THE WEST TEXAS FAIR To Be Held Aug. 20-23

The above shows L. A. Mosty in charge of the big Kerr county exhibit, which took second money in a state contest at the San Antonio International Fair.

THE WEST TEXAS FAIR

Stockholders' Meeting Elects Officers and Directors For the Ensuing Year.

MOSTY DIRECTS AGRICULTURE

W. R. Schreiner, as President, Has Strong Body of Lieutenants, Many Old Fair Men.

The meeting of the stockholders of the West Texas Fair, which was held on Friday afternoon of last week, elected the following officers and directors for the ensuing year: W. R. Schreiner, president; J. M. Hamilton, Vice President; Chas. Real, Secretary-treasurer; A. C. Schreiner Jr., Fred Real, H. Renschel, J. H. Ward, M. F. Weston, Nathan Herzog, W. G. Carpenter, H. Mosel, Ally Beitel, L. A. Mosty, directors.

In this list will be found the names of many men who have been connected with the fair since the organization of the association. The president, W. R. Schreiner, is a prominent young stock man who has taken an active interest in the live stock department of the fair for several years, and was a wise choice of the board of directors. J. M. Hamilton, the newly elected vice president, scored a signal success as president of the association last year, and will be an able lieutenant to President Schreiner. Chas. Real, again elected secretary of the fair, after an intermittent service in that capacity covering several terms in that position since the fair was organized, is one of the best fair men in Texas. Every member of the board is capable for the position he holds. One of the wisest selections made by the board is that of L. A. Mosty, the veteran orchardist, nurseryman and agriculturist, as director in charge of the agricultural and horticultural department. Mr. Mosty is in every way peculiarly fitted for this position. Other members of the board have heretofore distinguished themselves in their various labors in connection with this great public enterprise, and no happier selection of men to win another of the long chain of successes that have marked the career of the West Texas Fair could have been made.

The dates for the 1913 fair have been set for August 20, 21 and 22. It is the record that each succeeding meeting of this fair has eclipsed in unqualified success all its predecessors, and the present board pledges itself to the people of Kerr and adjoining counties to do all in its power to make this the banner fair in all the history of the association. To this end the hearty co-operation of all the people is earnestly requested. It is now time to begin planting with a view to making agricultural exhibits at the fair, and it is hoped that every farmer in the county will have something to add to make the agricultural display, which has always been excellent, far better this year than ever before.

As usual racing will be a drawing feature of the fair. The citizens stake race for two-year-olds promises to be a big feature this year, fourteen entries having been made already for this race.

The amusement committee will again be under the direction of that veteran merry-maker, W. G. Carpenter, who could start something funny at the funeral of a mummy.

The catalogs for the fair will be out by the first of May, so the people will have ample time to prepare exhibits. Secretary Real will take your name any time, and the book will be mailed to you as soon as it is off the press. The premium list will be revised, and amended, and there will be a chance for everybody to enter the competition. It will be remembered that the West Texas Fair has never been a local enterprise. Its contests have always been open to all Texas, and the enterprise is as big as the territory it covers. The bars are down to everyone in the state, and if you do not enter it is no fault of the association. There was never a year in the history of the fair that some one did not look at a prize winner and say: "Why I have stuff at home better than that." Don't let it happen again. Bring that "good stuff" right along and enter it. The most willing directorate in the world cannot pull of a good fair without the people bring in the pigs and the pumpkins, the dried apples and the canned corn, the home cured hams, wool, mohair, stock, poultry, patchwork quilts, and all the thousand things that make a good fair. This is going to be a good year, and the 1913 West Texas Fair is going to be the best ever.

KILLS TWO AND ESCAPES

Nicholas Montoya, a Mexican Enacts Frightful Tragedy in Edwards County.

MURDERS HIS SWEETHEART

Afterwards Shoots Posseman Through Heart, Killing Him Instantly. Dogs Lose Trail.

Edwards county has recently been the scene of a number of tragedies in which Mexicans have figured prominently. Whether this due to the proximity of that county to the Mexican border, and the fact that during the troublous times in the neighboring republic bad men have come across the border, is not known. The tragedies occur, and in this instance the culprit escaped in spite of all efforts to capture him.

On Thursday afternoon of last week, at the ranch of W. T. Anderson, near Lula, in Edwards County, Nicholas Montoya, a Mexican about 40 years old, shot and killed Angelita Nieto, a half-breed Mexican girl 18 years old. The only cause given for the fiendish crime was that the young woman refused to marry Montoya.

After killing the girl the murderer escaped to the rough country between Lula and Rock Springs. The sheriff was notified and a strong posse immediately went to the scene of the tragedy. On the following afternoon members of the posse discovered Montoya about seven miles east of Rock Springs. A gun fight ensued, in which the Mexican shot Ed Sharpe, the 22-year-old son of M. C. Sharpe, through the heart, killing him instantly.

The entire county became aroused after the second murder. Bloodhounds were sent for and arrived on the scene from Cotulla Sunday afternoon. The dogs took the trail and after many hours of tedious work, over the roughest canyons in that section, follow edit apparently into Rock Springs. The trail led almost to town. The man had gone to the grave where the murdered girl had been buried. Afterward he had gone near a Mexican house in the outskirts of town, but did not enter it. All Monday and Tuesday the posse and the hounds labored across the rough country in pursuit. The cold dry wind and rarified atmosphere, and the age of the trail made it practically impossible for hounds to keep the trail, and on Wednesday it was entirely lost at the Ed Johnston ranch, 25 miles northwest of Rock Springs.

Efforts are being made to prevent Montoya's escape, but it is feared that the fugitive has made his way into Mexico.

Edwards county has purchased a blood hound and will keep him for use in future cases of like emergency.

British Perfect Flying Machine.

LONDON, March 19.—The British army possesses the best aeroplane in the world and has secretly perfected a type of flying machine far superior to any in the possession of other nations. This announcement was made today in the House of Commons by Col. John Seely, Secretary of State for War. It caused a great sensation.

"For our purposes," Colonel Seely said, "the great problem has been to secure an aeroplane that can fly both at low and high speed. The British army now has machines which have beaten eighty miles an hour, and which also are able to reduce their speed to forty miles an hour. An army biplane yesterday passed all the tests at an average speed of 91 1/2 miles an hour.

"We shall have 148 aeroplanes by next May. We have deliberately rejected large airships as being useless for war purposes. The War Department is devoting some attention, however, to small dirigibles which can be packed up and sent abroad with expeditionary forces.

"I take pleasure in announcing further that the mechanical problem of repelling attacks on air craft has been solved by experiments carried out by the army service."

KING OF GREECE ASSASSINATED

Fifty Years' Reign Ends in Cruel Tragedy at Hands of Fanatic

ASSASSIN WAS NATIVE

Stricken Monarch Lives But Few Moments After Fatal Shot

LONDON, March 18.—King George of Greece was assassinated at Salonki today. A dispatch received here gives no details of the killing.

King George who had taken personal command of his troops during the earlier period of the war, had been there since December, when the Turkish fortress was occupied by the Greeks after a short siege. The queen of Greece was also there and was paying great attention to the care of the sick and wounded.

King George, in December, had a meeting here with King Ferdinand of Bulgaria, to discuss the fate of the captured Turkish territory, after the war.

News of the assassination of King George of Greece came from the correspondent of the Greek semi-official news agency at Salonki. It was filed at Salonki at 6:35. It is believed here that a censorship has been imposed and is preventing the dispatch of details.

Both the Greek embassy and the British foreign office are without official news of the assassination.

The last previous report regarding the movement of the king of Greece was received in London about 10 days ago, when he attended a thanksgiving service at Salonki to celebrate the fall of the fortress of Janina.

Crown Prince Constantine is still at Janina with the Greek army.

Queen Mother Alexandra who is King George's sister, had not received any news of the event at a late hour. King George was often rated as an autocratic monarch, but in spirit he was democratic and did much for the prosperity of Greece, which advanced rapidly under his rule. He took great interest in the organization of the defensive forces of the country and with the assistance of the Crown Prince brought the army to a state of efficiency which enabled it to overcome the Turkish resistance at the beginning of the war.

His name was mentioned after hostilities broke out as a candidate for the presidency of a permanent federation of the Balkan states, consisting of Bulgaria, Servia, Montenegro and Greece.

IT IS CLEAN UP TIME

The Fire Marshal Will Get You if You Don't Watch Out.

Capt. C. E. Rodgers, city fire marshal, gives notice that this is special clean-up month, and exhorts the people of Kerrville to better things in the way of clean premises and trash that might start a dangerous fire. The reason that Kerrville got some merit marks among Texas towns and incidentally got a considerable reduction in her insurance rate, is that she is and always has been a clean town, and a careful town, and has had fewer destructive fires in her history than any town of like age and size in the state. Let this record be perpetuated. If there is anything about your place that might possibly be the starting point for a fire, remove it at once. It is all right to be saving and thrifty, but there is no wisdom in saving a lot of trash about your home that may be a menace to health and property of yourself and of your neighbors. A general crusade against the chance for a fire, the avoidance of "Even the appearance of evil," in this matter at least, should be the effort of all the people.

French Government Defeated in Senate.

PARIS, March 18.—The French government, under the premiership of Aristide Briand, was defeated today on a vote of confidence during a debate in the senate.

The vote was 161 to 128. It was taken in the course of the debate on a bill for reforming the custom of electoral representation for the chamber of deputies. The measure, known as "proportional representative bill," was passed by the chamber of deputies last Tuesday.

Looney Renounced by Truck Growers

BEAUMONT, Tex., March 17.—Farmers near Beaumont who are in favor of the situation are outspoken in denouncing the tactics employed by Attorney General Looney in filing a suit against the Magnolia Petroleum Company, particularly for the reason that the fight is being made so far from the company's headquarters.

At a joint meeting of the Jefferson County Farmers' Institute and the Beaumont Truck Growers Association to be held here Saturday, it is understood that a resolution strongly condemning the Attorney General's action will be passed.

General sentiment among prominent business men is also opposed to litigation filed against the Magnolia Company, but they have refrained from personally entering protest for the reason that their action may be wrongly construed to appear that their opposition is founded on selfish motives on account of the Magnolia Company being located in Beaumont.

Society Women to Ride in U. S. Cavalry Drill.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—Determined to show that as horsewomen they are the equals of the best riders who wear Uncle Sam's blue, six young society women have obtained permission to ride at Fort Myer in the "musical" cavalry drill, to be given this month for the benefit of the army post's Young Men's Christian Association. All are members of the fashionable hunt or cross-country clubs. They are: Miss Janet Allen, Miss Dasha Allen, Miss Greble, Miss Emily Beatty, Miss Ruth Anderson, Miss Hitchcock, Mrs. R. C. Burleson and Miss Helen Buchanan.

Mrs. Burleson was the grand marshal of the recent suffrage parade. She is an excellent horsewoman and did yeoman service in aiding to clear the encroaching and hostile crowd by riding it down.

Miss Janet Allen is regarded as the most fearless and daring woman in the Capital. Her friends declare she is practicing a "stunt" for the drill that is daring in the extreme.

Wireless Operator "Cut in" on Ragtime.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—Aerial concerts, it has accidentally been discovered, are possible through the agency of the wireless, according to advices received by the Navy Department from the naval torpedo station at Newport, R. I. The wireless operator there reported that while "tuning" his instruments in anticipation of calls from ships at sea, he was astonished to hear a burst of music. He "listened in" until the last strains of a once popular "ragtime" song died away.

Investigation disclosed that the strains were carried from a wireless telephone in the vicinity, thus establishing the fact, hitherto unknown, that a radio set can be made to act as the receiving end of such a telephone.

Pope Declares Jubilee.

ROME, March 17.—Pope Pius today published an apostolic letter which he revised yesterday, decreeing a universal jubilee from Low Sunday, March 30 to December 8, the feast of Immaculate Conception, in commemoration of the religious toleration edict issued by Emperor Constantine in the Fourth Century.

The faithful must come to Rome and visit twice the churches of St. John, Lateran, St. Peter's, and St. Paul's, praying, confessing, taking communion and giving alms or they must sit six times in churches chosen by their own bishops and carry out the same devotions.

Thus, those attending the jubilee will enjoy plenary indulgence of all their sins.

Dr. Flexner, referring to the treatment by Dr. Rosenau of Washington, setting forth the discovery that infection with infantile paralysis was caused by the stable fly, said that in his own research he had not been able to establish the fact that infection was caused by the fly, though he had no doubt that Mr. Rosenau had done so. In the course of his experiments he said he had employed for observation other insects, which were allowed to bite, and had found the insects became infected with the germ.

Powers to Ignore Allies Demands.

LONDON, March 17.—The European powers have decided to practically ignore the extravagant demands of the Balkan allies and to consider their reply as tantamount to an agreement to accept the proffered mediation.

The Powers, in their reply, will congratulate the allies upon agreeing to mediation and will propose that the frontier line be drawn from Enos, on the Sea of Marmora, to Midia, on the Black Sea, instead of from Rodosto to Midia, all the territory to the west of the proposed line, with the exception of Albania, going to the allies.

The note will declare that the question of an indemnity can not be entertained and will remind the allies that Albania and the Aegean Islands are in the hands of the Powers for final settlement.

The Texas Silos.

Recent statistics compiled by the Texas Commercial Secretaries and Business Men's Association, showing that we now have 214 silos in Texas, indicate that the silo has secured a permanent place among the necessary equipment of the modern Texas farm. The majority of these silos were erected during the past twelve months and four manufacturing plants have recently been established in Texas.

The results show that butter and beef can be produced cheaper on a ration of ensilage than is possible by any other method of feeding and a silo will increase the efficiency of the feed 15 per cent.

Alamo Case is Advanced.

AUSTIN, Tex., March 19.—Motion to advance the Alamo case, styled A. B. Conley et al vs. the Daughters of the Republic of Texas et al, was granted in the Supreme Court today and the case set for argument on April 16.

The court overruled a motion for rehearing in the case of Eugene Cartledge vs. John L. Wortham, Secretary of State, involving the validity of the home rule amendment. The court recently held that the home rule amendment had been properly passed and was a part of the organic law of the State.

In the case of Elder, Dempster & Co. vs. St. Louis Southwestern Railway Company, from Galveston county, it was held that a bill of lading or a receipt from an express company purports to state the terms upon which shipment was made and, though signed only by the carrier, when accepted by the shipper he became a party to it, bound by its terms.

The bill of lading contains all the necessary elements of a shipping contract, and under well-established principles, says the opinion, must be treated as final agreement of parties.

McReynolds Plans to Continue Probe.

WASHINGTON D. C., March 17.—"Trust" investigations, begun during the Taft administration, are being continued with unabated energy by Attorney General McReynolds. New inquiries are expected as soon as the forces of the department of justice can reach them.

"By direction of the attorney general, the Standard Oil inquiry will be pressed to conclusion as rapidly as possible to determine whether the decree of dissolution has been violated.

Grand juries probably will be called upon in some instances to develop the real situation. In sections of the country where special agents of the department of justice are unable to ascertain the facts, grand juries, it is understood will be summoned to probe to the bottom.

Other important trust investigations which are being continued, include those of the American Can Company, the American Smelting and Refining Company and the United Fruit Company. The new administration also faces the question whether to dismiss or continue the so-called coffee trust suit revolving about the Brazilian valorization plan. In the diplomatic negotiations for the settlement of this case, Brazil has promised information about the sale of the 920,000 bags of coffee stored in New York under the plan. Secretary of State Bryan and Attorney General McReynolds have not yet taken up the question.

Bankers Will Withdraw From Chinese Loan.

NEW YORK, March 19.—As a result of the statement by President Wilson yesterday that his administration would not request the American bankers, heretofore interested in the six-power loan to China, to continue to seek their share, the three banking houses in the so-called American group tonight announced their entire withdrawal from the negotiations.

The announcement followed a conference of the banking interests concerned at the offices of J. P. Morgan & Co. In concluding their statement, which reviews in considerable detail the negotiations begun under the Taft administration, the bankers say: "As the American group had been ready to serve the administration in the past, irrespective of the heavy risks involved, so it was disposed to serve the present Administration, if requested. But, deferring to the policy now declared, the group has withdrawn entirely from the Chinese loan negotiations, and has so advised the European and Japanese banking groups."

New Tariff Means New Moral Life.

MONTCLAIR, N. J., March 16.—William C. Redfield, the new Secretary of Commerce in President Wilson's cabinet, delivered an address here today on "The Tariff on Its Human Side," as part of a local church course on problems of the day. Mr. Redfield said in part:

"Believing as I do, in a real, though moderate and balanced, reduction of the tariff, I believe in it chiefly because it means the birth of a new moral and mental lift to our industries. The tariff has tended to destroy our belief in our own powers, to diminish our industrial self-respect. So I look, when the necessary adjustments are over, for blood of a new life to be poured into the veins of American industry. I look for the recognition by the master of the true values in men, for a larger faith in our brains, for an increase of our courage, for an abolition of much that divides and for the coming of much that shall unite.

"We must learn to appreciate that the man in the shop is the most valuable thing in it—in order to be most productive, the conditions which make for his best conservation must be produced and maintained. It will be no harm to the Nation if abnormal profits are cut down. Public opinion will not tolerate maintaining them at the cost of those who toil.

Gotham Robbers Get $350,000.

NEW YORK, March 16.—An East Side burglary, perpetrated by clever cracksmen, some time today, netted the thieves the largest haul obtained in New York City in many years. Martin Simons & Sons, pawnbrokers in Hester Street, were the victims and the property stolen includes $250,000 worth of jewelry, diamonds and other precious stones and $100,000 worth of negotiable securities. The thieves gained access to the pawnbrokers' richly-stored vaults by means of a tunnel from an abutting building on a neighboring street.

The police are of the opinion that six men were employed on the job and that the tunneling required all last night and the greater part of Sunday morning. It is their belief that the actual robbery took place this afternoon, while hundreds of persons were passing along the street in front of the pawnshop.

The police found that the tunnel was begun in the cellar of a house in Eldridge Street, directly adjoining Simons' place, driven through the wall and into a wood bin in the cellar of the Simons' store. There, leading up into the pawnbrokers' shop, there is a flight of stairs. They are wired for a burglar alarm, however, and the thieves avoided them and sawed away the overhead flooring at a spot directly in front of the treasure vault. The vault, which stands twelve feet high and is built into the wall, was entered by chopping away the masonry.

Later $30,000 of the negotiable securities were found scattered on the floor of the vault, but about $50,000 were missing, the robbers evidently having been afraid to take certain of them owing to the risk of detection in their disposal.

The looters left behind them in the litter about the vault three pairs of gloves, indicating that the cracksmen wore gloves in robbing the vault, realizing the extent to which finger prints lead to detection of criminals.

Ohio Legislature Notices Fashions.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, March 17.—Declaring that the immodesty of the attire worn by women on the streets and in public places is the cause of a great wave of immorality now sweeping over the country, Representative Cappelletti of Cincinnati this evening introduced a bill in the lower House of the Legislature, providing for the appointment by the Governor of a commissioner to "prescribe the fashions to be worn by women in the State of Ohio."

Introduction of the measure resulted from a charge filed with Governor Cox today by a woman who did not sign her name that "immorality is practiced by married men in the offices of the State of Ohio."

Under the provisions of the bill the proposed commission would be compelled to fix limits on décolleté dresses so that "not more than two inches of the neck below the chin shall be uncovered." Another clause of the measure provides "that transparent stockings shall not be displayed or worn in public places."

Another provision of the bill states "It shall be unlawful to display or wear any other garment trimmed or combined with lace, inserting of any kind of embroidery mesh or net through which the color or texture of the skin may be distinguished without having the lace or other transparent material backed with opaque material."

Members of the proposed commission, according to the bill, would have to be between 30 and 50 years of age. Not more than two of them would have to be married men and of good moral character. One would be a minister, one a parent of not less than three children and the third a social settlement worker.

The commission would be authorized to "prescribe rules and regulations for the designing and manufacture of woman's clothing and to prohibit such styles and patterns of garments as the commission, after a hearing shall deem to be detrimental to virtue and chastity."

The bill goes so far as to prohibit department stores from displaying undraped artificial figures. The bill makes a violation of the act punishable by a fine of not less than $25.

Disarmament Has no Place in War Secretary's Plans.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 18.—In an official statement of policy today, Secretary of War Garrison declared in favor of immediate preparation of the military forces of the United States to meet any emergency, holding a discussion of disarmament by international agreement to be entirely out of place in the consideration of what the United States Government should do to meet existing conditions. The Secretary proposed retention of the regular army at its present strength, improvement of the National Guard and creation of a reserve.

Declaring that he was not urging militarism Mr. Garrison said the leading men in the United States Army do not advocate militarism, which means the existence of a large standing army, but precisely the reverse—a small compact, but thoroughly efficient army. The most rabid anti-militarist, he said, could not seriously suggest that the present army of 90,000 to look after a population of more than 110,000 in the United States and the insular possessions, sions, had any hint of militarism in it.

"No one will pretend," he added, "that with a mobile force of less than 35,000 men (in the United States proper) we are prepared; in fact, if you don't alter the condition, we are not even prepared to prepare. If we were called to meet force with force, we simply sacrifice men and money in a shameful way. We literally send men out to acquire their education in armies under the fire of an enemy, and the enormity of which has only to be stated to cause one to shrink from permitting it."

For relief, the Secretary proposed reserve of trained officers and men; improvement in the present National Guard and provisions for a volunteer soldiery to be trained while the regulars, the reserves and the National Guards respond to the first danger call.

Regarding the reserve, the Secretary suggested that this could be best treated without bring into existence a large professional soldiery, by shortening the present four year enlistment term to two years, so as to train more men in short periods and turn them back into civil life making them immediately available in case of need.

"Many fine young fellows," he said, "would delight in a short effective military training if it did not unduly interfere with their starting in civil pursuits."

To insure a sufficient supply of officers, the Secretary would make use of the Academy at West Point, turning into civil life the graduates who are not needed in time of peace. Finally, he suggested, a graduate scheme should be provided so that volunteers may be readily called, officered, equipped and trained, when necessity arises, recalling that the first two years of our Civil War revealed the frightful waste of life and treasure involved in sending untrained men into the field.

In conclusion the Secretary asserted that the execution of his plans would entail no additional cost and earnestly appeals to all citizens to aid in this situation which bitterly cries for a remedy.

There are a great army of well-intentioned men preaching in this world trying to save a lot of people from some horrible calamity. Much of this is wasted effort. Occasionally we find some poor fellow who needs saving from his fool friends. Not rarely we find children who need saving from a pair, one or more, of fool parents. But in the main, if these brethren can devise some way to save people from themselves they will have things in pretty good shape for house cleaning on the day of judgment.

It is reported that when the Woman's Suffrage amendment came on to be heard in the Texas House of Representatives, the gentleman from Van Zandt unburdened his soul of the following: "Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the House: I am strictly agin it. I believe the wimmin of Texas suffer too much already, and I am going to cast my vote to keep 'em from sufferin'." It will be remembered that the principal products of Van Zandt county are salt, saw-mills, sweet potatoes and chivalry.

Every once in a while we hear some fool who never knew the difference between a political platform and the decalogue, say: "That man Wilson is going to make a good president. Everything he does just suits me." Wilson is going to make a good president, he is already one, in fact, whether he suits everybody right down to the ground or not. In our humble judgment he will make a much better president of this republic if he does not just suit everybody.

Nobody pays any attention to a fool. He can't do anything but act natural. It takes a man who is right smart, to make things happen worth noticing in the fool line. When a smart man does get off the reservation he can make an idiot asylum look like the Roman senate.

COUNTY FIELD DAY
While Contesting With Each Other, Trackmen Have Battle With Fierce March Wind.

The first annual field day of the Kerr county schools was held on the Tivy High School Athletic Field last Saturday. In spite of adverse weather that prevented any records being broken, the meet was a success. A strong norther that blew all day with undiminished force prevented a large audience, but despite the unpleasant weather a goodly number were present to cheer their favorites. It was seen early in the day that the contest for the cup lay between the old time rivals, Center Point and Kerrville High schools. Every event that was pulled off was hotly contested.

When the smoke of the contest had been blown away it was found that honors were not far from even. Kerrville won the meet and the trophy cup for the year by a score of 52 to 74 points. The senior individual medal given to the one winning the highest number of individual points went to Ernest Hodges, who won it cleanly with a score of 31 points. For the junior contestants, Coy Presley and Joe Williams were only a fraction of a point different so that it was decided to give each a medal.

All the events were cleanly contested and a general good spirit prevailed. The basketball games and the tennis singles and doubles were not played owing to the lateness of the hour but after a conference with the leaders of the contest it was decided that no matter how these games might go, it could make no difference in the final outcome of the contest so it was decided that they would not be played. The pole vault and the shot put were omitted on the same grounds.

Below is a list of the events together with the winners:
50-yard dash, senior, winners in order, Hodges, A. Dietert, Beecroft, time 6.4
50-yard dash, junior, C. Presley, Henke, J. Williams, time 7.2; 100-yard dash, seniors, Hodges, Beecroft, Barfield. Time 11.1; baseball throw, Hodges, Williamson, distance 1151-3 yards; 220-yd. senior, Hodges, Barfield, Buckner. Time 28; 100-yard junior, C. Presley, Henke, J. Williams; running broad jump, senior, Hodges, Barfield, Williamson, distance 16 ft. 11 inches; 220 yd. junior, Henke, C. Presley, J. Williams, time 31.3; 440-yard, senior, Beecroft, Buckner, H. Dietert, time 61; broad jump, junior, J. Williams, C. Presley, Henke, distance 15 ft. 1 in.; 880 yard, senior, H. Dietert, Beecroft, Gibbons. Time 2:20; high jump, juniors, J. Williams, W. W. Williams, C. Presley. Height 4 1/2; high jump, seniors, Hodges, Real, Denton, height 4 3/4; 220 hurdles, H. Dietert, Jno. Williams, Hodges. After discussing numerous matters of importance the following program was rendered:
Invocation, Rev. S. J. Drake; "The Women in the Heathen Land," Mrs. Mosty; "Biblical Idea of Women in the Home," Mrs. Boeckman; "The Disappearing Home," Mrs. Pattie Starkey; "Evils of Segregation," Miss Alice Starkey; Work of Our Wesley Home in San Antonio, Mrs. Gilbert Storms. Miss Blanche Self rendered several pieces of instrumental music, after which a light lunch was served, consisting of salads, sandwiches, cake and chocolate.

Who sidetrack procrastination for action and get busy early on their building plans. The kind of lumber you would be satisfied with is as cheap now as you will ever see it and, at the prices we are quoting on the quality you would expect, we say with all emphasis—"Build Now." With our knowledge of the different woods and their application to home building we can doubtless show you how you can attain your ideal home at a much less cost than you think. Price-per-thousand for lumber is very misleading to the inexperienced, but when a plan is figured judiciously and the right lumber specified in the right place the total cost is often a pleasant revelation. Our business requires this exacting knowledge and we are sure we can satisfy you in price, quality and service. Let's talk it over. We have everything from joist to shingles.

HOTEL FACILITIES INCREASED

Eighteen New Rooms With Twelve Private Baths and all Modern Conveniences to be Added to St. Charles Hotel

George Morris, proprietor of the St. Charles Hotel, closed the contract Wednesday for the addition of eighteen new rooms to the building. These new rooms will be supplied with private baths and all modern conveniences, and will be a great enhancement of the city's accommodations. The St. Charles, which has long been one of the most popular hotels in the southwest, has prospered under the management of Mr. and Mrs. Morris, and a rapidly increasing business made the addition necessary. Last summer the hotel was unable to accommodate many people who desired to spend some time here. The rooms will be completed and ready for occupancy by early summer, and when finished will be equal in elegance to those of any hotel in the state.

The contract for the new addition was awarded to the Hillyer-Deutsch Lumber Company, and the deal was made by Mr. Albert Rine, a representative of that company. Work has already begun, upon the structure and will be pushed with all possible dispatch.

The City of Kerrville, fast growing in importance as a resort for health and pleasure seekers the year through, has just cause to be proud of the progressive spirit in which Mr. Morris has undertaken this much needed improvement of the leading hotel of the city, and all the people of the town should give the St. Charles their loyal support in the enterprise.

Birthday Dinner.

J. A. Smith celebrated his birthday and St. Patrick's Day at the same time on Monday with a turkey dinner. Covers were laid for seven guests at the table being the host, Mr. Smith, and J. B. Thigpen, Rev. W. P. Dickey, W. G. Carpenter, W. A. Fawcett, Dr. A. F. Thigpen, and J. E. Grinstead.

The feast was in every way worthy the occasion. The turkey was so big it would have made a fair piece of resistance for some banquet hall of baronial times. Everything else was in perfect accord. The party was a jolly one, and when they said goodby to the host and hostess were warm in their praise of the entertainment. The favors were St. Patrick's Day emblems, and the only Irishman in the crowd told the host he hoped he would increase his birthdays to two a year and live until he had to be killed with a club at the resurrection.

Senate Adjourns Finally.
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 17.—The special session of the Senate, which began immediately after the inauguration of Vice President Marshall, March 4, came to an end early this morning. Democratic Senators had not completed their plans for dividing Senate patronage and arranging committee quarters, and the party caucus that has run through two weeks was continued until tonight.

Completion of arrangements will be established as soon as the special tariff session assembles April 7. President Wilson has notified Senators Kern and Gallinger, who were appointed to call upon him, that he had no further business that would keep the Senate in session. The committee "waited" upon the President on the telephone, and was informed that he was content to let further appropriations go to the extra session of next month.

The Senate wound up its work at 2:09 o'clock and adjourned on the motion of Senator Kern.

Wireless Experiments Will be Undertaken.
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 17.—With the arrival today of four French officers prominent in the army and navy of France and in European scientific circles, experiments are to be undertaken through the medium of the powerful navy wireless station at Arlington, Va., and the station on the Eiffel tower in Paris to establish the exact longitude between the two countries. The work is of great importance, for when similar data is obtained by other nations, the information will permit the true drawing of a map of the world for the first time.

The French officers are Lieutenant Laedovic Driedencourt and Lieutenant H. A. E. Gignou, of the navy, and Colonel Gustav Ferris and Captain Paul Levesque, of the army. They have brought with them a number of highly sensitive instruments, similar to those which will be used in Paris, so that the work at the two ends will be synchronous. The navy observatory will join in the tests and exact time here will be flashed at intervals to Paris as part of the program.

While here, the French officers will be guests of the government. They have been quartered at the Army and Navy Club and a number of entertainments already have been arranged for them.

First Conviction in Graft Episode.
NEW YORK, March 16.—The first conviction in the district attorney's crusade against police graft was obtained Saturday. John H. Hartigan, a patrolman, was found guilty of perjury. Hartigan acted as agent for high police officials to bribe witnesses against them to leave the state.

Hartigan was alluded to by District Attorney Whitman in summing up as a "discarded victim of the system," sacrificed to protect one of its pillars. The prosecutor referred to Dennis Sweeney, the demoted inspector, who awaits trial on thirteen graft indictments, as the man for whom Hartigan had perjured himself.

"Sweeney is standing like a rock," cried Mr. Whitman, "with the 'system' back of him declaring to the world that he never took a cent. Sweeney is the man that has put this young policeman where he is. There never was a more perfect picture of the 'system' than you have before you."

Hartigan, according to the prosecution's case, worked directly as an auctioneer's case, worked directly for Sweeney and aided the "system" in bribing George A. Sipp, an informer, to leave the jurisdiction of the New York courts. The charge of perjury against Hartigan arose from his denial before the grand jury that he carried the bribe money from Sweeney to Police Captain Walsh.

Chronic Stomach Trouble Cured.
There is nothing more discouraging than a chronic disorder of the stomach, and it is not surprising that many suffer for years with such an ailment when a permanent cure is within their reach and may be had for a trifle. "About one year ago," says P. H. Beck, of Wakelee, Mich., "I bought a package of Chamberlain's Tablets, and since using them I have felt perfectly well. I had previously used any number of different medicines, but none of them were of any lasting benefit." Sold by all dealers.

Sylvester Defends Plans For Parade.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 16.—When the Senate committee inquiring into the failure of the police to afford proper protection to the suffrage parade, March 3, prepared to resume hearings today, it had before it a small army of police officers and patrolmen. It was decided to cross-examine them after District Commissioner John A. Johnson had concluded his testimony, begun yesterday, in which he applauded the efforts of the police and preparations made by Major Richard Sylvester, superintendent of police.

Major Sylvester has defended his preparations for protecting the women marchers and has laid the blame for any failure of the plan squarely on the shoulders of his subordinates. Further details of the difficulties experienced by the marchers in the suffrage parade were told today by men and women.

Mrs. Elizabeth A. Ballock attacked the conduct of the special policemen. She described them as "rough, coarse men, whose attitude was facetious and who made flippant remarks." Miss Ella Wambaugh of Cambridge Mass., said that the policemen she saw were doing nothing to keep back the crowd and seemed interested in the parade.

"A drunken man fell into our ranks out of the crowd just behind me," she said. "I don't know what happened to him, it was all a nightmare."

Prefers Jail to River.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 17.—"Come in and get me if you want me," taunted Samuel Lutz, as he stood neck deep in the chilly waters of White River while Patrolman Romine calmly sat on the river bank. "Just take your time and when you come out I'll get you," retorted the policeman. "I'm in no hurry."

And the officer and his quarry waited while a large crowd gathered Lutz's teeth began to chatter, his lips became a sickly purple and great black circles appeared under his eyes. Then either too cold to try to swim across the river or realizing that the officer could beat him to the other side, Lutz yielded and waded out to the patrolman.

Lutz, who was charged with intoxication, had started a fight in a restaurant over his check and ran into the river when the patrolman appeared.

The Spirit of Industry Needed.

A press report announcing that seven hundred carloads of wagons had been shipped from Louisville, Kentucky, to Texas points ought to set every member of our Legislature, as well as all good citizens, to thinking. Why is it we do not make our own wagons? We have the timber, the labor, the capital and the market and all that is lacking is the "spirit of industry." The Legislature, more than any other organized body, is the custodian of our destiny and upon it rests the responsibility of sowing seed-germs of industry into the thought-life of the State. Creation is the true test of statesmanship. Any law-maker can punish crime, light a lamp of warning or transfer wealth, but it is a rare genius who is competent to toil at the loom of creation.

Paid Bill in Confederate Money

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 16.—Police today are seeking for a suave young man who, it is feared, might contract the habit of popularizing Confederate money in lieu of legal tender. The young man yesterday engaged rooms from Mrs. Joseph Zimmermann, a boarding house keeper, who has not been long in this country, and gave her a $10 bill, from which she was expected to take $4 in payment for the first week's rent. It was a Confederate note and Mrs. Zimmermann regarded it with suspicion.

"Sure, that's legal tender," said the young man. "President Wilson is from the South and now that old Confederate money is worth its face value again."

Mrs. Zimmermann gave him six $1 bills and later becoming disillusioned, appealed to the police. The young man did not return.

Pie Hunters Likened to the "Wild Asses"

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 16.—Senator Tillman of South Carolina today evinced his displeasure at the persistence of hundreds of office-seekers who have flocked to the capital since the inauguration. With his characteristic vigor the Senator condemned the scramble for jobs. He said the situation reminded him of a Bible text.

"I have forgotten where in Holy Writ I read it," he said, "but it fits the case exactly and runs something as follows:

"The wild asses of the desert are athirst and hungry. They have broken into the green corn."

The Senator recalled that the text contained a reference to "the wild asses" trampling down the corn, but he said he would leave that out. He added that he had full faith in President Wilson as a "herdsman, who would keep the wild beasts from doing any damage."

Southern Banks to Finance Southern Cotton Crop.

NEW YORK, N. Y., March 16.—The withdrawal of gold from America at this stage of the year, when the country's resources will soon be needed to finance one of the biggest cotton crops in the history of the nation is viewed with alarm by financial authorities in Wall Street.

This year there is little talk of curtailing the cotton acreage. It will require a considerable investment to handle the implements, fertilizers and supplies for this year's work. There are no other products that require the return of gold to America until the cotton crop is harvested. It is thought that the local banks in the South will be able to finance the crop and avoid drawing on northern centers, which in turn might result in advancing the loan rates to the detriment of cotton farmers and to the prejudice of local business enterprises.

Diversified Farming.

Texas leads all states in the Union in diversified farming, as she does in most every other movement for progress and prosperity. We produce in commercial quantities every commodity known to the market and every day in the year there is a harvest going on in the state. Having conquered the realms of agriculture, we are now extending our farming operations into the animal kingdom.

We have bull-frog, alligator, armadillo, ostrich and many other animal farms, but the latest addition is a polecat farm opened up near Gainesville and the skunk is said to give promise of making a profitable farmer. We will soon be able to dispose of our prairie dogs, go to market with our bull weevils, and sell the Texas fever.

In domesticating nature's delinquents and capitalizing our pests, we are turning waste into profit and that is what makes a country prosperous as well as powerful in commerce. We are likewise illustrating to the world that Texas is the birthplace of the mighty economic forces of 20th century civilization.

The Forty Year Test.

An article must have exceptional merit to survive for a period of forty years. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was first offered to the public in 1872. From a small beginning it has grown in favor and popularity until it has attained a world wide reputation. You will find nothing better for a cough or cold. Try it and you will understand why it is a favorite after a period of more than forty years. It not only gives relief—it cures. For sale by all dealers.

Big Bill Board at Orange.

Orange, Tex., March 17.—The ingenious city boosters all over the State of Texas have resorted to all sorts of schemes and subterfuges to attract the eye of the visitor but it remained for the Orange Commercial Club to devise a slogan that promises to open a new field in city advertising.

The first object upon that the visitors sight falls upon his arrival at the Southern Pacific Depot here is an immense bulletin board or slogan sign telling the observer that Orange is a live town, inviting the passer through to stop over and extending a cordial welcome. The slogan of the city, "Nature's Outlet to the Sea" is realistically portrayed in a scene showing a merchant vessel steaming into the mouth of the Sabine River while others can be seen in the distance either entering the port or bound for the high sea.

The advantages of Orange are set forth briefly but clearly and the returns this sign has already brought the city in publicity has more than paid for its erection.

Postoffice Status to be Determined

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 16.—Postmaster General Burleson today made plans to find out "whether the postoffice department is on a self-sustaining basis." He announced today that he proposed to set at rest the conflicting reports about the matter. For this purpose he will appoint a commission, composed probably of the various assistant postmaster generals and the chief clerk, to make a careful investigation.

"The people of the United States," declared Mr. Burleson, "have a right to know on exactly what sort of a business basis the postoffice department is being run. There are other great departments of the government, such as the department of agriculture, which does a great work, but there is no other department which comes into as close touch with every man, woman and child in the country as the postoffice department."

For this reason, he said, he proposed to let the people "know all about their big business enterprise."

Caught in Auto and Killed by a Train

SOUR LAKE, Tex., March 16.—Alfred Maye, aged 16 years, who has for some time been in the employment of the Sour Lake Motor Car Company, was instantly killed today while en route to Grayburg accompanied by Misses Ellen Cowart and Bonnie Bell Parr in an automobile. They were crossing the Frisco Railroad near Grayburg when the engine went dead in the center of the track.

There was a freight train switching at the time, and as the switching was done on a curved track the engineer did not see the car and ran into it.

The young ladies managed to escape, jumping out, and were uninjured. The young man, in jumping from the car, became entangled in some way. The train struck the car in the center, thoroughly demolishing it and mangling the young man's body. The head was completely severed and was found in the automobile which was twenty-five yards from the body, which was badly mutilated when taken from under the freight train.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Moye, are residents of this city. The intelligence of the accident came to them as an awful shock which overcame the grieved mother.

President Huerta Called on Wilson

MEXICO CITY, March 17.—Provisional President Huerta, disregarding all precedents, today called upon Henry Lane Wilson, the American Ambassador to Mexico. This is the first time, it is said, that a Mexican President has called upon the diplomatic representative of a foreign power, and technically his act was that of leaving Mexican territory. The chief executive was accompanied by Francisco de la Barra, the Mexican Minister of Foreign Affairs.

President Huerta told Ambassador Wilson he had rattified the understanding between the American Ambassador and Foreign Minister de la Barra, that all questions pending between the United States and Mexico be taken up and adjudicated without loss of time. He referred especially to the claims of Americans arising from the Mexican revolution and also to the Chamizal boundary and other disputes.

General Huerta reiterated that it was his desire to continue the friendly relation of the two Governments, and he personally expressed gratitude for the friendly efforts made by the American Ambassador to bring about peace during the recent disturbance in the capital.

Urges Credit Organization

AUSTIN, Tex., March 17.—"Co-operative Credit" was the subject discussed by Edwin Chamberlain of the Texas Farm Life Commission before the Applied Economics Club of the University of Texas here recently in which he appealed to the students of economics to study the question of co-operative credit.

That 68 per cent of the farmers of Texas are tenants and pay exorbitant rates of interest was stated by Mr. Chamberlain.

Wilson Demanded Passage of Bill

WASHINGTON, March 17.—President Wilson today telegraphed to J. Warren Davis, Democratic leader of the New Jersey Senate, and Governor Fielder, demanding that the pending jury reform bill be passed without amendment.

"I feel very strongly," telegraphed the President, "our party's unequivocal commitment to the jury reform and that the terms of referendum in the present bill are a virtual nullification of the reform. Can we not give the people what they demand without qualification?"

The bill providing that a commission appointed by the Governor of the State should choose juries instead of Sheriffs was pending when Mr. Wilson resigned the governorship. He told the State leaders that he would come back to New Jersey if necessary to speak in favor of the bill. Since that time the measure has passed the house, but with an amendment attached requiring that the question be submitted to a referendum. Mr. Wilson said at the time that he did not object to a referendum if it were an honest one. He now takes the position that the referendum, as proposed, delayed the issue of jury reform, and he appealed to the State Senate, before whom the bill is pending, to drop the amendment.

President Wilson's objection to the amendment is because it is so drawn that the referendum would fail unless 33 per cent of all voters who cast ballots for all parties at the last election took part in it. Under such circumstances the President feels that every voter who did not attend the election would in effect be counted against the proposal. While the intention might be to the contrary.

CONCORD, N. H., March 17.—A legislative committee appointed to investigate charges of corruption in the contest for the United States Senatorship in the Legislature began its hearings here today. Henry F. Hollis, Democrat, was elected last Thursday after a long struggle, in which he had been within a few votes of success on many ballots.

Keep Children Out of the Cotton and Canning Mills

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., March 16.—Child labor in the cotton mills was the general subject discussed at today's session of the ninth annual child labor conference. The principal speakers were Dr. W. H. Oates, state factory inspector of Alabama, and Dr. Samuel McCune Lane, vice chairman of the national commission. Dr. Lane pointed to the great need for laws to keep children out of the cotton mills and canning factories of the South.

Referring to the opposition in the senate to the reappointment of Dr. Charles P. Neill as commissioner of labor statistics, Dr. Lane declared the contest was a test between the senate and the White House, and that sociologists will watch the fight with interest.

Secretary A. J. McKelway declared that, besides the opposition of Senators Overman and Tillman, the old Bailey influence in the senate was against Dr. Neill, who at a New York banquet once made the "unfortunate remark that his misfortune was that he was from the same state as Bailey." He declared Dr. Neill will get the hearty indorsement of the child labor conference.

Don't Guess—Be SURE

A guessing contest is about the poorest sport in the world, but if one likes it there is no harm in guessing, as long as it is just done for fun and there is no money at stake. But guessing at anything in business is about the most inexcusable thing a sane person can be guilty of. When you want to buy something buy it from a firm that does not guess, but knows just what it is doing, and then insist upon the seller telling you what he is charging. Don't you do any guessing either, but know what you want, and insist upon having just that.

Our business is run upon the "Know Your Business" plan. We know how to buy lumber just as well as we know how to sell it, and insist upon buying the kind of lumber that our customers should have. We run the lumber business upon the same plan that a bank is run. We get a profit on the lumber we sell, or we don't sell it. You get a profit on the things you sell, or at least you should do so. But there is a difference in profits. There are profits and PROFITS. The profit we take for handling lumber is a fair consideration for handling the material, for keeping it always in stock so you can get what you want, when you want it, and for giving you the very best possible lumber service.

Short figuring don't help any. If you want to build, we want to figure with you. No man buys a coffin because it is cheap. No man builds a house until he is ready to build. If you are ready to build we shall be pleased to make an estimate on your bill of material, and if you will give us the exact specifications we will figure the bill of material so that you will not have to buy from one third to one half more lumber than you contemplated. It is said there are tricks in all trades, and so there may be, but in the long run they don't pay. If there are tricks in our trade it is pretty plain that we have not used them, for had we done so we should have been caught up with good and strong in the almost quarter of a century that we have been doing business in Kerrville.

We are doing business now, and shall continue to do it, in the same old straightforward way that we have always done. When you bring in your spring clip of mohair and wool you will probably want to take back a load of lumber to floor the gallery, or some shingles to recover the kitchen. Perhaps you may want to build a new house. No matter what your wants may be, we are ready so serve you. Your order can't be too large for us to handle without embarrassment, nor can it be too small for us to give our most careful attention.

Million-Dollar Deal

NEW ORLEANS, La., March 15.—Reports that the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railroad Company, as the first step in effecting an entrance into New Orleans over its own rails, had entered into a contract to purchase for $1,000,000 a tract of land in New Orleans that could be used for terminal purposes, were persistently circulated in local realty circles today. The lower Ursuline convent property, and some squares adjoining, embracing altogether more than forty squares, is declared to be the site that the Santa Fe has secured. Assertions were made by several prominent Third District real estate operators that agents, presumably representing the Santa Fe company, had been in New Orleans some weeks with the view of closing this deal.

To Welcome Chance

CHICAGO, March 16.—Friends of Frank Chance here already have begun plans for honoring the former manager of the Cubs on May 15, the date on which the New York Americans, of which he is now the head, open their first western engagement with the Chicago Americans.

The day is to be known as "Frank Chance day," and the patrons who favored the games at the National park while he was there, will have the honor place in the parade. A committee composed of both west and south side enthusiasts will make arrangements for the affair. Two thousand seats have been reserved for that day on the first base side of the grounds in the hope that the new manager of the New York Club will play the initial bag. A parade, headed by a police escort and a brass band, will start from the board of trade building and move through south side boulevards to the park.

Want Bryan to Teach Sunday School Class

WASHINGTON, March 16.—Secretary of State Bryan has been invited to take charge of the Young Men's Bible Class in the First Presbyterian Church Sunday School and in consequence the membership of the class is going up by leaps and bounds. Mr. Bryan has not yet accepted, but the pastor of the church, the Rev. Dr. Donald McLeod, believes that he will do so.

The Secretary of State long has been interested in church matters and has had a decided leaning towards the Sunday school. He is a personal friend of Dr. McLeod, who is urging him to undertake the work.

Suffragettes Plan Another Parade in Washington in April.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 19.—Another parade in this city is being planned by the executive committee of the National Woman's Suffrage Association for April 7, when the extra session of Congress convenes. This time the parade will be neither so long nor so elaborate as the one marred by disorder on March 3. Five hundred and thirty-one women, including representatives from each congressional district and from each State at large, will form and march to the Capitol, where they will present to the members of Congress their arguments and petitions in favor of equal suffrage. The parade will begin immediately after a mass meeting in one of the local theaters.

Will Fill Offices April 7.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 16.—Conferences between National Chairman William F. McCombs and Democratic leaders today brought out the fact that the administration intends to proceed slowly and carefully in filling Federal offices throughout the country. It is expected, however, that when the extra session of Congress begins, on April 7, there will be a long list of appointments ready for confirmation.

When the extra session opens Postmaster General Burleson also expects to have ready his plan for dealing with the situation created when all fourth-class postmasters were put into the classified service.

While the question of Federal appointments is absorbing the attention of President Wilson, it became apparent today that beside the members of the Cabinet who are sifting the mass of applicants, National Chairman McCombs and Secretary Tumulty are working in close harmony with members of Congress.

It became known also that no particular policy will be followed in all the States with reference to organization, anti-organization and independent Democratic factions. "Each state presents its own problem," said Mr. McCombs today.
