SECRETARY OF STATE RESIGNS

Cabinet Approves Response to German Reply.

PUBLIC IS SURPRISED

All Diplomats at Capital Hear News With Surprise.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 9.—William Jennings Bryan, three times Democratic candidate for the presidency of the United States and author of nearly thirty peace treaties with the principal nations of the world, resigned today as Secretary of State, as a dramatic sequel to his disagreement with President Wilson over the Government's policy toward Germany.

The resignation was accepted by the President. The Cabinet then approved the response which had been prepared to the German reply to the Lusitania note. Acting Secretary Robert Lansing will sign the document and it will be cabled to Berlin tomorrow.

Secretary Bryan will return to private life tomorrow when his resignation takes effect.

Rather than sign the document, which he believed might possibly draw the United States into war, Mr. Bryan submitted his resignation in a letter, declaring that "the issue involved is of such moment that to remain a member of the Cabinet would be as unfair to you as it would be to the cause which is nearest my heart, namely, the prevention of war."

The President accepted the resignation in a letter of regret, tinged with a deep personal feeling of affection.

Dramatically the official relation of Mr. Bryan with the administration of the man whose nomination he assisted so materially in bringing about at the Baltimore convention of 1912 came to an end. It caused a sensation in the National Capital scarcely paralleled in recent years. Ambassadors, ministers, and diplomats from foreign lands, officials of every rank and station, heard the news as it was flashed by newspaper extras tonight.

They interpreted variously its effect on the delicate situation that had arisen between Germany and the United States. The resignation of the staunchest advocate of peace in the President's official family spread, broadcast the belief that the policy of the United States was definitely determined upon would assert and defend the rights of the United States in any eventuality that might arise.

Originally it was the intention of the President and Mr. Bryan to have the announcement of the resignation made simultaneously with the dispatch of the note to Germany, but when Mr. Bryan did not attend the cabinet meeting today until President Wilson sent for him, rumors that the President had been unable to bring the Secretary of State to his point of view filled the air. Finally shortly before 6 o'clock the news leaked out and was confirmed.

Just when the subject was first broached between the President and Mr. Bryan is not known definitely, but the fact that Mr. Bryan would resign was known to a small circle of officials as early as last Sunday.

It came to light today that the position of Mr. Bryan in the Cabinet recently has become very embarrassing—his advocacy of peace being so pronounced that other members of the Cabinet who felt that the United States should assert itself irrespective of the consequences were understood to have on one occasion declared their intention of resigning if a policy of firmness and vigor was not adopted.

Robert Lansing is Man of Mark.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 8.—Robert Lansing, successor to John Bassett Moore as counselor of the State Department, becomes Secretary of State ad interim tomorrow when Secretary Bryan's resignation takes effect. He is a son-in-law of John W. Foster, Secretary of State under President Harrison. He is a life-long Democrat and had been an international lawyer for many years. While there is much gossip already as to President Wilson's probable selection for the secretaryship, it is the President's plan to make no immediate appointment. It would not be surprising if he made no change in the present status of the department's personnel for two or three months.

Secretary Franklin K. Kane, of the Interior Department, has been frequently mentioned as a possible successor to Secretary Bryan, but the belief exists that he will not be chosen on account of his Canadian birth and the fact that the President would find considerable difficulty in finding a man to take over Mr. Lane's important work on the Alaskan railway and other projects of the Interior Department.

It is considered probable that the President will make no shift in his Cabinet at all, but will choose a new man to fill the vacancy. In well-informed quarters it is considered likely he will retain Mr. Lansing as secretary. To do so would require search for another counselor, a post most difficult to fill.

Mr. Lansing has prepared memoranda for practically all of the important notes that have gone to belligerent governments since the European war began and is looked upon not only as an expert in international law, but as a clear thinker and adviser. For many years he has served on boundary commissions and arbitration tribunals. He is a comparatively young man, well acquainted with all the Government's policies, and has won the admiration of the President and Mr. Bryan by his loyalty to the Secretary of State as his superior officer. On many occasions Mr. Lansing has submitted memoranda expressing views differing with those of Mr. Bryan, but has tactfully avoided embarrassments.

Policy of U. S. Toward Germany is Decided Upon.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 8.—The policy of the United States toward Germany—an insistence on the observance of neutral rights and the safeguarding of lives of Americans on the high seas—was determined finally today at a cabinet meeting.

Secretary Bryan's resignation had been submitted and accepted when the meeting convened and he took little part in the discussion. The note which is to be sent to Germany tomorrow was read over for the last time to the Cabinet by President Wilson. Suggestions of some minor changes were noted by the President.

The resignation of Mr. Bryan, whose advocacy of a course that under no circumstances would involve the United States in war, spread the impression that the President and the Cabinet had decided firmly that the rights of the United States must be upheld in any eventuality that may arise. While no inkling as to the contents of the note was given it is understood that an unfavorable reply will mean the severance of diplomatic relations with Germany and that attacks on Americans thereafter might lead to even greater complications.

The effect of the general situation of Secretary Bryan's withdrawal from the cabinet was the subject of general comment everywhere. Foreign diplomats interpreted it as significant of forceful course of the part of the United States. They were busy with their code books and cablegrams tonight advising their respective governments of the Cabinet change and its significance.

In Austro-German quarters, where there has been some confidence that Secretary Bryan's influence for peace would make impossible a rupture between the United States and Germany, the resignation of the Secretary caused much uneasiness.

Letter of Secretary Bryan to the President.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 8.—The letter constituting the official announcement of Mr. Bryan's retirement from the Cabinet to private life was made public at the White House at 6 o'clock tonight. It follows:

"My Dear President: It is with sincere regret that I have reached the conclusion that I should return to you the commission of Secretary of State with which you honored me at the beginning of your Administration.

"Obedient to your sense of duty and actuated by the highest motives, you have prepared for transmission to the German government a note in which I cannot join without violating what I deem to be an obligation to my country, and the issue involved is of such moment that to remain a member of the Cabinet would be unfair to you as it would be to the cause which is nearest my heart, namely, the prevention of war.

"I therefore respectfully tender my resignation, to take effect when the note is sent, unless you prefer an earlier hour. Alike desirous of reaching a peaceful solution of the problems arising out of the use of submarines against merchantmen, we find ourselves differing irreconcilably as to the methods which should be employed.

"It falls to your lot to speak officially for the Nation; I consider it to be none the less my duty to endeavor as a private citizen to promote the end which you have in view by means which you do not feel at liberty to use.

"In severing the intimate and pleasant relations which have existed between us during the past two years, permit me to acknowledge the profound satisfaction which it has given me to be associated with you in the important work which has come before the State Department and to thank you for the courtesies extended.

"With the heartiest good wishes for your personal welfare and for the success of your Administration, I am, my dear President, very truly yours.

"W. J. BRYAN."

Mexican Attacks Rangers; Is Slain

AUSTIN, Tex., June 9.—"Ranger Cummings and myself killed Anastacio Segura at Pilares yesterday morning. He resisted arrest and attacked us with a knife. We are leaving for Marfa."

The above telegram was received this morning by Adjutant General Henry Hutchings from Ranger S. M. Jester, dated at Valentine, Rangers Cummings and Jester are members of Ranger Captain J. M. Fox's company and were comrades of Ranger Hulen, killed by Mexicans about two weeks ago, and Ranger Burdett, slain by Mexicans at Fabens, near El Paso, last Monday night.

Ranger Jester is a Travis County boy and was reared at City Manor at Manor. He and Ranger Burdett had been lifelong friends.

The body of Ranger Burdett is en route to Austin. It is scheduled to arrive here during tonight, and the interment will be made tomorrow. Today is the thirty-third birthday anniversary of Ranger Burdett. He had planned to make special provision for his mother, Mrs. Lizzie Burdett, and sister, Miss Mary Burdett, who reside in this city, in case he met death, but a few days before he was killed he wrote to his sister, that he would soon be 23 years old, and that he intended to take out an accident insurance policy on account of the danger to which he was constantly subjected.

Villa's Answer to Wilson's Note Is On Its Way.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 9.—A message from Chihuahua to the Villa agency here tonight announced that Manuel Bonilla had started for Washington with General Villa's response to President Wilson's warning that the belligerent Mexican factions must restore peace and save the famine-threatened civilian population of the Southern Republic from further suffering.

Spokesman for the Villa element already have indicated that their chief stands ready to co-operate in a peace movement. A reply from General Carranza is expected by cable through Consul Sullivan at Vera Cruz.

Manuel Bonilla was Minister of Public Works in the Cabinet of the late President Madero, and is regarded as one of the strong men among Villa's supporters. He is expected to deliver the response to Enrique C. Lorente, head of the agency here, for presentation to the American government.

No definite news reached Washington tonight from Central Mexico, where Obregon, the Carranza commander, and Villa are believed to be engaged in their final battle. The Carranza agency still claims that Obregon has won a great victory, but the Villa representatives insist there has been no fighting of consequence, since the Carranza forces were driven from Sinaloa last week.

The American Red Cross announced tonight that supplies for the relief of starving Mexican non-combatants would be received at Bush Terminal, New York City, Galveston, Laredo, Brownsville and El Paso, Texas, and Nogales, Arizona. Army Quartermasters at the border posts will handle the supplies by direction of the War Department.

RESERVE BOARD MAKES RULES FOR STATE BANKS

Membership of Such Bodies is Under Rigid Plan.

TO PROTECT RESERVE SYSTEM

State Banks Drawing From the System on Twelve Months Notice.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 9.—Rules and regulations to govern the membership of State banks and trust companies in the Federal reserve system were made public today by the Federal Reserve Board. In announcing the regulations under which the right is reserved to exercise judgment and discretion in considering each individual application the board says: "Appreciating fully that the strength of the Federal reserve system is to be measured by the nature and character of its members rather than by their number, the Federal Reserve Board is prepared to use the broad discretionary power vested in it by the Federal Reserve Act to bring about the co-ordination of different types of banking institutions on a basis of equity and practicability. The board has sought in the regulations governing the admission of State banks and trust companies to establish only such reasonable standards of admission as will be generally recognized as necessary to protect the Federal reserve system and the National banks, whose membership in the system is obligatory, against the admission of any bank which would be a source of weakness rather than of strength, and to prescribe such regulations governing their conduct as will insure a reasonable conformity to fundamental principles deemed essential to the success of the new banking system."

The regulations make eligible banks and trust companies incorporated under State laws having paid up capital of $25,000 in towns of 3,000 or less, $50,000 in towns of from 3,000 to $100,000 in towns of 6,000 to 50,000 and $200,000 in larger cities. Such banks would be allowed to ask for reserve bank stock to the amount of 6 per cent of the capital and surplus of the applying bank. Then the application would be investigated by a committee consisting of the District Federal Reserve Agent, the Governor of the Reserve Bank and a Director of the Reserve Bank, whose recommendation would be submitted to the Federal Reserve Board.

In passing on applications the financial condition of the applying bank or trust company and the general character of its management will be considered as well as whether the laws of the State in which the applying bank is located contain provisions likely to interfere with the proper regulation and supervision of member banks.

State banks entering the system will be allowed to invest "only in loans on real estate and mortgages of a character not to an extent which liabilities will not impair its liquid condition."

Loans by a bank on its own stock or single borrower would be limited to 10 per cent of its capital and surplus of 30 per cent of its unimpaired capital.

A method is provided for State banks drawing from the system on twelve months' notice. The board announces its intention of accepting applications of State banks by the State authorities when conditions are satisfactory.

Note to Britain On Neutral Rights May be Next Step.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 9.—Representative Webb of North Carolina urged President Wilson today to send promptly a note to Great Britain, covering the general subject of neutral rights as affected by the blockade of the allies. Mr. Webb and other Southern members of Congress in whose behalf he spoke, feel that the cotton interests have suffered unjustifiably as a result of the embargo.

No comment was made at the White House concerning what the President told Mr. Webb, but the latter advised friends later that Mr. Wilson had promised early action. Mr. Wilson it is known, has had under consideration for some time a note to be sent to Great Britain, urging compliance with the requests of the United States, as expressed in its protest of March 30 to Great Britain and France against the operation of the blockade on commerce in non-contraband articles consigned through neutral countries.

Mr. Bryan and some other members of the Cabinet strongly urged the President to send the note at the same time of the American communication of May 13 went to Germany concerning submarine warfare. While the President believed the note should be sent, he did not think it wise to complicate the situation further until there was a clarification of what the position of the German Government would be toward the American government. His final decision, however, has been dependent upon the gathering of data concerning seizures and detentions of American ships, and it is said to be entirely possible that the note may go forward before the reply is received to the American note sent to Germany today.

Baron St. Davids Would Use Idlers.

LONDON, June 9.—The ministry of munitions bill, establishing a department to attend to the furnishing of supplies of munitions on an adequate scale was passed by the House of Lords today and received royal consent.

The House of Lords on the ministry of munitions bill, Baron St. Davids, Lord Lieutenant of Pembroke-shire, thought it a "pity that the bill did not give power to requisition men as well as workers." He wished to disassociate himself, he said, from attacks on the working classes. The upper class, as a whole, Lord St. Davids said, had come out of this trial wonderfully well, but there were idlers still among them. Even among the members of the Upper House, he ventured to say, they would find men who had never done a day's work for themselves or for anybody else since they were born and that the sons of some of them were still hanging about the theatres and music halls.

Baron St. Davids, who is a member of the House of Lords, said that the workingmen and talking of conscription and compulsory service. Men who refused to work should be made to fight whether they like it or not.

New Secretary Not to Be Named for Some Weeks.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 11.—No decision has been reached by President Wilson as to the choice of a successor to William Jennings Bryan as Secretary of State. He probably will not make a selection for several weeks.

In well informed quarters the belief was expressed that Robert Lansing, counselor of the Department of State, who was commissioned today by the President as Secretary of State ad interim, eventually would be given the permanent appointment.

Mr. Lansing took charge of the department at 2 o'clock this afternoon. He did not move into the spacious quarters of the Secretary, remaining in the office occupied by the counselor and his assistants.

"It's a much cooler room," he remarked.

Mr. Lansing was named Secretary of State ad interim under a law which provides that "a vacancy occasioned by death or resignation must not be temporarily filled for a longer period than thirty days."

It was suggested in some quarters today, however, that the statutes contained nothing which specifically forbade his reappointment if the President wish to consider for a longer time the problem of naming a permanent Secretary.

GENEVA, June 9.—A dispatch from Brig, Switzerland, declares a man has been arrested at Domodossola, in Italy, charged with the intention of blowing up the famous Simplon tunnel, which is 12½ miles long and connects Brig with Domodossola.

Echo From Titanic Disaster

NEW YORK, June 9.—The right of claimants in damage suits based on the sinking of the Titanic to withdraw from the limitation liability proceedings brought by the Oceanic Steam Navigation company, limited, for the purpose of bringing suits against White Star Line in English courts, was upheld in a decision rendered here today by the United States court of appeals.

The House of Lords on the ministry of munitions bill, Baron St. Davids, Lord Lieutenant of Pembroke-shire, thought it a "pity that the bill did not give power to requisition men as well as workers." He wished to disassociate himself, he said, from attacks on the working classes. The upper class, as a whole, Lord St. Davids said, had come out of this trial wonderfully well, but there were idlers still among them. Even among the members of the Upper House, he ventured to say, they would find men who had never done a day's work for themselves or for anybody else since they were born and that the sons of some of them were still hanging about the theaters and music halls.

Mr. Bryan was going on the basis of the fact that they might save themselves the trouble of working for workingmen and talking of conscription and compulsory service. Men who refused to work should be made to fight whether they like it or not.

New Secretary Not to Be Named for Some Weeks.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 11.—No decision has been reached by President Wilson as to the choice of a successor to William Jennings Bryan as Secretary of State. He probably will not make a selection for several weeks.

In well-informed quarters the belief was expressed that Robert Lansing, counsellor of the Department of State, who was commissioned today by the President as Secretary of State ad interim, eventually would be given the permanent appointment. Mr. Lansing took charge of the department at 2 o'clock this afternoon. He did not move into the spacious quarters of the Secretary, remaining in the office occupied by the counsellor and his assistants.

"It's a much cooler room," he remarked.

Mr. Lansing was named Secretary of State ad interim under a law which provides that "a vacancy occasioned by death or resignation must not be temporarily filled for a longer period than thirty days."

It was suggested in some quarters today, however, that the statutes contained nothing which specifically forbade his reappointment if the President wish to consider for a longer time the problem of naming a permanent Secretary.

Satterwhite Gets New Trial.

The court of Criminal Appeals on Wednesday handed down an opinion reversing the Jack Satterwhite case, and an Austin correspondent comment on same follows:

"This court today reversed and remanded the case of Jack Satterwhite, from Kerr county, appellant having been convicted of the killing of Walter Dobson, an given 25 years in the penitentiary.

"This was a case of circumstantial evidence and the court reversed the case because of the failure of the trial court to admit certain testimony by witnesses, which would have tended to show that the crime could have been committed by burglars as the town of Kerrville had been visited with a number of robberies and burglaries at the time of the killing.

CATHOLIC CHURCH NOTES
BY FATHER KEMPER

Tomorrow afternoon (Sunday) at four o'clock the third annual Commencement exercises of Notre Dame Institute will be held in Washington Hall. The program offers a splendid variety of music, drills, recitations, and several original features that are bound to please. Everyone is heartily welcome to this free entertainment, whether they have received a special invitation by mail, or not.

This evening and tomorrow from 4:00 to 8:00 p. m. the general public is urgently invited to go to the convent and examine the beautiful exhibit of needle-work, painting, drawing, and other school accomplishments made by the Notre Dame pupils. These scholars submitted to their final oral examinations in the presence of their parents and the faculty on Thursday.

During the delightful evenings of the past few weeks, the classes in gymnastic training were conducted outdoors, this making this part of the curriculum more attractive and beneficial. On Thursday all the boys and girls enjoyed a farewell lawn party on the campus in front of St. Mary's Convent. Regular school routine work will be resumed on September 1. The same day will mark the opening of the school of Our Lady of Guadalupe for the Mexicans, by the Sisters of Charity. The construction of this modern and commodious building was somewhat delayed by the architect, but it is expected now that active work will be begun next week by the lucky contractor.

Owing to the fact that tomorrow is commencement day, there will be no services at St. Mary's Church in the afternoon. Last Wednesday a quiet marriage was contracted in the priest-house between non-resident people. Later in the evening Andrew Geo. Shebay was received into the church.

Several teachers are temporarily connected with our parish because of the normal. Miss Maas of Refugio found accommodations at Mrs. Thos. Clark's home. Miss Meta Fritz is boarding and lodging at the convent. Prof. Eugene Martlette of Houston did not arrive until Wednesday. Mr. Thomas Whelan of Corpus Christi is spending the vacation with his brother James. Mr. McCreary's daughter, Mrs. Anthony Ganes of Vera Cruz, Mexico is here with her husband and baby boy.

Mrs. Melvina Shebay, all the way from Syria, came to nurse her son back to health. The younger Mrs. Shebay was called to Shreveport, La. on account of the illness of her father.

Juvenile Law Does Not Apply to Married Women.

AUSTIN, Tex., June 4.—That a woman upon her marriage becomes of legal age and ceases to be a juvenile under the act of the legislature for the correction of children, was the ruling today by the court of Criminal Appeals, opinion by Judge Davidson, in dismissing the appeal of Odell Mills, from Dallas, convicted of the charge of being a delinquent child. The record showed that appellant is a married woman though under 18 years of age. The contention was that married women cannot be subject of punishment or correction under the juvenile act. In the case of Ex parte Barte, the court held that the juvenile act did not create a criminal offense, and therefore a conviction or a trial and judgement under it was not subject of appeal. It was further held that if the judgement was of such nature as ought to have been rendered, the only remedy was by writ of habeas corpus. The appeal was dismissed for want of jurisdiction.

Birthday Party.

The young people enjoyed a party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Worden Monday evening to celebrate the birthday anniversaries of Miss Elizabeth Pfeuffer and Bernice Worden, who have the same natal day. Notwithstanding the rain which came up late in the afternoon about forty boys and girls arrived at the appointed hour to enjoy the evening's fun. Games and contests of various kinds and music furnished the amusements.

Geldemeester's Peace Mission Stirs Officials.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 7.—Van Ghel Geldemeester, son of the religious adviser to Queen Wilhelmina of Holland, has by a brief visit to Washington after a conference in Berlin with high German officials, set in motion much speculation in official and diplomatic circles here about the possibility of peace in Europe.

Mr. Geldemeester saw Dr. von Jagow, the German Foreign Secretary, and other members of the imperial ministry shortly after the Lusitania was sunk and received certain impressions concerning the German attitude toward the war and the ultimate making of peace.

With the knowledge, though not with the authority of German officials, he started for Washington in the hope that informally he could portray German feeling in official quarters.

While in Washington he gave the impression that there is a peace party of some importance in Great Britain as well as in Germany, and that what is most needed at present is a continued pressure by the neutrals for mediation. Just how far Mr. Geldemeester may have been encouraged in Berlin to present his views to the people in the United States is not known.

In allied quarters here any talk of peace emanating from Germany is looked upon with much circumspection and doubt, and the time is regarded as inopportune, with German troops on French, Belgian and Russian soil.

Naval Academy Scandal Traced and Basis Found.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., June 7.—That there is reason to believe attempts had been made to enter the desks of the heads of at least four Naval Academy departments and get examination questions in advance, was the testimony given today by Rear Admiral Fullam, superintendent of the academy, before the naval court of inquiry appointed by Secretary Daniels to investigate charges of irregularities in examinations.

It is the belief of the authorities, however, that only one attempt had been successful. This was in the case of the department of modern languages.

Testimony read from the record of the preliminary investigation showed that the examination papers for the first, second, third and fourth classes in Spanish were stolen and that, following this, there was general dissemination from the hands of the friends of Midshipman James Moss of the third class, of "good dope" for all of these classes.

Six members of the graduating class who last Friday received their diplomas and became ensigns were ordered recalled. The record publicly developed that two of the seven men regarded as most seriously involved by the disclosures had not been recommended for dismissal by the board. These were T. W. Harrison Jr., Virginia, and D. E. Duncan, Michigan, whose resignations, however, were asked for.

Midshipman Wessell said there was some doubt about the "dope" being right and that a night or two before examination Midshipman G.

C. Kriner, now a graduate, was to see Professor Cusache, and then to telephone to Midshipman H. H. Harrison, also a graduate, who in turn would let Wessell know. Kriner it was said, telephoned, "Dope all right."

Prior to the opening of court there was obtained from Judge Harrison of Virginia, father of one of the accused midshipmen, a set of resolutions which were, he said, adopted by the first class of the academy on graduation day.

The resolutions refer to Midshipman Ralph McK. Nelson Jr. of New York, who stood third in the graduating class. He is not accused of cheating, but it is said he knew unfair methods were being used and it was his duty to tell the authorities.

The resolutions declared: "We as a body feel ourselves guilty in equal degree of failing to report having advance information of the annual examination in modern languages," and asked "exhaustive reconsideration of the whole affair."

Some Forms of Rheumatism Curable.

Rheumatism is a disease characterized by pains in the joints and in the muscles. The most common forms are: Acute and Chronic Rheumatism, Rheumatic Headaches, Sciatic Rheumatism and Lumbago. All of these types can be helped absolutely by applying some good liniment that penetrates. An application of Sloan's Liniment two or three times a day to the afflicted part will give instant relief. Sloan's Liniment is good for pain and especially Rheumatic Pain, because it penetrates to the seat of the trouble, soothes the afflicted part and draws the pain. "Sloan's Liniment is all medicine." Get a 25c. bottle now. Keep it handy in case of emergency.

Woman's Suffrage Association Hits Union Hard Blow.

CHICAGO, June 7.—The National Woman Suffrage Association is distinctly opposed to the Congressional Union. This appeared unmistakably here today at the first session of the mid-year conference of the association.

The only chance that the union had for recognition by the National body disappeared when a resolution introduced by Mrs. T. W. Youmans, president of the Wisconsin woman suffragists, proposing arbitration of the subject, was tabled, 49 to 25. Mrs. Youmans accused Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, president of the association, with "steering" tactics in an attempt to allow discussion of the resolution.

The alleged attitude of the Congressional Union in opposing suffrage at Washington furnished the main topic of the day.

Mrs. Harriet Taylor Upton epitomized the sentiment of the conference's resolution, which was adopted unanimously, to the effect that the association is unalterably opposed to the attacks on the Democratic party of the Congressional Union, which the resolution said had failed of benefit in suffrage States and worked harm in States where woman still are seeking the ballot.

Dr. Shaw said that she now devoted ten minutes in every speech to explaining that the association does not sanction the activities of the Congressional Union, and that she blames the union for defeats in Nebraska and South Dakota.

Fort Worth Out of Natural Gas.

FORT WORTH, Tex., June 6.—For the second time in two months Fort Worth is undergoing a gas famine, heavy rains northwest of here having washed out sections of the natural gas main which supplies the city with fuel and heat from the Patrolia fields. The break occurred between Sunset and Alford Sunday morning and before noon all gas in the city mains had been exhausted. The Lone Star Gas Company, owners of the main supplying both Fort Worth and Dallas, says repairs probably will be complete Monday. Householders were forced to revert to primal methods of preparing their Sunday dinners and restaurants using coal fuel did a thriving business. Newspaper plants have been inconvenienced but slightly and local industries dependent upon gas motive power are expected to be supplied Monday with only a brief loss of time.

Flood conditions in the northwest are reported by the gas company as worse than in April, when the city was without gas for four days, but advance preparations are expected to facilitate the repair work. The gas company at Dallas also was cut off by the break in the line.

Cotton Root-knot.

Cotton root knot, according to Farmers' Bulletin 625 not only causes great damage in itself but when combined with cotton wilt, as is frequently the case, it greatly increases the loss from wilt.

Plants diseased with cotton root knot are distinctly stunted, but not appreciably deformed, as in wilt, and have a peculiar sickly yellowish-green color on both leaves and stem. In times of drought affected plants are the first to show the want of water and may wilt slightly in the middle of the day. If such a plant is dug up carefully, the roots will be found to be covered with swellings or galls from the size of a pin head to the one-half inch or more in diameter. If one of these knots is broken open, numerous pearly white, rounded bodies about one-half the size of a pin head—the female nematodes—can often be seen with the naked eye.

Root knot of cotton and other crops is caused by these minute eelworms, or nematodes, which bore into the roots and live there. The irritation of their presence causes the formation of swellings or galls. The male worms are too small to be seen with the naked eye, but the females when full of eggs assume a spherical shape and may often be distinguished in freshly broken roots as described above. Each female lays several hundred eggs, and thus the worms are propagated.

Root knot may be carried from one field to another by any agency which will transfer some of the nematodes or their eggs, just as wilt is disseminated by means of the fungus that causes the wilt disease. Drainage water is perhaps one of the most important means of spreading root knot. Nursery stock also is a common agency for the introduction of the nematode into new territory. Seedling peaches, peaches, figs, mulberries or pomegranates, and young asparagus, cabbage, eggplant, strawberry, tobacco, and tomato plants from infested sections may carry the worms in their roots or in the soil adhering to them. In the West, where the nematode occurs quite commonly in certain sections on the potato, the worms are carried in the tubers.

Card of Thanks.
We wish to express to the good people of Kerrville our gratitude for the many manifestations of love and esteem shown at the funeral services of Dan Sparks last Friday afternoon, not only in attendance, but by floral tributes placed upon his grave. We especially appreciate the kindly words and services of Rev. Mr. Dickey on this occasion.

I SAID GOODBYE

Pink fingers all with rosy tips,
 Unlatched the gates of day,
 With fond farewells from loving lips
 They sent me on my way
 To where Hope's banners bravely fly,
 And so I waved my friends goodbye

The village streets but half awake,
 The milkman's humble cart,
 The homely things of earth that shake
 The staunchest, bravest heart,
 When hours come that dim the sky,
 And loving hearts must say good-bye.

The mountainsides all clad in green,
 The fields of golden grain,
 With bended blades of silver sheen,
 Where dew drops late had lain;
 Like pearls, or tears of maiden shy
 To all this joy I said goodbye.

'E'en to the river's happy song,
 The mockbird's swelling lay,
 The chatter of the barnyard folk—
 And beating flocks beside the way,
 With just a kiss, a wave, a sigh,
 To all this I said goodbye.

Then as I climbed the mountainside
 And left that lovely vale—
 Decked like some oriental bride,
 In gold and gems and misty robes;
 I brushed a tear-drop from my eye
 And steeled my heart to say good-bye.

When the dreary night came down at last
 While passing through the busy marts,
 And ghostly lights went flitting past,
 I wondered if those teeming hearts
 In crowded houses, wide and high,
 Would hurt if they must say good-bye.

'Twas not so much the golden grain,
 The mountains, river/flowers, that lends
 A deeper poignance to the pain,
 But 'twas the parting from my friends—
 The thought that brought the choking sigh,
 That this might be the last good-bye.

But God is good, He cannot fail
 To succor those who give Him trust,
 And seek His goodness in this vale,
 'Till broken clay shall turn to dust,
 And spirits meet beyond the sky,
 Losing the cruel word "goodbye."

Bridal Shower.

On Friday P. M., June 4, many friends of Miss Pugh gathered at Miss Scofield's school at the invitation of Miss Martin, the event being a shower for Miss Pugh who will shortly leave to become Mrs. George Spitzberg of Vermont.

At the door of the school building, from which the view of the river valley is one most beautiful, the guests were welcomed and relieved of their parcels by Misses Yolande Robinson and Mrs. Louise Schreiner. Inside they were entertained with music by Misses Martin and Florence Scofield and Mrs. King's Orchestra. As Mrs. King played the wedding march a wagon of yellow and white loaded with "showers" was drawn by two little girls, ho in turn were driven by a third, to Miss Pugh, leaving the reins in her hands and bowing themselves out. Any beautiful gifts were displayed.

The company was then invited to the dining room. Passing through the court, hung with luxuriant ferns they saw there were places for several little folks. Inside the dining room the decorations were yellow and white, the tables laid with white over yellow and daisies as a centerpiece for each table. The place cards were the work of Miss Annabel Dickey. Daisies were painted on these.

At the table Miss Pugh found another surprise. A cut glass vase filled with daisies was attached by streamers to a card, by means of which Miss Pugh was given the vase and best wishes for her happiness from a number of her at-some-time Scofield pupils.

Miss Pugh acknowledged the receipt of this gift and likened these mulls to rosebuds, transplanted into the Scofield garden, tended with loving hands, unfolding into beautiful form and creating an atmosphere of sweetness as one by one they are removed from the garden. Guests were then seated at various tables where the plates were filled with good things to eat as the guests were leaving each was asked to register in Miss Pugh's name book.

Balkan Politics Clearing.

COLOGNE, Germany, Via London June 8.—Chances that Bulgaria and Roumania will enter the war with the allies are diminishing, says a Belgrade dispatch to the Cologne Gazette.

"The political heavens of the Balkans have cleared somewhat," the dispatch says. "Roumania has rejected the first offer of the triple entente (Great Britain France and Russia) as unsatisfactory."

"Bulgaria has also received offers from the entente. It is not known that Bulgaria has formally rejected them, but she is in an agreement with Roumania, and since the latter has rejected the offers, Bulgaria will probably do likewise."

"This assumption is the more reasonable because Bulgaria's first demand is immediate occupation by her of the aegean territory taken from her by Serbia. The entente has not yet offered that. Bulgaria is naturally not disinterested in the Turkish frontier, but Bulgarian statesmen are keenly conscious that the opportunity regarding Macedonia is one which will come now or never."

Frank's Sentence Stands Unchanged

ATLANTA, Ga., June 9.—The State Prison Commission, by a vote of 2 to 1, today recommended to Governor Slaton that Leo M. Frank's death sentence be not commuted to life imprisonment. A further hearing on the case will be held by the Governor, with whom rests the final decision. Governor Slaton announced tonight that he would confer tomorrow with counsel for the prisoner and the State as to the hearing. Frank's counsel will ask that an immediate date be fixed. The appeal to the Governor is Frank's last fight against his execution, which is set for June 22 next.

Former Congressman Howard will conduct Frank's case and Solicitor General Dorsey will oppose clemency.

The majority report of the Prison Commission held that neither the grand jurors who indicted Frank, the trial jury nor the prosecutors had asked for commutation; that all the courts, save Sand Federal, which reviewed the case had upheld the verdict; that no new evidence or facts bearing on the prisoner's guilt or innocence had been shown and that the commission saw no reason to interfere.

The dissenting report held that evidence against Frank was circumstantial; that the trial judge entertained doubt of the prisoner's guilt, and the record in the case justified the Governor in commuting the sentence.

Told There Was No Cure For Him

"After suffering for over twenty years with indigestion and having some of the best doctors here tell me there was no cure for me, I think it only right to tell you for the sake of other sufferers as well as your own satisfaction that a 25-cent bottle of Chamberlain's Tablets not only relieved me but cured me within two months, although I am a man of 65 years," writes Jul. Grobler, Houston, Texas. Obtainable everywhere.

Instruction Camp Plans Approved.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 8.—War Department plans for military instruction camps this summer were approved today by Comptroller Downey, who passed upon the expenditures. The plan was evolved as a result of the Comptroller's failure to find warrant in law for the expenditure of Government funds in former student camp schemes.

The practice companies would be organized and conducted "for the regular troops and primarily for the promotion of their military efficiency."

Citizens between 18 and 20 will be allowed to attend the camps and receive military instructions, "provided no expense to the United States is incurred thereby."

The general order contemplates camps at Plattsburg Barracks, N. Y., and Ludington, Mich., July 5 to August 8, and at the Presidio San Francisco Cal., from June 25 to August 1.

To Urge Larger Use of Mississippi.

DUBUQUE, Ia., June 9.—Dangers said to be menacing commercial and manufacturing interests of the interior sections of the United States brought representatives of commercial and traffic associations in the Middle West together today in a conference of the Upper Mississippi River Improvement association. Disturbed transportation conditions arising from the new rates via the Panama Canal were the immediate matters to be considered. It was claimed that these new rates caused all benefits of the canal to accrue to seaboard or near seaboard principals.

The conference, which opened this forenoon and was expected to occupy at least two days, was presided over by Thomas Wilkinson of Burlington, Ia., president of the organization. As the only available and obvious protection against the dangers said to threaten the commercial interests of this section, the use of the Mississippi river and its tributaries for freight transportation was to be urged by the speakers representing the various local and State organizations. The construction of power-plant Wilson was condemned in two resolutions adopted at the session of the conference of the National Woman Suffrage Association here today. Delegates from all parts of the country discussed the resolutions, telling stories of the votes lost because the uninformed public, it was said, credits militancy not to one organization but to suffragists generally.

A peace resolution was adopted and the delegates voted to support the federal bill to grant to women the right to vote for congressmen.

A telegram from Governor Trammell of Florida to Mrs. Roswell C. Cooley, stating he had signed the Pellsmere charter act, for which the women had worked, today was received with cheers at the conference here.

Lightning Strikes $250,000 Tank of Oil.

BEAUMONT, Tex., June 8.—An underground oil tank with a capacity of 500,000 barrels, half full of oil, was set on fire by lightning this afternoon at Sour Lake, according to information received here tonight. The tank was the property of the Texas Company, and the contents were valued at $250,000 which will be a total loss.

The tank covers an area of five acres and was covered with a Texaco roof. The gas which formed around the cover of the tank attracted the lightning. The top of the tank was blown off by the explosion and the country for miles around was illuminated by the blaze which leaped up.

An embankment was thrown up around the edge of the tank to prevent the oil from boiling over and causing other fire damage. Early last night there was no other property in immediate danger.

Plans for Sugar-Beet Work.

During the present year the department will undertake field studies of sugar-beet production. The object of this work is primarily to determine the conditions under which sugar-beet production is feasible and where possible to increase the net returns for money and labor invested by beet growers. In order to accomplish this, the relation of the sugar beet to other farm operations will be studied.

In previous general surveys, the areas in which sugar beets may be profitably grown under present agricultural and economic conditions have been located. These include 61 of the 77

Athletics 2: West End Independents 1
In the fastest game of baseball played here this season, the Athletics defeated the West End Independents of San Antonio to the tune of 2 to 1. The game was a pitchers' battle, with the honors about even between Burnett of the local team and Manney of the visitors.

The Independents scored one run in the first inning and the Athletics scored in the third. From that time until the ninth inning the score was even with both teams playing big-league baseball all the time. Henke, the first man up in the ninth, knocked the ball against the right field fence for two bases. Jeffries, the opposing second baseman, muffed Rawson's grounder. Henke swung to third, and Rawson safe on first. Sheppard and Henke then pulled off a perfect squeeze, and the game was over.

The Athletics will play a double header in Fredericksburg tomorrow, and there is every indication that they will win both games.

American Life Sacred In War Zone
WASHINGTON, D. C., June 10.—The United States in its latest note to Germany, made public tonight, formally asks the imperial government for assurances that measures hereafter will be adopted to safeguard "American lives and American ships" on the high seas.

The alternative in case of refusal is not stated.

It was this note to which William Jennings Bryan refused to attach his signature, resigning instead his portfolio of Secretary of State and thereby precipitating a dramatic cabinet crisis. Robert Lansing, Secretary of State on Monday, signed the compromise note.

The communication informs Germany that it is "on the principle of humanity as well as upon the law founded upon this principle that the United States must stand."

Illinoisans Lynch Murder Suspect.
JOHNSON CITY, Ill., June 10.—John Shando, who was arrested in connection with the murder last night of Edward Chapman, a retired farmer, was taken from the jail by a mob and lynched today. Several persons were injured in the flight at the jail.

Chapman, a wealthy farmer, was assassinated, and his daughter, Mrs. J. L. Schull, 22 years old, was wounded seriously, while they sat in the library of their home near here

Two Different Effects

The quality of food is very largely determined by the ingredients in the baking powder with which it is made. Cream of tartar baking powders, such as Royal, add only healthful qualities to the food.

The cream of tartar of Royal Baking Powder as used in food has the same wholesome effect on the digestive system as the cream of tartar in grapes, from which it is derived.

In like manner it is in evidence that the unwholesome effects of alum, which is a mineral acid salt, exist in food made with alum baking powder.

There is a clause on baking powder labels which names all the ingredients. Read it and let it guide you.

shortly before midnight last night. Chapman was shot twice through the head and his daughter was wounded in the shoulder. The shots were fired through a window of the house.

Bloodhounds followed a trail to a settlement of mine, giving strength to a theory of the police that the shots were intended for Benjamin "son-in-law" of Chapman and manager of a mine here. Schull had dismissed several miners last week and had been warned that he would be assassinated.

Five shots were fired into the house. As Chapman fell his daughter rushed to aid him, receiving a bullet herself.

Rirship Fired to Prevent Capture by Austrians.

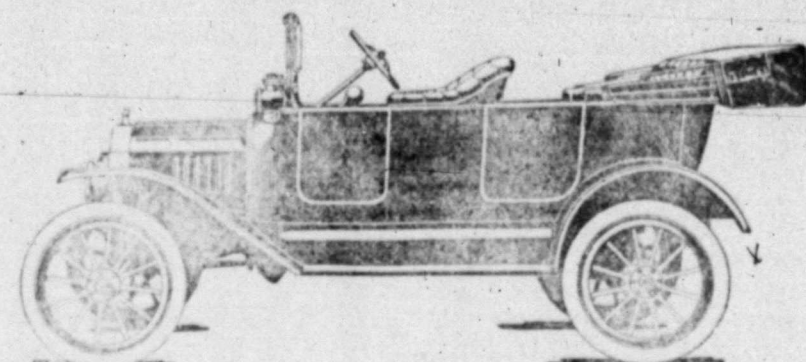

VENICE, June 10.—Official announcement was made today that the Italian airship, Citta di Ferrara, was set on fire by its crew to avoid the Austrian aeroplanes from above and to prevent its capture by Austrian boats pursuing it by sea.

"The raid of this airship over Fiume was successful," the statement goes on to say. Bombs were dropped on the torpedo and submarine works and on the navy yards.

Great Promise

This country has recently gone through one of the severest seasons of business depression in modern times. The blow has been felt by almost every business in the country. We are assured at this time that the storm has spent its force, and that a brighter business outlook is dawning throughout the nation. This is very gratifying to all interests. In this particular section of the country there is great promise that local conditions will be better within a few months than they have been in many years. Stock of all kinds are in a flourishing condition. The product of the ranches and farms is a good price, and such an outlook for a large yield of farm produce of every kind has not been known in the Hill Country in recent years. Therefore, there is great promise of good business in every line. There is promise that the farmers and ranchmen of this section will be prosperous, and on their prosperity rests the general prosperity of the country when all is said. With the dawning of better times building will begin, as building and improvement is always the barometer of business. We wish to call your attention to the fact that "The Old House" is still in the lumber business, and is awaiting your orders for anything you may require in that line. No matter how large or how small the quantity, we will give it prompt attention. The door is always open and you are welcome.

School Land to be Sold.

General Land Office,
Austin, Texas, June 7, 1915.

This statement is being sent to the newspapers so that the public may have the information herein contained to the effect that each one shall have an equal opportunity to secure public school land under the terms of an act passed by the regular session of the last Legislature.

Lists of the school land for sale will be ready for distribution about July 1st. As the land will be for sale September 1st, this will allow prospective purchasers two months in which to decide which tracts they may desire to purchase. One who wants a list may obtain it by writing to me at Austin.

Land that is situated in the rough mountainous portions of the western counties may be purchased without condition of living on it. Such land is unfit for agricultural purposes and is generally so broken by mountains, rocky hills, canyons and gorges as to be unfit for human habitation. The smooth land there has been sold. It may be that some would want it for trading purposes. Sale with or without settlement is fixed by counties.

Such land as is supposed to be susceptible of agriculture will be for sale to those only who will become actual settlers on it. There will be some 60,000 acres of this class. This is a chance for the one without a home. Heretofore those who live within five miles of the land could buy it by living on his other land.

Not so now. The purchaser must live on the land he buys when it is situated in a county where such tracts of land must be sold on condition of settlement. The settlement purchaser pays one-fourth cash and three per cent interest; the purchaser without settlement pays one-tenth cash and five per cent interest. Each has forty years to pay the balance. Thus is the home builder favored.

The list of lands will be ready July first and will give more information.

Yours truly,
J. T. ROBINSON,
Commissioner General Land Office.

University Issues Bulletin on Farm Tenancy.

A 150-page bulletin, profusely illustrated with maps and diagrams, entitled "Studies in Farm Tenancy in Texas" has just been published by the University of Texas.

This bulletin deals not only with the relation of renter to landlord, but also traces the growth and development of tenancy in the state, the rise of the "bonus system," and the pernicious influence of tenancy upon our public schools. It shows that one-crop farming and tenancy go together. Closely connected with these are the lack of personal property on the part of the tenant, decrease in livestock production, and soil depletion. It discusses the sources of credit, the high rate of interest, and the chattel mortgage, and their relation to the present type of farming.

The constructive suggestions are: compulsory education, better rural schools with courses dealing with farm life; a Land Commission to acquaint landlords with conditions among tenants, and the tenants with renting conditions over the state. This commission would act in the same capacity as some of our city labor commissions which try to prevent unemployment. The co-operative movement is also suggested, supplemented by certain kinds of constructive legislation.

This bulletin is published by the Division of Public Welfare of the Extension Department of the University of Texas and may be obtained free by writing to the Department of Extension, Austin, Texas.

Great Damage Done.

WICHITA FALLS, Tex., June 6.—Rain, wind and hail in this section of Northwest Texas this afternoon did great damage to the wheat and oat crop as well as considerable property damage. Railroad service generally is suspended and streams still are rising. It was the third day of rain and in some localities rain still was falling late tonight. The precipitation for the three days ranges from six inches at Wichita Falls to nine inches at Quanah. It is impossible to estimate the crop damage but in Wichita County alone, where the wheat crop has been placed at 2,600,000 bushels, it is believed that not more than one-quarter will be harvested owing to storm damage. There has been no loss of life reported.

The Quanah, Acme & Pacific Railroad has not operated a train in or out of Quanah since Friday because of washed-out tracks. Besides several washouts, the Fort Worth & Denver lost a bridge twenty-five miles south of Quanah last night.

All train service into Wichita Falls has been discontinued, owing to high water. The Big Wichita River is within one foot of being out of banks and rising two inches an hour.

Small houses were damaged and growing crops are reported beaten to the ground by hail throughout the Vernon and Wichita Falls sections.

Passports Taken From Americans Criticising U. S.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 6.—It was explained tonight at the State Department that the passports of Leon Ralnes and Karl Recknagel had been revoked because of their published attacks on the American Government. They were reported to have issued an open letter to President Wilson in the press of Germany and to have been the authors of circulars and pamphlets criticising the United States.

As the giving of passports is a courtesy on the part of the State Department, the privileges were ordered

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Catron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good. I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without its tiring me, and am doing my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of wonderful success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.

Revoked through Ambassador Gerard on the ground that the men violated their allegiance.

Revocation of the passports makes it practically impossible for either Ralnes or Recknagel to return to the United States before conclusion of the war. In the meantime they will be without protection usually given by this Government to its subjects in foreign territory. State Department officials said if the men returned to the United States there was no law under which they could be refused admission or their citizenship be denied.

Cases of Retired Officers May Wait.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 9.—The military authorities do not regard as imperative immediate action on about fifteen applications from retired army officers for transfer to the active list in accordance with a provision contained in the last army appropriation act. Those officers that have signified a desire to return to active service have been advised that their applications have been placed on file and that they will be informed in due time regarding the time, place and character of the examination they must pass in order to be considered qualified for restoration.

The policy of the War Department has not been determined in this particular, although the Secretary of War is in possession of a report from the general staff on the subject. It is appreciated that it is difficult to adopt a general rule applicable to all cases of officers long on the retired list and whose restoration to the active list necessarily would be followed at once by retirement for age with appreciable increase of rank and pay.

Among the applications so far received are several that probably would not meet with approval at the Capitol if favorably acted upon by the War Department. These are the cases of officers long on the retired list and whose restoration to the active list necessarily would be followed at once by retirement for age with appreciable increase of rank and pay.
