

Phone tax okayed

The City of Haskell will begin charging a one-percent tax on all telephone calls (local and long distance) originating from Haskell.

The tax, to become effective Oct. 1, is expected to raise about $7,000 a year.

Authority for the tax is granted through an ordinance passed by the Council during its April 14 meeting.

City administrator Robert Baker pointed out that virtually all City revenues are down--sales taxes, water sales and franchise fees. The phone tax will partly offset these losses.

In other action, the Council:

- Canvassed the results of the April 4 city election.
- Approved the re-appointment of Jerry Stocks as mayor pro tem.
- Approved a request from Lone Star Gas Co. to increase its base cost by 19 cents per customer.

Pool project proceeds

Work is progressing on the Haskell City Swimming Pool and it should be open by June 1.

City administrator Robert Baker said this week that some of the work may not be completed by the opening date, but it should be far enough along to allow use of the pool.

The pool project, which includes a new filtration system and remodeled bath house facilities, is a $126,000 project, being partially financed by a $63,000 grant from the State Parks and Wildlife Commission. The City is required to raise the other half of the cost, some of which can be in the form of labor and use of equipment.

Some contributions have been made to the pool fund and some fundraising projects have added to the money available. City councilmen say they appreciate all contributions but they do not at this time intend to actively solicit funds.

Kiwanis luncheon Sunday

The annual Kiwanisfest will be held Sunday at the Haskell Memorial Civic Center.

Serving of the roast beef lunch begins at 11:30 a.m. and will continue until 1:30 p.m.

Admission will be $5 per person, with children under 12 getting in for half price. Proceeds will be used for the benefit of senior citizens.

Tickets may be purchased from any member of the Haskell Kiwanis club.

Luncheon cancelled

This Sunday's luncheon at the Haskell Country Club has been cancelled, because of the Kiwanisfest scheduled for the same day.

TAKES IT IN

This unidentified youngster seems more interested in the track meet than he is in refreshments during the district track meet in Hamlin Friday.

Farmers have until May 1 for reports

Farmers who enrolled in the 1987 wheat, feed grain and cotton acreage reduction programs should now prepare to certify or report their program acres, reminds Glenn R. Brzozowski, executive director of the Haskell County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

The sign-up period for this year's farm program ended March 30.

Farm program participants in Haskell County have until May 1 to report the acres and intended uses of their wheat, barley, oats, rye and other fall-seeded crops to ASCS. Small grain crops that are not reported by this deadline will be ineligible for program benefits, Brzozowski said.

ASCS uses acreage reports to determine compliance with farm programs. Before farmers can receive price support loans, deficiency payments and other program benefits, they must certify their entire farm planting. The reports contain crops and acreages planted, the uses to be made of these crops, and cropland acres to be devoted to acreage conservation reserve.

Measurement service is available for producers who have acreage planted in irregular shapes or other acreage that is difficult to measure. The request must be filed by the May 1 deadline to insure program benefits.

Doctors recommended for sanction

Drs. Frank and Wayne Cadenhead are still accepting Medicare patients, although they have been recommended for sanctioning by the Texas Medical Foundation.

Dr. Wayne Cadenhead told The Free Press this week that he and his father have received official notification from the TMF that they have been recommended for sanction to the Inspector General.

They have 30 days from the date of that notice to appeal, which the local physician said they would do. After that 30 days, Dr. Cadenhead said the IG would have 120 days to make a final determination.

The TMF recommendation does not affect the pair's right to participate in the Medicare program at this time. They will be barred from the Medicare program, however, if the IG imposes sanctions.

City throws support behind cleanup effort

The City of Haskell and different local organizations are giving full support to "The Great Texas Trash Off," scheduled statewide this Saturday.

In fact, the City is making a whole week of it.

Mayor Abe Turner has proclaimed April 25-May 2 as "The Great Haskell Trash Off" and the City is throwing in some "goodies" to entice everyone to participate.

All next week, Monday through Friday, the City will empty dumpsters any time they are full. Residents need only to call City Hall and a truck to pick up the dumpster will be dispensed.

In addition, the City will provide a trailer for items which are too large to dispose of in dumpsters, such as old appliances, etc. The trailer will be located in various areas of the city. A call to City Hall will let the caller know where the trailer is located at the time.

There will be no charge to anyone for the special services being offered next week by the City.

On Monday of this week, Haskell Boy Scouts got a jump on the state program by "policing" a section of US 277 South. Earlier, the Boy Scouts had assumed responsibility for keeping litter picked up along that road through the "Adopt-a-Highway" program.

More than 15,000 Texans have volunteered to take to the state's roads Saturday in the largest one-day cleanup effort in the nation. "The Great Texas Trash Off" is expected to remove trash off an estimated 2,000 miles of Texas highways.

"Our goal is not just to clean up after people who trash our highways," said Don Clark, spokesman with the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation.

"The real objective is to demonstrate how much trash there is on our roadways and convince folks to keep it off the roadside. Approximately 50,000 40-gallon garbage bags will be used to collect the cans, paper, packaging and other trash that litters Texas roadways.

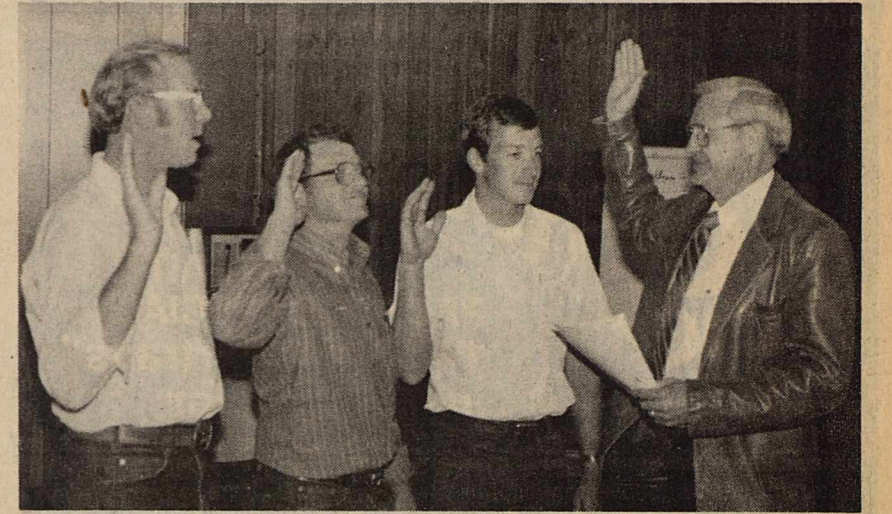

The highway department began an aggressive war against litter 18 months ago under the tough-talking "Don't Mess With Texas" banner.

The program, the first of its kind in the U.S. to speak directly to "habitual" litterers, is credited with a 29-percent reduction in trash in its first year.

"The Great Texas Trash Off" will employ the volunteer efforts of Adopt-a-Highway groups throughout the Lone Star State. Community, civic and business organizations actually "adopt" stretches of highways and organize several cleanup activities annually.

The Adopt-a-Highway program is an innovative, new effort by the Texas highway department to get Texans more involved in the war against trash. More than 1,300 groups have joined the program since it was introduced in April 1986.

SWORN IN

Beginning new terms last Tuesday night as members of the Haskell City Council are, from left, Jerry Stocks, Darrell Smith and Robert Kramp. Swearing them in is Mayor Abe Turner. Stocks and Smith were re-elected in the April 4 city election, while Kramp was elected to his first term.

Hamburger supper scheduled May 1

The Haskell Memorial Civic Center Board will sponsor a Hamburger Supper and Variety Show on Friday of next week (May 1).

The supper will be from 6 to 7:30 p.m. and the variety show begins at 7:30.

Randy McLelland, minister of youth at the First Baptist Church, will be master of ceremonies and others will be giving of their talents.

Tickets are priced at $3 and proceeds will go toward purchase of sound equipment for the Civic Center.

Tickets may be purchased now from the following places: Haskell Free Press, Lane-Felker, Johnson Pharmacy, Haskell Chamber of Commerce and Haskell National Bank, or from any director: R. C. Couch, Jr., Tom Watson, Delight Jones, Carolyn Everett, Jerrene Couch, Mattie English, Bud Turnbow, Franciene Johnson, Mary Kaigler, Abe Turner, Dickie Greenwood, Jim Crain, Bill Comedy, Iva Lee Gipson, Pat Quattlebaum, Jill Harris and Linda King.

Plant cotton May 20

May 20 is uniform date set for planting cotton in Haskell County.

Compliance with the uniform planting date reduces the need for boll weevil insecticidal control and allows beneficial insect and spider populations to remain in the field to help protect the cotton from bollworm attack.

Artist depicts shuttle search

(Janet Syling is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Pennington of Haskell. She is a 1959 graduate of Haskell High School. The following article appeared in the Jan. 28 issue of the El Paso Times.)

An Alamogordo artist is applying the final brushstrokes to a painting depicting the grim aftermath of the Challenger disaster.

Janet Syling, a specialist in still lifes and patriotic scenes, has preserved in oil a view of shuttle debris recovery operations.

The Coast Guard commissioned Syling last February to paint her impressions of the search-and-recovery effort that followed.

She chose a scene from the night of Jan. 30, 1986, two and a half days after the explosion itself.

Her 14-by-48-inch oil-on-masonite painting will become part of the Coast Guard's permanent art collection in February and will go on national display this year.

"It was a real honor to be chosen for this," said Syling, who received the commission through her membership in the Salmagundi Club of New York. The art club screens work submitted to the Coast Guard Art Program.

Coast Guard ships steamed to the impact area near Cape Canaveral less than an hour after the explosion--which occurred a year ago today high above Florida's Atlantic Coast--to search for parts that could provide clues to the cause of the explosion.

The service coordinated a fleet of 15 military and NASA vessels that covered more than 150,000 square miles of ocean the next 11 days and retrieved more than 12 tons of floating and sunken debris, according to a Coast Guard report.

The Navy's undersea recovery operation lasted through April.

Syling said she chose to avoid scenes of the disaster itself and instead focused on the search for debris.

The painting depicts midnight activities in the harbor of Port Canaveral. The focus is a Coast Guard helicopter shining a searchlight on the dark sea.

A waxing moon illuminates the gloomy scene, which also shows five ships, including the cutter Dallas unloading a section of the shuttle. A crew prepares to board another cutter moored at a dock.

Syling said she deliberately placed the wreckage recovered that night far in the fuzzy background where it cannot be identified.

"The painting is sad enough without a bunch of terrible debris in it," she said.

Syling sketched the scene after spending a month at Cape Canaveral in July. Coast Guard officers escorted Syling and her husband, Jim, on several tours of the port and the shuttle impact area.

She worked from 500 photographs taken of the port, Coast Guard ships and shuttle launch pads.

THE REAL THING

The Flight for Life helicopter which made a public relations call in Haskell on Monday of last week made a "real" call at the local hospital Saturday. The helicopter was dispatched here to transport a Lubbock man from the Haskell hospital to St. Mary of the Plains Hospital in Lubbock.

Mrs. Roberts hosts Extension Club

The Weinert Home Extension Club met for its regular meeting in the home of Mrs. Anna Mas Roberts of Haskell.

Faye Jetton, president, presided and roll call was answered by "What I do to save $." A variety of tips were given on how to save money, from using leftovers, to using coupons and hunting specials. Panty hose renovations brought laughter from all present, but is a sensible tip to use.

Laverne Mayfield was elected delegate to the State Convention from the club, with Faye Jetton as alternate. Their names will be presented to Council for a final selection.

Myrtle Plemister and Alice Yates directed the program on "How to save $ when you don't have a dime to spare." In their observations they noted that two coffee breaks a day not only cost a business firm, but can account for approximately $600 a year (at 4 cups per day) to the user. If candy or doughnuts are added, it could add another $150 to a person's coffee-break cost. Cigarettes, at $1.75 per pack, one pack a day, amounts to about $647 per year. And beauty shops, well they quit meddling when they figured it cost them about $480 a year to maintain a nicely kept coiffure.

Refreshments were enjoyed by Mrs. J. E. Jetton, Mrs. M. C. Cunningham, Mrs. J. A. Mayfield, Mrs. Gus Rueffer, Mrs. Clovis Winchester, Mrs. Tom Yates, Mrs. Martin Plemister and the hostess, Mrs. J. D. Roberts.

The next meeting of the club will be May 5 in the home of Mrs. Gus Reuffer when the agent, Mrs. Lou Gilly, will present the program, "Improving Your Memory."

Thought for the day: Experience is what you get when you don't read the instructions.

FHA elects officers

The Haskell Future Homemakers of America met April 6 to elect new officers.

Those elected will be installed at the FHA banquet May 7.

New officers are Sharla Jetton, president; Gena Decker, vice president of programs; LaKay Gibbs, vice president of recreation; Wendy Smith, secretary; Kristi Brister, treasurer; and Christi Bartley remains the reporter.

Also at the meeting, a committee was appointed to be in charge of the banquet. Members on the committee are Sharla Jetton, Gena Decker, Christi Bartley, Sheree Marr and Devona McFadden.

Afterwards, refreshments were served by the hostesses, LaKay Gibbs and Wendy Smith. Christi Bartley won the door prize.

Easter breakfast enjoyed

The Fidelis class and the Naomi class of the First Baptist Church met April 16 for their annual Easter breakfast in the Educational Building. Mrs. Flora Pace catered the breakfast.

Tables were beautifully decorated carrying out the Easter theme. Each table had spring flowers and Easter eggs. The breakfast menu included egg omelet, link sausage, strawberries, orange juice, bran muffins and coffee. Ethel Lou Shelton gave the invocation.

Thelma Williamson, outreach leader, introduced Retha Mullins who brought a very inspiring story, "The Legend of the Dogwood Cross". She brought out the miracles like the creation of heaven and the earth, and how the stars were put in place, but none of these would have a purpose and meaning without the sacrifice of Jesus on the cross, and His resurrection. She quoted from the 14th chapter of John the great promises that because He lives we will live. Frances Lane dismissed in prayer.

The following members were present: Lois Sherman, Faye Gray, Thelma Williamson, Earmal Bevel, Iola Henshaw, Clara Biard, Pearl Walker, Freddie Ballard, Ruby Smith, Frances Bird, Frances Lane, Allene Wheatley, Grace McKelvin, Mildred Mancill, Elsie Roberts, Claudie Mae Bland, Virginia Henshaw, Mattie M. English, Juanita Rhea, Ruby Sullivan, Ozelle Frierson, Brytis Chamberlain, Veta Furrh, Betty Lou Brewer, Ora Childress, Leone Pearsey and Ethel Lou Shelton, and one guest, Retha Mullins.

We were proud to have Stacey Martin from Troop 136 of the Boy Scouts as a volunteer last week. He was working toward getting his service award by volunteering his time in helping our residents in several different types of activities.

Thanks to all the ladies who brought pies for the residents' Easter party. The residents really enjoyed having a piece of pie for a change.

Also, a huge thanks to the little ones who came out to hunt Easter eggs and the ones who hid the eggs and helped serve refreshments. Each of you brought back memories for each of our residents.

Commentary

Senators challenge governor's veto

AUSTIN—The Texas Senate stepped off the sidewalk and into the street last week to challenge Gov. Bill Clements' threatened quick-draw veto.

Senators gave final approval to a $40 billion budget, knowing full well it was $3 billion more than Clements said he would allow without a veto. It will also require that amount in new taxes.

Clements, who earlier signed legislation allowing private companies and local governments to build and operate prisons, called their budget "a giant step in the wrong way."

The budget now goes to the House where representatives are expected to trim a little, but not enough to suit Clements.

Some predict the budget will be presented to the governor in the waning hours of the session, and if he vetoes it, time will run out before lawmakers can get to the bloody, bloody task of overriding with two-thirds votes in both chambers. The issue may well have to be decided in a summer special session.

The Senate

In other action, the Senate passed legislation to:

- Permit universities, colleges and athletic conferences the right

officials more authority to deal with emergency budget problems when the Legislature is not in session.

In Committees

New measures shaped in committees and moving to the floor for debate include proposals to:

- Modify the controversial no-pass, no-play rule by shortening the suspension period from six weeks to three weeks (Senate).

- Drop parental consent for abortions for unmarried teenagers from the anti-abortion bill (Senate).

- Overhaul funding of universities and revise accounting and management practices for higher education (House).

Speaker Blasts Governor

Speaker Gib Lewis last week ripped Clements for flip-flopping on a $1 billion tax initiative and referendum to fund prison construction.

The governor also opposed Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby's three-point "Build Texas" plan to be financed by bonds.

"The only reason we were trying some of these smoke and mirrors and bonds and things was to try to appease the governor. Now we get the floor cut out from under us," Lewis said.

Texaco, Pennzoil

The Texaco-Pennzoil legal battle reached the Legislature last week with the two oil companies hiring the top lobbyists to work lawmakers.

Texaco wants legislation to help it avoid putting up $11 billion in bond money while courts sort out their squabble. Texaco claims the amount is exorbitant.

Prison Reform

State attorneys last week argued that Texas was working to comply with federal court-ordered prison reforms and should not be fined $800,000 a day in contempt charges.

However, federal judge William Wayne Justice told them he wants everything resolved in the question of compliance before any fine amounts are decided. That will take about three more weeks.

Justice then toured a Texas prison unit to view facilities for handicapped inmates.

In a related event, the Texas Adult Probation Commission approved the state's first "boot camp prison" to be built in the Beaumont-Port Arthur area, if funds can be found.

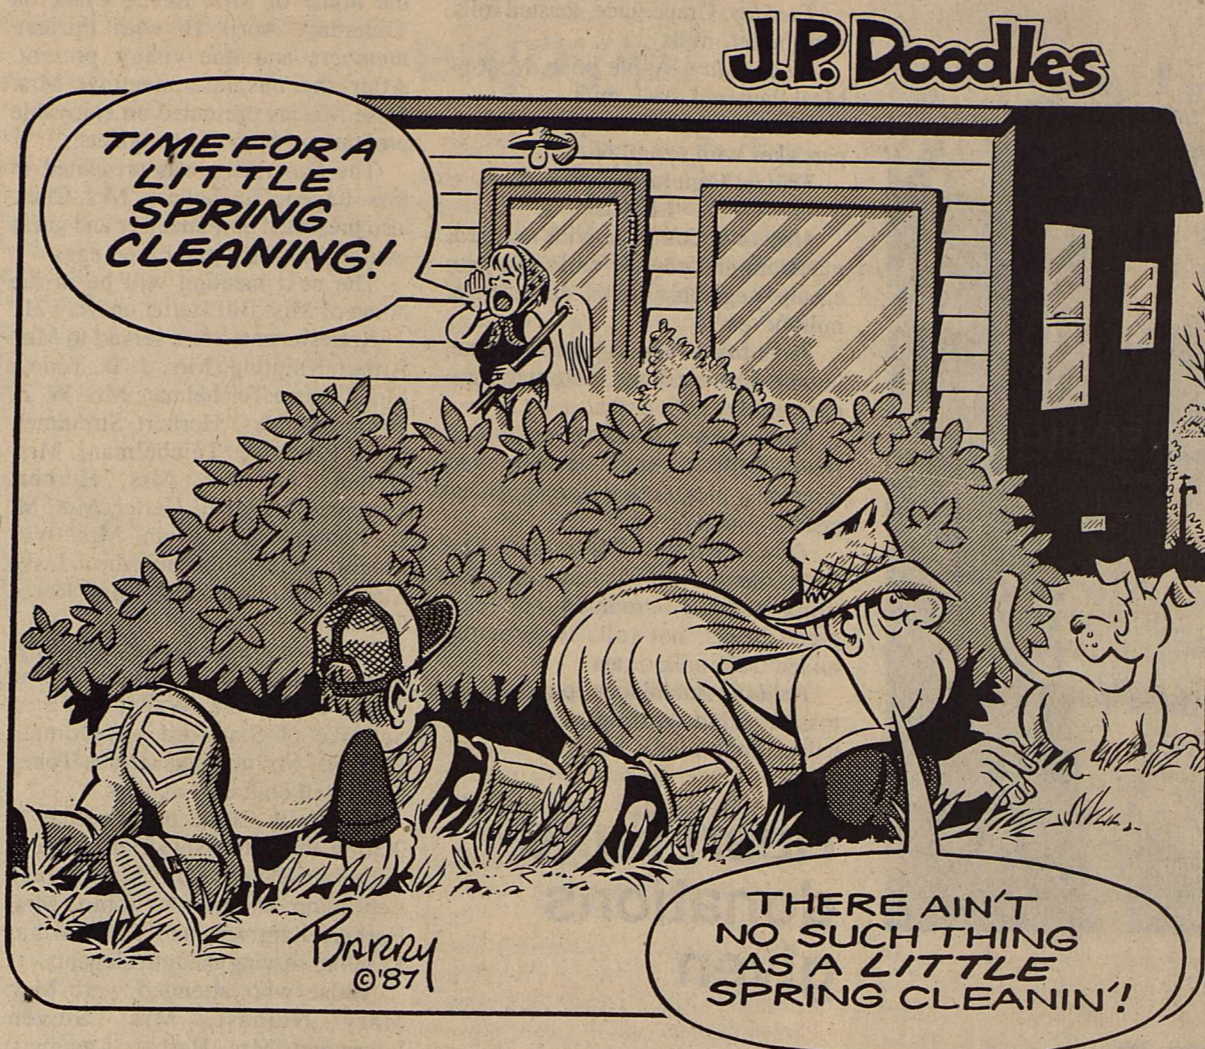

Prisoners would be placed in a regimented program similar to military boot camp for a period before probation.

Mouthful

What has a jaw large enough to drive a small car through and a body longer than two school buses?

Carcharodon megalodon, the 30-million-year-old ancestor of today's great white sharks.

Ranger Rick magazine reports there were no people around when this big fish lived. But if there were, the shark could have swallowed eight people at once.

Hydraulic brakes, automatic transmissions, power steering and fuel injection were perfected years ago. Long overdue, however, is a perfected seat-belt system.

The business section of Sunday's Dallas Morning News had a story which paid glowing tribute to the $17,371 (with options) Chrysler LeBaron. But after all the puff, came this indictment: "The shoulder belt always seems to be in the way upon entering or leaving the car."

From Blackie Sherrod's Commentary: "Jerry Max Lane, the C&W picker now in the booking biz (talent, not horses), doesn't understand why LSU didn't recruit more of the idled SMU footballers. They wouldn't have to learn but one new letter."

Like to run your own town? For 300 grand you can buy the town of Shadyside Village, Pa., and run it anyway you want.

The last count showed 148 people, 21 houses, 14 garages, a chapel, four paved streets, an ashed alley, a water system, a backhoe, a 1984 pickup, a stocked trout stream with swimming hole, a ballfield, a playground and a pair of horseshoe pits.

A limestone mining company built the town around the turn of the century. The company sold the town to a church in 1959, which sold it to an insurance salesman in 1965, who sold it to Jesse Buzzard in 1980, who has been trying to sell it since 1985.

Michael Jordan may be the hottest scorer pro basketball has seen since Ol' Shep was a pup, but he has a way to go to catch up with Wilt Chamberlain.

When Jordan scored more than 3,000 points this season, it was only the fifth time that has been done in the NBA. The other four times were by Chamberlain.

A list of the names of the 94 top individual one-game scoring efforts includes Chamberlain's name 61 times.

When does a bump in the ground cease to be a hill and become a mountain?

There's no specific point. A mountain is simply defined as a large hill, but no one ever came up with any height requirement.

Ditto for island-vs.-continent. But it's stretching things a little too far when a war is called a "conflict" or a "police action."

A war is a war. Those Americans who faced America's enemies in Korea or Vietnam have every right to say they fought a war.

Why in the name of common sense did the media, the politicians, or who ever it was that started the thing, refer to the Korean War as a "conflict" or a "police action?"

Korea and Vietnam, of course, were undeclared wars. Undeclared by whom? Certainly those tens of thousands who gave their lives did not fail to declare they were fighting a real war.

By referring to Korea and Vietnam as something other than wars, we keep our record clean. We've never lost a war—not the declared variety.

Building materials

Birds have been known to use some rather unusual building materials for their nests.

According to National Wildlife magazine, a pair of canyon wrens in Fresno, Calif., built a two-and-a-half pound nest entirely of paper clips and other office supplies.

A supply of Salk polio vaccine has been received and will be available for distribution on an "unable to pay" basis for children of Haskell County Saturday.

W. R. (Bill) Holter, former manager of Perkins-Timberlake store here for six years prior to 1955, has returned to Haskell in that capacity after having been associated with the company's Wichita Falls store and later with Fedway department store in that city.

Haskell will be host Sunday to hundreds of singers and music lovers from all parts of West Central Texas expected to gather here for the 33rd annual program of the Haskell County Singing Convention.

John D. McCall, Dallas attorney, has been employed by the Commissioners Court to prepare the necessary petitions and other legal documents for a county-wide hospital bond election.

Opening of Haskell's new municipal park and swimming pool has been set for April 30, Mayor F. G. Alexander has announced.

An automatic traffic control signal, ordered by the city several weeks ago, was installed Tuesday at the intersection of the two highways on the northwest corner of the square. It is believed the new signal light will put an end to the numerous traffic mishaps which have occurred at that point.

Jack and Wallace Kimbrough, students in Texas A&M College, spent the weekend at the home of their parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Kimbrough.

Miss Frances Walling has been selected as Haskell's sponsor at the annual West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention in Brownwood May 10-12.

J. D. Montgomery and Shady Lane visited relatives in Rotan Sunday.

Mrs. Thomas Bird and children left today for California to join Mr. Bird who has been there several weeks.

J. A. Bell has just completed a new business building in Sagerton which will house his meat market and cafe. It replaces one of the buildings destroyed in the disastrous fire last December.

The men and boys of the Howard community have completed a new storm cellar for the school. It measures 10x30 feet and will accommodate all of the school children when necessary.

Mr. and Ms. W. E. Bland of the Sayles community entertained the young people with a party Saturday night.

Haskell club women attending the convention of First District, Texas Federation of Women's Clubs in Olney this week include Mesdames J. U. Fields, Courtney Hunt, C. L. Lewis, John Oates, F. T. Sanders and R. R. English.

Miss Cecile Bray, who is attending Draughon's Business College in Abilene, spent the weekend with her parents in the Post community. O. C. Southall, who has been superintendent of Sagerton Schools for the past three years, has accepted the position as head of the public schools in Seminole, Texas.

Quite a number of Haskell people attended the Odd Fellows picnic in Rule yesterday.

O. E. Patterson has sold the 100 acres owned by him in the I. Ramos Survey near town for $2500.

Judge Pete Helton returned to Comanche this week, taking his family along for a visit with old friends while he is engaged in court there.

R. G. Landess, whose farm is on Paint Creek southeast of town, was in Tuesday and told the reporter that the frost Monday night on his farm killed Irish potatoes.

R. C. Montgomery of Farmers National Bank has purchased the Arthur Slaydon Survey in northwest part of the county. We understand the consideration was $24,000 cash. The land, which is now in pasture, will be cut into smaller tracts and sold to farmers.

Mrs. S. A. Hughes arrived Wednesday and joined her husband and daughters who have been here for some time. Mr. Hughes and family plan to make Haskell their permanent home.

Miss Maud Isbell, who has been teaching in the Vernon school, has completed the term and has returned to her home.

House Bill 2321

Editor: We would like to thank all the people who have helped with the Haskell County Singing Convention.

Especially we thank the Haskell National Bank for their support in furnishing the building. Haskell is fortunate to have a place like that to meet.

It is regretful that if someone else doesn't take the singing over we will not have a singing convention this year. We are just not able to carry it on any longer. Both of us have had health problems and we are sorry that we cannot handle it this year.

Haskell County Welfare Board

Every child is endowed with inherent rights. One inherent right is to be cherished by a family of his own. Another is to receive continuing loving care and respect as a unique human being. Another is to grow up in freedom and dignity in a neighborhood of people who accept him with understanding and friendship. He is to receive help from his family and neighbors to develop emotionally, physically, intellectually, socially, and spiritually. He has a right to receive education, training, and career guidance to prepare him for a useful and satisfying life. He should receive preparation for citizenship and parenthood by having parents and other adults as role models. Teachers who are considerate and kind can be extremely helpful as models.

Unfortunately, many children are denied their inherent rights. Some children are parentless; others are unwanted, abused verbally and physically, or neglected by parents. Such situations may cause the children to be placed in foster homes. Some have learning disabilities or physical or mental disabilities. Many exhibit behaviors that are troublesome if not dangerous to themselves and others. These children need services beyond what their families can provide.

One million children are abused or neglected each year by their parents or those responsible for their care and approximately 4,000 of these children die, according to Family Outreach, which has nineteen centers in Texas and has been in operation since 1973.

Much abuse and neglect can be prevented by caring people who become aware and are willing to become involved.

One aim of the Haskell County Child Welfare Board is to make people aware so they can be involved in preventing child abuse and neglect.

Coast Guard ships searched the ocean and recovered debris round-the-clock after the explosion. But pieces were unloaded under the cover of darkness to reduce media exposure and speculation about recovered wreckage, Syling said.

Syling said she has spent 180 hours at the easel perfecting the scene.

"I wanted to be as accurate as possible," she said. "It's not often that you can come up with a painting this historic and dramatic."

Weinert News

By Myrtle Phemister

After a beautiful Easter Sunday, and the special services enjoyed at all the local Churches, we hope each of you have the peace of heart that comes with the knowledge and faith in a Resurrected Savior. It's great to be a Christian, to live in a Christian nation and let us not forget that we owe allegiance to God, our Father.

So many of our families had children, and childrens families, home to Weinert for Easter dinner, I am sure to miss some as I try to report our visitors.

The John Mayfields entertained their three children's families, Mr. and Mrs. Wile Ricketts with Donnie and Tommy of Cedar Hills, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Arch Mayfield of Plainview; and Mr. and Mrs. Duane Rimmer with Adrienne Wynn of De Soto, Texas.

Mrs. Mabel Derr had her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Therwhanger of Munday, and grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. Barry Therwhanger with Barry D. II & Brian of Lorenzo, Mr. and Mrs. Bobby D. Therwhanger with Lauren and Tyler of Baltimore, Maryland, and Teresa Ann Therwhanger of Abilene. Other guests for Easter dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Chan Hughes of Munday, and Mrs. Mildred Guess of Weinert.

Hale Alderman of Ft. Worth was a recent visitor in the home of Mildred Guess.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Moody, with Amanda, Crystal and Racheal of Albuquerque, New Mexico were in Weinert to visit his mother, Ila Moody. They were here several days and attended worship services at the First Baptist Church on Easter.

Other guests in the Moody home were Mrs. Martha Moody and son Jerry of Anson and Faye Hallmark of Haskell, sisters-in-law of Ila.

Guests in the home of the Clyde Mayfields were their daughter, Covella and George Cunningham and grandson Jeff and Lisa Teague and children of Haskell.

There were surprise visits, too. One such being a visit from Simeon (Buddy) Alexander and his new wife, Era of Cisco as they came to celebrate Buddy's 80th birthday and visit relatives here.

Five of Bertie Alexanders "girls" surprised her with a visit this week. They are Dorothy Finn of Clovis, N.M.; Evelyn Ellington of Muleshoe; Andra Schindler of Abilene; Faye Crawford and Sue Alexander of San Antonio.

They enjoyed a visit with each other, as well as getting their mother's 85th birthday celebration planned, eating out, and shopping together.

Sue and Butch Cox of Daingerfield, Texas were in Weinert to visit her mother, Sallie Sanders. They were accompanied by their daughters, Debra McKay, and Mr. and Mrs. Scott Sartain with son Casey. Junior Cox and Edwin Baxter of Daingerfield were also present, as was Mr. and Mrs. B.D. Kirkland and Tammy of Ft. Worth, with Tammy's two children.

Mr. and Mrs. Dude Slade of Eager, Arizona have been spending a few days here with her mother, Sallie Sanders.

Mr. and Mrs. David Phemister, Greg and Marcus have returned to their home in Wimberly after spending a few days in Weinert with relatives.

The Weinert Athletic Awards banquet was held Thursday night, April 16th. It was well attended and the food was delicious.

Outstanding girl chosen was Stacia Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Adams. Outstanding boy selected was Louis Perez, son of Bicer Perez. Stacia Adams was also selected as Football Sweetheart, with Johnny Perez as Football Hero.

Many young people were recognized for their efforts and outstanding abilities as Chesley Forehand, Principal and Coach, served as master of ceremonies for the event.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Mahan, Len and Donald hosted a dinner in their home on Easter Sunday for all the members of the Weinert Church of Christ.

Guests at the Church of Christ on Sunday included Mr. and Mrs. M.A. Davis of Clyde, J.B. and Carolyn Griffin of Weatherford, Debbie Hutchinson of Junction, Kerry Therwhanger of Megargel and Darlene Carroll of San Angelo.

Mr. and Mrs. Chesley Forehand and Kenny were in Big Spring for the wedding of her nephew Vince Hatfield on Saturday.

The annual "Guess Family plus friends" Easter Egg Hunt was hosted by the Tiffen Mayfield family in their home, with 99 family members and friends present for the festivities.

The hunt was divided into three divisions, representing four generations, with Tiffen Mayfield as the official Easter bunny. Each person present had a personalized egg to find, and each one received a prize.

Prize winners in the first generation were Otie Mayfield for finding her egg first, and Rita Hughes for being the last.

In the second generation, Shanna Murphy found hers first, and Wanda Vojkufka is still searching for hers.

In the third and fourth generation division, they simply enjoyed a "run and gun" egg hunt, with Tommy Ricketts finding the most, Lauren Therwhanger and Dusty Yates finding special prize eggs, with other prizes too numerous to list.

Of the 99 present, 90 participated in the hunt. Little Tyler Therwhanger, Adrienne Rimmer and Zack Wood slept through it all but we expect they will show more interest by Easter, 1988!

Heath Guess, son of Cindy and Hal Guess, fell Thursday night and received a fracture of his arm. He was rushed to Abilene for emergency treatment.

Chris Howeth grandson of Lucile Adams is convalescing at his grandmother's home after undergoing a tonsilectomy at Abilene during his Spring break from school in Haskell.

All of the Adams family were home for Easter, and enjoyed having the four generations together. Beside the Weinert Adams' there was Donna and Chris Howeth of Haskell; Pat and Eddie Ray Swaner and children of Abilene and Linda Sicore and sons of Abilene.

Moneta Hix is doing well after her surgery last week, and R.S. Sanders is continuing his progress as well.

Bunt Herricks continues to be shut-in and would enjoy a visit or card.

Heath Guess is recuperating from a fracture of his arm incurred on the playground last week.

Brandon McGuire of Haskell spent the week in Weinert with his great-grandparents, Ernest and Louise McGuire while he was recuperating from a siege of chicken pox.

The McGuires children Becky of Bowie and Budge and Nancy of Keller, were here for the Easter weekend, and brought all their children to enjoy Easter at grandpa's and grandpa's house.

Congratulations to Derinda Griffis Larned for being selected as an outstanding young woman of America. And congratulations to Donna Griffis, Susie Brockett, Treacia

Ann Horan, Erma Liles, Debbie Crump, Thelma Edwards and Doris Walker who will be celebrating birthdays this week, and to Walter and Alene Bredthauer who celebrates a wedding anniversary!

Congratulations are in order for Shane Stout who qualified for the district meet held in Aspermont Friday. Shane came in 5th in the 400 m. race. Len Mahan also qualified for the district meet, but did not place. We are proud of you boys.

Coming events include a Senior sponsored Sunday dinner to be held in the Weinert School lunch room on April 26, 11 to 1:30 p.m. Tickets will sell for $4 for adults and $2 for children, and reservations must be made in advance.

4-H members have choice of camps

Haskell County 4-H members interested in a summer camping program will want to look at the choices provided at the Texas 4-H Center at Brownwood, say county extension agents Lou Gilly and Max Stapleton.

There are two types of camps being offered this summer. A special interest camp will be conducted June 22-27 to offer older 4-H members (14-19) opportunities to learn, develop and expand project skills and leadership abilities. Among the special interest areas are food and fitness, photography, shooting sports, clothing, canoeing and sailing, computers, public speaking, tennis and recreation. Costs of the various areas differ due to resources involved.

The other type of camping at the 4-H Center is called "Prime Time '87". Prime Time concentrates on educational and recreational experiences that are out-of-the-ordinary. All participants will learn to be successful at new things with the hope of developing broader interests and becoming more involved in other 4-H activities.

Prime Time allows young people to learn more about themselves and other people. They learn interpersonal skills in working with others and adjusting to a new environment.

Each Prime Time camp is packed with fun and adventure and includes such activities as swimming, sailing, canoeing, shooting sports, crafts, cooking and recreation.

Prime Time camps are scheduled as follows: July 5-8, July 8-11, and July 15-18 for ages 9-11; and July 12-15 for ages 12-14.

Information on the costs of these camping opportunities and how to register is available at the county extension office.

By Betsy Nanny

The Scout Roundtable was held April 14 in the Methodist Church in Stamford.

Den leaders and scout masters attended the meeting to help them with ideas, crafts, etc., to bring back to their den meetings.

Kay Perry conducted the meeting and attending from the Haskell area were Kenny Thompson, Wallar Overton, Pat and Jim Bob Mickler, Bill Gann, Janice McDaniel and Betsy Nanny.

Interest drops on veterans loans

Interest rates for the Texas Veterans Home Improvement Program have been lowered to 10.5 percent, according to D. E. Livengood, Veterans Service Officer for Haskell County.

The program enables eligible Texas veterans to borrow up to $15,000 for 15 years to make improvements to their existing residence. If the loan amount is $7,500 or less, the maximum term of the loan is 10 years. There is a $5,000 minimum loan amount, all loans are FHA insured and there is no down payment required.

Regulated rates hold Texas back

Texas is the second largest food-growing state in the nation, yet only six percent of the Texas consumption is processed in-state.

Tons of Texas onions are shipped North where they are processed, packaged and frozen and shipped back to Texas for sale in grocery stores.

Texas grows a third of the nation's cotton, but only one percent of all cotton cloth manufacturing is done in Texas textile mills.

Anderson, Clayton & Co. uses the equivalent of all the soybeans grown in the state for its vegetable oil products, yet it buys its soybean oil from Kansas and Arkansas because Texas growers ship all of their soybeans out of state to be processed.

It is cheaper to move Texas agriculture out of state via deregulated interstate rates to be processed, packaged and/or frozen and shipped back into Texas via deregulated interstate rates for consumption.

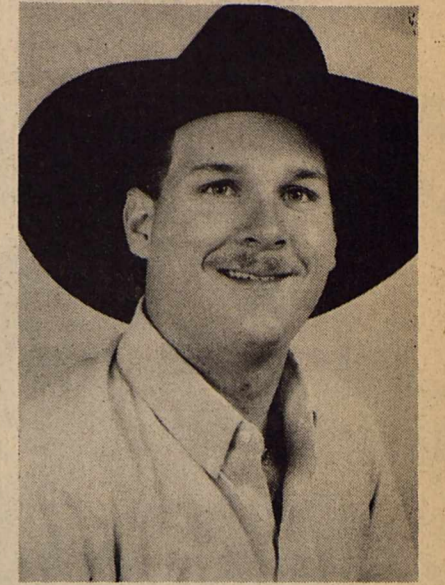

Because of Texas' regulated trucking system, it costs $16.50 per ton to ship livestock feed from Fort Worth to Marshall. The same shipment to Shreveport (through Marshall) would cost $10.22.

Or it costs $18.47 a ton to ship feed to the Texas side of Texarkana, but only $10.87 to Texarkana, Ark.

Texas feed producers are less competitive in the market place because Texas' regulated intrastate trucking rates inflate the cost of the finished product while serving as an umbrella for feed mills in other states.

Out-of-state feed producers can deliver a lower cost product because of lower interstate rates, but the entire savings is not passed on to Texas consumers. Oklahoma feed producers, for instance, undercut Texas prices to maintain a competitive edge at the highest possible profit margin.

Weinert News

April 16 (delayed)
 Congratulations to our "birthday people" this week includes Kenny Forehand, Jerry Don Walker, G.C. Brockett, Jr., Robin Raynes, Jace Yates, and Ramon Castorena, Jr. And our congratulations also go to Tiffen and Erlinda Mayfield and Ruben and Angie Castillo who celebrated wedding anniversaries.

 The "welcome home" mat was spread for R.S. and Betty Sanders on Sunday, as they returned home from their three week stay in Houston at the M.D. Anderson Hospital there. They were met at the airport in Abilene by Alton and Mildred Sanders.

 Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donnie Crump were her sister and family, Beth and Keith Parker, with children Jeanne and Joshua, missionaries to Indonesia. They are on leave after three and one half years of work on the mission field, and will be returning to their work the last week of May.

 Helen Boykin was in Vernon for the weekend, enjoying a visit with her son and his family, Raymon, Janie, Mark, Randy and Shelly.

 Marvin and Myrtle Plemister are spending some time in the Austin area this week. They were in Houston on Thursday to visit in the hospital with Myrtle's brother, R.S. Sanders and wife Betty. They have two sons who live in the Austin area, Wayne, who teaches and coaches at Lamar Jr. high and Davis and family of Wimberly, Texas.

 Mrs. Faye Jettin, Mrs. Tom Yates and Mrs. Donnie Crump represented the Weinert Extension Homemakers Club at the District TEHA Convention held in Jayton on Tuesday, April 14th. Haskell County had to give up the "Traveling Award" as they did not have the most members present.

Speakers for the meeting included Dr. Harry Kreneck, president of Western Texas College in Snyder, and Dr. Isaacson, director of public health of region II, whose subject was "Aids".

Table decorations were wooden hand painted flowers, and each person received one as a token of friendship.

Haskells County's denim collar was selected as the most outstanding, and will be worn by all the delegates from District III when they attend the State Convention in September. The collar was designed and made by Alice Yates, and the pattern can be obtained from her.
