must continue without discouragement. Like the salesman who knows he's going to score on only one of so-many contacts, successful industrial recruiters know that all of those rejections have to gotten out of the way before they can score that elusive first run.

Teachers call for action

Editor: This is an open letter to all teachers.
TEACHERS BE HEARD!
The insulting, degrading TECAT is behind us (until June), but teacher testing is not. During a recent appearance on "Nightline", Mark White assured the audience that subject matter testing is definitely next.
On that same program, "semi-literate" was mentioned. How can a person earn a degree from a college accredited by the state and be called "semi-literate"? Subject matter testing is around the corner. Can

CHARMED LIFE ...

For a man who saw a lot of action during the Texas Revolution, William Scurlock led a charmed life. He walked away unscratched in the Grass Fight in December 1835. As a member of the Matamoros Expedition, he was one of the few who escaped at the battle of Aqua Dulce Creek in March 1836. He was captured with Fannin's men at Goliad, but because he was a hospital attendant, he was spared from the massacre. He escaped and rose to the rank of captain in the Texas army before the war ended in April 1836.

State tournament coaches from Rule

It may have been a first!

Two girls from the same town coached teams in the recent state basketball tournament.

Sue Kennedy and Sandy Oliver, who played their high school basketball at Rule, each led her team to the state tourney.

Mrs. Kennedy, the daughter of Mrs. Cleo Gann, is coach of A&M Consolidated, a 4A school, which lost in overtime to Levelland, 44-43, in the state finals.

Miss Oliver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rayberne Oliver, coached the Nazareth girls who reached the 1A finals where they lost to Snook, 36-33. She also serves as an assistant coach for the Nazareth boys' team which won the state 1A championship.

Kennedy, who played at Rule under Coach Ray Fulenwider, has been head coach at A&M

Consolidated for the past four years, after having served as an assistant for five years. Her team went into the state tournament with a 31-1 record.

Oliver, who played at Rule under Coach Jasper Wilson, was in her first year as head coach at Nazareth, after having served three years as an assistant. Before going to Nazareth, she was head coach three years at Tahoka. Her Nazareth team reached the state tournament with a 27-4 record.

According to Success! which surveyed pet shops in many cities, the three most popular pets currently are Akita puppies, iguanas and macaws. Sources indicate that pet diets are often better balanced than those of the children in the family, largely because the pets are given fewer options.

President's report

Where do we want to go?

This banquet marks the end of one year and the beginning of another for the Haskell Chamber of Commerce. Hopefully, we can look at the past year and develop a plan of work which will make 1986 the best year ever in Haskell.

1985 and the beginning of 1986 has been a time when we are constantly told how bad everything is. Is it? Certainly it could be better, but most of us can remember when it was a lot worse. What we must pledge to ourselves and to each other is to remain positive, to remain active, and to give our time, talent and money to advance our town.

A few days ago I saw a sign which said, "when you get to the end of your rope, tie a knot and hold on". I think instead of dreading "the end of the rope" we ought to be working together to help each other get to the top.

One of the biggest challenges of the Chamber is getting people involved. We all realize how easy it is to criticize, how easy it is to help only when things are going the way we like, and how easy it is to say, "I don't have time". It has been a pleasure serving as Chamber President during 1985 and working with so many individuals who have gotten involved, offered good ideas for improvement and have taken the time to help Haskell and the chamber.

Looking at 1986 we've got to have a goal. We've got to decide where we want our businesses to be this time next year, where we want our chamber to be and where we want Haskell to be. We have to keep the goals in sight at all times, working on them in steps. Only by looking forward can we go forward. Each of us doing a little will accomplish a lot.

We have a wonderful group of people on the Chamber board. They need your encouragement, your ideas and your help if we are to make 1986 a year in which we all realize our goals.

Chamber organized in 1936

The Haskell Chamber of Commerce was organized in 1936 with Dr. T. W. Williams as its first president.

It evolved from another organization, The Board of City Development, of which R. C. Couch Sr. was president.

The goals of the first Chamber were very similar to those of today—retail trade, expansion, industrial development, community betterment, tourist attraction, agribusiness, oil interests and a community spirit of unity.

Individually, we can all do some. Collectively, we can do much. Together, we will.

Chamber adopts ambitious goals

There are 16 members of the Board of Directors of the Haskell Chamber of Commerce, rotating tenures and elected by the entire membership.

Officers are elected by the board itself.

Goals include:

1. Making known the resources of Haskell and promoting the town in its endeavors.

2. Working with other organizations and groups in close cooperation, and often serving as an umbrella for combined efforts.

3. Actively pursue industrial development, working closely with the Industrial Foundation to this end.

4. To expand retail trade.

5. To sponsor seminars, etc., for community betterment.

6. To plan activities to draw large crowds to Haskell.

7. To publicize our town.

8. To attract tourists.

9. To offer membership to all businesses and any individuals who want to support their town through the Chamber.

10. To keep abreast of developments in agriculture and oil interests.

11. To maintain liaison with churches and schools.

12. To be aware of resources and their availability.

13. To spearhead such activities as determined by the Board of Directors and membership to enhance and promote Haskell.

The Chamber office is located at 526 South 2nd. The Haskell Chamber of Commerce is financed through membership dues and any projects from the annual banquet and the Country Dinner Theater held in the fall.

Everyday the Haskell Chamber of Commerce is working for you.

Congressman

Among our guests

Congressman Charles Stenholm will be among the out-of-town dignitaries at the Haskell Chamber of Commerce banquet.

He will bring greetings as one Texan to other Texans in a message of pride about our state.

Sesquicentennial activities planned

The State and the nation are celebrating the Texas Sesquicentennial, with natives planning spectacular events and network television programs on hand to show America and the world a review of our colorful past.

Facilities available for tourism

With the new Civic Center, the Community Room of Haskell National Bank, the Corral Building and the American Legion Hall, Haskell has a variety of meeting places for groups of different sizes.

As choice of several good restaurants, two motels and Haskell being the trade center of the territory further enhances the locale for convention or conference sites.

Board member Kay Smith is chairman of Tourism with the Haskell Chamber of Commerce.

Welcome Committee stays active

The Welcoming Committee of the Haskell Chamber of Commerce is headed by Board member Carolyn Reynolds.

They are seen at all Chamber functions, and offer their services to each new business by appearing at their grand opening, open house, etc.

Visible in red vests, white shirts, blue bandana kerchiefs, blue jeans or navy skirts, they brighten the many functions which they are asked to attend.

Members include Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Reynolds, Grace Womack, Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson, Sandy Horton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thornhill, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Rodriguez, Mr. and Mrs. Wayman McBroom, Andy Gannaway, Mr. and Mrs. John Wayne McDermott, Mrs. Frank Cadenhead, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Grand, Mr. and Mrs. Hess Hartsfield, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Hester, Tommy Watson, Pat Casselberry and Tom Watson.

Jerrene Couch is doing an excellent job as chairman of both the City and the County observances. She has devoted countless hours in making our local celebration one of distinction.

She has involved all civic organizations, schools and churches, and the present lineup shows an average of at least one major activity per month during 1986—and it's only March!

We are fortunate to have a history teacher in our high school who is in love with Texas history and relates it willingly to civic groups. If anyone wasn't interested in Texas history before they heard Greg Melton, they surely are now!

Someone once told the story of the old man who was chastised for bragging about Texas. "It ain't braggin' if ya done it," he answered.

And Texans have much to boast about!

Chamber seeking industry

The Industrial Development Committee of the Haskell Chamber of Commerce is continually on the lookout for potential industries to locate here.

Bob Brandon, chairman, says the Chamber works closely with the Industrial Foundation and pursues all leads that might result in such expansion.

Chamber officials are negotiating with some prospects now, one of which has confirmed that it will definitely relocate here as soon as its property elsewhere is sold. This will provide seven full-time employees and 20 part-time workers.

Anyone who hears of a potential industry is asked to contact Bob Brandon or the Chamber office with the assurance that it will be pursued.

Women's clothing to be modeled

Style shows are generally staged with women in mind, but it is predicted that the men in the audience will equally enjoy the Sesquicentennial Fashion Show at the Haskell Chamber of Commerce banquet.

The presentation, to be narrated by Bettye McBroom, will include styles of women's clothing during the 150 years in Texas history, and especially the 50 year period since the Haskell Chamber of Commerce was organized in 1936.

Co-sponsors are the five women's dress shops of Haskell: Personality Shoppe, The Yellow Rose, The Clothes Closet, The Hayloft and Lane-Felker. Personnel are collecting authentic clothing which will be modeled down a runway outlined by tumbleweeds on a stage resplendent with items from Texas history.

Chamber Board member and Decorations chairman Delight Jones, assisted by Board wives Ruby Turner and Peggy Lane (and much help from Delight's family) plan to transform the Civic Center into a replica of the Old West for the banquet.

Happy 50th!

City offers help on lighting project

At the Feb. 25 meeting of the Haskell City Council, the group granted the request by the Haskell Chamber of Commerce to be responsible for the installation and dismantling of the downtown Christmas decorations.

The Board of Directors, on behalf of the Chamber membership, is grateful to the City for this decision.

The Haskell Jaycees first assumed the responsibility for the raising of funds, the installation and the dismantling of all the annual downtown Christmas decorations.

Jaycee President Charles Thornhill, also a Chamber Board member, asked the Chamber of Commerce to sponsor the program after the Jaycees disbanded.

The decorations were financed in 1978 by donations from merchants and other businesses, the City of Haskell, Haskell County and various organizations and individuals.

Thornhill has remained the Chairman of this undertaking ever since, recruiting volunteers to help him with the project. They often worked in sleet, rain, wind and snow, but despite inclement weather, they saw to it that Haskell looked beautiful each year.

Charles resigned this position after the 1985 Christmas season, but his leadership and his motivation of helpers will long be remembered and deeply appreciated.

This is a public "Thank You" to such unsung heroes who deserve much praise.

Everyday the Haskell Chamber of Commerce is working for you.

Civic Center represents dream come true

Haskell residents and many exes are watching a dream come true—the Haskell Memorial Civic Center.

With R.C. Couch, Jr., president and a Board of Directors comprised of civic leaders, an entire town has been responsible for its present status, which enables it to be used despite needed funds for its completion.

Virtually every club and organization in Haskell has held at least one fund-raising activity in its behalf and if each of them will sponsor another benefit during 1986, the remaining financial needs can be met.

A door-to-door solicitation has been made to every business and every resident, giving individuals opportunity to participate. Many former residents have made donations also.

Even though it is not completed, the Civic Center is in almost constant use, bearing out the contention that such a place was greatly needed and is being utilized even beyond expectations.

The Haskell Chamber of Commerce salutes the leaders, the workers and the contributors who share this dream.

Bookings for functions at the Civic Center can be made through Tom Watson.

YELLOW ROSE OF TEXAS

There's a yellow rose in Texas
That I am going to see
She loves no other fellow
She loves no one but me.
She cried so when I left her
It almost broke my heart
And when once more I see her
We never more will part
She's the sweetest rose of Texas
A fellow ever knew
Her hair is soft and golden
Her eyes sparkle like the dew
You may talk about
Your Clementine
And sing of Rosa Lee
But my yellow rose of Texas
Is the girl I long to see.

TEXAS OUR TEXAS

Texas our Texas
All hail the mighty state
Texas our Texas
So wonderful, so great
Boldest and grandest
Withstanding every test
O empire wide and glorious
You stand supremely blest.
God bless you Texas
And keep you brave and strong
That you may grow
In power and worth
Throughout the ages known.

THE EYES OF TEXAS

The eyes of Texas
Are upon you
All the live long day
The eyes of Texas
Are upon you
You cannot get away
Do not think
You can escape them
At night or early
In the morn
The eyes of Texas
Are upon you
Till Gabriel blows his horn.

DEEP IN THE HEART OF TEXAS

The stars at night
Are big and bright
(clap, clap, clap, clap)
Deep in the heart of Texas
Reminds me of the one I love
(clap, clap, clap, clap)
Deep in the heart of Texas
The sage in bloom
Is like perfume
(clap, clap, clap, clap)
Deep in the heart of Texas
The prairie sky
Is wide and high
