

BAKER CASE ON TRIAL THIS WEEK: STATE RESTS

SECOND WEEK OF KERR COUNTY DISTRICT COURT DEVOTED TO CRIMINAL CASES.

The second week of the District Court has been devoted to criminal cases. Only two cases have gone to trial up to this time. The Jake Mills case, wherein Mills was charged with a statutory offense, was tried. The jury found the defendant guilty, and his punishment was assessed at five years in the penitentiary. Attorneys for the defense made application for a suspended sentence in this case, which was denied them. This case is one of a peculiar nature that could be tried without change of venue in any court in the district. The offense was committed in Uvalde County, and some of the parties were residents of Medina County. The case has been on the docket some time and is in the Kerr County court because it was necessary for the grand jury of this county to indict Mills to avoid his escape by limitation.

On Wednesday the juries for the entire three weeks appeared as a special venire in the Henry Baker case, as stated in these columns last week. This case, which was called Wednesday morning, is one wherein Henry Baker is charged with having taken the life of Dudley Laurie, his son-in-law, in Laurie's place of business in Kerrville, in March of last year. The counsel in this case are John R. Storms & Son for the defense; District Attorney L. J. Brooks, and Wallace and Geddie for the State. A motion for continuance was overruled, and the work of securing a jury was taken up Wednesday afternoon. The special venire was exhausted Wednesday evening with only ten jurors secured. Another venire of twenty tailmen was ordered, and recess taken to Thursday afternoon. When court convened again the other two jurors were promptly secured and the case proceeded to trial. The jury in this case is composed of the following citizens: John Peterson, Ernst Pfeuffer, Robt. Vokes, Geo. Wiedenfeld, Dee Richardson, J. D. Storms, D. H. Hughes, J. D. Witt, R. A. Holland, J. H. Coffey, W. M. Garrett and W. M. Jetton.

The defense had caused a considerable number of witnesses subpoenaed, some of whom resided out of the county. Among these are J. W. Dunlap and wife, Florence Dunlap, Chas. Naylor and wife, Eloise Naylor, Fred Chestnut and Lillie Chestnut, all of whom reside in Houston. None of these appeared at the opening of court in the case and Judge Barney ordered a process for them to be issued, and instructed Sheriff Moore to wire the sheriff of Harris County to make service and bring the witnesses to court. This was done and the sheriff of Harris County is now on the way with the witnesses. Judge Barney entered a fine of $50 against each of these witnesses for contempt of court.

B. L. Snow, who also resides in Houston, was fined $100 for no appearance as a witness in the case of the State vs. Dave Stone, charged with theft of hogs.

After the examination of four witnesses in the Baker case the State rested.

The widow of the dead man was placed on the stand Friday morning, and was still being cross-questioned when this paper went to press.

The case of O. L. Freeman, charged with killing Joe Friar about two years ago, has been set down for a hearing Monday, Jan. 31. A special venire of forty men has been ordered in the case. The tailmen are as follows:

J. M. Bruff, J. E. Beard, H. I. Hardin, J. M. Ewing, Chas. Rawson, E. L. Spence, Richard Dietert, T. W. Hargens, Rudolph Herbst, Mortiz Holekamp, Franz Flach, J. T. S. Gammon, Elmer Ruff, George Karger, August Leeder, W. F. Jetton, C. R. Eddins, Fred B. Klein, J. W. Owens, U. J. Edwards, J. J. Sublett, Henry Koenneke, James Howell, F. H. Mueller, Gottfried Bohner, Henry Barton, Ben F. Hicks, P. H. Dozier, Arthur Mossel, A. M. Lamb, Herman Heiman, H. P. Hyde, E. E. Dietert, Louis Nuernberger, Chas. Ingenhuet, Joseph Heinen Jr., R. S. Newman, Walter

PROGRAM FOR SPRING FIESTA MAPPED OUT

PARADES FOR EACH DAY OF THE WEEK AGREED UPON AND DATES ARE SET.

San Antonio, Tex., Jan. 25.—A tentative program for the 1916 fiesta was outlined at a meeting of the board of directors of the Fiesta Association Tuesday night. This year the annual celebration will be staged in the week beginning Monday, April 24, and ending Saturday, April 29, and parades, spectacles and other events are planned for every day of the week.

According to the program mapped out by the directors activities will begin Monday morning, when carnival shows and street attractions will open on the plazas. The triumphal entry of the king at night and the public coronation ceremony on Alamo Plaza promises to afford one of the greatest spectacles of the festival. Elaborate plans for the occasion are being made by the Gran Quivera.

The allegorical parade will be Tuesday's big public attraction. Tuesday night the first performance of the fiesta fete will be given. In addition, there will be carnival shows and band concerts for the entertainment of visitors.

Civic Parade Wednesday.

For Wednesday afternoon the civic parade is in prospect. It will move at 4 o'clock. Designed to show the commercial and industrial growth of the community, the parade has assumed larger proportions from year to year. The second performance of the fiesta fete is on the program for Wednesday night.

Titanic, queen of the ocean, will be crowned Thursday night. She will be surrounded by duchesses of her court and the twenty or more visiting duchesses from Texas cities and towns. The queen's coronation is regarded as one of the most beautiful and impressive spectacles known to the United States. Arrangements are also being made for an automobile parade Thursday night.

The Battle of Flowers parade will occupy attention Friday afternoon. For Saturday night a burlesque parade is planned.

FILLY TO BE NAMED AFTER PRETTIEST GIRL

O. G. PARKS TO USE THIS NOVEL METHOD AT MID-WINTER RACE MEET.

San Antonio, Tex., Jan. 27.—An unique honor will be accorded the prettiest girl in the grand stand at the opening program of the San Antonio Mid-winter Race Meet, which starts a thirty-day season next Saturday afternoon at the fair grounds. With her permission, a beautiful thoroughbred bay filly is to become the namesake of the girl.

The little filly has never been named, for she is only two years old and will make her maiden effort at the local meet. She is scheduled to enter the fifth race and her owner, O. G. Parks, of Kerrville, has appealed to the race managers to help him name the pet of his string. The managers have worked out a plan by which the prettiest fan in the grand stand will be selected.

Special Religious Notice.

Sunday, Jan. 30, being the Fifth Sunday in the month there will be services at the St. Peter's Episcopal Church at 10:30 a. m. Bishop Johnston will preach a sermon which will be a sequel to the sermons that were preached by Bishop Capers last week. The subject: "What Willst Thou Have Me to Do." All members of the Episcopal Church are especially urged to be present.

This case was brought to Kerr County on a change of venue from Bandera County. It was tried in Bandera County and resulted each time in a mistrial, and was postponed at the last regular term of the Kerr County District Court.

FILMS TO SHOW INDUSTRIES IN THE SOUTHWEST

ADVANCEMENT OF TEXAS TO BE PORTRAYED IN MOVING PICTURES IN THE NORTH.

Austin, Tex., Jan. 25.—One of the largest educational campaigns ever attempted which is calculated to disabuse the erroneous impression prevalent in the North and East regarding "wild and woolly" is to be launched in the State soon.

Fred W. Davis, Commissioner of Agriculture; C. Klaerner, State Librarian, and Stucelar Mooreland, Architect, besides other State officials, will co-operate with 150 counties of Texas and the Paragon Feature Film Company of Omaha, Neb., and New York, N. Y., in filming 50,000 feet of "Texas as It is Today." This film which will consist of 800,000 pictures taken of Texas scenes will be shown in the largest cities of fifteen of the Northern and Eastern States free of charge. New York City, Chicago, St. Louis and many other of the leading cities of the United States will be included in this schedule.

Film Returned to Texas.

Upon completion of this circuit, which will include 190 nights covering fifty cities, no one of which will have a population of less than 40,000 people, the film will be returned to Texas and become the property of the State Library and Historical Commission, Architect Department, Austin, Tex. It will be the largest motion picture project covering one subject which has ever been attempted.

As a result of showing these moving pictures in the North, the Northern farmer will have the illusion obliterated that Texans walk around with six shooters in their belts, and that pitch battles occur in the principal streets of the cities. Instead of this he will find that the Texan is as progressive and as up-to-date as anyone in the North. The Northern farmer further will learn that the various industries in Texas are on a par with anything found in the Northern and Eastern States, and in many instances the Middle Eastern industries are surpassed in Texas.

CATTLEMEN TO MEET AT BI-CENTENNIAL

FIRST CONVENTION FOR 1918 FAIR ANNOUNCED AT MEETING WEDNESDAY.

San Antonio, Tex., Jan. 27.—The first National convention to be scheduled during San Antonio's Bi-Centennial Exposition in 1918, is that of the American National Live Stock Association. The association is now in session at El Paso and Wednesday Col. De T. Pryor of San Antonio introduced and had passed unanimously a resolution giving the heartiest endorsement to the exposition and practically pledging the 1918 convention of the association.

A telegram acquainting the delegates to the jubilee of the fact that the first National convention had been assured was read Wednesday afternoon to the meeting. Many expressed the opinion that other National and State organizations will meet here during the exposition.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to express our sincere thanks and appreciation for the great kindness shown us during the illness and at the death of our beloved mother, Mrs. Margaret Henderson.

Gratefully,
HER SONS.

NEXT MONTH WILL BE BUSY ONE FOR STUDENTS

LITERARY SOCIETY PROGRAMS AND WASHINGTON BIRTHDAY EXERCISES TO BE HELD.

The Indian and Barbarian Literary Societies of the Kerrville High School are preparing preliminary contests on the 24th and 25th of February in declamation, oration, debate, spelling, piano solo and chorus singing. The successful contestant in each of these events will represent their society in that event in the final contest which will be held some time in April, and the successful contestants in the latter will be given a gold medal. Each event will count five points and the society winning the greatest number of points in the finals will be given a championship cup and the society winning this cup two years in succession will become permanent owners of the cup.

Both the preliminaries and the final contests will be in the nature of a contest and an entertainment, the members of both societies wearing costumes appropriate for these two hostile tribes. The interest is growing and the enthusiasm is running very high in the camps of these two war-like bands.

In the preliminaries there will be eight declaimers, two in oration, two in piano solo, and four in debate, six spellers; for the Barbarians four declaimers, two in oration, two in piano solo, four in debate and six spellers. All these contestants have been assigned to the different teachers for training and both the teachers and pupils are working diligently to render the best program of its kind that has ever been given by the Kerrville pupils.

Individual Responsibility More Than Three Million Dollars

The coming and going of the seasons makes little change in the manner in which this institution is conducted. For almost half a century we have followed the policy of conservatism, of courteous treatment to our customers, and the line of financial safety in all our dealings.

The Year 1916 finds us pursuing the same course. There has been, of course, one great change in the business in its long career, and that is that it has increased largely in magnitude, and the strength of the bank has become great financially, and the confidence of the people has grown accordingly.

We are still offering the same service that has made this a prosperous banking house, and are able to add to this excellent service abundant financial accommodation to our customers. A cordial invitation is extended to you to do your banking business with us.

Washington's Birthday Program.
Washington's Birthday will be celebrated by the Kerrville Public Schools with a patriotic program, consisting of songs, choruses, drills, marches, pantomimes, recitations and minnets.

There will be flag salute on the grounds as the large flag (15x25) is hoisted on the large flag pole in front of the High School. About six hundred flags will be used on the occasion and the Auditorium will be beautifully decorated for the event.

The public is cordially invited to this celebration for it promises to be one of the most interesting programs that the children will give during the year. The program follows:

1. Song—America.
2. Bible Reading.
3. Invocation.
4. Patriotic Coundrums—First Grade.
5. Birthday Candles—First Grade.
6. Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean.
7. The Drummer Boy—Second Grade.
8. The Star Spangled Banner.
9. Wave Old Glory—Action Song—Third Grade.

Mrs. W. M. Henderson Passes Away.
On last Sunday morning, Mrs. W. M. Henderson was taken from this life into a better one.

She had been in failing health since the death of her husband, W. M. Henderson, about a year ago.

She is survived by three sons, Mr. J. A. Henderson of Sand; Mr. J. W. Henderson of Fredericksburg; and Mr. J. C. Henderson of Kerrville, all of whom were here.

Mrs. Henderson was devoted member of the Presbyterian Church, in which her husband and two sons were officers.

Of her it may well be said, "For those who live as seeing Him who is invisible there is no death, for death is entrance into life more abundant." The funeral was conducted by Rev. W. P. Dickey on Monday, the 24th. Interment was in Glen Rest Cemetery.

SNAP SHOTS

No man should think in terms of profanity. A hero is a man who dares to fight his bad habits in the open. A close shave is not so bad, provided one does not lose his head. When an old man grows tired of the world he can study astronomy. The flamboyant cravat may not be artistic, but it sometimes wins the girl. It is better for one to worry a little than to throw it all off on somebody else. It seems that starvation itself can not make some people either settle up or settle down. Some families are submerged because either water families or water families married a stranger. About the easiest and surest way to commit suicide is to hop in and take a ride with a drunk chauffeur. To lessen the power of the war spirit of man, probably the best thing to do would be to reduce the size of the latter's gizzard.

FOR RHEUMATISM

As soon as an attack of Rheumatism begins apply Sloan's Liniment. Don't waste time and suffer unnecessary agony. A few drops of Sloan's Liniment on the affected parts is all you need. The pain goes at once. A grateful sufferer writes:—"I was suffering for three weeks with Chronic Rheumatism and Stiff Neck, although I tried many medicines, they failed, and I was under the care of a doctor. Fortunately I heard of Sloan's Liniment and after using it three or four days am up and well. I am employed at the biggest department store in S. F., where they employ from six to eight hundred hands, and they surely will hear about Sloan's Liniment.—H. H. Smith, San Francisco, Cal.—Jan., 1915. At all Drugists." An apparatus invented in England for preserving fish in carbonic acid gas under pressure is said to keep them perfectly fresh for at least six months.

HALF A BILLION DOLLARS TOTAL OF TEXAS LIVE STOCK

GOVERNMENT FIGURES SHOW NEARLY FOURTEEN MILLION HEAD IN FARM ANIMALS.

In horses, mules, cattle, sheep and swine Texas is worth $438,325,000. There are 13,858,000 head, an increase of 736,000 head over 1914. These are the figures just made public by the Government.

The summary of estimates of numbers and values of live stock on farms and ranches on January 1 for the State of Texas and for the United States, compiled by the Bureau of Crop Estimates (and transmitted through the Weather Bureau), United States Department of Agriculture, received by The Sun, is as follows:

Horses—Texas: Number, 1,180,000, compared with 1,192,000 a year ago and 1,147,000 five years ago. Value per head, $78, compared with $78 a year ago and $80 five years ago. Total value now $92,040,000.

United States: Number, 21,200,000, compared with 21,195,000 a year ago and 20,277,000 five years ago. Value per head, $101.60, compared with $103.33 a year ago and $111.45 five years ago.

United States: Number, 4,560,000, compared with 4,479,000 a year ago and 4,323,000 five years ago. Value per head, $113.87, compared with $112.36 a year ago and $125.92 five years ago.

Milch cows—Texas: Number, 1,120,000, compared with 1,086,000 a year ago and 1,034,000 five years ago. Value per head, $51, compared with $47.50 a year ago and $34 five years ago. Total value now $57,120,000.

United States: Number, 22,900,000, compared with 21,262,000 a year ago and 20,823,000 five years ago. Value per head, $53.90, compared with $55.33 a year ago and $49.97 five years ago.

Other cattle—Texas: Number, 5,430,000, compared with 5,217,000 a year ago and 5,507,000 five years ago. Value per head, $32.10, compared with $31.70 a year ago and $16.70 five years ago. Total value now $179,733,000.

United States: Number, 39,500,000, compared with 37,070,000 a year ago and 39,679,000 five years ago. Value per head, $33.49, compared with $33.38 a year ago and $20.57 five years ago.

Sheep—Texas: Number, 2,160,000, compared with 2,114,000 a year ago and 1,954,000 five years ago. Value per head, $3.70, compared with $3.20 a year ago and $2.83 five years ago. Total value now $7,992,000.

United States: Number, 49,200,000, compared with 49,956,000 a year ago and 53,632,000 five years ago. Value per head, $5.17, compared with $4.50 a year ago and $3.91 five years ago.

Pigs—Texas: Number, 3,200,000, compared with 2,880,000 a year ago and 2,570,000 five years ago. Value per head, $7.70, compared with $9 a year ago and $7.70 five years ago. Total value now, $24,640,000.

United States: Number, 65,000,000, compared with 64,618,000 a year ago and 65,620,000 five years ago. Value per head, $8.40, compared with $9.87 a year ago and $9.37 five years ago.

PROHIBITION CONVENTION SET FOR MARCH 13, 1916

Dallas, Tex., Jan. 24.—The dates for the 1916 State prohibition convention were set as March 13, 14 and 15 by the executive committee of the Texas Anti-Saloon League in a meeting here at noon. Rev. Dr. S. H. C. Burgin, a Dallas minister, was chosen to fill a vacancy on the executive board of the league.

"Four cities are being considered as possible places where the convention may be held," said Dr. A. J. Barton, superintendent of the league.

Two Years for Guns.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 25.—The first of the new 16-inch mobile howitzers cannot be delivered to the army for two years. Before the House Military Committee today Brigadier General Crozier, chief of ordnance, said it would take nine months to complete designs for the guns and another year to make the first gun for testing. Ordnance experts also are preparing to construct twenty-six 16-inch rifles, to be mounted in turrets as part of the fixed fortifications.

SECURITY LEAGUE APPLAUDS CALL-TO-ARMS SPEECH

DELEGATES TOLD NATION IS ASTIR AND THAT THERE IS NEW AWAKENING.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 22.—A call to the American people to arm themselves "against a day fast coming," when they may need to fight, was sounded in stirring speeches before the first congress of the National Security League, held January 20. It was greeted with continued and enthusiastic applause by the several hundred manufacturers, publicists, merchants, lawyers and others gathered for the congress.

Robert Bacon, former Secretary of State, brought the audience to its feet when in appealing to Americans to relieve their National consciousness that the country may assume its rightful place in the society of nations, he declared:

"The Nation is astir with a new feeling; there is an awakening throughout the land. The call for America to save the Americans is sounding from house to house and from city to city like that call which on April 18, in '75, went through every Middlesex village and farm, and I believe the answer will be as strong and clear as it was then."

Theodore Roosevelt's name was loudly cheered. His sister, Mrs. Theodore Douglas Robinson, read to the gathering a letter in which he said he regarded the proposed continental army as a sham which would be merely an inefficient rival to the National Guard; that the navy program was a "paper program entirely inadequate to our needs," and that military preparedness should be required "as a matter of right, not as a matter of favor," of all American citizens.

Colonel Roosevelt likened the United States failure to take other action than diplomatic negotiations over the loss of American lives by submarine warfare, to a man whose wife's face was slapped on the street and who took no other action than to tell her to stay at home.

Miss Maude E. Wetmore, chairman of the woman's section of the National Civic Federation, told the congress that "no woman who brings up her children on a policy that she did not raise her boy to be a soldier has a right to the protection of another woman's son."

Like E. Wright, Secretary of War in Roosevelt's Cabinet, declared that the country had reversed the policy "Speak softly and carry a big stick" by "speaking loudly and carrying a stuffed club."

"It was time, he said, for adequate preparedness to meet what might come after the European war if for no other purpose than to "make good our recent vaunt, 'America for Americans,'" and to uphold the Monroe Doctrine, as "prolific of fights as a barrel of red liquor."

Mr. Wright said it was possible the United States might have to fight England after the present war because "if there is anything that makes an Englishman peevish it is to disturb his trade."

The present preparedness program, he said, was a step in the right direction, "but a mighty short step."

"The entire program," he continued, "is based on two fundamental thoughts, both of which seem to me wrong. The first is the thought that you can make a soldier while you wait; the second is the thought that you can get all the volunteers you want."

SURF BATHING NOVELTY FOR WINTER TOURISTS

Port Lavaca, Tex., Jan. 22.—With the mercury down to 27 degrees and a stiff north wind blowing, Adolph Roemer Jr. and L. D. Hackney of this place took a dip in the bay this morning before 8 o'clock.

The performance was somewhat of a novelty to a number of winter tourists here, but old fishermen recounted numerous incidents of being in the water with their suits at an even lower temperature. In proof of this more than 2,000 pounds of fish this caught were marketed here today.

The Habit of Taking Cold.

With many people taking cold is a habit, but fortunately one that is easily broken. Take a cold sponge bath every morning when you first get out of bed—not ice cold, but a temperature of about 90 degrees F. Also sleep with your window up. Do this and you will seldom take cold. When you do take cold take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and get rid of it as quickly as possible. Obtainable everywhere.

INDEPENDENCE FOR PHILIPPINES IN FOUR YEARS

Washington, D. C., Jan. 24.—Granting of independence to the Philippine Islands in not less than two years and not more than four years may be favored by the Wilson Administration.

Senator Hitchcock, chairman of the Senate Philippine Committee, discussed with President Wilson late today a provision to the effect which Senator Clarke of Arkansas had introduced as an amendment to the pending Philippine bill.

After conferring with the President, Senator Hitchcock, while he would not say what the President had told him, indicated it was probable the amendment would have the Administration's support. He said he would have to talk with other Senators before deciding definitely as to whether the change would be accepted. The President previously opposed another amendment proposed by Senator Clarke, proposing independence for the Philippines within two years.

Train Falls in Creek.

Comfort News: On Wednesday morning as the S. A. & A. P. mixed train, westbound from San Antonio, was crossing the high bridge across Joshua Creek between Welfare and Waring, seven box cars left the rails and fell from the bridge into the bed of the creek, a distance of about thirty feet.

The locomotive and the first three cars of the train had gotten across the bridge before the derailment occurred, and the express-baggage car and the passenger coach at the rear end of the train came to a stop just as they reached the bridge, and consequently remained on the rails.

Five of the cars which fell from the bridge alighted upside down. One of them was the supply car carrying general supplies for the stations along the line, and in this car was the supply clerk, Oscar Strable. After the accident he was extracted from the debris of the car in an unconscious condition, and was placed on the locomotive and rushed to Comfort where Dr. C. C. Jones, surgeon for the Sap, gave him medical aid. His injuries were found to consist of scalp wounds and a bruised arm, and he was able to be up soon after his wounds had been dressed.

The six cars which fell into the creek with the supply car contained miscellaneous freight, much of which was damaged and scattered about the wreck.

Several hours after the accident, the locomotive left Comfort for the scene of the wreck, and returned somewhat later with the three undamaged box cars, and the mail bags which were carried across the creek from the mail car on the far side.

The bridge was so badly damaged that several days elapsed before it was put into condition to carry a train. In the meantime passengers, mail and express matter was transferred from the train at one end of the bridge to the train at the other end.

GIGANTIC GAS WELL Baffles Experts

WHITE POINT WELL BURNS FOR DAYS, GOES OUT AND BECOMES VOLCANO.

Corpus Christi, Tex., Jan. 22.—The huge gasser of the Guffey Company at White Point, eight miles from here, whose queer antics for the past three weeks have baffled gas experts, and which has been on fire since last Monday, furnished another thrill this afternoon.

The fire of its own volition was quenched and tonight from the crater forty feet high boulders, mud and gas are being belched hundreds of feet into the air.

The huge gasser burned until 3 o'clock, making such terrific heat that it was impossible to get nearer than two hundred feet, the flames going into the air for more than three hundred feet.

All vegetation within half a mile of the well has been killed and the ground around is covered with heavy coatings of mud and sand. Thousands visited the field today.

Aransas Interested.

Aransas Pass, Tex., Jan. 22.—Hundreds of people here last night viewed the illumination of the monster gas well burning at White Point, about twenty-five miles from this city. The flames could be seen plainly and the roaring distinctly heard. Visitors from different portions of the State and elsewhere have visited the burning gasser every day during the past week.

Visible Sixty Miles Away.

George West, Tex., Jan. 22.—A great light in the southern sky was a source of wonder to the inhabitants here last night until it was learned that it was the big gasser, on fire near Corpus Christi, which was illuminating the heavens and plainly visible at this point, sixty miles from the bay.

AERIAL COAST PATROL PLAN TAKING FORM

AERO CLUB OF AMERICA ENDORSES PROJECT ADVANCED BY ADMIRAL PEARY.

New York, Jan. 24.—Read Admiral Robert E. Peary's plan to establish aerial coast patrols on the Atlantic and Pacific seaboard and along the great lakes, to be used in time of peace as an adjunct to the coast guard and life saving service, and in time of war as an expedient for defense, took definite form here yesterday when the Aero Club of America authorized him to organize a committee of army, navy and state militia authorities to further the project.

Letters, it was announced, have been written to the Secretaries of War and the Navy and also to the superintendent of the United States coast and geodetic survey in Washington, inviting their co-operation.

Portland, Me., according to officials of the club, already has raised a fund of $10,000 for establishing a unit of the patrol system. Campaigns to raise the necessary funds in other coast cities are said to be under way. The Aero Club has offered to add 10 per cent to any sum raised before February 1.

Rear Admiral Peary's plan is to divide the entire coast into sections of one hundred miles and in each section establish and equip a hangar and repair station, with at least one sea plane.

THIS IS THE AGE OF STEAM

American Steam Pressing Machine

The age of steam and the age of electricity have lapped over and interlocked. While electrical inventions are startling the world, the appliance of steam has not yet exhausted its possibilities. The Steam Garment Press, a cut of which is shown herewith, is the latest in application of steam to the service of mankind. With the use of this machine one man does the work of several in the old hand pressing way. Not only does it save this labor, but it does the work better, is more sanitary, and does not damage the garment like the old hand rubbing does.

We will have one of these machines in operation in our shop in a few days, and shall be pleased to have our customers and friends come in and see it in operation.

MONEY AND ITS MAKING.

To make money is comparatively easy. To save it is more difficult. To make it grow is a problem.

And not all of us are able to solve the problem.

But if ever there was a time when we faced the opportunities for making money grow, that time is now.

Everybody knows that the prosperity of the Nation depends primarily upon the farmer and his crops. If he plants in large acreages, and nature is good to him, his yield is bountiful and he becomes the harbinger of an era of prosperity.

When the farmer is plentifully supplied with funds he wants new machinery and more machinery, and the making of these gives employment to millions of people.

These people in turn have money to spend and the merchant begins to increase the volume of his business and gather in greater profits.

And as it is with these, so it is all down the line and extending into every industry and into every home.

The making of money by the people of this community the coming year will depend greatly upon the farmers and ranchmen of our community.

The year to come will witness a tremendous demand for farm and ranch products. This demand will come from every section of the globe and the buyer pays in gold.

The opportunity for making money is before you—the greatest you have ever seen, possibly greater than you will ever see again.

You, the farmers and ranchmen, are our mainstay—our backbone—the men upon whom we all depend, to whom we all turn as the child turns to its mother.

Your success will be our success, your prosperity our prosperity, your advancement our advancement.

You are the men of the hour, and the opportunity is before you.

Your smile is charming—keep it up.

The ups and downs of business are principally ups now.

Don't waste time talking about prosperity. Grab it!

Is your wife a jewel? Tell her so. Tell her so, anyway.

We might add a little spice to life by turning Teddy loose on Villa.

Hail to sweet womanhood! Without her we wouldn't have any kind of a hood.

Man proposes, woman supposes, dad opposes, the lawyer exposes, and the judge deposes.

Big business is on the boom. So is little business. So is all kinds of business. So are you.

Load up with a groch if you like, but shake out a smilla before you come into our grin factory.

Don't worry about the mistakes of yesterday. Oil up your think works and avoid making any more of them today.

It is probable that the people who start all the rumors of peace propositions in Europe think it is all right to lie in a good cause.

Any fellow can cure himself of the habit of vilifying other people if he wants to. But most people are too absorbed in the art of vilification to want to.

We don't know whether it is a lack of feminine courage, or an evidence of masculine obstinacy, or whether it "just happened," but the fact remains so far not a single leap year wedding has been reported in this community.

If you have a little hard luck: keep your trap shut. Nobody cares. If they think you're prosperous they will help you in the hope of skinning you some time. If they think you are broke they will kick you, to keep you from trying to touch them.

John Garner got in the spotlight good recently. A New York publication insisted that if Garner was guilty of using certain language his constituents should hang him. If people got hanged for saying things there would not be a Congressman left in America in a week.

For a Great Army and Navy.

State Topics: Unthinking people argue that because we are at peace with the whole world, we should let well enough alone and continue to walk in quiet and peaceful paths regardless of what the future may have in store; in a word, these people create a Fool's Paradise. Europe is now engaged in a life or death struggle, so we have nothing to fear from that quarter in the immediate future, but the results of that war may mean a lot of the most serious trouble for us later on. No matter which wins or which loses, there is bound to be a great struggle to regain many of the important things that each has lost. Germany has lost her trade and commerce and has had her colonies taken from her. England has nominal control of the high seas, but that is more than offset by her loss of control of the world's finances. England is no longer the World's Banker. If the Pan-American idea materializes and becomes a genuine and powerful, friendly, compact between the South American Republics and the United States, there is every reason for believing that the trade of those countries south of us, which has hitherto been controlled by Germany, England and France, will come to us. We are preparing for that trade, too, for every ship yard in this country is working day and night turning out vessels for our merchant marine. The man must be blind who does not see the ultimate result of such worldwide changes as these, nearly every one of them fraught with matters of vital importance to the future well-being of the contending Nations of Europe. Germany has everything to recover; her commerce, her trade and her foreign markets. England and France have lost heavily, and in the case of England, her loss is appalling. She has lost her prestige as the financial center of the world; her supreme command of the sea and about everything else that made for her greatness. We have secured all these things or are on our way towards securing them. With these facts before them can any reasonable person doubt that the first acts of the warring Nations will be attempts to recover these things, the moment peace is declared? That means that there is a world of danger for use in the future. Our prosperity is great and our prominence as a world-power, overwhelming. Both have sprung into being like mushrooms, things of the moment, but we intend making them permanent. We will be viewed with envious and covetous eyes by all Europe, and the least excuse will be seized on to attack us, either openly or otherwise. We have suddenly become the world's workshop and treasure-house and have had thrust upon us, in a moment, greatness and power that it has taken other Nations centuries to acquire. It is folly for us to think that we will be allowed to remain in peaceful possession of so much that other Nations need and most have, or that we can perpetuate peace by merely feeling no ill-will towards any other Nation. Such complacent folly as that will never prevent them from trying to crush us. The plain truth is that we have suddenly become the greatest power on earth and, unless we are a Nation of idiots, will prepare to hold our own both on land and sea against all comers, bar none. As remarked by State Topics some days ago, a few billions spent now on our army and navy may save us the humiliation of having to pay a few trillions in tribute, later on, to some inferior Nation that has had the wisdom of providing a greater army and navy than ours.

It is reported that a bride and groom were smothered to death by the fumes of an automobile engine. We always said automobiles were dangerous things.

An eminent writer has said that we are physically, morally and mentally what our thoughts make us. Good! With this as an aid and a guide we ought to be able to diagnose the thoughts of every one in town.

With some women frantically demanding the vote, and other women vociferously and contemptuously denouncing it, how in tartarion is a mere "it" of a man to decide without sinking in either the mud or the mire?

Thermometer reported eighty below at Richardson, Wash. Now, shut up howling because you have to buy a little wood. If you lived in that country your wife wouldn't get up and make the fire mornings.

If the Panama Canal keeps sliding into itself and the Government keeps hauling it out and throwing it into the sea, by and by it will be so wide that a skiff can get down the middle of it without running aground.

Same old story again. An Oak Park, Ill. man owns $2,000,000. His son wanted the money and plotted to kill his parents. Since they are prominent people the world he never is pronounced "mentally unbalanced." Of course, to be sure, etc.

We expect to be offering the public the very best kind of service in the Drug line—If a Drug Store sells it—we do. We appreciated your 1915 business and solicit your 1916 trade.

DEMONSTRATION WORK IN TICK ERADICATION

Washington, D. C. Jan. 22.—As a result of ten years' experience in tick eradication, the Federal officials in charge of the campaign are convinced that the hearty co-operation of the people themselves is absolutely essential to success. The Department of Agriculture's representatives in the field, therefore, have been warned of the danger of beginning systematic work in any county before public opinion is ready to lend vigorous support to the enterprise. It frequently happens that a few of the more progressive farmers are earnest advocates of tick eradication, while the rest of the community may be either indifferent or actually hostile. In a number of instances in the past when tick eradication has been begun under these circumstances it has been found necessary, after two or three years, for the Federal Government to withdraw its men because the results of their work were, to a great extent, nullified by popular indifference. To make a success of eradication, all cattle in the county must be dipped regularly. In practice, this is only possible when the great majority of the people are so strongly in favor of the work that they will insist upon the enforcement of the necessary regulations.

Recent instructions sent out from Washington to the men in charge of the infested regions directed them to procure a list of voters in any county in which there were manifestations of local interest in tick eradication. Circular letters and pamphlets explaining the evil of the tick and the possibility of its elimination are then to be sent to this list.

The next step is to arrange for practical demonstrations of dipping. Since the Federal Department has no funds at its disposal for the purpose, the construction of demonstration vats must be undertaken either by the local authorities or by one or more public-spirited and progressive stock owners. The cost of building a vat is comparatively small, and it has been found that these practical demonstrations are by far the most effective method of convincing farmers that the tick can be eradicated without any injury whatsoever to live stock. As soon as the vats are built, a number of demonstrations should be held in order to give all the people of the county an opportunity to see for themselves that dipping does no injury to cattle. There is a widespread belief among the less informed stock owners in the tick-infested regions that the arsenic in the dipping vats poisons cattle and dries up milk cows. This erroneous notion may be easily dispelled if arrangements are made for holding the dipped cattle on exhibition for a few days.

After a series of such demonstrations, meetings of farmers are held and the benefits of tick eradication explained. Ordinarily, these meetings lead to the organization of county live stock associations, which have been found very influential factors in promoting eradication. It is customary for these associations to apply to the County Board for the materials for the vats and for the chemicals used in the baths. Until satisfactory arrangements have been made in this or some similar way for the construction of sufficient vats to accommodate all the cattle in the county without driving them long distances, the time is not ripe to undertake active eradication work. In most instances the law requires that before such work is undertaken the county should vote for it in a special election. Even where no election is actually required, the moral effect of the expression of the people's will is greatly to be desired.

Systematic eradication work means the dipping of all cattle in the county every 14 days in a standard arsenical solution. If this regulation is rigidly enforced, one season should see the elimination of the ticks and the freeing of the county from urasthine. Every dipping, however, should be supervised by regularly appointed inspectors and the arsenical solution should be tested and made of standard strength each time that the vat is used. Furthermore, care should be taken to account for each cow in the territory in which the vat is located. A few neglected animals will afford a refuge for the tick and, in time, undo all that has been accomplished by the dipping of others.

The regulations necessarily involve some inconvenience to cattle owners. As has already been said, therefore, before active work is undertaken, it is essential that public sentiment be brought to a point where the inconvenience is cheerfully put up with. In general, one to two years' preliminary work is sufficient for this purpose. The free use of demonstration vats will do much toward shortening the period and increasing enthusiasm for the active work that is to follow.

A stitch in time may close the mouths of nine gossips.

There is glory in any little thing that you do simply from a sense of duty.

One of the funniest things in the world is an old woman with pants on.

Speaking of courtesy, nobody is talking to us. We say "good mawin'" with a glad smile to everything we meet—jackasses and wooden Indians included.

Our esteemed friend and contemporary, Major Mose Harris, of the Texas Republic, is a man of fine discernment. His discovery that the Hill Country produces an occasional jackass of unusual, not to say abnormal proportions, approaches very nearly to prescience.

A New Departure.

Nobody questions that the automobile has come to stay. There never was anything in the way of transportation that made such wonderful progress and improvement. Perhaps the very greatest step in the way of improved motor cars is found in The Chevrolet. This new car/comprises all the comfort, elegance and service to be desired, and still the price is moderate.

The Texas Star Garage is agent for Kerr and Edwards Counties. They received this week a double-deck car of Chevrolets, including the beautiful "Baby Grand." This is the first double-deck car load of automobiles that ever came to Kerr County. Manager Saucier states that his company is now in better condition than ever before to serve the people.

They are ready at any time to demonstrate Chevrolet cars. With J. J. Adams, the well known mechanic, at the head of the shop, they feel that no better repair service can be offered in this section of Texas, or elsewhere for that matter.

Grand Ball for Kerrville

The ballroom floor shimmering under the subdued reflections from vari-colored lamps; the soft strains of dance music floating from the graceful screens of ferns and palms; the steady shuffle of myriad feet of fluffy-gowned misses and stately dames, guided by stalwart young partners; the beam of happy faces and the murmur of subdued conversation—but that isn't the kind of ball we mean at all. This ball which we have furnished and started rolling is a supply of clean, wholesome groceries and produce at right prices. Now, it's up to every body to get behind the ball and push. We furnish it, you keep it moving.—Berry's Grocery and Produce House. Phone 182.

Methodist Church Notes.

Rev. A. E. Rector, field secretary of Sunday School work for this Conference, was present last Sunday and preached at 11 o'clock. A liberal offering was secured for Sunday School extension.

In the afternoon, fifteen members of the congregation motored to Center Point and attended the afternoon session of the Sunday School Institute, conducted by Rev. A. E. Rector and Rev. E. Hightower.

The ladies of the Church served dinner on Tuesday and Wednesday, netting about $50.00 as the result of their labors.

Rev. J. H. Groseclose, presiding elder of this district, will hold quarterly Conference Saturday night at 7:30 o'clock and will preach at both morning and night services. He is a forceful and attractive preacher, and the public is cordially invited to worship next Sunday with us.

You've hit the right tobacco

when you fire-up some Prince Albert in your old jimmy pipe or in a makin's cigarette. And you know it! Can't get in wrong with P. A. for it is made right; made to spread-smoke-sunshine among men who have suffered with scorched tongues and parched throats! The patented process fixes that—and cuts out bite and parch. All day long you'll sing how glad you are you're pals with the national joy smoke

You take this testimony straight from the shoulder, men. You can smoke a barrel of P. A. without a kick! It hands out all the tobacco happiness any man ever dreamed about, it's so smooth and friendly. It's a mighty cheerful thing to be on talking-terms with your pipe and your tongue at the same time—but that's what's coming to you sure as you pin your faith to Prince Albert!

R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO CO., Winston-Salem, N. C.

It's an easy job to change the shape and color of unsalable brands to imitate the Prince Albert tidy red tin, but it is impossible to imitate the flavor of Prince Albert tobacco! The patented process protects that!

Everywhere tobacco is sold you'll find Prince Albert awaiting your cheerful visit. Buy it in toppy red bags, 5c; tidy red tins, 10c; handsome pound and half-pound humidor—and—in that classy pound crystal-glass humidor with sponge-moistener top that keeps the tobacco so fit!

CATHOLIC CHURCH NOTES

BY FATHER KEMPER

The supper which the ladies of St. Mary's parish have been obliged to postpone several times for weighty reasons will take place definitely this evening, from 5 p. m. onward, in Washington Hall of Notre Dame Institute. The delicious menu comprises roast beef, chicken salad, pickles, potatoes, cheese-straws, cake, bread and butter, coffee or chocolate. A bountiful meal will be served for only 25 cents! You are bound, therefore to get your money's worth; to say nothing about the helping hand you thereby give to a very deserving cause. Orders for delivery will be cheerfully filled. A fine assortment of home-made candles will be on sale, while it lasts, in the school auditorium.

Tomorrow afternoon, after the public Bible Class (2:30 p. m.) and the Benediction service (3 p. m.), the Senior Branch of the Sacred Heart League will hold their monthly meeting, preparatory to the First Friday in February (4th), when solemn functions will take place in St. Mary's at 7:15 a. m. At the same morning hour the special liturgy for Candlemas-day will be observed on the feast of the Purification, Feb. 2nd. The sacrifice of the altar will be offered at the Guadalupe Church on Thursday at 8:30 a. m., but nevertheless the ritual for St. Blasius day will be carried out previously in the American congregation.

The more advanced students of Notre Dame Institute organized a reading circle Monday, which they called the Brownson Literary Society, in honor of one of the greatest American philosophers and essayists, Mr. Orestes A. Brownson, whose body lies buried at "the big Notre Dame University" in Indiana. Officers were elected, regulations were outlined, and at once a collection of one hundred bound volumes was gathered as a nucleus. On Wednesday evening this auspicious beginning was celebrated by the members with a cake and chocolate luncheon.

Miss Earl Newton gave a card party at her home in the early part of the week.

On Tuesday morning, Mrs. Anna Jung, mother of Mrs. Lee Brandon, and for years a member of our parish, died at Fredericksburg.

Mr. August Grube, founder of the city of Muenster, Tex., is making an indefinite stay at St. Charles Hotel.

On account of a severe attack of grippe, Mrs. Edw. L. Mason transferred her apartments to Bon Air, where the family of Mr. Wm. Metzger is also staying. Miss Josephine Hauck and Mr. Brucks of Hondo are also recent arrivals.

JUST FOUR: READ ANALYSIS

You do just four things. You think; you remember; you imagine; you act. When you learn to think better, remember better, imagine better or act better, you are increasing your efficiency, and, therefore, your income. You may feel that you are very successful now. Suppose you are; it isn't a question of what you know, but of how beneficial a practical business education will be to you in addition to what you already know. You will agree with us that to violate a part of the laws of business means partial failure, and to violate all the laws means complete failure. You are also aware that to observe part of the laws of business means partial success, and to observe all the laws means complete success. Our aim is to help you observe a higher per cent of the laws of business success. The late Prof. James of Harvard declares that the average man only uses ten per cent of his brain power. Suppose you are twice as capable as the average man? Even that would mean you are only twenty per cent of your maximum possibilities. The purpose of our course is to produce a maximum of proficiency with a minimum effort. Did you ever stop to think that eighty-five per cent of the men of this country are only earning $15 a week or less? That ninety-two per cent fail in business between the ages of 40 and 50? That ninety-five per cent have no money at the age of 60? We have been very successful in getting men out of the eighty-five, the ninety-two and the ninety-five per cent class. Why not let us help you? We have been marvelously successful in raising salaries, as is conclusively proven by the letters in our catalogue from former students. The business world wants thinkers and doers. There's a famine of high priced men today; there are thousands of men worth a thousand dollars a year, but only a few worth ten thousand a year. Be the latter kind of a man, you can if you will. We know that a man is worth only about $2.00 a day from the chin down, selling muscle, but as high as a hundred thousand dollars a year from the chin up, selling brains. Be a chin upper and sell brains; but remember you must get them before you can sell them. Take our thorough, practical courses of Bookkeeping, Shorthand, Stenotypewriting, Cotton Clipping, Business Administration & Finance and Telegraphy; learn how to think, to remember, to imagine and act. We can teach you and thereby greatly increase your usefulness throughout life.

Our large catalogue is free for the asking, if you will only fill in and mail the following blank at once.

Use Doan's Kidney Pills.
Read this Boerne resident's experience:
Mrs. August Maertz, Depot Ave., Boerne, Texas, says: "My kidneys were in pretty bad condition and soon after, my back commenced to give me a lot of trouble. There was a constant dull ache through it and I had puffy spots under my eyes. Twinges in my limbs also caused annoyance. When I began using Doan's Kidney Pills, the complaint disappeared and I have felt better ever since. I always procure Doan's Kidney Pills at Wilke's Drug Store."

NO HEAVY GUNS FOR U. S. FORCES

LARGEST MOBILE HOWITZER IS PUNY BY COMPARISON WITH EUROPEAN ARMS.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 24.—The largest mobile howitzer designed thus far for the American army is only 7.8 inch caliber. Brigadier General Crozier, chief of the ordnance department, today told the House Military Committee. Only preliminary plans had been made. General Crozier said, for a 9.5-inch howitzer, and there were no designs for 16-inch howitzers such as the German 42-centimeter gun, although information from American military observers abroad indicated they were not necessary to demolish field entrenchments. General Crozier asked that the number of officers in his department be more than doubled to meet the need for designing new guns and cartridges.

Field Guns Are Needed.

The Treat Board, recently constituted in the War Department, had recommended, he said, that troops be equipped with six field guns per thousand men with provision for 3,000 rounds of ammunition per gun and that 11-inch field howitzers be selected.

General Crozier had recommended the 9.5-inch gun for the present. Instead and reduced the ammunition to 2,500 rounds per gun, bringing the cost of providing adequate reserves of guns and ammunition for four years down to $275,000,000 from the board's estimate of $450,000,000. The general staff, however, had urged 16-inch guns, with increased provisions for aircraft and put the estimated cost up again to $450,000,000. This had been reduced, General Crozier said, to $280,000,000 and Secretary Garrison now has the whole matter in his hands.

To Collect Information.

Quartermaster General McGowan, of the navy, told the House Naval Committee today about the purpose of a $20,000 appropriation the navy wants for "collection of information at home and abroad." He said the sum included the expenses of naval attacks at London, Berlin, Vienna, Rome, Petrograd, Paris, Buenos Aires, Tokio and Peking. The information sought "at home" he said, was as to available ships, sources of supply, resources of various kinds. Information, he said, of great military value.

"Naval attacks of other governments are seeking to secure the same information in this country that our attaches are seeking at foreign capitals," asked Representative Hendley. "They're trying to," replied Admiral McGowan, smilingly.

He Calls It "Spying."

"Every government has attaches at the other government capitals to find out what the other government does not want them to know?" asked Representative Hendley.

"I wish we knew here about what they are doing abroad," remarked the admiral.

"You need twice as much money for spying than last year."

"We need twice as much for acquiring information."

Bryan's Attack Out of All Reason.

Aubrey Argus.—Mr. Bryan's attack upon the plans of President Wilson is out of all reason and most sensible men among us will resent his fight at this time. Mr. Wilson has shown Mr. Bryan every courtesy and the people want preparedness and Mr. Wilson knows better than any other man in the land the need of preparedness and now as the election is upon him, Mr. Bryan's conduct as a Democrat is unpardonable. We have always liked Mr. Bryan, but we think he is going too far in his fight upon our Democratic Administration.

SERMON ON PREPAREDNESS

DR. W. P. DICKEY PREACHES AN ABLE SERMON AT PRESBY-TERIAN CHURCH.

At the Presbyterian Church, last Sunday morning, Dr. Dickey preached on the subject of "Preparedness," which is occupying the minds of all classes at this time, and is especially under discussion by the National Legislators. The substance of the sermon follows:

"Be ye therefore ready also; for the Son of man cometh in an hour when ye think not."—Luke 12:49.

The surge of events in the world has compelled our attention to serious dangers that may threaten our personal and National interests. The very same warnings that were lightly dismissed a few months ago as the hysterical talk of manufacturers or the hysteria of "Jingoes" is now heard with great concern and echoed by all classes.

"Why this difference? The dangers are not new and the warnings are not essentially different. The reason is that circumstances have caused a change in our state of mind.

There is a close analogy between our attitude toward this warning and the more vital warning of Divine grace, and also a close connection between the two.

Why Could Not We Hear?

We could not hear because of long security. For a hundred years we have lived in undisturbed enjoyment of a continent, while wide oceans rolled between us and any possible enemy. For long our situation and our conscious willingness to fight, if need be, was a sufficient protection. The sea has not changed and the spirit of our manhood has not changed, but circumstances have. Means of transportation have changed. Means of destruction have changed and the incentives to possible aggression have changed until we now see a startling possibility of danger which we are not prepared to meet.

Just so the long patience of God has led many of us to a false feeling of security and "Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the son of man is fully set in them to do evil."

Again, we could not hear because of our preoccupation.

As a Nation we were busy with subduing a continent, felling its forests, opening its mines, building railways and developing its commerce. We did not want to bother any body else. We only asked to be let alone. The remoteness of danger made us impatient of the thought of curtailing our business and incurring the expense and the discomfort and danger of preparedness.

Because of these things we shut our eyes to danger and believed what we wanted to believe.

We became cynically skeptical about politics. We came to hate the very words "duty" and responsibility. Our literature lost its compelling ideals and was written only to please and sell. Our music became "rag-time" and our religious teaching was either scorned as out of date or became the smirking prostitute of our demand for an easy balm for blasé consciences. We said to our prophets, "Prophecy smooth things for us."

Thank God, that with the horrors of the past year he has sent a fear that has begun an awakening of the moral manhood of America; that has shaken us out of our provincial complacency and made us realize that responsibilities so hard to hand with privileges and opportunities, and that some ideals and relations are more important than money or amusement or even life itself!

A mighty voice is thundering, "Prepare to meet the responsibilities of manhood."

A startled self-interest and patriotism are awaking. Shall we not awake to a higher message to a nobler voice that has long called to deaf ears urging to a manhood preparation that includes all that we need for a safe and glorious National life?

For this is no new message, but an ineludible in our experience has given startling emphasis to an old message we had wished to ignore. Our Gospel and the book from which it comes and the church it has produced have constantly cried to us for a manhood preparedness that includes all these needs of which we have become so painfully conscious.

Too Narrow a View.

We have failed to see our National Needs just as we have failed to see the value of this book because we have any conception of the political have taken too narrow a view. We or business or moral relations of nations or of the world as a whole, long relations of life.

In national and business and spiritual affairs we have been near-sighted. The question as to what would be the result of any present course in old age or in the lives of our children, much less in the future life, has been brusquely and impatiently brushed aside. We have said we were too busy with the present to bother about the future.

This short-sightedness extends to personal relations. We have largely adopted the idea that life is exclusively competitive; that each individual or group must fight for itself, care for itself, and gather for itself regardless of the wants or needs of all else.

Yet our Life Book reiterates this message, "No man liveth to himself and no man dieth to himself." It further gives a definite message and commission to every man, sending him to his neighbor, the alien, the utmost nation and even his enemy, a message of life and reconciliation. We have laughed at it as visionary and impractical. But now we are beginning to fear that though we would not concern ourselves about of the world and life geographically. We have not only lived in isolation of politics but in isolation of thought, and now one of the greatest difficulties in the way of adequate preparedness is that few of our people others, even to the extent of sending the gospel to them or practicing it toward them, there is a probability that they may interfere with us and maybe take some of our playthings away from us.

God has promised a world of righteousness and peace as the result of preaching and practicing the gospel of truth and love.

We have presumed to decide that selfishness and battleships is a better policy. He still claims to be right.

We have taken too narrow a view of the values of manhood and things.

The quality of life—manhood and womanhood—has been of less concern to us than the appearance of success, than the turn over of business, than the excitement of pleasure and the thrill of adventure.

But all the while this Life Message has been saying, "Life is more than meat and the body than raiment"; "Man doth not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God."

Is it not true that these are the very things that have made the call to a more thoughtful patriotism and a sober life and the claims of God upon us so unattractive and irksome? Calling us to look on the long result when the present is so absorbing; on distant obligations when they were so disagreeable and apparently of so little advantage to us; on looking out for the interests of others when we could make so much more by ignoring them; on thinking of character and moral interests in ourselves and others when it is so much more comfortable to let them alone. Constantly this voice has taught the things that make for sanity, that make for permanence, that make for individual and national stability of character, that make for peace and righteousness.

It has put manhood first. It has honored character more than possessions. It has sought to make good men out of bad men. It has put more profits and right before. It has taught that justice is of peace and that the worship of God-fearing men might be more than treaties of dreadnaughts.

Good Preparedness.
 We, like other men and we refused to hear this call to our highest manhood, the robber spirit is still strong in the world. We must have vaults for our treasures and police for our streets and we must be prepared to meet an enemy on our shores, but still our greatest need is Manhood Preparedness.

We must turn to him who alone can prepare a man to be his best, to be a good father, a good business man and a good citizen. We must learn from him what patriotism means in business and in the parlor and in the voting booth and when we render our taxes.

The hardest lesson for Americans to learn is the one we need most to learn, that a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the THINGS which he possesseth, and in humility to hear the Son of Man say, "Seek ye first the kingdom of God and his righteousness and all these things shall be added unto you." "Be ye also ready, for the Son of Man cometh."

TEXAS BLUEBONNET IS IN FOR EXTENSIVE FAME

San Antonio, Tex., Jan. 22.—The Texas bluebonnet, the dainty little flower that carpets the hills and valleys about San Antonio in the springtime, is in for a lot of fame. They are to be shown everywhere in the United States and Canada, almost on a calendar reproduced from a painting by Julian Onderdonk, the San Antonio artist. The oil work is a riot of color, blue predominating, with touches of red and green in other April flowers, and a cactus clump here and there.

An Indiana calendar company bought the original painting from Mr. Onderdonk and has informed the painter that many orders are coming in for the artistic treat. Houses in California, Oregon, Texas, Canada and many other States of the Union have applied for thousands. A Denton banker placed the largest order for them that the calendar company ever received, it is declared. The banker also bought the original work. The calendar will not be issued until 1917.

Mr. Onderdonk said the picture was painted on the grounds of the West Texas Military Academy last spring of a late afternoon when the tones were softening and shadows were appearing here and there. The picture is labeled, "Texas Bluebonnets," and that name will be on the calendar. The reproduction was so well done that Mr. Onderdonk said he was well pleased with it. The printing presses were so accurate that the very thorns of the cactus show, looking as if they could prick one's fingers. And it really seems the flowers might be plucked.

Mr. Onderdonk's painting "A Dusty Road at Noontime," which won extensive notice at the art exhibit here last March, has been sold to an Eastern woman famous for her collection of American landscape paintings.

NAVY WAR PLANE HAS SPEED OF EIGHTY MILES

Marblehead, Mass., Jan. 25.—The first real war plane ever purchased by the Navy Department was shipped from here today to the Pensacola Training Station. With a contract speed of eighty miles an hour, the new craft is the fastest aeroplane ever designed and built for aeromarine service, either here or abroad.

In all the navy seaplane must carry a load of 1,000 pounds, excluding the weight of the machine itself. The weight is made up of 380 pounds required by the department for pilot and passenger; 220 pounds specified for tools and instruments—or, in the case of war, bombs, and 400 pounds of fuel and oil, insuring a continuous flight of four hours' duration.

Preliminary trials of the machine have demonstrated its ability to climb 2,500 feet in ten minutes, with full load, the minimum required by the Navy Department. The power is supplied by a 140-horsepower engine, driving a nine-foot propeller. Two other aeroplanes of the same type will follow, in addition to the six school machines to be delivered by the company before the end of February.
