Harper Items.

(Regular Correspondence)

Harper, Tex., Sept. 15.—The Harper cotton gin, known as the Men-gus Gin, was totally destroyed by fire Tuesday about noon. The loss can be estimated at about $5,000 or $6,000. At present the gin belonged to a company of 6 men who reside in the Harper community. This leaves Harper with a big lot of cotton yet to be ginned, and only one gin, but the boys will put on a night and day shift of hands and in that way make a strong effort to handle the cotton situation.

Stevens, who had been ill for several days, died last Friday evening at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Stevens, and was buried in the family cemetery Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock, Rev. L. H. Billings conducting the funeral service. Little Loyd was a bright child and much loved by all who knew him; but He who loveth and doeth all things well called him from this unfriendly world to be with Him in glory. A large circle of relatives and friends join in deep sympathy with the bereaved father and mother.

V. O. V. Social.

The V. O. V. Class of the Sunday School of the First Baptist Church entertained the members of the Baraca Class and several other invited guests with a farewell party given in honor of the members of the class who are leaving to attend school at other places. The honor guests were Misses Mary McKay, Mabel Doering, Ferrol Rawson, and Mabel Hagens.

Mrs. Insall kindly offered her beautiful home as a place for the entertainment, and in the rooms and on the porch were arranged six tables with games. About an hour was spent in playing games, and then while the guests were being served with a salad and ice course, Miss Newman, Miss Hicks, and Miss Buckner rendered some beautiful selections on the piano.

About thirty young people were present, and each one heartily thanked Mrs. Insall and her daughter for the charming way in which they had been entertained.

Barnum and Bailey Great Shows Coming to San Antonio

Lovers of horses and horse flesh will be interested in the horses to be seen at the performances of the Barnum & Bailey circus, 'The Greatest Show on Earth' which comes to San Antonio Oct. 3.

There are 700 horses of various strains with 'The Greatest Show on Earth.' There are the blue-blooded lords of the saw dust ring, trained and spirited animals. There are the eager, slim-bodied racers that take part in the contests of the hippodrome, and, not the least in importance, are the heavy and powerful Clydesdales and Percherons, which haul the enormous amount of paraphernalia from the circus train to the show grounds and back again.

While the Barnum & Bailey management has not overlooked a single detail this year, particular attention has been given to the arenic features and some marvelous acts have been imported from Europe for the circus showing only. This alone has cost the circus a pretty penny but the great demand for something new each year has resulted, in the circus going across the seas to get it.

New York voted the Barnum & Bailey circus the biggest and best in recent years, and this stamp of approval only strengthens the general belief that in the circus realm there is only one great circus, and that is the Barnum & Bailey organization.

The big free Street Parade will leave the show grounds promptly at 9 A. M., on the morning of show date.

Menzies, a Missionary, who for several years has been stationed at Hwaichang fu, China, and who with her three children left for America on August 1st on account of the hostilities of the war between the nations. Bro. Robb had been very uneasy lest the ship on which his sister sailed might be molested by German or Austrian war ships which are ploughing the Pacific, and the voyage was indeed a perilous one, as his sister states that several hostile vessels were sighted on the trip. She was on the water over a month and in her voyage of over 5,000 miles, did not touch land for a distance of 4,200 miles from Yokohama, Japan, to Vancouver, B. C., which was her destination.

KING OF MONTENEGRO

PRESIDENT VETOED $1000 LIMIT BILL

CLAIMS NEW MEASURE WOULD CHANGE RESERVE ACT.

TEXT OF REPEAL MESSAGE

Objected to Proposition to Raise Limit of Individual Deposits in Postal Savings Banks.

Washington.—Because one of its provisions repealed what he considered a vital section of the new Federal reserve act, President Wilson Friday vetoed the bill to increase to $1,000 the limit of individual deposits in postal savings banks.

The president's repeal message follows: "With most of the provisions of the bill I am in hearty accord. They are admirably conceived and the changes of law which they propose undoubtedly would be very beneficial to the postal savings system.

"When the Federal reserve act was passed it was thought wise to make the inducements to State banks to enter the Federal reserve system, and as many and as strong as possible. It was therefore provided in that act that government funds be deposited only in banks which were members of the Federal reserve system.

"The principle of such a system is indisputable. The moneys under control of the government ought to be placed only in those banks which are most directly under the supervision and regulation of the congress itself.

"It was recognized that the scattering of government deposits in small amounts among too large a number of banks would in time of stress be a decided disadvantage to the Federal reserve system, which seeks as much as possible to mobilize the financial resources of the country under one control.

"I am not insensible of the inconvenience which some banks might suffer if the postal savings funds are withdrawn at this particular time, though the law itself, of course, conveyed notice of that intention fully nine months ago.

"But, assuming that there has not been notice enough and that the withdrawal would of necessity be rapid or immediate, I venture to suggest that the otherwise admirable bill which I now return be amended, and might, because of the financial circumstances now temporarily existing, be very advantageously amended, to extend for another twelve months, the period within which banks not members of the Federal reserve system must surrender the deposits of the government.

"May I take the liberty of suggesting that this be done? It would remove from this bill the only feature which seems to me incompatible with sound public policy.

"Woodrow Wilson."

THE TEXAS LEGISLATURE

What Is Being Accomplished By the Senate and House Now In Special Session.

Austin, Tex.—The governor was the center of a large group of senators and representatives who gathered in the senate chamber Sunday and indulged in an informal discussion of the governor's latest plan to relieve the cotton situation. Mr. Colquitt explained the details of the proposed plan, and insisted that there are no valid constitutional objections to it.

Some of the members expressed themselves as favoring the plan, but did not believe the bill could be put through during the remaining days of the current session. Senator Collins remarked that the committee hearings would occupy ten days, as people from every part of the state would be in Austin to give their views and be heard before the committees. The governor did not think the hearings ought to be so protracted, adding that often persons who appear before committees are prejudiced or have selfish motives.

Governor Colquitt continues enthusiastic over his plan. He conferred with Attorney General Looney Saturday and reiterates that the scheme will save the cotton farmer of Texas. He asserts that the establishment of a state bank will be the "capstone" to the relief legislation of the extra session.

It must be made plain that the governor does not contemplate a bank of deposits and discount, but an institution to handle emergency currency to be secured in return for the hypothecation of the $20,000,000 or $20,000,000 of school fund securities. The governor has not decided whether he will use all of the $20,000,000 of the bank's capital stock if the scheme works out, or just the $20,000,000 based on that amount of bonds held by the permanent school fund. The other $50,000,000 of the $70,000,000 of land notes.

Attorney General Looney said that after the bill creating the state bank is drawn and the opinion as to its constitutionality written, the whole matter will be considered by a conference of the attorney general and the assistants in the department. He had no opinion to express as to the probable legality of the act establishing a central bank.

There was a discussion of the constitutional phases of the bill and the following provisions of the state constitution were quoted:

"Section 5, article 7.

"And no law shall ever be enacted appropriating any part of the permanent or available school funds to any other purpose whatever.

"Section 7, article 8.

"The legislature shall not have power to borrow or in any manner divert from its purpose any special fund that may or ought to come into the treasury; and shall make it penal for any person or persons to borrow, withhold or in any manner to divert from its purpose any special fund or say part thereof."

Governor Colquitt argued that these provisions do not bear on the situation; that their plain intention is to prevent the diversion of the income belonging to the school and special funds. He says that in the central bank scheme the special funds are not to be deprived of one cent of their income, as the interest will be paid as usual. The only thing is the pledging of the bonds and land notes on which to secure emergency currency to be advanced on warehouse receipts, and the notes thereto attached will yield 5 per cent. This makes it impossible for the special funds to lose a dollar, insists the governor.

According to the governor, the school fund can not lose anything by virtue of the scheme. He says the collateral warehouse receipts will be ample security, even if a bank should become involved and fail. The central bank would have the notes and warehouse receipts for the advances made, and thus the failure of the bank through which the advances happened to have been made would have no bearing on the state's security. Then, too, it is contemplated advancing but 75 per cent of the face value of the warehouse receipt, he says, which means a comfortable margin for the protection of the state. It was with the greatest confidence that the governor asserted that the state stands to lose nothing by establishing the central bank and hypothecating $20,000,000 in bonds and $50,000,000 in land notes and receive emergency currency in return to form the capital stock of the contemplated Texas State Bank.

Two Postmasters Appointed. Washington.—Mrs. Emma A. Kelly has been appointed postmaster at Fairbanks, Harris county, Texas, and William W. Currie has been appointed for Tucker, McCulloch county.

Warehouse Measure in Brief.

Austin, Tex.—The emergency warehouse bill as finally agreed to by the committee and as it becomes a law provided for a state system of warehouses to be operated by the commissioner of insurance and banking, to be built by citizens, towns, counties and individuals or associations, and to be leased to the commissioner of insurance and banking on such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon. Also provides that the state in effect becomes a public warehouse man, the object being to enable the state to issue a negotiable and dependable warehouse receipt such as will be accepted in any money market. These warehouse receipts are guaranteed by the state. The managers of such warehouses provided for by cities, towns or counties are to be nominated by such cities, towns or counties, subject to the approval of insurance and banking; such managers are placed under a bond of from $2,500 to $5,000, the amount to be fixed by the commissioner of insurance and banking, the object of the bond is to protect the state and the depositors of cotton. It also provides that the form of the receipt to be prescribed by the commissioner of insurance and banking shall be uniform, and it shall show the marks, numbers, weight and class of each bale. The party loaning money on such cotton only. The bill also provides aggrieved parties shall have the right to sue the state for any injury brought about by improper weights or class.

Friday's House Proceedings.

Austin, Tex.—The report of the free conference committee on the emergency warehouse bill was adopted Friday by the house by a vote of 35 to 15, exactly the two-thirds vote required to put the measure into immediate effect.

The 15 voting against the measure were Cooper, Crayon, Kirby, Llewellyn, McKamy, Morris of Victoria, Patton, Hoover, Robertson, Spradley, Sullivan, Tarver, Vickers and Woods of Navarro. Harris of El Paso did not vote when his name was called, but announced his vote in the affirmative just before the result was announced, giving it the required two-thirds. Had he not voted the bill would not become operative as a law for three months, which would have practically killed it.

Friday's Senate Proceedings.

Austin, Tex.—The oil mill diversion measure was unanimously passed by the senate Friday after minor amendments. The oil mills, under the act as passed by the senate, will be permitted to operate their mills until May 1, 1915, and will be given one year from that date to dispose of all spinning properties. Under this clause the mills may not operate their mills during the year after May 1. The only other amendment made to the measure was a clause declaring that this bill will not serve to repeal any part of the Texas anti-trust laws or any criminal statute. The vote on the final passage was unanimous.

As originally drawn the bill gave the mills nine months in which to dispose of their gins, and permitted them to continue operation of such gins during that time. Senator Coxwell offered an amendment giving the mills three years grace. Senator Real offered an amendment changing the time to two years. The only opposition created to the measure was on the length of the period of grace. The senate adjourned after the passage of this measure till Monday. The senate calendar is clear save for the Ousley-Williams warehouse bill and the banking act. It has handled its business in an expedient manner during the last few days and has shown an inclination to hurry things through and go home.

The senate was excited Friday over a statement from one close to Governor Colquitt that he expected to issue another call and hold a legislative session an additional day after adjournment for the purpose of offering an act to create a state reserve bank.

It is said the governor is thinking of submitting this matter Monday in the absence of President Pro Tem Warren, the senate elected Senator Wiley president pro tem ad interim. He was nominated by Senator Carter, who commented on his ability as a parliamentarian and his reputation for fairness.

Austin, Tex.—In the senate the administration emergency warehouse bill was given final passage Thursday when the conference committee's report was adopted by an overwhelming vote. It was more than the necessary two-thirds to put the law into immediate effect in the event of a two-thirds vote in the house Friday, and signature by the governor, which is assured. It thus appears reasonably certain that the emergency bill will go into immediate effect.

A PLAN FOR STATES TO PURCHASE COTTON

SENATOR SIMMONS SUBMITS A PLAN TO CONGRESSMEN.

The Idea Is for States to Handle One-Fourth of Present Crop With Non-Interest Bearing Bonds.

Washington.—Senator Simmons of North Carolina brought forward a plan for handling the surplus cotton crop and curtailing the 1915 production, which he submitted to members of Congress from Southern States Thursday. It proposes that the states purchase one-fourth of the present crop at 10c, basis middling, 8c to be advanced at the time of purchase in non-interest bearing state bonds in such denominations that they may circulate in adjusting credit. The bonds are to be redeemed by the state on or before Jan. 1, 1916, either in cash or in 4 per cent state bonds. If after purchasing one-fourth of the crop the middling price is below 10c, the state is to continue buying until it takes over 75 per cent of the crop, if the market does not sooner reach 10c.

Cotton to Be Held Till 1915.

No part of the cotton is to be held before Nov. 1, 1915, for less than 10c, nor before June 1, 1916, for less than 11c, the vendors from whom it was purchased to receive the 2c due thereon. The state is to protect itself through a flat cotton tax of 50c per bale. Senator Simmons' plan also proposes that the state curtail the 1915 production to 60 per cent by imposing a tax of 1c per pound on cotton produced on the excess acreage.

Oil producers of Eastern fields whose yields have been affected by the war are joining the cotton producer in asking the government to recognize their storage certificates under the same terms applied to cotton warehouse certificates, and the use of federal reserve notes in the transaction. Conservative members of the house banking and currency committee will oppose the plan. However, oil may be added to the Smith warehouse act pending in the house.

Considerable sentiment is said to be gathering in support of a plan that the government issue $300,000,000 in currency to be loaned to the cotton producer at 5 or 6 per cent. It is the idea to sell bonds to protect the gold reserve. This money is to be placed with Southern banks with a mandatory provision that it be loaned to the producer, and is to be secured from the government upon warehouse receipts whether presented by a state or a national bank. It would not be necessary to operate through an emergency currency association.

Burgess Submits Amendment.

Representative Burgess of Texas submitted to Senator Hoke Smith an amendment to the bill amending the Aldrich-Vreeland act that would require banks in the cotton-producing states to as far as possible loan the emergency currency procured under the act to cotton growers, and fixes the rate at 6 per cent. The amendment names the state affected, and would insure against excessive interest charges.

HAYMAKERS TO ORGANIZE TO HELP ALONG BUSINESS

South Texas Association in Convention Passed Resolution Declaring Industry Has Saved Many Towns.

Houston, Tex.—That the hay industry of South Texas has on several occasions saved certain Texas towns from bankruptcy in the past fifteen years, and for that reason the hay business should be indorsed by every business man, was the substance of a resolution adopted Monday at a meeting of the South Texas Haymakers' Association. The meeting was held in Houston, several coast towns and communities being represented. It was decided to organize a stock company with a capitalization of $50,000 to take care of and promote the interests of the haymakers, all of the stock to be taken by members of the association. Many new names were added to the membership roll.

The Grain Dealers' National Association's grade for hay was adopted by the association by resolution, as was the buy-a-bale-of-cotton idea. Many of the members stated during the meeting that hay would again save by communities this year from bankruptcy.

Lufkin Bonds Voted.

Lufkin, Tex.—A bond issue election by the city of Lufkin Thursday carried by a majority of 4 to 1. The amount voted was $75,000, divided in three propositions as follows: Forty thousand dollars for street improvements, $25,000 for water works improvements and extensions, and $100,000 for fire department improvements.

Education Board Paid Out $35,000.

Austin, Tex.—The state board of education, at its regular monthly meeting Thursday, had only $35,000 at its disposal, which was ordered paid on bond purchases previously made, reducing the debt to $70,000.

Bond Issue is Defeated.

Marble Falls, Tex.—In the election held to vote a bond issue for water light, street improvements and crematory the proposition was defeated by 20 votes.

TO PRAY FOR PEACE IN EUROPE

PRESIDENT SETS ASIDE SUNDAY, OCT. 4, AS A DAY OF PRAYER.

Proclamation Calls on All the People of the United States to Pray for Peace.

Washington.—President Wilson Tuesday signed a proclamation calling on the people of the United States to pray for peace in Europe. The president's proclamation sets aside Sunday, Oct. 4, as a day for prayer.

President Wilson's proclamation was as follows:

"Whereas, great nations of the world have taken up arms against one another and war now draws millions of men into battle whom the counsel of statesmen has not been able to save from the terrible sacrifice; and

"Whereas, in this, as in all things, it is our privilege and duty to seek counsel and succor of Almighty God, humbling ourselves before him, confessing our weakness and our lack of any wisdom equal to these things; and

"Whereas, it is the especial wish and longing of the people of the United States in prayer and counsel and all friendliness to serve the cause of peace;

"Therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, president of the United States of America, do designate Sunday, the 4th day of October next, a day of prayer and supplication, and do request all God-fearing persons to repair on that day to their places of worship, there to unite their petitions to Almighty God, that, overruling the counsel of men, settling straight the things they can not govern or alter, taking pity on the nations now in the throes of conflict, in his mercy and goodness showing a way where men can see none, he vouchsafe his children healing peace and again restore once more that concord among men and nations, without which there can be neither happiness nor true friendship, nor any wholesome fruit of toil or thought in the world; praying also to this end that he forgive us our sins, our ignorance of his holy will, our willfulness and many errors, and lead us in the paths of obedience to places of vision and to thoughts and counsels that purge and make wise.

"In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed. Done at the city of Washington this 8th day of September, in the year of our Lord 1914, and of the independence of the United States of America the 139th.

Washington.—President Wilson has joined the Buy-a-Bale-of-Cotton Club and Tuesday telegraphed his order to H. Y. DEVOTION OF A HIGH ORDER

Burely Canine Sagacity Could Hardly Go Farther Than the Instance That Is Here Recorded.

They were gathered round the stove in the country grocery store swapping dog stories. Abner Morgan had "all the best of it" with his yarns of the extraordinary intelligence exhibited by a collie belonging to his uncle. The others grew restive. Finally Pop Perkins deemed the moment appropriate wherein to spring a tale that would cap all the others.

"That was a pretty clever dawg, Ah," drawled he, "an' I make no doubt he was just as knowin' as you let on. But say! He wasn't a marker to a dawg my old man owned! Boys, the devotion of that dawg to the old man was shore amazin'. Once he heard the old man say he was pressed for money, so he went an' died the day before the dog was due!"

PIMPLES ON SCALP ITCHED

Lewisburg, Tenn.—Four years past I had a very bad scalp trouble that commenced with itching. Later my hair got thin and my scalp sore and I could not sleep for scratching at times. I did not get the sleep that was restful and refreshing. I was losing my hair fast. I had pimples on my scalp which itched and burned so that I scratched and irritated them. I had dandruff which sealed off and showed on my clothes.

"I tried almost every noted scalp remedy and hair tonic without success. Then I commenced using Cuticura Soap and Ointment and was relieved of the itching and sore scalp after three shampoos and applications of the Ointment. After using both the Cuticura Soap and Ointment for three months I was completely cured." (Signed) F. B. Lewis, Jan. 1, 1914. Cuticura Soap and Ointment sold throughout the world. Sample of each free, with 22-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. L, Boston."—Adv.

HAS NO INJURIOUS EFFECT

Strong Denial That Presence of Tuberculosis Sanatoriums Is Detriment to Adjoining Property.

Convincing proof that tuberculosis sanatoriums or hospitals are not a menace to the health nor a detriment to the property of those living near such institutions is given in a pamphlet issued recently by the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis. In an extended study of the subject the association has not been able to find a single instance where a tuberculosis sanatorium has had an injurious effect on the health of anyone living near it, nor where it has had any lasting effect upon property values.

The pamphlet, entitled, "The Effect of Tuberculosis Institutions on the Value and Desirability of Surrounding Property," reviews all the studies made on the subject, takes up court decisions bearing on the question and contributes besides some original investigations of typical hospitals and the opinions of prominent men, life insurance companies and others. Nearly one hundred and fifty different institutions are studied. In all these institutions not one case could be found where the assertions of opponents to their location, that a tuberculosis sanatorium would spread disease and injure property, could be substantiated. In fact, a number of instances were found where the presence of the sanatorium or hospital promoted outdoor living tending to lower the death rate, and increased the market for produce and labor, thereby benefiting the community.

Acquitted.

Ex-Representative Eddy of Minnesota never resented the title of "the homeliest man in congress." In the opinions of his opponents, Mr. Eddy had "wobbled" on a certain issue in the campaign. Some time later, on an occasion when he was billed to speak, he found that one of the newspapers had announced his coming in a headline reading: "Two-Faced Eddy Speaks Here Tonight."

"That evening, when Mr. Eddy stepped before his audience, he said: "You must know, ladies and gentlemen, that I am not the man referred to in this paper. It must be someone else, for there is no one here who does not know that, had I two faces, I would not wear this one."

An invitation to breakfast was, in Macaulay's opinion, one of the supreme tests of friendship. You may be sure if you are invited to breakfast that there is something agreeable about you."

COLORS' EFFECTS ON MOODS

Belief That Has Long Been Held Is Declared to Have Real Foundation in Scientific Fact.

People to whom certain colors represent sounds or emotions have long been laughed at, but scientific work on the sun's rays is proving them to have justification for their theories.

Red, it appears, is the most exciting and stimulating of all colors and has a special effect on the activity of the brain. Blue, which so many people in an age of great nervous strain and tension find soothing, is so in reality. Unless you are in a depressed and melancholy state sea blue curtains at your bedroom windows have a beneficial effect, especially if you face south and get the morning sun.

Color, indeed, especially in flowers, has an extraordinary effect on the mental condition. The sight of crimson, pink and amethyst rhododendrons growing in the open air has a curiously uplifting and joyous effect.

THE KERRVILLE ADVANCE

Published Every Thursday at Kerrville, Texas, by T. A. Buckner.

SUBSCRIPTION $1.00 A YEAR IN ADVANCE

Entered in the U. S. Mails as second class matter at Kerrville, Texas, on Oct. 17, 1912, according to act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

State Relief.

The Legislature passed the emergency warehouse bill last week and it is now a law. It provides for the leasing of warehouses by the Commissioner of Insurance and Banking for the storing and insurance of cotton, which is to be classified and warehouse receipts issued by the manager. These receipts will be guaranteed by the State so far as the delivery of the cotton is concerned, and upon them the owners of the cotton can procure advances. This will enable our farmers to hold their cotton for fair prices. If forced on the market, it would hardly bring the cost of production.

The Legislature is now considering Gov. Colquitt's plan for a State central bank to borrow money from the Federal Government or reserve banks upon the security of the $60,000,000 bonds of the State belonging to the school fund, and to loan the money to the State banks and to producers of agricultural products at 5 or 6 per cent. interest. This would unquestionably supply money necessary to move the crops or to hold them and make the State independent of the big speculation sharks. The plan is opposed on the ground that the school fund is too sacred to be thus used, but what is more sacred than the public welfare, and why should not the school bonds be used under proper safeguards to produce more interest for the support of our public schools? The United States government issues money to national banks on government bonds, state bonds, and even commercial paper, and there seems no reason why it should not issue money directly to the State as a State bank to be used for the benefit of the people.

THE Cleveland, Philadelphia, and New England's Foundrymen's Associations have petitioned the legislatures of their states to prohibit saloons within 500 to 800 feet of their foundries and mills, and they advocate milk instead of beer. It would be a good thing, too, to prevent saloons on any corner or block in cities where people, especially women and children, are compelled to pass to go to the postoffice and the principal business houses, and still better, to prevent them altogether. Everybody knows they are drawbacks to moral prosperity and good order and promoters of evil habits and waste.

MR. FERGUSON, our Governor to be, says he is opposed to woman suffrage, but is willing to submit a constitutional amendment for the people to decide whether to grant woman suffrage or not. That is fair. When the question is submitted to the men voters, they will no doubt decide that women have the same right to protection by the ballot as men have. The future governor is inconsistent, however, in opposing the submission of an amendment prohibiting the liquor traffic. But this will come before he ceases to be governor.

THE war in Europe appears to be waged without just cause or excuse, and probably a large majority of the men fighting do not know any cause at all for it, but they nevertheless are standing bravely for their governments. But it is hoped that governments by czars, kings, kaisers and emperors will cease after this war ends, and governments of and for the people take their place.

Wagon loads of seed cotton are coming in every day, and the gins are kept constantly running. Kerr County will raise more cotton this year than for several years past, and no county can beat it for wool and mohair, corn and small grain and fine live stock.

The Blight of Our Age.

The saloon is the sum of all villainies. It is worse than war or pestilence. It is the crime of crimes. It is the parent of crimes, and the mother of sins. It is the appalling source of misery, poverty and sorrow. It causes three-fourths of the crime and of course is the source of three-fourths of the taxes that support that crime.

"The saloon fills the jails and penitentiaries, the poorhouses and insane asylums. Who has to pay the bills? The landlord who doesn't get the rent, because the money goes for whiskey. The butcher and the grocer and the charitable person who takes pity on the children of drunkards, and the taxpayer who supports the insane asylums and other institutions, that whiskey business fills with human wrecks.

"Do away with the accursed business and you will not have to put up to support them. Who gets the money? The saloon keepers and the brewers and the distillers while the whiskey fills the land with misery, poverty and wretchedness, disease, death and damnation, and it is being authorized by the will of the sovereign people.

"You say, 'People will drink it anyway.' Not by my vote. You say, 'Men will murder their wives anyway.' Not by my vote. 'They will steal anyway.' Not by my vote. You are the sovereign people, and what are you going to do about it?

"Let me assemble before your minds the bodies of the drunken dead, who crawl away into the jaws of death, into the mouth of hell, and then out of the valley of the shadow of the drink let me call the contingent widowhood, and wifehood and child hood, and let their tears rain down upon their purple faces! Do you think that would stop the curse of the liquor traffic? No! No!"—Rev. William A. Sunday, D. D.

The Moons spent a happy honeymoon. After awhile Mrs. Moon presented Mr. Moon with a "new Moon," which so elated him he got drunk. That was a "full Moon." When he sobered up he had only 25 cents. This was the "Last Quarter." When he got home that night, his mother-in-law was acting as "Evening Star;" she met him at the door and there was a "total eclipse of the Moon."—Ex.

KERRVILLE

Is the county seat of Kerr County, has a population of about 2500, is situated 70 miles northwesterly from San Antonio, and is the terminus of the Kerrville branch of the S. A. & A. P. railroad. It has two daily trains to and from San Antonio, and daily mail routes, carrying passengers in hacks, to Ingram, Junction, Rock Springs Harper and other places north and west of Kerrville, and also a daily line to Fredericksburg. From Kerrville to Fredericksburg is 25 miles; to Bandera and Medina City, 25 miles; to Junction 60 miles; Rocksprings 80 miles, Harper 21 miles.

Kerrville has electric lights and a splendid system of water works. The sum of $20,000 is being spent on the streets and $40,000 has been voted for road improvements in this precinct.

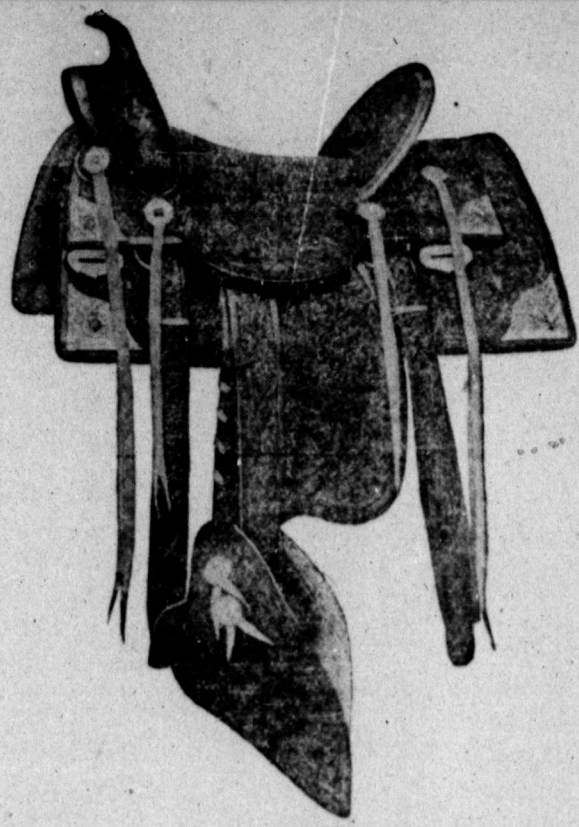

The elevation at Kerrville is 1750 feet. The Guadalupe river, which heads 30 miles north of Kerrville, runs through the city. On the east side where the city is located, there are high bluffs on the river, and on the west side is a fertile and beautiful valley, and mountains surround the city on the east and west. The Guadalupe valley is occupied by thrifty farmers and ranchmen, and the mountain regions, among which there is considerable valley, creek and arable land, there are large ranches of cattle, horses, sheep and goats, all of which do well in the Kerrville country. The land generally is well wooded, principally with live oak, Spanish oak and cedar, and the range is good, and water excellent.

Our farmers grow wheat, oats and all other small grain, cane and alfalfa, cotton and corn, and fruit and vegetables do well. Kerrville is one of the largest wool markets in the state, and large quantities of wool, mohair, cotton, oats, cattle, etc., are shipped from this point.

The climate of the Kerrville country is unsurpassed. The winters are short and generally mild and invigorating owing to the dryness of the climate and the prevalence of sunshine. The summers are cool and delightful, and the mountain air is pure and bracing. Game abounds in the Kerrville country, and fishing in the Guadalupe, especially north of Kerrville, is good. Kerrville and the adjoining towns are popular resorts for health and recreation.

The Kerrville Commercial Club, any of the different Realty Companies or any of our citizens, will be pleased to give prospective residents or visitors further information.

The population of Texas increases at the rate of 235 persons per day.

The population of Texas is 14.8 persons per square mile. In the rural districts the average is 11.3 persons per square mile.

GERMANS PUSHED BACK OVER GROUND PREVIOUSLY TAKEN

BELGIANS WITH GERMAN LOOT FROM HAELEN

After defeating the Germans at Haelen the Belgians carted away masses of abandoned equipment.

French Have Vigorously Pursued Retreating Germans For Several Days

ON THE BATTLE LINE

NEWS OF TEUTONS' DEFEAT CREATES A DEEP IMPRESSION ALONG SWISS-GERMAN BORDER AND IN VARIOUS PARTS OF EMPEROR'S REALM.

BELGIANS ON OFFENSIVE

Many Stories of Bravery and Heroism Told of Subjects of Mighty Armies Now Contesting Every Foot of the Hundreds of Miles of Battle Ground.

Summary of War News to Date.

The retirement of the German armies virtually all along the line in France continues, and advices from Switzerland describe the profound impression news of the German retreat has created along the Swiss-German frontier and in various parts of Germany. Already the Germans have been pushed back by the allied armies at some points for a distance of sixty miles or more, and the French have reoccupied various towns they evacuated two weeks ago.

The Belgians have taken the offensive and are reported to have cut the German line of communication, forcing them to use the line through the Meuse Valley and Luxembourg.

The senate and assembly of the Union of South Africa have pledged allegiance to the empire and have approved the action Great Britain has taken "in defense of the principles of liberty and justice and of the integrity of the sanctity of international obligations."

Russian official advices describe operations in Russian Poland, culminating in the victories of Krasnik and Tomaszow. One million men were engaged on the Austrian and German side and for six days the Russians remained on the defensive, finally undertaking a general offensive movement by reason of the successes of General Ruzsky and General Brusiloff.

Servians troops have crossed the Save river, and an official statement issued at Nish describes large Austrian losses in the early fighting. Serbia apparently is preparing to undertake further active offensive operations.

From Berlin come brief reports. General von Stein has issued a statement describing bakery operations east of Paris and telling of heavy losses on both sides. The statement adds that the army commanded by Crown Prince Frederick William has been bombarding with heavy artillery the forts south of Verdun since Wednesday.

A German fleet, the flagship of which carries the flag of Prince Henry of Prussia, has been seen cruising south of the Aland islands in the Gulf of Bothnia. The fleet includes seven dreadnaughts.

The Russians claim to have taken Tomaszow, Russian Poland, and report that they have repulsed the Germans near Chorzele and Mysinec. Reports from East Prussia say that the Russian Twenty-second Army Corps has been defeated by the Germans at Lyck.

Semlin, in Austria, across the river from Belgrade, has been taken by the Servians.

It is said a portion of the German army in Belgium is in dire straits for want of food supplies.

Petrograd says the Russians have succeeded in separating the Austrian left wing from its main body near Tomaszow and Rawa, in Russian Poland. President Poincare of France has sent a cablegram to President Wilson denying that the French are manufacturing and using dum-dum bullets, as charged by Emperor William.

It is reported two Austrian armies have been surrounded by Russians and 60,000 prisoners taken, including 500 officers from one army and 600 from another. The surrender of both armies is impending. The Germans are again moving troops from east to west. This was the news given out Monday.

"When the French troops entered Vitry-le-Francois there was found in the house occupied by the general staff of the Eighth Corps of the German army the following order signed by Lieutenant General Tullf von Tscheppe under Weidenbach:

"Vitry-le-Francois, Sept. 10, 1915 a. m.—The end aimed at by our long and painful marches has been reached. The main French forces have been compelled to accept battle after continuously falling back. The great decision is unquestionably near at hand. Tomorrow, therefore, the whole forces of the German army, as well as those of our army corps, must be engaged all along the line from Paris to Verdun, to save the welfare and the honor of Germany.

"I expect that every officer and soldier, notwithstanding battles and heroisms of the last few days, will do his full duty until his last breath. Everything depends on the result of tomorrow."

"It is interesting to compare the addresses. It shows that the Germans don't lend less importance to the issue of the battle of Marne than does our commander in chief."

Continuous Fighting.

The German western armies have been fighting almost continuously for 25 days and until the last phase of the campaign, on the offensive. Field Marshal French's view that they are becoming exhausted finds ready credence among military experts.

A German official wireless dispatch Friday says that no report has been made public in Berlin of events in France for the past three days.

Report 60,000 Germans Marching South

From Holland come the news that 60,000 German reinforcements are marching south. These troops may have an effect on the tide of battle, but there is reason to believe the allied armies also are receiving a counterbalancing accession of strength.

That the German navy has not been without enterprise is revealed in the admiralty announcement Thursday that the British cruiser Pathfinder was destroyed by a German submarine, not by a mine, as was at first supposed. The German craft which ventured so far from its base is given credit for its enterprise.

Considering Closing North Sea.

Another mine disaster, the victim of which was the tramp steamer Ottawa, has been added to the list and the advisability of closing the North Sea to merchant shipping is being discussed. Both England and Germany would suffer through strangulation of their trade, England losing food supplies from Scandinavian countries while Holland promised to be Germany's principal avenue of commerce with the outer world.

That the Germans are concentrating their strength against the main French front appears to be confirmed by reports which have arrived through Holland. Most of the troops left in Belgium are said to be men past the prime of life, of the landstrum, while 30,000 or 40,000 naval reserves are marching in to replace the depleted garrisons.

Belgians Are Aggressors at Antwerp.

An Ostend message says the Belgian army at Antwerp has taken the aggressive and has driven the Germans back to the environs of Louvain. Another message says the Belgians have defeated a German garrison at Aerschot, a short distance from Louvain.

The house of commons Thursday voted unanimously for 500,000 more recruits. The country was surprised by the announcement that 430,000 had enlisted since the beginning of the war.

When the government's plans are completed the British army for the continent and for home service will consist roughly of the following:

Regular army, 1,200,000; territorials, 300,000; reserves, 214,000; Indian contingent, 70,000; Canadian first and second contingent, 40,000; Australians, 20,000; New Zealand, 10,000, making a total of 1,854,000 men.

British Have Lost 19,000 Men.

This tremendous enrollment for a country which normally has only a small professional army has thrown light upon the government's views regarding the duration of the war, or at least, on its determination to meet all possibilities.

A casualty list published Friday brings the army's losses to nearly 19,000 men, exclusive of the past three days' fighting. Yet this big toll from the small army seems not to depress the country.

In an engagement between British and Germans in Nyassaland, British Africa, the Germans, according to their official press bureau, were driven back to the River Songwe, which is part of the frontier between the British and German protectorates.

Additional British casualties have been made public, covering the period up to September 7 and bring the total for the campaign close to 19,000 killed, wounded and missing.

Latest official reports from the French government indicate that the offensive tactics undertaken the last day or two by allied armies have forced the Germans back at various points in the battle line, which extends from a few miles east of Paris to Verdun, a distance of about two hundred miles.

HOUSTON'S DEEP WATERWAY FINISHED

$2,500,000 PROJECT IS COMPLETED 14 MONTHS AHEAD OF TIME.

Provides Channel 25 Feet in Depth From Bolivar Roads to Long Reach Turning Basin.

Houston, Tex.—The Houston ship channel, an engineering project that has cost approximately $2,500,000, was completed Monday. The Atlantic, Gulf and Pacific Dredging Company, that was awarded the contract to dredge approximately 36,000,000 cubic yards of sand and dirt, completed its task and the ship channel was officially "delivered" to the United States engineers, fourteen months ahead of contract time.

With the completion of the ship channel—a project that Houston and Harris County had backed steadfastly for many years—deep water from the gulf to the turning basin is provided. Two dredges, now being completed in the Orange ship yards, will soon be launched. These dredges, one paid for by the government and the other by the taxpayers of Harris County, will be used in keeping the channel clear at all seasons of the year.

Paid For by Congress and County.

The funds to pay for the work were provided as follows: On the promise of the Harris County navigation district, composed of the entire county of Harris, to provide an equal amount, congress appropriated the sum of $1,250,000 for the project and the promised sum was raised by Harris County by bond issue. On May 16, 1912, bids were opened by Major Earl I. Brown, then United States engineer in charge of the Galveston district. Four companies tendered proposals. The Atlantic, Gulf and Pacific Dredging Company, was accepted as the lowest and best bid. On June 1, 1912, work was under way and it has progressed continuously since, from four to six dredges being at work, clearing the channel to a uniform depth of twenty-five feet. Assistant United States Engineer Charles Croft has represented the government on the work.

Work in Three Divisions.

The work was divided into three divisions. First, that portion lying in Galveston bay between the 25-foot depth, near Bolivar, to the Moran Point beacon, a distance of 10,750 feet in length, which required the removal of approximately 10,538,000 cubic yards of material. The second division was from Morgans Point through San Jacinto bay and river to the mouth of Vines bayou, a distance of about 124,229 feet, from which there was removed approximately 2,100,000 cubic feet of material. Division No. 2 was from the mouth of Vines bayou to and including the turning basin at Long Reach, a section about 28,450 feet long, from which there was dredged approximately 4,935,000 cubic yards of material.

Channel Has Been in Constant Use Since Work Started.

The channel has been in constant use since the work was started, barges and light draft vessels using the waterway, taking to and from Houston cargoes of cotton and other commodities in large and increasing quantities.

Dilley Has Ginned 1,400 Bales.

Dilley, Tex.—Up to date there has been 1,400 bales of cotton ginned at the two gins of Dilley, and the crop is not hardly half picked yet. If the cotton can be gathered there will be something over 3,000 bales ginned this season.

Saw Mill Burned at Oilla.

Beaumont, Tex.—The saw mill of the Russ Daniel Lumber Company at Oilla, in Orange County, was destroyed by fire Monday.

Rare Spanish Coins Found.

Nacogdoches, Tex.—While hunting cattle in the woods ten miles east of Nacogdoches, E. H. Roberts found in a red gully a Spanish coin about as large as an American quarter. Around the edge on one side were the Latin words, "Hispaniarum Rex 1758," and on the other side, "Ferdinandus" D. G.

First Report of Ginning Made.

Austin, Tex.—The Texas department of agriculture Thursday issued its first report of the season of cotton bales ginned, showing that 184,527 bales were ginned in this state prior to Sept. 1, round bales counted as half bales. The total number of bales ginned prior to Sept. 1, 1915, was 521,039.

Bond Issues Approved.

Austin, Tex.—The attorney, general's department approved the following bond issues this week: Anderson county common school district No. 27 1/2, $1,000; Angeline county common school district No. 19, $500; Angeline county common school district No. 24, $1,500.

Big Wheat Shipments.

Galveston, Tex.—The clearance of the steamship King George Friday with 204,000 bushels of wheat raised the total clearances of the month to 2,479,371 bushels, or practically 2,500,000 bushels of wheat for foreign export.

Cotton Seed Drops to $6 a Ton.

Caldwell, Tex.—Cotton seed hulls have dropped in price to $6 per ton and cotton seed meal is $12.25 per sack of 100 pounds.

WINCHESTER

The Model 1912 Winchester is the lightest, strongest and handsomest repeating shotgun on the market. Although light in weight, it has great strength, because its metal parts throughout are made of nickel steel. Training a Cook.

An Irish servant is, of all people in the world, the most anxious to please, and she even desires to do exactly as she is told, even when the commands laid on her are unreasonable. In "The Lighter Side of Irish Life," Mr. G. A. Birmingham gives an amusing instance of this trait.

A young housekeeper once undertook to train a cook. One day, it happened that there were waiting for dinner. She explained carefully the proper way of cooking whiting, and, with a view to achieving elegance in the serving of the dish, added that these particular fish are usually sent up to table with their tails in their mouths.

The fish appeared on the dinner table, not seductively curled after the pleasant habit of whiting, but lying rigidly straight on the dish. Each of them, however, had its tail cut off and neatly inserted into its mouth. The inexperienced cook had most conscientiously obeyed what must have struck her as a merely vexatious order.—Youth's Companion.

Two Classes Barred.

A successful agricultural show is carried on each year in a certain village in the south of Ireland. Among the many competitions for the encouragement of thrift and cleanliness is one for the best turned out donkey cart. The prize for this was usually won by either the local doctor or the local solicitor. After one year's show the farmers and working classes protested that it was not quite fair to expect their hardy used animals to compete successfully with the well-cared-for and well-groomed animals of those who generally won the prize.

In Consequence of This Protest the Following Provision in Connection with This Competition Appeared in the Show Placard the Following Year:

"All legal and medical donkeys excluded."

Much Bolder.

"Do you see that girl in the fade-away costume?"

"I can't keep my eyes off her."

"I wonder how she when she was a little maid always saying, 'I darsn't do this' and 'I darsn't do that.'"

Delays.

"Do you prefer an automobile to a horse?"

"Yes," replied Mr. Chuggins.

"Because it goes faster?"

"Not exactly that. But somehow I enjoy hanging around a repair shop more than loafing and looking on in a livery stable."

LEARNING THINGS

We Are All in the Apprentice Class.

When a simple change of diet brings back health and happiness the story is briefly told. A lady of Springfield, Ill. says:

"After being afflicted for years with nervousness and heart trouble, I received a shock four years ago that left me in such a condition that my life was despaired of."

"I got no relief from doctors nor from the numerous heart and nerve remedies I tried, because I didn't know that coffee was daily putting me back more than the doctors could put me ahead."

"Finally at the suggestion of a friend I left off coffee and began the use of Postum, and against my expectations I gradually improved in health until for the past 6 or 8 months I have been entirely free from nervousness and those terrible sinking, weakening spells of heart trouble."

"My troubles all came from the use of coffee which I had drunk from childhood and yet they disappeared when I quit coffee and took up the use of Postum." Name given by Postum Co., Hattie Creek, Mich.

Many people marvel at the effects of leaving off coffee and drinking Postum, but there is nothing marvelous about it—only common sense.

Coffee is a destroyer—Postum is a Rebuilder. That's the reason. Look in pkgs. for the famous little book, "The Road to Wellville."

Postum comes in two forms: Regular Postum—must be well boiled. 15c and 25c packages. Instant Postum—is a soluble powder. A teaspoonful dissolves quickly in a cup of hot water and, with cream and sugar, makes a delicious beverage instantly. 30c and 50c tins.

The cost per cup of both kinds is about the same. "There's a Reason" for Postum.—sold by Grocers.

Encouraging.

"Did you catch any fish?" asked the woman who is always encouraging.

"Not one," replied her husband. "We got a couple of nibbles and then there was nothing doing all day."

"Well, even if you didn't catch any I'll bet you gave them an awful scare."

A few applications have made a complete cure of Tetter on hands which I had almost despaired of ever curing. I also find it unequalled for chapped and rough skin." Roland B.
