G.T.E. names new agent

Sport About in Haskell has been chosen local service agency for General Telephone Co. The new location at 402 N. 1st, is effective Jan. 19.

Business hours will be from 9 a.m. until 5:30 p.m., Monday through Saturday.

Ray Krueger of Olney, local GTE manager, said the local office will have all the advantages of a telephone business office.

"Customers will be able to save money by taking advantages of services offered through the agency such as picking up phones which can be taken home and plugged into GTE phone jacks or returning phones when disconnecting services," Krueger said.

Customers also can use the service agency for paying telephone bills, to see the latest in telephone instruments and accessories, to call the GTE business office to install, add or discontinue service, return phones, purchase miscellaneous equipment, such as phone mart jacks to avoid the jack charge and premise visit charge that applies if the company makes the installation.

"This agency gives customers an opportunity to take advantage of many cost-saving services available, allowing them to participate in the maintenance of their telephone service at the lowest price," Krueger said.

Students register Thursday

Registration will be from 6:30 to 8 p.m. today (Thursday) at the Haskell extension of Western Texas College.

Faye Mullino has top steer at Odessa

Faye Mullino of Rochester showed the grand champion steer at the Sand Hills Hereford and Quarterhorse Show in Odessa Saturday.

Her steer was bred by Clarence Kroll of Garber, Okla., and was fed and shown under the supervision of Max Stapleton, Haskell County agent. It weighed 1,115 pounds and was sold in the premium sale.

In addition to receiving the grand champion trophy and banner, Faye was presented with a leather briefcase by the J. J. Willis family of Odessa and a sterling silver belt buckle as a memorial to Cal Smith.

Faye also won second place in the showmanship contest and was given a plaque for this. She was chosen out of 10 or 12 to participate in this contest.

Emergency farm loan applications being taken

Applications for emergency farm loans are being accepted at Farmers Home Administration in Haskell.

Larry P. McDaniel, FmHA county supervisor, said Haskell County is one of 26 counties in Texas recently named by the secretary of agriculture as eligible for loans to cover part actual production losses resulting from a natural disaster.

Classified as natural disasters are hail, high winds, excessive rain, flooding and early frost and freezing weather.

McDaniel said farmers may be eligible for loans of up to 80 percent of their actual losses or the operating loan needed to continue in business for $500,000, whichever is less. For farmers unable to obtain credit from private commercial lenders, the interest rate is 4.5 percent.

"As a general rule, a farmer must have suffered at least a 30-percent loss of production to be eligible for an FmHA emergency loan," McDaniel said. Farmers participating in the PIK or Federal Crop Insurance programs will have to figure in proceeds from those programs in determining their losses.

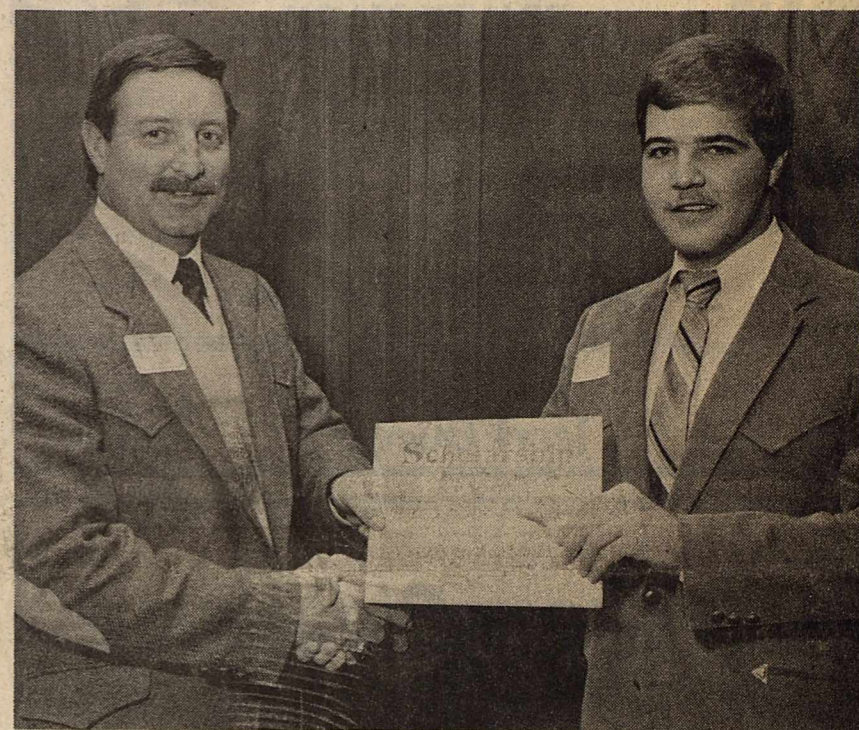

"Applications for loans under this emergency designation will be accepted until Aug. 31, but farmers should apply as soon as possible.

Delays in applying could create backlogs in processing and possibly over into the new farming season," McDaniel said.

FmHA is a credit agency of the U.S. Department of Agriculture. It is authorized to provide disaster emergency loans to recognized farmers who work at and rely on farming for a substantial part of their living. Eligibility is extended to individual farmers who are American citizens and to farming partnerships and cooperatives in which U.S. citizens hold a majority interest.

The FmHA office in Haskell is open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

GARDEN CLUB PROJECT

Members of the Haskell Garden Club planted two crepe myrtles Tuesday in front of the Experienced Citizens Center as an Arbor Day project. Assisting in the planting were Tom Kaigler, Chunky Tidwell, Linda King, Bernadine Blankenship and Juanita Rhea.

Study Club has lesson in aerobics

The Progressive Study Club met at 7:30 p.m. Jan. 8 at the Community Bank Building.

The meeting was called to order by president Pat Quattlebaum. Pat turned the meeting over to program director Sandra Wallace.

Sandra introduced Laura Tidwell, nationally certified aerobic instructor. Sandra explained starting a new year was a good time for an exercise and fitness program.

Laura Tidwell taught how to warm up, do an aerobic exercise and how to cool down. She explained the importance of exercise for the heart, lungs, lowering cholesterol levels and for one's well-being.

After the exercise, members returned to their seats for a program on "Nutrition for Health," brought by Judy Patton. She gave several handouts on "Guide to Good Eating," "What You Need to Know About Water and Food" and "How to Measure Your Body Fat."

Refreshments of celery, carrots, cauliflower, broccoli, cucumber dip, pimento cheese, peanut butter, crackers, apple juice, tomato juice and decaffeinated coffee were served by Mary Martin, Cathy Kemp, Robbie Pitman and Mary Rosser.

After refreshments, members returned to their seats for a business meeting.

New officers for the coming year of 1988 were presented to the members. The following officers were elected: Reatha Mullins, president; Mary Kaigler, first vice president; Margaret Jones, second vice president; Donna Cole, recording secretary; Thelma Thomas, corresponding secretary; Jill Druessedow, historian; Lucille Gannaway, treasurer; and Pat Quattlebaum, board member.

The constitution and by-laws were read by members. Fines, dues and meetings missed by members were discussed.

Lucille Gannaway read a letter from Girls Town thanking the club for Christmas gifts sent to Girls Town.

Members voted to give $500 for its scholarship fund.

The scholarship fund is increased by memorial gifts in honor of deceased loved ones. Eighty dollars was given to the fund in memory of Betty Jo (Herren) Howard.

Donations may be made in memory of loved ones by mailing contributions to Mrs. Lucille Gannaway, Star Route, Haskell.

The number of donors volunteering to commit 2 - 3 hours to donate platelets by apheresis is increasing steadily.

100th birthday celebrated

Beulah Persons celebrated her 100th birthday Sunday afternoon at Rice Springs Care Home.

Her daughter, Ruby Sue Hunter, welcomed guests and Margaret Brown, granddaughter, presided over guest registration.

Brian Burgess read a sketch of Mrs. Persons' life which was compiled by Glenda Drinnon. Members of the First United Methodist Choir sang several hymns, accompanied by Nelda Lane at the piano.

Flowers, balloons, cake and punch contributed to the birthday atmosphere. Family pictures and albums added a nostalgic note.

Christine Greene coordinated local arrangements. Serving as hostesses were Mary Bischofhausen, Jo Cox, Odell Bynum and Charley Henry.

Out-of-town guests include dMr. and Mrs. Charles Hunter of New Orleans, Mr. and Mrs. Barry Brown of Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Moody of Colorado City, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Marshall and Mrs. Mary Eleanor Long of Houston.

Garden Club has 'planting' program

Quoting an old Chinese proverb, "Keep a green tree in your heart and perhaps the singing bird will come," program director Mary Kaigler introduced the theme of "Planting with a Love for Others" when the Haskell Garden Club met Jan. 8.

Those presenting the program on "What Trees Can Do," "Landscaping for Energy Conservation" and "Flowering Trees" were Callie Robison, Lorene Dewey and Neet Bevel.

Following the program on trees, Mary Kaigler, in giving "My Heart Sings as the Bird Sings," excerpts from the works of several poets, ancient and contemporary, illustrated man's abiding love for the birds.

Creative arrangements with the theme of "Mid-Winter Night's Dream" were brought by Juanita Rhea, Bernadine Blankenship and Mary Kaigler. Horticulture specimens brought included areca palm, pink begonia, vinca, copper plant, pyracantha and nandina.

Molly Carlisle was introduced and welcomed as a new member. Also welcomed was a guest, Dee Sprayberry.

During a business session it was decided that the Arbor Day tree which the club gives each year will be planted at the Experienced Citizens Center. A crape myrtle, to be pruned and trained as a tree, will be planted there during January.

Amending the bylaws to make the term of office extend to two years, the club retained the present slate of officers to serve through next year. These are Linda King, president; Mary Kaigler, first vice president; Juanita Rhea, second vice president; Lorene Dewey, recording secretary; Mary Bischofhausen, treasurer; Edith Jones, corresponding secretary; and Callie Robison, parliamentarian.

Hobby Club

At the Jan. 6 meeting of the Rochester Hobby Club, Shelly Speck as hostess served an enjoyable pot luck meal to 11 members and three visitors.

Happy birthday was sung to Ardell Beason, Shelley Speck, Mattie Lou Cole, Tinnie Mae Short and Lewis Hester. The club sent $50 to the Rehab center as a memorial to past members. The Rochester High School junior girls' quilt, "Hands All Around" was finished.

The following officers were chosen for 1987:

Annie Marshall, president; Shelly Speck, first vice president; Helen Cox, second vice president; Evelyn Rogers, secretary; Mae Speck, treasurer; and Emily Wilson, reporter.

Members of the Building Committee are Helen Cox, Mae Speck and Tinnie Short. Quilt Committee members Eron McGuire, Blanche Corley and Shelly Speck. Heading the Communication Committee is Mattie Lou Cole, and trustees are Mae Speck, Olga Alvis and Helen Cox.

Next meeting of the club will be Jan. 20 with Emily Wilson as hostess.

Visitors and new members are always welcome.

Approximately 40% of the population are medically eligible to be donors, however, less than 10% are the "quiet heroes and heroines" that provide the blood needed for the entire population.

—Letters to the Editor—

Praises firemen

Editor: On Dec. 5, at approximately 1:15 a.m., I awoke to the smell of smoke. When arising I discovered our house was on fire in the vicinity of the den-dining area.

We all got out of the house OK, reported the fire from a neighbor's house and waited for the fire trucks. Very shortly, firemen began to arrive and were ready when the trucks got there. Once at work, the men had the fire out in a short time.

I want the citizens of Haskell to know what a professionally trained fire department we really have. We as residents should be extremely grateful and very proud of these men.

They were so thoughtful in every way! And just consider, these men volunteer their time, services, support and much more for their community on a volunteer basis.

To the men and wives of the Haskell Fire Department, we owe a great amount of gratitude and continued support.

Wayne, Britta & Tiffany Bradford

Mrs. Owens

Editor: I would also like to voice a word or two in support and praise at the passing of Mrs. Owens.

In the fall of 1947 I can remember this lady, having us in the first grade to put on our thinking caps and teaching us The Lord's Prayer, Luke 2: 8-14, the pledge of allegiance to our flag and reading from Marshall Sanders' book, Beautiful Joe.

This lady didn't have to tell her students she loved them; each and everyone of us knew were loved and respected by Mrs. Owens.

Some four years ago after my kids had left home, my wife and I stopped in Stamford to see her. Her first words were, "Bill, you know how I loved you, and you know I still do."

I wish my children had had an acquaintance with Mrs. Owens. I know they would have received a blessing.

I praise my Lord for making Mrs. Owens a part of my early life.

I thank you, Mrs. Owens, for loving me and being that special person who will always be dear to me. You set such an example and were such a credit to your profession.

Keep it coming!

Editor: As you are no doubt aware, I am once again late with my subscription to your newspaper.

I'm not late because I don't enjoy it, quite the opposite is true of course. Neither do I think it's due to old age. I've always been absent-minded, and besides, since passing 40 years several missed subscription dates back, I've come to appreciate the adage about how wisdom comes with age, and surely wise people don't miss subscription deadlines. Anyway, I suppose I could offer any number of excuses, and each would be about as good as another, and all would be of approximately equal value.

At any rate, enclosed is a check for another year (I guess 11 months is more accurate at this point) of your keeping me updated regarding the whereabouts, heartaches, thrills, births, current events and countless other items of news regarding the people I grew up with, their families, and the community I continue to think of as "home."

I appreciate the information, and thank you most kindly for your tolerance despite my tardiness.

Lost dog

Editor: I write this letter with a very sad heart. I have lost my best friend and I am frantically searching for any clues as to his whereabouts and condition.

My name is Jack Coker and my friend is my dog Buttons. You see I have been in the hospital since Dec. 20 with back surgery and it was during this time some friends borrowed my dog to go hunting.

Yes, Buttons is a coonhound. He's white color with black spots. He'll be 7 years old Jan. 31.

My friends were hunting southwest of Haskell when the dogs went different directions. They found their dogs but after days of searching were unable to find my Buttons. He was lost near the Paint Creek community, but could be anywhere by now.

I have prayed more for the safe return of Buttons more than I have my injured back. I ask for your help in helping me find my dog, or at least what happened to him.

Even if he's been trapped or killed, please call me and at least I can put myself to rest for worrying about him.

I do hold God and my family first, but I really consider Buttons my family.

I'm now home from the hospital so any calls will be deeply appreciated. If you have Buttons, a reward will be offered for his return.

I live in Rule and my number is 817-997-2636. Please call.

Cotton harvest was delayed again this week because of rain. The modules and storage gives the gins little rest, and both gins have been kept busy in spite of the temporary stoppage of the stripper machines. Temperatures have been in the 20° at night, and frost each morning looks like a light snow. The wheat is looking good, except places where greenbugs are at work.

Weinert shares the grief of the McGuire's as we say good-bye to a very dear friend, Ralph McGuire of Rochester, brother of Ernest McGuire of Weinert, and step-father of Jimmie Weinert. Ralph was interred in the Rochester cemetery Friday, January 9.

R. S. and Betty Sanders are in Houston, where R. S. will receive chemotherapy this week. They request your continued prayers on their behalf.

Warren and Jewel Johnson of Ft. Worth are visiting relatives and friends here this weekend, and spent some time with Warren's sisters, Faye Brian and Mynnie and Eddie Sanders.

Kregg Sanders is home from an extended visit with his brother, Lt. Keith Sanders who is stationed in Korea. Kregg has many interesting stories to tell about his trip and the nation of Korea. He will return to his school work at the North Texas University in Denton this week.

Cristi Guess Herricks has finished her academic work for an educational degree from Midwestern University and will begin her student teaching in Seymour this week. Congratulations, Cristi.

May 30th, 1987 will be the date for the first homecoming for all who have attended a rural school in Haskell county. We are passing the word so you might contact others to plan to attend this first get-together of rural students. The fine edition compiled and printed recently stirred many memories to surface, hence the desire to have a reunion. Will you help "pass it on"?

Becky Fry of Bowie spent a few days with her parents, Ernest and Louise McGuire, and attended memorial services for her uncle Ralph on Saturday.

Other guests of the McGuire's included Becky's son Tommy McGuire and family of Haskell, and Louise's brother "Babe" Bennett of Ft. Worth. Babe was Ralph's brother-in-law, and also attended the services.

Darlene Carroll of San Angelo visited in Weinert and Haskell this weekend. She was surprised to read her mother had been to North Carolina with Rene Vojkufka and relieved to find it was a typographical error and it was Dovie Carroll who went, instead of Doris.

Dena Walker of Vernon was home to see her parents, Jerry and Doris, with "big" brother Barry this weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Aiken of Rochester and Francis Mahan were dinner guests in the home of Ima Stewart on Sunday.

Buck and Helen Turnbow visited their daughter Jeaneane and family over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Aiken of Rochester were visitors at the Weinert Church of Christ on Sunday, where Owen was guest speaker in the absence of the local preacher, Roy Phemister. Roy and Leta were called to Edinburg, Texas because of the death of a dear friend there. He preached the memorial services on Saturday.

Our local Cable TV service is slowly being implemented in Weinert. The weather has deterred installation, but the beautiful sunshine we are experiencing will hasten the service and soon every household will enjoy cable viewing.

Pearl Monke, a former resident here, and our postmistress from 1920 to 1951, sends her greetings to each of you. In a telephone call to Clyde and Atie Bell Mayfield, from her home in Tarpon Springs, Florida, she asked about many old-timers and asked to be remembered.

We remember her with fondness and happy to know she is well. She is Pearl Hinnicke now, makes her home with her daughter, Alpha Mary Stork and on February 18, Pearl will celebrate her 91st birthday! She reads the Haskell Free Press, enjoys the Weinert News, and would love a note from any of you. Her address is 1264 Holiday Lane, Tarpon Springs, Fla. 33589.

Robert Ivey helps team to big season

Robert Ivey, a 1985 Haskell High School graduate, was a top performer for the Tarleton State Texans during the 1986 football season.

The nationally ranked Texans were the undefeated Texas Interscholastic Athletic Association conference champions and winners of the Sunflower Bowl. They were the first TIAA team to go undefeated in conference play since 1982. Their only loss came in the first week of non-conference play.

Ivey, a sophomore linebacker, led the team in tackles, averaging 10 a game. He was a second-team all-conference selection.

After the Texans won the TIAA title, they received a bid to play in the Sunflower Bowl in Winfield, Kan., the only NAIA bowl game in the nation. They were ranked the No. 8 NAIA team in the country. Their opponents were the No. 11 ranked Benedictine College Ravens of Atchison, Kan.

The Texans won the Sunflower Bowl, 40-38. Ivey was the leading tackler with 15.

Attending the bowl game in Winfield were Ivey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Ivey, and Mr. and Mrs. Blue Holt and sons, Stephen and David. The Texans ended their season with a 9-1-1 record.

Rochester pair chosen coaches for all-star team

Rochester coaches Doug Gore and Billy Stone have been elected to coach the East team in the annual 6-man all-star football game. The annual contest will be played in Stephenville in July.

The duo coached the Rochester Steers to an 11-2 record during the 1986 season. The Steers reached the state semifinals.

Coaching the West in the all-star game will be Ron Brandon and John Salmon of Harrold.

Stamford next foe for Haskell

Stamford will provide the opposition here Friday night when the Haskell basketball teams go after their third straight district 7-AA victories. The Indian teams will play at Hawley next Tuesday.

The Indians brought their district record to 2-0 here last Friday with a 66-60 win over Albany. Brad Bevel led the balanced Indian attack which saw scoring by 10 different team members.

The Maidens also won their second 7-AA game in two outings by beating the Lady Lions, 57-43. Julie Roewe scored 19 points to pace the scoring for the Maidens.

TAX PLANNING
Written By Gerald Rodgers, CPA

AGE 55 - RESIDENCE SALE

The federal income tax law allows you to sell a residence and pay no income tax on up to $125,000 of gain, if you qualify. In addition to being at least 55 years old before the sale, you must have owned and used the property as your principal residence for a total of at least three out of the last five years. You may elect the $125,000 exclusion only once in your lifetime.

Note that the exclusion is on $125,000 of gain, and not $125,000 of sales price. In other words, a residence purchased for $100,000 and sold for $225,000 would go untaxed if you otherwise qualify.

You are also entitled to use this age-55 exclusion in conjunction with the replacement of residence tax provision. This is very useful for people who want to sell their larger family residence and purchase a smaller home.

The following example illustrates how a residence costing $50,000 can be sold for $200,000 without creating a current tax liability.

Example:

Selling price of residence	$200,000
Less: Fees and expenses	12,500
Amount realized (adjusted selling price)	187,500
Less: Cost of residence	50,000
Gain realized	137,500
Less: Over-55 exclusion	125,000
Gain recognized (taxable)	$12,500

The $12,500 of gain will not be taxed if you purchase a new residence for $62,500 or more ($12,500 gain plus $50,000 cost of old home) within two years.

Don't apply this tax information to your specific situation without professional assistance. As with all tax laws, there are other considerations which need to be reviewed before you enter into any binding agreements.
