I once met a thoughtful scholar who City, boarded the train TL ursday for told me that for years he had read every book he could which assailed the re-ligion of Jesus Christ and he said he should have become an infidel but for three things: "First, I am a man. I am going somewhere. Tonight I am a day nearer the grave than I was last night. I have read all such books can tell me. They shed not a solitary ray of hope or light upon the darkness. They shall not take away the only guide and leave me stone blind. Second, I had a mother. I saw her go down into the dark valley where I am going, and she leaned upon an unseen arm just as calmly as a child goes to sleep on the breast of its Superintendent Innie of the or American and the breast of its Superintendent Innie of the or American and the breast of its Superintendent Innie of the or American and the breast of its Superintendent Innie of the or American and the breast of its Superintendent Innie of the or American and the breast of the breast of the or American and the breast of the breast of the or American and the breast of the or American and the breast of the breast o mother. Doubtful Inscription

Mackenzie Bowell, formerly prime minister of Canada, is sued by the widow of a Montreal florist for payment for a floral wreath furnished for the funeral of Sir John Thompson, which was a state affair some four years ago. The inscription ' testifies that it was "a tribute of affection from his devoted colleagues," Bowell and (Methodist) jollege at Searcy, Ark., seven others, but it seems that so far it is the florist who has paid the tribute vicariously.

easily irritated people feel that life has renewed its charms. Here is proof: Miss Cora Watrous, the sixteen-year-old daughter of Mr. I. C. Watrous, of 6: Clarion St., Bradford, Pa., was seized with a nervous disorder which threatened to end her life. Eminent physicians agreed the trouble was from impoverished blood, but failed to give relief. Mr. Watrous heard Dr. Williams' Piuk Pills for Pale People were highly recommended for ner-vous disorders, and gave them a trial. Before the first box had been taken the girl's condition improved. After using six boxs her appetite returned, the pain in her head ceased, and she was stronger than ever before. "My daughter's life was saved by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People," said Mrs. Watrous. "Her condition was almost hopeless when she commenced taking them, but now she is strong and healthy.
