Ambulance Service To Be Commissioners' Agenda

The problem of no ambulance service in Coke County will be studied and discussed Monday at the regular February meeting of the Commissioners' Court.

Judge W.W. Thetford said he has placed the matter on the court agenda and an invitation has been issued to various officials to attend the meeting and help solve the problem.

Especially invited to the meeting were the

Buy Railroad Ties To Help Pageant

Coke County Pageant Association is announcing the sale of railroad ties to be used in the construction of an amphitheatre for the county. Plans are to finish the multi-purpose structure prior to the association's pageant scheduled for the summer.

Price of each tie is $3, and civic minded citizens are encouraged to buy one or more of the railroad ties to be used at the site. The ties may be purchased from any member of the association or at the Robert Lee City Hall. Members urged everyone to buy ties now and support this county project.

Grand Jury Is Called Monday

A session of 51st District Court has been scheduled for Monday and a Grand Jury has been summoned for duty.

Called for Grand Jury duty are Josue Longoria, Foy Askins, J.B. Pentecost, Lora Bell Brown, Conrad J. Millican, Clark Glenn, Douglas M. Wilkes, Terry S. Barrett, Gilbert Basquez, Frank Demere Jr., Virgle H. Hendley, Ruby Hearn, Royce Fancher, Leslie Copeland, Seiva Mae Cowart and Roy Tinkler.

There are no criminal cases on the district court docket at the present time. However, a number of civil suits are listed and some of them probably will be heard at the Monday Court session.

members of the City Councils of Bronte and of Robert Lee and members of the boards of directors of the West and East Coke County Hospital Districts. Any other interested persons are also invited to attend.

The problem of no ambulance service became acute Jan. 15 when Shaffer Funeral Homes discontinued operating an ambulance. Gary Shaffer, owner of the funeral homes, said he was losing too much money and could not continue the service under the present setup.

Judge Thetford said this week that he is hopeful that a solution to the problem can be worked out at the Monday meeting. He indicated it would take the cooperation of all interested groups in the county to provide the needed service.

AREA AIRPORT NEEDS TO BE DISCUSSED

A Texas Airport System Plan regional planning meeting will be held at 2:30 p.m., Wednesday, Feb. 8, in the St. Angelus Room, Central National Bank, 36 West Beauregard, San Angelo.

All area citizens with an interest in air transportation and airport development are invited to attend.

DOMINO GAMES SET FOR SENIOR CITIZENS

The Community Action Council is sponsoring an Eighty-eight (dominos) Play Day for all Senior Citizens each Tuesday at the Robert Lee Recreation Hall.

Everyone is invited to participate.

Winter Weather Lingers in County

Winter weather has continued in the Coke County area all this week. This week's cold and dismal weather add up to more than two weeks cold and dampness.

In spite of the almost constant cloudiness and high humidity the measureable amount of moisture has been negligible. However, ranchmen and farmers are glad to see the small amount of moisture which has come in snows and drizzle.

Temperatures the last few days have remained fairly constant, dipping down close, but not quite, to freezing and rising to about 40 degrees during the day.

Coke County apparently has been slightly below the freezing line, as snow has fallen to the northwest in the Plains area and freezing rain was reported north toward the Red River.

The forecast for Thursday and Friday indicated that cold cloudy weather was likely to continue.

Increase fireplace efficiency with "C"-shaped grates--more heat moves into the home rather than up the flue, advises Mrs. Fay C. Roe, County Extension Agent.

Deadline Nears For Office Seekers

Politics will settle down after Monday at midnight, which is the deadline for candidates to file for spots on the ballot in the May primaries.

As of Wednesday the only contested race in Coke County was for the office of county judge. Incumbent W.W. (Bud) Thetford has been challenged by D.W. (Dub) Sims of Bronte.

Here's the way the Democratic Primary ballot looked at press time Wednesday:

For County Judge: W.W. (Bud) Thetford and D.W. (Dub) Sims.

For County and District Clerk: Mrs. Winnie Waldrop.

For County Treasurer: Mrs. Jerry Thomason.

For Commissioner, Precinct 2: Bobby Vaughn.

For Commissioner, Precinct 4: Jerry Parker.

For Justice of the Peace, Precinct 2: Cecil Kemp.

For Justice of the Peace, Precinct 4: Earl D. (Pete) Nutter.

For Constable, Precinct 1: Harry Palmer.

ONE INDEPENDENT Another announced candidate is Ralph Hughey who is running for Justice of the Peace, Precinct 3. The office has been vacant for many years and is presently served by the Justice of Peace in Precinct 1.

Candidates who wish to file for an office should contact Mrs. Waldrop at the County Clerk's office.

Paper Collection To Start Tuesday

The waste paper collection project of the '64 Study Club will begin Tuesday, Feb. 7. If weather permits, the club members will have a trailer parked on the vacant lot on the corner of Austin and Seventh Streets, the old service station site beside the City Hall. Citizens of the town and area are asked to place waste paper for recycling in the trailer.

Money derived from the sale of paper will be used to assist civic projects in Robert Lee and charities to which the club contributes.

Newspapers and other lightweight paper products should be sacked, boxed or bound so that it will be visible for sorting and weighing. Feed sacks are usable if they are not plastic lined. Magazines bring half the price of newsprint, but they quickly add up in weight and must be weighed separately.

The committee in charge has requested that persons bring paper for deposit some time during the day, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Shut-ins who have no way to deliver paper may call 453-2692 or 453-2415 and club members will pick up their waste paper.

If the response is good, the women said they may try to collect on the first Tuesday of each month.

Agriculture and the Young

WASHINGTON—One of the achievements of the farm strike has been the fact that it is focusing the attention of the American people on the economic plight of farmers and ranchers. Many people have been forced out of farming and ranching because of the cost-price squeeze and many who are left have been hurt significantly. In a number of ways, the picture of American agriculture today is pretty gloomy. But those in agriculture have always been a basically optimistic lot, and my travels to over two dozen junior livestock shows throughout the state this month have shown me that sense of optimism still lives, particularly in those young people involved in 4-H and FFA.

Aside from appreciating the opportunity to share with these young people what will be one of their most rewarding moments, I also sense that in junior livestock shows we see qualities that today are often overlooked or go unnoticed among our young people.

It is one of the rare undertakings in which a young person can compete freely and achieve new standards of excellence, unhampered by age, resources or environment.

Into that endeavor, a young person must invest much time and effort, seeing few tangible results for as long as a year.

The lessons one learns in caring for and feeding livestock, an effort culminating in the selection of the most successful competitor, are lessons never forgotten and, when one is learning, one never loses.

In a state that has changed a great deal in recent years, in a nation whose issues and values are constantly shifting, it is refreshing to see, in both rural and metropolitan areas, that livestock competition is still very much the way it was when I was a young boy.

Victory, winning the blue ribbon, remains important, as it was when I was young. But it is the competition, the need to achieve, that draws young people into this activity, not just the possibility of raising a Grand Champion.

It is the effort that goes into making a dream come true that brings satisfaction to the hundreds of thousands of 4-H and FFA members across the nation. Finishing first, while nice, is but a small part of the total reward.

I have attended junior livestock shows since the first of the year in many towns, including Brady, Seymour, Stamford, Brownwood, Dumas, Borger and many, many others, and in each of these towns there centers around junior livestock competition an aura of excitement and clean competitiveness that one does not get at the most spectacular football game or the most sophisticated ballet. There is a healthy and invigorating spirit that comes from youthful competition that is a special kind of competition because it marks the beginning of gaining expertise, not just in sports, but in a very real business, that of producing food and fiber for our nation.

In later life, I suppose, some of the fun goes out of raising livestock and, to some degree, the competition probably becomes more keen, because the stakes have nothing to do with winning ribbons, but with producing a living for a family and, ultimately, food for a nation.

I have always sensed a spirit of optimism when I am around those in agriculture that is missing in many professional undertakings. But after sitting atop many a fence rail recently while watching tomorrow's farmers and ranchers in towns such as Ballinger, Sweetwater, Rotan, Breckenridge and Ozona, I cannot help but feel that the satisfaction and gratification so evident among men and women in agriculture is a result of the principles learned as a youngster, before a 100-pound 12-year-old knows he's not supposed to be able to manhandle a 1,000-pound steer.

Baxter Named To WTU Position

William H. (Bill) Baxter has been named manager of Customer Technical Services for West Texas Utilities Co., and has moved to Abilene from Shreveport, La.

Baxter had been a marketing services division manager for Southwestern Electric Power Co., which is a sister company of WTU in the Central and South West System.

WTU Vice President W. P. (Bill) Sayles, who made the announcement, said Baxter will function as marketing coordinator for the company, and will expand the company's efforts in promoting better energy management by electric users and helping develop a more stable economic base throughout WTU territory.

Sayles said the Customer Technical Service staff under Baxter's direction will work toward a more balanced electric load growth, to allow WTU to continue delivering reliable service at the lowest possible cost.

"Our purpose is to improve customer understanding and the wise, efficient and safe use of electricity and electrical equipment," Sayles said.

Another major function of Baxter's staff will be to work with area towns for economic growth and development in order to "improve job opportunities for the young, the underemployed and the unemployed," Sayles added.

Baxter holds a degree in electrical engineering from the University of Arkansas and is an Air Force veteran with service in Korea.

THEN NOW!

According to scholars, man has had over 60 centuries of involvement with gold. It's possible the first nuggets found still exist today, remolded yet untarnished—perhaps in some gold jewelry of yours.

Gold today is used in hundreds of industrial applications and even went with man on his most far-reaching adventure. Astronauts wear gold-plated heat shields when they walk in space.

Dr. Do Speaks On Vietnam

The '64 Study Club, Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, met in its regular second-Tuesday meeting Jan. 24 in the home of Mrs. Wilson Bryan. Mrs. Robert Vaughn and Mrs. Doug Ditmore were co-hostesses.

Dr. Thuy Danh Do spoke on "Life, Culture and Loss of Freedom in Vietnam". Club members were fascinated with facts he disclosed concerning life under Communism. "Americans complain about their government," he exclaimed, "but America is a veritable paradise!" He expressed great admiration for the helpful attitude Americans display toward people of any race who need help.

In a question and answer period, Dr. Do spoke frankly.

Question: Do Communists really murder thousands of people when they take over a country?"

Answer: Yes. They kill several million and think nothing of it."

Question: How do they dispose of that many bodies?"

Answer: They make fertilizer to use on farm land.

Kahn Do, eldest son of the doctor, played the piano for club members. Having studied piano only four years, he displayed remarkable talent and accomplishment. Mrs. Do attended the meeting with her husband and son.

The warning to America which the speaker repeats constantly is, "America must remain strong so she can resist Communists!"

REPORT TO CONSUMERS

Many concerned legislators are working to save you money.

These lawmakers are opposing "Bottle Bills" that are aimed at having beverage containers be returnable and refillable—that is, deposit bottles.

Economic experts testify enactment of forced deposit legislation would mean higher consumer prices. They say it would mean that all production, handling, warehousing, transportation, delivery and marketing of soft drinks and beer, now keyed to cans and non-refillable bottles would be made obsolete and replaced with refillable bottle procedures. This could ultimately cost the consumer billions of dollars.

In addition, the all-refillable system is time-consuming for the retailer, who must also pass the added burden to the consumer. It takes a refillable bottle about four to six weeks to make a "cycle" from factory to return for refilling. The bottle must be inventoried, sorted, trucked to and from the retailer, washed and stored at the bottling plant. The refillable bottle system produces less per man hour on the production line, uses more warehouse space, more transportation and service-sales manpower, more vehicles and more fuel to deliver the same amount of product. All this costs manufacturers, bottlers and retailers more money, and if they're to stay in business, they must pass the cost on to the consumer through higher beverage prices or higher prices spread over other products.

A growing country needs lots of growing things. Like sugar for food. Cotton for clothing. Even trees for lumber.

And the South was a perfect place to raise just about anything. With acres of fertile land and warm sunshine.

Feeding the hungry industrial regions to the north, the South helped make a new and struggling country grow strong and prosperous.

Today, America keeps getting stronger every day. Thanks to over 9½ million Americans taking stock in their country by buying U.S. Savings Bonds.

They know that as they're working for their future, their Bonds are working hard for America's future, too.

So, buy U.S. Savings Bonds through your Payroll Savings Plan.

Whether you're raising vegetables or a family, they're a great way to save.

Series E Bonds pay 6% interest when held to maturity of 5 years (4½% the first year). Interest is not subject to state or local income taxes, and federal tax may be deferred until redemption.

Blackleg Kills Duncan's Sheep

by Sterling Lindsey
A new problem made its appearance in sheep during the past week. Several head of sheep were lost by L.W. Duncan on the Hayrick Valley Ranch. Dr. Jimmy Smith, DVM of Winters, diagnosed the problem as being blackleg.

We have seen scattered cases of blackleg in cattle the past few years, but, to our knowledge, no cases in sheep.

All operators are encouraged, as they make their rounds feeding, to check for lame and/or depressed and fevered sheep. Usually these symptoms occur first. These symptoms may be followed shortly by swelling, labored breathing and death.

Unlike blackleg in cattle, blackleg will hit all ages of sheep.

Should an operator desire to vaccinate to prevent the disease, it is recommended that the so called "4 way" vaccine rather than straight blackleg vaccine be used.

Blackleg, anthrax, malignant edema and hemorrhagic Septicemia cause similar symptoms and are difficult to tell apart by visual observation. Most companies are now combining the vaccines into one vaccine.

CHECK APPLIANCE LIFE EXPECTANCY

Before replacing a major appliance that needs repair, consider its projected life expectancy--repairs may cost less, says Mrs. Fay C. Roe, County Extension Agent.

Mrs. Roe offers this list of life-span estimations in years for selected household appliances:

Appliance	New	Used
Freezer	20	9
Refrigerator	15	7
Gas Range	13	7
Electric Range	12	6
Dishwasher	11	7
Washer	11	5
Electric Dryer	14	5

These figures indicate how long, on the average, households keep appliances, the agent continues.

The data does not show how long a given appliance model will last--it provides a general basis for estimating the service life expectancy of major home appliances, she says.

Red Cherries for Festive Desserts

Would you like to have a dessert that's easy-to-give, simple, and yet something really special?

How about a dessert party -- a delightful way to "pay back" obligations, or to enhance a meeting, or welcome neighborhood newcomers. The dessert party can be either an after-lunch or after-supper affair, but it is designed for unhurried small talk and a cozy, relaxed atmosphere.

Set your table graciously and appropriately around the feature of your menu -- beautiful and delightful cheese cakes -- topped with lots of big, juicy red cherries. Better make enough for seconds, because cherry cheese cakes are sure to make a big hit with everyone.

MINI CHERRY CHEESE CAKES

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| 1/2 cup sugar   | 1 8-ounce package cream cheese, softened |
| 1-1/2 tablespoons cornstarch                              | 1/3 cup sugar                            |
| 1 1-pound can red tart pitted cherries                    | 1 egg                                    |
| Red food coloring   | 2 teaspoons lemon juice                  |
| 3/4 cup chocolate cooky or gingersnap crumbs (12 cookies) | 1/2 teaspoon vanilla                     |

Combine 1/2 cup sugar and cornstarch in a saucepan. Stir in cherries and juice. Cook, stirring constantly, until mixture boils and thickens. Add red coloring and cool. Line 12 muffin cups with paper bake cups; spoon about 1 tablespoon cooky crumbs into each bake cup. Beat together cream cheese, 1/3 cup sugar, egg, lemon juice and vanilla until smooth. Pour over crumbs. Bake in a 375° oven for 15 minutes or until set. Cool. Top each cheese cake with 3 tablespoons cherry sauce. Makes 12 cheese cakes.
