

Swim Pool Meeting Thursday at 7

A community-wide meeting Thursday night will kickoff a fund raising drive for a swimming pool in Bovina.

The meeting will be in school cafeteria. It will begin at 7. Bovina Lions Club members, originators of the swimming pool idea, will be in charge of the meeting. Details concerning the pool and how the money will be raised will be explained by a spokesman for the group.

Coffee and doughnuts will be served.

"Everyone, and especially those interested in having a swimming pool in Bovina, is urged to attend," Leon Grissom, Lions Club president, says.

Final plans for the community-wide meeting were made at a Lions Club swimming pool committee meeting Thursday noon in Bovina Restaurant.

To raise the money -- an estimated $17,500 -- stock in Bovina Swim Pool Corporation will be sold. Sale of the stock will begin at the Thursday night meeting.

The corporation will be of the non-profit type and the stock will be paid off as funds permit.

Location of the pool will be the west side of north Eighth Street near the city's new water well. This property is city owned and the city commission has donated the lots to be used for a swimming pool. The pool will be 25 feet by 70 feet in size.

The city has also agreed to operate the pool when it is constructed.

The fund-raising, stock-selling drive will last no longer than two weeks, it was decided at the Thursday committee meeting.

Included in the estimated cost of $17,500 are fencing, bath-houses, and a concession stand. If the drive goes off successfully, it is possible the pool will be ready for use by early summer. It had been decided earlier that a kickoff meeting, such as the one scheduled for Thursday night, would be the best way to gain interest and enthusiasm in the drive quickly.

Whittlin'

By Dolph Moten

When we began writing about this baldheaded business some few weeks back, we suspected it was a subject held dear to the hearts of many. We underestimated HOW many held it so dear.

This week we received a letter . . . if it can be called that . . . from our once-friend Warren Morton. He, you'll remember, was at first considered to be among the baldheaded group. After much protest on his part, we admitted his was a hairline case and that before he could be taken into Cue Ball Club, an organization suggested by this column for those of the baldheaded set, he would have to be approved by directors of Cue Balls.

Before we let you read Morton's letter, we want to say we have received a report that such a club has been organized and has its first project underway. The project, and a logical one it is, concerns itself with getting the price of haircuts reduced for those who have little or no hair.

Bedford Caldwell, Cue Ball charter member, tells us progress is being made with the project, but that gentlemen like Morton, who are not proud of their baldheads, will not be given an opportunity to take advantage of the reduced price of haircuts. Also, we understand, there's some question as to whether fellows with attitudes like Morton's will ever be allowed to be a part of such an elite, distinctive organization.

Here's the letter . . . and let us add that even though it lacks a lot of being complimentary to the department we're appreciative of it:

Dear Mr. Editor:

After reading your WHITT-LIN' column last week I was reminded of a recent news item that came out of England when an English publisher had just returned to England from a trip around the world. His excursion was described as: "Mr. Blotz has returned from his famous trip through 'the wide open spaces' and everyone agrees that his head is full of them."

You should know by now that it is never proper to go behind one's back -- and this includes finding out if one has a bald cranium. I have experienced no great satisfaction in existing on a fringe area with regard to the 'haves' and the 'have-nots' hair-wise speaking. I have troubled myself to my research laboratory for solace. I will relate to you the facts as related by Dr. Zilchwhite of Slippery Rock University. His theories have proven that external conditions have nothing to do with retention or loss of hair (This theory would disqualify ex-baseball catchers from membership in the TURRET TOPPERS -- Name of new Bovina organization made up of those individuals who feel it more important to be concerned with proper mental processes than the reaction of one smart aleck editor to the appearance of the top-post.)

Said theory proves that hair begins to ball out at the crown of the head when the male reaches mature adulthood. Proper functioning of the Medulla and the Cerebrum cause an amount of activity such that the hair has no alternative but to go on through thus creating slight baldness near the crown. In case of retarded brain activity the hair thrives and does well at the expense of the mental processes. The theory is not conclusive yet as to its findings -- with respect to complete baldness but present indications

Firemen's Feed Draws Big Crowd

Approximately 90 people attended a supper Saturday evening for members of Bovina's Volunteer Fire Department and their families.

The feed was sponsored by Western Warehouse Company, in appreciation for the department's cooperation with the company some months ago. It was in American Legion Hall. The meal of fried chicken and trimmings was prepared by members of the social committee of the department, with each family bringing pie for dessert.

Special feature of the evening was an auction held after the meal. Dolph Moten was auctioneer and a number of gifts received by the department in the recent March of Dimes Telethon were sold.

Approximately $68 was raised through the sale of the gifts and the money, reports Fire Chief Otho Hammonds, will be placed in the department's general fund.

MUST FOR MUSTANGS

Bovina Plays Hart Here Friday Night

With a perfect District 3-B record Coach Charles Don Smith's Fillies clinched half of the district championship Friday night at Nazareth as they won, 71-47.

It was win No. 7 for the Fillies against no losses. With one game left on the district schedule, they have round robin play sewed up. The winner of the district tournament, however, gets half the title and if different teams win the round robin and the tournament, a playoff game decides the district representative in further playoffs.

The tournament will be in Happy Tuesday, Thursday and Friday of next week.

For the Mustangs, the situation is not so clear cut. By taking an easy, 59-25, win from Nazareth Friday night, they made their district record 5-2. They are battling with Happy

AT CITY MEETING

Hammonds Seeks Franchise For Community TV Antenna

Bovina city commissioners considered a request from Otho Hammonds for a franchise to construct a community TV antenna here when they met in a regular session at the city hall Monday night.

The commissioners told Hammonds they would give him a decision within a week. Meeting with the group, Hammonds, owner of Hammonds Electric here, explained his plans to construct the antenna and asked that he be given two years to begin work on the project.

He explained that the antenna would make eight channels available to those who made use of it. He estimates that a tower would need to be 400 feet high and says it will be constructed outside the city limits.

Hammonds points out that it is necessary that he get an agreement from the city commission before more plans may be made.

The names of J. D. Stevens and Herman Estes were taken from the list of commissioners candidates. A petition bearing their names, as well as four others, was recently filed.

Stevens and Estes both requested by letter their names be taken from the list. The commission passed a motion that anyone whose name was petitioned could automatically have it taken off by requesting such in a letter.

Estes' letter said there was a state ruling against his holding public office. He works for the city highway department. Stevens' letter said, "I think any two of the other men are better qualified for the job than I am."

The other four men whose names were on the petition were Elton Venable, Bud Crump, Warren Embree, and Harry J. Charles.

Vegetable Meeting Thursday

Area farmers interested in vegetable production are asked to attend a meeting Thursday night at 8 in American Legion Hall.

Announcement of the meeting was made this week by Chas. W. Flynn of Gateway Produce Co., which has a packing shed here.

Gateway constructed the packing shed and operated here last year for the first time. Plans for the coming year will be discussed at the Thursday night session.

Announcement of the meeting is made in an advertisement in this issue.

Cemetery Dues Now Payable

Warren Embree, secretary-treasurer of Bovina Cemetery Association, reminds that $10.00 annual dues may now be paid.

Last week, members of the association and others of the community, received letters stating this reminder.

The association now has 77 regular contributing members. In the future, the association hopes to get more interested parties to become members, thus lightening the load of financial responsibility on present members.

Embree states that the appearance of the cemetery has improved in the last couple of years. This fact, he feels, is due to the water supply piped to the cemetery two years ago.

Improvements, such as more trees and shrubs, are among tentative plans for the coming year.

BOARD MEETING LENGTHY

Trustee Election Set for April 4

BY SALLY WHITESIDES

Saturday, April 4, was set for the election of three members of Bovina Independent School District board of trustees at a regular meeting Monday night.

Three vacancies, caused by the expiration of the terms of Ovid Lawlis, Wendol Christian and A. D. Cumpton, will be filled at the election. The election will be at the school.

Christian, chairman of the board, suggested that a nominating committee be named to list nominees. The board agreed that J. T. Hammonds, Warren Embree, Gene Ezell and Amos Steelman would have the responsibility. This committee will choose a number of nominees for the ticket. Other names may be added by petitions. However Christian asks that individuals who wish to add other names consult the nominating committee.

Charlie Calaway was chosen as election judge and clerks will be Tom Rhodes and A. B. Wilkinson. They will be authorized to acquire any other needed clerks.

Formal approval of the signing of Mrs. Dorothy Sims Morton, homemaking teacher; Norris Sameulson, band instructor; and James McLeroy, commercial teacher, was given by the board. The three teachers were hired to fill vacancies left at mid-term.

All bills were approved by the board except one from a Clovis office supply firm. It was decided that the bill would be tabled until a meeting between the board and a representative of the business could be held. A special meeting will be called within the week for such a discussion.

Discussion was held on payment of a substitute bus driver for school activities in regard to a recent instance for the Junior Class. It was decided that the school would hereafter pay such expenses.

A $10,000 bond on Mrs. Pearl M. Dodson, school tax assessor-collector, was voted to be renewed.

Also, it was agreed that sick leave benefits be extended to include all school employees paying teacher retirement. This includes, besides teachers, the bus foreman, bus drivers, cafeteria workers, receptionist, tax assessor-collector and custodians.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Bandy and son, Don, and Mrs. Lloyd Killough and sons, Sid and Norman, met in closed session with members of the board, Superintendent Warren Morton and Roy M. Crawford, vocational agriculture instructor.

Discussion of trip expenses for the superintendent was held and the renewal of contracts for superintendent, two principals and two coaches was tabled until a future meeting.

Visitors to the meeting, other than those mentioned, were Mrs. E. C. Berry, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Kelsco, Owen Patton, Dwayne Carter, Roy Whisler and Sally Whitesides, Blade reporter.

The meeting was adjourned at 1 a. m.

ON HIGHWAY 60 --

Two Injured In Auto Crash

Two people were injured in a grinding two-car crash at the intersection of Highway 60 and Third Street Wednesday of last week.

Injured were Mrs. Durward Bell, who was driving a 1955 Oldsmobile across the highway south, and Sebreino Diaz, driver of a '56 Chevrolet which was going west on the highway.

Mrs. Bell was taken to Parmer County Community Hospital by Claborn ambulance. She suffered bruises and lacerations and was hospitalized. Diaz received lacerations but was not hospitalized.

Mrs. Bell was thrown from her car by the initial impact. The front of the Chevrolet hit the left side of the Olds near the front wheel.

Highway patrolmen who investigated the accident issued Mrs. Bell a ticket for failing to yield right of way.

Damage to the automobiles was estimated at about $500 each.

The accident occurred at 11:50 a.m.

A minor auto accident occurred south of the railroad crossing on North Street at 6:10 p.m. Monday.

A '56 Mercury driven by Lynn Hudson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alva J. Hudson, rolled back into a '55 Chevrolet driven by Earlene Markum while both were waiting for a train to pass.

The vehicles, which were headed north, were damaged slightly.

Hudson was given a ticket by the investigating officer for having no driver's license.

1715 Pay Poll Tax In County

A total of 1715 Parmer County citizens paid their poll tax so they will be eligible to vote during 1959.

This report came this week from the office of Lee Thompson, county tax assessor-collector. Bulk of the poll tax receipts were issued in January -- 940. December saw 321 people buy their right to vote, November had 140, and in the first month in which poll taxes could be paid, October, 314 people received a receipt.

The '59 figure is less than a year ago. A total of 2230 poll taxes were paid last year. However, this was expected as '59 is an off year from an

All residents of the Oklahoma Lane community are urged to attend a special meeting next Thursday, February 12, for the purpose of discussing a proposed community building.

Oklahoma Lane Home Demonstration club is sponsoring the meeting at 7:30 p.m. in Oklahoma Lane Farm Supply Building in an effort to determine whether there is sufficient interest in a community building to warrant launching a drive to finance and construct one.

Refreshments will be served by the club and free entertainment will be a movie entitled "A Tenderfoot In Europe" shown by Cotton John of KGNC in Amarillo.

Oklahoma Lane Farm Supply is located 1 1/4 miles north of the churches on the Bovina-Lariat road.

Mr. and Mrs. Leland Boyd will be honored with a pink and blue shower Saturday afternoon, February 21, at 3:00. The shower is planned for the annex of First Baptist Church and all friends of the couple are cordially invited to attend, says Mrs. Bobby Englant, a hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd moved to Littlefield a month ago.

Interest Abundant----

Bovina people are to be complimented on the tremendous amount of interest they are showing toward community projects. Favorable interest.

Seems to us the community has far more than might be considered its share of individuals who are interested in its growth and progress.

For proof of that statement, notice the number of activities which concern growth and improvement which are going on now. It must be satisfying for an individual who himself is interested in improving his community to be associated with so many people who have the same outlook.

THE HIGH PLAINS FARM AND HOME

Farmers Must Wait For Support News

What will the 1959 support price be on grain sorghum?—the Parmer County area's most important question of the year—is still unanswered. To make matters worse, it will be "after March 16" before the information will be released.

That means that area farmers will have a cold choice on their A and B plan cotton options . . . they won't know what to expect on their grain sorghum when the deadline comes for them to make up their mind on whether they want to stick with allotments and a support price of 80 percent of parity or overplant by as much as 40 percent and receive 60 percent of parity for their cotton.

It would be much easier for them to decide this important matter if they knew what the grain sorghum support would be—but they won't.

The USDA had been expected to reveal sorghum supports around February 1. They set the cotton support January 31 but did not divulge the sorghum information.

After corn controls were thrown off last fall and a new program applicable to all feed grains came to be adopted, it was generally held that grain sorghum support prices would be upped. The increase was hoped to run from about seven to perhaps seventeen cents per hundred.

Since the USDA failed to announce supports last week, though, there have been rumors that the "increase" will not be an increase at all but in fact will be a rather severe cut-back. None of these rumors has panned out, but farmers are still "playing it scared" on the basis of the sketchy information being made public.

Area prices for grain sorghums have been holding up pretty well, indicating that those who buy and sell in major markets and who often have access to information not available to most farmers, still have confidence that grain sorghum prices will be relatively stable next year. The support was announced February 14 last year.

NEWS FROM THE FARM BUREAU

By RAYMOND EULER

"For those who want to understand Communism, we prescribe, not a fifteen day trip to Russia, but fifteen days in a library studying the Communist conspiracy". (Quote from the American Bar Association, 1958) And we concur.

Jack Patterson, Vice President and membership chairman, urges those of you who are receiving your March statements for membership dues to send them in as soon as you receive them. This, he says, will save some neighbor of yours the time, expense and trouble of coming to see you on March 3rd. Your membership will be paid for a year from the due date, no matter when you pay it. We know that your prompt response will save time and money in the office, too.

Patterson, Florian Jarecki, and possibly Gilbert Kaltwasser are going to Dallas to attend a membership meeting for workers Thursday. The kick-off Banquet will be on March 2, in the Friona School Cafeteria. J. H. West, TFB President of Bishop will be the speaker. He will also have a sound motion picture called Freedom in Action, depicting the importance of citizen participation in local politics. Those who have seen the film say it is thought provoking, interesting and informative.

Another Farm Bureau sponsored bill designed to exempt farm trailers up to a gross weight of 14,000 pounds is being introduced by Conley, Murray and Boysen. This is of economic importance to every farmer who owns a trailer. If you favor such an exemption, write your Senator and Representative.

Another bill with Farm Bureau endorsement is one extending to one year the time allowed for filing on state road tax exemption of farm used fuels, and eliminating the need for notarization of such requests. Passage of this bill would bring in an estimated five to ten thousand dollars for Parmer County to be spent with local merchants. The inconvenience of the present method causes hundreds of gallons of gasoline refunds to be neglected or overlooked.

We hope you will urge your county officials, sheriff, judge, attorney, etc., to use the full extent of the Texas law in an effort to curb drunk driving which definitely tends to increase the cost of insurance to you and your careful driving neighbor. Waiting till such drunk drivers have killed or injured someone is waiting too long.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

For the protection of cultivated land against erosion by wind and water, nothing can take the place of continuous cover of dead or living plants, or both.

This is true regardless of location, rainfall, soil, or the kind of farming or ranching that goes on.

In the Plains country, however the need for plant cover grows more important as conditions tend toward the dry side. At the same time getting good cover becomes a tougher job.

The job is two-sided; first, a crop must be managed in a way that it will protect the soil until a new crop covers it. Experience of farmers and ranchers and research work have taught us important lessons. We know that burning crop residues is one of the worst mistakes that can be made. And too much tillage wears out the residues and therefore should be held to a minimum.

Leaving stubble and other crop residues on the surface has proved especially valuable in the grain summer-fallow areas where 15 or 16 months usually pass between harvest and the planting of a new crop. One way of leaving such cover and disturbing the soil surface as little as possible is by using equipment having sweeps or blades 32 inches wide or wider.

This practice is known as stubble mulching. It is a year round system. In it all tillage, planting, cultivating and harvesting operations are done in a way to keep crop residues in the surface to protect the soil. Where wheat is grown each year, more cutting or stirring of stubble is possible without serious harm. The period for seedbed preparation is shorter. Narrower sweeps, chisel-type implements, or even disk types in some instances, may be used.

When sorghums are grown separately or in rotation with wheat, the principles are the same. They involve the conservation of residues during the critical period to protect against wind, runoff, and splash erosion. The same practices help develop a soil condition that will take in moisture faster and keep it longer.

In growing sorghums, if there is a high yield of stalks, as on irrigated land, it is safe to shred the stalks coarsely and tuck them lightly in to the soil with a disk.

On drylands, however, where yields are not so high, it is best to leave a high stubble during winter months. For sorghums in rows 24 to 48 inches apart, the usual minimum height recommended is 15 to 18 inches.

BLOWING TOPSOIL is checked by Bob Crozier, left, work unit conservationist for the Parmer County SCD, and Guy Nutt of Amarillo, area conservationist. They are checking a central Parmer County listed field which has had furrows filled with sand from an adjoining dryland field. The men do not consider wind erosion as a serious hazard to area farmland in spite of the way the land seemed to blow Monday.

Most County Land "In Good Shape"

In spite of what might have been said about the free-flowing real estate in Monday's sandstorm, most all Farmer County area land is in good shape and is not subject to damage by wind erosion.

This is the report from the Soil Conservation Service this week, after a check of conditions following the blow -- this first storm of the season. Guy Nutt, area conservationist for Area II, was in the county Tuesday, and he and Bob Crozier, work unit conservationist for the county, concurred that farmers as a general rule have things "pretty well tied down."

The reason so much blew the first of the week is that it was the first wind of any consequence in many weeks and much loose and powdery topsoil that is always present under such conditions simply got up and moved off with the gale.

Big-scale irrigation and intense cultivation methods have made a return of the Dust Bowl days an impossibility for this part of the High Plains. Land now has more natural cover, is usually better plowed and protected, and nearly always has a higher moisture content than in the days when there were no irrigation wells.

In fact, of the 420,000 acres in cultivation in the county, 404,000 of it is under irrigation, according to SCS figures.

That means lots of protection. Parmer County is itself a Soil Conservation District. In addition to that, the county voted itself a wind erosion control district several years ago. That means that landowners can be required by law to care for their land to prevent excessive blowing.

This law is practically never made use of these days, however, and blowing dust is not the hazard it once was.

Cotton Loan Rate Dips Slightly

The 1959-60 cotton loan rate has been announced, and will be down slightly from last year. Prentice Mills, ASC office manager, reports that the support price will be at the rate of 80 per cent of parity, compared with 81 in 1958-1959.

The national average on 7/8 inch middling white cotton is $30.40. In Parmer County it will be $30.16 this year (under the "A plan"). Premiums and discounts on grades and staple will be unchanged from the previous year.

Supports on cotton grown under the B Plan will be 65 per cent of parity, which will amount to $24.46 in Parmer County.

The new support rates, announced last week, are about in line with what was expected in most quarters. The support of "A" cotton will continue at a rate considered pretty good by most High Plains farmers, and will assure the continuance of cotton as the No. 1 money maker on area farms. As to whether growers are going A or B plan this year, there's still no indication of a general trend to either side. No one knows for sure what the B plan cotton will bring on the market -- although most agree it will probably be slightly to moderately over the loan rate.

That question mark, plus the enigma of not knowing what grain sorghum support prices will be until after time to select which cotton plan will be followed, is the middle of the year for area farmers.

A neat, well-kept farmstead is that of the T. O. Lesleys of Lazbuddie. The Cypress and Red Cedar evergreens which encircle their home provide not only beauty but protection from the elements. The trees nearer the house are for decorative purposes.

More and more Parmer County area farm families are finding pleasure and usefulness in landscaping their farmsteads with trees like these.

Most of us have heard of Johnny Appleseed all our lives, but recently someone gave us a cookie recipe that was supposed to have been his favorite. Of course, it is doubtful that anyone knows Johnny Appleseed's favorite cookie recipe, but this one is very good.

JOHNNY APPLESEED COOKIES

- 3 cups sifted flour
 - 1 teaspoon salt
 - 1 1/2 teaspoons soda
 - 1 teaspoon cinnamon
 - 1/8 teaspoon cloves
 - 1/2 cup oleo
 - 1 cup brown sugar
 - 1 egg
 - 1 teaspoon vanilla
 - 1 cup sweetened fresh or canned applesauce
 - 1 cup raisins
 - 1 cup chopped nuts
 - sugar for topping
- Sift together flour, salt, soda, cinnamon and cloves. Cream oleo. Gradually add sugar, creaming until light and fluffy. Add egg and vanilla extract and beat well. Heat applesauce to boiling. Add flour mixture and applesauce alternately to creamed mixture, starting and ending with flour. Mix smooth after each addition. Fold in raisins and nuts. Drop by teaspoonfuls 2" apart on greased baking sheet. Sprinkle a little granulated sugar on top of each cookie. Bake in moderate oven 12 to 15 minutes.

Best safety lies in fear.

There are more lovely materials than ever, for those of you who enjoy doing your home sewing, on the market now. So many of them are specially treated cottons that need little or no ironing. The trend in summer sleepwear is shorty gowns and baby doll pajamas. These can be made of batiste or crinkle crepe and do not require any ironing. When you shop for ready made garments, you can ask for these two materials and still have attractive sleeping garments that are easily kept.

Do those of you who have clothes dryers have difficulty keeping the clothes from drying with wrinkles in them? According to the experts, the way to avoid this problem is to know exactly when to remove the clothes from the dryers.

One manufacturer gives this advice. "Dry clothes will be wrinkle free if you take them from the dryer and fold them as soon as they are dried, rather than if they remain in the dryer for several hours. Even clothes that are damp-dried will continue to dry if allowed to remain in the dryer after it stops."

At this time of year it isn't unusual for members of the family to become tired of green beans served in the usual manner. For something different,

try this recipe for SAVORY GREEN BEANS

- 1 quart canned green beans or frozen beans cooked until tender
- 1/4 cup chopped onion
- 1/4 cup chopped parsley
- 1/4 cup butter
- 1/4 cup flour
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 1 cup sour cream
- 2 tablespoons vinegar
- Bits of saute'd bacon (1 slice cut up)

Drain beans and reserve liquid (about 1 cup). Saute onion and parsley in butter until soft but not brown, add flour, blend well. Add bean liquid, sugar, and vinegar stirring constantly. Add sour cream, then beans and cook slowly until heated thoroughly. Place in hot serving dish and garnish with bits of saute'd bacon. Serves 8.

A carrot salad that is different is GOLDEN CRUNCHY SALAD

- 1 cup raw carrot, grated
- 1 cup green cabbage, shredded
- 1/4 cup chopped sweet pickle or sweet pickle relish
- 2 tablespoons minced onion
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon celery salt
- 1/3 cup mayonnaise or half French dressing

Have all ingredients thoroughly chilled: Combine in bowl, mix well. Serve on crisp green lettuce leaves. Serves 6.

THE PARMER FARMER

by W. H. Graham Jr.

It wouldn't be right to consider Monday's big blow as a "surprise," but it is true that it was hardly expected. For this time of the year, though, a windstorm such as we experienced shouldn't shock anyone who has been on the High Plains for as long as four or five years.

The reason that the sandstorm caused so much comment, we believe, is that we've been getting a wee bit spoiled during the past two years. Last spring, for example, was the tamest one we can recall in our life on the Plains. There wasn't a single honest-to-goodness all-day, all-night spell. If our memory serves us, the spring of 1957 was pretty decent so far as blowing dust was concerned, also. Back past that some of the years we remember pretty well and some of them we don't. Generally speaking, there were some pretty dirty springs in the drought years of 1950-1957, but we can't pick out which were the worst.

However, we do know that the past two springs have been downright abnormal in their mildness. It is a natural (though not desired) thing for the wind to blow across the Plains during February, March, and April. Just ask anyone who's been around long enough to know. Monday's blow put us to thinking. What would you call it: a sandstorm? Or a duststorm? Some call them "dusters."

while others prefer (and it's pretty accurate) the term "dirt-storm."

To us, the term "duster" can be used only infrequently, as we think it refers to the monstrous clouds that sometimes steal down upon us from the north or northwest.

How long has it been since we had a true "black duster?" Several years at least. The black dusters of the middle and late 1930's were really horrible things to experience. They inflicted as much psychological as they did physical damage. They depressed people terribly, although usually they didn't last long and for that reason were not a real threat to soil erosion.

Anyone who has experienced standing in the open and seeing the terrible black and purple clouds boil down upon him knows the feeling of impending doom that sometimes grips a man's heart. It is as if all nature were overturned and the end of the world were at hand. What a frightening thing these black dusters were!

Like a curtain drawn across the sky they would obliterate the sun in mid-day and a pall of darkness would overcome everything in their midsts. Trees would bend and groan under their weight. Dust and sand, tumbleweeds and debris of the field and roads would whip past in front of the mighty winds. As a boy we were very impressed with these black dusters and it will be a long time before we will forget them even if we never see another.

Cotton Plan- Discussions Scheduled

Three meetings have been scheduled in Parmer County to discuss A and B plans which cotton farmers are being offered this year.

Prentice Mills, manager of ASC, and Joe Jones, county agent, will conduct the meetings. "We'll try to be prepared to answer all the questions farmers have to ask," Mills says.

The first meeting will be at Lazbuddie Thursday, February 12. It will be in the school auditorium and will begin at 2. The second session will be at Hub community building Monday, February 16. It, too, will begin at 2.

The third and final meeting will be at the school in Bovina. It will be Monday night, February 16, and will begin at 8 p.m.

Mills says it is hoped that all farmers in the county will have an opportunity to attend one of the three centrally-located meetings.

The ASC manager also reports that he hopes to have the support price on maize by February 16.

LOOK FOR WHOLE GRAIN CORN MEAL

Take time to look for whole grain corn meal when you shop. You'll get extra food benefits and flavor, say extension foods and nutrition specialists. That's because this type of corn meal contains all the food nutrients that nature provides in corn. Check the label when buying corn meal. WHEN YOU CHOOSE ACCESSORIES

Have you ever brought home a bargain hat or bag--or shoes of a delightfully "different" color only to find that they didn't go with a thing you had? In that case, they may have been expensive accessories after all.

To get the most for your money, plan carefully before you buy -- remembering the color and design of your basic dresses or suits. Accessories should accent or complement a costume, according to extension clothing specialists. They can add spice to a simple solid color dress or suit, or supply the unifying note with a striking print dress or plaid suit.

Avoid using too many different colors in one costume. The eye jumps from one spot to another, and you lose the effect of unity. A general rule for the use of contrasting color, texture or pattern in accessories is never to repeat more than three times--generally two are smarter; for example, shoes, bag and gloves, or shoes, bag and hat, or bag and hat.

Intensity of the color is important. Don't overdo it. The more brilliant or intense the color, the smaller the area it should cover. Unusual colors draw the eye just because they are complex in makeup. Use them with care.

Basic colors in accessories, namely black, brown or navy, are always in good taste and easy to use.

Color in shoes is a fashion to be used with caution. It calls attention to the feet and ankles. Be certain yours can stand the spotlight. A final suggestion: Look smart but not extreme. Don't overdress. The best dressed women are often the most simply dressed.

ACCESSORIES AROUND THE CLOCK, a beautiful new bulletin by extension clothing specialists, gives lots of ideas and suggestions. Get a copy from me.

FOOD MARKETING TIPS....

To be sure that the family is getting its share of vitamin C, take advantage of the large supply of fresh grapefruit and oranges. The season for tangerines will soon be over so get them now if you want them. Apples continue to be a good value in quality as well as price. Bananas are being offered at attractive prices in most markets.

Generally speaking, fresh vegetable supplies have declined and prices are up slightly on some items. Iceberg lettuce quality remains fair to good but prices have advanced some. Dry onion prices have been edging upward for the past three weeks. White potatoes and carrots are in plentiful supply. New cabbage is attractively priced in most stores.

are that complete baldness comes about as a result of the male adhering too strictly to female thinking or possibly to an overaccelerated mental process that lives only in the past.

The present theory places theories of external treatment of the hair and its relation to baldness back when the single tree was a necessary item on the farm. This was about the time when baseball was considered the national pastime. The only resemblance to baseball being the national pastime now is the activity that is done by the players from two to four in the mornings when teams are on road trips. Everyone who reads the papers "even" knows that golf is the National Pastime at present. The President spends only two hours each year playing baseball and the rest of his time is spent either on the golf course or in the field hunting quail. Baseball has about as much chance of making a comeback as Texas A & M College does of getting its football field out of the soil bank. If this isn't sufficient I'll call upon Hubert Ellison to return from South of the Border and help me out.

In case anyone should be interested in becoming bald I have the perfect recipe. All that is necessary is to grow a Van Dyck beard and go to the beauty parlor for a face-lifting. Very truly yours,
Warren Morton

P.S. Inclosed is my check for $2.50 for a new subscription -- like baseball, the old one petered out.

Enrollment Now Complete In Course

Mrs. Patsy Edens, acting secretary for the extension course being held here, reports that the enrollment for the course is now complete. The first lecture was held Tuesday, 7 p. m., in the homemaking cottage. Approximately 20 adults have enrolled for the college credit course.

Titled "Guidance in Elementary School," the course may be applied to either a bachelor or master degree. Three hours credit will be given upon completion. Each lecture period will be for two hours and 40 minutes, with a ten minute break at mid-lesson.

Among those to take the course are Bob Wills, Cecil Dykes, Mrs. Edens, Mrs. Dorothy Donaldson, Mrs. Myrna Hammonds, Mrs. Aletha Wilson, Mrs. Dixie McCutchan, Mrs. Ann Corn and Mrs. Eloise Dixon.

Others include Mrs. Leola Williams, Mrs. Loucile Foster, Mrs. Eunice Thornton, Mrs. Anne McLeroy, Miss Grace Paul, Mrs. Mary Richards and Mrs. Mary Lytrice Looney. Mrs. Calvin Murray and Mrs. Dick Felts, both of Farwell, are also taking the course.

Mrs. Edens says she is delighted with the response given the course offered. Mrs. Mary Sliger of WT is lecturer.

MWF Has Guests Thursday

A luncheon was held Thursday of last week by members of Methodist Woman's Fellowship of Woman's Society of Christian Service. The occasion was to introduce a number of young women to the organization.

Mrs. Leon Ware gave the devotional and Mrs. Jimmie Clements, Mrs. Jimmie Ware and Mrs. Leon Ware participated in a program titled "The Sower."

The rooms were decorated in a Valentine theme, with white overlaid tables, red candles and Valentine-shaped nut cups. The walls were hung with heart-shaped motifs.

Guests were Mrs. Warren Morton, chairman of the WSCS, Mrs. David Haerber, Mrs. Lloyd Nabor, Mrs. Vernon Willard, Mrs. Don Sides, Mrs. George Whitworth, Mrs. Dean McCullum and Mrs. D. R. Bushnell. Among members present were Mesdames Jimmie Clements, Jimmie Ware, Leon Ware and Mark Charles.

The next meeting will be Thursday, February 26, in the church parlor.

Quilting Club Elects Officers

Mrs. Reagan Looney was elected president of the Bovina Quilting Club Thursday. The election was part of a program held in the home of Mrs. Bill Bradshaw. Other officers named were Mrs. E. H. Moody secretary and Mrs. Lloyd Kilough, reporter.
